I enlisted at Aldershot H.S. on the 20 March 1940 and in the time that elapsed ~~since~~ between then & H.M.S. Kipling I had two cases of absence without leave against me. And in Feb 1941 my own wife put me in to the hospital for three months which put me in debt to the tune of £109 odd and investigation resulted in her allowance being taken away from her and being put in care of the Parish Rest. She had two children at this time. Before sailing for overseas I made arrangements for one of my children to go to Hospital for an Eye operation my wife disregarded these arrangements, ~~and~~ Recently I have had letters from my mother in Canada stating ~~that~~ that my children had been taken away from my wife and put them in the Orphanage for neglect and false

DD,

I have had a letter from my wife stating she is in court for being married again since I came overseas. Like all that again st me I was depressed and went off. I have not drawn a pay since I came to HMS Kyles - at least I have drawn five ten shilling notes since ~~Nov~~ February 1941. This was because I was paying the debt in which my wife had involved me. I am 22 years old and have been married since September 1937. One of my children will 4 years two months and the other is three years old. I have an assignment of £2 a month which goes to Falkirk South at present. I have received pay as between since I came over here. I was at Aldershot during my absence and was staying with a married couple there. I was painting their house inside & the white I was there & they gave me my keep in exchange

(having been duly sworn) states:-

At In the Field (Place) On 2 Jan 42 (date) on which offence occurred (here follows the evidence of the witness)

I am Lieut. V.K. Harshaw, O.C. 9th Cdn Inf Bde Def Pl acting Camp Commandant, H.Q. 9th Cdn Inf Bde.

On the 2 Jan 42, Father D.A. Kerr reported to me that his batman, Pte. Smith, E.J., had not returned from being on pass. Said pass expired at 2359 hrs, 1 Jan 42, which pass I here produce as exhibit "B".

I myself made a search and Pte. Smith E.J. was not in his quarters. I have not seen Pte. Smith, E.J. at any of the places of parade where he should have been since then. I produce now the evidence as given by Sgt Sharpe, West Sussex Constabulary, to show that Pte. Smith, E.J. surrendered to the civil police at MIDHURST at 1625 hrs 11 Mar 42, as received by me as Camp Commandant, H.Q. 9th Cdn Inf Bde, shown as exhibit "C"

I have also ascertained that Pte. Smith E.J. hasnot attended a pay parade since Dec 22, 41 and produce a signed and sworn statement to that effect as exhibit "D".

I, F-50060 Cpl.I. Bell, Orderly Room Clerk, was present on the morning of the 23 Mar 42 at 1055 hrs to take down evidence in the office of the Staff Captain 9 Cdn Inf Bde, when I heard him caution F-40280 Pte. E.J. Smith with the words "you may make a statement if you so wish but if you make a statement it may be used as evidence against you".

I took down the statement in shorthand as given by Pte. E.J. Smith and from my notes I copied it out. Capt. Parker then pointed out to Pte. E.J. Smith that he did not have to sign it as any statement made would be entirely voluntarily on his part. Pte. Smith then signed the statement, writing in his own hand writing, "I am signing this voluntarily". I witnessed the signature and I produce his statement now, Exhibit "A".

F40280 PTE. SMITH, E.J.

Soldier under sentence. Case History of Domestic Difficulty.

The m/n soldier, a married man, with two children, boys, 4 yrs. and 3 yrs. of age. Married life until June 1940, was very happy.

The m/n soldier enlisted, for the second time, in March 1940, and in June 1940 was transferred from Amherst to Aldershot, N.S. After his transfer to Aldershot soldier was advised by Parish Priest that he should come home, and check his wife's conduct. Home on leave, and as a result contracted V.D. Before being sent to Hospital, went home (AWL) and as a result of interviews with pharmacist and doctor, was told that his wife was infected. On the m/n soldier's admission to Hospital, the Military Medical Authorities reported the wife who was compelled to undergo medical treatment.

In Feb. 41 the m/n soldier's assigned pay and allowances were paid to Parish Priest, who administered them for the wife and children. After the m/n soldier's arrival Overseas in June 1941, he was advised by the Parish Priest, and his Mother, that the children were neglected. The R.C.M.P. and Children's Aid Society made investigations, on their own initiative, which resulted in reports to the D.A.B. in consequence of which the children were placed in care of the Children's Aid Society, and all pay and allowances were stopped to the soldier's wife. The assigned pay and dependents allowances are now paid to the Children's Aid Society.

A letter from the m/n soldier's mother dated Mar. 43 advised him that the younger of the children had been adopted out. No word of any such action was ever given to the soldier. He is unaware of the child's location. The soldier is in decided disagreement with this action, and very upset. His last A.W.L. offence, was attempt to get back to Canada to attend to this matter.

The m/n soldier's wife has been a continual source of worry and annoyance to soldier by her letters in which she boasts of her present conduct and abuses the soldier.

A child was born to the m/n soldier's wife on or about Sept. 5, 1942, which child was illegitimate.

The m/n soldier is Roman Catholic. He has attempted to get his difficulties settled through Catholic Padres. The attempts have been futile. The m/n soldier wants to begin divorce proceedings--which is contrary to laws of the Catholic Church.

The m/n soldier has asked that I give these matters my consideration in an effort to effect settlement. The m/n soldier was paraded to the Roman Catholic Chaplain where he stated his difficulty, and his decision to attempt divorce proceedings, and that he had sought the assistance of a Protestant Chaplain.

As far as pay records are available and complete, the m/n soldier's story has been checked and verified.

The m/n soldier's Conduct Sheet has a large number of A.W.L. offences. The decision to go A.W.L. has undoubtedly been influenced by the difficult domestic situation.

If the m/n soldier is given some assurance that his unsatisfactory domestic situation is in the process of settlement, my impression is that he is quite capable of giving useful service to his country as a soldier.

Respectfully submitted,

H/Capt.

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTION

The facts are quite straight-forward in this case and I do not believe it is necessary to review them now. Practically all of the facts can be obtained from the first witness for the prosecution, and I believe that will suffice. There is one word to be said regarding witness Capt BOURGET who is the sixth witness in the Summary This witness is not available now and his evidence is pretty will covered for the case of the prosecution by other witnesses. Unless the defence wishes I do not intend to call him nor can I locate him. I believe he is out of the country. Before we commence the trial this afternoon, I would like the defence to indicate whether he wishes ~~xx~~ this witness for cross-examination.

REPLY BY THE DEFENCE

No, I do not need the witness for the purposes of cross-examination.

Question by The DC to the PO

I believe there is one witness, Cfn ROBINSON, still not available.

A.200 Not that I know of sir I wouldn't hear it.

Questioned by the President

Q.217 How long after hearing the sound of the blow to the time you saw the body lying on the ground?

A.217 About a minute and half.

Q.218 On re-examination you state that SMITH said "get the other two men", or words to that effect. Did you see or hear any signs of these two?

A.218 Between the drink and fall I had I do not think I would have noticed them.

A.219 Yes sir.

Q.220 That is a long time isn't it?

A.220 I did not have a watch and just took a rough guess.

A.221 I suppose it would be less than half the time.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b).

Q.222 Are you CSM GIBBS of the SIS, Ghent?

A.222 Yes.

Q.223 Do you recognise the accused?

A.223 Yes.

Q.224 Did you have occasion to attend on him regarding a certain incident which involved him?

A.224 Yes.

Q.225 Will you tell the court what took place.

A.225 I first saw the accused on the 26 Dec 44 on an identification parade at HQ 9 CBR Bn. He was in the parade with six other men and the parade was viewed by two civilians separately. One of them is Cecilia RAES and the other was Anna JANSEN, who was at that time from ANTWERP. The accused was identified by Anna JANSEN. I next saw the accused on 27 Dec 44 in the guard room of 9 CBR Bn. I interviewed him alone in a room there. I informed him that I was from the SIS and that I was investigating the death of Pte McCREESH of the Duke of Wellington Regt. I then cautioned him that he need not say anything unless he wished to do so but anything he did say would be taken down in writing and could be used as evidence. I explained this caution to him and he stated that he fully understood it. I then informed him that I had reason to believe that he had assaulted Pte McCREESH on the night of 23 Dec and as a result of the assault McCREESH had died. I asked him if he wished to make a statement surrounding the circumstances of the assault. He said that he wished to make a statement and I took the statement down in writing.

Q.226 Is this the statement?

A.226 Yes sir.

The Defending Officer elects to call the accused to give evidence as to admissibility of statement produced by the Prosecution and mentioned in the evidence of CSM GIBBS.

The accused F-58068 Pte Edward Laughton SMITH, A&SH of C, duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.243 Will you state the circumstances surrounding the taking of the statement?

A.244 I was at the 9 CBR Bn guard room and I was called out by the CSM who was a sgt at the time and I was taken into another room and he told me he was from SIS to investigate a case of a soldier who had been killed. He asked me at that time to state all that I had done during the day of 23 Dec and also the evening. I told him as it was near Christmas I was having a little celebration. He told me that he had been and seen Pte BARNES and Lucky ROBINSON and Pte KING and that he had also seen Cecilian RAES and her sister-in-law. He told me not to worry that it was a casualty and that it would be better if I told everthing I did on that day and evening on my behalf which I did.

Cross-Examination by the Prosecution

Q.245 When he told you on the day of the 23 Dec did he tell you what he had come to see you about that day?

A.245 Yes about a soldier who had been killed.

Q.246 Did he tell you prior it wasn't necessary to make a statement and anything you said would be taken down in writing?

A.246 Yes.

Q.247 Firstly he told you he had seen the other witness and secondly that he told you to tell all you did on the 23 Dec. Was that the sum total of what went on?

A.247 That was all.

Q.248 Did you make this statement on your own free will?

A.248 Yes sir.

A.249 Yes and I signed each page.

Q.252 You heard him say that he didn(t day that?

A.252 Yes.

Q.253 Did he caution you before you said that?

A.253 Yes.

Q.254 When did he tell you it would be better for you to tell him everything you did on the 23 Dec?

A.254 After he introduced himself and said he had seen the others and got statements from them. He said it would be better if I made a statement according to the other statments from the other witness so I stated everything I had done. Impression I got was that if I didn't say anything then the other statements made referred everything back to me.

Q.255 I suppose he had discussed with you about the identification parade?

A.255 I do not recall it. He didn't mentioned that this was an identification parade.

Q.256 From what CSM GIBBS said you were quite prepared to make this statment?

A.256 I actually didn't know the man was killed or even that any man had been killed. He only said I should make a statement of what I did all day on the 23 Dec.

Q.257 After he made his identity known to you just exactly what happened?

A.257 He sat down and said "I am Sgt GIBBS investigating a case of a man who was killed". He mentioned BARTEN and he told me that it would be better towards helping me if I made a statement of what I did on the 23 Dec. He didn't threaten me in any way.

Q.258 That is all that was said?

A.258 All that I can recall.

Q.259 Then what happened?

A.259 I started to tell him all that I could recall. After he had taken it down he asked me to sign in certain places.

Q.260 The reason why you made a statement is because he said to you it would be better towards helping you if you told what happend on 23 Dec.

A.260 Yes.

Q.261 Is that the only reason?

A.261 Yes.

Q.262 That is the only reason why you talked at all?

A.262 Only reason why I made a statement of what I did on the 23 Dec.

Q.263 That statement of his you say was made to you after you had been warned anything you said would be taken down and used against you?

A.263 Yes.

In the opinion of the court and the Judge Advocate it is necessary to comply with RP 63(b).

The accused resumes his seat.

C-42000 CSM GIBBS L A - Third Witness for the Prosecution, is recalled, and having been previously sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.264 Regarding this statement, it has been given here in evidence that you made this statement to the accused person and here are the exact words. These are words you are supposed to have said to him after you cautioned him but before he made the statement to you. These words are "It would be better towards helping you if you made a statement of everything you did on the 23rd". Did you or did you not make that statement to the accused person?

A.264 No sir.

Q.265 He has also said that you had seen BARNES; KING; ROBINSON; CECILIA RAES and ANNA JANSEN. What do you say about that?

A.265 Without a doubt I told him I had seen the two women. It is possible I told him I had seen the two men as I think I had at that time.

Questioned by the Court

Q.266 In your original evidence you said you gave the caution and explained it to him. What do you mean by that?

A.266 The caution, perhaps, when you read it out of the section may not be understood but I explained to him that he did not have to tell me anything unless he wanted to but any statement he made could be used as evidence.

Q.267 How long have you been in the RCMP?

A.267 Ten years.

Q.268 You have delivered cautions as a Royal Canadian Mounted Policeman?

A.268 Yes.

Q.269 The same one?

A.269 Not the same one.

Questioned by the President

Q.270 Would you give this additional explanation of the warning on your own accord or because it may not seem clear to the accused?

A.270 I made it on my own accord.

~~A. ——— In the Opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RD 83(2).~~

~~Witness withdrawn~~

Judge Advocate Addresses the Court

The issue here is as to the admissibility of a statement taken by CSM GIBBS from the accused. It is admitted by the accused that he made the statement. The Court must determine whether that is a voluntary statement or whether the statement was made from the result of some threat, promise or inducement. It is x simply a matter for the court to determine from hearing the facts as to whether the accused gave evidence as a result of any inducement by CSM GIBBS. For this purpose a confession is deemed not to be free and voluntary if it appears to have been caused by any inducement, threat, or promise proceeding from a magistrate or other person in authority or concerned in the charge (e g the prosecutor or the person having the custody of the accused), and having reference to the charge against the accused person, whether addressed to him directly or brought to his knowledge indirectly; and, if, in the opinion of the court, the inducement, threat, or promise gave the accused person reasonable grounds for supposing that by making a confession he would gain some advantage, or avoid some evil in reference to the proceedings against him. If the court finds that to be so, then the statement should not be admitted. As I have said, the prosecution must prove that the accused made it voluntary. That is all I have to say.

The Court is closed to consider the admissibility of the statement at 1625 hours.

The Court is re-assembled at 1635 hours.

The President announces that the submission of the defence is dis-allowed and the Court find that the statement is admissible.

Prosecuting Officer

The court have declared this admissible so may this be admitted in the proceedings as Exhibit "B" (Statement taken by CSM GIBBS).

The statement (marked Exhibit "B") is read over to the Court by CSM GIBBS.

Q.271 You have said that two civilians identified the accused person at an identification parade held in 9 Bn. What day was that?

A.271 It was the 26 Dec. Only one of the witnesses identified him.

Q.272 Do you know which one?

A.272 Anna JANSEN.

Q.273 Did you see the civilians attending at the parade and looking over personnel on that parade?

A.273 Yes sir I was present. They viewed the parade separately.

Q.274 What type of identification did the person give there who did identify the accused person?

A.274 She stepped up and pointed her finger at him.

Q.275 You saw this done did you?

A.275 Yes sir.

Q.276 Where is the civilian Anna JANSEN who identified the accused person?

A.276 She is now dead sir.

Q.277 You saw this done at the time of the parade?

A.277 Yes sir.

Q.278 Did you see what the civilian Cecilia RAES did on that parade?

A.278 Yes sir.

Q.279 Did she examine the parade in the same manner as Anna JANSEN?

A.279 Not in the same manner, she was very nervous and although she looked around she would make no attempt to identify anybody.

Q.280 I neglected to prove this sketch known to the Court as Exhibit "A", Who made it and why?

A.280 I made it.

Q.281 On whose instructions?

A.281 Yours sir.

Q.282 This is a sketch of three or four streets of the city of GHENT showing the Tavern WINDSOR. Are these correct in directions but not distances?

A.282 Yes.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b).

Witness withdraws.

Prosecutor addresses the Court

I would like permission to recall CSM GIBBS. It is in relation as to what the civilian Anna JANSEN did on this parade. Anna JANSEN also made some statement at that time when she pointed out the accused person and identified him. I believe it is admissible. It is of course a statement made by a deceased person but also in the presence of the accused.

President Replies

I do not consider it necessary.

FOURTH WITNESS - for the Prosecution - duly sworn
Major J E NICHOL
2 Cdn Gen Hosp, RCAMC.

Q.283 Are you the OIC No 3 Service Surgery at 2 Cdn General Hospital?

A.283 Yes.

Q.284 Do you remember seeing an English soldier by the name of McCREESH, at the hospital late in the month of December?

A.284 I do.

Q.285 Did you examine him as to what his injuries were?

A.285 I did.

Q.286 What did you find on examination?

A.286 He was deeply unconscious with a contusion of the occupital region. He was also bleeding from both ears and was certain to die and no operating procedure was indicated.

Q.287 Did you see his body after he had passed away?

A.287 I did not.

Q.288 When you say no operating procedure was indicated what do you mean by that?

A.288 That the man would die in a matter of fors and nothing could be done for him. In other words he was brought in in a dying condition.

Q.289 What do you know of his identity?

A.289 I had his chart with the name written on it and from the hospital records. I did notice that the flashes on his shoulders were Duke of Wellington Regt.

Questioned by the Defence

Q.290 When you saw him was he in bed?

A.290 On a stretcher and was brought directly to the operating room fully dressed.

Questioned by the Court

Q.291 Would you say what caused this injury to his head?

A.291 One of two things, by a blow from a blunt instrument or from a heavy fall.

Q.292 What do you mean by a heavy fall?

A.292 He had a severe fracture of the skull and a light blow would not cause that damage.

Q.293 Did you notice any other abrasions?

A.293 Not at that time.

Q.294 Any other bruises?

A.294 Not that would have any consequence.

Q.295 Where were these bruises?

A.295 Around the head.

Q.296 Is it fair to say that by a heavy fall that the man was unconscious when he fell or driven down or falling some distance?

A.296 The nature must have been a heavy blow or falling to the ground.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate

Q.297 That is striking him on the head?

A.297 That is right.

Q.298 Say he was struck on the chin or mouth with sufficient force to drive him down. Would that show some mark?

A.298 I would expect to see some marks around the mouth.

Questioned by the Court

Q.299 Did you see any such marks?

A.299 I did not see such marks.

Q.300 Would you indicate to me were the injury was?

A.300 Just at the back of the head almost in the centre.

Q.301 If a sufficient blow on the end of the chin or mouth so that he became unconscious before he fell couldn't that fall do this damage?

A.301 I am afraid I cannot answer that questions.

Q.302 Is it possible to knock a man unconscious while he is still standing up and then if that man were knocked so unconscious such injuries may be caused when he fell backwards?

A.302 It depends on what sort of a surface he fell on.

Q.303 Supposing it were a cobble stone road curb?

A.303 That is a possibility.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b).

Witness withdraws.

RCAMC

Q.441 You are the Pathologist for what hospital?

A.441 20 Cdn Gen Hospital.

A.442 I did.

Q.443 What did you find regarding the injuries to Pte McCREESH?

A.443 I found first of all evidence of an injury to the man's head. There was a small laceration to his skull at the back of the head on the right side with swelling and some haemorrage. There were two fractures of the skull - one in the bone at the back of the head and also one at the base of the skull. There was a marked haemorrhage of the skull between the membranes. There was also evidence of what is know as contre-coup softening injury around the front due to violence.

Q.444 Did you notice any markings or disfigurations in the frontal area of his face?

A.444 No I didn't.

Q.445 Are you able to say from your investigation and finding the cause of the injury?

A.445 Some of form of violence applied to the back of the man's head could have been a blow with some ~~xxxxx~~ sort of heavy instrument or due to falling down and striking his head against some hard object, it is impossible to say which.

A.451 I had no idea of the means, just any sort of object.

Q.452 Was death the natural result of the damage?

A.452 Yes.

Q.453 Was it possible that if speedier action had been taken the man could have been saved?

PROSECUTOR ADDRESSES THE COURT

That is as far as I can go without the witness Capt BOURGET and since it is felt now that I should call him and you have planned to view the scene of this incident I would ask the court to view the scene of the incident and decide to re-assemble when you see fit. I should say, too, that Capt BOURGET has not been heard of yet but I do know a signal went out for him and in the course of events he should be here. If not, I believe we should go on and complete the case in his absence.

NINTH WITNESS - for the prosecution - duly sworn Capt M BOURGET
R de Mais

Q.455 What unit are you with?

A.455 The I am attached now to the R de Mais.

Q.456 Do you remember a night of 23 Dec when you were in the city of Ghent here?

A.456 I do sir.

Q.457 Do you remember an incident occuring just as you came upon one of the streets?

A.457 I do.

Q.458 Will you tell the Court what you say and what you know about it?

A.458 Around 2245 hrs on the 23 Dec 44 I was walking down BRABANTANDAN STRAAT and was walking back to camp and passing by along an alley I heard a noise which seemed to me like a gun shot so I stopped and went over to the alley. As I was walking towards a group of men I saw at the back of the alley a girl.

Q.459 Do you know who the girl was?

A.459 I cannot remember although I spoke to her.

Q.460 Is she the same girl here this morning?

A.460 I cannot be sure.

Q.461 Do you recognise the soldier sitting beside the Defending Officer now.

A.461 I cannot say I recognise this fellow now sir.

Q.462 How many people were in the vicinity were you met this girl on the night which you speak of?

A.462 I met this girl about 75 yds from the place were four soldiers were standing up.

Q.463 Could you describe who these four soldiers were or anything particular about them?

A.463 I am sure one was a negro.

Q.464 Are you able to tell who the others were?

A.464 No I cannot, there were three other soldiers.

Q.465 Will you continue telling what happened after you arrived at this spot?

A.465 After I spoke to the girl I took here into a cafe which is on the right of the alley.

Q.466 I show you a sketch know as Exhibit "A". Do you recognise that diagram?

A.466 I certainly do. I was walking down here and heard some shots. (Witness indicates end of Passage and Brabantandam Straat and moving SOUTH along the passage). I met the girl at the entrance to the passage and took here into a cafe on the WEST side of the passage.

Q.467 Then what did you do?

A.467 I moved along the wall and saw four soldiers standing up (Witness indicates "X" on diagram). After walking I saw another man lying on the ground.

Q.468 Then what happened?

A.468 I approached this fellow lying down.

Q.469 What condiction was he in?

A.469 It was very dark and I heard him moaning so with the help of the four soldiers I took him into the cafe (witness indicates cafe on EAST side of the passage in front of the spot marked "X"). I then examined the wounded man, looked at him and gave him morphine and then I went out and I ran SOUTH along the passage to Brabantandam to get the provost and when I got back I found the wounded man there but the other four soldiers had gone. After that I ran out but did not see anything.

Q.470 Was that the last you saw of the four soldiers?

A.470 That is the last sir.

Q.471 Are you able to help in anyway with the identity of the soldier lying on the ground and the man you took in the cafe?

A.471 He was wearing an English battle dress.

Q.472 Any flashes on it?

A.472 I looked on his tunic for identity discs. They were found later in his pocket. Excuse me a moment sir, I made a mistake in my statement with reference to giving the man morphine (A.469). I gave morphine to this fellow after I can back with the provost and at the same time one stretcher bearer came in this cafe with me. That is where I gave the morphine, not before.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer

Q.473 Referring again to Exhibit "A", will you take this pencil and mark on it as clearly as you can the position of the man who was on the ground?

A.473 Where he was lying?

Q.474 Where he was in the passage - at the end? along the side? or where?

A.474 Around the "X" already marked on the exhibit.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate

Will you tell us the size of the man you helped move into the cafe?

A.475 In the passage it was pretty dark so I did not see much, but as three of these men heldped me take this wounded fellow into the cafe I can remember that one fellow had no beret on and had dark curly hair.

Q.476 You are referring to one of the men who helped you carry him in?

A.476 Yes.

Q.477 What else do you remember about him?

A.477 He was nicely built with square shoulders - I cannot say that I would recognise his face.

Q.478 Was he coloured or white?

A.478 One was coloured I remember that and this fellow was a white fellow. The first one I mentioned was white and I noticed this negro in the cafe.

Q.479 Now the wounded man - can you describe him?

A.479 Not very much but I remember he had a very thin face.

Q.480 How big was he?

A.480 I cannot remember very well, he was rather tall and big.

Q.481 Can you give us his height and size?

A.481 I cannot.

Q.482 What do you mean by tall and big?

A.482 About the same as I.

Questioned by the President

Q.483 Did I understand you to say that when you returned with the provost all the soldiers had left the cafe and only the wounded man was there?

A.483 Yes sir, only two civilians who were in the cafe at the time.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b).

Witness withdraws.

SUBMISSION BY DEFENCE

I would like to submit at this time that no Prima Facie case has been made out because the identity of the man whom SMITH is alleged to have hit has not been shown to coincide with the man who subsequently died in the hospital. The evidence so far is very contradictory in important parts. For these two reasons I submit that no Prima Facie case has been established.

REPLY BY THE PROSECUTION TO SUBMISSION MADE BY DEFENCE

I would like to reply on the first point raised by the Defending Officer. Under circumstances such as these it is very difficult to establish definite identity on the moment the incident occurs but I do submit in this case there can be no doubt whatever about the identity of the man who has been killed. The Prosecution has established first of all that a soldier was struck in the area we know as the Passage, that his body was on the floor of that Passage and that SMITH and the coloured fellows were there. Then the next thing the prosecution established is that the body was subsequently carried into the Tavern WINDSOR and Capt BOURGET corroborates that and from the Tavern WINDSOR we find Capt BOURGET, again, administering morphine in there and then we have him going to get the provost and an ambulance being led to the hospital by L/Cpl HANLEY. At the hospital we have Major NICHOL attending on the dying person and then we have the evidence of S/Sgt SMITH WHO prepared the body for burial and identifies him again by the identification tags. Now I say that the chain of circumstances has certainly proved in every respect the identity. There are such other words of dexcription from witnesses, in that, one first identifies him as an English soldier and another identifies the flashes as being from the Duke of Wellington Regiment, so that, on that account, the motion of the Defending Officer of no Prima Facie case for the lack of identification of the deceased person must be dismissed. On the second point, that of conflicting evidence, I take it he means regarding the circumstances here. Regarding this may I suggest that there has been conflicting evidence here. In charge such as this there usually is but the Court can form its own opinion. That being so, there are no grounds for dismissal but there are grounds if you feel that way for discounting some of the witnesses you have heard. I say that because I feel that after having attended the scene of this incident any person as close to this, in an area so confined, possible saw more that has been told. I submit that there are no grounds for dismissal on either of the points raised by the Defending Officer.

JUDGE ADVOCATE ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE SUBMISSION OF DEFENCE

In considering a submission by a defending officer at the close of the case for the prosecution that a Prima Facie case has not been established against the accused, the court should disallow the submission if there is evidence which unconstradicted would justify a finding of guilty, that is more than a scentilla of evidence which supports the charge and which the court at this stage are not prepared to disbelieve. The Court at this stage need not consider or decide the credibility of witnesses or whether the prosecution has established its case beyond a reasonable doubt.

JUDGE ADVOCATE ADDRESSES THE ACCUSED

Do you understand that at this stage you are proceeding with your defence and you may or may not make a statement. If you wish to do so you can give it in either of two ways:

(a) Evidence on oath which makes you subject to cross examination by the prosecution, or

(b) Evidence not on oath in which case you are not subject to cross-examination.

Regardless of whether you give evidence on oath, or not on oath, or make a statement not on oath or say nothing you may still call witnesses in your defence.

Q.483 Is the accused aware of his rights in this matter?

A.483 (Defending Offr) - Yes.

FIRST WITNESS - for the Defence - previously sworn

Q.484 Would you tell your story of this incident which occurred before Christmas?

A.484 I started off by having a little party which started at 1800 hours in the evening. At that time there were just three of us, myself and two other fellows. We got a bottle of cognac and consumed that and we bought another bottle and I met two friends of mine from my own outfit who joined the party. We just drank that bottle and bought a few more bottles which we drank in the BEAVER CLUB. About 9:30 I saw this girl Cecilia RABS come into the cafe and I knew her. As I did not want to cause a disturbance I decided to go outside with her. She had her sister-in-law with her who insisted that I find her boy friend by the name of Paul, a fellow whom I knew. I told her I didn't know were he was but she said I did. I said I would try to find him so - but Cecilia RABS was under the influence of liquor at that time and insisted I go with her. I called KING and ROBINSON to clarify that I would come at 10 o'clock but she wouldn't go away so I walked away towards the passage then she followed me towards the passage and we went right into the passage when along came an English fellow. This English fellow, as Cecilia RABS was turning away to go, bumped into her but as she didn't make anything out of it I thought it was just an ordinary accident. I told him he had better apologise which he didn't. There was a major coming by and told us we had better stop arguing as tomorrow was Christmas. He passed on and I wasn't going to let an Englishman get away without apologizing and told him if he didn't apologize we would have to have it out. The Englishman never said anything but just struck at me. I saw his blow coming but I blocked it and hit him once. He went down but he didn't get up. ROBINSON and KING were standing there with the two girls. ROBINSON bent down and I turned away back towards the BEAVER CLUB and I met two other fellows there from my regiment, a Sgt and A L/Cpl and we continued the party. That is all I remember until I was picked up the next morning.

Q.485 Did you see anybody else in the passage when Cecilia was bumped into?

A.485 Not that I recall sir.

Q.486 Did you hear any pistol shot fired at that time?

A.486 Yes.

Q.487 Did you fire any?

A.487 Not at that time.

Q.488 When did you fire?

A.488 I had fired a shot earlier in the evening when I shot the top off a bottle of cognac.

Q.489 Did you hear any shots fired just about the time of the fight?

A.489 There was a shot immediately behind me.

Q.490 Who was in that area?

A.490 There were two chaps from my outfit and the Sgt and L/Cpl.

Q.491 Anyone else?

A.491 The two girls. There were people coming in and out of the passage at that time.

Q.492 Do you know where Cecilia was when the fight took place?

A.492 To my right rear.

Q.493 Could you see what she did?

A.493 I never took any notice of her as I paid more attention to the fellow in front of me.

Q.494 Did you see ROBINSON after the fight?

A.494 I do not remember except when I was picked up.

Q.495 That would be the following morning?

A.495 Yes, he didn't rejoin the party at the BEAVER CLUB that I remember.

Q.496 After you hit the man did you suffer any damage to yourself?

A.496 My right knuckles were skinned.

Q.497 Do you know where you hit him?

A.497 On the side of the jaw.

Q.498 How much ammunition did you have for your pistol that evening?

A.498 Six rounds.

Q.499 Have you still got the pistol and ammunition?

A.499 No they were taken away from me.

Q.500 How much ammunition did they take from you?

A.500 One fired round and five live rounds.

Q.501 How much of an interval was there between the time the Englishman swung at you and your blow at him?

A.501 I just blocked his blow and hit him.

Q.502 It was an immediate return?

A.502 Yes.

Cross-examination by the Prosecution

Q.503 Do you remember going back to the BEAVER CLUB after this affair was over?

A.503 Yes sir.

Q.504 Where you upstairs with some civilian friends in the BEAVER CLUB?

A.504 To be truthful I do not remember going back.

Q.505 You would not remember seeing ROBINSON there or any discussion?

A.505 No sir.

Q.506 You cannot remember saying to ROBINSON that "I gave him a real beauty".

A.506 No sir.

Q.507 When you said to this fellow, "well chum if you won't want to apologise I guess we'll have to have it out here", what was in your mind then?

A.507 Just if he didn't apologise we would just have to have a scrap.

Q.508 That was your idea?

A.508 Yes sir.

Q.509 Do you remember stopping anybody in that passage way or in the KLEINSTATIA STRAAT that night inquiring whether they were English or Canadian?

A.509 The major told us to stop arguing and I asked him if he was English or Canadian and he said xxxx Canadian and I said I would take your advice first before I would an Englishman to stop the argument. That is what Cecilia means in her evidence.

Q.510 The witness, Cecilia RAES says that you spoke to the soldier asking if you are Canadian and he said yes then you told him he could go on, and then there was another soldier come along and then the fight started. Do you remember anything like that?

A.510 No sir.

Q.511 Had you seen the English soldier that you struck before this evening?

A.511 Never sir.

Q.512 He was just passing at the moment and you saw him bump into Cecilia RAES?

A.512 Yes.

Q.513 That was the whole reason why you attacked?

A.513 Yes sir.

Q.514 After the injured man was taken into the Tavern WINDSOR you and all your comrades left that Tavern did you?

A.514 I do not remember being there at that time?

Q.515 You didn't stay to see what happened to the injured man?

A.515 There were two provost there who were investigating the jeep to find out who owned the jeep.

Q.516 You didn't go up into the passage to find out what happened to the injured man?

A.516 I didn't know that he was injured in that way?

Q.517 What do you mean?

A.517 I didn't know he was injured in any way such as I do now.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate

Q.518 How long after the soldier bumped into your girl when this fight started.

A.518 About 2 minutes from the time the Major came up - 1½ to 2 minutes.

Q.519 You state that this chap struck at you first?

A.519 Yes sir.

Q.520 Did he strike you?

A.520 No I blocked his blow.

Q.521 What size was this man?

A.521 About 5ft 7in tall and would weigh about 150 lbs.

Q.522 Did the other soldier that you were with have anything to do with this at all?

A.522 Not that I recall.

Q.523 Do you recall whether the coloured soldier joined in the fight in any way?

A.523 No.

Q.524 Do you know whether they where present when the fight took place?

A.524 Yes, there were all around.

Q.525 Could they see what was going on?

A.525 Yes they could.

Questioned by the President

Q.526 Did the English soldier bump in Cecilia Raes or did Cecilia Raes bump into the English soldier?

A.526 She was just turning to go and the English soldier bumped into her.

Q.527 Did he knock her over?

A.527 No.

Q.528 When you asked him to apologise what was his reply.

A.528 His exact words were "I'll not apologise to no Belgian bag".

Q.529 Was it dark in the passage?

A.529 Yes.

Q.530 How did you know the officer was a major?

A.530 I could see his crowns as there was a certain amount of light coming from the windows of the cafes.

Q.531 Were you having an argument with Cecilia Raes just prior to the English soldier bumping into her?

A.531 Yes sir.

Q.532 With the result that she stepped back?

A.532 No, she was just going to leave with her sister-in-law when the English soldier came there. I don't think she heard me ask for an apology.

Q.533 If she didn't hear you then it is possible that he didn't hear you.

A.533 She was standing in front of me and she was walking away from me.

Q.534 These words that you say the English soldier said about not apologising to no Belgian bag - were they the only words he said?

XXXXX

A.534 They were the only words he said. When the major came along and after he left I insisted on an apology. He never siad anything but just struck out at me.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b)

The accused resumes his seat.

SUMMING UP BY THE PROSECUTION

Mr President and Gentlemen:

My words will be very brief. The stories told by the witnesses here have been very straightforward. While there is some conflict on some minor points I am sure the stories told by all witnesses for the prosecution and the accused person himself have put together a very complete story of what happened this night in question. The prosecution have called before the court the two coloured witnesses KING and ROBINSON and the civilian witness Cecilia RAES who together told all of the circumstances surrounding this incident. The prosecution then called CSM GIBBS who had taken the statement from the accused person and it was established that the statement was voluntary and admitted in evidence. The accused admits striking a soldier in the Passage in the night in question. I submit that the prosecution have satisfied you who that soldier was that was struck and what subsequently happened to him. The events leading up to this assault do indicate that the accused person that night was at least quarrelsome and the evidence of having met some other soldier that night and having words with him in the Passage is clear and corroborated by more than one person and we have hisown statement of an English soldier bumping into Cecilia RAES and this soldier not apologizing to the girl when requested to do so and SMITH said they would have to "fight it out". The English soldier struck at SMITH. He did not land the blow and the accused struck the English soldier on the side of the jaw as he puts it. These briefly are the facts. I do not propose to say more on the facts as that is sufficient and I know you will take the law from the ADJA. For the purpose of a plying law to these facts I do wish to say one word on killings as a result of quarreling which is mentioned on pp 868 and 869 of Archbold and that question of provocation. I suggest there is no defence on this ground and you will of course consider that in your finding, "If parties, in their passion, fought immediately, or even if, immediately upon the quarrel, they went out and fought in a field (for this is deemed a continued act of passion) the killing in such a case would be manslaughter only, whether the party killing struck the first blow or not" (Archbold p 869). I say that the facts heard have a very close bearing to that quotation in law and that they should be considered in length. The story of the accused person only is that the English soldier struck at him. No other witness has even suggested that but if you are inclined to believe the accused's story I point that out to you for what it may be worth. Just a word on the question of identity I do not know how identification can be tied in any better than it is in this case. There are two ways in which identification could be established in such a case as this, one, at the scene of the incident, the other by tracing down the circumstances right to the death and the prosecution here have done the latter, not only positivily but completely. That is all I have Mr President.

SUMMING UP BY THE DEFENCE

There is just one thing I would like to point out at first. At the beginning one witness was time for 1½ minutes and the Court just sat there. That seems to everyone, particularly the witness, a great length of time. 1½ minutes of action may seem to pass in a flash, whereas the same length of time spent waiting seems an age. This point was material to the evidence of ROBINSON. Cecilia RAES' evidence is contradicting and she did not recollect things which would be expected in view of other evidence which she gave. For example, she did not remember bumping into ROBINSON and knocking him over nor being bumped by the Englishman, nor which side of the Passage the fight occured, nore where she was standing, nor with what hand SMITH hit the man. All these things to put it mildly impeach her credibility. I do not mean to say she was lying but her memory is very poor. On the question of identity, a man was struck, he fell down and was carried into a cafe. There is evidence to show that HANLEY stayed with a man whom he identified by the tags and that this man was carried to an ambulance, but there is no evidence to the effect that the man taken to the ambulance was the same man who was taken to the cafe. There was evidence that the district is a pretty low one, both from the view by the Court and the and the evidence of other witnesses that fights are not infrequent there. It is possible that the man taken to the ambulance was not the one in the cafe. Secondly in that respect, that day of the year is just about the shortest and at approximately 2130 hrs it was pretty dark and again at that particular time as has been stated in evidence, arms were being carried owing to the threat of German parastroops. Under these circumstances - a bad area, the general carrying of arms and the time of day - darkness - I suggest that a reasonable man in his own self protection would be inclined to hit first and ask questions afterwards if he was assaulted. In the dark SMITH saw a man attempt to hit him and the natural re-action I suggest is a parry and return. There is not much more to do in a case like that an in particular he is not going to calmly stand by while another man does not apologize after he has bumped into and insulted his girl. As to the credibility of SMITH, in his statement that the man who died struck at him first - as far as that goes no one else saw a fight at all. Cecilia RAES says she saw SMITH hit a man, but I have already mentioned the questions of her credibility. I shall not mention the law involved as the Judge Advocate will do so.

THE JUDGE ADVOCATE SUMS UP

It is my duty as Judge Advocate to advise the Court on the law and sum up the evidence. If I have at any time expressed any personal opinion as to the facts of this case or should I at any time express any opinion of the facts it should be entirely disregarded. The Court and the Court alone is the sole judge of the facts.

The accused - Pte SMITH - is charged with manslaughter. Manslughter is defined in Archbold as follows:

"Manslaughter is the unlawful and felonious killing of another without any malice expressed or implied".

The Court in this case will have to determine many facts and in doing so the Court will have to judge for itself the credibility of witnesses. I wish briefly to review the evidence before the Court.

The witness KING recalled the evening of 23 Dec 44. He was with the accused at the BEAVER CLUB, which is not run by the army. They had been drinking - there were other soldiers there - one of whom was the second witness ROBINSON.

Two girls come and one sent a message in for SMITH. SMITH went out accompanied by KING and ROBINSON. KING testified it was dark and he did not accompany the accused whom he stated walked up to the "Passage", accompanied by his girl. SMITH and his girl friend were arguing. He heard a noise as if someone was starting to run. He did not approach immediately, but went after a pause, and saw a man lying on the ground. There was Pte ROBINSON, the girl, SMITH and an officer. SMITH said "Who hit my chum?".

The injured man was assisted into the cafe and the officer left. He saw SMITH 30 minutes later at the BEAVER CLUB.

There were some shots heard by the witness the night, and he stated they were not where the incident occurred.

The second witness ROBINSON stated he went with SMITH when the girls arrived, and was present when SMITH left to see the girls outside the BEAVER CLUB. He was in the BEAVER CLUB with SMITH and said they went out about 2000 hrs. He was trying to hold SMITH's girl until SMITH got away, but she broke away and went after SMITH. He heard the girl arguing with SMITH, he followed to get hold of the girl again. He was ahead of KING and first to arrive at the spot where SMITH was, when the girl bumped into him knocking him down.

SMITH said "there was some trouble and to catch two fellows". He did not remember seeing anyone although he says someone might have got past him without him seeing them. He heard a sound which he describes as similar to someone getting hit, he heard the sound just as he got up at the corner of the Passage. He saw a man on the ground, saw an officer there and SMITH and later KING came. SMITH went in the direction the two men had gone. Told the officer someone had hit his chum and told ROBINSON the "fellow was looking for trouble and to catch the other two".

SMITH had a weapon. Fired it into the air but he did not actually see him do it, this was after the fellow was put into the cafe. He left after the officer left.

He next saw SMITH in a room at the BEAVER CLUB the same night and SMITH told him he gave the "fellow a beauty and skinned his knuckles".

CSM GIBBS introduced the statement taken from the accused on the 27 Dec. He was also present at the identification parade when Anna JANSEN, since deceased, identified SMITH although there is no evidence before the Court as to the reason SMITH was identified.

Major NICHOLS? RCAMC, who examined the body, the name he only knows from the records, says the injury could have been caused by a blow from a blunt instrument or a fall. He noticed no marks on the face.

S/Sgt SMITH, Wardmaster, referred to 4619980 Pte McCREESH. He states that at approximately 0800 hrs 24 Dec the man was dead. He prepared the body for an autopsy.

L/Cpl HANLEY states he was at the Tavern WINDSOR at 2245 hrs 23 Dec 44. He did not enter the Tavern but stayed with the ambulance. A soldier was brought out on a stretcher and he accompanied him to the hospital. By means of the identity discs he definitely identified the soldier as Pte MCCREESH. He said the man was bleeding from the back of the head. He left the injured man at 2300 hrs at the hospital. There are lots of cafes and many fights in this district.

The witness Cecilia RAES knows the accused as "JOHNNY". She does not recall the incident other than it was a Saturday night. With her sister-in-law she went to the BEAVER CLUB and Johnny came out. Johnny pushed her away and she went after him. SMITH said to a soldier "are you Canadian" to which he replied "yes" and he passed on. Another soldier came and SMITH asked him the same question to which the soldier replied "no English". She says "they fight" and she saw Johnny hit the soldier on the chin. The othersoldier fell down. She does not know who struck the first blow. The coloured soldiers ROBINSON and KING were there as well as herself. She states she did not bump into anyone. She and her sister-in-law went away with SMITH.

She recognised SMITH on the identification parade but was afraid to identify him. In reference to her statement in the summary where she stated the "the coloured boys and SMITH fought", she states in evidence upon cross-examination that only SMITH fought.

Major BLANCHARD, the pathologist, who performed the autopsy gave evidence as to severe injuries to the head, lacerations of the scalp. There were two fractures of the skull but no markings or disfigurements of thefsce. Violence applied to the back of the head, a fall or blow of a heavy instrument could have been the cause. Saw the identity tags on the body as being Pte McCREESH. Death resulted from the damage to the skull and nother could have been done to save the man.

Capt BOURGET heard a shot on the "Passage" at 2245 hrs 23 Dec. He met a girl about 75 yds from a group of soldiers and took her into a cafe. He was unable to recognise the accused. Four soldiers as well as one on the ground were seen by him as he approached after taking the girl into the cafe. One of them was a negro and another was very well built. He assisted in taking the injured man into the cafe then he went for an ambulance. When he returned he administered morphine but noticed that the other soldiers had left.

I do not think it is necessary to review the evidence from the accused.

As I have said, manslaughter is the unlawful and felonious killing of another without any malice either expressed or implied. The killing must be unlawful and not excusable or justifiable. It may be by poisoning, striking, starving, drowning, etc. It may be taken as law generally that in all cases where killing, though not with malice, is nevertheless incapable of justification or excuse, it is manslaughter. From the facts here there is a killing due to a fight. Killing by fighting may be either, first, murder, secondly manslaughter, thirdly homicide se defendo. The accused is not charged with murder and therefore murder need not enter into the deliberation of the Court. Homicide se defendo means killing in self defend. The question therefore is it manslaughter or self defence? With regard to self defence, if a man attacks me I am entitled to defend myself and the difficulty arises in drawing theline between mere self defence and fighting. The test is this, a man defending himself doesn't want to fight and defends himself solely to avoid fighting. Then supposing a man attacks me and I defend myself not intending or desiring to fight but fighting in one sense to defend myself and I knock him down and thereby unintentionally kill him, that killing is accidental. No provocation whatever can render homicide justifiable or even excusable but provocation may reduce the offence to manslaughter. We must consider however the fact that the accused is in a foreign country and therefore the Court should take judicial notice of where the incident occurred, the time of year and the fact that there was a paratroop scare and everyone was carrying weapons.

Thelaw I have quoted to you is theEnglish law on manslaughter. If the Court finds as a fact that the deceased struck the accused first, then the Court must consider whether under all the circumstances the accused used more force than was necessary to defend himself, andin doing this the court may take into consideration, the time, the place and that there was a paratroop scare.

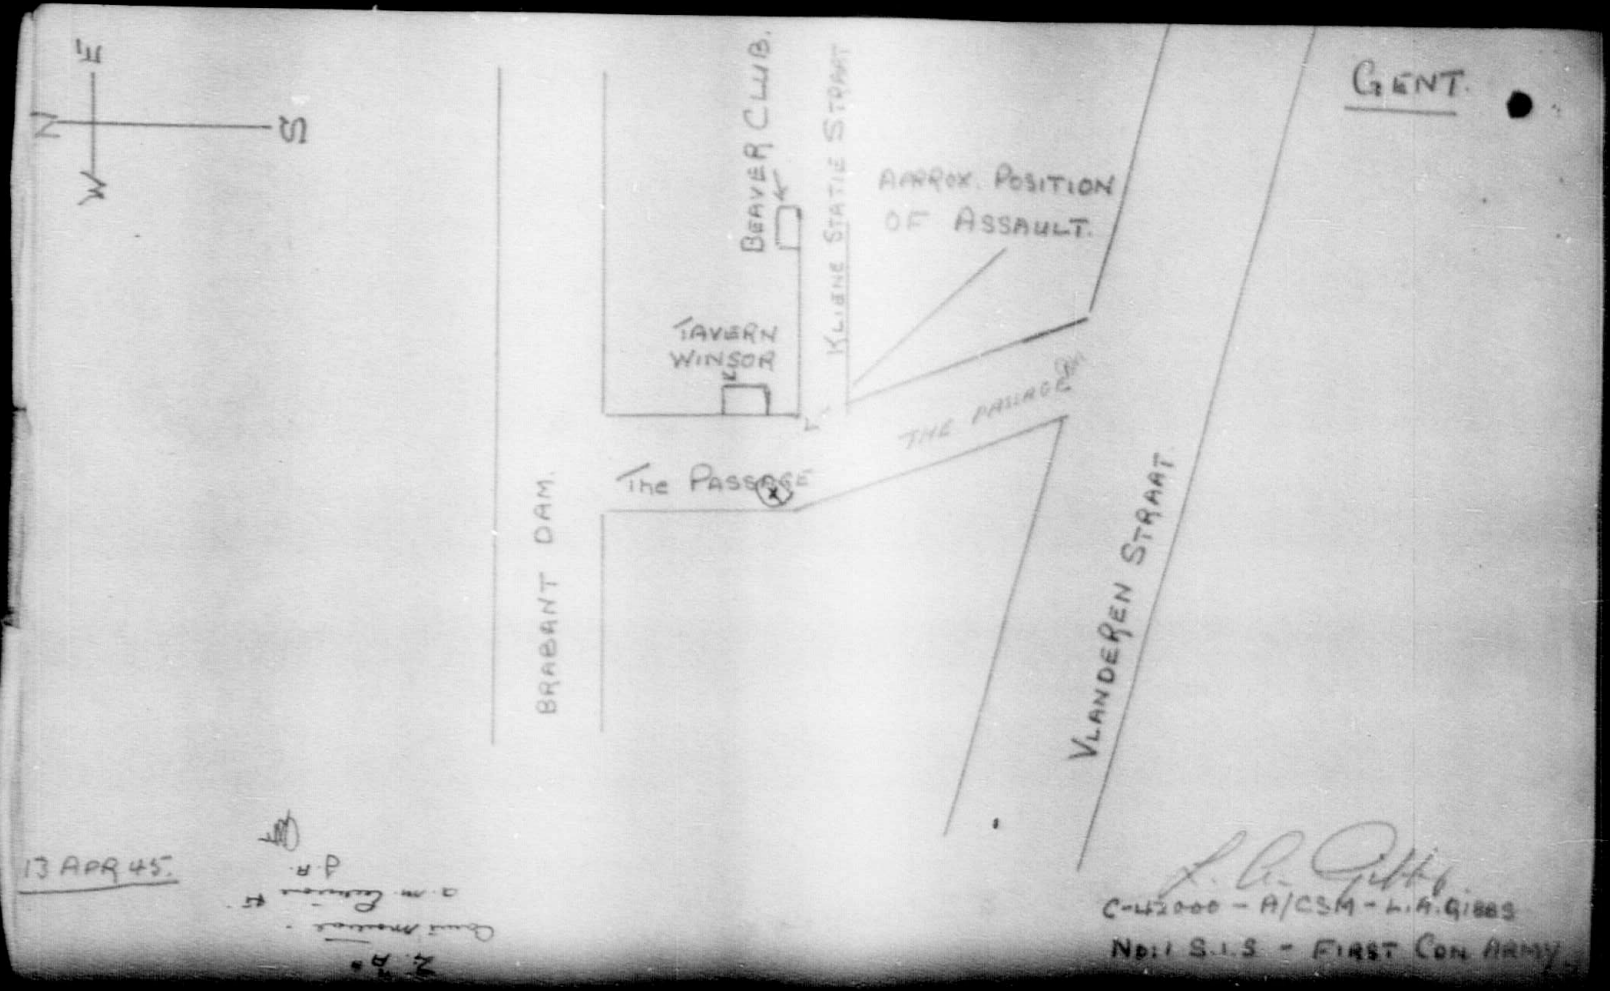
If the Court should find as a matter of fact that ROBINSON and KING were accomplices, than their evidence mut be considered with cuation and the Court must be satisfied that their evidence is corroborated by some material fact or facts or evidence of other witnesses. The uncorroborated evidence is admissible in law but it is dangerous to convict upon it unless the court is satisfied that there is corroboration. This direction as to accomplices will only apply if the Court finds they were in fact parties to the assault or assisted in any way the comaission of the assault. The defence raised the question of identity. If the court find as a fact that the body taken to the hospital is not the same person as the accused is alleged to have struck, or if they can not find as a matter of fact that the body taken to the hospital was the man struck in the street, the accused should be acquitted. The prosecution must prove that the person alleged in the particulars of the charge was the person struck, and that he died as a result of the injuries received. The Court too must satisfy themselves that he did not die as a result of negligent treatment, but as a direct result of injuries caused by the accused.

In English law, the Court at the outset of their deliberations must remember that the accused person is presumed innocent until proven guilty and that the burden of proof is on the prosecution to prove to the Court the guilt beyond all reasonable doubt. Unless, therefore, the guilt of the accused has been established beyond a reasonable doubt he must be acuqitted. By a reasonable doubt I do not mean some figment of the imagination, but some real honest doubt based on the evidence before the Court. That is all I wish to say unless the President, Defending or Prosecuting Officers wish me to direct the Court upon some matter which I may have overlooked.

Mr President, are there any further matters upon which you wish me to direct the Court?

No.

Mr Prosecuting Officer, are there any further matters upon which you wish me to address the Court?



Yes, read all sec 4 on p 871 of Archbold. (Read to Court).

Mr Defending Officer, are there any further matters upon which you wish me to direct the Court?

No.

PLEA OF MITIGATION BY THE DEFENCE

I shall give the particulars of the accused to begin with. The accused states he is 23 years old, enlisted on 30 Jan 44, arrived in England on Apr 44 and came to France on 1 Aug 44. He is married and has no children. He was arrested on 25 Dec 44 which up-to-date makes a total of 112 days of which 3 to 4 weeks were spent in hospital and about 5 other days not in arrest. In respect to this offence SMITH was arrested but at the time did not know that he had committed any offence for which he might be charged. This is shown by GIBBS' evidence that SMITH was the frankest man he has ever heard. If a man has a guilty conscience in that respect his first thought is to slip out of it and he wouldn't be as frank as that. Now in this Passage 12 - 13 feet wide two people do not usually collide by accident, so that any ordinary man seeing another bump into his girl would normally expect an apology to be pretty quickly forthcoming. If it wasn't it is quite reasonable for him to ask for it. In the very worst light this case amounts to a street brawl with fists, not weapons, even though SMITH was armed at the time. The reason I bring that out is because using your fist you do not expect to do any more damage than a black eye, certainly not kill a man. Legally, of course, when death does occur a charge of manslaughter will probably be laid. In such cases the sentence is usually light because the Courts realize the offence arose out of an accident, and not out of any illwill or intent to do any damage on the part of the accused. In civilian cases, I have not military precedents, the sentences imposed vary from a few days in prison to several years, but the longer terms are imposed in cases where there was at least gross negligence. In cases where the act committed is most unlikely to lead to any damage at all, and in fact, damage occurred due to an accident, the sentence is usually light for that reason. The question of self protection - the circumstances I have previously mention - are enough to lessen the degree of blame or culpability. For these reasons I suggest that a very light sentence would be a propriate in this case.

Statement of F-58068 - Pte - SMITH, E.L.
Cpl - Sutherland Highs of Canada - 4th Div.

I have been cautioned by Sgt Gitto of the Special Investigation Section, that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing & may be used as evidence. I fully understand the meaning of this caution.

Edward L Smith

I joined the Canadian Army in Halifax N.S. in January 1944. I joined the artillery, & came overseas about six or seven months ago. I came to France about five months ago, but did not come with the artillery, but with the Canadian Fusiliers. I was in C.B.R.G. for about two weeks & then went to B.H.Q. of the A & S. Highs. I stayed with them, until Nov 8th, & then came on leave to Ghent for forty eight hours. I did not return to my unit.

When I came to Ghent I had about nine hundred Dutch Guilders. During the time I was in Ghent spent a lot of time at the Lees Central & different cafes, one of them the Beer Club.

Last Saturday night 23 Dec 44, I had a date with my girl friend Emile Daes, who lives her Sister-in-law Annie. I got up & went outside with the two girls. Cecile is very jealous, & she accused me of paying attention to other girls in the Cafe. I called King, Barnes & 'Lucky' out to prove that this was not true. I think Leeman & his friend came out too.

I took Cecile away from the cafe down towards the 'Passage' entrance, & I asked her why she had come looking for me. She said Annie wanted to find her boy friend 'Paul' another Canadian. Cecile wanted me to go with her, but I refused saying I would come to see her at a quarter to ten as I had arranged before. My companions said they wanted see that I came. Annie refused to leave until she had found 'Paul'.

I took the girls towards the 'Passage'; & as they turned away to leave a Soldier bumped into them. He said something, I don't remember what it was, & I told him he had better apologize. He refused, & we got into an argument. A major came along, & he suggested we stop the argument as the next day was Christmas. The officer passed on. I grabbed the Soldier, & told him if he wanted to fight we would have with her mother in a cafe on corner of the 'Passage' - one of the main streets of Ghent. I had seen her earlier in the day, - had asked her to meet me at 10.00 P.M. I told her I would pick her up at her home.

At about 6.00 P.M. I went out with Al King, 'Lucky', & 'Stuff' Baines. These are all coloured men, - they are all in the Canadian Army. We bought a bottle of Cognac at the 'E.K. Cafe'. We then returned to the Beaver Club, - we drank the Cognac. I also met two of my friends from my regiment, Pte. John Lees, from - another man I don't know by name. They were with us all evening. After we had finished this bottle Lesman - his friend went out - returned with two more bottle of Cognac. We drank this between the five of us. Somebody else got another bottle, where from I don't know. I also met in the Beaver Club that night two other men from my regiment Sgt. Mike Flynn - a Lt/Col. Young is his first name. I had a few drinks with them.

I was sat sitting back in one of the corners of the Beaver Club with Baines, King - 'Lucky' - a girl that Baines goes with, at about 9.30 P.M., when I saw Eulia come in the doorway of the club accompanied by it out right there. He was alone, I can't remember anybody being with him. He took a dashing at me. I stopped his blow, & then I struck him with my fist in the mouth. In doing so I took the skin off of the knuckles of my right hand. He fell to the ground, & did not get up again.

The girls ran away when the fight started. My companions were standing right behind me. 'Lucky' said 'Come on, he is finished. He can't fight any more'. Mike Flynn had come up at this time, & he bent down & looked at the man, & said 'Well he is out', & then returned to his 'jeep' where 'Tommy' was waiting for him. Two Provost men came along at this time, & inquired about the 'jeep'. Mike & Tommy left, & the rest of us went back into the Beaver Club.

Later that night I went to bed in the Beaver Club, & early in the morning I was awakened by the Provost, who arrested me for being A.W.L.

Immediately after the fight a shot was fired. It was not fired by me, it seemed to come from the passage. It sounded like a .38. I was carrying .38 calibre in the belt of my trousers. I had fired a shot from this rifle in the evening, shooting the neck off the fourth bottle of Cognac we had. This happened in the street near the Beard Club. I only had six rounds of ammunition. I bought this weapon in the Beard Club, from a Canadian Soldier called the same evening for six hundred francs.

This Statement has been read out to me it is true. I have nothing more to say.

D109504 Pte KING, A.J., Canadian Army Shows, musician (Army), a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:-

On the 23 December 1944 I was in the Beaver Club, Ghent, around 1230 hours. I saw the accused, whom I recognize and now know to be Eddie Smith. I had met Smith a few days previous through another coloured soldier named "Stuff" Barnes. I spent the noon hour with Smith. In the evening Smith bought a bottle of cognac. We drank a bit of the cognac outside and then went to the Beaver Club. Later in the evening someone brought another two bottles of cognac into the club. We drank for a while in the club and around 10 o'clock we left. At the time we left, "Lucky" Robinson was in the party along with Smitty and myself and two Canadian soldiers. Two girls were waiting for Smitty at the door. Smith and one of the girls walked away from us for a short distance. I could hear what sounded like an argument between Smitty and his girl. It was dark and I could not see the two of them up in front of us. I was not paying any attention to what was going on up front. When I walked up to where the argument had been going on I saw Smitty and an officer standing over a man who was lying on the ground. Smitty was saying "Who hit my chum ?" and the officer said something about bringing the injured man into a cafe nearby and call an ambulance. I helped carry the man who was hurt into the cafe. Then I walked away with Lucky. I forget whether one of the girls was with us or not. I do know that Smitty did not come with us.

I saw Smith later on in the Beaver Club upstairs. There was a bit of a party going on. Quite a few soldiers were drinking. I had no conversation with Smitty at the party nor did I see him again until about a month ago when I saw him in the hands of the Provost in a jeep.

Questioned by Officer taking the Summary:

Q.2. Did you hear the sound of any gun shots ?

A.2. Yes - it sounded like two or three shots

Q.3. At what time did you hear the shots ?

A.3. During the time Smitty was arguing but they did not sound as if they came from that direction. I cant say what direction.

Q.4. Did you hear any such sounds as a thud or blows being struck ?

A.4. Not that I can recall. I do remember hearing a sort of scuffle.

On the 26th December 1944 I proceeded to HQ 9 Bn 2 Cdn Base Rft Gp where an identification parade was held. About 10 men were on this parade including the accused. Major P.R.R. Williamson, second in command of 9 Bn was present. I was accompanied by witnesses Tertilla (sometimes known as Cecilia) Raes and Anna Jansen. The parade was viewed by the witnesses separately. Raes viewed the parade first but failed to identify anybody as being the party who attacked McCreesh on the 23rd December 1944. Jansen viewed the parade next and identified the accused as being the one who attacked McCreesh on the night in question. In my capacity as SIS investigator of this case I discovered that Raes had recognized Smith(the accused) but was too afraid to identify him.

