TWO CENTS

DRURY SAFELY SEATED IN HALTON BY LARGE MAJORITY Allies Will Permit Germany to Try Her Own War Criminals

ALLIES REPEAT REQUEST FOR EX-KAISER'S EXTRADITION; SURPRISED AT DUTCH STAND

Find No Word in Dutch Reply of Condemnation of Former Emperor's Acts—Cannot Be Allowed to Remain So Near the German Frontier—Urged to Reconsider.

London, Feb. 16.—Following is the text of the note sent by the allied powers to Holland regarding the extradition of the former German emperor. "The immense sacrifices made in the general interest by the powers during the war entitle them to ask the Netherlands to reconsider its refusal, based on the weighty, but entirely personal considerations of a state which held aloof from the war and (and perhaps appreciate quite accurately all the duties and dangers of the present hour. "The obligations of the powers towards other nations, the gravity of the question concerned, as well as the very grave political efforts to which relinquishment of the claims of justice against the ex-emperor would give rise, all constrain them to uphold and renew their demand. "The powers do not ask the queen's government to depart from its traditional policy, but to consider that the nature of their request—which does not, in their opinion, depend solely or even mainly on Dutch municipal law—has not been adequately appreciated. "No question of prestige is at stake, and the powers pay much heed to the conscientious sentiments of a state with limited interests as to the mature decisions of great powers, but cannot wait for the creation of a world tribunal competent to examine international crimes before bringing to trial the responsible author of the catastrophe of the world. "It is precisely this contemplated trial which would prepare the way for such a tribunal and demonstrate the unanimity of feeling animating the conscience of the nations of the world. This powers wish to point out that the league of nations has not yet reached a state of development sufficient to allow any application to it, or to a tribunal of any kind created by it, meeting with that prompt satisfaction which is mainly essential. "A Heavy Responsibility. "It does not appear to consider that it shares with other civilized nations the duty of sentencing the punishment of crimes against justice and the principles of humanity—crimes for which William of Hohenzollern undeniably bears a heavy responsibility. "The note of Jan. 15 was sent in the name of the allies, twenty-five in number, who were signatories to the treaty of peace and the collective mandatories of a majority of the civilized nations and the world. It is impossible to disregard the collective force of this request, which is the expression not only of the feeling of indignation of the victors but of the demand for justice made by the conscience of humanity as a whole. "The Netherlands government surely has not forgotten that the policy of personal actions of the men required for judgment by the powers (Continued on Page 2, Column 7).

SECRETARY BAKER RESIGNS OFFICE?

Washington, Feb. 16.—Still shaken by the sensational developments of the Wilson-Lansing break, Washington today was filled with persistent rumors to the effect that Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, and one of the men mentioned as a possible successor to the former secretary of state, had tendered his resignation to President Wilson, or was about to do so. "Although the White House itself insisted that there was no foundation for these reports, Mr. Baker himself refused positively to affirm or deny them, or to discuss the matter in any way.

INVITE PRESIDENT TO OFFER SOLUTION OF ADRIATIC ISSUE

Allies Will Send Brief Note Assuring Wilson Proposal is Not Unfavorable to Slavs. NOT TO STAY UNSOLVED

Paris, Feb. 16.—In semi-official quarters it was said today that the allied reply to President Wilson's memorandum regarding the Adriatic settlement, will assure the president that the allied proposal of January 20 is not as unfavorable to the Jugoslavs as he believes. "The note will be brief, consisting of about 150 words, and, according to these quarters, will say it is recognized that the allies cannot settle the question without the co-operation of the United States, inviting the president to present a solution to the Adriatic problems. "Discussing editorially here Wilson's note and the reported allied reply, The Temps today says the entire Adriatic question had been placed in a state of suspense again by President Wilson's memorandum, and that "much patience and tact are necessary on all sides." "It goes without saying that none of the three allied governments wishes to give the government of the United States any more pretext for withdrawing from European affairs. "The cabinet at London and Paris do not consider their proposal of January 20 so unfavorable to the Jugoslavs as President Wilson appears to believe it to be, but, at any rate, if they have undertaken to formulate a plan because the government of the United States no longer taking part in their deliberations and because the problem of the Adriatic cannot remain indefinitely in its present state. "If President Wilson is irrevocably determined to reject the proposal of (Continued on Page 9, Column 3).

U. S. EXPORTS SLUMP DUE TO EXCHANGE

Many Steamships Have Been Forced to Depart With Only Partial Cargoes.

New York, N.Y., Feb. 16.—Steamship men and marine insurance brokers here report that a material slump in exports to Europe has resulted from the foreign exchange situation, with accompanying restrictions as to financing bills of lading. Many steamships have been compelled to depart with partial cargoes. "While bonded and free warehouses are reasonably filled the stocks on hand are mainly those passing thru the United States to one foreign country to another. In some instances cancellation of cargo space has come from western manufacturers and packing concerns for goods still unshipped. "Meat Exports Cease. "Chicago, Ill., Feb. 16.—The statement that the export trade of the American meat packers, the largest single industry in the United States, has practically ceased as a result of the foreign trade situation, was made in a bulletin issued today by the Institute of American Meat Packers. Beef exports ceased some time ago, and during the past month pork exports have also dried up. "In explanation the bulletin says that British buyers have been unable to pay on hand, while other European countries, for exchange and other reasons, will buy no meat from this side of the Atlantic. The result of the export decline has been a substantial reduction in the wholesale price of meat, but this does not seem to have filtered down to the retailers as yet. "In the Chicago yards steers sold for $11.50 to $12.50 per cwt. last Saturday, as against $20 a year ago. Other meat prices show corresponding drops.

WATERWAYS COMMISSION BUSY ON ST. LAWRENCE DEVELOPMENT

Will Rush Preparations in Order to Get Scheme Under Way as Quickly as Possible—Meetings in Connection Will Be Held as Far West as British Columbia.

