There is Hope That Danger is Averted.

(Canadian Press Cable.) Paris, Oct. 2.—French hopes for the peaceful settlement of the Near Eastern crisis are centered upon the Mudania conference. While the general public believes the worst is over, there is no desire to be too optimistic pending determination of the two main issues by the generals in consultation with the evacuation of Eastern Thrace by the Turkish forces.

French representative at Mudania is expected to support L. Tu. proposal for the evacuation of the neutral zone by the Turkish forces.
The allied policy at the Mudania conference, it was learned today, will be decided upon at a meeting of the allied generals, admirals, high commissioners and military attaches in extraordinary council here this afternoon.

The conference will discuss the occupation of Eastern Thrace by detachments of inter-allied troops during the Greek army's withdrawal.

The expectation here is that the action of Kemal will be immediately permitted after the conference, permitting the establishment of Turkish administrative control.

London, Oct. 2.—The Turkish Nationalist assembly at Angora has unanimously approved the action of Kemal Pasha in authorizing the despatch of delegates to Mudania and later to the peace conference, according to a Central News message.

Turks and Greeks Clash.
Constantinople, Oct. 2.—Frontier clashes continued between Turkish irregulars and Greeks. In one of these, near Strajia, ten Greeks and twenty Turks were killed.

The Greek commander has informed the allies that the Greeks will not be responsible for the neutrality of the border will suffice to restore the morale of the troops.

Constantinople, Oct. 2.—A band of eight hundred Turkish irregulars crossed the border of Thrace at Sinekik, to the northwest of Silivri, forty miles west of Constantinople, and attacked the Greek outposts. These were being forced to withdraw when reinforcements arrived, and the Turks were thrown back across the boundary.

various shades of political opinion, including Premier Lloyd George, Lord

"The real ruler of the world today

"The never was a time in the "Europe has received a staggering blow. Billions of its best citizens have been killed. The foundations of its comby an earthquake."

"We, Great Britain have the facwe are united at home can we hope to achieve unity abroad. Not until all classes of the community recognize, not

Allied Generals to Leave for Mudania Tonight to Meet Kemal's Men—Not True that British Will Demand that Turks Leave Dardanelles Within 24 Hours.

(Canadian Press Cable.)
Constantinople, Oct. 2.—An immediate mutual agreement to suspend all movements of troops was expected here today to be the first outcome of the Mudania armistice conference which is to meet tomorrow.

British general headquarters here today issued a denial of a report originating in England that General Harrington would demand the evacuation of the shores of the Dardanelles by the Turkish troops within 24 hours. That question, it was said, would be discussed at Mudania.

The allied generals will leave for Mudania tonight. They are General Harrington for Great Britain, General Sharpie for France, and General Membelli for Italy.

Constantinople, Oct. 2.—The Turkish Nationalist authorities have agreed to an armistice conference in Mudania on Tuesday and have requested the Allied high commissioners to appoint delegates. The Nationalists will be represented by Ismet Pasha and possibly Hamid Bey.

The Kemalists have evacuated Eren Keui, and the British now control the whole coast of the Narrows from "hanak to Kara Bournou. The latter point possesses an excellent key, enabling warships to anchor in deep water.

Hopeful of Results of Conference With Turks.

Kemalists Less Menacing and British Force in Near East Strengthened—
British Labor Leader
Criticizes Government.

(Canadian Press Cable.)
London, Oct. 2.—A feeling of relief was evident in all British official circles today as a result of the favorable week end developments in the Near East crisis, and the authorities are hopeful that the conference arranged between the Kemalists and the allies will have good results.

A similar feeling of relief is noted in official dispatches from Constantinople concerning the less menacing attitude of the Turks about the neutral zone, in addition substantial British reinforcements have arrived in the Straits of Dardanelles and the British military position is much stronger in consequence.

The governmental authorities reiterated today that complete evacuation of the neutral zone by the Kemalists would be required before the peace conference can begin. It is generally understood that Mustafa Kemal Pasha himself will not attend the meeting, but will be represented by Ismet Pasha.

Malta, Oct. 2.—The first British destroyer flotilla and some L class submarine force of the Tropic of Capricorn Lucia, are to leave for Constantinople today.

British Labor.
Wimbledon, Eng., Oct. 2.—The policy of the British government in the Near East was severely scored yesterday by Arthur Henderson, British labor leader, speaking at the opening of a new labor hall here. He declared that the latest steps taken by the government demanding that the Turkish Nationalists withdraw from the neutral zone had not calculated to lessen the tension.

