Russian Deserters Executed by Wholesale

Korniloff Carrying Out a Stern Policy

KARENENSKY WOUNDED?

Enemy Report Says—French Again Beat Back Crown Prince's Forces—Quiet Night on the British Front

London, July 30.—The Times' correspondent at the Russian southwest headquarters, after describing the desertions and panic of the Russian troops, says General Korniloff's measures have been approved and that he is executing deserters by wholesale.

Roumanian Press On London, July 30.—The Roumanian war office statement reads: "On the 27th, between the valleys of Cash and Putna, we again advanced some kilometers and occupied the villages of Sloveca, Dragoslav, Negriesti, Topesti, Valceasca and Cotacul. We took prisoners and some motor batteries and war material."

Kerenky Wounded? Geneva, July 31.—The correspondent of a Budapest paper telegraphs under date of July 22: "On the Bzsanaz front for the first time we came in contact with 'death regiments' composed entirely of Russian women flying the red flag. They fought with extraordinary bravery, frequently counter-attacking ferociously, led by women officers. Near Bzsanaz, near Kovilovo, Kerenky was severely wounded in the arm. A Russian infantry division refused to fight and began retreating. The Russian artillery, however, as the deserter, turned their guns on the infantry. Thereupon Kerenky, in his automobile, drove to the front and succeeded in stopping the fratricidal slaughter, though wounded himself."

In Austria, Vienna, July 29, via Copenhagen.—Heterizing that Austria-Hungary was ready to accept an honorable peace, but that the Dual Monarchy, in conjunction with the Entente Powers, had decided to enter negotiations on the basis of a peace by understanding, as recently outlined by the German imperial chancellor and the Reichstag, Count Ottokar Czernin, the Austrian foreign minister, in an interview today discussed at length peace possibilities.

The Bavarian statesman took occasion to reply to the speech made by David Lloyd George in London on July 21, when the British premier characterized the address delivered in the Reichstag by Dr. Michaelis, the German chancellor, as a sham. The count said Mr. Lloyd George was mistaken when he represented the Reichstag peace resolution to be a "piece of bluff."

Paris, July 30.—Last night there were violent artillery duels in the Aisne and Verdun regions of the French front. The French official statement says: "The night was marked by rather violent artillery actions, notably in the sectors of Braye-en-Laonnois and Epine-De-Chevigny in the region of the Mont de Hurethoise and on both banks of the River Meuse."

Quiet on the British Front London, July 30.—The text of the official British statement issued today says: "There was nothing of special importance last night on the British front. There were small encounters between our own and the enemy's patrols in the neighborhood of Bullecourt and Achelle."

DISCUSSING THE FUTURE OF BELGIUM Some Berlin Papers Say Germans Must Hold it; Others Say Allies Can Have it and Peace

Copenhagen, July 30.—The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger, commenting on recent proceedings in the British House of Commons, says: "Mr. Asquith's inquiry as to whether we were ready to restore Belgium's full freedom only as a means as a rhetorical question for Mr. Asquith must know that, aside from a handful of dreamers, nobody thinks of handing Belgium again to England and France."

The Catholic organ, the Cologne Volkszeitung, attempts to prove that the retention of Belgium and the annexation of regions in the east are indispensable to that protection of the German frontiers which Chancellor Michaelis has specified.

Some of the radical newspapers, on the other hand, seek to give the impression that the government is so bound by the Reichstag that the Entente Allies have only to propose peace without annexations or indemnities to obtain it.

SIGNS OF WEAKNESS IN STATEMENTS BY ENEMY MINISTERS

London Comment on Words of Michaelis and Count Czernin

THEY LACK SOLIDITY

Austro-German Peace Talk But Play For Time Unless Accompanied by Undertaking to Evacuate and Restore Conquered Territory

London, July 30.—State notes by Dr. Michaelis, German imperial chancellor, and Count Czernin, Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, which are regarded here as obviously made in collusion, dominate the news columns of the morning papers.

They are generally regarded as a sign of weakness, while the absence of reference to the future of Belgium and Serbia is considered to exclude all credence in the desire for peace by understanding. Austro-German peace talks, unless accompanied by an undertaking to evacuate and restore conquered territories, is declared merely to be aimed at delaying America's preparations for war.

Herr Michaelis' accusation against France are dismissed by some commentators as best left for refutation by our French allies, but discussed by others, one of which says the story is too thin even for the Germans to believe. The Daily News, however, maintains that, although the chancellor's statements are vague, as evidence they cannot be left unanswered and insists that a statement of war aims to be formulated at the coming conference of allies must contain an explicit disavowal of all thought of conquest for conquest's sake.