He was properly cautioned in the following manner: "You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so but anything you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence." This caution was explained to the accused who said that he understood it. It was written down by me in the presence of the accused and was signed by him. Duke of Wellington Regt, which occurred on the night of 25 December 1944, and I had reason to believe that he could give me information concerning this man's death. The accused volunteered to make a statement which I took down in writing, and which I read over to him and which he signed. I produce his statement.

States as follows.

I have known a Canadian soldier by the name of Johnny since 2 weeks. I saw this soldier this afternoon on the Rep. but I was to afraid to identified him. During the time I have known Johnny, he always was accompanied by two other Canadian soldiers one of them name was Stuff the other one Stuffs brother. Johnny often came into the cafe where I work (Cafe Splendid).

Last Saterday evening on the 23-12-44 at approx. 9.30 P.M. Johnny came into the cafe and asked me to meet him before the door of the Beaver Club at 9.45 P.M. he then left the cafe. At 9.45 my sister-in-law and I went to the Beaver Club, he was not there, we knocked on the door and they answered that Johnny wasn't here, I answered let him out. Johnny then came out with his two comrades holding their revolvers in their hands. Johnny then ~~ask~~ stopped a soldier asking him if he was a Canadian the soldier said "yes", so he let him go. Shortly after two other soldiers came up Johnny asking them if they were Canadians they answered "no we are English". Johnny and his two comrades then attacked the English with by the use of their fists.

Johnny then knocked out an Englishman knocking him on the ground. Johnny then backed up and pulled his revolver. I pulled his arm saying to him "don't do that," Johnny answered "shut up". I then heard a shot coming from the group, but I do not know who did it. I then ran away, when my sister-in-law was I do not no. When I ran away two other soldiers caught up with me, bringing me in a cafe where I drank a glass of beer. I left these soldiers in the cafe, and went over to the Cafe Oniftak, on the Kleine Statie straat where I slept over night. I cannot say what happened with the two Englisch soldiers. The following day I heard that the Englishman was dead. I saw Stuff and his brother the following morning in the Cafe Splendid they told me that Johnny was in prison that was the last time I saw them.

Statement of 077693 - Cfn - ROBINSON, W.M.S. BJC
64 Coy - 12 Bn - 2 C.B.R.G.

I have known Bobby Smith for a long time. I knew him in Montreal for about a year, then I met him again here in Ghent about three weeks ago. I did know he was A.W.L. until four or five days ago. I go to a cafe called the Beaver Club almost every night, & I have seen Smith there quite a lot. I also know his girl friend Cecile, she is a Belgian girl.

I met Smith last Saturday night in the Beaver Club. He came in with Charlie Bates, a colour man, & two or three white men who I do not know. They went to a table in the corner & started drinking. Some girls went with them but too. I remained with my girl friend. They were drinking for quite a while, & then sometime after nine o'clock, the doorman came in, & told one of the waiters that somebody wanted to see Smith.

Smith came over to me & asked me to come with him. He said somebody wanted to see him outside. I went with him & another coloured man named Al King came along too. When we got outside we found Leila & another Girl waiting. Smith told us to wait by the Board Club about with the other Girl while he went down the Street a bit to talk to Leila. He talked to her for a little while, & then started to cuss & swear at her, & pushed her away.

We, that is King, the other Girl & myself, moved towards them, as I thought he wanted us. He held Leila, & Smith went down towards the 'Passage'. She broke away from us, & caught up with Smith. Smith called to us to come with him, & we caught up to him just in the doorway of the 'Passage'.

At this time I heard Smith say to somebody 'What is the matter with you?' Then I heard somebody scream a Shout. I heard a noise like somebody being struck in the face. Just as I got in the 'Passage' Leila came flying out to us. She fell against us with such force that I fell down. I pushed her away, & went over to Smith. When I got to him I asked him what was the matter. He said 'This Jag was looking

God damn it' — he said stop the other two Guys, but I didn't know what he meant.
At this time I noticed a Soldier lying on the ground at Smith's feet. Smith made a reach in the direction we had just Come from. He was at this time pulling his revolver from his belt.

At this time Cecilia's mother arrived,
— she was looking for her. Smith returned to the passage — on the way fired a shot in the air. An officer arrived — was examining the Soldier who was lying on the ground. Smith said to him Somebody has hit my chum. The officer asked us to give him a hand, — King — I helped him move the man into a cafe.

King said to me 'Let's get — get Smitty'
— we left the cafe — found Smith on the way to the Beard Club. He was getting for Somebody by the name of 'Mike'. He went to a 'jeep', — it was headed a Sgt by the name of 'Mike' was. Two Provost men came up then, — asked whose jeep it was. The then left as then returned to the Beard Club.
I sent Dave Smith when he was being arrested by the Provost early next morning in the

Beard Club

Later that night in the Beard Club Smith told me he had hit the man a real beauty. I then noticed that the knuckles on his right hand were skinned.

This statement has been read unto me, & it is the truth.

I am Capt Marcel Bourget of 11 Batt. 2 CBRC, around 1045 hrs I was walking back to camp on the sidewalk on street, as I was passing by a large alley on the left side of the street, I heard shots which seemed to be fired from a pistol; I stopped and started to walk toward the place of the ~~accident~~. As I was advancing toward the fellows I met a girl who saw the accident. I took her in a small café and she was told to wait there. I, then move towards the scene and saw four fellows discussing and one lying on the alley, I looked at him and saw he was hurted. So I asked the fellows to take him to a cafe in front of the place where he was lying.

Having done that, I examined the wounded fellow I thought he was ~~dead~~ badly hit and gave him morphine. I told the four fellows to stay there and I run towards the provost place to get some first aid and ambulance and come back to the place where the incident occured ~~of the shooting~~ with two provost s. ~~They took him to the hospital~~ But when we arrived there, the four fellows were gone having left the wounded fellow behind. They took him to hospital and I reported to the provost section.

I was on duty as wardmaster on the morning of 24 Dec 44. I was called to Ward "H" shortly after 0800 hours that morning. #4619980 Pte. McCreash J., Duke of Wellington Regt., (Br. I was in a position to identify the body as that of Pte McCreash by means of the identification discs hanging around his neck. I removed one disc for record purposes giving it to the Chaplain with the personal belongings of the deceased.

Summary of autopsy findings (McCREESH) ~~on Sgt~~ in the case of D461995. McCreesh died. 24-12-44. autopsy done 26-12-44 55 hrs. after death

The relevant findings were largely confined to the head. There was a small superficial laceration of the scalp in the occipital region just to the right of the mid line. It was about 1.2 cm long and was confined to the superficial layers of the skin. There was extensive oedema and haemorrhage into the soft tissues of the scalp most marked in the left occipital region but also present on the right side.

There were 2 fractures of the skull; one about 10 cm. long was located in the right half of the occipital bone beginning at a point about 1 cm lateral to the internal occipital protuberance and running forward to end in the right jugular foramen. The second fracture involved the anterior surface of the petrous portion of the right temporal bone. There was marked haemorrhage into the subdural space with large clots over the cerebrum and in the anterior fossae. There was slight diffuse subarachnoid haemorrhage.

There was extensive contre-coup softening with petechial haemorrhage into the tips + superior surfaces of both frontal and temporal lobes.

There was haemorrhage into the sphenoidal air sinus and the ethmoid air cells and the right middle ear. The right ear drum was perforated & blood was coming from the ear canal.

The lungs showed pronounced congestive oedema. The remaining organs were normal.

The cause of death in this case was fractures of the skull with subdural haemorrhage and contre-coup injury of the brain. The violence was applied to the right occipital area and could have been the result of a blow with a heavy blunt instrument or from a fall with violent impact of the head against some solid object.

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTION

The facts are quite straight-forward in this case and I do not believe it is necessary to review them now. Practically all of the facts can be obtained from the first witness for the prosecution, and I believe that will suffice. There is one word to be said regarding witness Capt BOURGET who is the sixth witness in the Summary This witness is not available now and his evidence is pretty will covered for the case of the prosecution by other witnesses. Unless the defence wishes I do not intend to call him nor can I locate him. I believe he is out of the country. Before we commence the trial this afternoon, I would like the defence to indicate whether he wishes me this witness for cross-examination.

REPLY BY THE DEFENCE

No, I do not need the witness for the purposes of cross-examination.

Question by The DO to the PO

I believe there is one witness, Cfn ROBINSON, still not available.

Q.148 Did he assist in that?

A.148 Yes sir. After we had him in the cafe he was mentioning about getting an ambulance.

Q.149 Do you know whether or not this officer is the same officer who may have given the injured man morphine that night?

A.149 Not during the time that I was there and he told us to get an ambulance.

Q.161 Which knuckles?

A.162 I do not remember which hand it was.

Q.163 When did you next see SMITH that night?

A.163 When the police had him sir.

Q.164 Are you still a good friend of SMITH's?

A.164 Yes sir, I always have been.

Q.165 If you have told us that you were the first one at the scene of this affair after you heard what sounded like a blow being struck did you see anyone else at the scene other than those mentioned?

A.165 No sir.

Cross-examined by the Defence

Q.166 Was it dark that night?

A.166 Yes sir

Q.167 Dark in the archway?

A.167 Yes.

Q.168 How far away could you make out a person?

A.168 About three or four feet.

Q.169 You said that after you left the cafe were you took the man who was hit you say you did not see SMITH that night until at the police HQ and then after you say you saw him at the Beave Club. Where at the Beave Club?

A.169 Upstairs on the top floor?

Q.170 In which room?

A.170 Room 5.

Q.171 Would you describe the whole circumstances of this?

A.171 Mrs FRANKLIN called me up for a cup of tea and something to eat, so we went up.

Q.172 By "we" you mean the girl friend and you?

A.172 No, I went up myself.

Q.173 Then what?

A.173 We had a cup of tea.

Q.174 Who's we?

A.174 SMITH and myself. SMITH was already up there.

Q.175 Anybody else present?

A.175 Mrs FRANKLIN, her husband and son, that was all.

Q.176 Were they there during the time you had the conversation with SMITH?

A.176 They were not close enough to understand what we were speaking about.

Q.177 They were in the same room?

A.177 Yes.

Q.178 Is the room so big that you could be in one part and they in another and say something which they could not understand?

A.178 No sir, it is a very small room?

Q.179 Were there any other soldiers in this room were you had this tea or coffee?

A.179 Pte KING.

Q.180 No others?

A.180 I do not remember.

Q.181 When you left the Beaver Club you say that you went and held a girl. How did you hold her?

A.181 I grabbed her by the arm and held her to keep her away from SMITH.

Q.182 Why did he do this?

A.182 He was angry and wanted to get away from her.

Q.183 This shot that you say was fired, you say it was fired after the man was carried into the cafe. How close where you when the shot was fired?

A.183 Right beside him.

Q.184 Within two or three feet?

A.184 Less than that.

Q.185 Did you actually see SMITH fire that shot?

A.185 I was not watching but I am pretty sure it was him. KING also fired in the air as well. There were two shots. I saw KING fire but did not see SMITH. KING fired the second shot.

Q.186 What makes you think KING did not fire the first shot?

A.186 He was right in front of me and I was facing him.

Q.187 The second shot came from in front of you and you saw KING fire. Which side did it come from?

A.187 The right hand side.

Q.188 How close?

A.188 About three feet.

Q.189 And yet you actually didn't see who fired it?

A.189 No sir.

Q.190 You say it came from the right side?

A.190 SMITH was on the right side.

Q.191 I put it to you that at night if a shot is fired on the flank there is a flash. From that flash you would be able to tell how close it was and it would outline a person for a minute, particularly the person who fired it.

A.191 It came from his direction and there was noone else at the corner except SMITH.

Q.192 You saw him, at which corner do you mean?

A.192 This corner here (indicating the end of the archway).

Q.193 How do you know there was no body else there?

A.193 We were almost occupying the whole area.

Q.194 And yet you could not see anyone?

A.194 There is a white flag there and we were outlined against it.

Q.195 Was SMITH walking up your side or standing up your side when he fired the shot?

A.195 He was standing there. We were all jumping around at the time.

Q.196 In the passage when you first arrived there just after you heard the argument SMITH has spoken to you and just as he was speaking to you did you see his girl friend?

A.196 I do not remember seeing her.

Q.197 After she fell over you, you spoke to SMITH?

A.197 Yes sir.

Re-Examined by the Prosecutor

Q.197 This question of how close you were to SMITH when this incident was going on, my friend has brought it up again. You have said that if you were more than 3 feet from someone you couldn't see what was going on. Do you mean you couldn't distinguish the person or that you couldn't see what was doing?

A.198 Yes, I saw the dark form .

Q.199 As you were going up to the area were this affair occured did you hear SMITH speaking to anyone?

A.199 Before I got to SMITH he was telling his girl friend something and that is the only person I know he was speaking to at that time.

Q.200 I want you to think that over again. After you got up there having been bumped down SMITH's girl friend and before you got to SMITH did you hear SMITH say anything to anyone?

A.200 Not that I know of sir I wouldn't hear it.

Q.201 You have told us that one time after SMITH's girl friend bumped into you you heard what sounded like a blow.

A.201 I got right up and SMITH said something about them "looking for trouble".

Q.202 Can you remember what the exact words were - can you give us the effect of these words?

A.202 He said "the guy was looking for trouble".

Q.203 Did he say anything else to you?

A.203 He said to catch the other two fellows.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate

A.204 Yes sir.

Q.205 Was it light in the cafe?

A.205 Yes they had the lights on.

A.206 No I didn't as his face was turned away from me.

Q.207 What type of clothes was he wearing?

A.207 English type battle dress with a great coat.

Q.208 Any hat?

A.208 No hat.

Q.209 Any flashes on his shoulder?

A.209 He had flashes with a red background but I did not see what was incribed on them.

Q.210 How big was the man?

A.210 About my height - 5 ft 5 in.

Q.211 How much did he weight?

A.211 I do not know.

Questioned by the President

Q.212 Did you hear the sound of the blow before the girl bumped into you or after?

A.212 After.

Questioned by the Court

Q.213 What did SMITH say to you when he came over to your table?

A.213 He said someone wished to see him outside and to go with him as we went outside.

Q.214 Didn't you think that was rather strange?

A.214 No sir any time SMITH asked me to go with him I went especially if he had been drinking.

Q.215 Why?

A.215 He is a friend of mine and I try to keep him out of trouble.

Q.216 Any reason to believe he was going to get into trouble?

A.216 Not at that time.

Questioned by the President

Q.217 How long after hearing the sound of the blow to the time you saw the body lying on the ground?

A.217 About a minute and half.

Short discussion ensues with regard to timing. Time is clocked and witness states that it does seem to be an awful long time.

Q.218 On re-examination you state that SMITH said "get the other two men", or words to that effect. Did you see or hear any signs of these two?

A.218 Between the drink and fall I had I do not think I would have noticed them.

Questioned by the Court

Q.219 You answered to a question put by the president that time you heard the blow and the body lying on the pavement to be 1½ mins.

A.219 Yes sir.

Q.220 That is a long time isn't it?

A.220 I did not have a watch and just took a rough guess.

Q.221 Just try to think what you did from the time you heard the blow to the time you say the body.

A.221 I suppose it would be less than half the time.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b).

Witness withdrawn.

Court is adjourned at 1535 hours.

Court is re-assembled at 1550 hrs.

THIRD WITNESS - for the prosecution - duly sworn
C-42000 CSM GIBBS L A
1 SIS - First Cdn Army

Q.222 Are you CSM GIBBS of the SIS, Ghent?

A.222 Yes.

Q.223 Do you recognise the accused?

A.223 Yes.

Q.224 Did you have occasion to attend on him regarding a certain incident which involved him?

A.224 Yes.

Q.225 Will you tell the court what took place.

A.225 I first saw the accused on the 26 Dec 44 on an identification parade at HQ 9 CBR Bn. He was in the parade with six other men and the parade was viewed by two civilians separately. One of them is Cecilia BARS and the other was Anna JANSEN, who was at that time from ANTWERP. The accused was identified by Anna JANSEN. I next saw the accused on 27 Dec 44 in the guard room of 9 CBR Bn. I interviewed him alone in a room there. I informed him that I was from the SIS and that I was investigating the death of Pte McCREEDY of the Duke of Wellington Regt. I then cautioned him that he need not say anything unless he wished to do so but anything he did say would be taken down in writing and could be used as evidence. I explained this caution to him and he stated that he fully understood it. I then informed him that I had reason to believe that he had assaulted Pte McCREEDY on the night of 23 Dec and as a result of the assault McCREEDY had died. I asked him if he wished to make a statement surrounding the circumstances of the assault. He said that he wished to make a statement and I took the statement down in writing.

Q.226 Is this the statement?

A.226 Yes sir.

Q.227

If the defence has no objection I would like this statement to be included in the proceedings.

Defence objects.

Q.227 What do you say about the taking of the statement in regards to it being voluntary.

A.227 Entirely voluntary sir.

Q.228 Was this made in response to questions by you xxx or did the accused tell his story and you took it down?

A.228 He told his story. I informed the man that the soldier had died and he was very much surprised.

Q.229 Is this SMITH's signature under the caution?

A.229 yes.

Q.230 Are these his initials?

A.230 Yes.

Q.231 Are these his initials on the second and third pages?

A.231 Yes.

Q.232 Were there any inducements made to the accused person at this time?

A.232 No sir.

Q.233 Were there any threats or promises made?

A.233 No sir.

Q.234 Was your identity made clearing known to the accused?

A.234 Yes, I am quite sure.

Q.235 What do you say about the man?

A.235 He was about the frankest man I have every interviewed.

Q.236 Was this told of his own free will?

A.236 Yes sir.

Q.237 Did you at any time tell him that it might be better for him if he told the truth?

A.237 I only told him that he was cautioned and he was quite upset when I told him the man had died and I said not to take it too hard.

Cross-examined by the Defence

Q.238 Did you have any other conversation withhim at all other than that which you have told the court?

A.238 I probably asked him a few questions to clear up a point.

Q.239 Before the taking of the thing did you tell him whether or not you had seen the other witnesses?

A.239 I asked him if he knew and understood the purpose of the identification parade?

Q.240 Did you tell him you had seen any other witnesses beside the two girls?

A.240 No sir.

Q.241 When he seemed upset you told him not to take it too much to heart. Did you say anything else at that time?

A.241 Not that I recall sir.

Q.242 Did you say to him it is none of my business but it is better for you to make a statement or words to that effect?

A.242 No sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b).

Witness withdraws.

The Defending Officer elects to call the accused to give evidence as to admissibility of statement produced by the Prosecution and mentioned in the evidence of CSM GIBBS.

The accused F-56068 Pte Edward Laughton SMITH, AASH of C, duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.243 Will you state the circumstances surrounding the taking of the statement?

A.244 I was at the 9 CHR Bn guard room and I was called out by the CSM who was a sgt at the time and I was taken into another room and he told me he was from SIB to investigate a case of a soldier who had been killed. He asked me at that time to state all that I had done during the day of 23 Dec and also the evening. I told him as it was near Christmas I was having a little celebration. He told me that he had been and seen Pte BARNES and Lucky ROBINSON and Pte KING and that he had also seen Cecilian BAKES and her sister-in-law. He told me not to worry that it was a casualty and that it would be better if I told everthing I did on that day and evening on my behalf which I did.

Cross-Examination by the Prosecution

Q.245 When he told you on the day of the 23 Dec did he tell you what he had come to see you about that day?

A.245 Yes about a soldier who had been killed.

Q.246 Did he tell you prior it wasn't necessary to make a statement and anything you said would be taken down in writing?

A.246 Yes.

Q.247 Firstly he told you he had seen the other witness and secondly that he told you to tell all you did on the 23 Dec. Was that the sum total of what went on?

A.247 That was all.

Q.248 Did you make this statement on your own free will?

A.248 Yes sir.

Q.249 Did you sign just below that caution?

A.249 Yes and I signed each page.

Q.250 Did you know what you were signing?

A.250 Yes sir, I read it over.

Q.251 Where there any threats made?

A.251 No threats but he was trying to let us know that it would help me by giving evidence.

Q.252 You heard him say that he didn(t day that?

A.252 Yes.

Q.253 Did he caution you before you said that?

A.253 Yes.

Q.254 When did he tell you it would be better for you to tell him everything you did on the 23 Dec?

A.254 After he introduced himself and said he had seen the others and got statements from them. He said it would be better if I made a statement according to the other statments from the other witness so I stated everything I had done. Impression I got was that if I didn't say anything then the other statements made referred everything back to me.

Q.255 I suppose he had discussed with you about the identification parade?

A.255 I do not recall it. He didn't mentioned that this was an identification parade.

Q.256 From what CSM GIBBS said you were quite prepared to make this statment?

A.256 I actually didn't know the man was killed or even that any man had been killed. He only said I should make a statement of what I did all day on the 23 Dec.

Q.257 After he made his identity known to you just exactly what happened?

A.257 He sat down and said "I am Sgt GIBBS investigating a case of a man who was killed". He mentioned BARNES and he told me that it would be better towards helping me if I made a statement of what I did on the 23 Dec. He didn't threaten me in any way.

Q.258 That is all that was said?

A.258 All that I can recall.

Q.259 Then what happened?

A.259 I started to tell him all that I could recall. After he had taken it down he asked me to sign in certain places.

Q.260 The reason why you made a statement is because he said to you it would be better towards helping you if you told what happend on 23 Dec.

A.260 Yes.

Q.261 Is that the only reason?

A.261 Yes.

Q.262 That is the only reason why you talked at all?

A.262 Only reason why I made a statement of what I did on the 23 Dec.

Q.263 That statement of his you say was made to you after you had been warned anything you said would be taken down and used against you?

A.263 Yes.

In the opinion of the court and the Judge Advocate it is necessary to comply with RP 83(b).

The accused resumes his seat.

C-42000 CSM GIBBS L A - Third Witness for the Prosecution, is recalled, and having been previously sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q.264 Regarding this statement, it has been given here in evidence that you made this statement to the accused person and here are the exact words. These are words you are supposed to have said to him after you cautioned him but before he made the statement to you. These words are "It would be better towards helping you if you made a statement of everything you did on the 23rd". Did you or did you not make that statement to the accused person?

A.264 No sir.

Q.265 He has also said that you had seen BARNES: KING: ROBINSON: CECILIA RAES and ANNA JANSEN. What do you say about that?

A.265 Without a doubt I told him I had seen the two women. It is possible I told him I had seen the two men as I think I had at that time.

Questioned by the Court

Q.266 In your original evidence you said you gave the caution and explained it to him. What do you mean by that?

A.266 The caution, perhaps, when you read it out of the section may not be understood but I explained to him that he did not have to tell me anything unless he wanted to but any statement he made could be used as evidence.

Q.267 How long have you been in the RCMP?

A.267 Ten years.

Q.268 You have delivered cautions as a Royal Canadian Mounted Policeman?

A.268 Yes.

Q.269 The same one?

A.269 Not the same one.

Questioned by the President

Q.270 Would you give this additional explanation of the warning on your own accord or because it may not seem clear to the accused?

A.270 I made it on my own accord.

~~In the Opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 69(f).~~

~~Witness withdraws.~~

Judge Advocate Addresses the Court:

The issue here is as to the admissibility of a statement taken by CSM GIBBS from the accused. It is admitted by the accused that he made the statement. The Court must determine whether that is a voluntary statement or whether the statement was made from the result of some threat, promise or inducement. It is a simply a matter for the court to determine from hearing the facts as to whether the accused gave evidence as a result of any inducement by CSM GIBBS. For this purpose a confession is deemed not to be free and voluntary if it appears to have been caused by any inducement, threat, or promise proceeding from a magistrate or other person in authority or concerned in the charge (e g the prosecutor or the person having the custody of the accused), and having reference to the charge against the accused person, whether addressed to him directly or brought to his knowledge indirectly; and, if, in the opinion of the court, the inducement, threat, or promise gave the accused person reasonable grounds for supposing that by making a confession he would gain some advantage, or avoid some evil in reference to the proceedings against him. If the court finds that to be so, then the statement should not be admitted. As I have said, the prosecution must prove that the accused made it voluntary. That is all I have to say.

The Court is closed to consider the admissibility of the statement at 1625 hours.

The Court is re-assembled at 1635 hours.

The President announces that the submission of the defence is dis-allowed and the Court find that the statement is admissible.

- Prosecuting Officer

The court have declared this admissible so may this be admitted in the proceedings as Exhibit "B" (Statement taken by CSM GIBBS).

The statement (marked Exhibit "B") is read over to the Court by CSM GIBBS.

Q.271 You have said that two civilians identified the accused person at an identification parade held in 9 Bn. What day was that?

A.271 It was the 26 Dec. Only one of the witnesses identified him.

Q.272 Do you know which one?

A.272 Anna JANSEN.

Q.273 Did you see the civilians attending at the parade and looking over personnel on that parade?

A.273 Yes sir I was present. They viewed the parade seperately.

Q.274 What type of identification did the person give there who did identify the accused person?

A.274 She stepped up and pointed her finger at him.

Q.275 You saw this done did you?

A.275 Yes sir.

Q.276 Where is the civilian Anna JANSEN who identified the accused person?

A.276 She is now dead sir.

Q.277 You saw this done at the time of the parade?

A.277 Yes sir.

Q.278 Did you see what the civilian Cecilia RABB did on that parade?

A.278 Yes sir.

Q.279 Did she examine the parade in the same manner as Anna JANSEN?

A.279 Not in the same manner, she was very nervous and although she looked around she would make no attempt to identify anybody.

Q.280 I neglected to prove this sketch known to the Court as Exhibit "A". Who made it and why?

A.280 I made it.

Q.281 On whose instructions?

A.281 Yours sir.

Q.282 This is a sketch of three or four streets of the city of [redacted] showing the Tavern KINROSS. Are these correct in directions but not distances?

A.282 Yes.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b).

Witness withdraws.

Prosecutor addresses the Court

I would like permission to recall CSM GIBBS. It is in relation as to what the civilian Anna JANSEN did on this parade. Anna JANSEN also made some statement at that time when she pointed out the accused person and identified him. I believe it is admissible. It is of course a statement made by a deceased person but also in the presence of the accused.

President Replies

I do not consider it necessary.

FOURTH WITNESS - for the Prosecution - duly sworn
Major J E NICHOL
2 Cdn Gen Hosp, RCAMC.

Q.283 Are you the OIC No 3 Service Surgery at 2 Cdn General Hospital?

A.283 Yes.

Q.284 Do you remember seeing an English soldier by the name of McGREGOR at the hospital late in the month of December?

A.284 I do.

Q.285 Did you examine him as to what his injuries were?

A.285 I did.

Q.286 What did you find on examination?

A.286 He was deeply unconscious with a contusion of the occupital region. He was also bleeding from both ears and was certain to die and no operating procedure was indicated.

Q.287 Did you see his body after xxx he had passed away?

A.287 I did not.

Q.288 When you say no operating procedure was indicated what do you mean by that?

A.288 That the man would die in a matter of fors and nothing could be done for him. In other words he was brought in in a dying condition.

Q.289 What do you know of his identity?

A.289 I had his chart with the name written on it and from the hospital records. I did notice that the flashes on his shoulders were Duke of Wellington Regt.

Questioned by the Defence

Q290 When you saw him was he in bed?

A.290 On a stretcher and was brought directly to the operating room fully dressed.

Questioned by the Court

Q.291 Would you say what caused this injury to his head?

A.291 One of two things, by a blow from a blunt instrument or from a heavy fall.

Q.292 What do you mean by a heavy fall?

A.292 He had a severe fracture of the skull and a light blow would not cause that damage.

Q.293 Did you notice any other abrasions?

A.293 Not at that time.

Q.294 Any other bruises?

A.294 Not that would have any consequence.

Q.295 Where were these bruises?

A.295 Around the head.

Q.296 Is it fair to say that by a heavy fall that the man was unconscious when he fell or driven down or falling some distance?

A.296 The nature must have been a heavy blow or falling to the ground.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate

Q.297 That is striking him on the head?

A.297 That is right.

Q.298 Say he was struck on the chin or mouth with sufficient force to drive him down. Would that show some mark?

A.298 I would expect to see some marks around the mouth.

Questioned by the Court

Q.299 Did you see any such marks?

A.299 I did not see such marks.

Q.300 Would you indicate to me were the injury was?

A.300 Just at the back of the head almost in the centre.

Q.301 If a sufficient blow on the end of the chin or mouth so that he became unconscious before he fell couldn't that fall do this damage?

A.301 I am afraid I cannot answer that questions.

NINTH WITNESS - for the prosecution - duly sworn Capt H BOURGET
R de Mais

Q.455 What unit are you with?

A.455 Ehm I am attached now to the R de Mais.

Q.456 Do you remember a night of 23 Dec when you were in the city of Ghent here?

A.456 I do sir.

Q.457 Do you remember an incident occuring just as you came upon one of the streets?

A.457 I do.

Q.458 Will you tell the Court what you saw and what you know about it?

A.458 Around 2245 hrs on the 23 Dec 44 I was walking down BRABANTANDAM STRAAT and was walking back to camp and passing by along an alley I heard a noise which seemed to me like a gun shot so I stopped and went over to the alley. As I was walking towards a group of men I saw at the back of the alley a girl.

Q.459 Do you know who the girl was?

A.459 I cannot remember although I spoke to her.

Q.460 Is she the same girl here this morning?

A.460 I cannot be sure.

Q.461 Do you recognise the soldier sitting beside the Defending Officer now.

A.461 I cannot say I recognise this fellow now sir.

Q.462 How many people were in the vicinity were you met this girl on the night which you speak of?

A.465 After I spoke to the girl I took here into a cafe which is on the right of the alley.

Q.466 I show you a sketch know as Exhibit "A". Do you recognise that diagram?

A.466 I certainly do. I was walking down here and heard some shots. (Witness indicates end of Passage and Brabantandam Straat and moving SOUTH along the passage). I met the girl at the entrance to the passage and took here into a cafe on the WEST side of the passage.

Q.467 Then what did you do?

A.468 I moved along the wall and saw four soldiers standing up (Witness indicates "I" on diagram). After walking I saw another man lying on the ground.

Q.468 Then what happened?

A.468 I approached this fellow lying down.

Q.469 What condiction was he in?

A.469 It was very dark and I heard his moaning so with the help of the four soldiers I took his into the cafe (witness indicates cafe on EAST side of the passage in front of the spot marked "I"). I then examined the wounded man, looked at him and gave him morphine and then I went out and I ran SOUTH along the passage to Brabantandam to get the provost and when I got back I found the wounded man there but the other four soldiers had gone. After that I saw man out but did not see anything.

Q.470 Was that the last you saw of the four soldiers?

A.470 That is the last sir.

Q.471 Are you able to help in anyway with the identity of the soldier lying on the ground and the man you took in the cafe?

A.471 He was wearing an English battle dress.

Q.472 Any flashes on it?

A.472 I looked on his tunic for identity discs. They were found later in his pocket. Excuse me a moment sir, I made a mistake in my statement with reference to giving the man morphine (A.469). I gave morphine to this fellow after I was back with the provost and at the same time one stretcher bearer came in this cafe with me. That is where I gave the morphine, not before.

A.483 Yes sir, only two civilians who were in the cafe at the time.

[illegible] In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b).

Witness withdraws.

SUBMISSION BY DEFENCE

I would like to submit at this time that no Prima Facie case has been made out because the identity of the man whom SMITH is alleged to have hit has not been shown to coincide with the man who subsequently died in the hospital. The evidence so far is very contradictory in important parts. For these two reasons I submit that no Prima Facie case has been established.

REPLY BY THE PROSECUTION TO SUBMISSION MADE BY DEFENCE

I would like to reply on the first point raised by the Defending Officer. Under circumstances such as these it is very difficult to establish definite identity on the moment the incident occurs but I do submit in this case there can be no doubt whatever about the identity of the man who has been killed. The Prosecution has established first of all that a soldier was struck in the area we know as the Passage, that his body was on the floor of that Passage and that SMITH and the coloured fellows were there. Then the next thing the prosecution established is that the body was subsequently carried into the Tavern WINDSOR and Capt BOURGET, corroborates that and from the Tavern WINDSOR we find Capt BOURGET again, administering morphine in there and then we have him going to get the provost and an ambulance being led to the hospital by L/Cpl HANLEY. At the hospital we have Major NICHOL attending on the dying person and then we have the evidence of S/Sgt SMITH WHO prepared the body for burial and identifies him again by the identification tags. Now I say that the chain of circumstances has certainly proved in every respect the identity. There are such other words of dexcription from witnesses, in that, one first identifies him as an English soldier and another identifies the flashes as being from the Duke of Wellington Regiment, so that, on that account, the motion of identification of the deceased person must case for the lack of identification of the Defending Officer of no Prima Facie be dismissed. On the second point, that of conflicting evidence, I take it he means regarding the circumstances here. Regarding this may I suggest that there has been conflicting evidence here. In charge such as this there usually is but the Court can form its own opinion. That being so, there are no grounds for dismissal but there are grounds if you feel that way for discounting some of the witnesses you have heard. I say that because I feel that after having attended the scene of this incident any person as close to this, in an area so confined, possible saw more that has been told. I submit that there are no grounds for dismissal on either of the points raised by the Defending Officers

JUDGE ADVOCATE ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE SUBMISSION OF DEFENCE

In considering a submission by a defending officer at the close of the case for the prosecution that a Prima Facie case has not been established against the accused, the court should disallow the submission if there is evidence which unconstradicted would justify a finding of guilty, that is more than a scentilla of evidence which supports the charge and which the court at this stage are not prepared to disbelieve. The Court at this stage need not consider or decide the credibility of witnesses or whether the prosecution has established its case beyond a reasonable doubt.

JUDGE ADVOCATE ADDRESSES THE ACCUSED

Do you understand that at this stage you are proceeding with your defence and you may or may not make a statement. If you wish to do so you can give it in either of two ways:

(a) Evidence on oath which makes you subject to cross examination by the prosecution, or

(b) Evidence not on oath in which case you are not subject to cross-examination.

Regardless of whether you give evidence on oath, or not on oath, or make a statement not on oath or say nothing you may still call witnesses in your defence.

Q.483 Is the accused aware of his rights in this matter?

A.483 (Defending Offr) - Yes.

Q.484 Would you tell your story of this incident which occurred before Christmas?

A.484 I started off by having a little party which started at 1800 hours in the evening. At that time there were just three of us, myself and two other fellows. We got a bottle of cognac and consumed that and we bought another bottle and I met two friends of mine from my own outfit who joined the party. We just drank that bottle and bought a few more bottles which we drank in the BEAVER CLUB. About 9:30 I saw this girl Cecilia RAES come into the cafe and I knew her. As I did not want to cause a disturbance I decided to go outside with her. She had her sister-in-law with her who insisted that I find her boy friend by the name of Paul, a fellow whom I knew. I told her I didn't know were he was but she said I did. I said I would try to find him so - but Cecilia RAES was under the influence of liquor at that time and insisted I go with her. I called KING and ROBINSON to clarify that I would come at 10 o'clock but she wouldn't go away so I walked away towards the passage then she followed me towards the passage and we went right into the passage when along came an English fellow. This English fellow, as Cecilia RAES was turning away to go, bumped into her but as she didn't make anything out of it I thought it was just an ordinary accident. I told him he had better apologise which he didn't. There was a major coming by and told us we had better stop arguing as tomorrow was Christmas. He passed on and I wasn't going to let an Englishman get away without apologizing and told him if he didn't apologize we would have to have it out. The Englishman never said anything but just struck at me. I saw his blow coming but I blocked it and hit him once. He went down but he didn't get up. ROBINSON and KING were standing there with the two girls. ROBINSON bent down and I turned away back towards the BEAVER CLUB and I met two other fellows there from my regiment, a Sgt and A L/Cpl and we continued the party. That is all I remember until I was picked up the next morning.

Q.485 Did you see anybody else in the passage when Cecilia was bumped into?

A.485 Not that I recall sir.

Q.486 Did you hear any pistol shot fired at that time?

A.486 Yes.

Q.487 Did you fire any?

A.487 Not at that time.

Q.488 When did you fire?

A.488 I had fired a shot earlier in the evening when I shot the top off of a bottle of cognac.

Q.489 Did you hear any shots fired just about the time of the fight?

A.489 There was a shot immediately behind me.

Q.490 Who was in that area?

A.490 There were two chaps from my outfit and the Sgt and L/Cpl.

Q.491 Anyone else?

A.491 The two girls. There were people coming in and out of the passage at that time.

Q.492 Do you know where Cecilia was when the fight took place?

A.492 To my right rear.

Q.493 Could you see what she did?

A.493 I never took any notice of her as I paid more attention to the fellow in front of me.

Q.494 Did you see ROBINSON after the fight?

A.494 I do not remember except when I was picked up.

Q.495 That would be the following morning?

A.495 Yes, he didn't rejoin the party at the BEAVER CLUB that I remember.

Q.496 After you hit the man did you suffer any damage to yourself?

A.496 My right knuckles were skinned.

Q.497 Do you know where you hit him?

A.497 On the side of the jaw.

Q.498 How much ammunition did you have for your pistol that evening?

A.498 Six rounds.

Q.499 Have you still got the pistol and ammunition?

A.499 No they were taken away from me.

Q.500 How much ammunition did they take from you?

A.500 One fired round and five live rounds.

Q.501 How much of an interval was there between the time the Englishman swung at you and your blow at him?

A.501 I just blocked his blow and hit him.

Q.502 It was an immediate return?

A.502 Yes.

Cross-examination by the Prosecution

Q.503 Do you remember going back to the BEAVER CLUB after this affair was over?

A.503 Yes sir.

Q.504 Where you upstairs with some civilian friends in the BEAVER CLUB?

A.504 To be truthful I do not remember going back.

Q.505 You would not remember seeing ROBINSON there or any discussion?

A.505 No sir.

Q.506 You cannot remember saying to ROBINSON that "I gave him a real beauty".

A.506 No sir.

Q.507 When you said to this fellow, "well chum if you won't want to apologise I guess we'll have to have it out here", what was in your mind then?

A.507 Just if he didn't apologise we would just have to have a scrap.

Q.508 That was your idea?

A.508 Yes sir.

Q.509 Do you remember stopping anybody in that passage way or in the KLEINSTATIA STRAAT that night inquiring whether they were English or Canadian?

A.509 The major told us to stop arguing and I asked him if he was English or Canadian and he said ~~Engl~~ Canadian and I said I would take your advice first before I would an Englishman to stop the argument. That is what Cecilia means in her evidence.

Q.510 The witness, Cecilia RAES says that you spoke to the soldier asking if you are Canadian and he said yes then you told him he could go on. and then there was another soldier come along and then the fight started. Do you remember anything like that?

A.510 No sir.

Q.511 Had you seen the English soldier that you struck before this evening?

A.511 Never sir.

Q.512 He was just passing at the moment and you saw him bump into Cecilia RAES?

A.512 Yes.

Q.513 That was the whole reason why you attacked?

A.513 Yes sir.

Q.514 After the injured man was taken into the Tavern WINDSOR you and all your comrades left that Tavern did you?

A.514 I do not remember being there at that time?

Q.515 You didn't stay to see what happened to the injured man?

A.515 There were two provost there who were investigating the jeep to find out who owned the jeep.

Q.516 You didn't go up into the passage to find out what happened to the injured man?

A.516 I didn't know that he was injured in that way?

Q.517 What do you mean?

A.517 I didn't know he was injured in any way such as I do now.

Questioned by the Judge Advocate

Q.518 How long after the soldier bumped into your girl when this fight started.

A.518 About 2 minutes from the time the Major came up - 1½ to 2 minutes.

Q.519 You state that this chap struck at you first?

A.519 Yes sir.

Q.520 Did he strike you?

A.520 No I blocked his blow.

Q.521 What size was this man?

A.521 About 5ft 7in tall and would weigh about 150 lbs.

Q.522 Did the other soldier that you were with have anything to do with this at all?

A.522 Not that I recall.

Q.523 Do you recall whether the coloured soldier joined in the fight in any way?

A.523 No.

Q.524 Do you know whether they where present when the fight took place?

A.524 Yes, there were all around.

Q.525 Could they see what was going on?

A.525 Yes they could.

Questioned by the President

Q.526 Did the English soldier bump in Cecilia Haes or did Cecilia Haes bump into the English soldier?

A.526 She was just turning to go and the English soldier bumped into her.

Q.527 Did he knock her over?

A.527 No.

Q.528 When you asked him to apologise what was his reply.

A.528 His exact words were "I'll not apologise to no Belgian hag".

Q.529 Was it dark in the passage?

A.529 Yes.

Q.530 How did you know the officer was a major?

A.530 I could see his crowns as there was a certain amount of light coming from the windows of the cafes.

Q.531 Were you having an argument with Cecilia Haes just prior to the English soldier bumping into her?

A.531 Yes sir.

Q.532 With the result that she stepped back?

A.532 No, she was just going to leave with her sister-in-law when the English soldier came there. I don't think she heard me ask for an apology.

Q.533 If she didn't hear you then it is possible that he didn't hear you.

A.533 She was standing in front of me and she was walking away from me.

Q.534 Those words that you say the English soldier said about not apologising to no Belgian hag - were they the only words he said?

XXXXX

A.534 they were the only words he said. When the major came along and after he left I insisted on an apology. He never said anything but just struck out at me.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b)

SUMMING UP BY THE PROSECUTION

Mr President and Gentlemen:

My words will be very brief. The stories told by the witnesses here have been very straightforward. While there is some conflict on some minor points I am sure the stories told by all witnesses for the prosecution and the accused person himself have put together a very complete story of what happened this night in question. The prosecution have called before the court the two coloured witnesses KING and ROBINSON and the civilian witness Cecilia RAES who together told all of the circumstances surrounding this incident. The prosecution then called CSM GIBBS who had taken the statement from the accused person and it was established that the statement was voluntary and admitted in evidence. The accused admits striking a soldier in the Passage in the night in question. I submit that the prosecution have satisfied you who that soldier was that was struck and what subsequently happened to him. The events leading up to this assault do indicate that the accused person that night was at least quarrelsome and the evidence of having met some other soldier that night and having words with him in the Passage is clear and corroborated by more than one person and we have hisown statement of an English soldier bumping into Cecilia RAES and this soldier not apologizing to the girl when requested to do so and SMITH said they would have to "fight it out". The English soldier struck at SMITH. He did not land the blow and the accused struck the English soldier on the side of the jaw as he puts it. These briefly are the facts. I do not propose to say more on the facts as that is sufficient and I know you will take the law from the ADJA. For the purpose of a plying law to these facts I do wish to say one word on killings as a result of quarreling which is mentioned on pp 868 and 869 of Archbold and that question of provocation. I suggest there is no defence on this ground and you will of course consider that in your finding. "If parties, in their passion, fought immediately, or even if, immediately upon the quarrel, they went out and fought in a field (for this is deemed a continued act of passion) the killing in such a case would be manslaughter only, whether the party killing struck the first blow or not" (Archbold p 869). I say that the facts heard have a very close bearing to that quotation in law and that they should be considered in length. The story of the accused person only is that the English soldier struck at him. No other witness has even suggested that but if you are inclined to believe the accused's story I point that out to you for what it may be worth. Just a word on the question of identity I do not know how identification can be tied in any better than it is in this case. There are two ways in which identification could be established in such a case as this, one, at the scene of the indident, the other by tracing down the circumstances right to the death and the prosecution here have done the latter, not only positivily but completely. That is all I have Mr President.

SUMMING UP BY THE DEFENCE

There is just one thing I would like to point out at first. At the beginning one witness was time for 1½ minutes and the Court just sat there. That seems to everyone, particularly the witness, a great length of time. 1½ minutes of action may seem to pass in a flash, whereas the same length of time spent waiting seems an age. This point was material to the evidence of ROBINSON. Cecilia RAES' evidence is contradicting and she did not recollect things which would be expected in view of other evidence which she gave. For example, she did not remember bumping into ROBINSON and knocking him over nor being bumped by the Englishman, nor which side of the Passage the fight occured, nore where she was standing, nor with what hand SMITH hit the man. All these things to put it mildly impeach her credibility. I do not mean to say she was lying but her memory is very poor. On the question of identity, a man was struck, he fell down and was carried into a cafe. There is evidence to show that HANLEY stayed with a man whom he identified by the tags and that this man was carried to an ambulance, but there is no evidence to the effect that the man taken to the ambulance was the same man who was taken to the cafe. There was evidence that the district is a pretty low one, both from the view by the Court and the and the evidence of other witnesses that fights are not infrequent there. It is possible that the man taken to the ambulance was not the one in the cafe. Secondly in that respect, that day of the year is just about the shortest and at approximately 2130 hrs it was pretty dark and again at that particular time as has been stated in evidence, arms were being carried owing to the threat of German pa...troops. Under these circumstances - a bad area, the general carrying of arms and the time of day - darkness - I suggest that a reasonable man in his own self protection would be inclined to hit first and ask questions afterwards if he was assaulted. In the dark SMITH saw a man attempt to hit him and the natural re-action I suggest is a parry and return. There is not much more to do in a case like that an in particular he is not going to calmly stand by while another man does not apologize after he has bumped into and insulted his girl. As to the credibility of SMITH, in his statement that the man who died struck at him first - as far as that goes no one else saw a fight at all. Cecilia RAES says she saw SMITH hit a man, but I have already mentioned the questions of her credibility. I shall not mention the law involved as the Judge Advocate will do so.

THE JUDGE ADVOCATE SUMS UP

It is my duty as Judge Advocate to advise the Court on the law and sum up the evidence. If I have at any time expressed a any personal opinion as to the facts of this case or should I at any time express any opinion of the facts it should be entirely disregarded. The Court and the Court alone is the sole judge of the facts.

The accused - Pte SMITH - is charged with manslaughter. Manslaughter is defined in archbold as follows:

"Manslaughter is the unlawful and felonious killing of another without any malice expressed or implied".

The Court in this case will have to determine many facts and in doing so the Court will have to judge for itself the credibility of witnesses. I wish briefly to review the evidence before the Court.

The witness KING recalled the evening of 23 Dec 44. He was with the accused at the BEAVER CLUB, which is not run by the Army. They had been drinking - there wereother soldier there - one of whom was the second witness ROBINSON.

Two girls come and one sent a message in for SMITH. SMITH went out accompanied by KING and ROBINSON. KING testified it was dark and he did not accompany the accused whom he stated walked up to the "Passage" accompanied by his girl. SMITH and his girl friend were arguing. He heard a noise as if some one was starting to run. He did not approach immediately, but went after a pause, and saw a man lying on the ground. There was Pte ROBINSON, the girl, SMITH and an officer. SMITH said "Who hit my chum?"

The injured man was assisted into the cafe and the officer left. He saw SMITH 30 minutes later at the BEAVER CLUB.

There were some shots heard by the witness that night, and he stated they were not where the incident occurred.

The second witness ROBINSON stated he went with SMITH when the girls arrived, and was present when SMITH left to see the girls outside the BEAVER CLUB. He was in the BEAVER CLUB with x SMITH and said they went out about 2000 hrs. He was trying to hold SMITH's girl until SMITH got away, but she broke away and went after SMITH. He heard the girl arguing with SMITH, he followed to get hold of the girl again. He was ahead of KING and first to arrive at the spot where SMITH was, when the girl bumped into him knocking him down.

SMITH said "there was some trouble and to catch two fellows". He did not remember seeing anyone although he say someone might have got past him without him seeing them. He heard a sound which he describes as similar to someone getting hit, he heard the sound just as he got up at the corner of the passage. He saw a man on the ground, saw an officer there and SMITH and later KING came. SMITH went in direction the two men had gone. Told the officer someone had hit his chum and told ROBINSON the "fellow was looking for trouble and to catch the other two."

SMITH had a weapon. Fired it into the air but he did not actually see him do it, this was after the fellow was put into the cafe. He left after the officer left.

He next saw SMITH in a room at the BEAVER CLUB the same night and SMITH told him he gave the "fellow a beaty and skinned his knuckles".

CSM GIBBS introduced the statement taken from the accused on the 27 Dec. He was also present at the identification parade when Anna JANSEN, since deceased, identified SMITH although there is no evidence before the Court as to the reason SMITH was identifi

Major NICHOLS, RCAMC, who examined the body, the name he only knows from the records, says the injury could have been caused by a blow from a blunt instrument or a fall. He noticed no marks on the face.

S/Sgt SMITH, Wardmaster, referred to 4619980 Pte McCREESH. He states that at approximately 0800 hrs 24 Dec the man was dead. He prepared the body for an autopsy.

L/Cpl HANLEY states he was at the Tavern WINDSOR at 2245 hrs 23 Dec 44. He did not enter the Tavern but stayed with the ambulance. A soldier was brought out on a stretcher and he accompanied him to the hospital. By means of the identity discs he definitely identified the soldier as Pte McCREESH. He said the man was bleeding from the back of the head. He left the injured man at 2300 hrs at the hospital. There are lots of cafes and many fights in this district.

The witness Cecilia RAES knows the accused as "JOHNNY". She does not recall the incident other than it was a Saturday night. With her sister-in-law she went to the BEAVER CLUB and Johnny came out. Johnny pushed her away and she went after him. SMITH said to a soldier "are you Canadian" to which he replied "yes" and he passed on. Another soldier came and SMITH askedhim the same question to which the soldier replied "no English". She says they fight and she saw Johnny hit the soldier on the chin. The other soldier fell down. She does not know who struck the first blow. The coloured soldiers ROBINSON and KING were there as well as herself. She states she did not bump into anyone. She and he sister-in-law went away with SMITH.

She recognised SMITH on the identification parade but was afraida to identify him. In reference to her statement in the Summary where she stated that the coloured boys and SMITH fought, she states in evidence upon cross-examination that only SMITH fought.

Major BLANCHARD, the pathologist, who performed the autopsy gave evidence as to severe injuries to the head, lacerations of the scalp. There were two fractures of the skull but no markings or disfigurements of the face. Violence applied to the back of the head, a fall or blow of a heavy instrument could have been the cause. Saw the identity tags on the body as being Pte McCREESH. Death resulted from the damage to the skull and nothing could have been done to save the man.

Capt BOURGET heard a shot on the "Passage" at 2245 hrs 23 Dec. He met a girl about 75 yds from a group of soldiers and took her into a cafe. He was unable to recognise the accused. Four soldiers as well as one on the ground were seen by him as he approached after taking the girl into the cafe. One of them was a negro and another was very well built. He assisted in taking the injured man into the cafe then he went for an ambulance. When he returned he administered morphine but noticed that the other soldiers had left.

I do not think it is necessary to review the evidence from the accused.

As I have said manslaughter is the unlawful and felonious killing of another without any malice either expressed or implied. The killing must be unlawful and not excusable or justifiable. It may be by poinoning, striking, starving, drowning, etc. It may be taken as law generally that in all cases where killing, though not with malice, is nevertheless incapable of justification or excuse, it is manslaughter. From the facts here there is a killing due to a fight. Killing by fighting may be either, first, murder, seconly manslaughter, thirdly homicide se defendo. The accused is not charged with murder and therefore murder need not enter into the deliberation of the Court. Homicide se defendo means killing in self defence. The question therefor is it manslaughter or self defence? With regard to selfdefence, if a man attacks me I am entitled to defend myself and thedifficulty arises in drawing the line between mere self defence and fighting. The test is this, a man defending himself doesn't want to fight and defends himself solely to avoid fighting. Then supposing a man attacks me and I defend myself not intending or desiring to fight but fighting in one sense to defend myself and I knock him down and thereby unintentionally kill him, that killing is accidental. No provocation whatever can render homicide justifiable or even excusable but provocation may reduce the offence to manslaughter. We must consider however the fact that the accused is in a foreigh country and therefore the Court should take judicial notice of where the incident occured, the time of year and the fact that there was a paratroop scare and everyone was carrying weapons.

The law I have quoted to you is the English law on manslaughter. If the Court finds as a fact that the deceased struck the accused first, then the Court must consider whether under all the cirucmstances the accused used more force than was necessary to defend himself, and in doing this the Court may taken into consideration, the time, the place and that there was a paratroop scare.

If the Court should find as a matter of fact that ROBINSON and KING were accomplices, than their evidence must be considered with caution and the Court must be satisfied that their evidence is corroborated by some material fact or facts or evidence of other witnesses. The uncorroborated evidence is admissible in law but it is dangerous to convict upon it unless the court is satisfied that there is corroboration. This direction as to accomplices will only apply if the Court finds they were in fact parties to the assault or assisted in any way the commission of the assault. The defence raised the question of identity. If the court find as a fact that the body taken to the hospital is not the same person as the accused is alleged to have struck, or if they can not find as a matter of fact that the body taken to the hospital was the man struck in the street, the accused should be acquitted. The prosecution must prove that the person alleged in the particulars of the charge was the person struck, and that he died as a result of the injuries received. The Court too must satisfy themselves that he did not die as a result of negligent treatment, but as a direct result of injuries ceused by the accused.

In English law, the Court at the outset of their deliberations must remember that the accused person is presumed innocent until proven guilty and that the burden of proof is on the prosecution to prove to the Court the guilt beyond all reasonable doubt. Unless therefore the guilt of the accused has been established beyond a reasonable doubt he must be acquitted. By a reasonable doubt I do not mean some figment of the imagination, but some real honest doubt based on the evidence before the Court. That is all I wish to say unless the President, Defending or Prosecuting Officers wish me to direct the Court upon some matter which I may have overlooked.

Mr President, are there any further matters upon which you wish me to direct the Court? No.

Mr Prosecuting Officer, are there any further matters upon which you wish me to direct the Court? "Yes, read all Sec 4 on p.871 (Archbold)." (Read to the Court)

Mr Defending Officer, are there any further matters upon which you wish me to direct the Court? No.

E.3

PLEA OF MITIGATION BY THE DEFENCE

I shall give the particulars of the accused to begin with. The accused states he is 23 years old, enlisted on 30 Jan 44, arrived in England on Apr 44 and came to France on 1 Aug 44. He is married and has no children. He was arrested on 25 Dec 44 which up-to-date makes a total of 112 days of which 3 to 4 weeks were spent in hospital and about 5 other days not in arrest. In respect to this offence SMITH was arrested but at the time did not know that he had committed any offence for which he might be charged. This is shown by GIBBS' evidence that SMITH was the frankest man he has ever heard. If a man has a guilty conscience in that respect his first thought is to slip out of it and he wouldn't be as frank as that. Now in this Passage 12 - 13 feet wide two people do not usually collide by accident, so that any ordinary man seeing another bump into his girl would normally expect an apology to be pretty quickly forthcoming. If it wasn't it is quite reasonable for him to ask for it. In the very worst light this case amounts to a street brawl with fists, not weapons, even though SMITH was armed at the time. The reason I bring that out is because using your fist you do not expect to do any more damage than a black eye, certainly not kill a man. Legally, of course, when death does occur a charge of manslaughter will probably be laid. In such cases the sentence is usually light because the Courts realize the offence arose out of an accident, and not out of any illwill or intent to do any damage on the part of the accused. In civilian cases, I have not military precedents, the sentences imposed vary from a few days in prison to several years, but the longer terms are imposed in cases where there was at least gross negligence. In cases where the act committed is most unlikely to lead to any damage at all, and in fact, damage occurred due to an accident, the sentence is usually light for that reason. The question of self protection - the circumstances I have previously mention - are enough to lessen the degree of blame or culpability. For these reasons I suggest that a very light sentence would be appropriate in this case.

STATEMENT OF F58068 PTE SMITH EL, Argyl & Sutherland Highrs of Canada, 4th Div

I have been cautioned by Sgt Gibbs of the Special Investigation Section, that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be used as evidence. I fully understand the meaning of this caution.

(sgd) Edward L. Smith

I joined the Canadian Army in Halifax N.S., in January 1944. I joined the artillery, and came overseas about six or seven months ago. I came to France about five months ago, but did not come with the artillery, but with the Canadian Fusilliers. I was in CBHQ for about two weeks, and then went to BHQ of the A & S Highrs. I stayed with them until 26th Nov., and then came on leave to Ghent for forty eight hours. I did not return to my unit.

During the time I was in Ghent I had about nine hundred Dutch guilders. When I came to Ghent I had a lot of time at the leave centre and different cafes, one of them the Beaver Club.

Last Saturday night 23 Dec 44, I had a date with my girl friend Cecilia RAES, who lives with her mother in a cafe on the corner of the "Passage" and one of the main streets of Ghent. I had seen her earlier in the day, and had asked her to meet me at 10.00 PM. I told her I would pick her up at her home.

At about 6.00 PM I went out with Al KING, 'Lucky' and 'Stuff' BARNES. These are all coloured men, and they are all in the Canadian Army. We bought a bottle of cognac at the 'O.K.' Cafe. We then returned to the Beaver Club, and drank the cognac. I also met two of my friends from my regiment, Pte John LEEMAN, and another one that I don't know by name. They were with us all evening. After we had finished this bottle LEEMAN and his friend went out and returned with two more bottles of cognac. We drank this between the five of us. Somebody else got another bottle, where from I don't know. I also met in the Beaver Club that night two other men from my regiment, Sgt Mike FLYNN and a L/Cpl., 'Tommy' is his first name. I had a few drinks with them.

I was sitting back in one of the corners of the Beaver Club with BARNES, KING and 'Lucky' and also a girl that BARNES goes with, at about 9.30 PM when I saw Cecilia come in the doorway of the club accompanied by her sister in law Annie. I got up and went outside with the two girls. Cecilia is very jealous, and she accused me of paying attention to other girls in the cafe. I called KING, BARNES and 'Lucky' out to prove that this was not true. I think LEEMAN and his friend came out too.

I took Cecilia away from the cafe door towards the 'Passage' entrace, and I asked her why she had come looking for me. She said Annie wanted to find her boy friend 'Paul', another Canadian. Cecilia wanted me to go with her, but I refused saying I would come to see her at a quarter to ten as I had arranged before. My companions said they would see that I came. Annie refused to leave until she had found 'Paul'.

I took the girls towards the 'Passage' and as they turned away to leave a soldier bumped into them. He said something, I don't remember what it was, and I told him he had better apologize. He refused and we got into an arguement. A Major came along, and he suggested we stop the arguement as the next day was Christmas. The officer passed on. I grabbed the soldier, and told him if he wanted to fight we would have it out right there. He was alone, I can't remember anybody being with him. He took a swing at me. I stopped his blow, and then I struck him with my fist in the mouth. In doing so I took the skin off the knuckles of my right hand. He fell to the ground, and did not get up again.

The girls ran away when the fight started. My companions were standing right behind me. 'Lucky' said 'Come on he is finished. He can't fight any more.' Mike FLYNN had come up at this time, and he bent down and looked at the man, and said 'Well, he is out', and then returned to his 'jeep' where 'Tommy' was waiting for him. Two Provost men came along at this time, and inquired about the 'jeep'. Mike and Tommy left, and the rest of us went back into the Beaver Club.

Later that night I went to bed in the Beaver Club, and early in the morning I was awakened by the Provost, who arrested me for being AWL.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

STATEMENT OF F58068 PTE SMITH EL, Argyl & Sutherland Highrs of Canada, 4th Div

I have been cautioned by Sgt Gibbs of the Special Investigation Section, that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be used as evidence. I fully understand the meaning of this caution.

(sgd) Edward L. Smith

I joined the Canadian Army in Halifax N.S., in January 1944. I joined the artillery, and came overseas about six or seven months ago. I came to France about five months ago, but did not come with the artillery, but with the Canadian Fusilliers. I was in CBHQ for about two weeks, and then went to BHQ of the A & S Highrs. I stayed with them until 28th Nov., and then came on leave to Ghent for forty eight hours. I did not return to my unit.

