The Submarine Has Failed, Says Premier

Allies' Supremacy At Sea Assured

HIS LOSS FIGURES CORRECT

Lloyd George Says He is Convinced That U-Boats Will Never be Able to Destroy Strength of Empire or Beat Down Hopes of Allies

Birkenhead, Sept. 7.—Premier Lloyd George, in a speech here today on receiving the freedom of the city, declared that the whole allied cause and the freedom of the world depends on supremacy at sea, and that he was certain it would be maintained.

German statements, he said, had been at great pains to impress upon their people that the submarine figures given out by him in the House of Commons recently were inaccurate. He declared those figures were absolutely correct, and that they put an end to all hopes of the enemy to win.

The premier asserted that he was absolutely convinced that the German submarine never would be able to beat down the strength of the British Empire, or beat down the hopes of the alliance by means of all the efforts the Germans could make with the submarines.

Speaks of Russia
The premier said that the news from Russia in the last few days had not been good. He thought when the revolution came that it would have the effect of postponing victory but he had expected an earlier recovery.

However, he added, "through all we have seen in the Riga region, all brave and patriotic men, know that the enemy attempt in the Riga region involved the fate of the revolution, the fate of when they would do their best to defend. Under the Russian flag, the Allies were repairing the machine which had broken down, and he was confident that in the end they would succeed.

"What I am concerned about most," the premier went on, "is not the effect which the failure of Russia would have upon the war, but the harmful effect it would have on the cause of democracy in the world."

It took a long time, he said, for oppressed people to get accustomed to freedom, as it did for free people to get accustomed to oppression.

"One thing gives me satisfaction," he continued. "German attempts to sow dissension between the Allies and the Allies have failed. Germany decided to invade Russia with the sword because all her other methods and stratagems failed."

The premier said he repudiated with scorn the calumny that England was responsible for the war.

"England drew the sword in the hour she pledged woe," he declared. "Far from being despondent about the crisis in the eastern theatre, he said further, a people should look forward to Russia with hope, because she would recover in a greater part yet before the war was over in saving the world from usian domination."

"Dark as may be the clouds in the eastern sky," he said, "there is sunshine in the banners of the Allies in the west, especially as they have won the recent success of the Italians."

"America, who has now come into the conflict, has never known defeat and on its occasion, too, she with her Allies will triumph over her foes. For all these reasons I ask you to be of stout heart, here may be stony paths to climb, but we will climb them. Our footsteps may be stained with blood, but we will reach the heights, and then in front we will see the rich valleys and plains of the new world."

Grand Headquarters of the French Army in France, Sept. 6.—(By the Associated Press).—The Vandaincourt hospital, in the region Verdun was again bombed by German aviators for six and a half hours last night. Nineteen persons were killed and twenty-six wounded. The huts attacked contained severely wounded men, who are unable to move from their cots.

The hostile airplanes flew over the hospital every twenty minutes from half past eight o'clock in the evening until three o'clock in the morning.

FRANCHISE ACT A "VOTE GETTER"

Toronto Trades and Labor Council So Declares It

SCHEME TO HOLD ON TO POWER

Legislature Government into Control Instead of Having Regard to Will of People—Estimate of Effect on Number of Voters

Toronto, Sept. 7.—The proposed franchise act of the Dominion government was condemned last night by the Toronto Trades and Labor Council. The act was termed "a vote getter," and "the government measure to legislate itself back into power by legislation and not by the vote of the people."

It is estimated that the section of the new franchise bill providing for the disfranchisement, during the period of the war, of citizens of enemy nationalities since March 31, 1900, and of Donkubors and Menonites, will mean that some 50,000 persons will be struck off the lists of voters. That number may be swelled to a greater or less extent by persons who seek the exemption from service under the conscription act as "conscientious objectors."

On the other hand it is estimated that the provision of the bill granting the ballot to mothers, wives, widows, sisters and daughters, who have attained the age of twenty-one years, of soldiers who have gone overseas, will add not fewer than 400,000 voters to the electoral roll in Canada.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY ABOUT IT.
The following comment is made by the Globe, Toronto:—"The bill is a party measure. The principle of the bill is wrong and is inconsistent with national honor and British traditions."

The Mail and Empire, Toronto:—"The opponents of the war time franchise will have themselves to blame. There would be no war time franchise bill if there were to be no war time election."

Herald-Telegraph, Montreal:—"Apparently close relationship to any soldier gives a woman the right to vote, while all the rest of the women of the dominion are declared unfit to vote. The votes attached to the soldiers may be multiplied into a million."

THE GOVERNMENT MEETING ENDED
Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 7.—The monthly meeting of the provincial government was ended this morning. A large amount of routine business was disposed of and some appointments made. The latter will be gazetted after the assent of the lieutenant-governor has been given.

Premier Foster and Hon. E. A. Smith, minister of lands and mines, accompanied by E. S. Carter, secretary of the board of directors of the St. John and Quebec Railway, motored to St. John this afternoon by the river road and it was the desire of the premier and Hon. Dr. Smith to inspect the work done on the railway between Gasquetown and Welsford.

The members of the delegation of lumbermen which was before the government yesterday returned to the North Shore last night.

GERMAN FOREIGN SECRETARY FOR PEACE
Amsterdam, Sept. 7.—The statement that the German foreign secretary, Dr. Von Kuehlmann, is in favor of a negotiated peace, is made in a despatch to the Frankfurter Zeitung, from Vienna, where the secretary recently visited.

"Dr. Von Kuehlmann's calm and steady manners," the despatch says, "made a good impression in Vienna, especially as he, like the imperial chancellor, is free from all chauvinism regarding the situation and in favor of peace by understanding."

BIG WAR LOAN IN AUSTRALIA COMING
Melbourne, Australia, Sept. 7.—The Commonwealth government has introduced a bill for a war loan of $20,000,000, of which $20,000,000 is to be floated in Australia immediately at 4 1/2 per cent. It will run for ten years and be free from income taxes.

Copenhagen, Sept. 7.—The Imperial Bank of Germany, in the last week has been compelled to put out 385,000,000 marks more paper money, bringing up the note circulation to more than 9,300,000,000 marks, which is 2,200,000,000 above the amount outstanding at the same date last year. The gold reserve of 2,400,000,000 marks on the other hand, is now 66,000,000 marks below last year.

STIRRING TALE OF BRAVERY THAT WON OFFICER VICTORIA CROSS

Lieutenant of Northampton Soon Afterwards Killed By Sniper

NINE WIN GREATEST HONOR

Ferguson and Six Men, Cat Off From Force, Carried out Attack Won Position, Disposed of Garrison and Then Captured Two Machine Guns

London, Sept. 7.—(via Reuters' Ottawa Agency).—Most stirring stories of bravery are related in the Official Gazette, in announcing nine new winners of Victoria Crosses. Five of the recipients are dead. The most remarkable one was that of Second Lieut. Thomas C. Ferguson, of the Northampton. A bad situation had come up, it was impossible for his company to adhere to its original plan of deployment, and, owing to the difficulties of the ground and the enemy's wire, he found himself with a sergeant and five men only. Nevertheless he carried out the attack, captured the enemy trench and disposed of the garrison, after which his little force successfully resisted a heavy counter-attack.