The paper denounces the "policy" of Sir Edward Carson's threat to drive Germany behind the Rhine, which it says, has given Herr Michaelis a weapon which he was swift to use. "It is in the power of the Allies to reject the weapon innocuously and to let it fall against himself, but the republication of his charge must come quickly and in a form leaving no loophole for misinterpretation."

A JOINT RAID WAS EFFECTIVE New Brunswick and Maine Officials Swooped Down Upon Border Place and Proprietor Was Caught

Since the introduction of the provincial prohibition law there has been considerable trouble in enforcing the law along the boundary between New Brunswick and the State of Maine. One of the worst problems to deal with has been that arising from the illicit business in liquor carried on in houses situated directly on the boundary line. If the provincial authorities raided such a place, by the time they gained access to the house, which was in the State of Maine, if the Maine officers appeared, they would find the stock on the New Brunswick side of the house.

It was to overcome this difficulty that the chief inspector, Rev. W. D. Wilson, recently arranged for co-operation with the Maine authorities, and a recent incident showed how effective this co-operation has proved.

On his last trip to the northern part of the province, Mr. Wilson arranged a raid on the premises of one of the law-breakers. A party of several men visited the house and found a liberal supply of wet goods on hand. Their visit did not worry the proprietor, however, as he is well informed that the goods were in the State of Maine and that they would not touch them. "We will take charge of them, then," remarked one of two men who had been in the background, as they stepped forward and displayed their U. S. badges. Under the circumstances there was no difficulty in securing a conviction, and the proprietor is now entering upon a long sentence in jail across the border.

Mr. Wilson reports that the provincial law is being remarkably well observed all over the province, where it is in force, the enforcement being just as thorough as in St. John. With regard to the counties not under the provincial act, he said that the enforcement was not nearly so strict under the Scott Act, and this was the chief argument in favor of the repeal of the Scott Act, so that the provincial legislation might become operative.

BROWN-GOULD The wedding of Gunner Frank Brown and Miss Mamie Anna Gould, both of this city, was solemnized on Saturday evening at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. John Hardwick, 42 Douglas avenue.

GERMANS HAVE TROUBLE WITH POLISH TROOPS

Whole Regiments Refuse To Take Military Oath

THE OUTLOOK IS SERIOUS

Indication of Friction Between Berlin and Vienna—Soldiers Demand Release of General Pilsudski, Who Organized Legion

London, July 29.—A Zurich despatch to Reuters Ltd. says that telegrams from Cracow report that not merely single units of the Polish legionaries refused to take the military oath, but whole regiments including four infantry, one cavalry, one artillery and parts of other regiments aggregating a majority of all the forces.

Unless General Pilsudski is released immediately, it is believed that serious consequences will ensue. The Polish party intends to bring up the question at the next sitting of the Reichstag. It is significant and indicates a certain amount of friction between Germany and Austria, that the Austrian censor permitted the publication of these reports in Cracow papers and also abroad.

A Copenhagen despatch on July 26 stated that Gen. Pilsudski, organizer and former commander of the Polish legion, had been arrested by German authorities while attempting to leave Poland on a false passport. General Pilsudski's flight marks the culmination of the differences between the Poles, who desire to form an independent Polish army, and the German authorities, who insist that the Polish forces be under German control.

CANADIANS PUSHED NEARER TO LENS TODAY

Germans Outwitted and Daylight Attack Found Them Off Guard

(By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press in France)—Canadian Army Headquarters, July 30.—By a minor operation last night the Canadian front was advanced in the region east of the Reservoir Hill into the Cite-du-Moulin, the only suburb lying between Reservoir Hill and Lens. The losses of the Canadians were inconsiderable and the advance gives them possession of a stretch of difficult country extending about 1,000 yards north and south with a depth of more than 400 yards easterly from our former front.

The gain this morning was made as a result of careful scouting. By close observation it was learned that to lessen the heavy losses from our artillery, which has been pounding Cite-du-Moulin steadily for the last two weeks the enemy withdrew men holding the line among its ruined houses during the night and manned the position only at night when he believed, from former experience of Canadian methods, any attack in force was likely to be made.

That was good tactics, but the obvious method of catching the enemy napping was to send an attacking party in daylight while our bombardment was still in progress. This was done. The range of our guns was increased as the men went over and fought the enemy outposts of their supports.

With ample equipment of machine guns our men captured the western part of Cite-du-Moulin and reconstructed the enemy positions so that they will afford fairly good shelter. There has been no serious counter-attack on the north sector of our line.

