LADY LAURAS' RELEASE

THE STORY OF A SPOILED BEAUTY.

CHAPTER LV.
 Could she have fallen into a stream? they asked; and the answer was that there was no water between the Hall and the town. No satisfactory reason could be assigned for her absence, and the ladies gave themselves up to wild and improbable conjecture.
 Lady Culdale sent for Captain Wynyard to her own room. She was weeping bitterly when he entered.
 "I have never had such a trouble in my life," she sobbed. "I am quite at a loss what to do. Of course, if nothing is heard of her, I must telegraph for Lady Kinloch."
 "Where is Lady Kinloch?" asked the captain, with horror at the idea of what Lady Kinloch would say and think if she found him there.
 "She is in Dublin, with a friend of hers who is ill. I persuaded her to let Miss Rane stay at Culdale with me during her absence. She was unwilling at first; and now this dreadful affair has happened. What shall I do?"

 "I cannot imagine what has become of her," said the captain. "Miss Rane is too proud and too sensible to do anything sensational. She would never run away; and there are no brigands here to carry her off," he added, with a faint attempt at a smile.
 Great heavens! there was the vision again—a white hand stretched out of the eddying water! He reeled against a chair.
 "Lady Culdale," he gasped, "will you ring for a glass of brandy? I feel terribly ill."
 "I am sure you do—you look ill!" she cried, as she rose hurriedly, and rang the bell.
 Captain Wynyard was asking himself what this strange event meant, that the woman he loved should disappear on the very night when he had taken his first step toward winning her. Angela Rooden was sleeping her last long sleep in the depths of the lake; but where was his darling Gladys Rane? If he could have known the truth, that Angela was sleeping with her mind more at rest than it had been for a long time, and that the woman he loved was drowned by his own hand, what would he have said or done?

 "It seems heartless to sit and cry about her without doing anything; but I do not see what we are to do."
 "Nor do I," mournfully observed the captain. "But the morning light is sure to bring us some news of her."
 He drank the brandy greedily, yet still felt deathly faint. How strange it was that they should both disappear on the same night—Angela whom he hated and had murdered, Gladys whom he loved and had lost! Not the faintest glimmer of the truth came to his bewildered brain.
 There was little rest in Culdale Hall that night. The women all retired, but many of the men sat up, a few going out at intervals in search of her whom they would never see alive again. That beautiful Gladys Rane should be missing, should be perhaps in danger, and they powerless to help her, was horrible even to think of.
 CHAPTER LVI.
 "A woman found drowned in the lake at Brantome Park!"
 The words seemed to fly from one to another—the very air seemed to catch them and carry them along.
 One of the keepers, on going between four and five in the morning to look after some water-fowl, fancied he saw something strange on the lake—a light paper parcel, floating as the wind blew. He took a long pole and drew it toward him, and, on opening it, found that it contained a skein of fine blue sewing-silk, such as ladies use in embroidery. Further down, near the fountain, something else was stirring in the water. This too he drew out, and found it to be a lady's handkerchief of fine lace, with delicately embroidered monogram, the letters of which were "G. R."

In one moment he understood. He had heard of the missing lady as he walked from his home to the park. He had met two of the Culdale men-servants searching, and the three had stopped and talked together for some time. At first they spoke seriously, and wondered what accident had befallen her; but, after a time, one of the men remarked carelessly that it was a case of "Jock o' Hareidean"—that the missing lady was a most beautiful woman, and there was no doubt a lover in the case. They had parted with a laugh, the servants going back to Culdale, and the keeper, John Thorne, going on to Brantome.

 The man stood dazed and bewildered as he held the handkerchief in his hand.
 "She is here!" he declared. "She has not gone with a lover, or lost her way. She is drowned in this lake. May Heaven forgive our light words!"
 It was but the work of a moment to get into the boat moored close by and row across the water to the fountain, and very little time elapsed before his suspicion was confirmed that the missing young lady lay at the bottom of the lake.
 Thorne hastened toward Culdale, and, when half way there he met Lord Culdale, with two or three gentlemen, and told them the terrible news.
 His lordship looked at the handkerchief, with its finely embroidered monogram of "G. R."
 "Gladys Rane!" he gasped. "But how, in the name of Heaven, could she have fallen into the lake at Brantome?"
 They hastened to the lake, and soon raised the body, and laid it reverently on the stone terrace. The face was calm, even smiling. Perhaps—Heaven was good!—her last thought had been pleasant ones. The EARLY CABLES.

ROYAL WEDDING AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

LONDON, April 26.—The Duke of York and Lady Elizabeth Bowe-Lyon joined hands and were before the golden altar at Westminster Abbey to-day, while all the world pours out its blessing. The service was conducted with traditional precision of British ceremonies. Only when the bride was called upon by the Archbishop of Canterbury to repeat the solemn vows did her manner betoken any nervousness. Her voice was clearly audible to the vast congregation. The bridegroom gave the bride a man at a happy expression and kept her own eyes on the bride. The venerable Dowager Queen gave the royal ceremony its touch by moving out of her seat and bestowing kisses upon the bride and the bridegroom as they came to the Chancel. The Prince of Wales appeared to be the calmest of men at the Abbey. The wedding began promptly at 11.30. The bride, in the simplest and most graceful gown probably ever made for a royal marriage, moved slowly to the steps of the Altar on the arm of her father, the Earl of Strathmore, who carried the bridal bouquet, having deposited it on the tomb of the brave soldier. She was joined soon by the bridegroom who presented a striking figure in the blue uniform of the Royal Air Force, with the blue riband of the Garter across his shoulder and a golden sword at his side. The six bridesmaids stood behind the couple as the Duke and bride joined hands. The sun which had not revealed itself for several days suddenly emerged from behind the mist and its light coming through the high vaulted windows of the Abbey cast an effluence upon the gallant Duke and his lovely bride, and brought into bold relief the touches of gold, crimson and silver in the costumes of the brilliant assemblage. The Duke stood fully a head taller than Lady Elizabeth, his erect, muscular frame and ruddy countenance contrasting with the delicate figure of the bride, whose robes of unrelieved white seemed to accentuate the paleness of her figure.

THE DICTIONARY.
The dictionary's full of words
Which run from a to Z.
For any man to choose and use
In prose or melody.

The stories of the world are there,
The songs which men shall sing,
The books of ages still unborn,
And many a tender thing.

The best lies sleeping on a page,
The sermon waits a voice,
The poem waits an artist's call,
An artist's lovely choice.

It is the color box of speech,
With all its various hues,
Wherein are found the little tubes
That all who paint must use.

And one man slashes red and blue
And dull his canvas seems,
While one with deft and subtle touch
Can give the world his dreams.

So stands the dictionary there,
With words piled, row on row,
Waiting the teller of the tale
To set them all aflow.

Place two or three chopped mustard pickles, a clove or two, chopped onion and one-fourth cup of vinegar in the bottom of the bean jar.

Let Us Be Liberal!

Editor Evening Telegram.

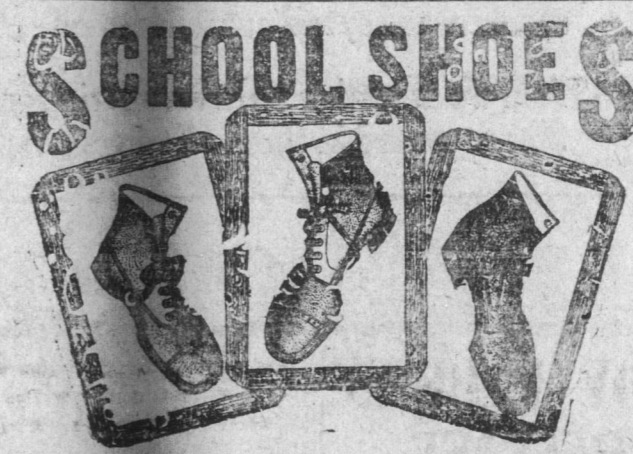

Dear Sir—No redistribution of seats in the Assembly, on the basis of the census of 1921, has yet been made. That is one of the duties neglected by the Squires-Coaker Government. The census of 1921 gave $0,831 as the number of Roman Catholics in the Island, and 157,741 as the number of Protestants, a total population of 238,572, and as there are 36 representatives in the Assembly, the unit for each is 6,630, so that the Roman Catholics are entitled to elect twelve members, and a fraction of about one-fifth. There are, in fact, thirteen Roman Catholic candidates now standing on each side—St. John's, 5; Harbor Main, 2; Ferryland, 2; Placentia, 3; St. George's, 1, so that strictly according to figures, they are seeking over representation to the extent of four-fifths of a man. This part of a man Mr. Brian Dunfield seeks to be!

