LIBERAL-PROGRESSIVE COALITION TALKED

AGRICULTURISTS EXPECTED TO HAVE MEMBERS IN NEW FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Party Leaders at Ottawa Silent, But Meighen Likely to Call Cabinet Soon and Present Resignation

LIBERALS NOW COMMAND 118 SEATS

Conservatives Win in 90 Constituencies; Progressives, 5; Liberal-Progressives and U. F. A., 11 Each; Three Contests Still Undecided

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 15.—At noon The Canadian Press reported the party standing by provinces as follows:

Table with columns: Lib. Con. Prog. Lib.-Prog. U.F.A. Labor Ind. Doubtful. Rows: P. E. I., N. S., N. B., Que., Ont., Man., Sask., Alta., B. C., Yukon, Total.

The two independents are Mr. Bourassa, Labelle, and Mr. Neil, Comox-Alberni. Doubtful seats: Kenderley and Last Mountain, in Saskatchewan, and Skeena, in British Columbia.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 15.—Rival political leaders are reviewing the field for the next move. Neither so far, has made any public pronouncement. Premier Meighen was at his office this morning but declined to make any statement, but expectations in political circles are that he will summon his cabinet and make preparations for placing his resignation in the hands of the Governor-General.

There is already talk in the air of a Liberal-Progressive coalition government. During his previous term as Premier, Mr. King made a number of endeavors to secure admission of Progressives to his cabinet.

QUESTION MOOTED BEFORE. In the early part of last session the admission of Robert Forke, at the time Progressive leader and a couple of other Progressives was mooted, but the proposal failed to materialize.

ONE WOMAN CHOSEN. Of the two women who contested ridings, one was elected while the other met with defeat.

MINISTERS DEFEATED. The members of the Government in addition to Premier Meighen who were defeated yesterday are: Hon. E. L. Patenaude, Minister of Justice; Hon. August Fautoux, Solicitor General; Hon. Eugene Paquet, Minister of Health, and Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, and two ministers without portfolio, Hon. Donald Sutherland and Hon. Raymond Morand.

MARITIME CHANGES. The returns from the Maritime Provinces, which came in first of all, recorded the defeat of Wm. Duff, in the constituency of Queens-Lunenburg-Nova Scotia.

Another candidate who had been much in the public eye and who went down to defeat yesterday, was A. J. Doucet, who was defeated by Alfred Bourgeois in Kent, New Brunswick.

Mr. Doucet was a member of the parliamentary committee which investigated the Department of Customs and Excise during the last session. Later, on the stump, he made statements in regard to alleged "boy sales" on the former Margaret by members of the Liberal Government.

The election of Henri Bourassa, independent, in the constituency of Labelle, Quebec, was conceded early in

British Prince In Troubled Zone

Continued disturbances in China have necessitated foreign intervention. The present political and military crisis has created serious trouble, particularly in view of the killing of seven English navy men by gunners during a party up the Yangtze river at Hankow-Yangtze Kiang, a view of which appears above. Prince George (inset) the youngest of the English princes, is a lieutenant aboard the British ship "Hawkins," which is hurrying to the scene of the trouble. American intervention is expected momentarily.

ROWDIES TRY TO BURN HOUSE OF H. BEIQUE

Defeated Quebec Conservative Nominee Has Lively Time

BUILD BONFIRES. Cordon of Friends Guarded Building Until Morning—Chambly Police Called

Canadian Press MONTREAL, Sept. 15.—Guerrilla warfare last night followed the defeat of H. Beique, Conservative, by J. V. A. Langlois, Liberal, in Chambly-Verchères county, according to accounts reaching here.

Shortly after the result of the election was known an unruly crowd of more than 200 gathered before Mr. Beique's home. Some of them gathered sticks and other inflammable material and built bonfires around the house, endangering the structure. No attention was paid to Mr. Beique's protests.

CONCERTED RUSH. Shortly after midnight what looked like a concerted rush to the front door was headed by a few of the younger members of the crowd. Mr. Beique opened his window and shouted that unless they dispersed he would fire. He was answered with laughter. Mr. Beique produced his revolver and fired twice into the air. The men immediately retreated several hundred feet from the house.

Friends of Mr. Beique formed a cordon about 100 feet from the house. Following a brief clash between the two factions, the Conservatives were left in possession of the house. They stayed on guard till morning. The police of Chambly were called.

MEXICAN INDIANS HOLD WAR COUNCIL

Demand Right to Visit Shrine of Patron Saint at Magdalena

Canadian Press NOGALIES, Ariz., Sept. 15.—Information reaching here stated that Yaqui Indians, 2,500 strong, had deserted their small villages at Yacam, San Marcos and other local points in the state of Sonora, Mexico, and had taken to the hills for a new war and course of war. The Indians are reported to have torn up rails and burned bridges to prevent the approach of Mexican federal troops.

The Indians are reported to have despatched an ultimatum to the Mexican government demanding that their right to visit Magdalena, Sonora, Shrine of their patron saint, San Francisco, October 4, be upheld. The government, the report said, had refused to accede to the request.

King Victory Received As Big Surprise In England

Deadlock or Success for Meighen Was Expected; Beaverbrook's Organ Attacks Daily Mail's Reflection on Calibre of Leaders Here

By HERBERT BAILEY, British United Press. LONDON, Sept. 15.—Newspapers here are accepting the victory of Mackenzie King in their headlines and through posters and are proclaiming the defeat of Premier Meighen. The news caused great surprise here, because few predicted a Liberal victory, as most correspondents in Canada and others in touch with Canadian affairs here were under the impression that a deadlock was the most likely result, and, failing that, that Meighen would win.

The Daily Mail, through its correspondent, Ward Price, was one of the few which thought the leadership of Mr. Meighen might involve his party in defeat.

It has been a severe critic of Meighen and also of the "bitter" personalities in the campaign which is reported by Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express today. The editorial says "The statement of a London newspaper that the contest is only one for polls and office is grievously unjust and is lacking in show of appreciation of the true facts. Canada is not a mere arena for the display of the political skills of the two leaders; it is a contest for the leadership of the Dominion as a whole."

The returns from every constituency in Nova Scotia were complete this morning with the exception of those from Richmond-West Cape Breton which will be ready in a few hours. Mr. Macdonald, Conservative, had a majority of 598 over Dr. D. Boyd, Liberal.

The Liberal gain from Conservatives in Nova Scotia was in Hants-Kings, where J. L. Healy defeated A. DeW. Foster by 118. The two Conservative gains were in Antigonish-Guysboro and Queens-Lunenburg, the successful candidates being Hon. J. C. Douglas and W. G. Ernst. The defeat of William Duff in the latter riding was one of the outstanding results of the election.

The Liberal gains in New Brunswick occurred in the constituencies of Kent, which elected Alfred Bourgeois over A. J. Doucet; in Northumberland, where C. J. Morrissey was victorious over Charles Fitch; and in Westgouche-Madawaska where F. Blanchard won from Arthur Cuddiham.

The victory of R. H. Jenkins, Liberal, who was one of the two successful Liberal candidates in Queens P. E. I., constituted the Liberal's gain from Conservatives in the island province.

IRELAND PRESSING FOR LEAGUE SEAT

Allocation of Ninth Non-permanent Place on Council Causing Trouble. GENEVA, Sept. 15.—A sharp fight is developing in the League for the ninth non-permanent seat on the council which was originally considered as a safe for Portugal. Other probable candidates are Finland on behalf of the Baltic Group, Czechoslovakia whose claim is supported by some of the powers in the hope of retaining the value of pressing his claim.

In view of this statement, Sir George Foster has amended his declaration that none of the dominions was a candidate for the ninth place making his exception on behalf of Ireland.

RETURN FROM EUROPE. FREDERICTON, Sept. 15.—Police Magistrate Walter Limerick, Mrs. Limerick and their two sons have returned from a tour of Europe on which they were since June, covering both the British Isles and the continent. They took their car with them and returned by it from Quebec.

GETS NICE SALMON

New York Visitor Hooks 16-Pounder in Hart's Island Pool

Special to The Times-Star. FREDERICTON, Sept. 15.—James E. Briggs of New York and Topsfield, Maine, had the good fortune to hook a 16-pound salmon from Hart's Island pool Tuesday evening. The pool is sustaining its reputation as a salmon water and Mr. Briggs is highly gratified.

CORNER STONE LAID JUST 100 YEARS AGO

Today is Centenary of Ceremony of King's College, Now U. N. B.

FREDERICTON, Sept. 15.—One hundred years ago today the corner stone of King's College, now the University of New Brunswick, was laid on College Hill by His Excellency, Major-General Sir Howard Douglas, Baronet, Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick.

The building, the formal construction of which was thus inaugurated, for many years stood as the only college building on College Hill, housing not only the classrooms and laboratories, but members of the faculty and undergraduate body alike until recently at the university was done away with. It is now the arts building of the university.

CONGRATULATIONS SENT BY DRAYTON

Acting Premier Hopes King Party Will Do Something For Canada. TORONTO, Sept. 15.—"I congratulate the King party on its return to power" said Sir Henry Drayton, M.P., for West York, and acting Premier at Ottawa during the absence of Mr. Meighen. "May they this time give something with it for Canada."

Sir Henry said the personal defeat of Mr. Meighen was particularly regrettable. His courage in sticking to his first constituency had been characteristic, though not appreciated. Quebec had remained solid, he said, and this again was a regrettable feature. He thought the vote did not record the thought of Quebec on the real economic and fiscal questions before the country.

STEVENSON BLAMES EASTERN INTERESTS

Says Majority Gained is Vindication of Record and Services. VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 15.—Following the election here last night, Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Customs, said:

"The splendid majority returned by the Vancouver electorate for myself and fellow candidates, is a vindication of my record and services of the last 15 years."

"It was obtained in spite of the extremely bitter campaign waged against me. This campaign was conducted, not so much by my Liberal opponent, as by certain Eastern interests, who were opposed to my return to office. They delivered their attack through one wing of the Liberal party in Vancouver."

BODY OF CHAPLAIN OF GREAT WAR FOUND

Rev. C. W. Whittaker of Church in British Columbia Drowns. VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 15.—Missing since August 28, when he informed friends that he was going for a row, the body of Captain (Rev.) C. W. Whittaker, pastor of the United Church at Nakusp, and a past president of the Vancouver Great War Veterans' Association, was found in English Bay by A. E. Drew, while cruising in his gas launch.

Captain Whittaker went overseas with the university Battalion and latter was attached to the 102nd Battalion. On his return from overseas, he was appointed chaplain of local forces.

TRIPLE PARACHUTE JUMPS ENDS IN CRASH

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., Sept. 15.—After narrowly missing a drop into the Fraser river when he made a triple parachute jump from a balloon at the provincial fair here, Jack Fabricant sustained severe injuries to his shoulder when he struck the roof of the British Columbia government aquarium. He is in hospital here and his condition is fair. Fabricant released the second parachute when he was above the river and was carried back towards the exhibition grounds. When within a few hundred feet of the ground he pulled the cord of the third parachute, which did not prevent him striking the asphalt roof with terrific force.

TENDERS CALLED. FREDERICTON, Sept. 15.—The provincial department of works are calling for tenders for the Jeffrey Mill Pond Bridge, Parish of Sussex, on the Sussex-Moncton road.

The Weather SYNOPSIS—Pressure is high from the Ottawa Valley eastward and over the Mackenzie Valley, and low over the western half of the United States. Showers are occurring this morning in western Ontario, and rain and snow are reported from Alberta. From Central Ontario eastward the weather has been fair.