Then, assisted by an orderly only, he attacked and captured an enemy machine gun and turned it upon his enemies, killing many of them and driving many others into the hands of an adjoining British force. Later, assisted only by the sergeant, he re-attached and captured a second enemy machine gun. He was then joined by other portions of his company and so was able to consolidate the position. His conduct throughout is an amazing record of dash, gallantry and skill, for which no reward can be too great in view of the importance of the position won.

This gallant officer was soon afterwards killed by a sniper.

A WORD TO THE GERMAN PEOPLE
Theirs the Blame if They Will Not Become a Pacific Democracy

Amsterdam, Sept. 7.—In a recent speech at Warsaw, General von Beecher, governor general of the Russian territory occupied by the Germans, frankly admitted that the Germans had failed to win the sympathies of the Poles.

PLAN TO MAKE MONARCHY OF ALSACE-LORRAINE
Reichstag to Discuss Matter—Minor Reform Bill Promised

Copenhagen, Sept. 7.—It is reported by the Vossische Zeitung, of Berlin, that the question of Alsace-Lorraine probably will be discussed at the session of the Reichstag which is to be opened September 26. Presumably the discussion will relate to the erection of Alsace-Lorraine into a monarchy within the German empire.

A minor Reichstag reform bill promised by the government, granting some thirty additional seats in the Reichstag to the larger cities and the most thickly populated industrial districts, will be introduced. Other bills will be brought forward to deal with the falling birth rate. The Saxon government has refused to introduce universal suffrage on the basis of the Reichstag franchise for the Diet of Saxony.

AGAINST CONSCRIPTION
Winnipeg Unions in Referendum Show a Large Anti-Majority

Winnipeg, Sept. 7.—At a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last night a progress report was submitted in connection with a referendum vote being taken on the question as to whether unions favor the military service bill or not. Twenty unions have still to report, but the vote as it stands from thirty unions that have made their returns is 1,787 against, 739 for the enforcement of the act, the majority opposed being 1,051.

GERMAN FINANCES NOT IN GOOD SHAPE
Copenhagen, Sept. 7.—The Imperial Bank of Germany, in the last week has been compelled to put out 385,000,000 marks more paper money, bringing up the note circulation to more than 9,300,000,000 marks, which is 2,200,000,000 above the amount outstanding at the same date last year. Days of Trench Fighting as Chief Factor Are Numbered

Has More Airplanes Than Was Supposed But We Are Fast Matching Them—New Type of Warfare Favorable to the Allies

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A special cable to the Sun from London on yesterday's date says: "The most intense aerial activity that has been seen at any time, since the war began is in progress on both sides on the western front. It is taken here to mean a possible approach of the turning point in strategy. While trench warfare continues in some areas, both the British and French staffs say its days as a dominating factor in the situation are numbered."

Two years ago the leaders of both armies were speculating how to get the armies safely out of the trenches. Apparently the problem has been solved by the slow development of events instead of by the supreme genius of any Napoleonic commander.

"Under the present system there is no longer any sharp line of demarcation between the opposing forces. Instead they are scattered apparently in a promiscuous way over a wide belt of country. Shell holes, fortified concealed posts and concrete pill boxes are taking the place of trenches."

"Letters from soldiers at the front declare the new warfare is much more horrible than when trenches were used. The trench positions, shell holes and concrete pill boxes are scattered about in such a mixed and confused manner that it is impossible even for those officers who have been long familiar with the ground to be certain whether a given shell hole is occupied by friendly or enemy troops. A mistake is usually fatal, for when the enemy's machine guns open fire the despatch is a blundering party follows quickly."

"While the shell holes have been converted into permanent ponds of bottom-land, the ground between them has dried and become fine dust, almost as difficult as mud when an attempt is made to move artillery. The soldiers contented by this condition are striving desperately on both sides for the mastery of the air, each desiring to monopolize the privilege of observing the enemy."

"The Germans have demonstrated that they have many more airplanes than was supposed, permitting them to conduct constant raids on England, and simultaneously to make descents along the whole battle line. The British and French staffs are pleased with the development of the new warfare, although it has temporarily checked the Allies' advance."

"They are confident that they will be able to stop the air raids in time. An immense American contribution of airplanes is expected and an early increase in the British production."

"The new type of warfare is regarded as especially favorable to the Allies as it gives wider play to the individuality of the soldiers and minor officers, in which the English, French and Americans are much superior to the Germans."

"The Allies are confident also that they will have soon an overwhelming superiority in the production and use of gas, which is even now an important method of fighting. The British especially have developed most efficient methods of using gas, and are confident that they will have soon an overwhelming superiority in the production and use of gas, which is even now an important method of fighting. Has More Airplanes Than Was Supposed But We Are Fast Matching Them—New Type of Warfare Favorable to the Allies

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The World publishes a despatch from London saying numerous large conflagrations are said to have occurred recently near the German lines, particularly in the Lille sector, and it is believed that these fires indicate that the Germans may be planning another winter withdrawal to a new line, as they did after the battle of the Somme.

It is also reported that thousands of the French population in the same section of German occupied territory are being sent back within the French lines, via Switzerland, presumably to conserve food supplies and reduce the civilian population to a minimum in the areas where the heavy fighting may take place. London suspects, however, that this shifting of the enemy may be but another indication of the Germans' intention to retire.

Situation in Petrograd.
Petrograd, Sept. 7.—Though Petrograd, in the opinion of various military authorities, is in no immediate danger on account of the fall of Riga, preparations against the eventuality of an unexpected night in the neighborhood of Lens and the Ypres-Menin road.

SOME AMATEUR GROWERS FEAR BUT LITTLE CROP OF POTATOES WILL BE THEIRS

Some of the amateur farmers raising potato crops this year are a bit doubtful at present as to the success of the venture owing to the rust which appeared on a somewhat serious scale in several sections near the city caused, it is said, by the continued wet weather early in the summer. The crops on the whole on the city lands out the Manawagonish road are reported pretty fair so far as can be judged. Some have dug up new potatoes and found considerable evidence of rot while others say they will have a good yield.

Time Against U-Boat Work

High British Naval Authority Says Every Prospect of Neutralizing Shipping Losses

London, Sept. 6.—(via Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—In conversation with a representative of Reuter's, a high British naval authority, speaking of the submarine menace, said it must be remembered that Germany was staking everything on U-boat warfare; therefore signs of its intensification were not surprising. There are indications, he said, of larger submarines, approximately of the cruiser type, being turned out. However, Germany has no prospect of success within the time she is likely to be at her disposal, for with Germany there must be a time limit.

