TWO MOTHERS GET BABIES MIXED

Indiscriminate Handling of Infants in Same House Makes Relationship Tangle Tale.

Madrid, Dec. 25.—A mother and daughter of Coruna, who each gave birth to a baby in the same house, on the same day, are now unable to tell which infant is which.

The double event filled the house with relatives, friends and neighbors, and the two infants, who resemble each other as one drop of water resemble another, were passed from one person to another to the next until all had paid their tribute of admiration.

Suddenly there was consternation among the visitors, for no one could remember which was the mother's and which was the daughter's baby! They looked anxiously at each other, and were dressed in similar clothes.

Which was the daughter's brother? Which was the mother's grandson?

The problem, which might have puzzled even Solomon, was given up. Finally a compromise was reached by each mother taking a baby.

Each of the mothers has other children, the older woman five, her daughter two. These children do not know if one of the new born is brother, uncle, or nephew; nor do they know if they are sisters, brothers, uncles or aunts, or nephews and nieces.

CHRISTMAS AT THE HOSPITALS

Splendid Efforts of Nurses Make the Day Happy For Inmates.

Although the thought prevails that crowded hospitals and hospitals are remote apart from one another, the care and thoughtfulness with which the Christmas season is prepared for in our local hospitals evidences a great deal of happiness fit to the lives of all those who may be inmates at the Yuletide season.

This year was no exception and in many ways probably surpassed those happy events of other years. Both hospitals made special provisions for their charges and it is safe to say that patients in the hospitals and both buildings transformed into edifices of happiness.

At the Soldiers Memorial several beautiful Christmas trees were provided and those were loaded with gifts for the nurses and patients. The whole interior of the building was decked in special Christmas dress.

At the Hotel-Dieu, on Christmas Eve, at ten o'clock on Christmas Eve, the public was very generous to their gifts to the hospital.

At the Hotel Dieu, who will receive his gift to picture a Merry Xmas, as even possible in a hospital! The very suggestion of a hospital at this joyous season brings a shudder, but to the thought of death may be a great help never so much as at the Yuletide.

We need to think that the atmosphere of Xmas, because it is a season of peace, is a place of health.

Still there seems to be in Xmas a spirit that cannot be found except where human life is mixed with human life. It is a spirit of devotion and love. Such is the beautiful life of those who serve Him in the hospital, those who are carrying out Christ's work, the day the began on Xmas. And if their heart is united to Him by the spirit of self-sacrifice, they have discovered the spirit of Christmas, and Christmas, a Merry Christmas—will be found under every hospital roof.

Some time before Christmas, the staff of "getting ready" begins at the Hotel-Dieu Hospital. The Sisters, as well as the student nurses, plan with care and interest the little things that make a bright hospital Xmas, the loving service that secures no material surroundings can meet the true spirit of the season.

There are trees to be selected, ornaments to be arranged, decorations to be planned, gifts to be gotten ready—there is a hummer everywhere—while here and there a buyer seeks a fitting remembrance for a loved one—the Hotel-Dieu too is making ready.

Decorations are up Xmas Eve. The windows of the Hotel-Dieu are with the greetings of red and green and the walls are bright with festoons of Xmas colors. In the main corridor, facing the entrance of the Hospital, Old Santa himself, loaded with gifts, is seated in a red coat pulled by a mounted reindeer—greeting all with a "Merry Xmas."

The nursery of the Hotel-Dieu Hospital, with its dainty decorations of paper lace and tiny winter birds, resembles a fairyland.

A miniature Santa and the traditional elf, with a little snow figure in a corner of this favorite spot, truly the Xmas spirit reigns in the realm of happiness.

The words are also made cheerful with the yuletide colors, and miniature trees are placed here and there, to make everything real Christmas.

The kitchen was the center of well planned preparations for the Xmas Menu.

At 4:30 P. M. the sound of laughter and Xmas cheer is heard from the patients. Each patient receives a gift which has been gathered together from the bounty of the generous.

The Editors and Nurses send a word for their hours of toil in the long preparation of a Hospital Xmas in the best of ways.

Every private patient's secret desire is invited to take dinner at the hospital.

The observance of "open house" adds to the happiness of the patients. The Chaplain's visit to every patient on Xmas day is a proof of the warmth of service given to the patients of the Hotel-Dieu Hospital all the year round.

BRIGHT CHRISTMAS IN CAMPBELLTON THIS YEAR

CHRISTMAS TRAGEDY AT MISSION PT.

Scalding Accident on Christmas Eve Results in Death of Infant.

The dark shadow of tragedy eclipsed the Christmas cheer in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Melan, Indian residents of Mission Point, Que., when death claimed their five-month-old boy on Christmas day after a scalding accident on the previous evening.

The accident which caused the infant's death occurred on Christmas eve. It appears that the child was on the stairs and somehow fell into a tub of hot water which happened to be directly below. Before the five-month-old mother could effect a rescue the child was badly scalded about the head and body. It was later discovered that the injuries sustained were of such a serious nature that recovery was impossible.