Early this morning a large quantity of gas was projected into the enemy's trenches between Hill 70 and Cite St. Laurent.

Heavy thunderstorms have interfered with the progress of trench destruction by our artillery.

RELYING TRACKS

The renewal of the water main in Prince William street has been completed from the corner of Princess to below Duke street. The street railway company started this morning to lay their party tracks which had been taken up to allow the department to get at the main which was renewed. The tracks are being laid in the same method as formerly, with the ties resting on the earth without other foundation. As the excavation re-fill has not completely settled, it was declared impossible to put in a satisfactory foundation and the rails may have to be taken up again within the next year if the street is to be repaved.

ARCHBISHOP BEGINS SPEAKS ON CONSCRIPTION

Statement in Catholic Paper Relative to Effect as Applying to Clergy

Quebec, July 30.—In an interview on conscription given yesterday to L'Action Catholique the official organ of the Catholic church in Quebec, Cardinal Beign says: "As regards the clergy only, this conscription law is a menace which causes the Canadian clergy the worst apprehensions."

"This military service, as it is proposed, or at least as we are able to judge from the speeches and statements exempt the clergy and that class of the Church of Christ, independent in its domain and whose laws and practice exempt the clergy and that class of the society which that name designates from the service under arms, but also to that of the staff of clerical teachers and, through this very fact, it creates in our society an evil much worse than that which it is alleged to attempt to remedy."

"The clause as it is written might lose some of its ill if it were interpreted in the spirit of the Church. But what guarantee have we that members of the special tribunals will be all Catholics, enlightened and good-willed, capable of pronouncing with sincerity and knowledge on a question of this importance? If we judge by the very crude knowledge revealed by certain speeches made in the common, one may indeed fear that some legislators, so little enlightened and may be also somewhat ill-willed, may make a choice that we would approve. And here is what legitimates all the fears."

"On the other hand, the treaties assure the Canadian Catholics the free practice of their religion. The legislation under way may strike the liberty a mortal blow. I like to believe that political wisdom will in the end overcome, in the hearts of our statesmen, the urgings and counsel of certain elements liable to trouble forever the peace of this country and that no one will dare on a matter so important and delicate, to hurt the sentiments of the whole Catholic population of the dominion and imprudently sow on this side of the Atlantic the seed of the fatal religious discord that have divided the old world."

ACTUALLY CARRIED OFF HIS BRIDE-TO-BE

When handsome Harold Lockwood—a sort of society lion in the disguise of a poor river "sooty"—reached the great climax in his love-making he literally shouldered the lady of his choice and kidnapped her from the scene of gaily and smart society. It was a care-man stant, to be sure, but it dispelled the girl's illusions concerning him and put a big punch into a simply delightful story, "The River of Romance"—Metro feature—at the Imperial now. In the United States Harold Lockwood is one of the matinee idols of the hour. He is of the society-strenuous type—a doer of daring deeds and yet hardly ruffling his immaculate dress suit. The story now being shown at Imperial was photographed among "The Thousand Isles in the St. Lawrence river, Quebec, and is truly a scene, dramatic and comic masterpiece.

TALK ON CONTRACTING

E. G. Home, of Grant & Home, gave the Rotary Club an interesting and instructive talk today on contracting methods, past and present. Especially interesting was his description of the scientific manner in which modern contracts are figured by contracting engineers, who take into consideration every detail of the work and the cost, with nothing hap-hazard, but everything carefully estimated and proved. Speaking of St. John, Mr. Home said there seemed to be an undue suspicion of contractors, where there should be confidence, and St. John people, he thought, were too much in favor of cheaper class of work, which did not pay them in the end.

LAWYER HAS COAL MINE NEXT TO HIS FURNACE

A turn of good fortune that has come to a Virginia lawyer and one which is truly enviable in these times of high prices, is the discovery of a rich coal vein within a few feet of his furnace door, says the August Popular Mechanics Magazine in an illustrated article. The surprising find was made by a workman who, while enlarging the lawyer's cellar, saw that the character of the dirt in which he was working indicated the presence of coal nearby. A little extra digging revealed a vein, 5 ft. high and 4 ft. wide, within 30 ft. of the furnace. To lay in his fuel supply, the lawyer borrowed a mine car from one of the many mining companies in the town and laid a wooden track from his cellar to the vein. The first 15 tons which he mined cost him 90 cents a ton. The entry, or gallery, which has been dug, now extends well out towards the lawyer's garden.

New York, July 30—The market continues without showing any particular tendency. Both Germany and Austria continue full of peace talk. The house will probably increase taxation in the new bill materially. Those factors are both bullish, on the other hand the technical position of the market is good and it does not look to me as if any important movement in either direction need be expected just now.