"In combating the submarine," he said, "we are being greatly and increasingly helped by the United States and Japan." As regards offensive measures and anti-submarine work, naturally precise features could not be given, but the outlook is hopeful. He added: "We are proceeding at full speed in our offensive steps, and in the near future there is every prospect of our being able to neutralize shipping losses."

THE BEST QUALITY AT A REASONABLE PRICE The Danger of "Far Sight" This defect is called Hypermetropia and is not that one can see farther, but that the eye is adjusted to a point beyond the common one for close work. Instead of seeing best when a book is 12 or 15 inches from the eye, it must be farther away. "Far Sight" is especially common among school children. It is dangerous because of the severe eye-strain it causes. Proper glasses will correct "far sight." Have us examine your child's eyes now, before he settles down to the hard work of the new term. L. Major Ralston has been in the thick of the fighting in all the recent battles. Josselyn's Wife is coming.

MOVIE PEOPLE ARRIVING FOR CONVENTION HERE Prominent people in the motion picture business in the maritime provinces and others from farther afield began to arrive in the city today for the meetings of the Motion Picture Exhibitors' League here. Some came in on the train from Moncton, and several parties who motored to Digby from Nova Scotia were expected to arrive on the cross-the-bay steamer this afternoon. Others will come tonight and tomorrow. In its business and social features, the gathering promises to be a big affair. Among those who arrived in the city this morning were L. E. Oulmit, general manager of the Pathe interests in Canada; Charles Haguy, manager of the Universal Film Company, Toronto; and L. Rosenfelt, manager of the Famous Players, Toronto. Josselyn's Wife is coming.

PRICES IN THE CITY MARKET The prices of commodities show little change in the local market for this week. The feature of the market is the scarcity of butter, which remains firm at from forty-five to fifty cents a pound. Fresh eggs are little better at fifty cents a dozen. It is prophesied that before the end of the winter butter will reach from sixty to seventy-five cents. Beef is quoted at ten to thirty-five cents a pound; lamb, twenty-five to thirty-five cents; veal, twenty to thirty, pork, twenty-eight to thirty-four, chickens, forty to forty-five cents, and fowls at thirty-five cents. Cucumbers are three cents, corn from eighteen to twenty-five cents, a dozen, squash four cents, a pound, cauliflower ten to twenty-five cents each, beets and carrots five cents a bunch, and cabbage six to ten cents each. Josselyn's Wife is coming.

Mischievous Talk of Peace

Statement Made By Sir Edward Carson

Time Has Not Arrived

German Militarism Must Be Crushed and People Made to See That Their Forces Are Not Invincible

London, Sept. 7.—Coincidentally with the announcement that Premier Lloyd George will deliver an important speech on the war aims of the Allies at Birkenhead today, the newspapers give prominence to a statement by Sir Edward Carson to a correspondent. He declares:—

"There is a great deal of very loose and mischievous talk about peace. Some people seem to imagine we have only to conclude a treaty with Germany and all will be well, but I should like to ask what is to happen then? Are the nations of the world to proceed with preparations for the next conflict, to pursue their researches in science for expansion and creation of still more deadly weapons of warfare, to spend their resources in the creation of enormous cohorts of airplanes and submarines for the destruction of unfortified towns and the murder of innocent women and children that inhabit them; to take advantage of the experiences gained in the war in the improvement of lethal and poisonous gases for the destruction of humanity? And are we to live in daily terror that at any moment another conflict may arise which might almost lead to the extinction of civilization itself? Germany's Broken Plagues.

"The truth is a treaty of peace does not necessarily secure peace in the only sense wherein it can be of any real use to progress and humanity. We talk plausibly about a league of nations to enforce peace without considering conditions essential to its success. But there was a league of nations to protect Belgium; there were solemn treaties and conventions at the Hague to apply the principles of humanity as far as possible in war and give effect to international law. How did these avail on the outbreak of the war?"

Sir Edward then quotes the German emperor as saying there is no international law, that treaties are scraps of paper and so forth, and adds:—"I have not yet seen a single suggestion made as to how in future these calamities are to be prevented from recurring if the lawless temper of the Germans remains unrepentant and their power to repeat their crimes remains just in proportion to the military defeat of Germany is incomplete the duration of peace will be short. Whatever terms Germany might now bring herself to accept in order to recuperate her strength for another aggression, her people would soon forget such terms, and she would remain convinced that she proved themselves invincible."

"President Wilson is right when he declares no terms signed by the present rulers of Germany would afford the slightest security for the peace of the world, and nothing is more certain than that in proportion to the military defeat of Germany is incomplete the duration of peace will be short. Whatever terms Germany might now bring herself to accept in order to recuperate her strength for another aggression, her people would soon forget such terms, and she would remain convinced that she proved themselves invincible."

Sir Edward asserted that if this war is to put an end to all war, German militarism must be sufficiently crushed to make fresh aggression by her impossible for a long time to come, and until it is no longer possible for the German people themselves to be deluded by the legend of their invincibility in arms."

In conclusion he said that it was obvious that Great Britain must carry on the war until such a victory is attained as will remove all practical danger of war in the future, "and any man who tries, whatever his motive be, to distract the attention of the country from this goal of deliverance is the worst enemy of real peace."

Children, Lena Stillinger, eleven, and her sister, Ina, aged eight.

On man was taken into custody, but was released because of insufficient evidence.

J. N. Wilkerson, a Kansas City detective, became associated with the investigation, and in the spring of 1916 William Mansfield returned here to face a grand jury investigation, which ended with the refusal of the body to indict him.

Wilkerson began holding public mass meetings, and as the result of certain utterances he is alleged to have made F. F. Jones, a merchant of Villisca and a former state senator, brought suit against the detective for $80,000 damages, charging the detective with slander.

After a sensational trial in November, 1916, Wilkerson was acquitted. The defence introduced evidence intended to show implication of Jones and his son, Albert, in the axe murders.

H. M. Havner assumed the office of attorney general of Iowa in 1917, and with a special assistant appointed for the case, appeared before the grand jury with the announced intention of refuting the charges against Jones.

In April Jones and his son were exonerated by the grand jury, which later renewed and indicted Kelly.

Wilkerson the detective, declared Kelly had no connection with the crime, and the controversy between Kelly and the state department of justice became bitter. Attorney General Havner finally obtained a temporary injunction restraining Wilkerson from holding further years ago. He was graduated from a public meetings in Iowa or seeking to influence witnesses or officials connected with the trial of Kelly.