When Mr. Dunfield alleges that there are 14,000 Protestants in St. John's East who have no direct representation by men of their own creed amongst the candidates of the two major parties, he is not telling the whole truth, for he fails to draw attention to the fact that the Roman Catholics of Brigus, Harbor Grace, Carbonear, Bay de Verde, Bonaville and Burin, especially, get no direct representation by men of their own creed. The Protestants of those districts are over represented, just as the Roman Catholics of St. John's are, and the discrepancy in one offset that in the other. As to the four-fifths of a man lost to the Protestants under present arrangement, the loss is due to the fact that the Roman Catholic population of the Island has not grown as rapidly as the Protestant, and in the selection of candidates, precedent has been followed rather than changing figures. It is so because it has been so!

But what difference does it make anyhow? Protestant rights are as safe in the Assembly with twenty-three Protestants as with twenty-three and four-fifths. Why not concede the four-fifths of a man to the Roman Catholic minority instead of taking a fifth of a man away from them. The majority can afford to be generous. Articles of Faith are not what the Assembly has to deal with. There is no sectarian issue in the Humber Deal. No dogmatical rights are wrapped up in the consideration of fishery regulations. So far as the Colony's trade and finances, and the rights and liberties of the people are concerned, which are the matters the Assembly has to deal with, we Protestants are as safe without as with the other four-fifths of a man.

How narrower we have grown, rather than broader, in this regard, than our fathers were. Time was when Ferryland elected a Protestant, Glen, and later, another, Goodridge, and when Harbor Grace was represented by a Roman Catholic (Shea). Placentia elected Bradshaw (C. of E.), St. John's West elected Tessier (C. of E.), and the Parsons (both father and son) were elected year after year in St. John's East, though both belonged to the Church of England. We hope to see the days of toleration returned, when men will be elected for their ability and character, and for the policy they stand for, without regard to their religious creeds. This will give a wider field of choice than now exists. I venture to suggest that when next it falls to the lot of leaders to arrange their candidates, they shall agree to include suitable Roman Catholics in their tickets for large Protestant districts, which include

The names given above will show that the Roman Catholics have in fact been more liberal in this matter than us Protestants. Let us, then, take this opportunity to reciprocate, and to begin again the wider practice. Let us, in short, resign gladly our strict right to four-fifths of a man. Let Dunfield stop in private life.

Evening Telegram
Dear Sir—For the past few weeks the most momentous political campaign in the history of our country has been working, and now perhaps this juncture, it would be wise for us to pause and realize that the issue is rapidly approaching when we go to the polls and by our ballot given to an aggregation of men who are to rule and legislate our country for a period of four years. The candidates of both sides have heard what they intend to do, what they have done, and their reasons why they did not accomplish what they had promised. We have read and digested the Manifestos of both leaders. To-day, nomination day, six men were nominated whose names will appear on your ballot on polling day, three of whom, by your grace, will eventually represent you in parliament for the four years to come. The day of polling is the one day, when the people wield the sceptre, on that day you elect a Government, for weal or woe. During the heat of the political campaign, you have been (probably to a point of confusion) harangued and beseeched by propounds of pen and tongue, setting forth by both parties the reasons why you should elect either. You have heard, and are now fully informed on both sides of the question. On one hand you have a Government party with whose rule you are alas, well and bitterly familiar. They have endeavored to show you why you should return them one again to power, but with the evidence before your eyes of four years of mis-Government, betrayal of your trust and supplemented with an orgy of expenditure unparalleled in your memory, they must indeed be allowing a wide margin for credulity on your part. On the other hand an Opposition party led by Mr. J. R. Bennett and composed of men of the highest integrity and whose records are replete with accomplishment, ask you, that in them you will vest the power of Government, in order that our country can be rescued from the impending chaos which now threatens. Our commercial life brought back from its present deplorable state, our fisheries restored to its former stable conditions, our natural resources fostered and developed, and generally speaking our country once again placed on the high way to prosperity. All this and much more can be accomplished, but the instrument of accomplishment lays in your hands. YOUR VOTES shall decide. It is up to you. Therefore you must see how vitally important it is that you approach the polling booth on that day, with a full realization of the tremendous decision which you must in a few days make. There is a crisis impending which you can avert or otherwise, as you decree. For on that day you shall irrevocably decide, and from your decision there is no appeal. You are the highest court in the land on that day, and on your verdict rests the future of Newfoundland! Just pause awhile and consider what this means, if you will do so you must by preponderance of reasoning and patriotism; return as a Government the party led by Mr. J. R. Bennett. In order to help you with your decision, if you will compare the manifestoes of the two leaders you will find ample and sufficient reason why it must be a Bennett government. The most remarkable feature of Sir Richard Squires Manifesto is what it does not contain. His references to the Hum-this issue; you have never before been called upon to make such a decision. When polling day comes around vote the straight ticket for the Bennett candidates in your district, as the people of Placentia and St. Mary's will do. On polling day they will march to the booths and mark them down for Walsh, Sullivan and Shanley, A Bennett Government and Better Times.

PLACENTIA, April 16th, 1923.

Then and Now!

CONDITIONS FOUR YEARS AGO.

We ask our readers to recall conditions as they existed here four years ago and contrast them with those that exist to-day. In the spring of 1919 there was prosperity everywhere. The price of fish was up to fourteen and fifteen dollars a quintal; supplies were easily obtained; work was abundant in every direction, and the people both in the city and outports had all the employment they could wish for. Never in her history did her people enjoy such a promising outlook nor did they possess more money, more comforts, or more assurance of continued good times. But the Squires party promised still more wonderful conditions, if they were returned, and by means of these promises and less creditable tricks that were worked easily in the districts, they succeeded in inducing the electors to throw out the Government then in power, and return themselves to office. They have had three or four years in which to show what they could do for the country and its people, and we ask in all seriousness and sincerity what is their record to-day? What have they done in three years to better the condition of Newfoundland or those who dwell within it? How does the condition of the people compare to-day with what it was then and what is the outlook for the fishermen and other working classes amongst us? There is dire distress and poverty everywhere. In St. John's a couple of thousand men are finding employment in breaking stones or shovelling snow. In the outports whole settlements are being kept alive by doles of meal and molasses. The only people who are prosperous amongst us to-day are the members of the Government and their friends and supporters. The taxpayers are weighed down with the burden of unjust taxation. The merchants, or most of them, at any rate, have been ruined by the Fish Regulations, and great sections of the country have been impoverished by the same. The money made in good years by an industrious and hard working people had to be taken to keep them and their families from starvation in these bad times, and the fishing season is now at hand with nobody to furnish supplies or to help the men of the various districts to carry out their fishery for the coming summer. Not a single thing has been done during these three years to improve the lot of our people in any way to open up any new employment for them, to help them to return to the prosperity which they enjoyed in 1919. But, on the eve of the election, the Squires crowd profess a death bed repentance and say they have secured the Humber Deal which is going to transform this country into a land flowing with milk and honey, and they invite the people to forgive everything they have done at the polls next month. They mere promise that if it is done everything will be all right for the country.

We don't think the people of the country are so foolish as to be deceived by this sort of talk at the last moment from those who have neglected the country and its needs for the past three years.—Trinity Enterprise, April 23rd.

USELESS PROFITS.
I see my neighbors thronging upon the public way, all victims of a longing for something that will pay; to gather in more plunder they rend their rags asunder, and oftentimes I wonder why they don't stop and play. The world is good to play in, if haply we know how; the woods are fine to stray in, the brooks invite us now; but somewhere there's a nickel that we should put in pickle, and so the sweat drops trickle down every weary brow. The hunter's horn is sounding, there's fish in yon lagoon; but we are busy pounding the same old dollar tune; we have no time for gabbing, for we must punch the padding from our machine for adding the groat and pica-yune. We might disport and gambol upon the open fields, or up the mountain ramble, and there admire the dawn; but somewhere there's a dollar, and we burrah and holler in fierce attempts to collar that coin before it's gone. We might go forth and paddle upon the ocean-side, or canter in a saddle, a noble horse astride; but somewhere there's a shilling, and we must make a killing, and nail that coin. God willing, whatever may betide.