FORECASTS. MARITIME—Light winds; fair, Thursday, moderate winds; partly cloudy, continuing cool. NEW ENGLAND—Mostly cloudy tonight and Thursday showers Thursday in north portion and tonight. Warmer tonight, gentle to moderate east to southeast winds.

MACLAREN AND BELL WIN IN SAINT JOHN-ALBERT

VOTE POLLED IN CONSTITUENCY LESS THAN HALF

Conservatives Lead in All Sections Here Except One Ward

MAJORITY LARGE BUT REDUCED SOME

Large Number Get Returns at Times-Star and Telegraph-Journal Office

Dr. Murray MacLaren and Thomas Bell, Conservative standard bearers for Saint John-Albert, were returned victors in the battle of ballots yesterday, defeating their Liberal opponents, R. T. Hayes and W. M. Ryan, by a majority of more than 6,000 votes.

NOT HALF VOTE The vote was light, less than 50 per cent. of those eligible going to the polls.

Elected In St. John-Albert

COL. MURRAY MACLAREN, Conservative of Saint John; Saint John-Albert

THOMAS BELL, Conservative of Saint John; Saint John-Albert

A total of 20,428 were cast, of which Dr. MacLaren had 12,898, Mr. Bell 12,881, Mr. Ryan 8,038, Mr. Hayes 7,475. The number of eligible voters in the constituency is about 42,000. In the election of October, 1925, the total vote cast was about 24,000, about 4,000 in excess of that of yesterday. The majority of Messrs. MacLaren and Bell dressed by the candidates of both parties and others were held in the Liberal headquarters, King street, and the Seaman's Institute, the Conservative fort last night. Hundreds of citizens attended the meetings. The defeated Liberal candidates, R. T. Hayes and W. M. Ryan, together with Hon. Dr. W. E. Foster, Dr. W. P. Broderick and others, spoke at the Liberal gathering. Dr. MacLaren and Mr. Bell spoke at the Institute.

INSTITUTE FILLED

The Seaman's Institute began to fill as early as 6:30 o'clock last evening. By 8 o'clock the main floor and galleries were packed to capacity. The galleries were chiefly occupied by the ladies and interest in politics was evidenced by the large number present. When the announcements of Conservative victories were made the ladies joined with the men in hearty cheering and general enthusiasm.

Frank Lewis, chairman of the Liberal-Conservative Association, presided at the meeting. Commissioner R. W. Wigmore officiated as vice-chairman and announced the returns as they arrived by the special wire installed at the institute. About 800 people were gathered at the institute at 10:30 o'clock, but after that time the number was gradually diminished and at 12 o'clock there were about 150 still awaiting the results.

The entrance of Dr. MacLaren and Mr. Bell was the signal for an outburst of cheering. Both successful candidates found it difficult to reach the platform so often were they stopped to be congratulated. Premier Baxter, Hon. L. P. D. Tillyer, Col. W. H. Harris, James Lewis, M.L.A., were also on the stage.

DR. MACLAREN SPEAKS

Dr. MacLaren and Mr. Bell both addressed the audience briefly. Dr. MacLaren thanked the electors of the constituency, the president and members of the Conservative executive and the wardworkers, laying special stress on the work of the ladies. "I feel that the constituency," said Dr. MacLaren, "has shown great discretion in supporting the Liberal-Conservative party. Never before was there as an important election, in the wake of which tremendously important issues affecting this portion of the country are to follow, as this one. We want a fair recognition of our rights," he said.

MR. BELL

Mr. Bell then took the floor. He thanked the electorate of the constituency and paid a tribute to the excellent work, which he said, was done by the ladies. "We will no doubt have many requests, interviews and correspondence to deal with. Our first duty is to our Conservative followers and friends. I will oppose everything that we think will retard the development of Saint John."

AT LIBERAL HEADQUARTERS

The Liberal headquarters on King street was crowded last night by citizens to receive the election returns and listen to addresses delivered by the Liberal candidates and others. Dr. J. H. Hennesberry, who acted as chairman, thanked the citizens for the support given himself and Mr. Ryan and while the Liberal gains as shown in different places. The policy of the Conservative party was not good for this section of the country. The campaign of the Liberal party in this election had been clean and honest.

HEARING THE RETURNS

The Times-Star and Telegraph-Journal office election returns were given out by megaphone to a crowd gathered in front of the newspaper office windows, a crowd that exceeded 1,000 in number during the greater part of the evening. The staffs of The Telegraph-Journal and the Times-Star collected the results from the various polls of the city and returns from the province were gathered by the New Brunswick Telephone Company. The gathering of returns was done more expeditiously than in previous years.

"STEVE" ON DUTY

Steve Matthews was at the megaphone and when awaiting news he entertained the crowd with recitations, and his own efforts at amusement called forth the only applause given throughout the evening. It was the most calm and unmovable crowd that he had ever shouted news to. Mr. Matthews decided to give a special edition of The Telegraph-Journal published at 8:45 p.m., a few minutes after 10 o'clock, and at 11 p.m., and were eagerly snatched up as they were offered for sale on the city streets.

HON. DR. FOSTER

When called on Hon. W. E. Foster said that the returns received from New Brunswick were most gratifying as they showed substantial gains for the Liberal party. As for Saint John, he said he was not in sympathy with the people here and failed to see that his policy was better than the Conservatives. He regretted that the voice of the people in Saint John-Albert was against the King government, whose policy

LIBERALS GAIN 3 SEATS FROM CONSERVATIVES IN MARITIME POLLING

Meighen Wins Two From King and Loses One in Nova Scotia; Duff and DeWitt Foster Defeated; Messervy Beaten in P. E. I.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 14—A net gain of three seats for the Liberals was recorded today in the voting throughout the Maritime Provinces. The Conservatives gained two seats and lost one in Nova Scotia, lost three in New Brunswick and one in Prince Edward Island. The seats gained in Nova Scotia were, Lunenburg-Queens where William Duff, a former deputy speaker was defeated and Antigonish-Guyaborough, the former constituency of Hon. E. M. Meighen, minister of defence in the Mackenzie King government, which returned Hon. John C. Douglas, formerly attorney-general of Nova Scotia in the Rhodes government.

The seat lost by the Conservatives in Nova Scotia was Kings-Hants where A. DeWitt Foster went down to defeat before J. Lorimer Lesley. In New Brunswick the Conservatives lost three seats, Kent where A. J. Doucet, who figured prominently in the Customs investigation was defeated; Northumberland and Restigouche-Madawaska, where William Duff, a former minister without portfolio in the Mackenzie King government, defeated J. A. Messervy, the sitting member.

MINISTERS ELECTED

All three members of the Meighen government were elected, Hon. W. A. Black, Minister of Railways, in Halifax, with a greatly reduced majority. Hon. George B. Jones, Minister of Labor, in Royal, who also had his majority cut in half, and Hon. John A. MacDonald, minister without portfolio, in Kings.

NOVA SCOTIA (14 Seats)

SAINT JOHN, N. B., SEPTEMBER 15, 1926.

THE DAY AFTER

Canada goes Liberal: The King Government has a safe working majority over the Conservatives, and has, in addition to its straight Liberal strength, a large group of ready allies from the West upon whose support it can count confidently. The Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King has an unquestioned mandate from the electorate. The condition of uncertainty and stalemate in Canadian politics is over, to the great relief of the soundest elements of all parties, indeed to the relief of a vast majority of the people of this country.

The ruling thought today throughout the country is that there should be an early session, followed by prompt proof that the new government is resolute and fully awake to the demand of the people for action, for bold and forward-looking administration, for vision and breadth of outlook, for the sort of government befitting a great Dominion, too long hesitant and now at last ready to seize its opportunities and to enter upon a long sustained period of increasing prosperity.

The elements essential to material welfare are all present, and with wise and progressive policies at Ottawa, with a rapidly expanding foreign trade, with the second wheat crop garnered in the now best wheat growing confidence in the industrial centres and through Eastern Canada generally, this country is ready for the march forward.

Politically speaking, there are in the election figures clearly perceptible signs of a return of the two-party system, for while Liberal-Progressives, Progressives and U. F. A. candidates constitute a considerable group, it would be difficult today to distinguish between Liberal-Progressives and Liberals, and the others, particularly in a House where Liberal mastery is not in question, may be depended to vote with the administration on any issue which might affect the fate of the ministry. Indeed, if signs of yesterday's polling had read aright, we shall see a gradual absorption of Progressive forces by Liberal party now definitely re-established for some time in control of this country's affairs.

A short summary of the gains and losses brings out highly significant aspects of the contest. For example: The Liberals gained twenty-one seats from the Conservatives; The Liberals gained one from the Progressives; The Progressives gained two from the Conservatives; The Liberal-Progressives gained four from the Conservatives; The Labor party gained one from the Conservatives; The U. F. A. gained two from the Liberals; The Conservatives gained three from the Liberals; The Liberals not only held Quebec practically solid as before but accompanied this by the rather astonishing feat of making substantial gains in Ontario at the same time, a phenomenon showing how far the Conservative prophets were astray as to the judgment of the two major provinces upon the policies of the two old parties.

So far as the Maritime Provinces are concerned, the situation as respects representation at Ottawa is little changed. The gain of one Liberal seat in Prince Edward Island is offset by the net loss of one constituency in Nova Scotia. New Brunswick returns four Liberal members instead of one, a net gain of three for Mackenzie King in the Maritimes. Saint John, where the Liberal chances were confessedly slight, finds itself in the net annual position of being opposition, yet New Brunswick may confidently count upon a seat in the Cabinet, and because the Duncan Commission is a creation of the Mackenzie King Government, and also because the Premier-elect has pledged himself to implement the recommendations of that Commission, and has expressed the conviction that responsible result will be a large measure of justice and of betterment for these provinces, we may look forward all the more hopefully to developments at Ottawa.

It is to be remembered also that when the exceedingly vital questions concerning the increased use of Maritime ports, the recovery of the diverted grain traffic and the equalization of freight rates were referred to the Railway Commission for exploration and solution, the mandate to that Commission emanated from the King administration. The judgments of the Railway Commission and the report of the Duncan Commission will be forthcoming presently—indeed they should be almost ready now—and these together, we may expect, will be the basis of early and far-reaching action on the part of the incoming administration.

The Maritimes, in the present circumstances, should work untidily, irrespective of partisan differences. They will thus secure a full and frank discussion of justice for the Maritime division, and in seeking this they may count confidently upon support from a great number of the newly elected members

Queer Quirks of Nature

THEY BLOOM IN THE SNOW

By MARY VAUX WALCOTT.
SNOW we associate with winter, flowers with summer; yet in this picture we see flowers coming up and blossoming right through the snow. These flowers, found in the mountain regions of the west, are called glacier-lilies. They are much like our common trout-lilies or adders' tongues and, like them, are bright yellow.

They blossom first in the low lands and follow the melting snow up the mountain sides, often even curling right up through it.

They continue blooming until early in September, and it sometimes happens that they have already begun to bloom by the early snowfalls of the autumn. When this happens the flowers stay under the snow all winter, and when in the following summer it melts away there the flowers are just as if they had recently come out.

We Sign Anything.

