If you are hard to fit, we make any alterations while you wait, and free of charge. Please note also that we will reign supreme in rain coats. We expect 5 doz. this week. Don't forget the fact that McMURDO is decidedly the men's man.

Yours ever ready to serve you,

MAC.

Now Look Out for WATCH TROUBLES.

The cold weather is apt to harden the oil—that strains the main spring and effects the motion.

It's the wisest thing you can do to have your watch examined at this time of the year. If it is in good order we'll let it alone; if it needs repairing we'll do it thoroughly at a moderate price.

Few watches are cleaned as they ought to be, once a year. People usually wait until something breaks. The other way is the cheapest in the end, and saves money.

MUNICIPALITIES EFFECT UNION.

Endorse Government Regulation of Tolls and Tariffs in Case of Monopoly.

BONUSES CONDEMNED.

Provincial Government Asked to Keep Strict Watch on the N. B. Telephone Company.

At a meeting of delegates from New Brunswick cities and counties in St. John on the 12th and 13th inst., the Union of N. B. Municipalities was organized. The following executive were elected:—Pres., Mayor Sears, St. John; V. P., Mayor McNally, Fredericton; Sec-treas., J. S. Magee, Moncton; Mayor Teed, St. Stephen; Mayor Munroe, Woodstock; Mayor White, Moncton; and Warden Flett, McFarlane and Gaudet, of Northumberland, York and Westmorland, respectively.

At Tuesday evening's banquet, among the speakers were Mayor Nichol of Chatham, and Mayor Hennessy of Newcastle. Of the latter the St. John Evening Times says editorially:—

"A very interesting speech was that of Mayor Hennessy of Newcastle, a man well on in life, but one who regards Canada's future with all the enthusiasm of youth, and gives New Brunswick first place in his affections, asserting that her resources and opportunities are not overshadowed by those of the further west."

The principal objects of the organization, as set forth in the constitution, are:—Co-operation on all questions affecting municipal government and administration; the guidance and improvement of legislation, both of the Dominion and the provinces, upon municipal questions, and the betterment of municipal interests generally; the holding of annual conventions for discussion, information and resolutions on the above subjects; the securing of united action for the protection of individual municipalities and municipal interests as a whole against legislative enactments, or other encroachments of corporations and others.

Among the resolutions adopted Wednesday were:—
"We desire to emphasize the fact that all franchises derive their value from the aggregation of citizens in a community and that the granting of such franchises should only be with or by the consent of the direct representatives of municipalities."

"We believe that no municipality should be permitted by law to grant any bonus to any industry and that assessment laws while favoring the establishment of industries should be so framed that no community should be thereby enabled to grant special exemptions. This, however, requires concerted action by the legislatures of the other provinces to make it effective and we recommend that the Union of Canadian Municipalities and the unions of the other provinces be invited to concur in this recommendation."

"We strongly endorse the principle that wherever a practical monopoly exists in public utilities the legislature should assume the power to regulate the tolls and tariffs to be charged."

"That the Dominion and provincial governments be requested to submit to this union all railway bills and all other bills proposed, whether public or private, which in any way affect the rights and

Last Sitting of Present House Being Held at Fredericton.

Much Business Promised in the Speech From the Throne.

The fifth session of the present Legislature of New Brunswick was opened at three o'clock Thursday afternoon, 14th instant, by Lieut. Governor Snowball.

The usual salute of fifteen guns was fired by the 12th Newcastle field battery.

The speech from the throne spoke of the prosperous condition of the farming and lumbering industries; of the readjustment of the provincial subsidies so as to receive $130,000 a year more from the Dominion government; of the unsettled fishery award question; of the proposed increase in teachers' salaries; inspection and stamping of creamery butter; encouragement of sheep raising; importation of draught horses; the advancement of money to the International Railway on mortgage; development of Grand Falls Water Power; development of mining areas; the forestry convention; agricultural exhibitions; amendments to the Workmen's compensation, Liquor License and Highway Acts; the introduction of an act to provide for incorporation of fishermen's unions; and, lastly, referring to the death of Lady Victoria Grenfell, daughter of the governor-general.

The address in reply to the speech from the throne was moved by Wm. Currie, the newly elected member from Restigouche, and seconded by Mr. Goggin of Kent. Friday was a very busy day at the Provincial Legislature.

Hon. Mr. Tweedie introduced a bill to amend the Towns Incorporation Act. He stated that the present act had no provision for paying the sheriff on holding a poll where incorporation was voted down. When incorporation was agreed to the sheriff was paid by the town. Under this bill persons petitioning for incorporation would have to make a deposit of $50, which would be returned to them in the event of incorporation taking place. Another provision of the bill was that no town shall be incorporated unless it has 2,000 or more inhabitants.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley introduced a bill to create a court of appeal and to amend the Judicature Act.

Surveyor General Swain submitted the 46th Annual report of the Crown Land Dept., for year ending Oct. 31st, 1906. The report showed receipts for 1906 to be $1,000,000.

Privileges of municipalities, by submitting a copy of the proposed measure to the secretary of this union as soon as the same can be printed."

