WESTERN ONTARIO.

BRANT.

The newly-appointed superintendent of the Brantford Indians, Mr. Cameron, has been honored by the chiefs of the tribe on an Indian name. Chief Wm. Wedge, who performed the ceremony, led him between two lines of volunteers, and went through twice singing Rayana, an Indian song. At the finish of the ceremony the chief announced three times that he should be called Dehahawathia, meaning "He enlightens."

The death took place in Brantford on Sunday of J. Harper, foreman blacksmith for many years in the Watrous engine works. Deceased, who was 63 years old, died of complications ensuing on a gripper. Geo. Fleming, of Glenora, is at present attending the V. M. C. A. training school at Springfield, Mass., and has secured a position as instructor in gymnastics at Brantford, Man. He is a son of the late Gavin Fleming, M.P. for North Brant.

The 5:40 passenger train on the B. W. and L. E. Railway ran into a tree which had fallen across the track about two miles from Brantford on Monday afternoon. The engine was completely wrecked, and Engineer Walsh was severely hurt. Fireman Hamilton had his head cut. The coaches did not leave the track. The engine is complete loss.

Burglars entered a hotel in Brantford near the station on Friday evening and secured 25 cents. Not satisfied with this amount they also entered the office of McDonald & Montgomery, dealers in wood, and secured $14. No arrests.

Miss Nellie Gill, a Port Hope young lady, who has lived nearly two years in Brantford, was taken ill ten days ago and was conveyed to her home, where she died four days later. She was engaged to a young man in Port Arthur and was to have been married soon. Deceased was a member of the Baptist Church, and was highly esteemed in Brantford and Port Hope.

ESSEX.

SUMMER DAYS

Are hot. It is hard to keep cool, in fact impossible. No more fire is wanted in the house than is absolutely necessary to keep life going. Every one looks for the least discomfort. But work must be done—clothing must be cleaned—linens, cottons, laces are wanted snowy white. The easiest, coolest, quickest way is what's wanted. NO BOILING, NO SCALDING, NO HEAVY WASH BOILER TO LIFT ABOUT, NO STEAM THROUGH THE HOUSE ON WASH DAY, WOULD BE A GREAT BOON. You can wash this way with SURPRISE SOAP the "Surprise way." Thousands of women READ the directions on the wrapper.

ceased became proprietor. He has since 1867 repeatedly filled the office of clerk, deputy reeve, mayor and assessor. He was married in 1861 to Elizabeth Stewart, second daughter of Rev. Edward M. Stewart, who resided in Guelph for many years.

On Sunday last Rev. W. G. Jordan, Stratford, and Rev. Mr. Dewar, Altona, exchanged pulpits. The pulpit of the Baptist Church was occupied on Sunday last by Rev. Mr. Swann, the pastor being away in St. Thomas.

At a meeting of the Young People's Guild of St. Andrew's Church, on Sunday evening, after services, Dr. Jennie Carson read an excellent address on "Patience."

The W. C. T. U. purpose having a garden party and reception for all the teachers in the schools, at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Armstrong, on the evening of June 30.

The arbitration between Caradoc and Metcalf, after some progress had been made, was adjourned till July 2.

A man named Hart has been arrested in Woodstock, and on his person were found some goods that have been identified as stolen from Rogers in Tilsonburg.

David Harris, one of the pioneers of North Oxford, died on Tuesday last, after an illness of nearly two years. He had been a resident of the neighborhood for a great many years, was well known and highly respected. He was a bachelor.

An effort is being made on the part of the Ingersoll jewellers to close their places of business at 2 o'clock.

Hugh McDonald, of Chesterfield, was up before the J. P. there on Monday last for refusing to perform or commute for his statute labor, which was one day's labor or 75 cents. His defense was that he was sick and not able to perform the work and had no money to pay the bill. Fined $5 and costs or ten days in jail. Defendant asked costs on appeal, which was granted.

A spicy breach of promise case will likely be ventilated at the next assizes in Woodstock. The plaintiff is a young man of that town, while the defendant was recently married and has become a resident of Norwich. The amount asked to heal the wound is $10,000.

There are five inmates in the Woodstock jail who are confined there as paupers. Their ages are 72, 81, 83, 87 and 91, a total of 414 years, or an average of 83 years.

Rev. Messrs. Russ and Kirby, of Woodstock, are to their respective congregations in Woodstock on Sunday evening.

The Daily House, Ingersoll, has changed hands. Mr. McIsaac, retiring, the lease and good-will having been bought by S. Hirsch, who formerly kept a lively stable there.

Moses Green, a colored man, who has been kept by Ingersoll for the past two years, was removed as a vagrant a short time ago to Woodstock jail, where he died last week.

The embalmment case of Patterson Bros. of Woodstock, vs. Ezra Day, was brought up before P. M. Field, of Woodstock, and dismissed with costs to plaintiff.

The Ingersoll A. A. are making all necessary preparations for a big demonstration there on Dominion Day. The display of prizes to be competed for, which are now on exhibition at their rooms on Thames street, is the finest ever shown in the county.

Mary Collet of the late James Stinson, died in hospital on June 13, aged 75. She settled in the township in 1852.

David McLeod, of Harrison, while playing football at that place on Thursday, had his leg broken at the ankle.

Tom Murray, of Ellice, has a mare which gave birth to two colts, and a cow which gave birth to two calves.

While a number of children were playing in Mitchell on Wednesday a little son of Wm. Barnett, aged about 6 years, had one of his arms fractured between the elbow and wrist. Although the break is a bad one the child is reported as doing nicely.

W. H. Davis has thrown up his situation in Toronto and returned to Mitchell, intending to devote his time with his brother to their grocery business.

WATERLOO. Some time ago Joseph Taylor, of Galt, deserted his wife and four children. About the same time a Mrs. Reeker left the place. The relatives of the man and woman have been looking for them ever since, and had about given up their search when it was discovered that both were living in Port Huron. Saturday an uncle of Taylor's arrived in Port Huron, and after looking around found the couple at the Allen House, where they have been living as man and wife for some time past. War-timers were sworn out and late Saturday afternoon the pair were arrested and locked up in the county jail. The woman is old enough to be the man's mother. Ralls are coming daily at the G. T. R. station at Berlin for the new Elmira branch. The workmen are already at work on the line and will push it ahead for all it's worth.

Mrs. Wm. Currie left Ayer last week for Carberry, Man., where Mr. Currie has been for some time.

Noah Bricker, Roseville, recently lost one of his best young horses. A splinter in its foot brought on blood poisoning. The animal was valued at from $150 to $175.

In John Scott, Galt, shipped 235 head of cattle to the old country one day last week.

Brown & Wilkinson, Galt, shipped 76 cattle to England the other day.

WELLINGTON. The Guelph chief of police has been instructed to act as a trustee officer.

F. J. Chadwick, publisher of the Guelph Herald, died on Saturday after an illness of only a few days. Though feeling unwell since the previous Sunday, he was around the city until Thursday. He was the second son of J. C. Chadwick, who died eighteen months ago, and his age was only 53. His father purchased the Herald in 1872 from Alex. Pirie, and in 1885 de-
