I examined the motorcycle and came to the conclusion that it was not immobilized. I kept observation until 1215 A.M. 8 May 43 when Lieut. Drew arrived. In Company with him I went to 28A The Broadway, whereupon knocking, the door was opened by a young lady. As a result of further inquries concerning the owner of the vehicle, we were asked to enter the house where I saw another soldier and another female. In answer to further questions, knowledge of the owner was at first denied, but upon opening a door I saw another soldier who is now present here and from there onwards Lieut.Drew took command.

2nd Witness
Lieut.Drew of 47 Cdn.Gen.Tpt.Coy.,(Inf.Div.)R.C.A.S.C.

Lieut.A.J. Drew, having been duly sworn states:-

On the 7 May 43 I was on duty in Company Orderly Room as Orderly Officer. One of our Camp Guards reported to me by telephone from Haywards Heath Police Station at approximately 2300 hrs. that one of our Motorcycles was down there and that the Police had it in charge. The guard Pte. Lewis informed me that he knew who the D.R. was and where he could be found. I immediately drove down to the Police Station and went with a Police Sergeant and another Policeman to the back of Haywards Heath Building Society on Broadway where we found our motorcycle. It had been immobilized by two Policemen already on the scene. Lewis then took us to the house where Pte. Smith was said to be, namely 28A The Broadway. We asked for Smith and after several denials as to his presence, were told to come up stairs. I questioned Smith as to what duty he was supposed to be on and he showed me an envelope containing a despatch from Major Gibb on"Scheme Welsh" to C.,R.C.A.S.C. 3rd Div. In reply to my question as to when he received the despatch he said it was around 1630 hrs that day. When I inquired what he was doing in this house at 2400 hrs. he said C.,R.C.A.S.C. had moved and he had now to go to Crawley Hants. but he could not locate the place on the map.

He had a route sheet and a map marking his route all the way to Winchester, but said it was too late for him to drive as there would be no one out at that time of the night from whom he could ask directions. Pte. Smith had been in the Company lines earlier in the evening and had every opportunity to check the location of Crawley. This town was at the western end of his route and was on that portion of the map which he had folded under to make it fit his map case. I pointed out to Smith that he was still on duty, that he had lost 6 hrs. 30 mins. travelling time, and that his job was not done until his despatch had been delivered. He said he knew his job was not done but that the despatch was not very important. I ordered him to dress and get back on his motorcycle, at the same time telling him he was under open arrest. It was approximately 2400 hrs. when he finally left the house.

The witness is questioned by the accused.

Q. 1. How do you come to the conclusion that I lost six and a half hours of time?
A. 1. You were in our lines a approximately 1700 hrs. and you were in Haywards Heath until 0030 hrs, during which time you could have been delivering your despatch. If you had of left the lines at 1700 hrs, you could have travelled to 0030 hrs.

Q. 2. How do you know that I was in Camp at 1700 hrs.?
A. 2. You ate in camp and I believe Pte Lewis will bear that out.
Q. 3. How do you know I spent from 1700 hrs until 0030 hrs. in Haywards Heath?
A.3. I do not know where I spent the time but you didn't spend it in the proper place, since you had an undelivered despatch in your possession?
Q. 4. Did Pte. Lewis report to you at 1700 hrs. that I was in camp?
A. 4. No.

(A.J. Drew) Lieut.

G3556 Pte. Lewis, J.H. having been duly sworn states:-

At approximately 2030 hrs. on the 7 May 43 while on guard I saw a bike leave the lines. I didn't know who was riding it. After I came off guard at 2230 hrs. I went down town (Haywards Heath). I went to look for the bike and I saw Smith crossing Broadway Street. He said come on up to the house". I said "I am not going up" Then he kicked me in the nuts. I met a Civilian Policeman and he went with me and we found the bike behind the Haywards Heath Building Society Offices,. The Policeman then phoned the Company Headquarters and I talked to the Orderly Officer, Mr. Drew. I then waited for Mr Drew to arrive. I then accompanied Mr Drew and the two Policeman to the house where I believed Smith to be. I went in the house and saw Smith. Mr Drew told me to wait outside and when he came out we went back to camp.

The witness is questioned by the accused.

Q.1 How can you prove the time that you saw a Motorcycle leav ethe lines?
A.1 I said approximately 8.30 or 9.00 O'Clock P.M.

Plea for mitigation of Sentence Exhibit D

K-65828 - Pte Smith, W. 6/12

The accused was a member of the Parachute for 20 months in England when he was categorized part of the corps one month before D-Day, after making 19 jumps with them. The esprit de corps of that unit and being accustomed to its easy living and devil may care attitude towards life, necessary for the success of the airborne troops, gave him the costly habit of taking a few drinks. His CO's will bear that out when you notice the charges of drunkenness and short absence.

You are faced with another of these charges of 2 days A.W.L. Will his service be of more service in a detention camp or in the field. He is most anxious to get back to his unit, with whom he fought in Italy.

He has committed an offence and is ready to serve his punishment. Should he punished to such an extent as to eliminate all chances of his serving with his unit?

Thus I call for attention of the Court to time spent in confinement (31 days) which is more than enough for such a short absence (2 days). For the above reasons I ask the Court to be extremely lenient in its sentence.

Believing this to be one guard waking another, I paid little attention. I again heard two more shots and a noise like breaking glass. I then got out of bed to investigate. Arose from my room I found K 65 828 Pte Smith H. in his room in pajamas. The room was full of steam and water and his mirror was broken. On examination of the room I found three bullet holes. one in the back board of the mirror, one in the wall and one in the broken steam pipe. Since all the windows were closed I knew the shots were fired in his room. After questioning Pte Smith he admitted he was responsible for the rounds being fired. I found on the floor three shell casings and one in the rifle. I examined the rifle and found it to have been recently fired. I then placed Pte Smith under open arrest because we had no guard room and charged him with an offence under A.A. 40.

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED K 65828 Pte. Smith H. 4 C Scot R (CAOF).

I render a plea of Guilty on the three charges against me because I realize that I have done wrong. For these things that have happened, I know that I must be punished, and what I have to say now is not offered as an excuse for my actions but rather to place before you the full picture of the circumstances by which I am surrounded. My Army record in the past has not been good, but since transferring to this unit I have done my best to avoid trouble. Up until this time I have managed quite well, and now this has happened. I want to tell you of my private affairs and of things that have happened in the recent past which I think you will find have a bearing on this.

Before leaving for Italy in October 1944 I met a Miss Kathleen Cunningham in England. While I was there we went together steadily, and while I was in Italy and Northwest Europe we corresponded regularly. Finally in England again in December '45, while at Convalescent Depot, I asked her to marry me and she accepted. I obtained all the necessary papers just before being posted back to the Continent, and so decided to make application to the Army through my own unit for permission to marry. Unfortunately all my kit was lost in Calais, and on my arrival here I had to start collecting the necessary papers again. It was in February that I received a letter from Kathleen telling me she was pregnant. She was fearful that her father would find out and pleaded with me to come for the marriage as soon as possible. I have tried to be papient while my application was going through, but the anxiety and worry I have detected in her letters has been a great strain on me. Finally I was told I could leave at last, and on the evening of the 24th of March as I was preparing to leave we had a party to celebrate the coming occasion. I guess I was a little drunk when I came home, but as I recall it I was sitting in bed and had part of a bottle left. It is hard to explain what passes through a man's mind but I think but realize how happy I was maybe it will explain part of my actions. I had a few more drinks and I can't remember firing the first shot, and can't explain why I fired the other [redacted] I was happy and drunk the folly of this action did not strike me at all, at the time. It was the next morning, when I appeared before my Company Commander, and found out that my leave was cancelled and that I was to appear before the C.O., that I realized what I had done. I seemed to lose my head and felt utter despair, for it seemed to me that now I had spoiled my only chance of helping out the girl whom I think most of in the world. My weakness for drinking became my one recourse, and I set in my room drinking. What happened that evening as far as I can remember is clearly given in the evidence submitted by those who are concerned in this matter. From the point of view of sobriety I was not responsible for my actions, and in fact I can't remember them too well, but on thinking it over I meant no harm to anyone but as a result did harm only to myself. My one thought now is that I have done wrong, and I want to pay for it, but if it is within your mercy and power I would plead with you to let my marriage take place whatever else happens.

STATEMENT AS TO CHARACTER OF THE ACCUSED BY K 40158 Cpl MacKay D.A., 4 C Scot R.

I have known the accused Pte Smith for some nine months past, and know him to be honest, and in my experience, reliable. In any job that I have assigned him to do he has done his very best to carry out his task. During our association he has also become my friend, and through this I know that a great many things are troubling him. Since his return from England, he has become noticeably worried regarding his private affairs. These things he has done, I know do not reflect his true character, but are due to a nervous tension and strain brought on by worry. It is not my place to tell you of his troubles, which are of a purely personal nature; but may I again say they are serious and must cause this man no end of worry.

Statement of Character of the Accused by M 51027 CSM Kruper S.

I have known the accused, Pte Smith, H., for the past 5 or 6 months and during this time have found no fault with his conduct or soldierly bearing. He always carried out his duty as best as he was able and was at no time a detriment to his company. He has a weakness for drinking, but this did at no time lead to any trouble while in my company. Outside of a noticeable sign of uneasiness at times, Pte Smith carried out his duties as a soldier should.

Padre's Statement:

K65528 - Pte. Smith, N., is engaged to a lady in England. While under medical care over there he got papers together in readiness for asking permission to marry, but these papers were lost when his kit was stolen at Calais when he was returning to this Battalion. He began to gather papers again, which meant a month's delay, and during this time he was under great worry and depression caused by the knowledge that his fiancée was in a serious situation. He put in his papers through and early in March and was amazed when the permission came through, and a privilege leave, in only eight days. It was the celebration after this unexpected turn of events which lead to the cancellation of his leave, after which he got down to the serious drinking which floored his in his present circumstances.

Pte Smith is not a bad man but a weak one. He is undoubtedly very much in love. I would suggest that his treatment now may either make or break him, and I do hope that he may have the opportunity of marrying at an early date.

PLEA IN MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF K 65328 PTE. SMITH, H., BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER, CAPTAIN T.J. MCNAMARA, 4 C SCOT R (CAOF)

The court has heard the character witnesses and has been told the full story by the accused. It is not necessary for me to point out the trouble the accused finds himself in for that I feel, is obvious from the evidence that has been presented before you. It is my own thought however, that if depression, sorrow and extreme mental anguish are punishment to a man for his wrongdoing, then the accused, Pte Harry Smith, has already paid for his mistakes a great deal more than we can realize. I would ask the court when it considers sentence, that it bear in mind that on its decision rests the fate, not of one person, but of two.

To confirm the accused's statement in my own mind, I have approached our Unit Padre, H/Captain J. Rand who is familiar with the personal matters to which the accused has referred. His knowledge and view of this case confirm the honesty of this man's statement and its details, and also are important to the extent that with the courts permission I introduce him as a witness on behalf of the accused, within the meaning of Rules of Procedure Section 37 (F).

(Padre Rand is called/is not called.)

In conclusion I wish to express my own genuine pity for the accused and ask that if it be possible his punishment be of a kind does not interfere with his marraige taking place as soon as possible.

I desire to have an officer

Prosecutor's Closing Address

Capt. Nelson has produced evidence that Cpl. Smith had St Pierre in his custody. Cpl. Smith allowed St Pierre to descend from the vehicle although it was very dark and in spite of the fact that the R.P. private, Pte. Smith D. had gone off to look for food. At the time of the escape Cpl. Smith was solely responsible for the safe custody of St Pierre.

Closing address of defence

The prosecution failed to produce witness to prove the accused might have been negligent in anyway and thereby occasioning the escape of Pte St Pierre, the soldier under Cpl. Smiths custody.

Cpl. Smith gave evidence upon oath and stated that he did take reasonable precautions, before Pte St Pierre escaped, by parking the vehicle in an open space so that the prisoner could not escape into building or bushes adjacent to the road. At the time the prisoner escaped Cpl Smith took reasonable precautions by not letting the prisoner more than 10 or 12 feet from him.

Two witnesses have appeared before the court and have stated that it was a very dark evening, under the circumstances it was very easy for Pte St. Pierre to escape.

The accused gave evidence as to why the prisoner was not handcuffed.

From the evidence submitted by the prosecution it is impossible to find the accused guilty of without a reasonable defence.

Sum Up Beg J A

In reaching a finding on a charge it is necessary for the court to examine the charge & decide whether the particulars of the charge have been proved. If not the accused should be found Not Guilty. If the court decides they have been proved then they must decide whether these proved particulars go to make up the Statement of the charge.

First charge In connection with the Attention is invited to Page 446 MM 2 Sub Sec (2) also foolnotes 2, 3, & 4. Also Ch VII para 43 (Heads of Charges to Court.) The members of the court may use their regimental knowledge to assist them in coming to a finding on the charge.

As to the Credibility of Witnesses that is entirely a Matter for the court to decide. You may believe a part of the testimony of one Witness & wholly disbelieve the rest of it. One principle of British justice which follows us wherever we go is that every man is innocent Until proved guilty. It is up to the prosecution throughout to prove the guilt of the prisoner beyond a reasonable doubt. Reasonable doubt has been defined as such a doubt as would make a reasonable man in the conduct of his own business and in a Matter of some importance to him pause & ponder. Hamlet. To seriously consider whether the thing he intends to do is right & just. But if any Members of the Court entertain such a doubt they are bound by law to interpret that doubt in favour of the accused.

And we were hungry as it was getting late so I went off to make arrangements to get our rations heated or get something else to eat. We carried on the hunt for St.Pierre for approx two hours. We then proceeded on our journey as we also had to deliver L/Cpl Glenfield who was returning to England via NETD. After dropping L/Cpl Glenfield at NETD we proceeded to Brussels Brussels where we had to pcik up personnel who was returning from leave. The Prosecutor addressed the Court and pointed out that the necessary facts in support had been proved and said that accused had been in the army long enough to know how to get a pass under the extenuating circumstances. He pointed out that accused stayed away 8 weeks after his wife was discharged from Hosp. Accused on receipt of Ex 2 should have then sent his kit and got a pass.

OVER

The court is reopened.
The Prosecutor produces m 7 m 6 and m 7 B 355 with respect to the accused.
R P 46 B is complied with
The Deputy officer returned in pursuance to his statement before the finding but added that the accused has been 13 days awaiting trial and will lose 67 days while a W. L. although the circumstances were most extenuating.
C A O R O 3262 was complied with.
The court adjourned to consider its sentence.

On the 13th of March 43 the Accused's wife was delivered of a daughter. The Accused received a pass from Saturday noon until Sunday noon to go and see his wife and child but did not apply for special leave on compassionate grounds as he wanted to try and obtain leave when his wife was able to leave the hospital so that he might take her home ~~and~~ help to establish her there and make arrangements to find someone to help her. To find when she would be able to leave the hospital he went there on the morning of March 23rd about seven o'clock. To his consternation he was told that his wife was desperately ill and that the hospital authorities had tried to keep to come ~~and~~ once.

He went immediately to a Wing Office to try and obtain a pass but as it was still only about 7.30 there was no one around. He waited around for some time and finally when he saw the eight o'clock train come along he was under such a mental strain that he boarded it having no other consideration in his mind than that his wife, ~~he had so~~ urgently needed him as she was very sick. He knew that she had no one else to call as she was estranged from her family due to domestic difficulties.

For two days the accused's wife was seriously at death's door and then gradually she recovered. As the danger receded the accused was able to turn his mind to his other troubles and he sought to regularise his position.

To do this he wrote a letter to R.S.M. Wharton whom he thought would do the best he could for him. That letter is Exhibit 2

For a few days he received no reply Exhibit 3 and the thing that struck him immediately was the phrase "until you produce a letter from a doctor stating that your presence is necessary owing to your wife's dangerous illness". We consulted the Resident Medical Officer at the Hospital who assured him he would give him such a letter which I produce as Exhibit 5 and which was a simplified letter upon request in another letter Exhibit 6.

Since I have pointed it out to him the learned rabbis that according to the last sentence of the letter sent to him by the D.C. "A" Wing Exhibit 3 he should have immediately mailed the Doctor's letter Exhibit 5. As you can see from the accused's letter he is not a home conducting a correspondence and he neglected this point. We ~~did~~ thought retain

We continued to reside at 78 Lansdale Road and after his wife's return from the hospital (5 Apr 43) he practically never left the place except to do some necessary shopping.

We imagined that everything could be settled satisfactorily at his Unit by producing the Doctor's letter which he knew he could obtain

But on or about the 11th of May his wife received a letter from the Dependents Allowance Board stating that since her husband had been absent more than 21 days he was struck off strength and her allowance would cease.

His wife immediately wrote to the Board stating the circumstances of the case and the accused armed with the Doctor's letter Exhibit 5 and a Birth Certificate made his way back to his Unit, walking a great deal of the way as he was without funds, and reported in to the Guard Room at 1 C.A.P.O. at 12.50 hrs 13 May 43.

The accused joined the Army on the 4th of Sept 1939 and arrived in this country on Dec 19th 1939. He came over with the 1st Field Regt and served with them until towards the end of 1940 a great deal of the time as Battery Commander. In March 1940 he received a severe blow as his wife died in Canada.

He gradually recovering from this he married his present wife on 16 Oct 1941. He was told by his B.C. ~~[illegible]~~ Maj. G.E. McCordick for whom he was batman at the time that permission had been granted but due to the Unit going on manoeuvres at the time there was some slip up and it did not appear in Orders. He expected some delay before his allowance came through but when a couple of months elapsed and no money came he began to make enquiries and found eventually that he had not officially received permission. By this time Maj. McCordick had returned to India so there was more difficulty in clearing the matter up and it was nearly a year before his wife obtained any money.

This was a year of constant worry and anxiety about money and one of their children was seriously ill in London 1942.

Is it any wonder then that suddenly hearing that his wife's condition was dangerous he acted upon his first impulse and did what any of us who are husbands and fathers would do, go to her with the utmost speed. It would seem that if at any time between the sending of the letter on the 30th March and the 13th of April, at which time he was absent 21 days, another letter had been sent to him warning him of the growing seriousness of his case or if any Officer, Padre or Social Worker had taken an interest in his case and visited him at Tonedale Pk where he was at all times we would not be assembled here to-day at some cost to the Government, the accused would not have had to have pay and would not be facing a Court Martial.

Question: Do you wish to make a statement in regards to the charge.

Answer: yes.

Question: Do you wish to make thisstatement on oath.

Answer: Yes

Statement on oath of B10030 Gnr Smith, Hatley, Charles

I was married on Oct. 16th last year, and though some error of Major McCordicks permission hadn't been granted, and I couldn't receive any allowance for my wife, and we had to maintain her on my £4-10-0 a month up until September this year, she being pregnant we were both under a very serious strain, and I went home in August when she was being put out of her rooms that we had; I was home on pass & I got her a new place at 78 Longsdale Rd Barn, as the allowance hadn't come through yet at that time my return to the regiment Col Medland started to investigate the allowance. Major Hallet, sent the Auxiliary service to investigate the case and found that my statement was true. My wife was sleeping on a matress on the floor in a horrible condition. Through her not receiving the check no assistance was given by her family. While I am home on leave on the 16th of October my wife was in bed ill. I called the doctor and he advised me the best thing to do was to try and book her up in a hospital, but at first I would have to take her to a clinic in Barnes, and as soon as she saw a lady doctor at the clinic she advised her not to be left alone at any time. I took her back home and tried to find a hospital I could book her up in, but failed owing to all hospitals being booked up until after march. My pass ran out on Sunday Oct. 25th & as I still had a lot of work to do booking up the hospital & the food offices I sent a telegram to Capt Eaton asking for an extension of 72 hours. I didn't hear from Captain Eaton & on Wednesday the Provost corps came up to the house to see if my wife was really ill & said he would report to 2nd Field Regt. that my wife was seriously ill. On Thursday the Provost corps picked me up at Barnes & I explained the case to the L/Sgt. and he suggested we phone the Regiment. We phone & got a hold of Captain Easton. Capt Eaton told the L/Sgt. to mark the extension on my pass until Nov. 1st I tried to make arrangements for a girl to come in & look after my wife; but on Sunday Morning Nov. 1st I was informed she wasn't available and I was afraid to leave my wife alone & as I didnt have any money to send a telegram or telephone I stayed with her & looked after her until tuesday morning Nov 24th & started to hitch hike my way back to Eastbourne where I turned myself in to the R.S.M. at approximately 2100hrs.

Nov. 25th. That is all.

Dec 6 Jan 45 I was on 12 Pl D Coy and the armour was a number of my pl. At approx 1600 hrs 6 Jan 45 we were pressing on a canine some reds to the village of HITTERD. I was in the leading carrier of my pl. The armour was riding in the same carrier which contains all of 7 Sec. Our job was to follow 10 Pl as far as a road bend and then swing off to the left to our orders and objectives. Our task was to take prisoners and destroy the enemy in the position. Road winds approx 1500 yds and return by a different route. The armour has 5 inch guns on them for close support occasions.

As we were proceeding along we stopped momentarily and I happened to turn around and saw the armour getting out of the carrier. There was a lot of shelling going on but it was over their Party laying down a creeping barrage. There were a few enemy shells landing between 100 - 200 yds away from us. I asked Lieut where he was going and he replied that he could not go on as the shelling was too much for him. I told him if the rest of us could go through it so could he and ordered him to get back on the carrier. He made no reply and started running back. Then our own tanks and we proceeded to the attack. I saw him running towards our own lines.

X Exam The enemy wiring was not very heavy.

Exam by P.

At the point where Lieut got out of carrier we were approx 1000 yds from our objective by the road we were going. We were about 300 yds from "P" objective, the nearest enemy position.

I would judge that the enemy fire was all aimed at the remaining members of the section now wounded or killed in the attack. L/Cpl Sharp, who was the section leader is now in hospital.

At this time the enemy got out I heard nothing this by the rest of the section and the ~~enemy~~ acts of the enemy did not appear to have any visible effect on the section, who passed on to the attack both his wounded without any wavering.

R P P B B, compliments. Could adjacent unit was told to pass it to proceed to troops of L/Cpl Sharp can be found.

Statement by accused.

I came to the Regt on aug 6 - and came through all attacks and bombings that the Regt had until appox 2 days before the ending of the Falaise pocket when I became nervous when under shell fire as a battle exhaustion case. I was at FDS and CCRS for 2 weeks without treatment. I then came back to the Regt on the day of the raid and the noise of the carriers and the shelling caused me to become nervous and frightened, so I jumped off the carrier. I was ordered to get back on which I started to do and the carrier moved on. Being left there I did not know what to do so returned to our own lines. That is all, sir.

Plea of Mitigation for
G 47292 Pte Harry Earl Smith

Pte Smith is a very young man, only twenty years of age. He has been in the Army approximately two years, enlisting when only eighteen. His past record has been good. He realizes that the charges against him are very serious but to counterbalance that he has been through a lot. He came to the battalion on Aug 6th, just prior to the bombing of August 8th. That alone was enough to shake any mans nerve. That experience was followed closely by Sweeney Woods, the only show where the bn has had to retreat. All this happened during his first week with the regiment. He carried on with the bn through most of the Scheldt fighting but was finally evacuated towards the end of the Scheldt campaign with battle exhaustion. However he was only out two weeks when he was again sent to the bn. He was still nervous and jumpy under shell fire, and I plead for the leniency of the court and ask them, when they are considering the sentence, to realize that when Pte Smith came under shell fire while riding in the carrier, that his nerve left him completely and that he jumped out, as a natural and instinctive urge to protect himself. It is also evident that the crime was not pre-meditated.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....[5]

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 2, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex.....initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by see of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? (1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans.....Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans.....Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.....

(1. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

First witness Prosecution: Hendrick Baving, 141 Roden, Prov of Drenthe, Holland, having been duly sworn, states through the Interpreter:

On 5 July 1945 about 1830 or 1845 hrs, I was coming from milking. My wife said something and I looked and I saw the accused cycling on a bicycle and he had Jantze Holt with him. They went down the road and turned off into a field of rye. I followed and I saw them sitting near a ditch. The accused was sitting and Jantze was sitting on his knee. The accused had his pants unbuttoned and I could see his penis. He did not use her. The pants of Jantze were down. I spoke to the girl. The accused came with Jantze on his bike. I saw them again near a cafe. The accused went inside the cafe and he came back and had a bar of chocolate in his hand. He turned the corner and gave Jantze the bar of chocolate. I again spoke to Jantze and I saw her go home. I came and spoke to her parents and she came home when I was there.

Cross examination.

I followed the soldier because my wife said there was something suspicious. Jantze is the daughter of our neighbor. They were about 100 metres off the road. I was about 6 metres from the soldier and girl. The girl was facing the soldier. When I spoke, the accused turned his head but said nothing. The girl did not cry, but laughed when she saw me. I called to Hendrichus Van der Velde who was nearby.

Re-examination

It was not possible to see where the soldier and girl were from the road.

Questioned by the Court

They were not near a road. I called Hendrichus because I was alarmed.

Questioned by JA

Jantze was sitting on the accused's knee with both her legs on the same side of the accused. Jantze's pants were beneath her knees. When I saw the accused penis it was outside of his pants. I don't know where accused's hands were. Jantze's hands rested on her own body. The accused's penis was not touching Jantze. I walked back to the main road to call Hendrichus. It was there I saw accused and Jantze on the bike again.

RF 83 (B) complied with.

Second Witness Prosecution: Jan, Holt, Beerenstraat 207, Roden, Holland, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor, through the Interpreter.

My daughter Jantze Holt was born on 5 January 1939. She is six years old.

Cross examination

My daughter tells the truth as far as I know.

No re-examination

Questioned by JA

On 5 July 45 my daughter did not tell me anything about what happened.

RF 83 (B) complied with.

Third Witness Prosecution Jantze Holt (The court decides the witness has not sufficient understanding to be sworn but understands duty of speaking the truth)

The accused pulled down my pants. Nothing else happened. We were in the field. I saw his penis. He spoke to me but I did not understand. We left the field because the accused was alarmed. We went to a cafe. Then I got a bar of chocolate. I did not tell my parents what happened.

No cross examination

Questioned by JA

I was sitting on the grass. The accused was kneeling. I did not sit on his knee. The accused's pants were unbuttoned. I saw him unbutton them when I was on the grass. That is when I saw his penis. I knew the accused before that day. Boving was there that day when this happened.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Evidence taken pursuant to Children and Young Persons Act, 1933 sec 38 - Archbold P434, the same being not on oath

First Witness Defence The accused, having been duly sworn is examined by the defending officer.

I met Jantze Holt about 1730 on 5 July 45. We were in front of the house and she asked if she could go for a ride with me. We were riding up and down the road. We left the town of Rosen. Where we went off the road there was a side road leading to the pasture. It went for about 200 yards. She pointed down the road and said something in Dutch. I did not understand but thought she wanted to go down there. When turning around I stopped and went to the bushes for a piss. I sat down on the ground to fix my gaiters. I sat down. I was not more than 5 minutes off the main road. I did not see Hendrikus Boving. I first saw him when we returned to the main road. He did not speak to me. I again saw him next day on a identification parade. I did not notice the child take off her pants. The girl was standing behind me while I was urinating.

Cross examination

When I urinate I usually put my penis away. I did not have it out after I finished. I gave Jantze a chocolate bar because she asked me.

No re-examination

Questioned by Court

I dont know if I saw Boving or not that day. We were about ½ mile from where we started the ride. Then we turned off the main road. It was about 5 minutes from the time I left the road till I returned.

Questioned by JA

I buttoned my pants up after urinating. I did not have my penis out when sitting down. I dont know any reason why Boving would say he saw my penis. Jantze was sitting on my knee while I was buttoning my gaiters. I did not take her pants down. I did not see them down. I could see up to her knees. I fixed the gaiter while she sat on my knee.

RP 83 (b) complied with.

First Witness Prosecution: Hendrick Boving is recalled by the Court

Questioned by JA

The accused's penis was outside his pants. Jantze was sitting on his knee. The accused's penis was in erection. It was stiff. From the time I went for Hendricus Van der Velde until I saw the accused again on the road was 2 or 3 minutes. From the time I last saw the accused he left the road until I saw him sitting with Jantze was 5,6,7 minutes.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

2. Court is the sole judge of the facts.

3. Credibility of the witnesses is for the court. May believe whole of a witness' evidence or disbelieve it entirely, or may believe parts and disbelieve other parts, or may believe one witness' evidence as against another.

10 Refers to Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1922, Sec 1 (Archbold p 1032) re consent being no defence in case of a person under 16 years.

11 Where a prosecutrix is of tender years and gives unsworn testimony, the accused may not be legally convicted unless her evidence is corroborated by other evidence. The Court is warned that such testimony is weak and inferior to sworn testimony.

12 Corroboration must be as to the fact of an offence having been committed and the implication of the accused in it.

13 Evidence of an eye witness other than the prosecutrix may, if believed, supply the necessary corroboration. The Court may convict solely on the evidence of an eye witness other than the prosecutrix if such evidence is believed. Accused's evidence may supply the necessary corroboration.

14 Refers to circumstantial evidence of girls pants being seen, and advises that circumstantial evidence must not only be consistent with the accused having done the act but inconsistent with any other rational conclusion but that the accused did the act.

15 President, Prosecutor and Defending Offr state they wish nothing further added to JA's address.

Summary of Evidence in the case of K.45446 Pte Smith, W.C.P. of "C" Coy, The Westminster Regiment (M).

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS:

Hendrick BAVING, cattledealer, of Nr 141 Roden, province of Drente, Holland, having been duly sworn states:

"I am Hendrick BAVING, cattledealer, of Nr 141 Roden, province of Drente, Holland. On Thursday the 5th of jul 45 at about 5.45 p.m. my wife and I were at our meadow near the road Roden-Nieuw Roden. My wife drew my attention to a Canadian soldier on a bicycle, who in the company of the 6 year old daughter of Jan HOLT was leaving the main road, taking a sidepath. As this seemed suspicious to me, I followed them. When I had reached them I saw the soldier sitting near a ditch with the child on his knees. His trousers were opened and the child's pants had been pulled down. I had no impression that something more had happened so far; besides there would not have been time for that, as I had followed them at once.

I told the girl that she must return home and went back at once to fetch Hendrickus van der Velde, who was talking to my wife. On my way back however the soldier went by again, Jantje HOLT behind him WITH on the bicycle. Then my wife and I returned to Roden with our milkcart. As we passed Cafe'de Vries, we saw Jantje HOLT waiting before the house. The soldier mentioned above just came around the corner and made a sign to her. Again I told Jantje to go home, but she went after the soldier to the side of the house and came back with a bar of chocolate. After this she went home and I followed her to inform her parents.

Holt went to Dr Weggemans with his daughter. That same night Holt went to see the Burgomaster.