Kelly is married and came to the United States from England about ten years ago. He was graduated from a seminary in Omaha in 1912. At the time of the axe murders he was student at the seminary, but preached at Macedonia, Iowa, and Villisca on alternate Sundays.

The Murder of a Family of Eight Laid To Minister

All Were Slain With Axe As They Slept

Parents and Six Children

In Alleged Confession, Afterwards Repudiated, Clergyman Said to Have Confessed and Given Scripture Texts as Reason For Crime

Red Oak, Iowa, Sept. 7.—Rev. Lyn George J. Kelly has been placed on trial in the District Court here on an indictment charging him with the murder of Lena Stillinger, aged eleven, one of eight persons slain with an axe at the house of J. B. Moore, in Villisca, Iowa, on June 9, 1912. A special venire of seventy-five men was called from which to select a jury.

The clergyman, an itinerant, said to have made a confession, which, however, he afterward repudiated. In his alleged confession Kelly was quoted as having said that the Biblical texts "Slay utter thy" and "Suffer little children to come unto me," impelled him to kill Moore, the latter's wife and their four children, besides the Stillinger child and one other girl.

Kelly was arrested on May 14. He pleaded not guilty May 15, and was removed to the county jail at Logan, where the alleged confession was made.

The arrest of the clergyman marked the most startling of a series of sensational events growing out of the murders at Villisca, a town of 2,000 population, in Montgomery County, which were an unsuccessful $60,000 slander suit, a grand jury operation of a former state senator and his son, and a bitter controversy between the state department of justice and a private detective investigating the case.

DR. ROBERTSON'S MESSAGE

No man who comes to St. John is heard with keener interest than Dr. James W. Robertson, for the reason that his message is always of serious import, presented with instant and sustained attention. On his present visit he asks the citizens to join in a practical, nationwide movement to release more food for export to the war-stricken lands across the sea where humanity's battle is being fought, and where suffering of the most terrible nature is being inflicted upon millions of people.

The response to Dr. Robertson's appeal should be the more prompt and universal because it does not involve any real sacrifice or any suffering at all on the part of the people of St. John. No man, woman or child will be one whit worse off as a result of the carrying out of the food controller's suggestions. The family physician invariably warns us against over-eating, and prescribes simpler diet, and what is good in time of illness is not bad in times of health. To substitute other foods for wheat bread, beef and bacon to the extent asked, will be no real hardship, and as a matter of fact the high price of meats has already produced many forced abstainers among the poorer people.

GOVERNMENT SHOULD ACT.

"If there is such a crop failure in 1918 as was experienced in 1916, from all human judgment can discern, there will be the inevitable starvation of millions of people."—Dr. James W. Robertson.

"An agricultural crime" is the designation the Farmer's Magazine applies to the failure of the Dominion government to make a real effort to speed up farm production, especially in the line of wheat, oats, rye and beans. Reviewing the three years of the war, this magazine declares that while advice has been poured out to the farmers, there has been no real work done by the government.

"What has been done? How have we shown up at the end of the third year in our total returns of field crops and animal produce? Had a kind Providence not showered on us, in 1915, one of the greatest harvests in recent times, even to the extent almost of the miraculous, and have kept up the normal in each succeeding year, where would all our urgent exhortations have been? And why, about 1918, the year that will see the world nearest to the starving point since the time of the Ptolemies. Practically there is nothing done. Inexplicably, bustling from one proclamation to another, draws nothing big but its salary. The excuse for inaction cannot be hidden under the creation of new offices to handle the situation. Farmers and everybody are sick to nausea of advice. Producers have done wonderfully well this year. No one who knows what is going on in the big open spaces of the whole country can question the patriotism of the farmers. Talk is cheap, and plans are as numerous as the sands, but it takes man power, horse power, up-to-date machinery, mechanical power, soil fertility, good seasons and markets, that are not here today and gone tomorrow, to greatly increase the nation's food supply. Fore most of all what is wanted is leadership in this agricultural wilderness. Something ought to be done, in a big state-line way to markedly increase the production of the chief food crops, such as wheat, oats, rye, and beans. And he done now. It is criminal to expect these extra supplies to come out of a soil that needs the fertility of phosphates and potash in many cases; out of a depleted man-power on the farm, out of a low equipment of mechanical power, with the ever hovering bogey of uncertain prices before the producer, without the active intervention of the state in the controlling of transportation, in the marshalling of power machinery into the fields, or the turning of skilled labor into the work. A state justifies itself only by serving all its people. The getting of food supplies is as amenable to the laws of cause and effect as is the over-supply of shells. We get what we go after—in the right way. We can get the wheat if we want it. Lloyd George is getting and that, without the farmers standing to lose out. In Canada we have, as every student of agriculture knows, an enormous capacity for production of a variety of human food of the highest quality. Millions of acres of the finest fertility, out-of-doors are scattered, in stretches, all over this great country. We very much doubt whether there is a land under heaven that surpasses equals its un-failing annual output. For any department not to consider the problem of such importance, while in the midst of the most energetic accomplishment at the task is nothing short of criminal. Surely it is not too late yet for the Dominion Department of Agriculture to shake itself free and to get something done."

The Farmer's Magazine contends that there is no excuse for a condition under which there is certain to be less plowing this year than usual in the eastern provinces, while in the west there has not been any concerted action to bring new areas under cultivation, although next year's need for food supplies will be infinitely greater than that of the present year. Then it goes on:

"It is useless to say that more could not be done. Leaders do things. If we had a wide-awake leader of the Agricultural Department at Ottawa the whole plan of crop production could have been drafted long ago and all the forces mobilized to that end, in a way that would have amazed the Empire. He could have carried the tractor into every part of the country. He could have had the tractor plants producing the engines just as the munition plants are turning out a surplus of shells. Engineering schools for teaching their operation would have been provided at every experiment station and agricultural college. Tractors would have been sent to the fields in plenty and the main difficulties of the operating of the machines overcome. Greater use would have been made of the tractors we have in the country. Many are lying idle half the time. Others are resting in fence corners for the lack of competent operators. Let the government establish training schools, get the men out riding these iron horses to food victories and assist the farmers in their call for help. Hundreds of farmers want to buy light tractors. They find the price too high. Why not pay the duty for the fifteen days, John! The what are our exporters waiting for? Why don't they do it?"

Why, indeed? Simply because the Borden government is utterly incompetent to give the country leadership in anything. It issues proclamations, appoints controllers who do not control, and commissions that are of no practical service. In conclusion the Farmer's Magazine advocates a minimum price for the next wheat crop and says:

"Munition workers are being let out by the thousands in Canada. These could be induced by a good wage paid by the government to go into tractor plowing now. It would be impossible to put a million acres of fall wheat in Ontario and another million in Saskatchewan and Alberta, Quebec and the maritimes could increase their acreage of fall rye, a splendid and sure crop could be largely increased in the fall, while the preparation of all plowing of all farm lands in Ontario as never before, would ensure as nothing else a bumper yield in 1918. Moreover, our eastern soils need phosphates. These could be rushed into all the district representative centres and distributed to the farmers sowing wheat this fall. The charges could thus be reduced considerably and a better crop assured. With the federal department rest, and the province alive to this work, it could infuse into the provincial organizations the needed help and inspiration. The harmonious teamwork of these big organized units, would assure a doubling of Canada's wheat production in every province in a short time." To sleep on is criminal.

