It was a silver coloured flashlight with a clip on the side of it, a pencil or pen light. (Witness is shown a flashlight) That is my flashlight, I recognize it by the colour of it, the rings on it, the clip on the side of it. (Flashlight is marked Exhibit "1" by the Court) I saw the flashlight next on the 11 May in the guard room and I identified it as mine.

I am D 129384 Pte MacIntosh, I, RCOC, on strength No 6 CIRU, in "G" Coy, on the night of the 9 May 44 I was living in hut 57. I went to bed that night at approximately 2230 hours and I woke early in the morning. In the meantime I lost a Waterman's fountain pen, it was grey coloured pen. It was in my battle dress pocket hanging on a hanger at the head of my bed. I looked for my pen in the morning and it was gone. I saw it next at 1500 hours on the 11 May at the guard room, (Witness is shown a fountain pen) That is it, it is my pen, I have a pencil that matches it (shows Court a pencil) I know it also by the red bars, it is a Waterman's pen. (Fountain pen is marked Exhibit "2" by the Court).

DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

In the opinion of the Court it is necessary to comply with RP 83(3)

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
K 50049 Pte TODD, T.G., RCOC, on strength of No 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn states:

I am K 50049 Pte Todd, T.G., RCOC, on strength "G" Coy, No 6 CIRU. On the night of 9 May 44 I was living in hut 50. That night I went to bed about 2200 hours. I awoke next morning early and missed a leather case containing a Waterman's pen and pencil set , the pen and pencil were brown and the case was brown leather. I lost also a brown leather belt. The leather belt had a brass buckle, I saw the belt on Pte Smith, J.L., he and Pte Shaw, the accused (Pte Smith) were in a pub in Otley at the time. The pen and pencil set I saw next in the guard room on 11 may 44. The set was sort of brown with streaks in it, my name was on the flap of the case and there was two fib marks on the barrel of the pen and pencil. (Witness is shown a pen and pencil set and continues) These are mine I recognise them by the marks on them, and the case has my name on it. (Set marked Exhibit "3" by the Court)

"DIM"

(Witness is shown brown leather belt) I see the spots on this belt, I am sure it is mine, there is also a slice underneath the buckle (belt is marked Exhibit "4" by the Court) I missed these articles between going to sleep and waking the next morning. I left my pen and pencil in my tunic pocket hanging above my bed and the belt was in the loops in my trousers and were with my tunic on the coat hanger, I know Smith J.L., I also know Pte J.E. Shaw of the RCOC, Pte Smith is in Court in this room (pointing to him). On the 10 May I saw the accused in Whittaker's public house in Otley with Pte Shaw, that was about 2100 hours. Goettler, Martin, and Hamilton were with me. I saw the accused wearing my belt (Exhibit "4") I went to the police station later. I identified the belt on the Identification parade and not in the police station. When the accused had this belt on Shaw was with him and them were sitting five or six feet from me. They were drinking and smoking, they appeared to be under the influence of liquor. They were together most of the time, they parted for a little while at one time, I thought perhaps one of them went to the latrine, that was just before the Provost came, I really did not notice where they went. I know where the lavatory is and don't think that the accused and Shaw went there together during the time I was there.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I would not consider that the accused was drunk, I think that when a man is drunk he is not in his proper senses and these men seemed to be quite normal, they were feeling pretty good I guess but not drunk. They were in this pub about 15 minutes that I know of.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

4th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

L 104988 Pte TETLOCK, RCOC, on strength of No 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn states:

I had left them in my tunic pocket hanging on the wall. It is a set and the pencil has a black spot at the bottom. The pen fills with a plunger and not a lever. (Witness is shown a pen) That is my pen. (Pen marked Exhibit "G") (Witness is shown a pencil) That is my pencil. (Pencil marked Exhibit "G" by the Court). I never had a leather case for this set. I went to bed about 2200 hours that night and I awoke next morning and found I had lost my Kit, that is my writing kit. My kit bag was open and I knew by that something was wrong, I had not left it open, upon looking at it I found my writing kit was gone and with it a Waterman's fountain pen, it was brown and in a black and gold card board box that was torn.

I next saw my pen and the box on the 11 May about 1330 hours or so at the identification parade. The pen had green ink in it, the box was torn though and that was about the only way I had of identifying it. (Witness is shown a box which he examines) The box is definitely mine, there are other pens I suppose, like it, but it is similar to the one I lost. (The box with pen is marked Exhibit "7" by the Court).

When I awoke next morning I found that I had lost my watch, it was an American Waltham pocket watch. I had left it in my battle dress tunic pocket hanging on the wall near my bed. Besides being a Waltham pocket watch I could identify it by some marks I got on it while working in Montreal in a garage, my watch fell into a grinder and made some marks on the back of my watch. I was also working with acid and there was a stain on the watch. (Witness is shown a watch) He examines it and continues - This is my watch, the marks are there on the back of it, the number is 10628885 (Watch is marked Exhibit "8" by the Court) The next time I saw the watch was about 1300 hours on the 11 May 44, it was in No 2 Guard HQUse.

It is a "Lucky"lighter, it is marked on it "Lucky lighter". It was in my trousers pocket which were hanging on the wall near my bed. (Witness is shown a lighter) It is my lighter, it is a Thorens make lighter. (Lighter is marked Exhibit "9" by the Court).

DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

8th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

A 102253 Pte GOETTLER, E.L., RCOC, on strength No 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn states:

I am A 102253 Pte Goettler, E.L., RCOC, on strength "C" Coy of No 6 CIRU, on the night of 9 May I was in hut 57. I went to bed about 2230 hours that night and when I woke the next morning I found I had lost a Ronson lighter. It was in my trousers pocket hanging up on the end of my bed. It had my initials on it "ELG". It was crome coloured. I saw it next the following evening, I was called to identify it at the Otley civilian police station.

"ELG"

("itness is shown a lighter) (Witness examined lighter) This is my lighter, here are my initials engraved on it. (Lighter marked Exhibit "10" by the Court). I know E 52670 Pte J. L. Smith of the Toronto Scottish, he is here in the Court, he is the man without a hat. I also know G 32231 Pte J.E. Shaw, he is not in theCourt. On the 10th May 44 I Was in Whittakers Pub in Otley and I saw the accused in the pblic bar at about 2130 hours. I was not alone, Martin, Todd and Hamilton were with me. The accused was with Pte Shaw and some other friends, they were drinking beer. I saw the accused drinking and smoking, I saw him use a lighter a time or two, one that I would presume to be a Ronson. Smith, the accused was dressed in battle dress, he was wearing a tam. He had a large brown belt with a brass buckle and in my presence Pte Todd said he was sure it was his belt. Later I left the pub and the accused and Shaw left also. I went to the wash room and when I went in I was alone, but Smith and Shaw came in a little after I did, they came in together, the were standing close to me, about a foot from me. While we were there I happened to hear Pte Smith make a statement that he intended to go to Leeds that evening and did not care if he was AWL. The remark was made by Smith to Shaw. There is no question about them being there together or this remark, it was about 2145 hours, between then and 2200 hours, this was in Whittakers pub. I later went to the police station in Otley and identified my Ronson lighter, Exhibit "10". Todd identified his pen and pencil set. There was a table with numerous articles and the accused was there,it was not a complete identification of all the articles, it was just for us to identify our own articles if they were there. The real identification parade was held the next day at 1300 hours at the guard room.

Smith was using a lighter in the pub, he was flipping it off and on and fooled around with it in such a manner that drew my attention to it, it was how he handled it, he did not appear to be accustomed to using a Ronson lighter. I saw them drinking and I would say thattheir condition showed them to be slightly under the influence of liquor, although it is pretty hard to judge a man's condition.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I am not in a position to say whether they were drunk or not, I think it is pretty hard for a man to judge another man's condition. During the period we were there we had only one or two glasses of beer. His actions made me think that he had drank considerable, he appeared to be feeling pretty good, I would not say he was "high", he was not sober, he was not drunk, he was perhaps just on thevergo of being drunk.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 82(B)

9th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
D 105180 Pte KAUFMAN, A.S., RCOC. on strength No 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn states:

It had a chain and a Hebrew word engraves on it, in Hebrew. My pen and pencil set was a Parker , it was in a black leather case. (Witness is shown a pen and pencil set and continues after studying them) this is my set. (Set marked Exhibit "11" by the Court).

(Locket is marked Exhibit "12" by the Court) I had these articles in a pocket in my tunic hanging near my bed on the hook. The next morning I found the tunic laying on the floor. I saw the pen and pencil set the next day in No 2 Guard room on a identification parade. My wallet is still missing.

Next morning I happened to be first one up and put on my pants. Because of being lucky at getting some English money the night before I put my hand in my pocket to see how much I had left and found it was gone, then I noticed my fountain pen and pencil was also gone. It was a maroon set in a brown leather case. I had left it in my jacket pocket and had hung it just above my bed on a nail. I saw it next on May 11th, in the guard room. (Witness is shown a set) The Clip is a little off centre, mine was like that, it is filled with green ink and was a Parker set and was a gift from Canada. (Set marked Exhibit "17" by the Court)

I am C 9731 Pte Hartin, W.E., RCOC, on strength "G" Coy, No 6 CIRU. I know Pte J.L. Smith, Toronto Scottish, he is here in the Court (pointing to the accused) I also know Pte J.E. Shaw, he is not in the Court at the present time. On the evening of May 10th, 44, I was in Otley, in Whittaker's public house with Grainger. I saw Pte Shaw and Smith there, they were together and about five or six feet away having a glass of beer. We saw the accused stand up and I noticed a belt he was wearing, I noticed the belt was the same as my own, and one of the boys had lost one that morning. Smith nor Shaw did not come over with my draft, there was three belts on the draft, Owens, Todd and myself had them. We saw the accused wearing this belt, or at least one that looked like the one that Todd had lost. He got up and gave one of the chaps a light, he lighted it with a Ronson which he then held up and asked if anyone wanted to buy a lighter. The bartender came in and the accused asked him if he knew of anyone who wanted to buy a pen and pencil set. I went out and when I came back Smith and Shaw were still there. After that Goettler and some more of the boys came in. Smith and Shaw later got up and went out to the latrine, I think they went out together and were in the latrine together. The belt was still on the accused when they came back, Todd saw it and indentified it in my presence. The accused and Shaw later left the pub and Smith was still wearing the belt, I could see it. After the left the pub they were picked up and put into the police station wagon. I did not go with them. (Witness is shown Ex "24") I can identify this belt as the belt that the accused was wearing that night, it is Todd's belt. The accused and Shaw were drinking beer, but I would not say they were drunk. They were feeling pretty good, but not drunk. I don't know how many Provost there were, but they took them away in a station wagon. At the time I saw the accused using the lighter I was about six feet away from him.

CROSS/EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I saw the accused in the pub about a half an hour while I was there, They did not appear to be drinking heavily that I noticed I did not pay much attention to their drinking, I did not see him offer a pen and pencil set for sale, but I heard him offer or ask the bar tender if he knew where he could sell it, or if anyone wanted it. I did not actually see a pen and pencil set in his, the accused hand.

21st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
C 53938 L/Cpl HORTON, H. E., C Pro C, att to No 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn states:

I am C 53938 L/Cpl Horton, H.E., No 7 Coy, C Pro C, att to No 6 CIRU. I know Pte J. E. Shaw, he is not in the Court I also know Pte Smith, J.L., of the Toronto Scottish, the accused. On the 10 May 44 I was on duty in my capacity as a Provost in Otley, accompanied by L/Cpl MacLeod, also of the Cdn Provost Corps. At 2145 hours I was proceeding along the street in front of Whittaker's pub when we saw a crowd in front of this pub. At that time I am not sure whether the station wagon was there or whether it came shortly after. There was a complaint made which caused Pte Smith and Shaw to be detained and taken to the police station. I took Pte Smith to the car and I sat in the car with him. L/Cpl MacLeod brought Pte Shaw over to the car later and put him in. With Smith and Shaw in the car we proceeded to the civilian police station in Otley. I was seated in the center seat on the left hand side with Pte Shaw on the right, Smith was in the rear seat alone. Cpl McConnel was alone in the fron t seat. McConnel was in command of the car, four people and only four people were in the car when we went to the police station and there were only four of us there when we arrived at the police station. When we arrived at the police station we waited for L/Cpl MacLeod to come. While we were waiting for L/Cpl MacLeod I saw Pte Shaw taking something from his tunic and putting it behind the seat, or in between the seat and the back cushion. I could hear Pte Smith moving around in the back seat. Cpl McConnel was on a roving patrol and has charge of the vehicle, he was on duty and saw this fuss at the pub and stopped evidently about the same time that MacLeod and I were becoming interested in Smith and Shaw.

In front of the Police station L/Cpl MacLeod came up to the car and we, the accused, Shaw and myself, got out of the station wagon and went into the office with L/Cpl MacLeod while Cpl McConnel stayed behind. When we got into the police station the accused was asked to empty his pockets. McConnel later came into the station and laid a black sock on the table with some articles in it. The sock was opened at the top and the articles were taken out. They were pens and pencils and various articles. They were also laid on the table, but separate from the quantity which had been in the black sock. This belt similar to Exhibit "4". I do not know what was among the accused personal effects, I did not study them very closely. Shaw, in the presence of the accused took something from inside his tunic and put it behind his seat or behind him or made motions as if he were doing so. The accused was also moving about in the rear seat, the car was not in motion and no one else was moving in it.

I believe the accused had been drinking, he was in the back seat and I di not get a chance to smell his breath.

This station wagon is kept outside our billets and there is not always a guard on it.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I was sitting in the centre seat beside Shaw and saw him take something out of his tunic and put it behind the seat cushion and between the back cushion and the seat and push it down. The accused was in the back seat, the accused was doing the same thing that I saw Shaw doing and the accused could see

"DLL"

Shaw doing this, Shaw was sitting right in front of him, it is perhaps possible that the accused did not see him.

I said I was under the belief that the accused had been drinking but I do not think he was drunk, I would not say that Shaw was drunk, I do not believe that either one of them were drunk. My idea of a man drunk is when he can not stand up and move around and I have seen some drunks. As long as a man can conduct himself and walk around straight I don't think he is drunk and unless he gives me any trouble I don't bother him. Shaw asked me to open the windown because he was going to be sick, he thought he was going to be sick.

22nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
C 18420 Cpl McConnell, J.M., C Pro C, att to No 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn states:

I am C 18420 Cpl McConnell, J.M., No 7 Provost Coy, attached to No 6 Cnd Inf Rft Unit. On the 10 May I was on roving patrol in Otley in my duty as a Provost. I know Pte Shaw, he is not in the Court this morning, I also know Pte Smith, he is in the Court (pointing to the accused) On the 10th May at about 2145 hours I saw the accused, I had the occasion to escort the accused to the police station that night, he was with Shaw, I was accompanied on that escort by L/Cpl Horton, also of the Provost Corps. L/Cpl MacLeod was at the scene where these two men were delivered to me, but he walked to the police station while the accused and Shaw and L/Cpl Horton went in the station wagon with me. In the station wagon that I was driving, I was alone in the front seat, L/Cpl Horton was in the centre seat and the accused was in the rear seat. Shaw was in the centre seat with L/Cpl Horton. We stopped in front of the police station for a few minutes and I noticed while we were there that Pte Shaw and Pte Smith were moving around as if they were trying to place something behind the cushions of the seats. The accused had his hands placed behind him and was moving from side to side, he seemed to be forcing something down between the cushions of the seat and the back and kept bending over from one side to the other. L/Cpl MacLeod came up and he and L/Cpl Horton escorted the accused and Shaw into the police station. As soon as they left the car I searched the seats. Behind the seat where Smith was sitting I found the articles of which I have a list (Witness refers to list and reads) -

one Parker pen and pencil set, green and white one Parker pen and pencil set, green one black pen and pencil set, with name "Munroe" on case in gold letters

one Parker pen and pencil set, green one Waterman's pen and pencil set, blue — one Parker pen & pencil set, red one Ronson lighter, initials, "ELO"
one Waltham watch, 15 jewels, No 10628685
one brown leather belt

I found these articles behind the back seat where the accused had been sitting. (Witness examines Exhibit "4") that is the belt I found. (Exhibit "8") That is the watch, (Ronson lighter) That is the lighter I found there behind the accused seat. I also found some articles behind Shaw's seat. They were in a black cotton sock. The sock was similar to this sock (sock marked Exhibit "25" for identification only). I made a list of the contents that were in the sock and will refer to it (witness refers to list and reads)

two black Waterman's pens two brown Waterman's pens one black Waterman's pen one black Eclipse pen
one grey and red Waterman's pen

one grey and purple Waterman's pen one black Eclipse pencil one brown Waterman's pen and pencil one Thoren's lighter, initials "RS" one pen flash-light one pen knife with two blades, metal one gold locket and chain

(Witness examines Exhibit "9") This is the Thoren's lighter (Exhibit "12") this the gold locket that I found behind Shaw's seat in the cotton sock. (Exhibit "22") that is the pen knife that I found in the sock. (Witness examines all the exhibits "1" to "25") With the exception of "14" I would say that the Exhibits "1" to "25" are the same articles as I found behind the accused and Shaw 's seats in the station wagon on the 10 May while it was parked in front of the Otley Police Station. I took these articles into the police station and turned them over to L/Cpl MacLeod. The accused and Shaw were present and saw me hand them over.

I would say that the accused and Shaw had been drinking.

Besides these articles I found one RASC brooch, and one small medal that were not identified at the identification parade and for that reason are not produced here, they are now in the hands of the Provost. I did not think that they had any reference to this case.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q You say that the accused was drinking, did you smell his breath?
A I did not smell his breath, but he was talking a lot and his speech seemed a bit thick, and he just didn't seem to care what happened, he appeared to be feeling good and reckless.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 93(3)

23rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
F 58286 L/Cpl MacLeod, N.S., C Pro C, att No 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn states:

I am F 58286 L/Cpl MacLeod, N.S. No 7 Cdn Prov Coy, attached to No 6 CIRU. I know E 58670 Pte Smith, J.L., he is in Court, that is he (pointing to the accused) I also know Pte Shaw, J.E., he is not in the Court. On the 10 May 1944, at 2145 hours I was doing patrol duty, accompanied by L/Cpl Horton, we were on duty as Provost in Otley. I went, at that time, to Whittaker's public house and I saw the accused and Pte Shaw at that hour. They were in the street in front of of the pub. I spoke to Shaw and as a result of my conversation I detained Pte Shaw and placed him in the station wagon, L/Cpl Horton detained the accused and placed him in the station wagon also. When Shaw entered the station wagon I noticed a bulge in the tunic, and the bulge was not there when he emerged from the car, at the police station. The station wagon left from the pub and went to the police station in Otley, I walked down the street to the traffic lights and back to the police station. The personnel were seated in the car in this manner - The accused was in the back seat by himself, Pte Shaw in the centre seat on the right hand side, L/Cpl Horton in the centre seat beside Shaw on the left hand side, and in the front seat alone was Cpl McConnell, I came up to the station wagon, which was then immobilized in front of the police station, and when I arrived the people were all in the station wagon and no one else. I opened the door on the left hand side of the car and ordered them to get out, I walked to drivers seat and asked Cpl McConnel to search the car after we left, and then I and the two soldier and L/Cpl Horton proceeded into the police station.

"DIA"

When we got inside and into the duty room I said "soldier, you have asked me why you have been held, well you are believed to be in possession of stolen property, empty your pockets." Amongst his personal effect was a lighter with "H Shapiro" engraved on it in gold letter, it was the lighter identified in my presence by Pte Shapiro on the identification parade in No 2 Guard Room. (Witness is shown a lighter) Yes that is the lighter (which had been marked Exhibit "14") I made a list of the personal effects of the accused and of Shaw's, I made this list at the time I checked the stuff, I wrote down each article and had them sign for it. I have the list here, (Witness produces a list in the case of Pte Shaw, and read it to the Court) (List markax Exhibit "26" by the Court). I also made a list of of the accused property, this is the list and it is signed by the accused in my presence. (Witness produces a list and reads to the Court) List signed by the accused marked Exhibit "27" by the Court).

After leaving Cpl McConnel in the car I saw him again inside the police station, he entered the police station with a black sock that looked as if it was full of something which he handed to me. This black sock is similar to the one marked Exhibit "25" for identification. He brought in a quantity of articles in this sock which I found, after emptying on the table, to be various articles such as fountain pens, ever-sharp pencils cigarette lighters etc. I made a list of the contents of the sock, I have the list here. Besides the stuff in the sock Cpl McConnell handed me a quantity of loose articles of which I also made a list and kept it separate from the things in the sock. The articles were then put under lock and key, still separated, they remained under lock and key until I took them to the identification parade, which was held at No 2 Guard Room. At the identification parade, in the presence of the Sgt Major, of the Provost Corps and myself the owners of the property were paraded in to identify their articles.

(Witness produces lists and reads) The following soldiers identified the following articles which were in the cotton sock -

Pte Hughes	identifies	one Waterman's pen, green strips
Pte Kaufman	"	gold chain and locket with Hebrew letter
Pte Minotte	"	Thoren's "Lucky Lighter" initials "HS"
Pte MacIntosh	"	Waterman's pen, blue
Pte Smith	"	Waterman's pen, blue
Pte Roberts	"	Waterman's pen and pencil set, brown
Pte Thomas	"	Pen, light grey
Pte Rowley	"	Waterman's pen, blue
Pte Norris	"	Waterman's pen, black
		Pen Knife, two blades, silver coloured
Pte Tetlock	"	Eclipse pen and pencil set, black
Pte Marrow	"	Pencil flashlight, with clip on side
Pte Platt	"	Waterman's pen, brown with gold clip

I also have the list of the articles which were found in the accused seat in the rear of the station wagon. I saw them identified by the following soldiers, these articles were the ones that Cpl McConnel handed to me loose,-

Pte Ross	Identifies	Parker Pen and Pencil set, green ink
Pte Denotte	"	Parker pen and pencil set, blue and black
Pte Todd	"	Leather belt, brown with brass buckle
Pte Gottlieb	"	Waterman's pen and pencil set, brown
Pte Radcliffe	"	Black pen and pencil set, in leather case with "Monroe" written on the cover
	"	Black pen and pencil set, Parker
Pte Kaufman	"	Waltham Watch, No 10628695
Pte Savoie	"	Ronson lighter, and Parker pen and pencil
Pte Shapiro	"	set, mottled green coloured.

Todd — Ronson Lighter, initialed engraved on it

Pte Shapiro had already identified the lighter at the police station.
I did not see the accused drinking that night, but his breath smelled of alcohol, he walked straight, but acted as though he were feeling pretty good. I can not say he was drunk.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q Did the accused appear to have a Devil may care attitude as though he didn't give a dam, sort of in high spirits?
A I do not think he took that attitude, very few men that I've ever handled have adopted that attitude, he was talkative in that he was talking quite a lot, I do not recall any of the things he said.
I saw the personal effects of the accused in the police station and there was two lighters among them. I don't know just how to describe the other one, it was one that the back bends back on it, I believe, I do not know the make of it, it was a brass coloured lighter, I didn't pay much attention to it, one lighter was obviously a much better machine and it was identified and therefore supposedly someone else's property, that was what I was interested in. This other lighter was believed to be his and left it with his personal belongings, I have a receipt for it as his personal property. I am not sure that I could recognize it if I saw it again. (Defending officer produces a lighter, and shows it to the witness) I am not sure that is the lighter. (Defending officer offered this lighter as evidence, the President ruled that it might be admitted and marked it Exhibit "23" for identification only) I can not identify that lighter as there are no outstanding marks on it and I did not look at it for identification purposes. At the time the accused turned over his personal belongings to me I took them and got his signature for them and turned them over to the guard commander for safe keeping. At the time of the identification parade Pte Shapiro stated that he had lost a lighter, a Ronson, with the name engraved on it, I had noticed it at the police station and had never thought it was the property of the accused, but I had no reason to doubt whether it was his property of not.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with KP 83(2), PROSECUTOR STATES THAT HE WAS NOT CALLING L/CPL WELSH OR LT MacCLYMONT ALTHOUGH THEY HAD GIVEN EVIDENCE ON THE SUMMARY.

DEFENDING OFFICER STATES THAT HE DOES NOT REQUIRE THE PRESENCE OF THESE TWO WITNESSES FOR CROSS-EXAMINATION.

CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

EVIDENCE FOR THE DEFENCE NOTE D-5

1st WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE the Accused (E52670 Pte SMITH, J.L.) on strength No 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn states;

On the evening of 10 May I was at the Royal Oak public house. I was drinking and had occasion to go outside to the lavatory where I offered a Ronson lighter for 12/- and I bought it. The chap who sold it to me was just an ordinary soldier, I Can't describe him positively, he was slightly shorter than I am, he was wearing a black beret with no badge. I do not know what unit he belonged to , he was just a Canadian Soldier and I know nothing further about him. I bought the lighter because it was cheap for 12/- and I saw a chance of making a bit money. I did not think there was anything wrong with the transaction, I never thought it might be stolen. I did not examine the lighter, just looked at it, it was a Ronson lighter and I put it in my pocket, I noticed it had a name engraved on the side of it. After I bought that lighter we left that pub and I recall us going pub crawling and ended up at the pub where were picked up, at Whittaker's public house. I had that lighter in the pub and when I went to the police station it was among my personal belongings. I had tried to sell it in Whittakers pub, I asked if there was anyone there who would like to buy a lighter, I addressed my remark to no one in particular, no one offered to buy it so I put it back into my pocket. It was taken out of my pocket with my personal effects at the police station, when I emptied my pockets there on the table. A L/Cpl of the Provost Corps picked it up and turned away with it and I asked him to put it back with my personal belongings. I could identify this lighter, it has a name written on it and is a Ronson lighter(witness looks at Ex "14") that is the lighter I bought. This was not the only lighter in my possession. I had a lighter of my own, a utility affair that came from Manchester, it was a brass lighter and about 2½ inches long and maybe an inch wide, and the cover of it had to be put on a certain way. The top came off to light it was altogether a simple affair. (Witness is shown lighter marked Ex "28" for identification) That is my lighter. (Lighter previously marked Ex "28" for identification is now marked Exhibit "28" by the court and accepted in evidence) That night I loaned £2-10/- to Pte Shaw in the Royal Oak pub. He did not tell me why he wanted the money, he did not tell me and I did not ask him. I have known Shaw approximately five or six days. We had chummed around for a few days and he had shown me his pay book and I knew he was good for the money. A little after Shaw borrowed the money from me he came back into the bar. He had a black sock full of something with a belt wrapped around the outside of it. I did not examine any of the articles at that time. Shaw asked me if I would take some of the articles that were in the sock and carry them for him. I never gave the transaction a thought at the time, I was feeling pretty good, I had been drinking since 1130 hours that day and I had done it pretty regular until the pubs closed in the afternoon. I started again after they opened at 1800 hours and had very little supper. I would not like to say that I knew exactly what I was doing and I would not like to say that I did not know what I was doing. These articles that I was carrying for Shaw in my pockets were merely in my pockets to make carrying them easier. We left the Royal Oak and went several other pubs and when we left the last pub which was Whittaker's the Provost outside arrested me and took me over to the police station in their car. I asked at the time of getting into the station wagon why I was being detained and I was given no answer. I decided that the articles was what they were after and I tried to hide them under the seat of the station wagon.

I did not know what to think about the whole thing. At the time I just thought that having that stuff on me was bad and knowing that the Provost Corps did not give many chances I did not want to take any chances. It occurred to me in the station wagon that the stuff might have been stolen and I did not want to be found with it. I did not stow the Shapiro lighter away because I had bought it and I never thought anything different about it except that some soldier was hard up and wanted to sell it.

There was some one in the seat with me, that is in the back seat, it was a L/Cpl from the Provost Corps beside me and leaning to the front seat. I was in the rear seat before the car was in motion. After that I am not sure whether he stayed beside me or not. I was not very interested in whether he was there or not, it may have been my condition from drinking, it is very possible that it was. My own purpose of being out that night was for a good time, to get a few drinks and get back to camp, I was having a fine time alright until the Provost picked me up. My attitude was one of having a good time and I never thought of anything but just having a few drinks and a good time in general.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

It was Exhibit "4", the leather belt that I had around my waist in the pub, I had received it from Shaw among the articles which were handed to me by him. There was also a gold watch Exhibit "6", I would not like to say that was the watch, but it was a watch similar to that. There is also a Ronson lighter amongst the exhibits that could have been amongst those articles I was carrying, but I am not sure. I heard the witness's evidence about finding articles behind my seat and that of Shaw, he is not wrong when he says they were put there by me and L/Cpl MacLeod is right whenhe says they were placed by me and Shaw and they were in a sock, I believe the sock is the same one, it looks like the sock we had. The lighter that was identified by Pte Shapiro is the lighter that I purchased from bank corps man, Exhibit "14". When I was asked by Shaw to loan him £2-10/ I did not consider it unusual or an out of the way request, although he had not borrowed that much he had borrowed money from me before. Shaw had loaned me money previously and I had paid it back and I had not thought that this was imposing or unusual. When I say he loaned me money it was actually an evening out with him on his money, he footed the bill, and I squared with him later. At the time I did not know the purpose for which he borrowed the money but when came back he told me he had bought the stuff and that he had wanted my money to buy the stuff. He said he had bought some stuff and he wanted my money to help him pay for it, and now he asked me if I would help him carry it for him, it was too bulky of him to manage. The articles he handed over to me were the same as I pushed behind the seat and were the same articles which have been identified in this case. It was not my understanding that if I found buyer I could sell them, there was no understanding at all. I was to carry them for him and when he sold them he was to pay me back the money he borrowed and would probably let me have some more for loaning it to him. There was not any any talk of sharing the profits, he said he would let me have some of the profits. I am not sure that I asked the bar tender where I could sell a pen and pencil set. Aside from these articles I had no pen and pencil set that I could sell. I was to hold the articles until he asked for them, they were his.

When I purchased the Shapiro lighter I was not in a condition to decipher the name on it, I was not afraid that it would interfere with the salebility of it, it was just that I didn't bother or couldn't if I had tried.

"PLR"

The only time that I saw the articles that were in the sock was at the police station when they were emptied out on the table. I had looked into the sock, but could not tell very well what was in it or how much. I did not estimate the worth of these articles and never came to any conclusion as to the sort of a bargain that Shaw had made by paying £7 or whatever it was he had paid for them, I really was not thinking along the lines of business I was out having a good time and was having it, I really began to think seriously of these articles when I was in the station wagon, I do not know whether believes that I would have them think that I am trying to get them to believe that I was so drunk that night that I didn't know what I was doing or not, but being picked up by the Provost sort of shook me and brought me around to where I was thinking again.

I would say it was the red headed corporal of the Provost that sat beside me in the station wagon, but it is quite possible that he moved to sit beside Shaw in the centre seat.

While I was in Whittaker's pub I went to latrine a few times but always alone, and at no time with Shaw, we had our beer on the table and did not want to leave it, and in spite of what the witnesses have said here today I never went inside the lavatory with Shaw in Whittaker's pub that night.

I could identify the man who sold me the lighter if I were to see him again, Shaw did not describe the man from whom he bought the stuff he had, he just came and told me that he had purchased some stuff from a fellow outside, he later told me that it was a tank corps man wearing a beret, and I never said anything about it might be the same man who sold me the lighter. I do not know to this day just what sort of a looking chap it was that sold Shaw the stuff in the black sock, and I know nothing the fellow, I did not hear Shaw's evidence and do not know what he told the Court.

Q Will you tell the Court any further false evidence that has been stated or given by other witnesses during your trial?

A I hardly recall anything further that I've heard that was incorrect.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q The Prosecutor has spoken to you about the talk of you getting your share back out of this stuff at the time they were handed over to you, in this case who was doing the talking about giving you any further money besides your own that Shaw had borrowed from you?

A Shaw told me that he would give me back the money he had borrowed from and me and let me have a bit extra for having loaned it to him. I made no further comment, I took it just as he suggested and let it go at that.

2nd WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

K EVANS Pte MILES, W.L., No 6 CIRU, having been duly Sworn states:

On the evening of the 10 May I saw the accused in the Royal Oak pub. I was in the latrine and was offered a cigarette lighter which I did not buy, and at that time Smith walked into the latrine as I was getting ready to leave and enquired about the the lighter and asked the price of it, I left at this time. He was getting his money out and was in the act of buying it when I went out. I heard no conversation that I could recite. There was something said about the price, it was offered to me for 15 shillings and came down to 12 bob. It was offered to Smith for 12 or 12 and 6. The man that was offering this lighter for sale would be about 20 years old fairly short, fair complexion. He was wearing a tank corps beret and he was quite young, I do not know whether he had a badge on or flashes, I don't believe he did, he was just a soldier in the armoured corps. I stayed there a short while and left. I did not see the accused actually buy the lighter or put it in his pocket. I saw the accused again about 2000 hours outside, I asked him for a couple of bob until pay day, and he brought some money out of his pocket and picked out four Canadian quarters which he gave me and I spent them as shillings.

I know that the lighter was Ronson and knew it was silver plated, I did not look at it closely, it seemed like a fairly new one and in good condition.

I had a glass of beer with the accused and borrowed some money from him then I left Pte Smith and Shaw, I did not see him with the lighter and I did not know whether he had it or not.
(Witness is shown a lighter)
OBJECTION BY THE PROSECUTOR
OBJECTION OVER-RULED
It was this style of lighter and also the same as that one on the table is the same, (witness is shown another lighter, Ex "10") it could have been either of these lighters, they are exactly alike.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

I had been granted the chance to identify this soldier by going through the company, I went up and down the files and I could not see anyone there like him.

I cannot identify this lighter, it could have been any Ronson lighter. It is true that there might have been hundreds or thousands like it, there was nothing on the lighter to make me remember it that I saw. I do not know whether the accused bought the lighter, I said "he might have bought it" and if he did buy I admit that he might already have sold it in any other pub and got another.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with KR 83(B)

NOTE E-3

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Mr President and Members of the Court

The accused, in his private life, before joining the Army for this war has had rather an unfortunate life, He was not had normal up bringing that a lad of today usually recieves. He lost his father at the age of eight and his mother at the age of 13. There after he lived for a number of years in boarding schools, the conditions in these boarding schools were such that it amounted to confinement, they were not allowed outside this school or to mix with other people as the young likes to do. From [redacted] went to the mining district, the Larund gold mining district. His life there was with people of a very rough and ready character, towns that in a lot of cases have their own law. Where people do things and assess what the law is and apply it in their own way. Living under these rather rough, semi lawless people he had to fend for himself. This did not give him a proper view of life, the way we understand it and especially the code of law in the army. And then we must remember that every one is influenced by his environment in which they live, they acquire their own sense of what is right and what is wrong.

He joined the army at the age of 21 years, has been in the army approximately two years and he desires nothing more than to get into action, to get into actual grips with the enemy. The man who sits before you in this Court today as the accused is, frankly enought, the type of man we require for our fighting forces and can only be described as six feet of fighting manhood and that is the way I ask you to look at this type of fellow and give him a chance to get into action as quickly as possible. This man is married, has a wife back home who is absolutely dependent on the income she receives from the country and from his assigned pay. She is dependent on him because she is not a very strong woman and can not get out and work for herself. I hope too that this will be taken into consideration not for his benefit but for the woman who believes in him and is dependent on him.

I am sure that when this man has completed his punishment, which I hope will be light, will become one of the best soldiers in the Canadian Army, where competition in that * a lesson and will refrain from more trouble, I would ask the Court that a recommendation be attached to the finding to the effect that this man be given the opportunity to fight for his and our country as is his desire.

* in that direction is strong. I am sure that he has now been taught

Defending Officer's Closing Address

It has been well established that on the night in question, the accused was well on the way to being drunk. It has been proven that he was just out for a good time and was mainly concerned with that one object. It is true that drink affects different individuals in different ways. In this case, it is quite obvious that the accused after drinking large quantities arrived at a very happy frame of mind regarding the world in general. He developed a devil-may-care attitude you might say and was in no way capable of realizing the consequences of his act in aiding Pte. Shaw as he did.

It has been borne out by the evidence that he did not knowingly of his own accord, enter into any joint transaction with Pte. Any idea of sharing profits was that of Shaw's. All the accused wanted was to get his money back that he loaned to Shaw.

Evidence has proven that at least one item, namely Exhibit "14" was purchased in good faith by the accused. This innocence is borne out by the fact that he did not stow it away in the station-wagon with the other items.

