MACHINISTS ORDERED OUT, BUT VERY FEW RESPOND

Only Sixty-five G.T.R. Men Strike at Toronto and Fourteen Out of Five Hundred at Montreal—Hamilton, Sarnia and London Men Remain at Work.

Toronto, May 8. — The Machinists' Union this morning ordered the machinists in the Grand Trunk shops to quit work at 11 o'clock. Before noon only about a score out of a total of 65 had gone out. Reports read at the office of the mechanical superintendent of the G. T. R. indicate that out of 510 machinists at Montreal, 14 went out on strike this morning. At Hamilton, Sarnia and London, important terminal points, it is reported all the men remained at work. From Bridgeburg, Allandale and Belleville, the same story has been reported to Superintendent Kennedy. At Stratford and Fort Gratiot and Port Huron the shops have been closed, and the men did not get a chance to declare themselves. At Palmerston all the men remained at work. At the time of writing it appears evident that less than 50 men on the whole system have struck. Superintendent Kennedy said this afternoon that the affair has proved to be a gigantic fizzle. He was sorry for the men who had gone out, as the facts had probably been misrepresented to them. He hoped that they would return to work at once.

The Situation Here.

A rumor prevailed at noon today that the machinists employed in this city had gone out on strike, but on investigation it was found that the men were still working.

Mr. W. Kennedy, mechanical superintendent of the Grand Trunk for Toronto and Western Ontario, returned to Toronto Sunday from Stratford and Windsor. When seen last night respecting the crisis arising out of the differences between the company and its machinists, Mr. Kennedy said:

"I have received no information concerning the trouble other than the accounts that have appeared in the papers. I may say also that I have had no communication whatever from the men, though, of course, I was informed on my arrival that representatives of the men had called to see me during my absence. I will be in my office at 9:30 Monday morning and will then be available to anyone who may have business with me."

Mr. Kennedy declined to express an opinion or to hint at his probable course of action.

The second vice-president of the International Association of Machinists, in an interview with a reporter some days ago, asserted that they would exhaust every effort to settle the trouble without a strike. He has since asserted that they have approached the company for the last time. The turn of events now leaves a faint hope that something might have been accomplished this morning should a meeting between Mr. Kennedy and the representatives of the men have taken place.

LASHED TO THE MAST

Terrible Suffering of Steamer Crew on Lake Erie.

Detroit, Mich., May 8.—After spending a night of terrible suffering, clinging to the masts of the sunken steamer J. E. Mills, which went down Thursday night in Lake Erie, off Middle Sister Islands, Captain Lanaway and his crew of five men were landed Saturday at Amherstburg, Ont.

The Mills, which was an old steamer, left Sandusky Thursday afternoon with a cargo of coal. Early in the evening she sprung a leak, and went down like a shot in 30 feet of water. The crew lashed themselves by their wrists to the masts of the steamer. All night they hung there, suffering intensely from cold, with their wrists and hands swelling from the strain, until rescued Friday morning by the steamer Urania.

DOES THE KAISER DESIRE A WAR?

European Statesmen Are Now Worrying Over Possibility.

ENGLAND STRONG WITH FRANCE

London Believes That the German Emperor Is Playing Deep Game for Big Stake.

London, May 8.—The danger to European peace involved in the general attitude of Germany continues to cause serious anxiety to the governments of all the great powers. The questions which the diplomatic world is considering are: Is the Kaiser deliberately seeking a quarrel, or has he a definite object in view which he is determined to accomplish even at the cost of war? In other words, is the dispute in regard to Morocco a mere pretext, or is Germany seriously determined to prevent the execution of the real purpose of the Moroccan agreement? That purpose is virtually to put Morocco in French control, as completely as Egypt is in English.

Germany believes that the proposals which the French embassy at Fez will make to the Sultan provide a practical protectorate. It may safely be asserted that Germany is prepared to resist this development to the point of war, if necessary. France will not persist in her designs at present in the face of such consequences. She has never publicly avowed such a purpose, and, therefore, no loss of prestige is involved in its temporary abandonment. Germany will have succeeded in saving Moroccan independence for the time being, but it is not a victory whereof she can boast, because France has steadily declared that her policy included both the open door and the independence of the Sultan.

There are many in this country and in other parts of the world who will not regret this check to French designs to acquire the northwest corner of Africa, and if this is the Kaiser's sole purpose the disinterested portion of the world will not criticise him severely. There are few, however, in diplomatic circles, who credit him with such simple, almost altruistic designs. His attitude, and especially the attitude of the inspired German press, is bitterly antagonistic, even more against England than against France.

It is no less than the truth to admit that English opinion, though not so freely expressed, sincerely reciprocates German sentiment. If a similar wave of anti-German anger should sweep over France there could be only one result. Nobody knows this better than Emperor William, and the suspicion that he is willing that such a situation should arise, if not tacitly inciting it, is in the minds of many public men at the present moment.

War, if it should come, would almost certainly see France and England in the same camp. It is generally recognized that Emperor William is playing a deep game for some great stake. Nobody can say as yet with confidence what that stake is. The next development will perhaps be disclosed in Chancellor Von Buelow's speech in the Reichstag next Wednesday or by the Kaiser himself at Gravelotte on the following day.

The financial world continues to be seriously affected by the political crisis. The fall of consols below 90, when business conditions were most favorable, is of serious significance. London financiers are agreeably surprised at the comparative steadiness of the Paris bourse. Leading bankers today express the fear that there is a basis of truth for the report of M. Delcasse's impending retirement, and the consequent serious weakness of the French Government. None professed to understand the attitude of the Kaiser, whose capacity for mischief has filld them with apprehension.

France Strictly Neutral, But Agents Show Bias

Fail to Carry Out the Instructions Sent From Paris.

Paris, May 8. — Dr. Motono (the Japanese Minister to France), went to the foreign office yesterday evening, where he had an extended interview with Foreign Minister Delcasse. The nature of their interview was not disclosed, but it is understood to be due to Japan's increasing impatience regarding the alleged breaches of neutrality. The feeling prevails here that the situation is gradually assuming much tension. Reports are circulated that the positive instructions of the French officials here receive perfunctory execution on the part of their subordinates in Indo-China, owing to the individual sympathy existing between the civil and naval French and Russian authorities.

A semi-official note issued this afternoon says: "Contrary to the allegation contained in a dispatch from Hong Kong to a foreign agency, not only has the French Government not disregarded the rules of neutrality, but after sending its civil and military agents very precise instruction for the enforcement of those rules, the Government has unremittingly seen to their extension."

No Charges Say France.

Paris, May 8. — The critical tone of the British press concerning France's alleged breach of neutrality in Indo-China, brought out an emphatic general statement today from the foreign office that the accusations are unfounded. An official said: "It is universally efficient. Therefore, if various specific breaches of neutrality really existed the Japanese Government would have been aware and presented specific charges to the French Government. So far, Japan's official action has been confined to requests to France to exercise stricter neutrality. She has not made any specific charges, nor have any specific acts of violation of neutrality yet been brought to our attention. The Japanese Government asked in an amicable spirit, that we observe neutrality, and we answered that we had done, and are doing everything possible to that end. The reports to the contrary, we believe to be misrepresentations."

Nervous on Chang.

London, May 8. — Vague fears of possible complications over French neutrality in the Far East affected the tone at opening of the stock exchange today. The markets were inclined to flatness all around. Paris, however, showed an inclination to be higher. The uncertainty concerning the American market and the possibility of financial difficulties here over American speculative account, tended to increase the feeling of nervousness.

LINEVITCH FALLING BACK AS OYAMA PRESSES NORTH

The Japanese Marshal to Interpose Big Force Between Russians and Vladivostock—Nebogatoff's Division Reported as Passing Saigon En Route to Meet Rojestvensky.

St. Petersburg, May 8, 1:15 p.m. — Interest is once more directed to Manchuria, the news from the front indicating that Field Marshal Oyama is pressing Gen. Linevitch's advance posts, east and west of the railroad, with considerable force, as if about to undertake a general offensive movement. The Russians are offering slight resistance and are falling back upon their first line of defense. The Russian advance post covers a front of about 100 miles, extending from Singtmantsu, on the Liao River, in a southeasterly direction across the railroad above Changtu to the Mandarin road (leading to Kirin), to Kamal Pass, about 70 miles due east of Tie Pass. The Russian cavalry protected both wings, small bodies being probably beyond the Liao River in Mongolia, to guard against a surprise turning movement in that direction. Experts believe, however, that Oyama's purpose is to thrust in from the east, turn Kirin, and interpose himself between Harbin and Vladivostock, preparatory to the investment of the latter place.

Linevitch's dispositions seem made especially to meet such a plan. He would not give battle along his present line, but would gradually retire and draw in his forces, as Oyama's strategy developed, to the main Russian positions, which extend due east and west from Kirin, through Kuanchangtsu to Huataihsen. A considerable force of troops is also reported to be due east of Kirin, as far south as the Tumen River, to contest the Japanese advance northeastward toward Vladivostock.

It is not regarded as certain that the Japanese advance will really be serious. Oyama is known to have received large reinforcements, which have filled up the Japanese ranks, and he brought immense quantities of supplies after the battle of Mukden, both by way of Sinmintin and over the reconstructed Manchurian Railroad. But at the war office here there is a difference of opinion as to whether Oyama is yet ready, and, it is added, that if he is in earnest, probably almost a fortnight will elapse before the issue is decided, the preliminaries of each of the battles of the present war, in view of the fact that the armies cover such a large area, having always been long and tedious. Up to yesterday, the Russian advance posts had generally retired about 18 miles. If Oyama's offensive is pressed home, a climax should be reached at about the time the sea fight between Admiral Rojestvensky and Admiral Togo is anticipated. Gen. Linevitch's headquarters are at Gunshu Pass.

Nebogatoff Passes Saigon.

Hong Kong, May 8. — A special dispatch from Saigon, Cochin China, reports that Rear-Admiral Nebogatoff's division has passed Saigon. A Russian cruiser was off Hong-Kohe Bay (a short distance north of Kamranh Bay), May 5, when the British steamer Carter House, which arrived today, passed that point. The latter also noticed a collier leaving the bay and steaming east, but the main Russian squadron was not seen. The British steamer Angola, from Muroran (Japan), was stopped by a Japanese cruiser in the Straits of Korea, after being questioned about her cargo and destination, she was allowed to proceed.

The Russian Sick.

Gunshu, Manchuria, May 8.—In view of the exaggerated reports of sickness in the Russian armies published abroad, the Associated Press is authorized to give the following figures furnished from headquarters of the number of sick in the entire region from Baikal east to Vladivostock:

In Hospitals—Wounded, 769 officers and 14,904 soldiers; sick, 1,157 officers and 13,918 soldiers.

In Sanitary Trains—Wounded, 35 officers and 774 soldiers; sick, 45 officers and 772 soldiers.

In Hospitals for Convalescents — Wounded, 216; sick 332.

Among the sick are the following cases: Contagious dysentery, 29; typhus, 218; grippe, 204; fever, 92, anthrax, 39; scurvy, 39; smallpox, 30; catalepsy, 16 diarrhea, 449; unspecified, 129.

Hospital Ship Arrives.

Saigon, French Cochin China May 8. —The Russian hospital ship Kostroma arrived here today which indicated the approach of the fourth division of the Russian second Pacific squadron, commanded by Vice-Admiral Nebogatoff. Sixteen freight laden steamers are off Cape St. James, near here. The main Russian squadron is said to be off the coast of Annam.

Tokio, May 8. — A member of he Chamber of Commerce suggests organized commercial retaliation on France on account of the hospitality shown the Russian second Pacific squadron.

MARCHING ON LONDON

English Counterpart of Coxey Starts for the Metropolis.

London, May 8.—A hundred picked men from the striking army of boot workers of Northamptonshire, accompanied by a band of music, started on foot today for London. It is anticipated that their ranks will be swelled by unemployed persons at each stopping place, and by the time the city is reached, it is expected that the strikers' forces will be of formidable proportions.

HUMAN SACRIFICE IN OLD MEXICO

To Atone for Sins of Parishioners Priest Burns Himself at Altar.

Houston, Tex., May 8.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Guadalajara, Mexico, recounts a case of religious fanaticism almost unequaled. In atonement for the sins of his parishioners, Apolinio Osorio, the priest at Cuale, offered himself in sacrifice at the altar of his sanctuary.

After having summoned the members of his congregation to the cathedral, he stood before them, and with thousands watching, applied a flaming torch to his vestments, saturated with oil. Standing in a pillar of fire, he threatened with the wrath of God any who might approach, and finally sank to the stone flagging, where his body was burned to a heap of ashes. Even the bones crumbled, and, according to the details as given, the dust was dissipated in a sudden gust of wind that swept through the edifice.

BRITISH ELECTIONS

General Election Within Five Weeks Says Weekly Dispatch.

New York, May 8.—The Sun publishes the following cable from London: The Weekly Dispatch says there is excellent authority for the statement that there will be a general election five weeks hence.

Roosevelt Going Home.

Glenwood Springs, Col., May 8. — President Roosevelt started on his return trip to Washington this morning. His special train left here at 5 a.m., and is due in Denver at 5:30 p.m.

Roblin Has Pneumonia.

Winnipeg, May 8.—Premier Roblin is seriously ill here with acute pneumonia.

A Danish immigrant named Anderson, friendless and despondent, committed suicide by hanging himself beside the C. P. R. track west of the city yesterday. He tied a piece of wire around his neck.

ATTACKED GERMAN COLUMN

Hereros Defeated in Hot Battle in Southwest Africa.

Berlin, May 8.—A force of Hereros on April 27 fell upon a German column under the command of Capt. Winterfeldt in the mountains east of Gananis, German Southwest Africa, and in a lively fight which followed sixteen Germants were killed or wounded. The natives were beaten off.

STEAMER SUNK IN COLLISION

One Life Lost in an Accident Off Martha's Vineyard.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., May 8.—The steamer Arkansas, Capt. Rood, of the Joy Line, was sunk in a collision with the barge Glendower, 1½ miles southeast of Pollock Rip lightship last night. One woman passenger was lost.

The survivors reached this port in the lifeboats of the steamer. The Glendower was in tow of the Reading Railroad tug, bound east from Philadelphia. The Arkansas sank almost immediately after the collision, but it is said that the tow kept on. Sixty-five persons have been landed here.

The Arkansas was an ocean passenger steamer running between New York and Boston.

MISS GREENAWAY DYING

Ex-Premier of Manitoba Called to the Bedside at Exeter.

Ottawa, May 8. — Premier Greenway has got a telegram that his sister is dying at Exeter, and Mr. Greenway will take the first train for Exeter.

MACLEAN IN A HURRY

Brings Up Question of North Oxford In House Today.

Ottawa, May 8.—W. F. Maclean will bring up in the House of Commons today the question of the vacancy in North Oxford, and the one which would be created in London by the promotion of Mr. Hyman to the ministry of public works. Most people will think that Maclean is in a great hurry.

ANOTHER LINER IN ICE

C. P. R. Steamer Lake Champlain Caught Near Cape Ray.

North Sydney, C. B., May 7. — Word was brought here by the steamship Bruce, which arrived today, that the Canadian Pacific Railroad steamship Lake Champlain,, bound from Liverpool for Montreal, is fast in the ice 45 miles south of Cape Ray, Nfld. The Lake Champlain has on board 1,500 passengers.

MARQUETTE WILL HELP

In Every Way to Have Steel Plant Located in Sarnia.

Sarnia, May 8. — Sarnia is hopeful of securing the $10,000,000 steel plant, which the United States Steel Company is to locate at some point in Canada. The town was visited some time ago by a number of the officials of the Steel Company. Practically every requirement they made had been met. A site of 500 acres has been provided by the town on the river. The Pere Marquette, which runs close to the river at that point, will have to be set back, but Mayor Barr is assured that the railway will assist in every reasonable way. The Pere Marquette is planning an expenditure of $90,000 in improving its terminal yards here.

QUINN CASE IS TO BE APPEALED

Conviction for Perjury Will Be Carried to Higher Court at Early Date.

The spring assizes, which are just closing, and in which so many important cases have come up, have given rise to more than the usual amount of "aftermath."

Those interested in the Martin Quinn case say that it is far from being finished. Mr. John McEvoy, counsel for the defense will carry the case to the court of appeal for Ontario as soon as possible. The court sits four times a year, and the session which starts in April is now in progress. If the case can be got into shape before the court closes it will be brought up at the present session, which will mean within a few days. Mr. Justice Meredith granted a reserve case, while refusing to enlarge the trial. The defense claims that there was every reason for postponement.

Hall and Delarey, the two Indian witnesses in the Proctor case, whom the crown has had arrested for perjury, will in all probability appear before Police Magistrate Love tomorrow to answer to the charge. Mr. E. W. M. Flock will appear for the defense. If the prisoners elect trial by jury, they will have to remain in jail at least until the June sessions of the peace, whereas if they elect summary trial, they can have their case disposed of by the magistrate at an early date. It is claimed by the defense that the jury that acquitted Robert Proctor accepted the testimony of the two Indians in doing so.