Next day I came to the municipal hall with my wife and Hendrickusvan der Velde on request of the Burgomaster, who took us to the Beukhann, where some soldiers were drawn up. Without the slightest hesitation we all three recognized among them the soldier we had seen the day before with Jantje HOLT. On request of the Burgomaster I pointed him out to the Lieutenant who was present.

This statement having been read by myself and signed, at Roden on 7th July 1945

SECOND WITNESS:

Jan HOLT - farmer of Heerenstraat 209, Roden, province of Drente, Holland, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Jan HOLT, father of Jentje HOLT who is the child in this case.

On the day of Thursday 5 Jul 45 at about 1830 hrs Hendrick BAVINK came to me and told me that my daughter was with a Canadian Soldier and she was without her pants and the soldier's pants were open.

At about 1900 hrs I went with my daughter to Dr WEGEMANS who told me that she was alright and had not been touched.

The same evening at about 2130 hrs I went to the Burgomaster to have the soldier brought to justice."

The accused declines to question the witness.

First Witness Presented. Hendrick Boving, 141 Raden, Prov. of Drenthe, Holland, having been duly sworn, states through the Interpreter.

On 5 July 45 about 1830 or 1845 hrs, I was coming from milking. My wife said something and I looked and I saw the accused cycling on a bicycle and he had Jantje Halt with him. They went down the road and turned off into a field of rye. I followed and I saw them sitting near a ditch. The accused was sitting and Jantje was sitting on his knee. The accused had his pants unbuttoned and I could see his penis. It did not use her. The pants of Jantje were down. I spoke to the girl. The accused came with Jantje on his bike. I saw them again near a cafe. The accused went inside the cafe and he came back and had a bar of chocolate in his hand. He turned the corner and gave Jantje the bar of chocolate. I again spoke to Jantje and I saw her go home. I came and spoke to her parents and she came home when I was there.

Cross Examination :-

I followed the soldier because my wife said there was something suspicious. Jantje is the daughter of our neighbor. They were about 100 metres off the road. I was about 6 metres from the soldier and girl. The girl was facing the soldier. When I spoke, the accused turned his head but said nothing. The girl did not cry, but laughed when she saw me. I called to Hendrickus Van der Velde who was nearby.

Re-Examination :-

It was not possible to see where the soldier and girl came from the road.

Questioned by Court

They were not near a road. I called Hendrickus because I was alarmed.

Questioned by JP :-

Jantje was sitting on the accused's bike with both her legs on the same side of the accused. Jantje's pants were beneath her knees. When I saw the accused penis it was outside of his pants. I don't know where accused's hands were. Jantje's hands rested on her own body. The accused's penis was not touching Jantje. I walked back to the main road to call Hendrickus. It was then I saw accused and Jantje on the bike again.

(RP 93 (8) complied with)

Second Witness for Prosecution — Jan Holt, Heerenstraat 209, Roden, Holland having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor, through the Interpreter.

My daughter Jantje Holt was born on 5 January 1939. She is six years old.

Cross Examination :-

my daughter tells the truth as far as I know.

No Re-Examination :-

Questioned by JA :-

On 5 July 45 my daughter did not tell me anything about what happened.

(RP 83 (B) complied with)

Third Witness Prosecution Jantjie Holtz- (The court decides the witness has not sufficient understanding to be sworn. but understands duty of speaking the truth)
The accused pulled down my pants. Nothing else happened. We were in the field. I saw his penis. He spoke to me but I did not understand. We left the field because the accused was alarmed. We went to a cafe. Then I got a bar of chocolate. I did not tell my parents what happened.

No Cross Examination :

Questioned by JA :-

I was sitting on the grass. The accused was kneeling. I did not sit on his knee. The accused's pants were unbuttoned. I saw him unbutton them when I was on the grass. That is when I saw his penis. I knew the accused before that day. Bareng was there that day when this happened.

(RP 83 (B) complied with)

(Evidence taken pursuant to Children + Young Persons act, 1933 sec 38 – archbold P434, the same being not on oath)

First Witness Defence

The accused, having been duly sworn is examined by the defending offr

I met Jantje Holt about 1930 on 5 July 45. We were in front of the house and she asked if she could go for a ride with me. We were riding up and down the road. We left the town of Roden. Where we went off the road there was a side road leading to the pasture. It went for about 200 yards. She pointed down the road and said something in Dutch. I did not understand but thought she wanted to go down there. When turning around I stopped and went to the bushes for a piss. I sat down on the ground to fix my gaiters. I sat down. I was not more than 5 minutes off the main road. I did not see Hendrickus Baring. I first saw him when we returned to the main road. He did not speak to me. I again saw him next day on a identification parade. I did not notice the child take off her pants. The girl was standing behind me while I was urinating.

Cross Examination:-

When I urinate I usually put my penis away. I did not have it out after I finished. I gave Jantjie a chocolate for because she asked me.

No Re-Examination:

Examined by Court:

I don't know if I saw Baring or not that day. We were about ¼ mile from where we started the ride. When we turned off the main road. It was about 5 minutes from the time I left the road till I returned.

Examined by JA:-

I buttoned my pants up after urinating. I did not have my penis out when sitting down. I don't know any reason why Baving would say he saw my penis. Jantje was sitting on my knee while I was buttoning my gaiters. I did not take his pants down. I did not see them down. I could see up to his knees. I fixed the gaiter while he sat on my knee.

(AP 83(B) complied with)

First Witness Preservation — Hendrick Baving is recalled by the Court

Questioned by JA :-

The accused's penis was outside his pants. Jantje was sitting on his knee. The accused's penis was in erection. It was stiff. From the time I went for Hendrikus Van der Velde until I saw the accused again on the road was 2 to 3 minutes. From the time I last saw the accused when he left the road until I saw him sitting with Justice was 5, 6 or 7 minutes.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

No Cross Exam :-

The Defending offr does not wish to recall the accused.

Plea in Mitigation

1 Refers to accused record
2 Clean conduct sheet.
3 Plea for leniency.

SUMMING UP BY JA

1 Duty of JA to sum up and advise the Court on the law. Court should accept advice of JA on the law.

2 Court is the sole judge of the facts.

3 Credibility of the witnesses is for the Court. May believe whole of a witness' evidence or disbelieve it entirely, or may believe parts and disbelieve other parts, or may believe one witness' evidence as against another.

4 Accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proved guilty.

5 Burden of proof is on the Prosecution.

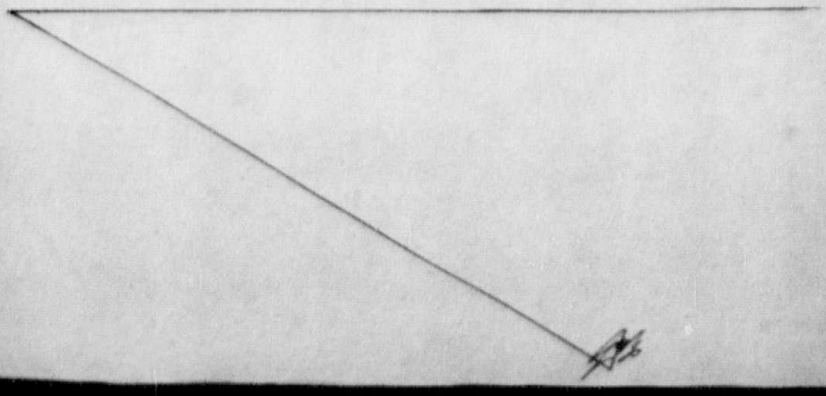
6 Accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt in the minds of the members of the Court.

7 Reasonable doubt defined.

8 Refers to AA Sec 41 and Offences against the Person Act, 1861, Sec 52 (Archbold p 1032).

9 Refers to MML p 113 para 54 and Archbold p 907 on Assaults generally.

10 Refers to Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1922, Sec 1 (Archbold p 1032) re consent being no defence in case of a person under 16 years.



11 Where a prosecutrix is of tender years and gives unsworn testimony, the accused may not be legally convicted unless her evidence is corroborated by other evidence. The Court is warned that such testimony is weak and inferior to sworn testimony.

12 Corroboration must be as to the fact of an offence having been committed and the implication of the accused in it.

13 Evidence of an eye witness other than the prosecutrix, may, if believed, supply the necessary corroboration. The Court may convict solely on the evidence of an eye witness other than the prosecutrix, if such evidence is believed. Accused's evidence may supply the necessary corroboration.

14. Refers to circumstantial evidence of girls pants being torn, and advises that circumstantial evidence must not only be consistent with the accused having done the act but inconsistent with any other rational conclusion but that the accused did the act.

15 President, Prosecutor and Defending Offr state they wish nothing further added to JA's address.

Summary of Evidence in the case of K.45446 Pte Smith, H.C.P. of "C" Coy, The Westminster Regiment (M).

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: Hendrick BAVING, cattledealer, of Nr 141 Roden, province of Drente, Holland, having been duly sworn states:

"I am Hendrick BAVING, cattledealer, of Nr 141 Roden, province of Drente, Holland. On Thursday the 5th of jul 45 at about 5.45 p.m. my wife and I were at our meadow near the road Roden-Nieuw Roden. My wife drew my attention to a Canadian soldier on a bicycle, who in the company of the 6 year old daughter of Jan HOLT was leaving the main road, taking a sidepath. As this seemed suspicious to me, I followed them. When I had reached them I saw the soldier sitting near a ditch with the child on his knees. His trousers were opened and the child's pants had been pulled down. I had no impression that something more had happened so far; besides there would not have been time for that, as I had followed them at once.

I told the girl that she must return home and went back at once to fetch Hendrickus van der Velde, who was talking to my wife. On my way back however the soldier went by again, Jantje HOLT behind him on the bicycle. Then my wife and I returned to Roden with our milkcart. As we passed Cafe'de Vries, we saw Jantje HOLT waiting before the house. The soldier mentioned above just came around the corner and mafe a sign to her. Again I told Jantje to go home, but she went after the soldier to the side of the house and came back with a bar of chocolate. After this she went home and I followed her to inform her parents.

Holt went to Dr Weggemans with his daughter. That same night Holt went to see the Burgomaster.

Next day I came to the municipal hall with my wife and Hendrickusvan der Velde on request of the Burgomaster, who took us to the Beuklaan, where some soldiers were drawn up. Without the slightest hesitation we all three recognized among these the soldier we had seen the day before with Jantje HOLT. On request of the Burgomaster I pointed him out to the Lieutenant who was present.

~~and~~ The Defending Officer makes the following plea in Mitigation.

"I consider this in six stages. The man has a common law wife in Reigate whom he has lived with for two years and with whom he was very close. On March 11. he received a telegram from his wife "Come, baby worse. Fear pneumonia." Pte Smith obtained a 48 hour pass to see his child. The child recovered but in the meantime his wife became ill. He decided to stay and nurse his wife and thus overstayed his leave. He realized his wife was going to have another child and he knew also that if he returned to his unit he would be punished in detention and thus be unable to return when the child was born. So he stayed. However due to some domestic jealously on the part of neighbours, Pte Smith was reported to the police and apprehended when he didn't produce a pass, eight days before the child was born.

Although Pte Smith was A.W.L. it was due to domestic business and not due to trouble with the unit. The man considered it was his duty to be present with his wife and family and fully intended to return to his unit as soon as the child was born."

On ~~cross~~ questions the defending officer stated Pte Smith was not drawing allowance for his wife but was supporting her out of his own money. It was also stated that Pte Smith had kept in touch with the movement of his unit.

Lieut. R.A. Cooke of the R.C.R was duly sworn and states:-

"I produce a certified copy of A.F.B. 296 relating to the accused." (Exhibit A)

The Court adjourned.

N.B. The Court noted an error in addition in the charge sheet which should read £13.7½ but was unable to increase the charge.

Report from Reginald Archibald TURRELL, War Reserve Constable No.8, SUBJECT Apprehension of Deserter - No.A.3206 Pte. SMITH F. H.

Sir,

With reference to the above matter, I beg to report that about 4.20.pm. on Monday, 11th May, 1942, in consequence of information received, I went to 14, Stuart Crescent, South Park, Reigate, accompanied by P.c.22 Ingram.

I there saw the occupier - Mrs. Pentley - and at her request entered the house where in the living room I saw a Canadian soldier.

I said, "Can I see your pass?"

He made a search of his pockets and then said, "I must have lost it."

I said, "I have reason to believe that you are a deserter."

He replied, "No."

He produced his Pay Book giving the following particulars -

A.3206 Pte. SMITH Harry Franklin,
Royal Canadian Regiment.

I took him into custody and conveyed him to Reigate Police Station where he was seen by Sergeant 12 Nicholls.

SMITH appeared to be identical with a soldier of that name and number circulated in the Nominal Roll of Deserters dated the 7th May, 1942, issued by the Canadian Provost Corps.

At 5.20.pm. I cautioned and charged SMITH -

"For that he, at Reigate in the Borough of Reigate, at 4.20.pm. on Monday, 11th May, 1942, did absent himself from H. M. Forces, to wit, the Royal Canadian Regiment, without leave or the permission of his Commanding Officer, contrary to the Army Act, 1881."

He replied, "I have nothing to say now."

The D. P. M., Canadian Military Headquarters, Cockspur Street, London, was informed and stated an escort would be sent.

May I respectfully suggest that copy of this report be forwarded to:-

"A" The Deputy Provost Marshal, Canadian Military Headquarters, Cockspur Street,

First Witness for Prosecution

G 19520 L/Cpl Frost E.M. HNSH sworn states

On 7 Mar 45 the unit was stationed on the high ground next to the Nijmegen Bridgehead. I was a Pte at that time. The accused when I recognise was in my platoon. The accused was injured that day but I did not see the accident. At approx 1130 hrs I was in my slit trench and the accused was standing behind me. I was cleaning my rifle and I heard a shot, I turned and asked the accused what happened and the accused told me he was in the pit. I asked the accused how it happened and he told me he put a round in the chamber and when he was easing the cocking piece forward it slipped from his hand. The accused was out side the slit trench and there was no shelling at the time and we were not in contact with the enemy. The accused was shot in the left foot. I had been low up until this time in A Coy and there were only approx 3 casualties during the recent action. We had not been warned of further action.

Cross Examined.

The accused was always in my sight and that was approx 2 mon. The accused was a good soldier. The accused had not shown any nervousness or signs of cracking up that I noticed. The slit was approx 6' long 18" wide & 5' deep. At one end was a covered dugout joining the slits. I was sitting in the trench cleaning my rifle, the accused was to my rear and to the left. I could not see him.

By Court

I saw the accused standing when I look up after hearing the shot, the weather was clear. No one else was present. I removed the accused knot. The wound was just behind the ear. By the second shot the accused had been cleaning his weapon approx 10 mins, I did not examine the rifle and I did not notice any cleaning material. The accused was holding his rifle when I first saw him after hearing the report. I did not examine the knot.

The accused P 66743 Pte Herbert Rowland Smith has refused to take the stand in his own defence. The Provost witness Pte Bost also definitely prejudicial to the prosecution. The accused has given made a statement to the Provost in which he definitely states he shot himself then the first and by that statement it has definitely established the fact that he was negligent.

Pte Smith has been in the army approx 2 yrs, has been under considerable shell fire. Pte, now L/Cpl Frost has given evidence that the accused has always been steady & cool under shell fire. These type men Pte Smith & L/Cpl Frost usually lived in the same dugout trench.

Remembering positions etc as demonstrated, if Pte Smith was standing behind Cpl Frost he would be endangering the Cpl by firing his rifle. If Pte Smith had wanted to do himself any harm, he could has waited for a more opportune time.

Regretable also is the fact that his Pl Comm. is not present, if he were, maybe more good could be said of this man, who according to his own Pl Leader, has always done a 1st class job.

On March 4th at approx 1.30 hrs I had been detailed to clean my Rifle. I had finished cleaning the breach took the mag off & found it replaced the mag with one round in the chamber, & then cleaned the foresight.

I then held the Rifle butt under the right arm, with the muzzle of the Rifle pointing to the ground. With my right thumb & forefinger I eased the firing piece forward & at the same time pressing the trigger with my left index finger

I went to the bolt being on my thumb and finger. The cocking piece slipped from my grip the cocking piece went forward discharging the round already in the chamber.
The bullet passing through my left foot.
My comrade who was cleaning his Rifle in the next trench jumped up and asked me what happened
I told him that my Rifle had discharged accidentally and that I was wounded in my left foot.
He immediately applied first aid to the wound, and then reported the incident to the

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. ..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. .....

The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (b), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. (1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the JA, if any~~.(2)

1 The Court could not overlook the fact that this man was absent 126 days and was apprehended and the Court gave him the normal punishment.

2 However, it is fair to say that the accused would probably not have committed this offence except for his relationship with the woman referred to in the plea of mitigation and the children which they have. The accused has a wife in Canada so that nothing can be done about his present relationship. Generally I would say that ordinarily this accused is capable of rendering reasonably good service in the army.

3 These circumstances might be considered at some future date by the Reviewing Offr.

NOTE E-3

The accused A3206 Pte. Smith J. J. has asked me to speak on his behalf in mitigation of his sentence. He is 36 yrs of age, joined the army in Canada on the 5th of Oct 1939. He arrived overseas with the RCR's 31 Dec 1939. In the 4 yrs and 3 months he has been in the army, he has had 5 charges, four of them AWOL, the other charge of barrack damages. About a year after arriving overseas, he met a girl, who is now his common law wife, and has been for 3½ yrs. They have two children, and he is the father of these children. When he was apprehended by the civil police at Rugate on 11 May 1942, his wife was in hospital, while the daughter was born. On this his last absence, he took sick after he was home, then took sick with the flu. His common law wife asked him to return to his unit, he said that he wanted to spend one christmas with her and the children. Since he has been back he has heard from his wife, and she is being bothered by the police, who are trying to get a statement from her to the effect that she did not know he was a deserter. She receives no allowances from the government for herself or the children and he has been giving her money from his own pay. He does not want anything to happen to her or the children, that is his only worry. He states that he gets the urge to go to his home and see her and that he can not help himself.

Yours Respectfully
G. L. Dill Lieut.

Brief Character Witness

Lieut A.J. Willes, Officer Commanding 3 Can Inf Div Postal Unit

Having been duly sworn states:

I first met the accused 2126455 Cpl Herbert James Smith in Ottawa in 1940. In October 1942 I met him again when I took charge of 3 Can Inf Div. Postal Unit, and have had no cause for complaint against this NCO regarding his work or his character. He handles cash, postal notes and stamps

PLEA OF MITIGATION E-3.

On behalf of L12645 Cpl Herbert James SMITH, 3 Cdn Inf Div Postal Unit, Cdn Postal Corps.

I respectfully submit the following plea of mitigation for the Consideration of the Court.

First may I point out the good conduct, reliability and efficiency of this N.C.O. during his five and a quarter years of Active Service. Since his enlistment in April,1940 to date he has but two entries on his Conduct Sheet. Neither of these charges were of serious nature and a period of nearly three years intervened between charges. The most recent of these two charges was the result of a VE-Day escapade incurring the misuse of a W.D. vehicle for which he was severely reprimanded.

The Officer Commanding his unit commends him as a hard working and reliable N.C.O.

Never in over five years Active Service has this N.C.O. been charged with drunkeness and never during his Military Career has he been unable to fulfill his duties due to drunkeness.

His Military efficiency and reliability is further attested to in the fact theat he has served as an N.C.O. since Aug 1944 with good report

The occasion which brought about the present charge was an impromtu farewell party to a fellow soldier in a nearby unit who was leaving for repatriation to Canada. After four years of service practically side by side itis not unreasonable to bend to the temptation of a drink when parting. It is submitted that the quality of the liquor and the fact that this N.C.O. is not a habitual drinker was responsible for his action, not the quantity of the liquor consumed. The liquor in question was an issue and after two drinks Cpl Smith felt ill and together with Cpl Bryant left the party to return to their billets. The effects of the liquor rapidly became more evident and the incidents as contained in the Summary of Evidence took place under the influence of liquor.

It is also submitted that the molesting of civilians described in the Summary of Evidence was nothing more than a prank enacted under the influence of liquor. The civilians ' inability to understand the soldiers speech and actions led to a misinterpretation of those actions. The incident took place on a main road in full day-light and this fact together with this N.C.O.'s fine character discredits any thoughts of misconduct.

In summing up, it is submitted to the Court that the following points are worthy of consideration before sentence is passed:-

1. The good conduct of this N.C.O. prior to this charge.
2. His efficiency and reliability as an N.C.O. as attested to by his Commanding Officer.
3. His unquestionable honesty; in the nature of his duties he handles and is responsible for large sums of money.
4. The way in which Cpl Smith has accepted his responsibility in this case. He admits and regrets his guilt of drunkeness and instead of bitterness over arrest he has continued his work with zeal and cheerfulness whilst pending the convening of this Court.

5. That this N.C.O. under the Army's Policy will shortly be eligible for Repatriation to Canada for demobilization and that a heavy sentence would cause him a large financial loss.

In view of these facts I plead that Cpl Smith is deserving of the utmost leniency of this Court.

Respectfully submitted,

G W Routley

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of,- L12645 Cpl Smith H.J. 3 Cdn Inf Div Postal Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The accused is informed of his rights.

Lieut A.J. Willis, Officer Commanding 3 Cdn Inf Div Postal Unit directs that all evidence be taken on oath.

1st Witness

144381 Major A.F. Jordan DCM 31 Group Pioneer Corps having been duly sworn states,-

At about nine o'clock on the 30 May 45 I was accompanied by Major Hurle of 308 Coy Pioneer Corps. I was approaching my Group Hq and when within 40 to 50 yds, I heard screams and shouts on the opposite side of the road. On looking over I saw two civilians being molested by two soldiers, and on approaching, the soldiers hid themselves behind a tree and the civilians came towards me and Major Hurle and by gestures and in broken English, complained of the treatment the soldiers had given them. I approached the two soldiers and asked them what they were doing there and what unit they belonged to. The accused, whom I now recognize whose speech was very incoherent gave me to understand that he belonged to the Postal Unit. I came to the conclusion that the was drunk, in that he was very unsteady on his feet, his speech was very incoherent and he smelt very strongly with drink. I told the accused to come with me which he did being very unsteady on his feet while crossing the road to my Group Hq which was 15 to 20 yds away. On arriving there I warned the accused that he was under close arrest for being drunk, improperly dressed, and assaulting a civilian. The accused was dressed in battle dress, not hat, and wearing thin soled shoes. I placed the accused in charge of RQMS Speroni 31 Group Pioneer Corps. I obtained the address of the male civilian who seemed to be suffering from shock and fear from his experience.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

143984 Major Mx L. Hurle Pioneer Corps having been duly sworn states,-

On May 30th about 2100 hrs I was proceeding along the ZEIST-DOORN road accompanied by Major Jordan Pioneer Corps. I heard shouts and screaming, my attention was drawn by civiliens to two soldiers with two civiliens. On approaching closer I saw a Cpl holding a civilian by the wrist and swinging him around, I saw also another soldier standing near the corporal. On approaching further, the corporal whom I now recognize, let go of the civilian and went and hid himself behind the tree together with another corporal. Major Jordan and I approached the accused and Major Jordan spoke to him. The accused was improperly dressed, in not wearing a beeddress, a belt, and his jacket was undone. He was drunk. Major Jordan ordered me to obtain an escort which I did formed by some soldiers whom I found in the vicinity. The accused together with the corporal companion proceeded to 31 Group Hq. I went and spoke to the civiliens concerned and obtained their address.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

13033999 RQMS Speroni of 31 Group Pioneer Corps having been duly sworn states,-

On the 30 May 45 at 2115 hrs I was instructed by Major Jordan to take two corporals into close arrest. Calling two of my own men, they were escorted into a room. When I addressed the two corporals they became slightly abusive. To save any trouble I took the two guards to an outside position. While speaking to one of the sentries and the sergeant, I heard the sound of a window opening, and going to the corner of the building I saw the two corporals running down the path. Calling to the sergeant and one sentry, I gave chase. I managed to catch one corporal on top of the wall, who I handed over to the sergeant and one sentry, and then proceeded to search the gardens and surrounding fields for the missing prisoner. Being unable to find him I returned to my HQ. I went out in a car to search for the prisoner along the road, being unable to find him I returned to HQ again where I was informed by a private Canadain soldier that a corporal was lying under a hedge in a field behind our HQ. I went out. It was the missing prisoner. He was senseless in the fact that he could not speak or stand up. I carried him back to HQ. I called to one of the sergeants to render first aid as the prisoner had cut his hand and mouth by forcing his way through a hedge. At approx 2215 hrs, I handed the two prisoners over to a provost corporal.

Q, Do you recognize the accused as the prisoner you found under the hedge?

A, Yes Sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

A. Van der Linden of Fred Hendriklaan No 49, ZIEST having been duly sworn, states,-

Last Wednesday night I was walking with my fiancee along the ZIEST-DOORN road when I saw the two soldiers come out of a little lane, and they were a little drunk. They sat down on the grass at the corner and when we passed they winked at my fiancee. We went further on and when I looked back later I saw that they were coming after us. Suddenly they were close to us and I said to my fiancee "let us go to the other side of the road" so that we may go back, perhaps when they do not see you, they will forget you". So we did that. But the two soldiers also came over to the other side. I thought now that they would catch my fiancee and I told the soldiers not to touch my fiancee. One of the soldiers caught me by the wrist but at that moment I saw two officers coming up and I said to my fiancee to go over to them. In the meanwhile I told the soldiers that two officers were coming and they let me go now.

Q, Did this happen on 30th of May?

A, Yes.

Q, Do you recognize the accused as one of the soldiers?

A, Yes, I recognize him.

Q, Do you recognize the accused as the one who caught you by the wrist?

A, No! It was not this soldier.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Defending Officer

As to the first charge:

Each part of the charge must be proved. There is no proof here that any Government period has passed and yet has accused is charged with his proper use of it.

There is no evidence that the vehicle of his number stated in the charge was ever driven by his accused. There is only one witness who says his number and his is Some doubt. The case in this respect has not been proved. The burden is on the Crown.

The accused had a Corporal in his truck with him who could have authorised his trip. There is no evidence that he did not do so. This should have been proved.

As to the second charge there is absolutely no evidence of that type of wilful or culpable neglect which is necessary for conviction under Sec 40

As to the second charge

JUDGE ADVOCATE

I agree that no case has been made out on the second charge. I can advise you Sir that it should be dismissed.

I was figuring we were going back to the billets but we turned around and went the other way. I never questioned Pte. Smith. We stopped at Horam for about a minute. I asked Pte. Smith to slow down a bit while driving to Horam which he did. While we stopped at Horam I went out to talk to the boys in the back. From Horam we started on our return journey. I put back my head and went to sleep. That's all I remember until I woke up in 5 C.C.S.

STATEMENT OF MCLAUGHLIN L.G. C97387 TAKEN UNDER OATH

I left the Cross in Hand pub at Cross in Hand at approximately 2240 hrs, 29 June 42 and got into vehicle CV773735 thinking that we were going directly to the vehicle car-park. Instead of that the truck swung around and proceeded toward Heathfield and to Horam. We were returning on the Horam-Little London road, in the direction of Heathfield, and had gone only a short way when the accident happened. I felt myself flying through the air. I picked myself up and could see the men lying around and also saw some people standing by the gate. I had been thrown clear of the truck.

EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION

First Witness for the Prosecution:

Conte Gaetano Andreini having been duly sworn states. I live at Cortina E Mandorli, Montespertoli. I recognize the accused. About 28th or 29th July last I saw him about 6 o'clock in the evening at a house connected with my house -- an apartment in the same building. He told me he had come to search for Fascists I offered to assist him and took him around the building to the other families - There are three families in the building. There is only one entrance to my living quarters. I took the accused into my quarters. There was no one in there when we went in. Another man who lives in the building want in. with us. I took him throughout my house to search as he said he was looking for fascists. There are two stories to the house. The accused and the other man were with me while searching. The other man was Biazoni Francisco. After searching upstairs we went downstairs and I gave wine and fruit to the soldier - the accused. While the three of us were talking my wife came in alone. The accused asked my wife how many rooms were upstairs and he asked to see the upstairs rooms again in order to search again and my wife and I took him upstairs. We first went into a small room, then to another, then to the centre room which is my bedroom. When we got in there the accused shut the door and stood with his back against the door and he spoke in English but I did not understand what he was saying, but he pointed to the bed and to my wife. The soldier was carrying a pistol in a holster when I first saw him. As soon as we started to search the house, the soldier took the pistol from the holster and was holding it in his hand. I tried to persuade the soldier not to do anything as I was afraid he was going to do something improper to my wife. I stood between my wife and the soldier and I wife said to me we would have to die together. The soldier was holding the pistol against my chest - pointing at me. Just after point to the bed and my wife the soldier said he would give us five minutes pointing to his watch --which I understood to mean unless we gave in to him, he would shoot us when the five minutes was up. Then the accused grabbed me by the throat and pushed me away. My wife ran towards the windowbut did not reach it because the soldier stopped her and hit her on the face with his hand. The soldier then compelled me to sit on the bed at the point of the pistol, at the same time holding onto my wife who was struggling with him and crying. He forced her on to the side of the bed opposite me. He holds the pistol in his left hand he pulled down my wife's underdress. Then the soldier opened his pants and got on my wife. I heard the breath of the soldier and knew that he was having sexual intercourse with my wife. Then he finished, my wife was fighting all the time. Before the soldier had sexual relations with my wife my wife and I tried to make him understand that my wife was not in physical condition to have intercourse. The soldier then made us understand that he did not want us to leave the house and took us downstairs to the waiting room. We stayed there about 15 mins without conversation. Then there was a knock on the door which my wife answered and Signor Cecchi entered. My wife asked him to stay with me and she went out. I had been going around in my pyjamas and went upstairs to get dressed leaving the accused and Cecchi downstairs. While changing I noticed that about 5000 lire which I had placed on the cabinet in my room that day was still there. I then went into the lavatory to wash and as I was coming out the soldier was waiting to get in and entered, the lavatory. I then went to my room and discovered that the money had disappeared.

Cross-Examination: Signor Biazini left my house before my wife and I and the accused went upstairs to search. The reason I didn't raise a complaint when we came downstairs after the attack on my wife was because the accused warned us not to go out but my wife got out as soon as she could. While the accused had my wife on the bed I did not see his penis but I saw him open his pants and get on top of my wife.