"Whereas, there exists much doubt as to the right of municipalities to assess Dominion government employees and whereas it is desirable that such doubt should be removed, therefore resolved that this convention of municipalities hereby urges upon the provincial government to take up this matter with the Dominion government to the end that all male inhabitants over the age of twenty-one, without distinction, shall be equal before the law and shall be equally assessable for municipal purposes; also that a committee be appointed to bring this matter to the notice of the provincial government."

Moved by the mayors of Chatham and Newville.

"That in granting the new charter to the N. B. Telephone Co. referred by the provincial government to the House of Assembly, this union urges the great desirability that the utmost care be exercised by the legislature for the fullest protection of municipal rights and franchises, and that the government of the province be urgently recommended to retain to itself a power of supervision and control of the acts and regulations of said company."

The next meeting will be held at Fredericton.

A TRULY IDEAL WIFE HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health is the Great Source of Power to Inspire and Encourage—All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article, has said, "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world, I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest helpmate of my life."

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, neuralgic, bearing-down pains, nervousness, irregularities of the blues, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality. Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

TROUT MezzoWork

The undersigned have received from Mr. Nash of Maine the agency for New Brunswick for his famous trout mezzo work. A trout mezzo is one half the fish so mounted upon a convex elliptical panel as to stand the fish out in bold relief, giving the effect of an oil painting or wholeness of color, with the real thing to show at your power. The process of preserving fish in this artistic way was discovered by Mr. Nash in 1900, and patented by him.

I do not remember them. Not would I swear I did not answer them.

I had no definite intentions, as to where they would get further orders. When their orders expired they would be out of my jurisdiction. I had some intention for them as for other working trains. When I wish I give orders intended to bring them to point where they could get further orders before their orders expired; but I did not intend this order to do so. One reason why I did not, that morning was the presence of those near specials. That was principal reason. I could have given Doyle an order that would have brought him back to Beaver Brook without endangering anyone. As things transpired, the only inconvenience that would have been caused by holding Sear's special at Beaver Brook would have been delaying him ten to twenty minutes. The reason I did not allow Doyle to come to Beaver Brook before twelve was to get Sear's over the road.

Whenever I want to get a special over the road I give that kind of order. If there was train in sight at time when they could reasonably reach Beaver Brook for further orders, it would not necessarily be their duty to go there, but I believe it to be the usual practice for them to try to make point where further orders can be obtained.

When Doyle and Cameron endeavored to make Beaver Brook for further orders, I believe they were following usual practice.

That order (A) is correct and proper in form and substance under system of I. C. R. governing us.

I am positive that I did not tell Doyle and Cameron that they could come into Beaver Brook at twelve o'clock and I will swear to one thing, that is, I did not tell them anything that would convey the impression that they had right to go there then.

When one despatcher leaves office, transfer is supposed to be ready at time the man coming on is due. Transfer is written in the order book and is a record of every order unexecuted and any other information that may be useful to man coming on.

Witness did not issue order to Warman on 28th Jan'y.

That order gives no more right to come into Beaver Brook for further orders than did Doyle's order on 5th instant, with this exception that it would carry him nearer to Beaver Brook if the work required.

It would be within Doyle's discretion to come 2½ miles east of Busby if there were wood there to load.

Doyle's work order did not authorize him to work at any point he pleased between Busby and Beaver Brook.

A "point" in the order means one train length. Under working order Doyle could not move more than one train length east or west of two miles from Busby, but in his discretion might move anywhere between Busby and Beaver Brook on his own responsibility, subject to general rules and conditions named in orders.

Despatchers are left to their own discretion and judgment as to the orders they give to the working trains, and are held responsible for results. Under same system, conductors and drivers of working trains are allowed to move between points named on their orders at their own discretion, subject to the general rules and the order to look out for other trains.

Previous Order I issued giving working trains no right to go to station where it could get further orders before their orders expired, required it to work between Busby and a point east of Busby where there was no station. Neither point named was station where orders could be received.

Adjourned till afternoon.

GOLLINS MAY GET NEW TRIAL.

Counsel for Thos. Collins and for the crown were heard by the Supreme Court in Fredericton last week, in reference to the granting of a new trial. The Judges severely criticized Judge Gregory's charge against Collins, and there is general expectation of the prisoner being granted another trial. The Chief Justice announced that the Court would consider and give judgment some time this term.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against Opium and the narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure Sold by THOS. J. DURICK.

HUMOR

IT MADE A DIFFERENCE.

How the Colonel came to Make a Speech at Our Rates.

"Well, gentlemen, what can I do for you today?" queried the colonel as he entered his office after a brief absence and found three farmer looking men in possession.

"We are a committee from the county fair," explained one, "and we want to see about the address. You make 'em, don't you?"

"Oh, certainly."

"I delivered two county fair addresses last fall and received $50 each."

"Um! Too high."

"There was no fault found with my prices last year. It takes time to prepare one, you know, and then I must journey down and deliver it. The figure I named is a very reasonable one."

"Look here, colonel," said the chairman of the committee after considering a bit, "have you got one of your old addresses on hand?"

"I believe so."

"And can't you put 'er in for twenty-five?"

"But some one might get on to it."

