QUARTETTE MURDERERS EXECUTED

Montreal's quartette of bank bandit murderers met their Maker on the scaffolds of Bordeaux before five o'clock Friday morning.

Morel and Gambina were hanged first on the west side of the building, the trap being sprung at 4:56 a.m. Three minutes later Tony Frank and Serafini followed them into eternity on the east gallows—just as the trap was sprung the church bells rang for the angelus.

There were no scenes accompanying the executions. "Go Easy" said Frank Gambino as he stepped on the trap. Tony Frank said nothing—thus the final curtain falls, on what has been one of the most sensational crimes and trials in the history of Canada.

On April 1 of this year the collection car of the Hochelaga bank, Montreal, was held up at the Ontario street subway at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and looted of $142,288 in bills and in the melee that proceeded the theft Henry Cleroux chauffeur of the car was shot dead. One of the bandits big Paul Stone was later in the afternoon found dead in the automobile, used in the commission of the crime.

At an emergency meeting of the cabinet Thursday the death sentence upon Mike Valentino and Leo Dav's was committed.

ENCOURAGING INFORMATION

Hon. Dr. Roberts, Minister of Health has returned from a visit to Toronto and New York, bringing encouraging information concerning his efforts while away on behalf of the public health nursing system established last year. In Toronto last week he attended a meeting of the central committee of the Red Cross and was promised that his request for $10,000 to help carry on the work of public health nursing would be given serious consideration at the annual meeting next March. In New York, the Minister of Health was successful in flaying the Rockefeller Foundation grant continued for 12 public health nurses.

NEWCASTLE MAN TRAPPED BY FIRE FELL TO DEATH

A telegram was received here last Friday afternoon by Miss Maud Ingram telling of the tragic death of her brother, George Ingram which occurred in Escanaba, Michigan, early the same morning.

George Ingram, foreman of the contracting concern which was engaged in the task of raising the Chicago and Northwestern Railways No. 3 ore dock, was killed in a fire which, early Friday morning, had completely burned No. 3 and had obtained such headway on No. 4 dock that it was impossible to save any part of the latter structure. The loss totalled $1,250,000.

George Ingram, together with Sherman Sheer, was taken to the extreme end of No. 3 dock, in an endeavor to run a hose over from No. 4, a distance of about 300 feet. With the suddenness of an explosion, the fire jumped 100 feet and surrounded the two men. Sheer saved himself by jumping eighty feet into the water of the bay, where he was picked up by a tug, while George Ingram attempted to slide down a rope. The rope burned through, and Mr. Ingram was plunged into a seething cauldron of flames.

The unfortunate man who died in the exercise of his duty, was born in Newcastle and was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram, and is remembered well by many people here, who were painfully shocked to hear of his sad death.

The late Mr. Ingram was a member of the Elks and his remains were taken in charge by that society, a member of which will convey them to Newcastle this week, where interment will be held in the family lot in St. James Cemetery.

Deceased is survived by four sisters, Miss Mary Ingram of Newcastle, Mrs. John Petrie of Protectionville, Miss Maud Ingram R.N. of Newcastle and Mrs. Russell McKnight of Chatham, and one brother, William of Vancouver, B.C. To the bereaved family is extended the sympathy of the entire community in their sad and sudden grief.

MAJORITY FOR THE "DRYS" HOVERS AROUND 40,000

There is very little change in the standing of the vote on the Ontario Temperance Act. The majority for prohibition hovered around 40,000 with several hundred polls still to be heard from. It is not likely that any close estimate of the majority can be formed until the chief election officer announced the official count.

The result of the vote will be that the Ontario Temperance Act will remain on the statute books. This was made clear by Premier G. Howard Ferguson when he announced that the government would accept the verdict of the majority and enforce the Act to the best of its ability.

The Provincial Prime Minister was asked if the government would bring in a local bill, in view of the fact that most of the big centres of population had voted against prohibition. "The government cannot give any concessions to wet cities" replied Mr. Ferguson. "The result of the vote is apparent and the issue was clearly defined and agreed upon by both parties beforehand."

The provincial plebiscite summary read: 6,591 sub-divisions out of 7,332 show: For the Ontario Temperance Act $42,196. For Government control 501,828. Dry majority 40,368.

GRAND JURY VISITS COUNTY JAIL

The October term of the Northumberland County Court opened here on Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock, His Honor Judge McLatchy presiding. There were no criminal cases to come before the Court, and by request of counsel the civil cases were stood over till next court.

The grand jury elected R. Waldo Crocker, foreman, and through him made the following presentation:—

Court House, Newcastle, N. B., Oct. 21st, 1924.
To His Honour, Mr. Justice McLatchy.
We, the Grand Jurors assembled here this Twenty-first day of October A. D. 1924, as requested by you have visited the County Jail to look into the sanitary conditions of same and beg leave to report to your Honour the conditions we found the building in.

First: We found two prisoners in the centre cell, facing main entrance. This cell is very dark. The plumbing is in a very leaky condition and water running over the floor.

Second: All the cells on the Northern side are not equipped with locks and have neither cots nor blankets.

Third: The cells on the Southern side are in a dilapidated and disgraceful condition. The plaster is off the ceiling of several of the cells. In the corridor the plaster on the ceiling is also falling off and water is dripping down through the ceiling. Several of the cots are in a broken condition and are not fit for a human being to sleep on.

Fourth: In the main entrance the paper and plaster are falling off the walls. In the debtor cells upstairs the wainscoting and floors are in bad condition. In one cell the wainscoting had been torn off and bricks removed from the wall and prisoners had escaped. The bricks have been replaced but the wainscoting has been only temporarily replaced.

Fifth: There is not any drinking water in any of the cells except in the corridor and prisoners locked in the cells cannot procure water unless given by the Jailor.