A PARTISAN MEASURE

The first fact that seems to stand out in the new franchise bill is that while every disloyal Nationalist in Quebec may vote the naturalized alien who is thoroughly loyal is barred. With regard to women, only the immediate relatives of soldiers overseas are given the franchise, thus discriminating against the great army of childless women and married or single women who had no near relatives of military age, but who have to the full extent of their ability made sacrifices ever since the war began. The women of Ontario and the west, who have the provincial franchise, are not to get the federal.

But we are told that the most serious feature of the bill is the power it gives to partisan appointees of the government to manipulate the voters' lists. The control of the election machinery and the preparation of the lists will be in the hands of the government machine. That the bill has been framed for partisan purposes rather than as an instrument to record the will of the people appears to be clear. That some of its provisions will be bitterly fought by the opposition is not less clear.

The announcement of the capture of Monte San Gabriele by the Italians was premature. They captured the summit several times, but were each time thrown back. They will not rest, however, until their object is attained.

Premier Lloyd George, in an address yesterday, declared his conviction that the British Empire would soon triumph in the war. Let us hope his optimism is well-founded and that it will be soon.

The Muddle At Ottawa. (Halifax Chronicle). It will be generally admitted that the national affairs of Canada are in a chaotic state at the present time. There is no doubt that the Borden government has forfeited the confidence of the country and is desperately clinging to power with the hope that something favorable will be decreed to see in her not a poor relation, but a Moses.

J. Roderick & Son. British Street. Phone Main 854. The present indications are that the pending election will be run on straight party lines. There is no doubt that the Borden government is responsible for the present muddled conditions of affairs at Ottawa. The government has persisted in a policy which, while it had the approval of the big interests, has alienated the support of the great mass of the people of Canada. Not only in military affairs, but in all matters affecting the welfare of the people there has been gross bungling and mal-administration. The government has encouraged the profiteers and food pirates and the common people of the country, the farmers and working-men have been bleated. The Toronto Globe put the case plainly and accurately a short time ago when it said:

"The failure of Sir Robert Borden to organize the National sentiment of Quebec behind the war is a blunder that could not have been made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier had he been at the head of the war cabinet in this crisis. The lack of vision and statesmanship shown by the prime minister in his dealing with Quebec might be forgiven, but the country cannot overlook the fact that when the opportunity came to him to fill the role of elder statesman and leader of the nation in a great war, he chose instead the crooked path of the partisan and plot politician when the grave necessities of the times called for wise leadership and unity of action. Canada is the only country that is muddling through this war. Every other belligerent nation is organized to the highest point of efficiency. More has been accomplished in a month in the United States in the mobilization of that country's war resources than has been attempted during the thirty-four months of war in Canada."

ONE WOMAN'S DEVOTION. The war numbers its victims far behind the fighting lines among men as well as men. Such a victim is the young wife of a man in the Royal Naval Air Service who was employed in a munition factory and lost her right arm in an explosion last year. Subsequently she became a mother, and handicapped as she was, did her best for the child. It was heavy work, but at this stage the Royal Surgical Aid Society stepped in and provided her gratuitously with an artificial arm and hand, which enabled her to carry on her work. By means of its special war fund this well-known society has helped many such victims.

THE MILK QUESTION

To the Editor of The Times-Star, Sir,—Kindly allow me a small space in your paper re Commissioner McEllan's remarks and the milk question. The farmer and dealer and the increased cost of milk. I do not think from a fair-play point of view Mr. McEllan gives the dealer a fair chance. He seems to lay all the blame on him. To my notion and from personal experience the dealer is not to blame. Neither is the farmer to blame. But when Mr. McEllan told his hearers the difference between the prices of feed now and a year or so ago of from $28 to $36 he hit the right trail. But he forgot to explain why it was that there was any need of paying 30 cents for a pound of beefsteak so tough that it would give

Now, if he will tell the public why there is such a difference I will tell him who is to blame. Here is the way it looks. The milkman or speculator will start the fight and stand back and watch the farmer and the dealer and public fight it out. It is not fair for a man if he gets struck from behind to hit the next one ahead of him. Suppose it is a baby. Let him turn and fight the one that struck him. Now the farmer is a very good man, and the dealer is not too bad a man, but we want the authorities to place the blame on the guilty speculator and do not allow him to prey on the innocent.

Look at the coal, flour and bread. Look at the price of beef and pork. Is there any need of paying 30 cents for a pound of beefsteak so tough that it would give

Mr. Carvell Then and Now

(Moncton Transcript.)

Frank B. Carvell has discovered how hollow are the expressions of appreciation by Tory political leaders and Tory journalists. It seems that it was only yesterday, when they were trying to induce him to enter into Borden's cabinet, that they were most effusive in their admiration, but that day has gone. Mr. Frank Carvell, after a few moments of respectability in the eyes of Tory Journalists has become one of the most objectionable of politicians. His character in their estimation really does not compare with that of Fleming, John Wesley Allison, the men who robbed the Valley Railway treasury or sold white horses painted black for the soldiers—these constitute the men placed on pedestals by the Tories for public admiration.

Mr. Carvell was lauded as the ideal forthcoming minister of war, but the moment he pays a little attention to war matters and wants to initiate reforms upon which alone can a successful expeditionary force be maintained in France and England, he is the worst of men. A few days since in parliament he pointed out that in one military district there were no fewer than one hundred and seventy-six officers with the whole letters of the alphabet tagged after their names, who in bomb proof positions were drawing large salaries. Nearly all the Conservative doctors in the district were informed and employed in drawing their salaries. In New Brunswick he added that the number of officers drawing pay seemed to be legion. Although they were drawing pay for two or three years past, it would seem that they were rendering no military service whatever. It was a scandal. The majority of these officers were married and although they did not go to the front, yet their wives were drawing large separation allowances. The wasteful cost for this one division to the military department was $400,000, which with the separation allowances brought the total up to $600,000. No wonder that Mr. Pardee, a conscientious Liberal, said with disgust at this revelation of the government's incompetence that there should be a reform and the saving of money go to our wounded soldiers.