A Self-Made Man.

Who Has Made Good--Hickman For Harbor Grace.

The Mail, the personal organ of Sir Richard Squires, made a very grossly abusive attack, yesterday, upon Mr. A. E. Hickman, candidate for Harbor Grace on the Bennett ticket. The burden of the attack was this: (1) that Mr. Hickman was not a resident of the district, but had been thrust upon it, and (2) that Mr. Hickman had been found guilty of bribery in the Bay-de-Verde election in 1919.

As to the first ground. Squires has candidates all over the Island who are not residents, many of them not even natives, of the districts they are standing for. Winter (Port-de-Grave), Cave (Bay-de-Verde), Hibbs (Trinity), Coaker (Bonavista), Grimes (Fogo), Barnes (Twillingate), Warren (Fortune), are neither residents nor natives of the districts they stand for, and not one of them was invited by the people to be a candidate. Neither residence nor nativity has been considered essential to candidacy, in the political history of the Colony.

As to the charge of bribery. It was proven in the Cave election trial, in 1920, that three electors had received allocations of public money for various public services from Mr. Hickman, while he was a candidate, and though he was a member of the Government at the time, the Election Judges (Horwood, C.J., and Johnson, J.) held that these allocations "were not bribes at common law," but the giving of them "were acts in breach of the Election Act." The Judges explained that the practice of giving such allocations was old and general, and not common law bribery, but that they had been rendered illegal by statute. In other words, Mr. Hickman had violated the law in precisely the same way as Whiteway, Bond, Woods, and a large number of others did in 1893, when all of them were unseated and disqualified.

It is a matter of common knowledge that all the Squires-Coaker candidates in this election are using public money and the promises of more to influence electors to vote for them. Control over immense sums has been promised to persons to become candidates, and those who have accepted have been busy in making allocations. They have been watched, and their doings marked down, and if need be, they will be brought to the judgment seat in due time. The Mail has justified such a course by its hypocritical attack upon Mr. Hickman for acts which compared with some recently performed by Government candidates are as daylight to dark. What a disgusting exhibition it is for the organ of Sir Richard Squires to roll up the whites of its eyes in professed horror at the conduct of Mr. Hickman. It would be better engaged if it were to explain why Squires took $5,000 from the Reids under circumstances explained by Coaker, in the Assembly, when he called him "that Black Rascal Squires."

At the beginning of this campaign, desperate efforts were made to get Mr. Hickman as a Squires candidate for Bay-de-Verde. No consideration was thought too great; no office too high. Had he succumbed to temptation, he would have been lauded to the skies by the literary thugs who now assail him through the Mail. Mr. Hickman is a native of the Colony, a self-made man, a Merchant who has made good. As representative for Harbor Grace, he will be of more value to the district than any it has had for many years. Perhaps he will be able to help restore to it a prosperity such as it worthily enjoyed in the old days. We cast no reflection upon other candidates anywhere, but speak only in view of obvious facts, when we say that the energy, the business ability, the vision of A. E. Hickman will be a great asset for any constituency which honors itself by electing him.

Foretells Glorious Victory

Messages and letters arriving daily from every district announce that Bennett is winning all along the line. In the North, the Menace of Coakerism will be speedily removed, for supporters are being gathered daily to the Liberal-Labour-Progressive standard. Even in Coaker's stronghold, Bonavista, the influence of the F.P.U. is on the wane, and the election of the Bennett candidates seems a certainty. Conception Bay has given a wonderful reception to the Opposition Leader, who has enjoyed a triumphal progress through districts still ranking under Coaker's latest insult. The West Coast, still suffering from the effects of Coaker's discriminatory application of the Fish Regulations, will return four Bennett candidates. St. John's, too, is with Bennett in his fight for the renewal of the country's prosperity, lost during the three and one half years of Squires-Coaker-Campbell rule.

The country rings with the slogan, BENNETT, BETTER HUMBER, AND BETTER TIMES, and after May 3rd, Newfoundland will have a Government which will be composed of able and patriotic men, whose one object will be for her financial salvation, and the Leader of that Government will be JOHN R. BENNETT.

BAIL UP! BAIL UP!!

For three and a half years, the Government has forced from the people over sixty cents of every dollar earned. IT HAS ALL BEEN SPENT AND NOT ONE THING OF WORTH TO SHOW FOR IT. Away with this crowd of highwaymen, who, if given a further term of office will make you wish you were never born. Working Men of St. John's.

Remember How Squires Treated You in the Past.

Squires and Coaker have said many things which have justified the working men of St. John's in having little to do with either of them. In view of all that each has said and especially Squires, who stated that Newfoundland workmen were incompetent, it is nauseating to every honest-handed son of toil to read the twaddle about Squires' solicitude for the working men of this city as expressed on his platform and in his newspapers. At the last election Squires did not publish in his papers the Manifesto of the Labor candidates because he was no friend of labor and the majority of these industrious men recognized this and held aloof from Squires and his nominees. His insincerity has now been finally shown up and he has shown by the article of his heeler that he has no regard for the workmen of St. John's except in so far as he can get their support and so enrich himself and gain title and preferment, and scheme to put the country into Confederation, the first step towards which is the sale of the Labrador. The mask which Squires wore for some time past with partial success has now been torn away and the man is revealed in all his baseness and duplicity of nature. No workman of St. John's should vote for one who has proved himself so unworthy of their votes. Squires and Coaker are to-day leagued with corporations who are fighting for your ruin, and as long as they get certain advantages for themselves they are reckless and not concerned about you and yours. Our only wish Shall Coakerism Continue?

Warned that the Coakerites had organized for a determined attempt to break up the meeting scheduled for Bonavista last night, the local committee there advised that the meeting be postponed until arrangements have been made to preserve peace and good order. The candidates went to Plate Cove to hold a meeting. A squad of police were in the Majestic Hall on Wednesday night to preserve order for Squires-Coaker candidates, in a city where political meetings, though sometimes disturbed, are never broken up. Are the police for St. John's only, or only for Government candidates? The Inspector General has only to inquire of the Officer at Bonavista to be made aware that the King's peace is in danger, that free speech is not permitted, and that an organized body of Bonavistans have undertaken to over-awe the respectable inhabitants. MR. MONROE AT KING'S COVE.

KING'S COVE, April 26. Monroe, Winsor and Little Opposition candidates held a meeting here last night in the R. C. Hall, Thomas Devine J.P., presiding. There was a capacity audience, enthusiasm ran very high as could be judged by the hearty applause. There was no interruption in any way, and the meeting was voted the best ever held at King's Cove. The voters here will line up on Polling Day for BENNETT AND BETTER TIMES.—COR.

CARMANVILLE'S GREAT WELCOME TO MR. LONG.

CARMANVILLE, April 26. This was a glad day for Carmanville when Mr. Long arrived. Guns firing and flags flying. At night he held a meeting in the Orange Hall which was crowded and for two hours he held his audience spell bound telling them about the waste and extravagance of the Government for the past three and a half years. He outlined the policy of Bennett Party and pledged himself for the Humber Deal and other industries. Carmanville will vote two thirds on Polling Day for a change and clean Government. Meeting closed with National Anthem and hearty cheers for our future representative.—COR.

TREPASSEY ENDORSES BENNETT.

TREPASSEY, APRIL 26. Special to Evening Telegram. The Manifesto of J. R. Bennett received here bears the imprint of sincerity and the policy outlined has convinced the most sceptical that our only salvation is in voting for Bennett and Better Times. We realize Bennett and Party will have a formidable undertaking to take this country off the rocks after the wholesale waste of money in buying candidates and excessive squandering of people's money. Nothing but most drastic economy can restore our fisheries and stop the flood of emigration which is draining the country of its best manhood. Abuse of Sir M. P. Cashin and Sir John Croble, two gentlemen who are a credit to the land that gave them birth only serves to make them more popular. The American detectives imported by Squires-Cashin and Croble which is sufficient evidence of their integrity. We call on Bay de Verde to give Croble and Colleague a tremendous majority, he is worthy of it, and we have no doubt St. John's West will put Cashin at head of poll. "The West is Awake." Let our slogan be: Not one Squires-Coaker candidate south of Bonavista. A clean sweep of misfits and country runners.