"We'll take all the chances of that. All the people who will listen to you will be old Mrs. Cosely, who is as deaf as a post, and old Jim Shaw, who will take it for a Fourth of July oration anyhow, and you won't run the slightest risk. Won't this make a difference in your fingers?"

The colonel blushed and stammered and said he thought it would, and when the committee left they had his receipt for $30, and he agreed to be on time.—Chicago News.

Her Offense.

The despondent dame had been apprehended in the very act of drinking carbolio. The speedy work of skilled physicians saved her life. The physicians afterward admitted that they had saved it. An officious constable arrested her on the ground of attempted suicide. Then a wise man present intervened and said:

"I object to this high handed procedure. If this person is to be seized on any charge it should be as a violator of the pure food law."

"How so?" exclaimed every one in the room.

"Because she was putting acid inside 'er."

Whereupon the crowd released the woman and with one accord hanged the author of the pun.—Judge.

No Inducement.

"Why don't you devote more time to study?" said the serious person.

"What for?" asked the nonchalant citizen.

"So that you will surpass all other people in wisdom."

"I don't see the good of it. It's hard enough to keep from being lonesome as it is."—Washington Star.

In the Choir.

"The soprano gave the choirmaster a canary for a birthday gift," remarked the contralto, "and he's named it after her."

"Quite appropriate, eh?" replied the tenor.

"Yes. I understand the bird can't sing a little bit."—Catholic Standard and Times.

On One Condition.

"What is it?" the young man asked.

Nothing but the Truth.

OUR REPRESENTATION.

The House of Commons will shortly be increased to 221 members, seven new members to be given to Alberta and Saskatchewan. While the West rapidly increases its population, the Maritime representation slowly decreases. Prince Edward Island's threat to secede will not help the matter any, neither will sending prayers to Ottawa and London for amendments to the British North American Act avail. Representation by population is the correct principle, and if we increase less slowly than the people of other provinces it will do no good to grumble at results. The three parts of Acadia should never have been divided. Let them unite, having one province with some central point, as Moncton, for capital; one legislature, and one provincial spirit. The three maritime provinces had, in 1901, a population of 893,000. If united they would make a respectable showing, having 35 members in the Commons and 24 Senators True, there would be only one province, there would be no strife for, less judgements and similar positions in the market; but curtailment in that direction would not seriously affect the country at large.

TELEPHONES.

A very important declaration was made by the Alberta government last week, when the Minister of Public Works stated the government's position on the telephone question. The government intends to supply all cities, towns, rural municipalities and local improvements districts, that want them, with telephones at the lowest possible price; and is undertaking the installation, operation and maintenance of the whole system all over the province. It is believed that Alberta can supply the farmers with telephones at from ten to twelve dollars a year, and give long-distance connection for two or three cents.

Evidently the day of the Bell telephone monopoly is nearing its close. Manitoba has gone into the telephone business on its own account; the principle of provincial or municipal ownership is gaining everywhere; and the resolutions which appear in another column, show that the Union of Municipalities of New Brunswick is not far behind in its declarations on the subject.

The Central Telephone Company from which there were such great expectations a few months ago having merged its interests with the company it had previously fought, a new independent company is arriving upon the scene in our province. If it proves false to its patrons, public ownership will settle the question once for all.

LAST SESSION.

This last session of the Provincial Legislature, judging from the Lieut.-Governor's speech, promises to be a busy one. The revenue from crown lands last year was considerably larger than that of the previous year; the game license receipts have increased one-third; and the province is to receive an extra $120,000 a year from the Dominion. This makes the revenue buoyant.

Part of this increase will go to the teachers. In 1906 the latter got from the government $162,615.39. It is now proposed to increase this amount by $20,000, or twelve per cent., the benefit going largely to teachers of the first and second classes, as demanded by the Teachers' Union last year.

It is also proposed to further guarantee the bonds of the International Railway this time taking a mortgage in security. This last provision is a wise one. Let the legislature make no present to the company, but exact full value for every cent loaned.

Endeavor will be made to stock some of the fine pasture lands of the province with sheep, which can be raised here in great numbers. The importation of draught horses is a good move.

The Forestry Convention called by the government will, doubtless, prove of great benefit to the province.

Improvements are promised in the Election Laws. These cannot be too strict. No punishment is too great for anyone who tampers with the ballot or interferes in any way to prevent an elector voting as his conscience dictates. No mercy should be shown to bribers or intimidators belonging to either party, but examples should be made of such to deter others from following their example.

The speech from the throne promises amendment to the Liquor License Act, which will, in all probability, be made more stringent. No reference is made to provincial prohibition, in the speech on this point, both government and opposition seem to be agreed, for Mr. Hazen and his party are as silent as the grave on the question.

MUNICIPAL AWAKENING.

The Union of Municipalities at its first meeting, last week, took advanced ground on several of the great questions of the day. Nothing is truer than its declaration that, "All franchises derive their value from the aggregation of citizens in a community." This is equal to saying that the wealth derived from those franchises also belongs to the community. The resolution condemning the granting of bonuses to any industry is an excellent one that should have been acted upon years ago. Many a municipality has been scared into granting tax exemptions by a company's threat to take its business to some other place where the tax payers were willing to grant its demands. But if it were against the law for any municipality to grant a bonus or exemption, no industry would be lost to the province, and taxation could be more evenly distributed. The Union has started well; and, if it continues to act along these lines, will become a great power for good in the land.