There is scarcely any doubt, moreover, that the Stevenson and Boyd case will come before the court of appeal. Whether this will be at the session now being held in Toronto or not has not yet been determined by counsel for the defense. As is well known, criminal cases take precedence over all others in the court of appeals, and if appeals in either the Stevenson and Boyd or the Quinn cases are entered at the present court, they will be given consideration immediately. The liberty of subjects must be considered before any civil suits which might be in progress before the court of appeals.

Victorian Free of the Ice.

Montreal, May 7. — The Allans here have heard from the turbiner Victorian, via Marconi wireless to Cape Ray. The steamer at 10:30 last night was north of that point, going only two and a half miles an hour, owing to the heavy ice. The time of her reaching Montreal depends entirely upon the extent of the ice floes, but the expectation is that she will be here early on Monday morning.

THE WEATHER.

A $5,000 VERDICT FOR MRS. NAVIN

L. E. and D. R. R. Must Pay That Amount for Death of G. T. R. Yardmaster.

The widow and three children of the late Joseph Navin, who was killed in the G. T. R. yards here on Dec. 24 last, were awarded $5,000 damages against the L. E. and D. R. R. Company by a jury in the assize court today. The money was apportioned by the jury in such a manner that the eldest of Navin's family gets the least and the youngest the largest amount of damages. The widow was awarded $1,000, and the three children $1,200, $1,300 and $1,500, the last-mentioned sum going to the youngest child.

These damages were the largest awarded in the assize court just closing, and, indeed, the largest that have been given by a Middlesex jury for some time. The jury was out about two hours.

The court asked the jury to answer the following questions: Was the defendant company, in and through its servants, guilty of any negligence, which caused the death of Navin? Was Navin himself guilty of any contributory negligence? Was the cause of the accident attributable to anyone at all?

All these questions were answered in favor of the plaintiffs, the London and Western Trusts Company, who were acting for the widow and children. Navin, it will be remembered was run over by a couple of cars which were shunted by a string of "flying" cars at one end, while Navin was in the act of crossing over the tracks at the other end. The jury's decision means that in their opinion those in charge of the shunting operations did not give any adequate warning for anyone who might be crossing the track ahead. The verdict may also be taken as condemning the practice of making "flying" shunts.

Gibbons & Harper for the plaintiffs, J. H. Coburn for the defendants.

DOESN'T TRUST U. S.

New Way of Sending Conscience Money Through the Mails.

New York, May 8. — A conscience-stricken smuggler has adopted a unique method to pay the duties on some goods smuggled into this country from Canada. Apparently he does not trust either the collector of the port of New York or Secretary Shaw with his conscience money. Collector Stranahan yesterday received the lower halves of five bills, two of the denomination of $10, two of $5 and one of $100. The portions of the bills were accompanied by the following letter:

To the Honorable Collector of the Port, New York:

Sir,—Please forward the inclosed parts of bills to the secretary of the treasury, which I have requested him to treat as duties and interest thereon on goods brought from Canada. I choose this method for safety in transmission. Very respectfully, ——.

No name was signed to the letter.

JAMMED IN ELEVATOR

Wrenched Himself Free But Later Succumbs to Injuries.

Toronto, May 8. — James H. Bushby, of 48 Smith street, a night watchman for Robert Clarke & Co., met a terrible death this morning between 1 and 2 o'clock, when he got his leg jammed between the elevator and the floor, and it was almost severed. After some time he was able to wrench himself free, and leaving his leg behind, he crawled to a window fifteen feet away, from where he attracted the attention of a policeman. He was immediately removed to the Emergency Hospital, but he had lost so much blood from his terrible injuries that it was seen his case was hopeless. He died this morning at 10 o'clock. He leaves a wife and two children. He was 44 years of age.

Russ Printers Win.

St. Petersburg, May 8. — The printers, who struck Sunday, April 23, have won a victory in their demand for the observance of Sundays and holidays by abstention from work, only the Novoe Vremya appearing this morning.

ENGLISH-BUILT BOAT WILL WIN

So Say the Sunbeam's Crew of Race Across the Atlantic.

New York, May 8. — The Times says: There were hundreds of curious visitors to see Lord Brassey's Sunbeam, the latest arrival for the ocean yacht race across the Atlantic, as she lay in dockyard in South Brooklyn yesterday. The arrival of the veteran English yachtsman's auxiliary seemed to arouse a new interest in the international event.

The Sunbeam was berthed next to the Hamburg, and the crews of the two yachts fraternized freely. The Englishmen have a high regard for the German schooner, and were free in their opinion that she would win the race. "What chance have we against a racer of that type? I tell you American yachtsmen are figuring wrong if they're ignoring her. She'll outfoot anything in the race with conditions her way, and make new figures, you mark my words. We're only in the race to encourage the sport, and do not expect to win. But we'll make a creditable showing. England's representatives may not finish first, but an English-built boat will. You take my tip."

This was the line that most of the Sunbeam's crew took. They seemed to feel the same sportsmanlike spirit that actuated Lord Brassey in entering, and they exuded good feelings. They were the center of an admiring crowd a good part of the day. The yacht will be placed in drydock today. By Thursday she will be ready to leave the yard and seek anchorage outside with daily spins.

The Hamburg, which lay beside her, will be docked tomorrow, for a trifling overhauling, but it is expected will leave the yard Wednesay ready for the race.

LEADERS CHARGED WITH BLACKMAIL

Chicago's Mayor Starts Inquiries Into the Strike Situation.

Chicago, May 8. — Today, the thirty-first day of the strike, found both sides prepared to continue the struggle. The committee appointed by Mayor Dunne to investigate charges of graft and blackmail on the part of union leaders, and of efforts to incite trouble on the part of the employers, has made detailed plans for beginning the inquiry. The merchants have made plans for more strenuous efforts to bring the recalcitrant team-owners into line, and the Federation of Labor, on the other hand, has resolved to seek the indictment of the officials of the Employers' Association for this effort, calling it conspiracy. The union leaders declare they will submit volumes of testimony bearing on the charges that the employers have fostered the war by aiming to extend the strike through a score of trades.

On the other hand, the employers are not enthusiastic over the project, seeing no good that is likely to come out of it, though Chairman Taylor was assured the merchants would do nothing to block the inquiry.

FATAL STREET FIGHT

Two Chicago Brothers Fatally Stabbed in Fracas.

Chicago, May 8. — Two brothers, John and Richard Freun, were fatally injured today in a street fight with a colored man. Both of the men were stabbed in the abdomen. Their assailants, whose identity is unknown, escaped. The police believe he is a stranger in Chicago, and are working on the theory that he may be a strike-breaker.

MARTIANS ARE LIGHTWEIGHTS SAYS CAMILLE FLAMMARION

The Great French Astronomer Believes the Planet To Be Inhabited.

Paris, May 8. — M. Camille Flammarion, the eminent French astronomer, and one of the most remarkable men in France, has placed himself squarely on record as believer in an inhabited Mars.

"I have been studying that planet closely for thirty years," said the astronomer in answer to a question, "and I have prepared a regular map of it with all of its canals. I think I am more interested in this than anything, for one reason, that I am certain that it is inhabited, and probably by people much more advanced than we are.

"A thing which is particularly interesting to us in the Juvissy University which I founded, is that we can watch the snow melting at the poles in the spring, and in fact, they nearly disappear in the summer. This, mind you, in spite of the fact that the year in Mars is twice as long as ours, that is to say, it really consists of 730 days, so that naturally the winter is longer.

"With regard to the inhabitants, I think they are very light in weight. For instance, a man who weighs 140 pounds on the earth, if he could be suddenly transported to Mars, would weigh only 52 pounds.

"The public at large does not really know the precision of some of our astronomical observations. Thus we know the length of the day in Mars by diurnal rotation to the hundredth part of a second, and from observations, which have now extended over 100 years, we find the length of the day of the planet is 24 hours, 37 minutes, 22 seconds.

"The climate of the Martians is very mild. There are no gales, while the atmosphere is very light, with scarcely any clouds, hence the inhabitants enjoy fine weather, the climate being dry and clear. We know the globe of Mars perfectly; in fact, far better than the earth."

MR. CHAMBERLAIN IN COLLAPSE; CANCELS ALL ENGAGEMENTS

Struggles Through Speech With Aid of Wife and Later Is Prostrated.

New York, May 8.—The Sun publishes the following cable from London: It may be remembered that the Sun some time ago announced the fact that Joseph Chamberlain had a slight stroke in Egypt, which necessitated long periods of abstention from work, much against the former Colonial Secretary's will.

He has apparently recently transgressed the limits of his strength, for after his speech at Birmingham Saturday night he was in a state of prostration, and yesterday was obliged to cancel all his engagements.

It was noticeable during his speech Saturday night that there was no fire or energy in his delivery, and he constantly lost the thread of his argument. He commenced sentences which he finished tamely or left unfinished. Many times he had to be prompted by his wife, who, as has often been noticed, seemed to be thoroughly cognizant of the contents of his notes and frequently gave him the word which he could not hit upon. Mr. Chamberlain's appearance last night caused deep concern to his personal friends.

Birmingham, Eng., May 7. — Joseph Chamberlain is suffering from a severe chill, and was too indisposed to attend the reopening ceremony at Queen's College here this afternoon. Ebenezer Parks, member of Parliamnt for the central division of Birmingham, announced, however, that Mr. Chamberlain's illness was only temporary, and that the will soon be about again in his usual health.

Navigation Open.

Montreal, May 7.—Navigation at the port of Montreal opened in earnest between Friday night and Sunday night, with the arrival of fourteen vessels. The ocean liners all reported difficulty with the ice in the gulf, and other steamers are still being detained there. It was generally thought that the ice would not last much longer in any large quantity.

SMALL AUDIENCES; SHOW WAS GOOD

"Babes in Toyland" at the Grand, Given by a Splendid Company.

"Babes in Toyland," the musical extravaganza, which had such a tremendous run in New York, drew rather small audiences at the Grand Saturday afternoon and evening, but the majority of those who were present were greatly pleased with the production. From a scenic standpoint, "Babes in Toyland" is unique, and probably knows no superior. Its music, too—that is, what there is of it—is of a rather high order, and though the solos are very few, they are of a high-class caliber. There is absolutely no plot to the piece. It is merely an attempt at working together all the mythical characters of childhood's story-book days. The effect is charming, for who does not delight in anything which will bring one back to the days when "Little Bo-Peep" and "Jack and Jill," and "Little Red Ridinghood" were real characters—when all the world was ahead and there was no past to ponder over.

The leading role is taken by Miss Mabel Barrison, as Jane. She is a Toronto girl, and the story goes that she has a four years' contract with Hamlin & Mitchell for $40,000, or $10,000 a year. This is said to be real, not stage, money. At all events, Miss Harrison is clever, and to her belongs a great deal of credit for the success of the piece. Miss Bessie Wynn, possessed of rare personal attractions, and with a very sweet voice, also adds to the pleasures of the performance by her very acceptable rendition of "Toyland," a song with an appealing sentiment and a very catchy air.

Mr. Charles Guyer, the well-known vaudeville start, appeared as the apprentice to the old toymaker, and he succeeded in making a great deal of fun. But the whole cast might be gone over and named for especial honors, for they were all capable. As a whole, "Babes in Toyland" proved a very welcome visitor, and it will no doutb be greeted by larger audiences if it again plays at the Grand.

TONIGHT AT THE GRAND.

"A Friend of the Family," which will be presented at the Grand tonight, is a comedy full of complicated situations. No farce, no matter how clever, would prove a pleasing evening's entertainment were it not given in the proper spirit, and much of the success of "A Friend of the Family" is due to the manner in which it is enacted. The lines are bright, sparkling and witty, and, as the title implies, arise through domestic difficulties. If you are married, don't miss it, and if you are contemplating matrimony, you can't afford to miss it. "A Friend of the Family" is absolutely pure and clean, without a trace of vulgarity, and forces its auditors to laugh continuously.

STUDY IN ART.

For the amusement of Vaudeville patrons this week, Manager Bennett has secured the living art studies presented by Madame Henriette de Serris and her fifteen models. To every artist and lover of the beautiful, this is an act which will particularly appeal. It was brought to this country by Mme. de Serris, who is a French artist and critic. She personally arranged the act, and everything is done under her direct supervision.

For instance, the replica of an old bronze group is given those greenish-brown tints that are always found in old brasses. In the same way, ancient marble carvings are given just the stains and the peculiar colors caused by their great age. From the fact that this act is of such an artistic nature, one must not gather, however, that it would appeal only to the artist. The expense of securing this act is necessarily large, but the Vaudeville management feel justified in encouraging anything, no matter how expensive, if it promises to please and give enjoyment to their patrons. In addition to the above the following well-known artists will appear: The Ozars, comedy jugglers; Morton and Russell, lightning change artists, making eighteen complete changes of costume; the celebrated Evans family, singers, dancers, and comedians, introducing Mrs. Evans' famous character impersonations; Frank and Emerson, novelty bone soloists; the Millard brothers, sensational trick bicycle riders; and the Kinetograph with new subjects

MINSTRELS AT THE GRAND.

Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels carry a larger and better company than ever, composed almost entirely of new people, giving an entire change of programme with a number of new and noval specialties. The date of their appearance here is Thursday evening next at popular prices.

"THE EARL OF PAWTUCKET."

The success of "The Earl of Pawtucket," which will be seen at the Grand on Friday evening next, with Mr. Lawrence D'Orsay and the same cast that appeared with him in New York, seems to smash to smithereens the venerable tradition that a play demands action. The first act is an hour long, and the utmost extent of the action is the entrance and exit of the characters and their sitting down and jumping up from the table. There is literally nothing but dialogue in it, and the wonderful thing is that the audience forgets it till the act is over.

WARD & VOKES.

Ward & Vokes, with a new edition of "A Pair of Pinks," will hold forth at the Grand on Saturday. "A Pair of Pinks" effervesces with pretty girls, bright, catchy music and pretty scenery. Many new and spectacular ensembles are shown, and taken as a whole it promises to be one of those shows that even pessimists delight to call good and free from tireless moments.

DECEMBER WEDS JUNE

Millionaire Promoter of Montreal Weds Telephone Girl.

New York, May 8. — The Herald this morning says: In the chapel of St. Cecilia's Church, Brooklyn, were married E. R. Whitney, a wealthy promoter, of Montreal, and Miss Annie Bennett, formerly a telephone operator at the Grand Union Hotel. The bridegroom is 70 years old. The bride gives her age as 23.

The ceremony was witnessed by a few close relations of both families. The bridesmaid was Miss Bennett's chum, Miss Ida Schmidt, until recently a telephone operator at the Park Avenue Hotel. The ceremony was performed by Father McGoldrick, pastor of St. Cecilia's. Both bride and bridesmaid wore gowns of cream-colored crepe de chene, trimmed with white lace.

The romance of the Canadian and his bride has been told at length before. When the engagement was announced Mr. Whitney gave his fiancee a sum of money, and last week he added more for her trousseau. The bridesmaid was also remembered with gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney after the honeymoon at Atlantic City will take a trip to Europe.

TESTED BY TIME.—In his justly-celebrated Pills Dr. Parmelee has given to the world one of the most unique medicines offered to the public in late years. Prepared to meet the want for a pill which could be taken without nausea, and that would purge without pain, it has met all requirements in that direction, and it is in general use not only because of these two qualities, but because it is known to possess alterative and curative powers which place it in the front rank of medicines.

ERRORS COST THE WABASH MILLIONS

Failed to Buy Steel Cars Before Advance.

CAUSED RAMSAY TO QUIT?

Gigantic "Squeeze" by Which Gould Road Is Out Several Million Dollars.

Pittsburg, May 6. — It was disclosed Thursday that the blunders of some one outside the directorate of the Baltimore and Ohio has cost the road almost $3,000,000 on an order for cars, and a similar blunder in the Wabash—by President Ramsey, it is reported—cost that road about $750,000. The placing of orders for cars costing $12,000,000 by the Baltimore and Ohio brought out the fact of a "squeeze."

The board of directors of the Baltimore and Ohio last November authorized the purchase of 11,000 cars. Instead of this order being placed at once by those whose duty it was to do so, orders were placed for only 1,000 steel cars.

It was the impression in some quarters that the price of steel cars then would go down, but instead it has risen steadily until they are today selling at almost $300 a car more than last November, when the purchase of a great number was authorized. The Baltimore and Ohio virtually has been forced to place its orders at the top of the market.

In the same way the Wabash, having authorized the purchase of 2,500 steel cars, has lost a lot of money. It is understood that when the board of directors some six months ago authorized the purchase of 2,500 steel cars, President Ramsey held off for lower prices. Now the order has been at almost $750,000 more than they would have cost six months ago. This, it is said in Pittsburg, has had much to do with the breaking off of relations between Mr. Ramsay and George Gould.

Joseph Ramsay, jun., who is attending the International Railway Congress, said:

"At the next meeting of the Gould lines, to be held in New York in October, I will resign the presidency of the Wabash and sever all connections with the Gould interests. I have fully decided upon this course."

