ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE IN BREEZY SESSION

Altercation Over Production of Document-The Chairman Quits. [Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, April 22.-The public accounts committee this morning broke up in disorder over an altercation between Major Sam Sharpe and Chair-FOR STOMACH AGONY man Warburton, in respect to the production of a document relating to the case under investigation, namely the rental paid by the Government for the Woods Building in Ottawa. Mr. Ernest Linton, secretary of the company, w's examined by Sharpe with reference to the amount paid to the owners of the building by the Government for electric light. The witness said that the Government paid the regular city rate, less 10 per cent, but he added that the owners of the building had a special contract with the municipal lighting plant, and the price they paid was based on an old contract both for lighting and manufacturing purposes. Major Sharpe wanted this contract produced, but objection was taken by Mr. Carvell, one of the members of the committee, on the ground that it was a private document, with which the public accounts had nothing to do. During the course of the discussion which followed, mention was made of the contract for the lease of the building. Chairman Warburton said this could be produced, and the company's Chairman Warburton said this over to Mr. Sharpe amid strong protests from Mr. Carvell and the wit-Colonel Warburton explained that the document which he had authorized to be handed over to Mr. Sharpe was the contract for the building lease, and not the lighting contract. He request-latter document. Major Sharpe declined, and began to

Carvell declared that Major Sharpe was not acting like a gentle- the hand in Zam-Buk, and each day Major Sharpe said that he would hand back the document when he got ready. Chairman Warburton-"If you do ble with her during the time the burn not return it I will leave the chair." Major Sharpe did not return it, and

THOUSANDS SADDENED BY TWAIN'S DEATH

A Great Public Memorial Service To Be Held in New York

New York, April 22. — Friends of Mark Twain announced today that arrangements are being made for a great public memorial service, at which it will be possible for thousands who knew and loved him to be present. Tributes to his life and character will be paid by a number of men prominent in public life.

Expressions of regret and tributes from men of letters, statesmen, law-yers, clergymen, scholars and businessmen of prominence, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, are more numerous and varied than have been offered upon the death of any other man of prominence in years.

Sixty Years Ago. Hannibal, Mo., April 22. Laura Frazer (Becky Thatcher), known as Twain's first sweetheart, said: "1 At present beef is wholesaling at $9 can see him in my mind's eye now as At present beef is wholesaling at $9 to $11 a cwt. Hannibal, Mo., April 22. - The news fall. Porterhouse roasts retail at 20c a pound, but there are comparatively few of them handled. They are being out for steaks. "Wing" roasts or "correr" roasts sell at 15c to 17c, and rib roasts about the same figure. Chuck roasts bring 11c to 12½c. Boiling beef, soup bones and shanks, the tormer recognized boarding-house and "soup house" fare, are now luxuries and no longer objects of contempt.

A movement has been started to bave Clemens' boyhood home purchased by the state, and State Senator McAllister said that a bill to this effect will be introduced in the next legislature.

A dispatch from Redding, Conn., says: The free public library, which the literary colony here is building, is it any wonder people are kicking and turning vegeterian by the score? the literary colony here is building, will start as a permanent monument to the town's most distinguished citizen. The building is to be known as the "Mark Twain Memorial Library."

One of His Last Acts. One of Mr. Clemens' last acts was to draw a check for $6,000 as his contribution towards the building fund. Dan Beard, Ida Tarbell, Jeanette Gilder, and Dr. W. C. Deming, whose wife is a great-grand-daughter of Nathaniel Hawthorne, have given $7,000 more, and the work of erecting a building is to begin at once. Besides his financial assistance, Mr. Clemens gave a great part of his private library to the in

A few hours before his death Mr. Clemens conversed at some with his literary executor, A Bigelow Paine, regarding his manuscripts There is a large amount of unpublished work, besides his autobiography, which is a collection of incidents and short stories of his life. According to Mr. Paine there are many short stories, several longer works, and all the odds and ends of a lifetime of literary activity. There are stories which Mark Twain began and cut short either from fatigue or lack of interest. Then there

She sustained a serious burn and her screams brought her mother quickly to the spot. "I sent to the druggist for the best remedy he had for burns," she says, ed that Major Sharpe hand back this and he sent back a box of Zam-Buk He said that there was nothing to equal it. I applied this, as it soothed the pain so quickly that the child laughed through her tears. I bound up applied Zam-Buk frequently and lib erally, until the burn was quite cured.

I would recommend all mothers to keep Zam-Buk Warburton left the chair, thus handy for emergencies of this kind." Dr. Charles A. GENERAL LAKE WILL RETURN TO ENGLAND

He Will Leave Canada in November to Place Himself at the Disposal of the War Office.