When I came to Ghent I had about nine hundred Dutch guilders. During the time I was in Ghent I spent a lot of time at the leave centre and different cafes, one of them the Beaver Club.

Last Saturday night 23 Dec 44, I had a date with my girl friend Cecilia BAES, who lives with her mother in a cafe on the corner of the "Passage" and one of the main streets of Ghent. I had seen her earlier in the day, and had asked her to meet me at 10.00 PM. I told her I would pick her up at her home.

At about 6.00 PM I went out with Al KING, 'Lucky' and 'Stuff' BARNES. These are all coloured men, and they are all in the Canadian Army. We bought a bottle of cognac at the 'O.K.' Cafe. We then returned to the Beaver Club, and drank the cognac. I also met two of my friends from my regiment, Pte John LEEMAN, and another one that I don't know by name. They were with us all evening. After we had finished this bottle LEEMAN and his friend went out and returned with two more bottles of cognac. We drank this between the five of us. Somebody else got another bottle, where from I don't know. I also met in the Beaver Club that night two other men from my regiment, Sgt Mike FLYNN and a L/Cpl., 'Tommy' is his first name. I had a few drinks with them.

I was sitting back in one of the corners of the Beaver Club with BARNES, KING and 'Lucky' and also a girl that BARNES goes with, at about 9.30 PM when I saw Cecilia come in the doorway of the club accompanied by her sister in law Annie. I got up and went outside with the two girls. Cecilia is very jealous, and she accused me of paying attention to other girls in the cafe. I called KING, BARNES and 'Lucky' out to prove that this was not true. I think LEEMAN and his friend came out too.

I took Cecilia away from the cafe door towards the 'Passage' entrace, and I asked her why she had come looking for me. She said Annie wanted to find her boy friend 'Paul', another Canadian. Cecilia wanted me to go with her, but I refused saying I would come to see her at a quarter to ten as I had arranged before. My companions said they would see that I came. Annie refused to leave until she had found 'Paul'.

I took the girls towards the 'Passage' and as they turned away to leave a soldier bumped into them. He said something, I don't remember what it was, and I told him he had better apologize. He refused and we got into an arguement. A Major came along, and he suggested we stop the arguement as the next day was Christmas. The officer passed on. Later that night I went to bed in the Beaver Club, and early in the morning I was awakened by the Provost, who arrested me for being AWL.

/Immediately....

Immediately after the fight a shot was fired. It was not fired by me, it seemed to come from the 'Passage'. It sounded like a P 38. I was carrying a .38 calibre in the belt of my trousers. I had fired a shot from this earlier in the evening, shooting the neck off the second bottle of cognac we had. This happened on the street near the Beaver Club. I only had six rounds of ammunition. I bought this weapon in the Beaver Club, from a Canadian soldier earlier in the same evening for six hundred francs.

This statement has been read over to me, and it is true. I have not nothing more to say.' (ENDS)

Re: F.58068 - Pte - SMITH E.L. - Argyll and Sutherland Highrs of Canada 4th Cdn Amm'd Div.

MANSLAUGHTER - Vanderdoncktdoorgang - Ghent

1. At approximately 245 Hrs, of the 23 Dec 44, Capt M. Bouget of 11 Bn 2 CBRG reported to the Cdn Provost Corps, Ghent that a soldier had been seriously injured in the s/m street. A Statement received from the officer later reads as follows:-

STATEMENT BEGINS: 'I am Capt Marcel BOURGET, of 11 Bn 2 CBRG at around 2245 hrs, I was walking back to camp on the sidewalk of Brabantdam. As I was passing by a large alley on the left side of the street, I heard shots which seemed to be fired from a pistol. I stopped and started to walk towards the place of the incident. As I was advancing towards the fellows I met a girl who saw the accident. I took her in a small cafe, and told her to wait there. I then moved towards the scene and saw four fellows discussing, and one lying on the alley. I looked at him and saw he was hurt, so I asked the fellows to take him to a cafe in front of where he was lying.

Having done that I examined the wounded fellow I thought he was badly hit and gave him morphine. I told the four fellows to stay there and I ran towards the Provost place to get some first aid. I then came back to the place where the incident had occurred with two provosts. When we arrived there the four fellows had gone, having left the wounded fellow behind. The Provost took the man to hospital and I reported to the Provost section.' (ends) Sgn - Marcel Bourget, Capt. Regt de Maisonneuve.

First

2. The wounded man carried the identification of Reg. No.4619980 - Pte - McCREESH, J. - Duke of Wellington Regt. (Br Army. When admitted to hospital he was unconscious and remained so until he died at 0600 Hrs the following day. He died in 2 Cdn Gen Hosp., and was attended to by Capt N.B. Hall. Br Army D.A.P.M., 16 LofC., was notified by CSM Tait of this section. Location of the dead man's unit was not known at the time, but I have since learned that his unit is part of the Br 7th Div. This man does not appear to have been in this city on leave, as a check has been made of the records of the leave Centre at this point.

3. An autopsy was performed by Major A.J. BLANCHARD, pathologist 2 Cdn Gen Hosp., on the 26 Dec 44. The report reads as follows.

BEGINS: Summary of Autopsy Findings in the case of 4619980 - Pte - McCREESH, J.
Died 24 Dec 44 - Autopsy done 26 Dec 44 - 55 Hrs after death.

The relevant findings were largely confined to the head. There was a small superficial laceration of the scalp in the occipital region just to the right of the mid line. This was about 1.2 cm long and was confined to the superficial layers of the skin. There was extensive oedoma and haemorrhage into the soft tissue of the scalp most marked in the left occipital region, but was also present on the right side.

There were two fractures of the skull; one about 10 cm long was located in the right half of the occipital home beginning at a point about 1 cm lateral to the internal occipital protuberance and running forward to end in the right jugular foramen. The second fracture involved the anterior surface of the petrouspertion of the right terporal bone. There was marked (surface of the petrous) haemorrhage into the subdural space with large clots over the cerebrum and in the anterior fossae. There was slight diffuse subarachnoid haemorrhage.

There was extensive contre-co p softening with petechial haemorrhage into the tips and interior surface of both frontal and temporal lobes.

There was haemorrhage into the sphencidal air sinus and the ethmoid air cells and the right middle ear. The right ear drum was perforated and blood was coming from the ear canal. The lungs showed passive congestion and oedema. The remaining organs were normal.

The cause of death in this case was fractures of the skull with subdural harmorrhage and contre-coup injury of the brain. The violence was applied to the right occipital area and could have been the result of a blow with a heavy blunt instrument or from a fall with violent impact of the head against some solid object.

5. It will be noted in the stement of Capt BOURGET, that he met a girl while proceeding to the scene of the incident. This woman was located, also her companion. Both of these women were interviewed and statements obtained. Their statements are as follows:-

Statement of Anna Theresia JANSEN - married - husband name Leo RAES, Address: Keizerlei 50, Antwerp.

'I have known Johnny Smith, a Canadian soldier since three or four weeks. I saw this soldier this afternoon in the Seminarie (HQ 9 Bn 2 CBRG) located on Reep, Ghent. I have identified this same soldier in a parade which was held at this same place. I also know two other soldiers, who were with him now and then. These men were coloured men, and were brothers. One of them is known as 'Staff'.

Last Saturday evening I left with my sisted in law at 9.45 P.M. to meet Johnny Smith at the Beaver Club. The Beaver Club was closed, we knocked on the door and asked after Johnny. Someone called from a window upstairs, saying that Johnny was not there, but my sister in law said that he was. The door then opened and Johnny and two other soldiers came out, all three of them carrying revolvers in their hands.

A soldier came up and Johnny asked him if he was a Canadian the soldier said 'yes'. Johnny said 'O.K.'. Johnny then went away and I said to Tercilla goodnight, and went on. I went on towards my home, and then heard somebody fighting. I could not see anything because it was too dark, but I saw Johnny strike a man, and heard a fist hitting flesh. I called Johnny, but he said 'Shut up'. I also took hold of him by the arm, but he threw me away. I then went home, just as I was putting the key in the door I heard a shot. I was too afraid to go in so I kept on my way down the passage where I met a soldier. He said to me 'What is wrong'. I told him the soldiers were fighting over there. He spoke very good French. A civilian also came down the passage, the officer told him to go and get the Provost. The officer took me into the Cafe Splendid. The officer left and I went back to my home. At 12.30 A.M. the Provost woke me up and questioned me about the case.'

Seminarie on the Reep, in a parade, but I was too afraid to identify him. During the time I have known Johnny, he always was accompanied by two other Canadian coloured soldiers. One of them's name was 'Stuff'. The other one was 'Stuff's' brother. Johnny often came into the cafe where I work the Cafe Splendid.

Last Saturday evening on the 23 Dec 44, at about 8.30 P.M., Johnny came into the Cafe and asked me to meet him before the door of the Beaver Club at 9.45 P.M. He then left the cafe. At 9.45 my sister in law (the a/m), went to the Beaver Club. We knocked on the door, and they answered that Johnny was not there. I asked them to let him out. Johnny then came out with his two comrades holding their revolvers in their hands. Johnny then stopped a soldier asking him if he was a Canadian the soldier said 'yes', so he let him go. Shortly after that two other soldiers came up, Johnny asking them if they were Canadian they answered 'No we are English'. Johnny and his two comrades then attacked the English by use of their fists. Johnny then knocked out an Englishman, knocking him on the ground. Johnny then backed up and pulled his revilver. I pulled his arm saying to him 'Don't do that.' Johnny answered 'shut up'. I then heard a shot coming from the direction of the 'Jeep', but I do not know who fired it. I then ran away. Where my sister in law was, I do not know. When I ran away two other soldiers caught up with me, bringing me in a cafe where I drank a glass of beer. I left these soldiers in the Cafe, and went over to the Cafe Druiftak, on the Kleing Statie Straat, where I slept over night. I cannot say what happened with the two English soldiers. The following day I heard that the Englishman was dead. I saw 'Stuff' and his brother the following morning in the Cafe Splendid. They told me that Johnny was in prison. That was the last time I saw them.' (ENDS)

26 Dec 44.

6. Both of the foregoing statements were taken down in Flemish and translated into English.

7. In the early hours of the 24 Dec 44, members of the Cdn Provost Corps, arrested the captionally noted at the Beaver Club Cafe, which is situated on Kleine Statie Straat. He had retired to bed in one of the upper rooms of the Cafe. He admitted that he was AWL and was placed in the Guard Room at HQ., 9 Bn 2 CBRG.

8. After interviewing the two civilians, and hearing their reference to a Canadian soldier by the name of 'SMITH', it was concluded that possibly the arrested man might be the one they referred to. On the 26 Dec 44, an identification parade was held at HQ., 9 Bn. which included Pte Smith. The civilians viewed the parade separately. Tertilla Raes viewed the parade first. She said Johnny Smith was on the parade, but she was too afraid to identify him. The other woman identified Smith without any hesitation. Following this I obtained the statements from the civilians. While taking the statements I obtained a description of the two coloured soldiers, who accompanied Smith at the time of the incident. One of them was described as wearing a leather jerkin with the word 'lucky' printed in white paint on the left breast.

9. In the P.M. of the 26th Inst., in company with members of the Provost Corps, a check was made in cafes for coloured soldiers answering this description. D.77695 Cfn Robinson W. 64 Coy, 12 Bn 2 CBRG, wearing a leather jerkin with the word 'LucKY' on left breast, was arrested. He admitted being with Smith at the time when the English soldier was attacked, and named the other coloured man as D.109540 Pte King A.J. of the Haversacks unit - Canadian Army Shows. King was found to be under arrest at 12 Bn 2 CBRG., for AWL., but as near as could be ascertained, he was not connected with this incident, as suggested by the two civilian witnesses.

10. On the 27 Dec 44, I interviewed Pte Smith at HQ 9 Bn I informed him of the nature of the investigation. He admitted attacking the English soldier, but stated he did not know that the man had died. He was properly cautioned, and made a statement which is as follows.

STATEMENT BEGINS: I have been cautioned by Sgt Gibbs of the Special Investigation Section, that I am not obliged to say anything uless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing, and maybe used as evidence. I fully understand the meaning of this caution. (Sgn) Edward L. Smith.

I joined the Canadian Army in Halifax N.S., in Jan 1944 I joined the artillery, and came overseas about six or seven months ago. I came to France about five months ago, but did not come with the Artillery, but with the Canadian Fusilliers. I was in CBRG for about two weeks, and then went to BHQ of the A&S Highrs I stayed with them until 28th Nove., and then came on leave to Ghent for forty eight hours. I did not return to my unit.

When I came to Ghent I had about nine hundred Dutch guilders. During the time I was in Ghent I spent a lot of time at the leave Centre, and different cafes, one of them the Beaver Club.

Last Saturday night 23 Dec 44, Ihad a date with my girl friend Cecilia Raes, who lives with her mother in a cafe on the corner of the passage and one of the main streets of Ghent. I had seen her earlier in the day, and had asked her to meet me at 10.00 P.M. I told her I would pick her up at her home.

At about 6.00 P.M. I went out with Al King, 'Lucky' and 'Stuff' Barnes. These are all coloured men, and they are all in the Canadian Army. We bought a bottle of cognac at the 'O.K.' Cafe. We then returned to the Beaver Club, and drank the cognac. I also met two of my friends from my regiment, Pte John Leeman, and another one that I don't know by name. They were with us all evening. After we had finished this bottle Leeman and his friend went out and returned with two more bottles of cognac. We drank this between the five of us. Somebody else got another bottle where from I don't know. I also met in the Beaver Club that night two other menfrom my regiment, Sjt Mike Flynn and a L/Cpl Tommy is his first name. I had a few drinks with them.

I was sitting back in one of the corners of the Beaver Club, with Barnes, King, and Lucky, and also a girl that Barnes goes with, at about 9.30 P.M. when I saw Cecilia come in the doorway of the club accompanied by her sister in law Annie. I got up and went outside with the two girls. Cecilia is very jealous, and she accused me of paying attention to other girls in the Cafe. I called King, Barnes and Lucky out to prove that this was not true. I think Leeman and his friend came out too.

I took Ceciliaaway from the Cafe door towards the passage entrance, and I asked her why she had come looking for me. She said Annie wanted to find her boy friend 'Paul', another Cdn. Cecilia wanted me to go with her, but I refused saying I would come to see her at a quarter to ten as I had arranged before. My companions said they would see that I came. Annie refused to leave until she had found 'Paul'.

I took the girls towards the Passage, and as they turned away to leave a soldier bumped into them. He said something, I don't remember what it was, and I told him he had better apologise. He refused, and we got into an argument. A major came along, and he suggested we stop the argument, as the next day was Christmas. The officer passed on. I grabbed the soldier, and told him if he wanted to fight we would have it out right there. He was alone, I can't remember anybody being with him. He took a swing at me. I stopped his blow, and then I struck him with my fist in the mouth In doing so I took the skin off of the knuckles of my right hand. He fell to the ground, and did not get up again.

The girls ran away when the fight started. My companions were standing right behind me. 'Lucky' said 'come on he is finished. He can't fight anymore.' Mike Flynn had come up at this time, and he bent down and looked at the man, and said 'well, he is out', and then returned to his 'jeep' where 'Tommy' was waiting for him. Two Provost men came along at this time, and inquired about the 'jeep'. Mike and Tommy left, and the rest of us went back into the Beaver Club.

Later that night I went to bed in the Beaver Club, and early in the morning I was awakened by the Provost, who arrested me for being AWL.

Immediately after the fight a shot was fired. It was not fired by me, it seemed to come from the 'passage'. It sounded like a P.38. I was carrying a .38 calibre in the belt of my trousers. I had fired a shot from this earlier in the evening, shooting the neck off the second bottle of cognac we had. This happened on the street near the Beaver Club. I only had six rounds of ammunition. I bought this weapon in the beaver club, from a Canadian soldier earlier the same evening for six hundred francs.

This statement has been read over to me, and it is true. I have nothing more to say. (ENDS) (SDG) Edward L. Smith. 27 Dec 44.

2. The girl referred to in the above statement, as Cecilia is Tertilla Raes. The passage, mentioned is Vanderdonckdoorgang. This is an arcade, it runs between Brabantdam and Vlanderen Straat. It can also be entered from the middle at the junction of Kleine Statie Straat. This arcade is commonly known as the 'Glass Passage'. The revolver which Smith was carrying was recovered from him when he was arreste. There was one empty shell in the chamber. There are no marks or other evidence on the weapon to suggest that it had been used as a club for striking anybody. The weapon is an Enfield make, .38 Cal, number 2C.6557.

12. Also on the 27th inst. I interviewed D.109540 Pte King A.J. and from him obtained the following statement.

STATEMENT BEGINS: 'I first met 'smitty', who I know now as Pte Smith, at the Beaver Club Cafe in Ghent, last Tuesday 19 Dec 44. I met him through another coloured man by the name of 'Stuff'. I saw him a couple of times after that.

Last Saturday 23 Dec 44, I saw 'Smitty' in the Beaver Club at 1230 hrs. I spent most of the day with him. He bought a bottle of cognac, and I drank it with him. 'Stuff' and two other Canadian fellows, who I don't know by name, were also in on it. Partof the bottle we drank outside, and the rest in the Beaver Club. Later in the evening the two Canadian fellows got some more cognac which we drank among us.

About 10.00 P.M. we left the cafe, that is "Smitty", 'Lucky', myself and I think the other two Canadians. When we got outside we met two girls, one of them was 'Smitty's' girl friend Cecilia. 'Smitty' had told me about her, saying that she was always bothering him.

We started walking up the street to the right from the Beaver Club. I came in the rear. I heard a skuffle up in front of us. When I heard this I did not rush up right away, but when I did get up there I saw Smitty and an officer bent over a soldier that was lying on the floor of the 'passage'. They moved the soldier, who was unconcious into a nearby cafe. The officer said he would get the Provost. We then left the cafe with Cecilia followingus. She was looking for 'Smitty'. We had a couple of beers. We then returned to the Beaver Club. I found 'Smitty' upstairs there. I had no further conversation with 'Smitty' very much. He did not tell me what had happened in the passage. I stayed about fifteen minutes, and then returned to barracks.

I heard a few shots fired round about the time I heard the skuffle. Where they came from I don't know. I did not see 'Smitty' strike anybody.' (ENDS) Sgn A.J. King. 27 Dec 44.

13. Also on the 27th inst. I interviewed D.77695 Cfn Robinson W. known as 'Lucky'. The following statement was obtained.

STATEMENT BEGINS: 'I have known Eddy Smith for a long time. I knew him in Montreal for about a year, and then I met him again here in Ghent about three weeks ago. I did not know he was AWL until four or five days ago. I go to a cafe called the Beaver

Club almost every night, and I have seen Smith there quite a lot. I also know his girl friend Cecilia, she is a Belgian girl.

I met Smith last Saturday night 23 Dec 44, in the Beaver Club. He came in with Charlie Barnes, a coloured man, and two or three white men, who I do not know. They went to a table in the corner, and started drinking, some girls went with the, I remained with my girl friend. They were drinking for quite a while, and then sometime after nine oclock the doorman came in and told one of the waiters that somebody wanted to see Smith.

Smith came over to me, and asked me to come with him. He said somebody wanted to see him outside. I went with him and another coloured man named Al King. When we got outside we found Cecilia and another girl waiting. Smith told us to wait by the Beaver Club Door with the other girl while he went down the street a bit to talk to Cecilia. He talked to her for a little while, and then started to curse and swear at her, and pushed her away.

We, that is King, the other girl and myself, moved towards them, as I knew he would hit her. I held Cecilia, and Smith went down towards the passage. She broke away from me, and caught up with him. Smith called to us to come with him, and we caught up to him just in the archway of the passage.

At this time I heard Smith say to somebody, "what is the matter with you?" then I heard somebody receive a blow. I heard a noise like somebody being struck in the face. Just as I got in the passage Cecilia came flying out to me. She fell against me with such a force that I fell down. I pushed her away, and went over to Smith. When I got to him I asked him what was the matter. He said 'This guy was looking for trouble'. and at the same time he asked me to stop the other two guys, but I didn't know what he meant. At this time I noticed a soldier lying on the ground at Smith's feet. Smith made a rush in the direction we had just come from. He was at this time pulling his revolver from his belt.

At this time Cecilia's mother arrive, and she was looking for her. Smith returned to the Passage, and on the way fired a shot in the air. An officer arrived and was examining the soldier who was lying on the ground. Smith said to him 'Somebody has hit my chum'. The Officer asked us to give him a hand, and King and I helped him move the man into a cafe.

King said to me 'lets go and get Smitty', and we left the Cafe and found Smith on the way to the Beaver Club. He was yelling for somebody by the name of 'Mike'. He went to a 'Jeep' and it was here that a somebody by the name of 'Mike' was. Two Provost men came up then, and asked whose jeep it was. The three of us returned to the Beaver Club. I next saw Smith when he was being arrested by the Provost early next morning in the Beaver Club.

Later that night in the Beaver Club Smith told me he had hit the man a realy beauty. I then noticed that the knuckles on his right hand were skinned.

This statement has been read over to me, and it is the truth. (KNDS) Sgn Cfn W. Robinson.
27 Dec 44.

14. It would appear that the only other parties who can give any further evidence in this connection are the four menfrom Smith's Regiment. Later on the night of 23 Dec 44, the Cdn Provost Corps, had reason to take the regimental particulars of Sjt Flynn and hiscompanion. It was not known at the time that they could in any way assist in this connection. Their particulars are as follows:- B.46446 L/Cpl Pearson T. Support Coy., and B.45863 Sjt Flynn M.J. also support company. I would respectfully suggest that these men be interviewed at their unit in this connection, and statements obtained. Nothing further is known about Leeman and his companion, but perhaps inquiries can be made for them at their unit, at the same time as Flynn and Pearson are being interviewed.

15. The clothing and personal effects of the deceased are held at this office. This includes one complete suit of battledress, pair of black oxford shoes, two pairs of socks, one army issue Shirt, one pair issue shorts, one detached collar for shirt, one comb and case, set of upper false teeth, signet ring gold, 40 Guilders (Dutch) 20 francs (Belgium, coin 11 Centimes (Dutch) 21 francs (Belgium) 30 Centimes (French), one identification tag. No paybook was located. Thehospital authorities claim that the deceased was not carrying a paybook.

16. The two civilian witnesses suggest that the deceased was accompanied by another soldier, however all other witnesses deny this. It is felt that if there had been another man, he would have either stayed to assist his companion, or would have made inquiries for him later. The motive for the assault is doubtful. It can hardly be expected that it would be for robbery, as it is an accepted fact that little could be gained from assaulting a British soldier for this purpose. I am of the opinion that Smith was in an aggravated mood, and was prepared to pick a fight with anybody, especially when backed by his companions. I do not think that either King or Robinson took any part in the actual assault. I do not think that either of these two men have made a practice of carrying weapons. They were not armed when arrested, and there seems to be a slight exageration on the part of the civilian witnesses when they say the men came out of the cafe with their revolvers drawn. It is known that both of these women were slightly intoxicated on the night of the occurence.

17. May a copy of this report be sent to the Dead man's unit, and any useful information that can be obtained might be forwarded to this Detachment to conclude the investigation. This file wile will remain open until the results of para 14 are known. Copies of this report sent direct to OC 9 Bn and DAPM 2 C.B.R.G. M. F. B. 246

Plea of mitigation
for.
C 42444 Pte Smith F. L.
of "D" Coy. 1st Bn. Canadian Scottish Regt. C.A.O.

On the 26 Nov. 43. I was granted a 48 hr. pass to go to London. While I was there I met several of my friends from the United States Army. Three chaps were from my home town in New York. So I am an American.

Since they were on leave, the custom of returning on the expiration of my pass. I stayed with my friends. The reasons for my doing so I will give later. Then, after their passes had expired and they had returned to their unit. I stayed on in London, thinking that it might be best rather than return too soon for I realized what I was up against. Knowing what I was up against. I continued to stay away as I didn't want to face my punishment and so I put it off as long as I could. Then I knew that I couldn't keep putting it off forever, so I decided to return and take my punishment.

The reasons for my going A.W.L. are simple. I had not made a great many friends in the Pln. and as I am rather self-contained in my social activities this was resented by the Pln and I felt the resentment. Then had come a period of fatigues and I had lasted for nearly a month and since the others on the fatigues were either light duty or unreliable men, I concluded that the Cpl considered me unreliable and this was hard to take though I know that it was because I had been given light duty the day I was detailed. These facts combined with the months fatigues at a small camp to which I was sent, plus the fact that I had met some chums from my home town, induced me to start my unofficial leave.

My absence was terminated as of state before when I realized that I couldn't put off returning any longer. Edward S. Smith

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any,~~ complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

154

As the Court can see from the evidence that was read out, that this man was apprehended by the Canadian Provost and that he showed no fighting mood towards the Provost, and when the fight occurred he immediately stepped back out of the scene of the action. This old soldier, who you can see by his documents joined in September 1939 and came overseas the same year, has pleaded guilty to the charges as set out before him and I, as defending officer, would like to stress these points: First of all, this man came overseas in December 1939 and during this time has been in action and has held his place and done his duty as a Canadian soldier. Granted, he has some crimes against him, as has every Canadian or nearly every Canadian, for which he has had to pay and he has paid for each one. Secondly, his parents at home have been having considerable from which they are now separated. This, of course, would cause any single person much mental strain, especially when they are due to go back to a home which they left some time ago. Thirdly, a girl who he is supposed to be married to in Scotland has "done the dirty" on him; in other words, she is now going to have a baby. This, of course, would tend to upset the mental capacity of this same person. Fourthly, he has been trying for some time to get his return to Canada but has always been unsuccessful in his attempt. As a result, this old soldier has been held back and has been put on jobs washing dishes and other fatigues instead of being put on an immediate draft for Canada. Now, with these few points in mind I beg of the Court not to consult the past crimes which you see on his Crime Sheet. Since he has pleaded guilty to these charges I beg of you to be very lenient when considering the sentence for him.

COMMENT BY PRESIDENT TO DEFENDING OFFICER

Your statement that every Canadian or nearly every Canadian has some crimes is incorrect. Most Canadians are crime-free.

Sir:- Re: Statement of Evidence in the case of L 38 Pte Smith E.L. No 4 Cdn Repat Depot.

(1) At Kingston at about 1445 hrs 18th Oct/45 I was on mobile patrol in company with L/Cpl Smith H. on Richmond Road when I saw the a/m soldier in company with another Canadian soldier.

(2) I approached them and requested to see their Leave Pass and MBM 1. They could not produce a Leave Pass. They were A.W.L. Pte Smith E.L. and the other Cdn soldier then produced their MBM 1 which I took possession of . I placed them under arrest and ordered them to get into our Jeep . At that time five Cdn soldiers approached and one of them said to Pte Smith and the other Cdn soldier under arrest, "you are not going to let them take you in,are you"? The other Cdn soldier under arrest replied ,"no I am not going in". With that I was knocked down and they all, with the exception of Pte Smith, attacked L/Cpl Smith H. and myself.

(3) In the fight that followed, I lost possession of Pte Smith MBM 1, and Pte Smith made his escape from Military Custody. Pte Smith's MBM 1 was picked up by the Civil Police Kingston about 5 minutes later, and handed over to me.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

As the Court can see from the evidence that was read out, that this man was apprehended by the Canadian Provost and that he showed no fighting mood towards the Provost, and when the fight occurred he immediately stepped back out of the scene of the action. This old soldier, who you can see by his documents joined in September 1939 and came overseas the same year, has pleaded guilty to the charges as set out before him and I, as defending officer, would like to stress these points: First of all, this man came overseas in December 1939 and during this time has been in action and has held his place and done his duty as a Canadian soldier. Granted, he has some crimes against him, as has every Canadian or nearly every Canadian, for which he has had to pay and he has paid for each one. Secondly, his parents at home have been having considerable from which they are now separated. This, of course, would cause any single person much mental strain, especially when they are due to go back to a home which they left some time ago. Thirdly, a girl who he is supposed to be married to in Scotland has "done the dirty" on him; in other words, she is now going to have a baby. This, of course, would tend to upset the mental capacity of this same person. Fourthly, he has been trying for some time to get his return to Canada but has always been unsuccessful in his attempt. As a result, this old soldier has been held back and has been put on jobs washing dishes and other fatigues instead of being put on an immediate draft for Canada. Now, with these few points in mind I beg of the Court not to consult the past crimes which you see on his Crime Sheet. Since he has pleaded guilty to these charges I beg of you to be very lenient when considering the sentence for him.

COMMENT BY PRESIDENT TO DEFENDING OFFICER

for

F 38068 Pte. Smith E.L.

Plea attached, a/E 3

Smith volunteered in Jan. 44 came to England in Jul. 44 and was over on the Continent with the Chaudiere by Aug of the same year. He transfered to the Argyll + Sutherland Highlanders about Oct and fought with them till V.E day.

This man tried to volunteer earlier, as soon as he came of age as a matter of fact but [redacted] he was suffering with a rupture at the time, and was turned down by the medical board. He began private remedial treatment [redacted] and at about this time a girl [redacted] whom he had been keeping company, told him she was pregnant. He did the only thing a man could do in this predicament and married her. After they were married, however, she told him she was not pregnant and had only said she was, to make him marry her. After some time, the remedial treatment [redacted] he had been taking, was successful, up to the point where he was accepted by the medical board.

He informed the C.O. of his application for service in the U.K. and of the relationship existing between he and his wife, but to no avail, the feeling his reasons for staying here, were apparently important to him he went and, as a last resort, before being sent to Repat

The (~~accused~~)(Defending Officer) makes the following plea in mitigation of sentence:-

The pass was not used to defraud the Army but to obtain a Railway ticket for return to his unit. Gnr Smith had admitted wrongdoing and realized his wrongdoing, and was willing to be punished for his improper conduct.

The defending officer also requested that Gnr Smith be allowed to do his punishment with his unit.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF L38
Gnr SMITH, E.L. 92 BATTERY, 3 FIELD REGIMENT, R.C.A.

ON THE DIRECTION OF THE COMMANDING OFFICER
THE EVIDENCE IS TAKEN ON OATH.

1st Witness

M4084 TBSM Maclean, J.A. "F" Troop 92 Battery, 3 Field Regiment, R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:

"At Selsden Court, PATCHING, Sussex on 18 Apr 42 at the reveille parade Gnr Smith, E.L. was reported absent. When checking on this report I found he was not in the billets or the billet area. He attended no further parades nor did I see him until 8 May 42 when he was brought to the Battery Office under escort. I had not issued a pass to this man nor had anyone else to the best of my knowledge. The weekend after 18 Apr 42 I found that an old pass book, used for the purpose of issuing Sunday passes was missing, and thought that it had been mislaid. It was thoroughly searched for and not found."

2nd Witness

M4159 B.S.M. Tracy, C.G. 92 Battery, 3 Field Regiment, R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:

"At ANGMERING, Sussex, on 18 Apr 42 at approximately 0930 hours it was reported to me at the Battery Office by Bdr Sagan, A. that Freddie Troop had reported the absence of Gnr Smith, E.L. The following morning I made enquiries from Freddie Troop if the above mentioned gunner had returned. On finding that he had not I gave orders for a casualty return covering his absence to be made. Further returns, as required, covering his absence were submitted until 8 May 42 at which time he was brought to the Battery Office by the Regimental Provost to appear before Major de Pencier. He was accompanied by charges prepared by No.6 Provost Coy and in the documentary evidence attached there was included a pass in favour of this man. It was stamped with 92/109 Field Battery and was signed by no officer of the Battery that I know of. The signature on the pass was Parker and there was no officer of that name in the Battery at that time or at the present date."

TRIAL OF L-38 Gnr. Smith E.L. 8 A F Regt.R.C.A.

PROSECUTOR Capt. F.A. Robertson

DEFENDING OFFICER Lieut. J.W. Bennett

The second witness L/Cpl. Milton J.W. No.C5626 was called and duly sworn in.
He states:

I am L/Cpl Milton J.W. of the Canadian Provost Corps. I was on duty in Edinburgh on 21 June 41.

On the evening of 21 June 41 I was taking two soldiers up to headquarters for questioning as I past, the accused, Gnr. Smith, who I recognize here in this court, (pointing to Gnr. Smith). The two soldiers who were with me asked if they could speak to him. They said that he was their brother. I took the two soldiers to headquarters where they were questioned. The one soldier said, "that fellow we met on the street was my brother." The Sgt. Major said for me to pick him up, so I went down to the Post Office where the accused was. I asked him for his pass, and asked him if the other soldier I had was his brother and would he come up and identify him. On arrival at headquarters, the accused, was asked if he was absent. At first he denied it but after the other soldiers said it was no use he admitted he was absent.

Cross-examined

Question-Did Gnr. Smith raise any objections about coming to headquarters?
Answer---No sir.

Questions by the Court

Question-Was he wearing Staff Sgt. or Sgt's stripes?
Answer---I cannot say for sure as I do not remember which one had on Sgt's stripes and which one Sgt's stripes.

TRIAL OF L-38 Gnr. Smith E.D. 8 A F Regt., R.C.A.

PROSECUTOR Capt. F.A. Robertson

DEFENDING OFFICER Lieut. J.W. Bennett

The President of the Court informed the accused that he could either give evidence as a witness under oath in which case he was liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor and questioned by the Court or make or hand in a statement not on oath, in which case he could not be questioned or he could say nothing. The accused elected to give evidence under oath.

Accused No. L-38 Gnr. Smith E.L. 8 Cdn A F Regt. R.C.A. was sworn in. He replied to following questions put to him by his Defending Officer.

Question-Did you have any intention of deserting his Majesty's Forces?
Answer---No sir.

Question-Did you attempt to leave the British Isles?
Answer---No sir.

Question-Did you wear civilian clothes?
Answer---No sir.

Cross-examined

Question-At the time you left the Regiment were you fed up?
Answer---No sir.

Question-Why did you leave?
Answer---I cannot say sir. They treated me fine, but I just got fed up and wanted something to do. When I left the Regiment I did not intend to stay away more then 2 days.

Question-While you were away did you use any false names or false documents?
Answer---No sir, except my pass which was made out in the name of Steacy. When I was asked to produce a pass I showed them this one.

Question-Did you think of giving yourself up?
Answer---No sir.

Question-Did you think of coming back?
Answer---Yes sir, I came back as far as Kingston and from there I decided to go again.

TRIAL OF L-38 Gnr. Smith E.L. 8 A F Regt. R.C.A.

PROSECUTOR Capt. F.A. Robertson

DEFENDING OFFICER Lieut. J.W. Bennett

The Prosecution, in summing up, stated:

"Gnr. Smith appears to have been tired of soldiering in the Regiment and decided to leave for no other good reason. He was successful in getting as far away as possible and probably would have left the country, had it been possible to do that without getting caught. He evaded capture, probably through concealing his identity and he made no attempt to return to his unit until apprehended in Edinburgh some three months after leaving it. There has been no evidence produced to show that he did actually attempt to return to his unit. He returned to Kingston, but turned around and went away again. It can only be concluded that he had no intention whatsoever of returning. I submit, therefore, that in these circumstances he must be found guilty of the charge of desertion."

The defence, speaking on behalf of the accused, states:

"Gnr. Smith came over with the 3rd Field Regiment as soon as war was declared. He transferred to the super heavys on the coast, and when that was disbanded he came to this Regiment. We found his duties satisfactory, otherwise, he would have not held the job he did. I would like to add that he has been under arrest for 31 days, and his conduct has been satisfactory. He never did try to obstruct justice in anyway. He is now 22 years of age.

TRIAL OF L-38 Gnr. Smith E.L.S A F Regt.

PROSECUTOR Capt. F.A. Robertson

DEFENDING OFFICER Lieut. J.W. Bennett

IN SUMMING UP the President of the Court stated:

"The evidence presented by the first witness has shown that a properly constituted Court of Inquiry proved that Gnr. Smith illegally absented himself without leave from 0830 hrs. 23 March 41 and the evidence of L/Cpl Milton established that he was apprehended at about 1900hrs. on 21 June 41. To prove desertion it is necessary to prove intention. I has not been proved that intention to desert existed and the accused under oath has stated that he did not intend to desert.

The Court was closed at 1640 hrs to deliberate on their findings.

The Court was opened at 1655 hrs to consider the other charges.

The President of the Court referred to the summary of evidence and to the evidence already recorded which had bearing on the charges to which the accused had plead guilty.

The accused was asked if he had any statement to make, or statement in mitigation of punishment.

The accused declined to make any statement.

The prosecution called Lieut. G.W. Myers who identified the document presented by the Prosecutor as certified true copy of the AFW 6 of the accused and this together with the original copy was laid before the Court.

The Prosecutor being duly sworn stated that Gnr. Smith has been in custody awaiting trial for a period of 32 days.

The Court was cleared to determine the sentence.

The Court rose at 1710 hrs.

STATEMENT OF L/CPL. J. McCARDLE, C-42019, OF NO. 1 PROVOST COY. R.C.M.P.

C-42019 L/Cpl. J. McCardle, No. 1 Provost Coy., RCMP, having been duly sworn, states:

On July 12, 1942, at approximately 1330 hours, as a result of information received, I proceeded to the Duke of York Public House, accompanied by Sgt. Buckland, of the civilian police. As a result of enquiries there, I placed Pte. Harrison under close arrest, and in his presence, two bottles of French Vermouth were taken from out of the hedge slightly north of the Public House. Shortly after I placed Ptes Tregwin and Carter under close arrest. They were escorted to the Civilian Police Station at Hurstpierpoint. I asked Pte.Carter to open his tunic. On the left hand side there were small bits of paper, from the label on the Vermouth bottle found in the hedge, adhereing to the top of his trousers.

These men were warned and informed that there was a charge pending against them. They made a voluntary statement, to the Police Sgt., which I witnessed. Pte. Harrison then took me to the spot where he had cached seventeen (17) bottles of mixed (assorted) liquor, which I subsequently recovered and took back to the Civilian Police Station. I then informed Lieut.Gilmour the Adjutant of the Unit, regarding the above. As a result of further inquiries, I proceeded with him and the Civilian Sgt. to Banstead where I placed Pte.Groom under close arrest and informed him of the charge. He was warned and elected to make a statement to the Police Sgt. This was taken down by the Sgt. and witnessed by me. S/Sgt.Rumball was then placed under arrest, informed of the charge and then we returned to Danehurst. Cpl. Webb, and S/Sgt. Armour were then placed under close arrest. The two NCOs. were warned, informed of the charges pending. Cpl. Webb gave a statement admitting his guilt. S/Sgt. Armour also made a statement. S/Sgt.Rumball made a statement but refused to sign it. I then requested Mr.Gilmour to have the Sgt.Major place S/Sgt.Smith under close arrest upon his return to billets. I entered the cellar with Mr.Gilmour and Mr.Else and removed seven (7) bottles of lime juice and two (2) bottles of (I believe) home made wine. This is held at H.Q. Orderly Room.

This statement has been read over by me. It was made voluntarily, and it is quite true.

B-94586 S/Sgt.Smith. E.L.

At 4 p.m. on the 11th July 1942, I returned to Lanehurst and was issuing weekend passes and Cpl Webb approached me and said, "On account of you being transferred to another Unit, I should like to buy you a drink". I replied, "I'm in a hurry". I was going to my room to wash, and he said he had a bottle of liquor and it would be here in a few minutes. I came to my office, Cpl Webb was waiting, and myself Pte Groom, S/Sjt Rumball and Cpl Webb went into my office, we drank liquor from a bottle in glasses, it was whiskey, I was sober. I had two drinks, large ones. We were waiting to go on pass, the truck was waiting to take us to a railway station. Cpl Webb said, "I can get another bottle". I replied, "Alright, dont be long". I was anxious to get away. After we had drank the first bottle, I left S/Sjt Rumball in my office. Pte Groom and Cpl Webb went out into the hall. I followed up and told them to hurry up. They were standing near the dining room door. I went upstairs, issued some passes, and returned to my office, and Cpl Webb was then going into my office. Pte Groom came in from the back way with a sealed bottle, he too came into my office. Now present was Cpl Webb Pte Groom, S/Sjt Rumball and myself and a few minutes later I heard S/Sjt Armour outside and called him in. I did not see Cpl Webb go through the window, or hear him call out. I did not see Pte Groom go to him. I did not see Pte Groom take a kit bag to Cpl Webb. The second bottle was whiskey, we all drank it I had two large glasses, I was not feeling intoxicated, but not drunk. I asked Cpl Webb if there was an off-license in the district. He replied,"No". I said, "Where did you get it". He replied, "Never mind where I got it". These are the exact words spoken by Cpl Webb and myself. This was after we had drank the first bottle. No questions were asked where the second bottle came from.

We got into a 15cwt truck and drove to Haywards Heath railway station. Seated in the truck was Cpl Webb, Pte Groom, S/Sjt Armour, S/Sjt Rumball and myself. I did not see a kit bag in the truck, Left hand side of the truck was seated nearest to cab, Pte Groom, next S/Sjt Rumball, and next to him Cpl Webb. On the opposite side was seated nearest the cab S/Sjt Armour and I was next. I was last to get in the truck. We were all smoking. We all spoke as to where we were going. On the way someone produced a beer bottle, it was corked. Cpl Webb and the others tried to open it, someone dropped it and it broke. Pte Groom gave me a bottle of whiskey. What I done with it I do not remember. I do not know what brand it was, I put it in my blouse. I saw S/Sjt Rumball had a bottle of drink, I dont know what it was, I saw it in his blouse. I was suspicious as to where the liquor was coming from, this was after I had been given my bottle of whiskey in the truck. I wondered where all the liquor was coming from, as it is hard to buy. I did not ask where it came from, it had never happened before that bottles of whiskey were handed around as on this occassion. I did ask where it came from. I got off the truck at Haywards Heath, we all went into a pub opposite the railway station. I had a beer I think we all had a beer. Someone said, "Let's have another". I said, "Come on I(m im a hurry. These were the exact words I used. We all left went across to the railway station, caught a train to Redhill. We all got in the same compartment. There were three women in this compartment. We got in conversation, passed cigarettes round. We all got off at Redhill. We all caught a bus here to Burgh Heath I was still carrying my bottle of whiskey in my blouse. The others got off the bus at Fox Hotel at Upper Kingswood. I went on alone to Blue Anchor Hotel at Kingswood. I from there walked to Surrey Yoeman Hotel, Burgh Heath, still carrying my bottle of whiskey. I there had more drinks with friends. I hid my bottle of whiskey, I do not remember where. At 9.50 p.m. on the 12th July 1942, I saw Sjt Buckland, Lieut Gilmour and a L/Cpl. Sjt Buckland asked me questions. He asked me something about liquor. I replied, "I do not know what you are talking about", or words to that effect. I did not know at that time about all the liquor whiskey, which I had drank before we left Lanehu st, and the bottle I had had in the truck, which I had hidden, but I did not tell the police Sergeant when he questioned me about it. I have no reason to explain why I did not tell the police sergt what I knew.

"A short time ago Cpl Webb told me that he had a bottle of whiskey. At about 1500hrs Saturday, 11 July 42, just after parade, I suggested we get the bottle. He told me where it was hidden and I took his kitbag on a bicycle and got the bottle from the bushes near the Transport Cafe, returning to the billets. I gave Cpl Webb the bottle and put the bicycle away.

S/Sjt Smith, S/Sjt Rumball, Cpl Webb and I went into S/Sjt Smith's office and commenced drinking the bottle. I left before the bottle was finished and went up to a farm about a mile away to get paid for working after hours.

I returned to the house at about 1830hrs and met Cpl Webb and S/Sjt Smith in the hall near the main door. I was then told there was a wine cellar in the house. Cpl Webb tried to open the door in the presence of S/Sjt Smith and myself. He was unsuccessful and went outside through the french window at the bottom of the stairs.

S/Sjt Smith and I remained in the hall talking for about five minutes when Cpl Webb called me. I went outside and saw him go into the cellar. I returned to my room and went back out. There was three or four bottles just outside the window, and I returned and got Cpl Webb's kitbag which was in my room. I returned to the cellar window and put six (6) bottles - two (2) of Haig whiskey; two (2) champagne; one (1) French white wine, and one bottle (unlabelled), in the kitbag. By this time Cpl Webb was outside and had closed the window. I left the kitbag in the hedge along the passage way and went to the outside toilet.

I went into the back hallway where someone told me to get another bottle of whiskey. I got one bottle of whiskey, and took it into S/Sjt Smith's office.

S/Sjt Smith, S/Sjt Rumball, S/Sjt Armour, Cpl Webb and I, drank the bottle. I went outside, picked up the kitbag, and put it in the truck preparatory to going to Haywards Heath. The rest came out and got in the truck, and we left for Haywards Heath. On the way we divided the liquor - with the exception of one bottle (without label) which was broken.

S/Sjt Smith, S/Sjt Rumball, Cpl Webb and I each had a bottle.

The truck driver dropped us all at the station and left. We had a beer in the pub across the road and caught the train to Redhill. I left the kitbag in the truck. I took a bus to Kingswood to see friends.

At about 2300hrs Sunday, 12 July 42, I was placed under arrest by the Adjutant, a sergeant of the civilian police, and a L/Cpl of the R.C.A.S.C., and brought back to billets.

This statement has been read over by me. It was made voluntarily, and it is quite true".

B.2 Statement by the accused:

"On or about ~~26th~~ 27th June 1944 I applied for a 24 hour pass for the following Thursday. I applied for this pass to go and see my sister who lives in Leeds. On the Thursday ~~morning~~ noon 6146 when I went to get the pass I was told that my application had been rejected and that I would get the pass on the week-end, on the Saturday. I then told Major Perry that the pass would be not much use to me then, that I wanted this pass to go and see my sister, that it was the only afternoon she could get off during the week (Thursday afternoon) and that I wanted to see her about some family difficulties over a will. We were both concerned in this will. That night I tried to get to see her but could not therefore missed my bus when I was coming back and had to walk from Alwoodley near Leeds. I was therefore late arriving back in camp. I was brought up for Orders next morning and remanded to the Coord Offr. I was a confirmed Cpl. at the time and I was remanded by him and told that he wanted to see my request to revert to Pte. on his desk by 1100 hrs the next morning. After I got out I saw Lieut Barr who asked me how I had got along. I told him all about it and he advised me not to sign the requisition to revert. The next morning before I went up for Offrs I paraded to Major Perry and he advised me to sign the requisition rather than take a Court Martial. I signed the sheet and was automatically fined one days pay and reprimanded. After that I went out and as I do think I had been fairly treated and I kept on at my

E-1 Character evidence by Responding Officer.

Capt H.B. Cowdry, R.C.I.R.U., sworn, states:

I enlisted in the first week of Sep 1939 and from that time until May 1941 I was continuously in the same platoon as the accused and I commanded the said platoon for about nine months of the aforementioned period. During that time the accused, then a private soldier, was a well trained, dependable soldier and most dependable of all when conditions were tough. Subsequently, due to changes in organization which separated me from the accused I had less opportunity to note his goodness but a considerable time after this the accused was promoted to Cpl and others when speaking of him to me gave him a good record. It is unfortunate that at present no other officers or senior NCOs are available to confirm my statement or add any further opinions of their own, but I feel sure that if they were available to Court would thereby be well satisfied as to the accused's reliability and efficiency as a trained machine gun NCO.

R.P. 83(b) complied with. Cross exam: None. Exam by Court: None.

E-2 Address in mitigation of punishment.

"On the merits of the case the accused has been found guilty. In the hope of mitigation of sentence the defence respectfully desires attention to the following points: (a) the accused was denied a pass for Thursday not once but twice even after he had explained the reasons for his request. The fact that his superior officer gave him a pass on a different day indicates first, that there was nothing serious to prevent his absence on leave and secondly that they did not consider that the reasons for his request were illegal. However to the accused the reasons were serious. Certain family heirlooms which had been willed to him and to his sister had been taken out of their hands and legal action was necessary to restore them to rightful ownership.

E-3. Address in mitigation of punishment (con)

ept even after the accused made his reasons clear his superiors attempted to do nothing to accommodate him considering the fact that Thursday afternoon was the only time when he could see his wife. It is not incumbent upon the army to explain its decisions to soldiers but the average soldier whose personal plans are affected by army decisions in an inexplicable way quite naturally believes that the army doesn't give a damn about him except for his duty hours. — (b) Returning the accused's ~~decision~~ the conflicting advice given him by two of his officers created confusion in his mind and undoubtedly contributed to the sense of injustice from which he was already suffering — (c) Ever since the first week of the war until he left his battalion the accused has been a ~~Private~~ machine gunner and his ability was such as to earn for him a Cpl's rank and a responsible position in the gun team. His promotion stopped prior, his value as a combat N.C.O. yet on being drafted from his battalion to a reinforcement unit eight months ago at which unit he remained continuously, except while on course, till he went AWL. He has never been given any machine gun work nor permitted to proceed on any draft to field units. On occasion he was warned and did parade for a draft and was taken off that draft without any explanation being given him. His category is "A" and has been since his voluntary enlistment. He has demonstrated his ability as a machine gunner, he has expressed his wish to join his comrades with whom he served for four years. His duties here, however, have consisted mainly of permit and Ordinary Cpl duties and other occupations which have not given full scope ex the of his natural talents or the training which he has received in the army ——— (d) The Defence submits the foregoing statement for the reason that it appears to the Defence that the circumstances thus outlined gradually worked upon the accused's mind and culminated in actions on his part of which he would never have been guilty if he had been more judiciously employed. The accused's MFM 6 will show that he has frequently jeopardized his own chances but his record as a trained machine gunner supports the opinion that he would be a valuable soldier in the field of battle. He has told a staff officer and they believed that the army did not recognize his best usefulness to [redacted] and he took his own means of forgetting the army as he believed it had forgotten him. He realizes and regrets his actions and the Defence asks a plea of mitigation on the basis of his past record and his future service with his own battalion rather than in a reinforcement unit".

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans.....(1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para. if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)

NB. If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans.....Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans.....Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.....

Examination

Before arraignment the accused objects to the charge under A.W. 32, in that the word "improper" should modify "disposed". As laid the disposal is not alleged to be improper, and the charge should be amended.

Defending officer submits the above argument.

Prosecuting officer states that the charge is proper in that the word "improper" modifies the whole clause concerned with the disposal.

The J.A. advises the court that the question is one of grammatical construction that the question is whether the particulars in the charge laid do constitute conduct prejudicial to good order & military discipline.

The court is closed to consider their decision.

The court decide not to allow the submission.

The court is reopened and their decision announced.

Defendant's Evidence

Cross examined
by Defending Officer -

All the 8 cans bore a good mark similar to those on the 2 cans produced. (The Defending Officer does not require the production of the other cans & blankets). I do not know the meaning of the numbers on the cans, except that I suppose they are post. cans. I did not tell the Court before Stod- his statement, that I would do what I could for him. Duckworth was not charged at the same time as he was away, but he is now charged. Sgt. Rumbelow could not see the identification parade forming up.

R.P. s 3(3) is complied with.

~~Prosecutor rests.~~

Second Witness for Prosecution — Detective Constable Edward White, Surrey Joint Police Force, duly sworn states.

On 11th May I went with Sgt Watts to premises of Admiral Steamship Co. at 20a. I saw the [illegible] Webley-Fosbery pistols, and I also found 5 [illegible] similar to Ex. B 3, 5 pairs [illegible] similar to those in Ex. B. and 11 army blankets similar to the one in Ex. B.

At 1245 hrs. 12 May, with 8 pistols, an identification parade was held. 8 selected pistols in the hearing of the whole parade, which included the accused to put out the man who had told me had sold the property. He guided out the accused.

Cross-Examined by Defending Officer
there were 14 blankets and 2 prints & premises and I don't know how many of them the accused was concerned with.

Examined by Court.
I identify the 2 exhibits in Ex B, as two of those I took from Springs premises. I cannot say whether the blanket in Ex B was an army blanket or not, but it is similar to them.

R.P. 83(B) is complied with

Third Witness, William Harry Spinks, 88 Stag-hays for Prosecution Ashstead, Surrey, duly sworn states.

The witness is warned under par 95, page 96 M.C.M.

In Feb or March 1943, the accused's mate came to me and asked if I want to buy paint or blankets. We bartered about the price, I agreed to purchase what he had if the other party agreed. He told me he could not sell it without another party consent. He came back the next day, agreed, that I could pick it up at 8 o'clock that night. I went to St. Romans, Woodfield Lane, at 8 o'clock, and got the goods & took it to our garage where I later stored it with St. Pat.

I received some blankets, I forget how many, but under 20, I was supposed to get 500 yds of paint but it wasn't all there. I received about 10 cans of paint. I paid Smith the money the day after I got the goods.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer.

Smith had been in my place quite often before this. I thought it was purchasing civilian paint & blankets. I do not know Duckworth, but I have heard his name. Smith didn't mention any name when he said he had to get someone else's consent. The paint I bought from Smith was the same paint that I sit took from my place. There was nothing on the paint or blankets to indicate they were govt. property. It was dark when I picked up the goods. Smith helped me load the goods.

Examined by Ct.

I had no reason to suspect that the paint & blankets were army property. I do not remember whether the accused said they were civilian property. I do recall him saying "It is the same as they use in civvie st."

R.P. 83(3): complied with.

the prosecution is closed.

First witness - M-9604 Sgt Wm Franklin Alexander for defence. Smith, 1st Edn. Army Signals duly sworn, states -

I met Duckworth who told me about selling some civilian ~~paint~~, hard finish, gloss paint, asking me if I knew anyone who would buy it. I told him I would try & find someone. I went to Sprinks to borrow some tools & asked him if he could use some civilian paint, which I described to him. I told him there was about 5 00 pds paint, he suggested £3. I told him I would take it up with Duckworth as it didn't belong to me. I saw Duckworth who agreed to the price & said that Sprinks could get it from the ~~premises~~ hut that night & deliver it. I reported this to Sprinks that night & helped Sprinks load the paint from the ~~premises~~ hut into his car. It was dark & I didn't see the colour of or the markings on the containers. The paint had been in a small room on the 1st floor of the house we were billeted in. Duckworth had taken it from there to the ~~premises~~ hut shortly after I arrived even when it was dark. Duckworth reported to me that he had to unload. Duckworth had also said he had some blankets to sell. I asked him what kind of blankets they were & he said they were not army blankets. I described them to Sprinks as civilian blankets. The blankets were included in the deal although Sprinks didn't take them. All this happened about 15th Nov. 43 or a little and of Nov. About the first of Nov, I saw Duckworth leave up in a lot with three other men

Lt. Col. Maddeaux, Sgm. Vale, and Sgm. Swanson, and saw them unload a number of cans of paint & some blankets, placing them in the Nissen Hut. Late the same day, Duckworth moved a number cans & some blankets from the hut to a small room on the 2nd floor of the house we were billeted in. The room was kept locked & Duckworth kept the key. Some cans of army (khaki camouflage paint were left in the Nissen Hut. I never examined the paint, before or after it was moved from the Nissen hut.

I did not know I would receive any thing for selling the paint & blankets. I did not help remove the good from the house to the Nissen hut. Sprinks & I alone could get on to this car. I did not examine the paint before it was moved into the house when it was first brought there. Duckworth did not tell me where the paint was he wanted me to sell. I saw the paint at about the same time & before I approached Sprinks about the purchase. I never wondered where Duckworth got the goods from. I have sold nothing else for him. I think I mentioned Duckworth's name to Sprinks.

I joined the Army in Sept. 4, 1939. Before that I was a district salesman with the C.P.R. I arrived in England 8th Fd. 1940. I am a fitter now & have been since 1940. I have served with 1st Div, 1st Ch. Corps and later with Army Tps.

Cross-examined by Crown counsel-

I do not know whether the paint put in Sprinks car was the same paint as that which had been brought there about 1 Nov.

Examined by Pte.

When Duckworth first spoke to me about selling the goods, I suspected that the paint & clothing were the same as had been brought in by truck about the 1st of Nov & moved into the house by him. I suspected that they were govt. property. I had in fact seen some of the paint from this load which was left in the kitchen hut, and identified it as govt. property. When Duckworth told me they were not army goods, it removed all suspicion that the goods were govt. property.

R.P. 83(B) complied with

Second Witness for defence. 3 31088 Pte Cpl Maddeaux. R., 7 DR section, 3 Co (1st Cdn Army Signals, duly sworn states -

I was in the truck which picked up some paint in Nov from Emmplace, in company with Sgt. Duckworth. We unloaded it at the kitchen hut. I was present when later the same day, it was moved from the kitchen hut to the house by Sgt. Thomas & I was put in a room with a Yale lock on the door. Duckworth had the only key to the room.

Prosecutor declined cross examine

R.P 83(B) is complied with

Claim amount

The Defending Officer addresses the Court.

The point is whether the accused knew the goods were govt. property. Without that there would be no case.

Smith told Spring they were civilian goods. The markings on the paint indicate it is govt property, but there is no markings on the blankets. Smith could only have seen the paint twice. The first time when it was first brought there, he paid no attention to it. The second time it was dark and he could not see it.

The contract for its sale took place before the goods were loaded. If later he had a suspicion that it was govt property he cannot be convicted. CSM Tait has said that Smith has helped him throughout.

I ask for a dismissal

The Prosecuting Officer addresses the Court.

I submit that the charge is fully proven.

The Judge summing up

1. The respective duties of J. & Court
2. The point at issue is what was in the mind of the accused when he sold the goods.
3. Reviews the facts
4. The accused must either know the goods to be public property, or suspect that they are and proceed to sell them without taking sufficiently adequate steps to determine their ownership to satisfy his mind.
5. Onus of proof on the prosecution.
6. Circumstantial Evidence MML p 281.
7. Reasonable doubt MML p 88.

STATEMENT OF M-9604, Sgmn. SMITH, Franklin Alexander, 7 D.R. Section, 3 Coy., H.Q. First Cdn Army Signals, R.C.C.S.

I have been cautioned by C.S.M. Tadt, T.B., No.1 S.I.S., that am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here

--- F.A. Smith.

I am Frank Alexander Smith, age 37 years, and was born at Innisfail, Alberta. I am a lineman in civilian occupation. I engaged in the Canadian Army on the 4 September 1939, and arrived in England on the 8 February 1940. I served with 1 Cdn Div Sigs, 1 Cdn Corps Sigs., and was posted to H.Q. First Cdn Army Signals in January 1943. Since that time I have been posted with 7 D.R.Section, 3 Company. I have known Signalman Duckworth since I came overseas. When I came to Army Signals, he was the Sgt. in 7 D.R. Section. I cannot remember the exact date, but it was about the end of November 1943 or the beginning of December, 1943, when Sgt. Duckworth approached me about some paint which he wanted to dispose of. He told me this paint was civilian paint, hard finish. He asked me if I knew anyone who wanted to buy it. He also said that he had some blankets he wanted to sell. I told him I would look around and see if anyone wanted to buy it. I approached Mr. Sprinks of Ashtead Streamline Taxi Service, in Ashtead, and asked him if he wanted to buy the paint and the blankets. He quoted a price of thirteen pounds for the 500 lbs of paint and eleven blankets, stating that he didn't want the blankets, but he wanted the paint. I said I would take it up with Sgt. Duckworth and I would let him know later, which I did and Sgt. Duckworth agreed to accept the thirteen pounds for the paint and he would throw in the blankets with it. I told Sprinks what Sgt. Duckworth had said about the paint and the blankets. So Sprinks came down that night with his car and we loaded it with the paint and the blankets. The next day, I went up to the taxi office, and Sprinks paid me the thirteen pounds, which I gave to Sgt. Duckworth, and in turn, he paid me two pounds. Some of the paint was in five gallon containers, and some in three gallon cans. It was dark when we loaded the paint and I cannot say as to the colour of the containers. The paint and blankets were stored in a small room of the second floor of the house we were living in called "Saint Ronons" in Woodfield Lane, Ashtead. Sgt. Duckworth carried the paint and blankets from this room to the Nissen hut after it was dark and just before Sprinks came to pick it up. I saw a lot of paint when Sgt. Duckworth unloaded a three ton truck containing paint which he placed in this same Nissen hut, about two weeks before, by Signalman Vale and two other members of the Section. Later, he moved most all this paint into the room on the second floor, leaving a few cans with a little paint in each in the Nissen Hut. The cans which were left in the hut contained Army khaki camouflage paint. There was no other paint there other than those cans I have mentioned which had a little coloured paint in the bottom of each. I was present when the paint was brought to "St Ronons", and also when Sgt. Duckworth carried it down from the room on the night we sold it to Sprinks as the Nissen hut I mentioned was used by me as a fitter's shop and storeroom. I have read over this statement and it is correct and true to to the best of my knowledge and memory.