D. O'NEILL.

COAKER WILL GET HIS WATER-LOO AT BONAVISTA.

GREENSPOND, April 26. Another very enthusiastic committee meeting was held last night and despite weather conditions about 150 present. Our committee now numbers over 200. Men are flocking daily to our standard. Greenspond will exceed over 75 per cent for Bennett and better times before Polling Day. Our slogan to-day is Coaker must go, Bonavista Bay this time is going to surprise the country. Never in the history of Greenspond has there been so much enthusiasm shown as there is to-day for Monroe, Winsor and Little. The North Side from Glovertown to Cape Frels will go 400 of a majority over the Monarch of the F. P. U. and this is the time, Mr. Editor, when Billy will meet his Waterloo.

S. W. HODDINOTT, Secretary.

GRAND FALLS DOES HONOR TO AYRE, PETERS AND SHOET.

GRAND FALLS, April 26. Messrs. Ayre, Peters and Shoet held a public meeting here last night. The Town Hall could not give admission to all the people. The meeting showed approximately 80 per cent for the Opposition candidates. The dying wall of Squireism, "can't lose" is growing very feeble now, and on Wednesday night the Opposition candidates will read its funeral service. BENNETT FOR BETTER TIMES will be installed on Thursday.

THOS. F. DOWER, Sec. Com.

Over the Top.

The sentiment of St. John's manifested itself last night in a spontaneous and striking manner. Premier Squires came to the Railway Station at about 9.30, to leave by special train for Harbor Grace, where he is to speak for his desperately pressed candidates. Some short notice had apparently been given to the public that the Special was to leave, for a large crowd had assembled. As the Premier appeared, faint cheers were raised for him by a few unfaithful supporters, and a perfect roar for "Bennett and Better Times" was the provoked response. The uproar then became so great, and the turmoil so pronounced, that the Premier impatiently fled before the storm, motored to Waterford Bridge, and made his "get away" from there. There is no suspicion of a "rigged" demonstration, for, of course, the Premier's intention to leave the city was not known long in advance, and curiosity was the only cause which drew the crowd, but political excitement is now at fever heat in the city, and there could not be better proof than this incident that St. John's will "go over the top" on Thursday with six men for BENNETT AND BETTER TIMES.

Squires' Cool Reception at Hr. Grace.

(By Telephone This Morning.)

The Premier arrived here this morning at 11 o'clock, and met with such a cool reception that it looked as if he would turn tail and go back to St. John's immediately. He was met at the station by about a hundred and twenty people, the greater percentage of the crowd being small boys. There were a few weak cheers for the poor man, who looked very downcast. The Premier made a short speech in which he said: "We are not talking politics, we are concerned almost entirely with the industrial development of Newfoundland." Sir Richard then referred to the already exploded Humber Deal, but his "wonderful" words had no effect on his hearers. Mr. Simmonds and Sir Richard then drove to their committee rooms. Three carriages made up the procession with a parade of about 120 men. Sir Richard and Simmonds left for the South Side at 12.15 with not a cheer to send them off. By actual count there were 140 men on the wharf to see them off and a lot of these were Opposition supporters. Someone called for a cheer for Cashin, but there was no response. The Premier's icy reception is a forecast of the snowing under he and his candidates will receive on May 3rd, for the people have decided they must have BENNETT AND BETTER TIMES.

Yesterday morning the trip to St. Phillips, where during the they made a personal canvass of settlement, and were heartily welcomed. At night a meeting was held in the schoolhouse which was to capacity. Mr. Fred Tucker, Chairman and in a short address introduced the candidates who were given a big reception.

Sir M. P. Cashin was the speaker, and made an excellent dress in which he pointed out the Government despite their prices, increased taxation. He explained the bounty on fish as contained in the Bennett Manifesto, and dealt many phases of public expenditure and how the revenue was squandered. Sir Michael said he had been told a Government heeler in St. John's was boasting that he held the key of Broad Cove in the hollow of his hand, but he was sure that their independence enough to use their own minds.

Mr. Linegar was in good form, showed how the Government had impoverished the working class, especially the fishermen and dealt in a general way the manner in which the Government through their incompetence had brought ruin upon the country.

Mr. C. E. Hunt reviewed Squires Manifesto of 1919, and promises that were held out to people at that time, not one of which has been carried out. He spoke of the Humber Deal which has not been disclosed and in conclusion pointed out the Bennett Manifesto as only hope for the country. A conclusion ringing cheers were given for the Bennett candidates and the audience remained outside until they were given a send off. Not an interruption occurred all through the meeting, which is a contrast to what while the speeches were pronounced with loud applause. St. Phillips gave Cashin, Linegar and Hunt a forty vote on polling day.

I, That K. M. Brown did call me back of Mr. Small's porch at Summerford in the Island of Newfoundland, stating that he had something to give me.
2. K. M. Brown did give me one dollar ($1.00).
3. He asked me to get in touch with Joseph Kearley when the Opposition members held their meeting or spoke at Herring Neck aforesaid.
4. I attended the meeting held in the Orange Hall on the evening of the 12th of April, A. D. 1923. I took my seat that suited me, not near Joseph Kearley aforesaid. As the meeting progressed I heard interruptions, and some interruptions came from Joseph Kearley. It then came to me what I suppose the meaning of the one dollar paid to me by K. M. 5. K. M. Brown was not indebted to me in any way for services rendered previous to paying me the one dollar.

Are They Mad?

Editor Evening Telegram
Dear Sir.—Reading the comment in last evening's Mail you caught the interesting heading "Not much like poor times." It is said that Newfoundland is now ahead because the earnings per head in excess of the cost of living. Following paragraph the same is made. "The savings of the founders are greater than the savings of Newfoundlanders." The rate of increase in population has increased and are increasing in far greater proportion. As evidence the Mail quotes that the earnings of the people have increased, they have been enabled to increase their deposits in the bank. Now, Mr. Editor, I ask you people mad who write such things are they trying to incite an angry public to annihilate them, or are they not responsible for the "whom the gods destroy, they make mad."

Yours truly,

A Rhyme for the Times.

Oh, Hearn and McGuire
Are playing with fire
If they think they can win old Ferry-land.

For the people have a fashion
Of electing Moore and Cashin
And on May the 3rd by them will firmly stand.

Piccott, Simmonds and Calpin
Are in for a terrible scalp,
Their S.O.S. cries
Are rending the skies
Poor Piccott, Simmonds and Calpin.

Halfyard, Hibbs and Randall,
Oh, My! what a terrible scandal
To ask Trinity Bay
To elect in May,
Halfyard, Hibbs and Randall.

Oh, the signs of the times
Point with sorrow to Grimes
For Fogo won't listen to him.
Their everyday song
Is "Oh, give us Joe Long,"
And on Sunday they make it a hymn.

The chances for Cheeseman and Foots
Are blacker than blackest of soot,
And Harris and Chafe
Are feeling quite safe
In making their political debt.

Oh, little Willie Warren
Will soon sound very foreign
To the voters of Fortune Bay.
The Commission's a ripe peach
Which they'll dangle behind Billie's reach
When they go to the polls in May.

Newfoundland Sailor Drowned at Sea.

CREW POSTED AS MISSING.
The sad intelligence was received in the city yesterday that all hope is now given up for the crew of the schooner Howard, which left an American port in December last for the Mediterranean, and that one of the crew named William Snow, of this city, is given up as lost. The vessel, no doubt, met with the full force of the gales as reported on the Atlantic in December last, and becoming unmanageable, soon sank, and the crew falling to get assistance, met a watery grave. Mr. Wm. Snow was a young man of 25 years, popular and well-known in this city, and the news of his death by drowning will come as a distinct shock to his many friends and relatives. The deceased was one of the first to join the Royal Naval Reserve, and during the whole war period he did active service. After the war he returned home and attended Mr. F. J. Doyle's Nautical School. He later proceeded to the States, where he sat for a Mate's certificate, and passed a successful examination. Mr. Snow leaves to mourn a heart broken mother, two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Purchase, Theatre Hill, Dora, at home, and one brother, Ronald, in Montreal, to whom the sympathy of the whole community goes out in their time of sorrow.