(Dearborn Independent.)
Read before you sign. A western professor passed an interesting-looking paper among his students, ostensibly asking for a holiday on a prominent American's birthday. Forty-five students readily signed the paper without giving it more than a passing glance. When the professor read the document to them they discovered that they had signed a petition to have their right arms cut off at the elbows. It was a good test and the students will long remember the line without reading the text above carefully. Promissory notes and other catches may be hidden in the text of a document. Read before you sign.

A Woman's Good-by.

(Glasgow Herald.)
When two men say good-by after a call, it is seldom more than "So long, old chap," and the woman stands up to go, and she has adjusted her gloves, she always begins to hear that phrase I promptly sit down again, for I know I shall not be wanted for at least ten minutes. I have stood with my hand on the handle of the door of a room waiting to open it for the departure of a guest. Women can do most things from lawyering to engineering, and there used to be domestic service, but one thing that they never have learnt is how to go.

Choosing Candidates.

(Detroit News.)
Somehow it seems that a better way to choose candidates for office can be discovered. The essential point is to discard the self-appointed nominee, and to choose, in the first instance, men who represent something in the community more than the mere desire for office. Men who have made themselves conspicuous for their ability. Men who, because they have managed their own affairs with some sort of distinction, can be trusted with those of great community. Men who are respected for their character. Men who realize the sanctity of an oath, and whose word is as good as their bond. . . . They, and they alone, are the men who should be entrusted with the affairs of the nation, the state, the city. The trouble is, such men do not offer themselves for public office, or do so very rarely. Sometimes they are too busy; usually they are too modest; but for most of them the drawback is that they will not stoop to scramble for votes, will not be all things to men for the sake of a place on the ballot. That way, they feel, lies no honor, but the antithesis of honor.

ZOUNDS, ALSO ODZOOKS
CHICAGO—In the frenzy of the Loop, on a corner in the financial district, stands a traffic cop. His name is Thomas Healy. Outwardly he is the usual thing in traffic cops, but believe it or not—he's a glutton for Shakespeare. He quotes the Bard endlessly, hastening dull traffic with "Hence, home you idle creatures, get you home." A sportster with his spotlight on wins from him the famous line, "Out, damned spot!" and A. D. T. boys lounging on his corner get the opening bit from Julius Caesar, "Is this a holiday?" His best recorded use of Shakespeare has to do with a tired horse that stopped in traffic near him. Officer Healy took some sugar from his pocket and proffered the lumps to the horse with, "Eat two, Brutus!"

Lifted High.
(Edmonton Journal.)
In a speech on his 39th birthday Stanley Baldwin described a quaint old-fashioned ceremony which was held just after his birth. "On the day I was born," said Mr. Baldwin, "our cook wrapped me in a blanket, and to insure I should rise in life, she carried me up the stairs to the top of the house, and there stood on a chair in the attic, and held me up in the air as high as she could."

Another bad feature of the divorce bill is that you can't keep a cook now even by marrying her.

DINNER STORIES

A GROWING boy in an England town had obtained a small job, his first—was boasting of the amount of work he did.
"I get up at half-past five and has my breakfast," he said.
"Any one else get up, too?" he was asked.
"Oh, yes, mother. She gets me breakfast when she gets dad's at half-past six."

"And your dinner?"
"Mother, she cleans a bit of sewing then, when all is cleaned up after tea."

"What wages do you get?"
"I get ten bob, and dad gets 35."

"And your mother?"
"Oh, she don't get no wages. She don't do no work."

WAY down East in New Hampshire, they tell the story of the curious Yankee. Riding to town he encountered an armed horseman, and rode with him.

The Yankee began a cross fire of prying questions. Finally the other stranger lost his patience.
"My friend," he said, "I'll answer one more question and no more."
"All right," replied the Yankee, "how did you lose your arm?"
"It was bit off," replied the stranger.

They rode for a mile in silence before the Yankee remarked: "I'd give two dollars to know what bit it off."

THE MASK OF SHYLOCK

(Cincinnati Times-Star.)
Since the armistice, demands have been made inside and outside of congress, that we abate the colonial empires of the European powers by asking for their island possessions in this hemisphere as partial payment of their debts to us; that we destroy militarism everywhere at one fell blow by making a peremptory demand on everybody for payment in full and at once, so that nobody else would have any money to spend for armament. All of which is chiefly interesting as showing that Shylock can pose as various sorts of a humanitarian and uplifter and still be Shylock. 'Tis a role our government will not enact.

COAL AND DREAMS.

(The Observer.)
Mr. Baldwin has been called a dreamer. It is true; and that is why we all like him, though he often dis appoints us in execution. Without a definite dream—however well you know you will never see it fulfilled—practical life can have no pattern to work by and no spurting inspiration of energy. The coal struggle is a big thing, and any prime minister of Britain must deal with it in a big way, and set a far-reaching example, if he means to be worthy of his office and equal to his duty.

POEMS I LOVE

"The Flight of Youth," by Richard Henry Stoddard.

I HAVE already quoted one of Stoddard's poems; this one seems equally sure and well-wrought to me. The tragic truth of it will be recognized; and seldom, I think, has ancient thought been more felicitously expressed.

There are gains for all our losses,
But when youth, the dream, departs,
It takes something from our hearts,
And it never comes again.

We are stronger, and are better,
Under manhood's sterner reign;
But when youth, the dream, departs,
It takes something from our hearts,
And it never comes again.

Something beautiful is vanished,
And I sigh for its return:
We hold it everywhere,
On the earth, and in the air,
But it never comes again.

WHOS WHO

THE recent announcement by General Erich Ludendorff, former Quartermaster General of the German Imperial Army, that he was about to take a second wife, recalls a public notice a figure who played a prominent role during the World War.

Ludendorff and von Hindenburg were the great German in a sense from August, 1914, until November, 1918.

von Hindenburg, who is now President, was then field marshal of the German army, and during the final stages of the war Ludendorff was his chief of staff.

Ludendorff became a republic, both have played a prominent part in the nation's politics, but unlike Hindenburg, Ludendorff has steadily lost in influence with the public.

General Ludendorff became the candidate of the Right extremists for the Presidency in March, 1926, but he was low man among the seven candidates in the preliminary election, getting only 284,000 out of a total of 780,000 votes cast.

In the run-off in April General von Hindenburg was elected, supported by all the Right or Nationalist groups. At first Ludendorff opposed his candidacy but later campaigned in von Hindenburg's interest.

In July, 1925, the Reichstag Committee for fixing responsibility for the Empire's Military Collapse in 1918 absolved all the war leaders, naming Ludendorff and Hindenburg specially as absolved of all blame.

Another signal reverse suffered by Ludendorff was the failure of the Bavarian "beer-hall putsch" of 1923 in which he and Hitler were leaders. They profited by his employment as a special agent for Germany, but the revolt soon was put down.

ELITE OF THE LAND.

(L'Action Catholique, Quebec.)
The farmer must be something more than a healthy man and a hard worker. He must be a man of foresight and a man of sound judgment. In the city it is possible to make a living, although deprived of these qualities, because the employer can do the thinking for his employees in the city districts. It is otherwise. Every landowner depends for his success as much upon his judgment and vision as upon his manual labor. Farming has become more of a science than a trade, and a very extensive science. It is true that governments taking account of the situation have set up many schools and experimental establishments which would find impossible to undertake up, and enough judgment to fit the size thus rendered them to their own particular problems. As a result, farming operations properly conducted demand a variety of qualities only met with in the choicest people.

VOCATIONAL FACULTY ABOUT COMPLETED

Fletcher Peacock Announces Roster of Instructors at New School

LIST OF TEACHERS INCLUDES 21 NAMES

School Complex of Six, Five of Which Are Considered High

Principal Fletcher Peacock of the Vocational School has practically completed the faculty list of the institution.

The Vocational School is in reality a complex of six different schools, five of which are considered as High.

Principal and director—Fletcher Peacock.

JUNIOR SCHOOL Mathematics and physical training for boys—L. Newton Farnjoy, formerly principal of the Fairville School.

Reading, spelling and physical training for girls—Miss Louise Tapley, graduate of the Margaret Eaton School, Toronto.

General science and economic geography—Harold W. Hayes, B. S. C., of Cornell University.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL Motor mechanics—Wilmot B. Main of St. Stephen, graduate of the University of N. B. and five years in practical business.

Machine shop practice—B. W. Kelly, late of the Canadian Pacific Railway Mechanical Department.

Commercial and art printing—Bayard Stilwell, for 20 years master printer in leading Saint John shops.

Woodworking and building construction—Henry C. Evans for several years superintendent for Murray & Gregory, Saint John.

Mechanical drafting—James D. MacLean, M. A., for the last four years a practical millwright.

Mathematics—David S. Connely B. A., graduate of St. Francis Xavier College, five years in practice and two years in teaching.

Electricity—Gordon H. Lordley, B. S. C., graduate of the Nova Scotia Technical College and for three years with the Westinghouse people at Hamilton, Ont.

PRACTICAL ART SCHOOL (Girls) Clothing—Reta M. Inch, B. S. C., Columbia University. Seven years teaching in New Brunswick and later superintendent of home economics for province.

Food and superintendent of cafeteria—Vera M. Wilson, with professional experience in home economics in New Brunswick and Manitoba; graduate of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, in dietetics.

Fine and applied art, which includes drawing, color work, design, modeling, china painting, etc.—Violet A. Gillet, graduate of the Ontario Art School and Pratt Institute.

HIGH SCHOOL OF COMMERCE Bookkeeping—Aubrey E. Rideout, University of New Brunswick and Modern Business College, Saint John.

For eight years in business and four years teacher of commercial subjects. Shorthand and office practice—Margaret A. Morrow, B. A., graduate of Mount Allison University, two years in a teacher and four years in secretarial work, including a term with the President of Mount Allison.

Typing—Katherine G. Kane, graduate of Saint John High School and Saint John Business College. Employed with A. B. Williams Co. for a considerable term.

French—J. Edgar Pointier, M. A., graduate of St. Joseph's College and teacher in the Edmundston High School. Will employ conversational method in French.

TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL Chief instructor, E. J. Alexander, B. A., late of Saint John High School, Grade 11 and previously in other provincial High Schools.

English studies, including expression—Kathleen McLean, graduate of the Margaret Eaton School, Toronto.

MUST LEARN ENGLISH Director Peacock informs a Times-Star reporter that all pupils entering Vocational School must pass through the thoroughgoing course as taught by Miss McLean—to acquire an ability to express oneself promptly and correctly, to learn English literature and, if the pupil is so inclined, to acquire public speaking and elocution. Mr. Peacock says it is one of the prime requisites to vocational success to learn how to talk well and marshal one's thoughts properly. It is in his mind to go far enough in this line of study to be able eventually to organize classes capable of presenting the better plays, such as Shakespeare, thus serving a double purpose.

The appointment of Mr. Alexander from Saint John High gives this competent teacher tutorage over those who intend taking up scientific and engineering studies on a higher plane in universities. The curriculum has been specially selected to fit youth and their leaving High School for the next stage in their educational career. Latin is about the only study excluded from this list that is requisite to matriculation purposes.

FARMER LOSES LIFE IN GRAND BAY MISHAP

Peter Mills of Newcastle Creek Drowns While Out Fishing

NEWCASTLE CREEK, Sept. 14.—Peter Mills, a well known resident of this place, was drowned Sunday afternoon in Grand Bay when a row boat from which he was fishing filled with water, upset, and threw him into the lake.