Some Fun in Air Fighting

Humorous Incidents Take Minds of Aviators From Tragedies of War

Huns Disagree—In One Case the Observer Tried to Punch the Pilot For Landing Without Fight

C. G. Orey, editor of The Aeroplane of London, writes: One hears too much, perhaps of the tragedies of air-fighting in these days when casualties are necessarily heavy and certain people are agitating for greater efficiency in aircraft equipment, in the hope of minimizing the casualties. But even air-fighting is not without its humor at times. There is, for instance, the classic case of the German aeroplane which was attacked by a British machine of at least equal speed, and landed behind the British lines absolutely intact, barring a few bullet-holes in the wings, which did not matter. As soon as the machine came to a standstill a crowd of Hun soldiers rushed out to capture the crew. As they approached they saw the pilot scrambling out of the machine and run for his life, not away from them to a neighboring wood, but straight towards them, hotly pursued by his passengers.

Before he reached them he was caught by the passenger, who proceeded to give him an unmerciful hiding. They were forcibly separated by the British and the case was investigated by an officer. It appeared that the German pilot was a Saxon non-commissioned officer, an excellent flier, who was rather tired of Prussian military life. When he found himself attacked by a machine of equal speed he came to the conclusion that he might just as well live by another day, so he landed peacefully.

His passenger, on the other hand, was a Prussian officer, full of fight, and set out to kill someone or be killed in the attempt. When he found himself being delivered post free, as it were, into the hands of the enemy, he was naturally annoyed, and as soon as he could lay hands on the unfortunate pilot he proceeded to demonstrate his annoyance.

Precisely the converse occurred in another case. A German biplane was attacked by a slower British machine which somehow managed to get itself into a suitable position below the Hun. A few shots into the bottom of the German machine resulted in its diving for earth and landing conveniently near a British camp. Here again it was found that the passenger was superior to the pilot, only in this case the pilot, only in this case the pilot was game to go on fighting as long as he could, whereas his passenger was superior to him only in rank.

The Captured Prince The chap who told me the story was on the ground at the time, and he described the senior as being a kind of small royalty, of a physical type something like the German crown prince of the comic pictures. He was very haughty and very sulky, but he admitted he had ordered his pilot to land. The reason he gave was that his machine gun had jammed and he had no means of defence. Whereupon a British officer calmly walked over to the machine gun and asked the noble Hun whether he would stand in front of it while he pulled the trigger. The Hun turned pale and retreated in a dignified manner behind a group of his captors, so that the British officer turned the muzzle of the gun upwards and pulled the trigger, with the result that the stream of bullets poured forth in excellent style.

The pilot's version of the story was that a couple of bullets ripped through the floor of the machine somewhere about the princeling's feet, so he ordered the pilot by signal to descend. The pilot was in doubt for a moment whether to do so. If he went home without obeying orders he would doubtless be shot for insubordination. If he manoeuvred so that the passenger could fight behind the British machine he would probably be brought down, owing to the passenger's bad shooting. So he thought it best to obey orders.

One of the most humorous incidents of the war occurred not very long ago in Northern France. A big Hun biplane was attacked by a little British single-seater, the pilot of which fired a few shots at long range. When he came closer he found there was no answering fire from the passenger in the after seat. Having sheltered himself behind the Hun's tail long enough to make sure that the gunner did not intend to pop up and shoot him when he offered an easy mark clear of the

New Vaudeville Programme and Gloria's Romance Afford Pleasing Entertainment

The vaudeville bill at the Opera House this week gives promise of being a great popular success, for it contains all the elements of popularity, a variety of good music, sensational acrobatic feats, a comic sketch, a good comedian and Scotch dancers and singers. Some of these acts are exceptionally good and deserve to be classed with the very finest offered on a local stage.

First appears Sterling and Chapman, two Scotch dancers and singers. Their act was good and was appreciated by those who like some of the good old songs from the land of the heather. Roy Knox, a comedian, was good, but his act was a little brief.

Abe Marks and Company in a comedy sketch made a decided hit. They presented a comic sketch, and that was thoroughly appreciated was evident from the frequent applause and hearty laughter. The presentation of the act was a bit unusual and it is well worth seeing.

Ward and Shubert gave a pleasing act. They sang, amuse the gathering with jokes and comic sayings and in addition sang some patriotic songs which brought down the house. The lady member of this act is an exceptional good piano player.

The La France Sisters gave the feature performance on the programme, and ran two trapeze artists of marked ability and some of their feats were both difficult and thrilling. They work on the flying bar and slack-rope called forth prolonged applause.