It is understood that the olive branch was extended to President Ramsay at the meeting of the directors of the Wabash and other Gould lines in New York last week, and that Mr. Ramsay had thought seriously of continuing with the company. But since he has been in Washington he has had another conference with Mr. Gould and has decided to sever his connection.

He has insisted that he should be relieved of the duties connected with the presidency at once, and while his name will remain in the official guide as the president until the next meeting of the directors he will take no part in the management of the property.

Mr. Ramsay has also declined an invitation to go abroad with Mr. Gould and will take the trip with his family instead. The relations between Mr. Ramsay and Mr. Gould are of the most friendly nature, however.

"I have absolutely no plans for the future," said Mr. Ramsay, in stating his intention of leaving the Wabash, "other than to look after my private interests, which have been neglected while I have been attending to my railroad duties. I have received some offers of a very flattering character, but have replied that I intended to take a rest for six months or a year. I have been in the harness for 35 years continuously."

HOLLOWAY'S Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, root and branch. Who, then, would endure them with such a cheap and effectual remedy within reach?

The corporation of Norwich, England, has reduced the cost of its electric light service about 10 per cent. and advertises in the local newspapers to wire premises free of initial cost to the consumer.

A SMALL PILL, BUT POWERFUL.—They that judge of the powers of a pill by its size, would consider Parmelee's Vegetable Pills to be lacking. It is a little wonder among pills. What it lacks in size it makes up in potency. The remedies which it carries are put up in these small doses, because they are so powerful that only small doses are required. The full strength of the extracts is secured in this form, and do their work thoroughly.

M. C. R. ANNUAL REPORT

Net Revenue $872,774 81, Two Two Per Cent Dividends Being Paid.

Toledo, May 6. — The annual meeting of the Michigan Central was held in Detroit yesterday. The directors were re-elected with the exception of Frederick S. Winton, of Chicago, who is succeeded by George F. Baker, of New York, while the vacancy caused by the death of E. B. Worcester was filled by the election of William K. Vanderbilt, jun. Mr. Baker was also elected director of the Lake Shore this week, and it is said to represent the Rockefeller interests. It is thought the officers of the company will remain unchanged.

The annual report of the Michigan Central shows its capital stock to be $18,738,000. The railroad owns 1,653 miles of main track, 395 miles of second track, and 1,147 miles of side track, in all 3,195 miles.

The earnings were $21,492,944 58, a decrease from the previous year of $1,059,256 72. The earnings from freight were $15,276,011 67, and from passengers $4,818,763 54. The expenses of the road, including taxes, amounted to $18,152,667 62, showing a decrease from last year of $709,652 71.

The net earnings are given as $3,340,276 96, from which amount there was expended in interest and rentals the sum of $2,830,973 33.

The net revenue from traffic and investments is given as $872,774 81, and from this amount two semi-annual dividends of 2 per cent were paid, a total of $749,520.

The total miles run by the locomotives of the Michigan Central last year was 16,632,599. This was accomplished by 461 engines, an average of 42,587 apiece.

HITCHCOCK WEDS

Popular Comedian Marries Miss Zabelle, Leading Lady.

St. Louis, Mo., May 7. — Flora Zabelle, leading woman of the "Yankee Consul" Company, playing here, and Raymond Hitchcock, comedian of the same organization, were married this afternoon in the Planters' hotel. The Rev. Dr. M. M. Mangasarian, of Chicago, father of the bride, was the officiating clergyman.

The wedding surprised all the members of the company, for, though the couple had been engaged for months, they had given a pledge to Manager Arthur Clark that they would not wed until the close of the theatrical season. Dr. Mangasarian, however, upset all the plans. Without warning, he appeared this morning to bid his daughter good-by before he departed on a tour of Europe.

Something was said about the wedding and Mr. Hitchcock suggested that the father would like to be present when the ceremony was performed. The bride to be was willing and Mr. Hitchcock hastened to procure the necessary legal document, while Miss Zebelle went in search of a bridesmaid.

Miss McNeel, who takes the part of the sleepy barmaid in the cast, was pressed into service as bridesmaid and witness, and the ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock, no other persons being present.

Manager Clark was surprised, but there was nothing to do but make the best of the situation. After the performance tonight all the members of the company, including the manager, were guests at a wedding supper at the Planters'. The wedding tour will consist of a journey with the company from St. Louis to New York.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE

Four-Year-Old Girl of Cowansville Cannot Be Found.

Montreal May 7. — The neighborhood of Cowansville, Sweetsburg and Durham is in a state of alarm over the mysterious disappearance of Elizabeth, the 4-year-old daughter of Charles Tipney, a young farmer of Sweetsburg. On Tuesday evening the little girl, who was on a visit at the house of her grandfather, Esdras Julien, was taken by her two uncles to the end of the farm, where they went to protect the fence that was threatened by burning brush in the vicinity. Pierre Julien relates that the road was so muddy and swampy he had to take the child on his shoulders, and when some 300 feet from where the fire was, he placed her on a small hillock with a warning not to move until the two uncles returned. When they came back from fighting the fire, after some 20 minutes, little Elizabeth was gone.

All Thin, Pale Women

Should Know the Cause of Their Nervous, Used-Up Condition.

With women, ill-health is usually traceable to nerve exhaustion. Feeling run down and tired most of the time is nature's warning that more nerve force is required.

With nerve-energy below par your system is just ready for pneumonia or consumption.

You must build up, nourish the body, vitalize the nerves, get more flesh and blood.

It's the abundant nutriment and building material in Ferrozone that enables it to cure so many sick women. It increases the appetite, adds weight and strength, restores lost color and develops a surplus of vital energy and nerve force that defies sickness of any kind.

There is living proof in Mrs. Daniel Ferguson, jun., of Prescott, Ont. Read her statement:

"A year ago my health failed, I grew thin and exceedingly pale. At times I was prostrated with nervous and sick headache. All day I was tired. At night it was difficult to obtain restful sleep. My appetite was variable and indigestion bothered me considerably. I became morose and suffered from heart palpitation. You would scarcely believe the benefit I derived in one week from Ferrozone. Color came back to my cheeks. My vitality and appetite increased, renewed nerve force and better spirits came also. Ferrozone did a world of good and made me well."

Remember this: No alcoholic stimulant can nourish and build up like Ferrozone. Fifty chocolate-coated tablets for 50 cents, or six boxes for $2 50. At all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

THE TRADE REVIEW

Commercial Conditions in All Sections Are Promising.

Montreal, May 8. — Montreal trade reports to Bradstreet's say. There has been some improvement in wholesale trade here during the past week. The milder weather general throughout the province has resulted in more activity along the line of sorting orders in nearly all branches of wholesale business. In spring and summer drygoods this is particularly noticeable. The cold weather is now looked upon as well over, and the retail business of the province may be expected to pick up accordingly. Country remittances here and there are a little slow, but on the whole they are fairly good, as also are city collections. In all lines of manufacture there is continued activity. The steel trade is exceedingly busy and prices are good. The building of the Grand Trunk Pacific transcontinental road has not yet actually commenced, but there is much being done throughout the country in the way of railway development and the demand for steel rails, etc., is heavy. Immigrants are still pouring into the country in large numbers and their advent is welcome in all lines of labor. The port is now practically open for shipping and heavy shipments of cattle and all kinds of heavy goods are awaiting the first boats, which will clear in a day or so. Prices of cattle and hogs here continue very high. Meats are firm in sympathy.

Toronto reports say: There is a better tone to wholesale trade in all lines. Orders for sorting lines are coming in better and considerable impetus has been given trade by the opening of navigation. Trade at manufacturing centers throughout the Province is active, showing a steady increase as the season opens out. Farmers are busy seeding, which has somewhat quietened trade at country points. This his also served to limit receipts of country produce here. There is a fair trade in drygoods reorders and the outlook for the fall trade, which is already beginning to move, is good. Groceries are fairly active and hardware trade is brisk. The movement of heavy goods is particularly active. All lines of industry report great activity and this is especially true of the building trade, which is having a phenomenally busy season. Payments generally are good, although from the Northwest they are still slow. Reports regarding the Ontario crop of winter wheat are not at all good, and it is evident a good deal of it will have to be plowed up. The timothy crop, too, looks bad in places. Butcher and export cattle continue scarce and firm and hogs are still advancing, dressed selling at the unprecedented price of 9 cents per pound, here. Other commodities are steady to firm.

Bradstreet's trade reports from Hamilton say business conditions there continue unsatisfactory. There is a fair volume of wholesale trade moving and there is but little complaint in the matter of collections. Manufacturers continue busily engaged, and the outlook in all lines is bright. Trade in the surrounding country has a quiet tone.

London advices say there is little change in the situation there, which continues generally satisfactory. The movement of stocks at country points is a little quiet, as the farmers are busy seeding, but wholesale trade is fair and summer goods are moving well. Local industries are showing increased activity and trade prospects in all lines have a healthy tone.

TORTURED STEP-CHILD

Atrocious Conduct for Which Fouquet Will Serve a Life Sentence.

Montreal, May 7. — The death sentence on Napeleon Fouquet, of Lapatrie, Compton County, condemned at Sherbrooke to be hanged for the murder of his step-child, has been committed to life imprisonment. The sentence was to have been carried out May 13, at Sherbrooke. The actual murder was a brutal one. Mrs. Fouquet was absent. Her little girl, by the first husband, aged about 2 years, was left in charge of a servant. Fouquet went on a spree, and, coming home, took the child, saying he would keep it in bed with him. He came down from his room some hours later, saying that the child was dead, and explained that he had accidentally crushed it. Examination showed, however, that it had been pinched and squeezed from the head to the feet, and partially suffocated. The crown theory was that he had tortured the child and kept its head covered with the bed clothing to prevent an outcry.

ISLANDERS WANT HAY

P. E. Island in a Rage Over Impounding of Fodder by Government.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., May 6.—The Legislature was prorogued yesterday. Intense excitement has arisen over the impounding by the Federal Government of hay bought by the Provincial Government in December last in Quebec, hundreds of tons of which are yet at Pictou. The hay held up is in the federal warehouses at Charlottetown and Georgetown. The Federal Government undertook to give free transportation over the Government railways and steamers for this hay. Now a charge is made for transfer of the hay from the Intercolonial Railway to the steamers of 85c per ton, a total of about $5,000. It is for this extra charge that the hay is impounded.

Yesterday the warehouses containing the hay were locked. Telegrams were sent to the marine department at Ottawa, asking its release, but this was refused. Farmers, some of whose cattle have starved and others are starving, have driven in scores to Georgetown and this city, over almost impassable roads, to get the promised hay, only to find it locked up.

"Tomorrow the Provincial Government will get that hay, peaceably if it can, forcibly if it must," said a prominent Liberal.

A Statue of Hugo

Rome, May 6. — The unveiling of the statue of Victor Hugo presented by the Franco-Italian League of Paris, to the city of Rome, occurred this morning at the Villa Borghese in the presence of King Victor Emmanuel, the French delegates, the French ambassador, the ministers of foreign affairs and public instruction and many other distinguished guests. The statue, which is of Carara marble and eight feet high is the work of the Sculptor Pullez. Several patriotic speeches glorifying French and Italian friendship were delivered amidst enthusiasm, the bands playing the "Marsaillaise" and the Italian Royal March.

Nine Nations

Now Use Liquozone. Won't You Try It—Free?

Millions of people, of nine different nations, are constant users of Liquozone. Some are using it to get well, some to keep well. Some to cure germ diseases; some as a tonic. No medicine was ever so widely employed. These users are everywhere; your neighbors and friends are among them. And half the people you meet—wherever you are — know someone whom Liquozone has cured.

If you need help, please ask some of these users what Liquozone does. Don't blindly take medicine for what medicine cannot do. Drugs never kill germs. For your own sake, ask about Liquozone; then let us buy you a full-sized bottle to try.

We Paid $100,000

For the American rights to Liquozone. We did this after testing the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals, after proving, in thousands of different cases, that Liquozone destroys the cause of any germ disease.

Liquozone has for more than 20 years been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research. It is not made by compounding drugs, nor with alcohol. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time. The result is a liquid that does what oxygen does. It is a nerve food and blood food—the most helpful thing in the world to you. Its effects are exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying. Yet it is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. The reason is that germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetal matter.

There lies the great value of Liquozone. It is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissue, too. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Every physician knows that medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are destroyed, the disease must end, and forever. That is inevitable.

UNITARIAN PASTOR ON SALVATION

Rev. Mr. Gilpin's Point of View —Complains of "Artificial Religion."

A feature of the Unitarian services here is a short statement with which they are each Sunday introduced. Rev. Mr. Gilpin's "foreword" yesterday was as follows: "We meet together as persons who face a common destiny and share common delights. Our habitation is in a glorious world, where joy pulsates day by day. We remember today that a great power, not ourselves, brought us into this sphere of gladness. He sustains us day by day. His might upholds us. His joy cheers us. His purpose reconstructs us. We worship our Creator in sincerity and truth—we love him in a deepening fellowship and join our fortunes to his. We join in this service in the name of the brotherhood of man, in the name of truth and in the name of God."

The sermon was the second of a series on "The Saving of Man." Reviewing shortly the former sermon, Mr. Gilpin said, that one of the causes of the degradation from which so many need to be rescued is found in that teaching which dins into the ears of young and old one hundred times a year, that they are by nature wholly bad—totally depraved, that is the word—and can neither do, nor think, nor wish, any good; that even their feeble attempts at being good are an offense to God. The result of this sort of teaching, reiterated year after year, is psychologically inevitable to the average boy or girl, man or woman; unless saved by a miracle of his own common sense, he is apt to become what he is so persistently declared to be—wicked, and the next problem confronting the church is that of rescuing him. In many cases it succeeds; in many the people are lost to the church forever. Continuing, the preacher said, that the first duty of those who now bend their energy to save that which is lost, is to save that which is not lost, to take care not to destroy by false educational methods and ideas the good and wholesome and true in child nature. Give the child a chance to grow up naturally. Inspector James L. Hughes, of Toronto says that a child would at fourteen be wiser and more learned in all that is of value if until he is ten years old he never saw a figure or a letter of the alphabet. Those earlier years should be devoted to the sweet joys of childhood, to getting acquainted with and drinking in the beauty and delight of nature, to roving the woods and fields or playing in the parks and gardens, listening to the myriad voices of God all about him, cultivating the new, impressionable soul instead of trying to fill the tender and immature mind with the hard and indigestible learning of the schools, or having crowded upon him a hard, cruel and untrue doctrine of his own origin, character and probable destiny. Artificial religion and artificial education have long been and still are the bane of mankind in both youth and age. The theories, which in religion banish all natural right and demand that a man shall crawl into the sepulchres of self-abasement before being allowed to stand upright as a man before God, equally condemn in education all the natural instincts of childhood.

Said the speaker: "I was taught when a boy to read a piece called "Tommy and the Crow," and that Tommy, sitting on the soft, grassy bank, listening to the birds trilling their spring songs overhead and feeling the free air of heaven fanning his childish cheek, was a lazy, good-for-nothing fellow. I was taught that the boy dangling his limp legs from the hard form in the school stall, and having his young intellect warped and deformed by pinching and pruning and stunted by mental food unfit for his age, was the ideal—even of the Creator. And after all these years I wake up to find that Tommy, not the other, was God's pet child. I plead for a religion which bids us look out on the sunny world, not sit closeted in dark contemplation of sins, real or alleged, a religion whose windows are open, not towards evil and gloom, but towards sweetness and purity, towards truth and light and God."

LONDON, MONDAY, MAY 8.

Mr. Hyman's Position.

Mr. Hyman's opponents in this city are probably not far astray in taking it for granted that he will soon return for re-election. They show better judgment than the outsiders who pretend that he is looking for another constituency to indorse him as Minister of Public Works. To abandon London would be an act of cowardice, and the Conservatives of London know by experience that Mr. Hyman is no coward. Neither do they share the optimism of some of their fellow-Conservatives at a distance. A large percentage of the leading Conservatives of the city would be glad to see Mr. Hyman get his well-deserved honors without the turmoil of a contest. They secretly resent the insistence of the candidate, who has taken to politics as a profession, and has an undeniable right to a second nomination because he accepted the first one after everyone else had refused it, and made a surprisingly good run. Mr. Gray has already placed himself in the field, and is working the glad hand, but it is said that the pretense of being the workingmen's candidate is not proving so effective as in the last campaign, owing to certain comments in the Industrial Banner, which our contemporary on Richmond street will not care to reproduce. The falsehoods with which Mr. Hyman was assailed have also been so completely exposed that they cannot be warmed over for a second service. Certainly, our Conservative friends cannot build any hopes on their candidate. The majority of the well-informed among them heartily wish that he was off their hands. The Liberals of London are confident of electing Mr. Hyman by a handsome majority, and the statement that he is facing certain defeat is made only by those who know nothing about the conditions in London.

We do not pretend to know when an election will be necessary. It might come within a month, but it would not be surprising if Mr. Hyman continued in his present position until Parliament prorogued, as a campaign would interfere with his official duties.

Unarmed Self-Defense.