I would refer you now to MML p124 Ch VII para 8e which provides that in such a case as this it remains that the onus of proving guilt lies entirely with the prosecution and if the accused offers a reasonable explanation of how the stolen articles came into his possession providing such explanation is consistent with innocence, even if the Court has not been convinced of its truth, then the accused is entitled to an acquittal. In this instance the Court has no reason to dispute the truth of the explanation by the accused since it was given on oath and has not been disproven by the prosecution.

In view of the aforementioned facts, Gentlemen I request that you carefully consider them with the evidence and feel that, in the interest's of justice, the accused will be acquitted.

"G.E. Pateman" Lt.

Defending Officer.

SMITH

Closing REMARKS BY THE PROSECUTOR: The Prosecution has through the various witnesses, from the following facts:-

On the evening of 9 May 44, a group of Ordnance Soldiers attached to No 6 Canadina Infantry Reinforcement Unit, retired early in their respective huts, Nos. 57, 58 and 59. The last one to retire, a Private Thomas, entered his hut No 59 at approximately 2345 hrs. As the lights were then out, Private Thomas went to bed in the dark.

The next morning, 10 May 44, nineteen of these soldiers discovered that during the night a quantity of their property had been stolen. This consisted of a flashlight, pens, pencils, lighters, leather belt, watch and lockst. (exhibit "A to "Y" inclusive)

That evening, 10 May 44, some of these soldiers were in Whitaker's pub, Otley. The accused Pte Smith and xxxxx Pte Shaw were there, both drinking. Smith was wearing a belt, identified as part of the stolen property (Exhibit "D") (Evidence of Ptes Martin, Todd and Goettler)

Smith stood up and exhibited a Ronson lighter and asked of the crowd in general, "Does anyone want to buy a lighter?". Then the bartender came in and Smith asked him if he knew where could sell a pen and pencil (Evidence of Pte Martin)

The provost were called and the accused were both ushered into a station wagon outside the pub.

As Shaw entered the Station wagon, an unusual bulge was noticed in front of his tunic. (Evidence L/Cpl MacLeod) Smith was still wearing Pte Todds belt. (Evidence of Pte Martin)

The station wagon drove off and stopped for a few minutes in front of the Otley Police Station. At that time, the accused Ptes Shaw and Smith were seen removing articles from their persons and were seen placing the articles behind the cushions of their respective seats in the station wagon. (Evidence of Cpl McConnell and L/Cpl Barton) On leaving the station wagon, Pte Shaw no longer had the bulge in his tunic. (Evidence of L/Cpl MacLeod)

After Smith and Shaw had vacated the vehicle, the two seats were searched. A quantity of articles wrapped up in a black cotton sock was found in Shaw's seat. Another quantity, including several pen and pencil sets and including Pte Todd's belt was found in Pte Smith's seat. (Evidence of Cpl McConnel and L/Cpl MacLeod) All articles were later indentified as property stolen from 19 Ordnance soldiers. (Evidence of L/Cpl MacLeod and others)

Exhibits "L" and "M" were the property of the witness Pte Kaufman. One was found in Shaw's seat, the other in Smith's seat. (Evidence of Cpl McConnel and L/Cpl MacLeod)

The accused and Shaw were both searched and among the personal effects found on Smith was a Ronson lighter (Exhibit "O"), the property of the witness Sharpirp. (Evidence of L/Cpl MacLeod)

I refer the Court to MML p 124 para 66 (Doctrine of recent possession of stolen goods)

MML p 73 para 14) Proof of intention p 109 para 23)
p 107 para 17 - common intent p 108 para 19 - Knowledge of intended offence.
p 108 para 20, 21 - Accessory before and after fact p 81-82 para 42: Circumstantial evidence.

I ask the Court to consider all the actions of Shaw and Smith.

The accused has admitted possession of the articles not in the cotton sock. He admits a bargain, common design, agreed upon between Shaw and accused. Shaw was not called to give evidence. Accused admits that all the prosecution evidence is correct. Accordingly improper possession is established as regards all the articles behind Smith's seat. As regards the remainder of the articles, Smith had a common intent with Shaw and they were both in possession of these remaining articles. Smith was an accessory, and is therefore guilty. Just as much as he would be if he were alone in the transaction. Then is circumstantial evidence, very strong in nature, of theft. Drunkenness is no defence or excuse. The accused says he cannot say he did not know what he was doing that night.

The story, of the accused about Shaw buying these articles is untrue. His story about buying the Sharpio lighter is highly unlikely. It is more likely on afterthought in view of his recollection of White being at hand when a discussion was that between accused and someone else regarding a lighter. Even if Smith bought a lighter, it is not likely that it was the Sharpio lighter.

I knew that Pte Todd had missed his belt since Reveille that day, 10 May 44, and accordingly I watched Pte Smith. He and Shaw had been drinking quite a bit. Smith got up from his seat and took a cigarette lighter from his pocket and lighted a chap's cigarette. Pte Smith then said, "Does anyone want to buy a lighter?" while flicking it on and off. The bartender then came in and the accused Pte Smith asked him if he knew where could sell a pen and pencil. I did not hear the reply. I immediately got some of my friends from outside. Ptes/and Hamilton and I went into the Pub and watched the accused Smith and Shaw for some time. Shortly after this Pte Goettler, E.L. and some other soldiers came in. In the case of Private James Leonard SMITH, of The Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of No 6 Canadian Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of The Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

I found the wire netting pulled out of the window in the cell of the accused, whom I now recognize. I unlocked the door of the cell and went inside. I called the roll and found that the accused was missing. A search was made immediately, but the accused was nowhere to be found. At the time the accused broke out of the guard room he was serving sentence awarded him by F.G.C.M.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

EXHIBIT A
PAGES 1-5 INCL

Summary of Evidence in the case of:

F14249 Gnr Smith J.R.
2nd Medium Battery RCA
1st Medium Regiment RCA C.M.F.

First Witness [redacted] Lieut W.E. Sharpe, 2nd Med Bty, 1st Cdn Med Regiment RCA having been duly sworn states:-

"I am Lieut W.E. Sharpe, 2nd Med Bty, 1st Cdn Med Regiment RCA C.M.F. At approximately 1400 hrs 28 Aug 44 I was approached by Private Milner. He stated to me that in the course of performing his duties as B.H.Q. cook he was struck by Gnr. Smith J.R. I observed that Milner had a bad cut above his eye. I signed a sick report and sent him to the M.O. telling him I would inquire into the matter. I reported this incident to B.S.M. Fuller and told him to gather what evidence he could and I would meet him that evening. At approximately 1830 hrs I went to B.H.Q. wagon lines in search of B.S.M. Fuller. As I was looking for B.S.M. Fuller I passed Gnr Smith J.R. who appeared to me to be under the influence of liquor. On coming back through the wagon lines I found B.S.M. Fuller talking to Gnr. Smith J.R. Their conversation was about Gnr Smith being Driver i/c of H.Q. diesel. Gnr Smith stated that he was not going to driver H.Q. diesel any longer. He further stated that if the regiment moved and the B.S.M. expected him to drive H.Q. diesel he was crazy. The B.S.M. then said to Gnr Smith J.R., "if you are ordered to drive the diesel you will do so". Gnr Smith replied, " if you order me to drive the diesel you can stick it up your ass". After a few minutes Gnr Smith J.R. demanded to be paraded to me. He requested to be paraded before the C.O. The C.O., being forward this was not possible. He then requested being paraded to the M.O. I arranged for this and he, accompanied by B.S.M. Fuller, saw the M.O.

Questions by the Accused.

Q.1 Sir, did I not get paraded to you about being issued a pair of boots explaining that I could not drive the diesel without boots ?
A.1 Yes, you asked me about boots but I do not remember you mentioning anything about diesel driving.
Q.2 Did you know that at the time I had no boots at all ?
A.2 Yes.

(W.E. Sharpe) Lieut RCA
2nd Med. Bty., 1st Med Reg't RCA.

Second Witness P6626 B.S.M. Fuller C.W., 2nd Med Bty, 1st Cdn Med Regiment RCA having been duly sworn states:-

I am P6626 B.S.M. Fuller C.W., 2nd Med Bty, 1st Cdn Med Regiment, RCA C.M.F. On the 28th of August 1944 at approximately 1830 hrs Mr. Sharpe approached me and told me that Gnr Smith J.R. was at the wagon line kitchen under the influence of liquor and unshaved. I went to Gnr Smith and found him in a state of intoxication and unshaved as Mr.Sharpe had mentioned to me. Gnr Smith was to the best of my knowledge incapable of carrying out his duties as an A.E.C. and Mat. driver due to intoxication. I told him at this time to get cleaned up and at the same time asked him questions concerning that mornings work. During the course of the reply Gnr Smith brought up the matter of diesel driving. I told him orders have to be obeyed and he said "if the regiment moves out tonight and I am ordered to drive it you can shove it up your ass". Gnr Smith J.R. then asked Mr. Sharpe a couple of questions and then came back to the question of [illegible]

He was told once more if ordered to drive a vehicle he would do so. During the course of operations Gnr Smith had to be placed under close arrest as he was bothering everyone of any authority by asking why he was under open arrest. After being placed under close arrest he demanded to see the M.O. He was taken to the M.O. under escort. After seeing the M.O. he refused to enter the W.D. vehicle used for transporting him. After refusing several times to enter the vehicle I left him with a guard and returned to the Bty C.P. for handcuffs. I returned to the R.A.P. and Gnr Smith still refused to enter the vehicle. The Padre who was there called him over and talked with him a while. After this conversation was finished Gnr Smith entered the vehicle and returned to Battery line.

Question by the Accused

Q.1 Was I ordered to drive the diesel on the evening of 28 Aug 44?
A.1 To the best of my knowledge you were not ordered to drive it.
Q.2 Who brought the large wicker bottle containing approximately 15 gallons of "vino" into the lines on the afternoon of the 27th of August 1944?
A.2 I, B.S.M. Fuller brought this "vino" into the lines on 27th of August 1944 for battery consumption.
Q.3 Was there any "vino" in this bottle on the morning of 28 August 1944 ?
A.3 Yes. Approximately 2 litres.
Q.4 Do you know how much "vino" was taken out of that bottle before it was returned to your jeep on the morning of 28 August 1944?
A.4 No.
Q.5 Was B Troop and A Troop invited over to drink this "vino" on the night of 27 August 1944?
A.5 Yes. Personnel other than B.H.Q. were drinking from the said bottle.
Q.6 Who invited A and B Troops ?
A.6 I notified personnel of A and B Troops in the wagon lines that there was liquor in the lines.

ordered, more than once, by B.S.M. Fuller, to get into the jeep. After he refused, B.S.M. Fuller left. He returned with handcuffs and ordered Bdr. Mullins to handcuff GNR Smith J.R. Exhibit "E" WD.

Statement in mitigation of punishment

1. Pte. Smith, J.R. volunteerily enlisted in the Canadian Army in May 1940, but was discharged in Jan. 1941 as medically unfit. At this time he and his wife were living apart, but while he was in the army, they effected a reconciliation. Again, in June 1941, he re-enlisted in the R.C.A.S.C. as B-1 category, arriving in England in May 1942. He proceeded on draft to Italy in Oct. 1943 serving in the field with the ASC. He was returned to England as a B-4, being told that upon arriving in England he would have the chance of a re-board with the possibility of being returned to Canada. However, on this board he was still classified as a B-4, with no hope of further service with a field unit.

2. All the time that he was in Italy, he received few letters from his wife, the last received being dated March of this year. He had been worrying about this for some time, so that, upon arriving in England he sent off a telegram to his wife enquiring as to the reason for the lack of mail. He had no reply to this wire. Due to his inability to read or write, it was necessary for him to have a Sjt. write a letter for him to his wife. Again there was no reply, nor were there any letters in the meantime. Since Pte. Smith had gone to Italy, he had received no mail from his two children. Up until Oct. 43 he had mail from them at regular intervals.

3. All these things, coupled with the fact that he was an illiterate, brought him to such a state of mind that he got fed up with everything, especially the fact that he had to stay in the Rft. Unit and was unfit to serve with a field unit. While in the Rft. Unit at Beverly, Yorks., he was granted leave, and did not return at the termination of it. He finally surrendered himself to the Guard-room, CASCOM, Pernborough.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. No.[5]
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.[1] The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) arraigned, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.[1]
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.[1]
(1. *Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. .....[1]
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.[1]

D4. The Prosecution is closed.[1] The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).[2] The Court is closed, and considers the submission.[3] The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).[4]
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not as a rule be given the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. ..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. .....

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).[1] The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.[2] The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(B).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.[1]
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.[2]
(1. AA 54(3) (c), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(7), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

Summary of Evidence in the case of A108492 Pte SMITH, Joseph Stewart The Algonquin Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas charged with Disobeying in such a manner as to show wilful defiance of authority a lawful command given personally by a superior officer in the execution of his office.

THE COMMANDING OFFICER DIRECTS THAT ALL EVIDENCE BE TAKEND ON OATH.

FIRST WITNESS: Major G.L. Cassidy The Algonquin Regiment having been duly sworn stetes:

"On the evening of 17-18 Nov 44 a raid force composed of representatives from each of the rifle coys and commanded by Lt. Mozell of "B" Coy was organized and briefed by me for the task of getting prisoners and identifications across the Maas River on the Barwijk front. The briefing was as complete as possible and all ranks impressed with the necessity of achieving the object. At this time the force seemed enthusiastic for the job and things looked favourable.

At approx 2300 hrs the patrol got under way carrying two boats from 13 pl HQ area to the vicinity of Maas. There was a difficult obstacle (a damaged roadway) to cross, and there was a high wind. As a result of this, one boat was lost. The Comd of the patrol at this point felt that he could not carry out the task and ordered patrol to return, which they did arriving back at 13 Pl HQ approx 0200 hrs. Unfortunately they brought back the remaining boat with them. After a consultation with the C.O. it was decided that another attempt had to be made with at least the idea of getting the boats forward and hidden for use on the following night. The men were tired and apparently demoralized but I got them all together and told them plainly that the job had to be done and at once. The groups were reorganized, two reserve boats prepared and we prepared to move off. I was to accompany them this time. Just as the order was given to move out, Pte Smith in company with Cpl Maxwell said to me that he would not go because he was "dead beat", that he had had no sleep the night before and that it seemed useless to carry on. I told both of them that the task had been laid on, that orders must be carried out in spite of fatigue and pointed out that doubtless others on the patrol were equally tired, but still willing to go. Pte Smith said that he still would not go. I asked him directly if he was deliberately refusing to obey my order and he said "Yes". I asked Major Herbert if he would take Smith's name as well as Cpl Maxwell's who had similarly refused. As I left the room this was being done by Lt. Brassard."

(Signed) G.L. Cassidy Major

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS Lt. C.A. Mozell The Algonquin Regiment having been duly sworn stetes:

"On the evening of 17-18 Nov 44 I was the Comd of the patrol which was to cross the Maas River and was present when Cpl Maxwell and Pte Smith refused to accompany the patrol on their second effort. I heard Major Cassidy ask the accused if he deliberately refused to obey his order, Pte Smith answered "yes". Lt Brassard was then asked to take the name of the accused, this was being done as I left the room with Major Cassidy.

(Signed) C.A. Mozell Lt.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS: Lt. L. Brassard, The Algonquin Regiment, having been duly sworn states:

"On the night of the 17-18 Nov 44 I was at 13 Pl HQ's where the patrol had come back to reorganize After Major Cassidy had spoken to them some of the men on the patrol said that they didn't feel like going back. Major Cassidy told them it was a duty and and order to go back. I did not hear Pte Smith say "yes" when asked by Major Cassidy if he was deliberately refusing to obey his order but I did hear him say that he had worked all night the night before and that he was beat and he was not going back. Major Cassidy then asked Major Herbert to take the names of those who were refusing to go. Major Herbert again told them it was an order to go and he told me to take the names of those who refused. I went around and asked those who refused to go back to give me their names and number. Pte Smith, J.". gave me his name and number and subsequently did not accompany the patrol."

(Signed) L. Brassard. Lt.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

FOURTH WITNESS: B51651 A/Sgt MacLeod, W.H. The Algonquin Regiment having been duly sworn states:

"I was present at 13 Pl HQ's on the night of 17-18 Nov 44. I heard Pte Smith state that he would not accompany the patrol back to the Moss River and when asked by Major Cassidy if he was deliberately refusing to obey his order Pte Smith answered "yes". His name and number was taken by Lt. Brassard. Smith then laid down to sleep. I received permission from Major Herbert and put him on Guard duty for the rest of the night.

(Signed) W.H. MacLeod Sgt

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

THE ACCUSED: The accused declines to make a statement at this time.

I certify that R P 4 (c) (d) (e) (f) and (g) has been complied with.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence was taken down by me in the field in the presence and hearing of the accused this 22 Nov 44.

COPY OF PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF SENTENCE IN THE CASE OF A.1064 92 PTE SMITH JOSEPH STEWARD. THE ALGONQUIN REGT.

As defending officer I would like the court to take a few facts into consideration in this case.

The accused joined the Army on 12 Oct 43 and was A Tpr. in the Armoured Corps until he was remustered in Infantry on Aug. 44. He joined the Algonquin Regt. in Oct the same year. His conduct sheet is clean and there is every indication of his being a good soldier in the past.

On the night of 17-18 Nov 44 the accused returned from the first patrol attempt at 0200 hrs. He went out with the first patrol at 2300 hrs. Undoubtedly at this time having worked all day, the accused was in a state of exhaustion both mentally and physically. He would therefore be much more susceptible to a nervous strain and mental distress and did not at the time fully realize the seriousness of the crime he was committing.

I wish the court primarily to consider his previous good character and clean conduct sheet, also his excellent report and conduct in action as stated by his platoon Commander. Secondly the fact for just consideration that he was in a distressed state of mind which would not be functioning properly and not aware of the seriousness of the crime.

The are the facts to be considered in this plea for mitigation of sentence.

THE COMMANDING OFFICER DIRECTS THAT ALL EVIDENCE BE TAKEN ON OATH.

FIRST WITNESS: Major G.L. Cassidy The Algonquin Regiment having been duly sworn states:

"On the evening of 17-18 Nov-44 a raid force composed of representatives from each of the rifle coys and commanded by Lt. Rozell of "D" Coy was organized and b briefed by me for the task of getting prisoners and identifications across the Maas River on the Barwijk front. The briefing was as complete as possible and all ranks impressed with the necessity of achieving the object. At this time the force seemed enthusiastic for the job and things looked favourable.

At approx 2300 hrs the patrol got under way carrying two boats from 13 pl HQ area to the vicinity of Maas. There was a difficult obstacle (a damaged roadway) to c ross, and there was a high wind. As a result of this, one boat was lost. The Comd of the patrol at this point felt that he could not carry out the task and ordered patrol to return, which they did arriving back at 13 Pl HQ approx 0200 hrs. Unfortunately they brought back the remaining boat with them. After a consultation with the C.O. it was decided that another attempt had to be made with at least the idea of getting the boats forward and hidden for use on the following night. The men were tired and apparently demoralized but I got them all together and told them plainly that the job had to be done and at once. The groups were reorganized, two reserve boats prepared and we prepared to move off. I was to accompany them this time. Just as the order was given to move out, Pte Smith in company with Cpl Maxwell said to me that he would not go because he was"dead beat", that he had had no sleep the night before and that it seemed useless to carry on. I told both of them that the task had been laid on, that orders must be carried out in spite of fatigue and pointed out that doubtless others on the patrol were equally tired, but still willing to go. Pte Smith said that he still would not go. I asked him directly if he was deliberately refusing to obey my order and he said "yes". I asked Major Herbert if he would take Smith's name as well as Cpl Maxwell's who had similarly refused. As I left the room this was being done by Lt. Brassard"

SECOND WITNESS: Lt. C.A. Rozell The Algonquin Regiment having been duly sworn states:

"On the evening of 17-18-Nov-44 I was the Comd of the patrol which was to cross the Maas River and was present when Cpl Maxwell and Pte Smith refused to accompany the patrol on their second effort. I heard Major Cassidy ask the Accused if he deliberately refused to obey his order, Pte Smith answered "yes". Lt Brassard was then asked to take the name of the accused, this was being done as I left the room with Major Cassidy.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS: Lt. L. Brassard, The Algonquin Regiment, having been duly sworn states:

"On the night of the 17-18 Nov-44 I was at 13 Pl HQ's where the patrol had come back to reorganize After Major Cassidy had spoken to them some of the men on the patrol said that they didn't feel like going back. Major Cassidy told them it was a duty and an order to go back. I did not hear Pte Smith say "yes" when asked by Major Cassidy if he was deliberatly refusing to obey his order but I did hear him say that he had worked all night the night before and that he was beat and he was not going back. Major Cassidy then asked Major Herbert to take the names of those who were refusing to go. Major Herbert again told them it was an order to go and he told me to take the names of those who refused. I went around and asked those who refused to go back to give me their names and number. Pte Smith, J.S. gave me his name and number and subsequently did not accompany the patrol."

L. Brassard Lt

FOURTH WITNESS: B51651 A/Sjt MacLeod, W.N. The Algonquin Regiment having been duly sworn states:

"I was present at 13 Pl HQ's on the night of 17-18 Nov-44. I heard Pte Smith state that he would not accompany the patrol back to the Maas River and when asked by Major Cassidy if he was deliberately refusing to obey his order Pte Smith answered "yes". His name and number was taken by Lt. Brassard. Smith then laid down to sleep. I received permission from Major Herbert and put him on Guard duty for the restof the night.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

THE ACCUSED: The accused declines to make a statement at this time.

COPY OF PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF SENTENCE IN THE CASE OF PTE. SMITH JOSEPH STEWARD. THE ALGONQUIN REGT.

As defending officer I would like the Court to take a few facts into consideration in this case.

The accused joined the Army on 12 Oct 43 and was A Tpr. in the Armoured Corps. until he was remustered in Infantry on Aug. 44. He joined the Algonquin Regt. in Oct. the same year. His conduct sheet is clean and there is every indication of his being a good soldier in the past.

On the night of 17-18 Nov. 44 the accused returned from the first partol attempt at 0200 hrs. He went out with the first partol at 2300 hrs. Undoubtedly at this time having worked all day, the accused was in a state of exhaustion both mentally and physically. He would therefore be much more susceptible to a nervous strain and mental distress and did not at the time fully realize the serioness of the crime he was committing.

I wish the court primarily to consider his previous good character and clean conduct sheet, also his excellent report and conduct in action as stated by his platoon Commander. Secondly the fact for just consideration that he was in a distressed state of mind which would not be functioning properly and not aware of the seriouness of the crime.

These are the facts to be considered in this plea for mitigation of sentence.

Statement of B73385 Cpl W H Dethart 48th Highs Can. on the character of the accused - B79482 Pte Smith S.B.

I have personally known Pte S.B. Smith of the field unit of the 48th Highlanders of Canada, and have always found him capable and willing.
He is of a cheerful disposition, always helping to keep a high standard of moral in [redacted]
He always did anything asked of him in a cheerful manner, without hesitation, and was an excellent soldier in action. He is definitely the type of man who I would prefer to have with me in action.

Cpl. W.H. Dethart

Pte ____ is a soldier with more than 3 years active service in the Canadian army. He volunteered for active service overseas. He landed in Sicily when the Canadians began their invasion of the continent. He fought with them through the Campaign and came to Italy. On the 14th dec 43 he was wounded in action and sent to a hospital where he remained until May 44. During that time he contracted pneumonia as a result of his weakened state of health. He was finally returned to base hospital. The man had undergone serious trials. He had had no leave since he left England. The prospect of becoming a parade ground soldier with all its implications did not appeal to him. Besides that there was little hope at the time of rejoining his unit. This man had shown that he was an exemplary soldier in the field and nothing in his past conduct shows that he intended to shirk his duty in the front line by absenting himself without leave. If at the time Pte — had been able to rejoin his unit he would have been happy to do so. But this was not possible at the time. He stayed at CSRD some days and then absented himself. This is my plea for leniency. I trust that the circumstances surrounding this man's absence will be weighed when a punishment is awarded —

Statement of A.9544 Pte. SMITH, J.W.

"Do you wish to say anything in answer to the charge? You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

About 2100 hrs. on the 13 Nov 43, I was checking the blackouts at Smallfields Place, and in one of the rooms I noticed a tunic hanging up, and a paybook was showing out of the pocket about ½ inch. I could see a corner of a money note showing out of the paybook. I took the note out of the paybook without removing the paybook from the pocket, and put it in my field dressing pocket. About 2120 hrs. I left by 15 cwt. truck for Reuhill to pick up S/Sgt. McKay , Sgt. Alder and a broken down jeep. On the way I stopped at a snack bar, and I cashed the £1-0-0 note and had a cup of tea and a sandwich. The tea and sandwich cost about 5 pence and I got 10/ note and silver and coppers for change. I returned to our Headquarters, and in the morning I was questioned and placed under guard by R.S.M. McCallum. I have had a lot of worry about my mother and family lately, and I was over paid by mistake in my paybook, and I received only 10/ last pay day. When I saw the note I took it due to the condition I have been in the last few weeks. I was paraded before the Padre at Aldershot about 3 months ago, and arrangements were made to make application for return to Canada in charge of prisoners of war to settle my affairs. I have heard no more of it.

I have read over and make this voluntary statement, 14 Nov 43.

A9514 Pte Smith J.W.

(A.9544 Pte. SMITH, J.W.)

Statement by Accused in mitigation of Punishment

At 2100 hrs 13 Nov 43 I was checking the blackout at Smallfields Place and in one of the rooms I saw a tunic hanging on the wall with a pay book out of the pocket about ½ an inch. I could see the corner of a money note. I did not know the amount of the note. I took the note from the pay book and put it in my field dressing pocket. At 2120 hrs I left by 15 cwt for Rudhill to pick up S/Sgt McKay, Sgt Allard and a brother down guys. On my way to Rudhill I stopped at a snack bar and cashed the £1.0.0 note for which I had a cup of tea and a sandwich which came to about 5 pence. I got a 10/ note silver and coppers in change. I returned to Coy H.Q at 2220 hrs. On morning of 14 Nov 43 I was questioned by R.S.M McCallum, placed under arrest and handed over to the Coy Guard. I was once paid in my pay book and last pay day I only drew 10/. I have had a lot of worry about my mother and family. My wife is under the doctors care and the letters that I receive from home now are written by my sister in law to the effect of the worry my wife is having. Have got her arms and hands swollen so she is not able to write herself. My mother has taken my little boy to take the burden off my wifes hands. I was paraded to the Padre at Aldershot about 5 months ago and made application for escort of prisoners of war to Canada to see to the affairs of my family. Was told the condition I was in lately. I took the £1.0.0 note.

Statement by Defending Officer

In view of the circumstances in which he came home in Canada he is used to sending a couple of cables to his people each week. He was once paid and only got 10/ last pay it was not possible for him to carry out the practice. It appears in the evidence given that someone in 13 Coy has been suspected of stealing a fuchsia powder would not have been used. When this money was planted it was put in such a position that a corner of the money and part of the pay book were in plain view out of the pocket which leaves nothing but temptation to most any one who may be in the room. It is one thing to look through someones chests pockets for money but are asking other different thing to leave money around where it might tempt someone to take it

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF NO. A 9514, PRIVATE JAMES WILLIAM SMITH; NO. 13 PROVOST COMPANY, CANADIAN PROVOST CORPS, A SOLDIER OF THE CANADIAN ARMY OVERSEAS

BY DIRECTION OF THE OFFICER COMMANDING, THE EVIDENCE OF ALL WITNESSES IS GIVEN UNDER OATH.

FIRST WITNESS: For the Prosecution. Regimental No. C 41965, R.S.M. Hugh McCALLUM, No. 13 Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps, a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On the 11 November 1945, I obtained a quantity of fuschian powder and on the same date, together with L/Cpl. BRELLISFORD, I sprinkled fuschian powder on L/Cpl. BRELLISFORD's paybook, and on one £1-0-0 note, No. A11-H500142, which was my own property. At about 1000 hrs., 14 November 1945, together with Sgt. ELDER, I checked the hands and wallets of all personnel of this Company then in barracks. On a 10/- note in Pte. SMITH's wallet I found traces of the fuschian powder. I found it also all over his first field dressing and field dressing pocket. The fuschian powder stains were also about his driving gloves and pocket flaps. I present as exhibits, uniform, field dressing and money in amount of £2-2-5½. The change was also stained with fuschian powder. I questioned SMITH about the £1-0-0 note that he had had the night before and he denied any knowledge of it. I placed him under arrest and handed him over to the Unit guard. About 1100 hrs., 14 Nov 45, acting on information received and in company with Sgt. ELDER, I proceeded to Molly's Snack Bar near Redhill and checked the money of Mr. G. DOWDING, Manager, and found the missing £1-0-0 note. I obtained same, which I present as exhibit. On returning to Company H.Q., I again questioned Pte. SMITH. As a result of his answers I cautioned him, after which he made a voluntary statement, which was read over and signed by him. I produce said statement.

SECOND WITNESS: For the Prosecution. Regimental No. B 88068, L/Cpl. L/Cpl. Gordon Thomas BRELLISFORD, No. 13 Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On 11 November, 1945, I was present when R.S.M. McCALLUM, sprinkled fuschian powder on my paybook, also on a £1-0-0 note, number A11-H500142, this note being the property of R.S.M. McCALLUM. On the same date, at about 1400 hrs., I placed the paybook with the £1-0-0 note inside, in my tunic pocket and hung it up on a nail at the side of my bed. I checked from time to time to see if the note was still there and about 2045 hrs., 13 November 45, I came in off pass, looked in my pocket and found the £1-0-0 note missing. The paybook was still there. At about 0800 hrs, 14 November 45, I reported to the R.S.M. that the note was gone. When I originally placed the £1-0-0 note in the pocket of my tunic it was folded inside the cover of the paybook which was placed in my tunic pocket and the flap buttoned.

Statement I received in mitigation-

This was all done through family troubles. At the time it happened I was worried and had no money of my own. I wanted money to cable home to find what trouble was going on. I cabled the cheque for £3-0-0. I sent several cables but received no reply from any of them. I've heard nothing from home for 6-8 months now. I was writing home quite regularly but was getting no reply which was quite discouraging to me as I did not know how my baby was, and I have not received any parcels. My wife got a letter last two years all I have received is 1000 cigarettes. I was born on 4 Jan 13. I've been married for over 9 years. I have two children. I joined in Nov 39 and arrived in England in Dec 39 and have not been back since. I had no trouble with my wife before I came over. It is over 8 months since I have heard from my wife. Even before that it was not regular. I assigned £20 to my wife - she is still getting it. The story 55% Police told my wife is definitely not true. As soon as I heard about it I was paraded by the Australian (Ox. 1 Bn Supply) and showed him my wife's letter and he sent a cable to my wife saying the story was untrue. I sent several cables also denying the story and asking them to forward me a reply. I've had no answer since I've been in the army. I had more or less been [illegible] had no trouble at all. I had up to the 7th grade in public school and 2 years at night school in London, Ont. I brought return of S-O-O to Smith. I was instructed about approaching L/Cpl. Smith about what I had done. and I am quite sure to pay it back to him just as soon as I get the money

He had access to my personal belongings among which I had quite a few valuable articles. I found him to be very honest and capable man. He has had many opportunities if he so desired to steal from me. He brought to my attention about his family troubles and I spoke to the Pay master Capt Nathan to see if he could do any information or advice to help this man. This was before these Charges were brought. I did not know him before he came here. He put a demand into Brigade asking for a batman driver and he came. He has been batman for my predecessor. Capt Supreme who would say agree with me about him

Cross-examination

He spoke to me about his family troubles about end of January or beginning of February.
R.O. 83(B) complied with.

Closing address & Refunding Offer

Went over chain & circumstances leading up to Crime. After school - he went to night school. Good character before the war. Since joining up, his character has been exemplary. Went Rackham's record shows this out. Before war he had no family trouble. Joined up early and has been on Jury coming since Dec 39. Then got several stories about his wife. Nothing was known to prove his wife getting full assignment. Letters from wife getting power of forgery until Stuckgard told him to his wife. Had no funds. Extraordinary circumstances. Letter left on his bed. Hundred and used money & could borrow & straighten up apparently at hand. I think this is the most dreadful case I've come to my attention.

COPY OF REPORT BY B.21172, Sgt. Frost,J.R.,Special Investigation Section, Candadian Provost Corps.

1. With reference to the above and marginally noted files and reports today I interviewed L/Cpl.Smith,J.W. who, after being duly cautioned made and signed the following statement.

I have been duly cautioned by Sgt.Frost,S.I.S. that I need not say anything unless I wish to do so,but that anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence. I understand this caution and wish to make the following statement. Signed James W. Smith.

Early in 1941 from letters received from my mother-in-law I learnt that my wife was not carrying on at home in the proper way. She was in Hull,Que. for no apparent reason, and also in the Toronto Gen.Hospital for some unknown reason. I have two children. The boy 8 years old is with my mother, but I have no idea what my wife has done with the girl who is 5 yrs old. I have worried about this state of affairs until I am almost out of my mind. I first officially reported these facts to Capt. McLean, my Paymaster about two weeks ago.

Previous Report first.

Some time in Aug.1942 while attached to the Service Corps near Heathfield a letter was left on my bed addressed to L/Cpl. Smith. I opened it and saw that it contained a cheque for £3-0-0 which is shown to me now. It was payable to L/Cpl Smith,G.A. A.9943. I knew a L/Cpl. Smith in the same Coy as myself. I don't think I changed the Regt.No. on the front of the cheque. I did sign the name on the back of the cheque "G.A. Smith A 9943. I also signed the blue Bank form marked exhibit "2". I used the money to cable home to enquire about my family. Signed. James W. Smith.

2. I had Cpl. Smith placed under close arrest pending trial on the above charges.

3. In view of the above I request that this file be concluded as far as this Office is concerned and also request that necessary exhibits be forwarded to the Unit concerned for their information. The original statement made by L/Cpl. Smith is being held at this Office.

STATEMENT OF A A.9943, L/Cpl. George Henry SMITH, No. 1 Plt. 3rd C.I.B. Coy. R.C.A.S.C.

BEGINS:- I am George Henry Smith, age 23 years, stationed at Isinghurst, Sussex, 3 C.I.B. Coy. R.C.A.S.C.

About August, 1942, I sent home a telegram to Canada for some money. I don't remember the amount, or if I said English or Canadian money. I sent the telegram fron Haywards Heath Field P.O. About two weeks later, I had not received the money, so I went to the Postal clerk to whom I had given the telegram and asked him how long it would take to received the cheque. He said I should have got it in about nine days.

I wrote home and mentioned that I had not received the money. My mother replied that she had sent money and would check with the C.P.R. through whom she had sent it. Later I received another letter with the particulars regarding the cheque having been cashed in Uckfield, the number of the cheque, and how the name and number had been altered.

I did not see the cheque until it was shown me yesterday (28 Jan 43) by Cpt. McIlhine, when I signed an affidavit to the effect of not having seen it before, or the signature on the back being mine.

I did not ask our company Postal Clerk at any time if a cheque had come for me.

This statement is correct and true to the best of my knowledge.

A.B. 426 POST ORDERLY'S RECEIPT BOOK for REGISTERED LETTERS attached herewith as Exhibit 3. This book is produced by Sgt. Frost, J.R. of the S.I.S. Cdn Provost Corps.

The Accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with Rules of Procedure 4 (2) states:-

"It all starts from family troubles back in the middle of 1941. I received letters that my wife was not carrying on in the proper way. She was in Hull, Quebec for reasons unknown to me. Also in Toronto General Hospital for unknown reasons to me. My Mother has had my boy aged eight, since the time I was overseas. My wife has had the little girl, aged five, which I do not know what se done with while away. She has been seen in Beverage Parlors on different occasions drinking with soldiers, [redacted] Wolsey Barracks in London, Ontario, at military dances. My wife's father told my Mother of these conditions which my mother told me about. Also different people have tod my father that his son's wife has been seen in beverage parlors.

It is over six months since I have had a letter from my wife, and over 2 years since I redeived any parcel from her.

All told I have received only 1000 cigarettes from my wife. I have ~~received~~ to my wife regularly once a week up until the last month. I have received no replies which has been very discouraging to me.

About 24th August 1942 a letter was left on my bed presumably by the N.C.O. in charge of delivering mail. I did not notice that it was not my letter until I had opened the letter which disclosed the cheque for £3-0-0(three pounds.)

At this time I was very worried about the conditions at home and was also without money of my own so I took the cheque to the bank on the 26 August 1942 and endorsed the name of G.A. Smith and the No.A.9943 on the back of the cheque. The Cashier had me sign the blue slip with the name and No. as I had written on the cheque.