At any moment, the British troops in the Near East were being held in expectation of the adoption of a referendum in which the people will vote whether they were guilty or not of embroiling Bulgaria in war.

SOFT COAL WAGES
UNDER REVIEW

Operators and Officials Confer in Cleveland.

Arrange Future Rate in Accordance With Agreement Which Ended the Soft Coal Strike—Collective Bargaining Also To Be Considered.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Cleveland, Oct. 2.—Bituminous operators and officials of the U. M. W. of America gathered here for a joint conference this afternoon to arrange for future wage scales in accordance with an agreement signed here on August 15, which ultimately brought an end to the soft coal strike.

Approximately 100 operators from the bituminous fields are represented by the industry's representation, including their policy committee, numbering 11.
In addition to opening negotiations for a wage scale to supplement that which will expire on March 31, 1923, the conference is expected to take the question of collective bargaining into consideration.

The Cleveland agreement is for the appointment of two men at today's conference, one to investigate the industry and the other to represent the miners. A method to be followed in negotiating new wage contracts at another meeting in next January.

The miners, it is understood, will insist upon the selection of a joint committee which would be empowered with the drafting and full decision of method of negotiations.

A meeting of the international executive board of the union has been called in Indianapolis for next Monday to survey the union's membership and financial situation following the "general strike" to handle appeals from district unions and to consider the outlook as it appears at the close of the present conflict.

The union is still carrying approximately 50,000 strikers in the United States bituminous fields, it was learned today.

New York, Oct. 2.—The grand total of 1,054 home runs sets a new mark in exceeding by 117 the record of 937 for both leagues last year.

An odd feature of the team record clubs. The Athletics amassed 111 while the Phillies reaped a harvest of

ROBBERS Routed
BY CAN BARRAGE

Calgary Grocer Defends The Fort and Gunmen Take to Heels.

Calgary, Oct. 2.—A volley of tinned tomatoes and soap cubes fired by Fred Langston, a grocer, routed two masked armed hold up men who attempted to rob him in his store on Saturday evening. As Langston heaved a tin one of the robbers opened fire with a revolver. The bullets whistled dangerously near Langston's head, but he gaily reached for another tin, and at that moment the other robber, who struck the wall it burst and the ripper descended in a shower over the robbers. A bottle of soap cubes almost knocked one of the gunmen off his feet and then the grocer reached for the gunmen, who lowered their guns and fled.

Their flight was hastened by the screams of Mrs. Olive Lennox, a customer, who dropped to the floor, screaming that she had been shot when a soap cube struck her in the leg.

The Grecian royal family has had a remarkable series of ups and downs in the last few years. King Constantine was compelled to abdicate by the Allies in 1917 because of his pro-German sympathies. His second son, Prince Alexander, succeeded, but died in 1920 from the bite of a pet monkey. Then, as the result of a plebiscite, King Constantine and other members of his family returned to Athens where the king was again crowned. The failure of his ambitious plans against the Turks has now resulted in his abdication for the second time. On this occasion his picture shows, left to right, Prince Paul, Constantine's youngest son, has been placed upon the throne. The Queen Sophie, Constantine's wife; Princess Helene and Princess Irene, daughters.

BEST FOUR OUT OF SEVEN GAMES

That Is Arrangement For
The World Series.

Story of The Concluding Contests of The Regular Season—Tim McNamara,
Boston College Rookie, Scores Second Shutout in Week.

(Canadian Press.)
New York, Oct. 2.—The pennant winning New York Giants and Yankees marshalled their boards of strategy today for the opening of their second straight contest for the world's championship at the Polo Grounds on Wednesday. The series this year will be for the best four out of seven, instead of five out of nine, as a year ago.

Saturday's victory for the Yankees over the Red Sox, clinching the pennant, proved to be the margin by which the Huggins held the top when the season closed yesterday. They dropped the final contest when Washington hammered Sam Jones to the tune of 6 to 1, and the St. Louis Brown, runners up, concluded the season with their third straight triumph over Chicago, 2 to 1.

Cleveland also upset the standing in the American League on the final days, crowding Chicago out of fourth place by defeating Detroit 6 to 4, while the White Sox lost to the Browns. The Tigers held third place but by a single game.

The Giant regulars, playing behind Johnson, a recruit pitcher, were blanked in the first game of a doubleheader by Tim McNamara, college player of the Boston Braves, while McGraw's substitute aggregation blanked the victors in the second contest, with McQuillen and Scott on the mound. The scores of both games were 3 to 0. McNamara's victory was his second shutout in a week, Brooklyn falling a victim to his curves a few days ago.