The chapter of Gloria's Romance was interesting and pleased those who follow the serial. On the whole the performance was varied and novel and undoubtedly attract large audiences during the week.

LOCAL NEWS

The Congregational Sunday school held their annual picnic on Saturday afternoon at East St. John.

Thomas Sullivan of the local police, while on his tour, visited a haughty. When there he was one of the few police officers to witness the hanging of Lawrence Sparks, a colored man.

The Y.M.C.A. boys summer camp closed on Saturday for the season and the campers returned to the city. A. M. Gregg, the boys' secretary, and a few other officials remained behind to close camp. They will return today or tomorrow.

J. C. Smith, state Y.M.C.A. secretary for Maine with his family came to the city on Saturday evening from Annapolis where he had been visiting another. He left again yesterday for his headquarters at Waterville, Me. He is a brother to F. L. Smith, local Y. M. C. A. secretary.

Over 150 people enjoyed a tea and sale on the grounds of Mrs. A. L. Bonnell at Ketepec on Saturday. The affair was undertaken and successfully carried out by the ladies of the Ladies' Aid Society of Ketepec and the Ladies' Aid Society of Martinton. Drawings were held for a quilt, won by Mrs. J. W. Willard, and for a piece of china, No. 84, not yet identified.

As a result of a disagreement between husband and wife, Percy O'Toole, is being held by the police authorities who charge the husband with willful desertion of his five-month-old child. The father went in search of the mother, it is said, and left the child in the house alone all day. Neighbors were attracted to the house by the hungry cries of the child and the father placed under arrest. The babe has been handed over to the care of the Children's Aid Society.

Fulton Looms Up As Opponent For Jess Willard

New York, July 28.—The pacifist heavyweight champion, Jess Willard, probably is all through with the fight game. Never a lover of the game which gave him his fame and his fortune, Willard has purchased a share in the management of the fight game, and now, presumably is ready to call it off.

It is not a surprising thing that Willard is ready to get out of the ring. He has been a champion in getting rid of Tom Jones and Jack Carley is commendable in a sport which he has eliminated the syndicate which put the world's champion to work in a circus instead of sending him to fight with the best of the world. Leonard A. Conlon, Solicitor, Ritchie building, city. 68389-8-25

Willard has declared there isn't a man of sufficient ability to meet him. However, he said this in a way that suggests he is knocking out Sam Langford—something no other man ever could do. Willard long ago adopted the policy of no fights with the colored men—breaking the rule only once in order to win the world's title from Jack Johnson. It is doubtful, just the same, if his best days would have done him any good in a bout with the Boston Terrier, regardless of the amount of difference in their sizes.

If Willard sees a few more thousand dollars and he is not a fighter, the chance is just begging for him. Fred Fulton looms as his most formidable rival. Several promoters are eager to stage the bout. The public would go wild over a twenty-round knock-out of the kind that Fulton would confer a favor by agreeing to the fight.

MORE FROM ROOSEVELT ABOUT UNIVERSAL TRAINING

Amid the cheers of thousands of visitors gathered at Pittsburgh for the funeral of President Theodore Roosevelt, the former president declared the continuation of universal military training in the United States after the war was a national duty. He said that the nation's present crisis and the need for a more efficient national organization.

The former president assailed the theory that the war cost $30,000,000,000, a tremendous tax on incomes and declared for heavy and progressive taxes on excessive profits. While a reasonable profit should be given on government war contracts, he said, "no man in America has a right to become tremendously wealthy as a result of this war."

"We are in a war, and our first business is to fight," said Mr. Roosevelt. Only a few months ago I heard people say they would give money, potatoes and other things, but would let some one else fight for them. This is pawn-broker patriotism. The foremost place in patriotism is that of the American who patriotically goes to face the shells and cannon."

A war relief fund of $550,000 was voted by the convention. It will be raised through a membership assessment of one dollar per capita.

Urge Shooting German Spies in United States

Scotland Yard Officials Interested in Secret Service Work There

London, July 12.—(By mail)—The most effective method of combating the activities of German spies in the United States is public generally and the police, according to opinions expressed to The Associated Press by high officials of Scotland Yard.

From the first days of the war English police and military agents who were sent to the United States to discover the German spies have received masses of information from citizens regarding suspicious persons and their activities.

Scotland Yard is intensely interested in the work that is being done in London by the English officials. Obviously, German spies are in a position to become familiar with the details of the war.

There is a general feeling in London that the execution of the first spies caught would go far in the United States toward persuading others. Germany is extremely hazardous.