I used this money to send telegrams to my wife and my Mother in an effort to get some information as to what was wrong at home. My wife had written me some time previously and told me that Sgt. Welsh(who had been returned to Canada on Medical Grounds) had told her I had a girl over here with a child of mine and that I was supporting this girl and child

I paraded to the O.C. - Major McArthur and showed him the letter I had received from my wife. I asked him to wire my wife and confirm my statement that this accusation by Sgt.Welsh was untrue. It was with part of this money I had received from the cheque that I paid for the telegram Major McArthur sent for me.

After I had cashed the cheque and realized that I had done wrong I was hesitant in telling L/Cpl. Smith,G.A. what I had done. I felt rather mean about it ever since.

After being shown the cheque and exchange form today I admit that it is the cheque and form that I signed to get the money.

I am anxious and quite willing to repay L/Cpl. Smith for the loss of this money.

At the present time the situation between my wife and I is the same. Capt.McLean, the Paymaster at H.Q. 1st Cdn Army is looking into it for me.

I also approached Lieut. Rochon about a month ago concerning these conditions at home.

A Canadian Pacific Express Company cheque for £3 dated 12th August, 1942 and No. L.331841 has been produced to me this day by Staff Sergeant J.H. Gillis of the Canadian Provost Corps. It is made payable to Lance Corporal G.A. Smith, 9943, and appears to be correctly endorsed. According to the records of the Bank, I cashed a Canadian Pacific Express Company cheque for £3 for a person purporting to be and signing as G.A. Smith, 2 Div. Supply Coy. 6 Coy. on the 26th August, 1942. I cannot recall the actual transaction and can give no description of the person to whom the money was paid. It is usual to ask for production of Paybook as means of identification before cashing such cheques, but I cannot recall this particular incident.

Diary Date

1. As instructed, on 29 Jan 43, L/Cpl. T.B.Tait interviewed the C.O. 3rd C.I.B. Co., R.C.A.S.C., who gave the following information regarding the A/M theft.

2. On 26 Jan 43, he had received from the Can.Pac. Exp. Co., London, a letter, dated 26 Jan 43, to the effect that a cheque issued by them dated 12 Aug.42, in favour of A9443, L/Cpl. Smith, G.H., had been cashed at Uckfield Sussex, Lloyd's Bank, and that same had been fraudulently uttered, the payee's name having been altered to "A9443, L/Cpl. G.A. Smith".

3. Enquiry by the C.O., elucidated that during the period 11 Aug 42 to 19 Aug 42, the company postal clerk, Cpl. Gooding, had been absent on leave, and his duties had been taken over for the interim by A9514, L/Cpl. J.W.Smith. This N.C.O. was transferred to Canadian Provost Corps on Nov 24,43, and consequently could not be interviewed. The Post Orderly's Receipt Book for Registered Letters was shown to the writer, however, and it was observed that the signature of the forged cheque bore many striking similarities to the signatures of Smith,J.W., receipting in Army Book 426. Inasmuch as Smith, J.W., had been,in consequence of his duties, in a favourable position to steal the cheque, the following statement wase taken from Smith, G.H.

4. STATEMENT OF A9443, L/CPL. GEORGE HENRY SMITH, No. 1 Plt., 3rd C.I.B. Co., R.C.A.S.C.

BEGINS. I am George Henry Smith, age 22 years, stationed at Isinghurst, Sussex, 3 C.I.B. Co., R.C.A.S.C.

About August,1942, I sent home a telegram to Canada for some money. I don't remember the amount or if I said English or Canadian money. I sent the telegram from Hayward's Heath Field P.O. About two weeks later, I had not received the money, so I went to the Postal Clerk to whom I had given the telegram and asked him how long it would take to receive the cheque. He said I should have got it in about nine days.

I wr te home and mentioned that I had not received the money. My mother replied that she had sent money, and would check with the C.P.R. through whom she had sent it. Later, I received another letter with the particulars regarding the cheque having been cashed in Uckfield, the number of the cheque, and how the name and number had bee n altered.

I did not see the cheque until it was shown me yesterday (28 Jan 43) by Cpt. McIlhine, when I signed an affidavit to the effect of not having seen it before, or the signature on the back being mine.

I did not ask our company Postal Clerk at any time if a cheque had come for me.

This statement is correct and true to the best of my knowledge.

WITNESS: T.B.Tait. 29 Jan 43. (sgd) G.H.Smith.

ENDS.

Continued Overleaf.

6. Perusal of the A.B. 426, failed to show entry for the cheque, and it is thought that same may have been forwarded under ordinary mail cover. However, search is being made by Postal Corps through Records, in order to verify this.

7. Due to similarity of the signature of suspect with that on the questioned document, A.B. 426 in question was receipted for as of assistance in this investigation.

8. Receipt for CANADIAN PACIFIC EXPRESS CHEQUE - No. L 331841, to the order of L/Cpl "G. A. Smith, A 9943", in the amount of £3-0-0, and dated 12 Aug 1942, was also given, this document together with that mentioned in para. 7 to be returned to the Commanding Officer, 3rd C.I.B. Co., R.C.A.S.C., when their use for these purposes have been obtained.

9. On 30 Jan 43, the writer patrolled to Uckfield, and interviewed that manager of Lloyd's Bank, who stated that the cheque had been cashed there, and produced from his records, the exchange form, dated 26 Aug 1942, showing that a cheque in the amount bfd£3.0-0 had been received by the bank, payment being made with three £1-0-0 notes.

10. The request for exchange had been signed by - " G A Smith, 2 Div Sup Coy 6 Coy", and it will be noticed that although the letter "G" in Smith is different from that in the signature of the cheque, the A.B. 426 shows that J.W.Smith used both forms in signing his name. Further, in all cases, the endorser's signatures and the A.B. 426 signatures have one striking thing in common, in that not one of the letters "i" are "dotted"; which similarity is carried on throughout all writing by J.W.Smith in his postal receipt book.

11. Miss Dorothy Phyllis Collison, employed by the Lloyd's Uckfield branch for the past two and a half years, stated that she always requires identification before cashing cheques. She could give no description of the person uttering the cheque in question.

12. Information as to whether this letter containing the cheque can be traced as far as the company post office will be reported upon immediately, but it is not thought that this is so.

13. Investigation is therefore handed over for continuance The necessary documents, viz.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION ON BEHALF OF K-53517, SMITH. K.
UNDERGOING COURT MARTIAL IN ALDERSHOT
1 JANUARY 1944.

Gentlemen;-

In making a plea for mitigation on behalf of Pte. Kenneth Smith I would like to bring to the attention of the Court that, through facts which I have assertained to be correct, this man is not a normal healthy man. He is a homosexual and a bisexual, this I have proved to my own satisfaction and if the court so desires I can produce witness to substantiate this statement.

Early in his youth he discovered this peculiar sexual state and except for a brief period during which he lived with a woman, he has, against his better judgement, practiced homosexualism up to the present time. Through fear of recrimination he has not brought this fact to the attention of the Military authorities until this time.

I could go quite a long way back into this mans life and show that his has not been the normal lot of a healthy male, but for the prupose of this case I would ask the Court to use their imaginations with regards to a boy growing into manhood, knowing that he had an overpowering obsession which led him to do acts that he knew full well were shunned by society. I will, with your permission, cover his life from his marriage on the 30th of march 1940.

A woman friend of his became pregnant by another man sometine before this date, and Smith through friendship, not love, and through an unselfish urge to protect her reputation married her. He renounced his homosexual desires and lived a normal happy life with this woman, until he joined the army on the 26th April 1940.

He served in Canada until 28th Feb 1942, and although he always seemed to get into trouble he must have been a pretty fair soldier as he reached the rank of Sgt. Instructor and was promoted to A/CSM for the purpose of bringing over a C.Forestry Draft.

On arrival in England he reverted to Pte. and in due course became a Cpl. instructor at 5 wing C.T.S.. He had one or two small delinquencies, but on the whole was a good and useful soldier. During all this time he had not practiced homosexualism and had remained true to his wife. We only have his word for that but we have no reason to doubt it.

During the latter part of 1942 he started getting letters from his wife telling him that ~~xx~~ she was living with another man. These letters are, I believe, in the possesion of Hon. Capt. DuPencier, pardre Westmstr Regt. Smith at once took the matter up with the paymaster and his OC with a view to getting a divorce and/or stopping his allowances home.

After a lapse of some months, during which he had been claimed by his brothers and transfered to the Westmstr Regt and [redacted] had had no word, he took the matter up again. This time with Col. Sager, OC Westmstrs, the paymaster and the Pardre. I believe that this time inquiries were made and it was found out that Smith allegations were untrue, however Smith was not informed of this.

After a further lapse of time, during which he worried over his domestic troubles and during which his resolutions over his previous homosexual desires became weaker and the urges to practice this sexual peculiarity became stronger and stronger, he decided to do something about it himself. In his ignorance he thought that if he went A.W.L. long ennough his pay and allowances would be stopped. This he intented to do, however he was picked up after an absence of 14 days. He then reverted from Cpl to Pte and went AWL again. He had still not had any word of his domestic affairs. And his homosexual desires were well nigh intolerable. He now had a hatred for the woman he had married and no longer cared what happenned.

This time he went to various Cities looking for men of his own calibre. These he found in London and if the Court so desires I can produce addresses. These men took this boy and kept him for their uses. He was comfortable, kept and well supplied with money and drink, also he was getting the sexual satisfaction he so strongly desired and in his peculiar way he was happy. He is no fool and he knew he was committing an offence, both against military and civil codes, but he was pa$$ caring. In this state he lived for some four months until he was arrested by the civil police in London.

I would respectfully suggest that this boy, through his abnormalties has never had a chance in his life. Medical opinion is that this sexual state cannot be cured and I forsee a life of unhappiness and shame ahead of him, even though he be normal in every other way. I respectfully suggest that where medicine and science has failed prison walls are not likely to succeed. I put it to you Gentlemen that this boy is more to be pitied than censored, and I plead him on the mercy of the Court.

Lieut.
J.D.Y.Acland, Defending Officer.

I would like to respectfully Recommend that Smith be sent to a Psychiatrist, this is also the wishes of the accused.

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s) or to call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s)[1]. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Plea in Mitigation

The court may find the accused guilty of the crime, but I contend that the actual guilt lies with the Adn Army Administration. I have this statement on a letter from the CO 1 FP Camp and a sworn statement of fact given by the accused as to the circumstances surrounding this his 3rd CM in as many years (produced and read to Court).

Pte Smith is a high-school graduate. He has two brothers serving here now, one a Capt and one a Sgt Major. He, himself, was a Sgt Major before he had reached the age of 21. His start in the army was excellent but the net result shows itself in that he is appearing before this court to-day, and why? Because of a lack of attention by the officer he appealed to for advice, he was in trouble - he asked for help - asked Paymasters, Padres and COS. Everytime he found somebody willing to help him, he was moved to a new unit before the help materialized - He was buffeted from pillar to post.

I ask the court to carefully consider the statement made by Pte Smith, and then, if they are in accord, recommend that an investigation be undertaken to verify his statements, and to help him sort out his own troubled thoughts and feelings.

1. The m/n soldier was awarded 12 mos detention by FGCM on 8 May 45 for an offence under AA Sec 15(1) AWL 52 days 3 hrs and 55 minutes. He later absented himself from this unit whilst undergoing detn at this unit at 1445 hrs 30 Mar 45 and apprehended at Ghent 1900 hrs 15 Apr 45. Since that date he has been in 2 CDC and despatched to this unit 8 Jun 45.

2. This soldier has been interviewed and the attached statement is forwarded to you for use at any further trial by FGCM. This man has had a considerable amount of domestic troubles and by his statement it is evident that no concrete action has been taken by the Cdn Army to [redacted] with regard to the stoppage of DA & AP to his wife. No infmn has ever been given to him as to the reason and this worry through his many changes of units has caused him to feel that there is no help in the Army.

3. As there is a possibility of you defending him, these papers are forwarded and it is suggested that these might be a ground in this instance to make a plea in bar of trial. Of course this is only a suggestion to the defending officer.

4. A copy of his statement will be forwarded to AG 10 Cdn Sec 1 Ech HQ 21 A Gp for their investigation as it is felt that in this case there are extenuating circumstances in which, had proper been taken in 1942, would not have led to his present misdemeanors.

5. It would be appreciated if these papers are passed to his defending officer should you not be prepared to act for him.

COR/lhd

Sir:-

On the 1st May 1940, I volunteered for the Canadian Army at MD 11, Sub/Depot, at Vancouver, B.C. I was at the depot until17 May 40, and then proceeded to Currie Barracks, in Calgary, ALta., for training. In Augustof the same year they sent all of my draft overseas, except a few who they kept as instructors and I was among the few.

I stayed at Currie Barracks until September of 1941, and from there I went to 131 C.A.(B) T.C. I stayed there until December of the same year. I was paraded every month for 17 months to try to get overseas but they refused on the grounds that they needed instructors very badly.

I finally succeeded in Jan of 1942.

I left Currie Barracks on or about the 15th of Jan 1942, as an A/Sgt, of my draft, the adjutant was Lieut D.S. Harley of the Seaforths and the CO., Major L.F.Findeau of the R 22nd Regt. We arrived in Halifax and found that there was no boat for us so they sent us backto Valcartier, Que, with a couple of other drafts, and I was promoted to A/C.S.M. We stayed there until the end of February, 1942, and then proceeded overseas.

On arrival in the UK I went to No. 1 C.D.I.R.U., and reverted to a Private at my own request.

In March of the same year my brother, who is a Sgt, in the Westmr Regt, claimed me into his regiment.

From No. 1 CDIRU, I went to No 5 CIRU, which is the holding unit of the Westmr Regt. I was there about 2 weeks, when I was drafted as staff for the Battle School which had just opened at Rowlands Castle, (No. 5 Battle Wing, C.T.S.)

I was there with the demonstration platoon and after 3 or 4 months was promoted to Corporal.

About September of 1942, I started to receive letters from my friends telling me that my wife was running around but I disregarded them and let things stand for a fewmonths and then I received a letter from my mother-in-law, I still only half-believed her but nevertheless I was a bit uneasy.

I went to see the CO, of No 5 Wing C.T.S. who was Col Fletcher, at that time, he in turn, referred me to the Padre, who I went to see. He suggested writing to someone official in Ottawa and having a quiet investigation to find out if there was any truth in the letters.

In the meantime I left C.T.S. and went to the Westmr Regt. While I was there I received an awful scortching letter from my wife asking me what was the idea of sending investigators around.

I went straight to the Padre (Capt de Pencier) and asked him if any word had been received from Canada, on my personal affairs, and he asked me who wrote about it and I told him it was the Padre of the C.T.S., he in turn wrote to him and in the meantime the Capt Paymaster called me up and told me that the investigators had found nothing wrong with my wife and that my child was receiving good treatment. How he came in possession of this news I have no idea.

My wife wrote to me asking for a divorce immediately, and I took the letter to the Padre and asked him if he would make application for compassionate leave to Canada; but he told me that I had no chance whatsoever.

I turned in my two stripes and went AWL, trying to get a boat home but that was impossible so I came back after 4½ months and received 9 months detention.

While I was undergoing detention in Headley, I received another letter from my mother-in-law and I took it to the Commandant and he, in turn, passed it to the paymaster. I asked him for information concerning my pay account and he said he would find out as soon as possible. A few days later he called me and told me that m, wife's pay had been stopped but he could not tellme when. I asked him if the money for my child had alsobeen stopped and he told me that she would be looked after, but he couldn't tell me by whom or when.

I left Headley on June 16, and returned to No. 6 C.I.R.U., as soon as I arrived there I went to see the Padre and asked for a divorce papers as I figured I could not keep my wife she should be entitled to the divorce that she wanted.

I completed the papers and returned them to the padre. He told me to stand by as I would have to go to the Legal Aid Section, but I heard nothing from him.

I was next paraded before Major Hudson, my Company Commander and I asked him if he would do something about getting me ~~that~~ the 20-cent raise in pay as I told him I was entitled to as, as from my reversion on April 3/43.

He told me that it would be very hard to get it at that time, so I asked to see the C.O. and the C.O. got the 20-cents raise for me but at the same time I was entitled to 90 days remission from my 9 months sentence and the paymaster only entered 15 days in my paybook. I went to see him immediately and he told me that all he could do was to follow Part 11 Orders, but he said he would see what he could do about it.

I got into a little trouble and received 21 days FP and while I was in the guard-room they took me out to sign Draft papers, and I was drafted for France.

I went to see my Company Commander and asked him if I could be left off that draft so as I could get my paybook and personal problems cleared up and then place me on the next draft one, but he told me it was the COs orders that I go on draft so there was very little argument.

I arrived in France about the middle of August and went straight to No. 2 CBRD. I was there about 2 or 3 days and the Capt called me and told me I was going on draft for Canadian Army HQ, but instead of going to Army HQ, I went as staff on a new school they were opening. It was called the Cdn Army Sniping School.

It was staffed and run by English except for 9 fatigue men and drivers. As I was one of the drivers I was around Deliverande quite a bit, and on a pay parade I asked to see the paymaster of 2nd Echn 21st Army Gp, Cdn Section, and I laid my whole story out to him. He told me that he would get everything fixed up and a statement of accounts right away.

I also received another letter from my wife telling me what a son of a Gun I was as the baby or her hadn't been receiving a penny for a long time and asking me once again for a divorce. I took the letter to the Paymaster of 2nd Echelon and he made a copy of it and returned it to me. I also told him about the 90 days remission I was entitled to.

The school lasted for about 1 month and then they sent the fatigue men back to CBRG, and left the twodrivers. We were told that we would have to transport the English Instructors and Officers back to the English Army.

We went through France and caught up to Army HQ just outside Ghent where we picked up the whereabouts of the 51st HD and I went to see a Major Hovey who was Officer i/c G Ops A and I asked him to return me to the Canadian Army and he told me that it was impossible at that time, but as soon as I returned the Instructors to the HD that I could come right back.

From there we went to Holland and caught up with the HD at a town called Eindhoven. I immediately asked to be returned.

I told the Captain that I had some personal and pay problems that I would like to have attended to right away and was told that while I was with the English Army nothing could be done. But he told me he would see what he could do about getting me back and that in the meantime he would send my paybook back to Army HQ and get them brought back to date as the English cashiers could not touch them.

I was returned to the Canadian Army about Dec 1st and I went straight to see the Padre and once again I asked for compassionate leave to Canada and was refused. So I went AWL and tried to get a boat or plane home but found it was impossible.

I was picked up in Brussels on the 14th Feb 45, and returned to CDC where I was Court-Martialed and awarded 2 years detention on March 8th.

I was brought to No 1 Cdn Detn & FP Barracks about the 15th of March and was put into the imprisonment cells about the 29th March. I was moved downstairs into the detention cells and on the 31st March I was working outside and walked away.

I hung around Antwerp trying to get a boat home and when I found out I couldn't I went to Ghent and there I turned myself in on the 15th April and the Provost from No. 2 L of C asked me where I was from and when I had left and I told them the truth.

They put me in the Town Guard Room of Ghent and I heard no more from the Provost for one month. Then I contacted Yellow Jaundice and they tried to put me into the Detention Ward at No 2 Cdn Gen Hosp, but they would not accept me as there was no charges against me and so they took me back to the Provost Office and the Provost Marshall put me under open arrest and had me put in a free ward at the hospital. About 2 days later they moved me up to the Detention Ward.

While I was in the hospital a Major came up to me and read off my charges to me. It was AWL for 15 days 5 hrs.

I left the hospital on the 3rd of June 45, and went to No. 1 CDC when I was remanded for Court-martial and the next morning they moved me back to No. 1 Cdn Det Bks.

Plea in Mitigation

The court may find the accused guilty of the crime but I shall ask that the full guilt lies with the Commanding Officer. I base this stand on a letter from the C.O. 1st Camp and a conversation I had given by the accused as to the circumstances surrounding the two AWL C.M.s on the same sheet. (produced and read to Court)

Pte Smith is a high school graduate. He has two brothers serving here now, one a Capt and one a Sgt Major. Pte Smith was a Sgt Maj when he had reached the age of twenty-one. His stay in the army was cut short but he did not leave until he received orders from the Court today - and why? Because of a lack of action by the officers he appealed to for advice. He was in trouble - he asked for help, asked Paymaster, Padre, and C.O.s. Everyone he found somebody willing to help him. He was handed to a man and helped the help withheld - he was helpless from place to post.

I ask the Court to carefully consider the statement made by Pte Smith, and then, if they are in accord, recommend that an investigation be undertaken to verify his statements, and to help him sort out his own troubled thoughts and feelings.

1. The m/n was awarded 12 mos detention by FGCM on 8 May 45 for an offence under AA Sec 15 (1) AWL 52 3 hrs and 55 minutes. He later absented himself from this unit whilst undergoing detn at this unit at 1445 hrs 30 Mar 45 & apprehended at Ghent 1900 hrs 15 Apr 45. Since that date he has been in 2 CGH, 1 CDC and despatched to this unit 8 Jun 45.

2. This soldier has been interviewed and the attached statement is forwarded to you for use at any further trial by FGCM. This man has had a considerable amount of domestic trouble and by his statement it is evident that no concrete action has been taken by the Cdn Army to satisfy him in regard to the stoppage of DA & AP to his wife. No infn has ever been given to him as to the reason and this worry through his many changes of units has caused him to feel that there is no help in the Army.

3. As there is a possibility of you defending him, these papers are forwarded and it is suggested that these might be a ground in this instance to make a plea in bar of trial. Of course this is only a suggestion to the defending officer.

4. A copy of his statement will be forwarded to AG 10 Cdn Sec 1 Ech HQ 21 A Gp for their investigation as it is felt that in this case there are extenuating circumstances in which, had proper action been taken in 1942, would not have led to his present misdemeanors.

5. It would be appreciated if these papers are passed to his defending officer should you not be prepared to act ~~as his~~ for him.

COR/lhd

Sir:-

On the 1st May 1940, I volunteered for the Canadian Army at M.D. 11, Sub-Depot, at Vancouver, B.C., I was at the depot until 17 May 40, and then proceeded to Currie Barracks, in Calgary, Alta., for training. In August of the same year they sent all of my draft overseas, except a few who they kept as instructors and I was among the few.

I stayed at Currie Barracks until September, of 1941, and from there I went to 131 C.A.(B)T.C. I stayed there until December of the same year. I was paraded every month for 17 months to try to get overseas but they refused on the grounds that they needed instructors very badly.

I finally succeeded in Jan of 1942.

I left Currie Barracks on or about the 15th of Jan, 1942, as an A/Sgt. of my draft, the adjutant was Lieut. D.S. Harley of the Seaforths and the C.O., Major L.F. Pindeau of the R. 22nd Regt. We arrived in Halifax and found that there was no boat for us so they sent us back to Valcartier, Que., with a couple of other drafts, and I was promoted to A/C.S.M. We stayed there until the end of February, 1942, and then proceeded overseas.

On arrival in the U.K., I went to No. 1 C.D.I.R.U., and reverted to a Private at my own request.

In March of the same year my brother, who is a Sgt., in the Westmr. Regt., claimed me into his regiment.

From No. 1 C.D.I.R.U., I went to No. 5 C.I.R.U., which is the holding unit of the Westmr. Regt. I was there about 2 weeks, when I was drafted as staff for the Battle School which had just opened at Rowlands Castle, (No. 5 Battle Wing, C.T.S.)

I was there with the demonstration platoon and after 3 or 4 months was promoted to Corporal.

About September of 1942, I started to receive letters from my friends telling me that my wife was running around but I disregarded them and let things stand for a few months and then I received a letter from my mother-in-law, I still only half-believed her but nevertheless I was a bit uneasy.

I went to see the C.O., of No. 5 Wing, C.T.S., who was Col. Fletcher, at that time; he in turn, referred me to the Padre, who I went to see. He suggested writing to someone official in Ottawa and having a quiet investigation to find out if there was any truth in the letters.

In the meantime I left C.T.S. and went to the Westmr. Regt. While I was there I received an awful scortching letter from my wife asking me what was the idea of sending investigators around.

[redacted]

I went straight to the Padre(Capt. de Pencier) and asked him if any word had been received from Canada, on my personal affairs, and he asked me who wrote about it and I told him it was the padre of the C.T.S.; he in turn wrote to him and in the meantime the Capt. Paymaster called me up and told me that the investigators had found nothing wrong with my wife and that my child was receiving good treatment. How he came in possession of this news I have no idea.

My wife wrote to me asking for a divorce immediately, and I took the letter to the Padre and asked him if he would make application for compassionate leave to Canada; but he told me that I had no chance whatsoever.

I turned in my two stripes and went A.W.L., trying to get a boat home but that was impossi[redacted] after 4 1/2 months and received 9 months detention.

While I was undergoing detention in Headley, I received another letter from my mother-in-law and I took it to the Commandant and he, in turn, passed it to the paymaster. I asked him for information concerning my pay account and he said he would find out as soon as possible. A few days later he called me and told me that my wife's pay had been stopped but he could not tell me when. I asked him if the money for my child had also been stopped and he told me that she would be looked after, but he couldn't tell me by whom or when.

I left Headley on Juny 16, and returned to No. 6, C.I.R.U.; as soon as I arrived there I went to see the Padre and asked for divorce papers as I figured I could not keep my wife she should be entitled to the divorce that shewanted.

I completed the papers and returned them to the padre. He told me to stand by as I would have to go to the legal Aid Section, but I heard nothing from him.

I was next paraded before Major Hudson, my Company Commander and I asked him if he would do something about getting me the 20-cent raise in pay as I told him I was entitled to as, as from my reversion on April 3/43.

He told me that it would be very hard to get it at that time, so I asked to see the C.O., and the C.O. got the 20-cent raise for me but at the same time I was entitled to 90 days remission from my 9 months sentence and the pay master only entered 15 days in my pay book. I went to see him immediately and he told me that all he could do was to follow Part II Orders, but he said he would see what he could do about it.

I got into a little trouble and received 21 days F.P., and while I was in the guard-room they took me out to sign Draft papers, and I was drafted for France.

I went to see my Company Commander and asked him if I could be left off that draft so as I could get my pay book and personal problems cleared up and then place me on the next one, but he told me it was the C.O.s orders, that I go on draft so there was very little arguement.

I arrived in France about the middle of August and went straight to No. 2 C.B.R.C.,, I was there about 2 or 3 days and the Capt called me and told me I was going on draft for Canadian Army H.Q., but instead of going to Army "HQ", I went as staff on a new school they were opening. It was called the Cdn Army Sniping School.

It was staffed and run by English except for 9 fatigue men and drivers. As I was one of the drivers I was around Deliverande quite a bit, and on a pay parade I asked to see the pay master of 2nd Ech, 21st Army Gp, Cdn Section, and I laid my whole story out to him. He told me that he would get everything fixed up and a statement of accounts right away.

I also received another letter from my wife telling me what a son of a "Gun" I was as the baby or her hadn't been receiving a penny for a long time and asking me once again for a divorce. I took the letter to the Paymaster of 2nd Echelon and he made a copy of it and returned it to me. I also told him about the 90 days remission I was entitled to.

The school lasted for about 1 month and then they sent the fatigue men back to C.B.R.C., and left the two drivers. We were told that we would have to transport he English instructors and officers back to the English Army,

We went through France and caught up to Army H.Q. just outside of Ghent where we picked up the whereabouts of the 51st H.D., and I went to see a Major Hovey was Officer i/c G Ops A and I asked him to return me to the Canadain Army and he told me that it was impossible at that time, but as soon as I returned the Instructors to the H.D. that I could come right back.

From there we went to Holland and caught up with the H.D. at a town called Eindhoven. I immediately asked to be returned.

I told the Captain that I had some personal and pay problems that I would like to have attended to right away and was told that while I was with the English Army nothing could be done. But he told me he would see what he could do about getting me back to the Canadian Army time he would send my paybook back and that in the mean- them brought back to date as the English cashiers could not touch them.

I was returned to the Canadian Army about Dec 1st and I went straight to see the Padre and once again I asked for compassionate leave to Canada and was refused. So I went A.W.L. and tried to get a boat or plane home but found it was impossible.

I was picked up in Brussels on the 14th Feb 45, and returned to C.D.C., where I was Court-Martialed and awarded 1 years detention on March 8th.

I was brought to No. 1 Cdn Detn & FP Barracks about the 15th of March and was put into the imprisonment cells about the 29th March. I was moved downstairs into the detention cells and on the 31st March I was working outside and walked away.

I hung around Antwerp trying to get a boat home and when I found out I couldn't I went to Ghent and there I turned myself in on the 15th April and the Provost from No. 2 L of C asked me where I was from and when I had left and I told them the truth.

They put me in the Town Guard Room of Ghent and I heard no more from the Provost for one month. Then I contracted Yellow Jaundice and they tried to put me into the Detention Ward at No. 2 Cdn Gen Hosp, but they would not accept me as there was no charges against me and so they took me back to the Provost Office and the Provost Marshall put me under open arrest and had me put in a free ward at the Hospital. About 2 days later they moved me up to the Detention Ward.

While I was in the hospital a Major came up to me and read off my charges to me. It was A.W.L. for 15 days 5 hours.

I left Hospital on the 3rd of June 45, and went to No. 1 C.D.C., when I was remanded for Court-Martial and the next morning they moved me back to No. 1 Cdn Det. Bks.

Summary of Evidence in the Case of No.C-11281, Gnr. Saumier, E.R. 2nd Ranging Battery, 1 Canadian Survey Regiment R.C.A.

That the evidence be taken under oath was NOT demanded by the accused and it was not so directed by the Commanding Officer.

FIRST WITNESS : Mr. Ivor Evans, Farmer and Licensee of the Three Horse Shoes Inn, Trecastle, Wales.

His statement is attached as Appendix I. It was read to the accused. The accused declined to question the witness.

SECOND WITNESS : W.J. Douglas Davies, P.C.4 of Brecnshire Constabulary, states as follows:-

At 12 midnight 29 Sept 45 I received this information from Ivor Evans, Licensee of the Three Horse Shoes Inn, Trecastle. Mr. Evans stated that Canadian soldiers had entered his premises on the night of 29 Sept 45 for the purpose of having a drink. At about 9.55 P.M. the two soldiers left the premises through the rear door. They did not return and Mr Evans went to the rear of the premises to see where they were. He then saw the soldiers climbing the gate at the side of the house and they entered the main roadway. Mr Evans then went to his shed and immediately noticed that three chickens were missing. He failed to find the soldiers afterwards but saw feathers on the roadway leading towards Llywel.

Immediately after receiving the information from Evans I went to the scene and following a track of feathers through the village towards Vicarage Road and then through fields where the Canadian soldiers were camped. I traced the feathers to the Gorse fields where the feathers terminated. At this point Canadian trucks were stationary. I made a search of the trucks accompanied by the guard but failed to find the chickens. I continued my enquiries and kept observation on the vehicles. At 8 A.M. on the 30th inst. I took Mr. Evans to the camp but he failed to pick out the soldiers that had been on his premises on the previous night. I examined the clothing of the soldiers present and found a spot of blood on the right sleeve of the overalls of the accused. I questioned the accused and he denied all knowledge of the theft, but admitted being at the Inn that night. I then made further examinations and found a spot of blood on the left leg of Saumier's overalls. I questioned him and he told me that he had been fighting and the blood had most probably come there by that means. I later questioned Smith and he then made a statement to me that he had been drinking heavily on the night in question. He then made a statement in which he admitted stealing the hens with Gnr. Saumier and Gnr. Bailey. In company with Gnr. Saumier we went to collect the hens from the field near by. Evans was there at the time and he identified the hens as his property. I questioned Saumier and later Bailey and they admitted stealing the hens together with Smith.

They made statements which they signed in the presence of an Officer. I cautioned the three soldiers and told them that the facts would be reported. The blood stained overalls mentioned were taken possession of and retained for examination.

The accused declines to question the witness.

THIRD WITNESS : No. B-79131, Gnr. Kenneth Edward SMITH, 1 Cdn Survey Regiment, RCA, Canadian Army Overseas.

FOURTH WITNESS : No.B-8236, Gnr. Edward Richard BAILEY, 1 Cdn Survey Regiment, RCA, Canadian Army Overseas.

Statement of Edward Richard BAILEY attached as Appendix III

The accused declines to cross-exaime the witness.

R. H. Mallaber Maj.

The accused having been cautioned in accordance with Rule of Procedure 4(e) states:

" At about 8.20 p.m. on Wednesday the 29th September 1943 I went from the camp with Gunner Smith and soon afterwards we went to the Black Horse Inn Trecastle. That is the public house on the right hand side of the road as you go up the hill. We were in this pub until about 10 p.m. I then left this pub in company with Gunner Smith. We then went to the other pub across the road. We there met Bailey. As soon as we got in this pub Bailey started talking about chickens. He told methat he knew how to get to the back of the pub and that he knew where to get the chickens and he told me that he knew how to get out from the back of the pub. Soon afterwards Bailey took Smith and I out to the back of the pub. Bailey showed us where the chickens were and he had a light. We entered the little at the back of the house and saw the chickens and we took one each. After that we went around the side of the house and went over the side gate and went onto the main road. The three of us came back to camp. While on the camp Bailey handed Smith his chicken. Smith and I then went to hide them in some bushes in the camp field. The chickens are the ones that I brought to you today.

Taken down by me in the Field this 2nd day of October 1943.
Rule of Procedure 4(e) complied with.

APPENDIX I

Statement made by Ivor Evans, age 60 years, farmer and licencee, of the Three Horse Shoe Inn, Trecastle.

" At about 9.55 P.M. Wednesday 29th. Sept 1943 I was serving beer at the bar of my house. At that time there were about 20 Canadian soldiers in the room. At about this time two Canadian soldiers came into the room and ordered a half a pint each and drank it straight-off, and immediately asked to be shown the way out to the back yard of the house. I did not take much notice of them because there are so many soldiers coming to the house during the last few days. I noticed that one of them was a tall fellow and the other not quite so tall. I noticed that they were out in the backfor rather a long time. So I told my wife to see to the bar. I then went out to the back-yard and immediately noticed the chicken shed in the back-yard open. I had a torch with me at the time. When I got to the shed I heard foot-steps in the side lane which leads out to the main road. I ran around the corner and saw a soldier in the act of climbing over the gate. I heard him shout to his companion(who was already over the gate), 'Oh; damn! that was a pretty near 'escape'. I noticed the chicken feathers on the gate. I came back to the shed and found three chickens missing, light coloured ones. Valued at 25/-s each. I informed P.C. Davies Trecastle at 12 o'clock that night and later helped him to search for feathers at the Canadian Camp at Trecastle Village."

Copy of Statement made by No.B-79131,Gnr. Kenneth Edward SMITH, age 21 years, of the 1st. Canadian Survey Regiment, Canadian Army, Overseas, Scotland. Stationed temporary at Trecastle.

"At about 7 p.m. on Wednesday 20th September 1943 I went to Trecastle village I was in company with Saunier and Gnr. Bailey. Saunier and I went to have a drink at the Black Horse Inn after we had been there for a time we left this public house and went across the road to the other public house the name of which I don't remember. I had had a good many drinks I don't remember much about what happened after that but I remember meeting Gnr. Bailey there. I remember getting into some back lane. I believe I had to climb a gate to get out.

I remember that at this time some one handed me a chicken. I may have got this chicken myself as far as that goes. After getting out from the sidelane I got out onto the main road. I took the chicken with me and walked down the hill towards the camp. I don't remember what happened exactly after that but I know that three chickens were put over in the bushes. The chickens are the ones that I brought and save to you this morning. If I had not been drinking I would never have taken the chickens. I killed my chicken by taking the head off

I had a good many drinks while there. I then went across the road to the other pub and had several more pints while there. I was there by myself for a good time. At about 10 o'clock Gunner Smith and Gunner Saumier called at the pub. At this time I had had just about too much to drink and I don't remember too clearly. Gunner Smith and Gunner Saumier and myself visited the back yard of the pub at about this time. We came to by a chicken shed with some chickens in it. We all got into the shed and took a chicken each. I killed the one I had by holding on to its neck tight. We decided to leave the yard of the pub and left by the side lane. We climbed the gates at the side of the house and got onto the main road. We made our way towards the camp and took the chickens with us. Summary of Evidence in the Case of No.B-7913,Gnr. SMITH, K.E.
Mount Ranging Battery, 1 Canadian Survey Regiment R.C.A.

That the evidence be taken under oath was NOT demanded by ~~the~~ accused and it was not so directed by the Commanding Officer.