Behan of the Phillies blanked the Dodgers 6 to 0, in the remaining contest of the season's finale.

PEACE NEWS IS GOOD FOR MARKET

Gains Numerous in Active Issues in Wall Street—Montreal Opens Higher.

New York, Oct. 2.—(10:30)—Week and developments in the Near East, indicating brighter prospects for peace, brought a flood of buying orders into the stock market at today's opening, gains of 1 to 3 points being quite numerous among active issues. Oils, steels, equipments and merchandising shares led the advance, with more moderate gains being recorded by the rails and coppers. Extensive short covering accelerated the advance. Mexican Petroleum was pushed up 3 points with gains of 11-2 to 21-2 being recorded by Standard Oil of California and New Jersey and pan-American. The advance in steels was led by Crucible and Gulf States each of which mounted two points, while gains of 1 to 1-4 took place in U. S. Steel common, Republic, Bethlehem and Midvale. Baldwin and American locomotive each improved more than two points as did May Department Stores, United Retail Stores, Consolidated Gas, Studebaker and American Tobacco.

Neon Report.
New York, Oct. 2.—The higher prices were not maintained after the first batch of buying orders had been executed. The immediate requirements of the shorts have been met, prices sagged steadily, the recessions in the popular shares ranging from 1 to 2 1/2 points. There were indications that comparatively little outside buying had been attracted into the market. Bear operators finished the principal tonnage by the downward turn with some well below recent averages. A reversal rate of 4 1/2 per cent for call money also acted as a check on speculative buying operations. The list advanced again in the afternoon in response to a brisk rally in consolidated gas, which was pushed up more than three points, and an active inquiry for equipments, which extended their early gains.

Montreal, Oct. 2.—(10:30)—As was expected, the local stock market opened today higher all round. Abtill was 93-4 up, Brazilian 101, Brompton 81-1/2, 1-1/2, Canadian Pacific 31, Spanish Republic common 41-2 and Spanish PR 4 up.

"PROMINENT PEOPLE."
A work of considerable interest recently published in St. John. The volume is entitled "Prominent People of the Maritime Provinces" and it is a record of men and women who in one way or other are contributing to and in possible the growth and development of the Maritime Provinces. In fact, the history of the province is traced in the biographies of its men, but in these days of domestic universal franchises, the true history of a country is the record of the men who thought their representative their individual services or activities to a country a noble or ignominious place among the nations.

RALLY DAY IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Many of the Sunday schools in the city held their rally day exercises yesterday and the fine weather aided in bringing out a large muster.

In the majority of cases the specially prepared programme sent out by the Joint Sunday school boards was used. The theme was "The Kingdom Come" and the programme was very attractive and helpful.

In St. David's the whole school met in the church and the superintendent, Robert Reid, presided. Following the opening devotions he welcomed the new minister, Rev. Hugh Miller. The associate superintendent, D. W. H. Magee, led the responsive readings and the primary department, under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Reid, took part in the special exercise for the children. Five girls received diplomas for repeating the 107 questions of the catechism. The presentation was made by the minister and the girls receiving them were as follows: The Misses Helen L. Clark, Marjorie A. Clark, Doris T. Steele, A. Bernice Sommer-ville and Gladys Mildred Sage. A certificate was also presented to Miss Mary E. Lane Cunningham for repeating the first portion of the catechism questions.

Allan R. Crookshank then presented badges won by the Tunis boys; those who received badges were Ralph Connell, Gordon Malcolm, Stewart McAlister, Don Smith, William McGowan, Allan McBeath, Edwin McGowan, Harold Peeneay and James MacGowan. George H. Ewing offered prayer and the address was given by the minister, Rev. Hugh Miller. The subject was that required in the programme, "Our part in extending the Kingdom."

St. David's church, which was beautifully decorated with flowers and potted plants for the rally service and at the close of the evening services the flowers were sent to nine or ten shut-ins and sick members of the congregation to whom they brought much pleasure. The committee which arranged the decorations consisted of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Malcolm. There were 282 at the rally besides members of the congregation and there was a good representation of the home department and cradle roll.

In Central Church. At the Central Baptist Sunday school rally W. C. Cross, of the German street church, was the speaker and his subject was "The Father's Call."