First Witness For Prosecution

C 30818 A/CSM Tait T.B. No.1 S.I.S. First CdnArmy having been duly sworn states:-

"On 12th May in company with Detective White, Leatherhead police, I made a search of premises known as Ashtead Streamline Taxi Service, located in Ashtead Surrey and operated by Wm Henry Sprinks. In the basement of a house located on the premises we were shown a quantity of paint approx 30 gals which Mr Sprinks informed us had been purchased by him from a Cdn soldier. The containers of these various coloured paints bore gov't contract numbers and other markings identifying same as gov't property. In the office, in a cupboard, we found eleven blankets which Mr Sprinks informed us had come from the same source. Mr Sprinks stated that the name of this Cdn soldier was Frank Smith and that he had been a member of the personnel who had lived at the house known as St Romans in Woodfield Lane Ashtead. At about 1900 hrs on 12 May 44, ~~an~~ an identifiastion parade was held of members of # 3 Coy First Cdn Army Signals, all being dressed in battle dress including the accused numbering approx 25 men. Mr Sprinks who was being detained by myself, was not given the opportunity of seeing the parade formed up. When called by Det. White, Mr Sprinks walked thru the two front ranks and placed his hand upon the person of the accused, thereby identifying him as the soldier from whom he had purchased the paint and blankets. The accused was placed under arrest and cautioned.

On 13th May 44 whilst continuing inquiries as to the source of the paint in question, the accused informed me that he was in no way connected ~~x~~ with the theft of the paint. I again cautioned him and he made a signed statement voluntarily which I now produce. (Attached as Exhibit "A")

My inquiries indicate that Sigmn Smith was not connected with the theft of the paint;and in the matter of disposing of it he acted as agent. His assistance in clearing up this theft has been very much appreciated and his manner throughout the entire investigation was extremely helpful.

Second Witness for Prosecution

William Harry Sprinks, 88 Stag-Leys Ashtead Surrey, after having been duly sworn states:--

"I am the owner of Ashtead Streamline Car-Hire service. About the end of November 1943, Frank Smith approached me and asked me if I had any use for some civilian paint and blankets that he had. Knowing that the blankets would be useful in my occupation and that the paint would be useful for decorating. I offered him thirteen pounds for the lot. I thought thirteen pounds was a reasonable price to pay.

About 2000 hrs, I drove to St Ronans House and picked up the blankets and paint in question from the Nissen hut at the back of the house. The paint was put in the cellar the next morning where it remained until shown to CSM Tait. The blankets had been used during the winter months and returned to the cupboard at the end of March 1944.

I paid Frank Smith the thirteen pounds about noon the day after I picked up the paint and blankets.

Third Witness For Prosecution

Edward White, Detective Constable of Surrey Joint Police Force, stationed at Leatherhead; being duly sworn states:-

At 1145 on 12 May 44 in company with CSM Tait I went to the Street Ashtead to premises of Streamline Taxi Coy. At about 1400 hrs I saw the owner Mr Sprinks there. He already knew me as a police officer and C.S.M. Tait made his identity known. I told Sprinks I had good reason to believe that he had some military property at the garage, and he said,"Look, I realize I have been a fool and if I get this matter straightened out I promise you nothing like this will happen again". I then cautioned him and from the office in a cupboard he handed me fourteen blankets saying, "I bought these from a soldier". From the cellar at the same address he handed me eight tins of paint being three of seventy pounds and five of 48 pounds, two m/c inner tubes, one m/c tyre, which was brand new, a pair of m/c leggings and an m/c coat and from a motor car No.EMU 645 he handed me one tire. He said, "I bought these off a soldier, for £13 round about xmas time". I only refused about a week ago twenty pairs of new boots and 80 gals of petrol. I then told him that I intended to take possession of the property, believing it to be property of the Cdn Gov't and that I would see him later. At 1850 hrs the same day in company with CSM Tait and Sprinks, I went to Walton on the Hill in consequence of what Sprinks had told me. I conducted an identification parade. There were 20 men on parade one of whom was the accused Smith. When these men were first paraded Smith was standing in the middle file third from the left. But when CSM Tait went to fetch Sprinks who was in his car about 20 yds away I requested the Signal CSM to permit Smith to change his position and he then permitted Smith to do so. Smith then went and stood in the rear rank from the right. I asked him if he was satisfied where he was standing, and he replied, "yes". Sprinks then came and stood by me in front of the parade and I told him to look at the men and see if he could recognize the soldier who had sold him the army property. He walked along the front rank also looking at the same time at the other two ranks, he then walked through the ranks up to Smith and touched him on the shoulder and said, "that is the man". The parade was then dismissed and in the presence of Major Bown, CSM Tait, I asked Smith if he was satified with the parade and he replied, "yes quite satisfied".

First Witness For Defence

B 31088 L/Cpl Maddeaux R. being duly sworn states:--

I am B 31088 L/Cpl Maddeaux R of 7 D.R. Section First Cdn Army Signals. One morning in the middle of November 1943 Sigmn Vale, Sigmn Lawson and myself were detailed by Sgt Duckworth to accompany him. We were not informed of our destination. We arrived at Penn Place. We loaded a number of cans of paint on our truck. There were 5 and 3 gal cans of paint. We also loaded a small number of blankets in the truck. When we returned to our billets the truck was unloaded and the paint and blankets were put in the Nissen Hut at the rear of St Ronans billet. Sometime later most of the paint was taken from the Nissen Hut and carried up to the second floor of our billets. It was placed in a little room and the door locked.

Sigmn Smith was not present on the trip to Penn place.

One morning at approx 0800 hrs in the middle of Nov 1943 I was detailed by Sgt Duckworth to accompany him. As I did not know where we were going and was unfamiliar with the country Sgt Duckworth drove the vehicle. We arrived at a place that I was told was Penn Place. At this place we loaded a number of cans of paint on my vehicle with a few blankets. We returned to billets unloaded the paint and put it in the Nissen Hut.

Sigmn Smith was not present on the trip to Penn Place; nor was he present during the unloading of the vehicle.

Question to the Accused

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence".

The accused then made the following statement on oath:--

"I am Frank Alexander Smith, age 37 years, and was born at Innisfail Alberta. I am a lineman in civilian occupation. I engaged in the Canadian Army on the 4th September 1939, and arrived in England on the 8th February 1940. I served with 1 Cdn Div Sig, 1 Cdn Corps Sigs., and was posted to H.Q. First Cdn Army Signals in January 1943. Since that time I have been posted with 7D.R. Section, [illegible] 3 Company. I have known Sigmn Duckworth since I came overseas. When I came to Army Signals, he was the Sgt. in 7 D.R. Section I cannot remember the exact date, but it was abut the end of November 1943 or the beginning of December 1943 when Sgt Duckworth approached me about some paint which he wanted to dispose of. He told me this paint was civilian paint, hard finish. He asked me if I knew anyone who wanted to buy it He also said that he had some blankets he wanted to sell. I told him I would look around and see if anyone wanted to buy it. I approached Mr Sprinks of Ashtead Streamline Taxi Service, in Ashtead, and asked him if he wanted to buy the paint and the blankets. He quoted a price of thirteen pounds for the 500 lbs of paint and eleven blankets, stating that he didn't want the blankets, but he wanted the paint. I said that I would take it up with Sgt Duckworth and I would let him know later, which I did and Sgt Duckworth [illegible] agreed to accept the thirteen pounds for the paint and he would throw in the blankets with it. I told Mr Sprinks what Sgt Duckworth had said about the paint and the blankets. So Sprinks came down that night with his car and we loaded it with the paint and the blankets. The next day I went up to the Taxi office and Sprinks paid me the thirteen pounds, which I gave to Sgt Duckworth, and in turn he paid me two pounds. Some of the paint was in five gallon containers, and some in three gallon cans. It was dark when we loaded the paint and I cannot say as to the colour of the containers. The paint and blankets were stored in a small room of the second floor of the house we were living in called St Ronans" in Woodfield Lane, Ashtead. Sgt Duckworth carried the paint and blankets from this room to the Nissen Hut after it was dark and just before Sprinks came to pick it up. I saw a lot of paint when Sgt Duckworth unloaded a three ton truck containing paint which he had placed in this same Nissen hut, about three weeks before, by Signalman Vale and two other members of the Section Later, he moved most all this paint into the room on the second floor leaving a few cans with a little paint in each in the Nissen hut. The cans which were left in the hut contained Army khaki camouflage paint. There was no other paint there other than those cans I have mentioned which had a little coloured paint in the bottom of each. I was present when the paintw was brought to "St Ronans", and also when Sgt Duckworth carried it down from the room on the night we sold it to Sprinks as the Nissen hut I mentioned was used by me as a fitter's shop and storeroom. I have read over this statement and it is correct and true to the best of my knowledge and memory.

Trial of D6017 Gnr. Smith. F. D. 9

The accused's statement in mitigation of punishment:-

I have pleaded guilty to the charge and wish to make the following statement in mitigation of punishment:

On the morning of the 29th of Nov I arose at reveille which is at 0600 hrs and was employed cleaning my kit and truck until 0800 hours. All morning I was employed hauling poles under Lieut Wilby and in fact did not get back to dinner until 1430 hrs. During the afternoon I was again hauling poles until 1930 hrs when I reported to the guardroom.

At this time I asked both Lieut Wilby and L/Bdr Parsons the NCO i/c guard to be relieved as I was very tired, and did not feel up to doing guard duty after my long day on the road. Lieut Wilby agreed that this was a reasonable request, but unfortunately no relief was available, and I mounted my post at 0100 hrs for a four hour shift. In my exhausted condition I consider this too be too long a time for a sentry to remain on guard and respectfully draw your attention to KR Can 841 which states that sentries will be relieved every two hours, or in cold or inclement weather every hour.

I 2nd Lieut A.A. on guard for approx three and a half hours when the Adjutant found me asleep. The commander of the guard had visited my post at 0350 hrs and found me alert. At about 0420 hrs I went into the hut, sat down and must have just dozed off when the adjutant arrived at the barrier. ~~At this time I had been posted for 2½ hrs.~~ A.A.S.

I say in mitigation of punishment that it was impossible under the above circumstance for me not be become drousy, though I realise that by falling asleep I committed a serious crime.

I am aware of no orders preventing me from going into the hut or sitting down in it. The orders were read to me by L/Bdr Parsons before being posted.

The adjutant did not place me under close arrest, but left me on guard, saying a charge would be laid.

ABSTRACT OF EVIDENCE

In the case of D-6017 Gnr. Smith, F.D., 5 Fd. Regt., R.C.A.

Lieut. T.H. Montgomery, 5th Fd Regt. R.C.A., is directed by the C.O. 5th Fd Regt., R.C.A., to prepare an abstract of evidence in the above case in accordance with D.R.O. No. 772, App. "A".

FIRST WITNESS

Capt. R.W. Coristine, Adjutant, 5th Fd Regt., R.C.A., stated:

At about 0430 hrs. on the 30th Nov./41, I was approaching Regimental Headquarters, 5 Fd Regt., R.C.A., in Ford Sedan No. CM 4202353. The approach to this position is guarded by a barrier put in place each evening, with a sentry posted on it. The duties of the sentry with regard to his tour of duty and his actions on the approach of vehicles or persons to the barrier are laid down in Regimental standing orders. On arriving at this road barrier the vehicle in which I was riding halted and we waited for the sentry to open the barrier. No sentry appeared, and after about one minute's wait, I dismounted and opened the barrier, upon which the vehicle drove ahead a few yards and stopped at the sentry box. I walked over to the sentry box and saw the sentry's rifle leaning against it. I entered the sentry box, which is in the form of a very small hut, and found the sentry asleep in a chair. He awakened when I spoke to him. I informed him that I would place a charge against him.

SECOND WITNESS

Lieut. H.W. Peck, R.S.O., 5 Fd Regt., R.C.A., stated:

At about 0430 hrs. on the 30th/Nov./41, I was a passenger in a W.D. vehicle No. CM 4202353 with Capt R.W. Coristine and Lieut. R.H. Craig, entering the Regimental Headquarters position of the 5 Fd Regt., R.C.A. We stopped at the road barrier in the entrance to the position and waited there for a reasonable time for the sentry to open the barrier. No sentry appeared, and Capt. Coristine dismounted, opened the barrier himself, then entered the small hut which is near the barrier, and awakened the sentry who was asleep in a chair.

THIRD WITNESS

Lieut. R.H. Craig, O.C., 5 Fd Regt., R.C.A., stated:

At about 0430 hrs. 30th Nov/41 I was a passenger in Ford Sedan W.D. No. CM 4202353 with Capt. R.W. Coristine and Lieut. H.W. Peck, approaching the position of Regimental Headquarters, 5 Fd Regt., R.C.A., at Glynleigh, near Hailsham, Sussex. When

When we arrived at the road barrier at the entrance to the position we waited for the sentry to appear to open the barrier. No sentry appeared. The barrier is situated on a gravel driveway and we consequently made considerable noise on approaching it. After waiting for the sentry to appear, Capt. Coristine dismounted, opened the barrier, and went into the small hut used as a sentry box. The sentry was asleep in a chair.

The above abstract of evidence was taken by me, in the field, on the 2nd of December, 1941.

I am in charge of administration of Regimental Headquarters, 5th Fd Regt.,R.C.A.

From the period Nov 22 - 29 ~~MMX~~ 1941, inclusive, Gnr. Smith; F.D. was only given his fair share of duties, and to the best of my knowledge he had at least five nights free during that period.

On the evening of 29 Nov 41 at 1800 hrs, Gnr. Smith was detailed in orders to mount guard. The duties of Main gate Guard are laid down in R.H.Q. Part I Orders dated 19 Nov 41. The tour of duty is one shift of two hours and twenty minutes and a second shift of two hours.

The Guard mounts at 1800 hrs and dismounts at 0700 hrs, - a total of thirteen hours. The tour of duty of 2 hours and 20 mins is rendered necessary by the exigencies of the service in that there is a shortage of personnel available for guard duty.

I was N.C.O. i/c Guard at R.H.Q. 5 Cdn Fd Regt R.C.A. 29-30 Dec 41.

To my knowledge he has been a member of the guard several times before.

~~Will you tell the court~~

~~Capt Henderson the~~ FJM

He identifies the accused.

Will you tell the court what happened on evening of Sat Jul 17.

On evening of Sat Jul 17 I was travelling with ~~Maj~~ Watson on the Chichester bus. We were sitting in the front seat top deck. At about 2150 some gunners boarded the bus and took seats on the top deck. There was a lot of loud, foul language and I looked around and recognized Gnr Smith and noticed in addition to the fact he was causing a commotion that his battle dress blouse was completely undone and he was without beret dress. I got up, went down the bus and told Gnr Smith to get himself properly dressed and to quiet him down. I then proceeded to the bottom deck of the bus to make sure that neither Gen Smith nor Gen Jones who was with him, got off the bus at the next stop — the Burnham Hotel. Returning to the top of the bus I saw Maj Watson was involved in an argument with Gen Smith. I heard him say to Maj Watson that his name was Brown and also who the hell are you Maj Watson pursued his identity and Gen Smith did not produce his when asked to do so. Gen Smith became violent and Gen Clowry who was sitting opposite was told to place him under arrest. There was much violent abusive conversation and scuffling took place between Gen C & Gen S. After all the entrance for some time — women who were travelling on top of bus got off in Chestnut Gen Smith was told to board the lorry back by Gen Clowry and myself

Pros — Was it a regular place or —

I changed the word — It was ordered to dismount from the truck on at least two occasions and each time was ordered to get back in and stay in. I saw Gen Smith while on top of the bus threatening Gen C and I heard him say You dirty yellow bastard or words to that effect because Gen C wouldn't take his time & go fishing to check

Pros. Was there any thing else

Yes I heard him say to Gen Jones several times words to the effect that he had better make up his mind this before and not to remember anything tomorrow.

Pros. Did you see any people were on top deck of bus.

Wit – Well this episode was I some what, a distance I from or five miles between Burnham
& Old Chichester

Def. – You said there was a commotion on back of bus. Could you make this a little clearer

Wit – I said very vivid.

Def – How did you address Sir Smith.

Wit – I said better if you were to keep quiet

Why did you go to back of bus.

Summing up of the Defence

Def. Gnr Smith has been in England for 3 years, with 7 Fd Regt since Sept 1939. Some people find daily recreation in Pubs. Officers must help men keep out of troubles rather than try to antagonize them. Try to humour the man. There was a personal grudge between Capt Henderson & Gnr Smith, which Gnr Smith still held. The first man to accost Smith was Capt Henderson and he, not being in full possession of his faculties, did not like the manner in which he was approached. Both Capt Henderson & Major Watson testified that the man was not fit for duty and so he could not have been completely sober. Negligence on the part of the officers concerned in not seeing that Smith was placed in military custody immediately. Nearly two hours elapsed before he was sent home. Witnesses have stated that Gnr Smith was drunk, one that he could hardly stand. This is a common crime and aggrieved by the first charge

Summing up of the prosecution

First charge of Cond. to the Prej. of Good order & Military Discipline has been brought out by the first three witnesses

Second charge of insubordinate language has been also brought out by three witnesses that he disobeyed use the language brought out

The third charge has also been brought out by witnesses But in the crowded streets of Colchester he used the language attributed to him

It has also been brought out that the accused got out of the truck twice in one hour after having been ordered to stay in it

As for the alternate charge it has been brought out the accused's degree of drunkenness. Drunkenness is no excuse for the behavior of the accused Def in Mitigation of Sentence.

It is to be hoped that the court will take into account the fact that Gnr Smith was not sober when these acts were committed

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
in the case of

D6017 Gnr Frederick Doran Smith, 73rd Fd Bty, 5 Cdn Field Regiment R.C.A.

a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The accused is informed of his rights.

The C.O. directs that the evidence be taken on oath by Capt W.C.Newman, 5 Cdn Fd Regt R.C.A.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Capt G.K.Henderson, 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, having been duly sworn states:

"I identify the accused as the soldier in question in this case. On 17 Jul 43 at about 2155 hrs I was returning to Chichester in company with Major J.M.Watson on the front seat of the top deck of a bus. There were some soldiers and civilians also seated on the top deck of this bus. The accused and Gnr Jones boarded the bus. I heard a commotion and finally turned back and saw them about mid-way down the bus. Gnr Smith had no headdress on and his battledress was completely undone. I walked back and told the accused to button up his tunic and to quiet down. I proceeded immediately to the lower part of the bus to see that no soldiers of the unit alighted from the bus when it stopped at Birdham. When the bus started I rejoined Major Watson who was then talking to the accused. I heard the accused give his name to Major Watson as "Brown", at the same time saying, "Who the hell are you? I want to see your identification." Major Watson produced his military card. The accused did not produce his paybook when ordered. His attitude became threatening. Bdr Clowery who was sitting opposite, was told to place him under arrest. The accused started to struggle with Bdr Clowery. Before it was over all civilians in bus, men, women and children left the top deck.

"Arriving at Chichester the accused was ordered to board the Liberty Truck and to stay on it. Bdr Clowery, I and Major Watson all gave this order, at different times. The accused got on and off at least twice and acted in the most insolent and insubordinate manner.

"The accused recognized me when I first spoke to him.

"The accused appeared to have been drinking but he knew what he was doing. I heard him say to Gnr Jones around the Liberty Truck, "that he had beaten worse raps than this and to remember nothing in the morning."

"By the Liberty Truck I saw the accused threaten Bdr Clowery and callhim a 'yellow bastard' because he would not go behind the Church and fight with the accused."

Cross-examined by the accused:-

Q.1 You told the C.O. that you went down to the bottom deck of the bus to see that I did not get off for another drink - as I could have - so you must have presumed that I could not stand another drink.

A.1 Your conduct was such that I was going to see that youneither dismounted from the bus or had another drink. It was obvious that drink would not improve your conduct.

Q.2 It is hard for you to know how much I understood or not after I had been drinking.

A.2 That is true.

The accused declines to cross-examine further.

(G.Keith Henderson)Capt R.C.A.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Major J.M.Watson, 5 Cdn Fd Regt R.C.A., having been duly sworn states:

"I identify the accused as the soldier in question in this case. At 2200 hrs I was travelling on top deck of a bus going into Chichester. Capt Henderson was with me. Several soldiers also seated themselves on the top deck of this bus. The accused,who was one of them, was using foul language and Capt Henderson went back and spoke to him. The accused's tunic was undone entirely and his cap was off. Capt Henderson then went below and the accused continued to make improper remarks - some of which referred to Capt Henderson. I went back to him and asked him his name and he gave it as 'Brown'. I asked for his paybook and he said words to the effect 'Who in the hell are you to ask for a paybook; where is your identification', so I showed him my military card. He did not show his paybook. He then stated his name was Smith. This was corroborated by other soldiers. Capt Henderson returned and we told Bdr Clowery,who was riding in the same bus, to escort Smith back to camp.

"Cnr Smith the accused started to struggle with Bdr Clowery. All civilians,which included women and children, left the top deck of the bus.

"On arriving at the Liberty Truck in Chichester, the accused was ordered into the truck and to stay there,but I saw him get off the truck twice and continue to act disorderly."

(J.M.Watson)Major R.C.A.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

D13566, Bdr.Clowery,H., 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, having been duly sworn states:

"I recognize the accused as the person to whom I shall refer to as such in my statement. On 17 Jul 43 at about 2150 hrs I was on the top deck of the bus returning to Chichester. There were about fifteen other people on the bus - soldiers and civilians of both sexes. I was sitting about two seats behind the accused when I saw Capt Henderson go up to the accused who had no headdress on and whose tunic was open at the front. A conversation developed so I got up and ordered Smith to sit down, and when he did not obey I ordered him under arrest.

"He did not sit down. Capt Henderson then left. Major Watson then came and asked the accused for his paybook. Gnr Smith started to look for it but did not find it. He said to Major Watson, "Who the hell are you," or something. He gave his name as "Brown" to Major Watson. By that time Capt Henderson came back. I thought Smith was going to hit Capt Henderson and I stepped in, and then he challenged me to fight. He jostled me. I returned to my seat. All the civilians left the top deck of the bus.

"When we got back to Chichester the accused again challenged me to a fight and when I would not he called me a 'dirty,yellow bastard'. There were at least twenty-five around when this was going on including some civilians. I ordered him to get in the truck and stay there - so did Capt Henderson and Major Watson. He got out of the truck twice after that order.

"I heard him say "Fuck all the bombardiers, fuck all the sergeants and fuck all the officers."

"I came back with the accused on the Liberty Truck. Sgt Firth was in charge of the accused who on our arrival was turned over to L/Bdr Malyon,C.H. N.C.O. i/c Main Gate Guard."

D13566, Bdr Clowery,H.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

D6902, L/Bdr Epps,E.T., 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA, having been duly sworn states:

"The accused is the person to whom I refer as such in my statement. I came to the Liberty Truck at Chichester busstop at 2235 hrs. I was detailed by Capt Henderson to act as escort and witness together with Bdr Clowery, to the accused and Gnr Jones.

"When I got up to the truck I heard the accused call Bdr Clowery a 'dirty,yellow bastard' because he would not go behind the Cathedral and fight. He called the officers 'dirty fuckers' and 'cunts'. I was looking after Gnr Jones but I saw the accused get in and out of the truck once - I cannot say if he got out again. When either Capt Henderson or Major Watson ordered the accused back into the truck he took his time about it.

"I heard the accused tell Gnr Jones he was going to plead drunk to the charge."

D6902, L/Bdr Epps,E.T.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

B6455, L/Bdr Malyon,CH., 5 Cdn Fd Regt RCA,having been duly sworn states:

"I was NCO i/c guard at No.4 post on 17 Jul 43. At approximately 2330 hrs the Liberty Truck returned from Chichester and in consequence of information I woke up Gnr Ward and I took the accused,whom I recognize, and Gnr Jones into custody. I heard the accused say that if he was going to be charged that he was going to make it worth while,so I warned him to behave and so he said that it would be O.K. - that he would not make any trouble for me.

"Gnr Ward went with the accused to get his bedding. They returned in about 10 minutes. Gnr Smith got undressed. He walked unassisted and he undressed himself. He started talking. I asked him to be quiet because Gnr Ward had to go on the beat at 0200 hrs and had to get to sleep. He said that he had no pillow and that the tent was spinning around at about sixty miles per hour.

"He mentioned he lost his cigarette lighter. He said that on a trip to Beachy Head that he was driving Capt Henderson and that he had got a little drowsy and Capt Henderson had taken the wheel and he told Capt Henderson that so long as he was in charge of the vehicle that he was in control of the vehicle and Capt Henderson was not to interfere with the driving. On the return from Beachy Head Capt Henderson had him replaced.

"He also stated that ever since then he felt Capt Henderson had a grudge against him, for after Capt Henderson had left the battery he had got his proficiency pay and qualifications as Dvr Mech entered in his paybook.

"He said Capt Henderson had told him to button up his tunic and put his cap on, and that after that Bdr Clowery had come forward and pushed him down into the seat. He said a 'queer' major asked for his name and he replied that his name was Brown. He said the Major asked for his paybook and he said he asked for the major's identification and that the major did show him it.

"Several times I told him that it was none of my business and that I would rather not hear any of it. I heard the accused say to Gnr Jones that he could not say anything in defence of himself on one point or he would queer the whole thing and that he would plead drunkenness. He told Jones that he would iron things out in the morning. Before this he had told me that he had invited Bdr Clowery behind the Church and that he had referred to him as a 'yellow bastard'. He went to sleep then."

Claude H. Malyon

SIXTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

D13645, Gnr Ward, G.A.P., 5 Cdn Pd Regt RCA, having been duly sworn states:

"On 17 Jul 43 I was on guard at the Main Gate. I was awakened at 2340 hrs and in consequence of orders from L/Bdr Malyon I went with the accused, whom I recognize, to get his blankets. He went under his own power. We returned to the guard tent. I went back to my bed which was in the guard tent. There was talking going between Smith and Jones and I heard L/Bdr Malyon tell them to keep quiet as I wanted some sleep. They were talking about the trouble they had been in during the evening on the bus. The accused said that Capt Henderson and some major told him to button up his tunic which he had undone. The major asked for his paybook and the accused asked him for his identity card, which the accused said he did not do so, he did not show him his paybook.

"He said that he had trouble with Bdr Clowery and that he offered to fight it out with him and that Bdr Clowery would not fight. He said that he was a 'yellow bastard'.

"He said that when Capt Henderson was here in the battery he never got a break but after he had gone he got his Driver Mechanic qualification through and his proficiency pay."

B-76865, Pte. Smith, F.H., No. 1 Cdn. (MG) Holding Unit, tried by Field General Court-Martial at Bordon, Hants., on the 10th day of April, 1941.

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet and the summary of evidence are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor - Lieut. J.M. Prescott
Defending Officer - Lieut. A.D. Anderson.

At 1000 hours the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to M-15577 Sgt. Stanley Fidler, The Edmonton Regiment, C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty, sir.
Q4 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge against you, which you have heard read?
A4 - Guilty, sir.
Q5 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the third charge against you, which you have heard read?
A5 - Guilty, sir.

R.P. 35(B) is complied with by the Court.

Q6 - Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?
A6 - No, sir.
Q7 - Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?
A7 - No, sir.

Lieut. J.M. Prescott, No. 1 Arty. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q8 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A8 - A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6, sir.
Q9 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A9 - Yes, sir.
Q10 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A10 - Yes, sir.
Q11 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A11 - Yes, sir. I also have a letter which Col. Carpenter wishes me to introduce; it is from the mother of the accused. It contains a certified copy of the registry of birth showing that the accused was born on the 23rd day of May, 1923. It also shows that he practically ran away from home, and that his father is a Great War veteran now serving with the R.C.E.

Q12 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A12 - (Defending Officer) In view of the evidence brought forward by the prosecutor there are only a few words I would like to say. While this chap is under age he is likely to have been a hero worshipper and made friends with the wrong type of people and looked up to the bad eggs who were continually going a.w.l. and bragging about not being afraid of anything. I would like to call attention to his extreme age and family background -- his father and mother. His father is a veteran of the last war once again serving with the R.C.E.; and his mother is interested in him. I think he is too young to be thrown in with associations which would give him trouble.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

Dear Sir

I am writing this Re my son F. H. Smith # B 46865. at present in your unit. He is only 17½ years of age. I am sending his Birth Certificate. He enlisted in July without consulting his Father or myself and before we hardly realized what was happening he had sailed for England in 3 weeks or less. If

However we waited to see how Chingo would turn out, But as he does not seem to be making a very good soldier we would like to know if he could be returned to Canada for the time being or discharged, His father is in the Army since September R.C.E. Order convening the Court

On Active Service, this 9 day of July, 1941.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 1st Canadian Division, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

THE ACCUSED ELECTS TRIAL BY COURT MARTIAL

CHARGE SHEET

The accused, B86247 Pte. Smith, F.H., Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas) is charged with:

A.A.Sec. 15(1) ABSENCE WITHOUT LEAVE

When on Active Service, in that he,

at Stangrave Hall, Godstone, did absent himself without leave from 1700 hrs. 17 Jun 41 until 1700 hrs. 19 Jun 41.

C H Playfair
(C.H. Playfair) Lt.-col.
Officer Commanding
5 Cdn. Fd. Amb.

1st Witness B89756 Sgt. Plant, having been duly sworn was questioned
Q. Will you tell the Court in your own words what you know about this case?
A. In the absence of the Sgt-Major I refused Pte. Smith a forty eight hour pass on disciplinary grounds.
Q. Why?
A. Smith's conduct did not warrant a pass.
Q. When or how would this pass be dated?
A. From 1700hrs 17 Jun 41 until 1700hrs 19 Jun 41.
Q. You were acting R.S.M.?
A. No, sir the R.S.M. was just away on leave, I was in temporary charge.
Q. Then you had the authority to refuse the pass?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know if Pte. Smith was warned that his pass was cancelled?
A. I instructed Cpl. Burstead to tell him
Q. Do you know if the pass was actually refused?
A. I do not know, sir.
Q. You do not know if the defendant was told?
A. I was not there at the time, sir.
Q. You instructed the Orderly Room Cpl.?
A. Yes, sir.

2nd Witness B89755 Cpl. Burstead, F.H. having been duly sworn was questioned:-
Q. Will you tell the Court what you know of this Case?
A. Yes, sir. I was instructed by Sgt. Plant to cancel Pte. Smith's 48 hr pass. I advised L/Cpl. Foster to tell Smith that his pass for the 48 hrs between the 17 and 19th had been cancelled.
Q. How did you do so?
A. By written message, sir.
Q. Do you know if he was informed?
A. I could not say so.
Q. Are you doubtful that he was informed?
A. I could not say whether he was or not but Cpl. Foster was warned to tell him.
Q. Was ther a 48 hr pass made out for Pte. Smith?
A. Yes, sir, but it was cancelled.
Q. What was the date on the seven day pass?
A. 17 Jun 41 to 24 Jun 41.

3rd Witness W3776 L/Cpl. Foster, E.W. having been duly sworn was questioned:-
Q. Will you give evidence against Pte. Smith?
A. I was instructed by Sgt. Plant through the Orderly Room Cpl., to tell Pte. Smith that his 48 hour pass was cancelled. We had been out on a two day scheme and when we came back I informed Smith that his pass was cancelled. On the 24th of June I inspected the stubs of the passes to see who was on leave. I noticed Smiths pass read 19th to 26th of June and he had left on the 17th of June. I reported this to the acting R.S.M. Q.M.S.Middleton.
Q. How did you inform Smith of the cancellation?
A. Verbally, sir.
Q. You know Smith left for leave on Tues., 17th of June?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. When you checked on Tues 24th you reported Smith absent?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is this the pass?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Could there be any mistake in the pass causing Smith to think his leave started earlier?
A. No sir, because when the 48 hour leave was cancelled the date on the seven day pass was not changed therefore it read 19-26th June.
Q. Is it normal proceedure for men going on leave to go without checking out? Board changed
A. We keep a list on the sir, and the men know when it is their turn.
Q. Do the men always get their passes two days ahead of their leave?

A. No, sir.

4th Witness — B89859 Q.M.S. Middleton, C.R. having been duly sworn was questioned:-
Q. Will you tell the Court your own words what you know concerning this case?
A. L/Cpl. Foster informed me that Pte. Smith was A.W.L. on the morning of the 24th June 41. I found he was not on parade and that his pass should have been up.
Q. You looked up the leave list and saw Smith had leave from 17th Jun .
A. Yes sir.
Q. On the 24th you were informed by Orderly Room Cpl that Smith should have returned on Jun 24th.
A. Yes, sir.
Q. That would make him A.W.L. from 24th to 26th.
A. Yes, sir.

The Accused — B86347 Pte. Smith, P.H. having been duly cautioned and sworn was questioned:-
Q. Tell us what you know about this case?
A. I had my pass on the 17th and so I got ready to go and left on my leave. I had been warned by Cpl.Foster that my 48 hour pass was cancelled but as I had my seven day pass I left on leave. I went to Redhill to pick up my girl friend as were going away together. I returned the next night to a dance in Godstone and after that went a away again. When my sever days were about up I looked at my pass and saw that the date on it was the 26th. I was happy about it and stayed out the full time on the pass.
Q. You returned to the dance at Godstone?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did anyone warn you that you shouldn't be away?
A. No, sir.
Q. When you looked at your pass didn't you see the first date was the 19th and not the 17th?
A. No sir, I just looked at the last date and saw it read 26th, I was overjoyed and made use of it.
Q. Have you ever read the instructions on the back of a pass?
A. I may have sir.
Q. Could you tell me what is on it?
A. No, sir.
Q. When you requested the 48 hour pass was it granted?
A. Yes, sir I was supposed to on leave after the two day scheme we had on the 15th and 16th.
Q. You had the passes?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. So when you were refued the leave you thought you could start on the 7 day leave?
A. Yes, sir, I was on the list to go on the 17th.
Q. Have you ever received you leave passes two days ahead of time before?
A. No, sir, we always received them on the day we were to go on leave.
Q. Who gave you the pass?
A. The Orderly Room Cpl. gave them to me along with my warrant and ration card.
Q. When you get a railway warrant do you change it for a ticket?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What is a warrant like--a series of papers?
A. Yes, sir, about so big.
Q. You handed it in at the station and received a railway ticket in exchange--did not you notice the date on it or the pass?
A. No, sir I just handed everything in because they were all pinned together. They returned the ration card and pass andtthe ticket.
Q. You had no idea that you were A.W.L. for two days?
A. No, sir.

SUMMING UP BY THE COURT.

The Court can see that through neglect of duty that the prisoner Pte. Smith,P.W. is guilty of the charge of being A.W.L. for two days from 1700hrs 17 Jun 41 until 1700hrs 19 Jun 41.

SUMMING UP BY DEFENCE.

Gentlemen, I think this case is plainly the fault of slackness on the part of the Orderly Room. Pte. Smith was issued a pass two days before his leave should have started. A thing that had never been done in the past. I think it may have been rather irregular for him to take advantage of this mistake but after all he can hardly be blamed for that, for I think most any soldier would have done the same thing. He came back to a dance and mixed with his own fellowx soldiers and no one told him that he was considered absent, he was not detained in any way, so quite naturally he would not consider himself A.W.L. I do no think there are very may soldiers look at their passes for when they get them they figure they are on leave until the pass says it is finished. Smiths pass read the 20th and de did as anyone else in his shoes would do---stay until the pass expired. I f anyone is to blame for this overstaying of leave it is the Orderly Room and not the man.

5 Field Ambulance, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps.

FIRST WITNESS: B89766 Sgt. Plant, A.L., No. 5 Field Ambulance, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps.

"On 17 Jun 41, I was in charge of the issue of passes. I had a request for a 48 hour pass from Pte. Smith and I refused that pass.

PTE SMITH questions the witness: "What were the dates on the application for 48 hour pass."

Sgt. Plant: " The dates on the application were from 15 to 17 Jun 41, at which time Pte. Smith was with the unit on a scheme and all 48 hour passes had been cancelled for those dates. Had a 48 hour pass been granted Pte. Smith on his return from the scheme, the dates of the 48 hour pass would have read 17 to 19 Jun 41 and his 7 day pass would have been for period 19 to 26 Jun 41.

THIRD WITNESS: H3776 L/Cpl Foster, E.W. No. 5 Field Ambulance
Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps.

"On Tuesday, 17 Jun 41, I was Ordered by Sgt. Plant to cancel 48 Hour Leave of Pte Smith. Cpl. Binstead, the Orderly Corporal for the day, was instructed to advise Smith of the cancellation when he handed him his 7 Day Pass. On Tuesday 24 Jun 41, when checking pass Stubs to see if all men on leave had returned, I found that Pte. Smith was absent and that his pass read 19 to 26 Jun 41, and that he had left at about 1630 hrs 17 Jun 41, on 7 day leave. I reported this to A/RSM QMS Middleton.

The accused questions the witness: "L/Cpl Foster, why wasn't my pass made out from 17 to 24 Jun 41."

L/Cpl Foster: "Because an application for a 48 hour leave had been turned in to the Orderly room and due to the fact that the Unit had been on a scheme, the date of the pass for 48 hrs read 17 to 19 Jun 41, the scheme having been held 14 - 15 and 16 Jun 41. The 7 day pass, therefore, read 19 to 26 Jun 41. When the 48 hrs pass was cancelled the dates on the 7 day pass were not changed.

"I was A/RSM from 15 to 27 Jun 41. On 24 Jun 41 L/Cpl. Foster reported to me that Pte. Smith should have returned from leave at 1700 hrs. that date, but on checking, he found that Pte. Smith's pass was made out from 19 to 26 Jun 41. Although his 48 hour pass covering period 17 to 19 Jun had been cancelled, Pte. Smith had left on 7 day leave on 17 Jun 41." Statement by 1st witness for prosecution. LIEUT G. B. DARLING. pag 1

I having been duly sworn state

I am ~~x~~ platoon officer in charge of No 2 Pl. 1 Cdn Fd Coy R.C.E. On the 24th of May 1945 at 1400 hours I arrived back from a trip and was told that the stores truck was missing. Cpl Stroud, transport Cpl. was with me on this trip and returned at the same time. He checked the transport lines and found the vehicle missing. I naturally took steps to find if any individuals in the platoon were missing also. I checked the platoon lines and did not see Spr. Smith anywhere. I did not see him for the remainder of that day.

~~The following day at 0900 hours Sgt Demers called the roll on platoon parade and ~~ Spr. Smith was~~ absent.~~ On the 25th May 1945 I was present at 0900 hrs at a platoon parade. The roll was called and Spr. Smith was absent. I did not see Spr. Smith again until he was reported in by the guard. I asked Spr. Smith where he had been and received no answer. I then placed him under open arrest. I checked the transport lines and saw that the missing vehicle was there. I then asked Spr McNeil, platoon storeman to see if any stores were missing. He reported to me that nothing was missing.

x examined by prosecution.

I recognize Spr. Smith as one of the men in my platoon.

Spr. Smith was not on duty on the 24th May at 1400 hrs but was confined to platoon lines at 0900 hours on 25th May the parade was a muster parade.

The platoon 15 cwt Stores truck was missing on the 24 May 1945.

The vehicle had not been detailed for any job which might account for its absence at 1400 hours.

At 1400 hours 24th may 1945 both Spr. Smith and the stores truck were missing.

I saw Spr. Smith about 1630 hours 26 May 1945.

I did not see the vehicle ~~Spr. Smith~~ between the time of its ~~first~~ absence till it was returned on the 26th ~~May~~ 1945. } do.

I did not see Spr. Smith or the missing vehicle at any time between 1400 hrs 24 May till 1630 hours 26 May 1945 cross examined by defence.

do. } I saw every other member of my platoon and also the vehicles at 1400 hours 24 May 1945.

When I checked the platoon lists I did not see Spr. Smith or Spr. Gilbains.

The men off duty are confined to the camp.

There is a check of vehicles leaving the platoon area by the POW guard.

Other vehicles use the road into my platoon area.

Every man does not report to me when off duty to go into Alkmaar on recreational transport.

~~The guard~~ do.

Question by the court.
What time does recreational transport go into Alkmaar?
Answer. After 1700 hours.
Quest. Does this confinement to camp apply for 24 hours of the day
Ans. No
Quest. How long does it apply.
Ans. Between 2300 hours to 1700 hours. the following day.
R.P.80(a) complied with Second witness for the prosecution F22331 Spr. McNeil, A.

having been duly sworn states :-
I am the platoon storeman in 2 platoon and handle the stores in the stores truck. I do not know the number of the stores vehicle. I would recognise the vehicle by the stores that are on it. I first knew that the stores truck was missing about 1400 hrs on 24th May 1945. We left from I saw it was about 1600 hrs. on the 26th May 1945. The last time I saw the vehicle before it was missing was about 1100 hours 24 May 1945.
No cross examination by defence.
Quest by court. Who was the driver of the stores vehicle
Ans. There was no steady driver at that time.

R.P 86) complied with

Third witness for the prosecution:- M 35878, L/Cpl Lamoureaux, P.A. having been duly sworn states.

I am a L/Cpl in charge of No 8 Section of 2 platoon 1 Cdn Fd Coy R.C.E. Spr. Smith is in my section and I recognize him as the accused. I cannot recall having seen Spr Smith at anytime between 1400 hours ~~and~~ 25th May 1945 and 1340 hours 26th May 1945. I was guard commander on the 26th May 1945 and was told to watch for Spr Smith and Spr. Williams when they came in. I was warned to watch for a vehicle that was missing from the platoon. I did not know it was the Stores vehicle. When Spr. Smith and Spr. Williams returned I told them to report to Mr. Darling. The time was 1340 hours 26 May 1945. They arrived back in a 15 cwt. Spr. Williams was driving it. Spr. Smith was also in the vehicle. I could not say that it was a platoon vehicle but I did recognize it as a coy vehicle. I told Spr. Williams and Spr. Smith to report to Mr. Darling. The vehicle was driven into the platoon cw past by Spr. Williams before I spoke to him.

Cross examination by the defence. I do not check each vehicle going in and out of the ~~coy~~ platoon area.

R.P.S.(6) complied with

Fourth witness for the prosecution :- F 91406 Cpl Stroud, J.
having been duly sworn states :-

I am transport Cpl in 2 platoon and in charge of detailed vehicles. I have just 2 15 cwt trucks, one for the Kitchen and the other for G 1098 Stores. I first knew that one of my 15 cwt vehicles was missing about 1400 hrs of the 24th May 1945. It was the stores truck that was missing. I have a record of the number of the vehicle and I also know the number. 2 Lt De Jagne normally drives the stores truck but was on leave at the time. Nobody was driving the vehicle in the absence of 2 Lt De Jagne. I did not authorize a trip for the vehicle on the morning of the 24 May 1945. I first knew that the 15 cwt was missing on returning from Den Helder about 1400 hrs 24 May and it was about 1600 hours on the 26th May that I first knew it had returned. During the time the stores truck was missing the 15 cwt Kitchen truck made a trip to Brussels. Sgt. Robin was driving it. After the 15 cwt stores truck returned I investigated its disappearance with Lieut Darling.

Cross examined by Defence Counsel.

The vehicle had gone about 500 miles between 1400 hours 24th May and 1300 hours 26 May 1945

RP 884 complied with.

Q. by court. What is the number of the 15 cwt stores truck.
Ans. CL 4286765

First witness for the defence. K 15371 Spr. Elliyott F. H. having been duly sworn states:- I saw Spr. Smith about 2300 hrs. on the 24 May 1945 in the platoon area.

Cross examined by prosecution. I saw Spr. Smith as I was coming outside on the road to the latrine. Spr. Hillman was with him. I did not talk to him as I saw that he had had a few drinks. He was about ten feet away when I saw him. When I came back from the latrine I did not see either Spr. Smith or Spr. Hillman. I do not know where exactly Spr. Smith slept. RP 816) complied with Second witness for the defence. F 91678 Spr. Smith F.L. having been duly sworn states:- There have never been any orders posted or given verbally by Mr. Darby that we are confined to platoon area. When I came off guard at 1100 hrs on the 24th May I had dinner at 1200 hours. Spr. Hillman and I were still in the area but went down behind the bush and had a few drinks. We hung around there all day and never ate supper. He came back that night about 2300 hours. I went to my room and Spr. Hillman went to his. Spr. Hillman came into my room the next morning about 0600 hrs. He never waited for breakfast but went out to the road and tried to thumb a ride. He got a lift into Alkmaar ade. He had a few more drinks ade in Alkmaar and finally ended up in a town on the Alkmaar, Amsterdam highway. He got fucking pretty good there and stayed in an empty shack in town. The next morning we started back with the intention of coming back to camp. He got a lift so far with a truck and it stopped. He were trying to get another lift into camp. He were standing there and an Englishman saw we were Canadian and told us there was a Canadian vehicle in the bush. He went down the road along a side road into the bush and we saw that it was a coy truck. He saw nobody around that may have been the driver so we decided the best thing to do was bring it back with us. On the way out of the side road we saw a coy leave truck coming back with Sgt. Long in the front seat beside the driver. He flew the hood and tried to get them to stop. The fellows in the back waved and I recognized some of them. Spr. Pigeon & Demers from HQ. and Gr. Healey from No 2 platoon before for Mr. Darling. He put the truck in the parking lot & camp. Then we continued straight back and walked down to where Lt Lamoureux was standing. He told us to report to Mr. Darling no guard accompanied us to Mr. Darling - we went over on our own. He was standing there playing with his horse and when he saw us he said "where in hell have you been, its about time you were back in here" He put us under arrest and said he did not want to see us any more.

cross examined by prosecution.

In 2 platoon working it is said if we go out after doing 24 hours guard. We do other guarding duties with the German working in the minefields. There are no other duties so far since we went down there except digging a dump or a latrine. The bush with respect to the platoon is just down back of the houses we are living in. I sleep in a house. I did not see Lt Lamoureaux when I went to bed that night. We were going to report that we had found a vehicle but the Offrs did not give us the chance. I offer no reason why I did not notify the M.T. Offr. The road where we found the vehicle is the side of Amsterdam. The vehicle was found just past the roadblock from Alkmaar. I couldn't say whether there was any block by the roadblock or not. The vehicle was on the EAST side of the Alkmaar Amsterdam road

Quest. by the court:- What time did you return with the vehicle

Ans. about 1340 hours - the time that Lt Lamoureaux checked us in.

Quest. How far from camp was the vehicle found.

Ans. about 8 miles.

Prosecutor's closing address.

From the evidence submitted it is a fact that Spr. Smith was not available for duty from 1400 hrs 24 May to 1340 hours 26 May 1945. even though he was seen by only one man at 2300 hours on the 24th May. With regard to the missing vehicle there are 4 factors

1. vehicle was missed about the same time that Spr Smith was missed
2. They returned together
3. That when the English vehicle dropped them off should be so close to the platoon vehicle
4. Spr. Smith did not see fit to notify anyone in authority that the missing vehicle in which he returned had been found abandoned.

RPS 3(6) complied with.

Closing address. Pros

Statement by the Defence.

In the evidence brought out by the prosecution there is ~~two~~ discrepancy in time for those stated in the charge sheet and secondly the number of the WD vehicle in question does not agree to the one on the charge sheet. As to the question of why Spr Smith did not report to his MT Cpl. his evidence indicates that he wasn't given the opportunity. The prosecution has failed to produce concrete evidence that Spr. Smith is guilty of the charges as read.

REBUTTAL

In regard to the first point there is no discrepancy as it is fixed by the ~~Cpl~~ first ~~time~~ the guard and Mr. Darling's ~~present at the time of the arrest~~ Spr. Smith was under an arrest and had ample opportunity to inform the MT Cpl of the vehicle

Statement of Evidence in the Case of :
No. B/67963 Pte. Smith F.M., 1st Batt. The Royal Regt. of Canada, Littlehampton, Sussex.

Sir,

At Portsmouth on the 22nd April, 1943, about 1400 hours, I was on duty in London Road, accompanied by L/Cpl. Smith C.M.Police, when I saw the above named soldier. I stopped him and asked him to produce his pass. He produced A.F.B.295 (Pass form) attached. On scrutinising same, I noticed it was made out from A.F.20/4/43 until 2359 hrs 29/4/43 for the purpose of proceeding to Portsmouth. It appeared to have been erased in several places, particularly the officer's signature. I asked him if it was a genuine pass. He replied "Yes". Not being satisfied I conveyed him to Military Police Headquarters. I then examined his Militia Book (A) Pt.1 (Page 17)(attached) and noticed an entry for 7 days' privilege leave granted on the 20/4/43 and an officer's signature. I questioned him regarding the entry and he replies "It is alright I am on nine days' leave, but they have only put seven in the book." I then asked him to produce his ration card. He replies, "I have given it to my young lady at the Y.M.C.A., I am meeting her at 1430 hours". I made enquiries at the Y.M.C.A. and found his statement to be false. I then tried to get in communication with his Unit with the assistance of the Civil Police, Littlehampton, at about 1830 hours, I was informed by the C.O. the Unit that the above-named was an absentee and had broken open arrest. I then apprehended him. I cautioned him, and told him he would be charged with the offences. He replies " Yes, I admit altering the pass and the entries in the pay book, I did not think you could get in touch with my unit". I conveyed him to Victoria Barracks Guard Room where he was handed over to the R.C.O.i/c Guard to be detained.

Defending Officer:-	Lieut. R.H. Evans,	No. 1 CAHU.

At 1030 hrs the trial commences.

The order convening the Court is read, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused, and they severally answer to their names.

Q1. Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1. No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

The officers under instruction are duly sworn.

Q2. Do you object to B66944, Sgt. T. Pyburn, R.Regt.C., acting as short-hand writer?
A2. No, sir.

The shorthand writer is duly sworn.

The charge sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge sheet.

Q3. Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?

A3. DEFENDING OFFICER: Sir, the proper plea is one in bar of trial, and the Court will note that under R.P. 36 where such a plea is offered the matter is referred back to the confirming officer.

Q4. THE COURT: What are your grounds for a plea in bar of trial?
A4. DEFENCE: The charges against the accused have already been dealt with by a competent authority. His plea is that this Court has no jurisdiction to try this case whatever.
Q5. Does the accused wish to give evidence himself or call any witnesses in support of his plea?
A5. Yes sir, one witness.

No. C-41995, S/SGT. R.H. DURFY, Canadian Provost Corps, Canadian Detention Barracks, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer:-

Q6. Give the court your number, rank, name and unit?
A6. I am No. C41995, S/Sgt R.H. Durfy, CPC, Cdn Det Bks.
Q7. What are your duties there?
A7. I am NCO i/c of records.

Q8. I show you a document; will you tell the court what that is?
A8. That is a charge against No. B76865, Pte Smith F.W., a charge of escaping from detention on the 8 Oct 41. He was awarded punishment of 21 days P.D.2, which was carried out at the det bks.
Q9. Whose initial is that on that document?
A9. That is Major Ball's, the Commandant's, initial.
Q10. Do you know if that covers an escape which occurred on 8 Oct 41?
A10. Yes sir, it does.
Q11. Do you know if the accused was absent after that escape?
A11. He was absent from the time he escaped until he returned.
Q12. Do you know when he returned?
A12. I have not got the records right here, sir; that charge just covered the act of escaping.
Q13. How do you know that?
A13. By the wording of the charge, that he escaped on that date.
Q14. I show you here AB 52B, Offences & Punishment Book. Will you tell the court what that is?
A14. Yes, that is the Offences & Punishment Book of the det bks. When a man is charged with an infraction of the regulations, for an offence against discipline, it is entered in this book, the particulars of the charge and the punishment awarded. With reference to this case, on 9 Oct there is a record here of Pte Smith F.W. charged under para 165(A), sec 17, punishment awarded 21 days P.D.2, signed "George W. Ball, Major."
Q15. And you say that punishment was carried out?
A15. Yes, sir.

DEFENCE: I submit this as an exhibit, with the request that it be returned at the conclusion of this trial; it is an official regtl book.

Q16. Do you know if there are regulations contained in the rules of det bks relating to absentees?
A16. Not relating to absentees.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q17. Would you tell the court what steps are taken by the det bks when a man escapes or absents himself for a period of time with regard to his pay?
A17. With regard to his pay, when a man escapes from det he is automatically considered as not serving his sentence when he is away, and therefore if he is out of det for a period of 10 days, for example, when he returns he has 10 days over the original period covered by his sentence to serve.
Q18. How does that affect his pay?
A18. To the extent he would have to be charged with being AWL for the period of time he was away, and then he would automatically forfeit that period of pay.
Q19. If a man was charged under det bks regulations and summarily punished by the Commdt of the Det Bks for, like in this case, being absent for 17 hrs, he would serve an extra day's detention?
A19. Yes, sir.

Q20. THE COURT: This soldier was charged under para 165(A), sec 17, which is, I suppose, Rules of Det Bks?
A20. Yes sir, that is correct.
Q21. What was that for - escaping from custody?
A21. Escaping or attempting to escape from detention.

The Court is closed to consider their decision.
The Court is re-opened, and the accused is again brought before it.

THE COURT: The Court find that the plea in bar of trial is proven on both charges, and the Court allow the plea.

Q8. I show you a document; will you tell the court what that is?
A8. That is a charge against No. B76865, Pte Smith F.W., a charge of escaping from detention on the 8 Oct 41. He was awarded punishment of 21 days F.D.2, which was carried out at the det bks.
Q9. Whose initial is that on that document?

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE and ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER.

Proceedings follow on Foreground.

Opening address by the Prosecutor, in the case of B-5231 Sgt. Smith, F.W.A.,
No.15 Cdn.Base Dental Coy., C.D.C.

The accused is charged with four separate counts of "stealing" in that he on four separate dates stole and sold, or caused to be sold, articles of gold which were the property of persons subject to military law.

It is realized that "stealing" can only be proved when sufficient evidence is produced to show that the accused "without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without any claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen, with intent at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof".

The prosecution, through the introduction of witnesses, will endeavour to produce sufficient evidence to show that the accused on each count took, without the consent of the owner, articles of gold and that he then sold or caused them to be sold to a Jeweller in the town of Aldershot, thereby permanently depriving the owner thereof.

The Prosecution will endeavour to prove that the persons who were the owners of the articles at the times of the thefts, were persons "subject to military law".

Two civilian witnesses will be called, one a Police Detective Constable, who will tell the Court that after being duly cautioned, the accused made a voluntary statement admitting that he took all articles shown as exhibits and that he personally sold three of these articles, and caused a third party to sell the other article. The third party namely Private Barrett will give his account of what happened in the latter case.

The other civilian witness, a Jeweller and Pawnbroker, will give evidence that he purchases the articles produced as exhibits, and that they were "sold" not "placed in pawn".

Had all these items been taken on the one occasion, it might be suggested that it was a temporary "mental lapse" on the part of the accused, but it will be noted that there is a period of 45 days from the first to last incident, which might reasonably be inferred to indicate a slow but regular system of stealing gold and obtaining sums of money therefor.

Had the amounts realized been of large proportions there might be an excuse offered by the defence of "temptation", but when it is realized, as will be stated by the Jeweller, that the amounts varied from 24/- for the first article, to 8/-, 7/9 and 11/3 for the others, it cannot reasonably be claimed a "temptation", for the amounts involved are not worth the possibility of detection and consequent punishment.

The Prosecution would now like to call the firstywitness, Private Tessler of the Canadian Dental Corps.

I am attached to 2 CAC R.A. I enlisted 23 June 1942. I have served continuously in the army since that date.
About 2 weeks ago my gold dental bridge had been in for repairs & mine and I asked Capt Buchan if he would get it finished. I looked in his kit for the bridge but couldn't find it. I searched the 2 in the kit of the other 2 dental officers and I couldn't find it. Later the same day with permission I went to Civil Police Station Headquarters and reported the loss. From information received I returned to Civil Police & between the next day and 9am Sgt. A.A. Lightfoot who then went with me to Phillips Jewelry Store Adelaide and after talking the jeweler produced some gold and he also produced my bridge which I had lost.

It is admitted that statement was made

Statement has been accepted by the court, requires no further comment as to validity. Does it however, convict the accused on the specific charges.

Summing Up:

1. Bridge. Items: "Recent possession"

All the prosecution has proved is that the accused was disposed of the bridge to his own advantage, after taking it from the clinic.

It has not, clearly, been established just when the bridge was taken. The witness, PO Tessler says he "last saw it, about 3 wks before seeing it in Phillips' store." Was the accused, then, in "recent possession", that is recent in regard to when the bridge was stolen. ~~Could not the bridge have been stolen by someone~~. Could not the accused have come into possession either proper or improper (to his own advantage) of the bridge and disposed of it to his advantage?

Capt Ericson did not know the whereabouts of the bridge. It has clearly been shown in evidence that Ericson thought ~~Tessler~~ had it and Tessler thought Ericson had it.

Can it be, then, upheld by this court, that the accused stole property, of a person subject to mil Law? (not as despicable as below mentioned case)

Is this case to be compared ~~to that~~ of when A takes B's greatcoat, knowing it to be B's and, intends to keep it?

The defence says NO. The defence admits that accused was in improper possession and that he disposed of the bridge, but that he did NOT in fact, steal it.

2 Gold referred to in charges 1 — 2 — 4.

The onus ~~probandi~~ is on the prosecution to prove that this gold was stolen from a person subject to military law.

Now, before theft can be proved one must prove ownership.

Ownership of this particular gold has not been established, beyond a reasonable doubt.

Custom ~~does~~ is law. Ericson says that to his knowledge it is NOT the custom of dentists to keep gold recovered thru' dental operations. Therefore as it is not, in fact, the custom then, has he, the dentist, the right to the gold? Did he prove that he had gold of his own on hand in the clinic?

Then there is the matter of identification, which it is admitted that lack of identification does not in fact prove lack of ownership; even so, the dentist could NOT identify the buttons, and the bits and pieces as definitely belonging to him.

I ask the court, again, to take judicial notice of the fact that an officer who through inadvertance and or carelessness leaves valuable property in a position where a subordinate or servant can be imparted to temptation is indeed violating military law.

I think we can disregard Ericson's testimony. Title, ownership not having been established, can this court find the accused guilty of stealing property of a person subject to military law?

In view of the fact that the accused is only charged ~~o~~ ~~steal~~ (state 18 4) & not with improper possession, the Defense contends that he did not in fact steal, but may have been in improper possession.

I therefore ask for an acquittal on all charges.

Defending Officer Lieut

Closing Address by Prosecutor.

Having heard all the evidence the Prosecution contend that sufficient evidence has been produced to warrant convictions on all charges as laid before the Court.

It is contended that the first witness established the fact that he is "subject to military law", that he had a gold dental bridge stolen that it was his personal property and that he recognizes the exhibit before the Court as his property.