Ottawa, Feb. 16.—(By Canadian Press).—With the object of getting the St. Lawrence waterway scheme, meaning the deep sea route from the Atlantic to the great lakes, under way as quickly as possible, a preliminary meeting of the international waterways commission has been called in Buffalo on March 1, it was announced today. "L. J. Burpee, secretary, who attended last week's session in New York, returned today. He emphasized the fact that the Buffalo meeting was to be a sort of skirmish to seek further data for later meetings on both sides of the line, and at which all parties interested would be represented. The meetings will extend as far west as the Rocky Mountains on the Canadian side, and into the western states from the United States angle. Sessions will be held at Fort William, Winnipeg, Calgary, Regina and Edmonton. "The Canadian government is also expected soon to appoint its member

DRURY DEFEATS E. J. STEPHENSON BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY

Milton, Ont., Feb. 16.—Premier Drury was elected in Halton today, leading over his opponent, Ed. J. Stephenson of Toronto, Independent, by 2,300 votes, a large majority in view of a comparatively light poll. Up till noon and later while the early returns were coming in, fear that their leader would be defeated was expressed by the U.F.O. supporters, but when the returns favored Drury, the premier's confidence was restored and he was left to be a sure thing. "In only four places, Brant, Housh, Esqueping township, and the entire divisions of Georgetown and Milton, did the independent soldier-labor candidate poll majorities, Oakville, which was expected to give him a long lead, returned a majority of 128 for the premier. Burlington, another supposed Stephenson stronghold, gave the premier a majority of 22. Early results showed Mr. Stephenson leading the three polls in Milton giving him 436, against 213 for Mr. Drury. Georgetown followed with 399 votes for Stephenson and 233 for Drury. An early report that caused U.F.O. supporters anxiety came from Oakville to the effect that the independent candidate had a lead of 866 votes over the premier, but this was soon contradicted, and when the returns from the rural ridings started to come in there was no doubt in the minds of the farmers but that their leader would be elected, despite the fact that many of his supporters were said to be snored in. "Refused to Call Off Election. "The returning officer, R. L. Homestead, was asked this morning to call off the election, owing to the snow-blocked roads, but he refused to do so. The condition of the roads and the prevailing sicknesses caused the poll (Continued on Page 2, Column 2).

HON. E. C. DRURY
Premier of Ontario and Minister-elect for Halton.
When the result of the election in Halton became known last night, Premier Drury issued the following statement: "The vote recorded by the electors of the county of Halton today under weather conditions that were adverse to a large vote being polled is most reassuring to the government. I am thankful to all who have contributed to bringing about this result and the government will carry on, knowing it has the confidence of the people of this province."

GEN. CURRIE BETTER.
Ottawa, Feb. 16.—Lieut.-General Sir Arthur Currie, who has been suffering from an attack of influenza, is better, and will probably be able to return to his office at militia headquarters within the next few days.

Parliament's Opening Full-Dress Affair
Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 16.—(Special).—The opening of parliament this session will, in addition to being in the new buildings, have some of the new characteristics of pre-war days. It will be a full-dress affair and tickets are being eagerly sought for this interesting and what will be, owing to the new building, an historical event. In pre-war days the speaker held a reception after the opening and the governor-general a drawing-room on the Saturday evening following. This year the governor-general will hold a reception in the commons chamber following the opening and there will be no drawing-room. It is understood, however, that the state dinner of pre-war days will be revived.

CANADA'S STATUS IN LEAGUE COUNCIL BEFORE U. S. SENATE

Senator McCumber Holds Dominion Should Be Given Same Standing as Haiti.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Canada's attitude towards the senate treaty reservation affecting the plural vote of the British Empire and the self-governing dominions on the council of the league of nations figured in the debate in the senate on the treaty which opened today. "Senator McCumber, Republican, North Dakota, a leader among the treaty's Republican friends, said Canada was not inclined to take this reservation in good part, and there was little fear that the British votes would be cast en bloc in any case. "Senator McCormick, Republican, Illinois, one of the irreconcilables, challenged that assertion, declaring that at the international labor conference, the first body called together under the treaty, Mr. Barnes of the British delegation, "had no difficulty in casting the empire representation together."

OLD-GROUND COVERED
Senator McCumber contended that the United States should be willing to "give Canada the same representation we obtained for Haiti." "Senator McCormick opened the debate, advising the Republican leaders to consent to no further compromise. "Senator McCumber followed, saying the leaders on both sides for their failure to compromise and declaring that "child's play obstinacy" alone stood in the way of treaty ratification. "Senator Hitchcock, Democratic leader who was drawn into the debate, declared that the Democrats had already abandoned their previous stand and offered compromise, but that the Republicans were demanding nothing short of a complete surrender. "Once launched, the debate lost sight of all compromise negotiations and went over the ground covered last year when the treaty was before the senate from May to November. It was predicted tonight that there would be no settlement until discussion on the floor had spent itself.

TAX ON WARTIME WEALTH INCREASE

British Government Appoints Committee to Inquire Into Practicability.

London, Feb. 16.—In the house of commons this evening on the government's motion for the appointment of a committee to inquire into the practicability of a tax on wartime increases in wealth, Sir Donald Maclean, Liberal, moved an amendment in favor of extending the inquiry to the practicability of a capital levy to reduce the national debt. "The general elections last October signified that the farmers throughout the province had lost faith in the old parties and the old party organs. They were dissatisfied with the Liberal opposition at Ottawa, and with the provincial opposition under the leadership of Mr. Dewar. They were no less dissatisfied with the Conservative government at Queen's Park under the leadership of Sir William Hearst, and there is no reason to believe that they have more faith in the Conservative Party in opposition when led by Howard Ferguson. They paid no attention to The Globe and Star, which ignored or belittled the U. F. O. during the entire campaign. They will not be influenced by these journals, which are now inclined to fawn upon the Drury government, but hope to make the Farmers' party a mere adjunct to the Liberty party at the next election. "In short, the Farmers' victory last October was not as some thought, a mere flash in the pan. It was the inauguration of a great movement which may make itself felt in every part of the Dominion. The Drury government in Ontario has a great opportunity and the people are disposed to give it a fair chance to make good. Most important of all the United Farmers appear still to be united. They are standing by their party and by their leader, and show no signs of breaking up and returning to the tents of the two old parties.

NOMINATE LIBERAL.
Montreal, Feb. 16.—Ernest Bertrand has been chosen by the Montreal Reform Club as Liberal candidate for the by-election in the St. James division of Montreal. The election has been rendered necessary by the death of L. A. Lapointe, M.P., the federal member for that constituency.

TORONTO FINANCE RECONCILED TO PUBLIC OWNERSHIP IDEAS

Montreal Thinks Toronto is Only After Grand Trunk Business, But Better-Informed Authority Declares Leaders Here Have Cheerfully Accepted Changed Conditions.

Special to The Toronto World. "Ottawa, Feb. 16.—While nothing was given out today of President Hanna's conferences on Canadian National affairs, it is known that the absorption of the Grand Trunk by the Canadian National Railways is the immediately pressing question of the day. The estimated requirements of the National System for capital outlays and earnings deficits were on file before Mr. Hanna took a short vacation in Florida. Action on them awaits the authority of parliament. "Improvements in Prospect. "It is taken for granted that the lines of co-ordination to be followed when the Grand Trunk agreement is ratified are already laid. For example, before the session begins, the members of parliament should be able to come to Ottawa from Toronto over the Grand Trunk as far as Napanee and thence via the former Canadian Northern, via Smith's Falls, Montreal for the first time will soon have a second direct route to the west, with trains coming to Ottawa via Grand Trunk, thence to Capreol over the

German Floating Docks Are Canada's For Asking

Ottawa, Feb. 16.—By Canadian Press.—In the material which the allies are requiring Germany to deliver as compensation for the loss of German battleships at Scapa Flow are several floating docks, dredges, hydraulic cranes. It is understood that the British government has made enquiry of the Canadian government as to whether Canada would like to acquire any of these on account of Canada's reparations claim, and the matter is now being considered by the government.