In the Victoria street Baptist Sunday school the programme was in charge of the superintendent, W. H. MacDonald. The two special features were a tableau under the direction of Miss Ruth Shaw, assisted by Miss Mildred entitled "The Finding of Moses," in which the following took part: Frank Biddiscombe, Ethel Hudson, Myrtle Whittaker, Mildred Hudson, Bessie Logan, Malcolm Perrie, Rae Curry, Nellie Hudson and Ethel Akery; and a pageant, "Voices of Girls From Other Lands," directed by Miss Ethel Hudson, in which those taking part were Blanche Hudson, Alice Brown, Eva Johnson, Clara Howes, Audrey Welch and Catherine Chetley, Gladys London and Evelyn Manning.

Other numbers on the programme were as follows: Solo, "The Silent Voice"; "When the Mists Have Rolled Away"; Mrs. Arthur Burk, Miss Ethel Hudson, Hayward Sparks, William Mc-Aulay; paper, "Sunday Schools and Sunday School Work," read by F. E. Dunfield; prayer was offered by Assistant Superintendent E. Davidson; scriptural reading, by Harry Carmichael; recitation, by Ruth Cain; a prayer

The secretary, Frank Webster, read his report for the last year, which was very encouraging. The total membership is now 630. The classes are well attended and the coming year promises to be a banner one in the history of the church.

The total attendance in the last year was 19,014, being over 2,000 more than any previous year and the offerings were $100 in excess of those given in any other year.

The Queen Square Methodist Sunday school rally yesterday was attended by about 160 scholars and teachers. A collection of $20.15, which was taken, will be forwarded to the fund of the Methodist General Sunday school and the Young People's Society in Toronto. Arthur Harwood, boys' work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., gave an address on the Canadian Standard Efficiency Tests. Rev. Fifteen hymn books for perfect attendance were presented to Phyllis Dunlop, Gladys Ford, Lillian Hanon, Vera Noseworthy, Blanche Noseworthy, Lloyd George Holder, John Graves, Kenneth Thompson, Frank Hughes, Fred Hughes, Gordon McKinney, Francis McCavour and William Sargent.

Victoria Street Church. A special feature of the Victoria street Baptist Sunday school rally was a dramatization of the story of the finding of Moses in the bullrushes (Exodus 2:1-10). The story was carefully outlined by Miss Ruth Shaw. The drama was under the able leadership of Mrs. E. H. Milford. The cast was as follows: Jezebel, Miss Ethel Hudson; Amram, Frank Biddiscombe; Miriam, Mildred Hudson; Aaron, Malcolm Perrie; Pharaoh's daughter, Miss Rae Curry. Goodwin gave an eloquent address on Evangelism and social service work. Mr. Goodwin was also the speaker at the rally day services in the afternoon. Rev. W. Lane, a former pastor, was expected to be present yesterday but was not able to get here and it is hoped to have him next Sunday.

The christening of Donald B. Corringham, son of F. A. Corringham, superintendent of the Knox church Sunday school took place yesterday afternoon at the close of the session. A christening mug and spoon were presented to the little lad by the members of the school.

Rev. Canon C. W. Vernon, general secretary of the Council of Social Service of the Church of England, was the speaker at St. Paul's and Trinity churches yesterday on behalf of the work of the council. He dealt especially with the good work accomplished by the Maritime Home for Girls in Turco.

The new rector's stall presented to St. John's Stone church by Miss Peters of Fredericton as a memorial to her brother, Arthur Wesley Peters was dedicated yesterday morning by Rev. A. L. the service during the fall and winter months. The pastor spoke on "The Problem of the Church of Today." He said that this problem was the linking up of the church members to some definite, active, Christian service. He made a strong appeal to all the members of the church to give themselves to some specific work. After the address a list, consisting of Miss Daly, Mr. Mott and Mr. Hoyt sang a selection. Miss Daly also sang a solo.

At the conclusion of the service, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to a large number of communicants.

In St. Andrew's church yesterday morning Rev. F. S. Dowling began the series of sermons requested by the Forward Movement of the Presbytery. The series is to cover the life and ministry of Christ as found in the gospel of St. Luke, and in the first sermon Mr. Dowling dealt with the life of John the Baptist, the importance of whose mission in the minds of the sacred writers, he said, was indicated by the prominent place he was given in each of the gospels, and by the words of Jesus who said: "Of them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist."

On Saturday evening the week of rally services at the Waterloo Street Baptist church concluded with a church conference, which was largely attended. The pastor outlined the principal purposes of the church covenant, and at the close of the service Miss Daly sang "Here as a Bird." An after meeting was held in which many took part.