It is submitted that the evidence of the second witness - Det.Cons. Lightfoot - was not shaken by cross-examination and that the Confession was obtained in accordance with the best traditions of the British Police and in accordance with the rules for guidance in obtaining such confessions as is outlined in M.M.L., Chap.VI, para.78 (pp.91 and 92). It is further submitted that he identified the exhibits as being the articles of gold handed to him by Mr. Hibberd of Phillips Jewellery and Pawnshop. His evidence as to the dental bridge in particular, was substantiated by the evidence of Pte. Tessler.

The evidence of Mr. Hibberd leaves, in my mind, no doubt but that the accused himself sold three of the exhibits and that the accused received to money obtained by their sale. This witness also established the fact that the articles were "sold" and were not placed in "pledge". This establishes, in my mind, the fact that the accused intended to permanently deprive the lawful owner of his goods.

The evidence of the witness - Private Barrett - was not questioned by the accused and it can therefore, I contend, be accepted as the truth and that the accused did, in fact, send this witness to sell certain articles of gold, and that the accused received the proceeds from this sale, less the amount he gave the witness as a commission for the sale.

Major Grant stated that with 15 years experience as a practicing dentist, it was his opinion that the dental bridge was, in fact, made for Private Tessler. This evidence it is contended may be taken as evidence by an expert as regards this type of evidence, that is, dentistry.

The weakest evidence for the prosecution was that of Captain Erickson, and this witness stated that he recognized the dental bridge without hesitation. He was not able to positively identify the other articles but stated that they were similar to the articles he had lost, and that they may have been the articles he did so lose. As the articles which were produced as exhibits and which it is contended were sold by the accused or on his behalf by the witness Barrett, correspond so closely to the articles lost by this witness in the past few months, it is submitted that there is sufficient "circumstantial" evidence to warrant a conviction on these three charges of stealing articles of gold the property of Captain Erickson, who stated in his evidence that he was a Captain of the Canadian Dental Corps and that he was in fact a commissioned officer of the Canadian Army Overseas.

One of the leading rules with respect to circumstantial evidence is that "The facts on which it is sought to found the inference of guilt must be visibly and evidently connected with the crime."
It is submitted that sufficient evidence has been produced to prove that the accused did in fact sell the articles or cause them to be sold and that in the case of Pte. Tessler's bridge that it was missing from a stated place, e.g., Capt.Erickson's kit. It may further be assumed from the evidence of the witness Barrett that the pieces of gold he sold for the accused, and which he recognized, were also from Capt.Erickson's kit, as Capt. Erickson stated in his evidence that the accused was his dental or chair assistant and would know where any articles placed in the kit were.

Instigation:

Reference to statement by Capt J.R. Landman.
- Accused is married
- Long service, good record.
- efficient in his job as the "average"

The accused made no attempt to "cover up his identity, when he sold these articles. he did not know they were property of person subject to mil law. ~~He obtained money~~ There is nothing despicable in his act. the raw gold scrap which was left, lying around, by a careless person and did - fact convert it to his account

Therefore ask for the most lenient possible sentence which I think is a reprimand or ~~at most~~ a reduction to the ranks. I do not think that in view of all the facts stands in danger of losing ~~is~~ his rank, that he should be sent to imprisonment or detention

Thank you very much - Sir ——

Date ~~xxxxxx~~ 9th November,1943. Time commenced 3 25p.m.

Since February,1943, I have been attached to 15th. Dental Corps, at Salamanca Barracks, working in the clinic. On the 23rd September,1943, I was in the clinic when I found a gold button in the drawer. I did not think it was of much value and did not belong to anyone. I took it and sold it in PHILLIPS, Shop, High Street, Aldershot, for 2/-, and gave the shop keeper my name.

I think it was on the 5th October,1943, I found gold crowns in the kit in the clinic. I took these and asked Pte. BARRETT, if he would take them down the town and sale for me. He did so and when he came back,he gave me 8/0d, or approximately that amount. I believe I gave him half crown,or three bob for selling it.

After I returned from leave, on 24th October,1943, I was short of cash and on the 2nd November, I found a gold bridge in the kit in the clinic. I took this also and sold it at PHILLIPS, for 11/3d, and again gave my name.

On the morning of the 6th November,1943, I took another gold button from the clinic which I sold to PHILLIPS, for 7/9d.

I realise the foolishness of my acts now and I am very sorry. I have always held a clean character in the Army and if it is possible I am willing to do anything in my power to clear up the matter in the easiest possible way.

This statement has been read *by me, ~~over to me at my request~~, and is correct. I have been allowed to make any corrections I wish.

At one period at Dieppe N.B. it was customary to rotate the members of the Mess in the capacity of Steward - Sgt. Small, taking his turn, handled cash for the bar sales and slot taking always verified his accounts was correct - In conclusion his conduct was naturally ethical and salutary.

in the case of

B-5231 Sergeant SMITH, F.W.A.
No. 15, Canadian Base Dental Company,
Canadian Dental Corps.

The Commanding Officer directs that all evidence be given on Oath.

PROSECUTION.

1st. Witness. D-124576 Private TESSLER, S., No. 15 Base Dental Company, Canadian Dental Corps, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am a regularly enlisted soldier of the Canadian Army (Active), serving Overseas. I enlisted at Westmount Barracks, Montreal, Province of Quebec, on the 23rd June 1942.
My dental bridge had been in No.2 C.A.C.R.U.Dental Clinic for repairs by Captain Erickson, Canadian Dental Corps. I asked Captain Erickson if he would complete it before he went on leave. On his agreeing to do so, on 4th November 1943 I went to look for it in his Dental Kit. It was not there, so I then looked through the Dental kits of the other Dental Officers and failed to locate it.
On 6 November 1943, in company of Detective Constable Lightfoot of the Hampshire Constabulary C.I.D., I went to a Pawnbrokers shop in Aldershot, known as "H.Phillips, Jewellers and Pawnbrokers, 17 High Street, Aldershot." I explained to the Manager what we were looking for and he produced a bridge which I recognized as being my property.
On Monday, 8 November, 1943, Major Grant of the Canadian Dental Corps, fitted the bridge Detective Constable Lightfoot and myself had seen in the Pawnshop, in my mouth, and it fitted.
I again recognized it as my property.

Questioned by Officer taking down the Summary.

Q.1. Who actually owns the bridge in question?

A.1. I do.

Q.2. When did you purchase it?

A.2. I have had it about five years.

Q.3. Who paid for it when you first got it?

A.3. I did, myself.

Q.4. Did the Canadian Government finance your purchase of this bridge in any way?

A.4. No sir.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q.5. I did not know the bridge was your personal property when I took it, did I?

2nd.Witness. Detective Constable T. Lightfoot of the Hampshire Joint Constabulary, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am a Detective Constable of the C.I.D.Branch of Hampshire Joint Constabulary.
At 2.40p.m. on 6th November, 1943, I received a report from Private Tessler, Canadian Dental Corps, of this case, and went with him to the shop of "H.Phillips", High Street, Aldershot, Hants.
I was shown the gold bridge (produced and marked "A"). I was also shown a large gold button (produced and marked "B") and two crowns and part of a bridge (produced and marked "C") and also a small gold button (produced and marked "D"), by the Manager, Mr.Hibberd.
At 2.30p.m. on the 9th November, 1943, I saw Sergeant Smith at Warburg Barracks and told him I was a police officer and cautioned him and said "Between 1st October and 4 November, 1943, a gold bridge valued at nine pounds was stolen from the Dental Clinic at No.2 C.A.C.B.U. I believe you are responsible for it and the person who sold it at Messrs. Phillips and Son on the 2nd November, 1943."
He replied "Yes. I don't know what made me do it."
I charged him with the offence and in reply he said "I was hard up for cash. I have had a lot or worry lately. I'll tell you all about it."
I conveyed him to Aldershot Police Station where he made the following statement after I had read the caution to him. He then signed the statement. (Produced and marked "E").

Accused declines to cross-examine the witness on his re-call.

3rd.Witness. Mr. John T. Hibberd, having been duly sworn, states:

I am the Manager of H. Phillips, Jewellers and Pawnbrokers, 17-21 High Street, Aldershot, and reside on the premises.
On 23 September 1943 this Sergeant (recognizes the accused) brought in what I believe you call a button of gold (recognizes exhibit "B"). He told me it was bits of gold from teeth and he had melted it down, and I gave him twenty-four shillings for it. He gave the name of Sergeant F.W.A.Smith of the Canadian Army Dental Corps which name was in the paybook he produced.

On 5 October, 1943, I purchased from a soldier who gave the name of A.W.Barrett, 15th Company, Canadian Dental Corps, three pieces of gold (recognizes Exhibit "C") for which I gave him eight shillings.
On 2 November, 1943, I purchased again from Sergeant Smith, a piece of gold (recognizes Exhibit "A") for which I gave him eleven shillings and three pence.
On 6 November, 1943, I purchases a piece of gold (recognizes Exhibit "D") for seven shillings and nine pence from Sergeant Smith.
On the afternoon of 6 November, 1943, a policeman in plain clothes came into the shop accompanied by a soldier of the Canadian Dental Corps, inquiring about some gold which was missing from the Canadian Dental Corps.
I produced the gold now before you (Exhibits "A","B","C" and "D").
On 8 November, 1943, I handed the gold over to the Police.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q.7. Did I say I had melted them down, or that they had been melted down?

A.7. You might have stated that they were pieces of gold which had been left over and had been melted down, not necessarily by yourself. It is so long ago now I have forgotten just what you did actually say.

John T. Hebbert

The accused declines to further cross-examine this witness.
The Witness withdraws.

4th Witness. A-20113 Private Barrett, A.W., No.15 Canadian Base Dental Company, Canadian Dental Corps, having been duly sworn, states:

I am attached to No.3 C.I.R.U. Dental Clinic at Aldershot, Hants.
About one or two months ago Sergeant Smith asked me if I was going down town. I said I was. He asked me to take down some pieces of gold to a Jewellers shop and he would give me a couple of shillings for my trouble.
I took it down to a Jewellers shop and asked him if he bought old gold. He said he did.
He weighed it and gave me eight shillings. I gave him my pay book to check my name, number and rank.
I signed the book for receiving eight shillings.
I brought the eight shillings back to Sergeant Smith.
He gave me two shillings and took the balance.

Questioned by Officer taking down the Summary of Evidence.

5th.Witness. Major J.A. Grant, Canadian Dental Corps, having been duly sworn, states:
On Monday, 8 November, 1943, Mr. Lightfoot, a member of the civil police, came to our Dental Clinic in No.2 C.A.C.R.U., with a dental bridge.
I tried the bridge in Pte. Tessler's mouth and having had 15 years experience as a practicing dentist, will state that the bridge fitted Pte. Tessler's mouth and am willing to certify that the bridge was made for Pte. Tessler.

Q.15. Is Pte. Tessler a person subject to Military Law?

A.15. Yes. He is a regularly enlisted soldier in His Majesty's Forces; that is, in the Canadian Army Overseas.

Q.16. Could you recognize the dental bridge you fitted in Pte. Tessler's mouth?

A.16. Yes. (Witness recognizes Exhibit "A" by peculiar shape of the 3/4 gold crown and lack of two "tags" over which the porclain facing fits.). J.A. Grant Major

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.
The witness withdraws.

6th.Witness. Captain R.A. Erickson, Canadian Dental Corps, having been duly sworn, states:
I had been working on a bridge of Pte. Tessler's for about a months and a half. I had made one inlay for it from some gold which was my personal property, and which I used for experimental purposes.
The inlay did not fit very well so I took the bridge out again and made him a Crown.
I had previously asked Pte. Tessler to look after the bridge himself.
On 3 or 4 November, 1943, I asked Tessler for the Bridge for a fitting. He stated he had left it in my kit, and when we examined the kit the bridge had gone. Tessler seemed quite anxious to get the bridge back, so I suggested he try the Pawnbrokers. This he did.

Questioned by Officer taking down the Summary of Evidence.

Q.17. Has any gold been missed at any other time from the Dental Clinic at No.2, C.A.C.R.U.?

A.17. I did lose some pieces of my own gold.

Q.18. Has any other gold been missed?

A.18. No.

Q.19. Can you describe the other gold you lost?

A.19. They were bits and pieces I had in my kit for three months and longer. It was gold I had kept for a couple of years. The only parts I remember are two gold buttons, one from the casting for a ring and another the button from Tessler's Crown.

Q.20. Could you recognize any of this gold now?

A.20. I cannot say definitely.

Q.21. Can you identify any of the pieces of gold I now show you?

A.21. Witness cannot identify any of the articles in Exhibit "C" Witness stated Exhbit "D" looks like a Dental Casting, but cannot identify it.
Witness states Exhbit "A" is Tessler's Bridge.

Q.22. Is there any special reason by which you recognize this piece of gold?

A.22. I recognize it by the grooves of the cuspid crown, but would have to try it in Pte. Tessler's mouth to be certain.

Witness cannot identify Exhibit "B".

Q.23. Was the gold you lost from your kit and which you said was in 'button' form, like any of the exhibits you have seen?

A.23. Yes. Two of the buttons shown may have been the ones I lost.

Q.24. Is it a practice in Dentistry to melt odd bits of gold into 'button' form?

A.24. I do not know. I think the dealers would rather have gold in the form of scraps.

Q.25. Was the Dental Bridge you were working on for Pte.Tessler Government Property?

A.25. No.

I was M. O. of the Regina Rifles. about 2100 hrs on or about 19th of Dec 42 at the R.A.P. of the unit I examined the accused (identifying accused). His left foot was covered with first field dressings saturated with blood. I removed the dressings & found a gunshot wound of the ankle & foot. The wound of entrance was about 2 inches above the ankle on the inside of leg & the wound of exit was along the margin of the foot about opposite the instep on the outside of foot. I redressed the wound & had him evacuated to No 1 Field Hospital.

Cross Exam. I should say he was partly conscious when I examined him. He was suffering from some shock. I did not examine him since.

To Court. In my opinion from what I saw on my examination the wound would permanently (2) disable him to some extent. R.P. 83(b) complied with Cross Examined. I have been an N.C.O. since about May 1942. Witness is shown a ~~MK II~~ No 4 Lee Enfield rifle MK I.) When a round is forced into the breach by closing the bolt the round will not explode unless the trigger is pulled so as to release the striker. Smart served in my section about 2 weeks.

He was new to the Coy. He served well & I considered him a good soldier. He never caused any trouble.
re-Re-examination.
To the Court. When emptying my rifle I remove the magazine & take the rounds out.
It is a faster way. If a man ~~loaded~~ his rifle with 5 or 10 rounds - closed his breach he would have one ~~cartridge~~ round in the chamber & ~~more~~ in the ~~Magazine~~ magazine. This round could be spotted. I have given instructions frequently on the handling of a rifle & cleaning a rifle the insts are to first remove the magazine & bolt & rifle sling - after clearing your rifle magazine & bolt. The first safety precaution is to assume that there are no rounds in the rifle. The working mechanism is in principle the same as the old rifle.

Question to the accused. Have you anything to say in your defence?

Answer. The accused in his defence says:†

~~[hands in a written address which is read, marked signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.]~~

1st Defence Witness: The accused L 74443 Pte George Smith - Reg. Rifles duly sworn states I am 28 yrs old - married - no children - I have been in the army 1½ year + in England since July 1942. My home is at Saskatoon Sask. I joined this unit in the field in December 1942

Instruction.

† In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

D2

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

I was admitted to hospital 19 Dec 42 suffering from a bullet wound in left ankle & foot. I was discharged from 1st Gen Hospital about 15th of March to convalescent home & rejoined this unit about 23 April 43.

My ankle is stiff & I have a lot of pain in my ankle when I walk & it keeps me awake at nights - I am not able to march - I cannot walk very good - I limp. I was sitting on a folded palliasse on the floor cleaning my rifle after I had finished cleaning my rifle I was going to try to fix the magazine as I had always had a lot of trouble with the magazine when firing. When I pulled the bolt back to discharge the spent round the other rounds in the magazine would jump up & out of the magazine & cause a jam. ~~when~~ so that when I pushed the bolt ahead to push a round into the chamber it would cause a jam & the round would not go in the breach, so I took the magazine off & bent the lips on the top of the magazine down & in a little - then I put the magazine back on the rifle and placed a round in the magazine. I was going to push the round down under the bolt - I was going to slam the bolt bolt closed and pull the bolt back quick to find out if the magazine was fixed. I just slammed the bolt to and the round fired. The round went through my left foot. I don't remember if I pulled the trigger the same time I slammed the bolt home. I did not intend to pull the trigger. I did not intend the round to explode.

No Sir, I did not intend to wound myself. I have had a education.

Cross Examination—

I cleaned my rifle prior to firing the magazine. I took the bolt out of the rifle. I know the should be a certain safety angle on my rifle. I was holding the rifle that way when I was firing it. I did not know any safety angle it might in question. I put 10 rounds in the magazine when I charge my rifle. I figured one round was all I needed to test the rifle. I did not care to waste too many rounds I used.

Re Exam: The room we took in the room I occupied. It was a two story home, I may have been on the second floor and there were soldiers on the floor above me. I had my rifle from July 1942. I did not see an armor shoot at I was at the range 40 or 50 times. The magazine gave me trouble all that time.

I did not report this to any officer or N.C.O.

The round gave trouble by the round flying up from the magazine.

I had the round from 3 C.A.R.A. and I had not been issued any since of 6.10.98. Two or three days before leaving the holding I had a kit inspection I found the round after the kit inspection.

I did not notice anyone else in the room I had fun at with my rifle the previous week or we were doing rifle training and slept all day.

R P 83 B has been complied with.

The prosecutor makes a final address summing up the evidence & contends that in the absence of carelessness & negligence the accident would not have happened.

The defending officer makes a closing address.

The Judge Advocate sums up.

Very briefly the evidence which will be called will not be called in chronoligical order becausseveral witnesses have to return to duty. It will be shown that the accused was at a certain inn where he met the complainant Miss Heys, that he saw in Miss Heys purses large sum of money, that the accused asked that he be invited up to the house for a meal and returned on their invitation for this purpose. Arriving there the purse in question was left on a table. The accused displayed considerable interest in the safety of this purse and made several remarks respecting it and urged that the proper precautions should be taken. The two persons concerned, the owner and her nurse disappeared and came back. The accused then left without having gone further. He was seen a few minutes later in an inn where he produced two £5 notes. On being questioned about the notes by a police constable he stated that he had been given these notes by the nurse. Evidence will be given that he bought considerable liquor and went to London where he was seen throwing money around and returned when the money was spent.

1st witness for the prosecution

Miss Elizabeth Smith Heys, Matron, St. George's Nursing Home, Hurstpierpoint having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q. You remember the evening of 3 Jul 42? Where did you go?
A. The Matsfield Arms, Clayton.

Q. About what time?
A. About 7.30 p.m.

Q. Who was with you?
A. Nurse Stocks.

Q. Was the accused there when you arrived?
A. No.

Q. Did you later see him there?
A. He came in about half an hour later.

Q. What happened then?
A. Nurse Stocks and myself went in and there was no one there. Someone we knew came in and we called this person over and bought him a drink. Following that Smith walked in and stood on the right hand side.

Q. You were facing the bar and Nurse Stocks on the right?
A. Yes, this other man stood on my left and then Smith stood on Nurse's right.

Q. What happened then?
A. I paid for two rounds of drinks out of the money in my pocket and I had no occasion to go into my purse. Then Nurse decided she would pay for some and then found she only had 6d short and asked me to lend her 6d. I gave her my bag and said "Don't change a 10, change a 5".

Q. How much money was in your bag?
A. £65 in notes.

Q. How was it made up?
A. Three £10 notes and seven £5s.

Q. How was it in your purse?
A. Folded in four in the front of the bag.

Q. You handed her the purse and then what happened?
A. She took out one £5 note and gave me back £4 and some change. She put the rest of the bills back in after she took the £5 out.

Q. Did you see her do that?
A. Yes.

Q. What did she do with the purse?
A. Gave it to me and I put it in front of myself on the bar.

Q. What happened about 9.20 p.m.?
A. I said it was getting late and we had some work to do. Smith asked if he could get a meal and I told him to get into the car. He got in.

Q. Where was the handbag in the car?
A. In the car pocket in the front.

Q. What happened when you got home?
A. I put my purse on a chair and went downstairs to get changed. Smith called out "Bette". Both of our names are Bette and I didn't know who he meant, but I went down to get changed.

Q. When did you see him again?
A. When I came back up changed.

Q. Was he there then?
A. Yes, he said he was going.

Q. What did he say?
A. He said he had better be going and that I was getting busy.

Q. Did he say anything about your purse?
A. He said it was in the chair.

Q. He said he was going?
A. Yes, and went.

Q. Were you in the hall all the time from the time you came up until he left?
A. He left when I came up.

Q. Prior to Nurse Stocks ordering these drinks and finding she didn't have sufficient money, had you opened your purse?
A. No, I had enough loose money in my pocket and I had used that. Had I had more I would have given her that instead of my bag.

Q. After Smith went what did you do?
A. After that the night nurse told me about a patient and I had

Q. Were the Nurse and Smith whispering?
A. I think it was because Smith wanted to take her out.

Q. When he asked you about supper you said yes?
A. Certainly.

Q. Did you think it was improper that they should be whispering?
A. I thought it was rude.

Q. Yet you were willing that Nurse Stocks should look after him?
A. We wouldn't have supper with him, the maids would look after him.

Q. You said you told Nurse Stocks?
A. She would have told the maid.

Q. Do you frequently quarrel?
A. We don't.

Q. Are you sure the only thing which made you mad was her whispering to Smith?
A. There was no other reason or I wouldn't have come out with her.

Q. Had you had reason to be displeased with her shortly before this?
A. No.

The Prosecutor requests that the Defence indicate the reason for this trend of questioning. The Defence replies that he is trying to show there was a violent disagreement between the two women and that the Nurse chose to get even by taking some money from the purse of Miss Heys.

Q. You hadn't had any serious disagreement with her? Then please explain why you phoned our duty officer at 0430 hrs 2 Jul 42 in an extremely irate state?
A. Nurse Stocks is employed by me. I know her Mother very well and am responsible for her. On that night Nurse Stocks was still out. I phoned to find out where she was as she was with an officer of the Seaforths. I think I had reason to do that and when she came in told her she must keep better hours or leave the Nursing Home. That is my business.

Q. Were you annoyed with her?
A. Obviously.

Q. You did have a disagreement with her?
A. There was no disagreement.

Q. Did you make any reference to this occasion on the night in question?
A. I don't think so.

Q. How did you reprimand her?
A. I told her it mustn't happen again. I can't have my staff out all night.

Q. What did she say?
A. That it wouldn't happen again.

Question by the Judge Advocate

Q. Was the accused present?
A. No.

Defence continues

Q. You said you had large sums of money in your purse. You also said you had a considerable amount in your pocket. I would like you to consider how it is that you can recollect so exactly the sums you had in your possession?
A. I don't usually have bank notes. Patients pay me in £1 notes. I prefer cheques. The cash money I allow to accumulate until Saturday when I bank.

Q. You don't like having notes in large denominations?
A. I said I don't like taking £1 notes for fees. The £65 I

Q. Did you later see him there?

A. No, I had enough loose money in my pocket and I had used that. Had I had more I would have given her that instead of my bag.

Q. After Smith went what did you do?
A. After that the night nurse told me about a patient and I had to go along. We both sat up all night in the dining room as we use it for an office as well. The handbag did not leave the table and neither of us could have touched it as we were both present. It was not opened until the next morning. Next morning Nurse Stocks wanted £5 for a new dress and I told her to take it from the bag. She got my bag and I found there were four £5 notes left out of the six.

Q. What condition were they?
A. Just pushed in crumpled up.

Q. How much?
A. Four £5 notes.

Question by the Court

Q. How much was missing?
A. £40.

Q. There was originally £65. £5 was taken out at the Matsfield Arms to pay for drinks?
A. Yes.

Cross Examination by the Defence

Q. Did you frequently have large sums of money on your person?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you take any great care that the fact was not known?
A. No one knows of that other than Nurse Stocks and I trust her not to steal.

Q. Did you attend the dog races?
A. I think that is my business.

Q. I have asked you a question.

The Prosecution objects on the grounds that this question has no bearing on the case. The Judge Advocate requests that the witness answer the question.

A. I have attended the dog races.

Q. Did you win money?
A. I win more than I lose.

Q. How much money did you have in your pocket on the night in question?
A. I should say about 16/- in silver.

Q. I am referring to the notes in your pocket?
A. About twenty two £1 notes.

Q. While you were in the Matsfield Arms how much did you have to drink?
A. I paid for two and Nurse paid for one.

Q. During the whole of the time?
A. Yes.

Q. How long were you there?
A. From about 7.30 until shortly after nine.

Q. Did you ask Smith to come home?
A. He asked could he come home for a meal and I said certainly.

Q. Had you had soldiers in your home before?
A. On about three occasions.

Q. You said you were going to be busy that night?
A. I had to be busy.

Q. Did you and Miss Stocks have a quarrel?
A. No. We had a word because Smith was talking to her and I said why talk to a person like that and we did get annoyed and have a few words.

Q. Were the Nurse and Smith whispering?
A. I think it was because Smith wanted to take her out.

Q. When he asked you about supper you said yes?
A. Certainly.

Q. Did you think it was improper that they should be whispering?
A. I thought it was rude.

Q. Yet you were willing that Nurse Stocks should look after him?
A. We wouldn't have supper with him, the maids would look after him.

Q. You said you told Nurse Stocks?
A. She would have told the maid.

Q. Do you frequently quarrel?
A. We don't.

Q. Are you sure the only thing which made you mad was her whispering to Smith?
A. There was no other reason or I wouldn't have come out with her.

Q. Had you had reason to be displeased with her shortly before this?
A. No.

The Prosecutor requests that the Defence indicate the reason for this trend of questioning. The Defence replies that he is trying to show there was a violent disagreement between the two women and that the Nurse chose to get even by taking some money from the purse of Miss Heys.

Q. You hadn't had any serious disagreement with her? Then please explain why you phoned our duty officer at 0430 hrs 2 Jul 42 in an extremely irate state?
A. Nurse Stocks is employed by me. I know her Mother very well and am responsible for her. On that night Nurse Stocks was still out. I phoned to find out where she was as she was with an officer of the Seaforths. I think I had reason to do that and when she came in told her she must keep better hours or leave the Nursing Home. That is my business.

Q. Were you annoyed with her?
A. Obviously.

Q. You did have a disagreement with her?
A. There was no disagreement.

Q. Did you make any reference to this occasion on the night in question?
A. I don't think so.

Q. How did you reprimend her?
A. I told her it mustn't happen again. I can't have my staff out all night.

Q. What did she say?
A. That it wouldn't happen again.

Question by the Judge Advocate

Q. Was the accused present?
A. No.

Defence continues

Q. You said you had large sums of money in your purse. You also said you had a considerable amount in your pocket. I would like you to consider how it is that you can recollect so exactly the sums you had in your possession?
A. I don't usually have bank notes. Patients pay me in £1 notes. I prefer cheques. The cash money I allow to accumulate until Saturday when I bank.

Q. You don't like having notes in large denominations?
A. I said I don't like taking £1 notes for fees. The £65 I had had for ages.

Q. How long?
A. I can't exactly say, but for some weeks.

Q. Did you look at them frequently?
A. No.

Q. Did you count them every time you opened your bag?
A. No, they were counted that evening.

Q. Why?
A. I made sure I had the seven 5s and three 10s.

Q. It just happened you counted it that evening?
A. Yes, I was just going out with my handbag.

A. No.

A. No.

Q. Can you recall who gave you those bills?
A. Yes.

Q. Had they made any record of the numbers?
A. No.

Q. At what time did you and Smith arrive at the Nursing Home?
A. I think about 9.20 p.m.

Q. At what time did he leave the Home?
A. He couldn't have been there more than a quarter of an hour.

The Court adjourns from 1015 hrs to 1025 hrs.

2nd witness for the Prosecution

Miss Betty Stocks, Nurse, St. George's Nursing Home, Hurstpierpoint having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q. Are you employed by Miss Hayes?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you remember the night of 3 Jul 42?
A. Yes.

Q. Were you together?
A. Yes.

Q. Where did you go?
A. To the Matsfield Arms, Clayton.

Q. About what time did you get there?
A. About 7.30 or 8.00.

Q. Was Smith there?
A. No, we went into the Saloon and no one was there.

Q. Did Smith come in?
A. Yes.

Q. What time?
A. About 8.15 or 8.20.

Q. What happened then?
A. Matron had been buying drinks and I said I would buy the next one.

Smith came in and then what did he do first of all?
He came up to the bar and spoke to Matron. Matron then introduced me to him.

Q. Then you undertook to buy drinks?
A. Yes.

Q. Where was Smith standing?
A. On my right.

Q. Then what happened?
A. I asked them what they would have. They told me and I ordered them. When I came to pay I was 6d short so I said to Matron have you any money. She gave me her bag and said to take some from it, but to take a £5 not a £10. I took a wad out.

Q. Can you describe it?
A. I know it was folded in four and quite a sized wad.

Q. What was on the outside?
A. I don't know, I just took one from the bag.

Q. Then what did you do?
A. I gave it to the landlord and he handed the change over the counter and I gave it to Matron and I put the other notes in the bag and gave it back.

Q. How were they when you put them back?
A. Quite tidily. There is a small pocket in the bag and these notes were folded in four and I put them straight in the bag. There was nothing else in that pocket.

Q. Then what did you do?
A. I gave the purse back to Matron and she put it on the counter.

Q. Do you recall Smith saying anything about a meal?
A. Smith said he would like to go back and have something to eat.

Q. What did Miss Heys say?
A. I know she was quite willing.

Q. What was Miss Heys position during this time?
A. She was standing on my left and the other person was on her left.

Q. Where was the purse?
A. It was on the counter in front of her left arm.

Q. Did you see anyone touch that purse after you gave it to Miss Heys?
A. No.

Q. Did you leave the bar before you left for the evening?
A. No.

Q. Was the purse in view all the time?
A. Yes.

Q. What time did you return home?
A. We got back about 9.20.

Q. What happened after you got back?
A. Matron was on duty and she said she was going to change and we both left the hall. Matron went downstairs and I went upstairs and as I got to the top of the stairs Smith called "Bette" and I didn't know who he meant.

Q. How far up the stairs were you?
A. I was on the landing at the top.

Q. Continue?
A. I didn't know who he meant. I came back downstairs and Smith had walked to the doorway. He said that he better be going as Matron was busy and he said don't forget Matron's purse is there and I am going and I want you to see it is still there. I said "Don't worry" and he went down the steps.

Q. He went down the steps leading to the front door?
A. Yes, and then down the driveway.

Q. He went right out of the house?
A. Yes.

Q. What did you do then?
A. I went downstairs and told Matron and after a few minutes we came back and he was still in the hall. I don't remember what was said but I know Smith did say "Don't forget the purse is still there".

Q. Where were you when Matron opened her purse?
A. On Saturday morning we were going to Hurstpierpoint and I had seen a dress I wanted, but didn't have any money.

Q. What did you see in the purse?
A. I saw that the bank notes that were in the purse had been just pushed in, not as I left them and there were not as many.

Q. Did you count them?
A. No.

Q. How do you mean "pushed in"?
A. They were not folded into four. They were just crumpled up and had just been pushed in anyway.

Q. When you went down to tell the Matron that Smith was leaving how long were you away before you came up again?
A. About five or ten minutes.

Q. Did you see Miss Heye look in the purse before you went out?
A. No.

Cross-Examination by the Defence

Q. While you were in the Matsfield Arms how many drinks did the Matron buy?
A. I have no idea.

Q. How many did you have?
A. I had about three or four beers.

Q. Did you have one each time the party you were with had one?
A. I don't remember, I don't think so. Matron was drinking short drinks.

Q. She had more than you did?
A. She may have had one or two more.

Q. Were you whispering to Smith in the bar?
A. He was talking to him.

Q. Did the Matron object to it?
A. Yes, she didn't like it.

Q. What were you talking about?
A. He was telling me how much he disliked the fellow that was talking to Matron and I agreed with him.

Q. Is that all?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you mention at all the fact that the Matron had disapproved of you being out late a short while before?
A. I did not.

Q. Did you have a quarrel with the Matron that night?
A. No, Matron was rather annoyed with me and told me because Smith had been whispering. That's all.

Q. She was annoyed because Smith was whispering to you?
A. Yes.

Q. That is rather extraordinary. I would like to know if you were whispering to Smith or not?
A. No I wasn't whispering. We may have been speaking in low tones, but it wasn't whispering.

Q. Was the Matron annoyed that you had got home late on the morning of 2 Jul 42?
A. She was annoyed because I came in early that morning.

Q. Was she very angry?

A. She just told me not to let it happen again or I would not be able to stay in her employ.

Q. Did you resent it?
A. No.

Q. What time did you get back?
A. About 4.25 a.m.

Q. It's not very late is it?
A. Matron thinks so.

Q. You did not think it was unreasonable of her?
A. No because she has been annoyed with other nurses that do the same thing.

Q. Can you say how much money was in her bag when you opened it in the Matsfield Arms?
A. No.

Q. When you returned to the hospital and went upstairs, had you just reached the top when Smith called?
A. Yes.

Q. Did youcome down immediately?
A. Yes.

Q. How long were you out of sight of him?
A. Not very long. When Smith called I hesitated because I didn't know whether he meant Matron or me and she did not come so I went downstairs.

Q. You could see the bottom of the stairs from where you were?
A. Yes I could see the bottom.

Q. After you had come down to tell Matron Smith was leaving, when you got back up was the purse in the same place as it was before?
A. I couldn't say I don't know.

Q. How many times did Smith call attention to the purse?
A. Once to me and once to Matron.

Q. You don't know if it was in the same position?
A. It was in the same chair.

Q. When you put the money back in you said it was folded neatly. Did the purse bulge?
A. It is a small plain bag about six inches by eight and it had a lot of things in the main pocket and the small pocket that the notes were in is stitched on the inside, to the outside wall of the purse.

Q. Did the notes form a bulge?
A. No.

Q. Is the purse a type that crumpled notes would make a bulge?
A. I don't think so.

Q. Who carried the purse into the dining room?
A. Matron.

Q. Where did Smith go when you first came in?
A. Just came into the hall.

Q. Did you and the Matron have a quarrel when you returned?
A. Matron was still annoyed with me because she said I was rude by talking to Smith about the other man she was talking to. She knew I was talking about him.

Q. She was short with you in the hall?
A. She was still annoyed with me.

Q. Was it obvious?
A. Yes.

Q. Who suggested that Smith should come back to supper?
A. Matron. Smith asked and Matron agreed.

Q. Who first mentioned the subject?
A. Smith.

Q. Did she agree readily?
A. Yes, I think she was quite willing.

Q. Would you say she approved of Smith?
A. I don't know what she thought of him.

Q. It is rather strange that if she was annoyed she still fell in with the suggested that he come home?
A. I don't think she was annoyed with him, but me.

Q. Was it obvious in the bar she was annoyed with you?
A. No.

Q. When did you leave the Matsfield Arms?
A. I didn't get into the car in the yard. I walked up the road and Matron picked me up.

Q. Why did you do that?
A. I was annoyed because I didn't think I had done anything to make her annoyed so I told her I would walk home.

Q. Matron was annoyed with you and you with her?
A. We were not very annoyed once she picked me up. She picked me up and that more or less made it up.

Q. Did you give Smith £10.
A. I did not.

Q. When you came downstairs after he called "Bette" were you and he alone with the purse?
A. Yes, for about a minute.

Q. Time enough for someone to take something out of the purse without Miss Heys knowing about it?
A. I don't think so.

Q. Did Smith have supper?
A. No.

Q. Why not?
A. I don't know why he didn't?

Q. Do you think he was aware that the Matron and you were annoyed with each other?
A. It may have been obvious to him.

Q. I don't wish to be unpleasant, but would it be fair to say you and the Matron were in the habit of having flareups and then have them die down?
A. I don't think so, no.

Q. She would bring things up after they were over?
A. She does sometimes, but it isn't a habit.

Q. Did Miss Heys say anything?
A. Something about changing a £5 note instead of a £10.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?
A. Yes.

Q. When did you last see him?
A. I saw him a fortnight ago yesterday, that is the 3 Jul 42.

Q. Where did you see him?
A. He came into the public house and said "Hello Mother". All the Canadian boys call me Mother. He said he wanted a bottle of beer. He said it was his birthday and I said I hoped he had had a good one. He said he had had a swell present. I think he used that word.

Q. Then what happened?
A. He had his bottle of beer and gave me a £5 note.

Q. What happened then?
A. He said as it was his birthday that we had all better have one with him.

Q. Did he buy drinks for everyone in the house?

Q. When you first questioned him as to the larceny of the money, before mentioning the fact that he had spent certain money in the Queen's Head. What did he say before that?

I told him that I had received information he had changed two £5 notes in the Queen's Head when he purchased this whiskey. He then retracted and said "I paid for the whiskey with a £5er."

I asked him where he obtained them from and he replied "The young nurse gave me two £5 notes. I know the nurse had no money of her own as when at the Matefield Arms she did not have enough money to pay for the drinks. She got the money from the oldest woman's purse. PROSECUTION ENDS

Defence

I make formal application for dismissal of the charges against the accused on the ground of lack of sufficient evidence. In the first place the charge laid is that the accused stole £40 the property of Miss Heys. There has been no evidence produced that anyone saw the accused take the money from Miss Heys bag. There has been no evidence to show that the accused was in possession of that amount of money. Those are the first grounds of my application. There has been evidence that the accused was in possession of £10. That money has not been identified as the property of Miss Heys. He is accused of having stolen this money, not having stolen money in his possession. I quote from Archibald's Criminal Pleas "Where the defendant pleads not guilty, the prosecution is obliged to prove any fact stated in the indictment which is necessary to prove the offence charged." Had this charge been framed that he had stolen sums unknown or that he had stolen £10 I would not be making this application, but he is charged with stealing £40 and there is no evidence for the defence to meet. The prosecution have not discharged the burden of proof which lies upon them. I would point out this is not a technicality but goes with the very essence. You have an accused soldier charged with the theft of £40. I take my stand on the ground to remember indicated and would ask the Court in considering the ordinary that they are bound by the laws of the land law in practice.

He is accused of having stolen this money, not having stolen money in his possession. I quote from Archibald's Criminal Pleas "Where the defendant pleads not guilty, the prosecution is obliged to prove any fact stated in the indictment which is necessary to prove the offence charged." Had this charge been framed that he had stolen sums unknown or that he had stolen £10 I would not be making this application, but he is charged with stealing £40 and there is no evidence for the defence to meet. The prosecution has not discharged the burden of proof which lies upon it. I would point out this is not a technicality but goes to the very essence. You have an accused soldier charged with the theft of £40. I take my stand on the ground that I have indicated and would ask the Court in considering to remember that they are bound by the laws of the land, by the ordinary law in practice.

Prosecution

The Judge Advocate will of course direct the Court that the onus is on the crown to prove the guilt of the accused. A reasonable doubt, means a reasonable doubt, not a fanciful doubt, or a mere possibility. It does not mean as suggested that an accused could be convicted on circumstantial evidence.

In a case of theft in order to obtain a conviction it is not necessary to produce a witness who actually saw the crime, if it were it would put a great premium on crime. It is not necessary to go that far. It is only necessary to produce circumstances which, or from which an inference may be drawn that the accused took that money. As to the matter of amount. The Court is open to find the accused guilty of stealing £10. I am going into this merely to meet the objections of the defending officer. I would suggest that the Court find the man guilty of stealing the amount. On a charge of stealing £40 it is not necessary to have an alternative of stealing a lesser amount. It is open to the Court to make a special finding that the accused is not guilty of stealing. The defending officer stated that if there had been a lesser charge of stealing £10 he would not make a motion, but it would have been incorrect to include that charge because the Court may find him guilty on a special finding andthe Judge Advocate will direct you that it is a principle of criminal law that where a person in possession of stolen goods must give a reasonable explanation of how he came into possession. The evidence we have is that certain money was missing. The accused was in a public house where he produced two £5 notes. It is shown from the evidence of the Paymaster that it was unlikely that this soldier would have that money. The accused is clearly called upon to give an explanation as to how he came by that money. He did give one to the police constable which is clearly unsatisfactory. First of all he stated he purchased this liquor with £1 notes and then he comes further with this tale of the money having been given him by Miss Stocks. At the same time he told the police constable he knew that that money given to him by Miss Stocks had been taken by Miss Stocks from Miss Heys purse. That is not a case of receiving stolen goods, that is taking part in the theft. There are two elements to taking and taking away. The taking away is as much an element as the taking. If I pick up an article and throw it out of the window to someone else, that person is as guilty as I am. On his own admission he is guilty of the theft of £10.

Judge Advocate

The defence has moved for non suit on the grounds the prosecution has not established a prima facie case. While they are considering this motion the Court should read the definition of stealing on page 118 M.M.L. and also para 66 on page 124 M.M.L. I agree with the prosecution in that certain evidence was given to Sgt. Buckland which indicated that the accused knew that £10 at least of the money which he is charged with having stolen came from the purse of Miss Heys. It is open to the Court on consideration of the matter whether they should dismiss the case now or whether they should put the accused on his defence. It is the duty of the court to consider the matter in closed court and if they do come to the conclusion that the prosecution has showed no prima facie case, they may then dismiss the charge, however, if they come to the conclusion that the prosecution has made a prima facie case they must announce it and go on with the case.

Court adjourns for the consideration of the motion.

The President announces that the Court has considered the motion and have overruled it.

Court adjourns from 1210 hours to 1405 hours.

At the request of the Defending Officer Miss Heys is recalled. The Court is of the opinion that RP 76 need not be complied with.

Miss Heys is recalled, and is informed she is still under oath, and is examined by the defence.

Q. Did you phone the duty officer here last night?
A. Yes, asking for this case to be withdrawn.

Q. What is your reason?
A. My reason is that Nurse Stocks is worried and I knew that I would not get my money back and I thought it would be a waste of time.

Q. You don't want this case to come up for a definite reason knowing that it would bring discredit on yourself and on Nurse Stocks because you know Smith was not responsible for the money disappearing. I ask you, was that the reason?
A. No, the reason is that Nurse Stocks has no occasion to steal. She never has done and there has been £100s of pounds in the house at times.

Q. Why was Nurse Stocks worried?
A. Because she has never been in a court.

Q. Why did you lay the information in the first place?
A. Because the money had been taken and I think it is up to him to return it.

Q. I don't wish to enter into an argument with you, but you must have known it would result in some sort of proceedings?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you still deny you had no other motive?
A. Yes.

The prosecution declines to cross examine the witness.

The accused elects to give evidence on oath.

1st witness for the defence

K.57653 Pte. Smith, G., Seaforth of C having been duly sworn, is examined by the defence.

Q. Will you tell the Court what happened on 3 Jul 42?
A. That night I went down to Brighton for a few beers and had some supper and took the bus back. On the way back to camp I got off at the pub and went into the bar and ordered a pint of beer and these two ladies were there. I ordered a beer and she told the bartender she would pay for it, asking me if I would have a scotch. I said it was all right. She ordered it up and paid for it. We had two or three drinks and she told the young woman about whispering to me.

Q. Who paid for the drinks?
A. The Matron and the nurse paid for them. The Nurse wanted to go over and speak to some officers who were in the bar, but the Matron didn't want her to and that's where the whispering came in as Nurse told me the Matron objected to it. We had another drink and decided to go home as they had to go on shift. I was standing there not paying much attention and they got up and I came out with them. The two of them were sitting in the car when the Nurse jumped out and called something back to the Matron and went down the road. The Matron closed the car door and went down the road after her. I started walking down the road and passed them and said "Good night" when she opened the car door and said "Get in". She told me to come down to the house and have some supper. I went down to the house with them and when we got in the Matron showed me into a sitting room. I just sat down when the argument started again in the hallway. I went out to see what it was about and just as I got out the Matron slapped the Nurse over the face. The nurse went to the door and I thought she was going and then she came back and slapped the Matron over the face. The Matron got up and went downstairs and the Nurse went upstairs. I called her down and told her I was going. I told the nurse to look after the Matrons purse as I was going and it was laying in the hallway and the door was open and if anything happened I was going to be blamed for it. She said if there was going to be any cleaning up she would attend to it and I had nothing to worry about. I went down the steps to the door when I was called back by the Nurse. She said "Here's something go and have a drink". I saw it was two £5 notes she had put in my hand. When she gave them to me she said something about going to have a few drinks, because the Matron was made and she wouldn't give me a bottle of beer. I went down to Hurstpierpoint and went into the first pub I came to. It was the first time I was in it and spent the money in there. There were a few of the boys in there. I bought them a drink with the money and then ordered a bottle of scotch which I paid for and then went back to camp. I knew nothing more about the £40 until I was taken in front of Mr. Hall Tues morning.

Q. Where did yougo when you went in the Nursing Home?
A. She showed me into a sitting room off the hallway and the Nurse and Matron stayed in the hallway.

Q. Why did you leave the house without supper?
A. With this argument going on the the slapping each other I didn't want to be mixed up in any trouble.

Q. How much did you have to drink in the Matefield Arms?
A. Three or four double scotches. We would finish one drink and put the empties on the counter and refill them.

Q. Did they have drink for drink with you?
A. She ordered them for all of us.

Q. How about herself?
A. She was drinking too.

Q. How would you describe her condition?
A. She was pretty well intoxicated. I don't know how much she had to drink before.

Q. You haven't answered my question, how was Miss Stocks?
A. I would say she was a little gay.

A. Yes.

A. There were three or four.

Q. Did you buy more than one round of whiskey?
A. Yes.

Q. How did you pay for the subsequent rounds?
A. With the change from the £5.

Q. What did you pay for the bottle of whiskey with?
A. With the other £5.

Q. You heard the evidence of Sgt. Buckland that when he first questioned you you said you paid for it with £1 notes?
A. After changing the first £5 I paid for the drinks with the change. That is what I meant.

Q. What was your own state that night?
A. With these double scotches I was beginning to feel them.

Q. Did you pause to think before you accepted the money?
A. I never gave it a thought.

A. Yes.

Q. You heard the evidence of the bartender who said they were sober. Do you disagree with that?
A. Yes.

Q. When did the question of going home with Miss Heys for a meal come up?
A. I never suggested it as I had just come from Brighton where I had a meal.

Q. The matter of a meal didn't come up until you were outside the Matafield Arms?
A. Yes.

Q. Why did you follow them outside?
A. With the argument going on and their condition I thought I would go out and see what happened and when I arrived outside the Matron and the Nurse were in the car and just then the door opened and out came the nurse and she started down the road.

Q. You followed them out to be of assistance?

A. No.

Q. You have told the court the Matron got you to go down for a meal?
A. I am not saying she wasn't sincere, but the arguments were still going on in the car.

Q. Was that the first time you saw a £5 note?
A. When the nurse put it over the counter.

A. I didn't know how long they were going to be in. What with their high tempers and the open door anyone could have come in.

Q. You brought this matter to their attention?
A. I thought the Matron was going and I didn't want to see anything happen.

Q. The nurse told you if there was any cleaning up to be done she would do it later?
A. Yes, it was none of my business.

She came into the house, she went downstairs to get changed and about 10 minutes later she came upstairs after she had changed and that you were still there. Is that correct or isn't it?
A. No. The Matron went downstairs after she got a slap in the face.

Q. Her statement which you heard is that after going downstairs she came back up again 10 minutes later and spoke to you is false?
A. I don't remember her coming upstairs.

Q. Do you recall Miss Heys swearing in her evidence that when she came back upstairs you were there?
A. Yes.

Q. Is that true?
A. I didn't see her come upstairs.

Q. You don't know?
A. I didn't see her. The last time I saw the Matron was when she got slapped across the face and went downstairs.

Q. If she says that 10 minutes after the conversation which you describe with Miss Stocks and which Miss Stocks has admitted that is the conversation about the purse and the cleaning up. If Miss Heys says that 10 minutes later that she came up stairs and you were still there, that story is false?

A. Absolutely.

Q. What you say is that you left immediately after your conversation with Miss Stocks?

A. I left after I saw the Matron get up and go down the stairs and I never saw her after that.

Q. Miss Heys must be lying if she says she saw you 10 minutes after your conversation with Miss Stocks?

A. She didn't see me and I didn't see her.

Q. You heard Miss Heys say that after she came back upstairs you spoke to her about the purse?

A. I never spoke to Miss Heys at all. It was to the nurse. The Matron after she got slapped in the face got up and went downstairs.

A. I didn't know if she had any or not.

Q. I mean on her person?

Q. Did you not tell the police constable that she had insufficient money to pay for the round?

A. I don't remember saying that to him.

Q. You don't remember saying that to Sgt. Buckland?

A. No.

Q. You are telling us now that you didn't know whether Miss Stocks had any money or not?

A. I don't know about later on.

Q. Do you remember saying that?

A. I heard her say that to the Matron.

Q. Do you still deny that you knew that Miss Stocks had no money that night?

A. She didn't have any in the public house, I don't know about when we got to the house.

A. I couldn's say.

Q. You didn't think about the matter at all?

A. No.

Q. It was just manna from heavan and you didn't care?

A. I thought she was just trying to do a good turn. I didn't give it a thought.

Q. You heard Sgt. Buckland's statement that you told him she got it from the older woman's purse. Do you deny making that?

A. The only thing I know about is at the Matefield Arms.

Q. You stated the money you received from Miss Stocks you knew to have come from the same purse from which the £5 came at the Matefield Arms?

A. I wouldn't accuse anyone unless I saw them. The only statement I was talking about was at the Matefield Arms.

Q. That statement is incorrect then?

A. It is incorrect as far as money from the house is concerned. I knew she didn't have any because I heard her asking.

Q. You say you got down to the foot of the stairs when Miss Stocks called you?
A. Yes.

Q. How long did it take you to get there?
A. Not long.

Q. She called you from there?
A. She called me by name.

Q. How long after you left her?
A. About a minute or two.

Q. Did you think that in a minute she would have had time to go and get some money from her own purse?
A. I don't know.

Q. You knew she had no money?
A. I knew she didn't have money in the pub but she may have had some at home.

Q. She didn't have time to go and get money from any other place between the time you left and she called you?
A. All the time she was in there she was under my eyesight.

Q. I suggest that you know very well if your story is true that that money came from Miss Heys purse?
A. I couldn't tell you. I didn't see that Nurse touch Miss Heys purse.

Closing address by the Defence

I will deal with the case presented against the accused under two heads. First the law which applies and secondly the weight of evidence. The accused is charged with stealing the sum of £40 property of Miss Heys. The prosecution, when I made my motion this morning pointed out that even though he were not found guilty of stealing £40, but found to have stolen £10, could be found guilty of stealing £10. As I see it the prosecution has tried to show in the first place that he stole the whole £40 which of course is denied by the accused. The prosecution then tried to seek a verdict of stealing £10. He can only be guilty of stealing £10 if his own answer is taken as a basis, that is if he received the sum of £10 he can only be found guilty as an accomplice. An accomplice is someone who must have knowledge at the time the crime is committed, that a crime is being committed, a person who receives money which has been stolen knowing it was stolen at the time. He can be charged with having stolen property. To be an accomplice you must have had some knowledge at the time the crime was committed, that it was being committed. The only other way he could be found guilty of stealing £10, that is guilty on his own admission, is if he was found guilty as an accessory. As the accused is charged with having stolen £40 I submit he could not be found guilty as an accessory. That is the state of affairs if the basis of the prosecution's case is made to be the accused's admission he got £10. He might be charged with receiving stolen goods, but he cannot be found guilty as an accomplice or an accessory. The prosecution have also tried to throw doubt on the accused's statement that he received the money from the Nurse and also upon his statement he did not see the Nurse take the money from the bag. He did not know she had taken it. Even if he knew afterwards that she had taken it he is not an accomplice nor is he a receiver of stolen goods. He is not an accomplice unless by his presence at the theft, had some part in it. So much as to the question of the accused being found guilty on his own admission. The question of the charge as a whole. In order to prove the offence, that the accused is guilty of the offence charged, I submit that it is necessary that the money be traced. It is necessary to show that this money was stolen. I would point out that the money has not been traced, the serial numbers of the notes are not known and I submit that there is no suggestion of proof that this money was actually stolen. Had they been able to produce the notes themselves and even the two £5 notes and proven them to have been stolen from the purse of Miss Heys that would be different, but that fact is not proven. We have no proof that the money was stolen. We have no notes brought to the attention of the Court, that they came from Miss Heys bag and identified as such. We could not, because she does not know the serial numbers. In order to support the charge the Prosecution must bring forward facts which point the guilty of the accused beyond any reasonable doubt. If those facts can be shown to be untrue or if on the other hand other circumstances can be shown to have existed at the same time that makes for a reasonable doubt and the prosecution has failed to xx discharged its duty. They have to prove that the only way this thing could have happened is by the accused stealing it. We have the testimony of an independent witness that Miss Heys was known to have large sums of money and that she was careless in the handling. I submit that the probable explanation of this loss is that it was not due to theft, but carelessness. That explanation has not been considered, the prosecution has produced no evidence that that explanation is intolerable and the point I am making is that we have one explanation which points to the accused, and another explanation even more tolerable which indicates his innocence, that first open because of the burden of proof could not be held to justify a conviction. I say that not only does the carelessness of Miss Heys make it equily probable of the loss, but I say that in view of the fact brought out in cross examination render that a probability. The money had been lying there in her purse for weeks. It just happens that the night it was stolen she counted it. It might be a coincidence, but I submit a strange one. I submit that the money might have been stolen at any time, she says it was found gone when she looked into her purse at 1030 on the morning after the accused had been there. I would call her evidence into question further by simply stating she is not a reliable witness. She said she had three or four drinks that night. The accused said she had a good many more than that. He admits himself that he had an amount sufficient for him to feel the effects and if he did, so would she. She denied having had any quarrel with the nurse that night, when I first questioned her. On being pressed and asked why she phoned up, she said it was true the nurse was out late one night. We said she had spoken to the nurse about it and admitted that they had had a quarrel. The nurse admitted the matron lectured her on this matter and brought it up again in the Matsfield Arms. I submit because she was under the influence and also when they got back in the house. She would not have done that had she not been excited by liquor. I say her statement are not Acceptable and that her evidence in general is open to question and is not evidence on which the accused can be convicted. The accused is charged with sterling £40. He admits having received £10 of the £40. Is it the action of a man who has just stolen £10 or £40 to go streight across the street and ask to have two of them changed. It will be no doubt alleged that this was carefully thought out. It may be suggested that the accused did this in order to make available to himself this plea I am making, that is he wouldn't be likely if he stole the money to go across and spend it. He went across the street and changed the notes and returned to camp. He was in camp Saturday morning, he then went to London Saturday afternoon. He came back that night and did not leave again until Sunday about 1100 hours.He went to London on Sunday and went AWL. If the man was guilty he would not have come straight out and changed the money, nor would he have stayed around in camp that night before going to change the money. He would have got rid of it. He did not, he stayed in camp and went up to London in the afternoon and came back that night. If it is alleged by the Prosecution that those are the acts of a criminal, a criminal that knows the worst thing he can do is run away and therefore deliberately stayed so as to cast off the idea of suspicion, then will the Prosecution explain the fact that he went AWL the next day. If they take that line of argument, they admit his going AWL would cause suspicion and induce the belief that he went up to dispose of the money. They might say the accused is a psychologist and he was going to avail himself of both, but he is not, nor is he a thief. He is a soldier who is proud of his service with the Regiment in the last war and this and one who would not have entered any thought of stealing money and in the event of having done so would not behave as he did. It has been proven by the accused own statement and the exhibits given to the Court that he was xxx in the habit of receiving money from home. Part of the case for the prosecution is that the accused received no pay, but 10 shillings after 10 Jun. Therefore he was in need of money and any he had must have been stolen. The fact that he was in need of money is obviously alleged in support of the guilty of the accused, but I submit that he was not in need of money. He had money from home regularly, he has relatives in this country from whom he could have got money and I submit that even though he did wish to ask them for money, he would have rather than stolen it. He told the Paymaster when he asked him to keep back all but 10/- that he would not be short of money. The prosecution then say where did he get this money from, and the accused admits where he got it from. He spent that, and his action s in London staying at the Imperial Hotel for 12/6 are not those of a man with a lot of money. He paid two pounds for a bottle of whiskey and about £1 for drinks in the bar. That is three. His trip to London cost him about £4 which is £7. That leaves £3 more. His staying at the Imperial Hotel and buying a room in the YMCA Brighton for £ 2/- which room he did not use, are those the action of a man flush and if it is going to be alleged that he lived economically because he did not want to be suspected, how is that to be reconciled with the fact that he cash two £5 notes. I submit that is proof that he received them sincerely and that he did not steal the other £30 which Miss Heys alleged are lost. On these grounds I ask the Court to acquit the accused.

Closing address by the Prosecution

It is certainly true that this man has a long and honorable military record and he has a wife and family andthe Court would certainly be most unwilling to find him guilty unless he has been proved guilty beyond a doubt. I would like to mention again that it must be a reasonable doubt and not just a shadow or a possibility of doubt. I think that the chain of circumstantial evidence in this case is complete as complete as any chain can be. All that is lacking is evidence of someone seeing the man pick up and remove the money from the purse. If the onus were on the prosecution to produce some witness who actually saw the theft it would put a great premium on theft, because the very simplest precaution is to remain unobserved when carrying out a theft. First let us assume that the accused had made no explanation. During the course of the evening Miss Heys and Miss Stocks are in the Matefield Arms and Smith comes in, he sees this money, a large amount and shortly after that, he asks Miss Heys to take him home for a meal. He goes along with them to the house and gets inside. He calls Miss Stocks back after both women have left and calls attention to the fact that the purse is lying there. Why did he display such an interest in the purse, that is for the Court to decide?

He then leaves, in other words demonstrates to Miss Stocks that he is leaving and goes out and she sees him on his way out. He goes downstairs and Miss Stocks then goes down to the basement and tells Miss Heys she that he has gone. They come up about 10 minutes later and Smith is back there. I think the answer is evident, he came back to remove the money from the purse. I would submit that he was caught there by accident. He had that feeling that they were careless, that they would probably not look in the purse. Having then covered his trail he leaves the house and goes to the Queen's Head. The Defending Officer makes the point that the money hadn't been discovered. The money was produced before the barmaid and Smith has admitted that it came from the Nursing Home, that the two £5 notes came from the Nursing Home. He had been drinking and there was just time for a drink before going home. It was a foolish thing to do. It was the mistake that anyone might have made. The knowledge of the money, thepushing himself forward for the invitation back to the house, the opportunity to steal the money and being discovered a very short time afterwards with a sum of money he would not have had otherwise had in his possession are worthy of consideration in the chain of circumstantial evidence. The Defending Officer has pointed out of certain money from home. He had written for money from home as a result of losing money through AWL, but this money he had written for had not come through at the time of the theft, therefore he was apparently in need of funds at this time. Miss Heys says she had £65, however erratic she may be she certainly must be a business woman to run an establishment at a profit. Why he did not take the whole amount is probably another attempt at covering up. He thought they were drunk, he thought they were careless with money, and if he did not take the whole amount, and if she had not counted the money the night before, it would not have been noticed should they have opened the purse on the night in question. It is also interesting to look at his explanation, the history of the explanation. It did not come into being instantly. Smith was interviewed by Sgt. Buckland and he was asked about spending money he bought drinks with. He said he bought it with £1 notes. Why did he not admit there and then if his story was true that he got two £5 notes from Miss Stocks. He had nothing to worry about, if his story was true, and yet he didn't admit it until questioned upon the point and then admitted it. You heard Miss Stocks give her evidence and you heard the accused give his and you are entitled to draw your own conclusions. The accused chose to be evasive, he did not wish to give direct answers and chose to explain rather than answer. First of all he says he was invited to the Nursing Home by Miss Heys, then he says he just happened to go out when they did and then he finally tells us that he went out because he thought there might have been a fight. He has also said he just wanted to go to Danny, yet on the way home he makes no request to get out of the car, but goes right up to the house. Smith goes in with them to the Nursing Home. He is taken into the sitting room. Again we have this story of the fight and him going to see the fun and then decides to go. Miss Heys then went downstairs and Miss Stocks upstairs and Smith noticed the purse and seems rather concerned with it. He called Miss Stocks back and suggested to her that this purse should not be left as it was. He then leaves. We have I think, one of the keystones of the prosecution, Smith once having left recognized it would be necessary for him to see they did not see him come back, because that would have demonstrated that he had had the opportunity to steal the money, therefore his story is that he told Miss Stocks about it and left. He did not come back, he did not see Miss Heys. I ask you to remember Miss Heys evidence, she gave that evidence before hearing Smith's story, and also that her evidence corroborates that of Miss Stocks. Smiths story is that. Miss Heys went downstairs and Miss Stocks went upstairs, he called to her and he then spoke to her about the purse. He was then free to go, no worry about the purse, and left.