CANADA LIFTING TRADE DISPARITY

January Figures Show Favorable Balance of Fourteen Million Dollars.

Ottawa, Feb. 16.—(Special).—January trade figures while showing that Canada's trade in the aggregate is increasing, there is a steady movement toward removing the disparity between imports and exports. The aggregate trade for January was $25,096,920, showing an increase of twenty-six million dollars and a favorable trade balance of fourteen million dollars. Imports increased from $73,761,397 in January, 1919, to $108,579,349 this year, and exports from $116,358,387 to $117,948,674. The favorable trade balance decreasing for the month by twenty-eight million dollars. Canada's trade duties for the month totaled $1,823,694,310, compared to $1,575,112,978 for the same period last fiscal year.

WILL ABSTAIN FROM INTERVENTION.
"Faithful to the letter and spirit of the treaty, the allies will abstain from peace prosecution by the most complete guarantees and not object by the application of all judgments, procedure or previous decisions of German civil or military tribunals before the supreme court at Leipzig, against all Germans whose extradition the allied and associated powers have the intention to demand. "The prosecution which the German government itself proposed immediately to institute in this manner is compatible with article 223 of the peace treaty and is expressly provided for at the end of its first paragraph. "Will Abstain From Intervention. "Faithful to the letter and spirit of the treaty, the allies will abstain from intervention in any way in the procedure of the prosecution and the verdict in order to leave to the German government complete and entire responsibility. They reserve to themselves the right to decide by the results as to the good faith of Germany, the responsibility for her of the crimes she has committed and her conduct in the desire to associate herself with their punishment. "They will see whether the German government, who have already themselves unable to arrest the accused named on the above list to deliver them for trial to the allies, are actually determined to judge them themselves. "At the same time the allies, in the pursuit of truth and justice, have decided to entrust to a mixed allied commission the task of collecting, publishing and communicating to Germany the details of the charges brought against each of those whose guilt shall have been established by their investigations. "Finally, the allies would formally emphasize that procedure, by a jurisdiction such as is proposed can in no way annul the provisions of articles 223 to 226 of the treaty. "The powers reserve to themselves the right to decide whether the proposed procedure by Germany, which, according to her, would assure to the accused all guarantees of their full exercise their right to their full extent by submitting the cases to their own tribunal."

Hon. F. C. Biggs Purchases Road Planes in Louisville
Hamilton, Feb. 16.—Hon. F. C. Biggs, provincial minister of public works, returned this morning from Louisville, Ky., where he had been attending the American Federation of Good Roads. He was so impressed, he said, with the exhibit of road machinery that he purchased six road planes, a new machine for building gravel or clay roads.

London, Feb. 16.—The German press, as quoted in a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Copenhagen, declares that Field-Marshal von Hindenburg's surrender is demanded by the allies not only because he is alleged to have said: "The most cruel war is the most humane, because it leads to an end," but also because of his responsibility for the destruction of property during the German retreat. "The field-marshal is also charged jointly with General Ludendorff with responsibility for the deportation of civilians and the organization of civilian labor corps in which thousands of girls are alleged to have been handed over to virtual slavery with women of doubtful character, and whipped and imprisoned if they refused to work.

COUNTERFEIT BRITISH NOTES Flooding Central Europe

Berlin, Feb. 16.—The commercial aspirations of Great Britain in Russia are facing a serious menace through the existence of quantities of counterfeit British bank notes in Russian territory. It is declared by Count Reventlow, in a recent article in The Tageszeitung. He says it is now conceded that English currency is being extensively counterfeited in Russia and that large numbers of the spurious notes are finding their way into central Europe. This could be a serious predicament, in a further loss of the buying power of the pound in Russia, as well as elsewhere.

SPECIAL CORONER ABSOLVES C. P. R.

THE HUMAN FACTOR

The finding of Special Coroner Julian D. Loudon on the recent C. P. R. wreck near North Bay, adheres to precedent. The company is absolved from any blame and the entire responsibility for the wreck is placed upon Thomas Joseph Curley, the rear trainman of section one, by reason of his failure to place torpedoes eighteen hundred yards from the rear of his train. The government investigator says he does not credit Curley's evidence to the contrary.

The text of the verdict, which was handed out for publication yesterday by Attorney-General Raney, throws some familiar but interesting sidelights on the operation of trains in mid-winter along the north shore.

This particular train, upon which Dr. J. W. Chambers and a number of others were killed, was running in two sections, and on account of the severity of the weather and the poor quality of the coal, both sections were behind schedule time. As generally happens, section No. 1 engine died upon the track while turning a sharp curve, and the government investigator finding that "the steam pressure of the engine became so low that the brakes became automatically applied," and the section came to a standstill upon the curve where the collision subsequently occurred.

No matter, by reason of the train being behind time, how much over-worked the train hands may have been, it was the duty of the rear trainman of section one, when the engine stopped, to go back along the tracks 36 telegraph poles, or a distance of 1,800 yards, and place torpedoes. Cold, snow, weariness, nothing should have prevented the performance of his duty. The evidence of Engineer

Isadore Godin and Fireman Page justified the investigator's conclusion that torpedoes were not placed according to C. P. R. regulations. If they were placed they would have exploded. Alfred Price, general manager of the C. P. R. eastern lines, testified that the possibility of a failure to explode is practically negligible.

Places No Torpedoes.

I find as a fact, therefore, that Curley placed no torpedoes, and on his own admission did not go to the rear of his train anything like the distance required by the rules of the C. P. R. I do not credit his evidence where it conflicts with the above finding.

In my opinion Alexander displayed poor judgment in not ordering his train to be moved from the hazardous situation as soon as sufficient steam was available, as he must have known that the rear of the train had cleared or almost cleared a sharp curve, and that the driver of a train approaching from the rear would be unable to see the rear end of the first section until about one and a half pole lengths' away, when it would be too late to avoid a collision.

Special Coroner Loudon finds that the rules and regulations of the C.P.R. are safe and efficient if rigidly carried out; but he recommends that "the Dominion Railway Board take into consideration the advisability of instructing the railway companies to adopt additional devices, which would minimize the dependence upon the human factor, so much in evidence in the present system."