Speed the Time!

Still the cry goes forth: Vote for the Humber. The question has often puzzled the writer as to how Squires reconciles his attitude on the Humber with his professed attitude towards industries as expressed not a twelve months ago. Last spring when a deputation visited Hon. R. A. Squires on guaranteeing the Terra Nova Sulphite Co. he is reported to have said that it was Bell Island and Grand Falls, and such like centres of industry that had brought Newfoundland to her then state of financial depression. What a change the intervening period has brought about. We can be pretty safe in asserting that conscience is a nonentity with the Honourable Gentleman. Coaker, too, was formerly very much opposed to the Reid way of doing business. He and Squires were going to put them in their places. To-day, Coaker is willing to buy the railway from them, and sell the Labrador to get the cash to pay for same. That is precisely what it amounts to. Verily it is disgusting to note the antics of the Government, as it sees the star of victory hovering over the Opposition. Every evening the public despatch contains many glaring misrepresentation of facts, vide the sealer's meeting, or some trivial event in connection with the Government, political propaganda instead of public news. Is it to be wondered at that Monroe announces that the North Side of Bonavista Bay spells victory for the policy of Bennett. But a week more and the ballots will be cast. Verily the tale that they will unfold will be one of many surprises, and the vote from Bonavista Bay will not be one of the least. Squires' restless ambition will not be satisfied by a false Humber cry. Coaker's fishery policy will not again strangle the shipping interests of the fishermen. Both gentlemen have been tried and found wanting, and to-day they are desperate in their endeavours to stem the flaming tide. Alas! Alas! They cannot enter now.

Coal, Cull, and Dust.

Amazing revelations are coming from the coal regions of Pennsylvania where it is reported by the New York American, the great coal companies that monopolize the supplies of the nation during the bitter winter just passed shipped to market and made $150,000,000 profits from the refuse—slag and slag and tons and dirt—of the great chimneys that have been accumulating waste matter of the mines for a hundred years. This unbelievable avarice the coal barons are said to have shipped hundreds of thousands of tons of this waste incombustible material to market and sold it as coal, mauling the public of millions of dollars for stuff that would not burn.

Moreover, the proceeds from this transaction were all clear profit, inasmuch as long ago the waste was taken free from the mines by the miners, as under the old regime all miners were docked for the time occupied in digging and sorting this waste-product from the actual coal with which it is inextricably mixed by nature. So that it did not cost the barons a cent to produce this mountain of wealth, which they have now palmed off on an unsuspecting public.

The Burning Bush.

One of the most remarkable plants in the world is certainly the so-called Burning Bush, Dictamnus fraxinella. This species is native to Western Asia, though nowadays commonly to be found in the gardens in temperate regions. A great many people who grow the plant are quite unaware of its strange habits. As a matter of fact the Dictamnus secretes a fragrant essential oil in great abundance. This is produced in especially large quantities by the flower stems, in warm weather volatilizing so that the air surrounding the plant is impregnated. Further this vapor is highly inflammable and, if a naked flame is brought near to the plant, the flames at once take fire with a most singular result. The whole plant is surrounded with crackling shooting flames, reddish in color, and leaving a highly aromatic odor behind them. The Burning Bush is not injured in any way by the fire; for the flames do not actually come in contact with the plant, itself.

Several conditions are needed if the experiment with the Burning Bush is to be a success. Thus it is essential that the air should be very dry and warm, also that there should be practically no wind. The best effects are secured only just after the opening of the flowers. It will be realized that these conditions cannot always be relied upon. A plan has recently been devised by means of which the inflammable nature of the vapors given out by the Dictamnus may be shown with startling effect.

A strong plant of the Burning Bush is raised in a pot. At the time when the flowers are just reaching perfection the plant is placed in a glass jar or a shade. This is closely covered for some hours before the time of the experiment. On removing the jar or shade the plant is at once a tremendous outburst of flame. So great is the rush of fire that it is wise to keep one's face away from the top of the jar; a nasty burn is not by any means out of the question. After an interval of an hour or so with the jar or case closed up the experiment may be repeated with similar results.

In connection with the Dictamnus it is rather remarkable that the species is common where the incident of Moses and the Burning Bush is said to have occurred.

Beans boiled with ham are usually hard; to cook them successfully beans half done in clear water, drained and sautéed in ham stock.

Day by day
In every way
The people say
The month of May
They will see
The finish of Coaker.

Only five more working days to complete a good job.

If Squires tells the people of St. John's the truth he will state his certain defeat in St. John's West.

Higgins caught him nicely.

Sir Richard is rightly designated "a political acrobat."

He can do certain stunts no sane man would attempt.

Is he using the Humber people as he tried to use the Bell Island owners?

No, Bell Island mines will not shut down but Bennett Government will do everything possible to increase the pay and better the conditions of those engaged in the development.

He must think the people of Bell Island and Conception Bay are gullible as easily as some of his committee.

He tried to sneak off to Harbor Grace without anyone knowing a thing about it.

Even in this little trick he was beaten.

Several hundred of supporters of Bennett's candidates were at the railway station and waited long after midnight to cheer for Bennett and Better Times.

Look out for the Mail and Advocate to-day I wouldn't be a bit surprised to read in these papers that Sir Richard was greeted by a multitude of his own supporters and that he was tendered a great send off.

Their report of the meeting in the Majestic was just as we expected.

But all those slippery ways of trying to fool the outport voters will not work.

If Sir Richard and his colleagues think they have even a fighting chance, why don't they accept the $6,000 put up and advertised in this paper.

As I said before Linegar and Hunt will poll at least 600 more votes than Squires and that Cashin will double Campbell's and Fitzgibbons combined vote.

Make no mistake about it St. John's is decided for Squire.

Conception Bay from every indication will notch up 9 more.

The Equires betters are betting they get one.

Placenta and Ferryland are going to make the Coaker candidates pay their full nomination fees.

Carbonear, the last stronghold of the Government is going to give Jim Moore an outstanding majority not withstanding a reduced population.

Now for the North. Long will be Fogg's next representative. Monroe and Steas will be Bennett's right hand men with the new Government.

Joe Moore, Ayre and colleagues will wrest their district from the misrule of a dictator.

The West Coast districts are not taking any chances of a repetition of the past 40 months. A landslide is the only answer that any sane minded person can conjecture.

Up guards, and at them. Away with Coakerism. Away with Equestrianism. Away with Bolshevism. Away with stagnation, starvation and depression by voting the straight ticket for BENNETT & BETTER TIMES.

Gaelic League.

WEEKLY MEETING.

The Gaelic League held their regular meeting last night, a large number of the members were present. After the business of the meeting had been transacted Mr. J. A. Gibbs gave a reading on Irish History. He dealt with the early Milesian period, its civilization, Arts and Commerce; down to a few centuries before the Christian era. The lecturer was accorded a hearty vote of thanks at the close. It was decided to hold a card party and dance in the T. A. Armoury on May 9th. The programme will include some new and novel Irish dances which will be introduced for the first time in St. John's. After the meeting concluded the President and officers of the L.S.P.A. kindly gave the League the use of their meeting room and a very pleasant hour was spent in rehearsing the popular dances which are now meeting with much success in Ireland.

Are Women Overworked?

Yes, hundreds of thousands of them are. This applies to the housewife and mother who struggles on a small income to make both ends meet by doing all the washing, ironing, cooking, making and mending for a large family. There are others who not only support themselves working in factories, shops, stores and offices, but often have an invalid father or mother to support, therefore do housework besides. These are the women who break down early and are afflicted with various forms of every weakness. Ninety-eight out of every 100 women who have tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have proved that it is a successful remedy for woman's ills. For nearly fifty years it has been restoring women to health, and it will pay every ailing woman to try it.

On the Last Lap.

Wednesday Night's Setback to Squires Shows Real Sentiment of City.