FIRST WITNESS : Mr. Ivor Evans, Farmer and Licencee of the Three Horse Shoes Inn, Trecastle, Wales.
His statement is attached as Appendix I. It was read to the accused.
The accused declined to question the witness.

SECOND WITNESS : D.J. Douglas Davies, P.C.4 of Breconshire Constabulary, states as follows:-
At 12 midnight 29 Sept 43 I received this information from Ivor Evans, Licencee of the Three Horse Shoes Inn, Trecastle. Mr. Evans stated that Canadian soldiers had entered his premises on the night of 29 Sept 43 for the purpose of having a drink. At about 9.45 P.M. the two soldiers left the premises through the rear door. They did not return and Mr Evans went to the rear of the premises to see where they were. He then saw the soldiers climbing the gate at the side of the house and they entered the main roadway. Mr Evans then went to his shed and immediately found that three chickens were missing. He failed to find the soldiers afterwards but saw feathers on the roadway leading towards Llywel.
Immediately after receiving the information from Evans I went to the shed and following a track of feathers through the village towards Visarane Road and then through fields where the Canadian soldiers were camping. I traced the feathers to the Corwe fields where the feathers terminated. At this point Canadian trucks were stationary. I made a search of the trucks accompanied by the guard but failed to find the chickens. I continued my enquiries and kept observation on the vehicles. At 6 A.M. on the 30th inst. I took Mr. Evans to the camp but he failed to pick out the soldiers that had been on his premises on the previous night. I examined the clothing of the soldiers present and found a spot of blood on the right sleeve of the overalls of the accused. I questioned the accused and he denied all knowledge of the theft, but admitted being at the Inn that night. I then made further examinations and found a spot of blood on the left leg of Gunner's overalls I questioned him and he told me that he had been fighting and the blood had most probably come there by that means. I later questioned Smith and he then made a statement to me that he had been drinking heavily on the night in question. He then made a statement in which he admitted stealing the hens with Gnr. Saunder and Gnr. Sadler. In company with Gnr. Saunder he went to collect the hens from the field near by. Evans was there at the time and he identified the hens as his property. I questioned Saunder and later Sadler and they admitted stealing the hens together with Smith.
They made statements which they signed in the presence of an officer. I cautioned the three soldiers and told them that the facts would be reported. The blood stained overalls mentioned were taken possession of and retained for examination.

APPENDIX I

Statement made by Ivor Evans, age 60 years, farmer and licensee, of the Three Horse Shoe Inn, Trecastle.

" At about 9.55 P.M. Wednesday 20th. Sept 1943 I was serving beer at the bar of my house. At that time there were about 20 Canadian soldiers in the room. At about this time two Canadian soldiers came into the room and ordered a half a pint each and drank it straight off, and immediately asked to be shown the way out to the back yard of the house. I did not take much notice of them because there are so many soldiers coming to the house during the last few days. I noticed that one of them was a tall fellow and the other not quite so tall. I noticed that they went out in the back for rather a long time. So I told my wife to see to the bar. I then went out to the back-yard and immediately noticed the chicken shot in the back-yard open. I had a torch with me at the time. When I got to the shed I heard foot-steps in the side lane which leads out to the main road. I ran around the corner and saw a soldier in the act of climbing over the gate. I heard him shout to his companion(who was already over the gate). 'Oh; damn' that was a pretty near 'cop'. I noticed the chicken feathers on the gate. I came back to the shed and found three chickens missing, light coloured ones. Valued at 25/-s each. I informed P.C. Davies Trecastle at 10 o'clock that night and later helped him to search for feathers at the Canadian Camp at Trecastle Village.

Plea in case of GNRs SAUMIER · SMITH · & BAILEY

Would ask Court to consider most favorable accuseds' whole attitude from time of committing offense.
Most cooperative and straightforeward.
No need to admit offense or produce chickens.
From evidence produced conviction could never have been obtained.
Not picked out on parade and small amt of blood not sufficient evidence.
However crime definitely traced to 'C' Tp - To clear others men freely admitted guilt.
A courageous act.
Thruout have done everything in their power to make things easy.
Attitude of men who clearly realize they have committed an extremely foolish act and are ready to do all in their power to make amends.
No real harm or meanness intended — rather a foolish prank.

2. Review of actions & events on 29 Sept

Hard days driving.
Each went into village and started drinking purely by accident - Bailey to post a letter; had no money to drink - Saumier had no money and only coveralls but was persuaded by Smith who himself up to time of winning money had no intention of going in.
All had light heads for drink and in tired condition were quickly affected - Didn't realize strength of local Cider.
Bailey left pub early and on way home stopped at '3 Horseshoes' - On way out to latrine saw open chicken coop but was still sober - Could easily have taken chicken then.
Later Saumier and Smith unable to accompany friends to local dance due to dress also stopped in at '3 Horseshoes' on way home - Met Bailey - All rather drunk.
After another drink judgement completely gone and going back to latrine the sight of chickens was too much.
No possible premeditation pure impulse.
In drunken condition foolish act seemed not a crime but rather a great practical joke.
Obvious if not under influence of liquor accused would never have done this.

3. Background

(a) Saumier
Civil life worked for butcher in Hull - Worked on books and handled considerable amounts of cash - Trusted and trustworthy.
Joined army 4 Feb 41
Since then an unblemished record
That this perfect record should be broken has been in itself a bitter blow Record still something to be proud of and will receive greatest consideration by Court

(b) Smith
Civil life worked for CNR
Joined army in June 40
Since then a splendid record - Offenses committed always minor.
Since Dec 41 only one charge - Means almost 2 yrs with nothing but one small slip.
Again a record to be proud of.

(c) Bailey
Work in civil life as chauffer - A trusted employee - Owned own home.
Since coming overseas wife sold all possessions and after hearing no word for almost a year learnt that she had deserted him and 2 sons - Only recently learnt thru Welfare Society that boys were placed in foster homes.
Situation preying on mind and undoubtedly responsible for some of minor offenses recently recorded.
Has for sometime worked as batman-driver - Ample opportunities for dishonesty - Never any question of integrity - My own batman since June and can personally vouch for him.
Never convicted of drunkenness and military record shows only series of minor offenses.
While not a perfect record considering severe mental strain of last year, I feel it should be looked on favorable by the Court.

(with please Lt.

Plea in case of GNRs SAUMIER, SMITH & BAILEY.

Summary

1st Accused would never have committed offense had they been sober.

2nd Having committed it they have done their utmost to make things easy for authorities - Attitude most straightforeward.

3rd Finally close plea by reminding Court again of excellent military records of all these men - None ever awarded more than a few days CB and none ever convicted at drunkenness - Gnr. Bailey with reasonable number of minor offenses; Gnr Smith with only one minor offense since Dec '41; Gnr Saumier with an absolutely clean sheet

Taking these 3 points in consideration I feel more than justified in asking for and in hoping to obtain for these men the greatest possible leniency and very lightest sentence which this Court has power to award.

Statement by Defending Officer in Mitigation of Punishment

September 12th, 1943

In mitigation of sentence in the case of H77502 Tpr. Leonard Smith, 18th Cdn. Arm'd Car Reg't. Cdn Army Overseas.

Here is a lad who knows only too well what he has done and also realizes the seriousness of it. When I was talking with him, he did not try to excuse himself but admitted his guilt and told me quite frankly he was willing to take his medicine. Although he was on defaulters Parade and should have been busy at the time this all occurred he was given the opportunity to go out and he did not miss it. You must realize that had this unfortunate accident not occurred no one would ever have known that 1-- A vehicle was out of camp without proper authority,

2-- A defaulter was out of camp.

This shows a definite weakness in checking up. It is normal for the R.P.'s to take over the defaulters after the Mounting of the guard and to keep them busy the remainder of the evening. This was not done. Instead they were dismissed to their quarters. Then again there is the question of the Sentry at the main gate not even attempting to stop said vehicle and asking driver to produce a Work Ticket. In my opinion that sentry could have avoided all this . A look at this lad's N.P.N. 6 shows that he has been a very good soldier. We are going through a very important phase of training and it is imperative that each and every man goes through it. To give this boy a heavy sentence at such a time would seem unfair to him and his unit. This man still has the makings of a good and efficient soldier but a hard punishment at this time would without a doubt spoil him and have serious effect on his future military carreer. So I very strongly suggest that he be given a chance to prove himself.

Thank you.

Summary of evidence in the case of H77502 Tpr Leonard SMITH, 18th Canadian Armoured Car Regiment (12th Manitoba Dragoons) Canadian Army Overseas, charged with: (1) Unauthorized use of a W.D. vehicle (2) Breaking out of barracks.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness

Capt R.S. Street, 18 Cdn Armd C Regt (12 D), sworn, states:

I am 2 I/C of B Sqn, 18 Cdn Armd C Regt (12 D), in which H77502 Tpr Smith, L., is a member of the Blitz troop. I did not authorize the use of WD veh CM4230788 on 14 Aug 43 after 1200 hrs and to my knowledge no authority was given by this Sqn. This authority is required after 1200 hrs Saturdays, before authorization by R.H.Q. which is required. As a result of investigations conducted by myself and Staff Sgt Kelly of C.M.H.Q., H77502 Tpr Smith, L., was questioned on 2 Sep 43 and made a voluntary statement, in my presence, which I herewith submit.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

H77018 Sgt Dash, R. A., 18 Cdn Armd C Regt (12 D), sworn, states:

On 14 Aug 43 I was Regimental Orderly Sgt and took Staff Parade at 1745 hrs. H77502 Tpr Smith, L., was on defaulter's parade, since he was doing field punishment. After the guard was marched off to its duties there were no personnel to take charge of defaulters so I dismissed them and told them to report to their own lines.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence".

The Accused: I have nothing to say at this time.

I Certify that R.P. 4 has been complied with.

STATES.

On 14 Aug 43 I was on defaulter parade. Around 1900 or 1930 hrs I left camp with Trpr Hunt, who was driving his jeep, C M 42 30785. We went first to the public house near the airport and had two or three bottles of beer. From there we drove to another pub, where we asked for whisky but they didn't have any. We asked a woman whom we passed on the road where we could get some and she told us at the Ratcatchers. We went to the Ratcatchers, where we had a couple of whiskies and a couple of beers. From there we went to a pub, where there was a piano. We stayed there for some little time and had a few beers. It was raining when we came outside and we started back for camp. Trpr Hunt did all the driving. I remember jumping into the gates at the railway crossing and hearing someone hollering. I helped to push the gates open. I heard a lady holler something about an express train coming but I didn't see or hear the train. I was pretty dopey after the jeep crashed the gates and we came right back to camp and Pte Hunt put the jeep in the M.T. lines and I helped him put the Camouflage net over it. I went right into my hut then and went to bed.

The main reason that I didnt say anything about this crossing accident was because I didnt want anyone to know I had been out of camp while on defaulters parade.

I have read over the above statement and have had the opportunity of adding to it or deleting any part.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 5 CANADIAN INFANTRY BRIGADE, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; ~~[illegible]~~

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

Question. *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. NO

The prosecutor makes an opening address [hands in a written address which is read, marked [illegible], signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. CAPT C D SMITH H7PER

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

I was 2/c of A Coy during the month of Dec 1943 I know the accused. On 22 Dec 43 the accused and another man were brought into our coy by some Provost and placed in the coy. They were ordered by me to report to No 7 Pl. Coy to which they belonged. On 23 Dec our coy went into the attack. The whole coy marched [illegible] me and the accused was not with the coy at that time. The accused was not with the coy on the 23, 24 & 25th of Dec. I had occasion during my duties to pass rear to the different sections of the coy and the accused was not there. The coy was under enemy fire on 23 Dec and 7 Pl was stationed very close to Coy HQ. While there was possibility that he may have hidden in a slit trench it is highly improbable the reason that I took particular note of these two men is that they were turned in by the Regt Police.

The defence cross-examines.

Q1. Did you order Pte Smith to report to 7 Pl
A1. I did
Q2 Does provost usually bring any people back to their coy
A2 I dont know
Q3 How was Pte Smith brought by Provost to you
A3 I think he came from
Q3. From where do you think Pte Smith came from?
A3. The other side of the river.
Q4. If did you inform Pl Cmd of any particulars item in relation to Pte Smith
A4 I did not
Q5. Is it possible that he was there on dec 22
A5 Yes.
Q6 Was it possible to have seen or missed him on 23 Dec in that at that time the coy was under fire.
A6 It was possible
Q7. On 23 Dec did you check with Pl Cmd to see if he was present or was it a mere cursory look about
A7. It was a mere cursory look about but I did ask the C.S.M and he was unable to give information.

Questions by the court.

Q1 Did you make an individual sum issue to each man
A1 Yes
Q2 Were you in Q.
A2 No
Q3 Do you find out administrative steps
A3. No.
Q4. How do you account for absentees.
A4. The clerk goes forward and checks the roll.
Q5 When check was made was man present.
A5. I was not present at the check.

C.D. 5 Stafford 29 yrs

Second witness for prosecution

Capt T. A. C. Farman having been sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

On 27 Dec 43 I was R/cmd H Coy 1 Pl 1 K.

I checked H Coy as R/cy cmd at about 1000 hrs 29 Dec 43 prior to handing coy over to the new commander Major R K Campbell It was reported to me by the Pl Sgt that Pte Smith L D was not present I checked the pl. and found Pte Smith L D to be AWL.

No cross examination.

The prosecution points out at this point that there is certain difficulty in calling witnesses. The Pl Sgt and other N.C.O.'s are now in England. The C.S.M. is in hospital

D

The prosecution is closed.

Defence.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

†The summary (or abstract) of evidence is read, marked C 12 signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?

Answer. The accused in mitigation of punishment says — Yes

(or hands in a written statement, which is read, marked , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)

They duties as Flay 7 PC are those of a No 1 on the 6 pdr. On the 7 Dec 43 I had the 6 pdr alone with no other weapon. The No 2 was carrying our case of bombs. There was one bomb missing. He had his own rifle but no rifle for me. When the Dr moved off Flay was in the rear as we came under fire we were ordered off the road and under cover. It was evident that there was a sniper in our area as some shots were coming too close for any other fire that was going on at the time. Looking around I located the sniper and came to a halt.

Instructions.

† If there is no summary or abstract of evidence, sufficient evidence to enable the Court to determine the sentence, and to enable the confirming officers to know all the circumstances connected with the case, will be taken on a separate sheet in the same manner as on a plea of "Not Guilty."

If from the statement of the accused, or from the summary or abstract of evidence, or otherwise, it appears to the Court that the accused did not understand the effect of his plea of "Guilty," the Court shall alter the record, and enter a plea of "Not Guilty," and proceed with the trial accordingly.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

The a/n soldier volunteered for Active Service in April 1940 and has had four years service overseas. He landed in Sicily on July 13th 1943 and fought with the H & P.E. Regiment from Agaoria to Ortona. In all this time overseas only one privilege leave was granted to this soldier and he was recalled from it.

After serving as a rifleman in Sicily the accused volunteered as a sniper and requested a sniper's course but was refused. Previously in England he had endeavoured to obtain employment as a tradesman in the army as he had been a cabinet maker in civilian life, this opportunity was also denied him. In another instance he requested an opportunity to qualify as a driver mechanic but without success.

It would appear to the defence that instead of receiving encouragement and assistance this soldier has been discouraged in any efforts he put forth to become an efficient soldier.

Plea of Mitigation

When Pte Smith was posted the previous evening, he states he was properly dressed, later on, as so many guards do during the night, he put on this American Jacket to keep himself warm, as at that time he had no great coat. He felt that his appearance during the hours of darkness could be overlooked for reasons of comfort. He was still dressed the same way the next morning when he was suddenly called upon by the Cpl to take over while the guard went to breakfast.

As for the charge, for failing to salute an officer, he said he did not recognize Major Ross immediately as he was driving by in a jeep, but that he did salute him when he was called over. The accused has elected trial by court martial, - because he rightly decided that, when the C.O. on these summary charges which he would have dealt with himself asked him whether he wished to be tried by him, or court-martial, - that he was going to get detention. He felt he would rather take his chances and throw himself on the mercy of a court-martial.

If you look at his conduct sheet you will see that he is not a particularly vicious character. There are several short AWLs and other minor offenses. I would therefore ask the court to take all these facts into consideration and be as lenient as possible on the accused.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

By the direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken upon oath.

FIRST WITNESS:- Capt C.F.A. Graham, 8th New Brunswick Hussars, having been sworn, states:-

" I am Capt. C F A Graham, C Squadron, 8th New Brunswick Hussars. On the 15 Mar 1945, L 51183 Tpr, Smith L.D., reported to me on coming to C Squadron as a reinforcement. I gave him general instructions concerning the routine of the sqn. I observed that Tpr. Smith was wearing a jacket of American pattern. And I told him that he must not wear such clothing on parade. The following day I met Tpr Smith and observed that he was still wearing the American jacket. I asked him why he was still wearing it and he replied " To keep my battle dress blouse clean" I again ordered him not to wear the jacket. The next morning, in my Sqn Commander's absence, I took Sqn parade and I saw Tpr Smith on parade wearing the American jacket. I ordered him, in the presence of the whole Sqn, to take off the American jacket and not to wear it again.

The accused was the only sentry on duty in the vehicle park during those hours. At approximately 0800 hrs 19 Mar 1945 I posted the accused as a sentry while the remainder of the guard was having breakfast. He remained on sentry duty until approximately 0830 hours at which time he was relieved. During this time he was the only sentry on duty in the vehicle park. Motion by the defending officer 17

If it please the Court I wish to make a motion that the prosecution has not established a "Prima facie" case, and that therefore the accused should not be called upon for their defence, and I make a similar motion on the second charge. In the first place it has not been established that anyone has definitely saw them committing the act of breaking the fence, nor were they identified. They were apparently in the fight but alone with other people at least. On the circumstancial grounds, times given for when the fight is said to have taken place vary from 10 to 11 to 11:15 p.m. - The police constable gives testimony that he could see for five or ten yards that night. [illegible]

Yet Mrs Hannan said she could see two men at a distance which must have been greater than ten yards. The evidence is contradictory. As for the second charge the facts show by their own testimony that only a few people were concerned in the fight in the same sort of way as the accused persons.

Decision of the Court is that motion is rejected.

On Aug. 28th. 1942 Smith & myself were at the Peace Haven Hotel, we met a few of our boys from mr pl. also Mr. Rogers. [redacted] & Mr. Rogers toss a penny to see who would buy the drinks. Smith lost.

We stayed there until closing time and then went outside, we were deciding whether to go up by the beach way or by the road while we were doing so. Pte. Myra & Helyard came out. We talked to them for a short time and then they took the bus and went home. Smith & myself walked up the road and we heard a girls voice, we sort of went over to see who they were. Just as I went to step on the sidewalk, this fellow took a swing at me but he never hit me. I swung at him & never hit him. Then Pte Smith grabbed him and threw him down. While they were wrestling I swung my id his wife. She asked Smith to let him up & when he did he ran down the road (Pte Cameron). About that time Pte. McIntyre came there, and then we all walked along to our cook house, talking as we went.

After we got to the Corna House. L/Cpl.
Watson + Pte Wright came along. We talked to them for a minute or so, and then L/Cpl. Watson said it was time to go home.
And we went along home with L/Cpl Watson

Character Witness. 36

Lt. Cdr. Putnam. Having been duly sworn states:—

I have been Pl. Commander of U.S. Pl. U.P.S.R. since October 1941, the defendants Hans Smith Crowell have both been in that pl. all that time. Neither have ever given me personally any trouble whatsoever, to the best of my knowledge Crowell has a clean crim sheet, and Smith has had no arrests for at least seven months. They are both carrier division and their work has always been more than satisfactory. Their conduct as soldiers has left little to be desired in my experience with these men.

I consider it extremely improbable that they have had any thing to do with the damage.

Lt Cdr Putnam USNR
President

Summing up by prosecution.

I have considered both charges together.

1. Mrs Dorothy Hannan on oath states that she saw two men pulling the wall in front of Cromwell Cottage down. She then saw them cross the road and ~~engage in a fight~~ heard a fight ensue.

2. Mrs Hannan's mother heard the row and states that the time was just before 11 o'clock.

3. Ptes Cameron & Doucette, Mr & Mrs Delacourt's evidence show that they reached a point opposite Cromwell Cottage sometime before 11 o'clock

4. Both Mrs Hannan and her mother heard a woman screaming.

5. Ptes Cameron & Doucette, Mr and Mrs Delacourt all state that Mrs Delacourt cried out.

6. The time is too well to admit of any reasonable doubt of the fact that the accused were in the vicinity of Cromwell cottage shortly before 11 o'clock.

7. Mr Rogers in his evidence stated that in his opinion it would take ten or fifteen minutes to cause the admit that this is an impossibility and apart from the distance they were engaged in the fight with Cameron during this time. In view of this it seems that little reliability can be placed on the times given by the witnesses for the defence.

10. Pte Crowell states that at arms length he could not recognize Cameron. Previous to this the defence have tried to prove that visibility was ten to fifteen yds. If Crowell could not recognize a man he knew well at arms length then anyone could certainly have passed the damaged house without noticing the damage from the other side of the street.

11. Sgt Shorton the Provost Sgt who for three years has been investigating cases such as these states definately that there were no parades on the pavement on Saturday. So that the wind mark seen by the Sergeant on Sunday could have no bearing on the case.

Lt Col Weir Major
President.

(D) Summing up by the defending Counsel.

With regard to the case for the prosecution: prosecution by law assumes the burden of the proof. If all prosecution witnesses are correct, he has proved almost nothing. He has proved that between the hours of 10:15 & eleven there was a fight. Bret. This in strictly has no bearing on the first charge, the evidence which he accepts as rebuttal of Mrs. Hanner & her mother, is when you boil it down simply by that they lead a movie. If as the prosecution accepts his proof. Pte. Crowell couldn't identify a man at arms length, How the devil could Mrs. Hanner, sat two windows the road, & How could she be sure what they were doing, & how many there were. As for the prosecutors declaration that, because Pte. Crowell couldn't identify a man at arms length. Four witnesses for the defence could walk by the damage wall without seeing the damage, is ridiculous, in that the prosecution witnesses state that the defendants would across the side walk, and the court has seen for itself the nature of the rebris.

The case for the prosecution in the first charge, rests upon the computation made of Mrs Hanna & the mother, whose greatest contribution to the evidence, was that she heard a noise.

Respectfully submitted
Chas. Thomson Rogers
President

Summing up for the defence.

1st Charge.

1 No one saw them actually commit the damage.

2 They have not been identified as having been at the scene of the crime when the damage was done.

3 Evidence shows they left the Peacheaven Hotel at approximately 2240 hrs, walked on towards [illegible] and met Cameron who had also left the Peacheaven Hotel at closing time. They are alleged to have done the damage before they met Cameron, but in consideration that by the evidence of Myra & Helpard, they left the Peacheaven some little time after 2230 hrs closing time, and in consideration of the fact that Cameron also left at closing time and stopped nowhere, they obviously could not have had the necessary time to do the damage and then meet Cameron and his party.

4 Four people, Schofield, Nicoll, Wright and Watson passed the Cromwell Cottage that night after Smith & Cromwell, i.e. they caught up with them at the Corner House, indicating [illegible]

His evidence that he pushed the sailor aside in order to come to grips with Cameron is more reasonable. There is a contradiction in the evidence it is to the advantage of both sides to stick to their story and the court must decide which is true. Either Cameron's story is correct and Smith made an unprovoked assault on a man he didn't know, which is unlikely, or the defendant's story is correct and Cameron was the aggressor.

May it please the court, there is a reasonable doubt as to the culpability of the defendant, and therefore the second charge must be dismissed.

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence
by the Defending Officer.

I ask the court in due consideration of the meritorious service of both the accused and I ask that punishment meted out to them on the second charge be not greater than that which the commanding officer could give. I ask the court to consider that this prisoner was only a pay night squabble and that the disciplinary action taken be not harsher than is usual in such cases. I also ask the court to consider the number of persons involved who may also be considered to have been partly at fault. I also ask the court to consider this fact, that had it not been for the damage done to property by persons not known, the defendants would never have been called on for defence in this second charge, as no complaints were laid.

On 28 Aug 42 I left the Peacehaven Hotel with a sailor Roy Delacourt, by name and his wife Gladys also Pte Doucette, J. about closing time and started up the road towards Newhaven on the left side of the road. I stepped back to avoid the blow and more or less pushed him and Crowell fell down. Pte Smith then grabbed hold of my arm and we wrestled out towards the center of the road. By that time Pte Crowell had got up again. I broke loose from Pte Smith and pushed Pte Crowell again who fell on the pavement. Smith then ~~xxxx~~ stepped in and looked me around the waist and threw me to the road where I struck my head on the pavement. I was hit two or three times while I was lying there. The same series of events give rise to the charges found on both charge sheets. Also, the events of this particular evening continue beyond those facts upon which the prosecution relies for the establishment of it's case on the two charge sheets. However the events occurring beyond a certain point during the course of the evening are irrelevant not essential to the proof of the charges. I anticipate that the civilian witnesses particularly may desire to continue their testimony to it's natural conclusion, "to complete the story" so to speak. In fairness to the accused, on the charges, on which they are being heard, it is not desireable that this irrelevant matter be admitted. It might perhaps be prejudicial to them

It may appear that certain material evidence is being suppressed. I should like to assure the court in advance that such is not the case — that any evidence not adduced is, in my opinion irrelevant.

Evidence in the case of 45121 Pte (A/Cpl) BOYLES, Allen Lloyd and L. 8330 Pte SMITH, Lewis John Edmund both of No 1 Can Base Tpt Coy RCASC, attached to Can Int Org Brussels Garrison.

The president in makes an opening address & calls.

First Witness - Miss M. M. Lemmens of 20 Onderbergstraat, Ledeberg, Ghent, having been duly sworn states.

I recognize Pte Smith and the other accused whose name I do not know.

I remember the evening of 10 July, 1945. I was at the pictures & then to cafe Ghent. I was with my friend Gabrielle Van Acker at the cafe Ghent. While I was in the cafe Smith & the other soldier came in at approx 2200 hrs. Pte Smith asked me if I wanted to go to Brussels. I can't remember if Pte Smith was with the other soldier. All I can remember is that I was in the street at the time he asked me. I accepted the offer if he could bring me back by 3 o'clock in the morning. He then said he would drive me back by 3 in the morning. We started for Brussels, the Pte Smith the other soldier my friend & myself my friend being Gabrielle. I asked Gabrielle to come, no else suggested it. We travelled to Brussels in a military lorry. The four of us were in the front seat.

RB

was only sent to accompany the soldiers for no other purpose.

Cross examination.

We spoke English to the two soldiers I speak English a little. I understand a little English I asked Smith to have me back by 3 a.m. because I had to go to work at 6 a.m. He said he would have me back in time for work.

I didn't really care how I got back as long as I got back in time for work. Any train would have been just as good. I knew Smith was stationed in Ghent but I knew he had been away for 14 days in Holland He told me he was going back to Nijmegen the other soldier did not say where he was going. I had never seen the other soldier before the evening I went to Brussels with them the other soldier didn't speak to me at all

Re-examination

I can't say exactly that I expected them to bring me back once I arrived in Brussels but I could always take the train. I can't exactly say if he told me when he was going to Nijmegen, but he came on Sunday evening & said he was going that the next day Monday evening was not the day we went to Brussels. I know the next day. Stronger Smith would bring me back from Brussels on time for work with the lorry

By the Court:

I rode as far as Asche in the lorry. I am not giving evidence in English as I cannot say exactly in English as I can in French.

RP 93(b) complied with.

The witness after complaint of above rule wishes to add the following to page 3 line 4 of her evidence "Once in Brussels if Smith was unable to bring me back in his lorry I would take a train."

RP 83(B) complied with

No examination by DO or P.O. under RP83(B) witness Miss Gabrielle Van Acker 19 yrs old for prosecution Rey branch street, Evergem Ghent.

having been duly sworn states.

I recognize the two accused as Cpl Boles the other Pte Smith. I remember the evening of 14 th of July 18 I saw the two soldiers in the cafe Ghent that evening three girls were with me. Magdelena Semmyn was one. We were in the cafe the two soldiers came in ~~they asked me~~ We ~~to go with them to Brussel~~. ~~I spoke to~~ ~~Magdelena. The soldier spoke first to~~ Magdelena. One soldier spoke first to Magdelena It was Smith I did not hear what he said Magdelena then came & asked me something. I told her that we ~~were~~ intended to work at 6 ~~am~~ in the morning & we had to be back by 3 A.M. We went together to the two soldiers. Smith asked me to go to Brussels. It was the first time I had seen the Cpl. I did not speak to the Cpl in the cafe I told Smith
I would go to Brussels with him & that I must be back before 6 o'clock in the morning. We sat at a table drinking a lemonade during the conversation Cpl Boles was not sitting there. We came in to the cafe went to the lavatory & then we went out.
I spoke to Smith in the cafe. I told him
I would go to Brussels if he promised me

I will be back before 6 o'clock in the morning. Smith said" I will have you back by 3 o'clock in the morning mi Short.

2 Can T/C Provost Coy having been duly sworn states. On 10 July 45 I was stationed in Brussels. On the morning of 11 July 45 at approx 0930 hrs. I was instructed to proceed to Aasche on the Brussels Ghent highway. I took T/Cpl Boles & Pte Smith who are present here today, to investigate an accident which had occured during the night. I did not see the vehicle I interviewed Pte Smith & T/Cpl Boles at Aasche who were not under arrest at that time. I obtained a work ticket from Pte Smith. I asked Pte Smith if they were on an authorized trip and he produced a work ticket I would recognize the work ticket if I saw it again.

Prosecution produces a work ticket which the witness identifies as the one taken from Pte Smith.

This work ticket relates to a Ford 3 ton WD # 42502201. The driver designated by the work ticket is Pte Smith 12C. # 1 Can Base Tpt Coy RCASC.

The prosecution submits work ticket as evidence. The defending officer does not object to the admission of the work ticket as evidence.

It is submitted that Boles & Smith acted together in a common enterprise throughout. They came to the cafe together in the truck about 2200 hours at night. Smith asked his girl friend to make a trip to Brussels with him & requested her to bring another girl for his friend. She promised miss Sermyn that she would have her back in time for work in the morning. Smith also promised miss Van Acker, in the presence & hearing of Boles that he would have her back in time for work the following morning.

The four of them - two soldiers & two girls got in the military vehicle & proceeded towards Brussels. It was the understanding of both the girls that they would be brought back to Ghent in the military truck, - though they were prepared to take a train back if the military vehicle for some unforseen reason could not bring them. I wished to stop at ~~the~~ "C" platoon which was stationed at Villevoorde just outside of Brussels. I met Pte Smith and as he was thinking of returning to his unit that evening I suggested I take the 2 ton lorry & stop over at "C" platoon. I met Pte Smith between 1800 & 2000 hrs on the 10 July 44. I spoke to him about the trip that night. We left Ghent between 2100 & 2130 hrs, before dark. There were civilians in the vehicle. Pte Smith & I intended to take them as far as Brussels. I understood we were to send them home on the 2400 train from Brussels. To my knowledge I had no intention of bringing the civilians back to Ghent. I had spoken to Pte Smith about what I proposed to do. I understood his intentions were the same as mine.

I am reasonably familiar with the train schedules from Brussels-Ghent. At one time there was a train which left Brussels around 3 am & arrived at Ghent around 5.30 am. I am a runner. I am familiar with driving of vehicles from Ghent to Nijmegen. The route taken depends on circumstances. As a rule if I have time I take 210. I have been told that 210 route is slightly longer but I have never checked it. 210 route goes through Aalst touches edge of Brussels - Antwerp. Turnhout. Tilburg & maps lead up from there on. I have taken 200 from Ghent. It is a rough road except for 4 or 5 miles of cement. There is a stretch of 3 miles of 10 miles per hour speed limit at Antwerp. There are numerous villages on 200 between Ghent & Antwerp. Generally traffic is much heavier on 200.

Pte Smith is a member of my platoon. on 9 July 44 he was given certain orders. I am familiar with the orders. He was to proceed from Nijmegen to Uden & return. He should have left Nijmegen at approx 0900 hrs. I expected him back the following night. His direction was given as to route by any one. This is customary as the drivers know the routes & changes in roads such as detours better than anyone else. As far as I know T/Cpl Poles went with Smith on pass.

Normally when one of my vehicles is dispatched to Uden it is not used for local trips & normally another entry is not made if an intermediate authority is put on the work ticket for an intermediate run, after the original Nijmegen - Uden authority.

Pte Smith has always been a very good soldier. He has never given cause for disciplinary action. He has always carried out his duties in the manner desired. Smith is the type of soldier I would prefer to have under my command. If he was detailed for a job I would expect him to do the

Closing Address for Defending Officer (Joint Charge Sheet)

It was the duty of the accused Smith to return to Nijmegen and he was returning, along a route known to be slightly longer, but admittedly a better road, than the shorter and most direct route. Both were approved military highways known as 210 and 200. Owing to very special circumstances, his vehicle had been taken from him during the day and used by Coy. HQ. It was returned to him during the evening and shortly afterwards he set out, as it was his duty to do, to return to his platoon near Nijmegen. With him was an N.C.O. of the same platoon, and they took two girls with them for company, intending to see that they got safely to the appropriate railway station at Brussels. Perhaps they didn't have the necessary authority to take these civilians in the lorry but they aren't charged with that: the essential point is that they were proceeding on duty, and Smith was not, repeat not, using his vehicle "for private purposes".

Prosecutor's Summing Up.

Pte Smith is charged with the unauthorized use of a military vehicle for private purposes. The facts as brought out in evidence are not in dispute. The question for decision is whether Smith was proceeding on a properly authorized duty run during the course of which he gave some civilians a lift, or whether he was taking his girl friend for an unauthorized joy ride to Brussels. The court must ascertain Smith's intention from his actions & the surrounding circumstances.

The prosecution alleges that it was a joy-ride, for private purposes & bases this allegation on the following facts.

1. There is no authorized trip to Brussels on the work ticket for the day in question.

2. The entry on the work ticket for the day before, authorizing a trip from Nijmegen to Ghent & return is technically cancelled by the subsequent entry.

3. Brussels is not on the most direct route between Ghent & Nijmegen, — even if the return trip from Ghent to Nijmegen is authorized.

4. The girls were given to understand that they would be brought back to Ghent, — & assumed it would be by the military lorry. Miss Leroy says, if something unforseen occurred to prevent the lorry going back she was prepared to take a train, — & Mrs Van Acker states she did not foresee the possibility of having to return by train.

5. Smith & Miss Verwyn were not just casual acquaintances. He had seen both girls many times before. Does it seem probable that he intended to drive them both directly to the Brussels station, so that they could return to Ghent from whence they came, — while he proceeded on his duty run to Nijmegen.

I accordingly submit that the carrying of the two girls to Brussels was for private purposes & not in the course of duty. And by using his military vehicle for the purpose of carrying his girl friend, Smith is using it for an unauthorized private purpose.

in Assche for lack of fuel. I stopped my car on the right hand side of road leaving space for tramway. I took container to refuel my car. As soon as I stopped two people approached me, a man and a woman. The man spoke to me. I told them that I could ~~[illegible]~~ because my vehicle was already heavily loaded with plants. It is a 2 ton Chevrolet truck. I paid no more attention to these two people, but went to rear of my truck to get a container and came back and climbed on top of "hood" cabin to fill gas tank which is on top of the cabin. I must stand on the hood of the vehicle to fill the tank. I did climb up on the hood of the motor. I had not yet opened tank when a Military vehicle arrived and collided with my truck in the rear. When I got out of my vehicle all the lights were on. There was a red light in rear. It was "burning properly" properly lit. When I halted my vehicle and got out I had the brakes on. My wife stayed in the cab of my truck. When the Mil. vehicle struck mine vehicle it was pushed forward and I fell down. My vehicle went about 40 metres forward. It stopped on the right hand side against a row of houses. I got up and ran after my vehicle to stop it from hitting the houses but I arrived too late Then I took a look to see if my wife had been hurt. I then went back to scene of the accident where I saw that all my goods were on the road. that is, the plants that were in my lorry. The plants were apprx where my truck had been before the accident. The military truck was ~~slightly in front of the plants~~ pile A. ~~on the road~~ facing the pile B. The pile of plants was on road between the mil lorry and my lorry. plants. I saw one soldier, the one who was at the wheel of the Mil lorry. I cannot positively identify that soldier.

I saw that same soldier again since the accident yesterday, here in the building. The soldier I saw at the wheel was inside the lorry on the right hand side. That soldier is the accused here to-day. After the accident I drove my lorry out of the way to the Gendarmerie, on orders of Gendarmes. All goods in my lorry were lost. The body and windshield chassis are completely broken and has to be replaced. Some other parts have been broken.