Ottawa, April 22.—The tenure of office of Gen. Sir Percy Lake, inspectorgeneral of the Canadian forces, will expire on Nov. 1, when he will return to England and place himself at the disposal of the war office. He was sent to Canada by the Imperial Government and his first term of office here expired on Nov. 1, 1908, when it was exended for two years. This extension of time was greatly appreciated by all the officers of the Canadian militia, as they esteem Sir Percy as a practical and highly efficient officer. When his term of office expired two years ago he was offered a high position in the imperial army in India, but preferred remain and complete the work he had begun in Canada, though at a

This is the tribute of a tear to George Eulas Foster, who is 63 years old, broken kicked him out of his lieutenancy in the House of Commons. Thus sadly sidewise ends a brilliant, if not a successful, career. For some years Foster has been like Noah's flood-time dove-no spot of earth to rest his foot on, save North Toronto, and now that ground shifts under him. Foster was not an immoral man-he was an unmoral one. He was a mind and a voice-a fatal combination, if not fortified with good judgment and a stiff backbone. It led him into wrong causes. When one is a master of sentences it is easy to bend words to wrong ses. Quick to grasp the essential points of a case, Foster got into the habit of covering the bad spots with his logic and loquence. If he had lived under the old Roman Empire he would have been a sophist, and would have had plenty to do making the worse appear the better reason. He could always persuade himself that a thing defendable was a thing right, and this made him more dangerous because it put the edge of conviction or is argument. Orator he was-the best of his kind in these Dominions-and his isefulness as a statesman had ceased But his rhetoric was his undoing. It ran away with him. On March 15 and Sept. 15 of every year the names of welve members of the grand council of the republic are drawn by iot and each of these nominators must designate a person worthy to be charged with the government. The twelve names are submitted to the grand council and a vote is taken on each

The names of the six candidates who have the largest number of votes are then written down in couples on three pieces of paper, which are placed in an urn. The urn is then carried to the cathedral, escorted by a guard honor, and all the members of council, headed by the regents, and after mass has been celebrated and special prayers said a boy draws from the urn one slip of paper, and the names written on it are those of the new regents, who must accept office or pay a fine of $100 and be declared traitors to their country.

On the day they assume office they tre escorted to the Palazzo Valloni, where the majordomo introduces into their presence the religious, civil and military authorities. Then the two re-gents, surrounded by the noble guards with drawn swords, proceed to the state palace, where they are received by the old regents, who join in the procession and go to the cathedral. High mass and a Te Deum are sung, and the procession returns to the palace, where speeches are made by the rector of the university and by the youngest student, who both exhort the new re-

MOTHERS, we owe it as a duty to our husbands and families to take good care of them. We all want, of course, to have our loved ones cheerful and comfortable.

Our dominant part is to give them the very best that we can make or bake. But sometimes we are tempted to save a few pennies in food and think that in so doing we are economising. But is it so? Is this the kind of economy that is wise and profitable? Is it doing our full duty to our loved ones?

Royal Household Flour

We wouldn't think of buying the lowest priced eggs in the market just for the sake of economy. We would feel that because they were cheap they would be good eggs to avoid. The low price would give us a suspicion of their freshness and quality. None of us would want to economise by buying eggs marked ten cents a dozen.

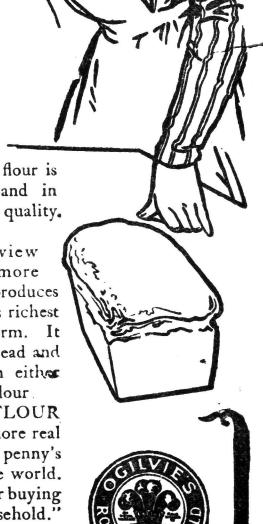

But when it comes to flour, for example, we may be tempted to buy the second best instead of the best because of the few pennies difference in price. We may think that economy in flour is different from economy in eggs. But it isn't. The principle is the same. The difference in cost between the best flour in the world and ordinary flour is so little that in justice to our responsibility as wives and mothers we can not afford to take chances.

The one safe rule in buying flour is to buy "Royal Household" and in that way make sure of the finest quality. and absolute uniformity

From every point of view Royal Household Flour is more economical than any other. It produces more loaves to the barrel. It is richest in food value. It is more uniform. It is best for Pastry as well as Bread and yields more baked product in either bread or pastry than any other flour.

ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR furnishes more nourishment, more real food value per pound and per penny's worth than any other flour in the world.

The acme of economy in flour buying is to use only "Royal Household." Best for Bread. Best for Pastry. Most uniform. Most perfect. Best and cheapest for health and happiness of the entire family.