MUST SIGN NAMES

The prohibition inspectors state that they receive a number of anonymous letters with what purports to be information of violation of the prohibition act. They wish to state that they cannot recognize such, but if names are signed, the matter will be kept in strict confidence and steps will be taken to investigate the complaint. Do not be afraid to sign your name if you have any real information.

rooms, pharmacy and central kitchen are all effectively decorated for the season.

At midnight, when the bell rings for Holy Mass, the patients are aroused by the strains of "Holy Night" sung by the Sisters' choir, thus awakening new hopes for the hearts of all.

On Xmas morning, the Sisters, Nurses and patients exchange mutual Xmas greetings.

Then comes up the tray-carriers, all decorated and bearing lighted candles. The breakfast trays are carefully set with Xmas napkins, flowers, cards and candies, bringing to every patient a bit of Xmas cheer.

After the morning routine, the nursing staff sings Xmas carols to the patients. The doctor's visit to the hospital adds a note of cheer to the merriment. They too, receive some little appropriate remembrance of the season.

The Xmas dinner is a most appreciated feature of the programme—each patient gets as much of the Xmas menu as his condition allows—while everybody is made happy with candy, nuts, fruit, etc. The day culminates in the Yuletide all during the day, to make one forget that he or she is far from home.

Every private patient's secret desire is invited to take dinner at the hospital.

The observance of "open house" adds to the happiness of the patients. The Chaplain's visit to every patient on Xmas day is a proof of the warmth of service given to the patients of the Hotel-Dieu Hospital all the year round.

Xmas Trade Good Despite Unlucky Conditions—Rush of Mails At Post Office Breaks All Records.

Considering it from every angle and making due allowance for certain disadvantages occasioned by weather conditions, the Christmas just past was probably the brightest and busiest experienced in this part of the province since the unsettled days of the world war.

The majority of merchants reporting on their Xmas trade this year declare it to have been most satisfactory. Of course, there are a few exceptions, as is the case every year, but there are also instances where merchants state that their Christmas business this season broke all records of recent years.

Owing to the late arrival of snow and the fact that the Restigouche was not frozen over for the convenience of outside shoppers, the trade from many of the surrounding districts was small when compared with that of other years when these conditions were more favorable.

The unusually mild weather which preceded Christmas week contrived to delay Xmas gift shopping in the town as well but the steady sales made when the rush of the last few days began fully compensated local merchants for their patient wait and their efforts to supply every thing their patrons might desire to make Christmas the happy season it should be.

Post Office Breaks Record.

The Christmas rush of mails and money order business at the post office here broke all previous records this year. Although several extra helpers were engaged during the busiest period it was only by dint of well sustained effort that the post office staff were able to handle the work and give an acceptable measure of service.

Probably a feature of the season in this connection was the promptness and solicitude shown by the staff in their efforts to serve the public, who evidently, are not always as thoughtful, considerate or appreciative as they might be.

Although the influx of out of town shoppers was probably not as large this season as in other years, yet the week preceding Christmas Day saw considerable activity about town. Owing to the fact that work has been more plentiful this year than last and lumbering operations being carried on a large scale great

BIG PAPER COMPANY SEEKS INFORMATION

Asks Possibility of Obtaining Ten to Fifteen Thousand H. P. Electric Energy Here.

The Graphic has received information that a large Canadian pulp and paper company is making inquiries in reference to the possibility of procuring ten to fifteen thousand H. P. electric energy on the Restigouche River.

This information has been passed on to the company that it is quite possible to procure that power from the Grand Falls development more cheaply than any other development in the province.

If the company should establish its pulp and paper mills in the district, it will mean a great boom for the pulp industry and every encouragement should be given the company to establish here.

INTEREST AROUSED IN SHIRETOWN

Many Citizens Approve of Idea of a Winter Carnival Demonstration There.

(Special to The Graphic) Dalhousie, 26.—There has been considerable interest aroused among people here over the suggestion that has been made about inviting Miss Canada to the North Shore. It seems the idea of all, that if a demonstration along the lines of a winter carnival takes place here, a Miss Dalhousie should be chosen. Why not a Miss Campbellton and a Miss Bathurst at the same time.

One of our leading citizens, who is enthusiastic over the proposed event, is of the idea that a Miss Restigouche should also be chosen apart from the Town Queens. Strangers who do not know much about the north shore would be surprised at the number of charming candidates the County of Restigouche could furnish in such an event. It is to be hoped that the affair materializes.

HAD SEVERE FALL

Dr. D. Murray met with a slight accident Tuesday evening, while walking down the old I. N. R. crossing. While coming down the slight slope, his feet slipped on the icy pavement and he fell, striking his back and head. While no bones were broken the doctor received a severe shaking up. His friends are glad to see him about again today.

crowds of lumbermen poured in to town from the various camps, bound to their homes in different parts of the country. The improved employment conditions and the appreciable increase in laborers' wages doubtless was also instrumental in bringing into the homes of many a greater measure of the pleasures which make Christmas such a joyous and memorable season.