It was a splendid suggestion thrown out by Mr. Carvell but shocking to the nerves of those conscientious military men who stay at home. That the first thing the government should do under the conscription bill was to conscript as private all the officers in these safety bases. The whole administration of the military department is a disgrace to the government and the sooner the people of Canada change the government, the sooner will they get rid of the disgrace.

a person lockjaw? When you look at all the nice young heifers going to the slaughterhouse in East St. John then you start thinking about the milk shortage. Now is a golden time to curb the speculator. Yours,

No Price Fixing For Meat And Dairy Products

Hoover Says That is Not in Washington's Plan But it is Hoped to Eliminate Speculation

Washington, Sept. 7.—Price fixing for meat and dairy products has no place in the government's food control plan, Herbert Hoover, the food administrator, yesterday told the national live stock conference.

So long as there is a heavy demand for meat, with a decreased production, Mr. Hoover said, meat prices will continue to soar.

Lieut. Gordon Tufts Killed

Former St. John Man Who Had Won Military Cross - Other News of Our Soldiers in War

The casualty list issued from Ottawa yesterday contains very few New Brunswick names. The city will mourn the loss of one brave soldier in the person of Lieutenant Gordon H. Tufts, of Medicine Hat, but up to a few years ago a well known and popular young man of St. John. News of his death in France has come to friends in the city. A Newcastle man, himself in khaki, has received word that his second son has been wounded in Flanders when only last April he was called upon to mourn the death of another boy on the battlefields of Europe.

Word of the death of Lieutenant Tufts reached the city yesterday and came to J. G. Willett, with whom Lieutenant Tufts was associated for many years in a business way in the Willett Fruit Company.

Lieutenant Tufts was about twenty-eight years of age, and was born in St. John. His father, Frank Tufts, was a well known lumber merchant in South ward years ago. Lieutenant Tufts was prior to his removal to the west, located in business with the Willett Fruit Company, of which concern he was secretary-treasurer. About four years ago he left St. John and settled in Medicine Hat. During the progress of the war he enlisted and received his commission in an infantry corps, with which he went to France, leaving behind his wife, one small child, his mother and sister. While at the front Lieutenant Tufts distinguished himself and had a brilliant career. Readers of The Telegraph will recall an account of conspicuous bravery on his part some few months ago for which he received the military cross. He was also mentioned in despatches for feats of gallantry. Another brother, Sergeant Raymond Tufts, is also in Flanders, and has also received official recognition for bravery on the field.

Letters received by comrades in Medicine Hat tell of the career that Lieutenant Tufts has had and the name he has made for himself at the front. Lieutenant Tufts was one of the most promising young men of the city when he went west. He had numerous friends and was a general favorite. Lieutenant Tufts' widow was formerly

WHAT AN IRISH-AMERICAN COP WOULD DO

(Air to the tune of "Where do we go from here, boys") When this war is over, liddle boy, just take it straight from me, You will see no German submarines a diving through the sea, For the fatherland of Kaiser Bill, the guy we are going to strike Will have a brand new Kaiser, and by gosh he'll be a Mike. We'll change their tune Die Watch on Rhine into an Irish reel And have those Dutchmen dance to it if that's the way we feel. For the cops then in Berlin will be Mike's from County Clare When we put an Irish Kaiser in the palace over there.

Sure in every German parkway you will see a sweet colonel, While their fields of waving sauerkraut will plant with shamrock green. No liverwort, no sausage, when the Dutchman drinks his suds; He will eat corn-beef and cabbage and some damn good Irish spuds. Their murderous guns and gas bombs we'll make them throw away, And have them use Shillelugs or bricks of Irish clay. They will sport no iron crosses, sure 'tis shamrock they will wear When we put an Irish Kaiser in the palace over there.

When Kaiser Bill has paid in full and settled up the score We'll send Hindenburg and all the Vons onto some foreign shore; Instead of Dutchland Uber Alles, they'll sing the Hary of Tarras Hall. Or Reilly had no friends there, The night of Hogan's ball. On the Palace Green in Berlin then the bands will gaily play Rule Britannia, Yankee Doodle and Sweet St. Patrick's Day; Sure 'tis then we'll take their helmets allcaulens they'll have to wear. When we put an Irish Kaiser in the palace over there.

PRIVATE LORNE F. THOMAS, eighteen years of age, son of Mrs. Edwin Thomas, 241 Brussels street, previously reported in The Times as "killed in action."

PRIVATE T. BYDNE McNAMARA, one of two brothers reported recently as being wounded. He is a son of Mrs. P. J. McNamara, St. Stephen, but formerly of this city.

Miss Elsie Gordon, of Medicine Hat, and his child, mother and a sister are in the west. He has many relatives in this city who will have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow. St. George, Sept. 5.—Wellington Thompson, of Black's Harbor was killed in action on Aug. 21. Word was received last week. He was the son of James Thompson and was twenty-seven years of age. Three brothers joined the 112th. His brother West is now at the front in the same regiment. The boys went overseas with the 112th and were transferred into the 20th. Wellington was a good soldier and has "fought the good fight" and died with many of his comrades. Word has been received in the city that Major Charles Leonard, D. S. O., was suffering from the effects of sun stroke, but is reported now to be almost completely recovered. Recent advices received in the city also says that Captain Wood, adjutant of the 20th Battalion, is suffering from trench fever and is in hospital in France. Late word brings the good news that he is recovering and will soon be on duty again. Many friends in the city of both officers will hear with pleasure that they are reported to be improving.

Moncton Soldier Killed. Word was received today by David D. Cormier that his son, Pte. Mariell David Cormier, was killed in action on August 28. His brother, Alfre, was badly wounded at Vimy Ridge. Pte. Cormier was formerly employed in the I. C. R. shops and enlisted in October

Help to Save Canada's Fruit Crop A Practical Thrift Suggestion. This year, as never before, every quart of Canada's fruit crop should be used to the very best advantage. Though it all ripens within four months, it can be made to supply every table, every day in the year, at moderate cost. Canning and preserving, done at home at the time when each fruit is cheapest, provide in delicious and economical form the daily fruit so necessary in a wholesome diet. Fruit put up at home is much cheaper than that which you buy, and the slight increase in its cost, due to the higher price of sugar, is small compared with the mounting cost of other foods. Successful preserving and canning are by no means difficult, either, if you are careful to boil everything, and use Redpath SUGAR. Buy it, according to the quantity you need, in 2 or 5 lb. Cartons, or in 10, 20, 50 or 100 lb. Bags. "Let Redpath Sweeten It" CANADA SUGAR REFINING CO., LIMITED, MONTREAL.