We strongly recommend that these conditions be rectified at once.

The U. S. Will Build An Air Leviathan

A new military airship over twice the size of the ZR-3 and the Shenandoah will be built by the United States Navy if the directors of the budget and congress grant the appropriation now being asked by the Navy Department.

Although the size of the air leviathan will depend upon the money available present plans call for a capacity, about six million cubic feet original plans for a 10,000,000 cubic foot ship having been given up.

The ZR-3 contains 2,400,000 feet. No official announcement of the plans will be made until after the election even if the budget bureau approved the expenditure.

LESS FOOD, MORE MONEY, BETTER HEALTH

A writer who has spent almost a lifetime studying food values and the effects of foods on the human system, has published the important notes on the subject of eating and digestion.

It is admitted that most people eat too much and that a great many of the sicknesses from which people suffer are traceable to the stomach, which has been overworked by too heavy diet or injured by unsuitable food. Everybody assuredly would profit by eating less and choosing food with greater discrimination.

"As to the length of the digestive process" says this writer "nothing could be more ridiculous and disastrous than the statement in almost every book on the subject. It is usually asserted that digestion takes from two to four hours. Hence people are under the impression that they must eat every four hours or even more frequently.

"In many hospitals even, there are at least four meals a day. The hospitals should represent medical science up-to-date as regards foods—and everything. I have not the slightest hesitation in saying that if a really sensible diet was introduced into hospitals, three quarters of the hospitals would no longer be needed!"

"The full digestive process, including the digestion not only of the bodybuilding foods in the stomach but also the digestion and assimilation of these foods in the intestines through the pancreatic juice and the digestion and assimilation of starchy and sugary foods and fatty foods in the intestines, may take from nine to thirty hours. "Instead of digestion taking from two to four hours, which would point to three or four as the right number of meals in the day, digestion takes probably not less than twelve hours in most cases, and points to, not more than two meals a day. What an economy of food, money, labor and energy!"

FILL VACANCY IN THE CABINET AT EARLY DATE

Hon. J.P. Byrne was in Fredericton last week cleaning up his business in the office of Attorney-General which he has occupied since 1917. It is expected that he may also be sworn in as Judge of the King's Bench Division of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick.

So far nothing has been done towards filling the vacancy caused by the elevation of Hon. Mr. Byrne to the bench. Premier Veniot was able to be out last week and early this week some definite steps in the choice of the new Attorney General are expected.

If Ivan C. Rand of Moncton becomes Attorney-General, a bye-election in the city of Moncton will undoubtedly be called on at once the seat for Moncton having been vacated when Hon. C.W. Robinson was called to the Senate. Doubt exists as to whether Gloucester county will have a bye-election or whether this county's representation in the Legislature stands at three members for the coming session which will be the last before a general election.

Tourist Business In New Brunswick

At least 70,000 tourists came to New Brunswick during the summer according to the estimates prepared by C.B. Allan, secretary of the New Brunswick Tourist Association. A considerably larger proportion of the tourists came by motor than entered the province by car last year. He said he believed the tourists this year had been better satisfied with weather conditions, roads and accommodation than they had been in any previous year. The camp sites of which there were about 15 in the province, had been well patronized but he thought some of them could still be improved with advance. Some of the tourists had complained to the Tourist Association about indifferent accommodation in various parts of the province, having special reference to the hotels. Mr. Allan thought there should be some improvement made in several of the hotels.

He spoke of the entire lack of tourist accommodation in some localities where the tourist would be glad to go.

Speaking of the part that the Tourist Association had played this year in bringing so many tourists to the province, Mr. Allan said that it had expended more than $3,000 in advertising since Jan. 1. The Association had this summer put on a province-wide campaign for members to try to raise a little money for extra advertising.

It was the experience of the Association that an increasingly large number of the visitors who came to the province wanted to play golf and Mr. Allan said that the Association had been able to Skin disease threatens us every day. Invisible germs of blood-poison, eczema, etc., are waiting to infect the least cut or sore place. The money you use carries germs—you get them on the handles, rails and straps of the trains and street cars, and in a score of other ways. Specially treated Zam-buk, Mr. Henry C. Davis, of South 17th Street, Kansas City, U.S.A., has just escaped a virulent type of eczema, contracted, he suspects, through use of public towels. "I had medical advice," he says, "used in addition all sorts of so-called eczema remedies, without finding the hoped-for relief. Zam-buk treatment soon gave positive results. It took away the painful irritation and quickly purified and healed the deep troublesome sores."

FRENCH ARE MOVING OUT OF THE RUHR

Berlin, Oct. 21—The French have evacuated the River Port of Karlsruhe as a preliminary to evacuation of the Ruhr and Rhine land in accord with agreements reached at London.

French troops also evacuated Mannheim Harbor as scheduled and are due to withdraw from Dortmund at dawn tomorrow. Preliminary work of evacuation, has been completed at Dortmund to the joy of the inhabitants.

There was considerable speculation in allied military circles today as to how far France would proceed with plans for evacuation of the Ruhr pending the outcome of the general elections in Germany next month. The French have been extremely cautious and greatly distrust the German nationalists who may gain in the elections.