SAVS COAL FREIGHT RATES LOWER

Coal freights, says the Bangor Commercial of Saturday, have taken quite a drop the last fortnight from Chesapeake Bay ports, and tonnage is reported to be coming to Portland and Boston this week at $2, as compared with $4.20 to $5 a ton, which rate was being paid only in June. The present rate was considered an extra good price before the war, when many of the larger schooners were carrying coal for seventy cents a ton or even less, although the running expenses of a vessel at the present time are about double what they were in those times. Consumers are getting the benefit of the decline in rates. Portland dealers having cut prices on bituminous coal $2 a ton, with prospects good for still lower figures.

TUBERCULOSIS CIRCULARS SENT TO ENLISTED MEN

Boston, July 30.—A circular calling attention to the danger of tuberculosis in military service is being distributed to enlisted men by the Boston Association for the Relief and Control of Tuberculosis.

The circular points out that the best way to avoid consumption is to maintain bodily efficiency and urges that soldiers know that they are suffering from the disease should not attempt to conceal the fact from army physicians, as they would be likely to become a burden rather than a help to the army.

New York Chemist Will Give Liberty Bond to American Who Accomplishes Feat

A prize of a $1,000 Liberty bond has been offered by the American and German air men for the first American who bombs Berlin from the air as a result of his original offer the basis of German air men have been bombing London and towns on the English coast. Signment Saxe, a New York scientist, made the offer in a letter to the Aero Club of America and to the New York newspapers. Mr. Saxe did not ask the cooperation of the Aero Club, but said that he would welcome any suggestions for making his original offer the basis of a fund if the Aero Club should be willing to handle it. The offer is meant as a reprisal for the loss of friends on the Louisiana.

GOVERNMENT OFFERS STEAMERS FOR SOAL

J. H. Frink, acting as provincial fuel controller, held a conference with the coal merchants on Saturday afternoon in the board of trade rooms. The meeting was called in reference to a letter from Mr. Magrath and an enclosure from the department of marine and fisheries, offering in the event of the dealers making arrangements to have coal ready for shipment, the department would undertake to furnish tonnage to bring it here. The proposal was not very favorably received, as the dealers said the lack of unloading facilities would make it difficult to handle the coal here. Mr. Frink is to communicate further with Mr. Magrath with the department to secure further information as to the size, capacity and draft of the steamers which would be supplied. Last year 80,000 tons of anthracite were brought to St. John.

THE WAR SITUATION

There are still rumors of another great British drive, but it still hangs fire. A tremendous artillery duel has gone on for days, and possibly this week will witness important developments on the British front.

PROFITS AND PROFITEERS

In a scorching arraignment of Sir Joseph Flavelle, in connection with the profits made by the William Davies Company, Toronto Saturday Night says: "If profiteering is as general in this country as we are led to believe, what argument have we to set forth that more men should go into the trenches?"

LIGHTER VEIN.

A Hardy Annual.

Senator Chauncey M. Depew is famous as an after-dinner speaker. Well, here is a Depew story. In the course of a few remarks at a fashionable dinner he told how a certain manufacturer, left practically alone in his factory through a lock-out, was represented as pointing to the office clock over his desk and saying to his friend:

Fall Not Unchecked.

Two insurance agents—a Yankee and an Englishman—were bragging about their rival methods. The Englishman was holding forth on the system of prompt payment carried out by his people—no trouble, no fuss, no attempt to wriggle out of settlement.

ONE-SIDED CONSCRIPTION

The Borden government is not serious in its professed desire to throw the last man and the last dollar into the war. It wants the man, but not the dollar. Life may be conscripted, but not wealth.

KEEPS BABY'S SKIN HEALTHY

WHAT is so beautiful as the soft, rosy, delicate skin of the baby. And yet baby's skin is so tender and so easily chafed and irritated that it must have care and consideration.

It is a fine habit for mothers to have Dr. Chase's Ointment at hand for use after the bath. By its soothing, healing influence it soon allays the inflammation, brings relief and comfort, and prevents the development of eczema, for eczema is the natural result of neglected skin irritation.

Mrs. W. L. Barnes, Timmins, Ont., writes: "I want to tell you about the case of my little boy who had baby eczema when he was three months old. It started on the top of his head, on his forehead and around his ears. The doctors failed to do him any good, so I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment on the recommendation of a friend, and in a month's time the child was entirely free of this disagreeable skin disease. He is now four years old, and has never had any further trouble from ailments of this kind."