The result of the Squires meeting in the Majestic Theatre on Wednesday night was a knock out for the Government supporters. They are sick, sore, and sorry men every since. It was amusing yesterday to go about town and see their crestfallen aspect and to listen to their pitiful explanations of how it all happened. But one has only to reflect for a moment to understand clearly how and why it happened. It happened simply and solely because the people of St. John's realize that they have been hoaxed and hoodwinked by the Squires-Coaker crew and that they do not intend to be fooled again by these political desperadoes. The people look in vain for the prosperity that was promised them, for all the reforms and benefits that they were assured would follow from the election of the Squires-Coaker Party, and now they find that while Squires and Campbell and the rest of the outfit have enriched themselves, the masses of the people are worse off than ever they were before. Consequently the people frown out Squires and Campbell and the rest of the gang on Wednesday night and will do it even more emphatically next Thursday when they get a chance at the last lap of the race and the Opposition candidates lead clearly in the estimation of the public. All the failures of the Squires-Coaker crew have been responsible in part for the enormous feeling of sympathy towards the Bennett Party and against the Coaker control and the Squiresite acceptance of the same. All the bun-kum that Squires and Campbell and the pawns they have behind them have been talking the past month, has been exploded and the people are going to vote for the men on their merits and not according to the dictates of Coaker or the windy promises of Squires. The "Advocate" is perhaps the most judicious paper that has ever struck our shores, for its big headlines and bluff articles and fake messages are the laughing stock of all intelligent men. The "Daily Mail" on the other hand is disregarded by everybody because of its long winded outpourings that nobody wants to read. These papers take themselves too seriously when they think the people can be led away again by the bluff and bluster which they practised three years ago and which they are trying to practise again now.

They are even talking about the money that is being offered through our columns in the way of bets and are suggesting that it comes from sources which they specify, but they forget that three and a half years ago they had a "barrel" themselves and that the front pages of their papers were filled with boasts of the money they had to put up in support of their claims. There is nothing perhaps more significant in the present contest than the collapse of all betting from the Squires-Coaker crowd and the fact that money is now talking on behalf of the Opposition. In the same way they talk about the vicious campaign the Opposition Party is putting up, but surely there was never such abuse heard from a leading public man on any platform as that in which R. A. Squires indulged on Wednesday night. The vilest kind of literature is being distributed widecast by the Government heeleders. These are more busy trying to capture votes by any means in their power for Squires and his crowd. At the last election they managed to do this in part by the outcry they made over accidents on the railway and the marooning of passengers at Holyrood because the track had been washed away at Kelligrews, and some heeleders to the scene to bring the passengers into town. Now, though, the trains can be days and weeks in arrears or not run at all and there is not a word of criticism or complaint by the Government shouters. The leaders of these have had their mouths closed very effectively, and very shortly after the election is over the taxpayers will have reason to know how this has been accomplished. When the facts are exposed by the Bennett Government of the shameful attempt by Squires and Coaker to buy out from the Reids the Railroad by paying them millions of dollars, then the taxpayers will know why Squires and Coaker and their crew tried so desperately to bring off this election and to carry the country in order that they might put through this deal which they knew they could never accomplish if they brought the measure into the Legislature before an election took place.

Our appeal to the electors to-day with only a week before the polling, is for them to be on their guard. Squires and Coaker are sick and sorry but their fanatical supporters are busy after your votes. If you value your prosperity and your independence, vote for progressive Liberalism. You know now that some of the Government heeleders will do everything humanly possible to elect Squires in the West End. You know that Squires has been tested and tried and found wanting. Don't be fooled by any catch cries or arguments put up on behalf of Squires, but remember that Coaker is the man who rules and controls it, and that if they should win Coaker will crack the whip after Polling Day and Squires will dance to his tune. Remember your children's future and that of your country. Vote as your conscience and reason dictate. VOTE FOR BENNETT AND BETTER TIMES.

His Third Marathon.
BOSTON, Mass., April 19.—The American Marathon road race was won to-day by Clarence H. Demar, of Melrose, the first three-time victor in the 27 years history of the event. The first eleven finishers were:
Clarence H. Demar, Melrose, Mass., 2:23.47 3-5.
Frank Zuna, New York, 2:25.52.
Walter Carlson, Chicago, 2:27.10 4-5.
Albert P. Michelson, Stamford, Conn., 2:28.27 2-5.
Gunner Nilson, New York, 2:28.40.
Nestor Erickson, New York, 2:28.46 1-5.
Carl Linder, Boston, 2:30.29.
Wm. J. Kennedy, Port Chester, N. Y., 2:33.47.
Joseph Conte, New York, 2:35.20.
Arthur L. Flanders, Boston, 2:40.41.
Edouard Fabre, Montreal, 2:41.09.
Demar, a man of 35 years who, as a soldier back from the war, surprised sport followers last year by winning the race in record time eleven years after his first success in the event, plodded along in fourth place for eight miles, chasing Michelson, the peacemaker, until he overtook him at the half way mark in Wellesley. But Michelson overhauled him with a sprint shortly afterwards and Demar coasted along in his dust for a few miles until they had passed the reservoir checking station at Newton. It was there he started his successful sprint last year, and it was there he sprinted to win again to-day. In a mile or two Michelson was left behind, and Demar was alone in front. The winner ran the last five miles of his race on his left heel and right toes. As he reached the Lake Street

Reservoir an automobile crowded his accompanying bicycle in towards him and it caught his right heel, tearing it from his shoe. Then a blister developed on his left foot, and when the veteran reached the finish line his gait was rather odd and he was apparently very tired.

Five of the first eleven men were previous winners. Zuna won in 1921; Linder in 1919; Kennedy in 1917, and Fabre in 1915.

Fabre refused to stop running when he broke the tape. He maintained his closing sprint right into the club house, up two flights of stairs, through the gymnasium to a lunch counter at the further end and only ended when he grasped a large bowl of pea soup and raised it with both hands to his lips.

Fabre was the only Canadian to finish. The other Canadian starter, Victor McAuley, of Windsor, was forced to surrender to a sprained ankle after eight miles of going. He was brought to the Boston Athletic Club by automobile. George W. Spragg, the St. John, N.B., entrant, did not start.

Weather conditions were almost ideal. The roads were firm, and a cool breeze blew quartering to the course from the West. There were 72 starters.

Squires Meet a Frost at Bay Roberts.

HIS LAST HOPE GONE.

Although notified last night that Squires would pass through Bay Roberts this morning, only 2 heeleders were at the station to meet him. A large gathering of Bennett's supporters were at the station and called for Squires to come out, but he failed to put in an appearance and was sent off with ringing cheers for Bennett, Hickman and Archibald. Knowing that he will be badly beaten in St. John's West Squires foolishly hoped that by going to Harbor Grace he might be able to squeeze Piccott in so after the election he could get Piccott to resign to give him another chance. But even this trail hope has now been shattered by the frost he is receiving on all sides in Harbor Grace District.

THE FIGHTING TRIO, HIGGINS, FOX, VINCOMBE, St. John's East Representatives.

The Team that's winning.

Tested—Willing—Worthy.

Succeeding in a just cause.

Helping Bennett to bring Better Times.

Determined to protect the welfare of their fellow-men.

In its hour of need our Country calls for its men to save her. Higgins, Fox and Vincombe are amongst the best to come to her assistance.

St. John's East is proud to be sending forth such men to help down the country's common-enemy.

The rest of the Island from North, South, East and West, is grateful to the loyal Liberal District for sending them.

The Fighting Trio, honoured by the constituency in 1919, with renewed confidence in 1923, will strive their utmost for the country's prosperity.

Coakerism will never again be permitted to ruin the fishermen, or the farmer, or throw out of employment the cooper, the mechanic, the clerk, the labourer or the tradesman.

The menace of Coakerism will be chased from our shores, and our people once again will be given a fair opportunity of securing the prosperity and happiness that is so justly theirs.

The electors of St. John's East in common with the whole island demand it and with 100 per cent. votes every section of the district is standing firm to the Standard of Bennett and Better Times.

St. John's the Battery, Quidi Vidi, Newtown, Bell Island, Wabana (East and West), Lance Cove, Freshwater, Portugal Cove, Torbay, Outer Cove, Flatrock all whole-heartedly support the Fighting Trio.

The other sections of the district have heard the call to arms and when the Fighting Trio visit them will rally unanimously to the Standard that the country has raised for Prosperity and Better Times.