Boxing and wrestling are the only two arts of unarmed self-defense known to Europeans. The former is little known on the continent of Europe, though in ancient times it was practical to some extent in Greece and Rome. In Greece it died with the Roman conquest. In Rome it perished when, with all other manly exercises, it became the work of gladiators for the amusement of their effeminate masters. In modern England the art found about a century ago its new birth. It gradually became very popular, and was brought to great perfection. Many old-time champions of the fistic ring still keep their names green in the English memory, The "Tipton Slasher," Billy Benbow, John King, Jem Mace, Tom Sayers and later worthies, and though boxing is now somewhat less popular in polite society, no young English gentleman thinks himself accomplished till he has fairly learned to punch and guard with nature's weapons. On this side of the ocean boxing has also a strong hold on the popular imagination. Even in classic Boston, John L. Sullivan, at the height of his fame, was esteemed a much greater man than Longfellow, O. W. Holmes or Joseph Story, and the list of later champions of the heavy, middle, welter, light and feather-weight classes is tiresomely long. There is no doubt that a fair knowledge of the art of boxing, and fair practice of it in a friendly way, make strongly for the confidence in oneself which begets peaceableness with dignity, grace of movement and health of body.

Wrestling is an art more generally practiced throughout the world, but nowhere in continental Europe has it reached the standard of England and America. In England the different sections of the country have their different methods, as the Lancashire, the Cumberland, the Cornwall and Devon. In the middle and southeastern shires, wrestling never became so popular, but these districts excelled in boxing. In the north, west and southwest great wrestling tournaments were held, lasting sometimes for several days, when wrestlers came from all parts of the kingdom and contended till the champion was declared. On honor these bouts were always conducted in a very friendly manner, and to lose one's temper or to use unfair practices was counted disgraceful. Large numbers of both men and women viewed these sports, the old men talked of the wonders done in their day, and the youth looked and listened and learned.

The Chinese and Japanese have carried the art of wrestling to great perfection, not merely by encouraging the promising athlete who might spring from the mass, as is our haphazard way, but by taking the promising young child and by special feeding and training, developing a giant in stature and strength; nay, more, they even specially breed a wrestling class amounting to a caste of wrestlers, far superior in size and strength to the rest of the nation. Some of these have visited England and America, and met with very fair success against the vaunted Anglo-Saxon.

The latest of these arts to seek public favor in the west is the Japanese Jiu-Jitsu, the "Art of Gentle Control," as they euphemistically call it. President Roosevelt gave a great filip to its popularity when, after careful investigation, he not only ordered it taught at the West Point Military Academy and at the Annapolis Naval Training School, but himself took some lessons in the art.

This growth in public esteem has given some concern to the professors of boxing and wrestling, and with the accustomed lingual vigor of this sort of "professor" they have hastened to deny the claims of Jiu-Jitsu. Where the Jiu-Jitsu and the wrestler have come into physical contest the results have been various, and apparently satisfactory to neither party. A few weeks ago a match was arranged in New York between Bothner, lightweight champion wrestler of America, and a Mr. Higashi, a teacher of Jiu-Jitsu in New York City. The match was given to Bothner who, according to the referee, won three straight falls, the first in 15 minutes, the second in 1 hour and 35 minutes, and the third in about 20 minutes. The published reports gave few particulars, but it appeared that the Japanese had thrown the American several times, in a manner which, in the opinion of many spectators, constituted a fall, but the referee disallowed it. Below is the reply of Mr. Y. K. Yabe, of the Yabe him by a student of the art in this School of Jiu-Jitsu, to a letter sent city, asking for an explanation of the New York contest. Mr. Yabe is a Japanese of good family and a graduate of Harvard University. As will be seen, he writes good trenchant English, and feels a certain degree of warmth on the subject:

Rochester, N. Y., April 19, 1905.
Mr. —— ——, London, Canada:

Dear Sir,—I have your favor of recent date and note what you say in regard to the recent match in New York City.

The Higashi-Bothner match was an imposition from beginning to end. Just before the contest the wrestler's managers told Mr. Higashi to refrain from using any serious tricks or they would stop the match then and there. Mr. Higashi is a stranger in a strange land, is teaching Jiu-Jitsu in New York, and it would injure his business severely if the Americans gave out that the match was called off on account of the stubbornness of the Japanese. This prohibited Mr. Higashi from the use of at least nine-tenths of the efficient methods of Jiu-Jitsu.

Mr. Higashi was confident, however, of his ability to best Mr. Bothner, even under these circumstances, so he gave his promise and kept it scrupulously. Even with this enormous handicap, Mr. Higashi won the match fairly and squarely, for he threw Mr. Bothner over his head ten feet in the air three separate times, which, according to the mixed Jiu-Jitsu and wrestling rules, was a victory for Higashi. As the whole affair was pre-arranged to have the wrestler win, the referee refused to recognize these falls. The second round became one tiresome struggle with Bothner's face buried in the mat, and Higashi endeavoring to turn him over. At any time during this long period Higashi could have made the wrestler unconscious in an instant by one quick blow on a vital touch.

The contest absolutely demonstrated once and for all the superiority of Jiu-Jitsu to wrestling, as Mr. Bothner showed by his every action that he knew Higashi to be his master. Mr. Higashi, or any one of several other Jit-Jitsuians now in this country would be the victor in a serious encounter with any wrestler or boxer in the United States, not excepting the heavyweights themselves. Very truly yours,

Y. K. YABE.

A British Innovation.

The aliens' bill, which has passed its second reading in the British House of Commons by a large majority, marks another departure from the doctrines which have long governed public policy in the mother country. It has been Great Britain's boast for centuries that her shores were the refuge of people of all classes, creeds and countries, particularly the asylum for political offenders. The proposal to place restrictions on immigration would, not many years ago, have been deemed by her political thinkers as an affront to the spirit of British liberty. The Radicals of the old school, like John Morley and James Bryce, oppose it now on abstract grounds, but the economic side of the question is serious. The hospitality of the country is being abused by aliens to the undoubted detriment of the native working class population, especially in the east end of London. The number of aliens entering the British Isles to make their abode there is only about 100,000 a year, but a large proportion are described as destitute, diseased, and mentally and physically deficient. They bring unsanitary and often vicious habits, they are housed under degrading conditions, and drive Englishmen out of certain trades by a ready submission to the sweating system. The bill now before Parliament compels all vessels carrying these immigrants to enter certain ports. The aliens are to be examined strictly and any who are likely to become a public charge, through poverty, or bodily or mental infirmity, are to be returned to the ports of embarkation by the shipping companies who brought them. The right of asylum is recognized to the extent that a political offender, if sound in mind and body, can only be refused admission if the offense with which he is charged is covered by extradition law.

These provisions are not more rigid than those which have been long applied by the United States and Canada, but they are a novelty in Great Britain, which is the classic land of liberty. It is hard to withhold admiration for the sentiment which opposes this legislation, because it is a sentiment that lies at the foundation of British freedom; but there is a practical force in the argument that other countries should not be free to shift their problems of disease and poverty to British soil.

This My Life.

[J. Vance Cheney, in Independent.]

I strive to keep me in the sun:
I pick no quarrel with the years,
Not with the fates—not even one
That holds the shears.

I take occasion by the hand;
I'm not too nice 'twixt weed and flower;
I do not stay to understand;
I take mine hour.

The time is short at best.
I push right onward while I may;
I open to the winds my breast,
And walk the way.

A kind heart greets me here and there;
I hide from it my doubts and fears,
I trudge and say the path is fair
Along the years.

For Variety's Sake.

One of King Edward's most lovable traits is his recurring desire to get away from the king business for a while.

Como in April.

[R. U. Johnson, in the Century.]

The wind is Winter, though the sun be Spring;
The icy rills have scarce begun to flow,
The birds unconfidently fly and sing;

As on the land once fell the northern foe,
Th' exhaustless mountains from the passes fling
Their vandal blasts upon the lake below.

Not yet the round clouds of the Maytime cling
Above the world's blue wonder's curving show,
And tempt to linger with their lingering.

Yet doth each slope a vernal promise know;
See, mounting yonder, white as angel's wing,
A snow of bloom to meet the bloom of snow.

Love, need we more than our imagining
To make the whole year May? What though
The wind be Winter if the heart be Spring?

Beginning to Throb.

[Stratford Beacon.]

We are just beginning to feel the throbbings of national life. What the next 50 years or even the half of that period will add to our growth it would take one with a large prophetic eye to determine. That it will be a lusty growth all Canadians are now agreed.

This Growing City.

[Hamilton Times.]

London, too, suffers from a house famine. Many families have had to store their furniture.

House-Cleaning Time.

[Chicago Chronicle.]

And now we have our introduction to a season of destruction,
And of riot and of ruction we shall have our fullest share,
For the housewife now goes prying in the corners and is spying
All the dust and dirt, and, sighing, she ties towels on her hair.

Then she gleefully goes tripping and from room to room goes skipping,
And there is a sound of ripping as the carpets leave the floor,
While the furniture is jumbled and the house completely tumbled,
And the husband he is humbled at the tumult and the roar.

And with vigor she is scrubbing and the carpets she is drubbing,
While the dust and dirt she's grubbing, and she never stops at all,
As she daily grows more nervy, then the scrubbing brush grows curvy,
And the house is topsy-turvy from the garret to the hall.

And there is no time of quiet—night and day there is a riot—
And the family must diet, for there is no time to eat,
For it is no idle fable that there is no stove or table,
And to cook no one is able, lest it be out in the street.

Now there is an overhauling and in tubs there is a sprawling,
As the husbands blindly crawling, creep back home again each night,
And their heads they're always thumping and their shins with pain are jumping,
As in the darkness they are bumping through the wreckage, minus light.

And now we have an introduction to a season of destruction,
And we meet with grim obstruction here and there and everywhere,
And the days are full of madness, full of gloom and grouch and sadness,
And our hearts are full of badness as we sulk in our despair.

THINKS DOOR IS CLOSED

Iowa's Governor Fears No Chance Now for Reciprocity.

Chicago, May 8.—Gov. Cummins, of Iowa, at a luncheon given by the Chicago Commercial Association, in honor of foreign consuls on Saturday, discussed at some length the tariff question in several of its phases. In speaking of the need for better reciprocity treaties between the United States and foreign countries, Gov. Cummins pointed out what he considered danger of a diminished trade for America, if treaties are not affected.

"Canada," he said, "has been knocking at our doors for years for fair trade, and we have blindly rejected her advances until now, I fear, the door of opportunity is forever closed. A few years ago a most distinguished diplomat and economist of the United States, a citizen of Iowa, under the guidance of William McKinley, negotiated a series of treaties, the sole purpose of which was to help us in the fight we are making in other lands, especially for a market for our agricultural surplus. These treaties went to the Senate, with the approval of the President, whose broad vision was able to perceive the fundamental truth that we could not permanently sell everything and buy nothing. And yet they have laid every chance in the dusty and neglected archives of a Senate which refuses even to discuss or consider them.

"We are now threatened with entire exclusion from the markets of Germany, unless we take up the subject of reciprocal trade and make some fair bargain with that nation.

"As composed at this time, Congress is unalterably, inflexibly and indignantly opposed to any change whatsoever. Therefore if you desire an opportunity to hold a reasonable conference with respect to a change in the law, you must substitute men who will do something, for men who are determined to do nothing."

WALKED 150 MILES TO SAVE HUSBAND

Plucky 16-Year-Old Girl Wanted Governor to Pardon Spouse.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 8. — Mrs. James E. McGuire, aged 16, walked to this city from Cedar County, 150 miles, to intercede with Governor Folk for her 18-year-old husband, in the penitentiary for horse stealing.

She was married to McGuire last June. Then he was arrested while driving a horse which his father had stolen and father and son were both convicted.

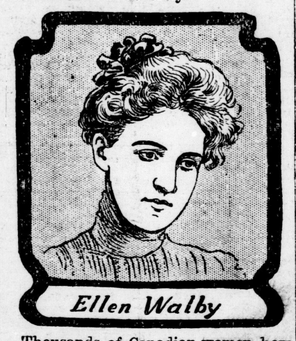
Mrs. McGuire is of slight build, modest and retiring.

"I am an orphan," she said, "and have no friends or money, and Jim has nobody to take his part but me and his mother, who came with me."

The father is serving his second term in the penitentiary, but this is the boy's first trouble of any kind.

PAINFUL PERIODS
CANADIAN WOMEN FIND RELIEF
The Case of Ellen Walby Is One of Thousands of Cures Made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that menstruation is the balance wheel of a woman's life, and while no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering, it is not the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely?



Ellen Walby

Thousands of Canadian women, however, have found relief from all monthly suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it is the most thorough female regulator known to medical science. It cures the condition which causes so much discomfort and robs menstruation of its terrors.

Ellen Walby, of Wellington Hotel, Ottawa, Ont., writes:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"Your Vegetable Compound was recommended to me to take for the intense suffering which I endured every month and with which I had been a sufferer for many years getting no relief from the many prescriptions which were prescribed, until, finally becoming discouraged with doctors and their medicines I determined to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am glad that I did, for within a short time I began to mend and in an incredible short space of time the flow was regular, natural and without pain. This seems too good to be true and I am indeed a grateful and happy woman."
Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, should take prompt action to ward off serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. Thousands have been cured by so doing.

An Atchison woman wore mourning only two weeks and some of the neighbors protested. "Well," she said, "I didn't have as much to mourn about as some; Bill wasn't much."

TIME HAS TESTED IT.—Time tests all things; that which is worthy lives, that which is inimical to man's welfare perishes. Time has proved Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. From a few thousand bottles in the early days of its manufacture, the demand has risen so that now the production is running into the hundreds of thousands of bottles. What is so eagerly sought for must be good.

Three things you never discover till there is death in the house: The goodness of the neighbors, the way time drags and how loud the clock ticks.

ITS POWER GROWS WITH AGE.—How many medicines loudly blazoned as panaceas for all human ills have come and gone since Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil was first put upon the market? Yet it remains, doing more good to humanity than many a preparation more highly vaunted, and extending its virtues wider and wider and in a larger circle every year. It is the medicine of the masses.

There is a family in every neighborhood which furnishes amusement for the rest, and doesn't know it.

A large meeting of the London Old Boys of Chatham was held on Friday night. The Planet says arrangements are being made to run a monster excursion or a special train to London on the occasion of the Old Boys' reunion in August, when the 50th anniversary of the incorporation of the city will also be celebrated. The event will be the greatest in London's history. The Old Boys will take Chatham's crack band along. The officers elected were:

Honorary President—Samuel Perrin.
President—Ex-Ald. G. G. Taylor.
Vice-President—A. M. Piper.
Secretary-Treasurer—J. W. Plewes.
Executive Committee—W. R. Landon, Harry Flowers, George Meynell.

MAY HAVE NEW CHURCH

Capacity of All Saints' Is Now Overtaxed—More Room Necessary.

Next Sunday the congregation of All Saints' Church will meet at the close of the evening service and consider the question of providing further accommodation, so greatly has the congregation grown of late. Either the present church building will be extended, or a new structure altogether will be erected. As the present building is old and the roof is unsound, the general feeling of the congregation is in favor of a new church.

Rev. D. W. Collins, of Birr, preached in the church yesterday morning, and Rev. Rural Dean Ridley, of Galt, took the pulpit in the evening.

Mr. John Pannell has been chosen as representative to the synod by the congregation of All Saints' Church.

SUED FOR UMBRELLA

Unique Action Taken Against Buffalo Bill at Paris.

Paris, May 6. — "Buffalo Bill" received a summons from the district court this week to pay 25 francs for an umbrella which a man alleged he had lost at the show. He said he had dropped the umbrella between the seats and thought an Indian had taken it. Major Burke and General Young represented Colonel Cody in court, and the man refused to accept another umbrella, declaring he preferred the money. The judge decided that a man was responsible for the custody of his own umbrella.

Detectives Henrion and Jomard, charged with the arrest of two dangerous burglars, had visited Colonel Cody's show and meeting the malefactors in the market, both being powerful men, they procured clothes like from a neighboring shopkeeper and lassoed the men in wild west style as they were seated at table.

INDIGESTION.

There is no sense in wasting words about indigestion. We know that it causes terrible suffering, and the dull, darting pains are enough to drive one mad. What a sufferer wants is relief. He wants the pain to stop. He wants to be well and happy again. The way to get relief and be cured of indigestion is by taking Hutch. It goes to the very spot where the trouble lies. Take one just after you eat. Then two or three at bedtime to open the bowels. It will neutralize the condition of the stomach. It will give gratifying relief. It will sweeten the breath. It will overcome and banish pain. Plenty of people doubt this, but their doubting does not change the facts. Hutch is a doctor for 10 cents. One gives instant relief.

DEATH OF REV. I. M. WEBB

Graduate of Huron College Passes Away at Early Age.

The death occurred in Toronto on Saturday of Rev. I. Morrison Webb, in his 29th year. The deceased, who was unmarried, was the second son of Mr. Archibald Webb, of Granton, and was a graduate of Huron College. He had been in charge of a church at Brussels, and was greatly respected by his flock. At one time he was a curate under Canon Hincks, at Windsor. The funeral will be held on Tuesday at 1:30 from the residence of his father, 11th con., to Birr Cemetery.