Mr. Mills started out in front of his home in the boat to fish; not meeting with any luck he rowed out further in Grand Bay and when a considerable distance from the wharf the boat filled with water and upset. As the boat turned bottom up Mr. Mills grabbed hold of it and shouted

FISH DYNAMITERS IN MADAWASKA CO.

Two Are Assessed $100 and Costs Each at Edmundston

FREDERICTON, Sept. 14.—H. E. Harrison, fisheries inspector, has returned from Madawaska county where he was engaged last week in connection with the prosecution of two charges in connection with the dynamiting of fish in the Quisbisis river.

Fidèle Martin and Martin Devest, who were apprehended by Guardian Deschene, of the staff of the Provincial Department of Lands and Mines, were both convicted of the charges before Magistrate Beign at Edmundston and were assessed fines of $100 each together with the sum of $15 costs.

The prosecutions were conducted by the Department of Marine and Fisheries to whom the cases had been reported. Cards, music and dancing were enjoyed. Warrants have also been issued in

APPLE SHIPMENTS TO UNITED KINGDOM

Apple shipments for United Kingdom and the Continent are so large that the Blue Star Line has assigned several additional steamers for loading on Pacific Coast, as announced by the Admiral Oriental Line agents.

The steamers Doricstar, Vikingstar and Empiristar have been added to those formerly announced. This will mean six steamers loading for United Kingdom and three for the Continent, the largest number of Blue Star steamers to load on Puget Sound during any one season, and the steamers are among the largest refrigerator vessels in the world.

The Trojostar sailed from London Aug. 24 and will start loading at Vancouver Oct. 1, scheduled to handle the first movement of apples from the Pacific Coast direct to United Kingdom.

NO ARRESTS. Election day here was marked by the fact that not a single drunk was taken in charge yesterday or last night. As there was no other business, no session of the Police Court was held this morning.

STOMACH TROUBLES ARE DUE TO ACIDITY

Tells of Pleasant Home Treatment to Bring Swift Relief

So-called Stomach Troubles—indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, sourness, etc., are, in probably nine cases out of ten, evidence of "too much acid in the stomach" souring the food, causing the formation of gas and starting acid indigestion.

Gas distends the stomach and causes a full, oppressive burning feeling known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining. Get rid of Gas and Acidity, and you get rid of Indigestion.

To stop or prevent the sourness and gas, to neutralize the stomach acids and to soothe the stomach, should be taken from indigestion, a teaspoonful or four tablets of Bismarck Magnesia should be taken in a little water after eating or when the stomach is full. This quickly sweetens the stomach, neutralizes the acidity, stops the pain and is harmless and inexpensive to use.

Bismarck Magnesia, powder or tablets only, can be obtained from any drug store and its daily use keeps the stomach in fine condition, enabling it to do its work without the aid of artificial digestants.

IRELAND PROBABLY IS SEEKING SEAT IN COUNCIL OF LEAGUE

British Dominions Wanting Same Rights as Mother Country

GENEVA, Sept. 14.—The probable candidacy of the Irish Free State for a non-permanent seat in the reorganized League Council proved an interesting topic of discussion in League circles tonight.

It is learned that the British Dominions have virtually reached a decision that Great Britain should no longer be recognized as fully representing Dominions seats in the League and that the Dominions as members of the League have the same right as a group to be represented in the council as have the Scandinavian, Little Entente, Asiatic and Latin-American groups.

REGINALD PACT HOPED Among the delegates representing India and the Dominions, it is felt that no regional arrangement should be made which might preclude one of them asserting its right as a full member of the League to be an independent candidate for a seat in the Council.

The Irish Free State let it be known today that it was in the field for a non-permanent seat, although a definite decision has not yet been made. In a statement tonight Prof. John MacNeill, former minister of education and member of the Irish delegation, said that the delegation was considering putting forward the Free State's candidacy.

"We find some evidence," he explained, "of an impression because we belong to a group of states associated with Great Britain politically that that affords some reason why we would not be on terms of equality with the other members of the League of Nations from the point of view of eligibility to the Council."

"We naturally object to being put, even in the matter of an impression, in that position. Our objection would extend to any other members of the same group being put in that position. In the event of no other member of that group being a candidate, we feel that we ought to come forward."

Asked his opinion concerning the criticism heard abroad that any election of a Dominion would give England two votes in the Council, Prof. MacNeill replied: "We are not bound in any way to vote except as we ourselves decide. Our vote is quite independent in the assembly and would be equally independent in the council."

PROBE IN LANDING OF ITALIANS STARTS HALIFAX, Sept. 14.—A preliminary investigation into the landing at Mill Cove, on St. Margaret's Bay, about 40 miles from here, of over 100 Italian immigrants Sunday afternoon, was begun here today, but no statement was issued to the press. It is understood that Captain Romano, master of the Italian steamer Dori, on which the Italians were brought from Marsailles, was questioned as to the original number of immigrants and why he permitted them to land where they did.

To date 129 of the foreign fortune-seekers have been rounded up, but the authorities believe there are others still wandering about the country.

Meganic's Pursuer Dies On Atlantic

MONTREAL, Sept. 14.—Brief despatches received here today told of the death on Sunday morning of E. H. Whitehead, pursuer of the White Star liner Meganic, which left here for Liverpool on Saturday. According to the despatches Mr. Whitehead had appeared to be in his usual health on Saturday. Heart disease was the cause of death.

Mr. Whitehead had been connected with the White Star Line for several years, and was well known both on the Montreal and New York route. For the past two or three years he had been pursuer of the Meganic on the Montreal route in the summer, and cruising in the winter.

NEW RABIES CASES FOUND IN MONTREAL

MONTREAL, Sept. 14.—Two new cases of rabies were reported in this district over the week-end. An air-dale belonging to Dr. E. A. Robertson, of McGill University, and a dog at St. Lambert, both died of the disease.

Officials of the health of animals branch of the department of agriculture report being besieged with requests from hunters for permission to take their dogs off the island for a few days. None of these requests are being granted as the local officials are determined to stamp out the disease in the district before winter and to limit its spread off the island as much as possible.

Sage Advice to a Schoolteacher Who Wants to Be Married—How Can a Mother be Rid of Her Insolent, Graffiti Daughter-in-Law?—Two "Miss Sixteens" Who Plan to Hope for a Thrill.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a lonely school teacher in a small town. I am good-looking and clever and I want to marry, but there are few eligible men here. Is it right for me to encourage the attention of high school boys in the hope that in a few years the difference between our ages will seem less wide? Or should I take a widower with children who I suspect wants an unpaid housekeeper and cook?

AN ANXIOUS SCHOOL TEACHER.

ANSWER:
If you are not in love and have a good job why do you want to marry? Especially as none of the men you are contemplating can give you half as pleasant a lot in life as you now have.

There are two logical reasons for a woman marrying. One is if there is some particular man with whom she is so vivaciously in love that she feels she cannot exist without him. The other is if she can give her luxuries she craves and which she cannot get for herself. But for a woman to marry just to be a married woman and who is poor is the most idiotic thing that any nit-wit female can do.

For marriage even under the best conditions and where there is love to glorify it, is hard on a woman. It calls for perpetual sacrifices and self-abnegation. It brings sickness and suffering and the agony of child-bearing to most women. If she marries a poor man she must work harder and longer hours every day than she ever did before and get no salary envelope at the end of the week.

Nothing on earth but loving some man better than she does herself makes marriage worth while for a woman, and why so many girls who are starting salaries that enable them to live easily and comfortably give up their self to marry men for whom they have no respect and who doom them to the hardships of a poor man's wife is one of the mysteries of the feminine psychology that no one can explain.

As for your marrying a high school boy, that is sheer madness. Time will not lessen the gap between you and him, as you optimistically suggest. It will widen it, because women age so much more quickly than men. Ten years isn't so much difference between a woman of 30 and a youngster of 20, but a woman of 40 is middle-aged, while a man is still a boy at 40 and at 50 a woman is an old woman, while a man at 50 is just at his prime.

Grudge-snatching is an untidy trade for a woman to engage in, and she is always punished for it. For when the man comes to himself he always regrets having been taken in while he was a mere child by a sophisticated woman. And even when he doesn't leave her for some girl of his own age he becomes a sour, disgruntled husband who takes his discontent out on his wife.

The widower with children is scarcely a better chance. The stepmother's road is about the roughest one that any woman can elect to tread, and only an affection for a man so great that it makes her willing to bear martyrdom for his sake can repay her for choosing it.

Instead of marrying just anything you can happen to find in your small town, why don't you take your money and go off to some college and take a special course, so that you can get a better education to teach in a better school? You will have a wider selection in men to pick from? Girls don't have to stay put nowadays. They can go forth just as men do to seek their fortunes.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I agree with everything you say about mother-in-law going to live with their daughters-in-law, but how about daughters-in-law coming to live with their mothers-in-law? A girl isn't willing to wait until a boy is able to make enough to provide her with a home of her own, so she marries him and comes to live with his mother in his mother's house.

Before marriage she was as sweet as pie and there was nothing she wouldn't do to please his mother, but after marriage she doesn't feel that she has to be even decently civil to mother-in-law. I have that kind of a daughter-in-law, and I feel it hard lines that my old age should be made miserable by the impudence and insolence of a girl who forced herself upon me. What would you advise me to do?

MOTHER-IN-LAW.

ANSWER:
The rule works both ways. It is just as disastrous for the daughter-in-law to go to live with the mother-in-law as it is the other way about.

It all comes around to the same point, that no house is big enough for two women, especially when they stand in the relationship mother-in-law and daughter-in-law to each other and when, in addition to the almost inevitable jealousy over the man who is son and husband to them, there is the conflict of different generations and of different habits and tastes and points of view engendered by different upbringing.

For the sake of their own happiness and the salvation of their marriage every young couple should begin their married life alone, with no number of either family living with them. Nor should they go to live with their families. When they marry they should throw out upon their own and made to shift for themselves. It is the way to bring out whatever strength there is in them.

If girls and boys know that mother's door would be padlocked and they couldn't come and sponge on her when they got married, it would prevent many a silly and unsuitable match. While Tom and Mary were waiting to make enough money to wrestle with the renting problem and the general high cost of living they would have time to let many a temporary infatuation wear itself out and to give second sober thought to the maiden and youth they were thinking of taking on for life partners.

Certainly a woman who has brought up a family of children to manhood and womanhood has sacrificed enough to them. She has a right to have her home to herself and to be peaceful and happy the remainder of her life.

It is outrageous that she should be bothered by the whims and crochets and tempers of a daughter-in-law. Nor should she be afflicted with a reckless son-in-law whom daughter brings home for mother to support when he proves too trifling to support himself.

Of course, the proper thing for a woman to do is to chuck out the grating in-laws who come to live upon her and who do not even pay for their board by being pleasant, but equally, of course, no mother is ever going to have backbone enough to do it. Children may turn mother out of doors, but mother will never turn her children out. So there you are.

DEAR MISS DIX—We are two 16-year-old girls who are planning to elope with two boys. Our parents will not let us get "thrills," so when they go off on a hunting trip we are going with the boys and feel we will find thrilling romance. What do you think of our plan?

MARIE AND EVELYN.

ANSWER:
You will get thrills enough, my poor silly little girls, if you elope with the boys. So will they. But it will be the kind of thrill that is known as remorse and shame and bitter regret, and it will crisp your nerves and gnaw at your heart as long as you live.