Cross-examination

The back door of my lorry is made of wood. The body of the lorry is made of wood and covered with canvas. My lorry stopped at this spot because it was out of petrol. I could not have pushed it to the other side of the road. If it had been possible for me to have gone a few metres further I would not have moved it to the other side of the road but would have left it where it was, parked according to Belgian laws leaving room for tram to pass.

The evidence of Capt Marsby is that the accused gave him every assistance in his investigation of the accident and gave a statement promptly, voluntarily and without any attempt at evasion. The civilian truck was parked in the travelled portion of one of the busiest highways in Belgium, and after the accident was still in a condition to be driven away so the actual collision was not too forceful. The accused had a right to expect that the road then, 8½ feet from the curb, would be free from parked vehicles. When blinded momentarily by the glare of the light of the oncoming car, as all of us have often been, he kept to his own side of the road, and it was just purely tough luck that the civilian truck driver stupidly chose that particular spot to fill his gas tank with petrol.

What was the negligence?

Reply to Defending Officer's submission

The evidence of negligence on which the prosecution relies is based on four grounds, as follows:-

1. There were four persons in the cab of the truck. A 60 cwt. has seats for a driver & one other person, & not too much room at that. With four persons in the cab it must necessarily have been cramped. In addition, this is contrary to instructions to drivers & to orders which are common knowledge.

2. The driver drove into the rear end of a parked vehicle which had it's lights, including a tail light, burning

3. The speed of the vehicle is indicated by the aftermath of the accident. The force of the impact drove a parked, loaded, 2 ton vehicle forward a distance of 40 to 50 yds. Here it stopped, not of it's own ~~speed~~ loss of way, but because it struck the wall of a house. And it struck with sufficient impact to mark the wall of the house & to leave shattered glass at the spot.

4. There is an ancient rule of law governing highway traffic which requires a driver of any vehicle to so drive his vehicle as to be prepared to deal with any forseeable emergency. In other words, having regard to traffic on the road & all other circumstances of the case, he should have control of his vehicle at all times.

Smith put himself in such a position by failing to slow down when temporarily blinded that he was unable to avoid the accident. This constitutes blameworthy negligence.

Summing-Up, Prosecutor. AP 1.

The facts of this case are not in dispute. The accused in his statement agrees with the evidence in this regard called by the prosecution.

The question is, do these facts reveal any negligence on Smith's part. I should like to review again the facts on which negligence is alleged.

1. There were four in the cab of the truck. This may have caused it to be cramped to the extent that his control of the vehicle was not as great as it might otherwise have been.

2. The accident occurred on a straight level road with nothing to obstruct the forward view. The road was of cobblestones, & was wide. On such a road Smith drove into the rear end of a parked vehicle which had its lights, including a tail light, burning. This vehicle was not parked on the extreme right of the road, but was parked in accordance with Belgian law. There was ample room to pass on the left of the vehicle, which from the diagrams was by no means in the centre of the road.

3. The speed of Smith's vehicle was such that it knocked a parked, loaded, 2 ton vehicle forward a distance of 40 to 50 yds where it stopped because it struck the wall of a house. The brakes of this vehicle had been on, — & it struck the wall with sufficient impact that it left a mark, & a pile of shattered glass at the spot. Aside from this evidence, we have the evidence of one of the girls who said the truck was proceeding at normal military speed, & Smith's statement which fixes his speed at 25 m.p.h. Certainly it was no less than 25 m.p.h. when the truck was knocked from under it & load of flower pots which fell to the road in a heap at the point of impact.

5. A driver should drive, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, so that he has such control of his vehicle as to be able to cope with any normal forseeable problem. It was forseeable that there would be traffic on a main highway such as this — even at the hour in question — because they had just passed a vehicle headed in the opposite direction. There was in fact some traffic on the road. — & particularly in a village or town such as this one might forsee the possibility of something on the road. Smith was blinded for an appreciable length of time by the headlights of the approaching vehicle. Knowing he could not see he continued to drive at speed, — & makes no claim in his statement that he slowed down. None of the witnesses suggest that the vehicle slowed at all.

Of course when the lights were switched up again Smith was then in such a position that he could not avoid the vehicle in front. But he had put himself in such a position by his own negligence.

Had he slowed down when blinded by the glare he might have been able to cope with the situation

16C 3. (Summing-up cont'd

when he did see it, — if the truck had been less crowded he might have been able to act more quickly

I submit there is sufficient evidence of negligence to support a finding of guilty as charged.

Prosecuting

Closing Address of Defending Officer 167 Second Charge Sheet

The defence submits that the prosecution has failed to show any culpable negligence and refers the Court to the amendment to the note to Sec 40 A A where "neglect" is defined and explained.

I say again what I said in my submission at the close of the case for the prosecution. Referring to the prosecution's 4 points:

1. There is no evidence that ~~not~~ accused was crowded in the cab — quite the contrary.
2. If the civilian truck had a tail light it was presumably weak (as compared with the glaring headlights of the approaching car) and quite possibly hidden by the two civilians standing behind the truck.
3. There is no evidence of excessive speed and the fact that the other truck rolled 40 yards proves nothing.
4. As regards "control", the accused had the right to expect that no vehicle would be parked in the travelled portion of a wide and busy highway. No driver ought to be blamed for not anticipating such stupidity.

The prosecution must prove neglect of a blameworthy nature, must prove it beyond a reasonable doubt.

And it hasn't done so.

At approx 2130 hrs 10 July 45 I left W/S No 1 Adv Base Transport Coy, Ghent on my return trip to Nijmegen, where one platoon of my unit is stationed. I stopped at a cafe in Ghent after I had left W/S where myself and L/Cpl Boles who was with me offered to take two civilian girls whom we knew to Brussels.

While I was passing through the town of Asschi, travelling approx 35 m.p.h. when a vehicle approached me from the opposite direction with very bright lights. I switched my headlights off but the other vehicle did not dim his lights, which blinded me at the time.

When the oncoming vehicle had passed me I turned my headlights on and there was a civilian vehicle approx 10 yds in front of me, parked beside the tram line, some distance from the tram line sidewalk. I saw the movement of two civilians behind the parked vehicle but could see no light on the rear of the parked vehicle. I slammed all my brakes on immediately but was too close to avoid crashing into the rear of the vehicle. My vehicle stopped dead and the civilian vehicle rolled some distance ahead, across the sidewalk and up against a house.

W/Sgt & L/Cpl Boles jumped out of the vehicle and noticed a heap of plants, pots and dirt in front of it. In a few minutes a number of civilians and civilian police were there and the area I was towed and civilian police were there and the area I was towed. We passed which began to dig up the pots and plants on the road which ran out of the back of his truck. Someone turned a light on and I saw the bodies of a civilian man and woman. After they had been removed by ambulance myself and L/Cpl Boles went into the Gendarmerie which was just opposite the accident and was informed that the two civilians were dead.

The Gendarme phoned for the Military Police, Brussels and in approx 45 min a C.M.P. arrived. Before they arrived the Gendarme took statements from the two civilian girls who were riding in my lorry. The C.M.P. questioned L/Cpl Bolesland myself and later on a wrecker came and towed us into Brussels, to R.E.M.E. After our lorry was parked in their garage, the C.M.P. took us to H.Q. 2 Base Sub & Provost Coy, where we reported to the Orderly Cpl and told him what had happened.

miss M. M. Germyn having been duly sworn states:—

I am magdelena M. Germyn, 20 Oude Diestraat, Sedeberg, Ghent. At approx. 2200 hrs 10 July 45 I was in the Cafe Stand at Ghent where Pte Smith whom I recognize came into the Cafe. He asked me if I would go to Brussels with him, & I said yes if he would bring me back in the morning. He said he would bring me back, so I asked my girl friend Gabriella Van Acker to come with me, she said she would, & we left the Cafe with Smith and another soldier at approx 2220 hrs. I do not know the name of the other soldier but I can recognize him. Myself & the other three all got into the cab of a large military lorry which Smith was driving.

We were travelling on the Brussels - Ghent highway and at approx 2315 hours we met a vehicle coming towards us from Brussels. The oncoming vehicle dimmed his lights when he was quite close to Smith, & Smith turned his big lights out. As soon as the vehicle passed us Smith turned the lights on in his lorry, and I saw two civilians standing behind a civilian vehicle directly in front of Smith's lorry. I could see no light on the rear of the civilian vehicle. Smith's lorry crashed into the rear of the civilian lorry. My girl friend & I got out of the truck & went over to the sidewalk on the left side of the road about fifty yards away. I stood there with my girl friend for about half an hour, & then went to the Gendarmerie across the street where I gave a statement to the gendarmes. We waited there till the military police arrived & then went to Brussels in a jeep. The accident occurred in Asche.

Fourth Witness

Doctor Jose Goossens having been duly sworn states:—

I am doctor Jose Goossens a fully qualified medical doctor practicing at Asseche Belgium.

At approximately 2330 hrs on the evening of the 10th of July I was leaving a meeting when I was called to an accident which had occurred about 200 yds from the place where I was. I went immediately to the place & saw a civilian truck which was empty beside the wall of a house. It had crossed the tram track & struck the house. In the road was a pile of papers, flowers, & earth. ~~About~~ Ten yds. past this was a military truck facing the pile of flowers.

People searched in the pile of flowers & earth & uncovered first a man. He was injured, his clothes were torn, & his heart was beating very slowly. I gave him an injection to sustain his heart. A woman was found. I examined her & found that she was dead. When I returned to the man he was dead also. I instructed the commandant of the Fire Brigade to take the two bodies to the mortuary. The next morning the commandant of the Belgian Gendarmerie showed me two cards of identity which had been found at the place of the accident. They read as follows:—

Pierre Leroy of Opwijk and maria Vande Voorde, Brussels

At the scene of the accident there were a number of people present. Two persons, a man & a woman, presented themselves to me to be examined. The woman was not badly hurt, she had a slight injury at the back of her head. Her name was Mme Souvage of Liege. I also examined a man M. Souvage of Liege.

1. The bone of the right side of his nose was broken
2. There was a deep cut under his nose
3. There was a deep cut at the left eyelid
4. There was a deep cut of about 5 cm. length in the upper lip
5. There were superficial injuries of his two legs.

No autopsy was held on the two dead persons as a burial permit was received from the Canadian military authorities either the next morning or the morning after. From a superficial examination, the cause of death in both cases appeared to have been from a blow which crushed in the ribs & chest of both persons.

The two accused decline to cross examine this witness.

5047573 L/Cpl Elsby F. having been duly sworn states: —

I am 5047573 L/Cpl Elsby F, 242 M.P. Provost Coy. Brussels. At about 0100 hrs 11 July 45 I was on Flying Squad duty in Brussels, accompanied by L/Cpl Barr.

I proceeded to Assche to investigate a vehicle accident in which a Canadian military vehicle L 4250201 Ford 60 cwt was involved.

At the gendarmerie in Assche I interviewed L 8330 Pte Smith L.T.E., C.B.T.C., R.C.A.S.C., & M45121 L/Cpl Boles R.L. of the same unit. Pte Smith was cautioned by L/Cpl Barr & asked if he wished to make a statement. Pte Smith wrote out a statement in his own handwriting in my notebook which he signed in my presence. Smith told me he was the driver of the Chn. 60 cwt L 4250201 when it struck a civilian vehicle at Assche that night. L/Cpl Boles declined to make a statement. In the presence of the two Canadians, Paul MEERT, Fire Brigade Officer, 396 Chaussee de Gand, Assche gave me a statement. Two girls were present, & I took their names which were Gabriella Maria Van Acker 69 Keybroeck St. Evergem, & Magdalena Margarethur Serruys, 20 Oude Grievestraat, Ledeberg.

Then the two Canadians, a gendarme, Paul Meert, L/Cpl Barr & myself went out on the street. With the aid of a searchlight I made some measurements.

There was a heap of dirt & flower pots on the roadway. Skid marks were visible on the road about 12 feet in length, leading right up to the pile of dirt. While we were all together Mert told me that the military truck had stopped there after the crash + that he had seen the civilian truck rolling from there until it struck the side of a house about 50 yards further on. I paced the distance + found a mark on the wall of the house at this point + also some glass on the road. In the presence of the two Canadians Mert told us that he + the policeman moved the civilian vehicle from that point to the entrance to the police station where I saw it. The Canadians told me they had moved their vehicle from the place where it stopped up on to the pavement where I saw it. From my observations + measurements, I prepared a sketch showing the positions of all these things as I saw them. (Entered as exhibit "D") From my observations + measurements, ~~[illegible]~~ + from information received from the Canadians or in their presence I prepared another sketch showing the accident + the positions of the vehicles. (Entered as exhibit "E")

I took the number of the civilian vehicle which was a Chevolet truck No 453527. I saw an identity card which Mert, in the presence of the Canadians told me belonged to the driver of the civilian vehicle. The card was that of Mr. Joseph Lauvage, Horion, Hozemont, Liege.

I had the W.D. vehicle removed to No 4 S.T.W. Shops, R.E.M.E. Brussels, + handed over the two Canadians to H.Q. 2 Can. L. of C. Provost Coy in charge of Lieut Hope Smith.

Brussels.

Damage to Army vehicle was; damaged radiator, smashed nearside headlamp.

Damage to civilian vehicle; smashed windscreen, beat offside front mudgard, back of truck smashed, iron bar bent, wheel carrier bent, lower part of body moved about 6 inches forward. The truck was filled with flowers in pots.

In the presence of the two Canadians, Lieut told me that two civilians had been killed in the accident. He said he found them under the pile of dirt & flower pots on the road & removed them to the mortuary. One was a man & the other was a woman.

STATEMENT OF L 8330 Pte. SMITH LJH, No.1 Cdn Base Trans Coy., RCASC
After being duly cautioned states:-

At approximately 2130 hours, 10 July 44, I left HQ, No.1 Canadian Base Transport Coy., Ghent, on my return trip to Elmegan, where one platoon of my unit is stationed. I stopped at a Cafe in Ghent after I had left HQ, where myself and L/C HOLMS who was with me offered to take two civilian girls whom we knew to Brussels.

I was passing through the town of Anseghe, at approximately 2319 hours, travelling appro. 25 m.p.h. when a vehicle approached me from the opposite direction with very bright lights. I switched my headlights off but the other vehicle did not dim his lights, which blinded me at the time.

When the oncoming vehicle had passed me I turned my headlight on and there was a civilian vehicle approx. 10 yds. in front of me, parked beside the tram line, some distance from the sidewalk. I saw the movement of two civilians behind the parked car but could see no light on the rear of the parked vehicle. I slammed all my brakes on immediately but was too close to avoid crashing into the rear of the vehicle. My vehicle stopped dead and the civilian vehicle rolled some distance ahead, across the sidewalk and up against a house.

Myself and L/C HOLMS jumped out of the vehicle and noticed a heap of pots, plants and dirt in front of it. In a few minutes a number of civilians and civilian police were there and the man that owned the parked vehicle began to dig in the pots and plants on the road which came out of the back of his truck. Someone turned a light on and I saw the bodies of a civilian man and woman. After they had been removed by ambulance myself and L/C HOLMS went into the Gendarmerie which was just opposite the accident and was informed that the two civilians were dead.

The Gendarme phoned for the Military Police, Brussels, and in approx. 45 min. four CMP arrived. Before they arrived the Gendarme took statements from the two civilian girls who were riding in my lorry. The CMP questioned L/C HOLMS and myself and later on a wrecker came and towed us into Brussels to [illegible]. After our lorry was parked in their garage the CMP took us to [illegible], where we reported to the Orderly Cpl. and told him what had happened.

At approx 23.15 hrs on 9 July 45 I was driving on the Kinsale - Ghent highway in the direction of Kinsale when I stopped by the side of the road at the town of Cowsha to refill my petrol tank. A civilian man and woman advised me if I was going to Kinsale and I said that was where I was going. I said I had to fill my petrol tank and that there was a petrol station. I was looking over my shoulder as I was standing on the back of my vehicle taking the top off the petrol tank when my vehicle was hit from the rear. My wife was in the cab of the vehicle and I had the tailboard down — my vehicle was pushed across the tram tracks and sideswiped up against a house on the right of the road. I fell from my vehicle and was injured on the head and legs. I got myself out of my vehicle when my wife was crying and when I found that she was alright I went to the spot where I had parked my vehicle and found a pile of pots + plants which I had on the back of my vehicle, on the road. Someone told me that there were two bodies under the plants and I said that was impossible because I had no one on the back of my vehicle. I then saw the dead woman and I knew and thought that they must be the ones two people that had asked me for a ride to Brussels and thought that they must have been looking for a place to sit on the back of my vehicle when I was putting it with petrol.

I then drove my vehicle in to the Garage after putting it with petrol and then went to the hospital with my wife and a doctor to have my [redacted] head.

I had a red light on the back of my vehicle which was still on after the accident

My husband was standing on the ready to fill the tank when our vehicle was struck from the rear with a great impact. My husband had put the brakes on but when our vehicle was s struck it shot across the sidewalk against a house. I applied the brakes ag again just before it hit the house. I was crying for my husband and when he came we went to the spot where we had parked and saw a pile of pots and plants which we had in the back of our vehicle, in a pile on the road. Some one was moving the plants and I saw the bodies of a man and a woman underneath them, also a large military vehicle which had struck the back of our vehicle. After this my husband put the petrol in our vehicle and after he had taken it into the Gendarmerie I went with him and the doctor to the hospital where my husbands wounds were dressed. I had also received a severe bang on the back of the head and my back was hurt.

A-9178 Pte. Smith, S.R.
7 Battalion, 2 C.B.R.D.

Statement given by accused:

On 31 Jan 44 at 1600 hours I was escorted from Guard Room to M.I.R. I had finished my treatment and was ready to return to the Guard Room. There was myself and two other soldiers under escort. The three of us left the M.I.R. and paraded back toward the Guard Room, another fellow and myself walked together. As we left the M.I.R. the two excorts started to talk to a Sergeant Major and we continued without escort. We walked out to the main entrance of Cliff Side Barracks and proceeded into Avellino. We aked the road to Foggia. We ended up in Foggia the next morning. We were asked by the British Military Police where we were heading for and we said we were heading for the front to join our own Company. They told us we had better come with them and would turn us over to our own Canadian Base (4 Battalion).

My intention for leaving Guard Room in the first place was to proceed to the Canadian front and join any of the units I could get into but before I could carry out my plans I was stopped by the British Military Police.

I joined the Army 2 Sept 39 and was overseas in December of the same year. I have spent 4½ years in the Canadian Army and I have always tried to do my job to the best of my ability. I was 2½ years in England as Command Despatch Rider and 1½ years in the workshop at 1 C.A.S.C.R.U. When the 1 Cdn. Div. left England I had belonged to it and tried to get back to it but they would not release me because I was a Class A Fitter, and they said they needed me in the shop. I tried several times to get out on draft and finally got on draft in November 1943. I was sent to North Africa and then to Italy, and tried several times at 7 Battalion to get ondraft. They told me each time when a fitter was needed but I was never sent out on draft. I made one mistake which I knew had spoiled my chances of going on draft.

My mistake was - One night I took more drink than I could handle which resulted in trouble when I returned to Barracks. That was my first serious offense in the Army in 4½ years. I knew I had lost my chance of getting out to try and do the job for which I joined the Army to do.

I know if I had the chance I could be the good soldier and do my job the same as I did before I got into trouble. All I want is a chance to get to the front to prove, to myself and all concerned, that I can still do my job just as good as anyone else. The only chance I could see that I had to carry out my desire was to try and get up to the front, but was stopped before I could carry out my plans. We weren't actually apprehended at Foggia. We met the M.P.'s on the street and the soldier I was with asked them where the hospital was because he wanted a bandage on his hand. When we told them where we were going and could show them no authority for going there, they said it was best to take us to a Canadian Base and we were taken to Canadian Base (4 Battalion) and was then returned to Avellino.

Question. *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. NO.

The prosecutor makes an opening address [~~hands in a written address, which is read, marked , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings~~].

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. C. 5·3231 L/Cpl SPRY. W. E.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

I am a clerk in the M.T. Office of the S.O and R. Highlanders. I was not in the transport Office on the night of Aug 31st last. I was in my bed reading and as a result of information received I went to the Qr Gds Stores & Pte [illegible] who had the drivers keys for that night. Box had been checked the drivers keys & the M.T. lines & found all drivers in and one truck missing. That truck was Ch. 4214316 with tactical marking Q. 4. The regular driver of that truck was Pte Crow. D.T. The check and discovery of the missing vehicle took place at approximately 1815 hrs. I then notified the Adjutant that there was a truck missing. As Corporal of the transport section I would have known if a work ticket had been issued for that truck that morning. A work ticket had been issued for that truck to haul coal that day but not for the morning. When Duckett's trip on that C.O. a coal haul) has been completed he driver completes his ticket and hands it in to the office. I did not check the file that night to see if the ticket was time but at 0830 hrs on 1st Sept the mark ticket was there and showed that the job had been completed at at 1730 hrs. I produce herewith the work ticket (which I refer (EXHIBIT I") As the driver was filling out this ticket at 1600 a call came for the driver to go over to the Q. M. Stores to move some benches. This he did which accounts for the truck being out until 1730 but his truck was not authorised to leave the camp area after 1600 hrs. No other work ticket was issued on 31 August from our office which granted permit this particular vehicle to leave the camp area. All vehicles of No 6 Platoon of which the vehicle in question was one, are controlled through our office and other than all work tickets for these vehicles are issued through our office. No work ticket was issued for this truck after 1730 on 31 Aug 42.

I saw the accused Pte Smith around 1700 hrs on 31st August 1942. I did not see him after that on that day. Duty drivers are ordered to stand by from Reveille to Reveille. The accused was a duty driver on 31st Aug and his turn would end at Reveille on the 1st September. The orders were that duty drivers were to remain standing by in their own huts for the period of their turn of duty. Pte Smith was not in his hut when the Corporal and Sergeant went round to check up.

CROSS. EXAMINED

Q. In his summary of evidence you state that Corporal Goodeve told you he thought was missing

A. Cpl Goodeve on the phone Orderly reported this to me at about 1815 hrs.

Q. If the truck was reported missing by you at 1815 hrs it must have been missing before that time.

A. I could not say Sir.

Q. Did you look in the hut to see if the duty drivers were in?

A. Cpl Goodeve and I went in.

Q. Are duty drivers confined to the hut or the camp?

A. They were on five minute call but not necessarily in their hut.

Q. Therefore, I suggest, that Pte Smith could have been in the Camp area at that time?

A. Yes.

Q. Have you driven a truck.

A. No but not for four or five months and at that time there were no Guards on the trucks.

Q. Did you check to see if the work ticket (Exhibit 1) was present at the time the truck was reported missing?

A. No. I did not check until the next morning the ticket could have been put on the file during the night.

BY THE COURT

Q. ~~Is the~~ When is it normal for drivers to have in their tickets?

A. On the 31st August it was still the practice to turn them in at the end of the day's work.

RULE OF PROCEDURE 83(B) COMPLIED WITH.

K.A.H.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION.

C. 53312 CORPORAL GOODY. R.C. Having been duly sworn states:

I am a corporal in the Transport Section of S.D. & G. Highlanders. At about 1815 hrs on 31st August I formed that no duty drivers were on duty. I then contacted Cpl Spry and in his company I searched the M.T. lines and found a truck missing. The accused Pte Smith was a duty driver that night and I searched his transport lines, his HAAFI and the ~~neighbouring~~ grounds near by his drivers huts and I could not find the accused or any of the other duty drivers. The missing truck was CA 4214316 unit tactical sign A-4 the regular driver of this truck was Pte Row. D.T. (~~We made~~ I had a charge against the accused and other duty drivers for being A.W.L. I did not see the truck in question again until next morning at breakfast time in the ~~barracks~~ day I went to the Quartermaster and did not find one. I do not remember what time of day this was. I drove the truck up to the transport lines. I checked the last work ticket that had been issued to his vehicle (identified as Exhibit I") for the mileage and checked them against the speedometer reading and I found 22 miles difference that is the vehicle had gone 22 miles more and above what was recorded on his work ticket.

A work ticket for a No 6 Platoon truck has to be signed by either his Adjutant, the transport Officer ~~and~~ or the Colonel. At that time (31 Aug) it would have been possible and likely that a work ticket could have been issued by the Adjutant, the transport Officer ~~and~~ or the Colonel, without any one in the Transport Office knowing anything about it.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q. L/Cpl Spry says that the truck was reported missing by him at 1815 hrs would that be right?

A. Yes approximately.

Q. Did you report this truck "missing", to Cpl Spry?

A. I went around the lines with Cpl Spry and he found the truck to be missing, I had not noticed it before.

Q. Did you see a truck heading out of the camp just before you and Spry started your search?

A. No I was down in the washroom

Q. Are the duty drivers confined to their barracks or the Camp Area?

A. They are confined to their lines. They are on 15 minute Call.

Q. Have you driven a truck in the present Regimental area?

A. Yes.

Q. Were the guards checking closely on trucks which were leaving, at that time (31 Aug 1962)

A. No not it was quite possible to drive a vehicle ~~in~~ out of the ~~camp~~ area without being checked by any guard.

Q. Is it possible that the 22 miles you mention that the truck was driven after the work-ticket had expired, is in fact the 22 miles that is marked on the work ticket.

A. No it is not there was about 26 - between 22 and 26 additional miles on the speedometer

BY THE COURT

Q. Did you have anything to do with a job of hauling stones by that truck on Aug 31st.

A. No. Sir.

THE WITNESS MAKES THE FOLLOWING CORRECTION. The way that I determined that the vehicle had travelled 22 miles was by reference to the mileage entered in the log book at the time when the vehicle was last passed up.

C7.

THIRD WITNESS

LIEUT. F. M. CASS. having been duly Sworn States:

I am acting Adjutant of the 5 D. & G. Highlanders and was so acting on 31st Aug 1942. In this unit it is the practice that work tickets for M.T. vehicles must be signed by any one of the following Officers: The Commanding Officer, the 2/c, The Transport Officer, the Adjutant or the Duty Officer of the day. On 31st August the unit was away on a scheme and I was the only Officer left in Camp except Lieut C. M. Thom who was duty Officer for the period of the scheme. I did not sign a work ticket which would authorise any truck to remain out after 1900 hrs, to the ordinary Convoy if I am correct a trip, the last platoon truck came in at about 1700 hrs. trip originates with me. That is I call the Transport Office and ask for a truck (this time) to be sent up. My Batman then sent up by Officer & I then issue the work ticket. The driver does not return to the Orderly room at the end of the trip. He goes to the transport lines. At the end of each day the drivers hand in the work tickets to the transport Corporal.

A. The paymaster, dental Officer, Ass Chaplain Officer. I am not sure if about the Quartermaster.

Q. I presume the Duty Officer has someone to relieve him?

A. The duty Officer and Padre used each other.

Q. Did you phone the Transport Office for a truck to move some benches out from the Camp Area from the Q.M. Stores at about 1600 hrs on 31 August?

A. Not that I can recollect.

Q. Could you tell us if there have been any other men charged with regard to the taking of this truck other than the accused, Moriarty and Post?

A. No. The guards were not charged for letting the truck out of the area. As soon as the truck was reported missing the guards were all notified. I went personally. The truck had not been seen.

Q. Was Pte Anderson charged with the neglect of duty?

A. Yes he was charged with failure to take the necessary steps to identify the driver on his return.

A. I do not know. I was not in the orderly room when the report was made.

BY THE COURT.

Q. Have you ever signed a work ticket in this unit which authorized the use of a truck after 1900 hrs.

A. NO.
Q. Was any request made by you for a truck to haul some fuel from Lt C.M. Thom.
A. No.

States:

I was on guard on August 31st 1942 at the North Gate of this Camp. I was there from 1900 to 1900 and from 2300 to 0700 hours. Others told me that the guard was to be on the lookout for a certain truck. About 0030 hrs on 1st Sept. I was on my post at about 0030 hrs on 1st Sept. I heard a truck approaching from the direction of Horsham and I recognised the vehicle as being its number "66". I then swung open the gate which was fastened on the left hand side. The truck had stopped by this time and as I swung the gate open I said: "Is this "316"" Someone said "Yes it is" I recognised his voice as that of E.R. POST. a man who I have known for two or three years. I said "Just have to take you boys to the Guard House." I jumped on the left hand running board of the truck and I recognised the man who was sitting next to me. It was the accused Smith. I am sure of it. There were two other men in the truck. I did not recognise the driver but I had recognised Private Post who was sitting in the middle. We proceeded with the truck to the Guard House and as we got near to the Guard House I told the driver to pull up a bit and I jumped off the running board and called for the Corporal of the Guard. When he came out I was standing at about the centre of the truck and the accused and Post and another man were standing behind me near the front of the truck.

The Corporal of the Guard then took them into the Guard house and recognised them all. Pte Moncrieff was the third man.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER.

A. I don't know him very well even now.
Q. Did you get a good look at Smith and Pott in the cab?
A No not a very good look it was very dark.
Q. After you got to the Guard house and jumped off the truck could anyone have got out of the back of the truck to join him & then two standing beside it?
A Yes.
Q. Did you see the driver get out of the truck?
A. No Sir he was on the opposite side.
Q. The driver could have got out of the truck and hid behind a building that is there could he not?
A He could have it was a very dark night.
Q Did you see the truck in question leaving the camp in the morning?
A. No Sir.
Q Did the Guard Commander question you about whether a 30 cwt or a 60 cwt had gone out?
A No but Sgt Wood did. Told him

Neat only one had gone out & that was a 15 cwt.

By The Court.

A. I am not sure.

SIXTH WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION.

LIEUT. S. R. WIDDISS having been duly sworn deposes:

I remember returning from the Mess as orderly Officer of S.O. & G. Highlanders on the 31st August 1942. I returned there for supper and I am sure that I signed no work tickets that day for any truck.

Lt.

C13.

By The Court

Q. Were you acting Quartermaster on 31 Aug 42?

A Yes and as much I had an Order to call up and ask for a truck for Camp duties but I cannot remember asking for one to move forces that day.

Rule of Procedure 83(13) complied with.

At 1630 hrs The Court Adjourned until 0930 hrs on Thursday Sept 24th 1942.

The Court Reconvened at 0930 hrs 24 Sept 42.

Medical Certificate is laid before this Court.

C 33812 Cpl Goody R.C. being recalled and already under oath states:

I have been transport Corporal of this S.D.G. Regt for 2 years and previously, in civil life worked for an oil company and as a driver. I have a good knowledge of trucks and particularly of Army vehicles.

I produce herewith the Log Book for vehicle CL 4214316.

The Court Examine the Log Book and note the following entries.

Date	Fuel Received Gallons	Lubricants Engine	Lubricants Other Oils	Mileage	Remarks and Initials
28. 8. 42.	2	—	—	8965	D.L. Crowe.
1. 9. 42.	12.	—	—	8994	Rogers. R.

[Due to the inconvenience which would be caused by retaining this Log Book as an exhibit, this Court, with the consent of the defending Officer, accepts the above excerpt from it, which is certified to be correct. Cpl.]

Q. Do those entries mean that on 28 Aug 42 the speedometer reading was 8965 at the time the petrol was put in and that 2 gallons were put in.

A Yes.

Q. What happens when a truck goes for petrol

A. When a truck goes & get petrol the tank is always filled to the nearest two gallons.

Q. Can you explain to the Court exactly what the two entries in this book mean?

A. They mean that on the 28th of August it is likely that the two gallons taken on would fill the tank; then a Saturday & Sunday intervened and when I brought the truck back it took 12 gallons and according to the speedometer it had only travelled 29 miles. These vehicles run about 7 miles to the gallon.

Q. Is it possible to disconnect the speedometer, that is for a driver to do so?

A. Yes it only takes about a minute but it takes about five minutes to put it together again.

Q. Did you look at [illegible] was the speedometer connected when you got the vehicle from the Guard room on Sept 1st

A. Yes it was.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Q. Did you know that this truck was used for moving benches on the 31 August?

A. No.

Q. A truck when the engine is idling can use up quite a bit of gas can't it?

A. Some.

Q. How long do you say it takes to put the speedometer back together again?

A. About 5 minutes.

Q. Did you have to put it back in shape again?

A. No Sir.

BY THE COURT.

Q. How many gallons does the tank hold?

A. About 24 gallons.

Q. Exhibit "I" shows that the vehicle had 19 gallons in it after completion of the test on 31st August.

A. Yes.

Q. And it took 12 gallons to fill it on 1 Sept?

A. Yes.

Q. And it should only have taken 5 gallons?

Driver that leaves 7 gallons unaccounted for and his speedometer only shows that it travelled 2 miles. In my opinion either his speedometer was tampered with or his gasoline Syphoned off.

Q. Do the drivers ever syphone gas off?

A. Only small amounts for cleaning. Three quarters of a gallon at the most. The drivers are not supposed to do this.

On 31st August 1942 I was a driver with the M.T. Section of the S.D and G. H. 3 Canadian. On the morning of 31 August 42 I got cleaned up and went to Cowfold leaving camp after six o'clock between six and seven. I took the short cut out to the highway. down by the garage - ~~I crossed~~ went across to main highway to where the road branches off to Cowfold. I got a ride in a civilian car over this distance. When I got a ride with a 15 cwt in to Cowfold. I do not know who the driver of the 15 cwt or the civilian car were. In Cowfold I went out with a girl and walked into the park and sat down. I was accompanied by Pte Post and Hourcroft - we were all together on the way into Cowfold. I left Cowfold round 2330 or 2400 - I got a ride out of there with it 15 cwt and then me & Post and Hourcroft walked up from the road junction to a small village on the road to camp. We then both hiked another lorry. the driver said he was going to Horsham so me & I got in with him. I fell asleep and when ~~me~~ I woke up we were at the gate and the guards told us we would have to go to the guard house. ~~the~~ In the front of the truck there was the driver, then Post in the middle and I was on the left. I did not recognise the driver of the truck all I know is that he had no hat on - I did not speak to him on the way in, when he replied to the request for a lift I did not recognise his voice. outside the Guard room 2907 out and walked towards the Guard room. Pte 907 out after me + Moncrieff 907 out of the back and was standing there too. The driver was not with us at this time. The reason that I did not see the driver on the way in was because I went to sleep and it was pretty dark. I do not know all the Company drivers. I have seen them from the R.C.A. going through the S.D + G. Camp area. I did not drive the truck after it brought us into Camp and I did not know it was stolen. I did not know it was an S.D and G. truck. I did not ask to see the work ticket. To my knowledge neither Pte Moncrieff had any thing to do with the stealing of this truck. C5336. PTE HANCRIEFF. G.S having been duly Sworn Stated:-

I was a driver in H.T. Seat of the S.O.R. Highlanders on 31 Aug 42 and on the evening of that day I went out visiting from Smith's Post. I left the camp at between 1800 & 1830 hrs on that day. We went out across the field below the Lancs post lines. We went to Cowfold. We hitch hiked in a Canadian car as far as Four Corners and then picked up a 15 cwt which drove us in to Cowfold. Cpl [illegible] In Cowfold we took some [illegible] drinks out. It was about 2230 or 2300 hrs we started back for home. We marched about a mile and then got a ride to Town Corner again and we started walking again. After we had marched quite a way, as far as a little village, we were picked up by a truck which I recognised as the S.D.G truck because I saw the 68 in the front headlights and I am very familiar with vehicle markings and recognised this marking. We hailed the truck and in about 10 yards the truck stopped. It had not got quite past us. I got in the back, there was nobody else in the back. I did not get a chance to look at the driver. When we stopped by the gate I heard some conversation and I heard some one say that we had to go to the Guard house. [illegible] A light was flashed into the back of the vehicle for a second or two. As we got up to the Guard house I stepped out of the back of the truck.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Were you all alone in the back of the truck?

A Yes Quite.

Q. Did you look at the person who put the flash in the back of the truck

A I looked at the light not at the man who was holding it.

Q. When you left Cowfold did you make any arrangements about time you were to be dropped. A. I did not make the arrangement.

D24

Q. Do you know if any arrangements were made about the second touch?

A. I do not know.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

C-53989 Pte SUTHERLAND R. J. having been duly sworn states:

I was a driver in the transport section of S.D. & G. Highlanders on the 31st of August 1941 and occupied the same hut as Smith, Monarch & Post. I saw these three leaving the camp that evening, they were walking across the field towards the main highway. This would be at about between 1745 and 1815.