By the Court I do not understand English nor does my wife. When speaking to us the soldier spoke English with a few words of Italian. I am 60 years of age. My work is administrator of 62 farms. I do not own them. When I found the money gone from my room I went downstairs and while descending the stairs a Canadian Sergeant whom I know and who visits me was entering the house. The accused then left after having a few words of conversation with the Stt. I don't remember what hand the accused hit my wife with. When my wife was on the bed she was fighting to keep her legs together. My wife is not strong. I think she collapsed. While on my wife the accused was moving in the manner of one having sexual intercourse. The reason I did not attempt to apprehend the accused after Cecchi arrived was that I was not armed and I did not want to tell Cecchi what happened to my wife upstairs. I told the Sgt about the loss of the money but not about my wife. My wife was wearing an ordinary house dress. The accused had only a half glass of wine at my house. The accused was sober. While a Canadian Officer was investigating the loss of the money and questioning me, I then told of what happened to my wife.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Second witness for the Prosecution:

Iride Andreini having been duly sworn states: I am the wife of Conte Gaetano Andreini. I recognize the accused. I saw him 29 July 44 about 6 or 6.30 in the evening. I saw him in my home with my husband. They were talking when I entered the house. My husband then told me the accused was searching the house for Fascists. After a few minutes the soldier said he wanted to search upstairs so my husband, myself and accused went up. After searching some other rooms the soldier went into our bedroom --that of my husband and myself. The soldier was carrying a pistol in his right hand. When in the room the accused pointed the pistol at my husband. I did not just understand what the soldier was proposing to do but my husband stood between me and him. The soldier (accused) then grabbed my husband by the throat. My husband remained near the soldier until the soldier held the pistol against his chest and made him go to the other side of the bed. I don't remember exactly what I did while the accused was pointing the pistol at my husband. I was awfully afraid. I cried in a high voice and the soldier hit me in the face. The accused forced me onto the bed on the po opposite side to my husband. It is a wide bed. The soldier was lying on his side on the edge of the bed. The soldier removed my underdress.
(At this stage the witness shows signs of being emotionally upset and states that she does not wish to tell the actual details of what happened to her.

The Court assures her that she need not worry about doing so and explains that on charges of this kind she must give the whole story. She is assured that she would not be questioned on these points unless it were legally necessary.) The witness continues: I do not remember what happened after the accused took down my underdress. I became unconscious. Afterwards I found semen outside my private parts. The next thing I remember is my husband talking to the soldier. Then they went down stairs and I went to the lva lavatory. There was money in the room when we went in there. I saw the soldier looking at it so I put a handerchief over it. After coming out of the lavatory I went downstairs. Then Signor Cecchi came in and I asked him to remain and I went in and I asked him to remain and I went into the neighbor's apartment. I did not tell them what happened, I did not like to do so.

No cross-exam

By the Court - I am thirty years of age. I did not see the money after I put the handkerchief over it. I do not know what happened to it. I don't know what the amount of the moneywas.

RP 83(B) complied with

Third witness for the Prosecution

M-27117 Sgt W Milne, 14 Cdn Armd Regt having been duly sworn states: I recognize the accused. I saw him in the house of Conte Andreisii on 29 July last at about 1900 hours. I am fitter Sgt in a Tk Tp and I and my crew were invited to the Conte's house for supper that evening. The accused is not in my crew. The accused was coming down the staris from the upstairs of the house when I entered. He had a pistol in a holster. He asked me if I had come in for a drink and I informed him that I had come on invitation for supper. He asked for a ride back but we told him we did not know how long we'd be. He then left the house.

Cross-Exam: The accused was not in front room when I entered house. He did not seem in any hurry to leave until I told him about being invited for supper. When I entered the house, the Conte was outside the door.

By the Court: I could see no evidence of the accused having been drinking. He appeared quite sober.

Evidence for the Defence.

The accused having been duly sworn states: I was looking at pictures in the Hall of the Conte's house - a hall which separates two apartments. Four or five men came along. The Conte and one of the other men spoke to me and then I walked to the brewery. I asked there for wine but was given to understand that they had none. The Count and the other man were with me. The Count said he had wine and invited me to his house where I had a glass of wine. His wife came in with a water melon. While we were eating the melon the Count's friend went out. I can't swear why I went upstairs the first time. We looked in two rooms. The Count told me something I didn't understand. Then we went downstairs. We drank wine. The Count's wife got very excited about soldiers. She seemed to be scared of pistols. Mine was in my holster. We went upstairs again -- the Count, his wife and myself and went to the Conte's room. They were still talking about pistols. I took mine out and broke it to show them it wasn't loaded. They got very excited apparently thinking I was going to shoot them. The Count pushed his wife behind him. I put the pistol back in holster to see if they'd stop hollering. I saw money folded on dresser. I don't know how much. I saw it when I first went in room. The Count's wife tried to tell me there was something wrong with her. The Count sat on the edge of the bed holding his head in his hands and trying to tell me something was wrong. His wife was trying to pacify him. I sat on the edge of the bed next to the wife. The Count wanted to know if I wanted intercourse with his wife. He said "figi figi". He apparently had the impression that I wanted intercourse with his wife and that's the reason they were so excited. I tried to tell them I wasn't seeking intercourse.

I walked out of the room. The others followed me down. I drank more wine downstairs. Four or five minutes later an Italian came in and the Count's wife left. About 10 or 15 mins later the Count went up stairs. Later I went to lavatory then came down; was finishing wine as Sgt. Came in. He told me he and his fellows were invited to supper. I then went out to a truck and asked for a ride back to camp.

Cross-exam: When I entered the house there was no one there, I first removed pistol from holster in bedroom. I did not say I was looking for Fascists.

By the Court: I showed them the pistol was not loaded. It was not loaded. I don't know what kind of money it was.

SUMMING UP BY PROS.

The Count has said under oath that the accused had been into his house and while in the house had assaulted the Count and stolen a sum of money. From the time the money had been last seen until it was discovered missing the accused had been the only one upstairs.

SUMMING UP BY DEFENCE

As far as the charge of rape is concerned this was not brought into the case until a second Summary of Evidence was taken. The woman did not in her statement give any a indication that even if the act was committed that there was any penetration which must be proved. Similarly with the Conte's evidence.

According to the accused's evidence he never actually touched the Conte but he may quite reasonably have pointed his pistol at the Conte while he was in the act of breaking the pistol to show it was empty.

The accused admits seeing the money on the dresser in the bedroom when he first entered but not afterwards.

Second Witness:

Mr. G.P. Boyden, Manager, Barclays Bank, Horley, Surrey, having been duly sworn states:

I produce the monthly statements of account of the Sergeants' Mess, Officers' Mess, Nursing Sisters' Mess, Men's Canteen, P.R.I. Account and Barrack Damage Account of No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C. I have compared the certified true copies of the entries in the bank's books with these statements and the statements truly represent the accounts as contained in the bank's books with reference to these accounts. The above statements which I have certified to be such true copies, contain all the entries in the bank's books with reference to these accounts for the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43.

Statements of the Sergeants' Mess for the months of Jul 42 to Apr 43 are marked H.1 to H.10 consecutively.

Statements of the Officers' Mess for the months of Jul 42 to Apr 43 are marked I.1 to I.10 consecutively.

Statements of the Nursing Sisters' Mess for the months of Jul 42 to Apr 43 are marked J.1 to J.10 consecutively.

Statements of the Men's Canteen Account for the months of Jul 42 to Apr 43 are marked K.1 to K.10 consecutively.

Statements of the P.R.I. Account for the months of Dec 42 and Apr 43 are marked L.1 and L.2 respectively.

Statements of the Barrack Damage Account for the months of Dec 42 and Jan 43 are marked M.1 and M.2 respectively.

G. P. Boyden

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Third Witness:

Major J.M. Anderson, Regimental Funds Board, C.M.H.Q., having been duly sworn states:

I am a member of the Regimental Funds Board, C.M.H.Q., and on instructions received I supervised an audit of the Sergeants' Mess, Officers' Mess, Nursing Sisters' Mess, Men's Canteen, P.R.I. Account, and Barrack Damage Account of No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., and submitted a report on the audit of the Messes and Regimental Institutes of that Unit which report I now produce (report is marked exhibit N). This report showed that there existed, as of 30 Apr 43, the following shortages:-

Sergeants' Mess	£ 149:14:11
Officers' Mess	9: 8: 4
Nursing Sisters' Mess	37:15: 9
Men's Canteen	57:14: 5
P.R.I. Account	44: 4: 8
Barrack Damage Account	6: 5: -

There is an unexplained overage in the Patients' Fund Account of £2: -: -.

Verification of the amounts shown to have been received by the accountant of the unit and the payments made should have resulted in a balance, either in the bank or in cash on hand, and the shortage is the difference between what should have been on hand in cash and the actual cash produced. As there is no evidence that a simultaneous cash count was made at the end of each month, by the Unit Audit Board, it is impossible to say in what month, or months, the various shortages occurred. I can say that the shortages occurred between the 1 Jul 42 and 30 Apr 43. With reference to the audit of the Officers' Mess Account, the mere fact that cash income and disbursements may have been checked by the Sec'y-Treasurer, is not a complete protection and according to the records the loss as stated did occur. I am shown Cheque No. 2/g.026813 dated 10 Sep 42, drawn upon Barclays Bank Limited, Horley, Surrey, by the Nursing Sisters' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, in the sum of £16:12: -, which has been marked on the back for deposit and is marked on it's face, as paid. This cheque is included in a deposit in the Account of the Men's Canteen as of 29 Sep 42 but the books of the Men's Canteen fail to show the receipt of this cheque. It would be possible, by including this cheque in the bank deposits, to withhold cash which should have been deposited, without disturbing the balance between the cash book and the bank.

Regimental Funds Board, C.M.H.Q.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Fourth Witness:

D-92505 Q.M.S. Plumpton, W.J., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

From 1 Jun 42 to 7 Sep 42 I was President of the Sergeants' Mess Committee, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital. The income of the Sergeants' Mess at that time came from members' monthly dues and bar sales, collected respectively by L/Sgts. Smith and the Sergeant who was bar steward for the time being. I should say that this system came into use, perhaps during the month of July 1942 and prior to that time there had been a permanent Mess Steward. The practise was for L/Sgt. Smith, who was the Treasurer of the Mess, as well as the accountant for all the Messes and Institutes, to collect, each day, the receipts for the previous day's sales from the bar, with the exception of what was considered necessary for the making of change. I did not check the amounts of money which L/Sgt. Smith collected from the Sergeant in the bar and I did not check to see whether he had deposited that money in the bank as it was his responsibility to do so. He not only looked after the banking of money but he prepared the Financial Statement for the Mess. I identify the accused as L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith. At a meeting of the Sergeants' Mess on the 6 Jul 42 it was decided to change the method of operating the Mess, whereby we had had a permanent steward and that in the future there would be a roster of members of the mess who would be on duty for a week at a time. A tour of duty would be from 0800 hours on Monday morning to 0800 hours the following Monday morning. During the time that I was President of the Mess Committee, Sgt. Franklin, S., was Secretary and L/Sgt. Smith, H.M., was Treasurer.

Fifth Witness:

D-95645 L/Sgt. Homer, A., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

From 7 Sep 42 to 10 Jan 43 I was Secretary of the Sergeants' Mess, L/Sgt. Smith, H.M. was Treasurer and Q.M.S. Walker, A. was President. The income of the Mess came from Mess Dues and cash sales at the bar, all collected by the bar steward who handed over the proceeds to the Treasurer on the Monday morning when a new steward would take over for the new week. Presumably the Treasurer deposited the money in the bank. I did not check any of the receipts of cash or the deposits in the bank. The Financial Statements, being the Abstracts of Receipts and Disbursements, were prepared by the Treasurer.

Sixth Witness:

D-95848 Q.M.S. Sigouin, H., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

From 10 Jan 43 until 30 Apr 43 I was President of the Sergeants' Mess Committee, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C. The income of the Sergeants' Mess was generally speaking all in cash. Members paid ten shillings each per month as Mess Dues and a nominal roll was kept in the bar showing the names of those who had paid and who had been given receipts either by the bar steward or by L/Sgt. H.M. Smith. I do not know how that money was handled but as regards other cash which came into the Mess which was by way of bar sales, all of which were in cash and paid, at the time, to the Sergeant who was then acting as bar steward. I know that L/Sgt. Smith collected the previous day's sales each morning, leaving behind only sufficient for bar change. No receipt was given by L/Sgt. Smith to the Bar Steward who handed over money to him. L/Sgt. Smith was the Treasurer of our Mess during that part of the time that I was President, up to some time near the end of March 1943. Because he was Treasurer of the Mess, I considered that L/Sgt. Smith was the person responsible for depositing the cash received in the bank and accounting for it. I did not check the amounts of money which L/Sgt. Smith received from the Sergeant in the bar to see whether he had made the deposit in the bank. I identify L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith as the accused. During that period Sgt. Atchison, W.M., was Secretary of the Mess Committee and L/Sgt. Smith, H.M., was Treasurer, as well as Accountant of all Messes and Institutes. Sgt. Franklin, S., replaced L/Sgt. Smith, H.M., as Treasurer about 18 Mar 43. L/Sgt. Smith prepared the Financial Statements.

Seventh Witness:

D-95842 Sgt. S. Franklin, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

At a Special Meeting of the Sergeants' Mess on 18 Mar 43 I was elected to fill the position of Treasurer made vacant by the demotion of Cpl. H.M. Smith, and remained Treasurer until after 30 Apr 43. In practice I did not do any accounting up till the 1 May 43 although I did collect the money from the bar man. When I took over from L/Sgt. Smith as Treasurer of the Sergeants' Mess at the middle of March 1943, he turned over to me the balance of his cash on hand, being £7: -: -, for which I gave him a receipt - this did not include any uncollected money in the bar.

Eighth Witness:

D-95660 Sgt. Payne, T.M.B., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

When I was bar steward I followed the usual procedure of entering the total amount of the day's takings from the bar sales and Mess Dues in the Daily Cash Book and at the end of my tour of duty I turned over my money to L/Sgt. Smith, H.M., who signed an acknowledgement in the book (Daily Cash Takings Book is marked exhibit O). At some time during the month of July 1942 a change was made in the system of providing bar stewards for the Sergeants' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, and as a result we used a duty roster in which Sergeants are detailed to act as bar steward for a week at a time. I have acted as bar steward for one week, around the end of September and first of October 42. L/Sgt. Smith, as Treasurer of the Sergeants' Mess, and Unit Accountant, collected all the money taken in for Mess Dues and Bar Sales at the end of my week's tour of duty. I did not get a receipt for it. I had no conversation with him as to what he was going to do with the money.

Ninth Witness:

Major William Cohen, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I was Sec'y-Treasurer of the Officers' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital during the period 1 Jul 42 to 14 Oct 42. During that time L/Sgt. Smith, H.M. (now Cpl.) was accountant of the Officers' Mess and as such and being considered to be a competent and reliable N.C.O., and accountant was responsible for making all bank deposits and Petty Cash payments when required and prepared all Financial Statements.

At that time it was my practice to list the cheques and cash received by the Officers' Mess and to send L/Sgt. Smith to the bank to make the deposit. In all such cases, upon his return, I checked the duplicate deposit slip bearing the teller's initials, in order to satisfy myself that the deposit had been duly made. I think that on only one occasion I made a deposit myself. Cpl. Smith is frequently referred to as L/Sgt. Smith because he held that appointment while carrying out the duties of Accountant. He reverted to his substantive rank of Cpl., 12 Mar 43 but this reversion had nothing to do with the offences with which he is charged. During my term of office as Sec'y-Treasurer the other members of the Officers' Mess Committee were Major A.R. Bazin, President, Capt. H. Van Wyck, Vice-President, and Capt. J.E. Tenth Witness:

Capt. J.M. Kilgour, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I was the Sec'y-Treasurer of the Officers' Mess Committee, No. 14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., from 15 Oct 42 to 30 Apr 43. During that period cash came into the Mess from three sources: (a) a small amount from cash sales from the bar. (b) payment of Mess bills in cash. (c) cash refunds for containers, etc. These cash receipts were placed in a cash box to which only the members of the Mess Committee had access and were balanced at the end of each month against the Petty Cash Book. Every cash sale in the bar was covered with a chit and marked "Cash Sale" and at the end of each day I collected the cash and checked it against the chits. Mess accounts paid in cash were received either by me or some other member of the Mess Committee and the money was placed in the Cash Box and its receipt noted in the Petty Cash Book as well as in the Messing Account Book. As regards cash refunds - these were turned over to me by the person who obtained them and I placed the money in the cash box and made an entry in the Petty Cash Book. Disbursements of Petty Cash were either made personally by me to some person for the purpose of a purchase or payment and I received a receipt, or the money was turned over to Cpl. Smith for deposit and I placed the money in the payment or for deposit in the bank. He furnished a receipt. Sums of money given to Cpl. Smith for deposit were all subsequently checked by means of the receipts and the entries in the Petty Cash Book against the Bank Book and during the period when I was Sec'y-Treas. all such funds were accounted for. At no time, when I was present, do I recall a cheque having been drawn for the purpose of providing Petty Cash but I believe it may have been done on one or more occasions when I was away, probably for the purpose of paying Mess Stewards when there was not sufficient Petty Cash in the cash box. Cheques in payment of Mess Accounts, etc. were always, so far as I can recall, made out in favour of the Officers' Mess. The only way in which I can account for the shortage of £9: 8: 4 disclosed by the audit of the Regimental Funds Board, is that it might have occurred in connection with some of the sales and purchases that took place, from time to time, between the various Messes and the Men's Canteen, since the balances owing were sometimes paid in cash. During the period I have mentioned, Cpl., (L/Sgt) Smith, was the person who did all the depositing of funds in the bank unless he was away, in which

I was Assistant Secretary-Treasurer of the Officers' Mess from 15 Oct 42 to ~~30~~ Apr 43. In the Cash Book kept by Cpl. Smith were entered amounts of cheques received in payment of Officers' accounts and of sales to other Messes of the unit. Disbursements by cheque were also entered in this book. It was kept by Cpl. Smith until about the end of December after which he appears to have let most of his work slip and it was brought up to date by Sgt. Payne and the auditors. Prior to that time he had been the only person using the book. Capt. Kilgour and I kept up the Petty Cash book, noting in it the receipts and disbursements of Petty Cash. All other books were kept by Cpl. Smith. The bar steward, Pte. Hickey, W.J., turned over to us, very small amounts of cash taken in at the bar on the following morning. As of 30 Apr 43 I checked the cash and there was no cash on hand.

Twelfth Witness:

Lieut. (N/S) MacLean, M., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I was Treasurer of the Nursing Sisters' Mess from 10 Nov 42 until 25 Mar 43. It was the practice at that time, for the Treasurer to be regarded as an assistant to Home Sister Monkhouse in financial matters, she however, had no authority to sign cheques which required the signature of any two of the Committee. At dances drinks would be sold for cash to guests who were not members of the Unit and the money was collected at the time by L/Cpl. Hughes or his assistant. L/Cpl. Hughes would have the takings of the bar under his control and as soon as the bar had closed after the dance, would turn the money over to Home Sister Monkhouse. Mess bills were, as a rule, paid by cheque but some would be paid in cash and either H/S Monkhouse or I received payment of Mess accounts. The above were the only cash receipts. All bank deposits of cash or cheques were made by L/Sgt. Smith who would receive the cheques and cash from me or from H/S Monkhouse. I never obtained a receipt for any cheques or cash which I turned over to him, nor did I verify the deposit in the bank account afterwards. I know that I have seen some of our cheques for deposit, stamped with the stamp reading "For Deposit Only" and having a place for signature but I do not know whether all cheques for deposit in the Mess Account were so stamped, as this was done by L/Sgt. Smith. Small accounts were paid by H/S Monkhouse from Petty Cash for which, cheques against the account were issued when necessary and usually for £20 or £30. Such cheques were made payable to Petty Cash and both signed and countersigned following which they were turned over to L-Sgt. Smith to cash. Such sums would be used to pay small accounts owing by the Mess and to make cash purchases but so far as I know, cash collected at dances was never used as Petty Cash, being turned over to L/Sgt. Smith intact for deposit. During the time that I was Treasurer of our Mess I considered L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith to be the person responsible for banking and drawing money, as above stated, for the Mess, and for the preparation of Financial Statements. I identify the accused as L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith.

Thirteenth Witness:

Lieut. (N/S) Hopper, E.M., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I was Treasurer of the Nurses' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., from 6 Jul 42 till 10 Nov 42. During that time H/S. Monkhouse had no authority to sign cheques but she had certain duties with regard to the handling of Petty Cash. Cheques issued by the Mess required the signature of two members of the Committee. Cash was received by the Mess from only two sources namely, cash payment for drinks at dances by guests who were not members of the Unit and the occasional payment of a Mess Bill by a member, in cash, though most mess bills were paid by cheque. Cheques in payment of Mess accounts were always made payable to the Nursing Sisters' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., and when these were received by me, or when I received cash in payment of a Mess Account, I turned them over to H/S Monkhouse but I did not obtain any receipt from her, and I did not check the Bank Account to see whether the money was deposited. I knew that all bank deposits were supposed to be made by L/Sgt. Smith but I do not know how this was done in detail. I do not remember just how Petty Cash was obtained but I know that H/S Monkhouse was supposed to pay small accounts from Petty Cash and that cheques for that purpose were issued. I produce cheque No. 2/G.026813 dated 10 Sep 42 on Barclays Bank Limited at Horley in the sum of £16:12: -, payable to the Men's Canteen, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, stamped "Nursing Sisters' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital" and signed Esther M. Hopper and Cecil M. MacDonald. I identify the signature Esther M. Hopper as my own but I do not know for what purpose this cheque was issued, and the endorsement on the back is not in my handwriting (this cheque is marked exhibit P). L/Sgt. Smith, H.M., (now Cpl.) whom I recognize as the accused, was the accountant of our Mess and in addition to handling funds, as I have stated, he prepared our Financial Statements. I identify the accused as L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith. The abovementioned cheque (marked exhibit P) is shown as a deposit on 29 Sep 42 in the Men's Canteen Account at Barclays Bank.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Fourteenth Witness:

Lieut. (N/S) Monkhouse, M.B., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I am Home Sister of the Nursing Sisters' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., and held that position between the dates 1 Jul 42 and 30 Apr 43. In that capacity it is part of my duties to disburse Petty Cash which is used to pay for goods delivered to the door and to pay small accounts renedred. When I needed cash for this purpose I would either speak to the Treasurer or to L/Sgt. Smith and while I would not see the cheque, L/Sgt. Smith would turn over an amount of money to me, usually between £20 and £30, as to the disbursement of which, I kept a record in a Petty Cash Book. I consider myself to be an assistant to the Treasurer. The Mess had two sources of cash income, one being from cash sales of drinks to guests at dances who were not members of this Unit, and the other being the occasional payment of Mess Accounts in cash by members. Most Mess Accounts were paid by cheque. So far as I recall, I usually received the sum of £20 unless I asked for more. After a dance L/Cpl. Hughes would turn over the proceeds of cash sales to the President and Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, who would count it and turn it over to me that night or the following morning. I entered this amount in the Daily Cash Takings Book, in which were also entered the daily total of chits. This money I would turn over to L/Sgt. Smith, usually on that day or the day following but I received no receipt from him and not having the Bank Book in my possession I made no check to see whether that amount was deposited. Likewise, in the case of Mess Accounts, which were paid either to the Treasurer or to me, I turned over the cheques and the cash to L/Sgt. Smith, but obtained no receipt and do not know what amount he deposited. From 1 Jul 42 until some time around the end of Mar 43 I considered that Cpl. H.M. Smith was the person responsible for depositing funds in the Mess Account and generally doing our banking and preparing our Financial Statements. I identify the accused as L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith. I produce Daily Cash Takings Book (marked exhibit Q) in which I wrote an entry of a receipt of £9: -: 9 on Sep 5, 42 and Deposit Slip Book (marked exhibit Q.A) in which, for the months of Sep and Oct 42, I am unable to find a corresponding entry to show that amount deposited by Cpl. Smith.

H B Monkhouse Lieut (N/S)

(H.B. Monkhouse)Lieut. (N/S),
No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hosp., RCAMC.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Fifteenth Witness:

Major G.W. Halpenny, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

During the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43 I was Chairman of the Men's Canteen Committee, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital and during the same period up to the election on 15 Apr 43, when Major Petrie was elected to succeed me, I was Chairman of the Regimental Institutes Committee, though for all practical purposes I remained Chairman of the latter Committee until 30 Apr 43 because of the efforts being made to straighten out the financial situation. The Men's Canteen business is conducted by N.A.A.F.I. which turns over to the Canteen Committee 6% of the gross sales monthly. These payments were by cheque and the cheques were received by L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) Smith, the accused whom I recognize. He was supposed to deposit them in the Horley branch of Barclays Bank. These cheques did not require the endorsement of the members of the Committee. In addition the Men's Canteen has two other sources of cash receipts. Dances are held and an admission fee is charged, the proceeds were collected by L/Sgt. Smith from a member of the Dance Committee, which sum would amount to not more than five pounds after the orchestra had been paid in cash. I did not check the bank deposits in the Canteen Account for the purpose of finding out whether L/Sgt. Smith actually deposited the full amount he received. I have now checked the bank statement. I produce book of Barclays Bank Limited deposit slips, these slips being made in a handwriting which I recognize as that of L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) Smith (exhibit Q.1). Exhibits E.3, E.4 and E.6 show receipts of cash for dances. I recognize the signature of Cpl. Smith on receipts which are now marked Q.2, Q.3 and Q.4, purporting to acknowledge receipt of cash from dances. I have examined the bank statements and the bank deposit slips and have been unable to find any corresponding bank deposits. The second source of cash receipts handled by the Men's Canteen Committee, was through the sale of daily newspapers to patients and personnel of this unit. An arrangement has been in existence whereby the Men's Canteen Committee purchases 75 to 100 newspapers a day from Mallinson & Sons, Horley, and for convenience these are sold through the N.A.A.F.I. The proceeds from the sale of these newspapers was kept separate by Mrs. France, the Manageress of the N.A.A.F.I. Canteen, usually until the monthly bill for these newspapers was received by L/Sgt. Smith. He would then check the total amount of money on hand against the total daily sales and the corresponding daily charge on the bill, collect the money and would usually pay this bill from Mallinson & Son with this cash. A bill was rendered by Mr. Mallinson, dated 28 Feb 43, which included the sum of £12:18: 3 for the January account which had accordingly not been paid, and was subsequently paid, partly by cash and partly by cheque. (Receipted account in the sum of £27:19: -, is marked exhibit Q.5).

During the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43 I was Chairman of the Regimental Institutes, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital. During that time L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith, whom I recognize as the accused, was the accountant of the P.R.I. Account. As such it was his responsibility to collect cash and deposit it in the bank on receipt. This account was part of the Men's Canteen Account although under the jurisdiction of a separate committee until the 1 Nov 42 when a separate bank account was opened in Horley, with Barclays Bank and a separate Financial Statement was rendered monthly. The source of revenue for this account came from work done by the Unit Barber and Unit Tailor. The money was collected by L/Sgt. Smith from the berber at the end of the month and this amount was checked against the daily signatures for haircuts, kept by the barbers. The berber also collected money for work done by the tailor on the presentation of the necessary slip, given by the tailor for work done. This amount was checked against the daily work book kept by the tailor. These two sources of cash revenue were taken by L/Sgt. Smith, a signed receipt given by him, and then the tradesmen were paid their tradespay in cash and the remainder was supposed to have been deposited in the bank in the P.R.I. Account. Bank statements L.1 and L.2 show that no deposits were made from the original deposit of Nov 28, 1942, £39: 7: 4, until the end of April.

Sixteenth Witness:

Mrs. I.J. France, Manageress, N.A.A.F.I. Canteen, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I am the Manageress of the N.A.A.F.I. Canteen at No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C. I know L/Sgt. H.M.Smith of this unit and know that he was the accountant of the Men's Canteen, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C. As a result of an arrangement made with the Men's Canteen which had contracted for the delivery of a number of newspapers each day, the papers were delivered to me to be sold by retail and I collected the money and kept a record of same. At the end of each month L/Sgt. Smith checked the amount of money I had received and gave me a receipt for it. He would usually check my book with Mallinson's Bill. My book contains the following receipts:- for the latter part of June and the month of July 42 £ 7:14: 5

2 Sep 42 L/Sgt. Smith collected	11:16: 1
the payment for Sept. papers was collected by Sgt. Payne	8:19: 1
18 Nov 42 L/Sgt. Smith collected	11: 2: 8

During the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43 I have been employed as a barber with the unit. Each customer paid 6d for a haircut and I collected the money from him and he signed his name in my book.

Until about March 1943 when I would go to the Registrar's Office around the first of each month I would turn over the money I had collected to Sgt. H.M. Smith who would give me my tradespay and keep the balance, and give me a receipt. I would not know what became of the money after that. After sometime in March 1943 someone else collected the money. I produce the following receipts which I obtained from Cpl. H.M. Smith and covering takings of the Barber and Tailor Shops:-

Smith before, when he came into my place of business in this regard. I am shown receipted accounts which were prepared from my books, as follows:

Account dated 31 Oct 42, marked "Paid in Cash 19 Nov 42" (marked exhibit T.1).

Account dated 30 Nov 42, marked "Paid in Cash 10 Dec 42" (marked exhibit T.2).

M-24164 S/Sgt. Dixon, C., Regimental Funds Board, states:-

The shortage in the Nursing Sisters' Mess consisted of - prior to 31 Jan 43. Cash sales not entered and not deposited in the bank - £ 9: -: 9

Nursing Sisters' Accounts paid in cash and not entered - 31 Jan 43 to 30 Apr 43 - 22:11: 5

Nursing Sisters' Accounts paid in cash and not entered or deposited - 6: 3: 7

Men's Canteen
Cash outstanding

A cheque issued to the Men's Canteen by the Nursing Sisters' Mess and deposited in the bank but not entered in the receipts and therefore the sum of £16:12: 0 in cash could be withdrawn ~~and replaced~~ without showing any shortage in the books.

Another item in the sum of £3: 3: 0 is a cheque issued by the Cash Allowance to the Men's Canteen was not shown in receipts but was deposited in the bank and therefore the money could be withdrawn without the shortage being seen.

In January 1943 the records indicate that L/Sgt. Smith collected £12: 8: 0 from the N.A.A.F.I. and that this was normally used by him to pay the account of the newspaper dealer Mr. Mallinson but this was not done and there is no trace of the money. The account in the sum of £13: 9: 0 was actually paid in March.

The P.R.I. Account receipts from the Barber and Tailor shops were £241:15: 3. The disbursements were £152: 8: 8 but there was only cash on hand of £33:12: 5 and in the bank of £11:12: 6, a total shortage of £44: 4: 8.

The Barrack Damage Account showed a shortage of £6: 5: 0. There were no books. The receipts were shown by the Paymaster's Acquittance Rolls and these were checked against the deposits in the bank less the cash on hand leaving £6: 5: 0 not accounted for. The Paymaster obtained receipts from Colonel A. Ross.

Audit of Messes and Regimental Institutes
No.14 Canadian General Hospital R.C.A.M.C

1. Pursuant to your instructions we now report that we have completed the audit of the affairs of the Regimental Messes and Institutes of the m/n Hospital for the period from 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43.