Yet if you do what you are thinking of doing you will wish you had thrived on the kind of thrill that you had bought your parents. Don't do it, girls. Wait for your thrills to come to you naturally and at the right time of life. Just to be 16, with the world before you is a thrilling thing of itself if you only know enough to perceive it.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS
When it comes to bank rolls, "roll your own" is a fine motto.

A MAN has sued his wife for divorce because she has imperfect sight. But maybe if her sight had been good she wouldn't have married him in the first place.

ROScoe "PATTY" ARBUCKLE and his wife, formerly Doris Deane, have an almost certain remedy for divorcees. Each of them deposits $1,000 in a joint bank account every year. If there is any trouble the one starting divorce proceedings forfeits his, or her, share of the money. "A person wouldn't be nearly as apt to fly off in a rage with so much money involved," declares Arbuckle.

ONE of the best things they do out here where celluloid was made famous, is to change titles on pictures. Seldom is a picture released under the title decided upon when production is started. Red Grange's "The Halfback," the most recent example of these changes, will be released as "One Minute to Play."

Plain Omelette—Beat three eggs until very light, add one-quarter teaspoon of salt and a pinch of pepper. To this add three tablespoonful of milk and one tablespoonful of melted butter. Pour this mixture into a hot frying pan which has been well greased with bacon fat. Fry until brown underneath. Fold and serve.

Potato Salad—Two cups diced potatoes, one-half cup carrots (cooked), one-half cup celery (uncooked), three hard boiled eggs, diced, salt, pepper. Mix all the ingredients with boiled salad dressing, and garnish the top of salad with stuffed olives. This is a good salad for anyone who might object to onions in salad.

Lemon Iced—Four cups of water, three-fourths cup of lemon juice, two cups of sugar. Boil the water, lemon juice and sugar for five minutes. Cool, strain and freeze.

SEE-SAWING DOWN BROADWAY

THE manner in which lunchers gaily lap their food in the "quick and hasty" is one of the sights of New York.
In one of these places located on Madison avenue in the mid-Porties and catering almost entirely to salad and sandwich eating girl workers, 4,000 persons are served, the manager informs me.
To accommodate this number in the required time, almost military precision is required in service. Only the most hard-boiled can later a moment after the meal has been consumed. The hostesses and attendants begin to strip off the table cloth and pull back the chairs the moment a diner has taken her last sip of demitasse.
The portions are regulated with amazing accuracy. Four experts view each plate before it leaves the kitchen. Their trained eyes detect the slightest deviation from the standardized helping and they stand ready with spoon or knife to remove so little as half a spoonful.
This, the manager tells me, is necessary if the established efficiency is to be maintained.
And the chances are that 60 per cent. of the diners come from towns where the inn keepers would blush if they felt their guests were going away hungry.

GERMAN TRADE IS IMPROVING, STATES REPORT

Definite Change for Better in Industry, Says U. S. Attache

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—A definite change for the better in the German industrial situation has been reported to the Department of Commerce by Fayette W. Allport, American Commercial Attache, who has just returned from his post at Berlin. Government remedies are beginning to show results, he says, and the foreign trade outlook for Germany is more favorable than at any time since the war.

Although improvement in the German industrial and commercial situation following the crisis of the winter months had been slower and more irregular than expected, Mr. Allport said, the vigorous remedial measures had brought about a positive change for the better.

"The position of public and private finance is favorable," he said. "Capital is available for the rehabilitation of private enterprise through domestic and foreign loans, though the cost of ordinary commercial accommodation is still unwarrantably high, due to the persistence of excessive bank charges, a relic of the depreciation period.

"Commercial credit in Germany now costs approximately 10 per cent, which, though lower than a year ago, is excessive in view of the unusually liquid condition of the German money market and German banks.

"Government taxation receipts for the fiscal year ended April 30 were in excess than at any time since the war. The first five months of the present year shows a favorable balance of trade, amounting altogether to 870,000,000 marks. The June balance was unfavorable by 38,000,000 marks, but the increase in imports of raw materials during that month, considered a favorable sign in itself, was double the amount of the adverse balance.

"Germany is pressing forward with a series of commercial treaties that are intended to improve its position in international trade. A provisional treaty with France was signed on Aug. 6, affording partial solution of one of the two most difficult treaty problems that Germany has yet had to face. The Polish treaty is still under negotiation and continues to meet with numerous difficulties.

"Progress has been made in the re-organization of industry and the modernization of industrial methods. German industry is regrouping itself for more effective exploitation of domestic and foreign markets. The dyestuffs and steel trusts are the outstanding examples of this movement at the moment, and similar amalgamations in other branches of industry are contemplated. German law facilitates horizontal combination, to which German industry is turning as a solution of the post-war problems, that it is called upon to face."

"The improvement that has taken place in German industry generally during recent months and the liquid condition of the money market have been reflected in an unexpected upward movement of industrial securities. Numerous leading securities have more than doubled in value during the past six months. The outstanding stock of the Dye Trust alone has increased in value by over 1,000,000,000 marks since the beginning of 1926. The element of increasing confidence in Germany's industrial outlook is present to a considerable extent in this upward movement of securities.

"The foreign trade situation during the current year has been more favorable than at any time since the war. The first five months of the present year shows a favorable balance of trade, amounting altogether to 870,000,000 marks. The June balance was unfavorable by 38,000,000 marks, but the increase in imports of raw materials during that month, considered a favorable sign in itself, was double the amount of the adverse balance.

ARMED MANITOBA FARMER IS HUNTED

Quits Home With Gun and Leaves List of Men Slated For Death

WINNIPEG, Sept. 14.—Leaving a list of men slated "for death," Ross Little, a farmer of the Roblin district, northwest of Winnipeg, left his home armed with a shotgun Sunday and today provincial police are scouring the countryside.

One man has been shot, and now is in the Dauphin Hospital in a serious condition. He is James Munroe, 70, a neighbor of Little's, and six other men were named on the "death list," found in Little's home this morning. Police declared that Little is a deserter, following financial worries and has sought revenge for fancied wrongs.

Little visited the home of Munroe late Sunday night. As Munroe opened the door, the deserter man commenced firing. Munroe was struck in the arm, and attacked with the butt-end of the gun. The deserter man succeeded in knocking his assailant off the steps and closed the door. Little continued to fire through the door according to the police report received here and when Munroe secured his gun, the two men exchanged several shots. Little escaped unharmed. As he left the farm he shot one of the farmer's dogs. Munroe had his arm badly shattered and suffering from shock.

Social Notes of Interest

Miss Ethel Hazen Jarvis, secretary of the New Brunswick division of the Red Cross Society, leaves today for Hoyt where she is to speak of the peace time policy of the society to the women of the Hoyt club on Thursday and will give her illustrated address there also. At Hoyt she will be the guest of Miss Annie Smith, and at Wirral she will be entertained at the home of Mrs. W. H. Smith.

The following from the Vancouver Sun is of interest to friends in the province. A very quiet and pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Little, Seton Lake, Lillooet, B.C., on Thursday morning, August 26, when Mr. Charles Herbert Little, of Vancouver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Little, and Miss Annie Elizabeth Dole, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Dole, of Sussex, N.B., were united in marriage by the Rev. A. C. Pound, M. A., B. D. The laws of Glen Seton, with its late summer flowers, bronze asters, golden glow and evergreens, made a charming setting for the wedding. The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Elmer F. Little, entered the lawn to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. She was exquisitely gowned in a dress of amber crepe de chine and hat of black satin trimmed with amber, and she carried a large bouquet of pale pink and white asters, tied with pink tulle. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the table being covered with a lace and embroidered cloth and centered with a cut glass bowl of pale pink and lavender sweetpeas, and crystal candlesticks with tall pink tapers, and presided over by Mrs. Elmer F. Little, who wore a beauteous gown, heavily beaded with hat ensemble. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. Oscar G. Gallagher, wearing navy blue tulle, with hat to match. The severities included Miss Harwood, of Vancouver, Miss May Arthur and Miss Katherine Gallagher, of Lillooet. The out-of-town guests included Rev. A. E. Kerr, Miss Harwood, Vancouver, and Mr. and Mrs. Jones, of 150 Mile House, Cariboo Highway. For traveling the bride donned a beautiful wrap of golden brown, charmeuse trimmed with

The Dollar Candy in 10c. Size

Now made in Canada by WALTER M. LOWNEY CO. Limited, Montreal

These Two Creams are all a sun-dried, faded, roughened skin needs to bring back its freshness, its clear, smooth charm

MADE IN CANADA

After summer . . . How to bring back the clear smooth beauty of your skin . . .

FALL is here with smart, new fashions, races, horse-shows, polo matches. Just when you long to look your best, your poor burned skin won't let you!

Only your faded sunburn and tan, that coarsened texture of your skin, could be changed back to softness, a fresh, clear glow!

You can bring back—and quickly, too—that clear smooth beauty summer's robbed you of. Follow the method the beautiful women of social prestige pursue. Carefully every day use the two delicate fluffy Creams made by Pond's. In place of the damage summer did will come a finer, more velvety quality than your skin has ever known before. In the next column read how. The Pond's Extract Company, 146 Brock Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

For a sun-dried sun-burned skin—Often by day, and before retiring, cleanse with Pond's Cold Cream, patting it on generously, leaving it long enough for its fine oils to cleanse the dry pores of all deep lodged impurities. Wipe off and repeat. Add more Pond's Cold Cream and leave it to be gradually absorbed. This will restore your skin's suppleness.

Then to protect the skin, apply Pond's Vanishing Cream thinly, before going out.

For a tanned, roughened skin—Cleanse often with Pond's Cold Cream and follow with occasional applications of Pond's Vanishing Cream. This smooths away all roughness, keeps the skin soft, restores its delicate flower-like quality.

Blemishes, sallowness, that slug-gish muddy look, will also gradually yield to the gentle ministrations of these same Two Creams by Pond's.

MISS BARBARA STREIBICH the daughter of Mrs. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte and a user of Pond's is smiling her thanks on a California golf links.

To Avoid Premature Graying of the Hair

Among the causes of hair turning gray prematurely are worry, dandruff and injurious shampooing. Training the mind to think only of pleasant things, washing the hair frequently, avoiding soap and preparations heavily laden with alkalis—that's a good skin condition for retaining the natural color, life and lustre of the hair. A really safe and color-preserving shampoo may be had by stirring a teaspoonful of good hair oil into a cup of hot water. Sarcosol is impregnated with oil of mineral origin possessing decided therapeutic properties. It tends to promote a healthy condition of scalp and hair. The shampoo is wonderfully cleansing and refreshing. As dandruff now supply barcel in granule form, there's no bottle to break, no liquid to spill. A few ounces will last for months.

KING ASSURED CLEAR VOTING MARGIN OF 15 IN NEW HOUSE

Liberals Make Extensive Gains In Dominion Vote

Meighen Defeated in Portage La Prairie, While Conservative Strength Is Cut to Less Than 100 Seats

TORONTO, Sept. 15 (8.25 a. m.)—After six weeks campaigning from coast to coast, culminating in yesterday's battle of the polls, political interest shifts back today to the capital, to Parliament Hill, and perhaps to Rideau Hall itself. The most definite thing that emerges from the smoke of conflict is that Premier Meighen has failed in his bid for popular support, and has lost the solid foothold he had in the last parliament of leader of the largest group, with 116 supporters—just seven short of a clear majority. With all returns in, his following will be less than the round 100 Liberals returned in October of last year.