Miss Stocks saw Smith go down the stairs, just to make sure that he had got away. She then went downstairs and went to see Miss Heys. When they came back about 10 minutes later Smith was still there. We have Smith attacking the credibility of Miss Stocks suggesting her as a thief, but the credibility of Miss Heys is not attacked and her story corroborates that of Miss Stocks.

Closing Address of the Judge Advocate

In order that the Court may have clear in their minds what stealing is, I refer them to para 50 on page 116 M.M.L. (reads). There is no doubt that £40 of money is capable of being stolen and from that you are safe to imply, in view of Miss Heys stating £40 was stolen, that the taking and carrying away of that amount of money was done without her consent. I wish also to draw to the attention of the Court para 4p on page 81 and 82 of the M.M.L. concerning circumstantial evidence (reads). The accused went into the box under oath and gave evidence and in respect to that he stated that he had procured £10 in notes as a gift from Miss Stocks the nurse assistant of the owner of the money alleged in the charge. The conclusion here is, was the £10 which the accused had, and which he changed in the Queen's Head Hotel, was that £10 money which belonged to Miss Heys? That is a conclusion for the Court to find. They have several sets of circumstances in front of them. Miss Hey said she had so much in her purse, so much is missing. Miss Heys also stated that the purse was opened in her presence and in the presence of the accused. Other witnesses said the accused saw the money and the accused himself said that he did not see the money, and that when he received the money from Miss Stocks he did not see her take the money from a purse and you also have a statement presented by Sgt. Buckland in which he, after cautioning the accused, received a favorable statement from the accused to the effect that the accused had received the money from Miss Stocks and Miss Stocks had taken it from the handbag which Miss Heys had. That is the first problem which the Court has. The next is in respect to the doctrine of recent possession found on page 124 M.M.L. para 66 (reads). The other problem here is the statement of the accused, one that might reasonably be true and which is consistent with innocence. It may or may not be but that is a question for the court to find and even if they are not convinced of the truth of that statement, but if it is consistent with innocence they must find him not guilty. No evidence was brought up before the Court concerning where a possible £30 may be, or what happened to it. Miss Heys stated that she lost £40, the accused stated he received £10. The Court may, if it comes to the conclusion it does not believe the accused, may make a special finding under RP 44p to the effect that he is not guilty of stealing £40, but is guilty of stealing a lesser amount and naming the lesser amount. The question of alternative finding has been brought up by both the defence and prosecution and in this regard I refer you to A.A. 56, para 6 (reads). Stealing is a felony. The other alternatives which the Court may consider are found on page 174 M.M.L. in the third column opposite stealing, they are embezzlement and false pretences. In considering this a civil charge, if the Court wanted to give an alternative finding, the only ones are attempting to steal, embezzlement and false pretences and I consider from the facts which have been brought before the Court none of those three fit the case. I wish to draw the attention of the Court to a maxim of English law that an accused is not guilty until he is proved guilty. If the Court has any doubt in its mind incoming to a decision, that doubt must be given in favor of the accused.

The Court closes for consideration of the verdict.

4th witness for the defence.

4.sphlS CSM Stone, J.A., Seaforth of C having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defence.

Q. Do you know the accused?
A. Yes.

Q. How long have you known him?
A. For 3 years.

Q. Would you tell the Court your opinion as to his character and ability as a soldier?
A. I know the accused. He was until about two months ago an NCO in my company and one of the best I had. I myself recommend this man for promotion. As a soldier he has never fallen out of battle drill, route march or tough going. On working parties he set a fine example in control of his men and I think for a man of his age he has set a fine example to the young men of my company. As a soldier he has the interest of the Regiment at heart, I know this from discussions with him and as a soldier, he is one of the best.

Q. Have you any knowledge of his record with the Regiment in the last war?
A. The only knowledge I have is that he served with the Imperial Seaforths and has served with other Imperial Regiments.

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. A93653 Pte. Smith, G., The Seaforth Highlanders of Canada.

First Witness: M.,ss Elizabeth Smith Heys, Matron, of St. George's Nursing Home, Hurstpierpoint, Sussex, having been duly sworn, states:

At about 19:30 hours on Friday evening, 3 July, 1942, I, in company with M.,ss Betty Stocks, nurse, of the St. George's Nursing Home, Hurstpierpoint, Sussex, entered the 'Matsfield Arms', Clayton, Sussex. We had a drink, and at about 20:30 hours the accused, Pte. Smith, G., entered the bar room and joined us. We were standing at the bar.

Miss Stocks ordered a drink for the three of us, and discovered that she did not have sufficient money for the purchase. I then gave my bag to Miss Stocks. Smith was standing next to her. I said to Miss Stocks: "Don't change a ten, change a five." Miss Stocks removed the notes, which were folded in four, from the bag, and took off one five pound note. She purchased some drinks with this money, and the change was given to me. Miss Stocks had in the meantime replaced the other bills in the bag, and returned it to me.

At about 21:30 hours it became necessary for Miss Stocks and myself to return to duty, and we prepared to move. I said, in Smith's presence, that I had to get back to work. Pte. Smith then asked if I could supply him with a meal, and I said that this would be all right. We then went to my private car, and the three of us came directly to the St. George's Nursing Home.

As we entered the hallway I threw my handbag on the chair, saying that I would be late for duty. I went downstairs to get changed into uniform, and M.,ss Stocks went upstairs. About ten minutes later I came upstairs. Smith was then standing in the hallway. He said to me: "Don't forget, your purse is in the chair." I told him that we had some work to do and he left. He did not say anything about eating.

Before going to the Matsfield Arms that evening I had in my purse sixty-five pounds in bank notes, consisting of three ten pound notes, and seven five pound notes. These notes were folded together, in four folds. Prior to handing my bag to Miss Stocks I had not had occassion to open it, having previously purchased drinks from loose cash in a pocket of my coat.

Immediately after Pte. Smith left the St. George's Nursing Home I picked up my bag and took it into the dining room, where I placed it on the dining room table. Miss Stocks and I were on duty all night, one or the other of us being continuously in the dining room.

At about 10:30 hours on the following morning I opened the bag. I discovered that the only notes left in my bag were four five pound notes, very crumpled, and shoved in as though placed there in a hurry.

Signed: Elizabeth Smith Heys

The following questions were asked the witness by the accused:

Q. Where did you pick me up? At the Matsfield or further down the road, about 200 yards?
A. Nurse Stocks and myself were standing at the bar when Smith came in. He joined us. We did not pick him up.

Q. After we had finished drinking, where did you pick me up?
A. I left the bar, and Smith got in the car in the Matsfield yard. I had had occassion to speak to Miss Stocks for allowing Smith to whisper to her at the bar, and I was annoyed at her at the time. Smith got into the car in the yard, and I drove down the road about 200 yards before stopping for Miss Stocks to get in the car.

Q. Is it not the case that, when we came out of the Matsfield, you and the nurse had an argument there, and the Nurse proceeded about 200 yards down the road, and you then drove off and caught up with her?
A. The question is already answered.

Q. Did I not bid you good-night when you and Miss Stocks were sitting in the car 200 yards from the Matsfield?
A. No. Smith got into the car in the Matsfield yard.

Q. When did I ask you to take me to your home for a meal?
A. At the bar, in the Matsfield Arms.

Q. Is it not the case, when we arrived at your home, that you slapped the nurse's face for being rude?
A. I have never struck one of my staff.

Q. Is it not the case, when you struck the nurse, the nurse, after a minute, returned and struck you?
A. No.

Signed: Elizabeth Smith Heys

Second Witness: Miss Betty Stocks, Nurse, of the St. George's Nursing Home, Worstpierpoint, Sussex, having been duly sworn, states:

I have heard the evidence of Miss Elizabeth Smith Heys, and I corroborate what she has said.
I remember Miss Heys handing me her purse in the Matsfield Arms at Clayton. I removed a five pound note from the roll which she has described, refolded it as it was before, in four folds, and returned it to the purse. I closed the purse and returned it to Miss Heys.
When Pte. Smith, Miss Heys, and myself returned to the St. George's Nursing Home at about 21:20 hours Miss Heys threw her purse on a chair in the hallway, and went downstairs. I went upstairs, and as I was on the stairs Smith called to me and said: "I am going now, as Matron will be busy. Her purse is on the chair, and I want you to see that it is still there." I then went downstairs to tell Miss Heys that Smith was leaving. We both came back upstairs in about five minutes. Smith was still in the hall. I corroborate what Miss Heys has said about what then occurred, and about what occurred on the following morning. I was present when Miss Heys opened her purse.

Signed: Betty Stocks

The accused asked the witness the following questions:

Q. Was I in the car when you got into it?
A. Smith got into the car in the yard of The Watsfield Arms. I got into it about 200 yards up the road.

Q. Is it not the case, that the Matron was very drunk?
A. No. She was not drunk.

Q. Did you see me at any time touch the Matron's purse?
A. No. I did not.

Q. When I told you about the Matron's purse being left on the chair, did I not ask you to remove it or give it to the Matron?
A. Smith called my attention to it being in the chair, but I don't recall him asking me to remove it.

Q. At the time that I spoke about the purse, did I not say: "Better remove that purse to safety in case anything happens to it?"
A. I remember Smith saying to me that the purse was on the chair, but I don't remember anything else he said.

Q. Did you not say: "If there is any clearing up of the purse, I will tend to that later?"
A. When Smith asked me about the purse, I believe I told him not to worry about it. I would see to it later.

Q. Where did you get the two five pound notes which you handed to me, saying that it was for me to have a drink?
A. I did not hand Smith two five pound notes or any money.

Officer taking Summary.

Fifth witness: George Clarence Agamber, Statement follows:

On Friday evening, 3 July, 1942, I was serving at the private bar of the Hatsfield Arms. Miss Elizabeth Heys and Miss Stocks came into the bar about 20:30 hours. Sometime later Pte. George Smith, of The Dearforth Highlanders of Canada, came into the bar, and joined Miss Heys and Miss Stocks. The three of them were standing at the bar.

A short time later Miss Stocks ordered drinks for Miss Heys, Pte. Smith, and a Pte. Paddock, as well as herself. Pte. Smith was then standing on the right of Miss Stocks, and Miss Heys was standing on her left. Miss Stocks discovered that she did not have sufficient money to pay for the drinks, and Miss Heys then handed to her her purse, saying "Here's a fiver, get a tenner." Miss Stocks opened the purse, and brought out a large wad of notes folded together. She removed a five pound note, and I saw Miss Stocks return the wad of notes to the purse and close the purse. She then pushed the purse along the counter to Miss Heys. This incident took place about 21:00 hours. While Miss Stocks had the wad of notes in her hand I noticed that Pte. Smith looked surprised, and took a long look at the money.

To the best of my knowledge the purse was not opened again for the rest of the evening. It remained on the bar counter until Miss Heys left. She left in company with Miss Stocks, and Pte. Smith.

My wife and daughter were helping in the bar during the evening. Miss Heys' purse was right beside her on the bar, and she did not move away during the course of the evening before her departure.

Sixth witness: Mrs. G.C. Agamber, Statement follows:

On Friday evening, 3 July, 1942, I was assisting my husband to serve at the bar of the Hatsfield Arms. About 20:30 hours I noticed Miss Heys' purse on the bar. I was serving at the bar continuously during the evening, and did not see anybody touch the purse. The purse was right beside Miss Heys, and she never moved away from her position at the bar.

Seventh Witness: Horace Sidney Freeman, Statement follows:

I am the licensee of the Queens Head Hotel. At about 21:30 hours on Friday the 3rd July 1942 a Private soldier came into the private bar of my hotel. He gave to my wife two five pound notes, which she immediately handed to me. The serial numbers of these notes were O/2246/2793 and O/2147/1799. The soldier was with a sergeant of The Seaforth Highlanders of Canada who, so I understand, is stationed at Hampton Lodge.

Eigth Witness: Edith Caroline Freeman, Statement follows:

I am the wife of the licensee of the Queens Head Hotel. At about 21:30 hours on the 3rd July 1942 I was serving at the bar, when a Canadian soldier wearing a red square flash on his shoulders came into the private bar. While he was here he gave me two five pound notes to have changed. I asked my husband to look at them, and when he approved, I changed them for him. The soldier bought some drinks, and a bottle of whiskey. He left when the bar closed at 23:00 hours. The soldier was an elderly man, about 45, clean shaven, about 5 ft. 1 in., well built. He had a square face, pale complexion, fair hair, inclined to gray.

The accused was cautioned pursuant to R.F. 4 4B), and made the following statement, under oath:

Statement follows:

On Friday night 3 July, 1942, I went into the Waterfield to have a drink. When I arrived in there I asked for a pint of beer, and was going to pay for it when Miss Keys said: "Forget about it as I will pay for it." At the same time she asked me if I would have a double Scotch. I said yes. We had quite a few double Scotches, and Miss Keys told the other nurse that it was time to go on night. Before leaving Miss Keys had an argument with the nurse, Miss Stocks, for trying to get away with one of the officers who was drinking at the Waterfield. That went on for about ten to fifteen minutes, until Miss Keys said to the nurse: "The hell with this. We are going home." Before leaving the Waterfield the matron bought a large bottle of wine. They went outside. I followed out to see if they got going. I saw her put the wine bottle in the back of the car, and there were six or eight beer bottles lying on the back seat. I bid the two of them good-night, and before they left they started to argue again. The nurse jumped out from the front seat, and ran about 200 yards up the road, towards Massocks. I went over and stood beside the bus stand, when Miss Keys backed out of the yard and made off in the direction of the nurse. I waited there for about three to four minutes, to see if the Matron's car would move away, before I went down there. It remained there, and I came down the road towards it coming home to dump. When I was passing the car I bid the two of them "good-night" as I was passing. Miss Keys called: "Come back". She opened the back door and told me to jump in.

The accused made the following statement. (cont'd)

She said "I will drive down to the house and you can have some supper with us." She drove home, put the car in the garage, and the three of us went into the house. She showed me into the sitting room. While I was there I heard the two of them arguing in the hallway again. I came out to see what the trouble was, and I saw the nurse strike the Matron across the face. The nurse ran down towards the front door of the house, and turned and came back and struck the Matron on the face. The Matron got up and went downstairs. The nurse went upstairs about four stairs, watching the Matron go down. I asked the nurse "What is your idea in striking the Matron?" She said: "She hasn't got to strike me in front of any soldier." I said: "I am going right now", because I did not wish to be mixed up in any of their fights. When I was ready to go I saw the Matron's purse lying in an armchair in the hall. I told the nurse to remove it, as it was lying in the main hallway, give it to the Matron. At the same time I told her that it was no place, if anything happened to the purse, that I would be getting blamed for it. She said "Never mind. If there is going to be any cleaning up, I will attend to that later." I told her I was going right home right there and then, and was on the foot of the outside steps when the nurse called to me. She handed me two five pound notes, saying "You can have a drink with that, as the Matron is too damn drunk and mad at the moment that she wouldn't fetch the wine or the beer from the car." Having the two five pound notes, I went to the Queens Head Hotel in Hurstpierpoint and had a few drinks there, along with Sgt. Buchanan. I also bought a bottle of Scotch, and then proceeded home to camp. I never knew anything more about the money until I was questioned about it after having been placed in custody. I plead innocent to all this. Miss Heys and Miss Stocks were very drunk.
At the Waterfield Arms I paid no attention to the money when Miss Stocks bought a round of drinks.

Summary of Evidence

in the case of No K 53653 Pte Smith, C.
The Seaforth Highlanders of Canada

First Witness Miss Elizabeth Smith Hayes, matron, of St George's Nursing Home, Hartsfield Point, Surrey, having been duly sworn, states:

At about 19:30 hours on Friday evening, 3 July, 1942, I, in company with Miss Betty Stokes, nurse, of the St George's Nursing Home, Hartsfield Point, Surrey, entered the Hartsfield Arms, Clayton, Surrey. We had a drink, and at about 20:30 hours the accused, Pte Smith, C, ~~[illegible]~~ entered the bar room and joined us. We were standing at the bar.

Miss Stokes ordered a drink for the three of us, and discovered that she did not have sufficient money for the purchase. I then gave my bag to Miss Stokes. Smith was standing next to her. I said to Miss Stokes: "Don't change a ten, change a five." Miss Stokes removed the notes, which were folded in four, from the bag, and took off one five pound note. She purchased some drinks with the money, and the change was given to me. Miss Stocks had in the meantime replaced the other bills in the bag, and returned it to me.

At about 21.20 hours it became necessary for Miss Stocks and myself to return to duty, and we prepared to move. I said, to Smith's friend, that I had to get back to work. The Smith then asked if I could supply him with a meal, and I said that this would be all right. We then went to my private car, and the three of us came shortly to the St. George's Mansions Hotel.

As we entered the hallway I threw my handbag on the chair, saying that I would be late for duty. I went downstairs to get changed into uniform, and ~~Miss Stocks went upstairs~~

About ten minutes later I came upstairs. Smith was then standing in the hallway. He said to me: "Don't forget, your purse is in the chair." I told him that we had some work to do and he left. He did not say anything about eating.

Before going to the Metropole Arms that evening I had in my purse sixty-five pounds in bank notes, consisting of three ten pound notes, and seven five pound notes. These notes were folded together, in four folds. Prior to handing my bag to Miss Stokes I had not had occasion to open it, having previously purchased drinks from bar cash in the pocket of my coat.

Immediately after Pte. Smith left the St George running house I packed up my bag and took it into the dining room, where I placed it on the dining room table. Miss Stokes and I were on duty all night, one or the other of us being continuously in the dining room.

At about 10.30 hours on the following morning I opened the bag and discovered that the only notes left in my bag were four five pound notes, very crumpled, and stored in as though placed there in a hurry.

Elizabeth Smith Sgt.

The following questions were asked the witness by the accused:

Q. Where did you pick me up? At the Matofield or further down the road, about 200 yards?

A. Nurse Stocks and myself were standing at the bar when Smith came in. He joined us. We did not pick him up.

Q. After we had finished drinking, where did you pick me up?

A. I left the bar, and Smith got in the car in the Matofield yard. I had

Q. had reason to speak to Nurse Stocks for allowing Smith to remain at the bar, and I was annoyed at her at the time. Smith got into the car in the yard, and I drove down the road about 200 yards before stopping for Nurse Stocks to get in the car.

Q. Is it not the case that, when we came out of the Matofield, you and the nurse had an argument there, & the nurse proceeded about 200 yards down the road & you then drove off and rang it up with her?

A. The question is already answered.

~~[illegible]~~

Q. Did I not bid you good night when you and Miss Stocks were sitting in the car 200 yards from the Mat. field?

A. No. I will got out the car in the Mat. field yard.

Q. When did I ask you ~~[illegible]~~ to take me & your home for a meal?

A. At the bar in the Mat. field Arms.

Q ~~[illegible]~~

at your home, that ~~[illegible]~~ you slapped the nurse's face for being rude?

A I have never struck one of my staff

Q. Is it not the case, when you struck the nurse, the nurse, after a minute, returned and struck you?

A No.

Elizabeth Smith Hall

2nd Witness. Miss Betty Stocks Nurse, of the St. George's Nursing Home, Hunstanton Sworn, having been duly sworn, states.

I have heard the evidence of Miss Elizabeth Smith Hays, and I corroborate what she has said.

I remember Miss Hays handing me her purse in the Mutrofield Arms at Clayton. I removed a five pound note from the roll which she had described, unfolded it as it was before, in four folds, and returned it to the purse. I closed the purse and returned it to Miss Hays.

When Pte Smith, Miss Hays, and myself returned to the St. George's Nursing Home at about 21.20 hours Miss Hays threw her purse on a chair in the hallway, and went downstairs. I went upstairs, and as I was on the stairs Smith called to me and said: "I am going now, as Matron will be busy. Her purse is on the chair, and I want you to see that it is still there." I then went downstairs to tell Miss Hays that Smith was leaving. We both came back upstairs in about five minutes.

Smith was still in the hall.

I corroborate what Miss Hays has said about what then occurred, and about what occurred on the following morning.

I was present when Miss Hays opened the purse Betty Weeks

The accused asked the witness the following questions:

Q Was I in the car when you got out?

A. Smith got out the car & then had got hold of the arms. I got out & about 200 yards up the road.

Q. Is it not the case that the matron was very drunk?

A. No. She was not drunk.

Q Did you see me at any time touch the matron's purse?

A. No. I did not.

Q. When I told you about the matron's purse being left on the chair, did I not ask you to remove it & give it to the matron?

A. Smith called my attention to [illegible] being in the chair, but I don't recall him ~~saying anything~~ asking me to remove it.

Q. ~~It was not the case, when I asked you to remove it, at that time,~~ At the time that I spoke about the purse, did I not say: "~~Mr~~ Better remove that purse to safety in case anything happens to it"?

A. I remember Smith saying to me that the purse was on the chair, but I don't remember anything else he said.

Q. Did you not say: "If there is any clearing up of the purse, I will look to that later"?

A. When Smith asked me about the purse, I believe I told him not to worry about it. I would see to it later.

Q. Where did you get the two five pound notes which you handed to me, saying that it was for me to have a drink?

A. I did not hand Smith two five pound notes or any money.

Betty Stocks.

President and members of the court;

Truly the most disheartening facts of alcoholism that I have heard, and the vile effect that it has on mind and body, and the evil path that it directs, was told to me yesterday during this season of peace and goodwill. For yesterday I heard from the lips of Smith, the truth about how he is the devoted slave of alcohol. Since then, I've wondered why Smith isn't under medical care, or under a personality who can show him the way, because quite frankly he doesn't know it himself. During his total absence of approximately eighty seven days, he was drunk about half the time. He's a non volunteer with a point score of 126 and he was to be repatriated at the end of September, however he's still here. A man with 126 points, with four years and seven months of faithful service, without crime, but for one exception, shows his steadfastness during action. This previous breach of discipline occured near the conculsion of hostilities. Before Smith went absent in early Sept. he was aware of his return to Canada, and the fact that he was not a volunteer proves the desire of his return. His father, who is a veteran of the last war, and a mother getting along in age would like to see their son, and he them. But this did not subdue the ever present, ever strengthening and ever powerful grip of Alcohol on his system. This man does not need detention, he needs rather, compession he needs the good influence of his mother, and the steadying qualities of his father, he needs the good environment of his home, and as I see it, he needs an honourable discharge from the army, in which he has served so well.

I beg of the court to consider his good service, and the apparent good citizenship of his family and himself. Consider also the admirable feeling this man had for his Regt from which he was detached, and posted to C.M.O.F. That feeling portrays the ideal for which he fought, the ideal of brotherhood, and now he stands alone, without friends. He loved the 8th/9th Regt and didnt want to leave it. He has been away from home for 3½ years, and the following are his terms of service.

L/Bdr - 1 April 42
A/Bdr - 1 May 42
A/Sgt - 15 July 42
Confirmed Bdr 1 July 42.
A/Lt 1 Oct 42
A/Sgt 31 Jan 43.
Confirmed Sgt 11 May 43.

This man has thrown a great deal away during the past eight months, and I beg of the court to be as lenient as possible in awarding punishment. I feel strongly for this man who has given himself to strong drink and who is beyond himself. For better be it, after all these years of faithful service to send him home where he belongs, he has run his course in the army, let us do him no further harm. I can assure you gentlemen, that I sincerely believe, that no good will come of many days in detention for Smith. Many cases in recent times of various types have been considered from the standpoint of compassion, and it is felt, that the need has never been so great nor leniency so urgently required as now. Smith unfortunately is an addict, and a man so possessed pays tenfold through mental suffering and physical ~~suffer~~ harm for his desire to drink

6. The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

The next case was called - Gnr. Smith

FIRST WITNESS:

H2930 Gnr. Ludgrow,C.J.

Prosecutor: Tell the court your occupation and what you were doing on the day you lost your watch.

Witness: I was on fatigues in the Officers' Mess. Before starting work I took off my wrist watch and hung it on a nail in the Kitchen. I was out of the kitchen on several occasions on returning on one of these times I noticed the watch was missing. I reported it to the Sgt and he had the men turn out their pockets but it was not found.

Prosecutor: How long have you known the accused?

Witness: Three months.

Prosecutor: Had you ever worked with the accused before?

Witness: Yes several times when I was in the Officers' Mess.

Prosecutor: Could the accused have seen the watch hanging up in the kitchen and was he working near it?

Witness: Yes he could have seen the watch and at different times was working near it.

Defence: How can you identify this watch as yours?

Witness: There is a niche in the case, I repaired the strap myself and recognize the repair, also there are some jewels missing?

Defence then suggested to the witness and court that it might be rather hard to identify a watch as there were so many that looked alike.

SECOND WITNESS:

L18033 L/Sgt. Patterson,W.S.

N.C.O. i/c Officers Mess

On the day and date mentioned I was on duty in the Officers' Mess. I noticed the watch hanging on a nail and when Gnr. Ludgrow reported it missing I assembled the men and had them turn out their pockets, but the watch was not found.

Prosecutor: Did you have the quarters searched?

Witness: No Sir, I just had the men turn out their pockets.

Prosecutor: Do you recognize this watch?

Witness: Yes sir. That is the watch that was hanging on a nail in the kitchen of the Officers' Mess.

11

Prosecutor: Did you ever see this watch in the possession of Gnr. Ludgrow.

Witness: Yes sir on several occasions

Prosecutor: Was accused out of the mess after the watch was reported missing?

Witness Yes sir

Prosecutor: Was the accused on duty on the day the watch was reported missing?

Witness Yes Sir

Prosecutor: Did accused continue to work in the mess after the search had been made?

Witness Yes Sir

Defence: Can you positively identify this watch as the one that was hanging on a nail in the Officers' Mess kitchen.

Witness Yes sir, I would say that is the watch that was hanging on a nail in the Officers' Mess kitchen.

Defence But you might have been mistaken?

Witness I might have been mistaken, but dont think so.

THIRD WITNESS

M2156 Gnr . Johnson,H.E.

Prosecutor: Tell the court what you know about this case

Witness I was on duty in the Officers' Mess kitchen when a watch was reported stolen. Sgt. Patterson had the men empty their pockets but the watch was not found. On the night of 25 Sep in the Running Mare Public House Gnr. Tarnavesu drew my attention to the fact that Gnr. Smith was wearing a watch. I did not remember seeing Gnr. Smith wearing or owning a watch. I did not see the watch close up, but from a distance of eight to ten feet the watch looked like the one lost by Gnr. Ludgrow Defence I object, the exhibit should be referred to as A watch and not the watch. There may be two different watches involved. The accused claims the Exhibit is his watch claims a watch was taken from the Officers' Mess kitchen.

Prosecutor: How long have you known the accused and did you ever know him to have a watch.

Witness I have known the accused for three months and never seen him with a watch

Prosecutor: Is the watch on exhibit the one Gnr. Smith was wearing in the Running Mare Public House.

Witness Yes

Defence: It would be difficult to identify a watch from a distance of ten feet. I wouldnt attempt to do so myself.

13

FOURTH WITNESS:

M2326 Gnr. Tarnaveau, M.T.

Prosecutor: Tell the court what you know of this case.

Witness: I was with Gnr. Johnson in the Running Mare and noticed a watch on the accused. I asked him the time and he looked at the clock on the wall, and not the watch on his wrist. Miss Thrustle was with him and pulled his sleeve back and looked at the watch. The watch answered the description of the one reported missing. On Thursday 26 Sep while out on a message for Lieut. Stuart I met Miss Thrustle and noticed she was wearing a watch similar to the one that had been stolen. I told her I thought it was a stolen watch and she said the accused had given it to her to mind while he was out on manoeuvres. I told Miss Thrustle she should turn in the watch to the Duty Officer, Lieut. Rogers. Lieut. Rogers was not there so I took the watch. Just before Miss Thrustle left, Lieut. Rogers came in and I gave him the watch.

Prosecutor: How long have you known the accused and have you ever known him to own a watch?

Witness I have known the accused for 5 or six months and have never seen him wear a watch.

Prosecutor: Is this the watch that was turned in (exhibiting Exhibit A)

Witness Yes.

President of the Court suggests that the Prosecutor should prove that something had been stolen

Prosecutor: I am leading up to that now

Defence: You went to the trouble of asking the accused the time, why?

Witness I was suspicious that it was the watch that had been taken.

Defence: Are you a detective?

Witness No sir

Defence: Then why did you go to all this trouble?

Witness I was working in the mess at the time and with the rest of the men was under suspicion. There had been stuff taken before and the Major told us to keep a lookout.

FIFTH WITNESS

Miss Violet Thrustle, Elmcroft, The Tylt, Cobban.

The charges were read and the members of the court introduced and their duties explained. Witness knows nothing of the first charge.

15

Prosecutor: Explain to the Court what you know of this case

Witness: Gnr. Smith left the watch with me on Thursday the night he left on manoeuvres. I was to mind it until he returned. I had it until Tuesday and was wearing it because my own was broken. I turned it in on Tuesday. I met Gnr. Tarnaveau and he asked me the time and then told me he thought it was stolen property. I gave the watch to Gnr. Tarnaveau and he gave me a receipt for it and then the officer came in and Gnr. Tarnaveau gave it to the officer in my presence.

Prosecutor How long have you known the accused and did you ever see him with a watch prior to it being turned over to you?

Witness I have known the accused 6 weeks and never knew him to have a watch

Prosecutor: When did you first see accused wearing a watch?

Witness On the night in the Running Mare, I am not sure of the date.

Defence then cross questioned the witness and tried to ascertain the exact date Miss Thrustle first saw the watch. He suggested that she might have seen the watch a day or so before the time it had been reported stolen. Miss Thrustle said that was possible, but there was some confusion over dates.

Miss Thrustle was informed by the President she might be called later as a witness.

SIXTH WITNESS

Gnr. Gallant, A.F. M29161

Prosecutor: Do you recognize this watch?

Witness: Yes sir, it is Gnr. Ludgrow's watch

Prosecutor: Tell the court what you know about this case.

Witness: I have known Gnr. Ludgrow for two years, he bought the watch from Gnr. Reid and he has owned several watches during the two years.

Defence: How can you identify the watch?

Witness: By the strap, Gnr. Ludgrow added a piece of leather out of an old purse to the strap.

SEVENTH WITNESS

Gnr. Reid, R. M29073

Prosecutor: Do you recognize this watch (producing exhibit)

Witness: Yes it is one I got from my father and sold to Gnr. Ludgrow, I am satisfied that it is the watch I sold to Gnr. Ludgrow Prosecutor: Has the watch been changed in any way?

Witness: Yes, a piece of leather has been added to the strap.

EIGHTH WITNESS

EIGHTH WITNESS

Gnr. Costera, E.B. H 3629

Prosecutor: Do you recognize this watch? Tell the court what you know about it.

Witness: Gnr. Reid used to own that watch, he got it from his father in July and sold it to Gnr. Ludgrow. I have seen the watch several times when Gnr. Ludgrow was wearing it.

Miss Thrustle was recalled

President: Did you ever know Gnr. Smith to have a watch.

Witness: No

President: Did he give you the watch or just loan it to you?

Witness: Just loaned it until he returned from manoeuvres

Sgt. Paterson was recalled

President: Did you have the men turn out all their pockets including the field service dressing pocket.

Witness: They did not turn out the field service dressing pocket.

President: Then it is possible that the watch might have been concealed in on of the pockets.

Witness: Yes sir

The Accused was asked if he wished to make a statement, after being duly warned, and declined but later consented and testified that the watch known as exhibit A was his. He had not been wearing it for some time as it has been in the repair shop in London. While in London around the 17th of Sept he had reclaimed it. The accused stated it was in the repair shop to have some jewels fixed or replaced.

The President of t he Court suggested that the Defence should produce some witnesses.

The Defence stated that it was the duty of the Prosecutor to prove that Exhibit A did not belong to the accused

H-29130 Gnr. Lovegrove C. J., 71st Field Battery, 8th Cdn Army Field Regiment, R.C.A., Cdn Army (O/S) having been duly sworn states:-

On Tuesday 23 Sep 41, I was on duty at the Officers' Mess of the 8th Cdn Army Field Regiment. In order to wash dishes, I took off my wrist watch and hung it on a nail close to where I was working. I left the room for a few minutes and when I returned my watch was gone, I reported the loss to the Sergeant Cook who had the other men turn out their pockets but the watch was not found. Gnr. Smith, whom I recognize was one of the fatigue men on duty that day and was present at the time of questioning by the Sergeant Cook. My watch is of Illinois make and there are a number of movement jewels missing. I identify the watch produced for my inspection as being the watch I lost on the 23 Sep 1941.

SHEET TWO

L-18033 L/Sgt Paterson W.S., Headquarters, 8th Cdn Army Field Regiment, R.C.A., Cdn Army (O/S) having been duly sworn states:-

2nd Witness for the Prosecution

I am Sergeant Cook at the Officers' Mess of the 8th Cdn Army Field Regiment. On Tuesday 23 Sep 41 I noticed a wrist watch hanging on a nail on the wall of the room where the fatigue men were working at the Officers' Mess. I asked to whom it belonged and Gnr Lovegrove said, "It is mine ". About five minutes after Gnr Lovegrove reported to me that someone had taken his watch from where it had been hanging. I paraded all the fatigue men to the batmen's room and had them turn out their pockets. Gnr. Smith G., who I recognize was one of the fatigue men present. The watch was not found at that time.
I identify the watch produced for my inspection as being the watch in question.

L-18033 L/Sgt Paterson W.S.

Question by the accused

Can you prove that this was the watch which was hanging on the nail in the kitchen ?

Answered by the 2nd Witness

To the best of my knowledge, I believe that this was the watch which I saw, but I have no mark nor identification that it is the identical watch.

M-3236 Gnr. Tarnava M.T., 61st Field Battery, 8 Cdn Army Field Regiment, R.C.A., Cdn Army (O/S), having been duly sworn states:-

3rd Witness for the Prosecution

On Thursday, 25 Sep 41, in the evening, I was in the Running Mare public house with Gnr. Johnson H. E. I saw Gnr Smith G. there and noticed he was wearing a wrist watch which struck me as being suspicious as I knew Smith did not own a watch. I went over and asked Smith the time, he looked up at the clock but the girl, Violet Thrussel, with whom he was with, pulled back his sleeve, and I saw him wearing an Illinois wrist watch. Having been on fatigue duty at the Officers' Mess at the same time as Gnr Lovegrove I knew he had lost his watch. As soon as I could I asked Lovegrove for a further description of his watch. He told me it was an Illinois make and that the strap was worn through partly on one side.
On Tuesday 30 Sep 41 I saw Violet Thrussel who was wearing the watch in question. I told her I thought it was stolen and advised her to turn it over to the Officer in charge of the rear party.
On Thursday 2 Oct 41 Violet Thrussel came to Brown Tiles and asked for the Officer in Charge of the rear party, Lieut Rodgers. He was out, so she gave me the watch and I gave her a receipt for it. As soon as Lieut Rodgers came in I turned the watch over to Him.
I identify the watch now shown to me as being the watch in question.

On Thursday 25 Sep 41 I was in the Running Mare public house with Gnr Tarnava. I saw Gnr Smith G. there and he was wearing a wrist watch. This struck me as suspicious as I knew that Smith did not own a watch. Also the watch Smith was wearing corresponded to the description of the watch, which was lost by Gnr Lovegrove. Having been on the same fatigue as Lovegrove when his watch was stolen I heard the description given at that time.

On 30 Sep 41 while talking with Gnr Tarnava, he told me that he thought the watch, which I was wearing was stolen. Not wishing to have anything to do with stolen property I took the watch to Brown Tiles, Avenue Road, to give to the officer in Charge. The Officer in Charge was not there so I gave it to Gnr Tarnava and obtained a receipt from him.

In this case the evidence which follows concerning this set of circumstances will come out quite clearly, so I will not take up the time of the court by making an opening address.

1ST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- Colonel H.M. BAILEY, O.C. 1 C.O.R.U., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:-
Q1:- You are Lt.-Col Bailey, O.C. 1 C.O.R.U., and were such on the 20th of September, 1942 ?
A1:- Yes.
Q2:- Do you recognise the accused ?
A2:- Yes.
Q3:- Do you recall having a conversation with him on that date ?
A3:- Yes, it lasted for quite over an hour. There was no conversation between sergeant-major Smith and myself about anything that happened on Sunday night.
Q4:- You had a conversation on Sunday morning, did you discuss anything about Binstead ?
A4:- We discussed something that we heard had happened at Binstead on Saturday night.
Q5:- Did the accused tell you that something had happened at Binstead on that night ?
A5:- Yes. My reply to the story of the Marines being killed was that I did not believe it. It was probably another rumor. The accused said the men were incensed over the Marine being killed. I told him I did not want our men mixed up in it.
Q6:- What prompted you to ask that question ?
OBJECTION BY HIS DEFENDING OFFICER --- OBJECTION OVER-RULED
Q7:- Was there anything said by him which caused you to think that they might get mixed up with the Marines troubles ?
A7:- No.
Q8:- What else was said ?
A8:- We had a discussion about some transport that was used the night before, there was nothing further said, we discussed other things.
Q9:- Did you follow up your statement, your request to him that your men should not become mixed up in the Marines troubles ?
A9:-No, I said that our men should not get mixed up in it.

Q10:- Did you ask him to see to it ?
A10:- No.
Q11:- Did you give him any orders to safeguard any of your men getting into the disturbance ?
A11:- No, the only orders I gave him were in relation to transport, regarding the mis-use of transport, referring to the night before.
Q12:- I am concerned, and the court is concerned, only with a certain disturbance.
A12:- I never thought any disturbance would take place.
Q13:- Why did you ask him to see that your men did not get mixed up in it ?
A13:- I did not tell him to see that our men did not get mixed up in it.
Q14:- Did you not think it necessary to tell him ?
A14:- I did not think there was any danger of them getting mixed up.
Q15:- The sergeant-major told you that there had been a Marine killed the night before ?
A15:- That he had heard that.
Q16:- You stated just now that your men were incensed about it.
A16:- Some of them.
Q17:- Did you then tell him to do anything or to see to anything that would prevent the men from getting mixed up in it ?
A17:- We went on then talking about the transport, and I said your men must not get mixed up in the Marines affairs or troubles, I do not recall exactly what I said.
Q18:- Did you say anything that would make the sergeant-major concerned about seeing your men did not get mixed up in the matter ?
A18:- I thought he would be on guard by my saying that.
Q19:- What did he say to that ?
A19:- Something, I think, to the effect that 'not to worry, to trust your sergeants and men'.
Q20:- Did you say to sergeant-major Smith, these words, or words to this effect "Now, sergeant-major, see to it that our men don't get mixed up in this trouble "?
A20:- With regard to anything that happened on Sunday night, no, it was more in relation to what happened Saturday night. It is difficult to separate the two. I asked him if our men were mixed up in the Saturday night business. I asked him if our transport had been mis-used Saturday night, and he said "no", but I suspected it had been. I then warned him that a result of the mis-use of transport, as I saw it I was reasonably sure that some of our trucks had been mis-used, and that he was to see that our trucks were not mis-used.
Q21:- We are concerned with the other affair. Your men were incensed, and you did not want them to get mixed up in it ?
A21:- I was concerned, yes.
Q22:- A marine having been killed, your men were incensed ?
OBJECTION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER
Q23:- You dis-believed the sergeant major that the men were incensed ?
A23:- No, I did not think they were. I did not believe the report that the men were incensed over the death of a Marine.
Q24:- At any rate, you said you did not want your men to mixed up with the Marines' troubles ?
A24:- About that.
Q25:- What did the sergeant-major answer to that ?
A25:- I do not remember the accused's words, but to the effect to not worry about the men, and certainly allayed any fears I might have.
CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER
Q26:- In other words, there was no question as to the conduct of your men in your mind ?
A26:- Except with regard to the use of transport.
Q27:- And with regard to transport, you gave definite instructons?
A27:- Yes.
Q28:- And the only definite instructions you gave him were with respect to transport ?
A28:- Yes.
Q29:- And you told him you would find it necessary to deny the sergeants transport for their dances if there was further mis-use of transport ?
A29:- Yes.
Q30:- Did you find out if a Marine had been killed ?
A30:- Yes, I found that one had been injured, that was all.
Q31:- The accused was your regimental sergeant major, an acting as same at the time ?

A31:- Yes.

2ND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- L 27080 Sjt. HOPKINSON, R.F. 1 C.O.R.U., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:-

The defending officer objected to taking the evidence of this witness, because he had only now been handed a copy of the witnesses evidence in the summary.

Lieut. Burrows, for the prosecution, stated that the evidence of this witness had been taken in the summary the day before yesterday, in the presence of the accused.

The defending officer then objected on the ground that the summary of this witnesses evidence did not appear to connect with the accused. He also stated that one of the elemts to be proved was that a disturbance did take place at the time and place stated.

Q32:- You were a member of 1. C.O.R.U. on the 20th of September, 1942 ?
A32:- I was sir, I am security sergeant of this unit, and also training N.C.O.
Q33:- Do you recall the 20th of September, 1942 ? What occurred on that evening ?
A33:- There had been a disturbance at Binstead.
Q34:- Just describe it.
A34:- I went into the N.A.A.F.I. at approximately 8 P.M. in the evening, and Sjt. Lefebre came up to me and said there was a party on, and told me to come along, which I did, and got on the truck. There were others got on the truck, which proceeded to Binstead. About a mile from Binstead the truck stopped.
Q35:- How many trucks were there ?
A35:- Two, sir.
Q36:- How many men in each truck ?
A36:- About 15 or 20. The trucks stopped on the road, and the troops got out and started towards Binstead. I got out, along with Sjt. Lefebre.
Q37:- How many troops were there altogether ?
A37:- There were troops allover. I would say about 200, a mixture of Marines and Ordnance men. We proceede up the road. When they got close they began to yell. I noticed several had clubs, that is just ordinary sticks.
Q38:- What were they yelling ?
A38:- Yelling for the gipsies. Sjt. Lefebvre said there was trouble, and asked me to go into the pub, on the left hand side of the road. There was quite a few troops in there, and civilians, and I sat down at a piano and started toplay, and there was a feeling of good will.
Q:- Outside of Binstead ?
A:- The pub is in Binstead.
Q:- You say there was about 200 men with sticks, were they talking ?
A:- They were talking away and hollering.
Q:- Were they walking ?
A:- They started to run.
Q:- Of this 200 men, how many did you estimate would be Ordnance Forcement unit men ?
A:- It was pretty hard to say, but I think about a quarter of them.
Q:- How many were in the truck with you ?
A:- About 15 to 19.
Q:- Did they have anything in their hands ?
A:- No, sir, not that I could see.
Q:- Where did you pull away from ?
A:- Sergeants' mess.
Q:- Knox and Sjt. McGinnis got on there too ?
A:- Not Sjt. -major Smith.
Q:- Did you see him that evening ?
A:- I saw him in the mess as I came in.
Q:- About 8 o'clock ?
A:- Yes,
Q:- Did he speak to you, or did you hear him speak to anyone ?
A:- No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q:- Did any of the men in the truck with you have sticks ?
A:- No, sir, not that I saw.

Q51:- Did any of the men with you do any of this yelling ?
A51:- After they got out of the trucks they ran up the road just as they entered Binstead.
Q52:- Knox, McGinnis and Lefebvre were there, but no other sergeants ?
A52:- I do not remember sir.
Q53:- There were at least four ?
A53:- I do not think Sergeant Knox was in the same truck I was in.
Q54:- When you got in the truck, were there any other men in the truck ?
A54:- Yes, sir, and more got in at the transport lines.
Q55:- Did you know how many men were to go in that truck ?
A55:- It could take 30 men, it was not over-loaded.
Q56:- Did you or other of of the sergeants do anything to stop this ?
A56:- I was ordered by Sjt. Lefebvre to go in the pub, and I did so, I was not ordered to take any steps to prevent it.
Q57:- Do you know the name of any man who was carrying a stick ?
A57:- No, sir.
Q58:- Were you close enough to any man carrying a stick to stop him ?
A58:- No, sir.
Q59:- When you were in the pub, did any of the Provost come in and speak to you ?
A59:- No, sir. I saw the provost in the truck outside and was asked my name and gave it. They asked who was in charge of the party, and I told them I did not know.
Q60:- Had you seen that provost before ?
A60:- No, sir.
Q61:- You say there was no disturbance outside the pub, was there any inside the pub ?
A61:- I did not go outside to see. When I got outside there was no disturbance.
Q62:- How many of the provost were there ?
A62:- I saw three.
Q63:- Did you tell them that there had been a disturbance ?
A63:- I believe they did mention it.
Q64:- Before you got up in the trucks, you say you were invited to go on a party ?
A64:- Yes, sir.
Q65:- Was there any explanation for the party ?
A65:- No, sir, I was away all afternoon, and heard nothing about it.
Q66:- You at no time saw anything that you thought as an N.C.O. you should interfere with ?
A66:- No, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q67:- Some evidence has been given respecting orders from Sjt. Lefebvre.
A67:- It wasn't exactly an order, it was more of an invitation.
Q68:- You did not think it stranged that all these men were in the truck at the sergeants' mess ?
A68:- I asked questions after I got in the truck.
Q69:- He just asked you to go to this party ?
A69:- Yes.
Q70:- At no time did you receive any order from Sjt. Lefebvre ?
A70:- No orders, sir.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q71:- You were glad of the opportunity to go ?
A71:- Yes, sir.
Q72:- When this invitation came to you you were playing the piano in the sergeants' mess ?
A72:- No, sir.
Q73:- I have witnesses who say you were playing some band instrument.
A73:- I was playing a base fiddle.
Q74:- You had been in the mess some time before this invitation came ?
A74:- About 15 or 20 minutes.
Q75:- Did you have a glass of beer ?
A75:- I do not remember.
Q76:- Then you were not surprised when you went in the mess, you had been there for some time ?
A76:- 15 or 20 minutes.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT
(Capt. McMurdo)

Q77:- There was nothing unusual about this party. Is that the normal procedure, to go outside the sergeants' mess and find a truck full of men there ?
A77:- I would not say it was normal.

Q78:- Had you ever been on a party by truck from this unit before ?
A78:- No, sir.

3RD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- 055 Sjt. B.W. LEFEVRE No. 1 Cdn. Field Security Section, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:-
Q79:- Do you know the accused, A/RSM Smith ?
A79:- Yes, sir.
Q80:- You know that on September 20th 1942 he was RSM of No. 1. CORU ?
A80:- Yes, sir.
Q81:- On that day you were attached to what unit ?
A81:- No. 1 CORU, No. 12 Section.
Q82:- What is your job with 1 CORU ?
A82:- In my area there were 18 units, and I looked after the security endof it, and 1 CORU was one of the units.
Q83:- Where did you mess ?
A83:- At 1 CORU.
Q84:- Do you recall the 20th of September, 1942 ?
A84:- Yes sir. It was on the evening of the 20th of September that I went into the sergeants' mess at 1 CORU about 8 o'clock; There was a lounge for three people, and I sat on it beside RSM Smith and his lady friend. This was Sunday evening.
Q85:- Were there ladies in the mess ?
A85:- She was the only lady there, although it was a ladies night in the mess. I had a few words with the RSM and he asked me if I was going to the party, and I said "what Party", and after he said "well if you don't know anything about it, its a thing which is to be kept quiet". So I told him I was interested in a party, so he then mentioned that the boys were going down to Binstead to raid the hop-pickers. At the time mentioned he looked at his watch and mentioned that it was 3 minutes to eight. A few minutes passed, and I noticed a group of the boys in the mess edging towards the door.
Q86:- NC.Os ?
A86:- Yes, sir. As I was going out the door, I noticed Sjt. Hopkinson, who had been at the bar, I knew him very well, and I told him to hurry, that a party was going on. When they opened the door, I noticed a vehicle outside the door of the sergeants' mess. This all happened in a matter of minutes, it happened very quickly. I went next to the mess and took up my equipment, which was my head gear and pistol. I ran out of the main building and had to run to get on the truck, as it was in motion, and was helped on by people I did not know. We drove down the parade square, and turned left, and we stopped, and more men boarded the vehicle. These men were waiting, for the moment the vehicle stopped, they jumped on, and we were off again. Then we drove a little more and stopped, and more men got on the vehicle. There was room for noone else in the vehicle, and the words in the vehicle were that the remainder would be picked up later. After driving for some minutes, we stopped along a little back road, at the time I did not know where it was. We stopped there and we all got o t of the vehicle, and I noticed men on another vehicle. The men were all grouped up, and the word was to not go apart too much, but to stick togetherss much as possible. After a few minutes the men began to get hurried and anxious, wanting to walk towards Binstead.
Q87:- What do you mean by men ?
A87:- In the truck I heard a lot of talk of hiding their caps, and they did so, it was very dark.
Q88:- Sjt. Hopkinson was in the same truck with you ?
A88:- Yes, sir. the truck was filled.
Q89:- You said that the men in the truck were Ordnance men ?
A89:- I cannot swear that they were all Ordnance men.
Q90:- At the first stop, were their men other than them joinedyou ?
A90:-There was a bunch of men and another vehicle that I could see. After a while the men began to walk into the village of Binstead. I walked along with Sjt. Hopkinson. After a while I noticed some noise and a few more men appeared around us. I assumed they arrived in the vehicle, that was from the conversation I heard.
Q91:- There were three vehicles then ?
A91:- I am not sure, It may have been that one of the trucks came back with a second load.
Q92:- How many men altogether were there ?
A92:- I would say about 300 men. There were some Royal Marines and the rest were canadiens.

Q93:- Of the Canadians, were some from the Ordnance unit ?
A93:- Yes. The men picked up sticks, bricks, and so on along the road. When they got closed to the village, there were about 300 men approaching the village, they ran into the village, and a few of the men at the head of the crowd yelled "lets go", and away they went. I didn't know what would be flying.
Q94:- Did you see anything done whentney started to run into the village ?
A94:- I did not know what was going tonappen, sticks or stones or what.
Q95:- Did you have any indication as to whom you might meet ?
A95:- Hop pickers. We decided to stick togetner, in case anyone got in a jam, and more or less stick togethere, and they could not get into any trouble.
Q96:- What was the object of this ?
A96:- I heard that their idea was to meet the men of the hop-pickers on account of an incident that had happened the night before.
Q97:- From what you gathered they were going to beat up the men of the hop-pickers at Binsted ?
A97:- Yes, sir.
Q98:- Did you know before you got into the truck that that was the object ?
A98:- No, sir. I did not untilfrom the RSM that they were going to raid the hop-pickers. I did notknow until the RSM told me.
Q99:- Why did you take Sjt. Hopkinson ?
A99:- Because Iknew him, and was able to depend on him, as he was security N.C.O.
Q100:- What happened as they ran into town ?
A100:- First of all I noticed a group of troops around a civilian in the middle of the road, and I heard the man shouting "I'm no gipsy, I'm no gipsy", or words to that effect, and the troops were saying "oh, so you don't like Canadians, we'll show you if you like Canadians."No bodily harm was done to him. There were a group of men about the pub, at the left hand side of the road upon our entering the village. They were hanging on the door, apparently the doors were locked. They were about to break down the door. They were shoving on the door, and it was on the point of being opened, it was just hanging. I walked up to the pub, the group of men and told them that if they broke the door of the pub, the police would be down, and they would have trouble, and that the landlord had nothing to do with the gipsies, and that if they broke the door there would be a hell of a lot of trouble over it, and everyone would be in trouble. This advice was taken by the men, and they quit battering the door. In the meantime, men had gone to the back of the pub, and there was a lot of noise, and everybody was talking at the same time, and a few of the men who were leading, until the landlord of the pub opened the doors himself. As he opened the doors, it was a big rush. I managed to squeeze in, and I noticed that the majority of the people in the pub were old ladies and young children, who were crying at the time. These people were hop-pickers. I learned that from talking to most of the people there. Most of the words used were that their husbands had gone.
Q101:- Why were they crying ?
A101:- Because of the noise from the group of men around, and that the troops were going down to beatup their men folks. I heard some of them say they were afraid because their men folks would be beaten up by the troops.
Q102:- Did you overhear any conversation between the troops and the women ?
A102:- Yes, later. I talked to civilians in the pub who were men, but not hop-pickers, but were pub locals of the village. These men had mentioned that they had locked the doors and taken the women and babies to avoid the being hurt in the scramble. There was no one hurt that I could see. I went to the door, and saw that troops had entered into the other pub, which is opposite to the pub I was in. I told Sjt. Hopkinson to stay in the pub I had gone into, and do his best to keep everybody happy and keep them out of trouble, which he did. As I was leaving, he sat down at an old piano. I went across the road to the other pub. It was crowded. In there I noticed a number of civilians.
Q103:- Was there any disturbance in the second pub ?
A103:- Yes, because there was an old man, whom I thought would be one of the troops were around him, and he swore he was not a hop-picker, and took out his identity card to swear he was englisn, and not gipsy. I went in and talked to him, and told him he would be all right, and that he would not be harmed. His wife walked over, and she was crying, because she thought her husband was going to be hurt. There was no other disturbance in the pub. At that time the troops had heard in the pub, and I had also heard, from some a few local people that the gipsies at a camp at the back of this pub through the fields.

Q104:- Some distance away ?
A104:- Three or four hundred yards away. One of the boys who took over in the pub called out" all men to get in one group in the road" All the men in the pub went our to the middle of the road, where one group was already waiting, and all troops who were noticed around the village were approached and made to stick together, and to gather as many troops as possible to go to the hop-pickers camp. They walked around the back of this pub, over the field to this camp. There was about 100 to 150 of them.
Q105:- Were there any Ordnance men there ?
A105:- Yes, sir.
Q106:- There were men of the Ordnance Reinforcement unit, any Marines, or what ?
A106:- I cannot swear to it, but any of the troops I walked with, or got mixed up with were Ordnance reinforcement unit. As they approached the camp, which is a camp comprised of houses on wheels, they began to run and shout. They had walked up to the camp very quietly previously. They thought they would not be heard. As they arrived at the camp there was a great deal of noise. The doors of the huts opened with the ladies of the huts appearing in the door-way, crying, with their children, saying that there were no men in the huts, that the men had run away, that they were alone, and that the babies were crying and frightened. Here the troops broke up into smaller groups. These groups were split up in a group for each door of the huts on wheels. The ladies in the camp began to ask the troops to go away, and pleaded with the troops to go away. One old lady wanted to swear to God that there were no men in the camp, and to let the troops go over the place and search. All of this I saw. This took place for about one-half hour. Amongst the women in the camp were a few young girls, who began to take the troops minds off the raid. I went around the group, and talked with the majority of the women, and children in the camp, and told them that the troops would not harm them, and would soon be leaving when they found there were no men. I noticed in the camp that no bodily harm was done to anyone. There were no men civilians in the camp. Here the troops began to walk around the fields to be sure that the men were not hiding in around the camp. After a few minutes more, I saw that a group of troops were talking to two women and some children. Here I was asked what I was doing there. I looked up, and the man was in P.T. dress. I did not know him by name, but knew he was from the Ordnance reinforcement unit, as I had seen him at the gym. Along with him was a man whom I knew as Hayes, who was a boxer at I DONO. He also was in gym kit. They had only arrived in the village at that time How they arrived, I do not know. They began to take over control of the group who were around the camp. They got them together, and told them they were making their way into the village again, and that there was nothing doing in the camp.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT
(Capt. McMurdo)

Q107:- This was the first time you saw anybody take control of the group ?
A107:- Yes, the men in P.T.kit. There was lots of cases before, but it was hard to see just who. PROSECUTION
Q108:- I take it that the men finally all returned to camp ?
A108:- Yes.
Q109:- How did the men get back ?
A109:- The group I was with went to the trucks which we had left in the trees. I know a lot of fellows remained in the pub.
Q110:- Between the time you left the hop-pickers camp and got back to the Ordnance reinforcement unit, did anything important happen ?
A110:- Not particularly.
Q111:- The provost were there ?
A111:- Later they were.
Q112:- What did they do ?
A112:- They arrived in a truck, and were outdoors.
Q113:- Did they arrest anybody ?
A113:- I don't know.
Q114:- Did they try to get the boys out of Binsted ?
A114:- Yes, the actual disturbance was all forgotten about after.
Q115:- Did you discuss this incident with the accused at any time after ?
A115:- I heard they were having an enquiry in the unit. The RSM warned me to be at Major Millers' office at two o'clock for the enquiry, but I had other arrangements from my own office, and could not be in two places at once, which I tried to explain to the RSM. Later on in the evening

I told him I had seen Major Miller , but he did not get that straight. A few days later the RSM said I was to report to "F" Group to give a statement. I asked him if I t was an order or a message. He told me it was an order, and I was to obey orders. I then explained to the RSM that if he received a message in this unit, it was not an order, but a message, as I had 18 units to work with, and he did not know what type of work I was doing. We had a few words in the mess at that time. During that day I did not report to "F" group, because I had already reported 24 hours previously, and knew I was not needed at "F" group. At meal-time the RSM got up while about 100 members of the mess were eating, and asked me if I had been to "F" group. I said I had not and he said if I was not going to obey orders toget the hell out of the camp. I told him that if he had received an order, to pass it to me. I would receive his message and go on from there. A few days later, either on the monday or Friday, they had a snow in the mess that night. In the evening about 8 o'clock, I was in the mess having a beer, when sergeant-major MaGill, sergeant-major Boyd, and the RSM walked in to the middle of the floor and asked me whether I had been to "F" Group to make a statement. I told him it was personal matter, and to be discussed between him and I privately, and not in public. He then asked me if I went as one of the boys to Binstead, or if I had sneaked to report on it. I said I would have been foolient to say I went as one of the boys. He said if I had gone tosneak on the boys, he would have me beaten up and run out of camp. I told him that I was surprised that he as RSM of the camp to take that view, when he could have prevented it, and not encouraged it . He mentioned that the colonel of the unit knew that the boys were going to Binstead, but he mentioned that they were not to use any transport. Here I told him that I was surprised that he was going to put his colonel on the spot by speaking like that in front of witnesses. Sergeant-major MaGill said "you will get us in a spot, sergeant-major, don't discuss it here in the mess".

A. 285 At that time I told the Court to the best of my knowledge.
Q. 286 Why did you say on that occasion that you left the camp at 2020 hours with the girl friend?
A. 286 Because it was daylight and the blackout that evening was 1940 hours.

(Admitted and agreed that blackout for 20 Sept. 42 was at 1940 hours as shown on unit D.O. Part I #256).