The Horrors of Fame

The penalties which attend renown have gathered round the path of the little film star Jackie Coogan who has arrived in London from America. Not content with welcoming him on his arrival, hundreds of people hung about the Strand outside the Savoy Hotel in the wild hope of seeing him come out or go in. Disgraceful scenes took place at Westminster Roman Catholic Cathedral on Sunday. Jackie and his parents had to force their way into the church through crowds of curiosity-mongers, and even inside the building the pressure upon them was so great that a verger had to take them close up to the altar and they had to make their escape after service by a side door. On Monday at Wembley similar scenes were renewed, and the pressure becoming intolerable the small victim of publicity was carried on his father's shoulders to the Press Club for shelter. These happenings prompt cynical reflections upon the feebleness of the human intellect, and also upon the abundant leisure which multitudes are able to expend upon idle gazing. Could not such prodigious waste of time be made punishable by some mild type of hard labor? Meantime, the more thoughtful members of the community will bestow upon Jackie Coogan their sincerest sympathy and will recall the counsel of Thomas a Kempis—Ama nesciri—Love to be unknown. British Weekly, Sept. 13th.

help several of the tourists in that regard. The Tourist Association this year had distributed more booklets than in any previous year and had received and answered more enquiries with reference to accommodation, roads and places. The figures for the entry of automobiles into the province this year, Mr. Allan had obtained from the various points and were as follows: St. Stephen about 5,000; Centreville 2,294; St. Croix 400; Edmundston 425; Grand Falls and Saint Leonards about 5,000; River du Loup 104 and Campbellton 250. The number of tourists brought by the Eastern Steamships this year had been about 11,000 and it was estimated that about 11,000 had come in by the C.P.R.; while tourists who had landed at Grand Manan and Campbellton would bring an additional 100 or 200. In each case the figures this year showed an appreciable increase over the figures of last year.

Newcastle Branch Thomas Clarke, Manager

Rev. Dr. Gordon On Presbyterianism

The following letter from Rev. Dr. M. Gordon, D.D., ex-Principal of Queen's University, Kingston; Ont. was read in Parliament during the Church Union Debate. Dr Gordon is an ex-moderator of the General Assembly. He has had a long and successful career as a Minister, and College Professor in Eastern, Central and Western Canada, and knows the country as few know it. Born in the old town of Pictou, he was brought up in the Church of Scotland there, and later was for a time Minister of St. Andrew's Church, Halifax, and a Professor in Pine Hill College. As the letter indicates, he was a staunch Unionist at one time and he gives abundant reason for his change of view.

DEAR MR. MACDONALD:—

Permit me to draw your attention to some considerations connected with the bill at present before Parliament for the incorporation of the United Church of Canada. For ten years (1905-1915) I was a member of the Union committee of the Presbyterian church and a warm advocate of the movement, believing that, if it could be accomplished with the general consent of the members, it would tend to promote very greatly the spiritual life of our people and the progress of the Kingdom of God in our country.

At the outset, it was stipulated that the church would enter into the proposed union only on condition of the practically unanimous consent of the members. In the report of the Union Committee submitted to the General Assembly in 1905 it is stated that, "It was universally recognized that a union of the churches to be real and lasting must carry the consent of the entire membership." (Assembly Minutes, Appendix, p. 280) and this was adopted unanimously by the Assembly. (Ass. Minutes, p. 46.)

I can say with the utmost confidence that if we had imagined that the proposed union could be secured only at the cost of the disruption of the Presbyterian church the movement would have ended with the initial proposal of it in our General Assembly.

As negotiations proceeded year after year and the basis of union was gradually drawn up opposition to it developed in the courts of the church, so that it was determined to submit the matter to the members to ascertain the mind of the whole church concerning it. Accordingly, the Assembly remitted it to presbyteries in 1911, to consult with the congregations of the church.

It has been contended that the constitution and laws of the church did not require the assent of the members and that the judgment of presbyteries, synods and General Assembly should be a sufficient guide and warrant for procedure in this matter, as in other important movements within the church these bodies being entitled to represent the entire membership. No organized society, however, makes provision in its constitution and forms of procedure for its own extinction, and, as the church consists not merely of its official courts but of its entire membership and as it was now proposed to merge the Presbyterian church in an entirely new ecclesiastical organization, this action in asking for the judgment of all congregations and members was both wise and essential. Moreover, the pledge given at the outset of the negotiations to consummate union only with "the consent of the entire membership" could not be evaded.

When, in the assembly of 1912 the votes of the members were received and considered, we were greatly surprised to find a substantial minority opposed to the union. Out of a total registered membership of 287,944 only 155,032 voted; and of those voting only 106,756 approved while 48,278 were opposed. That is 54 per cent of the total membership voted; 37 per cent of the total membership for union; 17 per cent of the total membership against union. See Minutes of Assembly for 1912 (Appendix, p. 330.)

In view of this opposition, the assembly resolved as follows:—"In view of the extent of the minority which is not yet convinced that organic union is the best method of expressing the unity sincerely desired by all, the assembly deems it unwise immediately to proceed to consummate the union, but believes that by further conference and discussion practically unanimous action can be secured within a reasonable time." (Min. of Ass. 1912, p. 45). Meanwhile closer relations might be fostered between the churches and greater co-operation promoted in missionary, educational and social activities.

In 1915 it was again agreed by the General Assembly to consult the members of the church, but when the vote was received and considered by the assembly in 1916, we were surprised to find that the opposition had greatly increased, that while 106,534 members voted in favor of the Union proposals, 69,913 voted against them. (Ass. Min. for 1916; Appendix, p. 279).

Evidently it would have been wise at this stage to halt further proceedings, even though a majority of presbyteries favored union. Clearly the time was not ripe for the proposed change. The mind of the church was not prepared for it; and organic union under such conditions would tend rather to hinder than to promote spiritual unity.

Instead, however, of calling a halt in the movement, the assembly in 1916 asserted its adherence to union as the policy of the church; but later, in 1917 the assembly agreed to suspend further action in connection with it until a year after the close of the war. It was expected that experience of the war, in uniting all citizens more closely for other purposes affecting the national life, might also move the members of all churches to closer unity.

No further action has been taken since 1916 to ascertain the mind of the members of the church regarding union. Within these intervening years many members have returned from service overseas and thousands of new members have been enrolled so that we cannot say what are the present proportions.