On the other hand, with seven seats still unreported, two of which may go into the Liberal column, Mr. Meighen's following is not as strong as he would like to see it. He can also count on some certainty on the support of the three Labor members, A. A. Hoops, of Winnipeg North, and E. E. Woodworth, of Winnipeg North Centre, who gave him pretty consistent support last session, as well as the new recruit to Labor ranks, H. B. A. Besford, of Calgary East.

PROGRESSIVES GAIN.
In addition, there is the whole Progressive bloc, increased from a couple of dozen to about 50 members, lacking indeed the cohesion with which it emerged from the 1925 election, but offering Mr. King the presumably consistent support of the Liberal-Progressives, whose candidature was severely endorsed by separate Progressive and Liberal nominations and successful yesterday to the number of eleven. They include in their number Mr. Forke, recognized last session as the Progressive leader, whose influence with the party as a whole is apt to be thrown in support of Mr. King. It is not a secret that a year ago Mr. Forke was willing to enter a Liberal-Progressive coalition himself, taking the portfolio of Agriculture.

MARGIN OF 15 SEEN.
Even therefore, if Mr. King cannot rally to his support any of the seven "strait" Progressives, among whom Miss Agnes Macphail gave him uniform consistent support almost throughout last session, or the 11 U. F. A. members from Alberta, he yet has in sight a Liberal-Progressive majority of 15 on a division of seats. Immediate interest of course centres on the course Mr. Meighen may elect to pursue.

SENTENCED TO BE TORTURED BY MOSQUITOES

Judge Tells of Early Administration of Law in Alaska

Unique experiences of a federal judge in the early days of Alaska and a description of the unwritten but enforceable laws of the Territory are presented by C. D. Murnane, now a member of the bar at Casper, Wyo., in an address delivered before the Bar Association of that State and published in Case and Comment. Judge Murnane sailed from Seattle for Wrangell in February, 1898, and from Wrangell went up the Stikine River to Telegraph Creek, the head of navigation, and thence across country, 210 miles, to Teslin Lake.

Telling of the first law of the land which he encountered, he said: "Immediately after leaving Telegraph Creek I came into contact with the strictest, most exacting law of my legal experience, the great law of the 'survival of the fittest.' When I tell you that at the head of navigation 3,600 persons were encamped, with their ultimate destination Dawson, and that fewer than 900 ever arrived, you will begin to grasp something of what I mean by the great law."

THE LAW OF THE TRAIL

"The next peculiar law is known in the North as 'The Law of the Trail.' Upon all established trails, at intervals, will be found cabins, either owned by prospectors or erected for the benefit of the traveling public. In those cabins are usually found some provisions. The traveler without provisions is welcome to use so much as may be necessary during the period he is required to occupy the cabin, whether it be over night or for a longer period, on account of storm, but he must leave a note, giving the date and his name, and must not, under any circumstances, take with him any of the provisions.

MOSQUITO TORTURE

"A 'Miners' Court' was called to try a man for having stolen provisions from a cabin or cabin. He was found guilty and was sentenced to be stripped of his clothing, placed upon a raft, towed to the center of the stream and cast adrift. This occurred in the month of July, when the river was at flood tide.

"The next settlement was not less than 100 miles down stream. The mosquitoes swarmed over the river, in clouds, and when I tell you that I have seen black bears so tormented by mosquitoes that they became blind and in their desperation plunged over a precipice to their death, you will then have some idea of the severity of the punishment inflicted for this particular offense.

ADMITS HAVING THREE WIVES

"He admitted that he had three wives. He was married to all of them according to the law of the Eskimo, and was living with them. It was quite plain that under the laws of the natives he was committing no offense. It seemed equally true that under our laws, of which he knew nothing, although the law presumed that he did, he was guilty of the crime as charged. I felt that to convict him or to sentence him, rather, for the offense would be a crime on my part. It took some little time for me to figure out a way to avoid that result. I finally held that, as under our laws we did not recognize the native laws, the man was not married at all, and discharged him.

TELLS GYROS GAME PRESERVES NEEDED

Allan G. McAvity Gives Address at Luncheon—Guy Lordly on Chemistry

More game preserves are needed in New Brunswick, Allan G. McAvity told the Gyro Club at their luncheon at the Admiral Beatty Hotel yesterday. Mr. McAvity told of steps being taken by the Fish and Game Protective Association to preserve the wild life of the province.

Deaths

A. J. Estabrook
 Many friends will greatly regret to learn of the death of Abraham J. Estabrook, which occurred at his home, 78 Kennedy street, last night after an illness of about one year. Mr. Estabrook was well known and held in high esteem. He was a son of Mrs. Margaret I. Estabrook and the late J. F. Estabrook and was born in Boston. He had resided in Saint John for about 36 years, having come here at an early age. He was at one time employed as a clerk but of later years had followed the sea and was on the government's coast service. He was a member of the Main street Baptist church, and of the Orange and Masonic Orders. Besides his mother he is survived by three brothers and two sisters. The brothers are William G. Estabrook and H. S. Estabrook, of Saint John, and R. W. Estabrook, of Perth, N. B. The sisters are Mrs. J. R. Cowan and Mrs. J. W. McAvity, of Saint John. The funeral will be held on Thursday from his late residence at 2:30 p.m.

Warren Bull
 WOODSTOCK, Sept. 14.—Warren Bull, a well known farmer of Northampton, died at his home on Monday night, after being ill a number of years, aged 81 years. He is survived by his wife, four sons, Willard in Sackville, Allen in Northampton, Jewel and Wendall at home. A step-son, Frank Shaw of Presque Isle, Me., a step-daughter, Mrs. Donald Dibbice, of Long View, Washington, three brothers, Allen of Wisconsin, Horace of Bangor, and Milton of Grafton, one sister, Mrs. Israel Kinney of this town. Funeral on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Grey. Burial at the lower church.

REPORTED AS DANGEROUS.
 A wooden bridge, running from Gilbert's Lane to Rockwood Park, has been reported by Police Constable Bettie as being in a dangerous condition and needs immediate attention. The constable notified John Hensley, park foreman, who promised to look after the same.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—Sir Henry W. Thornton, head of the Canadian National Railway, and his bride, who was Miss Martha Watriss, Westbury, N. Y., were in New York today preparing for their honeymoon after a visit to this city yesterday, when they obtained a marriage license.

Reports that they had been married a second time in the chambers of Judge J. Willis Martin could not be definitely confirmed although Judge Martin intimated that he had performed the ceremony.

The reported second marriage was said to have taken place 48 hours after they had been married at the summer home of the bride on Lake Chautauque, near Jamestown, N. Y.

divorce law of that state cannot remarry there, no matter in what state the divorce was granted.

In the application for the license yesterday Sir Henry gave his age as 55, 28 years older than his wife.

Now In Effect—Sweeping OVERLAND PRICE REDUCTIONS

At the outset we expected and prophesied record making sales for the Overland Whippet and the Overland Six Cylinder Cars, so we based their original low prices on huge sales volume.

But sales leaped far ahead of schedule. Volume has swept far beyond our expectations. Day after day, month after month, all previous sales records have been left far behind.

Due to this tremendous increase in production, new and greater economies in manufacturing have been made possible. These new economies we now pass on to you in the form of price reductions that make the Overland Whippet and the Overland Six Cylinder cars, values that have never been approached in the history of the industry.

Go to your nearest Willys-Overland dealer now and see these cars—the greatest cars and the greatest values Willys-Overland has ever produced.

N. Y. GAMBLER IS VICTIM OF GUNMAN'S SHOT

Slain in Street Where He Escaped Death Eight Years Ago

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—Within a block of the spot where gunmen sought eight years ago to kill him, Joseph Brocco was shot and killed on the east side by a man who lay in waiting and later escaped despite the efforts of a score of policemen. Brocco dropped with three bullets in his body and died in a few minutes. A bullet from the murderer's pistol grazed the scalp of Josie Fischel, six years old.

Brocco was 32 years old and unmarried. He owned a restaurant, two blocks from the East River. He walked from a shoe shine parlor opposite his business about 12:30 p. m. and before he reached the curb across the street an unidentified man stepped from the hallway adjoining the parlor, pressed a pistol to his back and fired three times.

The gunman then dashed into the hallway and fled up the stairs, pursued by Patrolmen John Bennett and Herman Brooks. Alarmed at the confusion Frances Montese, 16 years old, who lived in the house, also ran up the stairs and into the flat on the third floor occupied by her parents. The gunman was close at her heels and, as the girl opened the door, he darted in to evade the policemen, who were firing as they chased him up the stairs.

CAUGHT BUT ESCAPES.
James Montese, brother of Frances, seized the intruder as he entered, pistol in hand. The two men struggled, Montese fighting to obtain the weapon. The fugitive finally hurled the pistol away and as Montese turned to seize it, leaped through an open window and escaped on the adjoining roof.

From stories that were told it was gathered that Brocco was the victim of gamblers' warfare. It was said that he won several thousands of dollars in a card game Saturday night. The Oak street police said that he had been arrested several times for gambling. Brocco had a large roll of bill in his clothes when he was shot. The assailant did not seek his money, however.

It was at first thought that Brocco had been mistaken for a bootlegger and killed in a war of rival gangs. Later, when his reputation as a gambler was recalled and stories were told of Saturday's winnings, it was thought that the killing could be traced to the card table. In the shooting affair of eight years ago at 78 Catharine street one man was killed. Brocco was wounded slightly at that time.

MISS AMERICA MAY TAKE STAGE OFFER

Several Contracts to Choose From—To Return to School Next Year

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 15—Miss America may go on the stage. Contracts and the entreaties of her friends to reap the golden harvest which awaits her for 12 months have shaken the resolve of Norma Smallwood to return to college.

TO SCHOOL NEXT YEAR

The desire for an education has not evaporated from her mind, however, and she will go back to school next year, she said in an interview. But what she will do or when she will decide are two unanswered questions. The girl who sprang overnight into fame, faces several proffered contracts and on each one of them her mind is undecided.

Of the contracts that she has received, seven of them are outstanding.

MELLON NOW IS BELIEVED TO BE RICHEST MAN

U. S. Secretary of Treasury and Family Rated at $1,500,000,000

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 14—It is the belief here that the title of the world's richest man has passed from both John D. Rockefeller and Henry Ford and rests with Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury.

When Mr. Mellon entered the Harding Cabinet in 1921, he was considered the third richest man in America. John D. Rockefeller had first place with Henry Ford second.

Since then, Henry Ford, in the judgment of the financial experts, passed Mr. Rockefeller. Mr. Mellon was still given third place. But now the shrewd observers of business feel sure that Secretary Mellon has passed Henry Ford and is safely in first place.

OVER $1,500,000,000

To be strictly accurate it is really the Mellon family of financiers consisting of Secretary Mellon, his brothers and nephews, who stand at the top just as John D. Rockefeller's wealth is added to that of his father in counting the Rockefeller fortune.

The Mellon wealth has grown enormously in the last five years. When Mr. Mellon entered the cabinet his family were credited with $500,000,000 in financial assets. Their total resources have easily trebled in five years.

Few people have any idea of the tremendous financial power of the Mellons. It is not restricted to one industry as is the Ford and Rockefeller

IRISH IMMIGRANT STOCK

Everything they have touched has turned to gold.

Like Henry Ford, the Mellons come of Irish immigrant stock. Henry Ford's father was a Cork man; the father of the Mellons came from Tyrone. Thus the north and the south of Ireland can claim the two richest men in the world.

