Make Home Happy.

Every person at this festive season is thinking what to buy their friends for Christmas. Nothing makes a home so happy as a surprise in the shape of a present. The more useful it is the more acceptable it is to the warer. W. & D. Dineen, on the corner King and Yonge-streets, have a lot of useful articles in furs that at this season would be a very appropriate gift. Gentlemen can select for ladies, boas, capes, jackets, collars, seal gloves, trimmings, etc., and the ladies can select for their gentlemen friends, fur coats or cloth coats lined with fur, collars, gloves, robes, caps, etc. Dineen also has all kinds of the for children, boys and girls.

Mr. William Blackwell, president of the Young Men's Conservative Association of London, under whose anspices the meeting Young Men's Conservative Association of London, under whose anispices the meeting was held, occupied the chair. Mr. Blackwell is a younger edition, as to appearance, of ex-Ald. John McConnell of St. Mark's Ward, and he was modest enough to introduce Mr. Meredith in just about a dozen words, thus allowing the Opposition leader the whole evening to himself.

The Questions of the Day Discussed.

Mr. Meredith spoke for nearly two and a half hours and he entered extensively into the questions of the day, notably the liquor Meensy abuses, the Crown lands, timber and mining policy of the Government, its bureauting of the Education Department, the alleged vote by ballot under which the Provincial elections are held, the Separate Schools and the French question.

What country in the world, he asked, gives any greater privileges to its Roman Catholic citizens than this great Province of Ontario in the original than two specific in the two specific citizens than this great Province of Ontario in the citizens than this great Province of Ontario in the citizens than this great Province of Ontario in the citizens than the great Province of Ontario in the citizens than this great Province of Ontario in the citizens than the great Province of Ontario in the citizens than the great Province of Ontario in the citizens than the great Province of Ontario in the citizens than the great Province of Ontario in the ci was in Dominion elections. There had been no evil results from a genuine secret ballot in Dominion affairs. [Applause.]

He was also strongly in favor of having the election of Separate School trustees by ballot. This latter statement Mr. Meredith made after having taken his seat. He stated that he had omitted it in his general remarks.

Mr. Meredith next out himself on record as the opponent of exemptions from taxation generally, save in respect of the slight exemptions that working men now enjoy on their incomes. There was much, he said, that the Government could do in enquiring into industrial and social problems instead of its everlasting contests with the central Government on provincial rights' fads. The Factory Act and other measures of inlight—God and my country and have had, and still have, but one beacon light—God and my country and my father—level to workingmen could stand some investigation.

he wound up at 10.30. It was during the last hour that he got thoroughly warmed up.
With scorn and contempt he repudiated the everlasting "No Popery" cry that was raised against him whenever he proposed to discuss questions of the day in which his fellow Catholic citizens were interested. He proposed to speak with emphasis on the subject.
What country in the world, he asked, gives any greater privileges to its Roman Catholic ing of the Education Department, the alleged vote by ballot under which the Provincial elections are held. The Separate Schools and the French question.

Mr. Meredith devoted over an hour to discussing Separate Schools, and he was frequently and loudly applanded as he proceeded, and he wound up his address amid a regular ovation, the audience nearly raising the roof off the theatre with their cheers. Mr. Meredith was quite eloquent at times, far more so than I ever remember him in the Assembly. Being on his native heath it was quite natural that the leader of the Opposition should put in all the oratorical touches at his command.

Besides this was the first appearance of Mr. Meredith on a public platform since the close of the Local House in April, and his utterances were looked forward to with intense interest, not only here in London, but throughout the province.

I can say here that I have had, and still have, but one beacon light—God and my country and my fatherland. [Loud and tremendous cheering.]
After Mr. Meredith had taken his seat a resolution of confidence in him and his platform was proposed and carried with great enthusiasm. Short addresses were given by H. E. Clarke, G. W. Monk, A. R. Boswell and Mr. Ingram. The meeting was over at 10.45.

One Thousand Dollars Reward

es, and well merits the popularit

One thousand dollars will be palo in cash to any charitable institution of Toronto that may be named by any reputable citizen, who will prove that the watches sold in our case of tea are not solid gold through and through, or that the diamonds are not genuine and set in solid rold, it being understood, that the word oputable bars out The Eveniag Fake Telegram. The cry is still they come, and hundreds of patrons are made happy daily by reviving genuine diamonds and solid gold statehes as souvenirs in their cans of choice tea if the 16 days these choice teas will be sold at the same price, same quality and quantity, but without these valuable holiday presents as souvenirs. The watches are genuine solid gold hunting case, American jewelled movements stem-wind and set, and the diamonds ARE GENUINE AND SET IN SOLID GOLD.

The following is a partial list of those who received valuable articles in their cans of tea so far besides. 58 other valuable watches and genuine diamonds set in solid gold went out to purchasers, whose names and addresses we do not publish by request:

Thos. Jones, Yorkville Postoffice, found a gent's solid gold hunting case, Elgia jewelled movement, atem wind and set in his ten; A. G. A.G. McLean, 240 Lippincott street, C. Linly, Ottawa, Mrs. Burns, 213 Queen street, C. Baker, Custom House, Charles Channell, head waiter at Palmer House, and Henry Buyting, St. Catherines, each found articles of genuine diamond jewellery in solid gold setting in their cans. Brass Library Lamps, Specially

As G. Taylor. 96 Agnes-street found a solid gold bunting case stem-wind and set watch in his tea; also A. Ballant, carpenter and builder, 62 Barton-avenue, got one of similar kind in his can; D. O'Conneil, fireman on G. T.R., No. 15 Clarence-square: J. Lee, 15 Defoestreet: Miss Katle Hiltz, Palmer House, Miss Gladys, Tazwell, Port Credit; Miss Flo. Rogers, 134 Markham-street; R. H. Harman, builder, 366 Huron-street, and Fred W. Browa, Brownsville, each found articles of genuine diamond jewelry in solid gold setting in their cans.

Rene 3. Garbard, scenic artist at Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House, found a genuine solitaire diamond ring in solid gold setting; Mrs. W. N. McConnell, Berlin, sent in club order of $10 for thirteen cans of tea, and found in one can a gont's solid gold hunding case Elgin jewelled movement stem wind and set watch. $10 for thirteen caus of tea, and found in one can a gent's solid gold hunting case Eigin jewelled movement stem wind and set watch, and in another a set of genuine solitaire diamond enr drops in solid gold setting. And 33 other valuable articles went out in orders received by mail and express.

Orders by mail accompanied by cash or post-office order from any purt of Cahada will be promptly forwarded. Get up a club. Parties getting up a club of $10 or $20 always get a valuable souventr. Single cans $1,6 cans $5, 13 cans $10 and 27 cans $20. Address,