SPECIAL MUSIC AT LOCAL CHURCHES

Local Choirs Provide a Wealth of Fine Selections At Xmas Services.

Among the most enjoyable features of the celebration of Christmas here was the special musical programmes given by the choirs of the different churches. Among many splendid numbers heard in the various churches were pieces that, in harmony and volume, approximated similar music in the churches of much larger centres. These musical features this year evoked much favorable comment from all sides and reflect great credit upon the different choir leaders and indeed, upon the entire personnel of the various choirs.

St. Andrews Church The Christmas music at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church this year was most creditably rendered and won for Mrs. J. D. McNutt, the new choir leader, many hearty congratulations. The Cantata "The World's Redeemer" was a really beautiful piece and was most ably rendered, in spite of the fact that it was obviously difficult in places. The church was crowded from the rear doors to the pulpit platform and late arrival lined the aisles on both sides of the building where chairs were provided for them.

The programme opened with the full choir. This was followed by a duet, "Nearer My God to Thee" by Mrs. McNutt and Mrs. H. MacLeod, which was evidently much enjoyed by all present. These two ladies have frequently appeared together in duet work but their singing on last Sunday evening eclipsed in many ways, any of their previous efforts.

A duet obligato and an enthusiastic male chorus sang with enthusiasm were also features of the programme, and solos by Mr. C. Walker, bass, and Mr. R. McNutt, tenor, were also heard with evident pleasure. A quartet, "He Came to Redeem the World," sang by Mrs. MacLeod, Mrs. McNutt and Messrs C. Walker and W. Sunderland was another high light on the programme.

The last chorus, "Come Let Us Adore Him," was beautifully rendered and brought a pleasant evening to a fitting close. Mrs. F. W. Campbell presided at the organ, where her somewhat briefed but in theme and thought—content were most interesting and helpful.

Baptist Church At the Baptist Church the Christmas singing was a most memorable feature of the Sunday evening service. The choir, under the capable direction of Mr. Henry J. Currie has distinguished itself locally on several occasions, but never to more credit than on late Sunday evening. The church issued an attractive calendar for the occasion, setting forth the order of service and the various musical features. This calendar seemed the announcement of something really good and the large crowd that attended the service were not disappointed for the various selections, most pleasingly rendered, constituted a real treat.

The programme follows:

Cantata—The Christmas King

1. Prepare Ye the Way

2. Over the Silent Eastern Hills

3. Follow the Guiding Star

4. Glorious Morn

5. And There Were Shepherds

6. The Song is Ringing Still

7. Joy to the World

8. Cradle Hymn

9. Praise Ye the Lord

10. Fairest Lord Jesus

11. There is Room in My Heart

Anglican Church

The choir of the Anglican Church did not undertake a special musical programme for the Sunday evening services but at the special Christmas service on Tuesday morning appropriate music and singing constituted a programme most fitting to the Yuletide season and one that was heartily enjoyed by all those present. Miss Jessie Moore acted in the dual capacity of choir leader and organist on the occasion, owing to the absence of Miss Jessie Macintosh, the regular leader of the Anglican Church Choir and the programme re-

MINISTER GIVES UP HUNT FOR GOLD

Six Months' Work at Shaftsbury Fails to Bear Out Treasure-Divining Powers.

London, Dec. 26.—The Rev. George Blandfield, a Seyan minister here, has given up a gold hunt after burrowing under the County of Dorset for six months. Hundreds of tons of sand at the top of a sixty-foot shaft testify to his faith in his own treasure-divining powers.

Mr. Blandfield announced his belief that treasure lay at the foot of a hill in Shaftsbury after he had felt the presence of "something in the earth." He was already a claimant to water-divining powers, and said that this influence was quite different from that of water. There were distinct "shocks," he affirmed.

The town was also pleasantly shocked by the news that gold was to be had for the digging, and the inhabitants, neglecting their potatoes, watched with expectancy the spot where the minister and his associates were toiling on towards the bowels of the earth.

Mr. Blandfield says that tunnels were made of the main shaft, but led to nothing. Buried metal," he adds, "radiates electrical influences and the whole place at Gold Hill was full of these influences, which increased rather than diminished. The great thing was to fathom them."

Another feature of the Christmas season here was the united service held in the Methodist Church on Christmas morning. This special service is doubly significant owing to the fact that it is the united Christmas service held in Campbellton. The meeting was very largely attended. The Ministers of Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist Churches were all present and each gave a most interesting address on Christmas, dealing with the subject from the different angles. Rev. Mr. Camp spoke on "Christmas as a Religious Festival," Rev. Mr. McNairn on "Christmas as a Home Festival" and Rev. Mr. Boothroy on "Christmas as a Universal Festival." The offering which amounted to over $35.00 will be donated to the Armenian Relief Fund.