Another Win For Canadians

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, Sept. 6.—(By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press).—Another of the small surprise attacks which almost nightly reduce the area within Lens still remaining in the enemy's hands took place at 3.30 this (Thursday) morning, and resulted in the capture of a row of houses occupied by four companies of the 1st Regiment, 1st Guards Division. Men from British Columbia, accustomed in civil life to finding their way about, did the work and did it well, sustaining few casualties themselves while inflicting a considerable number on the enemy. The affair had some uncommon features which serve to show how shrewdly our men carry on warfare among the ruined houses of Lens. London, Sept. 6.—The official report from British headquarters in France tonight reads: "On Wednesday there was again great activity in the air. The enemy on several occasions interrupted the work of our artillery machines and attacked our airplanes employed on long-distance bombing raids. A few bombs were dropped behind our lines by hostile machines during the night; little damage was done. "During the day our machines dropped eight bombs on railway sidings near Ghent, five on large sheds at Mauseberg, fifty-four on billets around Douai, thirty-eight on airdromes east-northeast of Cambrai and sixty-one on various other targets. "During the night ten bombs were dropped by our airplanes on airdromes near Courtrai, eight on an airdrome east of Lille, and twenty-eight on other targets. "In the air fighting yesterday five enemy machines were brought down and five others were driven down out of control. Three of our machines are missing.

IT IS THE PROVED CIRCULATION THAT GETS THE BUSINESS

(Halifax Mail).
Ralph H. Watts, advertising manager of the St. John Telegraph and Times, is spending a few days in Halifax. Mr. Watts is one of the best known advertising men in eastern Canada, and is an enthusiast for the Audit Bureau of Circulations, of which The Telegraph and Times are members. Mr. Watts believes that business men who buy space are entitled to know exactly what they are getting for their money, and he predicts that it is only a matter of a short time until all newspapers will HAVE TO play the game honestly and give the advertiser full details of circulation. The fact that The Telegraph and Times secure the lion's share of (full rate) advertising in the sister city is largely due to the fact that they HAVE the circulation and they give their advertisers facts regarding its distribution.

GERMANS NOW ARE STRIPPING BELGIUM OF HER MACHINERY

Havre, Sept. 7.—Information which has reached the Belgian government from beyond the lines shows that what is left of Belgian manufacturing machinery is being systematically taken out of the country or destroyed when not removed. The machines have been taken from all the factories in La Providence and other near-by places. These advices say that when the manager of the Providence mills protested to the German officer in command against the proceeding he was told that the orders from Berlin were to empty Belgium of its manufacturing resources, so that nothing could be produced there.

France To Triple Output of Ships

Paris, Sept. 7.—France expects to be able to construct three times as many vessels for the merchant marine during 1918 as during normal times before the war according to official announcement made today. "A minute survey of the situation has just been completed by Anatole de Monzie, under-secretary of merchant marine," says the announcement, "which he conducted for the purpose of establishing precisely what supplies of metal and materials are available, what quays, docks and slips can be counted on, and what labor is at hand. His investigations convince him that he can triple the peace-time tonnage."

ELECTION BILL WITH EAR-MARKS OF DESIGN TO GAIN VOTES FOR GOVERNMENT

In those provinces, however, the unlimited right to swearing in voters on the day of polling was considered unjust to the opposition and this right is now restricted by making such votes subject afterwards to judicial review. Challenging Voters.

"Provision is also made for challenging a voter who has been placed on the list by the enumerator and not his ballot also subject to judicial review. This method is extended as well to the province of Prince Edward Island, where there are no lists that can be adopted. In the other provinces the lists already prepared and now in the course of preparation provincially, will be used and only such enumeration will be made as is required to place the qualified women voters on the list and to erase such names as cannot vote under the clause respecting aliens. It has been the intention of the government that absolute fairness should characterize the making of the lists and all machinery for the making of the lists and it is believed that this bill so provides."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier—"I do not rise on this occasion to discuss the merits of the measure which has just been introduced. I simply rise for the purpose of asking questions on some points which I think I have rightly understood, because the explanations of my honorable friend were lucid, but I desire to be doubly sure. I understand from my honorable friend that he has taken the provincial franchise qualifications because in the five provinces of Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, women have now the franchise, but under this legislation the women of those provinces with the exception of those who happen to be relatives of men who have enlisted are deprived of the franchise. Am I right in that?"

Mr. Meighen—"Yes, except for the two main features of the bill, the enfranchisement of women relatives of soldiers and the disenfranchisement of recently arrived persons of alien enemy birth or extraction, and conscientious objectors, the provincial franchise is adopted."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier—"Am I right in this? That while in the western provinces of Ontario and the western provinces have today under the laws of those provinces, the right to vote, the will, with the exception of those who are qualified as the relatives of the men who have enlisted, not have the right to vote in this election?"

Mr. Meighen—"That is correct."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier—"I am glad to hear that. In regard to Ontario, I understand that my honorable friend takes as the franchise list the list made up the month of December of last year, under the act which was repealed recently by the provincial legislature. The province of Ontario has provided for a new franchise, the vote being given to the women, and for a new method of making up the list. I understand from a cursory reading of this act that the former act was abolished and was no longer in force. But my honorable friend takes the list made up in the month of December last and makes it the basis of this measure."

AGAIN TALK OF ARREST IN THE WILLIAMS CASE
Talk of an arrest for the murder of Harry L. Williams is renewed. There was no evidence given before Coroner F. L. Kenney's court of inquiry last evening, but the coroner proceeded to bind over Silas B. Gregg, Stanley Hawhurst and Miss Langley to give evidence, if called upon, at the next sitting of the circuit court. No reason was given for this course, but the conclusion is that their evidence is considered material in connection with a clue upon which the police are working.

CITY WATER WORK

The Water and sewerage department is today laying a new eight-inch pipe in Long wharf. The work of replacing the old four-inch pipe with the eight-inch was started at the first of the week, and in the course of a few days the job will be finished.

RAILWAY MEN IN TOWN

W. H. Snell, Montreal, general passenger agent of the C. P. R. eastern lines, and A. B. Calder, assistant general passenger agent, are in the city today. They have been looking about town in company with N. R. DesBrisay, district passenger agent of the C. P. R. Tomorrow the party is going to Charlottetown.

COAL AND MILK

Mayor Hayes, this morning, speaking of the council's action in the milk and coal situation, said that as yet there are no new developments. Word went to a coal concern with reference to supplying the city with 10,000 tons, but no answer as yet has been received. As the milk situation, he said nothing new had transpired.

SHIP WORK PROGRESSING

Work on the first vessel being built at Grant & Horn's shipyard at Courtenay Bay is progressing favorably. The moulds have been made and the frames started and everything is working smoothly. One hundred and twenty-five men are employed at the works and more are expected in order to rush the work through.

THE MIRAMICHI PILOTS.

Up to September 1, season of 1916, 120 vessels paid Miramichi pilotage to amount of $74,847.04. Up to Sept. 1, 1917, nine vessels have paid pilotage to the amount of $1,045.50. The Chatham World contends that the pilots in this exceptional year.

A NAVAL OFFICER.