SESSIONS OF C. W. L. IN CITY RESUMED

Rev. Dr. Roy McDonald is Appointed Chaplain—Diocesan Next Week

The Saint John sub-division of the Catholic Women's League held its opening meeting of the season last night in the Knights of Columbus Hall and made plans for the activities of the coming winter. Miss K. Lawlor, president, was in the chair and the meeting was well attended. Miss Lawlor announced that Rev. Roy McDonald, S. T. D., had been appointed the new chaplain of the sub-division.

The diocesan board of the C. W. L. is to meet in Saint John on Tuesday of next week and plans were made for entertaining the delegates.

It was also decided to hold a tea next week for the C. W. L. funds. Mrs. S. C. Tippetts was appointed general convenor for the tea and Mrs. George Tippetts very kindly offered to lend her home in Fairville for the event. The offer was gratefully accepted.

Mrs. F. J. Power, who had been the delegate from the Saint John branch of the C. W. L. to the national convention held recently in Ottawa, gave a very interesting and impressive account of that notable gathering.

CAPTAIN H. SIBBONS IS ILL IN HOSPITAL

MONTREAL, Sept. 14—The many friends of Captain H. Sibbons, R.N.R.,

will be grieved to learn that he is laid up in the Jeffery Hale Hospital at Quebec. He was taken seriously ill on the arrival of the S. S. Montroyal in Quebec on September 3 and was straightway taken ashore. His vessel left Quebec last Friday in charge of Commander Coyle, but it is expected that Captain Sibbons will resume command of his ship on her next departure from that city on October 8.

Captain Sibbons made his last trip to Montreal in November, 1925, when in command of the S. S. Montcalm, and was later promoted to the bridge of the Montroyal.

"In His Quiet Moments"

A True Story

Always the life of the party' everybody admires Ted Carruthers for his breezy good nature and winning personality. He is a real man through and through.

But in his quiet moments—

Poor Ted has his personal problem from which he cannot shake himself free when alone. A recent illness, the price of overwork, left his health impaired. The doctor says it is only a matter of time.

He now has only a few short years in which to provide for Mary and the children. What is he to do? He is not able to get life insurance and cannot save much more than $300.00 a year. In five years this will be but $1,500.00—not nearly enough!

It is now he realizes just what it would have meant if he had insured when able, to provide for his wife an income of at least $100.00 a month ($1,200.00 a year) as long as she lived. At his age (35) $6.40 a week with the London Life would have guaranteed it, and worry would not now be further sapping his strength, killing any chance he may have had of recovery.

The future may easily be made safe for loved ones by insurance, and worry removed from those who have dependents.

Garnering the Wealth of Canada's Golden Grain

AGRICULTURE is the backbone of Canada's nationhood. Wealth lies in the golden grain that her land yields so abundantly.

Nature and modern agricultural methods have placed Canada in a position tantamount to world leadership in the production of wheat, with annual harvest of over 260,000,000 bushels.

The export of grain brings to Canada nearly $300,000,000 annually. But between the farmers' granaries and the consumer market is a distance which must be bridged before the wealth of Canada's wheat can be realized.

Thus, at the various Canadian ports and railroad terminals you will see the towering bulk of gigantic grain elevators where the wheat is received, stored and shipped. Special machinery is required for handling the grain and here—as in every other Canadian industry—electricity is rendering invaluable service.

The manufacture of motors and electrical equipment necessary in the operation of the grain elevators is but another instance of the intimate relationship of Canadian General Electric Company to Canadian progress and prosperity.

GUEST AT 699 HOTELS CLAIMS TO HOLD RECORD

On Move for Half Century Started When Seven Months Old

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Hale and hearty after more than half a century spent in traveling from hotel to hotel, Henry E. Knapp of St. Paul, Minn., who is now stopping at the Waldorf, claims the record for having signed more registers than any other man living. Mr. Knapp says that he has stopped at 699 different hotels.

FIRST JOURNEY

"I do not recall my first journey because I was only 7 months old when I was taken down the Mississippi on a steamboat from my home at Fort Madison, Iowa, and then the following winter we were brought East to Pennsylvania and I visited my grandparents in Massachusetts.

QUEEREST HOTEL

"Mrs. Knapp and I have never had any thrilling adventures during our journeys, though we have been in earthquakes in Japan and California, but these did not happen to be serious.

"About the queerest hotel at which I ever stopped was in Italy. That was before I was married. My father and I with a couple of married friends from Philadelphia were driving over the Cornelia Road from Nice to Savona, Italy, and came to a little town called Luino at nightfall. The only hotel in town boasted of just two guest rooms and we furnished its complement. The only furniture in our room was a bed and a chair, and I may not be a dabbler in geology, but I went to dinner loaded with corresponding fare.

"I think one reason why Mrs. Knapp and I have never lost anything in hotels, even in foreign countries, may be that we have sought the best hotels and achieved the good-will of the hotel keepers."

Winnipeg Paves For Today and For Tomorrow This Sure, Modern Way

Once a far out-post of civilization, Winnipeg, Manitoba, is now known the world over as a modern metropolis of boundless opportunity.

Among the many ways in which Winnipeg is planning and building for the future is its continued extension of concrete street pavement.

Winnipeg now has 16 miles of concrete streets, all of which are designed to withstand the heavier traffic of on-coming years just as surely as they are withstanding the traffic of to-day.

Firm, rigid, unyielding, and unaffected by changing seasons, these true, even streets also have an attractive, light grey color especially appreciated by property owners.

Both from the standpoint of lasting economy and of inviting appearance, concrete makes the ideal street pavement for any town or city.

All of the facts are in our free booklet on "Concrete Streets." Ask for your copy.

Weddings

Scott-Miller

In the Germain street church at 6:30 o'clock this evening, the marriage of Miss Helen Jane Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Frederick Miller, 87 Victoria street to Charles Harold Scott, son of Mrs. and the late Mr. N. C. Scott, Douglas avenue, will be solemnized. Dr. S. S. Poole will perform the ceremony. The church is tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and a profusion of golden glow, phlox and other garden flowers. Marking the guest power are clusters of gypsophylla tied with bows of white satin ribbon and tulle. The bride will be given in marriage by her father, and she will be attended by her cousin, Miss M. Dorothy Christie, as bridesmaid, and by her cousin, little Miss Aurele M. Wilson, as flower girl. Dr. A. J. Coughlan will be groomsmen and Walter A. Miller, brother of the bride, and G. Sherman Dearborn, will act as ushers.

The bride will wear a lovely French gown of white beaded georgette, simply made, with court train of white crepe back satin, lined with blush pink georgette. Her tulle veil will be arranged in coronet effect, embroidered in pearls and rhinestones, with wreath of orange blossoms caught at the sides, and falling in graceful folds to the end of her train. She will carry Columbia roses and gypsophylla, with a shower of sweetheart roses.

The bridesmaid will wear a gown of orchid georgette with rhinestone trimmings, a large black hat, faced with orchid, gold shoes and stockings, and a scarf of gold tulle. She will carry pale yellow gladioli and mauve sweetpeas. The little flower girl will wear a bouffant sleeveless frock of peach shot tulle, with gossamer of cream lace, and on her hair will be worn a bandeau of silver leaves. She will carry on her arm a basket of the same material as her dress, filled with sweetheart roses, which she will strew in the path of the bride and bridesmaid as they leave the church. Miss Beryl Blanche will preside at the organ and as the wedding party enters the church will play the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, and after the ceremony Mendelssohn's wedding march. During the signing of the register Mrs. George McKel will sing "O Perfect Love."

Mrs. Miller, mother of the bride will wear a powder blue georgette costume with large black hat, and ermine tie and will carry an old fashioned nosegay. Mrs. N. C. Scott, mother of the bridegroom will wear a dress of brocade crepe, trimmed with Spanish lace, a scarf of Spanish lace, and a black satin hat, and will carry a nosegay of flowers. Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents, Victoria street. The rooms are decorated with beautiful cut flowers in mauve and yellow. The bride and bridesmaid will receive before the mantle piece in the drawing room, where scepters in shades of mauve and white and golden glow, interspersed with greenery, form the background. The bride's table will be centred with a pyramid wedding cake, trimmed with orange blossoms and silver butterflies. Silver candelsticks containing mauve and yellow candles will also be used in the decorative scheme.

Mr. Scott and his bride will leave on the evening train for Montreal, Toronto, Atlantic City and New York. The bride will wear a dress of Sinbad blue satin, trimmed with grey, and a coat of Sinbad blue mole-pea trimmed with grey squirrel. She will wear a small grey and blue hat, and grey gloves, shoes and stockings and handbag. A large array of beautiful gifts received are a fitting testimony to the popularity of the bride and bridesmaid.

Walter A. Miller, brother of the bride, of Sheet Harbor, N. S., is a visitor in the city for the wedding.

Crozier-Wood
A quiet wedding which will be of interest to a large circle of friends in East Saint John and elsewhere will take place this evening at the Baptist parsonage, East Saint John, when Rev. I. B. Colwell will unite in marriage Frank M. Crozier, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Crozier, of Willow Grove, to Violet E. Wood, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Wood, of East Saint John. The bride, who will be unattended, will be given in marriage by her father, and will be becomingly attired in a dress of peach flat crepe and tailored coat with brown fox fur. She will wear a black picture hat of panne velvet and satin, with shoes and stockings to match. After the ceremony the young couple will leave on the Boston train for a wedding trip to U. S. cities, and on their return will reside in the city. They have many friends who will extend good wishes for their future happiness.

Robertson-Thorne

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday evening, Sept. 14, at Washington street Baptist church, Lynn, Mass., when Miss Myrtle E. Thorne, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thorne, and Frank E. Robertson, son of John and the late Hattie I. Robertson, both of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. C. A. Underhill. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Charles A. Thorne, of Boston, was becomingly attired in a dress of Copen blue satin with hat to correspond and carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. Miss Beulah Boyd, of Worcester, Mass., acted as bridesmaid, and Walter A. Thorne, of Boston, brother of the bride, acted as best man. After spending a honeymoon at Nahant, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will return to Saint John, where they will reside.

Johnston-Fadler

A wedding of much interest to friends in Saint John was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Fadler, 317 Elmhurst avenue, Highland Park, Michigan, on Saturday, September 4, when Miss Thelma Fadler became the bride of William J. Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnston, of Quispamsis, N. B. Rev. George Fale officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin trimmed with lace, pearls and rhinestones. Her veil was of real lace, trimmed with ferns and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The ceremony took place beneath an arch of palms and gladioli. The bride was attended by two matrons of honor, one in yellow the other in orchid tulle, and carrying yellow roses. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston later left for Buffalo by boat and will also visit Mr. Johnston's mother at Quispamsis. They expect to return home via Boston and New York.

Crabbe-Cochran

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents on Sept. 14, when Nellie G., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cochran, Bloomfield Station, and J. William Crabbe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Crabbe, of the same place, were united in marriage by Rev. H. Stanley Young. The bride was becomingly attired in a French blue satin backed crepe gown and carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart and Columbia roses with maiden hair ferns. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, asters and sweet peas. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served and the happy couple left by automobile for a trip through the province. On their return they will reside at Bloomfield. The groom's gift to the bride was a wrist watch. She received many other beautiful presents, including articles of cut glass, china and silver and substantial checks.

Your own will come to you if you hold the thought firmly and hustle. The golden opportunities always seem to be those we have missed.