Yesterday was set apart in Centenary church for subscriptions for the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanages. A powerful sermon was preached by Rev. R. G. Fulton, pastor of the church, during which he announced several activities during the coming months. The very beautiful flowers which adorned the altar were in memory of the late Captain E. C. Elkin.

A successful rummage sale was held in the Syrian hall, Prince Edward street on Saturday by the Moulson Temple Pythian sisters under the convener-ship of Mrs. Robert Watson. Mrs. Hugh McLellan, with members of the Temple assisting. A satisfactory sum was realized.

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

If the effects of the new United States customs tariff could be traced and recorded with a reasonable degree of accuracy, the story so revealed would prove of interest and value to both economists and politicians. It is an excellent example of the result of carrying the doctrine of high protection to its logical conclusion, and its operation may prove a test of the soundness of that theory.

FREEDOM OF SEAS UPHOLD.

The United States government, by its decision to restrict the enforcement of the prohibitory laws to its own territory and to waters within the three-mile limit, has put an end to a situation which might have led to some international difficulties. The seizure of vessels flying the British flag while beyond that limit was so arbitrary in violation of international law, although it had been upheld by a Federal judge in the case of a Nova Scotia schooner, that no other course could have been expected of a responsible body such as the government of the United States.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis
Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

LESSON NO. 19. RESISTANCE.

Resistance is the opposition to the flow of current offered by an electrical circuit or device. Resistance is the factor which limits the current flow in such devices as electric irons, soldering irons, acmion tube filaments, electric lights and thousands of other kinds of electrical devices and instruments.

While the resistance of a substance is generally assumed to be a most or less fixed quantity, dependent upon its peculiar electrical characteristics, materials which undergo a wide change in temperature, such as carbon, change their resistance. For example, the resistance of a wire of telephones for radio is usually around 2000 ohms and is not variable, or rather does not change since there is no great change in temperature of the windings. The resistance of a filament lamp, on the other hand, varies greatly in temperature according to the current flowing through it.

There are in general two kinds of electric light filaments, metal and carbon. It is found that the carbon filament lamps draw more current when hot than when cold, while the metal filament lamps made of tungsten or osmium draw more current when cold than when hot.

This property of some metals of changing their resistance with changes in temperature due to changes in current may be expressed another way. If the voltage across such a filament is raised the current flow may be made the same by increasing its resistance caused by a higher temperature of the filament. This property usually holds over a very limited range as the filament will melt if the temperature is increased beyond a certain point.

This property described in the foregoing paragraph is applied to ballast lamps which are used for keeping the current constant in a circuit although the voltage varies within certain limits. Such a resistance as this does not obey Ohm's law which states that if the voltage across a circuit is increased the current will likewise be increased, but this law assumes that the resistance is fixed while in the case of ballast lamps the resistance increases with increases in temperature.

Certain receiving sets employ vacuum tubes for detectors and amplifiers with ballast lamps instead of rheostats to keep the filament current constant. Recently observed tests on ballast lamps produced a current flow of 4 amperes from a storage battery with voltage varying from 2 to 6 volts.

Resistance is the only opposition offered to the current flow in circuits containing motors or similar devices where the current is limited by the generator effect produced in the rotating armature. In alternating current circuits, however, not only does the resistance due to inductance and capacity affect the current flow. The total opposition to the current flow is also measured in ohms, but is called the impedance. For example, radio receivers or telephones are often marked "D. C. 2000 ohms" and "A. C. 2000 ohms", the latter being measured at the usual audible frequencies used in radio work.

TO BUILD HIGHEST TOWER IN WORLD

Gigantic Scheme for "Red" Labor Palace in Moscow.

Riga, Sept. 10.—(By mail)—The inventive suggestions that a gigantic scheme has been brought forward by Kameneff, chairman of the Moscow Soviet, for which the government is asked to assign the sum of fourteen million gold roubles (11,000,000).

This is a project to build in the heart of Moscow a huge "Labor Palace," having a central hall capable of holding eight thousand people, with four smaller halls around it, and a tower which shall be one of the highest, if not the highest, in the world. Preliminary plans have been worked out by M. Shchuseff, chairman of the Society of Architects, and the final plans will be subject of a competition in which the architects of the world will be invited to enter. Valuable prizes will be awarded the winners.

According to the preliminary plans, the tower structure will occupy a space of 216,000 square feet, and to make room for it the unemployed are to be given a place to put their things in the building. The contractors for building the palace must undertake to begin work not later than the spring of 1923.