The technical finding is that the accident was due to Curley's non-compliance with the rules for operation of trains on the C. P. R.

QUICK WORK SAVES HORSES FROM FIRE

Quick work by the employees yesterday morning saved 40 horses of the Canadian Transfer Company sheds at the Union Station sheds, from being burned to death. Fire caused by the explosion of the gasoline tank of a truck left running, the tank backfiring, occurred at half-past nine, and occasioned damage to the extent of $1,500. Many sections of the fire department responded, and the fire, which, for a time, had a very serious aspect, was got under control. Edward Blackmore, St. Clair avenue, had his face scorched, but was otherwise uninjured. Several wagons and a motor-truck were destroyed.

Widowers Left With Children Complain of Lack of Tax

Complaints reached The World yesterday that the organizations at work in the interests of those left with children under difficult circumstances, were not using all the tact due to the bereaved. One case was reported in which a bereaved parent advertised thru one of these organizations for a room for himself and his little one, care of the little one to be included. Applicants were to report to headquarters and be sent on to the individuals needing them. One applicant resided at the home of the parent. She was a stout, heavy and decidedly large party from Rumania or Bulgaria, and stated she would be delighted to care for the little one for a financial consideration, but could not be bothered with the parent.

Following an interesting dispute as to when a drunk is and is not the magistrate merely fined him $10 and.

TOO MANY BOTTLES.

Abraham Apfelkompelbaum was yesterday fined $800 and costs by Magistrate Denison for having in his possession 19 dozen bottles of pure Scotch and 12 dozen bottles of beer. He had been arrested on Saturday by Inspector Pogus and Plainclothesmen Donaldson, Black and Goodwin.

WILLIAM LENNIE ACQUITTED.

William Lennie, who was arrested on Sunday afternoon on the charge of the theft of a watch and chain from Alexander Wade at their rooming house on Richmond street, was yesterday acquitted by Magistrate Denison, evidence being of an uncertain nature.

BRITAIN FAR FROM BEING DECADENT

In his address before the members of the Young Men's Canadian Club of Toronto at the Central Y.M.C.A. building last night, ex-Controller McCarthy enumerated the success of the British people in peace and in war, refuting the campaign which had been abroad prior to the struggle with Germany, which attempted to show Great Britain as a decadent nation.

Starting with the statement that "some like liberty and right are nowhere better guarded than beneath the old Union Jack," the speaker quoted Lord Mansfield, who in 1872 said that the human slave became a free man when he set foot on British territory. The work of Wilberforce in the same connection was touched upon, and the action of the British government, who paid the slave owners in British gold that the slaves might be free.

British Scientists.

Mr. McCarthy gave a list, including the names of Newton, Harvey, Jenner and Lister, to show what had been done by British scientists. Coming down to the present, the speaker told of 6,000,000 men who enlisted without compulsion, of the 800,000 women who went into munition plants in 1915, and by their action saved civilization. Britain had loaned to the allies more than she borrowed from the United States. She had too, according to Harold Begbie, who went to India to see for himself, given that country an enlightened government and bestowed freedom on those who previously had been slaves.

If he could, he would not stop the unrest of today, said Mr. McCarthy, because out of it he hoped to see emerge a new and spiritualized world, which would be for men's blessing and for God's glory. The speaker concluded by telling his audience that no better epitaph could be theirs than that "he was a good and true Briton."

Joint Waterways Commission Prepares Report on St. Lawrence

According to Sir William Hearst, who has returned from New York, where the initial session of the international joint commission on waterways was held, the commission will make two reports, one dealing with development of the St. Lawrence for navigation, and the other dealing with development both for power and navigation.

It is the intention to hold open sessions in various cities of Canada and the United States, at which evidence will be taken touching all aspects of the question. The first meeting will be in Buffalo, March 1.

The old dispute, touching international rights on the St. Mary's River, which crosses and recrosses the boundaries of Alberta and Montana, will also come under the investigation of the commission.

LEAGUERS CONDEMN CLASS LEGISLATION

"I believe we are assisting today in the birth of a movement that will prove to be most popular not only in Ontario, but in the whole Dominion."

Colonel Machin said in a speech at a well-attended Liberty League meeting held last evening in connection with a two-day convention in Toronto.

"The result of the election was then given by a majority of the press and the cheers faded, groans taking their place."

"Mr. Drury may be elected," said Col. Machin, "but let him look to his laurels, for most people are watching him."

Speaking on the formation of the U. F. O., Col. Machin declared that J. J. Morrison, who organized the farmers, is virtually the prime minister of Ontario.

In regard to convictions under the O. F. A., the speaker referred to the number of cases considered by the Liberty League to be unjust, prefixing each statement with the remark "Mr. Raney agrees to this."

Returning again to speak of Mr. Drury, he shouted: "We are not anarchists, as we have been called, but decent, law-abiding Canadian citizens."

"I have the highest respect for the agricultural class," he continued, "but only as farmers do I have this high opinion. They are a class and one class has no right to regulate the whole of Ontario."

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

Clean pawkly humor that is sometimes very near to pathos and the artistic restraint with which each principal plays allotted parts make "Tillie" what it is—an intelligent and wholly charming comedy.

The splendid acting of Patricia Collinge in the title role makes the feminine portion of the audience tumble for inadequate squares of cambric and the humorous "lines" and excellent portrayal of the frisky Doc Weaver (John W. Ransome) immediately following bring the laugh that makes the handkerchief unnecessary.

The result of that brand of Christianity that makes its advocates anything but Christians is shown in relief. The more humor seeking after truth. The applause that greeted that timely reappearance of Walter Fairchild (Reed Hamilton), hero lover and "teacher" was indicative of the spell cast by clever players and proved that happy endings are still dear to the hearts of even blasé theatregoers.

In the play about boarding house in a Pennsylvania Dutch community, when the advent of a new teacher is the cause of speculation among the school children, daughter of a very mean Mennonite, is a servant in the house and a very good teacher, the play is headquarter there.

AT THE ROYAL ALEXANDRIA Shubert Galettes of 1919 Has Large Company With Plenty of Comedy and All the Broadway Lure.

It is impossible to summarize twenty-four scenes of the Shubert Galettes of 1919 that succeed each other so quickly and speed on the Alexandria stage. If you were to do a play of winking attire, for beauty liberally unadorned, for music in keeping, or for compelling force, you would have to go to the Broadway and here and there a touch of feeling that showed the most rollicking abandon is never far from the simple depth of the daily round. Of course, there is no plot worth while in the piece, except so far as a few pegs on which a few illusions of consistency hang, can be called a story.