CROSS EXAMINED

Q. Were you in the hut when Smith was getting dressed.

A. I am not sure.

BY THE COURT

Q. Did you see Smith again that night?

A. In the guard room.

RULE OF PROCEDURE 83(8) COMPLIED WITH.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR DEFENCE

C-53010 Sgt HOWDEN P.D. having been duly sworn states: I am transport sergeant of S.D.G. Highlanders and was so employed on 31 August 1941. I was not in camp that night. About a week before this coming over to supper I noticed a vehicle going out of camp and noted its number and found that the C.P. had not been authorized. I asked that the guards watch for it but the truck was not caught. That vehicle went out of the lines without a work ticket and none of the transport drivers were stopping it.

RULE OF PROCEDURE 83 (13) COMPLIED WITH.

DEFENSE IS CLOSED

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

There is no definite proof that Pte Smith took this truck out of the lines or had any knowledge that it was stolen.

Cpl Goody and Sgt Hastings that the vehicle was not in the lines at 1815 hrs, if it was not there then it must have been taken before that time.

Smith was seen leaving camp about 1830 hrs on the Post and Roncliff, they were not going towards the M.T. lines but in the opposite direction.

The accused & Post both say they got a lift into camp & were sitting in the front seat of the missing car but did not know that it was a truck taken from S.D.C lines.

The truck could easily have got out of camp without a work ticket.

When the truck returned Windsor who got on the running board could identify Smith & Post but not the driver.

Pte Lavalle claims to have recognised Smith through the windshield, this is not very satisfactory. He went to the back of the truck and did not take a good look at the driver. He says he saw two men in the back of the truck. I think and submit that he made a mistake, the only person he saw was Moncrieff.

Just because Smith was in a stolen truck it does not prove that he improperly used it or took it.

BY THE PROSECUTOR.

(1) An S.D. & G. truck was illegally out of the lines.

(2) If the accused took the truck out, then certainly admitted that they had no work ticket.

(3) The whole question is whether you believe the accused and his witnesses or Lavalle.

Smith was a member of the Pl & he was not with the Pl again after 1830 hrs. This was two days after we had passed ORANGE.

XXm:- Roll was not actually called. I was acting Pl Sgt. Smithin Pl HQ & I checked it myself - I saw Smith on the warning parade. I checked Pl when it moved off & Smith was present. I waited until Pl had moved out of house. Had moved out by secs & I was with Pl H.Q. - he was last man of Pl HQ to move out.

When got to new area I checked men - was customary to check.

Re Exam: Nil.

Court: - Accd has been in my Pl approx 6 mos - know him well by sight & sound of his voice.

When moved off we came under shelfire from heavies, about 210 mm, about 6 or 8 shells. We took cover in a ditch by side of rd for about 5 mins. I was leading the Pl HQ at this time - just hollered to see if everyone OK & when word came back I just hollered to move off. No other trouble getting on objective. We moved across this rd to the objective - our centre line was a rd running up to the objective. It was dark - just after dusk. Could see a man about 20x away. There was a sec behind & following Pl H.Q. We were travelling in single file. Smith was only one missing on arrival - No others strayed. Shells caused no casualties - they landed very close, about 50x. Ditch was fairly deep

II

Ditch was clear - no bush. Would not be possible for a man to get lost when taking cover in the ditch.

Prosn.

On Xmas day I saw Pte Smith whom I recognize here, around Tac H.Q. of Perth R. He was wandering around the area the remainder of the day & the following day. At approx 1500 hrs Capt Schwartz, the adj, spoke to me & as a result of an order he gave I placed Smith under arrest & handed him over to Pro Sgt with orders to escort him to A Ech. At time of arrest he was in a [illegible] adjoining Tac H.Q. arrested him 26 Dec 44 "C" Coy moved frwd from Grattacoppa lateral on 22 Dec - fix the date by incident which occured in the morning, our Tac HQ house burned down & we moved to C Coy Area that afternoon when C Coy moving out. Smith is in "C" Coy.

XXm:- I saw last Pl of C Coy moving - was around 1700 hrs but I x don't remember exact time - it was just getting dark - they moved out after we arrived. I don't know Pl Smith is in. Did not see Smith that night. Never asked before when I had seen C Coy moving.

Re Exam: Nil

Court:- I was acting RSM 22 to 26 Dec period - as RSM was normal to know position & moves of Coys. Area Tac took over was scattered farm bldgs - Don't remember name of lateral rd or objective Orange. When placed him under arrest I only asked him to identify himself - he sd he had been told to wait there by "C" Coy until he was sent for.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

Prosn closed.

Pros in closing:- Sgt cannot remember date but Sgt Maj establishes the date of commencement by reference to the move of C Coy. Sgt's evidence establishes that accst warned to go fwd & did not go fwd. Pros has proved case

Def Offr in closing.

Accsd did not ~~MAKE~~ leave bn area & had all his equipment when apprehended. During battle went back to old position & stayed. Did not leave bn as a deserter would. Would ask Court to consider carefully.

J.A. in Summing Up:- Points out functions & duties of the Court. Presumption of innocence, burden on prosn, reasonable doubt, intent, desertion & AWL, AA 56.

Def Offr in mitigation.

Accst never been in trouble before. Has been 4 mos with unit & went into action at Rubicon. Has been a good soldier up to now. & ask court to take this into consideration & be as lenient as possible in passing sentence.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.
Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this TWENTY-SIXTH day of JANUARY, 1943.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 2nd CANADIAN DIVISION CANADIAN ARMY (A.F.) on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; * ~~and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer~~

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

* ~~I am unable to appoint~~ —

~~*(a) Three Officers to form the Court.~~

~~*(b) A Field Officer as President.~~

~~*(c) Three Officers having more than one year's~~ service.

~~*(d) Three Officers of the Canadian Corps.~~ In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, difficulties of communication, and other difficulties, render it impossible to comply with these rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.L.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

2. Rule of Procedure 35(B) is complied with.

3. The Abstract og Evidence is read.

4. The Prosecutor files Substitute A.F.B. 296, and M.F.M. 6.

5. THE ACCUSED makes the following statement in mitigation of punishment:

"After I was married I had trouble, on October 21st my baby died. I have had only three letters from my wife since July, and only one since the baby died, October 21st. I had a letter from my father advising me to have her pay stopped. I know she is running around but I haven't any definite proof, so have put off having her pay stopped. In the one letter I have had since the baby died she did not tell me what it died of. My mother wrote and told me the baby died from penumonia. My only reason for going A.W.L. is that I had a charge and Major DeDeer gave me a break and tore it up. On November 10 I was duty driver. At 9 o'clock I had to change the guard. At 9:15 I was ordered by the Orderly Sgt. to pick the orderly officer up. On my way to pick up the Orderly Officer I was stopped by Major DeDeer and charged with speeding. The man riding with me noticed the speedometer. He said I was not speeding, but the Major insisted I was."

The 1st witness as to character, B66134, Cpl A.P. Clarke, 2 Cdn Div Sup Coln, having been duly sworn, states:

I have known the accused since 1935, he was just a boy then. I never knew of him to be in any trouble of any kind in the unit before. I know that for two and a half years prior to the war he worked for Brock Snyder Electrical Coy., Grimsby. He was well thought of by his employer. He joined the army in September, 1939, and afterwards got married. And what led up to his present trouble, he has been informed that his baby died from neglect. He has been a good soldier, and always did what he was told, well and efficiently.

BY THE COURT:
Q 1 What was his employment?
A 1 Truck driver.
Q 2 You don't know his army record?
A 2 No.

THE COURT CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF SENTENCE.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE, and ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Plea in mitigation of punishment by defending Officer attached hereto.

Plea in Mitigation

F 53807 Pte Smith M. 4th Nova Scotia Highrs.

This man lives in Sydney Mines N.S. age 38 year - He enlisted in June 1940 with the 4th N.S. Highrs and sailed for overseas on July 1941. He has served with his unit in England nearly 3 years. He is not married.
In civilian life he was employed by the Coal mines in Sydney Mines. While there he held different jobs as "Shot firer", assistant overman and then studied for mine examiner. He past his exams and served his employers diligently and [redacted] certificate of years of [redacted] took first aid courses and was a Dressingman. His Education is Grade X. - Civilian Pay $150 per mos.

I wish to bring to your attention that this man comes in the army more chiefly
A.W.L. due to a "browned off" feeling, coupled with a feeling of not getting his just dues as a Canadian Soldier. He states that at different times he has asked for a transfer to Signals, the field Hospital and to Pay Provost Corp. In every case all he received was promises. His reason for transfer was age and continual training of Infantry.
His M.F.M. shows that [redacted] was never charged under Insubordination neglect. There is dependents a case of
"2 years pay in a round hole"
Therefore as his defending officer I beg this court to carefully consider this man's case. A soldier doing the work which he does not like and his age such that Infantry training is impossible for him. Baffled by superiors in his efforts to obtain a transfer to some other service, where his qualifications would help him to further the war effort. I would asked the court to grant him the greatest leniency.

And I would further ask that this man case be studied and a recommendation from this court be made concerning this man's transfer to another service more suited to him.

Respectfully submitted
D. B. Dickerson 1st Lieut.

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. A 30515 Gnr. Jackson, A.F. 43 Fd Bty

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Gnr Jackson recognizes accused and recalls while on guard early one morning in September an unusual occurence in connection with Gnr Smith. I mounted guard approx nine o'clock and at about twenty minutes after just about end of my beat at the ammo dump. just about to turn around when I heard a scuffling noise. I called out "who goes there" received no answer & walked out again. Someone answered "help my I'm hurt" Couldn't find where he was until Bdr. Came along with a light we found a man lying on the road. Wasn't certain at the time who it was but now I know it was the accused. When we picked him up he said "that hurts". We picked him up & took him to the 43 Bty Q. Stores put him in a chair then I went back to my duty. Gnr Smith did not say anything other than mentioned above nor did I hear any firearms. Gnr South was about 30 ft from Q stores. I did not examine the wound.

CROSS EXAMINATION

I did not know what had happened to the man.
I did not see any firearm.

SECOND WITNESS C2

A23895 Gnr. Jennings J.Z. having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor and states I am Bdr Jennings J Z. Technical Storeman 43 Bty. I recognize the accused and recall early in Sept. 42 while in the stores tent with Gnr. Baker at approx. 2115 hrs I heard cry for help. I proceeded towards direction of call with Gnr. Baker. Approx 50 yds on road N. of stores we found Gnr. Jackson guard bending over the man whom I did not know then but now recognize as Gnr Smith. the accused. We proceeded to pick him up, he was in pain, his arm was hurting, so we took him to stores tent. After proceeding a few steps Gnr. Smith remarked "I have been shit" I ordered Gnrs Baker & Jackson to proceed with man to stores while I went to exchange to phone M.O. Then I returned to stores, helped to make injured man comfortable. I examined rifle of guard & found no shot had been fired and that guard (section) had his 10 rds of ammn. Accused complained being thirsty we gave him drink of water and a cigarette. He first got first aid from MOs Orderly L/Bdr Gingerich. a few minutes later. Wound had been bleeding not very freely. It appeared a bullet had entered about ~~gun~~ rear of elbow & come out ~~front~~ forearm - there being approx 6 or 7 inches between wounds. I was approx 50 yds from place I ~~found~~ man ~~came~~ when I heard call for help. I did hear the sound of firearms once discharged at or about time first heard call for help. Cannot say type of weapon which fired ~~the~~ shot. I would say the shot I heard was from 300 to 400 yds away ~~on an East~~ and from the East away from the camp. Accused was found North of where I was when I heard shot. Shot heard two or three minutes before I heard cry to help.

I recall early last summer when in the 43 Q stores tent with Bdr Jennings at appx 2120 I was writing a letter. Heard a report from small arms which I can not identify as rifle or revolver. I would say it was at least 300 or 400 yds away but cannot say what direction. Two or three minutes later heard a cry for help, rushed out with Bdr Jennings - we had lights, we found a soldier by name in a dip rat on the road 40' or 50' from stores. Did not know who he was at the time but can now identify him as the accused. Gnr Jackson the guard was standing beside him. I did not hear accused say anything. Gnr Jackson & I took him to stores tent. On way tent heard accused say "it hurts". Only firearm I saw at time was one belonging to guard. I did not make a search of accused for firearms. Small wound on point of the elbow & a larger wound on upper part of forearm. It appeared that the point of entry was in the elbow & exit in the forearm. Noticed clothing around area covered with blood, mud and dirt. Accused was suffering from shock and pain - groaning, not in a partial fainting condition. I just saw him sitting in a chair unsupported by anyone. I helped him in to the car but in my opinion he could have managed by himself. Did not notice anything unusual about clothing besides blood & mud. Accused was in the Q tent about half

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF No. B81072 Gnr. SMITH M, 18th CDN. FIELD BATTERY, 12 CANADIAN FIELD REGIMENT RCA (AF), a SOLDIER OF THE CANADIAN ARMY OVERSEAS.

From Maj K President

No. A35515 Gnr. Jackson A.F., 18th Cdn Fd Regt RCA, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am a driver at B.H.Q., 43rd Bty, 12 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, at Potts's Farm Camp, Sussex on a dark rainy night about three weeks after our unit moved into the camp, I was ammunition guard. I mounted at 2100 hrs on that ni ht, and about 2130 hrs I was walking slowly south along the roadway between the ammunition dump and the 43 Bty lines, and was about two-thirds of the way to the Officers' lines from Bty Q.M. Stores, I heard a sound which I could not identify, and as I turned about I heard a man's voice crying for help, just the word "Help!". I called out "who goes there?" There was no answer just then. I started down the road towards the voice and asked again, "whose there?". A man's voice replied "I'm hurt". I had not light and could see no one at that time. I saw a light coming out of the Bty Q.M. Stores and approaching me along the road. I was beside the man when Bdr. Jennings and Gnr. Baker, with the light, found me. The three of us began to pick up the man, who was lying in the centre of the road in a puddle of water. He was dressed in battle dress, and I believe he said his name was Gnr. Smith. We saw blood on the ground. I went to lift him on his left side, and he said "That hurts". When we had him on his feet, Bdr. Jennings left Gnr. Baker and myself to take the injured man into the 43rd Bty Q.M. Stores, which we did. There we set him in a chair, and I went back out to resume my patrol.

Q. Did you have any conversation with this man?
A. No

Q. Do you recognize the accused as this injured man?
A. Yes

Q. Did you at anytime that night hear the report of a fire-arm?
A. Definitely not.

Q. Where on the road was the accused lying?
A. About thirty yards or so.

The accused declines to question this witness. R.P. 23(b) has been complied with.

A.F. Jackson
A35515 Gnr. Jackson A.F.

SECOND WITNESS

No. A82295 Bdr. Jennings J.E., 18th Canadian Field Regiment RCA, having been duly sworn states:-

I am technical Storeman, 43 Bty, 18th Canadian Field Regiment RCA. I recognize the accused, Gnr. Smith, as the man whom on a night early in September I helped into our Quarter Stores after being injured. At about 2115 hrs or 2120 hrs, while I was in our Quarter Stores, I heard a yell for help and, in company of Gnr. Baker, who was in the Quarter Stores at the time, I proceeded in the direction I thought the call came from, which was south along the road between the Quarter Stores and the ammunition dump. About fifty yards down that road I found the ammunition guard, Gnr. Jackson, just coming down over a man dressed in battle dress lying on the road. The three of us, Gnr. Jackson, Gnr. Baker and myself, got this man to his feet and proceeded to take him to our Quarter Stores. The man appeared to be injured, and said that he had been shot. There was no other conversation.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF No. B81072 GNR. SMITH M., 12th CANADIAN FIELD REGIMENT RCA (AP), A SOLDIER OF THE CANADIAN ARMY OVERSEAS.

SECOND WITNESS: (Continued)

I sent Baker and Jackson with the injured man to the stores while I went to the telephone for the M.O. After phoning I immediately returned to the stores and tried to make the injured man comfortable. I did not examine the wound. He was complaining of great pain and could not move his left arm. He again said that he had been shot in the 45 Bty lines, but there was no other conversation. I immediately, examined the guard's rifles, that is Gnr. Jackson's and found it clean and that he had his full allotment of ammunition, which was ten rounds. L/Bdr. Gingerich, the Regimental Medical Orderly, arrived shortly and dressed the injury. The accused was taken away from the Quarter Stores in a Station wagon.

Q. Did you hear the report of any fire arm that evening?
A. Between two to three minutes before the cry for help, I heard a report which sounded some little distance away. I sounded like the report of a small arm being discharged not in the immediate vicinity. I paid not particular attention to this sound and could not be sure from what direction it came.

The accused declines to question this witness. R.P. 83(b) has been complied with.

No. B11535 Gnr. Baker S.E., 12th Canadian Field Regiment RCA having been duly sworn states:-

I am a driver at BHQ 45 Bty, 12th Canadian Field Regiment RCA, I recognise Gnr. Smith, the accused, as the injured man who was lying in a deep pit on the roadway between the Quarter Stores and the ammunition dump at Pott's Farm Camp, Sussex, about 5 Sept 42, at about 2100 hrs. He was lying about thirty yards south from the Quarter Stores. His head was lying north, but I don't recall whether he was lying on his side or face or back. I was with Bdr. Jennings and I assisted Gnr. Jackson to take him to our Quarter Stores tent. I had no conversation with the accused. I saw Bdr. Gingerich dressing the accused's left arm near the elbow in the Quarter Stores. As soon as the injury was dressed, the accused was taken away in a station wagon.

Q. Did you that night hear the report of any firearm?
A. Yes, a few minutes before we heard a cry for help outside, I heard a report of the discharge of a small arm. I don't know what calibre it was quite clear but I cannot say if it was close or far away, nor can I say from what direction the sound came.
Q. Did the accused have any fire arm on his person?
A. Not that I know of.
Q. Was any fire arm found near him or in that vicinity?
A. No.

The accused declines to question this witness. R.P. 83(b) has been complied with.

FOURTH WITNESS

A35447 L/Bdr. Gingerich O.L., 12th Canadian Field Regiment RCA (AF) having been duly sworn states:-

I am the medical orderly of the 12th Canadian Field Regiment RCA. I recognise the accused, Gnr. Smith, as the man I was called to see one night at the end of August or early part of September 40, at Pott's Farm Camp, Sussex. He was in 45 Bty Quarter Stores sitting on a chair holding his left arm with his right hand. I examined the injury which was a wound on his left arm, one wound being at the point of the elbow and the other at the top of his forearm, as if something had been driven through the arm. I examined the wound carefully, but not the clothing. The wound was dirty with a mixture of blood and dirt, but there were no blast marks nor any sign of burning. The wound at the point of the elbow was considerably smaller than the wound on top of the forearm. I had a conversation with him as to how the injury occurred. After I had dressed the wound he was evacuated to the 14th Field Ambulance.

The accused declines to question this witness. R.P. 83(b) has been complied with.

A. To the best of my knowledge he never had one.

Q. Do you know if any small arms were missing at this time?
A. Yes, a rifle, on charge to Gnr. McCallum, 12 Bty. This was never found. The rifle was reported lost a day or so before the accused sustained his injury to his arm. I don't remember the date.

2. He was admitted with a G.S.W. of the left elbow (through and through). There were no powder stains and the appearance of the wounds suggested that a bullet had entered from behind forwards. I am unable to state what calibre, but it was probably S.A.A. Haemorrhage was moderate and there was no evidence of a nerve lesion.

The unit medical orderly had previously given first-aid, a shell dressing and splint was adequately applied. The wounds were re-dressed and he was referred to #1 C.G.H.

TENTH WITNESS

Capt. H.R. Robertson, No.1 Canadian General Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., submits the following written evidence:

B.21072 L/Bdr. Smith, M.

The above mentioned was admitted to No.1. Can Gen Hosp on the night of 4 Sept. 42, with a gun shot wound of the left forearm in the region of the elbow. The radius and ulna were fractured at their proximal ends. There were no metallic fragments in the wound and the diagnosis of gun shot wound rested upon the appearance of the entrance and exit wounds and the type of the fracture.

Convalesnence was normal and the patient was discharged on 23 Nov. 42, with wounds healed and fractures united but with considerable limitation of elbow movement. It was anticipated that his range of elbow movwmwnt would increase but that he would have some permanent slight limitation of movement.

STATEMENT OF THE ACCUSED

The accused, No. B 21072 Gnr. Smith, M., having been duly cautioned in accordance with the provisions of R. P. 4(E), makes the following statement on oath:

On the 3 Sept. 43, at about 2115 hours I left the N.A.A.F.I. tent at Pott's Farm Camp, Sussex, and proceeded South toward my tent. I went by the road instead of cutting across the ditch and through the 16 Bty lines to my tent, because it was dark and wet and in order to miss the guy ropes of the tents. While I was walking along the road I felt a terrific pain in my left arm and everything went black and I fainted. That is all I know until I was found by the guard. When I came to I called for help and the guard came to help me.

Prosecuting officer closing address

Submit charge proved. It has been proved he was in the vehicle. They did go for a purpose. He drove the vehicle. He used it without authority. He is therefore guilty of conduct etc.

Defending officer closing address

The prosecution has not shown that PC Smith drove under any other condition than when it was necessary to take over the vehicle because I who was not in condition to drive.

Summary up by J. A.

When facts have been proved, the credibility of the witnesses and the weight to be given to the evidence of any witness are matters for the court to decide. Any mention I may make of the evidence is not to be taken as an indication either of the truth or the way it is to be given to it.

The accused is charged secondly with, viade charge. The charge is conduct etc and the particulars which the prosecution allege are such conduct are viade particulars. As to the particulars I refer the court to RP 44(D) and for to decide found in MML p 647 and 649. The question for the court to decide first is what facts have been proved by the prosecution. In this connection I must point out that I who is in the position of an accomplice and although he is a competent witness that is to say, he may give evidence, it is very dangerous to convict any accused on the uncorroborated evidence of an accomplice and the corroboration which should be required is independent testimony which confirms in some material particular not only the evidence that the crime has been committed but also that the accused committed it. This is more fully set out in MML p 53 para 45 to which I refer the court.

Capt MacKenzie gives evidence that after an investigation of the disappearance of the vehicle PC Smith came to him and stated he thought he could locate the vehicle and led him to various places where he thought the vehicle might be found. Eventually the vehicle was located although not entirely through Smith's directions. The vehicle had been damaged and Capt MacKenzie, subsequently Field Security Officer, estimated the damage at £3-14-0. He also estimated the petrol and some petrol was last added at Yiyiala but is unable to allocate that or any

Prosecution

2 civil witnesses

Capt. J.R. MacKenzie sworn states,

I am HQ Capt of 2 Armd Recy Coy (FV Coy) RCASC. On 16 Oct 44 I was investigating the disappearance of a vehicle of this unit. WD No. CL-427000?. On completion of the investigation PC Smith came to me and said he thought he could locate the missing lorry in the vicinity of Antwerp. At about 1400 hrs I proceeded with PC Smith to Contich, about 9 KM from Antwerp. There he led me to the cafe and stated he had been in the cafe the night of 14/15 Oct and the lorry was not there had been in the cafe prior to the night of 14/15 Oct and the lorry had been parked behind the cafe. He said two armed Belgian soldiers had asked him if he could take the lorry to pick up PC Smith who was in a cafe some 8 KM back. He said the soldiers had not come back with the vehicle PC Smith went into the cafe with the 2 armed Gpl. and obtained a picture of the soldiers. We visited 2 or 3 additional cafes where he said he had been with the PC Smith and the soldiers of the armed escort but we found no trace of the soldiers or the lorry but as a result of information obtained we went to a spot near Contich where a lorry had recently had an accident. The spot indicated that a lorry with army type tyres had skidded at the spot indicated and skipped over on to the left hand side and down a bank and stopped over on its port side. The lorry had been removed. I decided not to search for the vehicle further and started towards camp. We had gone about 12 KM through the town of Hoboken (15 KM from camp) when I saw the lorry approaching being driven by an Belgian Officer. I asked him where he got the lorry and he said he had pulled it out of a ditch with a tank. The spot which he described to me was the spot we had just visited. The lorry had a broken windscreen, some damage to the radiator, and the cab and left mudguard were dented. I identified myself to the officer and took over the lorry, which was otherwise undamaged, and returned to the unit lines.

Cross-examination

I do not think that he knew exactly where I found the lorry. If he had known it he would have known.

RP 53 (b) complied with.

B-T0430 L/Sgt Wootton, R.S. sworn states.

I am L/Sgt i/c Admin in B Pl. R and Bde Coy. On 12 Oct 44 at 2215 I ~~attended~~ at Tattoo roll call, the accused did not answer his name. I reported the fact and could not find the accused. At 0900 hrs 15 Oct the accused reported to me sober and properly dressed. I placed him under close arrest.

Cross-examination

I have access to Pl. Records. Vehicle CL-42-70007 is on charge to PG Smith. The Cpl despatches the vehicles. The driver to whom a vehicle is issued is responsible for the vehicle, its tools and equipment.

The accused PG Smith had another vehicle on charge. His vehicle has not been been reported missing. At 2218 hrs 12 Oct veh. CL42-70007 was reported missing. PG Talbot was spare driver of the vehicle.

R.P. 83(2) complied with.

Capt L. McKinnis. sworn states.

I am W/S Offr. of 2 Cdn Con Bde Coy. On 17 Oct 44 Lorry CL42-70007 was being W into workshops. I examined the vehicle and found front bumper bent, left front fender bent, cab destroyed, box damaged, tarpaulin torn, left clearance lamp damaged, left windshield & case broken, petrol meter damaged. I estimated the repairs as follows. material £ 1-6-0 Labour 16 hrs @ 2-9-0. Total £3-14-0. I examined the AB 412 and the last mileage recorded before petrol was added was 3794 miles. The speedometer reading when the vehicle was timed into workshops 4166 miles. Therefore 372 mileage on p.p. 6 from AB 412. Therefore 45 gals consumed since last recording.

Cross-examination

I have no evidence that accused had been in or driving the vehicle The mileage computed is an opinion.

By the court

I do not remember what date was shown opposite 3794 miles there would be nothing to show the expenditure of petrol for each day we are not using work tickets and the only record of petrol consumed is in the log book.

RP 83(2) complied with.

Accused's witness

The Prosecution requests permission to call PG Smith as a witness

The J.A. reads and explains the rights of the Accused to an adjournment after the evidence is taken.

The court allows the witness to be called.

B-T0136 PG Smith E.F. sworn states.

I was in the area from ~~about~~ 1700 hrs 12 Oct to 0900 hrs 15 Oct. I was at Conteh. I used my lorry Dyd at Aber. PG Smith drove it when I was not capable. I was in a condition to drive it. We decided Dyd to Turnbull for a drink then went on to Conteh.

Evidence

Defending Officer does not require an adjournment

Cross-examination

PG Smith drove it when I was unable to. We were going down to this other place to get something to eat. We were often passed by a chap from an armoured regiment. PG Smith drove well. There was no accident while he was driving.

By the Court

I was not on authorized leg. I was in unit lines. I had no transport I had just come in from a run. I clocked in. I just said we a joke later my car went to go to Turnbull. PG Smith said he would go. We went to Turnbull. Then to Conteh. There was no accident up to that point. Saturday night the chap from the armoured corps whom we met in Conteh, I don't know his name, and Smith took the lorry to go to another restaurant to get something to eat. I can't say which one was driving. They were supposed to come back and pick me up. They didn't do so. I hitched back to camp. I don't see either the other chap or Smith after they left in the lorry.

Defending officer sworn by the court.

I was intoxicated at the time. I can't remember if the other soldier asked to take the lorry or not. He was drunk. He was intoxicated. PG Smith was not intoxicated at that time.

RP 83(2) complied with.

particular part of it to any one day. Sgt Watson gives evidence that the accused was absent between 2215 hrs 12 Oct and 0800 hrs 13 Oct. He also states that the vehicle was in charge of and the responsibility of PC Franks.

PC Franks, says, although you must be careful of accepting hearsay evidence, that when he came in off a trip he said as a joke does anyone want to go & Townsville. PC Smith said he would go. They went to Townsville then on to Ravenshoe. Somewhere they picked up another, nationwide soldier and Smith and this soldier drove off in the lorry. Franks says no accident took place up to the time he last saw the lorry and that Smith was not intoxicated though the other soldier was and he was ill also.

Now has the prosecution proved that Smith on 12 Oct 44 used vehicle CL 427000 7 and 45 gals of petrol for his private purposes and caused damage to the vehicle to the extent of £14-0 or has the prosecution proved against Smith enough of these facts to constitute conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline having regard to the nature and to the circumstances in which & took place.

The accused must be presumed innocent until he has been proved guilty beyond reasonable doubt. To warrant an acquittal that doubt must not be light or capricious. It must be such a doubt as upon a calm view of the whole evidence a rational understanding will say ought to an honest heart. If there is such a doubt the accused must be given the benefit of it and be acquitted even though you are not entirely convinced of his innocence because it is for the prosecution to prove his guilt not for him to prove his innocence.

On 13 Oct 44 at approx 0845 hrs I was proceeding from the Coy lines to Rear Bde HQ and passed through TURNHOUT en route. As I was passing through this town, I saw one of our unit vehicles, bearing a "B" Pl tactical sign, and saw one of the accused , B-80736 Pte Zinke, E.I. standing beside it. Pte Zinke, E.I. told me that he was lost, and asked me to give him directions back to the Coy location. This I did, and proceeded on my way to Rear Bde HQ.

THIRD WITNESS

Capt J.R. MacKenzie, 2 Armd Bde Coy (84 Coy) RCASC, sworn, states:-

I am Capt J.R. MacKenzie, HQ Capt, 2 Armd Bde Coy (84 Coy) RCASC. At approx 1200 hrs 16 Oct 44 I was informed by B-85910 Pte Smith, M. that he thought he knew where he could locate a lorry No CL-4270007 which at that time was missing from our Unit lines. He stated that he and B-80736 Pte Zinke, E.I. had had the missing lorry in the vicinity of CONTICH, Belgium, but that they had returned separately to the Unit lines without the vehicle. We proceeded to CONTICH and Pte Smith secured a snapshot of a soldier who he believed to be in possession of the lorry. After considerable searching in public houses in the vicinity, we discovered no trace of the soldier or the vehicle in question, but finally found a place on a side road where a lorry had had an accident. It appeared that the lorry had slipped off the road down an 8 foot embankment, fallen over on its side, and in doing so demolished a small brick shed. The lorry had subsequently been removed. We started on the way home but after going a very short distance we noticed lorry WD No CL-4270007 to be in the possession of an officer from No 4 Park, 15 Vehicle Coy. The lorry had a broken windshield and damage to the front and side. The officer stated that the lorry had been found on Sunday 15 Oct 44 in the spot from which we had just come. He had had it pulled out on the morning of the 16 Oct 44. After identifying ourselves, he turned the lorry over to us (this was at approx 1630 hrs.) and we returned to the Unit lines.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

The young soldier is charged with one minor offence, absent without leave for 5 hours and 45 minutes. Under FR & I the accused does not lose even a days pay as an automatic forfeiture. Surely this offence is not serious. I submit that the man should be dealt with in the most lenient manner possible. His crime certainly doesn't warrant a punishment of any length.

address by Defending Officer Lieut H. R. Ramsay.

The accused has what might be termed as a fairly bad record but most of them relatively minor offences, up until last Christmas time. Absence without leave seems to be rather a prevalent disease at this time and it is our contention that a lot of it is due to a lack of guidance and explanation. You have heard his platoon Sergeant who said he was a very good soldier in his platoon. I think this court martial has rather taught him a lesson, in so far as it has gone, and since he is a satisfactory soldier, on his behalf I would ask the mercy of the Court.

A. on the morning 1 Feb. 43 L/Cpl Bratton came to me in my orderly room and reported a bicycle which was left in his custody during the night at the station. He told me that he had made an investigation which led him to believe the accused was the one concerned. I questioned the accused and he told me he had not seen the bicycle. L/Sgt Lucas who was present during the questioning told me he had seen the accused riding the bicycle out of the camps. The accused then stated it was his lady friends bicycle. In the afternoon I sent L/Cpl Bratton to Crawley and Three Bridges, to enquire at the local bicycle shops whether any had purchased a bicycle from a Cdn soldier. He returned without any success. On the morning 2 Feb 43 I sent L/Cpl Bratton to Littlehampton to locate the accused's lady friend. He returned the same day and reported to me that the accused's lady friend had been in possession of her bicycle on the 31 Jan 43 and he produced a written statement signed by her to that effect. On 3 Feb 43 I again questioned the accused and showed him the statement written by his lady friend. He then told me it was Pte Campbells bicycle that he was riding out of the camps. I then ordered some one to go and bring Pte Campbell before me. The accused then said he would tell the truth. He told me he had taken the bicycle to Bognor and had left it outside a shop near the railway station. On Monday 8 Feb 43 I sent the accused accompanied by L/Cpl Bratton, L/Cpl Hobbes, and Cpl Church to Bognor to attempt to locate the bicycle on their return L/Cpl Bratton informed me that he had recovered the bicycle at the Bognor Police Station. I then laid a charge against Pte Smith.

Q. Will you tell the court in your own words exactly what took place on 31 Jan 43.

A. On 31 Jan 43 as I was in camp, nothing to do, I went to find L/Cpl Bratten to see if I could borrow his bicycle. He was not around camp, so I thought there would be no harm in taking his bicycle to go to Crawley. On my way to Crawley I met one of my friends on his bicycle and he asked me to go to Reigate with him and I thought I would go. After we got to Reigate the bicycle was not in good riding condition. I thought I [redacted] and go back Monday afternoon and get it. I had to borrow two shillings from my friend to get back home and when we returned here I found I was under arrest and I could not go back Monday afternoon to get the bicycle because of being under arrest and on Tuesday I was unable to go as I had been sentenced to seven days field punishment No 1 on 1 Feb 43.

Q. If you intended returning the bicycle on Monday why did you deny any knowledge of it on Monday morning when questioned by Lieut Grigsby

A. I did not want L/Cpl Bratten to know about it, until I had an opportunity of returning it.

Q. Then why did you deny it two days after 31 Jan 43.

From the weight of evidence it must be the considered opinion of this Court that the accused is guilty on the first charge, that is, under section 18(4) of the Army Act.

The seriousness of stealing from a comrade, a fellow soldier, cannot be overestimated. There is little protection of personal property which makes the offence one of particular nastiness.

I consider that this man should receive the maximum sentence as a lesson to himself and to all would-be thieves. He has lied until it did not benefit him to lie any longer. A thief is a menace of the worst sort; may he and all would-be thieves now learn the consequences of this despicable act.

The accused has made unsubstantiated statements totally at variance with the facts and contrary to the evidence of the other witnesses. This officer, the theft of the bicycle, has cost the Government the value of the time of an Officer and other ranks in fruitless investigation. I repeat, the accused discontinued lying only when lying became profitless and discovery was imminent.

That is all I have to say sir.

Address handed in writing by the Prosecutor :-

Alex Paquin Major

"D 6"

Summary of Defence. Closing address.

The accused having tried to locate L/Cpl Bratten decided to take the bicycle thinking that it was alright. There was no intention to steal it

Definition of stealing.

He did plan on bringing it back.

He lied because he worked on the theory of "what you dont know wont hurt you"

There has been no evidence to prove theft of the bicycle. If he had intended to steal the bicycle surely he would mean to gain by the theft. Leaving a bicycle on a street in a fairly large town is hardly going to let him derive some benefit

The accused due to lack of thought was no doubt somewhat negligent in leaving the bicycle unguarded. He planned on probably going back the following day and take sufficient tools along to fix the bicycle.