There is every reason to believe, judging by past achievements, that the Bolshevists will succeed in the first part of their programme, and that the present buildings will really be demolished.

NO SATURATION POINT IN AUTOMOBILE INDUSTRY

"Economists, who for five years and perhaps longer, have annually predicted the arrival of the saturation point of the automobile industry," declares David Beerscott, a noted authority in Forbes Magazine (N. Y.), "must today begin to revise their bases of calculation, and perhaps realize that the saturation point in the automobile industry is synonymous with the saturation point of transportation. The economist who has calculated the possible production of automobiles to be absorbed by his manipulation of figures of individual income, etc., must brush these aside and realize that the automobile industry has reached one of the great necessities of existence. No economist can write down the number of persons a country, a state, or a nation, who can afford to own a motor car. They cannot base their conclusions on the number of persons receiving annual salaries of $2,000, $3,000 or $4,000 per year, as some have. Such figures are the rocks on which their estimates have been shattered."

"The motor vehicle has taken a place and is playing a role in the life of a people which few have accurately measured. It occupies a dominant position. Even the holiday month of July, the writer points out, showed 346,000 production, and August 272,000 figures in advance of the peak of 1920. By the middle of the year 1922, it is estimated that a total production for the year of approximately 1,800,000 vehicles was not only a possibility but a very high probability. The record production for any year was 1,920, when 2,203,000 vehicles, including motor trucks, were produced."

GERMAN POTASH MINES INCUR HEAVY OBLIGATIONS

Berlin, Sept. 12.—(A. S. by Mail)—Unless the coming six years see a radical improvement in the value of the potash, Germany's potash industry will be seriously embarrassed in liquidating stock shares held abroad since the devaluation of the German currency from which the capital was subscribed. Other industrial concerns are said to be bound by similar obligations contracted during the war.

WHY HIGH TARIFFS.

New York, Sept. 12.—The men responsible for the new tariff act are stretching that it will yield to the United States Treasury $400,000,000 a year, or about $100,000,000 more than was expected under the old law. We have good Republican authority for the estimate that the new duties will result in adding not less than $60,000,000 a year to the cost of living of the American people, and a treasury expert is credited with the statement that this added cost of living will average $160 a family for necessities alone. That would mean a total increased cost of not less than $4,000,000,000 a year. Mr. Fordney and the others are wrathfully objecting to any such conclusions. But the experience of the country with high tariffs less burdensome than this is against them. They hope that the protected interests will not raise prices to consumers in conformity with the increased measure of their production. They assert an entire lack of any intention to do so. Know as well as anybody that these protected interests sought the increased protection to enable themselves to exact higher prices, and they know equally well that the increased protection was given to them in this purpose and no other.

OLDEST FREEMASON IN CANADA DEAD AT KING'S COUNTRY

The death of John Darling occurred on Saturday night at his residence, Hammond river, at the advanced age of ninety years. He was one of the oldest residents of Hammond River, and the oldest Freemason in Canada. He was born at Newdigswick on June 11, 1832. Darling's Island was named for his ancestors and he was of pre-loyalist English descent. His grandfather had purchased Darling's Island from the Indians and the family is still living in the neighborhood, although the island was sold some time ago. He held the rank of major in the Yeomanry Regiment which was afterwards known as the 9th Hussars, and served in the Fenian raid. In profession he was a surveyor and he held the office of magistrate in Kings county for many years.

In the early fifties he was active in Masonry and was a charter member of Corinthian Lodge, A. F. and A. M., of Hammond, which he was largely instrumental in organizing and of which he was the first master. He first became a Mason in 1854, joining a lodge in St. John at that time. He had been a Mason sixty-eight years. Mr. Darling had been in declining health for the last ten years, but retained his intellectual powers in a remarkable degree.

In 1859 he married Miss Mary Ann Prince, only daughter of the late Elias Prince, of Hammond River, who survives him. Besides his wife he leaves five sons and five daughters, two sisters and twenty-two grandchildren. The sons are Oscar, of Vancouver, William, Henry and Richard, of St. John, and Winfred, of Hammond River. The daughters are Mrs. C. W. Nichols, of Westfield, Mrs. W. H. Boyd, of Toronto; Mrs. W. J. Moran, of Petticoat; Mrs. O. D. Ford, of Vancouver, and Miss Annie L., at home. The sisters are Mrs. Martha Fowler, of French Village, and Miss Louise Darling, of Boston.
