PARISH NOTES.

S. Andrew's Day, Nov. 30th, will be the jubilee of the consecration of St. George's Church. It is intended to make some celebration of this interesting event, in what special manner has not yet been decided, but due notice will be given. It would be interesting to know the names of those who were present on that occasion, that special invitations to be present may be sent them. The Rector has already called the attention of the congregation to the fact that the service books in use at St. George's are out of date. It would be pleasant if some member or members would present new books to be used for the first time on the occasion of the jubilee.

On Sunday, Oct. 25th, we were favored by a visit and sermon from the Rev. J. Shields Boyd, the Canadian missionary in China. His most able address was much enjoyed and a new interest aroused in the Foreign Mission Work of the Church.

The congregation of St. George's will join all the parishes in the Rural Deanery in congratulating Canon Welch and themselves on his appointment as Rural Dean of Toronto.

Once again we have to regret the loss of one of our most energetic workers by marriage. On Wednesday, Oct. 14th, Miss Allarton Gosling was united to Mr. Harold Eveson, of Wootton Hall, Warwick, in St. George's Church. The local newspapers have already given long accounts of the ceremony. It only remains for us to thank, on her behalf, the Sanctuary Guild for so prettily decorating the Church on the occasion. The Sunday School, of which for some time the bride was the secretary, presented a handsome and chaste silver-mounted writing case as a token of their appreciation of all her good work.

The Harvest Festival Services were held on Sunday, Oct. 18th, and were attended by very large congregations both morning and evening. The Church was never more effectively decorated, though the "labourers were few," and our sincere thanks are offered to Miss Wyatt and the Misses Boulton and one or two others who worked so hard and successfully.

The Organist and Choir are to be congratulated on the excellent character of their work. The services, and especially the very beautiful anthem, being particularly well rendered. Miss Cowan sang the solo with her accustomed sweetness and purity of tone.

We welcome Mr. Gowland, Mrs. Blackwood, Miss Kirk and Miss Strong very heartily as new members of our growing Choir.

The Young Women's Missionary Guild, under the direction of Mrs. Bruce Harman, meets on Tuesday morning in the Class Room at 11 a.m. Young women interested in missionary work will be cordially welcome.

The Mothers' Meeting opened on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 27th. Mrs. Gosling will welcome any mothers who would like to join.

The St. Agatha's Guild has commenced its session and meets on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Young women of the parish and congregation are warmly invited to attend. The Guild has undertaken to organize an entertainment by the children themselves, to be given in connection with the Sunday School Christmas Social.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The monthly Board Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in the Sunday School room of St. George's church, Friday, October 9th, by invitation from the President of this branch, who also gave the address of welcome. Proceedings were conducted by Miss Tilley, Diocesan President. Reports were read by officers of the Executive Board. Addresses were given by Bishop Lofthouse of Keewatin diocese, and Archdeacon Tims of the Sarcee Home, diocese of Calgary. We also had the honor of entertaining some of the members of the Central Board of Management, who, with Mrs. Younge, were introduced to the Auxiliary Members. Mrs. Tilton, President of the Woman's Auxiliary, gave an address.

The duty of presenting a general united Thank Offering at the next triennial meeting in 1904 was brought before the meeting and a suggestion made that the very small sum of five cents annually should be contributed by each W. A. member. Lunch was served at one o'clock. The carefully planned arrangements by the President, Mrs. Wyatt, were well carried out by all the ladies who kindly assisted on this occasion.

The members of the Sanctuary Guild wish to acknowledge with thanks donations of flowers during the summer from Mrs. Goldwin Smith, Mrs. Allen Baines and Miss G. Baines, also Harvest Home decorations of wheat and red berries from the Rev. J. M. Davenport of St. Thomas' church.

As the congregation is not taxed for special collections for Harvest Home, Xmas and Easter decorations, any contributions are always acceptable in the way of flowers. The Guild has lost a constant subscriber to its funds in Mrs. Pringle, who has moved away from the parish. Both Dr. and Mrs. Pringle are a great loss to the church.