2. We have prepared and submit herewith the following financial statements covering the period under review:-

		Appendix
Officers' Mess	1 Jul 42 to 31 Jan 43	A
	1 Feb 43 to 30 Apr 43	A 1
Nursing Sisters' Mess	1 Jul 42 to 31 Jan 43	B
	1 Feb 43 to 30 Apr 43	B 1
Sergeants' Mess	1 Jul 42 to 31 Jan 43	C
	Months of Feb Mar & Apr 43	C 1 - 3
Men's Canteen	1 Jul 42 to 31 Jan 43	D
	1 Feb 43 to 30 Apr 43	D 1
P. R. I. Account	1 Nov 42 to 30 Apr 43	E
Barrack Damage Acct.	29 Oct 42 to 30 Apr 43	F
Patients' Fund	1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43	G
C.O's Fund	1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43	H
2nd Cash Element Acct.	Fiscal year ended 26 Mar 43	I
	Month of Apr 43	I 1

3. The Cash on Hand at 30 Apr 43 was verified by actual count and stock inventories at that date duly certified as correct by various officers of the Unit. Bank balances as at 30 April have been verified by certificate from the bank with the exception of the balances in the West End Branch, Bank of Montreal, Montreal P.Q. We are awaiting certificates from Canada covering these balances of £108. 0. 0. and £25. 1. 0. standing to the credit of the Men's Canteen and C.O's Fund respectively.

4. We have had exhibited to us a verification request dated 23 Mar 43 from the Bank of Montreal Head Office inspection department, which states that the West End Branch, Montreal, held for safekeeping in the name of No.14 General Hospital R.C.A.M.C. $2,000 Dominion of Canada 3% 1952 at that date.

5. The members of the various messes, with the exception of a few who were not available, have signed to the effect that the amounts shown as due from them at 30 April are correct, and statements of account as at that date have been obtained from all firms and individuals known to have had dealings with the hospital.

6. In our opinion, the Balance Sheets and supporting statements accompanying this report are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of affairs of the Messes and Institutes, according to the best of our information and the explanations given to us and as shown by the books and records produced.

7. The Regimental Accountant L/Sgt. Smith H.M. supervised and operated all the Unit Messes and Funds with the exception of the C.O's Fund and the 2nd Cash Element Account.

8. Suitable books and records were in existence for the funds administered by L/Sgt. Smith H.M. but they were either disregarded entirely, or with the exception of cash books and accounts receivable records, discontinued during the month of September 1942.

9. Considerable reliance was placed on the Regimental Accountant with the result that he was entrusted with the preparation of cheques, the recording of transactions in the books, the preparation of Bank deposit slips and the actual deposit of cheques and cash.

10. From an examination of the books and records produced it would appear that no proper audit had been conducted subsequent to the month of August 1942, and in our opinion a similtaneous cash count of all funds made at any time subsequent to 30 Sep 42 would have revealed a cash shortage.

11. All monies received were not deposited in the bank, contrary to R.M.M.C. 1942 para 16, and numerous disbursements were made from cash receipts. Cash was seldom deposited during the period under review resulting in an increasing balance of cash said to have been on hand.

12. As a result of our audit and the cash counts conducted on 30 Apr 43 a net shortage of £303. 3. 1. was revealed on all funds administered by L/Sgt. Smith H.M.

13. We submit the following observations on the various Regimental Messes and Institutes.

Officers' Mess

14. A considerable number of Accounts Receivable have been allowed to remain in arrears, regardless of the fact that this was observed on in our letter dated 30 Dec 42.

15. Several payments have been made which include foods invoiced to and received by the Nursing Sisters' Mess, and goods have been invoiced and received by this Mess but paid for by the Nursing Sisters' Mess. Some difficulty was experienced in segregating these items and making the proper charges from one mess to the other.

16. A number of vouchers were missing, but the amounts of the expenditures involved appeared reasonable, most items being satisfactorily explained. These items have been allowed.

17. The audited financial statement for the month of Jan 43 as submitted to the Regimental Funds Board was not prepared from the books and records, and does not exhibit the true facts. Disbursements were shown in this statement that were not actually paid until February and March 43, and in some instances were not paid as at the date of the audit. It is difficult to understand how Capt. J. M. Kilgour could certify that Cash on Hand as at 31 Jan 43 amounted to £59. 7.10 when in fact there should only have been £23. 12. 4 on hand as shown by our audited statement.

18. The Cash Shortage of £9. 8. 4. was the amount of cash that should have been on hand as at 30 Apr 43, but as certified to by Capt. C. W. V. McCutcheon, the Secretary-Treasurer of this Mess, there was no cash at all on hand.

19. The Committees for the period covered by our audit are as follows:-

1 Jul to 15 Oct 42	Major A.E.Bazin	President
	Capt.Van Wyck	Vice-President
	Capt.(now Major) W.Cohen	Sec-Treas.
	Capt.McGovern	Asst.Sec-Treas.
15 Oct 42 to 30 Apr 43	Major Gordon Petrie	President
	H/Capt.R.D.Scott	Vice-President
	Capt.J.M.Kilgour	Sec-Treas.
	Capt.C.W.V.McCutcheon	Asst.Sec-Treas.

Nursing Sisters' Mess

20. The Cash and Accounts Receivable books were the only records maintained for the entire period under review. These were not totalled or balanced for the months of February, March and April 43.

21. The Cash Shortage in this Mess as at 30 Apr 43 of £37.15. 9 represented actual cash receipts not deposited in the Bank, nor accounted for in any way. The shortages commenced in September 42, the first item being Cash Sales of £9. 0. 9. turned over to L/Sgt. Smith by 2 Lieut. N/S Monkhouse. This receipt was not entered in the general cash book kept by L/Sgt. Smith or deposited in the bank. The shortages continued throughout the period from Sep 42 to Feb 43, the actual cash receipts not being accounted for. The Bar was conducted largely on the chit system and very little actual cash was received each month. Presumably it was intended to deposit cash in Jan 43, when actual cash receipts of £12.18. 4 were listed on the duplicate deposit slip, but not added in the total and not shown at all on the original deposit slip turned in at the Bank.

22. Bar chits for guest entertainment at Mess dinners, and in the Mess, could not be produced at the time of this audit.

23. The variation of £25.12. 7 as shown by the Accountability statement as at 30 Apr 43 is probably due to free drinks, and Bar Stock used in the Mess not being taken into account.

24. It will be noted by reference to the Trading Profit and Loss statement for the period 1 Jul 42 to 31 Jan 43 (Appendix B) that the gross profit on the bar sales was 27.90%. For the three months period ended 30 Apr 43 (Appendix B 1) the gross profit dropped to 10.27%. This was due to greatly decreased sales of Beer and Liquor, the two chief items of Bar Stock from which a substantial profit is derived.

25. The Committees for the period covered by our audit are as follows:

1 July to Nov 42	Lieut.	N/S C.McDonald	President
	"	N/S A.Tennant	Vice-President
	"	N/S C.Campbell	Secretary
	"	N/S Hopper	Treasurer
Nov 42 to Apr 43	"	N/S W.Crombie	President
	"	N/S M.Mowatt	Vice-President
	"	N/S H.Craig	Secretary
	"	N/S M.McLean	Treasurer

(Cont.)

Sergeants' Mess

26. The Regimental Accountant L/Sgt. Smith, was the Treasurer of this Mess, and had full control over all cash and bank transactions.

27. The Cash Book was written up and balanced monthly, but cash on hand was short as from the end of Sep 42 and the shortage became progressively greater in amount each month. This would have been apparent had an actual physical check been made at any time during the period involved. The accumulated shortage to 30 Apr 43 was £149.14.11.

28. The Cash Balance, said to have been on hand at the close of business on 31 Dec 42, as reflected in the statement submitted to the Regimental Funds Board, amounted to £104.10. 9. Failure to deposit this large sum during the succeeding month resulted in the following observation being made by this Board. Para 13 of R.F.B. letter 41/14 Cdn Gen Hosp/1 dated 11 Mar 43 reads:

> "It will be noted that the opening cash balance of £104.10. 9, which amount should have been deposited in the bank during the first week of January, is still on hand at the close of January. The Receipts of £88. 6.10 appear to be the only deposits made. May it be explained, please, why this sum of £104.10. 9 was not deposited in January 43. Loss by bombing, fire and theft is always prevalent, therefore cash should be deposited in the bank as often as possible."

29. The financial position of the Sergeants' Mess was commented on by the Regimental Funds Board in Dec 42, when the following observation was submitted to the unit in a letter dated 30 Dec 42, para 5 (d) of which reads:

> "May action be taken to improve the liquid position of this Mess at once, please, so that all accounts with suppliers may be promptly settled."

Under date of 4 Jan 43, the Unit replied - re para 5 "Such action taken." In view of this reply it was assumed by R.F.B. that careful supervision of the financial affairs of this Mess would be exercised in future.

30. The Officers' Mess is the largest creditor of this Mess, and an agreement was reached with the Officers' Mess committee to defer the payment of this account until the financial position was improved, providing all future purchases would be on a cash basis. All other creditors have been paid subsequent to the date of the audit.

31. When the true financial condition of the mess was realized, and subsequent to this audit, a per capita levy of £1. 0. 0 was agreed to by the members in order that necessary working capital could be made available to continue operations. The amount realized is set up as an Account Payable in the books, payment of which is to be made when sufficient surplus has accumulated to ensure the solvency of the Institute.

32. The Committees for the period covered by our audit are as follows:

July to Aug 42	Q.M.S. Plumpton W.J.	President
	Sgt. Franklin B.S.	Secretary
	L/Sgt. Smith H.M.	Treasurer
Sept to Dec 42	Q.M.S. Walker A.	President
	L/Sgt. Homer A.	Secretary
	L/Sgt. Smith H.M.	Treasurer

Jan to April 43

Q.M.S. Sigourin H.	President
Sgt. Atchison W.M.	Secretary
L/Sgt. Smith H.M.	Treasurer

Sgt. Franklin S. was elected Treasurer in March 43 to replace L/Sgt. Smith H.M.

Major (now Lt. Col.) Johnston was the Supervising Officer of the Sergeants' Mess for the entire period under review.

Men's Canteen

33. The Canteen did not operate as such during the period under review, the revenue being derived from N.A.A.F.I. 6% rebates, barber, tailor shops, and miscellaneous revenue.

34. The total Cash Shortage of this Institute amounts to £57.14. 5.

35. The Cash Book was discontinued in November 42 and was not closed off for that month.

36. It was the practice for L/Sgt. Smith to make collection of cash receipts from the barbers' and tailors' shops, etc. He paid the employees in cash, taken from these receipts, for services rendered and expenses incurred. The balance of cash after these disbursements had been made was held by him for later deposit in the Bank.

37. The Nursing Sisters' Mess paid the Canteen the sum of £16.12. 0 by cheque No.2/6026813 dated 10 Sep 42 for a credit note on H.Bowyer & Son.

38. In this connection the Regimental Funds Board submitted the following observations to the Unit, see para 8 of letter dated 1 Oct 42, quoted hereunder:

> "The June statement shows a credit from H.Bowyer & Sons of £16.12. 0 which appears to have been dropped in this statement without any comment. Please explain."

In answer to this observation the R.F.B. received a letter from the Unit dated 19 Oct 42. Para 4 (a) is quoted below:

> "The credit note was applied on a Nursing Sisters' Mess Account with H.Bowyer & Son and an equivalent amount has been credited to the Men's Canteen from the Nursing Sisters' Mess."

A further observation was sent to the Unit by the Regimental Funds Board in a letter dated 9 Feb 43 of which para 11 reads:

> "During the month of Sept the Nursing Sisters' Mess shows a payment of £16.12. 0 to the Men's Canteen which account can not be traced in the receipts of the Men's Canteen statement. Please advise where this receipt may be found."

In answer to this observation para 11 of a letter from the Unit dated 22 Feb 43 is quoted:

> "The amount of £16.12. 0 was paid to H.Bowyer & Son and not to the Men's Canteen as shown. This amount, together with another payment of £29.12. 4 clears the account payable of £46. 4. 4. shown on the August statement."

This reply was not satisfactory, and a further letter was dispatched to the Unit on 11 Mar 43, a copy of which is attached to this report. A cheque for £3. 3. 0. received from the 2½d Cash Ration Allowance was treated in exactly the same manner as the £16.12. 0 from the Nursing Sisters' Mess; the cheque being deposited in the Canteen Bank account, but now shown in the receipts, thus cash to this amount probably being withdrawn without disclosing actual cash shortage. Our audit revealed that these cheques were deposited in the Canteen Bank account during Sep 42, but not entered in the Cash Book receipts, therefore actual cash to this amount was short.

39. The N.A.A.F.I. would not take the responsibility for any loss on the sale of newspapers so all papers were charged to the Men's Canteen, but delivered to the N.A.A.F.I. Canteen for sale.

40. The books did not record any newspaper transactions whatsoever during the period L/Sgt. Smith was the book-keeper, yet it appears the following transactions took place:

The Officers' Mess received Sunday papers for which no accounting had been made. L/Sgt. Smith collected the Cash from the N.A.A.F.I. for the sale of these newspapers and paid the wholesale paper dealer; but at no time was the amount collected from N.A.A.F.I. sufficient to pay the wholesaler in full the balance being made up from Canteen Cash without any accounting therefor.

41. Although L/Sgt. Smith collected the proceeds of £12. 8. 0 from the N.A.A.F.I. for the month of January 43 he did not pay the money over to the paper dealer or deposit these receipts in the Bank.

42. The Committees and sub-committees for the period under review are as follows:

1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43	Committee	Sub-Committee
	Major G.W.Halpenny	Spr.A.V.Tekl
	Major F.W.Wigglesworth	Pte.J.McCormack
	Major W.Mason Couper	Pte.J.H.Mahoney
	Capt.T.G.Pyshe

P.R.I. Account

43. The financial transactions of the barber and tailor shops were transferred from the Canteen to this account in November 1942. A shoemaker's shop and photographer's shop started operations in March 1943.

44. A Bank Account was opened in November with the deposit of a cheque from the Canteen for the net amount of the revenue of the barber and tailor shops, which had been credited to the Canteen Account. This was the only deposit made during the entire period under review. Cash revenue was collected and Cash disbursements were made by L/Sgt. Smith H.W.

45. The barber, Pte. Ancil, is running a small privately owned Canteen in the barber's shop, obtaining his supplies on credit from British suppliers, charged to this account. During May 43 he reimbursed this account for the cost price of supplies he received in Nov 42 and made payment direct to the supplier for additional goods he received in April 43.

46. It was suggested to Major Petrie that this canteen cease operating immediately, as it was contrary to regulations. N.A.A.F.I. is operating a canteen for the benefit of the men and the unit is receiving the 6% rebate, as previously mentioned.

47. The Committees for the period covered by our audit are as follows:

Barrack Damages

48. No books whatsoever could be produced for this account at the time of audit.

49. The Paymaster collected the revenue of this account, andpaid it to Col. A. Ross, from whom he obtained a receipt. Col. Ross, in turn handed the cash to L/Sgt. H.M.Smith for deposit in the bank, who gave Col. Ross his receipt for the amount involved.

50. The revenue of this account was derived from the 6% rebates on N.A.A.F.I. Canteen Sales to Patients and received by cheques which have been deposited in the bank without deduction.

51. All disbursements were made by cheque with the exception of £2. Petty Cash paid to Spr. Forbes. This £2. was cash belonging to one of the other Institutes, but as it was not known to which Institute it belonged, it is treated in this statement as cash over.

52. There was no committee appointed for this Institute.

55. The books and records of this fund came under the control of Major R. Ferguson, and were found to be quite satisfactory.

56. The books, Bank Statements, returned cheques, vouchers etc. were all in good order for audit purposes.

57. At the end of the fiscal year this fund was overexpended by £128. 0.10, which amount is shown as a reduction from the liability due to the Canteen.

Audit of Regimental Institutes
Months of Sep, Oct, Nov and Dec 42

1. With reference to your answers to our observations re the m/n returns contained in your letter 279/8/7/5 dated 22 Feb 43, we comment as follows:-

2. Para 11 (a) During the month of Aug 42 the amount of £16.12. 0. which had previously been shown as an Account Receivable in the Men's Canteen was dropped without any explanation.

(b) In answer to our observation regarding this, we refer you to Para 4 of your letter 279/8/7/5 dated 19 Oct 42, in which you state that this credit note was taken over by the N/S Mess and an equivalent amount paid to the Men's Canteen from the N/S Mess.

(c) During the month of Sep 42 the N/S Mess shows this payment of £16.12. 0 to the Men's Canteen, but the Men's Canteen statement does not show the receipt of this amount.

(d) In view of these facts the answer to our observation re (c) above is not understood. However, when L/Sgt. Smith visited this office he gave us to understand the payment of £16.12. 0 had been paid to H.H.Bowyer & Son instead of the Canteen by mistake, and that a refund would be claimed and credited to the Canteen.

(e) It is suggested that this amount be set up on the books of the Canteen as an Account Receivable until such time as the refund is received.

3. Para 13 (a) The amount of £4. 6. 3. was the first Zgd entitlement to be received, and which could not be traced in the books and records, or accounted for at the time of the last audit.

(b) This is not a proper charge against either Canteen or Regimental Funds, and therefore should be reimbursed without delay.

4. May an early reply, in duplicate, be received, please.

(Sgd.) G.E.W.Barton, Major, for (W.G.Stillman) Lt.Col.
President,
Regimental Funds Board.

that he has held civilian posts of importance with which were associated a good deal of responsibility. Insofar as is known to me, the charges which bring the accused before this court is the first & only deviation from the course usually thought to be in accord with so called good citizenship. It is further known to me that the accused is the son of a widowed mother & is the nephew of a very responsible citizen presently resident in Scotland. It is assumed the members of this court having perused the summary of evidence that the circumstances which led to charges against the accused are

Lieut. Johnson R.A.M.C. O.C. Commanding

well known to members of the court.
Bearing in mind all the circumstances, all of which are well known to me, I for one, as a member of the Service, and as the O.C. the unit of which the accused is a member, feel that Cpl Smith is not wholly to blame for the unfortunate predicament in which he presently finds himself. Having seen a good deal of the accused on many occasions during the past two months, & bearing in mind his conduct over the same period of time I am quite certain that he has up to the present undergone a marked degree of punishment to date. It is my opinion tho, that it is unlikely that his future conduct is liable to deviate from that of a responsible citizen, when I state for the information of the court, that insofar as I am concerned, and as the present O.C. of the accused unit as a Unit would be quite prepared to have Cpl Smith returned to this unit following the date of the completion of such punishment as the court might determine. The accused has very definitely possibilities insofar as the future is concerned. I feel that the Court would do well to seriously consider a certain amount of leniency in the matter in view of the fact that the circumstances associated with the whole case, all of

Mr. President and Gentlemen:

Inasmuch as Cpl. Smith has chosen to facilitate the proceedings of the Court by pleading "Guilty" to the main charges preferred against him, there remains but little for a Defending Officer to do. There are, however, certain extenuating circumstances which I respectfully consider it my duty to bring to your attention, and your duty to duly consider before passing judgement in this matter.

FIRST. You see in Corporal Smith a man who for years prior to the war fulfilled faithfully positions of trust with various well-known firms. Appended hereto are references from two of these firms, which with your permission I will read. Cpl. Smith has accepted much greater responsibility than any he has been called upon to deal with in his army career. His record as a Civilian is an unblemished one. Up to the time of this trouble, as his Commanding Officer and his Regimental Sergeant Major have told you, his military record was a clean one. Two instances of "Absent without leave" only appear on his M.F.M. 6, and both of these may be described as co-incidental with the trouble that Cpl. Smith found himself to be facing.

SECONDLY. I submit that Cpl. Smith was given far too great a responsibility. Even with adequate supervision, no Lance Sergeant should have thrust upon him responsibility and potential temptation to the degree that Cpl. Smith accepted. Adequate supervision has been shown to have been totally lacking. It is a well known fact that Medical Men are not conversant with even elementary business practice, and this case has certainly shown no exception to that rule. Had adequate supervision been excercised, it is certain that upon the first instance of Cpl. Smith succumbing to temptation, the resulting irregularity would have been detected at once, and further irregularities rendered impossible. Cpl. Smith informs me, and I see no reason for doubting his word, that in the first instance he had every intention of returning the small amount which he used of Regimental Funds. At this time Cpl. Smith encountered a disappointment. An offer had been made to him of a higher rank and a better position with another Unit. He subsequently received information that this appointment did not receive the approval of the Office of the A.M.D. at C.M.H.Q.

As a result of this disappointment, he, in common parlance drowned his sorrows. This action must always prove disastrous to one having the responsibility he held at that time. To cut a long story short, instead of being able to repay his first borrowed capital, he found it necessary to borrow more. Being a trained accountant, he knew that, at any time, these irregularities might come to light, and he lived in fear of this eventuality. Again, alcohol was the only answer to his worries. Then came the final blow- Cpl. Smith was notified that for one hundred and eleven days he had been drawing Trades Pay to which he was not entitled according to War Establishment, and that such Trades Pay would be returnable. I quote No.18 Canadian General Hospital, RCAMC Part II Order No. 71 dated 30 Nov 42

NO.5 TRADESMEN'S RATES OF PAY
[illegible]/Sgt. SMITH, R.M. Ceases to draw tradesmen's rates of pay, Clerk, Group "C" with effect from 11 Aug 42.

This effectually preventd Cpl. Smith from returning the monies extracted from various Regimental Funds up to that time.

I ask you to consider well the nervous state of Cpl. Smith at this time- in constant fear of these defalcations coming to light, vain endeavours to procure elsewhere money with which to repay that already borrowed- which only resulted in complete loss of control, yet heavier drinking and the further appropriation of monies.

It is submitted that Cpl.Smith, at this time, was totally oblivious to the amount of money spent while drinking. Consider too, that this did not occur in one week or one month but over a period of months. Had the Audit Board properly performed its functions, I respectfully submit that it would have been impossible for such a condition to exist, and for a man to endure the mental anguish and resultant loss of control which Cpl. Smith suffered at that time.

THIRDLY I ask you to consider the fact that for better than the past four months, Cpl. Smith has been a patient of this hospital awaiting action upon this matter.

I ask you to consider the age of this man. At 41 he is not a young man, even by civilian standards. The disposal which it is in your power to make of the time this man has left to shape his civilian career may be of vital importance to him.

I ask you to consider that he has already given over three years of what could have been the most productive years of his life, in the service of his country.

FOURTHLY During the time that Cpl.Smith has been a patient his conduct, in every way, has been exemplary.

He has assisted this investigation in every way within his power at all times, even to the extent of pleading guilty before this Court, in order to facilitate proceedings, and clear the matter up with all celerity.

Therefore, Mr. President and Gentlemen, I humbly request that all these points receive your most careful consideration, being ever mindful that the future of one of your fellow men may depend upon the decision you arrive at to-day. A man, with a clean record, did only what many a better man as well as many a worse one has done before, when faced with such a temptation.

I may further state that the Commanding Officer of this station expressed verbally to me this morning his willingness to have Cpl. Smith reported here if he is not at any time in the future.

That is all sir.

Summary of Evidence

Summary of Evidence in the case of D-95765 Cpl. Harvey Milne Smith, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C.

The Commanding Officer has directed that the evidence be taken under oath.

The rights of the accused at the taking of a summary of Evidence are explained to him.

First Witness:

Lieut-Col. C.A. McIntosh, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I was President of the Audit Board for all Messes, Canteens and Regimental Institutes of No.14 Cdn.Gen. Hospital during the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43. Since about August 1942, Cpl. Smith, H.M., has been employed as Accountant of all Messes, Canteens and Regimental Institutes in this Unit. I do not believe he was ever officially detailed as such in Unit Orders but he has been employed only in that capacity for the period of time I have mentioned, and until relieved of those duties in Mar 1943 or the early part of April 1943. In practice he collected all cash and, so far as I know, made all bank deposits. He also kept all the accounts and prepared all the Financial Statements "Abstract of Receipts and Disbursements" for the various Messes, Canteens and Regimental Institutes. Bank accounts were carried with Barclays Bank Limited branch at Horley, Surrey, by the Sergeants' Mess, Officers' Mess, Nursing Sisters' Mess, Men's Canteen, The P.R.I. Account and the Barrack Damages Account, and these were the only bank accounts used during the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43 except by the Men's Canteen which maintained another account with the Bank of Montreal, Waterloo Place, London. I produce a piece of paper upon which certain writings appear but in particular the following words: - "Received the sum of six pounds, five shillings, a/c Barrack Damages. H.M. Smith 1/3/43". I have seen the signature of Cpl. H.M. Smith on many occasions and I identify the signature H.M. Smith as being in his handwriting. (Piece of paper is marked - exhibit A). I produce "Abstract of Receipts and Disbursements" of the Sergeants' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, dated 31 Aug 42 (marked exhibit B.1); 30 Sep 42 (exhibit B.2); 31 Oct 42 (exhibit B.3); 30 Nov 42 (exhibit B.4); 31 Dec 42 (exhibit B.5); 31 Jan 43 (exhibit B.6); and of the Officers' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, dated 31 Aug 42 (exhibit C.1); 30 Sep 42 (exhibit C.2); 31 Oct 42 (exhibit C.3); 30 Nov 42 (exhibit C.4); 31 Dec 42 (exhibit C.5); and 31 Jan 43 (exhibit C.6); and of the Nursing Sisters' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, dated 31 Aug 42 (exhibit D.1); 30 Sep 42 (exhibit D.2); 31 Oct 42 (exhibit D.3); 30 Nov 42 (exhibit D.4); 31 Dec 42 (exhibit D.5); 31 Jan 43 (exhibit D.6); and of the Men's Canteen, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, dated 31 Aug 42 (exhibit E.1); 30 Sep 42 (exhibit E.2); 31 Oct 42 (exhibit E.3); 30 Nov 42 (exhibit E.4); 31 Dec 42 (exhibit E.5); 31 Jan 43 (exhibit E.6); and of the P.R.I. Account, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, this account having functioned separately from the Men's Canteen only from Nov 1942, 30 Nov 42 (exhibit F.1); 31 Dec 42 (exhibit F.2); 31 Jan 43 (exhibit F.3); and the Barrack Damages Account, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, dated 31 Dec 42 (exhibit G.1); 31 Jan 43 (exhibit G.2);. I consider that Cpl. Smith was the person who actually deposited the money and prepared the Financial Statements for the Messes, etc., previously mentioned. There was no Committee for the Barrack Damage Account and the Account was administered by the then Commanding Officer of the Unit, Colonel A. Ross.

Accused declines to Cross-examine.

Second Witness:

Mr. G.P. Boyden, Manager, Barclays Bank, Horley, Surrey, having been duly sworn states:

I produce the monthly statements of account of the Sergeants' Mess, Officers' Mess, Nursing Sisters' Mess, Men's Canteen, P.R.I. Account and Barrack Damage Account of No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C. I have compared the certified true copies of the entries in the bank's books with these statements and the statements truly represent the accounts as contained in the bank's books with reference to these accounts. The above statements which I have certified to be such true copies, contain all the entries in the bank's books with reference to these accounts for the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43.

Statements of the Sergeants' Mess for the months of Jul 42 to Apr 43 are marked H.1 to H.10 consecutively.

Statements of the Officers' Mess for the months of Jul 42 to Apr 43 are marked I.1 to I.10 consecutively.

Statements of the Nursing Sisters' Mess for the months of Jul 42 to Apr 43 are marked J.1 to J.10 consecutively.

Statements of the Men's Canteen Account for the months of Jul 42 to Apr 43 are marked K.1 to K.10 consecutively.

Statements of the P.R.I. Account for the months of Dec 42 and Apr 43 are marked L.1 and L.2 respectively.

Statements of the Barrack Damage Account for the months of Dec 42 and Jan 43 are marked M.1 and M.2 respectively.

G.P. Boyden

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Third Witness:

Major J.M. Anderson, Regimental Funds Board, C.M.H.Q., having been duly sworn states:

I am a member of the Regimental Funds Board, C.M.H.Q., and on instructions received I supervised an audit of the Sergeants' Mess, Officers' Mess, Nursing Sisters' Mess, Men's Canteen, P.R.I. Account, and Barrack Damage Account of No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., and submitted a report on the audit of the Messes and Regimental Institutes of that Unit which report I now produce (report is marked exhibit N). This report showed that there existed, as of 30 Apr 43, the following shortages:-

Sergeants' Mess	£ 149:14:11
Officers' Mess	9: 8: 4
Nursing Sisters' Mess	37:15: 9
Men's Canteen	57:14: 5
P.R.I. Account	44: 4: 8
Barrack Damage Account	6: 5: -

There is an unexplained overage in the Patients' Fund Account of £2: -: -.

Verification of the amounts shown to have been received by the accountant of the unit and the payments made should have resulted in a balance, either in the bank or in cash on hand, and the shortage is the difference between what should have been on hand in cash and the actual cash produced. As there is no evidence that a simultaneous cash count was made at the end of each month, by the Unit Audit Board, it is impossible to say in what month, or months, the various shortages occurred. I can say that the shortages occurred between the 1 Jul 42 and 30 Apr 43. With reference to the audit of the Officers' Mess Account, the mere fact that cash income and disbursements may have been checked by the Sec'y-Treasurer, is not a complete protection and according to the records the loss as stated did occur. I am shown Cheque No. 2/g.026813 dated 10 Sep 42, drawn upon Barclays Bank Limited, Horley, Surrey, by the Nursing Sisters' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, in the sum of £16:12: -, which has been marked on the back for deposit and is marked on it's face, as paid. This cheque is included in a deposit in the Account of the Men's Canteen as of 29 Sep 42 but the books of the Men's Canteen fail to show the receipt of this cheque. It would be possible, by including this cheque in the bank deposits, to withhold cash which should have been deposited, without disturbing the balance between the cash book and the bank.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Fourth Witness:

D-92505 Q.M.S. Plumpton, W.J., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

From 1 Jun 42 to 7 Sep 42 I was President of the Sergeants' Mess Committee, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital. The income of the Sergeants' Mess at that time came from members' monthly dues and bar sales, collected respectively by L/Sgts. Smith and the Sergeant who was bar steward for the time being. I should say that this system came into use, perhaps during the month of July 1942 and prior to that time there had been a permanent Mess Steward. The practise was for L/Sgt. Smith, who was the Treasurer of the Mess, as well as the accountant for all the Messes and Institutes, to collect, each day, the receipts for the previous day's sales from the bar, with the exception of what was considered necessary for the making of change. I did not check the amounts of money which L/Sgt. Smith collected from the Sergeant in the bar and I did not check to see whether he had deposited that money in the bank as it was his responsibility to do so. He not only looked after the banking of money but he prepared the Financial Statement for the Mess. I identify the accused as L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith. At a meeting of the Sergeants' Mess on the 6 Jul 42 it was decided to change the method of operating the Mess, whereby we had had a permanent steward and that in the future there would be a roster of members of the mess who would be on duty for a week at a time. A tour of duty would be from 0800 hours on Monday morning to 0800 hours the following Monday morning. During the time that I was President of the Mess Committee, Sgt. Franklin, S., was Secretary and L/Sgt. Smith, H.M., was Treasurer.