HAS NO EFFECT ON DAWES PLAN

Dissolution of the Reichstag and the advent of the new Parliament in no way endangers the fulfillment by Germany of the London agreement on the Dawes reparation plan, Chancellor Marx told the press. Although the political complexion of the new Reichstag is wholly conjectured at this hour the Chancellor is convinced that the election, which has been set officially for December 7th, will retain a sufficient number of supporters of the Dawes plan and of the foreign and internal affairs of the present Government to ensure the construction of a workable coalition Government.

CHURCH UNIONISTS VOTE

Sir:—At the recent meeting of the Maritime Synod in New Glasgow, N.S., Prof. J.W. Falconer read certain Union resolutions.

A roll call vote was taken on resolution four, which reads as follows:—"Inasmuch as the action of our Church in resolving to enter the United Church has been taken in a thoroughly regular and constitutional manner and is supported by a very large majority of the ministers and people, Synod believes this to be the duty of every member of the church, to gather with all the elders, members and adherents of our congregations, to accept this as the final decision of our church."

The vote reported was 193 to 1. The explanation is this: "The President of the Presbyterian Association for the Maritime Provinces stood up on the floor of Synod and asked those opposed not to vote as this vote was only intended for a demonstration of the propaganda purposes. Accordingly only 193 out of a membership of over 325 voted for, the rest refused to answer to their names. One man misunderstood and voted nay. Only approximately 50 out of 150 elders voted for the resolution and name after name was called but no response came. The Unionists were in a panic at the small vote registered and some of them admitted it was a "tactical blunder" on the Unionists' part to call for the vote at all.

The people are waking up. I am, Sir etc.
REV. F.G. MACKINTOSH, Maritime Secretary.

COOKS SHOULD KNOW

That when there is too much salt in soup it can be made palatable by putting a piece of raw potato in the pan for a few minutes.

That when milk is slightly scorched you can remove the burnt taste by putting the pan into cold water and adding a pinch of salt.

That suet which has been put in a dropping pan and placed in the oven to become warmed through will keep for weeks.

That the labor of stirring milk may be obviated by putting a large clean marble into the pan. (The marble will automatically do the stirring while the liquid cooks, and there will be no burning.)

That less sugar will be required when stewing fruit if a pinch of carbonate of soda be added.

A STATESMAN'S WILL

Hon. L.P. Brodeur at one time a member of the Cabinet of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, lately a member of the Supreme Court, and now the time of his death. He was a man of high character and a statesman of the first rank.

nor of Quebec, left an estate of 143,538. His will contains this inspiring clause:

"I entreat my children to maintain always the principles of integrity which I have inculcated to them. They must always give to their mother, constant marks of their filial attachment. Should any one of them devote himself to public life, I ask him never to let himself be guided by personal interests, but always to have before him the public interests."

Canadian public life would be on a new plane if all who engage in it could be influenced to put public interests before personal interests.

SAYS GOVERNMENT IGNORES DRY LAW

Campbellton, N.B.: Oct 15—A suggestion that a new health reader with sections devoted to anti-narcotic propaganda and scientific temperance should be introduced into New Brunswick Schools was made at the morning session of the annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island and in the evening session Rev. Thomas Marshall, Secretary of the N.B. Temperance Alliance gave an address on "Government Control of Liquor Sales."

The morning and evening sessions were held in the Methodist church with Mr. Effie Bruce presiding. A pleasing incident of the morning session was the presentation of a black moire silk handbag to Mrs. Mary Seymour of St. John superintendent of evangelism. Mrs. J. O'Neill, in making the presentation on behalf of the union referred to the faithful and untiring zeal of Mrs. Seymour as a member of the W.C.T.U. for 40 years and spoke also of her earnest endeavors for moral reform. Although taken by surprise, Mrs. Seymour gracefully thanked the donors. The opening devotions were led by Mrs. Edgar Cook, assisted by Rev. Mr. Godfrey pastor of the church.

Mrs. H.H. Coleman of Moncton gave an instructive paper on Scientific Temperance, showing the bad effect of alcohol upon the human body and stressing the need of education to combat the evil. Mrs. Coleman made the recommendation that the health readers in the schools be replaced by one that would include sections on anti-narcotics and scientific temperance, the recommendation being made subject to the approval of the Board of Education.

Mrs. G.A. Adam superintendent of Willard Hall work, reported that 152,086 soap wrapper coupons had been received and had realized the sum of $76.43 which was used for travelers' aid work.

The noontide hour was conducted by Rev. W.W. McNair Presbyterian minister, who continued his topic of Good Citizenship and spoke of the duties of citizenship under the three heads, righteousness, patriotism and service.

The afternoon was given over to recreation and the W.C.T.U. members as guests of the residents, enjoyed a drive round the town and were shown many places of interest. They were also entertained at supper in the school room of the Presbyterian church where the mayor of the town, clergymen and their wives and other prominent citizens were also honor guests. Rev. A.B. Humphrys asked the blessing and Rev. Thomas Marshall gave thanks.

At the evening session Rev. Mr. Camp led the devotions and gave an inspirational address. Mr. Marshall in his address, enumerated steps which he said had been taken by the Government in preparing the way for Government control of liquor sales. He expressed the hope that the Government was deliberately and purposefully proceeding to enforce the prohibitory law and in that way to discredit it in the minds of the people. A Government that had failed so lamentably to enforce the existing law he did not think could expect to be entrusted with more.

He referred to the places where Government sale had been tried and he declared that it had failed in each instance. Mr. Marshall recommended the W.C.T.U. to organize its voters and prepare for the coming election, seeing that good candidates were nominated for both parties. He urged the members to serve notice that unless candidates were in favor of prohibition they would not receive the vote of any W.C.T.U. member.

The choir of the church assisted greatly in the evening session and Mr. Vallis sang a pleasing solo. Mr. Camp pronounced the benediction.