"A Night in Honolulu, an interesting love romance of the island of Hawaii, is the offering at the Grand Opera House this week. It is not a new attraction for theatregoers, having been presented here at seasons, and left a favorable impression. The action takes place in a small village on the Bay of Hilo, not far from the volcanic island of Kilauea, concerning an episode in the life of a Hawaiian voodoo woman, an Englishman and their child. The play reveals the story of a night long past as one pictures a terrific storm raging on the outside of a hut. The voodoo woman, amid the chants and weird music of her native companions, is heard praying for the recovery of her infant, who lies near death, and for the safe return of her lover, who has gone to Hilo. An old servant tells her that the boat from England, which will bring him his white wife and baby, the servant also tells of the storm at sea and the Hawaiian wife substitutes the white child for her own and rears her according to the customs of her people. Seventeen years later the child is seen in Kilauea, a dancing girl, favored by the gods and the idol of the natives.

ASK HYDRO TO BUY NIAGARA RAILWAY

District Association Requests Power Commission to Report on Matter.

The following reports made by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario were requested by a joint meeting of the executive of the Niagara District Hydro Railway Association and railway committee of St. Catharines city council to investigate and report on the feasibility of taking over and acquiring on behalf of the municipalities of this district the Niagara St. Catharines and Toronto Railway Company, together with a statement of the value of the undertaking to the municipalities to be served, the revenue and cost of operation.

A copy of the resolution is being sent to each of the municipal councils in the district served by the railway, urging co-operation and support. This end a meeting of district representatives has been called for Thursday afternoon next in this city.

The electric wire cutting pest is the latest. Nine complaints of domestic consumers of Hydro-Electric on Albert street when investigated showed that some person had deliberately cut the service wires where the meters were on the verandahs, plunging the houses into darkness.

In some cases the wire was pulled out of the tube where it entered the house and cut, the loose end being pushed back into the tube again so that it would not be noticed. In other cases the wire was cut between the fuse blocks and meters.

U. S. CONGRESS AGREED ON RAILROAD LEGISLATION

Washington, Feb. 16.—Final agreement on railroad reorganization legislation was reached today by the house and senate conferees who planned to have the report ready for the signature tomorrow.

Aside from textual changes the general features of the compromise bill follow the lines agreed upon recently by the conferees with the exception of the labor provision which was modified so as to provide for a federal appeal board appointed by the president consisting of nine members, equally divided between the employees, employers and the public. As previously agreed upon this board was to have consisted of five members.

TUESDAY MORNING, FEB. 17.

Will the Farmers' Government Solve the Big Problem?

U. S. newspapers are still discussing the replies sent in by forty thousand farmers to the questionnaires of the postmaster-general. Only one man in five to whom the two hundred thousand questionnaires were addressed troubled himself to reply.

But that reply indicates a feeling of unrest among the American farmers amounting to revolt. The complaints sound familiar, relating mainly to the difficulty of getting help, the migration of the farmers' boys and girls cityward, the hogging of profits by the middleman, and the prospective decline in the prices of farm products.

Some attempt, it is true, has been made by the Non-partisan League in North Dakota which a year or two ago obtained control of the state government. What has been accomplished it is difficult at this distance to say.

The men sent to investigate report as existing what they expected to find, and so we have the conflicting reports about North Dakota which we used to have about the state of Maine, when prohibition and anti-prohibition advocates apparently in good faith brought back reports from that state so widely divergent from all parts of the Dominion will be here and many subjects of vital importance will be taken up.

The national conference was formed as a result of a campaign inaugurated by a group of citizens of Winnipeg two and a half years ago, and participated in by some fifteen hundred delegates from all over Canada.

Mr. Rowell, as acting foreign minister, has made himself the champion of Canadian nationality in the league of nations. At every opportunity he has expounded the position for which there has been a good deal of striving since the armistice.

His latest protest against the American effort to diminish the dominions' importance in the league of nations is vigorous and timely. But, on one point at least, it will tend to mystify Canada's friends in the United States, who delight to see us emerge from all semblance of the colonial status into full nationhood.

Mr. Rowell makes the interesting point that republics like Cuba, Guatemala, Haiti and Panama, which are in the league, are really dependencies of the United States. In any considerable way affecting the world's peace they would be practically negligible—at least in comparison with Canada's effort in Europe.

BACKS UP ROWELL IN HIS CHALLENGE

New York Globe Says Enlightened Americans in Sympathy With Protest.

New York, Feb. 16.—The definite statement by Hon. N. W. Rowell that Canada will not consent to any impairment of her status in the league of nations as would be effected by the League's reservation now before the United States senate, has intensified interest in Canada's position in connection with the treaty fight now being waged in Washington.

The new city architect came in for some slight censuring when one Mr. Roberts appeared asking for permission to make some alterations to a garage owned by him, and by which his evidently makes his living.

Yesterday was the third time that the gentleman had trotted down to the city hall to be present at a property committee, and although he may enjoy going on the mugs of the various members, yet, as Alderman MacGregor explained, he has to do so at his own expense. In other words, each time that he visits the municipal palace he is forced to lower his business and trust in the saints that his customers will return when he is on the premises.

Unfortunately for Mr. Roberts, who we suppose is a very good taxpayer, the brand new city architect, or Mr. Price as he is known in private life, is in Chicago, perhaps recuperating from the shock of his appointment, but in any event there was no report from him as to what he intended doing about the aforementioned garage. Therefore the citizen will have the extreme pleasure of returning two weeks hence, when it is to be hoped that the city official will be enough on the job to make some tentative reply.

Another belated young citizen arrived to ask if it was going to be necessary to have been permitted to continue his wood yard on Somerset ave. No one in the entire building seemed to know that he had any such thing, until Daniel Chisholm stepped up, and said that he had heard all about the affair, and that so far as he could reply to the question, it was for the city to get out of business. However, a report will be made on the subject by the city architect, or someone else, and due time the gentleman will be lined up as to what is expected of him. We nearly forgot to mention that as usual this man had been hauled all over the building before he was finally directed to a partially correct place to tell his troubles.

And now we are perfectly sure that an information bureau is absolutely essential for the good of the community. People who know what they are talking about, and why they are talking, could be placed in such a ring, thus facilitating matters for the poor souls who pay the city's bills.

There was much more to be mentioned but all of it was put thru with the old pep that makes the citizen's life a merry one.

Vienna, Feb. 16.—The Hungarian minister has handed to Chancellor Renner a note proposing a plebiscite in West Hungary to determine the attribution of that territory, which is now assigned to Austria, but claimed by Hungary on historical grounds. It is proposed that Hungary and Austria pledge themselves to consider a vote of the people on this question final.