Midnight Mass To those who look forward to it, and they are indeed many, Christmas would lack something without the opportunity of attending Midnight Mass. This service this year was very largely attended, the Church of Our Lady Of Snows being crowded to the doors. Special music was provided by the splendid choir of that church and this feature of the service was of a quality that will make it a memorable one to all those present. Rev. Father Melanson made usual contribution, namely, a most interesting address, well thought out and ably delivered.

SEASON'S FIRST HOCKEY GAME

In the announcement that the first hockey game of the season on the north shore will be played here in the local rink on next Wednesday night, there is good news for hockey fans.

The Bathurst team this season has been revamped and it is said there are some new stars in the line-up. Their squad this year has both weight and speed and there is no doubt but what the opening game of the season next Wednesday will be a real treat for hockey enthusiasts.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY
When Captain D. A. Noble and Mrs. Noble returned on Friday evening from attending a concert at the Sherwood Sunday School they found some 75 of their friends in the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the wedding of the noble couple. The celebration was held at the home of Captain and Mrs. Noble. The evening was spent in singing the evening presentations were made both to Captain Noble and Mrs. Noble. On behalf of the gathering, D. W. McDonald, superintendent of the Spruce and Lonsbury Railway, read an address of congratulatory and good wishes and presented Captain and Mrs. Noble with a brass fender and brass coal hod. Members of the various Home rule departments under his control in Nova Scotia and Newfoundland were also among those present and on behalf of the men of the department, Urbin, read an address expressive of the regard entertained for their chief and wishing the hope that many more years of happiness together might be enjoyed by him and his wife. A handsome pearl necklace was presented to Mrs. Noble and a diamond ring to Captain Noble. The address was made by Captain Noble, who expressed his thanks to his wife and himself for the remembrance given them. He drew upon the memories of the people of Cape Breton and the pleasant associations he had enjoyed since he and Mrs. Noble had come here fourteen years ago. In his reply to his own department, Capt. Noble spoke most gratefully of their loyalty.—Spruce Record.

A GOOD NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION
Resolved: that during all this year 1924 I will not miss church on any Sunday if it is possible to attend. I owe this to myself, I owe it to my God, and I owe it to my family and my neighbors. If friends visit me at Church House I will tell them that I have a most important engagement, namely, to visit Almighty God in the assembly of His people. I will invite them to do their duty and pay the visit with me. I will remember that for every visit my minister owes me, I owe him fifty-two.

MANY CANADIANS RETURNING HOME

Maritime Provinces See Tide of Immigration Turned to Home Towns.

For some years the exodus from the Maritime provinces has been quite serious, and it is claimed that thousands of our young men and women have left our towns for the United States.

The exodus has at last been checked, and the tide of travel has turned to the Maritime provinces.

Last week the Boston-Yarmouth steamer, in two trips brought to Yarmouth over nine hundred Nova-Scotians who were on their way home. Most of them were to stay in the province but some of course were coming home for the Christmas holidays.

In New Brunswick we are told conditions have greatly improved, especially in the lumbering sections, where young men have been in great demand, and not enough to supply the demand.

Reports available here are to the effect that the lumberjacks are in a serious predicament and are pouring into the little town of Chandler from the forests of the Gaspé and Bonaventure counties where they had gone for the company during the winter season.

CONSERVATIVE WINS IN KENT COUNTY

Doucett Wins Over Bourgeois With About 200 of a Majority.

The result of the election in Kent County last Thursday was a victory for the Conservative Candidate Doucett, who defeated the Liberal standard bearer, Bourgeois, by a majority of 200 votes.

The campaign on behalf of Maritime rights was the strongest plea of the Conservative party and the daily-dallying of the Government at Ottawa in regard to these rights and the exportation of pulpwood, is surely bringing a storm of condemnation and turning former Liberal voters into oppositionists. The lack of organization and the closing down of the C. N. R. shops for three weeks also contributed to the defeat.

WHY WORRY ABOUT CANADA?

The per capita savings bank account of the Canadian is estimated today to amount to $240.

The Canadian per capita holds 63.7 per cent. of his own bonds, regardless of foreign issues, a total of $2,700,000,000, an increase in less than three years from $250 to $220 per head.

The wealth of Canada today per capita, regardless of undeveloped water, farm and mineral fields, is $290.

Since July, 1922, more than $100,000,000 has been spent in residential buildings alone. This means that approximately 20,000 distinct family buying groups become greater buyers in the Dominion's purchasing power. From January to July, 1923, more than $50,674,000 has been spent on residences in Canada.

Canadian trade is growing steadily. The imports and exports for 1923 are millions higher than in 1922. The Prairie provinces stand ripe with expectancy of a harvest greater than that of 1915 which established the Dominion's record. A harvest of close to half a billion bushels of wheat is predicted, which the banks are now fully prepared to finance, and the railroads and shipping companies to transport.

Output of factories, of mines, of forest products, is growing rapidly. And if we can get government expenditures and taxes reduced to a safe basis progress will be still more rapid than has been in the past two years.—Nelson News.