Q. 287 You figured it out since, you must have been wrong in your first statement because you left before it got dark?
A. 287 Yes sir, I have the lady friend with me and she remembers.
Q. 288 You have of course discussed the matter to the lady?
A. 288 Yes sir.
Q. 289 When you told Sgt. Scully that he was not to go to the gypsy camp or not to allow the use of the trucks, what did he say?
A. 289 He said, "O.K. S/M" and smiled.
Q. 290 Did you then follow it up and impress on him that it was no smiling matter?
A. 290 No sir.
Q. 291 And the smile was just his usual way?
A. 291 Yes sir.
Q. 292 And did Knox smile?
A. 292 I didn't pay no particular attention to Knox.
Q. 293 Did Knox say on another occasion when you told him that they just looked at me and smiled?
A. 293 Yes sir.
Q. 294 Did Knox smile at you when you made that statement?
A. 294 Yes sir.
Q. 295 Is it his usual way to smile?
A. 295 Yes sir.
Q. 296 Do all the N.C.O.s smile when you give them an order?
A. 296 No sir.
Q. 297 Do you mean to tell us that Scully has that manner of smiling?
A. 297 All he said was "O.K. S/M".
Q. 298 What about Knox smiling, didn't that put you on your guard?
A. 298 No sir.
Q. 299 Was it usual for Knox to be smiling when you gave an order?
A. 299 I didn't have much to do with that man sir, he didn't belong to this unit.
Q. 300 Do you remember giving a statement to Capt. Creasy of the D.A.P.M's office?
A. 300 Yes sir.
Q. 301 Did you tell him the truth?
A. 301 To the best of my ability sir.
Q. 302 And you made a statement to Major Miller?
A. 302 Yes sir, a verbal one, not a written one.
Q. 303 When was that occasion you gave the time as 2020 hours when you left the camp with your lady friend?
A. 303 Some little time ago.
Q. 304 I think you've already told us that you didn't inform the ø orderly officer or the orderly sergeant of what was brewing?

A. 304 No sir.
Q. 305 And that is all that you did then pursuant to the C.O's intimation to you that he doesn't want our boys to get mixed up with the troubles the Marines had with the gypsies?
A. 305 That's right sir.
Q. 306 And pursuant to that all you did was to tell Scully that he was not ~~go~~ to go and transport was not to go or any of the men?
A. 306 Yes sir.
Q. 307 Did you tell Scully to tell the men not to go?
A. 307 No, he was not take any of the men in transport or go himself.
Q. 308 You say that you didn't know definitely that they would go but you did know that there were some plans discussed?
A. 308 Yes sir, I had heard about it.
Q. 309 When you were out of camp, I believe you told us C.S.M. Turley was acting in your place?
A. 309 Yes sir.
Q. 310 Did you tell him that anything was in the air about the gypsies?
A. 310 No sir.
Q. 311 You said something about a band concert that evening?
A. 311 Yes sir, right after tea. It was between 1730 and 1800 hours.
Q. 312 Was there anything particular that you had to get to Headley Downs?
A. 312 No sir, I was taking the lady friend home.
Q. 313 What was the last bus that you could have taken to Headley Downs?
A. 313 The 2115 hour bus.
Q. 314 Ther's a bus every twenty minutes past the hour?
A. 314 Yes sir.
Q. 315 You have heard Sgt. Sinden testify here in regard to conversation which took place in the sergeants mess between you and Lefebvre, was there such a conversation?
A. 315 Yes sir.
Q. 316 Interrupted by Magill?
A. 316 I don't remember Magill butting in.
Q. 317 Sinden has said that Magill's interruption was to the effect that things like that were not to be discussed in the mess?
A. 317 Yes sir, that's right. I wouldn't contradict that. That ~~ev-ning~~ evening I was in the mess and I walked along to Lefebvre and called him aside. I said, "Did you go as one of the boys that night and then squeal on them". He said, "I'm not speaking". I then said, "Well if you went as one of the boys and then squealed,on them, they ought to take it out of your hide or words to that effect.
Q. 318 You felt very strongly on the matter?
A. 318 No sir.
Q. 319 You didn't think it was right of him to do that?
A. 319 If he went on duty, yes sir.
Q. 320 Why would you discuss the matter at all?
A. 320 It was discussed between him and I.
Q. 321 Why?
A. 321 I felt he might be one of the party. I was not in favour of the party at all.
Q. 322 But since the party took palce weren't you glad that someone was there to keep order?
A. 322 No sir.
Q. 323 Having gotten out of hand as it did, you think he shouldn't have gone along?
A. 323 If he went on duty it was different. When I spoke to him we were alone because I pulled Lefebvre aside.
Q. 324 The conversation was not a friendly one between you and Lefebvre?
A. 324 No sir.
Q. 325 Why did you call this a party?
A. 325 When a group of men get together it's a party.
Q. 326 You wouldn't call it a raid would you?
A. 326 No sir.
Q. 327 Lefebvre says that you asked him if he was going on the party?
A. 327 No sir, never at all.

Q. 328 He says you asked him shortly before 2000 hours?
A. 328 No sir, I was out of the camp. I didn't speak to him at all.
Q. 329 Can suggest any reason why Lefebvre should say you did and that you suggested the party?
A. 329 Ican't, no sir.
Q. 330 I suggest to you S/M knowing that these boys were going on a raid to contact these gypsies, you left the camp, not wanting to see it happen?
A. 330 No sir.
Q. 331 And that all that you were concerned about was to see that no transport was used for the purpose?
A. 331 No sir. I felt sure that none of them were going and I told the only one that I thought might have any bearing on it would be Sgt. Scully, whom him being transport sergeant. I didn't know anyone was going.
Q. 332 You had reason to suspect it?
A. 332 From rumours in the mess?
Q. 333 Knowing what you know now and looking back, was there something you should have done which you overlooked?
A. 333 After this all happened, if I had known that the thing was going to happen I would have had the whole camp C.B'd.
Q. 334 You had this information at that time, that some one was either injured or killed the night before at Binstead?
A. 334 Yes sir.
Q. 335 You had the information that the boys had that information?
A. 335 Yes sir.
Q. 336 That they were incensed about it?
A. 336 Yes sir.
Q. 337 That they might if they could get away with it, have it in mind to go down to the gypsy camp?
A. 337 I didn't definitely know that. There was a rumour.
Q. 338 Just enough rumour for you to go the transport sergeant and ~~tell~~ say that you are not to take any men or trucks?
A. 338 That's right sir.

A. 343 No sir.
Q. 344 When you left the camp with Mrs. Battersby, what was the state of the light?
A. 344 Just turning dark.

A. 345 We could see quite clearly.
Q. 346 And what is the condition of light when blackout commences?

~~CROSS-EXAMINED BY P~~

DEFENDING OFFICER:
I now propose to ask this witness certain questions dealing with a matter about which I questioned the witness, Sgt., Lefebvre, particularly to ~~a question~~ an incident in the kitchen late at night after a sergeants mess dance. I would cite Steven & Townsend Digest of Evidence page 132, article 114 and particularly para 2.

(Read to Court)

PROSECUTOR:
I suggest that to allow the question would open a collateral issue which is not relative to the matters at issue. The R.S.M., has made an answer which would be contradicted by this witness if the Defending Officer gets the answer he apparently expects to get.

PRESIDENT:
The Court has read para 116 page 104 M.M.L., and is of opinion that under the terms of that paragraph, the question should not be allowed.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY PROSECUTOR:
Q. 429 You are now the R.S.M's batman?
A. 429 Yes sir and also mess waiter.
Q. 430 You are the R.S.M's batman?
A. 430 Yes sir.
Q. 431 Did you discuss the matter with the R.S.M., the evidence you are going to give at this case?
A. 431 No sir.

DEFENDING OFFICER:

Mr. President and Members of the Court. The charge is that the R.S.M., knowing a disturbance and a breach of the peace was about to be created, neglected to prevent the said disturbance. It is essential for the prosecution to prove:

(1) that a breach of the peace was about to be created.
(2) that the R.S.M., knew that a disturbance was about to be created.
(3) that he neglected to prevent the said disturbance.

Starting backwards there was no said disturbance. There was no harm done by anybody to anybody. It is true quite a number of men went to Binstead, but unless there was a disturbance, ~~xxxx~~ the accused cannot be guilty of knowing a disturbance to the peace was about to be created. The R.S.M., has, in a very stolid and forthright manner, as is his habit always, as I think the Court might infer from his general demeanour and appearance, quite frankly tells the Court that he had heard certain rumours which turned out to be false and that the other rumours did not greatly disturb him and he did not believe that our men would do anything, but, as a precaution, he told the transport sergeant that no trucks must go out to the gypsy camp but he didn't do anything else. I assume from a remark that he made, that the Prosecuting Officer will suggest, that the whole camp should have been C.B'd, but there was nothing to anticipate any trouble; there was no trouble and if there had been anything to the knowledge of the R.S.M., quite obviously, he would have told you so. It would be quite possible to call witnesses if it was general knowledge or that he should have known but it is clear that there was nothing that put him in a position that it was a neglect ~~to~~ of Good Order and Military Discipline to do other than he did. The accused must be tried on the charge as it is here worded; "knowing that a disturbance and a breach of the peace was about to be created by the personnel of No. 1 C.O.R.U.".

The most that he had were vague rumours, but he didn't believe and nobody believed, that a disturbance would be created. The evidence shows that the village of Binstead is frequented by personnel of this unit and certain personnel of this unit were there that night, but nothing occurred that night that should not have occurred. The R.S.M., it is true, said that vehicles must not be taken; that vehicles were taken is a matter that this Court is not concerned with at the moment and therefore, it has not been shown that such a disgraceful state of affairs was known to the R.S.M. There was nothing that he could have done, but as I sawy, there was no disturbance and therefore, the charge must fail.

PROSECUTING OFFICER:

There was a disturbance and a breach of the peace. Scores of men, if not hundreds, estimated at from one hundred to three hundred, gathered together with missiles in their hands, blackjacks, sticks, stones, running and shouting with a definite object of hunting out the gypsies for an incident the night before.

The fact is that they went out there, there was a general hubbub, women were crying, no violence actually occurred is not due to the men; the gypsies were not there. That is the only reason that appears to me. There was no actual fight. There was a determined attempt to find them. On the night before, a Saturday night, there was about six O.R.U., soldiers in Binstead and a few Royal Marines. On a Sunday night there were scores and hundreds of them in the town. It was an unusual situation accompanied by shouting, running, pushing their way violently into a Pub.

Now, as to whether the R.S.M. knew. He knew enough of what was about to take place so as to be so apprehensive as to mention to the Colonel. The information he gave to the Colonel was to warn that he didn't want a thing to happen as far as his boys were concerned. The R.S.M., was apprehensive enough to tell the Transport Sergeant that no transport should be used and that he himself was not to go to the gypsy camp. Why he did not go further on the basis of what he knew, we do not know. We can only conclude, that he was in a hurry and so neglected to do it; now he considers he should have taken further steps or else he was neglectful in carrying out his duties. What other inference can you draw that he knew something was about to take place, something he didn't approve of, something the Colonel didn't want ~~to~~ his men to take part in. His attitude as stated by himself after the event, Lefebvre was a bit of a squealer and if he went on the party, he should not have gone and squealed on the boys. He was quite put out by Lefebvre coming back with a report. He draws distinction of whether Lefebvre went there for fun or on duty. Consider the mentality of the accused to think that Lefebvre would not go except on duty. If the accused was frank and honest in the manner throughout, the last word the R.S.M., should have used to Lefebvre was, "to squeal". That's a very significant phrase coming from the mouth of the accused himself. Lefebvre's evidence: He said, "Are you going on a party?" and Lefebvre says, "What party?" and he says, "Hop pickers".

By a 1920 hour bus for Headley. On a previous occasion, he said it was a 2020 hour bus. It is only on talking it over with the lady friend that it was a 1920 hour bus and there are several factors which make it a "cooked-up story".

The Orderly Officer says it was quite light when the R.S.M., said he was leaving the camp. Mrs. Battersby said they left the mess, speaking only to Scull and Knox as they went out of the camp and if the R.S.M., spoke to the Duty Officer, he di so sometime before he went out and not when he went out. We need not quibble about time. Lefebvre who was on duty and except for the batman's evidence and I need not comment on that, why should Lefebvre falsify evidence. Certain things occurred on certain times. He is not interested whatsoever in the matter. Lefebvre would not assist in hanging a brother soldier. I ask you to accept Lefebvre as a man who is doing his duty and made a report and in cross-examination, was not shaken. I have no malice or criticism towards the batman or lady friend. There again you have the evidence of Lefebvre, and particularly the evidence of the accused himself plust the discrepancy in the defence which arises out of the evidence of the Orderly Officer and Mrs. Battersby who cancelled each other off and failed the defence when they tried to establish the fact that he left the mess at 1900 hours. The exact words of the R.S.M., as to what instructions he got from the C.O., "no vehicles or troops to go and fight gypsies". Did he know then that there was a fight coming up with gypsies? Those are the instructions and are based on his evidence. Apart from speaking to Scully and Knox, the Orderly Officer was not told anything about this and Knox and Turley who took over, was not told about this, of course, I and I submit, the major neglect was that he went outside camp knowing of this. It is a matter of creditably of witnesses and I suggest that you should not have much trouble in believing some witnesses and disbelieving others.

THE COURT RE-ASSEMBLED AT 0930 HOURS, 9TH Jan. 43, MEDICAL CERTIFICATE OF THAT DAYS DATE WAS LAID BEFORE THE COURT

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING.

THE COURT RE-OPENS:-

President:- Have you any evidence to produce as to the particulars of service and statement of character of the accused ?

The prosecutor, with the consent of the Defending Officer, produced A.F.B. 29b and M.F.M. 6 relating to the accused, without formal proof thereof, and same were accepted by the court.

By the President to the accused:-

Q:- Do you wish to call any witnesses as to character ?

A:- Yes, sir.

Q:- Do you wish to make a statement in mitigation of punishment ?

A:- Yes, sir.

Q:- Does your defending officer intend to speak on your behalf ?

A:- Yes, sir.

1ST WITNESS AS TO CHARACTER:- Major H. HAMER, 1 CORU, having been duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q116:- You know Sergeant-Major Smith. Tell the court how long you have known him, and what is his general reputation as a man and a soldier.

A116:- I have known him for the last 25 years. He was with the Black Watch, with which I was associated .. He has at all times shown good qualities, and I am astonished to find him in this position today. I knew him in the militia, where he gave good service, that is since 1919, the organization of the Black Watch. He then took over as RSM of the holding unit at Nova Scotia, and was doing very good work there. As long as I have known him, he has had an exemplary character.

Q117:- Tell the court in what service you first knew him ?

A117:- I first knew him in the position of sergeant in France during 1914-17-18. At that time his service was more than average, as shown by his record and decoration. He has a service medal with two bars.

Q118:- Has he served with you in this war ?

A118:- No, he was with the holding unit at Nova scotia, but I visited him there, at Aldershot, Nova Scotia.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

2ND WITNESS AS TO CHARACTER:- Major. H.A. SEELY 1 CORU, having been duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer:-

Q119:- You are officer commanding the administrative wing at 1 CORU ?

A119:- Yes.

Q120:- Do you know Sergeant-major Smith ?

A120:- I have known him since 1917. I first knew him as a sergeant in the 42nd battalion, C.F. Black Watch, then as a company sergeant-major. Regarding my association between 1916-40, I met him on occasion at reunions. He came to me in the summer of 1940, and asked me to bring him overseas. I decided he was the man I wanted as my sergeant-major. When the unit I was commanding moved to the field, sergeant-major Smith was left here. Throughout the entire time I have known him I considered him a model of honesty and manhood. I have never heard any slur against his character either in military or civilian life.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q121:- Was sergeant-major Smith your sergeant-major ?

A121:- Yes, he was sergeant-major of 1 CORU.

Q122:- Have you had anything to do with him during the last few months ?

A122:- Only as administrative officer.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q123:- As administrative officer, would you see the sergeant-major every day, or practically every day ?

A123:- Yes, practically every day.

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT BY THE ACCUSED

Sir, I truthfully say that I have done my duty, and not until my words with S/t. Lefevre in the mess was my name brought into this trial, other than enquiry. If this court finds me guilty, and punishes me, I will accept and endure it.

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

The court must have observed from his demeanour and behaviour throughout the character of the man he is. The main fact that the court has seen fir on the evidence before it to find him guilty of neglect, that fact alone, to a man of his tempermanent and disposition and record, is alone a tremendous punishment, and I am sure the court will keep that in mind.

The court, under R.P. 71, considered it desirable, in the interest of justice, to post-pone consideration of any sentence to be awarded in this series of trials, until the trials of all the accused persons have been completed.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of No.D82163 R.S.M. Smith, G.
No.1 Canadian Ordnance Reinforcement Unit.
By direction of the Commanding Officer the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

1st Witness for the Prosecution — Lieut.-Col., H.M. Bailey, O.C. No.1 C.O.R.U. having been duly sworn states:-

"During a conversation with R.S.M. Smith on the morning of Sunday, 20 Sep 42, he stated that there had been a fracas at Binstead the previous evening. I asked him if any of our men had been implicated, and he replied in the negative, but stated that, they were incensed about it, and I said we would see that our men did not become mixed up in the Marine's troubles.
I then went on to question the R.S.M. about the transport that had been used for the Sergeants Dance on the Saturday evening, and told him to warn the Sergeants at lunch that they must account very strictly for all transport used for the Sergeants' Dances."

The accused did not wish to cross-examine this witness.

(Harold M. Bailey) Lt.-Col.,
Commanding Officer,
No.1 Cdn. Ordnance Reinf. Unit.

2nd Witness C-55 Sgt. Lefebvre, W.B., No. 1 Cdn Field Security Section, previously No. 12 Cdn Feidl Security Section, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I was on duty in Bowdon area on the 20th of Sept 42 and went into the Sergeant's Mess in Martinique Barracks at approximately 1945 hours. I was beside R.S.M. Smith and a lady friend of his, when R.S.M. Smith asked me if I was going to a party and I asked him where the party was, and he asked me if I knew anything about the party, and when I said "No Sir", he told me "I am not supposed to tell you about it then, itis a thing which is to be kept quiet". I mentioned that I eas interested in a party and would like to go. R.S.M. Smith looked at his watch and said it was three minutes to eight, and the boys weregoing to raid the hop-pickers at Binstead. Sometime later I was in the Sgt's Mess at No. 1 C.C.R.U. when R.S.M. Smith walked into the Mess at No. 1 C.C.R.U. stood in the middle of the floor and asked me if I had been to my Group to give a statement. I told the R.S.M. it was a personal matter. He then asked me why I went to Binste -d , and I told him that was a personal matter also and not to be discussedin front of an audience. He then asked me if I had gone as one of the boys or if I wnt on duty. I then told him that if I went as one of the boys, I would be foolish to tell him, and if I had gone on duty, I still would not tell him. I then repeated that it was a matter which should be taken up privately Then R.S.M. Smith said if he knew that I had gone on duty to sneak on the boys that I ought to be beaten up and run out of the camp. I then told the R.S.M. that I was surprised at the attitu -e he, as R.S.M. of the camp, had taken, and I told him that he ought to have prevented and incident like Binstead from happening He then told me that the Col. of the unit knew and had told R.S.M. Smith that the raid was going on but told him to tell the men not to use transport or ord to that effect. It was at that time that S/M MacGill jumped up and said "You're putting us on a spot SGT/Maj please discuss this elsewhere".

I wne to Binstead on the evening of 20th September 42 and while there saw men of No. 1 C.C.R.U. with sticks and clubs creating a disturbance.

The accused does not wish to cross-examine this witness.

W B Lefebvre Sgt.
(W.B. LEFEBVRE)

3rd Witness. L-27080 Sgt Hopkinson, R.F.J., No. 1 C.C.R.U., having been duly sworn, states;/

"On the evening of 20th September 1942 I proceeded in a 1 C.C.R.U vehicle upon instructions from Sgt Lefebvre to within approximately one mile of Binstead. During the trip the men in the vehicle with me discussed the purpose of the trip and their intent was to square accounts with the Gypsies for injuries they had inflicted on a soldier of 1 CC.R.U. the previous evening.
We walked from the trucks towards Binstead approximately 50 strong in small groups, as the men approached Binstead they broke into a run and there was considerable shouting. While I was in Binstead that evening I saw several men carrying clubs and sticks.

The accused does not wish to cross-examine this witness.

I went along that evening the vehicles from this unit were parked about a mile out of Binstead and about fifty of us walked into Binstead in small bunches spread over approximately 25 yards of the roadway. During my stay in Binstead upon looking out of the pub I noticed there were approximately a hundred men (Marines & Ordnance) in groups of half a dozen or so standing about the streets.

The ambulance is getting 10.5 miles to the gallon. The value of petrol is 0-1-10 per gallon making the value of the petrol consumed approx 0-3-6

Certified R.P. 33B complied with

Defending offier submits that the evidence for the prosecution does not establish a prima facie against the accused on the first and second charge

Address by defending offier:

The accused is before this court on two charges: 1. making a statement knowing it to be false and 2. improperly and without authority taking and using a W.D vehicle. Before the accused can be convicted on either of these charges the prosecution must prove beyond reasonable doubt two things. First, that the accused made a false statement, 2nd. that he took and unlawfully used without authority a W.D. vehicle. The only evidence regarding the false statement which the prosecution has introduced is the evidence of Cpl. Cox who stated in his evidence that Cpl. Smith informed him that the F.A.P. driver was on pass and did he have a driver as the M.O. might wish to use it. On the question of improperly using the vehicle without authority, the evidence of Cpl Rife the witness for the prosecution has shown that the vehicle was used for proper purposes on the night in question and the M.O. has stated in evidence that should he be unobtainable the said vehicle might be used without his authority. I submit that the prosecution on the facts have failed to prove his case on either of the charges in any way let alone beyond reasonable doubt and would ask the court to dismiss the charges for lack of evidence

Address by prosecuting officer

The evidence I have produced is quite clear, there was no doubt in Cpl Cox's mind from the statements made by Cpl Smith that he was sending the ambulance for the use of the M.O. Equally the M.O. has stated that Smith did not get in touch with him that evening and therefore any statement whatever by Smith which caused Cox to infer that the M.O wanted the vehicle must have been false. The evidence of Cpl. Rife scarcely shows that the use of the ambulance for four hours whilst he and Smith had a meal was a proper use for what is undoubtedly the most vital surgical vehicle in the comp.

the M.O. has stated quite plainly that he was in the mess, and in view of the fact that there was a telephone another man in the F.A.P. and an ambulance all available as means of contacting the M.O. Capt Smiths failure to obtain the M.O. is authority can only be explained by the fact that he knew the use to which he intended to put the ambulance was not proper

I therefore submit sir that he has two very serious charges to answer and that without going into the question of reasonable doubts the evidence thus is such that he must produce a reasonable defence

The submission is allowed and the accused is dismissed from both charges.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of K-53653 Cpl. George SMITH, Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, on the strength of 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit.

By the direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION.

M-16927 Cpl. Cocks, E.G., Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn states:

I am No. M-16927 Cpl. Cocks, E.G., employed in the Transport Section of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit. On the night of 6th August 44, I was duty N.C.O. At about 1930 hours, Cpl. Smith came to me and asked if I had a driver for the ambulance as his own driver was away. He stated that the Medical Officer might want to use it. I informed him that I didn't have one then. A few minutes later a telephone call came from the F.A.P. saying to have the ambulance report to Cpl. Smith. I got Cpl. Rife, our Cpl. Storeman, to drive the ambulance and he reported to Cpl. Smith at about 1945 hours. The ambulance did not return until approximately 2330 hours. I have been instructed to provide a driver for the ambulance on demand from the F.A.P. I assumed that Cpl. Smith was acting on the Medical Officers instructions. Ambulance number of above vehicle is A-1205957.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

I am No. K-85354 Cpl. Rife, W.N. Cpl. Storeman in the Transport Section No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit. At about 1945 hours on the 6th of August, 44, Cpl. Smith told me there had been an accident on the Mansfield road which had been reported to him by a civilian. We proceeded about 7½ miles towards Mansfield and saw no accident. We decided to turn around and come back to Market Warsop. We made enquiries but no one knew of an accident. We stopped at the W.V.S. canteen and Cpl. Smith went into the canteen. When he came out I went in and had tea. We then came back to camp arriving at about 2330 hours.

By the direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION.

Capt. A.C. Stevenson, Medical Officer, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, on the strength of 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn states:

I am Capt. A.C. Stevenson, Medical Officer at No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit. On the night of the 6 August 1944, at about 2100 hours I found the ambulance was not available. I had issued no instructions for it to move nor had Capt. McLeod, the other Medical Officer. Cpl. Smith would know if I were to leave camp as the staff is always informed. He is authorized to move the ambulance in an emergency only if the Medical Officer cannot be contacted. I received no message from him that the ambulance was required. He should not have attended an accident without making an effort to contact me.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

IN OPEN COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO DULLY WARN MP 63(2).

It is stipulated, SGD, I CERT, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused. At 1645 hrs 3 Nov I was in the Seat Gym I CERT. I was present while Cpl Luscombe was conducting a search of the gym. Cpl Smith is an instructor in the gym and keeps some of his personal effects there.

Q. Were you present when Cpl Luscombe asked the accused to open the box?

A. Yes.

Q. What was said?

A. Cpl Smith admitted having some butter and ten in the box and mentioned having it from home.

Q. How did he open his box?

A. He unlocked it. I couldn't say where he got the key.

Q. One key?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Can you say which pound of Exhibit "A" was removed?

A. No, I could not say.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MEM COURT:

Q. Was there other food in the box other than that which was removed?

A. I didn't touch anything, but it looked to me like there were some small tea bags. I've never saw any over here that do not come from parcels.

IN OPEN COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO DULLY WARN MP 63(2).

It is stipulated, SGD, att as Messing Offr, I CERT, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Messing Offr at J CERT. Ex "A" is issue butter issued by the Messing Offr at J CERT. Ex "B" is an issue ration tea. I examined the tea and it is the tea issued by the army, and exhibit "C" is similar to the syrup issued by the ASC for consumption in the Army.

Q. Why do you say that this is Army butter?
A. On the label on the last line is marked "Only for His Majesty's Forces", and that is the kind of butter that is issued in rations.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Isn't it possible that the tea and syrup might be procured from some other source?
A. It can be bought in the civilian market on points.

Q. Could it not be sent from Canada?
A. I'm not in a posn to say. I believe the tea could be analyzed and XXXXX if it is Army tea it could be so proven.

Q. What brand of tea and syrup could be obtained from civilian stores?
A. The syrup could, I'm not sure about the tea.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R 83(8).

WITH CONSENT:

Lt JD McKichan, 1 CIBU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Did you have a conversation with the accused on 3 Nov?
A. Yes.

Q. Tell us what?
A. I read a short call from the AIB, and he asked me to go down to the AIB cells and take a statement from the accused if the accused wanted to give one. I talked to a sergeant and told him that I'd like to take a statement from him if he wanted to give me one. I talked the whole question over with him before I took the statement. Before I took the statement Cpl Lazenbie came down and explained to the accused he could not promise him anything but it might be to his advantage to make a statement and in his statement to tell us where these rations had come from. I then warned the accused using the warning used for a Summary. I also administered the oath to the accused and took the following statement from him.

PRESIDENT TO DEF OFFR:

Have you any objections to the admission of this statement?

DEF OFFR: I object to the statement as it was obvious they were trying to [illegible] the accused to give info to convict other people.

PROSECUTOR: If the Defence objects to this statement I am not going to urge that it should be admitted.

PRESIDENT: Under these circumstances the statement will not be admitted.

D E F E N C E

The accused, having been duly sworn, states:

I am a Cpl PT instructor at the West Gym 1 CERU and I've been there a yr. Before I was on the staff it was a custom to have tea and toast in the morning, afternoons and sometimes in the evenings and this bx box belonged to one of the instructors who went out on draft. He left the box in the gym and as the stuff was kept in the box before he went away we went on doing so. There was a lock which belonged to the gym with 2 keys. One was lost and I took charge of the other one which was kept on my shelf in the instructor's room. The box was in the sqpt room. There used to be quite a few come down for tea and everyone knew where the key was and where the food was kept. When I was approached by Luscombe on 5 Nov he asked me to open my box and I told him there was a pound of butter in there which I know was there. I didn't say anything about the tea to him. We proceeded to the gym where xxxxxxxxxx I told Sjt Raymond I had some tea and butter in the box. I then went into the other room and got the key off the shelf and then I went and opened the box and on the top was a pound of butter. I picked the pound of butter up and Cpl Lusombe took it off me. There was also food from Canada in the box and tea bags and the pound of butter I mentioned to him was not there as one of the fellows had used it already. He put me in arrest and took me over to dtn.

Q. Anyone else keep things in that box?
A. Yes, cigs and watches and anything they got from home. All the gym staff knew where I kept the key and had free access to it. I had a wrist watch in the box and went to London on a pass one weekend and when I came back the watch was gone. There was 4 other instructors in the gym at the time and I was pretty sure of their honesty so I figured that somebody else outside the staff had taken the watch.

Q. Any of this food that was kept in the box taken out of camp?
A. No, it was used only for teas in the gym.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. When the search was being conducted the box was considered yours?
A. Yes.

Q. Was this a general place for you to be leaving your watch if everybody had access to the box?
A. Yes.

Q. Was this food issued from the Kitchens?
A. It was scrounged around, Sir.

Q. When you came over with the Cpl did you have the key at the time?
A. No, it was on the shelf in the gym.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT:

Q. Did you report the loss of your watch?
A. Yes to Cpl Luscombe. I was on a course at the time I lost it, that was the 28th of Sep and I found the watch was missing about 10 mins before I was going on course. I reported the loss first to Lt Hogg and he told me to report it to Cpl Luscombe. Luscombe was on leave at the time and when he returned I reported it to him.

Q. Always keep a key on the shelf?
A. Nearly always, Sir, once in a while I kept it in my pocket.

Q. When it was on the shelf it was in your gym trousers?
A. Yes.

Q. When did you last open this box before the search on 3 Nov?
A. 30 Oct, or 31st, it was on a payday. It was on a Tuesday.

Q. There were you from then until Nov?
A. 1 CLRU.

Q. Never in the gym?
A. Yes.

Q. But never in your box?
A. No.

Q. Any teas or snacks served during that period?
A. Yes.

Q. When did you get this parcel from Canada?
A. About a week before the third Nov.

Q. Was the lock put on this box before you took it over?
A. Yes.

Q. Who was the senior there with you who had the key?
A. At that time it was Sjt Coleman, but he has gone on draft, and now it is Sjt Taylor.

Q. Does he use this key?
A. Yes, he has also there.

Q. And takes them out without ref to you?
A. Yes.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO CONTINUE WITH HIS EVIDENCE.

ACCUSED TESTIFIED

It LH Capstick, 1 CLRU, having been duly sworn, states:

About a yr ago I became connected with the Gym as coach of the basketball team and in that capacity I found it necessary to drop around to the gym in the morning to talk over games and to arrange practices. On practically every occasion I was given a cup of tea and a piece of buttered toast. I noticed often that it was the custom of the PT staff to have toast and tea there and marmalade. I did not attempt to stop this practice because I was given to understand that it was a custom in most units for PT staff to have tea. Cpl Smith whom I now recognize joined the staff about Feb of this yr. After that time rations that had been brought into the gym were brought in by the other members of the PT staff. Eventually the accused was contributing his share of the rations to the gym.

TO CROSS-EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. What do you mean by the expression the accused contributing his share of the rations - the butter that you saw taken from the box was ration butter?
A. Yes, obviously they would not send butter like that in a parcel from Canada, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO CONTINUE WITH HIS EVIDENCE.

SIXTH WITNESS

S.27878 A/1/Cpl THOMPSON, JE, 1 CANU, having been duly sworn, states:

I am a PT instructor in the West Gym 1 CANU.

Q. Did you ever use a BK box from which army rations were taken?
A. Yes, whenever I got a parcel from home, or when I was anything like that, I also locked up my valuables in this box.

Q. Did the accused ever have any butter sent to him from home?
A. Yes, between 2-3 wks ago he had a parcel and I know for certain there was at least one parcel of butter in it.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. In what form was this butter?
A. As far as I can see it was in a can, Sir.

Q. How do you know it was butter?
A. It had the label.

Q. Saw the can opened?
A. No.

Q. Ever see anyone else other than the accused and yourself open this box?
A. Yes, practically every member of the PT staff.

Q. When the accused was there.
A. Sometimes when he was there and other times when he was not.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO CONSIDER SITH AC 95(1).

S.46645 A/L/Cpl BUTTERS, JE, 1 CANU, having been duly sworn, states:

I know the accused and I am a PT instr at 1 CANU West Gym. I have used a BK box there which rations were taken from. I used to put my extra in it and whatever I got from home in a parcel. We used to have tea in the morning and afternoon. The boy was sent in Cpl Smith's office, and other people besides the Cpl and I used the box.

SEVENTH WITNESS

S.27878 A/1/Cpl THOMPSON, JE, 1 CANU, having been recalled, on his former oath is asked the following questions by the Def Offr through the Court:

Q. When you took over as Sports Offr did you find it the custom to make tea in the Gym?
A. Yes, in the mornings, afternoons and evenings. They would brew some tea, make up some tinned soups they had and bread and jam. It was an established custom and I didn't think it should be interfered with as it had been going on for 2-3 yrs.

Q. Was any of this food ever taken out of the gym to your knowledge?
A. No, not to my knowledge.

Know where it came from?

A: No, no definite knowledge of where it came from, Sir.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTING OFFR ON THE FINDING

Witnesses have been brought fwd that removed and were present when the exhibits as now before this Court were removed from the accused's box in the mess Gym. With regard to the box itself, when the search was made it was considered as the accused's box. The accused also was apparently in the habit of leaving valuable personal property in this box and considered it to be his box.

SUMMING UP BY THE PRISONER ON THE FINDING

I have shown that this box in which tea things were kept in the gymnasium, was not, as it was alleged, the property of the accused - but rather a community chest to which all members of the gymnasium staff kept eatables and valuables; and moreover, I have shown that the eatables were brought by every member from their parcels sent from home. All members of the gymnasium staff had access to this box and knew where the key was left. Besides this, there was another key which had been lost some time before and might be in the hands of any person. The butter found, as shown, was undoubtedly Government butter but the tea and syrup might have been given by civilians to members of the staff. It is known practise in the Army in England, if possible for men to take tea in the mid-morning, and it is done in many other places in No. 1 CCRU besides the gymnasium. Thus it is not surprising for the accused on being posted to the gymnasium, to fall into the habit of taking tea, since this source was in full going. Any guilt that may be found to lurk not to the accused alone, but to other members of the gymnasium staff and to all visitors who dropped in for a occasional tea. This, I am aware, appears to include half the personnel of No. 1 CCRU. The accused has now been in detention for 10 days on purely circumstantial evidence. It has been in no way proved that rations were actually in the possession of the accused, and on these grounds I ask that he be acquitted.

1. Under RP 44 (C) the Court has adjourned sine die, and refers to the Convening Officer.

2. The Court finds that the articles, rations "public property", listed in the Particulars of the Charges were in a locker used by the Accused, the key of which was accessable to, and used by most of the personnel of the gymnasium at Guillemont Bks.

3. The Court finds that food was kept in this locker, put in by different members of the gymnasium staff, and used for snacks and that numberous personnel, including officers and NCOs of the unit, partook of them and that this was a recognized custom of long standing in No 1 CERU.

4. There is no evidence of sale or of any use of these rations other than for snacks.

5. The Court is of opinion that the accused is no more to blame for this custom than any of the others concerned.

6. The Court is in doubt as to whether taking all the circumstances into consideration, the accused is guilty of "conduct to the prejudice" if no others are charged, and whether the Court should find him "Guilty".

1. Ref your letter 14 Nov 44.

2. After reviewing the evidence there is no doubt that there was a custom of having snacks in the Gym but the amount of Government rations involved, namely four pounds of butter, represent 224 man day rations of this commodity and is considered out of all proportion to what is required by small staff of the gymnasium for snacks. Such abuse of this custom cannot be condoned and there is no evidence that offrs condoned this practice to extent it was being carried out. Further investigation is being carried out by CO 1 CERU in this regard which indicates that rations are being misappropriated but it is difficult to secure all necessary proof in all cases to bring to trial. A Cpl Cook at 1 CERU who committed an offence of stealing rations on 19 Oct was reduced to ranks and awarded 74 days detention by FGCM held on 6 Nov 44.

3. Please proceed with case as though others would be dealt with in their time, as enough evidence becomes available.

CHARACTERX WITNESSES

Lt. HUGHES T.S. X 1 CERU, having been duly sworn, states:

When I first ran into the accused when trying out for the Unit track team, and since I knew I was going to be sports officer four months ago, the accused is a very good worker, and the best NCO in the gymnasium; the only person to be relied upon. In my dealings with him, I found he was a very good worker. I found that at any time when I told him to do anything, He did it exactly as I told him, and quite often he would take hold of work himself, showing initiative and a willingness to help. Whenever he said anything, it was true and correct in all cases, so far as I know. As far as I am concerned, his honesty was beyond reproach.

Lt. CAPSTICK, T, 1 CERU, having been duly sworn, states:

When the accused came into the gymnasium, he had finished his advanced training as a Spr. and I am quite satisfied that his ability as a soldier is exemplary while connected with the P.T. staff. I found him hard-working and reliable. He did what he was told and when he was told. I never found any fault with his work around the gymnasium. I have never found any reason to doubt his honesty, anything he said he would do, he did. For a year he has never done anything to make me doubt his honesty. I have heard other officers refer to the accused as the hardest working NCO in the gymnasium; they would prefer him to any other NCO in the gym. I found him quite reliable and honest.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

[redacted]

FIRST CHARACTER WITNESS Lt. Hughes, T.S.
SECOND CHARACTER WITNESS Lt. Ca patick,

I am greatly surprised to find that Cpl Smith has been found guilty. His crime sheet shows three minor charges in four years, one for four days stoppages of pay, reduced to one day on discovery that the Sgt. to whom he was insubordinate was drunk at the time. He was one day AWL. He was 14 days C.B. for being out of bounds in London.

His record is exemplary. He is guilty of scrounging, a most common army practice, which we all do to some extent. Moreover, he is taking the rap for a number of persons, since, obviously, others shared in the spoil and helped procure it. The reasons for this arrest was because they were looking for someone taking food out of the camp. This definitely did not happen in this case.

I ask you to be most lenient in this most deserving case.

Summary of Evidence

In the case of K-98579 A/Cpl. Gerald Charles SMITH, R.C.E., No.1 Cdn.Engr.Rft.Unit,Canadian Army (Overseas),a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas).

By direction ofthe Commanding Officer the evidence is taken under oath.

FIRST WITNESS: K-75443 Cpl.Luscombe,R.C.,R.C.E.,No.1 C.E.R.U.,having been duly sworn,states:-

"I, K-98579 Cpl.Luscombe,R.C.,am security N.C.O. of No.1 Cdn. Engr.Rft.Unit. On instructions from Lt.Col.H.G.J.Woods I, accompanied by Sgt.Raymond and Cpl.Gower of the Regimental Police of No.1 C.E.R.U.,visited the west gym at approximately 1545 hrs,3 Nov.44 for the purpose of searching for Army Rations. We searched the equipment room first,going through all the cupboards and boxes,with the exception of two barrack boxes,as their owners were not present at the time. We then searched the instructors room,going through all cupboards,boxes,and kit bags. L/Cpl.Meeker,the owner of one of the barrack boxes,came into the gym and I asked him if he would mind opening his barrack box for an inspection. We found no rations in his box. As Cpl. Smith had not returned,I went to Spider 7 room 5 and saw Cpl. Smith there. He was talking to L/Cpl.Meeker. I asked him to come to the gym,as we were having an inspection. He said "What for? I've only got one pound of butter in my box." We proceeded to the gym. Cpl.Smith went into the equipment room and I went to the instructors room. I asked Lt.Hughes if he would step into the equipment room while Cpl.Smith opened his box. As I walked into the equipment room I noticed Cpl.Smith talking to Sgt.Raymond. I asked Cpl.Smith to open his box,which he did, handing me a 1 pound brick of butter. I then commenced to search the box myself. Underneath a drawer in the box I found three pounds of butter,a bag of tea,and a can of syrup. I placed Cpl. Smith under close arrest and Cpl.Gower escorted him to the Detention Barracks. Sgt.Raymond and I took the butter,tea,and syrup to Command Post,and had it locked away in the R.S.M's office. I now produce them as evidence."

(Marked as Exhibits A1,A2,A3,A4;B;C)

Question; Was someone watching Cpl.Smith's barrack box while you were locating him?

Answer; Yes,Sgt.Raymond and Cpl.Gower.

Question by the accused; Was there any tea in the box besides what you found in the ration bag? (Pointing to Exhibit C)

Answer; I didn't notice any.

The accused does not cross-examine the witness further.

K-75443 Cpl. Luscombe,R.C.

SECOND WITNESS: G-15035 Cpl.Gower,K.K.B.,R.C.E.,No.1 C.E.R.U.,having been duly sworn,states;-

I am G-15035 Cpl.Gower,K.K.B.,of the Regimental Police of No.1 C.E.R.U. I proceeded to the west gym at approximately 1545 hrs.3 Nov.44,in company with Sgt.Raymond and Cpl.Luscombe for the purpose of making a search of said premises for rations. The rooms,equipment boxes,and barrack boxes were examined and upon Cpl.Luscombe requesting Cpl.Smith to open his barrack box,he did so quite willingly. Cpl.Luscombe proceeded to search the barrack box,taking out clothes and other articles,also taking out three pounds of butter,a tin of syrup,and a ration bag full of tea. I overheard Cpl.Smith remarking,when the box was first opened,that he had one pound of butter,which he took out himself and gave to Cpl.Luscombe.

Question: Who told you to search the gym?

Answer: Command Post phoned Unit Detention,and told the NCO who answered the phone to tell Cpl.Gower and Sgt.Raymond to report to Cpl.Luscombe at Command Post for the purpose of conducting a search.

Question: Do you recognize these articles (pointing to Exhibits A1,A2,A3,A4;B,and C) as the ones taken from Cpl.Smith's box?

Answer: I do.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

G-15035 Cpl.Gower,K.K.B.

THIRD WITNESS: M-54316 Sgt.Raymond,J.A.,R.C.E.,No.1 C.E.R.U.,having been duly sworn,states:-

I, M-54316,Sgt.Raymond,J.A.,NCO i/c Unit Detention,1 C.E.R.U., was present at a search of the west gym of No.1 C.E.R.U. at 1545 hrs. 3 Nov.44,in company with Cpl.Luscombe and Cpl.Gower. We made a complete search of the west gym. This search included all rooms in the gymnasium building,and all kit of personnel employed,and lockers and boxes used for storing equipment and used by personnel. When Cpl.Smith arrived he informed me that there was a pound of butter and some tea in his box. He was asked to open his box by Cpl.Luscombe,which he did quite willingly. I was standing beside Cpl.Luscombe and saw some food in the box. When this food was removed,I saw that it consisted of four pounds of "National" butter,a ration bag full of tea,and a two pound can of syrup. Cpl.Smith was placed under close arrest by Cpl.Luscombe.

Question: Did you find any other rations anywhere else in the gym?

Answer: No,sir.

Question: Why was this search of the gym made?

K-98579 Cpl. G.C. Smith, having been sworn and duly warned stated:- After returning from canoe around the end of September I found a gold watch missing from my box. I reported this to the Sports Officer who told me that I had better report it to the security police. I went to see Cpl. Luscombe found that he was on leave, and so waited until I saw him to report it. This would be around the 22 Oct 44. My box was locked while I was away and the keys were in my black gym trousers on a shelf in the office. This was where I used to have my trousers before I went on canoe.

This afternoon about 1615 hours Cpl. Luscombe came and told me that they wanted to look in my box, so I went over to the gym. Before opening my box, I told Cpl. Luscombe that there was a pound of butter in my box. This was a pound of butter packed in a tin which I had received from Canada. A few days ago I told Sgt/Cpl. Meakes that I had this pound of butter and that if he wanted it he could have it. I did not know whether he had taken it or not, as I had not looked in my box since pay day. When I opened my box the pound of butter, the bag of tea, and tin of sugar were taken from the box. I have absolutely no idea where these articles came from.

Q - Have you any idea who might have put these articles in your box?

A - I have no idea.

Q - Had anyone else known where you left your keys?

A - Just the gym staff as far as I know.

Q - Have you any idea where these rations might have come from?

A - No, sir.

Q - Have you ever known rations to be brought around the gym previous to this, except for food received from Canada?

A - Never except for the time that a pound of rotten bacon was found in the shower room, which Cpl. Luscombe knows about.

Q – Have you any idea where this bacon might have come from?

A – No, sir.

Statement of Pte G. F. Smith. Page One.

I enlisted in Feb 1941 and came overseas in October 1942. I have always been very friendly with Pte. Edwards and we both liked the army very much.

When we moved under canvas the training became much harder and there was little to amuse us in the hours when we were not on parade.

On the night of June 6th there not being any show in camp, Pte Edwards suggested that we go to the Pub at East Dean and have a glass of beer before going to bed. A few of our comrades came along and we had a merry time. When the beer ration was exhausted we were forced to turn to bitters and I am afraid we consumed more of these than we should have.

All I know is that I reached out completely and did not come to for some time when I found myself pinned underneath a gap. Pte Edwards and some civilians turned the car over and helped us out and we were taken to the hospital.

I am mortally ashamed of the whole evening and can only realise it on the past that I had very little to drink before joining the army. When others have urged me to have a drink I have not.

been very strong and I have always regretted what happened afterwards. I have always enjoyed soldiering and dearly regret this serious set on my military career. I shall do everything I can to atone for it. Fortunately nobody was seriously injured in the accident and it is only a question of paying for the damage which we have done. This I will cheerfully bear.

I hope the Court will take a lenient view of our misdemeanour and give us another chance. I have had paid off for our crime I have been under detention for a month and actively doing my bit towards winning the war and I am sure my country will yet have reason to be proud of me.

I ask the Court please consider my plea and give me a chance. I will not be making a mistake as I am determined to do everything in my power to re-establish myself and I hope the Court will give me this chance.

Statement of Pte Edwards 16 June 1943

"I Pte Clinton Anson Edwards wish to make the following statement in mitigation of the punishment which this honourable court is about to mete out to me.

I enlisted in the Canadian army on 6 August 1940 and was finally sent overseas in October 1942. I am married and have a wife living in Canada and 2 children aged 3 and 9.

My Canadian service was spent mostly in Camp Shilo Manitoba and Newfoundland. Both these places do not offer much in the way of amusement and we had practically to make our own fun. There was very little beer available and consequently we could get nothing to drink except local home brew which was plentiful. I had my first drink of home brewed alcohol in North Bay and its effects were rather devastating. After one or two drinks I suffered a complete black out. I did things which I afterward profoundly regretted and of which I had no knowledge at the time or afterwards. My friends told me that I was completely berserk and looked like a wild man.

I have taken this raw alcohol at various times and unfortunately have developed a great craving for it. It seems to be something which I am unable to fight off, much as I would like.

On the night of 6 June 1973 Pte Smith and I with some friends went to the public house at East Dean close by the camp. We had been training rather hard and feeling fit and it seemed the occasion for a celebration in a small way. We drank a few glasses of beer and being a bit and engaged in quite a bit of friendly banter. It was all in good fun and as far as we knew there was quite harmless. As the evening wore on we met more of our friends and toasts were exchanged and we were having a jolly time. Then the beer began to run out. So we turned to drinking bitters. I had never before had this drink but it was pleasant to take and all in all I believe we had about 10 rounds. So you can well imagine the effect was catastrophic. The effect on me was the same if not worse than any of the home brew I had tasted in Canada. I lost all consciousness of the passing of time. I have a faint recollection of bits of a mild ride down dark roads, of screaming brakes and then a crash and after that complete darkness. When I came to I was lying by the road and I coved out a FEET upside down with Pte. Smith underneath. I staggered over and with the help of 2 civilians we managed to get Smith clear and ~~[illegible]~~ Bens and phoned the police and an ambulance took us to the hospital.

That is my story. I admit it is not a credit to me and the only excuse I can offer is that I actually did not know what I was doing nor did
I realize the consequences. I only hope this court will realize how sorry I am for the damage I have caused. Fortunately no one but ourselves was hurt. I only hope that this court will be as lenient a view as possible of our misdemeanor. We cannot undo the past but we can pay for the damages.
My wife and young children will suffer for our conduct and I cannot tell how sorry I am that this should be but I can only plead with the court a chance to make it up and to square myself in their eyes and in the eyes of the Canadian Army.

EXHIBIT 'A'

SUBJECT:- Accident - Cut Mill, Bosham,
6th June, 1943.

Sir,

I beg to report that at 12 midnight on Sunday, 6th June, 1943, I was called to the scene of an accident at Cut Mill Corner, Bosham, which had occurred at about 11.45 p.m. on 6th June, 1943.

The vehicle concerned in the accident was a Jeep - war No. C.M.11c0109, the two occupants, both of whom were injured being Pte. Doris Gordon Elkin and Pte. 59175 Clinton Anson Hawkins, both of the Royal Regt of Canada, stationed at Goodwood.

The vehicle mounted the pavement on the south side of the road at the apex of the corner, made an intermittent tyre impression diagonally across the road for a distance of 90 yards, then turned over and made scars marks on the road surface for a distance of 20 yards, coming to rest on the north side of the road, upside down.

Smith was not in a fit condition to be interviewed. I now presume she questioned him about the accident and he replied "I guess the corner was too steep, and just rolled over. The Jeep was taken from our camp, I'll tell you that straight."

The two injured men were taken to the C.C.S. Hospital at the C/C Royal Regt of Canada was informed by telephone.

I respectfully suggest that a copy of this report be forwarded to The C/C The Royal Regt of Canada, Goodwood, for his information.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE of - B.55513 Pte. Gordon Franklin Smith and B.55173 Pte. Clinton Anson Edwards, both of the 1 Bn. The Royal Regiment of Canada, soldiers of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The accused are informed of their rights.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution - Mr. Reginald Howell, 4 School Cottage, Bosham, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am Mr. Reginald Howell, 4 School Cottage, Bosham. My brother and I were walking along the Emsworth-Chichester road. At the corner near Cutmill we saw a Jeep approaching us from Chichester direction. It seemed to swerve and I heard a scream of brakes. The next thing I saw was the Jeep upside down on the North side of the road. The time would be about 2325 hrs. One of the occupants was thrown clear. My brother and I lifted the Jeep up and helped to remove the other soldier. We accompanied these soldiers, who were Canadians, to Cutmill House and there phoned the police and ambulance."

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution - Capt. E.J.H. Ryall, Tpt. Offr., 1 Bn. The Royal Regiment of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am Capt. E.J.H. Ryall, Tpt. Offr., 1 Bn. The Royal Regiment of Canada. For some time prior to the accident on the 6th of June 43, and pursuant to orders, all the Jeeps in the Bn. were grounded, and the Brigadier's authority is required to move any of these vehicles. During the week prior to the accident, all the Unit fitters were concentrating on Jeep repair jobs. Consequently the majority of vehicles had keys in them. As the vehicles were grounded it was considered unnecessary to remove ignition keys as is normally the case with vehicles when they return from any run. The keys were therefore in the locks."

"As soon as I was informed of the accident involving Willis Jeep No. CM.116619, I went with the Unit R.C.O.C. Sgt. fitter to the scene of the accident at Cutmill Corner, Bosham, Sussex. The vehicle had been put up on its side by the local constable and was leaning against a hedge. I had it towed out on the road, started it up and drove it back to the Unit. At a later date I went to Borden to get at first hand the prices of parts to be replaced through damage to the vehicle. These prices were obtained from the Willis Co. price book."

"The following is a list of the parts to be replaced, of their catelogue prices and an estimate of the labour involved in effecting such repairs:

ADDRESS IN MITIGATION

M 55513 Pte Smith, G.F.

Joined the army Feb 41. Served in Canada, Newfoundland and England. Joined his Regt in Dec at Ortona.

During the first two years in the army, Pte Smith was in continual trouble. It is to his credit that he has not been on a charge in the past year till this last offence. This shows he tried to be a good soldier.

He has been in close arrest for 79 days during which time he was employed.

2.

Pte Smith, along with six others was sent to L.O.B. at Ortona on 17 Feb 44 for the purpose of a rest. During this time he was kept on fatigues while the remainder were sent to rest.

The procedure used by the holding units to send back accused personnel leaves much to be desired and invites trouble. The accused were told to bed down without any blankets or kit.

I submit the above facts to be considered by the court in mitigation of sentence.

CHARGE I F33589 PTE SMITH G H

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: 970193 Sgt Brown K E, CIC attached to 25 CSEC sworn states:

During the month of April 1945 I was employed as a section commander with 25 CSEC. I recognize the accused as F33589 Pte Smith G H. He was in my section. On the morning of 16 April 45 at approximately 0800 hrs I had given the name of Pte Smith G H to my corporal as kitchen fatigue. He was not expected on my section parade that morning as he was detailed for kitchen fatigue. When I saw Pte Smith on my section parade I asked him why he had not reported to the kitchen as he had been detailed for that duty. He replied that he would rather be placed on charge than report to the kitchen for duties. I then placed Pte Smith under open arrest.

Cross Exam:

Q1 Did Pte Smith attempt to explain to you why he did not like to work in the kitchen?

A He did make an attempt.

Q2 Would you please explain this attempt?

A2 Four men, including Pte Smith, came to me to complain about kitchen fatigue.

Q3 Was this before or after the aforementioned parade?

A3 This was before the parade.

Q4 Can you tell me the reason given by Pte Smith?

A4 I can not remember.

Q5 Did you order him to report to the kitchen yourself, previously.

A5 I won't state that I definitely ordered Pte Smith to report but I told the party, which included Pte Smith, that the MO was the only one who could excuse them.

Q6 Did Pte Smith complain on medical grounds?

A6 I think he was complaining about the smell of the cooking food.

Q7 Did you, personally, detail Pte Smith to be on kitchen fatigue that day?

A7 No sir.

Exam by Court:

Q1 Did you order him to go back to the kitchen after he had been on parade?

A1 No sir.

Q2 When did Pte Smith tell you that he would sooner be charged than do kitchen fatigue?

A3 On the section parade.

RP 83 (b) complied with.

1ST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE: B4735 TPR PRICE C H CAC, attach 25 CSEC having been duly sworn, states:

Pte Smith, whom I recognize as the accused, served with me in Louvain, Belgium with 25 CSEC. He worked in the kitchens with me but had to be removed because he was always feeling ill. He was given light jobs to do.

Cross Examine:

Q1 Did Pte Smith serve in same section with you?

A 1 No sir.

Q2 How many times did Pte Smith work with you in the kitchen?

A2 Once that I know of

Q3 Who ordered Pte Smith away from the kitchen at that time?

A3 It was one of the company sergeants.

Q4 Do you know why that sergeant took Pte Smith away from the kitchen?

A4 Because Pte Smith was feeling sick at the time.

Exam by court

RP 83 (b) complied with.

SWORN STATEMENT OF ACCUSED

F33589 PTE SMITH G H CIC attached 25 CSEC, sworn, states:

On the morning that I was detailed 16 Apr 45 the section corporal told me I was on kitchen fatigue for that day. I told the corporal

I couldn't work in the kitchen because I got sick. He told me that I would have to see Sgt Brown. Another man and myself saw Sgt Brown. The other man Gnr Pawsey, stated his complaint and the sergeant got mad and told us to get out of the room and not to bring the damn complaints to him. I left the room and went down on parade where Sergeant Brown asked me why I did not report to the kitchen. I told him I could not work in the kitchen because I could not stand it. Sgt Brown told me that if I did not go I would be put on charge. I told him that I would rather be put on charge than work in the kitchen.

Examine by court:

Q1 Did Sgt Brown tell you that the MO was the only one that could excuse you?

A1 No sir.

Q2 Did you make any attempt yourself to see the MO to get excused from kitchen fatigue?

A2 No sir.

Q3 What do you mean by the statement that you "can't stand" to work in the kitchen?

A3 They have blowers going in the kitchen and the fumes make me sick with a head-ache.

Q4 On previous occasions when kitchen fatigue made you sick did you report to the MO?

A4 No, because the other times the sergeant did not make me report to the MO.

Q5 Had you ever been on sick parade for that particular complaint?

A5 No sir.

Q6 How often have you been taken out of the kitchen on account of sickness?

Q7 Once, before.

A7 RP 83 (b) complied with.

CHARGE II F53589 PTE SMITH G H

I10081 SGT BERESOWSKI J W on the strength of 25 CSEC sworn states:

I am Sgt Beresowski in charge of Guard Room and Regimental Police of 25 CSEC. On the 25th day of May I paraded the men in custody at 1730 hrs for work. They all started to work with the exception of Pte Smith, Pte Massey, Gnr Briscoe. I then gave them a direct order, which was definitely refused. I also gave a separate order to each of the men in question. This order included the accused, whom I here recognize as Pte Smith. Pte Smith replied that he did not have to work, as he was not yet undergoing sentence. I then diemissed the soldiers in question to the guard room.

Cross Examination by Defence:

Q1 Is it correct that Pte Smith, who was awaiting trial was housed in the same room as those undergoing sentence?

A Yes

Q2 Is it true that Pte Smith was made to work the same hrs and do the same kind of work as personell undergoing sentence?

A Yes

Q3 Was this extra work a punishment in that it wa s carried out after the rest of the coy had completed its daily duties?

A This work was carried out as per guard room standing orders, 25 CSEC.

Q4 Do these standing orders differentiate between personell awaiting trial and those undergoing sentence?

A No

Q5 App how much longer after supper were men in custody required to work?

A They were required to work until 2100 hrs.

Cross Examination by Court

Q On an average how much work did the men do after supper?

A The men worked on an average of 1½ hrs per night. There were nights when they did not work at all.

RP 83 (b) complied with.

(Statement by accused)

F33589 PTE SMITH G H ON the strength of 25 CSEC, sworn, states:

From Pte Smith of 25 CSEC, I asked Sgt Beresowski to have me paraded before the CO. This was about a week before the 26 May 45. I was paraded before the major, and asked the major if I was doing FP or awaiting Court Martial, and said that I did not mind doing a normal day's work, but I did not like working after supper. The Major said that if the sgt wanted me to work I would have to work.

Cross Examination by Prosecutor

Q On the 26th of May were you on the parade that Sgt Beresowski called, and you refused to go to work when he told you do so?

A Yes

Cross Examination by court:

Q1 How much extra work did you do?

A We did on the average of two hrs a night.

Q After being paraded to the major, and after you had been told what to do on what grounds did you refuse to go to work?

A I did not feel that I had to do that extra work because I was awaiting trial by Court Martial, and not doing Field P.

RP 83 (b) complied with.

SUMMING UP FOR THE PROSECUTION

The charge on which the accused is before this Court Martial is:

1. (Disobeying) 2(in such a manner asto show wilful defiance of authority) 3(a lawful command) 4(given him personally) 5(by his superior officer) 6(in the execution of his office).

Five of these points are directly proven by the evidence which you have heard. The only one on which there is any question is whether or not the command given was a lawful command.

KR(Can) Sec 452 (d) says in effect that care will be taken that soldiers awaiting trial are not required to do more work than they would have to do if they were not in custody. But the question of whether a lawful command was given or not is a different Question. If the command had been given during ordinary duty hours there would have been no doubt that it was lawful, therefore, I think it is up to the court to decide whether or not it was lawful in these particular circumstances. Would it have been a lawful command if given to a soldier not in custody? I leave it to the military knowledge of this court-martial to decide.

DEFENCE SUMMARY CHARGE II

F33589 Pte Smith G H

Facts brought out by Sgt Beresowski's evidence

1. Personnel under sentence and awaiting trial were
(a) Housed in same room (Contrary to KR Can 611)
(b) Made to work the same hours and do the same work (Contrary to KR Can 452 (d))
(c) Made to do work which was a punishment in that it occured after recognized working hours for the rest of the company except those undergoing FP (Contrary to KR Can 452 (d)).
(d) Were ordered to work after supper on Sat 26 May 1945 despite the fact that the rest of the company, except those in custody, ceased working at noon, as is the unit custom(Contrary to KR Can 452 (d)).
(e) The order, therefore, was unlawful because it was an order which would have resulted in work which is admittedly a punishment reserved for men undergoing FP. (Contrary to KR Can 452 (d)).