A POINTER FROM FRIEND ABE

IDA AT THE CITY HALL

BY IDA L. WEBSTER.

Well, giving the devil his due, we must admit that the property committee is a real business one. Deputations were heard, and cases and hopes despatched with lightning-like speed. In fact, so far as we could see, the gents around the table were working on high all afternoon.

The new city architect came in for some slight censuring when one Mr. Roberts appeared asking for permission to make some alterations to a garage owned by him, and by which his evidently makes his living.

Yesterday was the third time that the gentleman had trotted down to the city hall to be present at a property committee, and although he may enjoy going on the mugs of the various members, yet, as Alderman MacGregor explained, he has to do so at his own expense. In other words, each time that he visits the municipal palace he is forced to lower his business and trust in the saints that his customers will return when he is on the premises.

Unfortunately for Mr. Roberts, who we suppose is a very good taxpayer, the brand new city architect, or Mr. Price as he is known in private life, is in Chicago, perhaps recuperating from the shock of his appointment, but in any event there was no report from him as to what he intended doing about the aforementioned garage. Therefore the citizen will have the extreme pleasure of returning two weeks hence, when it is to be hoped that the city official will be enough on the job to make some tentative reply.

ARISTOCRATS WORK FOR ROYALIST RULE

One Section Favors the Elevation of Archduke Joseph—Other Names No One.

Budapest, Feb. 16.—Many thousands of aristocrats have gathered for the opening of parliament, attracted by the possibility of the revival of the house of lords composed of the landed aristocracy and the clergy. One of their headquarters is in the palace of Count Laffalas Karolyia, which flies the banner of the royalist party; another is in the palace of Prince Wetehazy, from which the campaign of Archduke Joseph is being conducted.

The assembly is likely to rush thru its work in order to elect a constitutional parliament, so that the peace treaty may be ratified, in case the assembly decides it has not sufficient authority to ratify it itself. Many disputes are arising as to the powers and prerogatives of the assembly, especially regarding the question of the dynasty.

THE GIRL WHO SMILED THRU

By MARION RUBINCAM

WHAT DAVID SAID

CHAPTER 8.

Alice found various ways of making a little money, as the women of small communities frequently do. She had a positive genius for gardening; as Clara phrased it "she could make any thing grow." On the small plot of ground that lay behind the little rose bowered house, she managed to raise enough vegetables for herself and her mother, and can a winter's supply as well. And over and above this she raised enough to sell occasionally to less thrifty neighbors, and to can the surplus to put on hand in the Women's Shop in the centre of the town.

"You've most of your place in vegetables," Mrs. Myer remarked one warm afternoon—two days after Sara's visit—watching Alice trim sweet peas over a chicken wire fence that screened the garden from the street view.

"Yes, I want some extra money this year," Alice answered, wiping off her moist face. "It makes less lawn to cut anyway," she added whimsically.

"You ought to make quite a bit," Mrs. Myer said, with a slight inflection at the end, leaving the sentence in the air, as it were, in a manner that invited Alice to provide further details.

Alice, who took very little interest in the minute personal details of her neighbors' lives, at the same time did not mind giving out any similar details of hers. This was characteristic of the woman who does not gossip. She answered cheerfully enough, regarding the yellow stains on her fingers and the brown soil that had worked its way thoroughly under her nails.

"Oh, I don't make very much, last year about $50 and $10 of that was from eggs I sold. It was enough to get me through things like the bathrobe, and a rug for her room—I'd like to make more this year; things are higher, you know."

"Oh, don't I know!" sighed Mrs. Myer, assuming the hopelessly discouraged manner many women do when discussing the rising cost of living.

"I've a fine idea for raising 'maul-rooms' in the cellar. Lots do, you know, and they say you can make ever so much money." Alice's eyes shone at the prospect. "Up going to find out more about it. I've got to love to take mother away this coming winter." In her mind she was already spending her fortune, and she was almost exuberantly gaily.

"Looks like rain," observed Mrs. Myer cheerlessly.

"Has to rain sometime," replied the incorrigibly cheerful girl.

"It does make the weeds grow so." "Yes, but it makes the vegetables and flowers grow too," remarked Alice undaunted, as she turned back to her lettuce.

"I never saw a girl like her," Mrs. Myer was almost complaining about it as she passed Mrs. Fairbanks on the porch. "Here my Fanny is fussing at home for fear it will storm, and her best beau won't come this evening to call on her."

"The trouble with Alice is, she doesn't care enough about that sort of thing," Mrs. Fairbanks answered.

But Alice did. Probably her brain had held less of the thought of boys and beaux than most of her set, for it had been occupied with graver problems for some years. But this afternoon she stopped her work often to look up at the sky and to speculate whether the gathering clouds would scatter or would pour down that evening.

"Not that anyone will come," she told her mother, when in the process of wedding she had worked around to the flower beds by the porch. But she knew in her heart that she was wondering whether by some chance David Thorne might not drop in! Of course, he wouldn't if it rained, and probably he wouldn't anyway—it had only been two days since he had come around before.

For in Farmington, a young man never called more than once a week on a young lady unless he was willing to have it known that he was particularly interested! This was the unwritten law, but generally understood on the village.

But David did come that night the summer storm made outdoors unpleasant for the time. And they talked of whether by some chance David Thorne might not drop in! Of course, he wouldn't if it rained, and probably he wouldn't anyway—it had only been two days since he had come around before.

BRITAIN SUPPORTS CANADA'S STAND

AUSTRALIA FIRM

With South Africa and New Zealand Will Claim Place in League.

Ottawa, Feb. 16.—(By Canadian Press).—There is reason to believe that the stand taken by Canada in regard to the Lenroot resolution to the peace treaty will have the support of the imperial authorities. The question of Canada's status in the league of nations, raised by the Lenroot reservation, has been the subject of a number of confidential communications which have passed lately between Ottawa and London.

It is expected that the official communications adopted at the international labor conference held under the auspices of the League of Nations in Washington will be before the government shortly. Some weeks ago the conventions were handed to the secretary-general of the league of nations for transmission to the various states represented at the conference. How the work of the labor conference is regarded by the British government is indicated in a letter from Lord Curzon, foreign secretary, at the first meeting of the council of the league—a full report of which has been received by the authorities here.

U. S. Prohibition Has Turned Bahamas Deficit Into Surplus

Nassau, Bahama Islands, Feb. 16.—Prohibition in the United States, which caused enormous amounts of liquors to descend almost like an avalanche upon this city, has transformed the Bahamas government's financial conditions as if by magic from a deficit to a comparatively huge surplus, provided labor for large numbers of unemployed Bahamians, and put more money in circulation in this little British colony than has been the case for many years.