In another column will be found a letter from Mr. D. T. Robichaud, which, we trust, will sufficiently relieve the North Shore Leader's perplexity regarding the connection that exists between the Editor of La Justice and the proprietors of the Union Advocate.

INDEPENDENT TELEPHONE SYSTEM.

Movement to Break the Bell Monopoly Meeting With Success.

A. F. Presson, of Sussex, is in town this week in the interest of the Independent Telephone Co., that is being started to take the place of the Central, which was lately swallowed by the N. B. Telephone Co. branch of the Bell System. Mr. Presson, for the last fourteen years, and Mr. John D. Goss, now of Moncton, for the last ten, have been in the field against the Bell monopoly, going here and there installing independent plants. Up to last May, when they were engaged by the Central, Mr. Presson was in Texas and Goss in Oregon. Coming to N. B., they became general and divisional superintendents, respectively, of the new company. Since the merger of the Central and Bell systems, they have been working up another independent system, to which about $200,000 is already subscribed. The N. B. Co. has now a capital of about $1,000,000, but a large part of this consists of Central property which paralleled the older line, and is therefore useless. Messrs. Presson and Goss reckon they can duplicate the N. B. Co.'s lines and telephones for $500,000, and will be able to cheapen the service, reducing, for instance, the charge for house telephones to $12 a year. The independent company are anxious that municipalities should construct and operate their own systems connecting with the former's trunk line. If the Provincial government should wish to take over the trunk line it may do so at an appraised valuation. The promoters have had good success in Fredericton and elsewhere; and Campbellton, Moncton and other places are considering the installation of municipal systems to connect.

Mr. Presson is a strong advocate of municipal ownership and operation of telephones, electric light and water plants and street car systems.

ANOTHER RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

Twenty People Killed, and Nearly One Hundred and Fifty Injured.

Saturday night, an electric express train on the N. Y. Central Railway was wrecked at 205th street and Webster Avenue. The train was running at a terrific speed that frightened many of the passengers.

When the wreck occurred the three rear coaches, completely filled with passengers were thrown on their right sides just above a sharp curve at Woodlawn road bridge. The shock was terrible. People were hurled violently from their seats and the most of those who were killed were pitched through the windows as the cars slid on their sides. The third rail held for a time, but finally broke with a flash and a roar seen and heard a great distance. Between the wreck of the "current" rail and the main track the bodies were wedged. They were held as the cars passed along and in this way were terribly mangled.

20 were killed outright, 2 fatally hurt, and 145 were more or less seriously injured, many of whom may die.

CONONER'S INQUEST FINISHED SATURDAY.

Superintendent Price and Despatcher on the Stand.
The Jury Exonerates Sears, Doyle
and Cameron, and places Responsibility on I. C. R. Management.

THE VERDICT.

After being out nearly five hours, the jury announced their verdict:—
"That Docithé Thibodeau was found dead on the 5th day of February instant on the I. C. R. bet Kten Busby and Beaver Brook, in the Parish of Newcastle.
"And that said Docithé Thibodeau came to his death while riding in a passenger car attached to a working train in charge of Conductor John Doyle and Driver Harry Cameron, on the Intercolonial Railway between the points above named, the cause of death being a fracture of the skull from a blow received by a piece of wreckage while working train was in collision with Sears' special in opposite direction.
"And the said jurors further find that Conductor John Doyle and Driver Harry Cameron were not to blame, in so far as they carried out their orders that day as they understood them, and the said jurors further state that no blame can be attached to the special in charge of Conductor Bliss Sears.
"And the said jurors do further say, that the primary and actual cause of the collision was due to the loose system as practiced by the management of the Intercolonial Railway for the protection of working trains, and ambiguous style of order sometimes issued to such trains."

SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

Matthew McCarron, sworn, Reside at Newcastle, am train despatcher. Was so acting on 14th instant. Went on duty at eight succeeding F. S. Henderson, from whom I got usual transfer.

Order A. (Doyle's) was shown witness, who said:—
My transfer gave me notice of this order, as one of the unexecuted orders.

Witness was shown, and recognized as his own, orders B. D. and F. Order F. was to enable No. 28 to run ahead of her time. She was then at Red Pine and could not reach Busby before twelve Order A. directs Doyle to look out for eastbound specials at Busby, and also informs him that No. 34 is late, but tells him that Henderson had Nos. 36 and 38. If Henderson had had any verbal understanding with conductor and Driver about Order A. he need not have informed me.

Here court adjourned to Wm. Condon's residence, to take his evidence.