SOVEREIGN BANK OPENS HERE TODAY

Well-Known Financial Corporation Establishes a Branch in London With Frank E. Karn as Local Manager.

MR. D. M. STEWART, GENERAL MANAGER.

The opening of the Sovereign Bank's handsome premises on Richmond street this morning marks a new era in the progress of this substantial financial institution in Canada. Under the able management of Mr. D. M. Stewart the Sovereign Bank has made rapid and sure strides to the front in catering to the financial needs of Canadians.

The growth of the deposits, which is the best evidence of public confidence, in this bank has been marvelous, the total now being something over eight and one-quarter million dollars, while the total assets of the bank amount to over $11,600,000. The head office is in Toronto. The president, Mr. Randolph Macdonald, is a well-known railway contractor and capitalist, being a director in several insurance and other corporations. The first vice-president is Mr. Alexander A. Allan, head of the wholesale fur and hat firm of A. A. Allan & Co. The second vice-president is also the general manager, and is a man of wide experience and of proven ability, as the record of the Sovereign Bank shows. The other directors are: Hon. Peter McLaren, the lumber king; Hon. Donald McMillan, senator of Canada and capitalist; John Pugsley, the president of the Pugsley, Dingman Company, manufacturers of "Comfort Soap;" Archibald Campbell, M. P., chairman of the banking and commerce committee of the House of Commons, proprietor of the Queen City Flour Mills, Toronto Junction; W. K. McNaught, president of the Canadian American Watch Case Company, and known through Canada as the president of the Toronto Exhibition Company.

The local manager, Mr. Frank E. Karn, is no stranger to London, having lived here for several years and occupied a prominent position with the Molsons Bank. He is a man of recognized banking and business ability, and the citizens of London welcome him back to their midst.

The Sovereign Bank of Canada makes a special feature of the savings bank and caters to the thrifty classes of the community who can only save small amounts. It affords these people every possible facility for saving their money and offers better inducements than the older-established, chartered banks by paying interest on the deposits quarterly. It also pays its shareholders quarterly dividends, and in this respect is almost unique, as there is only one other bank in the Dominion that does this.

The Sovereign Bank also makes a specialty of foreign business and issues drafts and letters of credit and receives and makes transfers of money on Great Britain and every country in Europe and Asia, as well as throughout all the colonies of the British Empire. Its latest achievements has been the establishment of arrangements with Italy for the convenience of Canadian travelers, and the bank was selected by the Italian Government to act as its fiscal agent in the Dominion.

"Success" is stamped all over this institution, and its officers go out of their way to oblige the public who come in contact with them.

THE HELPING HAND OF MR. SUTHERLAND

An Eloquent Tribute to Dead Minister by the Rev. Mr. McMullen.

Woodstock, May 8.—Those who attended the funeral service of the late Mr. Sutherland here Saturday will long remember the eloquent tribute paid to the dead satesman in the address by Rev. Dr. McMullen. He said:

"There's a sad and sorrowful pathos in the occasion which has called us together that speaks with a power touching the universal heart that no words of mine are needed to voice. At the high noon-tide of his day of public service and honor, Mr. Sutherland has gone the way of all flesh. Why, it may be asked, should there be sadness and sorrow over the close of an eminently successful life? Judged by all the standards that men ordinarily apply, Mr. Sutherland's was confessedly a successful life. Early he began to dream the vision of what the future had in store for him and the passing years witnessed his stupendous efforts to turn that dream into a reality. Step by step he advanced in public confidence and popular favor. By a series of well planned and carefully executed business ventures he amassed wealth, and at the solicitations of his friends he entered political life and rose in favor with all with whom he was associated, until he had attained the distinguished eminence of a minister of the crown. He purchased this palatial home to be a place of repose and rest when the toils and strifes of public life had run their course. In every enterprise his highest hopes have been fully realized, for he had attained wealth and honor that might well satisfy the ambition of any man, but at the very moment when the cup of his success was full to the brim he has passed away. Such is human life.

"Viewed in the light of all I have said, there is a disappointed incompleteness that must touch the heart of all his friends and admirers. But the real success of Mr. Sutherland's life must be sought and found in the helping hand and the ungrudging sympathy which he extended to so many when in life's hard struggle fortune seemed to be turning against them, and to whom he imparted a new inspiration by words of kindly cheer. The man who has lived to mitigate human sorrow, to help forward the progress of society around him, and to advance all that's nobles and best in the development and life of the nation, has not lived in vain. He has left his mark on this community in a manner so legible that it will preserve his name and memory better than any monument that can mark his grave.

"The press of all political parties has been pronouncing eulogiums on his name now that he's gone. It were well for us as a people and for our public men if justice were done them while they are yet in life, and if the flowers were not all held in reserve for the funeral. None was more sensible than himself of the defects and imperfections of his life. Over these let us cast the broad mantle of charity, and be it ours to act the part of the Good Samaritan, recognizing the Saviour himself in everyone who needs our sympathy and help, that in the great day we may hear the words: "For inasmuch as ye have done it unto me, the least of these, my brethren, ye did it unto me.'"

OYAMA ONCE MORE ON AGGRESSIVE

JAP ARMY NUMBERS 390,000

Mikado's People Greatly Aroused Over Repeated Breach of Neutrality by France.

Gadeyadana, Manchuria, May 7. — Since April 29 the Japanese have been advancing slowly and intermittently, pushing forward their columns successively from right to left under cover of a screen of cavalry and Chinese bandits. The advance has resulted in straightening the alignment of the opposing armies, Russian detachments, which were far advanced on the flanks, being forced to retire.

Erdagou, to the eastward, was occupied May 5, but under pressure by the Russians the Japanese later evacuated the place. On the left the Russian cavalry retired behind the Liao River, the Japanese occupying Palaotun, Sanlingan and Batzya. The village of Shahedzi, on the railroad of Changtufu, has been occupied and burned by the Japanese.

There was a sharp brush with Chinese bandits on the extreme Russian right today.

It is reported that the Japanese armies in the center have recently been reinforced. The force at Field Marshal Oyama's disposal, according to information recently received, is 348 battalions or 390,000 men.

The Japanese are said to have armed 25,000 or 30,000 Chinese bandits, with captured Russian rifles.

The Chinese population has been drafted by the Japanese for road making and entrenching, and roads are being constructed to Sinminpu, Banchsensee and Nangu Pass.

Nebogatoff Needs Coal.

Tokio, May 7.—Assuming that Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky meditates a speedy junction of his squadron with Vice-Admiral Nebogatoff's division it is believed here that the meeting of the ships may be expected by Tuesday, May 9, the speed of Nebogatoff's division being only about seven knots an hour.

These ships are believed to be in need of coal and stores, and their lackings in this respect will probably be supplied by Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky at some friendly port after the two admirals effect a junction.

The future movements of the Russian Pacific squadron is a matter of speculation here, although the delay of Rojestvensky on the Indo-China coast has raised doubt as to his purpose to move northward and risk an engagement at an early date.

The Vladivostock torpedo boat destroyers have not been reported, and it is believed they have returned to Vladivostock.

That Neutrality Breach.

London, May 8.—A telegram from Hong Kong to a news agency gives a long dispatch, which, it is alleged, the French authorities at Saigon refused to transmit on April 30, detailing how for ten days the Russian Pacific squadron was allowed to convert Kamranh Bay practically into a Russian base, freely coaling and provisioning openly under the direction of Prince Lieven, captain of the interned Russian cruiser Diana, the French admiral, De Jonquierres, being present the whole time, and until April 23, making no attempt to check the breach of neutrality.

Japan Roused at France.

London, May 8.—Special dispatches from Tokio to the London morning newspapers represent that Japanese feeling is becoming highly inflamed at France's alleged failure to present ostentatious disregard for the principles of neutrality by the Russian Pacific squadron. The Tokio Asahi bluntly describes the French assurances, that they would preserve neutrality, as falsehoods, and declares that Japan would be justified in bombarding French territory, and calls upon the Government to take vigorous action.

Among Japanese officials in London, it is asserted, that France put off Japan by fair promises in order to give Rojestvensky time to effect a junction of his forces, and that the Russians are now given every privilege provided they keep just outside the three-mile limit.

The report from Singtau that the Russian squadron is off Vanfong, which is an inlet containing the port of Honkohe, the Three Kings being rocks near the entrance of Vanfong Bay, is held to confirm the Japanese assertion that Rojestvensky is still cruising in French waters.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Tokio says that in response to Japan's second protest France intimated that Rojestvensky has been ordered to leave Honkohe.

A dispatch to the Daily Mail, dated Labuan, British Borneo May 6, says: "The steamer Chinghai reports that Friday night she passed a fleet of warships and other vessels off the Matanani Islands, northwest of Borneo. The warships apparently were coaling."

A dispatch from Labuan to Reuters Telegram Company reports that the fleet sighted was a large one in two divisions, showing lights, but stationary, and with the appearance of being engaged in coaling.

MIGHT ALARM BRITISH CAPITAL

Mr. Hays On Railroad Legislation in America—Old Country Investovs Intimidated.

[Montreal Gazette.]

In an address delivered Saturday night by Mr. C. M. Hays, second vice-president and general manager of the Grand Trunk, and president of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad, he spoke of the future of railroads in Canada and said that legislation should not be framed which would take from the railways the privilege of earning fair returns on the vast sums of money invested in them. He also remarked that: "We must look to England for our additional facilities. Investors in Great Britain must view railroad possibilities in Canada with favor if we are to get further aid for the construction of new roads and branches."

It has since been learned that Mr. Hays implied more than even his words indicated in regard to the question of legislation affecting railways. Certain capitalists in Great Britain are becoming intimidated, it is understood, at the vigorous policy of the Interstate Commerce Commission in the United States, and by the legislation enacted in the Dominion for the lowering of rates and the raising of taxes on railroads. They are hesitating to invest money in proposed new roads in Canada, because they fear such legislation will prevent them from realizing profits on their money.

Mr. Hays states that "railroads like all other commercial enterprises, must be allowed, in all countries, the privilege of earning a reasonable return on the money invested in them," and in this statement two thoughts were involved, according to what was learned yesterday at the head office of the company. An official, speaking of the matter, said:

"The Government of Ontario increased the taxation of the Grand Trunk in that Province by $80,000 last year. The railway commission is lowering the company's rates in some instances. We think the commission is discharging its functions in the most capable and fair manner. We have no criticism whatever to offer, although we may not agree with the commissioners in all their findings regarding rates, but the point of the whole matter is this: If legislation is passed increasing the taxation of railroads, and the rates are lowered so that the profits to be made are to be reduced to a small margin, the investors in England will hesitate to put their money in any new railway projects in this country. The bond issue for the Grand Trunk Pacific was greatly oversubscribed, it is true, but branch lines will be built and new roads will be projected. If the railways are legislated against in too stringent a manner, the mind of the British public may be intimidated so that fair prices for future securities may not be easily obtainable."

It was also remarked that certain investors in England were looking with apprehension on the actions of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and have expressed a fear that the railway commission in Canada may also endeavor to practically control rates.

Mr. Hays said he would leave the subject to the consideration of all Canadians who take an interest in national affairs, for care had to be taken to so enact laws that the good will of railway corporations, which gave a country great transportation facilities, and the good will also of investors, in order that additional capital may be obtained in the British market when required.

LOCAL MARKET.

Monday, May 8.

There were 23 loads of hay on the stand today; sales were on the slow side and prices were lower at $7 50 to $8 50 per ton. Only an occasional load sold at the higher figure. A couple of loads of straw sold at $6 per ton.

One load of wheat was the only kind of grain offered. This brought $1 05 per bu.

A carload of live hogs was weighed on the city scales for Mr. D. McIntyre, who paid $6 75 per cwt for selects.

STOCK MARKETS.

H. C. Becher, stock broker, Bank of Commerce building, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & Carrington today:

New York, May 8. — Noon. — The disturbed condition of the foreign market is reflected here by heavy selling of all interpational stocks by London houses. Up to noon it was estimated that they had sold not less, and probably more than 50,000 shares. Quite sharp breaks occurred at the opening, People's Gas being the weak stock on the list owing to the passage by the Illinois Legislature of a bill providing for a reduction of the price of gas in Chicago. Although A. C. P. was heavy, there continues to be absorption of it by a house supposed to represent inside interests. In U. P. there was the most activity, and although it rallied at one time owing to the appearance of some good buying, the advance was not sustained. Although the general opinion is that no serious consequences will result from the apparent breach of neutrality on the part of France as long as the discussion in regard to it continues an uneasy feeling will exist. The outlook seems to be for a fairly good trading market, accompanied by a tendency towards lower figures. Sales to noon. 447,000.

FLASHLIGHT SCARES BEARS

Discovery Made in London Interests Arctic Explorers.

London, May 8.—A curious discovery, which is creating considerable speculation, chiefly among those who are interested in polar exploration, has been made in the den of the polar bears now performing at the London Hipnodrome.

The other day an attempt was made to take a photograph of these performing bears, some of which were captured in the wild state, the others being bred by the owner of the troupe, but they were too restless, and therefore another attempt was made the next day.

A strong charge of powder was used for the flashlight, and immediately after the flash every bear was discovered lying prone on the side, as if dead, but in reality they were only terrified and nearly out of their senses. It was a long time before they recovered from their excitement.

Next morning in cleaning out the den an attendant found on the floor a fine gold ring, such as sailors used to wear in their ears. Inscribed inside were the initials "I. D. F. N." with the date 1835, and the supposition is that the ring had been carried about between the teeth or the claws of one of the bears until the episode of unusual excitement thus brought it to light.

Shot in the Back.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 8. — Joseph Cancillian, an Italian, was murdered while walking on the street at Pitson early today by an unknown person, who stepped up behind him and shot him five times in the back. There is no clue to the murderer.

Bush Fire Down East.

Plymouth, Mass., May 8. — The settlement of Rocky Nook, in the township of Kingston, which was threatened with destruction last night by the greatest forest fire which has been raging since Saturday in Plymouth, Kingston, and Plympton, was saved by hard work, and early today the flames had swept past that point. The fire continued to burn fiercely, however, and cottages at Seaside, between Plymouth and Kingston, were believed to be in some danger. The wind this forenoon was light, from the west, carrying the flames in the direction of Plymouth. Hundreds of men and boys worked during the night along the line of the fire and continued their efforts today. Valuable standing timber covered the hundreds of acres which has been burned over.

Frail Beauty
Beauty is but skin deep, and it is well that it is; it's hard enough to look after. Keeping the skin soft and smooth is the first essential. Just keep Balm-Zoin in mind. It obliterates wrinkles, removes freckles and tan, heals sunburn, preserves beauty and gives comfort. No stickiness, no grease, no harm and little expense. 25 cents.

A ST. THOMAS GRAFT

Friends of Scalded Brakeman Helping Him to a New Skin.

St. Thomas, May 8. — On Nov. 30, 1904 when a Pere Marquette tower man ditched a Michigan Central freight train at Pelton, and the fireman, John Matthews, was killed, Brakeman Bruce Little, of this city, was scalded badly about the face, head and legs. The burns have all healed, except one on the leg between the knee and the ankle, and the attending surgeons are now resorting to the process of grafting human skin on the wound. Already fifteen of Mr. Little's friends have had pieces of their skin taken from their arms and grafted on Mr. Little's legs. Forty more pieces will be required to complete the operation.

"MISSING LINK" FOUND

Similarity of Blood in Human Beings and the Higher Apes.

Berlin, May 8.—Professor Dr. Uhlenhuth, an eminent army doctor, definitely claims to have discovered the "missing link" by a long series of investigations, having established the similarity in every respect of the blood of the high apes and human beings.

"If the blood serum of one animal be mixed with that of any other, the mixture remains clear. If, however, blood be taken from an ape and injected into the veins of a rabbit, the blood subsequently taken from this rabbit becomes troubled when mixed with more ape's blood. A similar result is obtained if human blood be injected into the veins of a rabbit, and this simple experiment is often relied upon to prove if a spot of blood on the clothes of a suspected murderer is human.

"The phenomenon is observed only when the blood of some living animal is used, and the higher the ape in the scale of development the more pronounced is the reaction."

ALL HAPPY BUT THE PAWNBROKERS

Beginning of Better Times Is Already Being Felt by London Merchants.

London, May 8.—Mr. Pruger the well-known manager of the Savoy Hotel, is authority for the statement that the business season for the hotels has started out handsomely, and that he expected records to be broken in the matter of travel. He said that not only are the visitors numerous, but that they are spending their money freely. He regarded this as the best possible test of the business pulse of the country.

Retail storekeepers in the west end also bear witness that they are experiencing the beginning of what promises to be a great season. It is regarded by drapery merchants as the return of better times, and they all unite in saying that there is every indication that the change will be a permanent one.

The secretary of Thomas Cook & Son also comments upon the large number of foreign visitors, and the great stores are noticing the wave of prosperity, the high-class jewelers and diamond merchants, who are usually the last to feel the effects of better times, admitting that their business shows signs of improvement.