Easily Fatigued And Desponded

A Condition Known as General Debility Due to Watery Blood

General debility is a term used to describe a weak and run down condition of the system. Debility may come from a number of causes. The after effects of acute illness, lack of nourishment, due to poor digestion, overwork, or worry, or anything that makes the blood thin, thereby preventing it from carrying nourishment to the tissues of the body. The symptoms of debility vary, but weakness is always present, often a tendency to be easily fatigued, spots passing before the eyes, weak back, dizziness, wakefulness, caused by inability to stop thinking, and unrefreshing sleep.

Mr. Lorenza L. Gamache, Rockland, Ont. tells how he found release. He says, "Two years ago I was in that condition which medical men call general debility. I made periodical visits to Montreal for fourteen months to undergo electrical treatment. At the end of this time I was feeling well and thought with proper care I would continue in good health. But in the course of a month or so the symptoms came back more acute than ever. I lost my appetite and could hardly sleep during the night, and what sleep I had was disturbed with nightmares. I had headaches and the least effort was telling on my nerves. I always felt pains somewhere, and had to lose much time. After suffering for three months, trying various things without good results I was terribly depressed and disheartened. One day I met a friend who noted how pale and thin I was, and he so strongly recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, that I determined to give them a fair trial. I got six boxes and began the treatment at once. After I had taken four boxes I began to notice an improvement in my health. I could sleep better, and I scarcely had a headache. Since that time my health has been steadily improving and now I feel just as well as ever. I have gained twenty pounds since I began the treatment. Now I would not be without Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the home, and strongly recommend them to sufferers from a depressed system and the aches that follow."

If your dealer does not keep these pills you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BE YOURSELF

It is best for the individual and best for the race, that everyone should live his own life and cultivate his own mind and garden; that he should courageously do his own thinking and stand to the verdict of his own sentiments and tastes, and that he should work out his own career and style of character.

HAS DECIDED TO LIVE IN NEW YORK

New York society is agog over the announcement that it is to have another member of the British Royal family in its midst and this time as a more or less permanent resident. Lady Patricia Ramsay, according to report from London, has decided to live in the city of skyscrapers while her husband, Commander Lord Alexander Ramsay, R.N. is commander of the British Atlantic Fleet, a post to which he has just been appointed. Lady Patricia, as is well known, is the former Princess Patricia of Connaught, daughter of the Duke of Connaught, former Governor General of Canada, and a first cousin of King George. Known as Princess "Pat" she has been regarded as the most popular of the younger members of British Royalty. She has been described as a handsome, young woman with great spirit and a keen sense of humor. Outdoor sports, such as golf and horseback riding, have long been her chief sources of pleasure. It is said that she was a particular favorite of her late uncle, King Edward VII. Her marriage to Commander Ramsay took place in 1919.

Pleas For The Old Ways Are Made By Indian

John Still Day a "medicine man" representing 400 pagan Indians on the Red Lake reservation near the Canadian boundary, protested against the efforts of the Indian Bureau to abolish the old tribal customs when he appeared before the Senate Indian Affairs Sub-Committee during its investigation.

Mention had been made to the Sub-Committee that the tribal dances were detrimental to the Indians' crops, and that they interfered with the educational work among the younger members of the tribe. Still Day is a tall handsome Chipewya fullblood. He did not wear the garb of the tribal healer but appeared in the attire of the white man. Speaking through an interpreter he was told the committee that he was not the chief nor the great speaker but protested against the "white man's efforts to take away my religion."

To the statement that pagan Indians' corn and potatoes "were the worst in ten years because there have been too many tribal dances," Still Day replied that the Indians were not "responsible for the cold weather and the too much rains."

The pagan band lives in a place isolated from the rest of the Red Lake Indians and its members still indulge in the ancient tribal dances which frequently last two and three days.

Guard the Children From Autumn Colds

Baby's Own Tablets are mothers' best friend in preventing or banishing colds. They act as a gentle laxative, keeping the bowels and stomach free and sweet. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent colds, or if it does come on suddenly their prompt use will relieve the baby. INSULIN PRODUCED BY CORN CULTURES

Experiments at the University of Maine, demonstrating that insulin although an animal product, will arrest diabetic conditions in plants and thus afford a method of culture that will greatly reduce the cost of insulin, as well as improve it have been made public. Prof. William H. Eyster, who has been experimenting with diabetic diseased corn plants, whose leaves develop a glucose deposit, discovered that by treating the roots with insulin in solution the disease was arrested and the plant became normal. Prof. Eyster believes he can produce insulin from diabetic corn cultures with better results and a less cost than from animal cultures. He has experimented widely with corn plants and has saved seed with reproduced diabetic conditions.

FISHING FLEET HAD GOOD YEAR

The sixty two vessels comprising the Lunenburg fishing fleet have this year secured 170,425 quintals of fish which have been sold for $1,539,200 according to a resume of the year's work in the Halifax Chronicle.

Although it is reported, the average catch this year is larger than last year and conditions are generally better, all the catch being at ready sale, and the fishermen now having the cash, the size of the fleet has been reduced by eighteen (18) vessels. The fleet which numbered 134 boats in 1906 was reduced to 80 in 1923 and to 62 in 1924.

Prince Sailed for Home on the Olympic, Saturday

Plowing her way across the Atlantic Ocean, the White Star liner Olympic is bearing the Prince of Wales back to England.

Before sailing, he promised to return in 1926. Next year he is going to South Africa. Friends of the Prince said that when he returns to the U. S. it will not be on a pleasure jaunt but rather on a self educating mission. He wants to study the great industrial plants, the people and the politics of the United States.

A score of reporters boarded the vessel at the pier soon after the Prince and his staff had hurried to the gang plank. He bantered with them and posed for photographers willingly, though he still showed a little embarrassment.