On Mon 7 Feb 43 the accused was placed under open arrest, on 27 Feb 43, he was sentenced to 7 days field punishment and therefore could not return.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of
L-8854 Private M. W. SMITH, 41 Cdn. Gen. Tpt. Coy, R. C. A. S. C.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

L-7653 L/Cpl. D. R. BRATTEN, 41 Cdn. Gen. Tpt. Coy, R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, states:-

I am L-7653, L/Cpl. D. R. Bratten. When Pte. Hodgson went to hospital he left his bicycle in my charge. I have always left it outside "B" Platoon Orderly Room. At approximately 0800 hrs 1 Feb. 43, I noticed that the bicycle was missing. I asked a few of the men if they had borrowed the bicycle. Someone, I forget who, told me they had seen L-8854 Pte. M. W. Smith, whom I now recognize, ride it out of Camp on Sunday 31 Jan. 43. I asked Pte. Smith if he had taken the bicycle and he told me he had never seen it. I then reproted it's loss to Lieut. Grigsby, my Platoon Commander. Lieut. Grigsby Called Pte. Smith into the Orderly Room on Monday morning, 1 Feb. 43 and questioned him in my presence. Pte. Smith first denied that he had seen the bicycle. L/Sgt. Zicari was also present and when he said that he had seen Pte. Smith ride a bicycle out of camp on the day in question, Pte. Smith then claimed he was riding a bicycle belonging to his girl-friend. On Monday afternoon 1 Feb. 43, I went in to Crawley and inquired at several bicycle shops whether any bicycles had been brought in for sale by a Canadian soldier. I obtained negative replies. On Tuesday 2 Feb. 43 I obtained a pass to go in to Sutton where I looked up Pte. Smith's girl-friend. I asked her if she was in possession of her own bicycle on Sunday 31 Jan. 43 and she replied that she had been. She gave me a statement to this effect. (See Appendix "AA" to this Summary). I then retruned to camp and reported to Lieut. Grigsby. In my presence on Wednesday 3 Feb. 43 Lieut. Grigsby again questioned Pte. Smith and informed him that he had a statement from his girl-friend and read it to him. Pte. Smith then said that the bicycle he was riding belonged to a Pte. Campbell. When Lieut. Grigsby ordered someone to go & find this Pte. Campbell, Pte. Smith said he would tell the truth. Pte. Smith said he had taken the bicycle from outside the Platoon Orderly Room and had ridden it to Reigate. He said he had left it outside a shop near the Reigate Railway Station. On Monday 8 Feb. 43, I went to Reigate accompanied by Pte. Smith, L/Cpl. Geddes and Cpl. Church. We proceeded to the spot where Pte. Smith claimed to have left the bicycle and could not find it. We then proceeded to the Reigate Police Station and asked them if they had found the bicycle on Sunday. They had found one and, after I identified it, handed it over to me and I brought it back to camp.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Bratten

Second Witness for Prosecution

L-8043 L/Cpl. J. GEDDES, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am L-8043 L/Cpl. J. Geddes. At approximately 1345 hrs 8 Feb. 43 I was detailed by Lieut. Grigsby to accompany L/Cpl. Bratten and Pte. Smith, whom I now recognize, to Reigate to locate a bicycle left there by Pte. Smith.

Pte. Smith took us to the place where he claimed to have left the bicycle but there was no bicycle there. We then went to the Reigate Police Station to inquire if a bicycle had been picked up by the Police. They had and, after having it identified by L/Cpl. Bratten they gave it to him and we returned to camp.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

J. A. Geddes L/Cpl.

Third Witness for Prosecution

Lieutenant M. G. Grigsby, 41 Cdn. Gen. Tpt. Coy, R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, states:-

On the morning of 1 Feb. 43, L/Cpl. Bratten came to me and reported that a bicycle of which he was custodian had been stolen. He told me that he had been informed that Pte. M. W. SMITH, whom I now recognize, was seen riding a bicycle out of camp. I sent for Pte. Smith and questioned him concerning this matter. Pte. Smith told me he had never seen the bicycle and L/Sgt. Zicari, who was present during the interview, stated that he had seen Pte. Smith riding a bicycle out of camp on the day in question. Pte. Smith then said that the bicycle he was seen riding belonged to his girl-friend. On the afternoon of 1 Feb. 43 I sent L/Cpl. Bratten to Crawley to check at all the local bicycle shops as to whether a bicycle had been sold to them by a Canadian soldier. He returned the same afternoon and reported to me that the bicycle could not be located. On Tuesday 2 Feb. 43 I sent L/Cpl. Bratten to Sutton to contact Pte. Smith's girl-friend. On his return he showed me a written statement signed by Pte. Smith's girl-friend and witnessed by her father which stated that on the day in question she was in possession of her bicycle. (See Appendix "A" to this Summary). On the morning of 3 Feb. 43 I called in Pte. Smith and showed him this statement. After reading it, Pte. Smith told me that the bicycle he was seen riding belonged to a Pte. Campbell. When I ordered a soldier to go and find Pte. Campbell, Pte. Smith then said he would tell the truth. He then told me he had taken the bicycle to Reigate and had left it outside a shop near the Railway Station. On Monday 8 Feb. 43 I sent Pte. Smith accompanied by L/Cpl. Bratten, L/Cpl. Geddes and Cpl. Church to Reigate to try and locate the bicycle. On their return, L/Cpl. Bratten told me that when they reached the spot where Pte. Smith claimed to have left the bicycle, it could not be found. L/Cpl. Bratten then reported to me that the bicycle had been located at the Police Station in Reigate.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

PLEA OF MITIGATION FOR G-13063 Pte. Smith, M.M.

Sirs:

In plea of mitigation for Pte. Smith I would like to draw to the attention of the Court that he has been in the army since the 5th of September 1939. Due to an E-4 category he was unableto get overseas until January 1945. Also due to the same category he was not allowed to go to the C.A.P.F. with his friends for which he volunteered.

For the last year and a half this man has felt that he has been kicked from pillar to post because his category prevented him from fulfilling his duty in the field, which was his basic reason for joining the army, and at the same time it was not sufficiently low for him to be returned to civil life. Consequently it seemed to him that the army didn't quite know what to do with him.

In view of these facts and the fact that Pte. Smith is still very anxious to serve with the C.A.P.F. I would ask for leniency in this case and that if at all possible further consideration be given to his application for service with C.A.P.F.

TRIAL OF

L-8854 PRIVATE SMITH MW 5 CITR - ATT # 4 GEN HOSP RCAMC

CHARACTER WITNESS
~~FIRST WITNESS~~

K-70972 CPL CROSSLEY, AG, 5 CITR, sworn, states:-

I have known the accused for quite some time. He was my roommate in 5 CITR at Aldershot. I always found him to be honest, reliable and quite a suitable soldier.

Q. In May did you think that the accused worried about something?
A. Yes, Sir, he was worrying at that time.

Q. Altogether, you've found him to be a reliable and upright soldier?
A. Yes, Sir.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

I have more character witnesses that would like to call and give evidence but they are all at present on the Continent. Their names are Captains AW Shaw, T.L. Reid, J. Londell, and Lieuts W. Grigsby, O. Brown and M.J. Savage. The fact that the accused was anxious to submit their names would seem to imply that they would speak well of him. Of course the accused has no excuse to offer for his absence but he has some reasons. On his return from Italy where he had been injured on active service he received a six day leave and shortly after a nine day leave. I believe it was in order for them to have fifteen straight days. Finally he was due for another nine days' leave but was attached to No 4 Cdn Gen Hosp in May as a fatigue orderly. He asked for the leave then one month overdue. He was told that as he was attached, it culd not be granted from No 4 Cdn Gen Hosp. He asked for a 48-hr pass that was due to him from VE-Day. This was also refused to him. He was also worried as he had not heard from his parents for over five months. He also had a Scotch girl living at Inverness. He was not formally engaged to her but they had an understanding. He had heard that lately an American soldier had moved in and this worried him too. He wanted to go up and find exactly where he stood. He did a crazy thing - he went AWL. I might have done the same thing. He comforted himself in the thought that the Empire didn't need him as the war was over in Germany. He reported back himself according to the sergeant's evidence properly dressed and sober. And furthermore, he is very sorry and ashamed of himself for what he's done. He is not mature yet inspite of being 21 years old. He enlisted at the age of 17 at a time when many boys are still in high school. I submit that the accused needs a school rather than a detn bks. You and I as Canadian taxpayers have an investment in this boy. We can't turn him out of the Army, broken, discouraged and with the dangerous germs of malcontent against society implanted in him. He has to have a vocational course - further training. His gratuity money should be intact, not eaten up with fines. I'm sure you'll agreed with me that we owe it to Canada to turn this man out of the Army an asset not a liability to the country.

L.8854 Pte Smith MW, CIC, 11 Cdn Repat Depot

PROSECUTION

A.107098 CQMS Woolvett, A.M., 11 Cdn Repat Depot, sworn, states:-

About 2315 hrs on the 8th Nov 45, I was walking on the highway from the dance hall in Nutley towards the Shelly Arms in Nutley. I was approximately half way between those two points when a civilian woman, Gladys Ralph, came running from behind me, calling my name "Art". She said something to me and I returned towards the dance hall with her, to a point where I found RQMS Fleming of 11 Cdn Repat Depot standing in the road. Facing him was a Pte Bell, whom I recognized as a Canadian soldier from A Wing, 11 Cdn Repat Depot, and Pte Smith, whom I recognized as a Canadian soldier from 11 Cdn Repat Depot, the accused whom I now recognize. I used my flashlight and I asked RQMS Fleming at that time what had happened and he indicated that Pte Bell had hit him. Upon looking him over I saw that his hair was mussed up, there was blood on his neck and I found his hat on the ground about four or five feet from him. The woman was rubbing the right side of her face and her nose at that time. I heard RQMS Fleming order Pte Smith to produce his paybook and Pte Smith refused to comply with the order, saying he could have it if he was big enough to take it away from him. He said this in a defiant manner and definitely refused to produce his paybook. I picked up the hat and there was some slight argument, nothing of any importance, and Pte Smith and Pte Bell left and walked up the road towards the Shelly Arms. RQMS Fleming and myself accompanied the two ladies to their residence at the Shelly Arms and we then continued towards camp. When we came to the fork in the road in Nutley, where one road leads towards "B" Wing and the other towards "A" Wing of 11 Cdn Repat Depot, Pte Bell walked out and stood immediately in front of RQMS Fleming and dared him to lay charges against him. We continued walking down towards camp and Pte Smith and Pte Bell walked with us. Pte Bell was immediately alongside of RQMS Fleming and Pte Smith was on the opposite side of the road most of the way back.

Q. Could the accused walk straight?
A. To the best of my knowledge he did.
Q. Was his conversation clear and coherent?
A. Yes, very.

When we got towards camp Smith stayed on the opposite side of the road and did not cause any argument or do anything. Pte Bell took his paybook out of his pocket and offered it towards RQMS Fleming at the time and then he replaced it in his pocket before there was any opportunity to do anything about it. Pte Bell and Pte Smith then walked on ahead of us and Pte Bell challenged us again to lay a charge against him.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. When you went to where this disturbance was going on, how many Canadian soldiers were there besides RQMS Fleming and yourself?
A. I saw only two other soldiers, apart from Fleming and myself.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

C.122641, RQMS Fleming, D.G., 11 Canadian Repat Depot, sworn, states:-

At approximately 2315 hrs on 8 Nov 45 I was walking on the main highway midway between the dance hall and the Shelly Arms, Nutley, Sussex, with a civilian woman, Gladys Ralph of Nutley. We were walking very slowly, arm in arm, when we were bumped into from behind by two soldiers from 11 Cdn Repat Depot who were walking in the same direction. When they bumped into us I said "Oops, detour boys" and, without warning, Pte Bell struck me on the right jaw with his clenched fist. I staggered back from the force of the blow, still on my feet, and the accused, Pte Smith, grabbed me from in front with both his hands on my upper arms and threw me violently to the ground. I told him that I was a RQMS but he continued to hold me down until I heard CQMS Woolvett coming towards us. Just after I was was struck I heard Gladys Ralph call out "Stop Bell". She then shouted "Art", CQMS Woolvett's name and ran towards CQMS Woolvett who was walking ahead.

Q. Was it dark at the time?
A. It was fairly dark, but not too dark.

Gladys Ralph returned with CQMS Woolvett and when I heard them approaching Pte Smith let me up. I then ordered him to produce his paybook and he said "you can have it if you are big enough to take it away from me". He did not produce it. I then ordered Pte Bell to produce his paybook and he replied defiantly "nothing doing". I then noticed Gladys Ralph wiping her face with a handkerchief. I asked her if she was hurt, in the hearing of both Pte Smith and Pte Bell, and still in the hearing of both she replied "he struck me". I thought it must have been Bell who struck her because Smith had been holding me down. Neither of the accused denied striking Gladys Ralph but turned and walked rapidly away towards camp. I then escorted Gladys Ralph to her residence in company with CQMS Woolvett and the young woman with him. CQMS Woolvett and myself then started to walk towards camp. At the fork in the road past the Shelly Arms Pte Smith and Pte Bell came out on the road and started to walk along with us. Pte Bell then pulled out his paybook and said "there is my paybook if you want to see it". Before I had an opportunity to take the paybook he put it back in his pocket. He then dared CQMS Woolvett and myself to lay a charge against him. Pte Bell and Pte Smith then left us and walked on towards camp. The next I saw of them was when they were leaving the Unit Guard Room.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. When the soldiers bumped into you on the road, how many Canadian soldiers were there beside yourself?
A. There were two, sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THIRD WITNESS

Gladys Ralph, barmaid, Nutley, Sussex, sworn, states:-

About 2315 hrs on 8 Nov 45, RQMS Fleming and I were walking home from a dance at the Nutley canteen. We were half way between the Shelly Arms and the canteen and walking slowly, arm in arm, when two Canadian soldiers walking behind us bumped into us. Fleming said "make a detour there boys. I don't remember if either of the men answered. They just made a grab at Fleming with their hands. I told them there was nothing to make a row about. Pte Bell then hit me on my nose with his clenched fist, causing my nose to bleed. I then ran forward to catch up to CQMS Woolvett who was walking ahead of us. I called him by his name "Art" and tole him what was happening a way back. We hurried back. Fleming was on his feet and in the light of Woolvett's flashlight Fleming's badges of rank were clearly visible. Woolvett asked Fleming what had happened and he replied that Bell had hit him. Fleming then ordered the men to produce their paybooks and they refused and one of them said "you can have it if you are big enough to take it" but I don't know which one it was. They did not give Fleming their paybooks.

Q. Did Pte Bell and Pte Smith appear to be drunk?
A. They did not appear to be drunk.
Q. Had any provocation been given to either Pte Bell or Pte Smith?
A. None whatsoever.
Q. Did you see them at the dance?
A. Yes.
Q. Was there any trouble there?
A. None whatsoever.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You say both men laid hands on Fleming?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you see Fleming thrown to the ground?
A. No.
Q. Did you see Fleming get struck?
A. No.
Q. When you called out "Stop Bell", what did you mean?
A. Well, I could see he was going to hit somebody and when I called "Stop Bell," he hit me.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

The Prosecutor said that Captain B.G. Herman, RCAMC, was available to give evidence as to the condition of RQMS Fleming but that in his evidence he would not say that any injury was done to the RQMS as the result of the offences of which this accused, Smith, is charged. The Defending Officer said that it would be fairer to the accused not to take the evidence of Captain Herman as it would be irrelavant and might be prejudicial. The Court agreed.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

DEFENCE

The Accused, L.8854 Pte Smith MW, CIC, 11 Cdn Repat Depot, sworn, states:-

At approximately 2315 hrs on 8 Nov 45 I was coming from the dance hall to return to camp. It was dark and I bumped into RQMS Fleming. When RQMS Fleming said "take a detour, boys" I stepped aside and excused myself. Before I knew what was going on Pte Bell knocked him to the ground and then Pte Bell helped the RQMS to his feet again. There was a slight argument between Bell and the RQMS when the RQMS asked us for our paybooks. I did not consider the RQMS request to be in order so I did not show him my paybook. We then proceeded to camp and stopped at the crossroads where one road leads into "B" Wing and the other into "A" Wing where I talked to two cooks from "A" Wing.

Q. When you bumped into RQMS Fleming, how many soldiers were with you?
A. There were four.
Q. Who were they?
A. Pte Bell, Pte Copan, Pte Patterson and myself.
Q. Was it a dark night?
A. It was dark enough that I could not see RQMS Fleming when I bumped into him.
Q. Did you just come out of the dance hall?
A. Yes, shortly before and I couldn't see well in the dark.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY PROSECUTOR

Q. Why did you not consider it an order when RQMS Fleming asked you to produce your paybook?
A. I don't consider it an order until I know his rank?
A. Had you any reason to doubt his authority?
A. Not exactly, but it was dark.
Q. Had you reason to suspect that there was no authority?
A. I did not know him and I could not see his badges of rank.
Q. Had you any reason to believe that this man might have been a private soldier after the order to produce your paybook?
A. Yes, sir, as I could not see and I heard around camp that there had been quite a few of the other boys laying for me in camp.
Q. You heard RQMS Fleming state in effect that you put both your hands on his shoulders and shoved him to the ground and held him there. Is that true?
A. No, sir, I did not lay a hand on him at all.
Q. Was Gladys Ralph not telling the truth when she said both of the men grabbed Fleming?
A. No, sir, she is not telling the truth.
Q. Were you acquainted with RQMS Fleming before 8 Nov 45.
A. No, sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

F.89842 Pte Copan, A., 11 Cdn Repat Depot, sworn, states:-

At about 2315 hrs 8 Nov 45 I was coming home from the dance hall and I caught up to Pte Bell and Pte Smith on the road. This is Pte Smith (points to accused). I saw RQMS Fleming grab Pte Bell around the neck. I did not see him plainly. Then Pte Bell grabbed RQMS Fleming and threw him down. I did not see any blows struck. Bell then helped Fleming up. Another soldier came with a flashlight then and I noticed Fleming's rank and saw that he was an RQ.

Q. What made Fleming grab Bell by the neck?
A. I don't know if anything happened before that becsuse I was not there.
Q. Was it quite dark at the time this happened?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. How many soldiers beside yourself were there?
A. There was Smith, Bell and myself.
Q. You know them both very well?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you are definitely sure that it was Bell who put Fleming down?
A. Yes, sir.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (CONTINUED)

THE PROSECUTOR ADDRESSES THE COURT

Mr President and members of the court,

The Court has heard the evidence in this case. It has heard the statements of RQMS Fleming (our second senior Warrant Officer), CQMS Woolvett, and a civilian, Gladys Ralph. All three people are highly respected in their various walks of life, beit it civilian or military. The Court, on the other hand, has heard the terrifically conflicting statements of the Defence witnesses. This is an unhealthy condition -- and it is designed to place the full blame upon another private soldier who is also charged. All the charges, I feel, are given ample support in the evidence which the Court has heard. The seriousness of this un-Canadian-like attack is greatly enhanced by the fact that it involved a civilian woman. This and the fact that it demonstrates the state of discipline which some of our soldiers are rapidly approaching. Strike and investigate later -- the Nazi way of doing things -- the very thing we fought against has seemingly crept into our midst. I strongly urge that the Court will bear these facts in mind when passing sentence. Our military policy of discipline is at stake and also, equally as important in these last days of our UK experience, the continued good will of the British public toward our Canadian soldiers.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT

Mr President and members of the court,

Smith, under Oath, states that there were four soldiers on the scene besides RQMS Fleming, Smith, Bell, Copan and Patterson. Mrs Ralph states that both Smith and Bell laid hands on RQMS Fleming but she saw neither one of them throw him to the ground. There were four soldiers there and it could have been any two of them. She says she knew Bell was going to do something to Fleming so she cried "Stop Bell". Pte Copan states he saw Pte Bell and RQMS Fleming struggling at which time Bell threw Fleming to the ground. This evidence by the eyewitnesses shows that there was a certain amount of confusion at the time. All three men, Fleming, Bell and Smith were fairly close together at the time and in the confusion Mrs Ralph thought that Smith's hands as well as Bell's were on the person of RQMS Fleming. However, the evidence of Pte Copan who was on the scene proves without a doubt that it was Bell and not Smith that threw RQMS Fleming to the ground. As for the third charge, that of refusing to produce his paybook, Pte Smith had just been an innocent bystander in a quarrel in which he had just seen his friend strike down a man. Smith became alarmed at what his friend had done and when the question came up as to producing paybooks Smith felt that the request was directed towards Bell and not himself, as he had not been involved in the brawl and furthermore he knew not the rank of the person doing the demanding in the dark so refused to give it up. Gentlemen of the court, there has never been a charge against this man before. Smith was just about due for repatriation, he certainly wasn't going to jeoprodise his chance for going home by becoming involved in a roadside brawl. I respectfully request that the court weigh the evidence I have placed before it and return a verdict of Not Guilty on all charges.

THE COURT IS CLOSED

THE COURT RE-OPENS

The President announced that the Court found the accused not guilty of the first, second and third charges but the finding of the court on the fourth charge cannot be communicated to the accused because it is subject to confirmation.

PLEA OF MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

The Accused has done service with our Canadian Army in Italy for 18 months with the RCRs where he was wounded. He has never before faced a charge of violence. The man was about to be returned to Canada on repatriation and at this time I ask the Court to be lenient on the strength of the above. He quit school when he was 16 and worked on a farm. His category is U4 on account of wounds.

We continued walking down towards camp and Pte Smith and Pte Bell walked with us. Pte Bell was immediately alongside of RQMS Fleming and Pte Smith was on the opposite side of the road most of the way back.

Q. Could the accused walk straight?
A. To the best of my knowledge he did.
Q. Was his conversation clear and coherent?
A. Yes, very.

When we got towards camp Smith stayed on the opposite side of the road and did not cause any argument or do anything. Pte Bell took his paybook out of his pocket and offered it towards RQMS Fleming at the time and then he replaced it in his pocket before there was any opportunity to do anything about it. Pte Bell and Pte Smith then walked on ahead of us and Pte Bell challenged us again to lay a charge against him.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. When you went to where this disturbance was going on, how many Canadian soldiers were there besides RQMS Fleming and yourself?
A. I saw only two other soldiers, apart from Fleming and myself.

C.122641, RQMS Fleming, D.G., 11 Canadian Repat Depot, sworn, states:-

At approximately 2315 hrs on 8 Nov 45 I was walking on the main highway midway between the dance hall and the Shelly Arms, Nutley, Sussex, with a civilian woman, Gladys Ralph of Nutley. We were walking very slowly, arm in arm, when we were bumped into from behind by two soldiers from 11 Cdn Repat Depot who were walking in the same direction. When they bumped into us I said "Oops, detour boys" and, without warning, Pte Bell struck me on the right jaw with his clenched fist. I staggered back from the force of the blow, still on my feet, and the accused, Pte Smith, grabbed me from in front with both his hands on my upper arms and threw me violently to the ground. I told him that I was a RQMS but he continued to hold me down until I heard CQMS Woolvett coming towards us. Just after I was was struck I heard Gladys Ralph call out "Stop Bell". She then shouted "Art", CQMS Woolvett's name and ran towards CQMS Woolvett who was walking ahead.

Q. Was it dark at the time?
A. It was fairly dark, but not too dark.

Gladys Ralph returned with CQMS Woolvett and when I heard them approaching Pte Smith let me up. I then ordered him to produce his paybook and he said "you can have it if you are big enough to take it away from me". He did not produce it. I then ordered Pte Bell to produce his paybook and he replied defiantly "nothing doing". I then noticed Gladys Ralph wiping her face with a handkerchief. I asked her if she was hurt, in the hearing of both Pte Smith and Pte Bell, and still in the hearing of both she replied "he struck me". I thought it must have been Bell who struck her because Smith had been holding me down. Neither of the accused denied striking Gladys Ralph but turned and walked rapidly away towards camp. I then escorted Gladys Ralph to her residence in company with CQMS Woolvett and the young woman with him. CQMS Woolvett and myself then started to walk towards camp. At the fork in the road past the Shelly Arms Pte Smith and Pte Bell came out on the road and started to walk along with us. Pte Bell then pulled out his paybook and said "there is my paybook if you want to see it". Before I had an opportunity to take the paybook he put it back in his pocket. He then dared CQMS Woolvett and myself to lay a charge against him. Pte Bell and Pte Smith then left us and walked on towards camp. The next I saw of them was when they were leaving the Unit Guard Room.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. When the soldiers bumped into you on the road, how many Canadian soldiers were there beside yourself?
A. There were two, sir.

THIRD WITNESS

Gladys Ralph, barmaid, Nutley, Sussex, sworn, states:-

About 2315 hrs on 8 Nov 45, RQMS Fleming and I were walking home from a dance at the Nutley canteen. We were half way between the Shelly Arms and the canteen and walking slowly, arm in arm, when two Canadian soldiers walking behind us bumped into us. Fleming said "make a detour there boys. I don't remember if either of the men answered. They just made a grab at Fleming with their hands. I told them there was nothing to make a row about. Pte Bell then hit me on my nose with his clenched fist, causing my nose to bleed. I then ran forward to catch up to CQMS Woolvett who was walking ahead of us. I called him by his name "Art" and tole him what was happening a way back. We hurried back. Fleming was on his feet and in the light of Woolvett's flashlight Fleming's badges of rank were clearly visible. Woolvett asked Fleming what had happened and he replied that Bell had hit him. Fleming then ordered the men to produce their paybooks and they refused and one of them said "you can have it if you are big enough to take it" but I don't know which one it was. They did not give Fleming their paybooks.

Q. Did Pte Bell and Pte Smith appear to be drunk?
A. They did not appear to be drunk.
Q. Had any provocation been given to either Pte Bell or Pte Smith?
A. None whatsoever.
Q. Did you see them at the dance?
A. Yes.
Q. Was there any trouble there?
A. None whatsoever.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You say both men laid hands on Fleming?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you see Fleming thrown to the ground?
A. No.
Q. Did you see Fleming get struck?
A. No.
Q. When you called out "Stop Bell", what did you mean?
A. Well, I could see he was going to hit somebody and when I called "Stop Bell," he hit me.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

The Prosecutor said that Captain B.G. Herman, RCAMC, was available to give evidence as to the condition of RQMS Fleming but that in his evidence he would not say that any injury was done to the RQMS as the result of the offences of which this accused, Smith, is charged. The Defending Officer said that it would be fairer to the accused not to take the evidence of Captain Herman as it would be irrelavant and might be prejudicial. The Court agreed.

DEFENCE

The Accused, L.8854 Pte Smith MW, CIC, 11 Cdn Repat Depot, sworn, states:-

At approximately 2315 hrs on 8 Nov 45 I was coming from the dance hall to return to camp. It was dark and I bumped into RQMS Fleming. When RQMS Fleming said "take a detour, boys" I stepped aside and excused myself. Before I knew what was going on Pte Bell knocked him to the ground and then Pte Bell helped the RQMS to his feet again. There was a slight argument between Bell and the RQMS when the RQMS asked us for our paybooks. I did not consider the RQMS request to be in order so I did not show him my paybook. We then proceeded to camp and stopped at the crossroads where one road leads into "B" Wing and the other into "A" Wing where I talked to two cooks from "A" Wing.

Q. When you bumped into RQMS Fleming, how many soldiers were with you?
A. There were four.
Q. Who were they?
A. Pte Bell, Pte Copan, Pte Patterson and myself.
Q. Was it a dark night?
A. It was dark enough that I could not see RQMS Fleming when I bumped into him.
Q. Did you just come out of the dance hall?
A. Yes, shortly before and I couldn't see well in the dark.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY PROSECUTOR

Q. Why did you not consider it an order when RQMS Fleming asked you to produce your paybook?
A. I don't consider it an order until I know his rank?
A. Had you any reason to doubt his authority?
A. Not exactly, but it was dark.
Q. Had you reason to suspect that there was no authority?
A. I did not know him and I could not see his badges of rank.
Q. Had you any reason to believe that this man might have been a private soldier after the order to produce your paybook?
A. Yes, sir, as I could not see and I heard around camp that there had been quite a few of the other boys laying for me in camp.
Q. You heard RQMS Fleming state in effect that you put both your hands on his shoulders and shoved him to the ground and held him there. Is that true?
A. No, sir, I did not lay a hand on him at all.
Q. Was Gladys Ralph not telling the truth when she said both of the men grabbed Fleming?
A. No, sir, she is not telling the truth.
Q. Were you acquainted with RQMS Fleming before 8 Nov 45.
A. No, sir.
Q. How long have you been at 11 Cdn Repat Depot?
A. I had been in camp approximately five months.
Q. Had you been doing any drinking on 8 Nov 45?
A. I had a few drinks.
Q. Were you drunk at the time this happened?
A. I was not exactly drunk and I was not completely sober.

F.89842 Pte Copan, A., 11 Cdn Repat Depot, sworn, states:-

At about 2315 hrs 8 Nov 45 I was coming home from the dance hall and I caught up to Pte Bell and Pte Smith on the road. This is Pte Smith (points to accused). I saw RQMS Fleming grab Pte Bell around the neck. I did not see him plainly. Then Pte Bell grabbed RQMS Fleming and threw him down. I did not see any blows struck. Bell then helped Fleming up. Another soldier came with a flashlight then and I noticed Fleming's rank and saw that he was an RQ.

Q. What made Fleming grab Bell by the neck?
A. I don't know if anything happened before that because I was not there.
Q. Was it quite dark at the time this happened?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. How many soldiers beside yourself were there?
A. There was Smith, Bell and myself.
Q. You know them both very well?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you are definitely sure that it was Bell who put Fleming down?
A. Yes, sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THE PROSECUTOR ADDRESSES THE COURT

Mr President and members of the court,

The Court has heard the evidence in this case. It has heard the statements of RQMS Fleming (our second senior Warrant Officer), CQMS Woolvett, and a civilian, Gladys Ralph. All three people are highly respected in their various walks of life, beit it civilian or military. The Court, on the other hand, has heard the terrifically conflicting statements of the Defence witnesses. This is an unhealthy condition -- and it is designed to place the full blame upon another private soldier who is also charged. All the charges, I feel, are given ample support in the evidence which the Court has heard. The seriousness of this un-Canadian-like attack is greatly enhanced by the fact that it involved a civilian woman. This and the fact that it demonstrates the state of discipline which some of our soldiers are rapidly approaching. Strike and investigate later -- the Nazi way of doing things -- the very thing we fought against has seemingly crept into our midst. I strongly urge that the Court will bear these facts in mind when passing sentence. Our military policy of discipline is at stake and also, equally as important in these last days of our UK experience, the continued good will of the British public toward our Canadian soldiers.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT

Mr President and members of the court,

Smith, under Oath, states that there were four soldiers on the scene besides RQMS Fleming, Smith, Bell, Copan and Patterson. Mrs Ralph states that both Smith and Bell laid hands on RQMS Fleming but she saw neither one of them throw him to the ground. There were four soldiers there and it could have been any two of them. She says she knew Bell was going to do something to Fleming so she cried "Stop Bell". Pte Copan states he saw Pte Bell and RQMS Fleming struggling at which time Bell threw Fleming to the ground. This evidence by the eyewitnesses shows that there was a certain amount of confusion at the time. All three men, Fleming, Bell and Smith were fairly close together at the time and in the confusion Mrs Ralph thought that Smith's hands as well as Bell's were on the person of RQMS Fleming. However, the evidence of Pte Copan who was on the scene proves without a doubt that it was Bell and not Smith that threw RQMS Fleming to the ground. As for the third charge, that of refusing to produce his paybook, Pte Smith had just been an innocent bystander in a quarrel in which he had just seen his friend strike down a man. Smith became alarmed at what his friend had done and when the question came up as to producing paybooks Smith felt that the request was directed towards Bell and not himself, as he had not been involved in the brawl and furthermore he knew not the rank of the person doing the demanding in the dark so refused to give it up. Gentlemen of the court, there has never been a charge against this man before. Smith was just about due for repatriation, he certainly wasn't going to jeoprodise his chance for going home by becoming involved in a roadside brawl. I respectfully request that the court weigh the evidence I have placed before it and return a verdict of Not Guilty on all charges.

THE COURT IS CLOSED

THE COURT RE-OPENS

The President announced that the Court found the accused not guilty of the first, second and third charges but the finding of the court on the fourth charge cannot be communicated to the accused because it is subject to confirmation.

PLEA OF MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

The Accused has done service with our Canadian Army in Italy for 18 months with the RCRs where he was wounded. He has never before faced a charge of violence. The man was about to be returned to Canada on repatriation and at this time I ask the Court to be lenient on the strength of the above. He quit school when he was 16 and worked on a farm. His category is U4 on account of wounds.

Summary of Evidence

In the case of No. L.8854, Private Mott Wesley SMITH, CIC, No. 11 Cdn Repat Depot, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

No. A.107098 C.Q.M.S. Woolvett, A.M., 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot, having been duly sworn states:-

About 2315 hrs, 8 Nov 45, on the main highway midway between the dance hall and the Shelly Arms, Nutley, Sussex, I was walking slowly arm in arm with a civilian woman toward the Shelly Arms. No. C.122641 RQMS Fleming, D.G. of 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot, in company with Gladys Ralph, a civilian woman, was following about 50 yards behind me. I then heard Gladys Ralph running toward me calling my name "Art", as a result of what she then told me I ran back with her, and in the light of my flashlight, saw R.Q.M.S. Fleming, with his badges of rank clearly visible, standing on the highway facing No. C.120369 Pte. Bell, W.R., whom I now recognize as the dark haired accused and No. L. 8854 Pte. Smith, M.W., whom I now recognize as the brown haired accused, both of 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot. R.Q.M.S. Fleming's hat was on the ground and there was blood on his neck. His hair was mussed. In the hearing of both accused, I asked R.Q.M.S. Fleming what had happened, and still in the hearing of both accused, he replied [redacted] Bell) hit me". I then noticed that Gladys Ralph was rubbing her face and [redacted] Fleming ordered the accused Smith to produce his paybook. Smith replied in a very defiant manner "you can have it if you are big enough to take it away from me". The accused Smith did not comply with this order, though he had ample time to do so. Shortly after this, both accused walked away toward camp. R.Q.M.S. Fleming and I escorted the girls to their residence in the Shelly Arms. R.Q.M.S. Fleming and I then walked alone towards camp. As we reached the fork in the highway, the accused Bell walked out into the middle of the highway and stopped directly in front of R.Q.M.S. Fleming. The accused Smith was a few paces to one side. The accused Bell dared R.Q.M.S. Fleming to lay a charge against him. Both accused accompanied us for a short distance up the road toward camp. During this time accused Bell extended his paybook toward R.Q.M.S. Fleming, but put it back in his pocket before R.Q.M.S. Fleming had a chance to see it. The accused Bell dared R.Q.M.S. Fleming and me to go to the Guard Room then and lay a charge. Both accused walked away from us toward camp.

Bell, W.R., whom I now recognize as the dark haired accused and No. L.8854 Pte. Smith, E.W., whom I now recognize as the brown haired accused, who were walking rapidly in the same direction, overtook and bumped into Gladys Ralph and me. I said "Cope, detour boys". The accused Bell suddenly and without warning struck me on the right side of my jaw with terrific force, with his clenched fist. I staggered back from the force of the blow. I was still on my feet when the accused Smith grabbed me from the front with one hand on each of my upper arms and threw me violetnly to the ground. I told him I was an RQMS but he continued to hold me there until I could hear No. A.107098 CQMS Woolvett, A.K. and Gladys Ralph running back toward me. Immediately after I was struck by the accused Bell, I heard Gladys Ralph call out "stop Bell" and then she shouted "Art" CQMS Woolvett's name. She ran ahead toward CQMS Woolvett who was walking ahead of us and returned with him. He had a flashlight. As soon as I got on my feet, I ordered the accused Smith to give me his pay book. He then said "I dare you both to lay a charge". Both accused walked on ahead of us. I next saw them coming out of the Unit Guard House as I went in. I was wearing my badges of rank clearly visible.

FIRST WITNESS FOR DEFENCE

No. F.89842 Pte. Copan, A., 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot, having been duly sworn states:-

About 2315 hrs 8 Nov 45, on the main highway about midway between the dance hall and the Shelly Arms, Nutley, Sussex, I was walking towards camp when I caught up to No. C.120369 Pte. Bell, W.R. and No. L.8854 Pte. Smith, M.W., both of 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot, and saw No. C.122641 R.Q.M.S. Fleming, D.G. grab hold of No. C.120369 Pte. Bell, W.R. by the throat. Accused Bell grabbed R.Q.M.S. Fleming and threw him down. Accused Bell then helped R.Q.M.S. Fleming to his feet. No. A.107098 C.Q.M.S. Statement of Captain B.G. Herman, R.C.A.M.C., attached 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot, for inclusion in summary of evidence under Rule of Procedure 4(g).

No. C.122641 R.Q.M.S. Fleming, D.G., 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot, was seen by me on morning sick parade 0830 hrs, 9 Nov 45, (about nine hours after injury). Examination disclosed that he had discoloration, swelling pain, loss of continuity and mobility of the angle of his right mandible showing that he had a fracture of that bone. This injury is of a serious nature and reduction of this fracture required opening of the skin, wiring the fragments together, and wiring the jaw shut for a period of at least 4 weeks. At the end of which time he will be checked for union of the bone fragments. There is a strong probability at that time that the fractured bones may not have united and further treatment such as a bone graft may be necessary. This injury could have been caused by a hard blow.