Another indication of improved conditions is found in the fact that the business of many firms of pawnbrokers has fallen off; and there is a marked diminution in the harvest of the west end money-lenders. Pawnbrokers in particular are complaining bitterly.

SAGE DROPPED $5,000,000

The Famous Financier Loses Judgment and Will Retire.

New York, May 8.—A story is current in Wall street that the real reason for the retirement of Russell Sage from active participation in business is not so much his physical condition as that he has lost, to some extent, the keen judgment in affairs of high finance which was regarded as almost infallible, and which had resulted in the accumulation of one of the largest fortunes in America. It is said that of late years Mr. Sage has made a number of investments which not only did not turn out profitable, but which entailed heavy losses. Some estimates place his losses within the last two or three years at upward of $5,000,000.

Friends of the aged financier had long been urging him to give up business and to devote the remaining years of his life to a well-earned rest, but he was deaf to all such suggestions, until a succession of losses impressed upon him the fact that he had lost in some measure the faculty for grasping the details of great affairs, which for a generation or more had been one of his marked characteristics. It was then that he began gradually to put his affairs in such shape that he could retire. While his recent spell of sickness may have accelerated his retirement Wall street feels certain that th hammerings that he has received in the last year or two were really the determining cause.

Charged With Killing Father.

Quebec, May 8.—Dr. Tremblay, coroner for the Saguenay district, at present in this city, is under instructions to proceed to St. Augustin, some distance from Poine aux Esquimaux, to investigate an alleged horrible crime of a young Indian, who is accused of having killed his aged father and afterwards burning the body.

Lost an Arm.

Kingston, May 8. — Williame Bruce, of Gananoque, is in hospital here, and has had his left arm amputated at the shoulder. He was examining his gun when the weapon was discharged and a great wound was caused above the elbow, flesh and bone being torn away. He will likely recover.

MAY REACH PORT STANLEY IN JULY

Traction Company Expects to Have Cars Running at an Early Date.

Manager Welch, of the Southwestern Traction Company, stated today that it is the intention of the company to install two additional boilers in the new power house at once, as the prospects for business for the traction company are so bright and promising that it is deemed advisable to provide for much more power than was at first deemed sufficient to operate the line.

Mr. Welch also stated that he is fully convinced that cars will be running between London and St. Thomas, if not to Port Stanley, by July. Already surveyors of the company have begun a survey of the Wortley road south, and though the company will say nothing on the subject, it is the evident intention of the traction people to enter the city by that route.

As it has been decided to use the double trolley wire system, the single wires, which were strung on light poles, have been taken down, and the poles are to be replaced by heavier ones. The use of aluminum trolley wires is now also under consideration.

WIFE-BEATER SENT TO COUNTY JAIL

Alex. McGinnis Punished for Brutality—Fit Subject for the Lash.

It came out in the police court today that on Saturday Alex. McGinnis, who is a strong man, struck his wife a stunning blow on the forehead with his clenched fist, and then threw a shovel at her. Happily the shovel, which was thrown by the whisky-sodden man, went wide of the mark, and the woman was able to appear in police court this morning.

With some reluctance McGinnis pleaded guilty to the charge, stating that he "supposed he was guilty, but that she had tempted him."

Mrs. McGinnis told the magistrate that she had had her husband up before, and that he had promised to reform but the promise did not hold good. For the past three weeks he had been drinking heavily and abusing her. On Saturday he came home under the influence of liquor and she ordered him out of the house. At this he struck her in the forehead raising an ugly lump, and then when she tried to get away he threw a heavy shovel at her. It missed her. In fear of her life she went out and hid and the police arrived shortly afterwards.

The magistrate told McGinnis that he deserved no leniency whatever, and that a greater punishment than was in his power to impose should be given him. He was fined $20 and costs or two months in jail for assaulting his wife, and on the charge of being drunk and disorderly he was fined $10, and he was warned that when he came out of jail he would have to make special efforts to support his wife and family, as they should be supported. If he did not do this there was nothing but a penitentiary term in store for him.

The foreign element was represented in court by sons of Greece and Italy, busy vendors of peanuts and bananas. Augustine Mascari, the Italian, gave up a big silver dollar for driving his wagon over the sidewalk, and Gus Strathopulos contributed the same amount for forgetting the "move-on" signal too frequently when prospective purchasers of peanuts were near.

The charge of assault preferred against Fred Yelland, a young man, was withdrawn by the complainant, William Scott, when the latter agreed to settle the expense account.

Of eight drunks who were "in," five were fined. James Atch paid the heaviest of all, cashing in $5; Joseph Henry and Thomas Kelly gave up $3 each, and Whitney Buller was assessed $2.

Two bold bicyclists paid $2, regretting that the tariff had been raised.

GOOD RUN BY FREIGHT

London to the Tunnel Covered in Two Hours Without a Stop.

A freight train, composed of 37 cars, of which 28 were "empties," covered the distance from London to Sarnia Tunnel yesterday morning in two hours flat. The train pulled out of the London yard at 5:40 o'clock and reached the tunnel at 7:40.

The freight was hauled by a mogul engine, No. 510 and it had a total tonnage of 980 tons. The run was exceptional, in that it was made without a stop for either coal or water, or to make a meet with another train. As it happened there was not another freight on the road at the time, and the west-bound had right of way.

About two weeks ago another freight train, west-bound, made a similar run from London to the tunnel, two hours exactly being occupied by the trip. On the first occasion the tonnage was greater than that of yesterday, and the train was hauled by an engine of the 700 type, which, though not as powerful as those of the 800 class, possess greater speed.

THE BREAKWATER BILL

Mayor and City Solicitor Going to Toronto in its Interest.

Mayor Campbell and the chairmen of the several committees of the city council held a long conference in the mayor's office today in regard to the City of London bill, which provides for the issuing of debentures for the West London breakwater, and which is scheduled to come up in the House tomorrow. Word has been received from Toronto that the measure is likely to meet with the greatest opposition if the city persists in its determination to maintain the clause which prevents claims for damages of expropriation. His worship and City Solicitor Meredith will go to Toronto to look after the city's interests.

WORK WILL COST NEARLY $100,000

Grand Trunk to Reballast Line From Glencoe to Windsor—Work Started.

In addition to the double-tracking of the line between Hyde Park and Kingscourt Junction, the Grand Trunk is to spend a large amount this summer in improvements on the old main line, between Glencoe and Windsor, and on the main line, east of London.

Several years have elapsed since the road from Glencoe to Windsor was double-tracked, and the company has decided to reballast the entire stretch, a distance of 80 miles. To hasten the work six trains were put at work this morning, and before they complete their task the company will have expended from $80,000 to $90,000. All of the gravel to be used in the reballasting will be taken from the pit at Komoka, as there is not another pit on the line between London and Windsor. This will mean that when the crews have worked their way west of Chatham they will have to cover 100 miles to and from the pit, and will only be able to haul one trainload each a day. Each train comprises 35 cars.

On the east end, between London and Hamilton, there are a number of places requiring ballasting. Some of the second track was laid last fall after the frost had set in, and the result is that when the frost went out of the ground in the spring the track was a trifle "spongy." These spots will all be put in a thorough condition, and the road made perfect from end to end.

On the double-tracking from Hyde Park to Kingscourt Junction, good headway is being made. The grading has been completed for some distance west of Komoka, and the rails and ties will soon be laid.

LATE MRS. B. BAYLY.

Mrs. Bayly, widow of the late Rev. Benjamin Bayly, who died in Toronto on Friday morning, was buried there on Sunday. She had not resided in London for fifteen years, making her home in Toronto with her daughter.

RENDERING WORKS AGAIN.

Another complaint was lodged with Medical Health Officer Hutchinson against the Arscott rendering works today. The complainant is a resident of the southeastern end of the city. The doctor is also investigating a complaint made against the condition of the alley which runs from King to York street, just east of Richmond.

LOOKING FOR RELATIVES.

Two girls from the Indian reserve at Muncey, aged respectively 16 and 13 years, made their way into this city on foot yesterday. A bluecoat discovered them asleep near the county jail in the evening and took them to the station on Carling street. There they averred that they had come to London in search of relatives, but had not succeeded in locating them. The girls will be aided in their search by the police today.

INTERRED AT ST. PETER'S.

The funeral of the late Patrick McCarthy took place this morning from Smith's undertaking parlors to St. Peter's Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. M. O'Meara, Thomas Goold, William Dwyer, W. J. Flynn, William Kilgallin, and H. Crowdy, members of Court St. Peter, Catholic Order of Foresters, of which deceased was a member. The order also provided an escort. Rev. Father Stanley said solemn high mass at 9 o'clock at St. Peter's, and also officiated at the grave.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SOUTHAM.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Richard Scutham took place yesterday from her residence, 86 Maple street, to Woodland Cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Very Rev. Dean Davis, D.D. The floral tributes were very beautiful, a carriage having to be provided for them. The pallbearers were Mr. Charles Elliott, Mr. Frank Love, Mr. James Reid and Mr. S. Screaton.

KENSINGTON MISSION.

In more ways than one Kensington Mission is coming to the front. By the indefatigable labors of the Ladies' Aid, the funds of the Missionary Society have been increased by upwards of $80. The Sunday school is in a flourishing condition, and also the Epworth League. The congregations are increasing, and the pastor, Rev. S. Salton, has every reason to be congratulated for his faithful and successful work during the past four years. The choir under the able direction of Mr. Hunt, of London South, is developing latent talent, little suspected. Last Sunday the music was exceptionally good. Several solos were rendered, the bass solo, "Lord Grant Me Grace," being taken by a soloist of South London, who seems to be seriously contemplating a call to Kensington Mission, where his abilities will be greatly appreciated.

Fortunately for mankind, the weather never objects to being talked about.

CASE WAS SETTLED

Mortgage Action at the Assizes—Court Suggested Arrangement.

This morning's session of the assize court was mainly occupied with the hearing of a disputed mortgage case, which was finally settled out of court. George Cox, retired gentleman, of this city, was the plaintiff, and George and Mrs. Sarah Anne Wale, the defendants. Meredith, Judd & Meredith acted for the plaintiff, and E. Weld and Hume Elliott for the defense. The plaintiff sued for the rectification of a mortgage. Finally, the bench made a suggestion, which was immediately acted upon by the counsel concerned.

BRITISH MISSION A BIG SUCCESS

Ameer Fell On the Necks of the Delegates After Treaty Was Signed.

Simla, May 8.—Mr. Louis Dane, Lord Curzon's foreign secretary, and other members of the British mission to Kabul, sailed for England this week. Interviewed on their experiences, Mr. Dane spoke in the warmest terms of the hospitality of the Ameer and his chiefs. The British were confined all winter to Kabul by deep snow, which was an impassable slough in the heat of the day, and frozen like iron by the arctic cold at night. But everything was done to render their stay agreeable. The Ameer saw the mission constantly, and did all in his power to facilitate the negotiations. The treaty which he eventually signed renews the main features of the former agreement with the Ameer Abdurrahman, and provides for the continuance of the money allowance to Habibullah, the present ruler. The story that the Afghans demanded a seaport is unfounded, but many differences of opinion between the contracting parties naturally arose, necessitating reference to London. The cordiality throughout never slackened.

Great festivities attended the final signature of the treaty. The Ameer for one night broke through the usual restrictions regarding dining with Europeans. At the subsequent parting, his highness literally fell upon the necks of his visitors.

AN INTERESTING CASE

Jchn Shaw Being Sued for Alleged Violation of Election Act.

The case of Charles Burton Lancaster vs. John Shaw, of South London, which is being heard at the assize court today, is exciting much interest at the courthouse.

Mr. Hume Elliott, for the plaintiff, pointed out that the election act provides a penalty of $2,000 against any postmaster voting in the elections, to be collected by any plaintiff. The plaintiff alleges that John Shaw, who has a branch of the London postoffice in connection with his grocery store at 136 Wortley road voted on Jan. 25, and is liable for the sum named.

Mr. G. C. Gibbons, for the defense, claims that there is only one postmaster in London, namely, Mr. John Cameron. Defendant has not much more than a postbox under his charge. Plaintiff claims that there are 60 such sub-postoffices in Toronto, and 150 in Montreal, and that the right of the men in charge of these to vote has never been disputed. Plaintiff does not deny that he voted and claims right always to do so

The extent of Mr. Shaw's postoffice duties is shown by the fact that he gets only $60 a year therefrom.

SUICIDE'S STRANGE METHOD

English Cabin Passenger On the Ottawa Scalds Himself to Death.

Montreal, May 8.—The Dominion Line steamship Ottawa, formerly the Germanic, of the White Star Line, arrived here yesterday with news of the tragic death at sea of an Englishman named Dutton, a cabin passenger. After the vessel had been out a day's sail from Liverpool, Dutton gave evidence of insanity by acting in a violent manner and smashing anything that came within his reach. Upon being lodged in his own cabin he caused such a commotion that it was found necessary to confine him to the hospital quarters. There he tore out the steam attachment, filled the apartment

THE PUPPET CROWN.

BY HAROLD MACGRATH.

[Copyrighted by the Bobbs-Merrill Company, Indianapolis.]

"Pardon me," he said, with mock politeness, "but my hands are tied, and the truth is, I am sleepy."

"Count," said Madame, "release him. He will be too well guarded to fear his escaping."

The Colonel performed this service with alacrity. He honestly admired the young fellow who seldom lost his temper. Besides, he had a sneaking idea that the lad was being unjustly accused.

Maurice got up and stretched himself. He rubbed his wrists, then sat down and waited for the comedy to proceed.

"So you confess," said Madame, "that you sold the consols to the archbishop?"

"I, confess?" Maurice screwed up his lips and began to whistle softly:

"Voici le sabre de mon pere."

"You deny, then?" Madame was fast losing patience, a grave mistake when one is dealing with a banterer.

Maurice changed the tune:

"J'aime les militaires,
Leur uniforme coquet,
Leur moustache et leur plumet—"

"Answer!" with a stamp of her foot.

"Je sais ce que je voudrais,
Je voudrais etre cantiniere!"

"Monsieur," said the pretty countess, after a furtive glance at Madame's stormy eyes, "do you deny?"

The whistle ceased. "Madame, to you I shall say that I neither deny or affirm. The affair is altogether too ridiculous to treat seriously. I have nothing to say." The whistle picked up the thread again.

Doubt began to stir in the eyes of the Englishman. He looked at Madame with a kind of indecision, to find that she was glancing covertly at him. His gaze finally rested on Maurice, who had crossed his legs and was keeping time to the music with his foot. Indeed, these were not the violent protestations of innocence he had looked for. This demeanor was not at all in accord with his expectations. Now that he had possessed Madame's lips, (though she might never possess the consols), Maurice did not appear so guilty.

"Carewe," he said, "you have deceived us from the start."

"Ah! c'est un fameux regiment,
Le regiment de le Grande Duchess!"

"You knew that Madame was Her Highness," went on the Englishman, "and yet you kept that a secret from me. Can you blame me if I doubt you in other respects?"

"Sonnez donc la trompette,
Et battez les tambours!"

And the warbler nodded significantly at Madame, whose frown grew still darker.

"Eh! Monsieur," cried the Colonel, with a protesting hand, "you are out of tune!"

"I should like to know why you returned here," said Madame. "Either you have some plan, or your audacity has no bounds."

The whistle stopped again. "Madame, for once we agree. I, too, should like to know why I returned here."

"Carewe," said Fitzgerald," if you will give me your word—"

"Do not waste your breath, Monsieur," interrupted Madame.

"Will you give me your word?" persisted Fitzgerald, refusing to see the warning in Madame's eyes.

"I will give you nothing, my lord; nothing. I have said that I will answer neither one way or the other. The accusation is too absurd. Now, Madame, what is your pleasure in regard to my disposition?"

"You are to be locked up, Monsieur," tartly. "You are too inquisitive to remain at large."

"My confinement will be of short duration," confidently.

"It rests with my pleasure alone."

"Pardon me if I contradict your Highness. I returned here incidentally as a representative of the British ambassador in Vienna; I volunteered this office at the request of my own minister."

A shade of consternation came into the faces of his audience.

"If nothing is heard of me within two days, an investigation will ensue. It is very droll, but I am here to inquire into the whereabouts of one Lord Fitzgerald, who has disappeared. Telegrams to the four ends of the world have brought no news of his present residence. The archbishop instituted the latter inquiries, because it was urgent and necessary that he should know."

Fitzgerald became enveloped in gloom.

"And your credentials, Monsieur?" said the duchess. "You have them, I presume?"

"I came as a private gentleman; a telegram to my minister in Vienna will bring indorsement."

"Ah! Then you shall be locked up. I cannot accord you recognition; without the essential representations. I see nothing in you but an impertinent meddler. Tomorrow evening you shall be conveyed to Brunnstadt, where you will reside for some time. I can assure you. Perhaps on your head will rest the blood of many gallant gentlemen; for within anther twenty-four hours I shall declare war against Leopold. This will be the consequences of your disloyalty to your word." And she moved toward the door, the others imitating her. Fitzgerald, more than any one else, desired to get away.

