BY CHRISTIAN REID.

About seven years ago I had a humor break out upon my face; it started in a small blotch and looked like a ringworm, and becume very painful. I at once went to one of the best doctors in the city, and he post doctors have had a trial at my face, and all of them failed. I will not give you a list of their names, but will say that they were from Boston, New York, and Maine, also from England, France, and all of anales. I have leen a hotel cook stn a tsward for years. In the summer I cook at watering places; that is why I have had an opportunity of being among good doctors. They could not cure my face, and I had ay wen up all hopes of ever being any better. Last I two. I went to Moosehead Lake, Maine, to cook for the season. My face was so bad I did not like to be seen. At the lake I met a gentleman from England. He told me to use your Curricus Rum pies, and they was, in three weeks the socree on my face were leated up. I used it all the season. My face were leated up. I used it all the season. Mrs. Whittaker, was out spending the evening, and when her husband brought her home they found the home filled with their friends, who heartly congratulated them on the twentieth anniversary of their wedding. The state of prominent citizens, such as F. E. Joseph Charling and sary of their wedding. Then there was a presentation to Mrs. Whittaker of a pretty chocolate service, a valuable parlor lamp, a salad bowl, and other accompaniments, and Rev. Mr. Macneill made the presentation charge of this part of the entertainment and and congratulatory address to the satisfaction of everybody. Mr. Whittaker rep'ied very happily. Then the night was filled with music and much pleasant cojoyfor exhibitions.

The piano used in the orchestra was one of the celebrated Uxbridge make, and was ment. A sumptuous supper was served at midnight, and the well-planned arrange-ments resulted in a most enjoyable party. ## CARD

To the Electors of the County of Northumberland :

GENTLEMEN: At the request of a large number of gentlemen who have presented me with a Nomination paper numerously signed by the electors of the different polling districts of the County, I have decided to allow myself to be put in nomination as the Candidate of the Liberal-Conservative Party at the ensuing election to be held on the 5th day of

To my friends throughout the County who have thus promised me their support and influence, I return my sincere thanks for this expression of their confidence in me, and I beg to assure them and the whole advance our noble cause of temperof the electorate of the County that in accepting the nomination so kindly presented I shall use every endeavour to win for our party a grand victory and place our County in line with the government.

For many years important interests touching our County's advance-

For many years important interests touching our County's advancement and progress have been neglected, with the result that NORTHment and progress have been neglected, with the result that NORTH-UMBERLAND TO-DAY REQUIRES, MORE THAN ANY OTHER COUNTY IN THE this silver butter cooler. We will always PROVINCE, a Representative in thorough accord with the Government and in touch with the important interests of the County.

Our late Representative, being a Non-Resident, is not immediately interested in the further advancement of the County, and this, together with his open hostility to the administration, has left Northumberland in the unfortunate position she occupies to-day.

As your representative I will take every occasion to press upon the notice of the government the fact that our interests have not alone been neglected in the past, but they must be attended to in the future— I will demand from the Government that a fair share of the public moneys be expended on such important works as-

THE CONSTRUCTION of the ESCUMINAC BREAKWATER-THE BUILDING OF NECESSARY WHARVES ON THE NORTH AND SOUTH SIDE OF OUR RIVER from Chatham downwards for the convenience of the travelling public-THE ERECTION of a PUBLIC BUILDING in the Town of CHATHAM, for Postal, Customs and Revenue purposes, better adapted to the wants and importance of the Town than the present unsightly and unsafe one-THE OBTAINING of GOVERNMENT AID for RAILWAYS as feeders for the I. C. R., and the completion and extension of the Indiantown Branch—and generally such other matters of importance as our public

In view of the short space of time between this and polling day, it will be impossible for me to visit each one of you. I therefore request that the Electors of the County will give their earnest support and coifs. Suppose that is so. ## THE BALLOT AND HOW TO USE IT

Following is a representation of the ballot to be used at the different polling places in Northumberland on Thursday, 5th March, should Mr. Mitchell contest the election. It will be, in form, size and general appearance, as shown below, with exception of the cross mark, (X) which each elector is, himself, to put upon it after the presiding officer has given it to him, and he has retired to the private compartment for that purpose.

Election for the Electoral District of Northumberland, 1891.

ADAMS. Michael Adams, of Newcastle,

in the County of Northumberland, Barrister at Law.