MEDICAL CERTIFICATE

I have inspected B53700 Spr., SMITH, N., this day 25 Aug 1944 and find him fit to undergo his trial.

F.C. Macwhite Captain
M.C.A.M.C.

F.G.C.M. – B53700, Spr. Smith, N., 2 Can. Fd. Pk. Coy. 25 Aug 44

E1. The accused, Spr. Smith, N., B53700 being duly sworn states:

I am at present serving one year's hard labour at 2 Can. Fd. Pk. Camp. I escaped from custody on 26 July 44. My reason for escaping was to recover family photographs, personal ~~effects~~ belongings, etc. which were left in Bari at the time I was previously sentenced. On reaching Bari I did secure the effects mentioned and they were mailed home. I then intended to return to 2 Can. Fd. Pk. Camp within a few days but was apprehended before reaching my destination.

R.P. 83(6) complied with.

E3. The in Mitigation of Punishment by defending officer:

In examination of the conduct sheet of the accused, in spite of the fact he has been sentenced for numerous minor charges, in my opinion it fails to show actual viciousness. The accused has given under oath the reasons for the escape under which he is at present charged. I think the reasons are humane and understandable and in view of the fact that the accused is at present serving a very long sentence I respectfully plead for the utmost possible leniency on this charge.

R.P. 83(6) complied with.

Exhibit "B"

Statement by 6400075 Sgt Schilizzi G. and 7596355 Sgt Davies A.J. 418 F.S. Section.

Regarding Pte Smith, Pte Wilson (alleged Name), Pte Evans.

At about 0130 hrs on the morning of 5 Aug 44 I was onduty on a security check at a point about midway between Avellino and Monteforte on the AVELLINO-NAPLES Road. A 3 ton truck was seen to ~~xxxxxxx~~ emerge from the side road which leads from Mercogliano and joins the AVELLINO-Naples road. This truck was stopped in the usual manner and the occupants checked.

The occupants were found to be three soldiers and one Italian civilian the latter being the driver. The civilian driver could produce no WD work ticket but had a civilian identity card issued at SARI; he claimed to be a pick up passenger reliving the driver.

Beside the driver was a soldier dressed in KD shirt, slacks, Kahki Beret(with no badge), and boots. He was wearing the rank of Cpl. He produced A.B.64 pts 1. and 11. but the page in part one showing particulars was missing. A.B.64 Pt11 showed that the bearer had been paid in 1944 but the last two apparent payments were dated 1945. Pts 1 and 11 had been mutilated and seemed highly suspicious. This man's Pt 11 showed him as being 4250997 Pte Evans and he claimed to be a Cpl. and to belong to "5th Seaforths". He claimed that he had gone AWOL on the night of 3/4 Aug and been to Rome. He further calimed that he was returning to his unit anf begged to be released as he needed to be back 0730 hrs on 5 Aug.

In the back of the truck were found the remaining two soldiers as follows.

One wearing KD shirt and shorts, boots, gaetops and puttees, FS side hat(no badge). He could produce no means of identity and claimed to be S-33700 Pte Smith of R.C.E. He offered no excuses or explanations.

While the aforementioned were being questioned the third soldier escaped by leaping on a moving vehicle which was in fact slowing down to stop at the check post. Immediately the vehicle stopped this soldier leaped out of the side and made off into the fields. Cdn F.S. personnel on duty with the check point fired several shots but this failed to frighten him into surrendering himself. The Cdn FS Personnel gave chase and returned about half an hour afetr his escape, having captured him. He was then handcuffed to prevent further escape. He could produce no means of identity and claimed to be Pte Williams of R.C.A. He was limping and had slightly lacerated face as the result of falling from a wall during his capture. He waswearing KD shorts, shirt, boots, hosetops and puttees, no headdress.

The vehicle on examination was found to be a Chevrolet 3 Ton Truck with WD No. L-4137696, containing a quantity of petrol.

In view of the obvious non-bonafides of these men they were disposed of as follows:

(1) The civilian was handed over to the Questure, Avellino and a receipt obtained.

(2) The three soldiers were handed over to No 1 Cdn L of C Provost Coy and a body receipt was received, it is noted that, on handing over the soldier , who had previously ~~xxxx~~ attempted to escape gave his particulars as K-98253 Pte Wilson, E. of R.C.A.

Above report for information of No 1 Cdn L of C Provost Coy.

G. Schilizzi Sgt.

I have read over and corroborate the above statement.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

"AMR" B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 25 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

"AMR" B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans No.[5]

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B 5, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

F.G.C.M. - B 53700 Spr. Smith, N., 2 Cdn Fd Pun Camp. 25 Aug 44.

E 1 The accused, Spr Smith, N., B53700 being duly sworn states:

I am at present serving one year's hard labour at 2 Cdn Fd Pun Camp. I escaped from custody on 26 July 44. My reason for esaping was to recover family photographs, personal belongings, etc. which were left in Bari at the time I was previously sentenced. On reaching Bari, I did secure the effects mentioned and they were mailed home. I then intended to return to 2 Cdn Fd Pun Camp within a few days, but was apprehended before reaching my destination.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

E 3 Plea in Mitigation of Punishment by defending officer

In reexamination of the conduct sheet of the accused, in spite of the fact he has been sentenced for numerious minor charges, in my opinion it fails to show actual viciousness. The accused has given under oath the reasons for the escape under which he is at present charged. I think the reasons are humane and understandable and in view of the fact that the accused is at present serving a very long sentence I respectfully plead for the utmost possible leniency on this charge.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

Statement by 6400073 Sgt Schilizzi G. and 7896355 Sgt Davies A.
418 F.S. Section

Regarding Pte Smith, Pte Wilson (alleged Name), Pte Evans.

At about 0130 hrs on the morning of 5 Aug 44 I was on duty on a security check at a point about midway between Avellino and Monteforte on the AVELLINO-NAPLES Road. A 3 ton truck was seen to emerge from the side road which leads from Mercogliano and joins the AVELLINO-NAPLES road. This truck was stopped in the usual manner and the occupants checked.

The occupants were found to be three soldiers and one Italian civilian the latter being the driver. The civilian driver could produce no WD work ticket but had a civilian identity card issued at BARI; he claimed to be apick up passenger releiving the driver.

Beside the driver was a soldier dressed in KD shirt, slacks, Kahki Beret(with no badge), and boots. He was wearing the rank of Cpl. He produced A.B. 64 pts I and II. but the page in part one showing particulars was missing. A.B. 64 Pt II showed that the bearer had been paid in 1944 but the last two apparent payments were dated 1943. Pts I and II had been mutilated and seemed highly suspicious. This man's Pt II showed him as being 4230997 Pte Evans and he claimed to be a Cpl. and to belong to "5th Seaforths". He claimed that he had gone AWOL on the night of 3/4 Aug and been to Rome. He further claimed that he was returning to his unit and begged to be released as he needed to be back 0730 hrs on 5 Aug.

In the back of the truck were found the remaining two soldiers as follows.

One wearing KD shirt and shorts, boots, hosetops and puttees, FS side hat(no badge). He could produce no means of identity and claimed to be B-53700 Pte Smith of R.C.E. He offered no excuses or explanations.

While the aforementioned were being questioned the third soldier escaped by leaping on a moving vehicle which was in fact slowing down to stop at the check post. Immediately the vehicle stopped this soldier leaped out of the side and made off into the fields. Cdn F.S. personnel on duty with the check point fired several shots but this failed to frighten him into surrendering himself. The Cdn FS personnel gave chase and returned about half an hour after his escape, having captured him. He was then handcuffed to prevent further escape. He could produce no means of identity and claimed to be Pte Williams of R.C.A. He was limping and had slightly lacerated face as the result of falling from a wall during his capture. He was wearing KD shorts, shirt, boots, hosetops and puttees, no headdress.

The vehicle on examination was found to be a Chevrolet 3 Ton Truck with WD No. L-4137896, containing a quantity of petrol.

In view of the obvious non-bonafides of these men they were disposed of as follows:

(1) The civilian was handed over to the Questure, Avellino and a receipt obtained.

(2) The three soldiers were handed over to No 1 Cdn L of C Provost Coy and a body receipt was received, it is noted that, on handing over the soldier, who had previously attempted to escape gave his particulars as K-98253 Pte Wilson, E. of R.C.A.

Above report for information of No 1 Cdn L of C Provost Coy.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

The accused enlisted at 18 years of age, in the Canadian Army (Active) at Hamilton, Ontario, on Dec. 29th, 1941 with the R.C.O.C. After basic training at Brantford, the accused was posted to the R.C.E. and did further training at Petawawa Ontario.

He came overseas in June, 1942 - having volunteered to implement a draft. After over a year of service with the R.CE. in England, he again volunteered to proceed on draft to North Africa - landing there in October, 1943.

On arriving in Africa, the accused was taken to the Hospital with fever and was treated and in convalescence for two months. He was between M.O's interviews and hospital due to a leg ailment, for some time. Having little hope of joining his comrades in the First Field Coy of the 1st Divisional Engineers for some time to come, if [redacted], with enthusiasm and eagerness, he decided to make his own way to his unit. He obtained a job on a merchant ship and landed in Bari, Italy.

Having received excellent treatment and friendly hospitality there, the accused delayed and tarried on until his apprehension early in June, 1944.

Since his apprehension, he has been most honest and frank with the Army authorities, has assisted them in little ways in checking on his case-history and has not withheld.

He realizes that there has been a good deal of administration muddling in his case, that the charge is incorrectly framed as to the time and place of absenting himself and that the documentary evidence does not provide a logical explanation of his absence. Nevertheless, he has made up his mind to plead guilty and "take his medicine.". He is also ready and willing to do whatever is required of him after he has served his sentence.

The accused is not an intentional criminal or mischievous absentee. He is a clear-minded, forthright soldier who can and will be of use to the Army. His conduct-sheet discloses only minor offences which were lightly dealt with by his superior officers. I would respectfully request the court not be impressed by the number of petty offences - but rather delve into their nature.

In the Case of B 53700 Sapper SMITH, N.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

The accused, at 18 years of age, enlisted in the Canadian Army (Active) at Hamilton, Ontario, on Dec. 29th, 1941 - with the R.C.O.C. After basic training at Brantford, the accused was posted to the R.C.E. and did further training at Petawawa, Ontario.

He came overseas in June, 1942 - having volunteered to implement a draft. After over a year of service with the R.C.E. in England, he again volunteered to proceed on draft to North Africa - landing there in October, 1943.

On arriving in Africa, the accused was taken to the Hospital with fever and was treated and in convalescence for two months. He was between M.O's interviews and hospitals, due to a leg ailment, for some time. Having little hope of joining his comrades in the First Field Coy of the 1st Divisional Engineers for some time to come, if at all - in his youthful enthusiasm and eagerness, he decided to make his own way to his unit. He obtained a job on a merchant ship and landed in Bari, Italy, [redacted]

Having received excellent treatment and friendly hospitality there,

The accused delayed and tarried on until his apprehension early in June, 1944.

Since his apprehension, he has been most honest and frank with the Army authorities, has assisted them in little ways in checking on his case-history and has not withheld.

He realizes that there has been a good deal of administrative muddling in his case, that the charge is incorrectly framed as to the times and place of absenting himself and that the documentary evidence does not provide a logical explanation of his absence. Nevertheless, he has made up his mind to plead guilty and "take his medicine" He is also ready and willing to do whatever is required of him after he has served his sentence.

The accused is not an intentional criminal or mischievous absentee. He is a clear-minded, forthright soldier who can and will be of use to the Army. His conduct sheet discloses only minor offences which were lightly dealt with by his superior officers. I would respectfully request the Court not be impressed by the number of petty offenses - but rather delve into their nature.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this TWLEPTH day of OCTOBER, 19 42

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 2nd Canadian Division Canadian Army Overseas, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to superior qualified officers]

*Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

*Omit if not applicable.

*[I am unable to appoint—

*(1. Three Officers to form the Court.)

*(2. A Field Officer as President) for the following reasons, namely:—]

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, difficulties of communication, and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to comply with those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the soldier named in the annexed schedule.

1st Wit Pros — B83193 Cpl Somers, C.R., 2 Cdn Dis Pet Coy (5 Coy) RCASC duly sworn, states:-

On 1 Oct @ 1330 hrs 2 was put in sports parade - at 1430 hrs Pte Smith, the accused, came along & criticized & interfered with the players - 2 ordered him to keep quiet - he said he intended to have a game of horseshoes - 2 told him to return to guard room because he was still on duty - he said "Interfere with me, Somers, & I'll blacken both your bloody eyes" 2 told him he wasn't bluffing me & with that he struck 2 a blow on the right shoulder with his fist - it came so fast that 2 imagine it was his right - 2 placed him under close arrest & ordered him escorted to guard room. 2 enquired from Cpl of guard in presence of accused if accused had permission to play horseshoes & he told me the only permission accused had was to go to the latrine - latrine is in opposite direction from guard room than horseshoe ground

Cross-exam

2 had a stick in each hand & he was standing slightly to my right.

Accused in my section for few months - no fooling or kidding on parade in section - after parade is different matter - consider sports afternoon is a parade - after parade 2 have taken part in horse play & have wrestled & sparred with accused as well as other members of section - accused's place was in the guard room & my job is to see that orders given on parade must be obeyed – Smith a good soldier & good driver but has rotten temper – Hooking & kidding is permitted on sports parade but accused was on another duty – Kibitzing is certainly allowed while sports are on but there isn't great deal among the players, they want to get the game over, – ~~no~~ no spectators this day & only ~~3~~ times things were said were sober – shoes rolled away.

2 have been accused Cpl long enough to know that when he gets an order it must be obeyed.

Whole thing happened in seconds because 2 hadn't even had chance to throw shoes.

No re-exam.

Was playing horseshoes on afternoon of 1 Oct 42 Cpl Somers was there & Smith came down from guard room & said he was going to play horseshoes & Cpl told him to return to guard room. 2 had my back to them

Cross-exam

They were talking back & forth – went on for about a minute or so – would have had time to say 4 or 5 sentences.

Smith said he had permission to come down – heard Cpl tell him to go back to guard room.

2 had my back to them picking up horseshoes. No horseplay between Cpl & Smith on parade but they does in the room.

Thought at first were fooling but didn't later.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the abstract of evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST CHARGE A.A.Sec. 8(1) WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE, STRIKING HIS SUPERIOR OFFICER BEING IN THE EXECUTION OF HIS OFFICE

in that he

in the field at 1420 hours on 1 Oct 42, struck B83193, Cpl Somers, C.R., 2 Cdn Div Pet Coy (5 Coy), RCASC in the shoulder

SECOND CHARGE A.A.Sec. 8(2) WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE, USING THREATENING LANGUAGE TO HIS SUPERIOR OFFICER

in that he

in the field, at 1420 hours on 1 Oct 42, said to B83193, Cpl Somers, C.R., his superior officer, "Interfere with me and I'll blacken both your bloody eyes."

FIRST WITNESS B83193 Cpl. Somers, C.R. 2 Cdn Div Pet Coy (5 Coy) R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn states:

"On October 1st at 1330 hours orders were given that there would be a sports afternoon. At 1420 hours Pte. Smith, who finished his tour of guard duty at 1400 hours, but was still on duty as part of the guard, came from the guard room down to the horseshoe pitch and criticized the play of the players. I ordered him to keep quiet and return to the guard room as I was in charge of the personnel on sports. He said he had permission to come down and intended to have a game of horseshoes. I told him he was on duty and would not be allowed to play. "Interfere with me, he said, and I'll blacken both your bloody eyes". I replied, "You're not bluffing me Smith", and with that he struck me on the left shoulder. I placed Pte. Smith under arrest and had two men escort him to the guard room".

The accused declines to cross examine witness.

SECOND WITNESS B83263 L/Cpl Hatton, F.C., 2 Cdn Div Pet Coy (5 Coy) R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn states:

"On October 1st at about 1430 hours I was playing horseshoes with some other men of the Company. I heard Cpl. Somers say to Pte. Smith, "Return to the Guard Room". I also heard them arguing but did not hear what was said, and then I heard Cpl. Somers tell Pte. Smith that he was under arrest. Two men then marched Pte. Smith to the Guard Room".

Cross-examined by the witness.

Q. Did you think at the time this happened whether we were serious or fun (return to the guard room)?

A. I think Cpl. Somers was serious and meant what he said.

THIRD WITNESS D.91088 Pte. Perron, N.P., 2 Cdn Div Pet Coy (5 Coy) R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn states:

"On October 1st at approximately 1430 hours I was playing horseshoes with some other soldiers. I heard Cpl. Somers say to Pte. Smith that Pte. Smith was not to play horseshoes. Pte. Smith said he was going to play as he was off duty. I then noticed that Pte. Smith struck at Cpl. Somers. I did not notice the blow land, but I noticed the movement".

The accused declines to cross-examine witness.

FOURTH WITNESS D.91106 Pte. Sweet, V., 2 Cdn Div Pet Coy (5 Coy) R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn states:

"On October 1st at approximately 1415 hours I was playing horseshoes with some other soldiers. I heard Pte. Smith say that he would like to have a game of horseshoes. The next thing I knew Cpl. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of A-3691 Pte. Smith, N.L. (The Royal Canadian Regiment) No. 1 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on Oath.

1st Witness B-15259 Cpl. Terry, W.R., (The Royal Canadian Regiment), having been duly sworn, states:

On the evening of the 15th of October, 1941, Pte. Smith and myself spent some time in the Royal Arms public house in Haslemere. At about 2220 hrs. we went to the station to look at the time-table, and as we had to wait some time before we could get a train, we went to a dance down the street. At about 2245 hrs. we went back to the station to catch a train, and I was told that the accused had been placed in arrest. I went outside and asked two members of the Canadian Provost Corps what the trouble was. They placed me in arrest and escorted both the accused and I to No. 1 Road Construction Coy., R.C.E., where we were stationed.

I had not seen the military police before this. I did not see any fight. I was with Smith at all times and think I would have noticed if he had not had his respirator.

(The accused W.R. Terry Cpl.....Cpl.

(The accused declines to cross-examine this witness)

2nd Witness L/Cpl. Jalbert, K. No. D-81459 (Canadian Provost Corps), having been duly sworn, states:

On the 15th October, 1941, around 2215 hrs. while on duty in the company of Cpl. Matteson, I left my W.D. Vehicle to assist in stopping a fight and upon returning we found two Cdn. soldiers standing near the truck. One of them was the a/m soldier and he was carrying no respirator with him at the time and upon questionning him he claimed he had left it in a Pub. House and was just then going for it. Upon looking into the truck I found my respirator was missing. Around 2240 hrs. in the R.R. Station we saw the a/m soldier enter carrying a respirator with him. I asked him to let me check it and upon doing so I found the identification disc with #D81459 Jalbert, K. on it. Upon questioning he claimed that he had got it in the dance-hall. I placed him under close arrest and he was escorted back to his respective guard room.

K. Jalbert L/Cpl.

(The accused cross-examines this witness)

Q. Can you identify me?

A. Yes, positively.

Q. Can you identify the man who was with me?

A. Yes, Terry. I got the names from your pay-books.

Q. Did you take names when you first spoke to us?

A. No, we were interested in the fight and you said you were going into the Pub. to get your respirator.

Q. When did you check us?

A. On returning from fight.

3rd Witness M-36622 Cpl. Matteson, C.K., (Canadian Provost Corps) having been duly sworn, states:

I had been called by civil police to investigate a fight in Haselmere at the bus station. I parked the truck in the square at the bus station. I investigated the fight, and on returning to the truck, Jalbert saw two soldiers standing by the truck. One soldier had no respirator. Jalbert checked and Smith said he had left his in a pub. We told him to go and get it. I turned and came in conversation with the civilian police. Smith was then standing at the drivers door. After talking to the Civil police for five minutes, I returned to the truck and Jalbert, who had been with me, informed me that his respirator was missing. The respirator had been hanging on the rifle clip in the front seat. Smith and Terry had gone. There had been a 1500-wte. truck there and we took after it and they didn't have the respirator. We returned to the R.R. Station, and saw the two soldiers again. L/Cpl. Jalbert checked Smith for the respirator, and found that it was his. Smith said he had gotten it in a dance-hall. I placed him under arrest and returned him to his guard room.

.....C.K. Matteson.....Cpl.

(The accused cross-examines this witness)

Q. Where were you standing when talking to the Civil Police?

A. To the right and 10 to 15 feet in front of the truck.

Q. I was also on the right-hand side?

A. Yes.

Q. What time was this?

A. 2215 hrs.

Q. It was dark. Did you use a flash to recognize my face?

A. No.

Q. How did you recognize me in the R.R. Station?

A. Jalbert said he did.

Q. Can you positively identify me as the man Jalbert was talking to at 2215 hrs?

A. No, I can't.

Q. Did you speak to me at 2215 hrs?

A. No.

Q. Did you have anythigh at all to do with me before 2240 hrs.?

A. No, actually not.

Q. Actually the first time you saw me that you can swear to is 2240 hrs.

A. Yes.

The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with Rule of Procedure 4 (e), elects to make a statement.

The accused, No. A-3691 Pte. Smith, N.L. (The Royal Canadian Regiment), having been duly sworn, states:

Cpl Derry and I were together all evening. I had mt own respirator when I left camp. About 2205 hrs. we left the Pub. and went to the R.R. Station. At 2220 hrs. we went to a dance down the street. Then we went back to the R.R. Station, arriving there at about 2245 hrs. The military police then stopped me and we found out that it was his. He placed me in arrest and took me to the R.C.E. guard room.

I had my respirator down beside a chair in the Pub. I picked up the respirator at 2205 hrs. thinking that it was my own. I had this respirator from then on, but later found out that it was not mine.

I did not see any military police, or have anything to do with them until we arrived at the Station at 2245 hrs.

W. L. Smith.....

Certified that Rule of Procedure 4 (c), (d), (e) and (f) has been complied with.

Taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused this 21st day of October, 1941.

Pte Smith, N.W. DLR

Reasons behind Smith shooting himself in the foot:-

Had been suffering from pain in his chest since before he left Canada. They became so painful that he was frightened of T.B. (as he said in his sworn statement at Summary of Evidence). He had been going on sick parade, but the only treatment he had received was aspirin tablets.

On the morning he shot himself he was late for sick parade - in desperation he put a bullet into his foot, knowing that this would put him into the hospital. Once there he hoped he would get the treatment he thought he needed. There was no intent to maim himself if there was he could have shot himself in the ankle or heel.

The fact that he took such a desperate step to get to hospital suggests that he was mentally deranged at the time of his act. He had only been O.S. 4 weeks, a normal person would have foreseen the result of his act. Even though he [redacted] (while in hospital with the injured foot) get treatment for his chest no sensible man could have imagined he'd get away with the act.

I submit that this man should be psycho-analyzed.

And that the foregoing should be taken into account in rendering sentence.

J.C. MacNeil, Lieut.
Defending Officer.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of F95911 Private Napean Wilson SMITH, West Nova Scotia Regiment, on the strength of 7 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken under oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution

F41661 L/Cpl. Bent, B.H., West Nova Scotia Regiment, 7 Cdn. Inf. Reinf. Unit, having been duly sworn, states:

I am F41661 L/Cpl. Bent, B.H., West Noval Scotia Regiment, 7 Cdn. Inf. Reinf. Unit. On the 18 Jan 43, I was Cpl. in charge of the W.N.S.R. lines at 1 C.D.I.R.U., Witley. I was making my daily rounds as usual between 0800 hours and 0830 hrs. I went into C1 hut to check on the cleanliness of same, and saw Pte. Smith, whom I now recognise, who had apparently come back from sick parade, talking to the hut orderly, Pte. Shaffner. Pte. Smith said to Pte. Shaffner, something like this, "I am not going on parade." I then went out of the hut and went to the wash room which is almost opposite C1 hut. I checked the wash room; on my way out Pte. Smith came out of C1 hut and went into the toilet carrying his rifle. I followed him in order to inspect the toilets. Smith went into one of the stalls. I left the toilets and started for C6 hut to inspect it. I just got abreast of the toilet doorway which is across from C6 hut when I noticed Pte. Smith standing approximately 10 feet from C1 doorway. He was standing easy with the muzzle of the rifle resting on his foot. I started towards C6 hut when suddenly I heard the rifle explode. I looked in the direction of Pte. Smith and saw him lying on the ground. I immediately went to him and saw that he had been shot in the foot. I looked at it for a second or two. The company was on the parade square when I reported the occurrence to the C.S.M. He came onto the scene and Sgt. Rhodenizer and I took Smith's boot off and put a field dressing on it. A few minutes later a stretcher arrived and Pte. Smith was carried away.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution

F41582 Pte. Shaffner, R., West Nova Scotia Regiment, 7 Cdn. Inf. Reinf. Unit, having beenduly sworn, states:

I am F41582 Pte.Shaffner, R., West Nova Scotia Regiment, 7 Cdn. Inf. Reinf. Unit. On 18 Jan 43 I was hut orderly of No. C1 hut, W.N.S.R. lines at No. 1 C.D.I.R.U. On this particular morning Pte. Smith said he was going on sick parade. He was a long time getting ready for this parade and I told him if he did not hurry he would be late. A few minutes later I started for the Orderly Room. I saw the sick parade had fallen and was ready to leave. I came back to the hut and told Smith to hurry, and then he went up to the Orderly Room, but he was too late. I then askedhim what he was going to do. He replied, "I don't know but I am not going on parade today." He then put his sling on his rifle and went out of the hut carrying it. The next thing I knew was a very short time later hearing a rifle shot.. I rushed to the door and saw Smith laying on the ground with his rifle beside him. Sgt. Rhodenizer and L/Cpl Bent took his boot off and bandaged his foot and then carried him into the hut. Later a stretcher was brought and he was carried away.

THIRD WITNESS for the Prosecution

F43555 C.S.M. Nauss, E.E., West Nova Scotia Regiment, 7 Cdn. Inf. Reinf.Unit, having been duly sworn, states:

I am F43555 C.S.M. Nauss, E.E., West Nova Scotia Regiment, 7 Cdn Inf. Reinf. Unit. On 18 Jan 43, at approximately 0815 hours while on the company parade at Algonquin Camp, I heard a shot in the vicinity of our huts. I went around to investigate. I found Pte Smith, N.W. laying in front of C1 hut with a rifle along side of him. Upon examining Pte. Smith, I saw he had been shot through the foot. I then called Sgt. Rhodenizer off parade and turned the matter over to him to look after. I went back on the company parade again.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Statement of Defence.

The accused, O. M. Smith, has pleaded guilty to both charges and having interrogated him find that his chief reason for going A.W.L. was that he became disconsolate on returning to # 3 C.I.R.U. from his visit. He returned from his visit on 3rd Aug 1943 and on 8th Aug 43 he received a parcel of civilian clothing from Canada. Being single and having a lady friend in London, he visited her on week-end of Aug 7-43 and was swayed by her to absent himself without leave.

I therefore put him to the mercy of the court and plead for mitigation of sentence.

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses:-

FIRST WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION. D. 10267, C.S.M. Murdock, D., 4th Fd. Coy., R.C.E., being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q- C.S.M. Murdock will you state what took place Sat. 29 Mar 41.

A- On the day and date mentioned the accused appeared on pay parade he approached me while I was speaking to the Orderly Officer. He said something about wanting to get paid for proceeding on his Priviledge Leave the following Monday. His breath smelt strongly of liquor and it was apparent he was semi-intoxicated. I told him to get in line and keep quiet and generally behave himself. He did get in line and I approached him and told him to button his tunic up and appear on pay parade properly dressed. He answered me in an aggressive manner. I don't remember his exact words. I was patient and just overlooked it. When he came up to the Pay. Sgt. he said he wanted so much money and [illegible] me that I won't go on leave. He was agressive to the Pay Sgt., He got toe the Pay Master Capt. Smith, failed to salute his superior Officer, the Paymaster. I called him back and told him to salute the Paymaster. He then went out of the room in which we were being paid. He came back and wanted to know why I was always picking on him, I told him to get out of the room and behave or I'd put him in the Guard Room. He answered:" What the hell do I care. Stick me in the Guard Room." which I did at once. The Cpl. of the Guard on that day didn't seem quite familiar with his duties and brought the accused to the Orderly Room to see me at about 1700 hours. He asked me how long I was going to keep him under arrest in the Guard Room. I did not answer him and told the picquet to take him back to the Guard Room at once as he had no business to bebrought over to the Orderly Room. He thereupon started to address me with abusive language. He called me a Bastard, Cocksucker. "I'll get you for this you son of a bitch, I'll fix you." By that time the picquet got him out of the Orderly Room and back to the Guard Room.

Q- Ca n you state the degree of his intoxication ?

A- I would say he had control of all his faculties.

Q- How idd you know he was intoxicated ?

A- By his breath Sir.

Q- What was the condition of his speech.

A- His speach was quite garbled but he seemed to know what he was doing when he came to the Paymaster with regard to the amount of money he wanted.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q- Does the accused normally salute his superiors when he meets them ?

A- Yes Sir, as far as I know.

Q- Is it not your responsibility to see the men who are to be on parade are fit in condition.

A- Yes. The reason I allowed him on parade that afternoon was because it was Saturday afternoon, everyone off duty, except for pay parade.

Q- Have you any medical knowledge allowing you to establish the fact the accused had control of his faculties.?

A- None other than my own judgement.

Question by the Court.

A- What do you mean by semi-drunk ?

A- It was quite apparent the ma n had a couple of drinks.

Q- Did the accused stagger out of line ?

A- No.

SECOND WITNESS. D. 16030, Cpl. Anderson, J.S., 4th Fd. Coy., R.C.E., being FOR PROSECUTION. duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q- Cpl. Anderson what were your duties on 29 Mar 41.

A- Orderly N.C.O.

Q- State what took place in regard to the accused ?

A- I was attending pay Parade when Sprp Smith broke ranks and came to get paid out of turn. When he got paid he did not salute the Paymaster. Then he went out came back in again and asked the C.S.M. if he could talk to him. The C.S.M. said he could. Then Spr. Smith walked over ot the corner of the room, and called over the C.S.M. The Sgt. Major turned around and asked him why he couldn't talk to him where he was. He came back again to the C.S.M. spoke to him and the C.S.M. called to me to put him under arrest. He came over to the Orderly Room under escort wanting to know why he was in the Guard Room. The C.S.M. ordered him back to the Guard Room and he was leaving he said to C.S.M. Murdock" I'll get you for this. I 'll fix you, you son of a bithc."

Q- How drunk was he ?

A- He wasn't staggering but more or less under the influence of liquor.

Q- Tell the court what took place Saturday 29 Mar 41 in relation to this case.

A- On Saturday afternoon 29 Mar 41 between 1600 and 1700 hours I was in the Company Orderly Room waiting for a late pass. While I was there Spr. Smith was brought in under escort. He asked the C.S.M. how long he was to be in the Guard Room. The C.S.M. asked the escort who had given permission to take him out of the Guard Room. He stated the Cpl. of the Guard. He then ordered him to be escorted back to the Guard Room under escort and Cpl. Anderson escorted him back. Then the accused told the C.S.M. to "Fuck yourself" and as he was going out he said" I'll get you for this you son of a bitho, I'll fix you."

Q- State what took place on Saturday 29 Mar 41 with regard to the accused.

A- I was orderly Runner for the day, and was in the Coy. Orderly Room. The accused came in under escort. He asked some questions which I didn't hear, then started swearing. When one word led to another and when he was going out said:" I'll get you for this" you could smell he had had a drink, but as far as judging any man drunk I'm not in a position to do that."

Closing address by the Prosecutor.

The Prosecutor points out that the state of intoxication of the man was not so much as to prevent him knowing wekll enough what he was doing, and draws the attention of the Court to Page 25 and 106 of M.M.L.

Defence makes the following Closing Address.

The prosecution has endeavoured to establish that the accused was not drunk to a point that it would affect his subsequent actions.
M.M.L. Chap. III sec. 45 states that: There cannot be any distinction between various degrees of drunkness.
The accused was charged with drunkness and has pleaded guilty to drunkness. He was drunk. The evidence of facts proves it clearly.
M.M.L. Chap. III Sec. 45 states: If a superior Officer knowing a man to be drunk out of good nature allows him to proceed with the duty (pay Parade) the man should not be treated as having been drunk on duty.

The accused [redacted] fore be found guilty for any offences that were caused by drunkness, further even this Offence cannot be considered because of the superior Officer neglecting to carry out his duty in letting this man go on parade knowing that he was drunk.

The man has been with the unit since November 37 and has only two charges. He has been under arrest 11 days pending the C.M. The evidence given by Sgt Bradley as to his character shows he is of good character. I should like to ask the Court to bear in mind these facts if a sentence is passed.

Summary of Evidence in the case of
No. D 711021 Spr. Smith, P.

Evidence taken under oath by order of the Commanding Officer.

First Witness: No. D 16267 C.S.M. Murdock, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

"Spr. Smith P. appeared on pay parade on Saturday 29 Mar 41 in an intoxicated condition. I spoke to him about it and he answered me in an aggressive manner. In view of his condition I ignored his reply and told him to behave himself or I would not allow him to be paid. He persisted in giving his aggressive answers such as "What the hell do I care if you put me in the guard room - You can't put me in the guard room." When he reached the pay sergeant to have the entry made in his pay book he addressed the pay sergeant in a very belligerent manner. He reached the paymaster, Capt Smith, to receive his pay and failed to stand properly at attention. On being paid he did not salute the paymaster and I recalled him to do so. He went out of the room and came back five minutes later and used insubordinate and abusive language in speaking to me. I placed him under close arrest. Spr. Smith came with a request to Coy. Orderly Room at 1500 hours Saturday 29 Mar 41 to see me. I ordered the prisoner to take him back to the guard room whereupon the accused became aggressive again and called me a "bastard" "son of a bitch" and said "I'll get you for this you son of a bitch I'll fix you". I told him to keep quiet as he was only making things worse for himself. He paid no attention to me and continued addressing me in such similar terms."

D. Murdock S & M.

The accused cross-examines this witness as follows:

Q: Why did you not put me under arrest when I asked you if I would get paid right away, or wait till Monday as I was going on leave

A: I first told the accused that he had no business appearing on parade in his condition but if he behaved himself he would be paid.

Q: Why did you not let me know what the charge was?

A: I informed the corporal of the guard and the accused that I had 24 hours to the hours to place the charge according to K.R.R.O. I gave the corporal of the guard a charge within half an hour of the arrest.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness further.

Second Witness: D16080 Cpl Anderson. J.S having been duly sworn, states as follows:

"On Saturday 29 March 41 I was Orderly N.C.O. I attended Pay parade. Spr. Smith was disorderly on pay parade talking back to the C.S.M. I noticed that Spr. Smith had been drinking. He came in the doorway before his turn. He seemed to be talking all right. The C.S.M. ordered me to place Spr Smith under arrest after he had come back after having been paid. He had not saluted the paymaster and after he was placed under arrest I noticed the smell of liquor on his breath. About 1610 hours I was in the Coy Orderly Room when a prisoner brought Spr Smith to see C.S.M. Murdock. He started to argue with the C.S.M. about being under close arrest. He was speaking in a loud tone of voice. I recall that he said "I'll get you for this. I'll fix you. You took a hitch". He was then taken back to the guard room."

J. S. Anderson

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Third Witness: D16248 Spr. Parrett H.A. having been duly sworn states as follows:

"On Saturday 29 Mar 41 I was Orderly runner. I was in the Company Orderly room with C.S.M. Murdock, Cpl Anderson and Cpl Bartropp about 1600 hours Spr Smith came into the Orderly room under arrest I knew that he had been drinking by the smell on his breath. He was talking quite a lot. Spr. Smith asked the C.S.M. to see an Officer and the C.S.M. said that he could not. Spr Smith then began to swear at the C.S.M. and said "I'll get you for this". He was then taken out by the escort.

H.A. Parrett

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Fourth Witness: D16147 Cpl Bartropp. R.F.G. having been duly sworn states as follows:

"On Saturday 29 Mar 41 I was in the Company Orderly Room about 1600 hours to collect a pass. C.S.M. Murdock, Cpl Anderson and Spr. Parrett were also in the Orderly Room. An escort brought Spr Smith into the Orderly Room and he asked the C.S.M. how long he was to be kept in the guardroom. The C.S.M. ordered him returned to the guardroom. Spr. Smith then started using obscene and profane language. He said to the C.S.M. "I'll get you. I'll get you for this you bow [illegible] you.

hitch. I'll fix you." He was removed by the escort"

The accused declines to make any statement in this matter. The accused is then warned in accordance with the provisions of R.P. 4(E) and declines to make a statement or give evidence.