CANADIANS SHOWED THEIR SUPERIORITY

General McNaughton Compares Canadian Artillery With American Gunners.

It was an artillery day with the Canadian Club yesterday, with a brilliant example of the university professor turned soldier, as the speaker, Brig-Gen. Andrew G. L. McNaughton, C.M.G., D.S.O., discussed the Canadian artillery's work in the war. As he commanded the heavy artillery and made a unique reputation in that capacity—he was more than qualified for the duty. He was a professor at McGill before the war. He looks only about 35 years old, and his carelessly-attended dark hair and quiet, modest bearing helped to make him seem more like a school principal than a warrior of high degree.

Gen. McNaughton paid high tribute to the infantry, and called the artillery "only an auxiliary force." But his facts, rather than his assertions, showed how helpless the infantry was without the big guns behind. Here are only a few of the facts: In the autumn of 1914 the British army in France and Belgium had 484 guns. At the armistice the total was 6,437. The maximum range in 1914 was 3 1/2 miles. In 1918 it was 18 miles. All through the German guns outranged ours by 30 per cent. In March, 1915, the Canadian artillery had only three rounds of ammunition per gun per week. In the last hundred days we had 7 1/2 guns per 1,000 troops, as against the Americans' 6 1/2 per 1,000 troops. In taking the key to Valenciennes shortly before the armistice, it had been taken and evacuated by other troops—there was a gun for every five infantrymen. In 150 minutes 2,140 tons of ammunition were fired on a front of 2,000 yards. The Germans were driven out and made no attempt to come back. In one sector thereafter 800 Germans were buried. We lost 50 killed and the German casualties of 2,254, were 500 more than our total force engaged in the operation.

Artillery Wins Battles.

That was a special, but typical illustration of the battle-winning, life-saving quality of abundant artillery, the furnishing of which was a great consideration with Gen. McNaughton. Broadly, it explained the difference between the Canadian record in the hundred days of the final push and the American record during the same days of their Argonne-Meuse concluding offensive.

We had 105,000 men, the Americans 500,000. Our men defeated 47 German divisions, and elements of 22 other divisions. The Americans defeated 46 German divisions, and had the help of 4 French divisions. The ammunition expended by the Canadian artillery, as measured in rounds per 1,000 troops per day, was over three times as much as that fired by the American artillery. The casualties suffered by the Americans per German division defeated, were 2,000 against 975 suffered by the Canadians per German division defeated.

Many interesting sidelights on artillery warfare were thrown by Gen. McNaughton. Lack of standardization in shells was a long a great handicap. The Germans suffered because they fixed so many batteries to a division, and in action could not transfer their artillery support from division to division. On one side the organization was such that artillery support could be thrown wherever it was most needed.

As to quantity of ammunition used in the war, the general said Waterloo was won with 9,000 rounds of artillery ammunition weighing 37 tons. The average expenditure of Canadian shells at Passchendaele was 48,500 rounds, weighing 1,870 tons. In the Boer war the British army fired only 278,000 shells, weighing only 2,800 tons, or not much in excess of the Canadian outlay in the Valenciennes operation in a single day, on a 2,000 yard front.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL DRAWS UP ITINERARY

Things were dead or nearly so around the legislative buildings yesterday. Attorney-General Raney was the only man visibly on the job. Several of the other ministers were "flung" at their homes. Premier Drury was at Crown Hill and received the early Halton returns from Mr. Raney's office with feelings of chagrin. For the real work of the majority soon grew up like Topsy, and the premier felt so good he issued a manifesto.

Mr. Raney corrected up to 5 p.m. his electioneering itinerary for the present week, cutting Hon. Manning Doherty off his list of talent for flu-ent reasons. As corrected the meeting on Wednesday evening at Belwood will be addressed by Mr. Raney himself, Hon. P. C. Biggs, Colonel Carmichael and A. S. Clarke, barrister, Mount Forest. The Friday evening meeting at Elora will feature along with the attorney-general Hon. W. H. Rolfe and Sam Carter, Guelph, one of the giants of the social reform movement. The Saturday evening meeting at Damascus will hear Mr. Raney and Colonel Carmichael.

ARMISTICE!

Constipation, Headache, Colds, Biliousness, Sufferer to "Cascarets"

Bring back peace! Enjoy life! Your system is filled with liver and bowel poison which keeps your skin sallow, your stomach upset, your head dull and aching. Your meals are turning into poison, gases and acids. You can not feel right. Don't stay ill or constipated. Feel springy all over by taking Cascarets occasionally. They act without gripping or inconvenience. They never sicken you like Calomel, Salts, Oil or nasty, harsh Pills. They cost so little too—Cascarets work while you sleep.

"What's in a Name?"

Facts about your name; its history; its meaning; whence it was derived; its significance; your lucky day and lucky jewel.

ADELE.

Derived from the Teutonic Adlo, which also is the root of Adelaide. The name Adele is one of the most ancient known to students. The significance of the name is of the most heroic character and it was a favorite with the ruling houses of the various German principalities as far back as the tenth and eleventh centuries. The name in its earliest beginnings was very much the same in form and even spelling as it is today. Adele is probably the widest variation in the course of centuries.

The name was widely adopted in France, as well as in England and Italy under different forms from Adelaide to Adeline.

The jewel associated with persons bearing the name Adele is the turquoise. The turquoise is held to have peculiar properties of protecting the person wearing it from harm and warning her of approaching danger by breaking. Friday is Adele's most fortunate day and her lucky number is six.

FOR SUMMER OF THE TRIP SOUTH

BY LILLIAN M. SCOTT.

An important statement from a Paris couturier is that embroidery is more fashionable than ever. Motifs in some tangible form are sure to be found upon the simplest of frocks.

Sketched above is the newest of allhouettes. This unique blouse is fashioned of tangerine satin pailletted in a distinctive design in morning glory blue worsted. The model is one that can be used as a substitute for a sweater. With it is worn a black satin skirt or one of heavier material in paprika.

Canadian women who have already turned their attention to clothes for early spring or southern wear will be quick to note that the advanced showings of spring suits are divided into two distinct types, one advocating the coat that-felts to the knees, and the finger tip length. Both are shown in graceful effect.

PARISH GUILD PARTY.

Despite the inclement weather Saturday evening the Valentine birthday party held in the school room of the Church of the Messiah, under the auspices of the Parish Guild, proved a huge success. A somewhat unique admittance charge consisted in each person being provided with a small white silk bag decorated with a crimson heart, in which they were to deposit one cent for each year of their age. It is needless to say that the ladies, with their usual secretiveness, in some cases donated bills, which had the gratifying result of swelling the proceeds to over $100. About 150 partook of supper provided by the ladies, and afterwards the guests were treated to an unusually fine musical program. The posing in the shadow box of 24 pretty little girls and boys, in pairs, suitably costumed as valentines, brought to a close a most enjoyable evening. A great deal of credit is due the ladies of the Parish Guild for their untiring efforts in behalf of raising funds towards the erection of a new school house.