RECOMMENDS VICKS FOR FLEURIS

New Got Vicks for Quebec Mother Thankful She Can Canada.

Miss J. A. Leblond of 114 Rue Galt, Sherbrooke, Que., writes "Vicks" Vaporub is not a new remedy for us, because we have used it in our family for four or five years. We got it from the United States. This shows you how much we think of it. We are glad to get it here now, for there is nothing better for pleurisy, chest colds, etc."

Here is the last word in treating cold troubles—rub Vicks well in your throat and chest, get into bed and have the vapors rise about the neck.

Monthly Consumption, depression, etc., the influenza epidemic, the colds go in one night and cramp is commonly relieved in 15 minutes.

"Vicks" coming in a spray—the water, not alcohol, is used for all colds, influenza, headache, for influenza, and then by the French and Prussians.

Originally the drummers were government-appointed, and the last of whom, John Baptista, of the Scotch Guards, did not disappear till about the time of the Crimean War. Even yet traces of the drummers remain in the language—drum and drumstick of the man in charge of the big drum.

PROHIBITION IN FINLAND

Twice prior to the World War, Finland adopted prohibition of the beverage liquor traffic, but in each case the act was vetoed by the Car of Russia, who acted in each case under the threat of French interests with draw vast loans from Russia if Finnish prohibition were permitted.

When, however, Finland became an independent country in 1917, prohibition was again enacted and became operative on June 12, 1919.

A strong enforcement code was adopted by the Parliament of Finland and became effective on August 15, 1919. In spite of great difficulties to enforce the law against liquor smugglers and in spite of terrific economic pressure brought to bear by France and other wine-producing countries, Finland has been able to make real progress in the enforcement of the law. In the recent session of the Finnish Parliament a proposal was introduced calling for a plebiscite on the question of continuing prohibition. The bill was referred to a committee which after consideration, reported by a majority of 16 to 1 that in view of the fact that all elections held in recent years has shown a tremendous majority in favor of prohibition, no such plebiscite should be held. The opinion of the committee prevailed.

A FEW THOUGHTS

ON GAMBLING

Professor Falconer of Halifax gave a most timely lecture recently in that city on the sin of gambling. Such a lecture might well be given in Campbellton.

It is probable that the gambling spirit was never more rife than at present and in its spread our town has evidently not escaped. In this age every convenience and opportunity are present for indulging in the passion. All too often children grow up surrounded by such opportunities and parents seem scarcely to recognize the danger, nor to provide the safe-guard of wise council against it.

Judging from newspaper reports there is one effect of this evil that Professor Falconer did not emphasize. Probably the worst result from gambling is the fostering, if not the actual creation, of the spirit of getting something for nothing. There could hardly be a more deadly enemy of self-respect, of honesty, of recognition of the brotherhood of man and of the rights of society, than the feeling that it is quite alright to get something for nothing, which can only be done at the expense of others.

Legislation against gambling the suppression of opportunities and inducements will do all some thing to lessen the evil, but after all the real work goes back of that. It requires a quickening of moral perceptions on the part of parents and teachers so that the worst aspects of the vice may be brought home to the children while they are young. A clearer understanding of the moral issue involved will do much to overthrow the gambling habit.

POSTAGE RATES

The United States has reduced its postage rates to two cents and there is a demand from many parts of Canada that the time has arrived when our postal rate might also go back to the old pre-war figure of two cents. Two cent postage when it was first adopted meant a large increase in the revenue of the postal department. No doubt there would be a repetition of that if the government again adopted reduction of postage. Along the border Canadians feel particularly aggrieved because their neighbors just across the bridge or across the river can post their letters for two cents while they must put three cents on Canadian missives.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Premier Venizelos will probably return to Greece. He appears to be the one man competent to control the situation. The indications point to a republic, but the Greeks are a turbulent people and whoever essays the task of bringing tranquility must exercise a very high order of statesmanship or fail in the attempt.

The situation in Mexico, or rather one's impressions regarding it, depends a good deal upon whether Oregon or the other side has the last word with the correspondent.

THE HOME AND THE SCHOOL

A very commendable work is being carried on by the federated Home and School Associations in different parts of Canada. The objective, which is to bring the home and the school closer together and to introduce better co-operations between these two institutions, is clearly a worthy one. In British Columbia, Quebec and in several other parts of Canada organizations of this kind are doing much to bring about a better understanding between the home and the school and also a fuller appreciation of the efforts of each other.

The advantages resulting from more united effort in this connection is easily seen. The Home and the School are clearly the two great institutions in training the young for after years and moulding youthful character. The Church and Sunday School always have had and always will have a unique place in this important matter of helping educational relationship has always existed. With the school it is different. Many parents make no attempt to co-operate with teachers or to assist in the important matter of helping educational institutions in their work of tutoring the young and directing their acquisition of practical knowledge. Undoubtedly the Home has a duty of its own entirely outside the matter of education alone, but if those who are responsible for the child's home training would offer more support and co-operation to those responsible for the educational training, the scope and influence of the school would be greatly increased.