On the ship he was greeted by the British Ambassador, Sir Esme Howard, and Capt. Howarth commander of the Olympic. He was led through lines of sailors to the suite that had been reserved for him. He thought the mahogany and gold finish "too pretty" for him and turned it over to General Trotter and took another, done in white and gold, for himself.

 tions of advocates and opponents of union. Whatever weight we may attach to the many arguments that may be urged in favor of union and whatever may be our personal predilections in regard to it, the outstanding fact is that there is resolute and apparently increasing opposition to it on the part of the membership of the Presbyterian church. The opponents are probably still in the minority, but they are quite determined that the Presbyterian church must be continued in its present organization.

It is evident, therefore that if church union is consummated according to the bill for incorporation now before parliament, it must result in the very serious disruption of the Presbyterian church. And when it is stated, as in the preamble to the bill, that the Presbyterian church is a party to the petition for the act of incorporation it should be noted that this is very far from being the petition of the entire church. Indeed, according even to the figures of 1916 (which now it is believed fall far short of representing the entire number of opponents) there is a smaller proportion of members in favor of the act of incorporation than would be required for the merging of two banks or other commercial institutions under the Joint Stock Company Act.

Will the minority, who are determined to maintain the existence and activities of the Presbyterian church, be denied the right to preserve the name of the church as hitherto known? This is to them a matter of serious moment. The advocates of union claim that by the act of incorporation the Presbyterian church is merged in the United Church and therefore ceases to exist as a separate organization. The minority claim that they will continue to be the Presbyterian church after the others have entered the new ecclesiastical organizations. Of course, the minority could agree to form a Presbyterian church; not even Parliament could prevent this, and the advocates of union admit it. And, for that matter, the body so formed would come to be known as the Presbyterian church. But the retention of the name and the claim of the minority to continue the present organization of the Presbyterian church might, if admitted, be held to carry with it the right to all the property of the Presbyterian church. This has been one of the chief obstacles in preventing any conciliation between the two contending parties. It might, however be a matter of agreement between the two parties, that the minority should still retain the name but that the estate should be divided according to some equitable arrangement. The advocates of union might fitly be requested to make some agreement with the minority so that they would come before parliament with a united petition for the legislation required in the circumstances.

As to the terms and provision of the act:—It may be noted that parliament is asked to pronounce upon the spiritual functions of the church as well as upon the tenure of property. This, however is to ignore the proper functions of parliament. The church has the right to live and act as a free self-governing body with supreme jurisdiction in spiritual matters. It is only in connection with the tenure and administration of property that the church is in any way subject to the decisions of parliament or of courts of justice. In the proposed act,

She is Willing to Answer Letters from Women Asking About Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Halifax, Nova Scotia.—"I am a maternity nurse and have recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to many women who were childless, also to women who need a good tonic. I am English and my husband is American, and he told me of Lydia E. Pinkham while in England. I would appreciate a copy or two of your little books on women's ailments. I have one which I keep to hand. I will willingly answer letters from any woman asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. S. M. COLLEMAN, 34 Salsick Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Could Not Sleep Nights
 Dublin, Ontario.—"I was weak and irregular, with pains and headaches, and could not sleep nights. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by reading the letters in the newspapers and tried it because I wanted to get better. I have got good results from it and I feel a lot stronger and am not troubled with such bad headaches as I used to be and am more regular. I am gaining in weight all the time and I tell my friends what kind of medicine I am taking. You may use my letter as a help to others."—Mrs. JAMES RACHO, Box 12, Dublin, Ontario.

Keep Your Body Strong to Resist

Father John's Medicine Will Give You Fighting Strength

You are in great danger when you find that you tire easily, or that you are under normal weight.

At this season of the year particularly, you ought to take a special food to build new strength and health.

Father John's Medicine contains those elements of nutrition which you do not get from your food.

Father John's Medicine is a scientific blending of cod liver oil with other ingredients, so prepared that this rich nourishment is easily taken up without imposing any burden on the digestive system.

That is why so many people find that they gain strength and health, as well as flesh, while taking this old-fashioned family medicine. It is safe for all the family because it is guaranteed free from alcohol or dangerous drugs.

however, parliament is asked to ratify and confirm the Basis of Union and the guarantee to the church, freedom to deal with her doctrines and teaching as the courts of the church may determine. While it is a grievous mistake for the church thus to ask the sanction of parliament in spiritual matters, it would surely be a mistake on the part of parliament, even at such a request to take action outside of its own proper jurisdiction.

Parliament has, however certain rights and jurisdiction in regard to the tenure and administration of property by the church, as by any other body of citizens, and much of the act is devoted to the transfer of the property of the negotiating churches to the United Church.

The attempt is made to arrange for the assignment of certain properties to the "non-concurring" congregations. A commission is to be created to deal with all questions that may arise in connection with the division of the properties of the church, and the decisions of this commission are to be absolute and final, subject to no kind of review, civil or ecclesiastical. The effect, and manifestly the purpose of this provision is to forestall and prevent any litigation between the contending parties by closing against them all the constituted courts of justice and forcing them to accept the decision of this irresponsible commission. The appointment of such a commission could be justified only with the entire consent of both parties, otherwise it is grossly unjust. The minority however, are not asked whether they agree to this arrangement, although they may, if they choose be represented on the commission. It is offered to them, as the only way to have their share of the property determined, and they are deprived of the right, which every citizen is supposed to possess, of access to the courts of justice. This is compulsory arbitration with a vengeance! Surely such a proposal cannot be sanctioned by the parliament of Canada as parliament stands for protection, not for the coercion of minorities.