Paid Tribute To Late Dr. Walker

A very high tribute was paid by Rev. G. A. Kurling in his sermon at St. Paul's church last evening when he preached at a memorial service held in honor of the late Dr. T. Dyson Walker, a former member of that church. The preacher chose his text from Proverbs 21-21: "He that followeth after righteousness and mercy, findeth life, righteousness and honor;" and also from Romans 14-7: "For none of us liveth unto himself, and none of us dieth unto himself." He spoke as follows:

If I read aright the sense of this community I believe I am right in saying that Dr. Thomas Dyson Walker, so lately removed to higher service, was such an one, finding in the path of duty, life and righteousness and honor.

Born under the inestimable privilege of Christian parentage and brought up in the fear of the Lord, he was a standing example of the promise "train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it."

Trained and fitted for his life's work amidst the greatest seats of learning, he preserved his simplicity of faith; the depth of his knowledge served to make him realize the reality of the Divine mysteries. If others scoffed he bowed where men of the highest learning were ashamed to recognize eternal wisdom. With a charitable regard for others' faith, he cherished a special love and reverence for the faith of his forefathers and found in it all that he needed for his spiritual welfare. A busy man because of his knowledge, skill and character was ever ready to engage in all that advanced the city's interests.

Honored Memory Of Soldier Members

Memorial Service in Ludlow Street Church—In the City Churches Yesterday

A memorial service was conducted by Rev. W. R. Robinson yesterday morning in the Ludlow street Baptist church in memory of Privates Arthur Hedgley and A. W. Anderson. There was present a platoon from the 104th Battalion Canadian Corps under the command of Sergeant Major Redfern and also a squad from the European War Veterans' Association. Appropriate music was furnished by the choir under the leadership of Miss Mabel Sharpe.

Rev. Mr. Robinson addressed the gathering on the subject of life, dealing with the history of the war and its relation to the seventy-two young men of the church who have donned the khaki at their country's call. Many have been wounded and three have paid the supreme sacrifice.

"The money paid to bands in this city to furnish entertainment for a bunch of slackers would be far better extended in augmenting the funds of the Returned Soldiers' Association. We have no need of such luxuries in our city during this crisis and it is an uncalculated expenditure on the part of those in authority."

At the Waterloo street Baptist church last evening Rev. George Scott preached an eloquent sermon on "The Little Child." At Main street Baptist church last evening Rev. Geo. Coker, of Croton Falls (N. Y.), occupied the pulpit in place of the pastor, Rev. D. Hutchinson.

Rev. Thomas Roy preached at Central Baptist church yesterday.

Rev. A. D. MacKenzie, of Montreal, who preached in Knox church on Sunday, July 22, conducted both services at the same church yesterday.

At St. David's church Rev. A. D. Archibald, M. A., of the Littlefield, preached at both morning and evening services on Sunday.

Rev. Dr. Andrew Borroughs, of Bermuda, who is visiting in the city, preached at both the morning and evening services at St. Andrew's church.

More Assistance For Dry Docks

Ottawa, July 29—Hon. Frank Oliver, in the common yesterday afternoon, asked for a government statement in regard to the report in the morning newspapers to the effect that the board of grain supervisors had fixed the price of wheat at $2.40 per bushel, and prohibited the export of wheat. Sir George Foster explained that the price of $2.40 per bushel applies to present crop. It having been ascertained that wheat was being taken from the elevators and sent across the border where the price of wheat has not been fixed, an order had been issued prohibiting export.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux asked if there was any truth in the report that Thomas Rogers, the Winnipeg contractor, now serving a term at Stony Mountain penitentiary is to be released.

Hon. J. Doherty said that representations had been made to the government asking for his release but that nothing definite had yet been decided.

The house then resumed consideration of the estimates of the department of public works.

In connection with the consideration of harbor and river works, the minister of public works said that legislation would be brought down this session to amend the drydock subsidies act. Mr. Rogers said that under present conditions, the amount of aid afforded by the act was not sufficient to induce competition in the construction of drydocks. He insisted the case of the proposed drydock at Vancouver. A large company had applied for assistance two years ago, but had been unable to finance the undertaking. When legislation increasing the amount of aid available for assistance in drydock construction was adopted, the contract for this particular drydock would be let to any company prepared to go ahead with the work.

Plan Yards For Ten Wooden Ships

J. W. Novocous and F. S. Isard, of Montreal, leading figures in the industrial life of the Dominion, arrived in the city on Saturday. They are members of the directors of the St. John Shipbuilding Co., newly organized, and in company with Thomas Eagle, general manager, and Richard O'Leary of Richibucto, another director, they visited and inspected the site of the new plant at Courtenay Bay.