This is a good thought for parents in Campbellton and throughout the

INTEREST IN WINTER CARNIVAL GROWS

Many Visitors From Outside Points Enthusiastic Over The Idea.

There has been some talk locally of the idea of holding a Winter Carnival in Campbellton. Whether the event will really materialize or not remains to be seen, but the idea seems to be receiving favorable consideration among many. Several visitors from neighboring places who come to Campbellton frequently declared themselves much in favor of such an event and were very enthusiastic when speaking about it to the Graphic.

No doubt the idea is a good one although to many the thought of such an event may represent only a great deal of labor expended at the hazard of a small return. Naturally there may also be those who will oppose it on the ground that such an affair will not prove a success in our town. If these latter constitute the great minority, then those who are in favor of the undertaking and willing to render practical assistance should lose no time in boosting the movement which is as yet only in its creeps, so to speak. Another week will usher us into the new year and from then on every day will count in the preparation for such an enterprise if it should be gone ahead with. It would be a mistake to attempt anything on too big a scale considering the fact that nothing of this kind has been undertaken here before. But on the other hand it would be as well to abandon the idea without further discussion as to stage something that would not give it a chance to make good in a really satisfactory way or reflect credit upon our town and those behind the affair.

MADAWASKA GIRL SHOT, J. LIZOTTE IS UNDER ARREST

Edmundston, N. B., Dec. 26—John Lizotte, whose home is near Green River, is in the jail here awaiting the outcome of a shooting which occurred at Green River.

From all the reports available Lizotte, who some time ago is understood to have had trouble with Paul Cyr, of Green River, appeared in the village carrying a rifle. He hung about Cyr's residence off and on for the greater part of the day. After dark a shot was heard, a bullet entered through the wall of Cyr's house struck an 11-year-old girl named Garon. The latter is in the St. Basil Hospital, and on the result of her injuries will depend the charge laid against Lizotte.

HEAVY TRAFFIC ON GASPE COAST

Trains on Q. & O. R. Crowded to Capacity—Extra Coaches Required

According to reports the passenger traffic on the Quebec and Ontario Railway between Matapedia and Gaspé during the recent Christmas season was the heaviest in recent years if not establishing a record on that railway.

During the week-end and particularly on Saturday of last week traffic was very heavy. On each daily trip the coaches were crowded to capacity and on one occasion many were obliged to perch on the platforms and car-steps. In one instance two extra cars had to be sent out from New Carlisle. They were attached to the regular train at Grand Caspédia and from there on the passengers enjoyed more comfort.

Except when traffic is extraordinarily heavy travelling by train on the Gaspé Coast is now attended with much more comfort than was the case a few years ago. The entire road has been recently ballasted and this improvement has booked much favorable comment from the travelling public. A spacious parlor-car with comfortably upholstered seats has also been in operation during the last few years and this has proven a very popular addition to the service.

MENTIONED IN $2400 FUR CASE

Local Firm. Apparent to be Connected With Illegal Purchase of Beaver Skins

According to Chief Game Warden Gagnon it would appear that a local firm is involved in a case of illegal provincial "skin-pans." Following is a report from Fredericton in connection with the case.

Fredericton, Dec. 26—Beaver skins which are valued at approximately $2,400 and which bear Province of Quebec royalty stamps are being sold by Chief Game Warden Gagnon here pending the arrival of an official from Quebec who is carrying on an investigation in connection with what New Brunswick officials believe to be a plot of considerable proportions and of inter-provincial range to defraud the governments of the two provinces.

The beaver skins numbering 158 and were found by Chief Game Warden Gagnon at the premises on King street of Morris Rappaport, who deals extensively in furs. All the skins here Province of Quebec royalty stamps and were shipped here by the firm of Rosenheck & Glickman of Campbellton, N. B. Despite the fact that there was nothing illegal on the part of the local dealers in having the furs in their possession, the Chief Game Warden determined to hold them for investigation inasmuch as the open season for beavers in Quebec opened only on December 15th and in the short time which had intervened, it didn't seem possible for such a large shipment to have been legally taken and shipped out of Quebec.

The consignment has been held for several days now and information has been received here that a Province of Quebec official, who is carrying on an investigation as a result of advice received from Chief Game Warden Gagnon, will arrive in Fredericton to-morrow when a decision will be reached as to what will be done in the case.

"I do not pretend to be an expert of furs," said Chief Game Warden Gagnon today, "but a number of the one hundred and fifty nine beaver skins which I am holding pending the arrival of a Quebec official certainly look to me to be unpriced as if they had been taken in the early fall and the Quebec open season for beavers did not commence until December 15th."

Here and There

Sixty per cent of Hamilton's population have their own homes. The fact revealed by the figures of the 1923 assessment for the Ontario city, which, according to these figures, has 95,229 dwellings and 427 apartments.

The great flour movement over the wharves at Fort William and Fort Arthur this season, has been unprecedented, according to reports of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which, by the end of October, had shipped 230,000 tons of flour to lower Lake ports.