And one by one they vanished. Once the countess turned and threw Maurice a glance which mystified him; it was half curtained with tears. Presently he was alone. His eye grasped every object. There was not a weapon in sight; only the bayonets on the table, and he could scarcely hope to escape by use of one of these. A carafe of water stood on the table. He went to it and half emptied it. His back was toward the door. Suddenly it opened. He wheeled, expecting to see the troopers. His surprise was great. Beauvais was leaning aginst the door, a half humorous smile on his lips. The tableau lasted several minutes.

"Well," said Beauvais, "you do not seem very glad to see me."

Maurice remained silent, and continued to gaze at his enemy over the tops of the upturned bayonets.

"You are, as I said before, a very young man."

"I killed a puppet of yours last night," replied Maurice, with a peculiar grimness.

"Eh? So it was you? However, Kopf knew too much; he is dead, thanks to your service. After all, it was a stroke of war; the princess, whose little rose you have, was to have been a hostage."

"If she had refused to be a wife," Maurice replied.

Beauvais curled his moustache.

"I know a good deal more than Kopf."

"You do, certainly; but you are at a convenient nearness. What you know will be of no use to you. Let us sit down."

"I prefer to stand. The honor you do me is too delicate."

"O, you may have no fear."

"I have none—so long as my back isn't turned toward you."

Beauvais passed over this. "You are a very good blade; you handle a sword well. That is a compliment, considering that I am held as the first blade in the kingdom. It was only today that I learned that formerly you had been a cavalry-man in America. You have the making of a soldier."

Maurice bowed, his hand resting near one of the bayonets.

"You are also a soldier of fortune—like myself. You made a good stroke with the archbishop. You hoodwinked us all."

Maurice did not reply.

"Very well; we shall not dwell on it. You are discreet."

Maurice saw that Beauvais was speaking in good faith.

"You have something to say; come to it at once, for it is trying to watch you so closely."

GAME ON SATURDAY RESULTED IN TIE

The Thistles and Bathurst street teams played a game of association football on Saturday evening on the Wolseley Barracks grounds, which resulted in a tie. There was a good attendance notwithstanding the unfavorable weather.

The Barracks team plays a return match with the Thistle Club on Saturday next at 6:30 p.m. As both teams are well matched, another good game of ball is assured. Vistors will be welcome.

The Collegiate Institute and the Wolseley Barracks teams will meet once more, on Wednesday afternoon next at 4:30 o'clock. This will most assuredly be a splendid game, as the former team is determined, if possible, to defeat the Barracks team, who have not been beaten this year.

LION DOWNED PARR IN QUICK ORDER

Hackenschmidt Scored Three Falls With Englishman in Less Than 8 Minutes.

Buffalo, May 7.—Georges Hackenschmidt, the Russian lion, gave a really wonderful exhibition of wrestling before a packed house at Concert Hall last night, downing Jim Parr, the English champion, three falls in less than eght minutes, the time of the bouts being 1:20, 2:50 and 3:40, respectively. The Russian had contracted to put Parr down three times within the space of an hour, and as the match resulted he had over 50 minutes margin when Referee Ed McBride tapped him on the shoulder for the final fall. Weight and strength simply crushed Parr down for the falls and in each instance he had little opportunity to display his remarkable cleverness before being crushed flat to the canvas.

The match, highly sensational as it was almost played second fiddle to the altercation between Frank Gotch and Hackenschmidt, which, while not down on the cards, was a Tabasco sauce affair while it lasted. In a nutshell, Gotch demanded a match from the Russian, and announced that he accepted either of two offers of $5,000 purses, more than Hackenschmidt wrestled for with Jenkins. Hackenschmidt, on the plea of engagements and lack of opportunity to prepare, refused a match, and when Gotch intimated that fear of the issue alone stood in the way, the Russian was furious and declared Gotch would be the first man he would meet on a contemplated visit to America in the autumn of 1906.

CHAMPION LYON DOES WELL AT OLD LONDON

London, May 7. — At the Ashford Manor golf grounds Champion Geo. S. Lyon, of Toronto, made a record of 78 for the course. He started plus two, getting third place. There were 86 entries in the four-ball game at Sunnidale. Hunter and Lyon played against White and Heaing. The former were beaten one up. White is the open champion of Great Britain, with whom Lyon tied. Lyon said Sunnidale course is the hardest and most difficult he ever played over, but yet the finest he has ever seen. Lyon leaves for Prestwick Monday.

THE OAR.

"MIDDIES" BEAT YALE'S CREW.

Annapolis, May 6. — The midshipmen's eight-oared crew this afternoon completely outrowed Yale University crew and defeated their opponents by a quarter of a length of open water in their annual contest over the two-mile course on the Severn River.

BRITT AND NELSON WILL MEET AGAIN

Battling Is to Have a Match With the Californian Next Month.

San Francisco, Col., May 6.—Flushed by his victory over Jabez White, Jimmy Britt is rushing into a return match with Battling Nelson.

His manager, Billy Nolan, met Britt at Harry Corbett's this afternoon, and although no articles were signed, it was announced that the match is more than likely to be made within the next few days, the men to fight early in June. This result is due to the foxy work of Manager Nolan. He had Battling Nelson at the ringside when Britt and White climbed into the ring last night, and the Dane was, of course, introduced to the crowd. In a carefully-rehearsed speech he issued a challenge to the winner, but the talk was so worded that Britt couldn't have dodged the Dane, even if he had lost, and kept his reputation.

The talk made a hit with the crowd, which yelled and cheered for the boy from Hegewisch. If there is anything Britt does not like, it is to see a rival get an ovation. He accepted the challenge at once, and then Nolan got in his work again and made Jimmie promise to meet him at Harry Corbett's this afternoon. This fact was published broadcast and the native son had no chance to dodge.

The coup will result in keeping Nelson in this climate for some time. He may possibly get a chance for a short trip east, but it is more than likely that he will stay here and cancel the engagements which have been arranged for him in Chicago and Philadelphia. The match with Tommy Mowat at Salt Lake City will also have to be postponed.

Britt was around town today, wearing the airs of a bantam rooster. He proclaimed himself light-weight champion of the world to everyone who would listen to him and declared his willingness to meet anyone in the world at the ringside limit.

White's plans have not yet been announced, but he will probably go back to England soon. He takes his defeat manfully and has few excuses to offer. The question of his appearing in other fights on this side is not yet settled. He may engage in a couple of six-round goes at Philadelphia.

The house was small, the receipts being only $9,138, of which Britt got $2,290 40 and White $1,527 60. The smallness of the receipts was due to the general belief that White was too old to put up a good fight. If he had bexed in public before the fight he would have drawn a big crowd.

INTERMEDIATE LACROSSE LEAGUE WRECKED

Montreal, May 7.—The National Intermediate Lacrosse League has been wrecked. The league, which consisted of four clubs, Montcalms (Quebec) and Sherbrooke, held its annual convention Saturday night last, and some difficulty was caused by the fact that the out-of-town clubs would not be as liberal in the matter of expenses as the Montreal clubs desired. The next day a new league was formed, to which a new Quebec club, the Balmagow Club, was admitted, and several city clubs also for a long time had been trying to be admitted as members of the old league. Now comes the news that the Shamrocks have resigned from the old league, and this step will probably be followed by the resignation of the Montrealers.

FITZGERALD WILL NOT START AT BELMONT

New York, May 6.—"Chris" Fitzgerald will not be one of the starters at Belmont Park, notwithstanding it is so stated in the stake books.

"It was an error of somebody's in making up the list of officials," said Fitzgerald. "I am out of the starting business for good, I hope. It is a very thankless position in which a man gets all the abuse possible and very little credit. A starter can make a thousand good starts and one bad one, and there is no forgiveness for the one mistake. More consideration should be shown to starters, for they have a very trying position."

IN A SEA OF MUD, GALT WON HONORS

Defeated the Royal Canadians of Toronto for Provincial Honors.

Galt, May 6. — In a pelting rain, on a field ankle-deep in mud, in view of a small bunch of spectaters, the match for the provincial championship of the W. F. A. between Galt and the Royal Canadians, of Toronto, was played here this afternoon on Dickson Park. The day opened fine and the hopes that the play would be favored with king's weather bid fair to be realized. But the clouds began to gather at 9 o'clock and by 10 o'clock a steady downpour had set in and kept up with rare intermissions all the rest of the day.

The Torontos were asked to postpone the match and the offer of all expenses for another visit was made, but the visitors were firm in their decision to have the agony over at any cost. "We'll play if it should rain Texas steers with their tails up and heads down," declared the captain. And so there was nothing for the home men but to get into uniforms and go out into the slop. The ball was soaked within a short time and play with a dead pigskin went along in most distressing fashion.

The first half yielded one goal to Galt. The second half added another, and that was the last scored. Two to nothing was hardly what was expected, in view of the promises of the husky fellows from the Queen City, but there is no denying that Galt laid out to win. There was clean play the first half, but in the second half the visitors mixed it up. The umpire penalized one.

Galt scored on a foul, but it wasn't allowed. They got a penalty kick and missed. Brady, however, succeeded in scoring ten minutes before half time. The second goal was got by Finlayson on a happy chance, the Toronto goalkeeper missing the soggy ball, and it was butted in. Toronto only had one chance to score and failed to make good. There was nothing to note of individual play under the weather con-

NOT A FAVORITE WON AT BELMONT PARK

New York, May 6.—The Toboggan Handicap at six furlongs, on the straightaway track, brought together at Belmont Park today the fastest field of sprinters that has faced the bag in the east this spring. At the end of a hard drive, with every horse close up, D. C. Johnson's Roseben won by a neck, beating Sparkling Star, which was a length in front of Pasadena. Roseben was as good as 8 to 1 in the betting. So evenly was the field matched all the horses were offered at liberal odds, James R. Keene's Israelite ruling as the favorite at 4 to 1. When the field cameinto view Roseben and Wotan were fighting for the lead, wit Diamnd else by. A sixteenth of a mile from the finish Wotan faltered and gradually fell back. Diamond also tired badly.

The disappointment of the race was the performance of Race King, which on Thursday ran a dead heat with Sysonby in the Metropolitan Handicap. Today Race King was never prominent.

Anodyne won the Bouquet Selling stakes for two-year-olds by the shortest of margins from Gallavant.

Of the eleven starters in the steeplechase, only four finished, the others falling at the various jumps, which are said to be unusually stiff on this course. The winner, Flying Virginian, was backed down from 8 to 1 to 3 to 1. Palette, at 30 to 1, won the last race. Not a favorite won.

THE AUTO.

NEW RECORD FOR 1,000 MILES.

New York, May 6.—After being continuously in motion from 9:38 a.m. yesterday, in an automobile, Charles G. Wridgeway, of New York, covered 1,000 miles over the Brighton Beach race track before noon today in 25 hours, 50 minutes, 1 second. This beats the record made by Schmidt at the Grosse Fointe track, Detroit, last year, by 4 hours, 3 minutes and 36 seconds. During the night the track was partly illuminated with calcium lights, and Mr. Wridgeway reduced the speed of his machine to avoid possible accident, but after daylight he went at top racing speed, only slowing down occasionally to refill the gasoline tanks.

INFERNO HOLDS WORK-OUT RECORD

Seagram Entry Leads All Platers—Race Day Is Not Two Weeks Away.

Saturday's Toronto News: Two weeks from today the flag will fall at the Woodbine for the spring meeting. The track has been in the best of shape for the past week, with the exception of one day, that being Friday, and it was then a little sticky owing to the heavy rain of the night before. There has been no great developments during the week's work at training. The platers are all doing their work without being hustled along. The work of Inferno, the Seagram candidate, has not been equaled by any of the others, as far as time is concerned. But the trial of Will King was equally as good. The race now looks to lie between this pair and the one that can beat them will get all the money. The Seagram colt is a good breaker and gets along quickly. On the other hand, Will King is slower to break and get away, but can come from behind. The one that looks to have the next best chance is from the Davies string, for Capercailzie is a rare good-looking 3-year-old, and in his work he has proven that he can carry weight.

There are a lot of horses at the track at the present time and more are coming in each day. The spring meeting of the O. J. C. of 1905 promises to be one of if not the best that has ever been held in Canada. There is no doubt that the interest is all centered in the winning of the King's plate, and it is the candidates for this event that receive the most attention from the clockers, who go down in the early morning to watch the work-outs. There will be some good steeplechase races this year, as there are more leppers at the track than has ever been known before. They are all doing well and this week will be a busy one for them, as they will be allowed to train in the field on Tuesdays, Saturdays and Thursdays. Up to the present time, they have been schooled over the jumps erected on the new back stretch. Starter Murray's assistant is here with his starting machine, and a lot of horses, particularly 2-year-olds, have been put through their work of breaking away from it. It is more than likely that the officials will be the same as last season, and they will be announced next week.

ATHLETICS.

A 25-MILE RACE.

St. Louis, May 6. — Joseph Forshaw, of St. Louis, representing the Missouri Athletic Club, won the first Marathon race given under the auspices of his club. There were fifteen starters and Forshaw covered the 25 miles, from Freeburg, Ill., to the Missouri Athletic Club's clubhouse, in three hours and fourteen minutes, finishing in fine form. Hatch, unattached, of Chicago, was second; Felix Carvajal, of Cuba, wearing Missouri A. C. colors, was third.

CORNELL RECORDS SMASHED.

Ithaca, N. Y., May 6.—Cornell today defeated Princeton in a dual track meet by a score of 74 to 43. Three Cornell records were broken, all by Cornell men. Ashburner lowered the 120-yard hurdles record 1-5 of a second, going the distance in 15 2-5 seconds, and Munson broke his own record in the mile by 3-5 of a second, setting up a mark of 4:24 2-5. T. M. Jackson beat the pole vault record by 3 3-8 inches, vaulting 11 feet 9 3-8 inches.

FOOTBALL.

NEITHER SIDE SCORED.

Brussels, Ont., May 6. — The first intermediate football match of the season was played in Victoria Park tonight with the Winghams. The champions appeared in very poor form, but kept the ball upon Wingham district all the time, Brussels' goal-keeper did not have a shot. Brown Jackson, of Seaforth, was referee. After 50 minutes' play the score ended in a tie—0 all.

AYR EASY FOR GUELPH.

Guelph, May 6. — In an intermediate W. F. A. game here this afternoon Guelph defeated Ayr by a score of 4 to 0. Owing to the rainy weather the grounds were in a sloppy condition, but nevertheless play was strenuous. One goal was scored in the first half and three in the second. W. E. Buckingham refereed satisfactorily. The teams:

Guelph—Goal, Clough; backs McPherson McDonald; halves, Lumsden, Ballantine, Partridge; forwards, Gemmell, Burns, Colwell, Campbell, Davidson.

Ayr—Goal, G. Willison; backs, Mitchell, W. Willison; halves, Cress, W. Rennie, Aiken; forwards, Lovett, C. Morton, E. Morton, Wilson and Watson.

YACHTING.

ONE CHALLENGE ARRIVES.

New York, May 6. — Lord Brassey's yacht Sunbeam, which will take part in the ocean race for Emperor William's cup, arrived here today from St. Thomas. On board were Lord Brassey and four guests. The Sunbeam left Southampton 34 days ago stopping at Madeira, Las Palmas and St. Thomas. In that time she covered 6,500 miles, 3,919 miles under sail. Her average day's run for the 34 days was 194 knots.

AN OCEAN RACE.

Boston, May 6. — The regatta committee of the Eastern Yacht Club announced today that it has perfected arrangements for an ocean race from Marblehead to Halifax, to start Aug. 21. The event will be open to sailing vessels of all classes in both the Eastern and New York Yacht Clubs.

BASEBALL.

LEAGUE DID NOT OPEN.

There were no games in the City League on Saturday. A heavy rain prevailed the greater part of the day, making the grounds unfit for play.

GORTON DESERTS.

Sioux City, Ia., May 6.—Lyman Gorton, catcher for the Packers, has deserted his team and left for Niles, O., where he will manage an independent team. Manager Jack Carney will blacklist him and he will never be able to play again in anything but independent clubs or outlaw leagues. Manager Carney is much incensed over the desertion of Gorton. He had received $100 cash, his transportation from Toronto, Can., and his expenses for three weeks had been paid in this city. He has had a lame arm all the time since he reported, and Manager Carney has treated him with the greatest liberality. "It is all off with Gorton," said Carney. "I will see that he never gets into fast company. I considered him a first-class ball player and he had my word that he would not be released. He reported with a lame arm and he has been petted ever since he joined the team. He did not have any kick coming and I cannot see why he should desert us."

CLARKSON IN SANATORIUM.

Bay City, May 5. — John Clarkson, former famous ball player, has gone to a sanaterium at Flint for rest and treatment. For some time past Clarkson has suffered from a sort of absent-mindedness and faulty memory, and he decided to get away from his business for a time, in the hope of remedying his condition.

THE TURF.

SATURDAY'S WINNERS.

At New York—Irene Lindsey, 9 to 2; Andrie, 4 to 1; Anodyne, 6 to 1; Roselen, 8 to 1; Flying Virginian, 3 to 1; Palette, 30 to 1.