Believe Me,
 Yours very faithfully,
 DANIEL M. GORDON

TOWNS ORGANIZE NURSING CLASSES

Miss R.E. Hamilton, R.N. will conclude her work as organizer for Red Cross home nursing classes in New Brunswick within the next few days, being compelled to return to Ontario to take up important work for the society there. Her services have been the gift of the Red Cross head office to the New Brunswick division, and the province has been most fortunate in having Miss Hamilton inaugurate the home nursing classes which are being eagerly received. New Brunswick is now the only province which has not its own organizer of home nursing classes and it is thought that before long one will have been appointed.

Miss Hamilton had a successful trip last week. She visited Campbellton where a class was organized with Miss M. Campbell, public health nurse as instructor.

At Newcastle, Miss Hamilton attended the nurses' graduation and it is expected a home nursing class will be organized in that community shortly. At Chatham, where Miss Hamilton was the guest of Mrs. H. B. MacDonald a class is now in progress with Miss Martell V.O.N., as instructor. Burnt Brook, the next place visited has good prospects for the early organization of a home nursing class as it has a resident nurse. At Exton, the Red Cross nurse hopes to have a class started shortly.

Moncton was visited on Monday of this week by both Miss Hamilton and Miss Ethel Hazen Jarvis, provincial secretary for the society, and the prospects are bright for the work to be taken up energetically in Moncton. The Moncton committee for Christmas cheer for the River Glade Sanatorium was interviewed also and this work will be well looked after.

On Tuesday Miss Hamilton was in Salisbury and her programme for last week included a visit to St. Stephen for Wednesday and St. Andrews on Thursday and Grand Manan on Friday.

Have You The Habit

At 10 o'clock Monday morning a disagreeable business situation came to me through the mail—a situation confronted me that was most annoying. There were papers before the writer that needed attention; but I was very busy on Monday and put off taking care of the papers as I should have done.

Tuesday at about 11 o'clock the papers appeared before me again and to tell you the truth they bothered me very much and I said to myself: "I'll straighten out this situation early Wednesday morning."

Wednesday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon I picked up the papers that gave me a good excuse and I postponed the care of these important papers for a little later.

Thursday came along and even my Rotary Day failed to have its influence on my plans of Service. The truth is, those darn papers were bothering me and I welcomed an excuse to attend Rotary and try to forget them.

Friday morning found me unexpectedly called out on a very important mission, and by afternoon I was so tired that I said to myself: "Saturday I will positively see to these papers."

Saturday was a half day and I had no time in the morning, so I put the papers in my pocket to study them over during the week-end rest. After dinner Saturday evening on carefully examining the papers it was found that I had a real problem on my hands. By several postponements I had brought about a situation that was going to cost me money, time and personal embarrassment.

Saturday night I tried to sleep, to bring you the full richness and mellow sweetness of this—and I did sleep—"slept like a top"—a top that is spinning.

All day Sunday the papers presented themselves to me like a ghost and Sunday night my head felt as though it had a hot crown pressing down upon it. In my attempt to sleep I took fitful trips to the very threshold of the place where they use iron beds and asbestos sheets.

Sunday, or rather Monday morning about 3 o'clock, I would have given much money to be at my desk, doing the thing that had been delayed, or rather trying to undo an undone duty. I never before wanted to be at my office so badly in my life.

The sum total of this whole story is simply this: By putting off Monday morning what might have been done—done easily and right—by postponing an important duty, I had actually lost two nights of sleep, filled a Sunday with anxiety and worry; and the second Monday morning found me absolutely unfit for business and unfit to meet my own organization. And it had cost me a pretty sum in cash, How natural it is for so-called business men and even our business associates—how natural it is to postpone the disagreeable duties.

We put off and pile under, the things we should put on and put over.

We pay fortunes to the misfortune of—Procrastination.

Put it precisely this way: Prompt news pays big dividends and avoids much misery of mind.

The advantage found in this article can be summed up like this: Can you apply in personality; have you the put-it-off-ekie habit? If you have this habit, the habit will ultimately have you. It had me.

Remember: We do the pleasant things promptly. The perplexing duties we delay, but by George! we must pay.

PROTECTING PARTRIDGE

With the idea of protecting the partridge it is proposed that a new law be passed and rigidly enforced prohibiting the shooting of partridge within several hundred yards of any highway. This would mean that automobile drivers could not shoot from their cars.

Many Civil Servants To Retire This Month

Hundreds of civil servants through out the country are retiring this month under the provisions of the Calder Act which expires at the end of October. The terms of the enactment are considered to be more liberal than those of the Superannuation Act, because in addition to their retiring allowance civil servants may withdraw in full their payments into the retirement fund. A great many who are nearing the age of retirement figure out that it will be to their financial benefit to leave under the Calder Act before it goes off the statute.

A record was reached in a case before the treasury board when a man, now retiring, had been sixty three years in the public service.

UNION ADVOCATE

FARMERS SHOULD BUY NEAR HOME

"Why should our farmers pander to the United States implement manufacturers, purchase their overstock and at the same time ruin their own Canadian manufacturers, when the solution of the whole question, to my mind, lies in the farmers themselves establishing their own factories in the different centres, back them with their own money and pledge themselves to buy all their requirements from such factories?"

Thus spoke H. H. Warman, well known retired business man of Moncton, N.B. who together with his wife is making his first trip to the west and is going as far as Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle. He is staying at the Brunswick Hotel, says the Manitoba
Free Press.

"The lowering of the tariff by the King Government has not benefited the farmer one bit" said the visitor. "Such assertions are mere political bluff. It has, however, practically ruined our own manufacturers. What is required is a united Canada, and such legislation does not help in this direction. Let the farmers take matters into their own hands and let them become their own manufacturers. Ontario has too many implement factories. Let such factories be spread more over the country and let the farmers back them with their own money and see that their money stays in this country. This will bring about a united Canada.