Assistant Paymaster J. B. Cameron of the navy, and son of R. K. Cameron, of this city, is visiting his home, en route to headquarters at Ottawa. Mr. Cameron was formerly on the reporting staff of the Omaha World-Herald, but in last April he enlisted in the navy and has since been in Halifax. He is now transferred to Ottawa. He has a brother an officer, who has made an excellent record in France.

PARTICULARLY SAD CASE

The many friends of C. Harry Coggin of the 140th Battalion, now overseas, sympathize with him in the sudden death of his wife, which occurred on Sept. 3, while she was under medical treatment in this city. Just one year ago, on Sept. 8, Mr. Coggin lost his mother under the same circumstances, soon after he left for the front, and he was not able to see either wife or mother in their last hours. Word of her critical condition had been sent to him, and it is expected that he is on his way home, in hope of seeing her.

DEATH OF GEORGE EDWARD DAY.

Many will leave with regret of the death of George Edward Day of Pokok road, which occurred early this morning at his residence. Mr. Day was well known in the North End and also throughout the province as until about fifteen years ago, he was engaged in the lumbering business. He was eighty years old and leaves his wife, four sons, Manfred of this city and Edward, John and Frank at home; two daughters, Mrs. J. H. Flewelling and Mrs. Alfred Vadenburg both of this city and one sister Mrs. Alfred Watters of West St. John. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon.

REV. HARRY H. UPTON WEDS MAINE GIRL

On Sept. 5, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. O. Hayes, Belfast, Me., the youngest daughter of the family, Mary, was united in marriage to Rev. Harry H. Upton, pastor of the Baptist church at Northeast Harbor. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, Capt. J. O. Hayes, the ceremony was attended by only the immediate relatives.

After spending two weeks in Belfast, Me., and Mrs. Upton will go to Northeast Harbor, where they will make their home for the present. Mr. Upton was graduated from Colby June and ordained as pastor of the Northeast Harbor Baptist church in July. He is a native of St. John, N. B., and prepared for college at Mt. Herman, Northfield, Mass.

Mrs. Upton was graduated from the Belfast High school in 1915, and spent one year at Gorham Normal School, where she attained high rank. She is a member of the Belfast Baptist church and its allied organizations, a worker in the church and by education and temperament well qualified for the life of a minister's wife. She carried at her marriage a handkerchief carried by her grandmother, Mrs. Edson Sherman, sixty-three years ago, and brought to the former bride by her sister from Hong Kong.

CITY FAMILY WITH NOTED RECORD IN WAR

Two Married Sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Tait Enlist States

Three Others in Khaki in Canadian Army and Still Another Gave up Life in Great Cause

Mr. and Mrs. John Tait, of Somerset street, have received word that their two sons, William and Gordon, of Boston, have enlisted for overseas duty. This makes five sons in khaki and a sixth buried with many other Canadian heroes somewhere in France.

Only recently they received a notification from Ottawa to the effect that one son, Pte. Chesley R. Tait had been admitted to a Field Ambulance, on August 16, suffering from a fracture of the nose, sustained accidentally. This son was a member of the First Canadian contingent and had engaged in many big offensive and defensive moves of the Canadian troops without sustaining an injury.

Private Robert, who made the supreme sacrifice, was an original member of the 25th Battalion and was killed a few months after that unit went to France. He fought side by side with another brother, Private Charles Tait, who is an original member of the famous 25th New Brunswick Battalion. The sixth brother is Pte. Alonzo Tait, who is a member of the Siege Battery stationed on Partridge Island. Both William and Gordon, who recently enlisted in Boston, are married.

MILK SUPPLY NOT NORMAL TODAY BUT LIKELY SO TOMORROW

The milk supply today was considerably below the usual amount and in this city, by tomorrow it is expected to be normal. The shortage was caused by some farmers, who supply local dealers, separating their milk yesterday before they received notification that their demands had been acceded to and this morning they were not prepared to ship. Now that the matter has been settled, it is expected that tomorrow will see the end of the shortage.

Just what price the public will be called upon to pay has not as yet been settled. Some local dealers say they will sell for ten cents a quart, the same as before, while others will ask eleven cents, and some twelve. As the dealers did not stand together as a whole during the trouble, they are now acting individually.

TRAFFIC-LAW CASES

In the police court this morning a large number of traffic law cases came before Magistrate Ritchie.

Dr. J. S. Bentley appeared on a report for ten cents a quart, the same as before, while others will ask eleven cents, and some twelve. As the dealers did not stand together as a whole during the trouble, they are now acting individually.

Harry Pearson was reported for driving his car on the wrong side of Main street, but said that his car was being driven at the time by his brother-in-law, who is at present in Montreal. The matter was stood over until he should return.

The Crosby Malasses Co. were reported for allowing their car to stand in Prince street over the half-hour allowed by law. Victor Crosby said that at the time in question the car was in the private garage on the Marsh road. The matter was held over until Tuesday at 2 p.m.

George Ferris, driver for W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd., was reported for allowing his horse to stand in Prince William street on last Saturday a few minutes without a leg-strap. On account of the short time during which the horse was there, the fine was allowed to stand.

Thomas Walsh, driver for Murray & Gregory, Ltd., was reported for a like offense and a fine was allowed to stand.

Walter Mealin was reported for allowing the team of A. L. Goodwin to stand without a leg-strap in Germain street. He said that the horse was there only for a minute. The magistrate struck a fine as a warning, but allowed it to stand.

Howard Sudbury was reported for taking the wrong side of the street in passing a car at the head of King street. The fine was allowed to stand as a warning.

James McCarthy, Albert Wright, Andrew Patrick, Jack Kelly, William Pearson, Harry Totten and J. D. Colwell were all reported for allowing their teams to stand without a leg-strap. In each case the horse stood for only a few minutes and fines were allowed to stand. Magistrate Ritchie said that, although he allowed the fines to stand this time, in the next case that came up he would have to exact the penalty. The old law allowed a horse to stand five minutes without a leg-strap, but the more recent regulations make it necessary to use the strap if the horse is left for the slightest period of time.

Milford Sabean, reported for a like offense, said that he was in a hurry getting Red Cross parcels onto his team and had forgotten to put the leg-strap on. He was excused.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS 580

The steady rise in St. John's population is evidenced by the fact that there are about 880 pupils in the High School this year, making a total enrollment of about thirty over last year.

The sanitarium in Victoria Annex are being got into shape as quickly as possible. The date of delay caused was on account of the contract having been awarded a little late. In about a week's time, however, the annex will be in order.

THE POLICE COURT

The case of Norman McLeod, charged with assaulting Charles Cheery in Mill street, came up again this morning in the police court. MacDonald, who was with Cheery on the night in question, said that Cheery came at McLeod and that caused the fight. He knew nothing more about the attack. Further hearing was postponed and Cheery will bring some witnesses.