Port Arthur's building permits for the ten months ending October showed a total of $2,632,000, which is the largest building year in the history of this Ontario city, exceeding even the total for 1921, one of the real estate boom years.

Canada exported $4,776,000 worth of cheese to various countries during the month of October, an increase of $1,244,000, over the total amount of cheese exported in October, 1922. The United Kingdom was by far the largest consumer, taking 225,000 cwt., valued at $4,684,000.

According to an announcement of Hon. E. H. Armstrong, Premier of Nova Scotia and Minister of Mines, the coal production of his province for this year will reach at least 6,000,000 tons, an increase over last year's production of 4,642,196 tons of more than 1,500,000 tons. The outlook for 1934 is encouraging.

The Prince of Wales, on his return to his duties, is attracted to his Alberta ranch, William Carby, superintendent of the P. R. Ranch, told the members of the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturists in addressing them at Toronto recently.

Fur traders in the distant parts of Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia, ordinarily weeks and months away from mail service, are now getting regular quotations on furs from the Calgary Herald's radio broadcasting service.

The annual winter carnival at Banff, which is yearly becoming more popular and is attracting sports enthusiasts from all parts of the continent, will be held February 2-9, 1934, while the Banff annual bazaar will take place February 4-9.

According to estimates made by the Rt. Rev. Dr. G. Exton Lloyd, Bishop of Saskatchewan, the province has room for an additional 200,000 people. The Bishop, who has completed a six weeks' tour of the limits of settlement in his diocese, covering 2,400 miles, and estimates that homes and livings for 250,000 could be provided in the country referred to.

In 1916 only 91,089,702 bushels of Canadian grain were shipped through Dominion ports, where as 163,649,868 bushels were shipped through the States. The figures for 1923, up to September 31, on the other hand, show that Canada now ships nearly half her grain through her own ports. During this period the amount registered has been 108,548,488 bushels despatched via Canadian ports and 116,629,436 via those of the United States.

ALL THE NEWS DALHOUSIE, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1923. EVERY WEEK

SOME EVENTS OF CLOSING YEAR

Future Looks Good For Shiretown—More Provisions Being Made For Tourists

Dalhousie, N. B., Dec. 26.—A little review of the year just about closing might prove interesting to many of our readers. The most important event that occurred in the shiretown during 1923 was the visit of His Excellency, Sir Julian Hornworth, Governor General of Canada, and Lady Byng. The reception that was given to the representatives of His Majesty King George, was on a par with receptions given to the Governor of our great Dominion in the past by the people of Dalhousie.

Building operations during the year look encouraging for the future. Dalhousie has every convenience to be called a reasonable town. Land can be purchased or leased at a reasonable figure. The building of fine concrete sidewalks on Adelaide and Brunswick Streets is among the improvements made this year.

The understanding arrived at when the annual school meeting was held in July, to take steps to secure a good site and adopt measures for the school building, was one of the things covered in the holding of a most important event of the year 1923.

The action of the Federal authorities in granting a subsidy for the first time for the carrying on of a ferry across the Dalhousie River and Bonaventure Co. points, with the Quebec and New Brunswick governments working in harmony, makes the future look optimistic for regular steamboat service between Campbellton, Dalhousie and Maguasha, and St. John's and Carleton Place.

This proposition was fully established this year, and that a few days ago an Order in Council was passed at Ottawa ordering the payment of what is due the owners of the S. S. Angella B. McKeown for the few weeks service rendered last summer.

One building only was destroyed by fire during the year in the shiretown, and that was the residence of his late Alex McKay, in a pretty cottage now occupies the site of the lost house.

During the year unusual interest was taken in the tourist trade, in view of the great losses suffered by the town, in the destruction by fire during the recent years, of the Inch Arran House and Murphy's Hotel, and of the great prospects of wonderful increase in tourist travel on the North Shore of New Brunswick and the Bay of Chaleur. The citizens knowing that the late Sir John A. Macdonald, Cullivoght, Schreiber, D. Peltier and other celebrities maintained that Dalhousie was one of the finest summer resorts in Canada, have been agitating for the erection of one or two summer hotels. In this connection Ex-Mayor W. S. Montgomery, Miss E. Stewart of Glen Cottage and Miss Kate Phillips, daughter of the late John Phillips, Esq. M. P. P., have offered splendid sites for Tourist Hotels. In the first case, enough land is offered to establish gold mines in connection with the

Happenings of The Week

In a former issue of the Graphic our correspondents made it appear that the Lodge Casey, who was drowned in Ontario was a son of John Casey, former Postmaster of Maguasha. This is not the case.

The father of the deceased young girl is a nephew of the late Rev. Joseph Donestie of LaMouque, Gloucester Co., who was one of New Brunswick's greatest preachers.