Fifth Witness:

From 7 Sep 42 to 10 Jan 43 I was Secretary of the Sergeants' Mess, L/Sgt. Smith, H.M. was Treasurer and Q.M.S. Walker, A. was President. The income of the Mess came from Mess Dues and cash sales at the bar, all collected by the bar steward who handed over the proceeds to the Treasurer on the Monday morning when a new steward would take over for the new week. Presumably the Treasurer deposited the money in the bank. I did not check any of the receipts of cash or the deposits in the bank. The Financial Statements, being the Abstracts of Receipts and Disbursements, were prepared by the Treasurer.

No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, RCAMC.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Sixth Witness:

From 10 Jan 43 until 30 Apr 43 I was President of the Sergeants' Mess Committee, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C. The income of the Sergeants' Mess was generally speaking all in cash. Members paid ten shillings each per month as Mess Dues and a nominal roll was kept in the bar showing the names of those who had paid and who had been given receipts either by the bar steward or by L/Sgt. H.M. Smith. I do not know how that money was handled but as regards other cash which came into the Mess which was by way of bar sales, all of which were in cash and paid, at the time, to the Sergeant who was then acting as bar steward. I know that L/Sgt. Smith collected the previous day's sales each morning, leaving behind only sufficient for bar change. No receipt was given by L/Sgt. Smith to the Bar Steward who handed over money to him. L/Sgt. Smith was the Treasurer of our Mess during that part of the time that I was President, up to some time near the end of March 1943. Because he was Treasurer of the Mess, I considered that L/Sgt. Smith was the person responsible for depositing the cash received in the bank and accounting for it. I did not check the amounts of money which L/Sgt. Smith received from the Sergeant in the bar to see whether he had made the deposit in the bank. I identify L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith as the accused. During that period Sgt. Atchison, W.M., was Secretary of the Mess Committee and L/Sgt. Smith, H.M., was Treasurer, as well as Accountant of all Messes and Institutes. Sgt. Franklin, S., replaced L/Sgt. Smith, H.M., as Treasurer about 18 Mar 43. L/Sgt. Smith prepared the Financial Statements.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Seventh Witness:

D-95842 Sgt. S. Franklin, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

At a Special Meeting of the Sergeants' Mess on 18 Mar 43 I was elected to fill the position of Treasurer made vacant by the demotion of Cpl. H.M. Smith, and remained Treasurer until after 30 Apr 43. In practice I did not do any accounting up till the 1 May 43 although I did collect the money from the bar man. When I took over from L/Sgt. Smith as Treasurer of the Sergeants' Mess at the middle of March 1943, he turned over to me the balance of his cash on hand, being £7: -: -, for which I gave nim a receipt - this did not include any uncollected money in the bar.

S. Franklin

(S. Franklin)Sgt.,
No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hosp., RCAMC.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Eighth Witness:

D-95660 Sgt. Payne, T.M.B., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

When I was bar steward I followed the usual procedure of entering the total amount of the day's takings from the bar sales and Mess Dues in the Daily Cash Book and at the end of my tour of duty I turned over my money to L/Sgt. Smith, H.M., who signed an acknowledgement in the book (Daily Cash Takings Book is marked exhibit O). At some time during the month of July 1942 a change was made in the system of providing bar stewards for the Sergeants' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, and as a result we used a duty roster in which Sergeants are detailed to act as bar steward for a week at a time. I have acted as bar steward for one week, around the end of September and first of October 42. L/Sgt. Smith, as Treasurer of the Sergeants' Mess, and Unit Accountant, collected all the money taken in for Mess Dues and Bar Sales at the end of my week's tour of duty. I did not get a receipt for it. I had no conversation with him as to what he was going to do with the money.

T. M. B. Payne

(T.M.B. Payne)Sgt.,
No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, RCAMC.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Ninth Witness:

Major William Cohen, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I was Sec'y-Treasurer of the Officers' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital during the period 1 Jul 42 to 14 Oct 42. During that time L/Sgt. Smith, H.M. (now Cpl.) was accountant of the Officers' Mess and as such and being considered to be a competent and reliable N.C.O., and accountant was responsible for making all bank deposits and Petty Cash payments when required and prepared all Financial Statements.

At that time it was my practice to list the cheques and cash received by the Officers' Mess and to send L/Sgt. Smith to the bank to make the deposit. In all such cases, upon his return, I checked the duplicate deposit slip bearing the teller's initials, in order to satisfy myself that the deposit had been duly made. I think that on only one occasion I made a deposit myself. Cpl. Smith is frequently referred to as L/Sgt. Smith because he held that appointment while carrying out the duties of Accountant. He reverted to his substantive rank of Cpl., 12 Mar 43 but this reversion had nothing to do with the offences with which he is charged. During my term of office as Sec'y-Treasurer the other members of the Officers' Mess Committee were Major A.R. Bazin, President, Capt. N. Van Wyck, Vice-President, and Capt. J.E. McGovern, Assistant Sec'y-Treasurer.

William Cohen

(William Cohen)Major,
No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hosp., RCAMC.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Tenth Witness:

Capt. J.M. Kilgour, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I was the Sec'y-Treasurer of the Officers' Mess Committee, No. 14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., from 15 Oct 42 to 30 Apr 43. During that period cash came into the Mess from three sources: (a) a small amount from cash sales from the bar. (b) payment of Mess bills in cash. (c) cash refunds for containers, etc. These cash receipts were placed in a cash box to which only the members of the Mess Committee had access and were balanced at the end of each month against the Petty Cash Book. Every cash sale in the bar was covered with a chit and marked "Cash Sale" and at the end of each day I collected the cash and checked it against the chits. Mess accounts paid in cash were received either by me or some other member of the Mess Committee and the money was placed in the Cash Box and its receipt noted in the Petty Cash Book as well as in the Messing Account Book. As regards cash refunds - these were turned over to me by the person who obtained them and I placed the money in the cash box and made an entry in the Petty Cash Book. Disbursements of Petty Cash were either made personally by me to some person for the purpose of a purchase or payment and I received a receipt, or the money was turned over to Cpl. Smith for the purpose of making a payment or for deposit in the bank. He furnished a receipt. Sums of money given to Cpl. Smith for deposit were all subsequently checked by means of the receipts and the entries in the Petty Cash Book against the Bank Book and during the period when I was Sec'y-Treas. all such funds were accounted for. At no time, when I was present, do I recall a cheque having been drawn for the purpose of providing Petty Cash but I believe it may have been done on one or more occasions when I was away, probably for the purpose of paying Mess Stewards when there was not sufficient Petty Cash in the cash box. Cheques in payment of Mess Accounts, etc., were always, so far as I can recall, made out in favour of the Officers' Mess. The only way in which I can account for the shortage of £9: 8: 4 disclosed by the audit of the Regimental Funds Board, is that it might have occurred in connection with some of the sales and purchases that took place, from time to time, between the various Messes and the Men's Canteen, since the balances owing were sometimes paid in cash. During the period I have mentioned, Cpl., (L/Sgt) Smith, was the person who did all the depositing of funds in the bank unless he was away, in which case the deposit would be made by some other member of the Mess Committee. I consider that it was Cpl. Smith's responsibility and I relied upon him to do the banking and to prepare the Financial Statement. He was known as the accountant of the Officers' Mess. I identify the accused as L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith. During my term of office the Mess Committee also included Major J.G. Petrie, President, Capt. R. DeW. Scott, Vice-President, Capt. C.W.V. McCutcheon, Assistant Vice-President.

J.M. Kilgour Capt

(J.M. Kilgour)Capt.,
No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hosp., RCAMC.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Eleventh Witness:

Capt. C.W.V. McCutcheon, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C. having been duly sworn states:

I was Assistant Secretary-Treasurer of the Officers' Mess from 15 Oct 42 to 30 Apr 43. In the Cash Book kept by Cpl. Smith were entered amounts of cheques received in payment of Officers' accounts and of sales to other Messes of the unit. Disbursements by cheque were also entered in this book. It was kept by Cpl. Smith until about the end of December after which he appears to have let most of his work slip and it was brought up to date by Sgt. Payne and the auditors. Prior to that time he had been the only person using the book. Capt. Kilgour and I kept up the Petty Cash book, noting in it the receipts and disbursements of Petty Cash. All other books were kept by Cpl. Smith. The bar steward, Pte. Hickey, W.J., turned over to us, very small amounts of cash taken in at the bar on the following morning. As of 30 Apr 43 I checked the cash and there was no cash on hand.

C.W.V. McCutcheon Capt

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Twelfth Witness:

Lieut. (N/S) MacLean, M., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I was Treasurer of the Nursing Sisters' Mess from 10 Nov 42 until 25 Mar 43. It was the practice at that time, for the Treasurer to be regarded as an assistant to Home Sister Monkhouse in financial matters, she however, had no authority to sign cheques which required the signature of any two of the Committee. At dances drinks would be sold for cash to guests who were not members of the Unit and the money was collected at the time by L/Cpl. Hughes or his assistant. L/Cpl. Hughes would have the takings of the bar under his control and as soon as the bar had closed after the dance, would turn the money over to Home Sister Monkhouse. Mess bills were, as a rule, paid by cheque but some would be paid in cash and either H/S Monkhouse or I received payment of Mess accounts. The above were the only cash receipts. All bank deposits of cash or cheques were made by L/Sgt. Smith who would receive the cheques and cash from me or from H/S Monkhouse. I never obtained a receipt for any cheques or cash which I turned over to him, nor did I verify the deposit in the bank account afterwards. I know that I have seen some of our cheques for deposit, stamped with the stamp reading "For Deposit Only" and having a place for signature but I do not know whether all cheques for deposit in the Mess Account were so stamped, as this was done by L/Sgt. Smith. Small accounts were paid by H/S Monkhouse from Petty Cash for which, cheques against the account were issued when necessary and usually for £20 or £30. Such cheques were made payable to Petty Cash and both signed and countersigned following which they were turned over to L-Sgt. Smith to cash. Such sums would be used to pay small accounts owing by the Mess and to make cash purchases but so far as I know, cash collected at dances was never used as Petty Cash, being turned over to L/Sgt. Smith intact for deposit. During the time that I was Treasurer of our Mess I considered L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith to be the person responsible for banking and drawing money, as above stated, for the Mess, and for the preperation of Financial Statements. I identify the accused as L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith.

(M. MacLean)Lieut. (N/S),

Thirteenth Witness:

Lieut. (N/S) Hopper, E.M., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I was Treasurer of the Nurses' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., from 6 Jul 42 till 10 Nov 42. During that time H/S. Monkhouse had no authority to sign cheques but she had certain duties with regard to the handling of Petty Cash. Cheques issued by the Mess required the signature of two members of the Committee. Cash was received by the Mess from only two sources namely, cash payment for drinks at dances by guests who were not members of the Unit and the occasional payment of a Mess Bill by a member, in cash, though most mess bills were paid by cheque. Cheques in payment of Mess accounts were always made payable to the Nursing Sisters' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., and when these were received by me, or when I received cash in payment of a Mess Account, I turned them over to H/S Monkhouse but I did not obtain any receipt from her, and I did not check the Bank Account to see whether the money was deposited. I knew that all bank deposits were supposed to be made by L/Sgt. Smith but I do not know how this was done in detail. I do not remember just how Petty Cash was obtained but I know that H/S Monkhouse was supposed to pay small accounts from Petty Cash and that cheques for that purpose were issued. I produce cheque No. 2/G.026813 dated 10 Sep 42 on Barclays Bank Limited at Horley in the sum of £16:12: -, payable to the Men's Canteen, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, stamped "Nursing Sisters' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital" and signed Esther M. Hopper and Cecil M. MacDonald, I identify the signature Esther M. Hopper as my own but I do not know for what purpose this cheque was issued, and the endorsement on the back is not in my handwriting (this cheque is marked exhibit P). L/Sgt. Smith, H.M., (now Cpl.) whom I recognize as the accused, was the accountant of our Mess and in addition to handling funds, as I have stated, he prepared our Financial Statements. I identify the accused as L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith. The abovementioned cheque (marked exhibit P) is shown as a deposit on 29 Sep 42 in the Men's Canteen Account at Barclays Bank.

Fourtseenth Witness:

Lieut. (H/S) Monkhouse, H.B., No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I am Home Sister of the Nursing Sisters' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., and held that position between the dates 1 Jul 42 and 30 Apr 43. In that capacity it is part of my duties to disburse Petty Cash which is used to pay for goods delivered to the door and to pay small accounts renedred. When I needed cash for this purpose I would either speak to the Treasurer or to L/Sgt. Smith and while I would not see the cheque, L/Sgt. Smith would turn over an amount of money to me, usually between £20 and £30, as to the disbursement of which, I kept a record in a Petty Cash Book. I consider myself to be an assistant to the Treasurer. The Mess had two sources of cash income, one being from cash sales of drinks to guests at dances who were not members of this Unit, and the other being the occasional payment of Mess Accounts in cash by members. Most Mess Accounts were paid by cheque, So far as I recall, I usually received the sum of £20 unless I asked for more. After a dance L/Cpl. Hughes would turn over the proceeds of cash sales to the President and Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, who would count it and turn it over to me that night or the following morning. I entered this amount in the Daily Cash Takings Book, in which were also entered the daily total of chits. This money I would turn over to L/Sgt. Smith, usually on that day or the day following but I received no receipt from him and not having the Bank Book in my possession I made no check to see whether that amount was deposited. Likewise, in the case of Mess Accounts, which were paid either to the Treasurer or to me, I turned over the cheques and the cash to L/Sgt. Smith, but obtained no receipt and do not know what amount he deposited. From 1 Jul 42 until some time around the end of Mar 43 I considered that Cpl. H.M. Smith was the person responsible for depositing funds in the Mess Account and generally doing our banking and preparing our Financial Statements. I identify the accused as L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith. I produce Daily Cash Takings Book (marked exhibit Q) in which I wrote an entry of a receipt of £9: -: 9 on Sep 5, 42 and Deposit Slip Book (marked exhibit Q.A) in which, for the months of Sep and Oct 42, I am unable to find a corresponding entry to show that amount deposited by Cpl. Smith.

Fifteenth Witness:

Major G.W. Halpenny, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

During the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43 I was Chairman of the Men's Canteen Committee, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital and during the same period up to the election on 15 Apr 43, when Major Petrie was elected to succeed me, I was Chairman of the Regimental Institutes Committee, though for all practical purposes I remained Chairman of the latter Committee until 30 Apr 43 because of the efforts being made to straighten out the financial situation. The Men's Canteen business is conducted by N.A.A.F.I. which turns over to the Canteen Committee 6% of the gross sales monthly. These payments were by cheque and the cheques were received by L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) Smith, the accused whom I recognize. He was supposed to deposit them in the Horley branch of Barclays Bank. These cheques did not require the endorsement of the members of the Committee. In addition the Men's Canteen has two other sources of cash receipts. Dances are held and an admission fee is charged, the proceeds were collected by L/Sgt. Smith from a member of the Dance Committee, which sum would amount to not more than five pounds after the orchestra had been paid in cash. I did not check the bank deposits in the Canteen Account for the purpose of finding out whether L/Sgt. Smith actually deposited the full amount he received. I have now checked the bank statement. I produce book of Barclays Bank Limited deposit slips, these slips being made in a handwriting which I recognize as that of L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) Smith (exhibit Q.1). Exhibits E.3, E.4 and E.6 show receipts of cash for dances. I recognize the signature of Cpl. Smith on receipts which are now marked Q.2, Q.3 and Q.4, purporting to acknowledge receipt of cash from dances. I have examined the bank statements and the bank deposit slips and have been unable to find any corresponding bank deposits. The second source of cash receipts handled by the Men's Canteen Committee, was through the sale of daily newspapers to patients and personnel of this unit. An arrangement has been in existence whereby the Men's Canteen Committee purchases 75 to 100 newspapers a day from Mallinson & Sons, Horley, and for convenience these are sold through the N.A.A.F.I. The proceeds from the sale of these newspapers was kept separate by Mrs. France, the Manageress of the N.A.A.F.I. Canteen, usually until the monthly bill for these newspapers was received by L/Sgt. Smith. He would then check the total amount of money on hand against the total daily sales and the corresponding daily charge on the bill, collect the money and would usually pay this bill from Mallinson & Son with this cash. A bill was rendered by Mr. Mallinson, dated 28 Feb 43, which included the sum of £12:18: 3 for the January account which had accordingly not been paid, and was subsequently paid, partly by cash and partly by cheque. (Receipted account in the sum of £27:19: -, is marked exhibit Q.5).

During the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43 I was Chairman of the Regimental Institutes, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital. During that time L/Sgt. (now Cpl.) H.M. Smith, whom I recognize as the accused, was the accountant of the P.R.I. Account. As such it was his responsibility to collect cash and deposit it in the bank on receipt. This account was part of the Men's Canteen Account although under the jurisdiction of a separate committee until the 1 Nov 42 when a separate bank account was opened in Horley, with Barclays Bank and a separate Financial Statement was rendered monthly. The source of revenue for this account came from work done by the Unit Barber and Unit Tailor. The money was collected by L/Sgt. Smith from the barber at the end of the month and this amount was checked against the daily signatures for haircuts, kept by the barbers. The barber also collected money for work done by the tailor on the presentation of the necessary slip, given by the tailor for work done. This amount was checked against the daily work book kept by the tailor. These two sources of cash revenue were taken by L/Sgt. Smith, a signed receipt given by him, and then the tradesmen were paid their tradespay in cash and the remainder was supposed to have been deposited in the bank in the P.R.I. Account. Bank statements L.1 and L.2 show that no deposits were made from the original deposit of Nov 28, 1942, £39: 7: 4, until the end of April.

Sixteenth Witness:

Mrs. I.J. France, Manageress, N.A.A.F.I. Canteen, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I am the Manageress of the N.A.A.F.I. Canteen at No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C. I know L/Sgt. H.M.Smith of this unit and knew that he was the accountant of the Men's Canteen, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C. As a result of an arrangement made with the Men's Canteen which had contracted for the delivery of a number of newspapers each day, the papers were delivered to me to be sold by retail and I collected the money and kept a record of same. At the end of each month L/Sgt. Smith checked the amount of money I had received and gave me a receipt for it. He would usually check my book with Mallinson's Bill. My book contains the following receipts:-

for the latter part of June and the month of July 42	£ 7:14: 5
2 Sep 42 L/Sgt. Smith collected	11:16: 1
the payment for Sept. papers was collected by Sgt. Payne	8:19: 2

During the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43 I have been employed as a barber with the unit. Each customer paid 6d for a haircut and I collected the money from him and he signed his name in my book.

Until about March 1943 when I would go to the Registrar's Office around the first of each month I would turn over the money I had collected to Sgt. H.M. Smith who would give me my tradespay and keep the balance, and give me a receipt. I would not know what became of the money after that. After sometime in March 1943 someone else collected the money. I produce the following receipts which I obtained from Cpl. H.M. Smith and covering takings of the Barber and Tailor Shops:-

Smith before, when he came into my place of business in this regard. I am shown receipted accounts which were prepared from my books, as follows:-

Account dated 31 Oct 42, marked "Paid in Cash 19 Nov 42" (marked exhibit T.1).

Account dated 30 Nov 42, marked "Paid in Cash 10 Dec 42" (marked exhibit T.2).

Summary of Evidence

Summary of Evidence in the case of D-95765 Cpl. Harvey Milne Smith, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C.

The Commanding Officer has directed that the evidence be taken under oath.

The rights of the accused at the taking of a summary of Evidence are explained to him.

First Witness:

Lieut-Col. C.A. McIntosh, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:

I was President of the Audit Board for all Messes, Canteens and Regimental Institutes of No.14 Cdn.Gen. Hospital during the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43. Since about August 1942, Cpl. Smith, H.M., has been employed as Accountant of all Messes, Canteens and Regimental Institutes in this Unit. I do not believe he was ever officially detailed as such in Unit Orders but he has been employed only in that capacity for the period of time I have mentioned, and until relieved of those duties in Mar 1943 or the early part of April 1943. In practice he collected all cash and, so far as I know, made all bank deposits. He also kept all the accounts and prepared all the Financial Statements "Abstract of Receipts and Disbursements" for the various Messes, Canteens and Regimental Institutes. Bank accounts were carried with Barclays Bank Limited branch at Horley, Surrey, by the Sergeants' Mess, Officers' Mess, Nursing Sisters' Mess, Men's Canteen, The P.R.I. Account and the Barrack Damages Account, and these were the only bank accounts used during the period 1 Jul 42 to 30 Apr 43 except by the Men's Canteen which maintained another account with the Bank of Montreal, Waterloo Place, London. I produce a piece of paper upon which certain writings appear but in particular the following words: - "Received the sum of six pounds, five shillings, a/c Barrack Damages. H.M. Smith 1/3/43". I have seen the signature of Cpl. H.M. Smith on many occasions and I identify the signature H.M. Smith as being in his handwriting. (Piece of paper is marked - exhibit A). I produce "Abstract of Receipts and Disbursements" of the Sergeants' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, dated 31 Aug 42 (marked exhibit B.1); 30 Sep 42 (exhibit B.2); 31 Oct 42 (exhibit B.3); 30 Nov 42 (exhibit B.4); 31 Dec 42 (exhibit B.5); 31 Jan 43 (exhibit B.6); and of the Officers' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, dated 31 Aug 42 (exhibit C.1); 30 Sep 42 (exhibit C.2); 31 Oct 42 (exhibit C.3); 30 Nov 42 (exhibit C.4); 31 Dec 42 (exhibit C.5); and 31 Jan 43 (exhibit C.6); and of the Nursing Sisters' Mess, No.14 Cdn. Gen. Hospital, dated 31 Aug 42 (exhibit D.1); 30 Sep 42 (exhibit D.2); 31 Oct 42 (exhibit D.3); 30 Nov 42 (exhibit D.4); 31 Dec 42 (exhibit D.5); 31 Jan 43 (exhibit D.6); and of the Men's Canteen, No.14 Cdn. SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION CHARACTER EVIDENCE AND ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Plea in Mitigation in the Case of K1133 Tpr Hugh Lloyd William Smith

Tpr Smith joined the active force in July 1941 and has served continuously ever since. While his MFMC is only fair, it cannot be said that he is by any means a bad character. Some time ago in this country, he met a girl and eventually he was informed by her that she was with child by him, a fact which he admits. He received several letters from both her mother and sister. These letters tell the only too frequent story of the results of such a situation. The girl was worrying, she had lost her job and was finding difficulty in gaining admission to a nursing home. Naturally such a situation could not help but prey on his mind and he therefore applied for compassionate leave and was granted three days. Needless to say he found this period inadequate and worried as he was, he did not think of either asking for an extension or of the seriousness of absence without leave. When he had adjusted his affairs as well as he could he gave himself up to the provost corps.

I submit these letters as documentary evidence for the inspection of the Court, they represent the type of letter the accused has received.

1st Lieut J R Gruver, U.S.A.A.F., having been duly sworn, states:

I am 1st Lieut J R Gruver, of the 85th Fighter Squadron, 79th Fighter Group. On the evening of 10 Dec 44 at approx 1930 hrs, I, accompanied by three other officers left the billets and went to where we had parked a jeep, Squadron Jeep No.1 Ser No. 20521813. I found that the jeep was missing from where it had been parked so I went around the corner to the H.Q. parking area to see if it was moved there. It was not there. I spotted a jeep touring in this area which looked like ours so, still accompanied by the other three officers, I climbed into a second jeep and started to follow. We finally caught up with them and I drove up alongside. Their jeep was being driven very slowly. I ordered them to stop but instead they accelerated and started off down the road pretty fast. We followed them. We finally caught up to them at a conner. We took them to the Military Police and preferred charges against them. This jeep is the property of the U.S.A.A.C.and is assigned to our squadron. I recognize the accused as one of the occupants of this jeep. He was not driving but was sitting beside the driver.

Cross-examination by the Defence

Q How many men were in the vehicle?
A There were just two men in the vehicle.

Q What was the condition of these two men?
A It appeared as if these men were pretty well under the weather.

Q When you finally stopped them, did you have any trouble getting them under control?
A They stopped due to the fact that they did not make a corner. They started out again and I had just time enough to jump out of my jeep and cut off the switch of their jeep and to grab the drivers arm so he could not turn.

R P 83B complied with.

1st Lieut C H Odle, U.S.A.A.F., having been duly sworn states:

I am 1st Lieut C H Odle, Jr. of 85 Fighter Squadron, 79th Fighter Group, U.S.A.A.F. At approx 1930 hrs 10 Dec 44 I was one of four officers who left billets and went downstairs to get our jeep and go to a party. The jeep was not where it had been parked. We then went around the corner to H.Q. While there a jeep went by which looked like the one that we had lost. We got in another jeep and went after it and finally caught up to the missing jeep. In it were two men. We took these two men to the British M.P's. I recognize the accused as one of the two men found in the jeep.

Cross-examination by the Defence

Q Were you in the jeep with Lieut Gruver following the stolen jeep?
A Yes Sir.

Q What was the condition of these two men?
A In my opinion they were both drunk.

R P 83B complied with.

ADDRESS BY DEFENCE

Mr President. The charge reads that the accused was improperly in possession of a jeep which is the property of the United States Air Ministry. I submit that there is no evidence put forward that the United States Air Ministry owns this jeep. Lieut Gruver says it belongs to the U.S.A.A.C. I would submit that there is no such thing as a United States Air Ministry. For that reason the accused is not guilty of the charge as framed.

REPLY BY PROSECUTION

I submit that the U.S.A.A.F. number will establish beyond any doubt the ownership of that jeep. Positive proof will have to be produced from the records of the U.S.A.A.F. but the poor technicality of the title, to my mind, has no bearing whatever on the charge and I think the point of ownership can, without a doubt, be proven by the number which has been quoted by Lieut Gruver.

In answer to that last statement, the charge against the accused is that he was "In the field, in Italy, on 10 Dec 44, was improperly in possession of one Willy's Bantam No. 20521813" and I read the charge as "improper possession".

The accused, G3728 Gnr Smith H O, having been duly sworn, states:

On 10 Dec 44, just after supper, I left and went up town. I got some stuff to drink at an Italians house and then I left and started walking through town. I met Gnr Freeman and he asked me if I knew where I could get something to drink. I told him "yes" and we went to another Italian's house and got something to drink and I had one too many. From then on I do not remember anything until I was in the guard room. It was around 2100 or 2130 hrs when I woke up in the guard room.

R P 83B complied with.

SUMMING UP BY PROSECUTION

In summing up I would like to draw the attention of the court to "Evidence and Punishment" page 25 para 48. I contend that the prosecution has proven beyond any doubt that an offence against military law took place but evidence has also been revealed that the accused was under the influence of alcohol at the time. It is a matter for the court to decide just how much consideration should be allowed in this case. I would further refer the court to "Archibald's Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice" as to the rule on Drunkeness.

SUMMING UP BY THE DEFENCE

The accused has disclaimed all knowledge of this incident but he admits that at the time there was a possibility that he could have done a thing similar to that with which he was charged. The section of M M L quoted by the prosecuting officer I think covers the situation fully.

ADDRESS BY DEFENCE IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

The accused has been overseas for 2 years and arrived at his field unit in Sicily on 25 Jul 43. In his three years service the only outstanding award on his conduct sheet is one of 7 days C.B. He has been in action with his unit from the time he joined them on 25 Jul, coming up at that time through 4 Bn until approx 1 Dec 44 when he was one of 40 to leave the unit when the War Establishment of the unit was decreased. Due to the fact that his MFM 6 is supplementary only it must be considered as having nothing on it. In actual knowledge there is very little on it, 7 days C.B. In addition to that the accused has no recollection whatsoever of the circumstances surrounding this jeep and although, as has been brought out, drunkeness is not an excuse, I would ask the court to make not a heavy sentence award in this case.

At approx 1930 hrs 10 Dec 44 accompanied by Capt J Slatton and Lieuts W Erck and C Odle, I left my billet to get a jeep, No.20521813 which I had left parked on the road in front of my billet. The jeep was not there. We then went to H.Q. to see if the jeep had been taken there. It was not at H.Q. While standing in front of H.Q. building I saw a jeep which looked like ours pass on the road. Again accompanied by the other officers, I got into another jeep and gave chase. We found the stolen jeep, and ordered the driver to stop. He did not do so but accelerated and attempted to get away. We followed, and eventually caught the other jeep. The two occupants of the jeep, whom I could recognize, were Canadian soldiers. We took them to the British Military Police under arrest. This jeep is the property of the United States Air Ministry.

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution.

Detective Sergeant Allan Hoare, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

I am Allan Hoare, Detective Sergeant of the West Sussex Constabulary, stationed at Horsham.

On Saturday 22 August of this year, in the afternoon I interviewed the accused, W/7623 Pte. Smith, I.J. at No 1 Canadian General Hospital, Horsham. I told him who I was and that I was making investigations about an allegation of an assault upon him. He appeared somewhat confused, and I pointed out to him the seriousness of making any false allegations, and he elected to make a statement, which I took down in writing and which he signed. I produce this statement.

(Det. Sgt. Hoare then read the statement which has been attached to the proceedings and marked Exhibit "A".)

Cross-examined by the defence:

Q. Did Pte. Stewart see this statement?
A. I think I read certain parts of the statement to him.
Q. Not all of this?
A. I can't be sure if I did, Sir.
Q. Did he say that it was correct?
A. Stewart? Stewart made a statement as well. I interviewed him after. That statement was produced at the last Court-Martial. I have a copy of it.

Cross-examined by the Court:

Q. Was this statement of Stewart's given in the presence of the accused?
A. No Sir, he was still in hospital.
Q. Did you caution him?
A. No Sir, we don't caution people until we make up our minds to charge them. It is not the custom over here.
Q. What about Smith?
A. The same applies to Smith. We didn't caution him.

A.E.C.

Second Witness for prosecution — Capt. H.R. Robertson, No 1 Canadian General Hospital.

Having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecution.

I am Capt. H.R. Robertson of No. 1 Canadian General Hospital.

Q. Do you know the accused?
A. Yes.
Q. Could you tell us anything you know about the accused?
A. Yes. He was admitted on the 16th of August with a wound of the left hand. The wound extended from the back of the hand and was filled with a black pulverized substance. There was a fracture of the second metacarpal. The wound was treated surgically and has since healed, leaving him with a slight disability, which should be-come less.
Q. Could this wound have been caused by a bullet?
A. Yes.
Q. Could you state that it was caused by a bullet?
A. No. The only definite proof that it was caused by a bullet would be to find the bullet in it, which there was not, though the black powder round the wound and its general character suggested that it was caused by a bullet fired at close range.

Cross-examined by the defence:

Q. Did you notice any other marks which might have been made by a blank round?
A. No.
Q. Would you say that that was the only wound or mark on his hand?
A. As far as I know. There was plenty of blood and I might have easily missed some other small marks.