At Lexington—French Nun, 5 to 2; Lord Kent, 6 to 5; Autumn Leaves, 4 to 1; Charlie Eastman, 3 to 1; Hand-More, 8 to 5; Athlone, 12 to 1.

RAM'S HORN ON SICK LIST.

Lexington, Ky., May 6. — Ram's Horn, Capt. J. T. Williams' great colt, winner of the Montgomery Handicap and other brilliant races, may not go to the post in the Kentucky Derby. Ram's Horn is sick. The absence of this great colt in the derby will detract greatly from the interest in the big event, as western turfmen are eager and anxious to see the Williams crack and Agile meet in a contest over a derby route.

BIG PRICE FOR A HORSE.

London, May 6. — William A. H. Bass has purchased C. D. Rose's stallion Cyllene for $150,000. Cyllene is the sire of this year's derby favorite, Cicero. Mr. Bass gave $125,000 for R. R. Sievers Scepter in 1903.

UNUSUAL REQUEST OF JURY GRANTED

With Verdict Still To Be Rendered, Members Are Allowed Home for Sunday.

There was no Saturday half-holiday for those connected with the spring assize court now in session. In fact, Saturday afternoon was one of the busiest sittings that Mr. Justice Meredith has had during his two weeks, just concluded on the London bench. No sooner had the Proctor murder trial come to a finish than Martin Quinn came up for sentence. Then the case of Navin vs. the L. E. and D. R. R. was called, and it lasted until 6:30 o'clock.

His lordship had intended to call the court later on Saturday evening to receive the jury's verdict in the Navin case but the foreman appeared in the courtroom a moment after the jury had retired, and requested that the bench grant the jury permission to go home over Sunday. He pointed out what hard work the jurymen had been doing for the past fortnight, and that the majority of those on the Navin jury had served in the preceding cases.

The request to allow a jury to go to their homes with a verdict yet unconsidered was a strange one, but the bench appreciated what the foreman had urged as a reason for such an unusual procedure, and agreed to accede if the counsel on both sides would consent. These were perfectly agreeable, and so the jury spent Sunday with their families, and will reassembled at the courthouse at 11 o'clock this morning to consider their verdict.

All the other jurymen have been finally dismissed, the Navin case being the last jury suit on the docket. There still remain three non-jury cases, but these will be disposed of in short order. The most interesting of these cases is the suit which Charles Lancaster is bringing against the South London postmaster, John Shaw, who, the plaintiff alleges, voted at the last Dominion elections contrary to law. It is said that any postmaster who votes in a Dominion election may be penalized to the extent of $2,000. The plaintiff is claiming this amount. Much interest has been excited by the case, which is of an unusual nature.

NEW OFFICE CREATED.

The Ontario Government has appointed Alexander Touranjeau, of Windsor, to be superintendent of the construction of colonization bridges in Northern Ontario. The office is a new one.

BEEKEEPERS MET.

The Middlesex Beekeepers met in the city hall on Saturday, President Smith in the chair. During the meeting Mr. D. Anguish, the association's delegate to the Ontario convention, read a report of the meeting, and Mr. F. A. Gemmell gave a talk on wax extracting. Addresses were given by Messrs. F. J. Miller, President Smith, R. F. Holtermann and Editor Craig, of the Canadian Bee Journal.

AGED MAN FELL DEAD.

While in the act of taking a drink of water from a tap in the kitchen of the Aged People's Home, John Rudd, an inmate of the institution, fell dead, on Saturday morning. It was at first thought the old man had merely fainted, but an examination showed that he had died of heart disease. The deceased, who had lived in South London over a quarter of a century, was in his 72nd year.

RURAL DEANERY TO MEET.

The rural deanery of Middlesex will hold its quarterly meeting in Cronyn Hall next Wednesday morning. Rev. Dr. Tucker, general secretary for missions, will address the meeting at 4 o'clock and all church workers are invited to hear this distinguished preacher. Another meeting will be held in the evening, when Dr. Tucker, Rev. C. L. Jeffrey, of Winnipeg, and the bishop will speak.

SEVENTH REGIMENT PARADE.

The Seventh Regiment will have its usual weekly parade this evening to Tecumseh Park for drill. Both bands will be present. Should the evening prove fine a large attendance is assured. The regiment is making rapid strides in its drill and will prove a credit to London on its holiday outing.

THE LATE C. S. SULSTON.

The funeral of the late Charles Spencer Sulston, of Kilworth, was held from the family residence, Kilworth, on Wednesday afternoon, to Woodland Cemetery. The service was conducted by the Rev. J. A. Faircock, of the English Church at Byron, the Methodist choir assisting in the singing. The pall-bearers were four of his Sunday school class, A. Hoover, A. Brayford, E. Kilbourne, S. Kilbourne, and F. Pulham, E. Pulham, the last being the young man who was in the boat with him when he lost his life. A number of floral offerings were placed on the casket, among them being an anchor from the members of the family; a wreath from the Methodist Sunday school, and a spray from his class; a wreath from school section No. 9, Lobo; a spray from Mrs. J. Oliver; a wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Parsons, Komoka; and a spray from McKendry's workroom, Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Sulston and family wish to thank the community for the kindness shown them in their sad bereavement.

DIAMOND RINGS STOLEN ON TRAIN

London Lady Loses $300 Worth of Jewelry While Returning From Chicago.

While on her way from Chicago to London yesterday, Mrs. Charles M. Ward, of Maitland street, lost three diamond rings, valued at $300, presumably through theft. It was at Sarnia Tunnel that Mrs. Ward first missed the jewelry, and all efforts which have since been made to locate it have met with failure.

In company with two other ladies, Mrs. Ward was traveling in Pullman car "Eastcourt." When she arose yesterday morning, she left a satchel containing several valuable rings in her berth. It was an hour later that Mrs. Ward bethought herself of the rings, and went to get them. The satchel had disappeared. All the passengers readily allowed themselves to be searched, but without avail. It was then determined to search the persons of the conductor and the porter, F. H. Thompson and T. N. Clayton, respectively. These two, however, at first refused to be subjected to such indignity, claiming that it was against the railway regulations.

When the train arrived here, therefore, the two men were brought before the assistant superintendnt of this division of th G. T. R. A thorough search revealed no clew to the whereabouts of the jewels. The train started for Hamilton with the valuable articles still on the missing list.

A friend of Mrs. Ward's telephoned the police at Hamilton to have the car examined very carefully. The chief of police there refused, however, to have anything to do with the case, saying that it was beyond his jurisdiction. The train reached New York, the last passengers departed, cars were sidetracked, and no jewels have been found.

NO CHANGE MADE IN BOARD RULES

Dairymen's Exchange Will Continue Under Old Regulations —Officers Chosen.

The London Dairymen's Exchange met in the city hall on Saturday afternoon, and organized for the year. The officers chosen were:

President—W. F. Sanderson, Rannock.

Vice-President—S. P. Brown, Mapleton.

Secretary-Treasurer — J. A. Nelles, London (re-elected).

Auditor—T. B. Millar, London.

Directors—David Smith, Widder; Martin Kidd, Aylmer; Thomas Ballantyne, jun., Stratford; J. W. Symington, Camlachie; James H. Thomas, Ingersoll.

Western Fair Representatives—J. R. Isaacs and T. B. Millar, London.

The rules governing the board in 1904 were adopted for the present season, no change being suggested.

Being the opening market of the year, the offerings were light, amounting to only 287 boxes. Mapleton, 75 boxes, were sold at 9¾ cents. The other factories represented were: Lyons 73 boxes, Firby 55 boxes, Malahide, 52 boxes, and Aylmer 32 boxes.

WEDDED FIFTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Breen Celebrate Their Golden Wedding.

The celebration of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Breen, of London township, on Saturday, proved to be one of the most enjoyable occasions of the kind ever known in the district. At night a splendid dinner was given to over 70 guests. Mr. R. H. Dignan, registrar of London, was made chairman, and after the dinner had been disposed of, a lengthy toast list was carried out. First the health of the King was proposed, and this was responded to by the company singing "God Save the King." Next a toast to the health of the bride and groom was drunk this toast eliciting loud applause from the guests. Then a toast to the company, couple with the name of Dr. Niven, was proposed, and the doctor made a very neat reply. "The London Hunt" came next on the list, and it was coupled with the name of Dr. Abbott, who made a brief speech on behalf of the club. Speeches were also made by Mr. Joseph Marshall, ex-M. P., Dr. Routledge, ex-M. P. P., and others. During the evening a handsome gold-mounted umbrella was presented to Mr. Breen by the London Hunt Club, and many other valuable presents were also received by Mr. and Mrs. Breen from other sources.

Fell From Upstair Window And Died in Twelve Hours

Fatal Accident to Miss Mary J. Rogers, of Simcoe Street.

While cleaning windows at her home at 343 Simcoe street on Saturday afternoon, Miss Mary Jane Rogers, daughter of the late James and Martha Rogers, of this city, fell from an upstairs window to the lawn below, and sustained injuries from which she died at 6 o'clock Sunday morning.

Miss Rogers was engaged in housecleaning, and was working at a window on the front of the house from which the sashes had been removed. In some manner she lost her balance, and fell backwards on to the veranda, finally rolling to the ground below. Her sister heard the fall and rushed to her assistance. Outside she found the unfortunate woman lying on the lawn, unable to speak, but perfectly conscious. The physician was called and found Miss Rogers to be completely paralyzed, the spinal cord being ruptured, and she was also suffering from hemorrhages of the brain. Though the doctor informed the family that her injuries were of the most serious character, her death was not looked for until a couple of minutes before it occurred.

The deceased is survived by one brother, William, of Armstrong, B. C., and three sisters, Mrs. D. Warren, Tonkawa, Okla., and Miss Dora, of the staff of the Simcoe street school, and Miss Bessie, at home.

QUINN WAS NOT INNOCENT DUPE

Judge Meredith Believed Money Caused Him to Commit Serious Offense.

In sentencing Martin Quinn to one year in the Central Prison for perjury, Mr. Justice Meredith on Saturday said:

"There are two suggestions made in your favor. The first is that you are the innocent dupe of designing persons. I am not inclined to believe that. I think that that which led you astray was nothing more than a $5 or $10 bill. But if the first is true, you ought to have disclosed who were guilty of actuating this deed. If you had done this, you might have escaped most of the punishment which I have to inflict upon you. It has been suggested that your crime has become so common that it is quite a slight offense, and in the nature of a joke. I sincerely trust that this is not so. Consider what your act was. You deliberately took away the right of another man to vote. You did a wrong to that man by pretending to be he. You did a wrong to the party against whom you cast your vote. You did a graver wrong to the party for whom you voted by causing accusations to be made against them. I say you did that party a hundredfold more harm than your paltry vote was worth. You stole the right of another, you misled the public officers, and did a great wrong to your own conscience."

Until recently it was almost universally believed that petroleum, like coal, was derived from fossil vegetation, or possibly from animals or fishes of some long-past age. Now it is asserted by many scientific men that it may not be of any organic origin, but may be due to subterranean chemical action.

EARL GREY MAY COME TO FESTIVAL

Governor-General Invited by St. Andrew's Society to Big Event.

A general meeting of St. Andrew's Society was held in Somerset Hall Saturday evening, at which arrangements were practically completed for the appearance of the Theodore Thomas Orchestra here on the occasion of the big musical festival on May 24 and 25.

The members present were informed that the executive had invited Earl Grey, the Governor-General, to attend the musical festival, and the invitation was heartily indorsed by all present. It was pointed out that his excellency could at the same time open the nurses' home, and the belief was expressed that his visit is now assured.

That the festival will be a great success is evidenced by the large demand for seats from outside points, parties from Windsor, Toronto and intermediate points having already secured seats. Though it is not generally known the orchestra will not be heard in any city in Canada but London, and London is only favored with a visit from the famous musical organization through the enterprise of St. Andrew's Society, who have put up a very large guarantee.

BIG CONTRACT HAS EASTERN CHURCH

Rev. C. L. Jeffrey Says Supply of Clergy for West Is a Vital Matter.

Yesterday the congregations of the Church of England in the archdeaconry of London were auditors to impressive sermons upon the subject of missions. A number of the clergy changed pulpits for the day and several visitors from outside the diocese delivered sermons.

One of the most interesting sermons of the day was that given in St. Paul's Cathedral yesterday morning by Rev. C. L. Jeffrey, of the great Diocese of Rupert's Land, Manitoba. Mr. Jeffrey pointed out that a generation ago Rupert's Land embraced the whole Northwest, with one bishop at the head of all. Now there were 13 dioceses in the Northwest and 300 Anglican clergymen.

"A week ago Thursday," continued the reverend gentleman, "1,800 immigrants entered Winnipeg. On Friday, 1,900 came in, and on Saturday, 2,000. You can figure out for yourselves how long it will take at this rate to add 100,000 to the population of the west. And these are but the low lappings of the tide of immigration, which will soon fill those vast territories with human souls. It is expected that fully 200,000 immigrants will enter this year. In the year 1870, Winnipeg was but a trading post. Last year, $10,000,000 was spent on building in that city, and that figure will undoubtedly be surpassed this year, since already this season $2,000,000 have been expended in that direction."

The speaker said that, without taking missionary work into consideration, the church of Eastern Canada had a large contract on its hands by simply supplying clergymen for the immigrants already of Anglican persuasion. But then the great problem of dealing with the foreigners, especially the Galicians, had to be faced.

"We don't want these people to perpetuate the life of their own country in Canada, and the best way to assimilate them is to extend to them the blessings of Christianity. And the Indians of the Northwest are like Lazarus laid at the door of the Christian church, asking to be fed. From them we have inherited the vast prairies, while the white man's diseases and his firewater have been ruinous to the redmen."

The Bishop of Huron preached in the morning to a large congregation in St. John's Church, and in the evening at the cathedral. He dwelt eloquently upon the responsibility of the Christian church to spread the Gospel.

Visiting clergymen, hailing from nearer fields than Mr. Jeffrey, were as follows: Rev. Messrs. T. R. O'Meara, Trinity Church, Toronto; C. R. Gunne, Clinton; Canon Brown, Paris; Rural Dean Ridley, of Galt, and Collins, of Birr.

MRS. NAVIN ASKS $20,000 DAMAGES

Widow of G. T. R.'s Late Yardmaster Sues the L. E. and D. R. R.

The circumstances of the Navin case, which occupied the attention of the assize court all Saturday afternoon, are well known to the public. The plaintiff is Mrs. Joseph Navin, who is suing the L. E. and D. R. R. for $20,000 damages for the death of her husband, Joseph Navin, yardmaster of the G. T. R.

The fatality occurred near Colborne street, just a few days after that in which William Wilson, another yardman, met a terrible death. A number of G. T. R. coal cars stood on a siding, awaiting removal by the Lake Erie. Navin and a companion were crossing the track at the end of these cars, when they were suddenly shunted at the other end by several other cars. Navin was knocked down, and was under the wheels in a moment. His companion, who was a couple of steps in advance, escaped.

Mr. G. C. Gibbons, acting for the London Trust Company, who have charge of the affairs of the plaintiff, claimed that it was an illegal "running shunt" which caused Navin's death. That is, the cars which shunted into the ones that passed over Navin, had been set free by an engine a long distance away. Plaintiffs also claimed that Ryan, who was braking on the running cars, gave Navin no sufficient warning. Two other employes, Gillett and Hill, gave interesting evidence.

Mr. J. J. Coburn, for the defendants, said that the railway were under no obligation to see whether anyone was in the way before moving their cars. Should not Navin have looked to the east, the direction from which the cars were coming, before crossing the track? If he had he would be alive today. Defendants claimed that Navin was talking to Hill, instead of looking out for his own safety.

The judge explained the law, which states that a railway employe who meets with an accident from others engaged on the same road cannot claim more than three years' salary; but the court pointed out that the plaintiffs claimed that since Navin met his death through the action of the employes of another railway, his widow could claim unlimited damages.

DON'T DRIFT

Rev. Mr. Coulter Appeals to Young Men and Women.

At the Hill Street Methodist Church last night, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Coulter, preached an eloquent sermon on the subject, "Don't Drift." His appeal was made especially to young men and women to avoid drifting into the snares of a fast life, and in vivid terms he pictured to them the ease with which the slide down the hill of crime can be beg in.

"You who come from the country," he said, "and who are just entering the whirl of city life, be careful lest you drift. It is all new to you now, and the fascination of the city's speed attracts you. But remember that you will begin by tolerating little things, and will end up by not knowing what it is to blush. If they tell you now that you are easily made blush, thank God that they are able to tell you this. It's a mark of purity and righteousness. Identify yourself with some church. Any church will do you good. But don't drift."

One Hundred Russians Killed.

St. Petersburg, May 8. — Persian frontier reports state that the Governor of Ardebil has been recalled to Teheran in consequence of an attempt to move the frontier post at Beljasuware into Russian territory. A conflict with the Russian frontier guard occurred in which it is reported 100 Russians were killed.

After carefully examining a great many specimens, we have decided that the importance women attach to seeing a brand new baby is greatly exaggerated.