The men comprising Bennett's Party are pledged to support the same cause that the Fighting Trio represent, and with them will pull Newfoundland into the sunshine of Prosperity again.

foundland into the sunshine of Prosperity again.

The Fighting Trio do not throw idle illusions before the eyes of their constituents, but in honest, manly fashion offer themselves, and the utmost of their ability to help make our country a happy one.

St. John's East with the remainder of the country knows that once our island was the happiest and the most prosperous in the world, and will assist the Fighting Trio to bring back

HIGGINS, FOX and VINCOMBE in a Government that fosters commerce and assists Trade, will mean more work, steady wages, and domestic comfort for their constituents and for Newfoundland.

The Fighting Trio are battling against the despoilers of our commercial and business prosperity; against the ruination of our fisheries, and against the burdening of the people with taxation.

The Fighting Trio are out to overcome unemployment, the depression of the country's trade, national stagnation, forced immigration and neglect of the people's welfare, as brought about by Squires-Coaker Minute-of-Council rule.

The Fighting Trio, on the people's behalf, are battling for the protection of Responsible Government, so that the people may once again be governed by an administration of the people, elected by the people, and governing for the people.

Just as generation after generation in the loyal old Liberal district of St. John's East always fought for the people's privileges, so to-day the whole district is determined to protect its rights, and as a body supports the Fighting Trio in the people's cause.

Young and old, determined to save their country from the rule of the tyrant, look forward to the glorious THIRD of MAY, when they shall be able to banish forever the bunglers and the incapables who have wrought destruction throughout Nfld.

St. John's East will be foremost in the battle, fighting a great fight, hitting straight by voting straight to bring the district's Straight Ticket Team on top with the greatest majority of all in favour of HIGGINS, FOX, VINCOMBE.

GILLETT'S LYE

Comparatively few people realize to what extent Gillett's Lye can be used to advantage in every home. For instance, with one can of Gillett's Lye and five and a half pounds of lard or grease, ten pounds of good hard soap can be made. Use one tablespoon of Gillett's Lye in gallon of water for cleaning and disinfecting—refrigerators, sinks, garbage cans, tiled floors, baths and toilets.

Useful for over 500 purposes.

Notes From Hr. Main District.

WOODFORD AND KENNEDY WILL BE THE VOTERS CHOICE WITH THE BENNETT GOVERNMENT.

Hr. Main will be with Hr. Grace and Conception Bay districts when people will acclaim the Bennett government on polling day.

Hr. Main is going to give Bennett and his crew a chance to make good.

Hr. Main is not satisfied with the promise of a Humber Deal for the people of the district known as Squires and Coaker kept the same they made in 1919.

Squires and Coaker think that Hr. Main are fools that they (Squires and Coaker) can null them a second time.

Hr. Main voters will resent Mr. Jones' insult that they can be bought for a ten dollar bill.

Hr. Dr. Jones?

The little man Woodford boosted brought to the district in 1919.

Mr. Jones was very generous to himself when he asked for that small sum of money. All his expenses for him.

district will not stand for voters and that his only object is to split votes between Woodford and Kennedy, but if I know the district they will not fall for it.

Hr. Main is going to be true to its colors. They are not going to go back on the men who stood up for them against big odds.

The voters of Hr. Main are loyal and that is the reason why they are going to vote the straight ticket and elect Woodford and Kennedy to look out for their interests in the Bennett Government. BENNETT AND BETTER TIMES.

Brilliant Photoplay at the Nickel.

Those who enjoy a sparkling picture, brilliant titles, and a little weep or two, will find all these in the new Goldwyn film, "The Wall Flower," by Rupert Hughes, which was presented at the Nickel Theatre last night. Mr. Hughes made a happy choice when he selected pretty Colleen Moore to play the leading part in this picture. This charming play reveals a naïveté and an unspoiled sweetness on the screen that is not only captivating, but is absolutely essential to the part she portrays. Miss Moore's acting is a revelation. We believe that a new comedienne with an entirely new manner, has come to delight lovers of the screen.

On Monday the Nickel presents Miss Gladys Redstone, the popular local Soprano soloist, who needs no introduction to the music loving public. In doing this, this theatre is promoting our local talent, which is said to easily come up to that of any other country.

Hands Off or Off Goes Head.

SAYS DEMILLE. While filming "Conrad in Quest of His Youth," the new William DeMille's Production, which will be shown at the Majestic theatre to-day, Mr. DeMille took extraordinary measures to preserve the atmosphere of the settings, many of which represented old English home interiors with rare old relics as properties and furnishings.

Many of these properties were obtained with much trouble and at great expense and Mr. DeMille didn't wish them carried off, or even moved around the set. So he placed placards in conspicuous places all over the settings after finishing work each day. The placards read:

"Anyone taking or moving any of the properties or furnishings on this set will be guillotined." Needless to say, everything remained intact, and fortunately nobody lost his head.

Mr. Meighan is well supported in this photoplay, his leading woman being Margaret Loomis. Others in the cast include Mabel Van Duren, Kathryn Williams, Maym Kelso, Sylvia Ashton, Bertram John's, Ruth Renick and Charles Ogle.

The Humber Project of 1915.

What the Newfoundland Products Corporation Proposed.

Yesterday's Mail reported Premier Squires as saying "It was Sir Edward Morris who originated the idea of a Humber Industry and invited Caribide Wilson to Newfoundland. True enough. Also he might have stated that this Company which bore the official title of the Newfoundland Products Corporation, had as its main object the development of the water power of the Humber and with the electrical energy establish such industries as making carbide, sulphide pulp, paper and nitrates. The capital of the Products Corporation was set at $21,000,000, or three times the amount invested in Grand Falls. To develop the power immense concrete dams and canals had to be built and to get the power to where the mills were to be erected huge lattice steel towers had to be erected for carrying the transmission lines. Three thousand and sixty square miles of land were to be embraced in the enterprise. The initial electrical development was set at about 120,000 H.P. (at a cost of $52,89 per H.P.) The town site, immense factories and paper mills were to be located at Corner Brook, Bay of Islands. To give an idea of what this place was to be like, the project called for storage room for 20,000 tons of pulp, besides equally as large warehouses for nitrates, carbide, etc. These buildings were to be at the shipping point which was to be created by the erection of an immense concrete breastwork, several thousand feet long. The town and plant alone was planned to cover an area of 1,200 acres. It was planned in the Humber Deal that the total cost of work, before a dollars worth of produce was shipped would be $18,000,000. Six million dollars would be spent on the construction of power plant, etc. On the construction 4,000 men would be employed. The job, too, had to be completed and in working order within two years.

SUBMITTED TO ASSEMBLY. This plan for the development of the water power of the Humber was submitted to the House of Assembly by the Messrs. Reid in 1915 under the Morris Government. It is in many respects similar to the Humber Deal of to-day. Then the whole contract was laid on the table. There was no guarantee asked but quite a lot of concessions were granted. These were opposed by Messrs. Coaker and the Union members as public rights were in danger of being sacrificed.

THE POSITION TO-DAY.

Is the position any better to-day? The project was a great, if not greater, than that now proposed. Then why does not the Prime Minister out with the Contract? Or why did he not submit it to the Legislature last December after the Deal was finalized with the British Government? Would not that have been an honorable course? Then if the Legislature did not sanction the Deal he could appeal to the country.

SIMILARITY OF PROPAGANDA.

There is such a similarity in the propaganda now used as in that used by Morris that it is worth quoting the following:—"If we export 10,000,000 from this industry and put down half for costs and interests we have $5,000,000 per year for labor, at $1,000 per man this will give labor to 5,000 men representing 5,000 families. These 5,000 men earning $5,000,000 and paying say 30% in duties on the consumption measured by their earnings would represent $1,500,000 increase in the revenue. The project is staggering and some may think it an election scheme." The Prime Minister is using almost identical words to-day. He says however, that he won't allow anyone to steal his brain. Why should anyone want to steal it? His brainstorm of the Humber can be all found in the House of Assembly Report for 1915. Sir Richard is bluffing. The truth is the Humber Industry is an effort of Messrs. Reid to develop their natural resources. They have succeeded through Messrs. Armstrong-Whitworth & Co. to get the British Government to guarantee the interest on half the capital. Newfoundland had to guarantee the other half. What other concessions Messrs. Reid & Co. want Premier Squires refuses to tell. Will the country sign an unknown contract on the word of Messrs. Coaker, Squires and Reid. Certainly not. Therefore vote for Bennett and his candidates. Their stake in the country requires that industries flourish, and they will see that the Humber Deal on the level is given the country.