Cross-examined by the Court:

Q. Is there any likelihood of permanent injury?
A. There will be some permanent limitation of the left index finger, but nothing that would prevent him from doing any job.

Third Witness for prosecution — F88952 Pte. Stewart, G.A.

I am F88952 Pte. Stewart, G.A., North Nova Scotia Highlanders.

Q. Do you know the accused?
A. Yes.
Q. Will you tell the court what happened on the evening of about the 23rd of August.
A. Do I have to say anything, sir?
Q. Yes.
A. Pte. Smith and I were going to the pub about the same time Sunday evening, and he showed me his left hand, which had a black mark on it, and was swollen up. I asked him how it happened and he said it was from a blank round. I asked him why he had done it, and he said he had something on his mind. We went on to the pub and had several drinks and left the pub about one-half past eight or one-quarter after nine - something like that time - I don't know the exact time.

When we got up to the gate, he took a live round out of his pocket and tried to set it off with a match. We then came back to the billets and got his rifle, went over into the field and he asked me to catch the butt or feel the butt, I'm not sure which he said, and he pressed the trigger and he laid on his side and he said his hand was bleeding bad and asked me to tie it up. He asked me if I would take his rifle back and put a pull-through through it. I cam right back to our billets, and that's all I know.

Cross-examined by the Prosecution:

Q. How many drinks did you have at the Crabtree?
A. Four whiskies and six beers, sir.
Q. Who did you say went and got the rifle?
A. Smith, Sir.
Q. Where were you when he got the rifle?
A. I'm not sure whether I was with him or not, Sir, or whether I went up stairs or stayed down.
Q. When you went downstairs again and went over into the field, who asked you to go into the field?
A. Smith, Sir.
Q. Do you remember who put the round into the rifle?
A. No sir.
Q. Did you see him put it in?
A. No, sir.
Q. You know you didn't put it in?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. When you had hold of the rifle, what position were you in?
A. Down like that, sir. (Rifle was produced and Stewart demonstrated to the court.)
Q. Did Pte. Smith say anything else?
A. He said for me not to mention it, sir.
Q. He asked you if you would put a pull-through through his rifle?
A. Yes.
Q. Where was Pte. Smith the last time you saw him?
A. In the field, sir.
Q. Will you just show us exactly how the rifle was?
A. Yes, Sir. (Demonstrates to the Court.)

Cross-examined by the Court:

Q. You were standing?
A. Yes, sir, as far as I can remember.

Cross-examined by the Defence:

Q. You saw a mark of a blank round, you said, on his left had before you went into the pub?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you know that Pte. Smith intended to do this before you went with him that night?
A. No, sir.
Q. Could it not have been possible that you realised what was going to happen, and that you would probably be implicated for provoking, and therefore you made up this story about the black mark?
A. No, sir, it was just what he told me.
Q. When you got to the field, and the rifle was procured, did you not then know what was going to happen?
A. No, sir.

Q. What did you think was going to happen?
A. I didn't know, sir.
Q. When you went into the field and had your hand on the rifle, did you know what was going to happen?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did you give the accused a kiss and tell him to pull the trigger?
A. No sir.
Q. Will you tell the court what you thought was going to take place when you both went into the field with your rifle - in your own words?
A. Well, sir, I did not think anything at all. I thought he might be going to fire it at a rabbit or something, I didn't know, I did not think anything else.
Q. Had you ever made any statement to anyone stating that you might want to get out of the army?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did you say you would put the pull-through through the rifle, or did he ask you?
A. He asked me, sir.
Q. What did you do about it?
A. I put the pull-through through it and then took the rifle back.
Q. Was it customary for you to hold the rifle as you say you did without knowing what was going to be fired at:
A. I did not know, sir, what was going to be fired at.

Cross-examined by the Court:

Q. Did you know at any time on the 16th of August what Pte. Smith was thinking of?
A. No, sir.
Q. When you got back to the gate and Smith attempted to set off this live round with a match, whose idea was it to get the rifle.
A. Smith's, Sir.
Q. Did you at any time caution him that he might be hurt?
A. No, sir, I did not realize it at the time, sir.
Q. Did the accused at any time during the proceedings say anything about pulling the trigger?
A. No, Sir.
Q. In other words, it was a complete surprise to you when the rifle went off. Did you know it was loaded?
A. No Sir.
Q. When you were holding the butt of the rifle, could you see where Smith's hands were?
A. No, Sir.
Q. But you knew he must be holding the rifle?
A. Yes Sir. Before I had hold of it he had hold of it with both hands.
Q. On the ground?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Did it not dawn on you at the time that it was a peculiar way to discharge a rifle?
A. No, Sir, I never thought anything about it.
Q. Did you realize after this had taken place that a crime had been committed?
A. Yes Sir, I did.
Q. Would you tell the court just exactly what you thought about it?
A. I did not think anything of it at the time.
Q. What consequence did you think it would have as far as Smith was concerned?
A. I didn't know it would have any, sir.
Q. You said in your evidence that you were cautioned to say nothing about the incident. Was that caution made before or after the shot was fired?
A. After the shot, sir.

Q. There was nothing said previously by Smith of this?
A. No, Sir, not until after the shot was fired.
Q. After the shot was fired?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. You said that after you bandaged Pte. Smith's hand you left him in the field. Is that correct?
A. Yes, Sir, I left him in the field.
Q. Did it occur to you that he might be seriously injured?
A. No, Sir. It was dark, sir, and I did not know, Sir.
Q. Did you care?
A. It wasn't my offence, Sir, and I didn't worry much about it. I couldn't help it, and couldn't fix it up.

Fourth Witness for Prosecution

F59689 Pte. Johnston, R.B., North Nova Scotia Highlanders,

having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecution.

Q. What is your name?
A. Pte. Johnston, R.B. Number F59689.
Q. Do you know Pte. Smith?
A. Yes Sir.
Q. Is he here?
A. Yes Sir. (points him out).
Q. Will you tell the court any incident that you can remember that happened on the 16th of August this year, inconnection with Pte. Smith?
A. I went down to the Crabtree pub and Pte. Stewart and Pte. Smith were at the pub. I spoke to Pte. Stewart. I went in the pub and came back out, and I went back to barracks. I passed Pte. Smith and Pte. Stewart on the road.
Q. In your opinion, would you say that Ptes. Stewart and Smith were drunk?
A. No, Sir.
Q. Would you say that they had been drinking?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. But not drunk?
A. No, Sir.

Cross-examined by the defence:

Q. Were you handy to Pte. Smith at any time that evening?
A. Yes, Sir. When I came into the pub I spoke to pte Stewart who was standing alongside of Pte. Smith.
Q. Were they drinking then?
A. They didn't have any with them, but they had been drinking.
Q. Did you notice Pte. Smith's hand?
A. No, Sir.
Q. Was there anything in his actions which might lead you to believe that Pte. Smith had an injury to his hand?
A. No, Sir.

Cross-examined by the Court:

Q. You stated that they were drinking?
A. As I went into the pub. When I came out, Pte. Stewart was looking bad, and Smith and I asked him if he was sick. He was spitting, but he said no, he was not sick, that he just had the hiccups.

VIII

Having been duly sworn, is examined by the prosecution.

I am F59815 C.S.M. Yorston, W.W. of "D" Coy, North Nova Scotia Highlanders.

Q. Do you know Pte. Smith?
A. I do.
Q. Is he here?
A. Yes.
Q. Would you tell the Court what happened on the 22nd of August?
A. On the morning of the 22nd of August, I was in my Orderly Room. Detective Sgt. Hoare and Constable Lemm came to the Orderly Room and asked to interview Pte. Stewart. I got Pte. Stewart. They had their interview, and from the Orderly Room they proceeded to the spot where an incident had taken place some time previous - roughly about 300 yards from the Orderly Room. They were looking for an empty .303 case. They asked me if I would like to go along. They found the spot where a bullet had entered a tree, about roughly 2 feet off the ground. I was down on my knee probing into the tree, seeing if I could feel the lead, and they were looking for the empty case at the time. When I got up Constable Lemm picked up the .303 empty case, which he took away with him. Some time after he returned the empty casing to me, which I can not swear is the same case he took away with him. I know nothing more about the case.
Q. You say this empty case was picked up at the spot where Pte. Stewart said the incident had taken place?
A. Yes.

Cross-examined by the defence:

Q. Had you any occasion to inspect Pte. Smith's rifle at the time of the incident?
A. No, I did not. I was away on 48 hours, and did not return until the following Monday.

Cross-examined by the Court:

Q. How did you know they were looking for a .303 case?
A. I think Constable Lemm or Detective Sgt. Hoare told me that they were looking for it, and asked me if I would like to come along.

Q. (Defence) - Will you tell the story to the court of the events leading up to and at the time of the incident of the injuring of your hand.
A. Pte. Stewart, Sir, wanted to put this bullet in my hand so we could both get out of the Army. I didn't want to get out of the Army, but Pte. Stewart did, and figured he could get out on account of his feet, and wanted me to get out with him. We were talking about this the day before it happened. He wanted me to do it, when we went to the pub that evening. We were drinking all that day. We were not talking about it there, but Stewart suggested it on the way back. Stewart wanted me to get a rifle, when I was going to put this .303 off with a match, and he would not let me. He said we would go and get a rifle and we both went up and got the rifle. We got the rifle, and he took the rifle from me and carried it down to the field. We both went to the field, and I'm not sure which one of us put the round in the rifle. He had hold of the rifle, and the butt was on the ground. He told

I put my hand on the trigger, told him I had the second pressure, he gave me a kiss and told me to pull the trigger. Before I pulled the trigger, he told me he was going to put a pull-through through the rifle so no one would catch on how it happened. I remember I was laying on the ground and told him to put a handkechief on my hand. He left, and I never saw him after that. I met a soldier on the road and told him my hand was cut. He took me into the billets. That is all I know.

Q. Did you ever see anyone do that?
A. Yes, I have seen them put off in trees. (explains).

Summary of evidence in the case of No. F87623 Private Smith, I.J., North Nova Scotia Highlanders, C.A.(O).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

1st Witness for the Prosecution

No. F88952 Pte. Stewart, G.A., North Nova Scotia Highlanders, C.A.(O), having been duly sworn, states:-

I am F88952 Pte. Stewart, G.A., North Nova Scotia Highlanders.

Shortly after supper on the sixteenth of August, Pte. Smith and I went to the Crabtree Inn, which is about a mile from "D" Coy billets. On the way to the Inn Pte. Smith showed me his left hand which showed a black mark in the centre of the palm. I asked him what happened and he told me he did it with a blank round. I asked him why and he said he had something on his mind, but he wouldn't tell me what it was.

We stayed at the Crabtree Inn and had a few drinks, four whiskies and six beers to be exact. We left the "pub" sometime between 2030 hrs and 2130 hrs, I'm not sure of the exact time, and started back to our billets. When we got to our gate, Pte. Smith tried to put off a live .303 round with a match. I don't remember whether or not I asked him what he was doing, but when we got back to the house he got his rifle and then he asked me to go over into the field with him. When we got there he asked me to hold or feel the rifle butt which was on the ground. I did this and then I heard the rifle go off and Pte. Smith lay over on the ground and said his hand was bleeding badly. He asked me to tie it up for him, which I did. He asked me to put a pull-through through his rifle and put it back in the house for him and also not to say anything about what happened. I then left Pte. Smith in the field and didn't see him again that night.

Cross-examined by the accused:

Q. When we were at the gate and I tried to put off the round with a match, didn't you say we would go and get a rifle?

A. No, Sir, not that I can remember.

Q. Did I ask you to go over into the field with me?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did I ask you to hold the rifle butt?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Didn't you say that you would put a pull-through through the rifle so it wouldn't smell?

After we had walked some distance back to the field camp we got over a fence into a field. I had a round of .303 ammunition in my pocket & I said I was going to fire it with a match. He told me not to do it & said he would go back & get my rifle. We went back to the camp together I got my rifle & he took it off of me. We went back into the field & one of us put the round in the rifle I am not sure which one of us put it in Plea in Mitigation of Sentence in the case of H.3887, Tpr. Smith, J.

Tpr. Smith claims to have a personal weakness that, when he becomes under the influence of liquor, he gets a desire to go away for a few days. He has never had proper parental care due to the death of his father at the age of 3 years. His education was neglected in the fact that he left school to work when he was only in the 8th grade. I feel that this man deserves some consideration due to these unfortunate circumstances.

Q you do recollect his having been away

A Yes sir

The Court,

Q How many days was it from the time you payed the $5 back until he borrowed it next

About a week —

The second time he got the money down in Smithfield

The court is adjourned until 1315 hrs.

The court re opens at 1335 hrs 9-11-42.

The Prosecutor is closing

He again draws the courts attention to para 50 Pge 118 MML

He draws the courts attention to the finding that the coat was stolen, taken to Mr B.'s house and sold by the accused—

That Brouse is positive that the coat belongs to him.

That he knows the coat as well as any person would know their own garment

He thanks without any shadow of doubt that the coat belongs to Mr Brouse.

The finding of the coat in Bakers home is proven by Lt Mc Candless Brings up the circumstances surrounding the sale of the coat

Baker had definately identified the accused as the man who had sold him the coat that the accused had offered to sell a coat and suit to Mr Baker.

That he had been told by Smith that it was a proper bargain
Mr Baker remembers the circumstances of Smith coming to the house the first time and that an advance of 10£ was given to Smith on account.
Things that were said when the coat was delivered.
Smith said when I bring the suit it will leave me 18 shillings to draw
The accused states that he did go to Bakers home
That he had borrowed money under
Smith states that Baker asked for interest
He not only took the coat but pawned it
The crime is that he saw Baker before he bought the coat and made a bargain with him getting a 10£ advance
Baker has the coat as the evidence points out

The Prosecutor brings up McArdle's and Baker's evidence -

That Baker pointed out the accused as a man who had robbed them an evening.

I suggest that what Baker says is the truth, and that he wants to be very frank with the court -

Mr Baker was examined as to that when Smith returned with the overcoat.

About the evidence of the accused with regard to credibility.

That this case is a very serious charge.

The Defence's closing address

We have a similar situation in that the Prosecutor

That Mr Baker does not remember points of the case

1st Just he denied that he had lent money to the accused

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

That Baker was angry because he had loaned money and could not get any of it

[redacted]

In that he thinks he frightened
Smith out of the grounds before anyone else. When the evidence says he was the 3rd to be seated.
The Defence again refers to Mr Browns poor memory.

The court is closed to consider the finding.

The court is reopened —

President:

Mr. Smith this court finds you not guilty of the second charge

~~Q Has the prosecution a witness~~ ~~present~~ ~~to~~ ~~P~~ 96

The prosecutor produces the M J M 6, which is certified by the adjutant and a short statement of the particulars of service ~~[redacted]~~ of the accused. After being accepted by the ~~defense~~ Defending Officer. and the accused:

Q Does the accused wish to address the court under RP 96 D. ~~[redacted]~~ which says:

First Witness for Prosecution F3958 Tpr Crowe E.W.

I was away on leave from the fifth to the fifteenth of October. I left the coat hanging in my ~~hut~~ room in my billet where I went away. When I returned on the fifteenth Oct. it was gone. I reported the loss to the Tp Sgt. On Tuesday 20 Oct I was called to the police station and they produced a navy blue coat (Exhibit A) which I identified as mine. E.W. Crowe

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Second witness for the prosecution C 42019 ~~L~~/Cpl McArdle J.E.

No 1. Provost Coy R.C.M.P. having been duly sworn states: On the 19th Oct 1942 as a result of a complaint received from the 4PLDG Regt that a civilian suit and two overcoats had been stolen from the billets of "A" Sqdn I made inquiries in and around the district. As a result of these inquiries in company with the civil police Hastings the town of Alfred Baker "The Ridge" Hastings was searched and a blue overcoat found therein. On the 20th Oct in my presence Alfred Baker pleaded out Tpr Smith J. as a Sqdn parade as the man who sold him the coat. This man I questioned after cautioning him and he said "I have nothing to say". This soldier I placed under close arrest and turned him over to the Regtl Police. J.E. McArdle

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Third witness for the prosecution - Mr. Alfred Thomas Baker.
a civilian residing at 765 The Ridge, Baldslow, Hastings having been duly sworn states: This soldier came in

I gave him ten shillings and he said he would bring the suit and overcoat to me. About a week ago, just a day or two before the police searched my home he came back with the overcoat which he left outside my house.
I went out and got the coat. He told me where to pick up the coat on my garden path. It was a navy blue overcoat.
I gave him another twelve shillings at that time for the coat.
I was supposed to give him two pounds for the coat and suit. When the police searched my house and discovered the coat I offered to pick out the soldier who sold it to me from an identification parade. I did so and I am certain that this is the man who sold me the overcoat.

Alfred Thomas Baker

The accused elects to question the witness.

Question 1. What day was it that I came down in the evening and borrowed that five shillings from you?

Answer 1. I cannot remember the exact night.

shillings from you?

Answer 2. I cannot remember the exact night.

Question 3. What interest was I supposed to give you on the five shillings I borrowed.

for the ten shillings and I told you that boots cost on a pound in A.M. store and you said you would make up the difference. Is that right?

Answer 4. No. Nothing was said about boots.

Proceedings of a Field General Court Martial in the case of D 93812 Pte. James Smith, 9
Canadian Field Ambulance R.C.A.M.C.

The Prosecution makes no opening address.

1st Witness for the Prosecution. D 93620 S/Sgt F.W. Young 9 Canadian Field Ambulance, having been duly sworn, states:-

Q. Do you know the accused?
A. Yes.
Q What was the nature of his duty at the C.C.P. on 13 Sep 44?
A. The accused was detailed as an ambulance orderly.
Q. On the evening of 13 Sep 44, will you state to the court in your own words, the condition of the accused at that time.
A. On the evening of 13 Sep 44 between ~~8~~ 2130 and 2200 hrs we were loading up the Ambulance. The Driver was Pte. Ackerman, the accused was the orderly. Upon loading the ambulance the accused kept asking for patients and in trying to load the stretcher cases, I had to take over one end of a stretcher as the accused was unsteady and it appeared to me that he might drop the stretcher. He then left and went into the M.I. Room and stared asking in a loud voice for more casualties. I then told him to go out to the ambulance and to stay there, that we would bring them out when they were ready.

Q. Would you explain more fully to the court as to his condition at that time and why you found it necessary for yourself to take his place loading casualties?
A. As I already stated, it was dark out, I couldn't see his features, but the way he was speaking and the way he seemed to be staggering I didn't want to take a chance on his handling the stretcher.
Q. Was anyone else ordered to take over from the accused as orderly for the ambulance?
A. The accused was replaced when the ambulance returned to the CCP without an orderly.
Q. Would you describe his manner more fully at that time.
A. The accused was speaking in a loud voice. His speech was not the same as normal. I do not know exactly how to explain the exact tone of it, it was not slurred.

Cross-examination:-

Q. At the time in question was it very dark?
A. It was very dark.
Q. Could you see the accused when you were loading the ambulance with casualties?
A. Yes you could see the accused but not light enough to see all features.
Q. Is it not true that the night of 13 Sep 44 was an exceptionally dark night?
A. Yes it was true that it was a dark night but being outside you got accustomed to the dark and it was quite possible to see the outline and what you were doing.
Q. Were you very busy at the CCP at that time?
A. They were coming in steadily. As fast as we could clear them out they were loaded into ambulances and cleared back to our A.D.S. At that time we cleared three ambulance loads.
Q. How long were you outside the CCP at the time of the incident?
A. About 10 - 15 minutes.
Q. Did the accused drop a stretcher?
A. No.
Q. How could you tell he was unsteady?

A. As I have already stated, I had been out long enough to see the outlines and I knew that the accused had been drinking, so I noticed him unsteady.
Q. How did you know he had been drinking?
A. Half an hour previously the accused had been involved in an argument through no fault of his own. I then asked the accused if he was drunk. He then replied, "No I am not drunk, I have only had 6 drinks."
Q. If his speech was not slurred can you describe how it was different from normal?
A. No.
Q. When the ambulance returned from the A.D.S. you state the accused remained at the A.D.S.. Is it true that he was instructed to do so?
A. I instructed the ambulance driver to leave the accused at the A.D.S. and I would replace him by another orderly on his return.
Q. At the time of the incident at the CCP was there not considerable confusion and anxiety?
A. I would hardly say there was confusion, I admit we were busy.

Re-examination:
None.

The Court proceeds to question the witness:-

Q. Did the accused act as an orderly for the trip you mentioned or did you have someone else take that job.
A. Yes. Another man was to have gone down but the accused's ambulance had pulled out before he got to it.
Q. At the time you were loading the ambulance how far was the ambulance from the door of the CCP?
A. Between 30 and 40 feet.
Q. To your knowledge when was the accused first placed under arrest?
A. I don't exactly know but the R.S.M. came up the next morning to get the details of what happened.
Q. Did what the accused said, make sense?
A. Yes.
Q. How long have you known the accused?
A. About 2 years.
Q. Do you know him well personally?
A. I know him enough to speak to him but never had anything personal to do with him outside of normal duties.
Q. Did you at any time on the night of 13 Sep 44 see the accused in a goodlight.
A. Yes, around the same time.
Q. Would you describe his appearance and conduct, then, when you saw him in good light.
A. I didn't pay very much attention to what he looked like. All I wanted to do was get him out of the M.I. Room.
Q. Why did you want to get him out of the M.I. Room?
A. Because I knew he had been drinking and he came in asking for more patients and I didn't want him to cause any trouble in the M.I. Room.
Q. Did you see the accused drinking at any time?
A. No.

R.P. 83(b) was complied with.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution. Major W.S. Hoggarth, 9 Canadian Field Ambulance, having been duly sworn, states:-

Q. Do you know the accused, Major Hoggarth?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you see him the night of 13 Sep 44.
A. Yes.

Q. Would you tell the Court in your own words the condition of the accused when you saw him?

A. First, having known and seen him before I had a good mental picture of his normal state. Sometime between 1600 and 1800 hrs I noticed him both in the CCP and outside the CCP in a state that I thought at the time appeared to be due to the overindulgence in spirits. Sometime between 1730 and 2000 hrs I talked to him inside the Car Post. I told him to the effect that he had better go to bed and keep out of the way as he was only not doing his duty but was definitely incapable of doing his duty and making himself a nuisance. He was definitely in a nasty and antagonistic frame of mind which was not normal for him. He would not do what I told him, and seeing there was no use of further talk with him, several of the other chaps seeing this, including, I think, the S/Sgt managed to get him outside away from me. When at approximately 2130 hrs he got back into the Car Post, could not stand or walk properly, could not talk properly or coherently and had a very, what one might call, spiteful and threatening attitude and look in his eye. I felt there was nothing else we could do under the circumstances but put him under arrest and get him back to the A.D.S. out of our way. His conduct without a doubt was due to the overindulgence of alcohol.

Q. Were any orders given to replace the accused in his duty?

A. I do not remember giving a specific order to that effect bit it was just routine that he would be replaced at his duty.

Cross-examination:-

Q. On 13 Sep 44 are you certain that you first saw the accused between 1600 and 1800 hrs?

A. I am not certain of the time but it would be approximately somewhere there.

Q. Is it true that enemy action or even confusion and anxiety at the car post because of internal troubles may have affected you reactions regarding the present case?

A. If anything I tried to avoid more trouble

Q. Do you admit there was already considerable trouble at the CCP before this case was ever brought to your attention?

A. No.

Q. Did you see the accused in the act of drinking?

A. No.

Q. Are you aware that there is good reason to believe thatthe accused was not at the CCP before 2000 hrs on 13 Sep 44, at any time.

A. I know that he arrived sometime during the late afternoon but I don't pretend to remember what time it was.

Re-examination:-

None

The Court proceeds to question the witness:-

Q. Giving the date and hours as close as you can, when did you give the order to place the accused under arrest?

A. 2130 hrs 13 Sep 44.

Q. You gave the order to S/Sgt Young ?

A. I believe so.

Q. Did you pursue the matter at all on the morning of 14 Sep 44?

A. I think I was in at the A.D.S. that morning and spoke to the R.S.M.

Q. Did the accused definitely refuse to do what he was told when you were speaking to him before 2000 hrs?

A. He did not say in words, "I refuse to do it", but kept on talking, did not agree to do it and did not do it.

R.P. 83 (B) was complied with.

D-93620 S/Sgt Young F.W. recalled at the request of the Defence is cross-examined:-

Q. S/Sgt. Young can you tell the Court what time the accused first appeared at the CCP on 13 Sep 44?

A. I can't state the exact time, I think it was between 2000 and 2030 hrs.

Q. Was he at the CCP in the late afternoon, to your knowledge?

A. I couldn't say for sure but the driver could answer that definitely.

Re-examination:-

Q. Is it possible that the accused could have been at the CCP without you being notified of the exact time when he arrived.

A. Yes it is possible that he could come up without notifying me.

The Court proceeds to question the witness:-

Q. Were you ordered to place the accused under arrest?

A. No.

Q. Did Major Hoggarth give you any orders regarding the accused?

A. Major Hoggarth, to the best of my knowledge did not give me any orders regarding the accused.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with

Defence does not wish to make an opening address.

1st Witness for the Defence. D 93612 Pte. Smith J. 9 Canadian Field Ambulance having been duly sworn, states:-

Q. Pte. Smith would you tell us in your own words what took place on 13 Sep 44?

A. We left the A.D.S. about 1930 hrs and got up to the CCP a little after 2000 hrs so I had a few drinks up there and I got into an argument. Later on I went into the M.I. Room to see some of the patients that had just come in. That was when I saw Major Hoggarth and he called me over and he asked me if I was drinking. I told him I had a few to drink and he told me that, "I had trouble with you last night and I don't want trouble with you tonight." Then I saw S/Sgt. Young and he told me to unload my ambulance ahead of the rest and to get everything ready to return back to the A.D.S. So I loaded the ambulance and as I was doing so I gotthe stretcher about three quarters of the way up when the handle of the stretcher elevator broke, so we had a little trouble with the lower case. After the ambulance was loaded I returned to the A.D.S.

Q. Were you fit to perform your duties?

A. Yes.

Q. What were your duties on the ambulance between the CCP and the A.D.S.

A. I had to look after the patients on the way down. On account of the dark night I had to give the driver a hand to pass the vehicles on the road because there were slit trenches on one side of the road and vehicles on the other.

Q. Up to this time had you been relieved of your duties?

A. No.

Q. Were you at the CCP on the late afternoon of 13 Sep 44?
A. No.

Cross-examination:-

Q. Were you orderly for the same ambulance all day?
A. Yes.
Q. How many trips did you make from the A.D.S. to the C.C.P.?
A. That was the first one at 2000 hrs.
Q. What were you drinking that day?
A. Vino.
Q. How much vino did you think you drank?
A. I had three small glasses.
Q. Where was that, at the A.D.S. or CCP?
A. At the C.C.P.
Q. Were you riding in the front of the ambulance all the way down from the CCP to the A.D.S.
A. I had to get out and look at the patients a couple of times on the way down.
Q. Is it not your duty as an orderly to ride with the patients in the back of the ambulance car?
A. It depends on how serious the cases are. When they are walking wounded we don't bother.
Q. What were you doing to help the driver of the ambulance car?
A. I had to direct him out of the gate at the CCP and the road was very narrow.
Q. Did you get out of the ambulance car on the road at any time besides to look at the patients?
A. Yes, I got out to direct the driver.
Q. In what way did you direct the driver?
A. I had to direct him clear of vehicles and slit trenches.
Q. Were you walking in front of the ambulance when passing slit trenches?
A. Yes.

The Court proceeds to question the witness.

Q. You stated you went out to the CCP after tea. Which was that, supper or evening tea?
A. Evening tea.
Q. At what time were you placed under arrest?
A. At 0900 hrs 14 Sep 44.
Q. Why do you state that time?
A. I went out with the ambulance at 0700 hrs and came back at 0900 hrs and was told by the R.S.M. that I was under arrest.
Q. Did you have stretcher cases on the ambulance when you returned to the A.D.S. on the night of 13 Sep 44?
A. Yes - two.
Q. Pte. Smith, did anybody tell you on the night of 13 Sep 44 that you were going to be placed under arrest or that you were under arrest?
A. No.
Q. You considered your return on the ambulance as regular duty?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you make any other trips that night?
A. No, I went up to bed.
Q. Did the ambulance to which you were detailed, make anymore trips that night?
A. Yes.

R.P. 83(b) was complied with.

Witness for the Defence. B 83704 Pte. Ackerman G.J., 9 Canadian Field Ambulance, having been duly sworn, states:-

Q. Pte. Ackerman, do you know the accused?
A. Yes.
Q. What were your duties on the night of 13 Sep 44?

A. To drive the ambulance carrying patients from the CCP TO THE A.D.S.
Q. Was the accused ambulance orderly attached to your ambulance?
A. Yes.
Q. When did you first see him on 13 Sep 44?
A. About 1945 hrs.
Q. Did you see him during the day at any time before that?
A. Yes, we were together most of the day because we had made a trip to the CCP that afternoon and back to the A.D.S. I saw him at lunch time, then the next time was at 1945 hrs.
Q. At what time did you make this trip to the CCP in the daytime?
A. It was after dinner.
Q. How long did you stay there?
A. About an hour and a half.
Q. Are you certain that you and Pte. Smith were at the CCP on the afternoon of 13 Sep 44?
A. Yes.
Q In what condition was he?
A. In normal condition.
Q. At what time did you return to the A.D.S. in the afternoon?
A. I think it was close to supper which would be around 1700 hrs.
Q. Was he fit for duty at that time? in your opinion ?
A. Yes.
In what condition was the accused when you arrived at the CCP on the night of 13 Sep 44?
A. Normal.
Q. Can you tell us in your own words what happened at the CCP
A. At the CCP I spent most of my time in the evacuation room until I was notified there were patients to go out. The accused while elevating the top stretcher case broke the handle of the elevator so that we had some difficulty. One stretcher case was put on the ground for a few minutes while we got things organised. There were a few shells that landed fairly handy which caused more excitement and then of course there were a lot of orders flying around. With a little difficulty we got the bottom stretcher case in. Then the walking came and they were loaded and I left the back of the ambulance. The accused, the orderly was putting up the steps. He guided me out of the laneway for it was one of the darkest nights I had ever driven in action. The next trouble took place about a mile and a quarter, roughly, from the CCP . The road was very narrow. I was going to pull off but the orderly said, "Just a minute I believe there are slit trenches beside the road", and they there were. He then backed me up and got me as close to them as possible for there were several ammunition trucks coming through and there was no other way of getting out. We got out of there and came to the A.D.S.
Q. How would you say he performed his duties on the night in question?
A. Perfectly.
Q. How long have you known the accused?
A. Two and a half years.
Q. How much time did you spend with him on the night of 13 Sep 44?
A. During the trip to and from the A.D.S. and several times at the CCP.
Q. Would you describe his condition on the night of 13 Sep 44.
A. He was his usual self.