Therefore we believe not guilty.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION CHARGE II

R55589 Pte Smith G H

The accused has served in the Cdn Army for almost 2 yrs and to date has only one entry on his MFM 6.

He undoubtedly felt in each instance a feeling of being wronged and after asking for redress in the case of being paraded before the major and receiving none, he felt worse.

I don't feel that any evidence has been brought forth to prove spite or deliberate hardness in the accused and I feel the accused was definitely wronged as in KR Can 452 (d).

He has been in custody a considerable period of time and has, indeed, served FP judging by his treatment while awaiting trial.

I trust the court will use considerable good judgment and leniency in this case.

On the morning that I was detailed. 16 Apr 43 - the section corporal told me I was on Kitchen fatigue for that day. I told the corporal I couldn't work in the kitchen because I got sick. I left the room and went down on parade where Sergeant Brown asked me why I did not report to the kitchen. I told him I could not work in the kitchen because I could not stand it. Sgt Brown told me that if I did not go I would be put on charge. I told him that I would rather be put on charge than work in the kitchen.

Summing Up for the Prosecution

The charge on which the Accused is before this Court-Martial is (1)disobeying (2) in such a manner as to show wilful defiance of authority (3) a lawful command (4) given him personally (5) by his superior officer (6) in the execution of his office.

Five of these points are directly proven by the evidence which you have heard The only one on which there is any question is whether or not the command given was a lawful command.

K.R.(Can) Sect 452(d) says in effect that care will be taken that soldiers awaiting trial are not required to do more work than they would have to do if they were not in custody. But the question of whether a lawful command was given or not is a different question. If the command had been given during ordinary duty hours there would have been no doubt that it was lawful. therefore. I think it is up to the court to decide whether or not it was lawful in these particular circumstances. Would it have been a lawful command if given to a soldier not in custody? I leave it to the military knowledge of this Court-Martial to decide.

(b) Made to work the same hours and do the same work (Contrary to K.R. Can 452 (d))

Plea For Mitigation CHARGE II

F-33589 Pte Smith, G.H.

The accused has served in the Cdn. Army for about 2 yrs and to date has only one entry on his M.F.M. 6.

The undoubtedly felt in each instance a feeling of being wronged and after asking for redress in the case of being paraded before the Major and receiving none, he felt worse.

I don't feel that any evidence has been brought forth to prove spite or deliberate hatred in the accused & I feel the accused was definitely wronged as in K R Can 452(d).

The boy has in custody a considerable period of time & has indeed, served his pudgment by his treatment while awaiting trial.

I trust the Court will use considered pudgment & leniency in this case.

I am the Sgt in charge of 25 Cdn.Special Emp.Coy Guard Room and the Regimental Police, at approximately 1730 hrs 26 May 45, I called a parade of all soldiers in custody for the purpose of cleaning out around the immediate vicinity of the Guard Room Barracks inside the compound, such as putting the tools they had used during the day in proper order and picking up a bit of wood which had been left scattered around the compound. When the parade was lined up I gave an order as to what was to be done. All went to work with the exception of Pte. Massey, Gnr. Briscoe, and Pte. Smith, whom I now recognize. I asked them what the trouble was and the answer was that th they were not going to work. I asked Pte. Smith first and he answered that he was not under sentence and that he was not going to work, so I gave him a direct order: "This is your order. Go to work." These were my exact words. He replied that he was not going. I asked him if he understood or not that it was an order and he answered "Yes." I said:"Are you disobeying this order,"and he answered"Yes." These questions and answers were in the presence and hearing of Pte. Massey and Gnr Briscoe. The three of them were side by side on parade as they had fallen in that way. I then asked Pte Massey and Gnr Briscoe if they understood the order. Both answered "Yes." Pte Massey said that as far as the Army was concerned he was still innocent and did not have to go to work. I then dismissed the three of them to the Guard Room Barracks.

I was present at that parade. The Sgt gave them their orders to go and pick up the tools and put them away, all but three of them moved away to obey the order. Pte Massey, Gnr Briscoe and Pte Smith whom I now recognize remained standing there and did not obey the order. The Sgt went to Pte Smith and said "You will pick those tools up. Thats an order I'm giving you" or words to that effect. Pte Smith said " I'm going to disobey this order. I am not going to work after supper" or something like that. He also said" What are you going to do about it? Put another charge in. It aint worth a damn. It won't stick, or words to that effect. The Sgt asked if I heard that remark, and I said yes. Then the Sgt went to Pte Massey and Gnr Briscoe. He said he was giving them an order to go and pick up the tools. Pte Massey said that he was going to disobey the order, he

FGCM proceedings in the case of K-50311 Pte (L/Cpl) Smith, 1 Cdn Med Regt Pl RCASC

First Witness for the prosecution:- C-21439 Cpl Bouchier, L P, 1 Cdn AGRA Postal Detachment, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecution:

Q-1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A-1 I am C-21439 Cpl Bouchier, L P, 1 Cdn AGRA Postal Det.

Q-2 Will you describe to the court the events of the evening of 7 Dec 44?
A-2 On the night of 7 Dec 44 at about 2100 hours L/Cpl Smith forced his way into the post office by breaking down the door. The hinges were broken off. There was a chair thrown from one room to the other breaking the Tilley pressure lamp . The pressure lamp fell on my bed setting fire to my tunic. There was a couple of chairs broken and a table. I was outside when this thing started by came inside while it was going on. I was at the door when it started.

Q-3 Did you actually see the accused strike the door or attempt to break it down?
A-3 When it was broken down I could not see who did it but the door was smashed. When the door was smashed Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs came into the room. There was nobody else with them at that time. I saw them burst into the room.

Q-4 Had you seen the accused and Pte Heinrichs previous to the time they broke down the door?
A-4 Yes they had been there earlier. When they were in previous to that Cpl Carson was talking to them. Pte Heinrichs pulled a knife at that time. He was threatening everybody with the knife.

Q-5 Did you hear the conversation between Cpl Smith and Cpl Carson at that time?
A-5 The conversation was between Cpl Carson and Pte Heinrichs. It was he who had been threatening everybody.

Q-6 Did Cpl Carson order L/Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs out of the PO?
A-6 He was trying to get them to leave peacefully but I did not hear him order them out. The accused had been drinking but he was not drunk. I could tell that he had a few drinks -- I can't say why. It is possible he had not had a drink at all I can't say I smelled his breath. I would say there were normal. They had mentioned drinking so I presumed they had had a few drinks. There wasn't anything else about their face or appearance or the way they walked that would lead me to think they had been drinking.

Q-7 During the fight that followed did you see L/Cpl Smith or Pte Heinrichs throw a chair and break the lamp?
A-7 I can't say who threw the chair. It must have been one or the other. Ther was only the two of them. The rest of the fellows had gone out.

Q-8 Were you threatened in any way at all by L/Cpl Smith?
A-8 I didn't have anything to do with them at all.

XX'd by the Defence

Q-9 On the night in question you were in the quarters of the postal department?
A-9 That is right sir. There were eight others besides myself in the room. We were having a little party or or less. We had some friends of ours in which we do sometimes and we had a few bottles of beer that we were drinking between us. We had about two bottles apiece. It was the beer we had saved from several issues. We had no vino to drink there. Ther was no drunk. I believe there is a place where you can buy vino a few doors from the PO.

Q-10 You were there the whole evening?
A-10 Yes.

Q-11 Is it true that in the first instance when Cpl Smith came into the postal quarters that he knocked on the door and was admited?

A-11 No, Smith and Heinrichs walked in by themselves with a couple of other people. They did not knock and were not admitted.

Q-12 Then Cpl Smith came through the door three times that evening. The first time the door was not locked and they walked in? Did they have a drink with anybody in there?

A-12 Sufferin handed one of them a bottle of beer and he had a drink out of it.

Q-13 You say you did not see the chair thrown, but they must be the ones who threw the chair, yet there were eight or nine other people there?

A-13 When the fight started the other people ran out through the other room in the postoffice. As you enter the quarters there is a counter. The lamp was hanging over this counter. The accused was outside this counter and the party was going on beyind the counter. The party had been going on on both sides until the fight started, then we all went beyind the counter.

Q-14 You say that Pte Heinrichs had a knife and was threatening some people. Did you also see Pte Nicols who was at the party with you pick up a gun and threaten Cpl Smith?

A-14 No, I did not see that. I saw Pte Heinrichs with the knife but I did not see anybody pick up a gun. I though I was the only one there with a gun.

Q-15 Do you not all have weapons in your quarters?
A-15 Yes. I believe I would have seen Pte Nicols pick up a gun if he had done so.

Q-16 A soldier threw a chair and then everybody but the accused and Pte Heinrichs disappeared from the room?
A-16 Yes, that is right. I was the last to leave the room, I am sure of that.

Questioned by the JA

Q-17 You live in the same building as the post office. Does one have to go into the post office to get into your quarters?

A-17 No. There is an entrance from the rear directly into our quarters.

Q-18 At what time did the accused first come to the building th that night?

A-18 About 9:30.

Q-19 What entrance?
A-19 The back entrance. The door was open at that time. They came in the door but there was not trouble at that time. We asked on of the lads with them if he would take them away. They went out but they came back after they had gone about 24 yards away from the house. When they came back the door was open. Cpl Carson had opened the door and he was struck at the time. I did not see Cpl Carson struck but I saw marks on his eye. His left eye. That was the second time they were there.

Q-20 Did they come in?
A-20 Yes, they came in and stayed for 15 or twenty minutes. A fight started. Pte Heinrich threatened a couple of the chaps with a knife. Cpl Carson was in the fight, with Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs. The fight did not last long because the light was broken at that time. Everybody went out after the light was broken. Cpl Smith and Heinrichs left. Everybody had gone, there was only Pte Nichols and myself left. I was the last to leave. I saw the accused again when they pushed in the door after that. That was about ½ hour after. They broke in the door of the rear entrance. The door was closed and bolted then. After the fight had started on the second visit and the room was cleared I was the last to leave. I only went into the post office part. Nichols was there and we came back in and bolted the door and went back into the post office. There is an entrance between our room and the post office. There is no door. It is just an adjoining room. They broke the hinges off the door the third time in. I can't say for sure which one of them was the first in the room. At that time I picked up my rifle and as they started to break the door in I moved into the other part of the PO.

Q-21 How do you know it was them if there was no light?
A-21 I saw them as they were coming in. I saw them by the light of the candle which I had lit. Both Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs came in. I don't know who came in first. They both seemed to come in together.

Q-22 What did they do inside?
A-22 They went into the PO and from the conversation which took place between them I understood that they realized they were in a post office and decided to get out. They had gone through our part of the house and into the post office.

Q-23 Did you fire any shots?
A-23 They went outside by themselves. I fired one shot after with the armed guard who came.

Q-24 Do you remember anything about the accused condition when he came back the third time?
A-24 No, I can't because it was very dark. His speach appeared to be quite normal. I do not remember seeing him walk before but I imagine it was his normal gait.

In the opinion of the Court and the JA it is not considered necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Second Witness for the Prosecution: H-51931 Pte N Stephens, 1 Cdn Med Regt PI RCASC, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecution:

Q-25 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A-25 I am H-51931 Pte N Stephens, 1 [illegible] RCASC,

Q-26 Will you tell the court what happened on the night of 7 Dec 44 with regard to your activities.
A-26 I was down to vist the boys at the FPO, when at about 8:30 in the evening L/Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrich walked into the building. They just walked in. They did not force their way. Cpl Carson, Pte Conley, and I can't remember who else were there. There were about seven or eightof us in all. I can't say the exact lot.

They came in and talked to Cpl Carson about coming into the room. Cpl Carson did not want them there. He asked Pte Girard if he would take them out. They left and Cpl Carson went out behind them a few seconds later. After two or three seconds Cpl Carson came back in through the door. He seemed to be pushed through the door. I did not see what happened. All I could make out was that he had been pushed through the door. L/Cpl Smith and Heinrichs came in and I saw them talk for a few minutes. I saw L/Cpl Smith lift the chair and break the lamp. Cpl Carson was pushed in. L/Cpl Smith and Heinrichs had followed right beyind him. The only thing I saw when they came in was L/Cpl Smith lift the chair and break the lamp. After the lamp was broken Cpl Carson came with me and he asked me to get Cpl Mader. I got Cpl Mader and I took over his guard from him. Cpl Mader went away with Cpl Carson. I stayed on guard and did not go back to the PO at all. I have been down to the post office before this particular night. I go down about twice a week and I have never saw anything unusual happen there previously.

XX'd by the Defence

Q-27 The first time Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs came into the room did they knock on the door or did they just walk in?

A-27 They just walked in. The door wasn't locked.

Q-28 Did you see them have a drink with anybody.

A-28 No. I do not think it would be possible for them to have a drink without me seeing them.

Q-29 You recall Pte Girard who came in with the two of them had been requested to ask them to leave?

A-29 Yes. They left and a few minutes later Cpl Carson followed them out.

Q-29 A few minutes later Cpl Carson and the two of them came in again. Was that the time the door was broken?

A-29 No. On that occasion the door was just closed, not latched.

Q-30 How did carson get in them?

A-30 He just came in when the door came open when he came up against it. The door wasnIt broken at all.

Q-31 Before Girard, Smith and Heinrichs came in what were you people doing in the PO?

A-31 We were just spending the evening. Just a quiet evening with a game of cards. We had a glass of beer or two. We all brought some beer with us. We did not have any vino in the room. We had our beer from two, possibly three, issues. We would have had two or three bottles of beer appiece to drink that evening.

Q-32 In the facas in the postal quarters you said you saw
A- Cpl Smith throw a chair. Do you know of any reason why he might have done that?

A-32 No.

Q-33 Did you see Heinrich with a knife.

A-33 No.

Q-34 Did you see Nichols with a gun?

A-34 No.

Questioned by the JA

Q-35 Did you see a fight in there?
A-35 No. There was not fight while I was there. Just Cpl Carson being pushed through the door. [illegible] just before the lamp was broken.

In the opinion of the Court and the JA it is not considered advisable to comply with RP 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Third Witness for the Prosecution: B-84586 Pte H Nichols, 1 Can Med Regt Pl RCASC, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecution:

Q-36 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A-36 I am B-84586 Pte H Nichols, 1 Can Med Regt Pl RCASC.

Q-37 On the night of 7 Dec 44 will you tell the court where you were, what you were doing and what you saw?
A-37 On the evening of 7 Dec I went up to the postal corps to visit Cpl Carson and Cpl Boucher. We all sat there talking. Cpl Boucher was talking about fishing and hunting. I heard somebody say "What the hell do they want here" and I looked up and saw Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs. They went out and Cpl Carson followed out behind them. Cpl Carson came back, being pushed back into the room. I saw him push the door back and bolt it. I then heard Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs say "Lets break it down" and then "Are you ready", and then they broke the door down. Pte Heinrich and L/Cpl Smith came into the room. Pte Heinrich started an argument with Pte Conley. I got the argument stopped and Pte Heinrich started to argue with Cpl Carson. Pte Heinrich struck Cpl Carson. I stepped in between them and Pte Heinrich pulled out a knife. I turned around and backed into the other room. I picked up a rifle in the next room and told them to get the hell out of there. L/Cpl Smith picked up a chair knocked the light out with the chair and walked away down the alley. I picked up my flashlight and Cpl Boucer and I went to try and look for Cpl Carson. We went into the post office then we came back. I went up into the lodges -- it is an old theatre -- and I heard them come into the main part of the post office. They realized they should not be there and said "Let's get out of here" so they turned about and went out. I came down and Cpl Bouchier and I went to the station to look for Cpl Carson.

Q-38 When they came back the third time how did they get in?
A-38 They had broken the door the previous time they were in and it had not been closed from that time.

Q-39 How many times did they enter the PO?
A-39 Three times. The first time they just came in. The second time they charged the door and came in. The third time the door was open and they just walked in.

Q-40 Did you see any conversation between Cpl Carson and L/Cpl Smith?
A-40 No that I saw sir. I did not see any conversation between them. When they were out the door the first time they may have had a conversation but I can't say what was going on.

XX'd by the Defence

Q-41 On this night in question besides yourself and Cpl Carson and Cpl Boucher were there any other people in the post office?

A-41 Yes, there were a total of nine of us. I am sure of that.

Q-42 Why were they there?

A-42 We had a party on there. Just a get together. We all had a couple of bottles of beer. We were not drinking vino or anything else. We had been saving up our beer issues.

Q-43 When Heinrich and Smith were outside after the first entrance did anybody else go out with them?

A-43 Cpl Carson went out after them. I don't think there was anybody else went out with him.

Q-44 You said an argument took place outside and Cpl Carson came back in and bolted the door? Are you sure that all three of them did not come back in together.

A-44 No, Cpl Carson came in alone.

Q-45 Did it not appear to you that Cpl Carson had been pushed and then all three of them came in together?

A-45 No.

Q-46 When they came back into the room did you see anything other than an argument between Heinrich and Conely?

A-46 No.

Q-47 Did you see Heinrich with a knife?

A-47 Yes.

Q-47 You picked up a rifle?

A-47 Yes. At that time Cpl Smith picked up a chair and broke the light. Previous to this I had turned around and walked into the other room. I was scared of the knife. I picked up a gun which happend to be there in the room.

Q-48 Is it not possible that Cpl Smith would be frightened by this gun?

A-48 Yes, that is why I picked up the rifle.

Q-49 So that seeing that it was dangerous Smith threw a chair and broke that light?

A-49 That is possibly right.

No re-x'm

Questioned by the JA

Q-50 The first time the two men came that night were you in the PO part of the building or in the billets?

A-50 In the billets.

Q-51 They came into the room where you were?

A-51 Yes, they came in there and stayed for I would say five or ten minutes. They came into the outer room of the billets.

Q-52 Why did they go?

A-52 I can't say.

Q-53 What condition were they in?

A-53 As far as I could see they were in good condition. I did not hear them talk. I did not pay much attention to them.

Q-54 How long was it they came back after they went out?
A-54 About 5 minutes I would say.

Q-55 What happened the second time they came back?
A-55 That was the time that Pte Heinrichs started the argument with Pte Connley. That was the time that Heinrich also struck Cpl Carson. The lamp also got broke at that time.

Q-56 How many times was Cpl Carson hit?
A-56 Only onee by Pte Heinrichs.

Q-57 Where was the lamp?
A-57 Hanging up by the archway over the counter. I was near the lamp. It was right over my head. They had been in the room about two or three minutes. I picked up the rifle and it was just a matter of second before the lamp was broken.

Q-58 Were you hit by the chair?
A-58 No the chair hit the lamp.

Q-59 Did you hear the sound of broken glass?
A-59 It broke the lamp right in two. I did not pay much attention to it.

Q-60 Did you see Cpl Carson after that fight?
A-60 No, not that night.

Q-61 Did you noticed anything peculiar about the accused that night?
A-61 No I did not notice anything different in him than on any other night. I knew L/Cpl Smith before this occasion.

FourthWitness for the Prosecution: A-59907 Pte G R Edwards, 1 Cdn AGRA Postal Detachment, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecution:

Q-62 Will you identify yourself to the Court?
A-62 I am A-59907 Pte G R Edwards, 1 Cdn AGRA Postal Det.

Q-63 Will you tell the court what you know of the events of the evening of 7 Dec 44?
A-63 On the night of 7 Dec 44 nine of us were enjoying an evening in the post office in our billets. We had approx two or three bottles of beer per man. Cpl Carson had gone out to have a leak and when he came back in he forgot to look the back door to the billets. In the meantime L/Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs walked in. After they came in Pte Girard walked in. Cpl Carson had a talk with Pte Girard and Girard got Pte Heinrichs and L/Cpl Smith outside. After they had gone outside Cpl Carson want outside and called Girard over and wanted to know what the score was. I am not sure what was said. The next thing I know was that Cpl Carson had received a blow by one of the two. I saw him as he was coming back in pushed in the door by someone. I do not know who it was After that Conley picked up a bottle and hit Pte Henrichs over the head when he came into the room. I am positive of that. After L/Cpl Smith and Heinrichs got into the room things happened fast.

Q-64 Tell me what happened from the time they and Cpl Carson were outside?
A-64 They were outside. The door was open. Somebody hit Ed Carson pushing him into the room. Just as L/Cpl Smith and Heirich came in Conley hit Heinrich on the head with an empty beer bottle. Heinrich said he was going to get somebody for this for Conley hitting him on the head with the bottle. L/Cpl Smith came into the room with Heinrich. After that I do not know what happened insofar as Smith is concerned.

Q-65 What happened in the room?
A-65 After they were both in the room, regarding L/Cpl Smith, I do not know what he was doing. There was a general mix-up. I was in the back room where I could not see the tilley lamp was broken. I saw a chair come through from the other room and strike it. After that I went outside with Cpl Carson and I can't remember if there was anyone else with us or not. We went up to Cpl Hostedars room.

Q-66 Were you in a fight with L/Cpl Smith or Heinrich at that time?
A-66 Somebody hit me. I was hit twice. I was down on the bed and somebody kicked me in the testicals and I passed out then. I do not know who it was. I was hit twice -- on the cheek and on the nose.

Q-67 What happened in Cpl Hostedar's room?
A-67 After Cpl Mader walked in he was followed by L/Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs. There was a general mix-up. Cpl H was lying on the bed. Heinrich and Carson went at it again.

Q-68 Did you notice anything peculiar about L/Cpl Smith?
A-68 I noticed that both L/Cpl Smith and Heinrich hit Cpl Carson in that room.

Q-69 To go back to the Post Office. You state that you had all two or three bottles to drink? Bottles of beer?
A-69 That is right.

Q-70 L/Cpl Smith and Heinrichs came in while this party was going on?
A-70 Yes. The door was shut but it wasn't locked.

Q-71 They had a drink when they come in the first time?
A-71 Yes they did. Sufferin gave them a drink from a bottle which was sitting on the counter. Just one drink. A little while later Smith and Heinrich left. Cpl Carson followed them shortly

Q-72 They stayed out for a few minutes. How did they come back in?
A-72 Cpl Carson was hit through the door followed by Heinrich and L/Cpl Smith followed Heinrich. I am positive of that.

Q-73 Is it not possible that Cpl Carson walked in under his own steam and bolted the door?
A-73 Not that I can recall, sir.

Q-74 When you went up to Cpl Mader's room there was another general scuffle, in which you were hit and kicked?
A-74 Yes. I do not know who hit me. I do not know who kicked me.

Q-75 In the summary of evidence you gave evidence that Pte Heinrichs hit you? Is that right? Did Pte Heinrich strike you?
A-75 To be frank with you I do not know. I do know that a soldier hit me.

Q-76 When this was taken you were sure it was Pte Heinrichs?
A-76 I have thought it over since. I thought it over after and I realized that I had said that Pte Heinrichs had struck me. I do not know who kicked me in the testicles.

Q-77 You state that you saw L/Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs both strike Cpl Carson? Where was that?
A-77 In Cpl Mader's room. It was before I was struck.

Q-78 You do not know who struck you?
A-78 There was a general mix-up. It might have been anybody who struck me. There were a lot of fellows in the room.

Questioned by the JA

Q-79 Where is Cpl Mader's room?
A-79 It isn't in the same building as the PO. It is about 200 yards away.

A-80 If it was I was in the other room at the time and did not see it. I can't say.

Q-81 How often did the accused and Heinrichs go into that back room, that night?
A-81 Only twice that I know of. The first time when the latch was left open and the second time. The second time was when the lamp was broken.

Q-82 Is it after that that you were in Cpl Mader's room?
A-82 Yes, Cpl Carson and I were in there. Cpl Mader was on guard and he came into the room followed by Heinrichs and Smith. L/cpl Smith and Heinrichs walked in and Heinrichs said he was going to get Conley. Conley was also with us.

Q-83 Who was in the room?
A-83 There was in the room, myself, Cpl Carson, Conley, the accused and Heinrich and Cpl Hostedar.

Q-84 When did Cpl Mader come into the room?
A-84 Just after Carson, Conley and Myself were talking to Cpl Hostedar. Mader came in followed by Smith and Heinrichs.

Q-85 What happened then?
A-85 Pte Heinrichs went after Conley for hitting him over the head and from there I can't tell you exactly what happened, but I do know that I was hit twice and kicked in the testacles Cpl Carson was hit by L/Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs. I can't say who hit him first. It was before I was hit. It must have been because I was knocked out. L/Cpl Smith hit Carson with his fist. He hit him on the left eye. As far as I know he hit him once. Heinrich hit him also. I do not know where Heinrich hit him. He was just about to hit Carson when I turned around so I do not know where he did hit him.

In the opinion of the Court and the JA it is not considered necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

A-126 Yes, there was myself, Cpl Hostedar, Cpl Carson, Pte Edwards, Pte Conley. That is about all.

Q-128 What condition was the accused, Smith?
A-128 I wouldn't actually say he was his normal self. He seemed to be fighting mad. I would not say it was normal for him to be fighting mad. He had had a brawl previous to that time and that must have roused him up. That is all I know.

A-129 Normal I would say. He had been drinking. I know he had been drinking because he told me so when I was taking him home.

A-130 After dinner we left camp and I went down to the village of CERVIA with Pte Heindrichs. We went to an Italian house and there we purchased from them two bottles of vino bianco. We drank that and we went out and met another party the we had met the previous night before and we went to their house with them and we had two more bottles or red wine. We went to another house where we purchase a bottle of marsala. It was too sweet so we got a bottle of vino rosso to mix with it. We mixed the bottle of vino rosso with it. It was a better drink. One of the other chaps had another bottle of cognac and we mixed them together. When we drank that we started on down to where some of our other chums were having a spaggetti su supper. Some way we went to the door of the post office and knocked and they let us in. When we got in their we heard somebody say "What the hell do they want here" We went out and we stopped to have a leak. Somebody came out and said "Which one is Smith". I said I was. He said something to me. I don't remember what it was. I guess I did not like it and I hit him. I remember him going through the door. Pte Heinrich went through the door and Pte Conley hit him with a bottle. A free for all started. I remember Pte Nicols pulling a rifle and saying "Get out of here or put up your hands". I threw the chair and it hit the lantern. The light went out and then we went out. We went down to the MA and when we got there Pte Heinrichs was looking for Conley at the time. We were both pretty mad. We got down and found Conley and there was a little croud there Cpl Mader was there and took us home in the truck.

Q-131 Do you remember when you in the first time? Did abybody give either you or Heindrichs a drink?

A-131 Yes, one party did. I did not pay much attention. I thought it was Pte Conley who gave him a drink. I did not have a drink myself. I do remember Heinrichs having a drink.

Q-132 When you through the chair were you trying to wilfully break the lamp?

A-132 No, when I threw the chair I was thinking only of hitting Nicols as he had a gun. I was thinking only of Nicols.

Q-133 When Cpl Carson came out the first time did you know it was Cpl Carson and that he was an NCO?

A-133 No, This person said something I did not like and the fight started.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Summing up by the Defence Officer

In summing up this case I would just like to bring a few small points to the attention of the court with regard to the various and very varied statements that have been made by the witnesses today.

For instance, the matter of whether or not Cpl Smith and Pte Heinrichs broke down the door or whether they did not. Whether or not a[illegible]on witness stated Cpl Carson came back in and bolted the door and then it was broken down or whether as two or three other witnesses stated that all came in at approximately the same time while the scuffule was going on with Cpl Carson leading and followed by Heinrich and than L/Cpl Smith.

I would also like to bring to your attention the fact that both at the postal quarters and and Cpl Mater's room particularly at the postal quarters that they there had been considerable drinking and that they have admitted to drinking two or three bottles of beer. I leave it to your descretion as to whether or not these young men could drink that amount of beer and be absolutely sober.

In the matter of the evidence of Pte Edwards his evidence does not hang together with his statement in the summary of evidence. In the summary he states Pte Heinrichs struck him and in his sworn statement before this court he states that he doesn't know who did it. All his evidence seems to be very very vague.

The evidence of Cpl Carson is extremely vague throughout. He says that Smith and Heinrichs when they first came in knocked at the door. Other people stated that they did not knock they walked in. Cpl Carson stated at one place that he was vague because he had been hit and did not remember but his memory is a[illegible] vague as to what happened before. I think it was quite possible that Carson was not able to drink the amount of beer that he had consumed up to that time.

As for the accused, Cpl Smith, himself, I should like the court to bear in mind like everybody else in this case he had been drinking very heavily as set out in his own evidence. I know that drunking is no excuse but I ask you to take it into consideration.

The second charge, that of breaking a pressure lamp while it was broken, it certainly was done under duress. When Heinrichs pulled a knife, Nichols pulled a gun and threatened the accused and it looked as if there might be some very very serious consequences. Cpl Smith threw the chair at private Nichols and as a result the light went out. Everybody scattered and nobody was seriously hurt. Had he not done this it is quite possible that somebody might have been seriously hurt.

I ask you to remember those points when you consider whether or not L/Cpl Smith is Guilty or Not guilty of one or all of these charges.

Summing up by the Prosecution

The defence has summed up the case for L/Cpl Smith. The prosecution says this. L/Cpl Smith is an NCO and he rests his defence on the first and second charges on the fact the he was drunk. His conduct throughout as adduced from the evidence of the witnesses brought by the prosecution did not indicate any signs of drunkeness and not abnormal signs except the smell of alcohol on his breath.

He admits to striking as he says someone, some unknown person which turns out to Cpl Carson. I leave it to you to decide whether or not Cpl Smith did or did not know at the time that it was Cpl Carson.

With reference to the second charge of breaking the lamp it has not bearing whether the chair was intended to hit the lamp or whether it was meant to hit Pte Nicols. Granted L/Cpl Smith was fighting mad but it is no excuse for wilfully damaging or property.

The third charge is probably a little weak but there is evidence that the door was broken. Witnesses have stated that while they did not actually see the accused break the door he and Heinrichs had followed in when the door had been broken down.

A2

Summing up by the JA

It is my duty as JA to advise the court on points of law. The function of the court on the other hand is to act as a fact finding body. You are complete masters of the facts arising out of the evidence you have heard before this court and if I have at any time during the course of the trial or if I should at any time during the course of this summing up express any opinion on the facts of the case I must ask you to disregard that opinion. You should however, accept my advice on points of law and should not disregard such advice except for very weighty reasons.

There are three charges in this case. The first is under AA Sec 8(2). To justify a finding of guilty on such a charge it is up to the prosecution to bring evidence fi[illegible] and that he was his superior office. I would like to bring your attention to fn 3 to AA Sec 8(2). Reads ----------. In this case its is charged that the accused struck in the face Cpl Carson of 1 Cdn AGRA Postal Detachment with his fist whilst in the quarters in the FPO. It will be up to you to decide whether or not the accused knew Cpl Carson and knowing when he hit him that he was his superior officer.

The second charge is a charge under AA Sec 24(a) of wilfuly injuring public property. It is up to the prosecution to establish that the accused and not some other person broke the lamp in question and again it is up to the prosecution to prove that if the accused did break the lamp that it was not purely accidental. The defence has mentiondd it at the person holding the rifle and not at the lamp. It will be up to you to decide whether or not he was justified in throwing the chair when he did throw it. It is also up to you to decide whether throwing a chair at a person and hitting a lamp constitutes wilful damage. Bearing in mind that a person is presumed to intend the natural consequences of his acts, it will be up to you to decide whether this is a case where in doing something wilfully if something was done say against a person and instead injuring something else, that it is wilful.

The third charge is that he improperly forced an intry . It is a charge under section 40 of the army act for improperly forcing an entry into a FPO by smashing down the door. You have heard the evidence in relation to this charge and it is entirely up to you to decide whether that evidence supports that charge or not.

It is a well know principal of British justice that a person is presumed to be innocent until he has been proven guilty and the onus is on the prosecution at all times to establish beyond a reasonable doubt not only that an offence has been committed but that the accused is connected with the commission of that offence. By reasonable doubt I do not mean a doubt based on fancy or imagination or speculation or a doubt arising out of undue sympathy for the accused, but a common sense doubt arising out of the evidence you have heard in this court today. It you are not satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the accused is guilty of the offences charged then the accused is entitled to the benefit of that doubt and must be acquited of the charges.

Evidence as to Character

First Witness as to Character: Lt F D McCaffrey, 5 Cdn Med Regt Pl RCASC, being duly sworn, is examined by the defence:

Q Will you tell the court what you know of the character of the accused L/Cpl Smith while he served with 5 Cdn Med Regt Pl RCASC?

A L/Cpl Smith came to this platoon as a rft and was with this pl for about a month. Previous to that he had been with 1 Cdn Med Regt Pl. While with us he was employed chiefly around the kitchen and at all times proved to be a most satisfactory soldier. So much so that when his transfer came through to return to his parent unit we were extremely sorry to see him go and we would be very glad to have Cpl Smith and keep him on our stright if that had been possibl During the time that he was a member of this platoon we had no trouble with him whatsoever.

Second Witness as to Character: Lt B D Hennesey, 1 Cdn Med Regt Pl RCASC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the defence:

Q As A/OC of 1 Cdn Med Regt Pl of which Cpl Smith is a member will you tell the court what you know of the character of Cpl Smith?

A I have been with 1 Cdn Med Regt Pl for 2½ months and in that time have found Cpl Smith to be an efficient and capable NCO. During the first two weeks in November L/Cpl Smith was my driver and in that time I found him to be a trustworthy and dependable soldier.

THE WITNESS WITHDREW.

Statement in Mitigation by Defending Offr.

In addressing this court in mitigation I would like to bring to the attention of the court that this is the first crime that L/Cpl smith has been accused of in this army, and together with the character evidence of the two witnesses I would like the court to keep this in mind in considering the sentence. Bearing in mind that a man who had a clear record since coming into the army and then on one particular night gets into trouble I think should not call for too severe a punishment.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

K50311 L/Cpl George Hubert Smith, 1 Cdn Med Regt Pl RCASC., a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on active service.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness

C21439 Cpl Bouchier, L.P., 1 Cdn AGRA Postal Detachment, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am C21439 Cpl Bouchier, L.P., 1 Cdn AGRA Postal Detachment. At approximately 2230 hrs on the 7th Dec 1944 the accused and Pte Heinricks forced their way into our quarters which are part of the M.A. Post Office, breaking down the door to do so. There was an argument and a fight started. I saw a knife in Pte Heinricks hand. During the fight a chair was thrown, knocking down the gas pressure lamp. This fell on my bed setting fire to my tunic. Everyone left then except Pte Nichols and I. Approximately 15 or 20 minutes later, the accused and Pte Heinricks returned accompanied by six or eight men. When they reached the door the other men, realizing that it was a Post Office, left, but the accused and Pte Heinricks again forced the door and passed through our quarters into the large room we use for the Post Office. I was in there but they did not see me. I heard them say, "this is the main Post Office, lets get out of here" I saw them again at the corner of the Post Office after the guard had been called out. I ordered them to halt and fired one shot in the air. There were several rounds fired from a tommy gun and everyone scattered. I saw the accused and Pte Heinricks at the M.A. later on when they were being taken to their unit. That is all I know of the case, Sir.

QUESTION 1 - Would you say that the accused was drunk?

ANSWER 1 - He had been drinking but he definitely was not drunk.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

Second Witness

M51931 Pte Stephen, N., 1 Cdn Med Regt Pl RCASC., having been duly sworn, states:-

Sir, I am M51931 Pte Stephen, N. I was spending the evening of the 7 Dec at the Post Office quarters. At Approximately 2100 hrs the accused and Pte Heinricks came in. I was in the next room and I don't know if the door was damaged or not. They went outside and Cpl Carson went out to talk to them. All of a sudden he seemed to be pushed back through the door and I went back into the next room. As I went out I looked back and saw the accused break the lamp with a chair. Cpl Carson and I went up to the M.A. and I got Cpl Mader who was Guard Cpl and told him Cpl Carson wanted to see him. I took over from Cpl Mader and he went upstairs. Shortly after, the accused and Pte Heinricks came along and asked me where all the boys were. I told them they were in Cpl Mader's room and they went up. That is all I know of the case, Sir.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

Third Witness

B84586 Pte Nichols, H., 1 Cdn Med Regt Pl RCASC., having been duly sworn, states:-

Sir, I am B84586 Pte Nichols, H. On the evening of 7 Dec., I went to the Post Office to visit Cpl Carson and Cpl Bouchier. I was sitting in the back room talking to Cpl Bouchier and then walked into the second room. While there, I heard someone say, "what the hell do they want? I then saw the accused and Pte Heinricks in the next room. Someone spoke to them and they went outside. Cpl Carson then went out and was talking to them. Cpl Carson came back inside and closed and bolted the door. I then heard someone outside say, "let's break it down" and the accused and Pte Heinricks came through the door together, knocking it from its hinges. There was an argument started and Pte Heinricks struck Cpl Carson in the face. I tried to stop them and Pte Heinricks drew out a knife. I went back to the next room and picked up a rifle, thinking to scare them. The accused picked up a chair and threw it at the lamp, knocking it down. When it was dark, everyone left, except Cpl Bouchier and I. Cpl Bouchier and I got a flashlight and went to look for Cpl Carson. We were unable to find him and went back to the Post Office. I heard the accused and Pte Heinricks coming back so we went into the main Post Office. They came through our quarters into the big room and I heard them say, "this is the main Post Office, let's get out of here" That is all I know of the case, Sir.

As it was dark, I went outside and with Cpl Carson went up to the M.A. We went into Cpl Mader's room and shortly after Cpl Mader came in followed by the accused and Pte Heinricks. There was a bit of scuffling and Pte Heinricks struck me on the mouth, knocking me onto a bed. I saw both the Accused and Pte Heinricks strike Cpl Carson. Then someone kicked me in the testicles and I passed out. That is all I know of the case, Sir.

Sir, I am L72?0 Cpl Carson, E.T. At approximately 2100 hrs 7 Dec the accused and Pte Heinricks came to the front entrance of our billet. They knocked and we let them in.

Shortly afterwards they went outside and stood there talking. I went outside to see what the trouble was. I don't know what words were actually said, but the accused and Pte Heinricks came back inside, the accused hitting me in the face. I don't know what happened in the billets after that. We went up to the M.A. to Cpl Mader's room, and sat down to explain what had happened. Cpl Mader, the accused and Pte Heinricks came in the room. I tried to explain to the accused that I had nothing against either of them, but he again struck me. The last I remember was being on the bed. That is all I know of the case, Sir.

QUESTION 1 - Were the accused and Pte Heinricks drunk?

ANSWER 1 - I would'nt say they were.

I went upstairs and tried to talk to the accused and Pte Heinricks and have them go back to their unit. Pte Heinricks struck me, knocking me to my knees. I got up and he hit me again. We finally got them quietened down. Sgt Glover told me to put them under arrest. I finally got them out and into a truck and took them back to their lines. That is all I know of the case, Sir.

QUESTION 1 - Would you say they were drunk?

MEDICAL OFFICER'S CERTIFICATE

I certify that this day I have examined No. D-71190 Pte. SMITH, G.F., and find him fit to stand trial by Court-Martial.

Lt. Col. [illegible]
Medical Officer,
No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit

Witley, Surrey.
21st April 1941.

D-71190, Pte. Smith, G.F., No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, tried by Field General Court-Martial at Witley, Surrey, on the 21st day of April, 1941.

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet and the summary of evidence are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor - Lieut. F.S. Weatherston
Defending Officer - Lieut. M.H.B. Cockin

At 1000 hours the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The president and members are duly sworn

Q2 - Do you object to M-15577 Sgt. Stanley Fidler, The Edmonton Regiment, C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty, sir.

R.P. 35(B) is complied with by the Court.

Q4 - Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?
A4 - No, sir.
Q5 - Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?
A5 - (Defending Officer) The accused would like to give evidence himself but in order to expedite matters I don't think it will be necessary for him to give his evidence on oath.

First witness for the defence, D-71190, Pte. Smith, G.F., not being sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q6 - Will you tell the Court when you joined the C.A.S.F.
A6 - On the 13th November, but before that I was with the Royal Victoria Rifles and then transferred to the Signal Corps when they were demobilized and from there I went to the Hastings & Prince Edward Regiment.
Q7 - Did you go to France with the regiment?
A7 - Yes, sir, until they returned to England.
Q8 - While you were s.w.l. can you state anything that you did during that time?
A8 - One incident was when the Cafe de Paris was hit. I was around at the time and helped in a little way of getting people back and all that sort of thing and we had to take our first aid things out of our pockets. I was in Lyons Corner House when it happened.
Q9 - You gave help, is that right?
A9 - Yes, sir.
Q10 - How long have you been on the strength of the holding unit?
A10 - Since last August.
Q11 - Did you behave yourself before that?
A11 - I was nine months in the service at home without a crime and when I got overseas I just went haywire.

Q12 - What are your intentions in the future?
A12 - I think I don't care how long a sentence I get so long as I can get out sometime and I am willing to soldier and I didn't come overseas to fool but to do my bit for my King and Country.

Q13 - How old are you?
A13 - Nineteen. I lived in an orphanage, more like a home, for fifteen years. I have two other brothers in the Black Watch and another serving in the 5th ack ack. I would like to get a transfer to be with my brothers in the Black Watch. I have gone down to see them about getting a transfer but they couldn't do anything about it. I think if I can get a transfer it will make a better soldier out of me.

Lieut. F.S. Weatherston, No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q14 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A14 - Yes, sir, A.F.B. 296 and a certified extract of entries on the accused's M.F.M. 2 as the M.F.M. 6 is not available.
Q15 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A15 - Yes, sir.
Q16 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A16 - Yes, sir.
Q17 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summery of those entries?
A17 - Yes, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q18 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A18 - (Defending Officer) I would ask the Court to consider the extreme youth of the accused in this case and remember his upbringing in an orphanage or home. Until coming to the holding unit he had a good character. I feel convinced he will turn over a new leaf and I would like you to take into consideration the statement he has made on this occasion.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Mr. President and Gentlemen,—

The accused have pled guilty to an act to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. They have freely admitted to the firing of ammunition without authority.

However, on the night of 1st/2nd May 4th, their last night at the "C" Group Summary School, which I can assure you from personal experience is a dreary place, they had spent 2 or 3 hours in the Red Lion and had consumed 7 or 8 pints of beer. This doubtless produced in them a certain levity of spirit, which they, being human, wished to communicate to those around them. You have seen men in similar circumstances in public places doing strange things.

The accused found themselves in possession of rifles and tracer ammunition — not unusual, since nearly every man at this school carries several rounds in his pockets, left there and forgotten, since so much of it is handled each day.

Here was an excellent device for making a noise and sending bright lights flying through the night sky, and they proceeded ~~to~~ with what to them was only a little harmless "celebrating". For them there was no further significance in the firing of the weapon. I should like to remind the court that all the ammunition was fired into the sky.

I should further like to inform the court that Pte Smith is involved in some very troubling domestic difficulties. When a man is worried about something which is almost completely beyond his control, and when he suddenly has an opportunity to forget it temporarily and give vent to good spirits, he is usually more demonstrative than another. This is borne out by the fact that Tpr. Smith did all the firing, while Tpr. Miller's enjoyment of the occasion was of a more passive nature.

I do not intend this to be an excuse for their conduct, but I hope the court will take it into account when determining the extent of their punishment, and regard the offence in its true form as an exuberant frolic rather than as an act of deliberate malice. They have already suffered considerably for their few moments of thoughtless pleasure, during 2 days close arrest awaiting trial.

Tpr. Smith has volunteered for service with the Canadian Far East Force, and from what I have learned of his ability as a tankman, is admirably suited to do so.

Tpr. Miller has expressed a preference for service with the Army of occupation and his conduct and training show that he will be able to discharge his duties in this role very effectively.

Both of these men have but recently left Canada with the intention of serving our country to the best of their ability wherever the needs of the country and the dictates of conscience should direct them. They cannot do this in detention.

I trust that the court will acknowledge that the interests of justice and the furthering of our cause will best be served if these men are removed from active participation in the war for the least possible time, and will act accordingly.

It would indeed be a shame to treat the accused criminals on account of one careless moment of exuberance.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of L.102588 Tpr. Smith, G.O. and B.161096 Tpr. Miller, J.C., on the strength of 3 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit, soldiers of the Canadian Army Overseas.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

B.146839 Tpr. Doran, E.J., on strength of 3 CACRU, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"On the night of 4 May 45 I went to the Red Lion Public House at Thursley with the accused, whom I now recognize. We sat and drank beer until 1030 hrs and then set for camp. I stopped to relieve myself in some bushes by the side of the road and when I came out the accused had gone. I looked around for them, did not see them and went on towards camp. I had started to cross the common when my attention was attracted to two figures walking towards me, one of whom was carrying a rifle, the other was in more of a shadow and I could not see if he was carrying anything. I could not recognize them. When I saw them I stepped into the shadow because I had heard earlier in the evening that two of the chaps were going out with live ammunition which they intended to shoot off. I was not told who they were and when I saw these two I decided they might be the people concerned and did'nt want them to start shooting at me. I watched from the shadow to see if the chaps would change their course but they kept coming so I went back right into the bushes and lay on the ground where I could not see them and where they could not see me. There was the sound of conversation between them and what I took to be a third person or persons and then the sound of firing. I am not sure whether the firing began before the talking or afterwards. They were firing tracer and fired altogether some twenty or thirty rounds. When they stopped firing the party dispersed and presently I got up and went back to the hut. There were several people in the hut when I got back and we began a general conversation about the shooting. After we had talked for awhile, I noticed that Smith and Miller had come into the hut, though I did not see them come in. Tpr Smith joined in the conversation and from his remarks, the exact words of which I can't remember, I gained the impression that he had done the shooting. After I had got into bed Smith left the hut and I noticed his rifle and suggested to Tpr. Andow, who slept below me, that he should hide the rifle because I was afraid that he might decide later in the night to start shooting in the hut. Andow hid the rifle and when Smith came back he did'nt notice it was gone as far as I remember. Shortly after this Sgt Black came in and asked to see Smith's rifle, which he could'nt find. After Sgt Black had gone out Tpr. Andow gave Smith back his rifle, ~~a few minutes later~~, what Smith did with it I don't know. Sgt Black came back a few minutes later and put the accused under arrest. When Smith was getting his blankets the rifle was found under his palliase".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS For the Prosecution

K.2057 Tpr. Andow, C.J., on strength of 3 CACHU, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"On approximately 4 May this year I was at "E" Gp Crew Comds Crse. That evening I went over to the Salvation Army Canteen. I left at approximately 2200 hrs and started to walk back to camp with a number of people whose names I do not know. As I was walking along my attention was attracted to two men, both of whom had rifles. These men were firing tracer ammunition. They were firing into the air and I went up to them with the idea of getting them to stop or expend their ammunition. When I came up close to them I saw they were Tprs. Smith and Miller, whom I now recognize. They both had rifles but I don't remember whether Miller was firing or not. They fired a few more rounds and then stopped. They then walked away and I went back to camp. They had mentioned jokingly that they were going to shoot the mail clerk, so I thought I had better warn him just in case if he walked that way, they may have tried to scare him. I then went over to the kitchen for a cup of tea and was talking with the cook and Sgt Black. I then went to the hut and Tprs Smith and Miller were there. We were discussing the shooting and presently Smith went out and Tpr. Doran who was there said to me, "You had better hide their rifles before they start shooting here", so I got Smith's rifle and handed it to Doran who stuck it behind our bed. Then Sgt Black came in and Asked to see the rifles of Smith and Miller. Smith could'nt find his but the Sgt Looked at Miller's rifle and went out. We thengave Smith back his rifle and then we told them they were a couple of fools. A little while later Sgt Black and another Sgt came and told them to get their bed clothes and come with them".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS For the Prosecution

B.135296 Cpl Crump, G.R., on strength of 3 CACHU, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"One night in the early part of May I went to the Salvation Army Canteen near the HQ of the Crew Comds Crse at Thursley. I came in between 2100 hrs and 2200 hrs. I came in with a bunch of other fellows and sat chewing the fat with them and a Sgt was there. While we were talking Tpr. Smith and Tpr. Miller came in carrying their rifles. They started to talk about scaring the hell out of Doran by firing off their rifles Doran was there and they were kidding him. They were still joking back and forth and Miller was getting into bed when Sgt Black came in and I think there was an officer with him. He asked to see Miller's rifle and then he asked Tpr. Smith for his rifle and Smith could'nt find it. Sgt Black left then and Smith finally got his rifle from near Pillier and Doran's bed. Sgt Black came back in about 10 minutes and told Miller and Smith to get dressed; take their blankets and rifles and come with him. Smith rolled up his blankets and palliase and his rifle was under the palliase.

FOURTH WITNESS
For the Prosecution

M-103967 Sgt Black, N.A., on strength of 3 CACRU, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"At approximately 2220 hrs, 4 May 45, I was returning to the camp from the canteen. As I entered the camp I heard a number of shots and looking up saw tracer going over the camp. Just then I met Sgt Godfrey who told me the clerk in the Orderly Room had telephoned that some one was firing on the upper range. I got the Cpl of the Guard and we went up on the range, searched very carefully and found no one. We returned to camp and began to check all the huts to see if anyone had just come in with a rifle. We heard in one of the huts that Tprs Smith and Miller, whom I now recognize, as the accused, had been up on the range at the approximate time the rounds had been fired. We went to their hut and found them in, I asked the accused to see their rifles and Tpr. Miller's rifle on examination was clean and had not recently been fired. Tpr. Smith could not find his rifle. I asked Smith for the number of his rifle and he gave it to me. We left the hut, went through the remainder of the huts and again heard that Smith and Miller had been seen on the range. Deciding to place them under close arrest on suspicion, we went back to the hut and placed them under close arrest. I told them to bring their blankets and palliases with them and when Tpr. Smith rolled up his palliase, his rifle was underneath it. On examination, the rifle had recently been fired."

"B" Group Gunnery School asked me to go up on top of the hill in the vicinity of the range on Thursley Common, to see if I could find any evidence of firing having taken place the night before. Accompanied by B-146839 Tpr. Doran, E.J., I went up on to the hill, and asked him if he could show me approximately where the firing took place from. After being shown, I looked around and found twenty four (24) empty cartridges of .303 calibre, tracer. I took these empty cases to Major Blanchard, and they have been submitted as evidence."

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Mr.President and Gentlemen:-

The accused have plead guilty to an act to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. They have freely admitted to the firing of ammunition without authority.

However, on the night of May 4th, their last night at the "E" Group Gunnery School, which I can assure you from personal experience is a dreary place, they had spent 2 or 3 hours in the Red Lion and had consumed 7 or 8 pints of beer. This doubtless produced in them a certain levity of spirit, which they, being human, wished to communicate to those around them. You have seen men in similar circumstances in public placed doing strange things.

The accused found themselves in possession of rifles and tracer ammunition - not unusual, since nearly every man at this school carries several rounds in his pockets, left there and forgotten, since so much of it is handled each day.

Here was an excellent device for making a noise and sending bright lights flying through the night sky, and they proceeded with what to them was only a little harmless "celebrating". For them there was no further significance in the firing of the weapon. I should like to remind the court that all the ammunition was fired into the sky.

I should further like to inform the court that Tpr Smith is involved in some very troubling domestic difficulties. When a man is worried about something which is almost completely beyond his control; and when he suddenly has an opportunity to forget it temporarily and give vent to good spirits, he is usually more demonstrative than another. This is borne out by the fact that Tpr Smith did all the firing, while Tpr Miller's enjoyment of the occasion was of a more passive nature.

I do not intend this to be an excuse for their conduct, but I hope the court will take it into account when determining the extent of their punishment, and regard the offence in its true form as an exuberant frolic, rather than as an out of deliberate malice. They have already suffered considerably for their few moments of thoughtless pleasure, during 26 days close arrest awaiting trial.

Tpr Smith has volunteered for service with the Canadian Far East Forces, and from what I have learned of his ability as a tankman, is admirably suited to do so.

Tpr Miller has expressed a preference for service with the Army of Occupation and his conduct and training show that he will be able to discharge his duties in this role very effectively.

Both of these men have but recently left Canada, with the intention of serving our Country to the best of their ability wherever the needs of the country and the dictates of conscience should direct them. They cannot do this in detention.

6-3

/over D-4

I trust that the court will acknowledge that the interests of justice and the furtnering of our cause will best be served if these men are removed from active participation in the war for the least possible time, and will act accordingly.

It would indeed be a shame to treat the accused as criminals on account of one careless moment of exuberance.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of L.102588 Tpr. Smith, G.O. and B.161096 Tpr. Miller, J.C., on the strength of 3 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit, soldiers of the Canadian Army Overseas.

FIRST WITNESS
For the prosecution

B.146839 Tpr. Doran, E.J., on strength of 3 CACHU, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"On the night of 4 May 45 I went to the Red Lion Public House at Thursley with the accused, whom I now recognize. We sat and drank beer until 1030 hrs and then set for camp. I stopped to relieve myself in some bushes by the side of the road and when I came out the accused had gone. I looked around for them, did not see them and went on towards camp. I had started to cross the Common when my attention was attracted to two figures walking towards me, one of whom was carrying a rifle, the other was in more of a shadow and I could not see if he was carrying anything. I could not recognize them. When I saw them I stepped into the shadow because I had heard earlier in the evening that two of the chaps were going out with live ammunition which they intended to shoot off. I was not told who they were and when I saw these two I decided they might be the people concerned and did'nt want them to start shooting at me. I watched from the shadow to see if the chaps would change their course but they kept coming so I went back right into the bushes and lay on the ground where I could not see them and where they could not see me. There was the sound of conversation between them and what I took to be a third person or persons and then the sound of firing. I am not sure whether the firing began before the talking or afterwards. They were firing tracer and fired altogether some twenty or thirty rounds. When they stopped firing the party dispersed and presently I got up and went back to the hut. There were several people in the hut when I got back and we began a general conversation about the shooting. After we had talked for awhile, I noticed that Smith and Miller had come into the hut, though I did not see them come in. Tpr Smith joined in the conversation and from his remarks, the exact words of which I can't remember, I gained the impression that he had done the shooting. After I had got into bed Smith left the hut and I noticed his rifle and suggested to Tpr. Andow, who slept below me, that he should hide the rifle because I was afraid that he might decide later in the night to start shooting in the hut. Andow hid the rifle and when Smith came back he did'nt notice it was gone as far as I remember. Shortly after this Sgt Black came in and asked to see Smith's rifle, which he could'nt find. After Sgt Black had gone out Tpr. Andow gave Smith back his rifle, ~~a few minutes later~~ what Smith did with it I don't know. Sgt Black came back a few minutes later and put the accused under arrest. When Smith was getting his blankets the rifle was found under his palliase".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS For the Prosecution

K.2057 Tpr. Andow, O.J., on strength of 3 CACRU, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"On 4 May this year I was at "g" Gp Crew Comds Crse. That evening I went over to the Salvation Army Canteen. I left at approximately 2200 hrs and started to walk back to camp with a number of people whose names I do not know. As I was walking along my attention was attracted to two men, both of whom had rifles. These men were firing tracer ammunition. They were firing into the air and I went up to them with the idea of getting them to stop or expend their ammunition. When I came up close to them I saw they were Tprs. Smith and Miller, whom I now recognize. They both had rifles but I don't remember whether Miller was firing or not. They fired a few more rounds and then stopped. They then walked away and I went back to camp. They had mentioned jokingly that they were going to shoot the mail clerk, so I thought I had better warn him just in case if he walked that way, they may have tried to scare him. I then went over to the kitchen for a cup of tea and was talking with the cook and Sgt Black. I then went to the hut and Tprs Smith and Miller were there. We were discussing the shooting and presently Smith went out and Tpr. Doran who was there said to me, "You had better hide their rifles before they start shooting here", so I got Smith's rifle and handed it to Doran who stuck it behind our bed. Then Sgt Black came in and asked to see the rifles of Smith and Miller. Smith could'nt find his but the Sgt Looked at Miller's rifle and went out. We then gave Smith back his rifle and then we told them they were a couple of fools. A little while later Sgt Black and another Sgt came and told them to get their bed clothes and come with them".

K.2057 Tpr. Andow, O.J.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS For the Prosecution

B.135296 Cpl Crump, G.R., on strength of 3 CACRU, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"One night in the early part of May I went to the Salvation Army Canteen near the HQ of the Crew Comds Crse at Thursley. I came in between 2130 hrs and 2200 hrs. I came in with a bunch of other fellows and sat chewing the fat with them and a Sgt was there. While we were talking Tpr. Smith and Tpr. Miller came in carrying their rifles. They started to talk about scaring the hell out of Doran by firing off their rifles. Doran was there and they were kidding him. They were still joking back and forth and Miller was getting into bed when Sgt Black came in and I think there was an officer with him. He asked to see Miller's rifle and then he asked Tpr. Smith for his rifle and Smith could'nt find it. Sgt Black left then and Smith finally got his rifle from near Fillier and Doran's bed. Sgt Black came back in about 10 minutes and told Miller and Smith to get dressed; take their blankets and rifles and come with him. Smith rolled up his blankets and palliase and his rifle was under the palliase.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

FOURTH WITNESS For the Prosecution

M-103967 Sgt Black, N.A., on strength of 3 CACRU, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"At approximately 2220 hrs, 4 May 45, I was returning to the camp from the canteen. As I entered the camp I heard a number of shots and looking up saw tracer going over the camp. Just then I met Sgt Godfrey who told me the clerk in the Orderly Room had telephoned that some one was firing on the upper range. I got the Cpl of the Guard and we went up on the range, searched very carefully and found no one. We returned to camp and began to check all the huts to see if anyone had just come in with a rifle. We heard in one of the huts that Tprs Smith and Miller, whom I now recognize, as the accused, had been up on the range at the approximate time the rounds had been fired. We went to their hut and found them in, I asked the accused to see their rifles and Tpr. Miller's rifle on examination was clean and had not recently been fired. Tpr. Smith could not find his rifle. I asked Smith for the number of his rifle and he gave it to me. We left the hut, went through the remainder of the huts and again heard that Smith and Miller had been seen on the range. Deciding to place them under close arrest on suspicion, we went back to the hut and placed them under close arrest. I told them to bring their blankets and palliases with them and when Tpr. Smith rolled up his palliase, his rifle was underneath it. On examination, the rifle had recently been fired."

FIFTH WITNESS For the Prosecution

Capt. W. Baldwin, on strength of 2 CACRU, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"on Sat, 5 May 45, at approximately 0900 hrs, Major Blanchard, the O.C. #g= Group Gunnery School asked me to go up on top of the hill in the vicinity of the range on Thursley Common, to see if I could find any evidence of firing having taken place the night before. Accompanied by B-146839 Tpr. Doran, E.J., I went up on to the hill, and asked him if he could show me approximately where the firing took place from. After being shown, I looked around and found twenty four (24) empty cartridges of .303 calibre, tracer. I took these empty cases to Major Blanchard, and they have been submitted as evidence."

I did'nt pay much attention to the first few shots fired, but as the firing continued, I looked out through the window and saw tracer going overhead from the direction of the upper range. I phoned the Medical Inspection Room and the phone was answered by Sgt Godfrey. I informed him of the firing and he contacted Sgt Black, who investigated the matter. I then went up to the upper range but found no one in the area".

I ordered Pte Smith GR to return to his section and continue ~~parachute~~ training for the purpose of making a parachute descent, saying, "Pte Smith, return to your section and continue your training for the purpose of making a parachute descent." Pte Smith GR replied, "No sir." I repeated this order twice more to make sure it was understood and also explained to him that his refusal would mean that he would be placed on charge, but received the same reply as before. I then placed Pte Smith GR under close arrest and he was paraded to the guard room.