Many Bonaventure Co. friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Peter Cyr, the amiable wife of Mr. Cyr, Mayor of St. Onen, Bonaventure Co. P. Q. Mrs. Cyr formerly Miss Anna Phillips, age sixty-four, was a person endowed with many fine qualities and will be very much missed. The news of her death was heard with regret by those who had had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

With ideal weather and good winter roads Christmas trade was good in Dalhousie. The stores looked attractive being nicely decorated for the holiday season. People from Quebec side have been able to cross over in boats to do their shopping. Boats worked on Monday, 24th, and at some of our families celebrate the New Year in the presenting of gifts, etc., the stores will continue their sale of fancy articles.

So many passengers, having purchased tickets for Dalhousie, desired to travel from the junction on Thursday evening, that the train could not accommodate them all, and a special trip had to be made in order to bring them all to town.

Hotel propositions are receiving serious consideration. Mrs. The Nadeau, a talented and industrious woman of Dalhousie and who owns the late Geo. Moffat. Ex-Mr. P. Q. has decided to sell the building her intentions to the Tourist officials to add two stories to her already large house. All the present rooms are already engaged for the summer of 1924. The addition proposed and to be undertaken in March, will be ready for June 15th, will give at least fifty rooms. She has been advised to reserve the land in front of her present house for tennis, croquet and other games. Had she carried out her first idea there would not have been any space left for outdoor amusements. This is some of the work planned in 1923 and now comes now before the close of the year from the United States, inquiring how much land can be secured by purchase or lease near the Ball water for the building of cottages for families desiring to spend the summer months in our healthy and beautiful little town. This proposition is now being worked out and to all appearances in a successful manner, in so far as a reasonable offer made by those who own and facing the Bonaventure River and the Bay of Chaleur, conveniently located for bathing and boating purposes.

This year brought about quite an important addition to the P. Q. Lumber Co's Mill in town, and so many more men find employment resulting in increased demand being made for houses. The outlook now is that there will not be sufficient housing accommodations for the requirements in the spring of 1924.

QUIET CHRISTMAS IN SHIRETOWN

Yuletide Church Services Were Largely Attended—Special Music and Singing A Feature

As usual Christmas day was a quiet one in the shiretown. In our days families enjoy the family circle after the Christmas dinner. In the good old days before confederation and after, it was customary for many of the leading families of the town to be out on Christmas afternoon with their teams enjoying a drive around town, and the older citizens can still remember the jingle of the sleigh bells, as a dozen teams could be seen coming around the street corners.

Midnight service was held in the R. C. Church and the offices was never so crowded. There was special singing and music appropriate to the occasion. Rev. J. A. Hagg preached an eloquent sermon on the celebration in English.

At upper Church the Midnight Mass service was largely attended. Several were there from Dalhousie and were there from Dalhousie and were delighted with the singing and service. The new church was a pretty sight in the Christmas decorations and ceremonies.

Dalhousie Junction

A very pleasant time was spent on Wednesday evening Dec. 19th at the hall, Dalhousie Jet, when the Sunday School put on an excellent Christmas concert. A large audience was present and the children performed their parts admirably, but one of the interesting features of the evening was the appearance of Santa in his usual good cheer and striped a tree well laden with gifts. Another eventful happening of the evening was the presentation to the superintendent of the Sunday School, Mr. John Jamieson, a devoted elder, of a handsome pair of gloves. After a dainty lunch was served by the ladies. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and music. The committee who was in charge of the entertainment is to be congratulated on their success.

The pupils of Dalhousie Jet School gave a splendid entertainment at the school-house on Friday evening Dec. 21st. There were present a large number of parents and friends of the children, filling up the school building very well. The children rendered their parts with much enthusiasm and reflected great credit upon their teacher. There were recitations, dialogues, songs and choruses which was greatly enjoyed. A goodly sum was realized which will go toward improving the school.

Our efficient and popular teacher Miss Palmer, is spending her holidays at her home in Tabusintac, N. B.

VACUUM BOTTLES

Most people use vacuum flasks, now that they are so much cheaper and travelling they are almost indispensable.

The flask that is in constant use should be filled with cold water when ever it has been emptied, and then washed with warm soapy water, rinsed and dried. It should then be set in an airy place without the cork until it is required for use again. Rinse with hot or cold water before filling.

Corks require special care, as they are liable absorb the odor of hot beverages. It is a wise plan to have a second cork for each flask, so that one can be dried and scrubbed, when necessary, before using again.

When soup or hot milk has been beverage used the flask should be washed with very hot water. Tea will never "taste of the tin" if milk is added after the tea has been poured out. When picnicing or traveling it is well worth while to carry a little milk in a bottle. Coffee can be made from any of the well-known essences if the milk and water have been kept hot in the flask. Cocoa can be made in the same way.

Whadjamean Slight Build?

Tasmanian paper: "A young woman typist took part in the Marathon race from Durban to Maritzburg, a fair-haired, blue-eyed girl of slight build; she weighs only seven tons. Woman to a solicitor.—How dare you ask me that question! I will have you up for information of character.—Tit-Bits.

Experiences teaches people a lot of things they would rather not know.