Wm. Condon sworn.—Reside at Newcastle. Was foreman of crew working on pulp train on Feb. 14th. Was present when conductor and driver got their orders. Heard conversation that passed between driver and despatcher. When upstairs, I have to tell them where we have to work. I told them we wanted to work between Beaver Brook and Busby's siding, at a point two miles east of Busby's, until twelve o'clock, and after that I wanted to go to the west side of Busby's. Cameron, the driver, then spoke up and said to Henderson, the despatcher, that if he was going to work there he would have to be at Beaver Brook at twelve for water, Cameron asked, would it be all right if he went there for water, and Henderson said, "yes; certainly; and report for orders." He was then handing the order to Cameron, and I then left and went down stairs. Cameron and Doyle came down shortly after me. The fact of my telling them where I wanted to work does not give me any authority over the train. The conductor and driver have full charge of train under the orders they receive from despatchers. Cameron said to me we should leave the loaded cars at Beaver Brook when he got there at noon. He said this to me in despatcher's office in presence of Doyle and Henderson.

Despatcher, McCarron recalled.—Henderson did not give me any notice of such a conversation to my knowledge. I don't know whether conductor under orders such as A. generally bring their trains to places where they can get further orders, there being no trains in sight. When order is given to train to work between two given points, it is customary to give it time to reach one of those points, when possible, before its orders expire. Only thing to prevent them doing so is to have train come in sight, unless they have direct orders to the contrary. Order A. is an order to work between two points at a point. Do not consider they would have right to come to either point for orders without proper signals. Would consider that under this order conductor's duty was to remain at point designated till twelve and "signal himself in," which means to send a man sixteen telegraph poles ahead with a red flag and follow him slowly to station. That would have kept Doyle on main line until 12 o'clock. On account of this, in case Doyle were coming in to Beaver Brook, and to protect myself, I ordered No. 28 to look out for Doyle. When I gave order to Sears, I thought that Sears would have time to get to Busby before Doyle's orders expired. Had this been done, it was, in my opinion, Doyle's duty to have returned to working point and remained there till orders expired. Had he been overtaken by No. 38, he would have had to signal himself to Beaver Brook or couple with No. 38. 38 and 37 were due at Beaver Brook at 12.15. If I had not interpreted Order A. to mean that Doyle should remain at working point till twelve, I would not have allowed Sears to go west of Beaver Brook. Had I known that there was a verbal understanding between Doyle and Cameron and Henderson that former should come to Beaver Brook, I would still have allowed Sears to pass Beaver Brook; for verbal orders are no good for moving trains. If train were working at the working point, and no trains in sight, it would have no more right to go to Busby than to Beaver Brook before twelve; and after twelve no right to go to either place without flagging. Never knew despatchers to allow trains to move on verbal orders on main line. System allows no such movement except in yards. Have known trains to move by Newcastle semaphore and down to deep water terminals without any orders, but this is contrary to system. This has been done very often since I came to Newcastle, but is not justifiable. No complaint ever made to my knowledge. Suppose there will be none until accident occurs. It is only a shunter that goes to the wharf, but it should not move with orders. If I had known that Messrs. Price, MacNutt, Henderson, Cameron and Doyle all agreed that, in interpreting that order, Doyle should not have allowed his orders to expire on the main line still hold that Doyle should have allowed his orders to expire on main line.

Coroner Benson then said a few words to the jury, and, at five o'clock, they adjourned to the upper room to deliberate.

HIS POSITION EXPLAINED.

The Editor of La Justice Makes a Plain Statement for the Benefit of the North Shore Leader.

The Editor Union Advocate:

Dear Sir,—

I wish, through your valuable paper, to reply to the North Shore Leader's editorial concerning what "La Justice" has said about the Liberal meeting held here a few weeks ago, and Mr. Loggie's speech on that occasion. I do not resort to my own paper alone to protest against the ridiculous and malignant comments of the Leader, for, "La Justice" being read by the French population only, all those informed by The Leader of my insincerity and of my complicity with Anslow Bros., would not be aware of my self-discussion.

The Leader's assertions are not worthy of an upright and conscientious editor; and, if I do not charge the gentlemen of that paper with pettiness in journalism and narrow-mindedness, it is merely for the sake of courtesy. As a more straightforward expedient, I will define the attitude I have taken since I have taken charge of "La Justice." May it be, in itself, a formal denial of The Leader's scurrilous and assailable remarks.

In accepting the editorship of "La Justice" I did it on condition that its editorial management should be entirely under my control. I was urged by many to take these steps in order to win the sympathy of the Acadians and place "La Justice" on a sound basis. A week after my arrival here, I laid down my programme, which stated that "La Justice" would be independent in politics. I declared by it that I was not pledging my allegiance to any political party, but was reserving the privilege of supporting and applauding our politicians who would work in the interests of the community and towards the welfare of our country and of denouncing and blaming those whose actions might be detrimental to the public cause. This being known, it is fair on the part of the Leader to state that I am Anslow Bros.' instrument to stab Mr. Loggie in the back!

The Leader believes that The Union Advocate and "La Justice," being published by the same firm and issued from the same office, should necessarily advocate the same political cause. To reason thus does not show common sense but proves that this editor is either imbued with a spirit of malevolence or compelled to serve the cause of his patrons in satiating an enmity which they are secretly brooding.