MITCHELL. Hon: Peter Mitchell, Journalist, of Montreal, Province of Quebec.

The business of voting will be conducted as follows:-The polls will be opened at nine a. m., at the places in each electoral district announced in the Official Proclamation issued by John Shirreff,

Excepting in districts where there are a large number of voters on the lists, only one voter will be admitted to the polling booth at a time There will be present in the place where the poll is held the returning or deputy returning officer and his clerk, together with two representatives or agents of each candidate.

The Voter, after giving his name, and it being ascertained that he is entitled to yote, will receive his ballot, on the back of which the returning officer shall have put his initials, together with the voter's number on the counterfoil, or bottom part. The Voter will then retire to the private room and place the cross whom he wishes to vote (just as the cross-mark above is placed for the guidance of all friends of Mr. Adams.)

The Voter, having marked his ballot, shall fold it so that the returning officer's initials may be seen without its being opened, and hand it attempted to reply, but instead of argument to the returning officer, who, on examining the initials and number on the counterfoil, shall tear off the latter and deposit the ballot in the box.

It a Voter accidentally spoil a ballot, he will be entitled to a fresh one course I could not condescend to reply to

If a Voter accidentally spoil a ballot, he will be entitled to a fresh one on returning that spoiled. Should the voter not be able to read, or should he be otherwise in capacitated so as to need assistance in marking his ballot, such assistance will be rendered by the Returning Officer in the presence of the sworn agents of the respective candidates, and no others.

Returning Officers and their clerks are empowered to act as Justices of the Peace and peace officers for the maintenance of good order.

Every voter is expected to obtain his ballot, mark and deposit it and leave the booth as expeditiously as possible. The polls will close at 5 p, m, of gallons, and sold to hundreds of thousands. Can it cure as well as though it had been compounded just for you? Its makers say that thousands of people who have had Tetter and salt-rheum, Ecz and Erysipelas, Carbuncles and sore eyes, Thick Neck and Enlarged Glands, are well to-day because they used it. Suppose that is so. Suppose that a quickwithd man was far seeing enough to know that to cleanse the blood was to cleanse the Balance of Millinery Stock druggist, buy a bottle, and if it doesn't help you, you can get your money returned cheerfully. Will you ty it?

The remedy to have faith in, is the remedy the makers themselves have faith in. An Open Letter to the Rov. A. F.

Dear Sir: - We, the Protestant parents and rate-payers of the town and village of Bathurst desire to assure you that we heartily appreciate the course you have and we have not been disappointed. You are highly respected and honored by all true Protestants here. You have certainly displayed great ability and a gentlemanly spirit in all your published letters on the shool question. We would also take the opportunity of saying that you have always impressed us as a man of large and liberal views with respect to all religious denominations, notwithstanding the abusive utterances of some people to the contrary.

Yours faithfully, Signed by the Rev. J. S. Allen, Dr. Duncan, Dr. Bishop, and all the Protestant parents and rate-payers who have an opportunity of appending their names-over fifty

To the Editor of the Advance,

SIR: - During the past few months some anonymous Bathurst correspondents have occasionally made some very uncomplimentary and mean references to me in the columns of the Advance. I think that if a McLean and A-chibald Gamble, respectively. man is afraid or ashamed to write over his own signature, you, Mr. Editor, should not allow him to attack other people in the columns of your paper. It was now Morell's turn to be silent, and as he smoked he gave one or two quick glances at the face beside him. It was a face so pleasant that many people were deceived altogether with regard to the character of which it was an index. Only those who knew Geoffrey Derwent well were a-ware that under the sunny, debonaire charm of his manner and appearance there was a very resolute nature. Obstinate he was not, -for obstinacy is always allied with intellectual weakness; but when he had once seen clearly and resolved firmly he acted inflexibly. There were certain lines about his straight nose and well-cut mouth which would have made this evident at once to a physiognomist, and which struck Morell now as he glanced at the profile presented to him, -a handsome profile, that, with the perpendicular brow and firmlyrounded chin, would not have looked amiss on a bronze medal. It was only in profile that this expression was caught. The eyes dominate the face, and Derwent's gray eyes were full of the frank and pleasant good nature with which he regarded all the world unless specially roused to other sentiments; while one does not often see a more attractive smile than that which now and then made his white teeth gleam under