Billiards.

MASONIC AND B.I.S. HAVE EXCITING GAMES.

The Billiard Games between the Masonic and B.I.S. players last night, were very interesting and attracted a larger number of spectators than on the previous evenings. The first game was closely contested right through and resulted in a win for Snow (M) by the small margin of four points over McKay (B.I.S.). The breaks were:— Snow (850)—28, 15, 10, 21, 11, 17, 19, 10—125.
McKay (296)—10, 14, 11, 11, 17, 12, 14, 10, 15, 14, 15, 10—179.

The second game was played between Skinner (B.I.S.): and Freeman (M.); and much excitement and good play was in evidence. Skinner of the B.I.S. defeated his man by 37 points after they had tied on 142, 187, 226, 244, and 303. Whilst this game also ended in the first defeat of the Masonic. The breaks were:— Freeman (818)—13, 19, 22, 14, 12, 24, 12, 11, 25, 17, 10—190.
Skinner (850)—22, 21, 22, 30, 26, 19, 15, 38—185.

Household Notes.

When using canned peaches for peach shortcake, butter the biscuit dough well before spreading the fruit.

A simple and delicious way of cooking bananas is to boil them in a sugar syrup and serve it as a sauce. Creamed shrimps are attractive served in puff paste cases. Add a half cupful chopped peppers to the shrimps.

A teaspoonful of corn and rice starch sifted with the salt will make it flow easily from cellars in damp weather.

A note or check may be safely left in milk bottle for the milkman if a jelly glass is inverted over mouth of bottle.

If a garden hose has tiny leaks in it, paint it on outside with pliable roofing paint, and it will be good for another season.

Hearn vs. Harris.

The Election Act says that to be a qualified candidate a man must be a British Citizen. Years ago Ambrose Hearn became an American citizen, a foreigner, and hence he is not qualified, and a vote cast for him will be wasted. Very properly, a protest was lodged by Peter Cashin, whose wish is that the electors of Ferryland district should not waste their precious votes, and now the Mail is in high dudgeon because the unlawful thing has been exposed.

The Mail says, by way of contrast, that the Fishery Regulations caused the insolvency of various fishery houses, and the managers thereof are also disqualified, and it mentions Mr. George Harris in this particular, adding that Burin creditors of the Harris companies have not all been paid. Mr. Harris himself has not been declared insolvent, and hence has not been legally disqualified, and in so far as he has been brought to the verge of financial ruin, he is the victim of Squires and Coaker, and has the sympathy and regard of the Burin people, as they will show on election day. Mr. Hearn created his own disqualification. The Harris position has been created by bad government.

SIDE TALKS.

By Ruth Cameron

WHO GETS THE SYMPATHY?

A woman whom I know is separating from her husband.

Except for those who know them both very intimately, most of the sympathy goes to the husband.

"If she can't get along with him there must be something wrong with her," they say.

Or, "I think he is a saint to have stood her so long as he has. He is so nice to her and she often acts sulky and queer or says sharp little things to him. Why, they were at the Ross dinner and she made everyone uncomfortable by saying sharp, sarcastic things to him."

As a matter of fact (if there is such a thing as fact in cases where personalities conflict), he is a very disagreeable, trying person in private. He has made her absolutely miserable for years by his meanness, by his injustice in certain family relations, by his impregnable selfishness.

Of course it is hard to judge, but it does seem to me that if most of the people who think she is disagreeable could know the provocation he gives her they would feel differently.

A Hypocrite!

But because he is pleasant in his manner, because he never argues about family matters before outsiders, because he has an agreeable smile and good manners, people think the trouble must be all with her.

A hypocrite?

I don't know.

A pleasant manner is natural to him. Even when he is being most selfish in the home he is often unruffled and well-mannered.

Mr. Moore Will be Carbonear's Choice.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—This old district is not dead by any means, it is just about bubbling over with enthusiasm for James Moore, and his party, and a good reason it has to be so. In years gone by we have had some good representatives, but at this election we will have a man who is going into the fight whole heartedly with a feeling that he has the interest of Carbonear at stake. He is no other than our good sport James Moore, a man with a principle and a heart as kind as ever was, not one that brags. He is not the man to refuse the poor, he is not the man to refuse help to the widow and orphan, neither is he the man to tolerate meanness in any shape or form. Sure we all know him and how can we vote against him? We cannot do it, neither will we. It is a very easy matter to find scores that did not support him last election who are now giving their best for him to-day. Come on, Mr. Moore, we are longing for the time to come for us to get rid of this barbarous treatment that we are getting dished out to us in every way, shape and form from the Coaker-Squires Boodle Government. Sure we can see what Coaker has done for the fisherman, (ruin). Cannot we see what he has done for the Government candidate (Maddock) for this District. Then this gentleman has the audacity to stop a fisherman on the street and ask him for his support. It is enough to make any industrious fisherman mad. Go away Mr. Maddock and sit down in a quiet corner and think it over again. We are for Moore and a square deal.

Yours truly,

ONLOOKER.

Carbonear, April 19th, 1923.

"MISS FEARLESS" will be re-elected by the Mayflower Club in the Congregational Lecture Hall, on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Admission 20 cents.—apr26,23

The Lighter Side.

Puppy love may be a waste of time, but it furnishes pressing business for a lot of young couple.

The sailor must have spent a night quite wild, to judge afar; He looks a wreck and so no doubt He struck a hidden bar.

THOSE DAINTY DRESSES.

"Pardon me, did you drop your handkerchief during the dance?" "Oh! I'm so embarrassed! That's my dress."

Man comes into this world with nothing on him, but according to a wise one, in a short time everybody has something on him.

Well, when the girls get to wearing corsets again, it may make a little more room in the street cars.

The point is simply that his offenses are those of character, rather than of manner.

The More Amiable Person.

But this is the reason I speak of. His wife feels very bitterly because she knows sympathy is with him. She says it shows that people are always ready to take the man's part.

It doesn't. What it does show is that unless there are grave offenses on one side, people very naturally will side with the person who appears most amiable in public.

I know a similar case where the sympathy goes to the wife because the husband is always nagging her in public, and she is very sweet and serene under his apparent persecution. As a matter of fact, in ways that are not immediately apparent, she is a most exasperating person. But people don't know that, and they do know that the husband makes them uncomfortable by forcing them to sit in on scenes of matrimonial tension, and so they blame him and regard her as a martyr.

People Hate Bickering.

The point is that if you want public sympathy and approval you have got to so conduct yourself in public that you won't have the appearance of being hard to live with, and won't make other people uncomfortable by putting them under the strain of listening to your bickering.

The only thing in worse taste than public demonstrations of affection between married folks is public demonstrations of lack of affection. It always makes the onlooker feel so self-conscious and uncomfortable. Anyone who is the aggressor in such demonstrations will inevitably forfeit sympathy and approval. Of course it takes self-control to keep one's animosities under cover, but it is a self-control exerted in an excellent cause.

Billie Piccott thinks the typist who wrote 149 words a minute and carried on a conversation at the same time had nothing on the young lady who powders her nose, chews gum, sings, talks, fixes her hair and writes at the same time.

In a city you are in danger of being run down by autos, and in a small town you are run down by gossip.

A bootlegger tells the story that when he was seized with the grippe, it kept him in longer than when he was seized with a suitcase.

Wallace Silverwear.

Is your Table Silver as good to-day as when you bought it?

Have you noticed that at the parts most exposed to wear, the silver has become worn?

Do you think this condition of your silver is in keeping with your idea of a well appointed table?

Then why not, when you decide on replacing your old ware, give place to it with the "Wallace" Brand, the Silver that refuses to wear and is guaranteed without time limit.

Start with the Tea Spoons and gradually complete your Set with the one pattern—there are several for you to choose from and the price is very moderate.

Tea Spoons cost $8.00 for a Dozen.