Cross-examination.

Q. Was the accused with you in the evacuation ward of the CCP X during the afternoon of 13 Sep 44?

Re-examination :-

Q. Could the visit to the CCP that you described on the afternoon of the 13 Sep 44 have really taken place on the 12 Sep 44 ?
A. I don't think so.
Q. To the best of your knowledge could it have been on the 12 Sep 44?
A. It was on the 13 Sep 44.

The Court proceeds to question the witness:-

Q. Did S/Sgt Young say anything else to you when he said to leave the accused at the A.D.S.?
A. There was a lot of disturbance and I don't recall him saying anything else except, "Smitty is your orderly and leave him behind at the A.D.S."
Q. Did you hear anyone else speak to the accused when you were loading the ambulance ?
A. Yes.
Q. Who spoke to him ?
A. Quite a few.
Q. To your knowledge was he relieved of his duties at any time while you were at the CCP.
A. No.

4TH WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

D 93576 Sgt. Styan L.A., 9 Canadian Field Ambulance, having been duly sworn, states:-

Q. Sgt. Styan, how long have you known the accused?
A. I have known the accused since early 1941.
Q. Would you make a general statement as to the character of the accused?-
A. I have known the accused since February 1941, back in England. As an N.C.O. I have always found him willing to carry out his share of the duties laid out for him. The accused joined the army in June of 1940 at the age of 18. Some overseas and became a member of 9 Canadian Field Ambulance in February 1941 During the training in England, he was in Eastbourne during a big bombing raid which resulted in 11 unit personnel becoming casualties. He was one of the three of the 11 men to survive a direct hit by a bomb on a shelter. He suffered injuries which put him in hospital. After returning from hospital, he again joined 9 Canadian Field Ambulance and was with us when we came into Sicily. During Sicily he served as an S.B. in a section attached to an infantry unit. He also came into Italy and has served in all the big actions up to the present date. He has always been an efficient ambulance orderly evacuating from the CCP. He is always willing to evacuate his casualties at any time of day through the heaviest shell fire. Never has he refused any orders given by men and I have always found his work satisfactory.

No CROSS-EXAM.
R.P.86(8) COMPLIED WITH.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY DEFENDING OFFICER

The evidence submitted does not, in my opinion, prove that the accused was unfit to perform his duties as a result of previous indulgence in alcoholic beverages. The men who worked with the accused state definitely, not only that he was fit but that he performed an excellent job. Certainly if he was fit to perform his duties, then he cannot be considered to have been intoxicated. By his own admission the accused had only three small glasses of vino, an insufficient number to render the man unfit. The fact that confusion and anxiety and excitement seemed to be the order of the night could indicate that Pte. Smith has been unfortunately the victim of an injustice.

I would like to point out that the accused landed in Sicily at the very beginning of the campaign. Since that time he has been in very little trouble. Since the officer personnel of a unit is constantly changing it has been necessary in this case to call upon one of the unit's best N.C.O.'s to testify on his behalf.

The defence closes and asks the court to agree that certainly there is a reasonable doubt that the accused was drunk and that it has in no way been proved that he was unfit for duty. His C.O. and his senior N.C.O. apparently considered he was fit to act as Nursing Orderly in care of battle casualties in the evacuation back to the A.D.S. On the trip the accused did a very good job in guiding the ambulance through great difficulties.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTION

I would like to bring out a few of the facts concerning this case as presented by several of the witnesses. First of all, three witnesses have testified that the accused was at the CCP on the afternoon of 13 Sep 44. At that time the O.C. CCP saw the accused and got the impression at that time that the accused was not his normal self. Secondly, the accused admits himself to having been drinking. The senior N.C.O., that evening, saw the accused while he was working at his duty and saw fit to have the accused replaced by another orderly because the conduct and appearance of the accused gave him the impression that he should be replaced. The O.C. also saw him that evening and was convinced that the accused was not capable of carrying out his duties and ordered him to go to bed. The Senior N.C.O. and Officer Commanding have both the responsibility to see that the CCP is running smoothly and all the men are efficient, at their duties. They did not consider the accused's conduct that evening such that would enable him to carry out his duties properly due to the fact that he was under the impression that the accused was drinking intoxicating liquor.

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

The accused has performed his duties well since the beginning of the invasion of Sicily. His few offences were of a minor nature. On the night in question, the defence feels that other factors may have contributed to his being placed under arrest on the following day. The defence asks the Court to consider the sentence of the accused in the light of the fact that he apparently performed his duties in the evacuation from the CCP in a satisfactory manner.

Plea in Mitigation of Punishment

K 76112 Smith J.

Tpr. Smith joined the army in June 41. He has been with the 8 C.D.s from July 41 and has gotten along well in the army up until this time. He was sent down here from the Regt on course and was kept around camp for a period of 5 or 6 days with very little to do. This type of thing is asking for trouble and should hold this person entirely responsible. Well, he got caught out and was charge with being A.W.L. 17hrs. For this he recieved 21 days field punishment. Saturday afternoon he buzzed off again, coming back on Thursday to avoid getting into too much trouble. (22 days in custody already his first court martial

He is a sensible, smart, young soldier, and it would appear to me that his time would be better spent learning his job as a soldier rather than spending an undue long time under sentence. Therefore I would ask that the court be as lenient as possible.

I am a Regimental Policeman at No.3 C.A.C.R.U. At 1800 hrs., Saturday 25 Sep 43, I was desk man on duty. Tpr. Olson, another provost, formed up defaulters' parade and I called the roll. Tpr. Smith, J., who should have answered his name, did not do so. Tpr. Smith at that time was undergoing 21 days Field Punishment to which he had been sentenced by Lt/Col. Mick on 25 Sep 43. He knew that he should have been present on defaulters' parade. Tpr. Smith failed to answer his name on ensuing defaulters' parades that night. His name was entered in the absentee book and I did not see him again until 1 Oct 43 when he was under close arrest in the Guard Room.

THE CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION

Prosecutor's opening address:-

I will proceed to show by means of witnesses that the accused was granted a pass and he didn't return to his billets at the required time.

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

A.9082 Sgt. TICKNOR, W.C. 1 Cdn Div Sup Col RCASC having been duly sworn, states:-

Questioned by the Prosecuting Officer,

Q. Will you tell the Court your evidence in connection with Pte. Smith?
A. On 30 Jul 41 I issued Pte. Smith a midnight pass for the same day. At the time I was guard commander in the vehicle park. I wasn't at the house to check at 2359 hrs. but when I returned to billets the next morning he was not there. I reported Pte. Smith on the parade state as absent without leave. When he returned, Sgt. Ross placed him under arrest. He turned the papers over to me, the papers that Pte. Smith had brought from the hospital with him. I turned these papers, along with the charge of A.W.L., into the Echelon orderly room.

Q. You made a check on the house where the accused was residing in the morning?
A. Yes sir, at approximately 0715 hrs.

Q. You were the guard at the car park. Is that some distance?
A Approx. ½ to ¾ miles.

There were no questions by the Defending Officer.

Questioned by the Court,

Q. You issued the pass in the evening?
A. Yes sir.

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

A9194 Pte. BERLE, R.J., 1 Cdn Div Sup Col RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:-

Questioned by the prosecuting officer:-

Q. Will you tell the court the evidence in connection with the accused?
A. On the night of 30 Jul 41 I was orderly corporal and I handed in the ~~xxxx~~ reports and the list of midnight passes. Pte. Smith's name was in this list. At 2359 hrs. Pte. Smith was not in. At approx. 0630 hrs. 31 Jul 41 he was still not in so I reported it to Sgt. Ross.

tattoo

There were no questions by the Defending Officer.

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

A.9203 Sgt. ROSS, D.E., 1 Cdn Div Sup Col RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:-

Questioned by the Prosecuting Officer,

Q. Will you tell the Court what evidence you have in connection with the accused, Pte. Smith?
A. On the morning of 31 Jul 41, Cpl. Berle, who had been orderly corporal the previous night, reported that Pte. Smith was A.W.L. I was the sergeant in charge of the house owing to the fact that the sergeant of "H" section was guard commander. I heard nothing of the accused and saw nothing of him until the morning of 4 Aug 41 when at approx. 1100 hrs. I intercepted him on the road leading to Sunhill House. I stopped and talked with him, placed him under open arrest and ordered him to the house. I also picked up his pass and two other documents showing that he had been to a hospital. There was also another pass in the form of an extension, including these documents that I picked up. I immediately contacted Sgt. Ticknor and turned over these documents to him because he was Pte. Smith's section sergeant. I then reported to the echelon commander that Pte. Smith had returned and that I had placed him under open arrest. He ordered me to send Smith to our M.O. and I did.

There were no questions by the Defending Officer.

4th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Lieut. B.L. PRYCE, 1 Cdn Div Sup Col RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:-

Questioned by the Prosecuting Officer,

Q. Will you tell the Court what evidence you have in connection with the accused?
A. I have documentary evidence,
(1) A pass issued by myself to Pte. Smith on 30 Jul 41 from after duty to 2359 hrs for proceeding to London.
(2) A pass by the London Provost giving Pte. Smith the right to be absent from his quarters from 30 Jul 41 to 1000 hrs 31 Jul 41 for proceeding to London, which is signed by the D.A.P.M.
(3) A certified casualty ticket made out to Pte. Smith giving his symptons and that he was admitted to hospital at 0930 hrs 1 Aug 41.
(4) A morning sick report for Pte. Smith from Millbank Hospital dated 2 Aug 41. The date that this expir expired was 31 Jul 41.
(5) Another sick report which states on the back, "Queen Alexandra Hospital. To return forthwith and report to the M.O. of his unit". The date is 2 Aug 41 and time 1250 hrs.

(6) A schedule, made out by M.S.M. Emery, A/R.T.O., Redhill, which gives a complete schedule of trains leaving Victoria Station, London and arriving at Redhill and of trains from Redhill to Godstone and signed by the R.T.O.

(7) A Green Line Bus schedule from London to Redhill and Redhill to Godstone, signed by the superintendent of the bus line.

(8) Another time table which is self-explanatory.

Q. You referred to the hospital casualty ticket as a pass. Is that correct.
A. Not as a pass, but it does state on the back of one, "pass expired ...."

There were no questions by the Defending Officer.

The Case For The Prosecution is closed.

THE CASE FOR THE DEFENCE

There are no witnesses for the Defence, but the accused wishes to make a statement not on oath.

At 1300 hrs. they braced my feet again and at 1600 hrs and again at 2000 hrs. They told me to report to Millbank Hospital which I did, the following morning at 0900 hrs. where I had my feet dressed three times from 0900 hrs to 1205 hrs.

Questioned by the Court,

Q. Is your billet in Sunhill house?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Were your feet bothering you when you asked for the pass?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Why did you want to go to London?
A. My sister is living there and I had not heard of them at all for three months and I wanted to see if they were okay.

Q. Did you consider a six midnight sufficient?
A. Yes.

Q. What led you to ask for an extension?
A. I asked the bus conductor when I could get a bus back that night. He told me the last bus was at 2130 hrs. I went to Victoria Station at 8:40 p.m. and waited till 9:40 p.m. and I asked another conductor if I could get another bus out that night. He told me I couldn't get one till 6:25 the next morning. From Victoria Station I went to Henrietta Street and arrived there at 11 p.m. and told them I couldn't get a bus out that night . They phoned up our orderly room and asked for an extension till 1000 hrs 31 Jul 41.

Q. Where did you go then?
A. I returned to mysisters.

Q. Did you remain there for the night?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Where did you go the following morning?
A. I stayed there till about 0900 hrs sir and I went to investigate about my brother whom I have not seen for 23 years.

Q. You knew your pass was up at ~~2300~~ 1000 hrs.
A. Yes sir.

Q. What happened the rest of the day?
A. I went to Bernardo's home to get information on my brother. They told me he was at Brampton State Institution.

Q. Did you return to your sister's?
A. When I got back it was around 1930 hrs.

Q. Where did you spend the night?
A. At my sister's. The next day I took a bus to St. Thomas hospital and arrived there 1 Aug 41.

Q. Is that where you got this ticket?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Whom did you see there?
A. The civilian doctor sir.

Q. Do you know if he signed this at all?
A. He just gave me this card sir.

Q. You continued to go back to St. Thomas hospital during the day?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Why did you have to go back so often?
A. My feet were in bad shape sir.

Q. How did you get to Millbank?
A. I took a street car. One of the medical orderlies told me to go there.

Q. Is Millbank a military hospital?
A. Yes sir.

Q. What time did you leave Millbank Hospital?
A. 1205 hrs. 2 Aug 41.

Q. Did the Doctor mark that on your ticket?
A. The orderly did.

Q. All this time you knew you had no pass?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you not think of making an attempt to contact your unit?
A. The Provost stopped me and I produced these passes and they told me I was okay.

Q. You finished up at noon on 2 Aug 41. Where did you go after that?

I went back to my sister's. I was told to report to my own M.O. here.

Q. On 30 Jul 41 you stated that you went to Victoria Station at 8:40. You didn't try to go back by train?
A. No sir, I had xx a return ticket on the Green Line bus. That's the reason I didn't come back by train sir.

Q. On 31 Jul 41 you wanted to see your brother. Why was it suddenly so important to see your brother?
A. I didn't know where my brother was until the 31 Jul when I found out. I got the information from my sister's.

The Case For The Defence is closed.

Prosecutor's Closing Address :-

It has been shown that Pte. Smith was given one pass which was afterwards extended to 1000 hrs on the 31 Jul 41. Nothing further was done about a further extension of that pass to take care of any hospital treatment or any sickness that might have arisen. There is a definite period during which the accused was not present at his duties and not otherwise accounted for. Even accepting the hospital as a possible excuse there is a period of approx. 24 hours between the expiring of the A.P.M.'s pass and the entrance to the hoppital on 31 Jul 41.

Defending Officer's Closing Address :-

I wish to point out that Pte. Smith has been charged with A.W.L. 4 days, 1 hour, when actually the charge should read a matter of some 49 hours from the time he was dismissed from Millbank Hospital. It is a fact that Pte. Smith was negligent in as much as he did not get proper passes to cover his time between the expiration of the provost pass and dismissal from the hospital but the documents from the hospitals in question definitely prove that he was not trying to evade his responsibilities but was sincere in his effort in xx getting medical treatment.

I wish to point out that he is not guilty of A.W.L. for the time stated in the charge but for the lesser time of approx 49 hours. We have not the documents available to prove that the treatments were taken but they could be produced from these two hospitals. The fact that he has documents showing that he visited them proves that he was there and no doubt took treatment.

The Court adjourns for consideration of finding.

The Court re-assembles and the accused makes the following statement:-

Ever since I have been in this unit I have tried to get transferred because I do not belong xxx to the army service corps, sir.

Q. Do you not like your work here?
A. I am not satisfied with this unit. I was transferred here against my wish sir.

Q What unit did you come over with?
A. With the Holding Unit sir. I was sent from there to the Supply Column.

Q. This is the only unit you have served with in England?
A. Yes sir. I served with the R.C.R.s in Canada and I would like to get back with them.

Q. Did you take the opportunity of over-staying your pass as a means ~~xx~~ that it might get you transferred?
A. No sir.

There are no witnesses for character produced by the Defending Officer.

The Court is closed for consideration of sentence.

No objection was made by the accused or defending officer as to proceedings preliminary to trial and the accused was asked if there was anything in connection with the trial or proceedings that he was not satisfied with. He answered "No."

A 9082 Sgt. Ticknor, W.C., 1 Cdn Div Sup Col., after having been duly sworn states:-

I am Sergeant of "H" Sec. I issued Pte. Smith with a pass for 2359 hours, 30 Jul 41. At that time I was Sergeant of the Car Park Guard. The following morning when I returned to the billets at 0715 hrs. I personally checked and found that Pte. Smith was absent from his quarters. I heard no more about it until the morning of his return which was the 4th of August 1941 and at that time he had been placed under open arrest by Sergeant Ross. I then turned in a charge against Pte. Smith as being A.W.L.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

A 9203 Sgt. Ross, D.E., 1 Cdn Div Sup Col., R.C.A.S.C. after having been duly sworn states:

I am Sergeant of "G" Section at Sunhill which was were Pte. Smith was billeted. On the morning of the 31st Jul 41 I was notified by Cpl. Searle who was Orderly Corporal the previous night that Pte. Smith had not reported in on his midnight pass which expired at 2359 hrs 30 Jul 41. At 0830 hours Pte. Smith was still unaccounted for and I reported his absence to No. 2 Echelon Orderly Room. I heard no more regarding Pte. Smith until Monday 4 Aug 41 when at 1100 hours I met him on the road leading to Sunhill. I approached him and he gave me his pass along with another pass issued by the Provost which was an extention of ten hours and one minute. He also turned over to me two certificates which showed that he had been to different hospitals. The last certificate clearly indicated that Pte. Smith was released from hospital on 2 Aug 41 to be returned to his Unit forthwith. I immediately confined him to his billet and I then came to No. 2 Orderly Room and reported Pte. Smith's return to Capt. Meers. Capt. Meers advised me to leave Pte. Smith under open arrest and have him report to the Medical Officer of our Unit. I carried out Capt. Meers orders. The pass and papers given to me by Pte. Smith were turned over to Sgt. Ticknor who was the Section Sergeant of "H" Section the Section which Pte. Smith belonged to.

First Witness for Prosecution — A 11588 Sgt Mingen C.W., The Perth Regt, having been duly sworn states:—

I am Provost Sgt of Perth Regt. I recognize the accused as Pte Smith. At approximately 2100 hrs 16 Feb 45 I received certain information about Pte Smith. I went to C.M.P. H.Q. to bring him back to barracks. At that time I had him under close arrest. I reported to R.S.M. at the barracks, when I got him there, and after I saw the R.S.M. I told accused he was under close arrest. He replied "you or no one else will ever put me in the jug." I took him by the arm and tried to get him to go upstairs with me. He swung at me with his fist and hit me on the neck. R.S.M. Curtis then came in and told me to put Smith in hand cuffs and take him upstairs. Smith refused to go and started to kick and struggle so that it took four men to handcuff him after putting the handcuffs on him he cursed and swore at R.S.M. Curtis but I cant definitely say what words were used. The accused then turned and swung at R.S.M. Curtis with the handcuffs and hit him over the shoulders with the handcuffs which he had on. The R.S.M. tried to duck but was hit over the shoulders. After a lot of further struggling, we took the accused upstairs. When we got back to the billets was when I told the accused he was under close arrest.

Cross Examination :-

When I saw the accused at the billets, it was in a room which was partly occupied by men in detention and partly by drivers. There was an armed guard on each door. This was after the accused was in the kitchen where I told him he was under arrest. In the kitchen there were cooks making sandwiches and the were blowers going. The accused had been drinking but was not drunk. The accused asked for friends and also made himself a sandwich. He would not be fit for guard duty. He was under the influence of alcohol. There was noise in the Kitchen but one could hear ordinary conversation. accused was standing near a table making sandwiches. Accused had been under arrest at C.M.P. H.Q. I didn't tell him he was, but I had to sign for him to get him out of C.M.P. H.Q. I can't say if he was told he was under arrest before I told him in the Kitchen. There was an interval from time I told accused he was in arrest until he hit me. During that interval I left the room. R.S.M., Cpl Brine, Sgt Sachs returned with me. At this time R.S.M. said to put accused in handcuffs. The accused struggled and pushed us away. I didn't have cuffs in my hands then. The struggle ended in the form of us putting Smith down and putting handcuffs on him. R.S.M. had his arm under accused's chin.

Questioned by Court:-
when accused swung at R.S.M. accused had both hands in cuffs. He swung up and sideways at R.S.M. + hit him over the shoulders. Accused did not struggle when he was being taken from C.M.P. H.Q. to barracks. He hit an M.P. on leaving C.M.P. H.Q.

When the RSM returned to the kitchen, he tried to coax accused first.

Questioned by DA

accused was in my custody during the incident. He accused kicked but didn't connect with anyone. When I saw the accused in CMP office he was sitting in office with several MPs present. The events took place in Silligno, Italy.

(RP 33 (D) complied with)

Second Witness for Prosecution

A 11706 Cpl Bryce A, Perth R. having been duly sworn, states:-

I am a member of R.P. of Perth R. I recognize the accused as Pte Smith. At about 2100 hrs on 16 Feb 45, Sgt Mingen came to my quarters. We went down to the kitchen together - that is Sgt Mingen went first and I followed shortly. I saw accused having a cup of tea. When I got there Mingen was not present. I told accused to come upstairs but he would not come. He asked to see Cpl Ball. I found Cpl Ball and by then Sgt Mingen was back. RSM Curtis was there and told Sgt Mingen to place Pte Smith under close arrest. Sgt Mungen went out and told Smith he was under close arrest. Smith said "you or anyone else can put me in the jug" or words to that effect. Pte Smith then asked to finish his tea and Sgt Mungen said to go upstairs. Accused dropped a glass, stooped to pick it up and suddenly swung at Sgt. Mungen. R.S.M. then grabbed Smith around the neck and Sgt. Mungen, Sgt Asche and R.S.M. held Smith on the floor. R.S.M. told me to go upstairs and get the handcuffs. When I returned they still had Smith on the floor. I put the cuffs on both wrists. As I was going out of the door with Smith, I had him by the arm. He suddenly twisted away from me with his hands in the air and swung at R.S.M. We all held Smith on floor till he quieted down, and then Sgt Mungen and I took him up. The first time accused was on the floor he said "you have fucked me long enough Sgt Maj but I'll get you yet."

Cross Examination

Pte Smith had been drinking but was not drunk. I think he was not drunk from my experience. I doubt if I would put him on duty. He was not fit for duty. His speach was a bit thick. There were quite a few people in the Kitchen. I dont recall about noise. There was Provost and two guards upstairs when Sgt came to get one. I was only one Sgt asked to go downstairs. I never heard any of men working in kitchen being asked to help put Smith in arrest. When Smith was not being held, he made no attempt to escape from the room. The words I used when I first saw accused were "Come on Smitty, we had better go upstairs" Smith did not actually hit Sgt Minzies as far as I could see. R.S.M. was standing pretty close. There wasnt much of a struggle to put Smith on the floor. Dont remember if R.S.M. said anything to Smith. There was no struggle on the way upstairs.

Cross-examined by J.A.:-

I didnt see a blow hit R.S.M.

(R.P. 93(c) complied with)

Court adjourns until 1330 hrs.

Court re-assembles at 1330 hrs pursuant to adjournment.

Third Witness Prosecution

A 11614 RSM Curtis G.F., Perth R. having been duly sworn, states:-

I am RSM of Perth R. I recognise Pte Smith, the accused. On 16 Feb 45 at Filigno Italy, at about 2100 hrs I ordered Pte Smith to be handcuffed. He immediately swung at Provost Sgt, Sgt Mingen, saying "you or no one else can put me in the digger." I assisted in handcuffing Pte Smith. While he was being handcuffed his cursing was directed at me. He said "you yellow-bellied son of a bitch, I'll get you through the guts yet, where it hurts most" or words to that effect as Cpl Brice was taking accused away, the accused broke away and struck me on the top of the left shoulder with his closed fists. Accused was resisting by daring Sgt Mingen to get him. When Sgt Mingen was struck by accused, he was walking towards accused. The blow did not hit Sgt Mingen. Sgt Mingen was the accused's escort.

Cross Examination:-

There were about 6 or 8 others in the room. I don't remember if blows were going accused had been drinking but was not drunk. I would not have put the accused on a guard, in his condition. I am sure Smith heard and understood he was under arrest. Sgt Mirozen was only about two pairs away from accused. I heard Smith say words about being put in digger. After Smith made a pass at Sgt Mirozen, which I blocked, there was a rough-and-tumble. It would be 4-5 seconds from time Smith was ordered to be handcuffed until he was handcuffed. Handcuffs were upstairs in guardroom. Cpl. Brine went for them. It was approximately 4-5 minutes that we held Smith on ground. 4-5 minutes from time we started to handcuff him till he was taken away. Three or four were helping me. After I stopped the blow aimed at Sgt Mirozen, I clinched with Smith and put him on the floor. It was almost immediately that we all grabbed him and put him on the floor. I had Smith around the neck. The only thing I said to Smith was that I didn't have to fight with his kind. This was when he wanted to fight with me outside. ~~Two Pte soldiers in the room were ordered to assist in making the arrest.~~ I told two Ptes to assist the Provost Sgt to take accused upstairs under arrest but before they had time to act the accused swung at the Provost Sgt and we all grappled with accused. The two Ptes would be about 4 or 5 feet from accused and myself. When I say Sgt Minzies was the escort, it was because he got him from Provost and brought him to the billets. This was told to me.

Questioned by Court

The blow did not strike Sgt Minzies. A blow from accused did strike me on shoulder. I didn't see accused struggling with Provost Sgt before I ordered handcuffs to be put on accused.

Questioned by J.A. When the accused struck me, his hands were handcuffed together. I did not order Sgt Minzies to arrest accused. I considered he already was under close arrest.

(RP 83 (b) complied with)

Fourth Witness
Prosecution

A 31844 Sgt Asche A.W., Perth Regt, having been duly sworn states:-

I recognize accused as Pte Smith J.A. At approx. 2100 hrs 16 Feb 45 I was standing in doorway of HQ Coy Kitchen while on duty as Bn O.S. Sgt Mingen approached Smith and warned Smith he was being placed under close arrest. Smith said "you can't do this to me" or words to that effect. Smith then struck at Sgt Mingen. His blow was deflected by RSM Curtis. RSM Curtis, Sgt Mingen & I got Smith under control on floor where he continued to struggle. Cpl Bris placed the handcuffs on Smith. When Smith was allowed to get up, he threatened the RSM saying "you yellow son of a bitch" or something like that and "I will get you yet" or words to that effect. Sgt Mingen & Cpl Bris let go of accused and Smith lunged at RSM and struck him on left shoulder with his two arms while the handcuffs were around his wrists. RSM & I grabbed Smith and he was taken to guardroom by Cpl Bris and Sgt Mingen.

Smith was held on floor 1½ to 2 minutes. Cpl Brine had to go for handcuffs.

Cross Examination

There were quite a number of people in the room. I think blowers were going. The closest of these men was 6 to 8 feet from the struggle. I did not hear any order given to the soldiers to assist in arresting accused. I was inside door and 4-5 ft from Sgt Minzen when accused struck at him. I would have heard RSM if he gave an order to pass at that time. I went in with a view to helping put Smith under close arrest if I was needed. I was DOS Questioned by Court:- accused was struggling. I saw accused hit RSM as far as I could see. He did not hit Sgt Minzen. Accused was under influence of intoxicants and was not fit to carry out any duty.

Questioned by JA:-

I would say accused was drunk. To best of my knowledge accused was both hitting and struggling on floor. Sgt Minzen was holding accused left arm at that time. (RP 83(d) complied with)

D4 Motion for dismissal 1st & 2nd Charges

Defending Offr :-

1 Accused was in kitchen not under escort.
2 Mingen said not warned he was under arrest when on way to billets.
3 Mingen's ~~accused~~ job was to apprehend accused, not to have him in charge.
4 Re 2nd Charge. Refers MML middle p 25 and states the abusive language should not be subject of a charge.
5 Refers to KR Can 542. re minor charges.

Prosecutor :-

1 Refer to accused's statement about being "put in the jug"
2 Language not merely "abusive & violent" but "threatening".
3 Refers MML p 25, para 48.

JA's address :-

1 Question for Court is whether there is more than a scintilla of evidence, which is not disbelieved and which would legally support the two charges. Court not called upon at this stage to decide which parts of evidence are true. Must be some evidence on each particular alleged in 1st and 2nd Charges.
2 It is for Court to say if accused was under escort of Lgt Mingen, and if Sgt Wingen had a duty to have accused in charge, according to evidence.

3/ Quotation in M.M.L. middle p 25 is not a bar to charge in question being laid. accused is not charged with drunkenness.

4/ M.R. Can 542 is not a bar to the charges in question being laid. The convening officer has exercised his discretion and it should not now be questioned.

5/ Court not called upon to apply doctrine of "reasonable doubt" at this stage.

First Witness
defence

The accused, having been duly sworn, states:—

On evening of Feb 16, 45, I saw Sgt Wingen at CMP office. He came in and went to Sgt and talked to him. I was sitting on the bench. Sgt Wingen said "come on, will go back to barracks" We went back to barracks in a H.C.P. I got out and went into kitchen. I don't know where Sgt Wingen was then. I had a cup of tea and was standing at the table. Next I remember was someone grabbing me by the arm and jerking me. I turned and saw it was Sgt Wingen. The next thing I knew I was on the floor. The R.S.M had me around neck. Sgt Isele and Sgt Wingen each had an arm and the Medical Sgt had my feet. R.S.M said "You're not so fucking tough We have had your kind before." R.S.M told Sgt Price to get the handcuffs. When he came back they put the handcuffs on me, and they let me up. I asked to finish my tea but I was refused and given a push. A fuming around with the handcuffs. I don't know if I hit anyone. I was then held by the arm, & I went upstairs.

Cross Examination :-

I was at C.M.P. H.Q. for having a bottle of liquor. I had been drinking and was sick, so went to get another bottle. I fell down in front of the truck in the middle of the road. I was picked up, the bottle was taken away and I was taken to C.M.P. H.Q. I don't remember making the statement to Sgt Mingen about being put in the jug. I did ask for Cpl Ball, I don't remember when. I saw him later. I don't remember speaking to Cpl Bruce. When I was pushed I swung my hands. Don't know of hitting anything. I don't remember hearing Sgt Mingen say I was under arrest. I was not under arrest. It was not necessary to go through kitchen on the way to the guardroom. I might have been doing a lot of loud talking but not to any one man. When my arm was jerked the time I had the cup of tea, I swung around and saw Sgt Mingen.

Questions by Court

driver was the only one besides myself & Sgt Wenger on way back from CMP to fence when Sgt Wenger went to fence. I don't know who Sgt Wenger was. He first time I saw him was when he had me by CMP did not say anything in pursuance of Sgt Wenger "we'll get rid of you". I was handcuffed. I did not resist arrest. I was locked up in CMP Office.

Questions by TA:-

I did not know RSM was standing behind me when I swung around with my arms handcuffed. I might have been struggling on the ground because RSM had my neck & I had a hard time breathing.

driver was the only one besides myself & Sgt Weingen on way back from C.M.P. I don't know who Sgt Weingen went when we arrived. The first time I saw R.S.M. was when he had me by neck. I asked permission of Sgt Weingen to finish my tea, after I was handcuffed. C.M.P. did not say I was under arrest. Said "we'll get rid of you." I was not locked up in C.M.P. office.

Questioned by D.A. —

Second Witness Defence A11670 Pte Bartley R.C., Perth R. having been duly sworn, states.