UNIVERSITY NOTES

That President Falconer, who had returned to his desk Friday morning after a week's attack of the flu, had again suffered a slight relapse and was once more confined to his bed was the distressing tidings learned last night from friends of the university president. The president fought a slight attack of the disease all last week, after he had recovered from his first attack, and only recovered sufficiently to be out last Friday. That he had returned to work too soon is the opinion of professors of the university. No information as to when the president might be expected to return to his office could be learned last evening from his home, but the hope of the university students is that he may quickly and completely recover from his attack again.

Dr. C. K. Clarke, M.D., LL.D., dean of the faculty of medicine, intends resigning his post, in order to devote himself to the work of the Canadian National Committee of Mental Hygiene, of which he is medical director. Dr. Clarke stated that at present he had no idea who his successor would be and that his twelve years at the university had been his most happy ones. Dr. Clarke, since he graduated from Toronto in 1878 has held several important positions, among them being assistant superintendent of Hamilton Asylum for the Insane, superintendent of the Toronto Hospital of the Insane, and superintendent of the Toronto General Hospital.

Prof. J. A. Dale, prominent in the education department of McGill University, has accepted an invitation from the governors of Toronto University to become director of the social service department here as professor in social service or administration purposes by October, which has been carrying on the work of the social service branch here in addition to his other duties in his own faculty.

Several changes have been made in the entrance requirements for admission to the various faculties of Toronto University. The general requirements for four-year matriculation have been adopted and the entrance conditions are drafted below.

Returned men also have the privilege of taking their Matriculation under conditions similar to those in force for candidates engaged in a mercantile or other occupation.

In all cases candidates must submit evidence of their military service. There has been considerable misunderstanding of the new requirements for entrance to Applied Science. These are as follows:

Part I—Pass Matriculation in the following subjects: English, History of Mathematics and three of Greek, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Experimental Science; preferably French, German and Science.

Part II—Honor Matriculation as follows: Honors in Mathematics; pass in Mathematics; pass in Honor English; pass in one of the following honor subjects: Greek, Latin, French, German, and Science.

French is recommended as the optional subject. The registrar will be pleased to give full information to anyone interested.

Commenting on the insufficiency of present accommodation in University College, Principal Hutton makes the following statement in the president's report for the scholastic year of 1918-19: "If new buildings cannot be built for university or administrative purposes by October, next (1920), buildings must be bought by that time to house some of the university or administrative departments now in University College, so that the college may, in October, resume possession of portions of its original building, long denied it." Six extra lecture rooms and at least twenty professor's rooms are urgently required.

It is just 30 years ago that the university was burned down. The fire started at a convention of all the faculties when they were assembled to discuss their annual conversations, then in charge of the Literary and Scientific Society, and quickly gutted the whole building.

The Students' Administrative Council is experiencing some difficulty in securing the services of a down-town theatre, for their combined university night theatre party. At present only the Princes Theatre is available.

The Trinity College Glee Club held their annual concert and dance in the College Convocation Hall, under the distinguished patronage of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario and Mrs. Clark. Provoost Mackinnon and Mrs. Fleming and Lady Falconer. A high-class program was executed under the leadership of Mr. Francis Coombs, the conductor. The assisting artists were: Mrs. Davey Corbett, soprano, and Mr. Leo Smith, tenor. After the concert dancing held sway.

All the years in medicine at the Toronto University are spending their spare time—not in preparation for their examinations—but in rehearsing their various stunts for the one big night in the life of the medical student, namely, "Daffy Night." There has been a silver cup offered for the year that places the best stit on, and so the interest of the various years is at a fever heat. All the years will place the best of their talent at the disposal of the committee in charge for the big stunt, which in all probability will take the nature of a skit on the various professors in medicine. Convocation Hall has been secured for the production, and at the request of the numerous friends of the Meds, the concert will hold sway for two nights this year instead of one as formerly.

MUST PAY THOUSAND POUNDS.

London, Feb. 16.—(By Canadian Press).—Award of a thousand pounds sterling, to be paid within 14 days, was given yesterday against Major Robert Fitzgerald, who came over with the Canadian forces and has been an assistant provost marshal in a divorce case in which he was co-respondent. The petitioner was an officer in the Army Service Corps.

Milk drinkers

make a STURDY nation

In those countries where milk plays a big part in the daily diet you'll find a nation of sturdy, hardy people—people remarkably healthy and long-lived.

To build up this sturdy nation we must begin with our children.

Teach them to know the goodness and merits of milk. Teach them to accept milk as an essential part of every meal. Teach them that milk is Nature's first and most perfect food.

Doctors and food experts are all agreed that milk is the one balanced ration. It contains all the food elements the body needs—proteins, carbohydrates and growth-promoting vitamins.

It is easily digested—does not overtax the stomach—and helps digest other foods more readily.

And at the same time Farmers' Dairy Milk is the most economical food you can buy.

If you would build up your child's health and strength; if you would give it the reserve energy to withstand sickness—see that you have lots of this rich, fresh milk from the finest farms in Ontario.

Montreal, Feb. 16.—The stock market today was extremely quiet and out of the ten thousand shares traded in Abitibi Sugar furnished more than half the trading.

Inspiring Rug Display

Not Only Will Your Needs in Floor Covering Be Supplied But Expert Advice as Well

It does one's heart good to visit the Rug Display on the Fourth Floor. Not alone is the insight into the wonder work of the far East which one gains a thing to prize, but here will come the inspiration as to the floor covering for certain rooms in your home, which perhaps has puzzled you.

In variety and design this display is authoritative. The purchaser will receive as well the expert suggestion and advice of those who know what rugs are fitted for special environments, and how they should be disposed.

If you like the deep wine color, here are Bokhara or Kiva Rugs from Turkestan. They are distinguished by a close even weave, and are usually designed in set figures.

The Dozart is a fine bit of workmanship, woven in the Hamadan district, Persia. It has a long close pile, small intricate design, and produces a lustrous iridescent effect that is much sought after.

Among the highest types are the Anatolians, woven in Asia Minor from genuine Angora wool, with design and finish that sets them apart in beauty.

Simpson's has become known for the excellent quality of the Chinese rugs provided. Typical Mongol patterns worked out in blue and gold, and fascinating to behold.

All of these rugs are specially priced, and the value given at the sale prices is most unusual in view of transportation conditions. Chinese Rugs from $25.00 to $550.00. Anatolians from $250.00 to $550.00.