The Leader wonders if Mr. Emmerson knows that "his journalistic friends of Newcastle are attacking him among the Acadian people." Yes, Mr. Emmerson knows that the Acadians are expressing their indignation about the usurpation of their rights in the recent senatorial nominations. I have endeavored to let Mr. Emmerson know that I am carrying on a campaign of censure against him. Several times, I have denounced his attitude as regards the appointment of the new senators and declared that the Acadians hold him responsible for the unfair treatment they have received. By resorting to such means in opposing our public men, must I be accused of indulging in a perfidious manoeuvre?

As long as circumstances will permit it, I will follow my independent course. Through "La Justice" I will preach independence in politics to my French fellow-citizens. I will tell them how pernicious it has been to us to submit too readily to the coercive ordeal of our political leaders and those of the "kith and kin" of the gentlemen of The Leader. I will advise them that it is for us to make a firmer stand for our rights and claim that part of liberty and fair play to which every British subject is entitled.

By the Leader's final remarks I understand that it insinuates that "La Justice" is participating in a contest for favors. This is false. The only favor I am seeking is the encouragement of my fellow-citizens to rely upon their own ability to succeed with "La Justice."

When I shall join the race after political honors, I shall suffer disappointment by being outdistanced by a man considered by the public as

FARMERS MEET IN FREDERICTON.

Farmers' and Dairymen's Association Held Very Successful Convention Last Week.

The annual convention of the Farmer's and Dairymen's Association was opened in Fredericton on the 12th. Donald Innis delivered an excellent address on sheep raising. Hon. L. P. Farris dealt with the crops of the past year. In potatoes there was a falling off of 165,000 bushels, but other crops showed an increase. Crop returns were as follows: Wheat, 406,580 bushels, average per acre, 19.5; oats, 5,695,580, average, 29.2; barley, 99,355, average, 23.2; buckwheat, 1,179,998, average, 20.04; turnips, 2,780,932, average, 497.6; potatoes, 3,352,972, average, 133.1. The output of butter factories increased $8,106 over last year. The cheese output was 1,320,858 pounds. Total cash value of factory made cheese and butter was $373,963.

In closing, Hon. Mr. Farris stated that he would be pleased to receive and convey to the government any practical suggestions the farmers had to offer, and would endeavor to see that they were acted upon.

At the evening's session, Prof. Cummings, of the Truro Agricultural College, delivered a practical address on Sheep Raising in the Maritime Provinces.

He quoted from the last census returns to show that there were 172,000 less sheep in the maritime provinces in 1901 than was the case twenty years previous. He said that the maritime provinces were well adapted for sheep raising, and there was no reason why the industry could not be profitably carried on.

Wednesday evening, Prof. Klinck gave an address on Seed Selection.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mr. C. F. Whitley, of Ottawa, gave an address on The Improvement of Dairy Herds; and Wednesday afternoon, Mr. E. A. Rogers, of Brunswick, Me., dealt with the subject of Potato Culture.

WARS OF THE TOADS.

Some of the Oddities of This Peculiar Creature.

It is remarkable that the toad, lying water as it does, should wander away from watery regions to dry ground, where it can never see a drop of water except at rain time and leave its water rights to the undisputed possession of its rural neighbor the frog. How the toad loves water must be known to every garden lover. Whenever there is a shower the creature leaves its cool retreat under the piazza or shed and stands as far as its fore legs will let it, erect in the rain, apparently enjoying to the utmost the shower bath.

Whenever they are near the water at breeding time they deposit long, slimy strings of eggs, and the young toad has to go through the tadpole stage in common with its brother frog. But when they are wholly excluded by distance from the water they seem to have the power of being viviparous, or bringing forth their young alive. In the water fertilization is effected in the same manner as in fishes, but the method in the land life career is not known. About all that is known is that confined toads are found with little toads, no larger than house flies, about them after a time, and in walled gardens and places far removed from water little toads, no larger than peas, wandering around on their own resources and which could never have been tadpoles, are within common experience.

MARY CAMPBELL.

The Lassie Who Was the Original of "Highland Mary."

The original of "Highland Mary" was Mary Campbell, a highland lassie who was a servant at Castle Montgomerie, with whom Burns became acquainted during his residence at Moss-gill. To her he addressed the lines, "Will ye go to the Indies, my Mary?" and many others. In a note to one of his poems on Mary, Burns says: "After a pretty long time of the most ardent reciprocal feeling we met by appointment on the second Sunday of May in a sequestered spot by the banks of the Ayr, where we spent a day in taking a farewell before she should embark for the west highlands to arrange matters among her friends for our projected change of life. At the close of the autumn following she crossed the sea to meet me at Greenock, where she had scarce landed when she was seized with a malignant fever, which ended my dear girl to her grave before I could even hear of her illness." The love which Burns felt for Mary Campbell appears to have been deeper than any he ever felt before or after. Years later, when he was married and had a family, her memory inspired the pathetic lines "To Mary in Heaven," which breathe the soul of tender melancholy.—London Tit-Bits.

The Earth's Inside.

Is the earth made up of three concentric spheres? A physician says that such is the case. The solid nucleus he supposes to be between 3,000 and 7,000 miles in diameter, and this is surrounded by a liquid substratum, outside of which is the crust, variously estimated at 70 to 200 miles in thickness. More than two centuries ago a similar theory, including the slow rotation of the inner solid sphere on a different axis from that of the entire globe, was held by Dr. Edmund Halley to account for the changes in the earth's magnetism. The axis of the nucleus was thought to have been originally that of the entire globe, and to the change of its course was attributed the deluge. The earth's internal heat, it is now pointed out, may be accounted for by the friction of the different rotating bodies.