Mr. Warman considers the country over legislated and with far too heavy a salary list. "Why should not the three Maritime Provinces be amalgamated for purposes of government?" said he.
"This would save a lot of money, which could be used in the development of the great natural resources of these provinces. The high salaries paid by the governments out here are absurdly high and the same is true of all the big corporations of the country. Wash out a large portion of such salaries and use it for the development of the country, for, remember it is the poor man who is developing this fair Dominion of ours, not the rich man, for it is the former who raise the large families. I consider the salaries paid to the heads of our corporations are a crying shame. They are stunting growth and getting us nowhere. Sometimes I think we shall have to begin all over again and build up the country once more on sound lines.
The United States had to start again after Civil war, and why not Canada? She built herself up on a strong tariff wall and I am firmly of the opinion that a strong tariff wall is what Canada wants today, else her citizens will continue to go over to the United States in large numbers, as they are still doing, from the Maritime Provinces".
Mr. Warman is a firm believer in the future of the Maritimes and mentioned the fact that there were millions of tons of oil shale ready for development, running 20 gallons of oil to one ton of shale as against 13 gallons per ton in Scotland.

"It only wants more capital to get a development start made in this direction," said the visitor
"and I believe it will not be long before capital is available for the work."

visor of the Royal Bank of Canada

BIG ATTEMPT TO SMUGGLE CHINESE

What is believed to be an international plot to land large numbers of Chinese in Canada, contrary to immigration, was revealed at Victoria, B.C. when the Canadian Government took steps to imprison and later, deport a dozen Chinese charged with attempting to enter this country on forged and fraudulent certificates of entry.

Wholesale trafficking in these forged documents among the ignorant coolies of China has been discovered through the investigations which led to proceedings in the local courts.

The persons who are selling the certificates in China, it is believed are in league with Chinese, Chinese here.

Under the Canadian Immigration law, it was explained by J.B. Clear-hue, who is acting for the Canadian Government in the present prosecution, when a Chinese leaves this country for China, he is given a small ticket which, when presented on his return to Canada, allows him to re-enter.

The traffic in false tickets was revealed when a number of incoming Chinese presented cards which obviously had been faked.

HARD WINTER COMING

A dealer in furs says that there is a cold stormy winter ahead of us. He judges by the thickness of the fur on the skins he handles. He says that the fur is very thick this fall, which is a sure indication of a cold winter. A local poultry fancier is of the same opinion as the fur dealer. He says he never knew hens to moult so early and grow new feathers so rapidly as has been the case this season.

TAKE INTEREST

IN COUNTRY
The parish of Derby is remarkable for the number of aged people who take an interest in the politics of the Dominion. Some time ago we reported an aged resident of this parish, who has never defaulted in exercising his franchise since he became of age and we have pleasure in announcing that Mrs. Sarah Gerrish of Quarryville who is in her 81st year, has also cast her vote in every election since the franchise has been given to women. Incidentally, Mrs. Gerrish is an ardent Conservative in politics and is a sister of the late Frank Jardine of Indian town.

All members of the Newcastle Curling Club and others interested in curling are requested to attend the special meeting of the Curling Club to be held in the Town Hall, Friday evening, October 31st at 8 o'clock.

"THE TRAIL OF THE AXE"

The big scene in "The Trail of the Axe" Dustin Farnum's latest picture is thrilling and novel as well. A big sawmill is dynamited and a giant log, freed by the impact, strikes Farnum full in the chest and holds him prisoner against a wall while the mill burns. This is the thrill in the new picture and it is decidedly different from any other. See this thrilling picture at the Opera House next Friday and Saturday evenings.

DR. SMITH SUGGESTS

IMPORTATION OF PHEASANTS

With a view to increasing the supply of wild game in this province, Hon. Dr. E.A. Smith, former Minister of Lands and Mines, suggests that the Government should import into this province some of the hardy pheasants which provide such good shooting in British Columbia. Dr. Smith generously offered to undertake to raise, at his own expense, and to liberate some of the pheasants if the Government would import the eggs. He has already raised pheasants.

He recalled that when he was pioneering in British Columbia from 1887 to 1890 the government of the day imported the pheasants for the first time, and that since then the species has multiplied wonderfully. The birds are some what similar to partridge and would be suitable for this climate.

Boomed Logs Keep Salmon out of Tributary

Chief Game Warden L.A. Gagnon spent Friday at Redbank where he represented the provincial government at a conference of Dominion fishery officials and North Shore lumber operators. The conference was held to deal with a complaint by lessees of salmon streams to the effect that the booms laid down in the Southwest Miramichi were interfering with the free passage of salmon to the spawning ground particularly on the Northwest Miramichi, the Little Southwest and the Renous. The whole matter was thoroughly gone into and Mr. Gagnon will submit a report to the provincial government. It seems to be the opinion of the fishery experts that there is some thing in the complaint of the lease holders and it may be found necessary to remove the holding booms to some point where there will be less of an obstruction to the river.

While over north Mr. Gagnon paid a visit to the salmon hatchery on the Northwest Miramichi, where experts are now engaged in stripping salmon for propagation purposes. Chief Game Warden Gagnon represented the province, Arthur M. Barry, the Federal Dept. of Fisheries, and one of its officials, the Northwest Boom Company, Geo. E. Pratt of New-York is one of the chief complainants among the lessees. His leases are on the Little Southwest.

The boom company objects to making a change in the position of its booms. The fishing lessees say that when the tail of the log jam reaches above the mouth of the Little Southwest the fish cannot get up as the logs fill the river to the bottom.

PROTECTING PARTRIDGE

With the idea of protecting the partridge it is proposed that a new law be passed and rigidly enforced prohibiting the shooting of partridge within several hundred yards of any highway. This would mean that automobile drivers could not shoot from their cars.