People Said "Drunk"—But Man Was Sick

F. J. Pooler had "auto-intoxication" (food poisoning) so bad that he staggered and people said he was drunk. He had stomach trouble many years. After taking Adierka he says: "I feel like a new man—no more hard stools, no more stooping over. My eyes are bright and I do a better day's work."

Allison Grounds Has New Draining System Installed This Year

The tocsin for rugby football sounded yesterday for the first practice of the year by the Trojans on the Allison grounds and a good turnout was on hand.

The Allison grounds are expected to be in splendid shape this year. A new drainage system has been installed this year and this factor is expected to help the teams greatly.

QUIESCENT ATTITUDE ON PART OF AMATEUR CLUBS IS WORKING HARM

ONE WEEK has passed and still no denial has come from responsible amateur officials that the charges regarding the annual meeting of the M. P. B. at Amherst are false.

WHEN the head executive reads of the charges, he says he will gladly call a special meeting. He puts it up to the clubs.

It is believed the Trojans would have no objection to entering a league. This club, however, wishes to retain its connection with the college football teams by carding games here but it is felt this would not interfere greatly with a local city league.

ANNA EVA FAY IS TO FOUND HOME FOR AGED ACTORS

Mind Reader, Well Known in Saint John, Discloses Plans

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—An actor's home where impoverished members of the theatrical profession may spend their days in peace, dreaming of their nights of glory behind the footlights, is to be established in Melrose Highlands.

It is to be the gift of Anna Eva Fay, internationally known mind reader. Almost a half century ago she thought of starting such a home. Now, at last, she announces that her goal is reached and she will soon see her own home become the first actors' refuge in New England, a larger and more commodious home than that located on Long Island.

MORE THAN A HOME

Miss Fay plans more than a home. Rather, it is to be an actors' colony, according to the plans that this frail, little woman revealed. Not only has she determined to turn over her own 18-room home complete with its luxurious furnishings collected from the four corners of the globe, but nine

REHBERGER DEAD; LONG TURF OFFICIAL

Racing Secretary of Queens Jockey Club Succumbs at Saratoga

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Fred Rehberger, long racing secretary of the Queens County Jockey Club and one of the best known and most popular turf officials in the United States, died in Saratoga Springs, recently, following an attack of pleurisy. He was 68 years of age.

Mr. Rehberger had acted in an advisory capacity for the Westchester and Saratoga Association, in addition to his regular duties for many years. He was stricken during the recent meeting of the latter association, and taken to his temporary home, 107 George street, where he died.

Mr. Rehberger is survived by a widow and twin sons, Frederick and Charles.

SLAVE TO DUTY.

The late turf official was not a strong man physically, and was a slave to duty. He chafed under the restraint of the sick room, and thought he should be at his desk in the office of the Queens County Jockey Club in Brooklyn, getting ready for the meeting of that organization, which is scheduled to open next Wednesday.

TOLD OF MISSIONS

315,756 Women Answered This Question

"Have You Received Benefit from Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

311,145 of These Women Answered "Yes"

This means that 98 out of each 100 received benefit. This is a most remarkable record of merit. We doubt if any other medicine ever equalled it.

It only goes to prove, however, that a medicine specialized for certain definite ailments, accurately and carefully prepared from a combination of nature's roots and herbs, can and does benefit those who take it according to directions and for the ailments for which it is recommended.

Among the Thousands who Answered Were girls just entering womanhood who said, "After mother gave me the Vegetable Compound I could go to school every day";

working women who said, "It helps my painful periods and makes me fit to work";

wives and mothers who said, "We take the Vegetable Compound to relieve backache and weakness";

the new mother who said, "I depended on the Vegetable Compound before and after the baby came";

women of middle age who said, "Vegetable Compound brought me safely through the Change of Life."

What Does This Mean to You?

If you are suffering from ailments common to women, think of these thousands of women who have found relief from these same ailments by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. With such a record as is shown here, do not delay in giving this dependable medicine a fair trial.

EXPECT VENIOT WILL GET PLACE IN NEW CABINET

That is Comment Here Following Yesterday's Federal Vote

GOSSIP OVER N. B. HOUSE VACANCIES

Sheriff Finds Large Number of Ballots Here Spoiled

Following the decision of the electors in the Federal field yesterday, there was interested speculation here today as to developments in the provincial political situation. It was the general opinion that Hon. Peter J. Veniot, former leader of the Opposition in the New Brunswick Legislature, and now member-elect for Gloucester in the Dominion Commons, would become a cabinet member in the new government of Hon. Mr. King.

HON. MR. FOSTER. With the provincial seat in Gloucester opened following Mr. Veniot's move to the Ottawa House, and with the seat for Saint John County vacated by the death of the late Frank L. Potts still unfilled, there was much talk today about the by-elections for those constituencies and as to possible candidates. One report was that Hon. Walter E. Foster, former Premier of the province and later Minister of State in the Liberal Government at Ottawa, would re-enter the provincial arena. There were two rumors relative to Mr. Foster in this regard. One was that he would be candidate in Gloucester, the other that he would run in Saint John County. The former Premier was asked about these reports this morning and said he had not taken and was not taking any steps in the matter of politics other than that he had done what he could for the Liberal party in the Dominion contest which ended with the defeat yesterday. Beyond that he had made no plans and had given no thought to the subject.

NOT CONSIDERED YET. Questioned regarding the holding of the by-elections in Saint John County and Gloucester, Premier Baxter said this morning that the matter had not been considered by the cabinet. The Premier had no comment to offer on the result of the Federal vote.

MANY SPOILED BALLOTS. Sheriff Wilson, returning officer for Saint John-Albert, this morning referred to the very large number of ballots rejected by the deputy returning officers on account of not being correctly marked, and in some cases the city alone being null and void for this reason. When the county and Albert returns were tabulated, he said, this number would be largely added to. Declaration day for Saint John-Albert will be Monday, September 20, Sheriff Wilson said this morning. He will open his court at 11 o'clock and after opening the ballot boxes and checking up the returns, declare the winners elected.

AS HIRAM SEES IT

THE SETTLEMENT—Well, sir—the election is over. If it hadn't been for the newspapers we wouldn't have known they were over. I've seen the time as for as I know—nobody around here jumped up and cried his head together an' called anybody else a liar. I've seen the time when a Grit an' a Tory wouldn't speak to one another for days afore an' election—but this time everybody went on with the hat an' coat an' got their politics out of the post-office. I spoke they had their minds made up—somebody they come to the conclusion that hollerin' fer this party or that heint' made much noise up around Ottawaw—as far as these here provinces is concerned. In my judgment—an' I ain't no politician—what we orto do is to keep a sharper eye on the fellows we sent up there—an' let 'em all know—whatever side they're on—that we're doin' it. We've promised a lot—but some folks here short memories. We're lookin' fer somebody to come in—some one who keeps tabs on every feller that's been elected from these here Maritime Provinces—as far as their stewardship—yes, HIRAM Douglas avenue.

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than that of the Saint John River and forces its way through the gorge west of the falls, creating a "fall" running up river. At low tide the water in the Bay becomes so much lower than that of the river, that the fall of water is reversed and flows down river into the Bay.

LANCASTER CLAIMS PAVING MONEY; COUNTY TREASURER WANTS IT FOR INTEREST

A special meeting of the finance committee of the municipal council will be held tomorrow morning at 11:30 in the Court House to deal with the providing of funds to pay the bills of the Lancaster Highway Board for the paving of the road between the Lancaster and the Canadian Pacific Railway.

PAY FOR CARE OF WOMEN IN HOMES

At the last session of the Provincial Legislature an act was passed making the municipalities liable for the care and maintenance of girls and young women committed by the courts to the Home at Coverdale and the Sisters of the Good Shepherd here. As this was not contemplated at the January meeting of the municipal council no provision was made and the finance committee will have to arrange for an overdraft to meet the matter. Bills now pending are $20.48 from the Interprovincial Home, for the care of one young woman from March to June last year and $125 from Good Shepherd Home, for the care of four.

LANCASTER PAVING

In connection with the paving program in Lancaster the Canadian Pacific Railway agreed to pay $2,200 a year for 15 years and of this amount $5,000 has been paid. Recently the Highway Board of the parish made a demand on the county treasurer for this amount, claiming it was to go to them for highway work. The treasurer refused to pay the money contending that it was to be used for the purpose of paying interest on the bonds issued for the work done. An appeal was made to the chairman of the finance committee and he upheld the treasurer. The Highway Board then applied to the finance committee and the matter will be threshed out tomorrow morning.

PROVINCIAL HOSPITAL

Another matter which may be discussed at the meeting will be the increased assessment suggested for the care of pauper lunatics at the Provincial Hospital. Legislation, effective January 1, 1927, was adopted at the last session of the legislature providing for an increase in the rate per patient from $22 to $25 per month and to $120. This will mean that the Saint John levy will be increased from $12,000 to $15,000.

BAND CONCERT IN WEST END TONIGHT

Tonight on Tilly Square, West Saint John, the Carleton Cornet Band will, weather permitting, give a concert. The program of concert pieces for by the city council has been completed, and the band is giving this extra one for the benefit of West Side citizens. The program arranged for tonight is as follows: March—"Patriotic and Bold" Rust Waltz—"Old Sweet Songs" Recreant One Step—"Valencia" Padilla March—"Rolling Home" Arbuckle Waltz—"Remember" Irving Berlin Fox Trot—"I Never Knew" Kahn and Fiorato Selection—"Jack and Tommy's Tunes" Gordon March—"Colonel Bogey" Alford God Save the King. Wm. T. Lanyon is bandmaster.

TALENTED PIANISTE

Mrs. Ibbot, wife of Rev. Dr. T. H. Ibbot of Welland, Ont., who came to Saint John to officiate at the wedding of her son and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Shand, is a talented pianist and in considerable demand for special work in Ontario centres. It has been hoped by local musical people that Mrs. Ibbot might find it possible to give a short recital during her visit. At present she is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shand, Ashbury Road.

DIED THIS MORNING

The death of Mrs. Margaret McKay, wife of William H. McKay, which occurred this morning at her home, 71 Cranston avenue, after an illness of one year will be heard of with regret by a large circle of friends. She is survived by her husband, two sons, one Robert and two grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. The sons are Robert and C. Herbert McKay and the daughter is Mrs. Michael Connell, all of this city. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

In honor of Miss Regina McNeely about 50 her friends were entertained delightfully at the home of Mrs. T. J. Morrissey, St. James street, West Saint John, last night when the hostesses were Miss Alberta Quinlan and Susan E. Murphy. A shower of lovely gifts was tendered Miss McNeely. Among the presents she received were articles of linen, cut glass, silver and embroidered. The residence was very prettily decorated, the color scheme being white in the hall and drawing room and lavender and yellow in the dining room. Cards and dancing were enjoyed and a dainty buffet followed. Miss McNeely's marriage to Edward Galvin, of the United States immigration department, is to take place soon.

CAR MISSING FROM NORTH SIDE OF KING SQUARE RETURNED TO OWNER

An automobile owned by Charles McKee, of Cape Spencer, and driven by Haen McKee, which was thought to have been stolen from where it was parked on the north side of King Square last night, came to light this morning when Leonard McLaughlin called at the police station and said he had left his car parked on the north side of King Square last night and had sent another man to take it home and the man had taken a wrong car by mistake. The car he took was owned by Mr. McKee's, which had been parked alongside of Mr. McLaughlin's. Mr. McLaughlin's car was found standing on the square late last night and taken to the police station. The cars were taken over by their respective owners this morning.