Bad Importations.

Englishmen introduced the rabbit to Australia, where it ruined vast areas of valuable land. Weasels sent to correct the mistake found ground birds good eating and let the rabbits alone. Scotsmen bestowed the thistle upon New Zealand and then wished they hadn't. A pretty water wheel of which Englishmen are fond was transplanted to New Zealand and throve so that it dams broad rivers. The mongoose sent to Jamaica to kill off the cane rats exterminated them and developed a fine liking for poultry.

"It Suits to a T."

The clause, "It suits to a T," meaning it fits exactly, is as old as the familiar instrument, the T square or T rule (so called from its resemblance to the letter T), used by mechanics and draftsmen for making angles true and for obtaining perpendiculars. The expression was in common use in the time of Dr. Johnson, who is quoted by Boswell as saying of a wharfedriller: "You see they'd have fitted him to a T."

The Changing Frenchman.

There was a time when having to cross the frontiers of his native land was regarded by a Frenchman as the greatest hardship he could undergo. Today he is the rival of the Anglo-Saxon where love of travel and adventure are concerned.

Sure of His Umbrella.

Departing Guest—Dear me, what a wet night! I wonder if you could give me the loan of an umbrella? Host—Certainly, but, well, the fact is, I think I would be the better for a walk. I'll just take a turn home with you and shelter you by the way.

Bright Boy.

"Can you stand on your head?" asked a visitor of little Dudley.
"No," he replied. "It's too high up." To grief there is a limit; not so to fear.—Elmer the Younger.

NEW GLASGOW LOSES THE CUP.

New Glasgow, N. S., Feb. 13.—Large crowds watched with interest this afternoon and tonight one of the most exciting curling matches ever played in this town. It was a close struggle for supremacy between four rinks from the Thistles Club, of St. John, and the Blue-Nose Club, of New Glasgow. It was about 20 years since the handsome silver trophy, presented by Hon. David McLellan, was wrested from the St. John curlers and taken by the Truro curlers, who until this winter held it, but the Chatham, N. B., Club managed to capture it from Truro about three weeks ago; and New Glasgow, having an eye on the trophy, went to Chatham, and last Saturday the cup was once more brought back to Nova Scotia territory. The St. John Thistles, 16 men strong, arrived here this morning and with a determined air about them, started in to take the cup back to the city from whence it was taken years ago. Two hard fought battles for the cup took place, resulting in the Thistle winning by a final score of 68 to 67.

"Excuse me madam," said the agent, addressing the lady of the house, "but I'd like to show you a little device that I am introducing. All you have to do is simply place it in your refrigerator and it will save you half the ice."

"Indeed!" exclaimed the lady. "And do you guarantee that it will save half the ice?"

"Certainly, madam," answered the agent.

"Then I'll take two," said the practical woman, "so as to save all the ice."

STEAMER SUNK BY SCHOONER.

The St. John Schooner Harry Knowlton Crashes into the Larchmont.

133 PEOPLE DROWNED.

All of the Larchmont's Passengers and Crew Lost, Except 19 Persons.

Tuesday night, last week, in Block Island Sound, R. I., the three-masted schooner Harry Knowlton, of St. John, collided with the Joy Line steamer Larchmont, sinking the latter.

The Larchmont left Providence Tuesday evening with 137 souls on board. A gale was blowing from the Northwest. The collision took place off Watch Hill at 11 o'clock. Captain George McVey, of the Larchmont, declares that the Knowlton suddenly swerved from her course, luffed up into the wind and smashed into his vessel.

Captain Haley, of the Knowlton, asserts that the steamer did not give his vessel sufficient sea room and that the collision occurred before he could take his schooner out of the path of the oncoming steamer.

The steamer, with a huge hole torn in her side, was so seriously damaged that no attempt was made to run for shore and she sank to the bottom in less than half an hour. The Knowlton, after she had backed away from the wreck, began to fill rapidly but her crew maned the pumps and kept her afloat until she reached a point off Quonochontaug, where they put out in the lifeboat and rowed ashore. There were no fatalities on the schooner but the men suffered from the extreme cold.

Of the 137 persons on board the Larchmont, only 19 were saved. 11 passengers and eight of the crew. Nearly all the passengers were retired for the night, and when the crash came, many rushed to the decks in their nightdresses or only half clad. Many who might otherwise have escaped were frozen to death. One man driven insane, committed suicide in one of the life boats. The most thrilling narrative of the disaster was that told by Harris Feldman, of New York, who with his wife, were saved, on a raft formed of part of the vessel that was ripped off by the waves. After the raft had been away from the ship a few moments, Mr. Feldman counted his companions. Besides himself and his wife there were thirty-eight on it, but they were crowded so badly that one by one they began to drop off into the sea. Some of them crazed by the cold, jumped into the sea and were drowned. Others, sitting near the edge, were swept away, and still others, frozen to death, dropped into the water.