The four gentlemen had a long conference but the policies of the new company have not yet been definitely fixed. It had been the intention of the company to build five ways at Courtenay Bay and put five five-masted schooners with auxiliary oil burning engines on the blocks at once. An admiralty offer, however, has been received, which, if accepted, will increase the size of the plant ten ways, upon which ten ships, built according to admiralty specifications, will be laid down.

It had been the intention to launch at once into the steel shipbuilding industry, but it is stated that the difficulty just now is in equipping such a plant. Pools for workmen cannot be secured at the present time. At the outset, and Mr. Isard said, the company will be started not later than the last of next week, wooden shipbuilding will be carried on gradually till the company will work into the steel building.

WASTING MILLIONS

OF CANADA'S MONEY
(Halifax Chronicle)

According to a return, presented to parliament by Sir Robert Borden, on May 14, there were at that time in England nearly 5,000 officers. At the same time there were 70,000 men, presumably fit, or prospectively fit, within six months, for the trenches. In addition there were approximately 48,000 men, including those in hospital, casualties and men not fit for the trenches.

As an indication of the efficiency of the militia department of Canada these figures are interesting. They indicate that we have in England nearly three and a half times as many officers as there should be in proportion to

OFF TO VALCARTIER.
Sergeant Major Irving D. Appleby, of the 28th Battalion, will leave today for Valcartier. He returned on last Wednesday after taking part in the famous Kiltie campaign in Boston, New York and Chicago. Sergeant Major Appleby went to Boston on June 10, and remained there after the band returned. He aided materially in the vigorous recruiting campaign and was highly commended by the Boston papers.

MILITARY HOSPITALS.
While there still are some details to be arranged regarding the plans for erecting a wing at the county hospital to care for returned soldiers in the advanced stages of tuberculosis, the negotiations for the establishment of a hospital at River Glade Sanitarium, are complete. The plans have been prepared and approved and the hospital commission is now ready to arrange contracts for remodeling and equipping the building.

COAL PRICES
The agitation over the cost of coal has been confined chiefly to a discussion of anthracite prices, but there are some figures which might indicate the need of inquiry into the selling prices of soft coal, which is produced much nearer home. In a recent statement by the U. S. Secretary of the navy, he said that the navy contract for steam coal is for $2.88 a ton, and that the proposal to fix the price according to cost of production plus a reasonable profit to the mine owners, probably would reduce this figure.

PENOBSCOT WINS, 11 TO 8
Again the Beavers beat the Redwings on Saturday afternoon, but this time the game was so closely contested that it was doubtful as to which team would win. It ended in favor of Penobscot with a score of 11 to 8. Robinson pitched a good game for the Beavers, having eighteen strike outs to his credit, while Penobscot used two pitchers, having twelve strike outs to their credit. The game started at three o'clock and went nine innings with little disputing and was considered a good game.

King Kelley.

THIRD NEPHEW OF REV. W. D. WILSON IS KILLED IN WAR

Rev. W. D. Wilson, prohibition inspector, has received official notification that his third nephew has been killed in action, having made the supreme sacrifice on July 21.

When Rev. Mr. Wilson came to this country from Scotland his brother and family accompanied him and took up their residence in Cape Breton. This family consisted of two sons and one daughter. When war broke out the eldest three boys offered their services and left with Nova Scotia battalions for the firing line. The oldest two boys were killed at the battle of the Mons, and now comes the word that Frank Wilson, who was not eighteen years old, had been killed in action.

KETEPEC TEA AND SALE PROVES VERY SUCCESSFUL

A tea and sale held at Ketepec on Saturday by the Comfort Knitting Circle of Ketepec and Martinon proved very successful as well as enjoyable. The ladies realized about $75 clear of expenses. Ticket No. 91 held by Edward Logue of Fairfield, won a quilt and ticket No. 31 won a piece of china. The name of the holder of this ticket is not yet known. Several returned soldiers from the war convalescent home were guests at the enjoyable event and the ladies thank Messrs. Hugh Cunnell, Murray Northrup and Lloyd Evans for calling for the soldiers with their automobiles and taking them back to the home.

fighting men in proportion to the number of residents, but this is the first of them to be wounded fatally, and the name of Gunner Evans will be enshrined in the memory of the people of his community as the first of their number to give his life in the great war.

He was twenty-nine years of age and was unmarried. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans, of Lorneville, and three brothers, Albert of West St. John, Sergeant W. J. W., at the front; Thomas of Prince Rupert, B. C.; Robert of Lorneville and Richard, Wash. and Harvey at home; there is also one sister, Miss Mary, of Boston. A service in memory of the gallant soldier will be held in Lorneville on August 12.