LEASED THE GROUNDS

When it was announced that the 'ity Baseball League might disband owing to the fact that Mr. W. J. Reid had leased Tecumseh Park to Mr. F. C Buzzell for a game with the Detroit Tigers for charitable purposes, Mr. Buzzeli immediately closed a deal to 1121/2 lease the grounds for the summer. It is the intention to bring the Toronto baseball team to the city for a game, and in all probability a Marathon race or two will be put on. The baseball games in which the Tigers and the Torontos figure will be in aid of the Tuberculosis Hospital and the Aged Women's Home, every dollar over and above legitimate expenses being devoted to these charities.

Mr. Buzzell Explains. "I had no desire to injure the boys at all," said Mr. Buzzell to The Adver-"This game was to be played for the tuberculosis hospital funds, and no other purpose. FRANKING PRIVILEGE ABUSED BY MEMBERS Matter Discussed in Dominion House of Commons-Oats Under Frank.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Ont., April 22. — The abuse of the franking privilege is a subject with which the Commons deals for onday each session. This is the day. The ministers have the right of sending unstamped official mail at any time. The members and senators generally have that right during the session. The privilege is sometimes curiously stretched to matter which cannot be classed as official. However, there is Mr. T. G. Boles, secretary of the cit-no objection taken until it is discovizens' municipal league, as publicity ered that someone is sending out matter designed to influence the electors. Then the Commons talks about it.

This morning, Mr. Taylor, of New Westminster, complained that he had discovered that a weekly Liberal political letter to newspapers was being sent out under frank. He spoke for half on hour on the enormity of this. The Minister of Justice replied briefsaying that the stretching of the privilege of franking was not confined to either side of the House. He knew this, because when he was acting postmaster-general a Conservative member came to bim and asked him to go to the House postoffice and put his frank on a parcel which the postmaster refused to forward under the frank of a private member. Mr. Aylesworth said that he had sought to oblige member, but was compelled to decline when he found that the parcel was a large bag of oats.

Mayor Beattie. "At the present time we have not, and until we are in a position to offer inducements we had better remain as we are. "I do not think an office should be created for any man, and I had good reasons to suspect that such was the case in this instance. We want the best man we can get when we name of the aldermen were pledged to support him. Ald, Richter opposed him from the beginning, and voted against the position. One or two favored Mr. A. M. Hunt, secretary of the Western Fair board, but Mr. Boles had the call on the majority of the members of the

AT HAMILTON

Methodist Vocalists Scored Another Triumph in the Ambitious City.

PRAISE WAS UNSTINTED

A Very Ambitious Programme, Exceptionally Well Rendered, Said the Critics.

The choir of the First Methodist Church gave a return concert last evening at the Centenary Church, Hamilton, before a very large and appreciative audience that completely

A special train of three Pullmans, hauled by one of the new mogul engines, carried the choir and their friends, numbering about two hundred, o and made a fast run, without any

We are ready to make mittee from the Centenary choir, and good all our assertions and taken in special cars to the church, where a light lunch was served before the concert by the Ladies' Aid. The following programme was rendered in an artistic manner. Although on the programme appeared the words, "Please do not applaud," before the concert was fairly started the audience was carried away by the volume, attack and enunciation of the First Church's great choir, which excelled itself. As a speaker at the banquet, said: "That chorus, 'The Wilderness,' by Samuel Sebastian Wesley, was one of the best we have heard for years."

"The Cherubim Song," by Tschaikowsky, from the Church Russian, a very difficult anthem, unaccompanied and seldom attempted by an amateur choir, elicited very favorable com ments from the critical audience. The singing of Miss Beatrice Hunt in "Shew Me Thy Ways" (Torrente), also the obligato solo, "In Heavenly Love" (Grieg), was very fine, and received a well deserved encore. Mr. Jordan's numbers, especially "The Carneval," by Dvorak, were rendered in a manner that was well re-

After the concert a banquet was provided, at which speeches were given by Rev. J. V. Smith, Mr. W. H. Hewlett and others, on behalf of the Centenary choir, and responded to by Mr. A. D. Jordan, Dr. Eccles, Rev. Whiting, Mr. George McCormick, Mr. J. E. Magee, president, and others, on behalf of the London choir. A fine time was enjoyed by all. The singers arrived home at an early hour this morning.

Comments by Critics. Mr Thomas G. Mitcheltree: "A very ne programme extraordinarily rendered. The shading, the attack and enunciation were simply perfect, and showed very careful training. The best horus singing I have heard in years." Mr. W. H. Hewlett: "A very am-pitious programme very seldom at empted by an amateur choir, very wel rendered. Hope that we will be able to have the privilege of exchanging courtesies in the near future."