An hour after the raft had been swept from the top of the steamer there were but sixteen persons on it, and of those only eight were alive. For thirteen hours the raft drifted around aimlessly, and when the schooner Clara E. came alongside and rescued them every person on board was covered with a coating of ice. Both Mr. and Mrs. Feldman were taken to the Rhode Island Hospital, suffering severely from frozen hands and feet.

A pathetic story of father and son sitting side by side in a life boat, one of them surviving and the other perishing, was told by Joseph Jauppa, 45 years old, of New York. Joseph got into a life boat and at his side sat his son, Nicholas, 24 years old. The father picked up an oar and rowed throughout the night, occasionally stopping to beg his boy to move his hands and save off death. But Nicholas seemed to be in a stupor and while the father rowed, the son frozen to his seat, expired.

Not one person in a thousand knows that Fruit is really a wonderful medicine?

Not rare fruits—but the common, everyday fruits that you can buy in the fruit shops.

APPLES act directly on the kidneys—increase the flow of urine. ORANGES are excellent for the skin. FIGS and PRUNES are splendid bowel laxatives and liver tonics.

There are two great difficulties in curing yourself of Kidney and Bladder Troubles—Rheumatism—Constipation—Skin Eruptions, etc. by simply eating fresh fruit. First, the minute quantity of medicinal principle that you would get by eating a normal amount of fresh fruit would be insufficient to do any real good—second, eating excessive quantities of fruit would upset the stomach, on account of the indigestible pulpy fibre found in all fruits.

An Ottawa physician overcame these difficulties when he discovered the principle which brought forth "Fruit-a-tives."

"FRUIT A-TIVES" are fruit juices—not as they occur in fruit—but with their medicinal activity greatly intensified. After the juices are extracted from the fruit, a chemical change is made to take place in which one atom of the bitter principle in fruit is replaced by one of the sweet. Then tonics and antiseptics are added and the whole pressed into tablets.

Fruit-a-tives act on the three great eliminating organs—the Bowels, Kidneys and Skin. They arouse the sluggish liver—enable the liver to give up more bile, which regulates the bowels and cures Constipation (or non-action of the bowels). Fruit-a-tives strengthen the kidneys and induce vigorous, healthy skin action.

For Headaches and Backaches—for Indigestion and Disordered Stomach—for Irregular Bowels—for all Kidney and Bladder Troubles—for Skin Eruptions—Fruit-a-tives are without an equal in the world.

IF!

Everybody knows that Cod Liver Oil is a wonderful flesh producer, IF you can take it.

Nobody doubts that Iron is the greatest enricher of the blood, IF you can digest it.

It is well known that Phosphorus is the ideal nerve and brain tonic, IF it is properly administered.

"IF," ah! there's the rub.

But everybody does not know that Cod Liver Oil, Iron and Phosphorus have at last been combined in an emulsion so palatable that anybody can take it, so easily assimilated that the smallest infant can digest it without difficulty and so perfectly and scientifically prepared that the value of the original ingredients is enhanced fourfold.

This emulsion is known as

FERROL

(Iron and Oil)

"FERROL" has wiped out the "IF."

"FERROL" has brought the wonderful and universally recognized virtues of Cod Liver Oil, Iron and Phosphorus within easy reach of the multitudes who need them.

"FERROL" is the only perfect emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, because it is the only one that contains IRON and no emulsion is perfect without it.

That is why FERROL is an unequalled system builder.

FERROL is not a patent mystery. The formula is freely published. It is prescribed by the best Physicians. It is endorsed by the most eminent Medical Journals. It is used in the prominent Hospitals, Sanitariums, etc.

THE STO Hart MERCANTILE CO.

Are you one of the up-to-date farmers who contemplate improving their farms by erecting "Ideal" fence? If you are, we suggest a thorough investigation of the merits of the "Ideal" fence. Compare it with others. Ask those who have put up "Ideal" fences on their farms what they think of it. Read our "Free Booklet" on wire fence, and then we believe you will be convinced that "Ideal" is the fence for your farm.

"IDEAL" WOVEN FENCE

is built to last. It will pay for itself many times over in the years of service it will give. You know "Ideal" fence is heavy and strong—built from No. 9 hard steel wire throughout—thoroughly and heavily galvanized. Remember, it costs no more to make your post holes, set your posts, stretch your fence and staple it when the heavy "Ideal" fence is used than for a light flimsy article. It is worth remembering that "Ideal" is stronger than it is necessary for it to be under ordinary conditions. We have made it strong enough to meet any emergency that it could be bottom or pressed down at the top. Extremes of heat or cold do not affect "Ideal" in the slightest. It is a fence perfectly adapted to all climates—it can be easily erected and will retain its upright appearance on any surface, level or hilly. Last, but of the utmost importance, is the wonderful locking device found at every wire crossing on the "Ideal." It is simplicity itself, but it absolutely locks every lateral wire to every stay in a grip that never slips. It is the most uniformly perfect and positive locking device found on any fence to-day. But, of course, you will send for our "Free Booklet" and learn more about the "Ideal." It will pay you well to do so. Simply address: THE MACGREGOR-BARWELL FENCE CO., Limited, WALKERVILLE, ONTARIO.