On evening of 10 Feb 45 I was in H.Q. Coy Kitchen. I saw accused in the kitchen. He was drunk, I would say. Many people in room. There was at least one blower going

& there was talking. It wasn't possible to hear words spoken in a normal voice unless one was up close. Pte Smith was alone when he entered kitchen and came over and asked me for a cup of tea. He didn't seem in a hurry. Sgt Meinzen came in and asked accused to go to bed, saying "come to bed Smitty" Smith didn't go. I went out for water and when I came back a whole bunch were there. Before I left Sgt Meinzen went away too. When I got back I saw Smith, Sgt Meinzen and others. Next thing I knew they were all on the floor. I didn't see accused swing at Sgt Meinzen.

Cross Examination :—

I was on fatigue in the kitchen. I was in detention. I would call accused drunk. He may or may not have known what he was doing. When Sgt Meinzen told Smith to go to bed, it was not in loud voice, but I heard it. I went out for water and it was when I got back. I saw them all on the floor. May have been 10 or 15 minutes from time Sgt Meinzen came in till they were all on floor. Could have been 5 minutes. Sgt ~~Smith and~~ Meinzen & Pte Smith were talking when I got back with the water. It was about a minute later they were all on the floor. There was a group around accused when I got back with water. The accused was on the floor on two occasions. I did not see accused strike anyone. I did not always have a clear view

(RP 83(b) complied with)

Defending Offr's closing address :-

1 Evidence shows accused not under arrest

2 Swinging around to get Morgan was not intentional, but to see who touched him.

3 Submits accused came to floor without a struggle. He only struggled on the ground because he could not breathe

4 RSM should not have been in contact with a drunken soldier. Was provocation to struggle.

5 Did not mean to swing at RSM in particular. He did not know he was there. No intention 6 Words referred to in 2nd charge was as a result of provocation and affected by accused's drunken condition.

Prosecutor's Closing Address :—

1. Refers to discrepancies in evidence of five defence witnesses.
2. Reviews evidence on each charge.
3. Submits ample evidence to justify conviction on three charges.

R.A.F

The Commanding Officer directs that all evidence be taken on oath.

1st Witness

A11566 Sgt. Minzen C.W. The Perth Regt. C.A.(C.W.F.) having been duly sworn states;

Sir; I am A11566 Sgt. Minzen C.W. The Provost Sgt. of The Perth Regt. C.A.(C.W.F.) On 18th February 1946 at approximately 2100 hrs, after having one A11934 Pte. Smith J.A. turned over to me from the C.M.P. of Foligno, Italy, I attempted to put Pte. Smith J.A. under close arrest. I walked into the kitchen and told him he was under close arrest and to come with me to the guard room. Pte. Smith then said "You nor anybody else can put me under close arrest". I went to take him by the arm and he swung at me, saying, he would not go up. The R.S.M. Mr. Curtis gave me instructions to put Pte. Smith in handcuffs and take him upstairs. Pte. Smith refused to be put into the cuffs and fought until it was necessary for four of us to put them on him. After the cuffs had been put on, Pte. Smith spread at Mr. Curtis and swung his fists at him as he did so. I finally escorted Pte. Smith to the guard room.

Questions by the officer taking the summary of evidence,

Q.1. In swinging at you did Pte. Smith J.A. make contact with your body?

A.1. Yes Sir, on the side of the neck.

Q.2. Can you remember any of the curses uttered by Pte. Smith?

A.2. Not exactly.

Q.3. But swear words were definitely used?

A.3. Yes Sir.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Minzen, the Provost Sgt. called me to go downstairs to the kitchen and help him bring Pte. Smith J.A. up to the guard room. Sgt. Minzen went over to Pte. Smith who was standing at one of the tables drinking tea. He told Pte. Smith he was under close arrest and that he had better come upstairs to the guard room. Sgt. Minzen took Pte. Smith by the arm. Pte. Smith said you nor anybody else is taking me to the guard room. Sgt. Minzen said he was and pulled Smith towards him, at which point, Pte. Smith swung at Sgt. Minzen. The R.S.M. Mr. Curtis, Sgt. Minzen and Sgt. Ische held Pte. Smith and I put the handcuffs on him. Pte. Smith then asked to finish his cup of tea and Sgt. Minzen said no, that he should come upstairs to the guard room. I had Pte. Smith by the arm at the time and he suddenly twisted around with his hands in the air and brought them down at the R.S.M. We all held onto him until he quietened down, then took him upstairs.

Pros Did you relate the instance which occurred between yourself and the accused on evening 7 Dec 43

Ans On the day + date stated at approx 2030 hrs Sgt Dickson and myself entered one of the local Pubs. As I entered Sgt. Smith J.A.B. spoke to me. He said Good evening Quarters D'ill you little shrimp. I ignored this remark + proceeded to the doorway leading into the bar from which drinks are served. I ordered two drinks and as I had my back turned Sgt Smith ~~spoke~~ spoke to me and said "take your hat off CQMS D'ill". I turned around and looked at him. He said again "take your hat off you ignorant cunt CQMS D'ill" in a very loud voice. I ignored his remark and continued to drink. He seemed angered + repeated the statement several times. I continued to ignore him saying once "button up your lip Sgt Smith." On hearing I did not intend paying any attention to his conduct seems he turned his face & in the direction of Pte Ramsay who sat in the next chair to him. He spoke to him and said "Isn't RMS Dill an ignorant cunt. He won't take off his hat." He discontinued his remarks at this point but continued to use obscene language in his general conversation to his party. On several occasions he used the words, cunt, bastard & others in the same category. His remarks were for the hearing of two male civilians, two Pte soldiers, one L/Cpl, 1CSM, the bar lady and bar maid. As Sgt Smith was about to leave he turned to me & said "goodnight RMS Dill you ignorant cunt. I said "Sgt Smith, if tomorrow you care to repeat these remarks I should be glad to deal with you personally but while you're under the influence of liquor and in a public place I do not wish to cause a scene." Sgt Smith then left the bar Sgt Dickson & myself remained. ~~One of the civilians had prior to Sgt Smiths departure & returned. He sat down beside me and took up conversation~~

CLOSING ADDRESS OF THE DEFENCE IN THE COURT MARTIAL OF SGT. SMITH J.A.

Sgt. Smith has been charged with using obscene language in a Public place and secondly of speaking disrespectfully to a superior officer.

The evidence has shown that the accused is firm in his conviction that he did not make such remarks. Also two witnesses who were present in the small room where these remarks were supposed to have been made did not hear anything that was incorrect.

It has also been brought out that bears no ill will towards CQMS Fill an offered to apologise to CQMS Fill if it were true that such remarks had been made.

On the basis of this evidence I believe that he prosecution has not proved beyond a reasonable doubt the guilt of the accused; and also that the prosecution has not proven guilty intent (A.A. Sect 40 Note) and therefore has not established a charge, second charge.

CERTIFICATE IN ACCORDANCE WITH RP64 MML

I certify that in the interest of fostering a spirit of good relationship between the 1 C Scot R and the Civilian population of the new billeting area of the unit concerned and for the benefit of the reputation of the Cdn Army as a whole, it is expedient and in the best interests of public service that the trial by F.G.C.M. of K57134 Sgt Smith JAD be held at 1900 hrs 10 Dec.

Summary of evidence in the case of K57134, Sergeant Smith J.A.B., Spl. Incr., 1st Bn., The Canadian Scottish Regt., a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas.

The accused is informed of his rights.

The O.C. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

1st Witness for the Prosecution.

K57099 CQMS Fill H.J., B Coy, 1st Bn. C.Scot.R. (AF), having been duly sworn, states:

"Sir, on the night of 7th December 43, Sgt. Dickson and myself visited one of the ~~Xxxx~~ local Pubs. On entering the Pub, I was greeted by the accused, Sgt. Smith J.A.B., with the remarks 'Good evening, Quartermaster-Sergeant Fill, you little shrimp.' I ignored these remarks and continued up to the bar and ordered drinks from the barmaid. While I was still at the bar, Sgt. Smith made another remark: 'Take your hat off.' I turned around and ignored the remark, facing Sgt. Smith. His next remark was 'Take your hat off, you ignorant cunt'. I then said "Button up your lip, Sgt. Smith". He then turned to one of the Privates in the bar with him, and said 'Isn't he an ignorant cunt, he won't take his hat off', and looked up at me and said 'Go on, leave your hat on, you're just xplain ignorant, anyway'. I ignored all these remarks, and Sgt. Smith ceased to continue the conversation, further. But in his general conversation to those in the Pub, he used obscene language in the presence of two civilians, two barmaids, three private soldiers, one Lance-Corporal, Sgt. Dickson and myself, and also spoke loud enough so as he could be heard in the adjoining room of the bar, where a large crowd were enjoying a few drinks. I cannot say whether his remarks were heard or noticed by any of those drinking in the adjoining bar. One of the expressions used by Sgt. Smith was 'isn't it fucking awful'. He used the word 'bastard' on several occasions, and his general conversation included many words in the same category. Before leaving the pub, Sgt. Smith turned to me and made this statement. 'Let's leave the ignorant cunt, and go to the dance.' I then told him to remember what he had said, and if in the morning he still thought in the same lines I should be glad to deal with him personally, but while he was in a public place and under the influence of liquor, I did not care to cause a disturbance. He then left the bar. The following morning at approximately 0855 hrs, I went into Sgt. Smith's room, or the room in which I heard his voice, and asked him if he was busy. He said no, so I asked him to come into my room. I then said 'do you remember what you said last night, Sgt. Smith'. He said 'no'. I said it's a good thing, because I should have you repeat these words and deal with you personally. I then pointed out to him the very seriousness of a senior NCO using such language in a public place, and said I did not know whether I should let it go by or lay a charge, which would no doubt be very serious. I later spoke to Major Lendrum, my Coy Commander, and received his permission to speak to Sgt. Smith's Coy Commander, Capt. Henderson. I explained to Captain Henderson the evidence as set out, and he informed me he would take the case up to the Commanding Officer. Sir."

Questioned by Major R.M. Lendrum.

Q. "Would you say that the accused was drunk in the Pub?"

A. "No, sir."

Q. "If, in your opinion, Sgt. Smith was acting in an improper manner in the Pub, why did you not, as a senior NCO therefore order him to his quarters, or place him in arrest?"

(cont'd)

A. "Well sir, having known Sgt. Smith for sometime, I felt that should I put him under arrest or order him to his quarters, he would make further scenes and in the end quite a disturbance would be caused in carrying out the order, so I thought it better to let the matter ride by saying nothing at the moment and taking my action later."

Questioned by the accused.

Q. "Who was the Private with me?"

A. "Pte. Ramsay of "C" Coy."

Q. "Would you state some previous occasion where I was order to do a thing and did not do it?"

A. "I cannot refer to any specific case in which Sgt. Smith has ever refused to obey an order given by me or anyone else, but judging by his temperament on many occasions in the Sergeants' Mess, when under the influence of liquor, he showed a definite dislike to me and found it very convenient to cast sarcastic remarks in my direction, and when I ~~xx~~ ignored these, he seemed very persistent in carrying them through to see how far he could try my patience. On all these occasions I have ignored him, but felt that I could not ignore him any longer, as he continued to do this wherever he met me when he was under the influence of liquor, and in my own mind, I felt that if I were to give him a direct order, it would only make the case far more serious than at that particular moment. So I chose what I thought to be the better means of dealing with this particular case."

The accused declined to further cross-examine the witness.

"Sir, I am K57146 L/Sgt. R. Dickson, B Coy, 1st Bn. C.Scot.R. On the evening of 7 December 1943, CQMS Fill and myself went into a pub in Ryde. I do not know the name of the pub. We went over to order a drink, and Sgt. Smith said to CQ Fill "Take your hat off, you ignorant cunt'. He repeated this, I cannot say how many times. There were two civilians in the pub at the time, also the lady who ran the pub and her daughter. We sat in there for a while, then Sgt. Smith got up to go out, stopped at the door, and came back and spoke to Quartermaster Fill again and said 'I don't give a damn if you are a Quartermaster.' Sir."

"Sir, I am K57134 Sgt. J.A.B. Smith. Last night I was in a public house with CSM Kilner. This morning Quartermaster Fill called me from CSM Kilner's room, and took me outside to his own room. He then said "Do you know what you said to me last night?' I said 'No'. He then explained that I had called him foul names in a public house and used foul language. This was the first I knew that this had happened. He then told me the seriousness of this offence, and I told him that I could not believe that this had happened. I then told him that if it had happened, I had no personal greivance against him. After this I went back to CSM Kilner's room and asked him if I had been cursing and swearing in the public house, and also running down the Quartermaster. CSM Kilner replied not as far as he knew. That is all I have to say sir."

K62114 Company Sergeant-Major Kilner, C.M., 1st Bn., C.Scot. R. (AF), having been duly sworn, is questioned by the accused.

Q. "Was I cursing and swearing in the public house?"

A. "There was quite a hubbub in the room. I do not know if Sgt. Smith was actually cursing and swearing. There were quite a few people in there, and it might have been Sgt. Smith cursing and swearing or it might have been anyone. I was not paying particular attention."

Q. "Was I in your company?"

A. "We were in the same room together."

Q. "Was I calling Quartermaster Fill an 'ignorant cunt'?"

A. "I was not paying any attention. I do not know whether you made that statement to Quarters Fill or not."

The accused declined to further cross-examine the witness.

K57099 CQMS Fill H.J., 1st Bn. C.Scot.R. (AF), being recalled, was questioned by Major R.M. Lendrum.

Q. "In your evidence, you mention there were certain soldiers in the Pub when you were there. You did not mention that there was also in the pub at that time CSM Kilner, who is the senior NCO of the accused's Coy. Why did you not mention this in your evidence?"

A. "It was an oversight on my part, I forgot at the moment of giving my evidence to mention CSM Kilner as being present in the pub on the occasion."

Q. "Why did you not report the incident you have spoken of to CSM Kilner on the spot?"

A. "I felt that CSM Kilner was part of the party with Sgt. Smith, and knowing CSM Kilner to be Sgt. Smith's Coy Sgt.-Major, I felt that if he did not feel it his duty to check the conduct of Sgt. Smith, then I would let the matter ride, but on thinking the case over later, I felt that it was too serious to be overlooked, as not only did Sgt. Smith use obscene language to a superior, but also his conduct and language was such as to bring the Regiment's name into ill-repute, and so I felt that I should seek his Coy Commander's opinion as to what action should be taken in this particular case."

On 25 July 1944, at 1945 hrs, I saw F 89544 Pte. Smith J.B. walking out of camp. He looked rather suspicious to me, so I stopped him and asked him to produce his pass, which he failed to do. I asked him if he had his Pay Book. He told me that he was from No.1 Canadian Convalescent Camp. I asked him where he had left the Convalescent Camp and he stated the above date 25 July 1944. He had on his person a number of cigarettes. I then brought him to the orderly room where he stated that he had just left the Convalescent Camp that day. Lt. R.S.M. then questioned him and then phoned the Convalescent Camp and was informed that F 89544 Pte. Smith J.B. was about instant leave. Lt. R.S.M. then place him under close arrest.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

M45502 Sgt John Charles SMITH
29 Cdn Armd Recce Regt (S Alta R)

CHARGE ABSENTING HIMSELF WITHOUT LEAVE AA 15(1)

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: Lieut A W Watson, Hq Sqn, 29 Cdn Armd Recce Regt (S Alta R), having been duly sworn, states:

I was on 4 May 44, and still am, Troop Leader of RHq Troop 29 Cdn Armd Recce Regt (S Alta R), of which the accused, M45502 Sgt Smith, J C is a member and troop sergeant. Last Thursday, 4 May 44, RHq Troop was authorized to proceed on 24 hour pass. This was cancelled shortly after noon. Later in the day at approximately 1700 hrs this leave was reinstated. I could not locate Sgt Smith, J C, the accused, whom I recognize here, so I left Sgt Smith's pass with SSM R J MacTavish at his quarters and proceeded on my 24 hour leave. I returned at 1700 hrs the following day 5 May 44. On the morning of 6 May 44, at 0800 hrs Sgt Smith J C was absent. I then checked the regimental area and the accused's quarters. I found no trace of him. To the best of my knowledge he was not in camp. I instructed SSM R J MacTavish to place the accused on charge when he returned. I did not see Sgt Smith J C again until 0800 hrs Monday, 8 May 44. The accused's Sgt Smith, J C, pass was made out from A.D. 4 May to 2359 hrs 5 May 44.

The Accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS: M40546 SSM R J MacTavish, Hq Sqn, 29 Cdn Armd Recce Regt (S Alta R), having been duly sworn, states:

I was on 4 May 44, and still am Squadron Sergeant-major of Hq Sqn, 29 Cdn Armd Recce Regt (S Alta R). On Thursday, 4 May 44, at approximately 1700 hrs, Lieut A W Watson gave me passes for M45433 L/Sgt MacGregor, K G, J70550 Sgt Donald T, and M45502 Sgt Smith, J C, the accused, whom I recognize here, saying they were to proceed on leave. About ten (10) minutes later I gave the passes to L/Sgt MacGregor, K G and told him to give the passes to the others. On the 6 May 44 at approximately 1130 hrs I returned from the ranges and was questioned by Capt J L Shell as to whether Sgt Smith, J C had returned. At that time I did not know he was absent. I despatched L/Sgt MacGregor K G, to search for Sgt Smith, J C and he returned one half hour later and said he could find no trace of Sgt Smith J C. At approximately 1400 hrs Saturday 6 May 44, Lieut A W Watson ordered me to place Sgt Smith J C on charge when he returned. I did not see or hear of Sgt Smith, J C until Monday morning, 8 May 44, at which time I saw him in the NAAFI in the company of Lieut A W Watson.

R MacTavish

THIRD WITNESS: M45433 L/Sgt MacGregor, K G, RHq Troop, 29 Cdn Armd Recce Regt (S Alta R), having been duly sworn, states:

I was on 6 May 44, and still am a sergeant of RHq Troop, 29 29 Cdn Armd Recce Regt (S Alta R), of which the accused Sgt Smith, J C, whom I recognizedhere, is a member. On 6 May 44 I was ordered by SSM R J MacTavish to go in search of Sgt Smith, J C at his quarters. I went to the hut and called out for Sgt Smith, J C. I received no reply and went back and reported to SSM R J MacTavish. I did not see Sgt Smith, J C again until the morning of Monday, 8 May 44.

K G MacGregor

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

RECORD OF NOTES TAKEN AT THE TRIAL BY FIELD GENERAL COURT-MARTIAL of [illegible] Sgt James Charles SMITH, RS Coy Aust Recce Regt (3 Aust R)

STATEMENT OF
ACCUSED : The accused, Sgt Smith, has been with RHQ Tp for a period of approximately nine months and during that time there has been considerable difficulty within his troop. Sgt Smith requested either a transfer or a reversion because of the unfavourable conditions within this troop and he asked both the Sqn Sergeant-major and Major Nash that he either be permitted to transfer or revert because he found it absolutely impossible to carry on his duties within the troop. Owing to the considerable difference of opinion which existed at all times between the troop leader and Sgt Smith and because because the request for transfer or reversion was refused, I therefore submit that Sgt Smith was put in a position of having to take some action on his own part and that he was put into the frame of mind whereby he was not in a position to exercise the best of judgement. I submit therefore that although he did go and admits to going A.W.L., that he did so in an effort to force action which he considered necessary. Sgt Smith has pleaded guilty but I feel that any punishment he is given, you should bear in mind that he was not given proper consideration in his request for removal from a job which he considered it was impossible for him to do his duty. At this point I wish to state that it is my intention and desire to call Major Nash and SSM MacTavish if need be, in proof of my statements.

E.5
STATEMENT OF
ACCUSED : The sergeant was in charge of RHQ Tp for a period of nine months, during this time he must have proved satisfactory to have held the job, particularly so as he was not permitted to transfer or to revert when he found it impossible to work and to carry out his duties under the troop officer holding the appointment during that time.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty.
R. P. 35 (B) complied with.
Q4 - Do you wish to call witnesses as to character?
A4 - No, sir.
Q5 - Do you wish to speak in mitigation of punishment?
A5 - (Defending Officer: I am directing my remarks to the court so that you will better understand the circumstances of the case and that it may in some way help you to come to a correct decision as to punishment. Technically this charge cannot be defended. He was given a lawful command;he refused categorically to obey the order. How he got in that frame of mind cannot possibly be explained by his conduct as a soldier prior to that time. He served with the unit since the outbreak of war. Suddenly it was found he had bad feet. The man was boarded category C2 on account of his feet, and he thought that on this account he was exempt from the duty he was sent on as a runner. Previous to this order he had not been asked to do this particular duty. I bring this out not to excuse him but to say something in mitigation. He apparently thought he should not be called upon to do this particular kind of job on account of his bad feet. But of course a soldier has to do what he is told to do, and complain afterwards, if necessary. This man has now served exactly 17 days in detention and I hope that the court will take that into consideration.

President: This court is closed for consideration of the findings.

Court is reopened.

Q6 - Have you any evidence to produce as to character and particulars of service of the accused?

PROSECUTOR IS SWORN.

A6 - I produce A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6.

Q7 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have just read?

A7 - Yes.

Q8 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?

A8 - Yes.

Q9 - Are they true copies from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheet a fair and true summary of those entries?

A9 - Yes.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

Q10 - Have you any witnesses as to character?

A10 - No.

Q11 - Do you wish to address the court?

A11 - No.

Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

D81810 Private Jack Edward Smith, 1st Battalion The Black Watch (RHR) of Canada, Reinforcement, No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas)

Evidence taken on oath by order of the Commanding Officer.

First Witness Prosecution — G17344 Cpl. Henry, R.L. having been duly sworn, states:

On April 25th, 1941, I was Orderly Corporal in Headquarters Company, No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit. About 0915 hours, I ordered Private Smith to report to "A" Group Headquarters for duty as a runner. He said he did not want to go, and said he wanted to see the Sergeant Major. We both went to see the Sergeant Major, C.S.M. Robinson. I explained to the Sergeant Major that Private Smith wanted to see him before he would go on duty as runner at "A" Group Headquarters. The Sergeant Major asked him why he did not want to go. Private Smith said nothing. The Sergeant Major then told him to report to "A" Group as runner immediately. Pte. Smith said: "I refuse, Sir." The Sergeant Major told me to put Private Smith in the Guard Room. I did so.

R L Henry Cpl.

Second Witness Prosecution — D82038 C.S.M. Robinson, S. having been duly sworn, states:

I am Company Sergeant Major of Headquarters Company, No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit, and was acting as such on 25th April 1941. About 0915 hours I told Corporal Henry, Orderly Corporal, to send Private Smith to "A" Group as a runner. A few minutes later, Cpl. Henry brought Private Smith into my office and said that Private Smith refused to go as a runner. I asked Private Smith what was the matter with him. I received no reply. I then told him he had better go to "A" Group and do the job as he was told to do. He said "I refuse to be a runner." I ordered him arrested.

S Robinson C.S.M.

Accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Accused, having been warned in terms of R.P. 4 (e) states: "The reason I refused to go to "A" Group H.Q. as a runner was my medical category. My feet were not in condition to do the duties of a runner."

Compliance with R.P. 4 (c) (d) (e) certified.

Plea of Mitigation of Sentence in the case of the accused Pte Smith

I would like to present to the Court a brief review of the soldier's military career in order to equip the Court with as much information before considering sentence.

Pte Smith is 25 yrs of age and is single. He enlisted on the 17 Apr 1942 and has throughout the course of the war a very creditable operational service record in the R C A S C.

The accused first saw action in Nov 1943 with the 1 Cdn Div in Italy. He continued throughout the Italian campaign and later in March 1945 arrived with 1 Div in North West Europe.

During his overseas Army career Pte Smith has had only 1 minor entry on his conduct sheet and that in Early 1943 for 1 hours absence.

Undoubtedly Pte Smith's actions were caused by drunkenness. This was his first offence and he is ready to admit his mistake. Liquor & vehicles are not a good combination and I am sure this trouble has been a lesson which he will never forget.

Pte Smith is engaged to a Dutch girl and expects to be married in this country as soon as it is possible to do so. It can therefore be readily seen that the future of this soldier will definitely be dependent on the favours of the court.

Pte Smith has seen a good deal of hard front line service and from his good record it is safe to assume that he has done a good job.

I ask the Court to give consideration to these & in factors together with the evidence before passing sentence

Summary of Evidence in the case of C-140142 Pte Smith JG of 64 Army Tpt Coy RCASC

First witness for the prosecution

F- 96124 Pte Moisse GB of 64 Army Tpt Coy RCASC having been duly sworn states:—

Exhibit A

I am F-96124 Pte Moisse GB of 64 Army Tpt Coy RCASC. On 21 September 45, I, accompanied with Pte Bradford and Pte Smith left EFL lines in Nijmegen in vehicle CL 4268394 at about 1200 hrs. I did not inquire of either Bradford or Smith whether or not the vehicle had been properly authorized to leave the lines and I only knew they were going to Belgium, I did not know where in Belgium. It was not until we were on the road that I found we were going to Marseyck. The vehicle CL4268394 was in Smith's name but Bradford drove it all the way to Maastricht. We arrived in Maastricht about 1400 hrs and parked the vehicle beside a cafe and all went in. We had a few drinks and I was dancing when I noticed Bradford leave. From when I was dancing I could not see if he took the vehicle. Bradford returned in about 30 to 45 minutes. Then he and I went to another cafe. I noticed the vehicle parked beside the cafe as we went in. Smith did not accompany us to the second cafe. When we returned to the first cafe ~~I noticed the vehicle was not there and on inquiry from Smith I learned that Bradford had taken the vehicle and was in the cafe.~~ Bradford was arrested by the Provost Corps and I remember being awakened up and being put into a Truck. The next thing I remember is waking up in EFL lines in Nijmegen the next day.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

I am FRANCISCUS VAN BAELEN.

~~Police~~ First Sergeant of Belgian Gendarmerie Forces in Maasrick, Belgium. On 21 Sept 45 at approximately 1630 hrs I saw a military vehicle at a distance of about 75 meters from the house of SCHAEFKENS, in the direction of the market at Maasrick. I saw a child, Maria ROSVELDS, lying between the pieces of broken glass on the pavement opposite the house of VERSTAPPEN. Further he drove through the Boschstraat from right to left and at the Statsie caught a male person, Armand LATOUR, on ~~at~~ a bicycle and beat him on the ground opposite the house VERLAEK. Then he drove on arriving through the Boschstraat to the Hoofd post a low speed. I followed him and coming up I commanded him to halt. He did not obey this order. I then noticed that he was in an obvious state of drunkenness. In order to compel him to halt thus avoiding worse accidents, I fired at the left front tire three times. He ran then stopped against a tree at the market. I ordered the driver once more to get out of his truck but he stayed and tried to continue his way. I forced the driver out of his truck as he was not conscious of the facts he had committed. ~~I confirm~~

~~I recognise the signature at Maasrick~~

I recognise this man as the same driver of veh CAM 268 384 on 21 September, now known to me

Statement of: PLAGHKI, Henri Jean Guillaume Albert, who states:

"On 21st September 1945 at about 16.00 hours I was in my shop, when I saw a military truck colliding the house of SCHAEPKENS opposite me. This vehicle caused damage to the house and I went up to it immediately. The driver had got out already. He was tall and slim and a dark-haired soldier. Length about 1.75 M. I assisted him in extinguishing a start of fire in his truck.

When I arrived, there was a second truck of similar type.

After extinguishing the fire, I went back to my shop.

Some time later I saw the truck driving on again under its own power.

That same day, some time afterwards, I again saw a military truck coming along from the direction of the Boschpoort, which I at once recognized as the same truck causing the accident with SCHAEPKENS.

From the direction of the Market square a car came, drawn by a horse, for which the military truck had to pull out. He drove on the pavement past the houses and again turned to the road. Then I saw a little girl lying on the pavement before the house of VERSTAPPEN. The truck halted on the road and I told the driver not to drive on. I had to step aside, however, as he still drove on again. Then I walked along with the truck, which drove slowly, up to the market square. There his left frontttyre was shot by the police and the truck collided a tree. Like the truck causing the first accident, the bumper had been damaged as well as the accumulator. The driver, however, was not the same as he causing the first accident with SCHAEPKENS. This one was smaller and fair-haired. He also was in a worse state of drunkenness than the first one.

I would be able to identpfy both drivers.

The weather was fair that day and the road was dry.

There was nothing on the road that caused the driver to swerve.

4. Spr. Smith is a neat smart soldier has caused no trouble in the unit except for the present crime.

5. Conclusion -

He is fundamentally a good soldier and if the court can see its way clear to deal with his case as leniently as possible and give this man a break I feel he will not allow anything else to mar his record.

Address in Mitigation by Defending Officer

I just want to address a few words to the court. I have talked with the accused for some length before this case came up trying to discover just what reason he had for the crime for which he is charged. It must be admitted that his conduct sheet does not look so good, but I wish the court to bear in mind that since coming overseas he has not had one crime charged against him and he has assured me that when he came overseas he intended to keep his sheet clean and soldier to the best of his ability. In connection with his leave he applied for leave some time before Christmas so that he would be at this place over Christmas but it was not granted. He was with relatives and there was that temptation to stay there as borne out by his statement in the summary. None of his crimes at any time have been of a very serious nature. He has never caused much trouble and judging by the punishment handed out to him he has paid for them in full. I would ask the court to be lenient with him because he has intended to soldier over here.

Order convening the Court

On Active Service, this THIRTIETH day of JUNE, 19 43

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 5 CANADIAN INFANTRY BRIGADE GROUP CANADIAN ARMY (A.P.), on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial: *[illegible]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

*[illegible]

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, difficulties of communication, and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to comply with those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the soldier named in the margin

CASE OF

B-1 B-52670 Private SMITH, J.L., 4 CITR (ATT CDN DETN BKS)

The accused, sworn, states:-

Well, Sir, when I joined the Army back in 42, it was with the idea of coming over here to soldier. I came over with the 8 Royal Rifles, 2nd Bn. When I got over here, I was transferred to the Toronto Scottish Regiment. I never got along with this Regt and I was always in trouble. I finished up in Headley Detn Bks with a discharge. I was foolish I know, and there is probably no excuse for what I've done. I did not want a discharge; so when I saw a chance of escaping from detn, I went. My cat is "A-1" and I have had several courses on the Bren machine-gun when I was with the Toronto Scottish for a year. This time I would like to serve my sentence and I would like the charge of ignominy dropped and go overseas and do some soldiering as I heartily won't go back to Canada with a dishonourable discharge. I got married before I came over and I believe I have caused my wife enough trouble as it is.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE.

The accused was sentenced to a long term of detn with discharge with ignominy. He had nothing to look forward to and I think it was the only human thing to do, what he did. About his civil convictions and the identification card, naturally he had to live and was apprehended by the civil authorities. He asks earnestly to be given a sentence without a dishonourable discharge so that he will be able to soldier and redeem himself before he goes back to Canada.
