ARRIVAL OF THE ASLOUN.

A Pleasant Voyage of Seventeen and a Half Days From the Orient.

The steamship Asloun, of the O.R. & N. steamship line, docked at the outer wharf at 3 o'clock this morning, .71/2 days from Yokohama. She had a remarkably smooth passage across, the water at all times being none too rough for a row boat, but lots of fog was encountered. She has aboard 3,500 tons of cargo, mostly tea and silk. But 120 tons were discharged here. As passengers she brought 12 Chinese, all whom were landed at this port. For a tramp steamer the Asloun, whose registered tonnage is 1827, is an exceptionally fine craft. She was built in Glasgow a few years ago and has since been engaged in the tea trade between Assam and Hongkong. Her first cherter was to carry a cargo of guns from Havre to Yokohama for the Japanese. She will likely be permanently employed by the O. R. & N. S. S. Co. Her othcers are: Capt. Murray, Chief Officer Reid, Second Officer Wraith, Third Omcer Gunn and Purser Gomez. Her crew is composed of natives of Manilla. The Asloun left Yokohama on July 5, and her crew have much to say of the grand way in which the "glorious fourth" was celebrated by the American residents and the crew of the U.S.S. Baltimore, which was in port.

The two marksmen shook hands, and by agreement each had a sighting shot Boyd firing first made a bulls-eye, and Havhurst followed with a magpie. Then the score commenced. Boyd led with an inner, 4 points, to an outer, 2, for Hayhurst. When Boyd fired again the target did not move, and the shot being challenged the spectators waited in breathless silence while in response to a challenge the target was lowered for examination. The challenge did not avail, however, as the shot was found to be a miss-which would be the outcome of even a slight tremor at this range, Hayhurst with his second shot got an inner, and as the men laid down to fire the third round, it was known that Havhurst had only to make another inner to win. This he did. Boyd with his third shot found the bulls-eye, but his total was only 9, to 10 for the Canadian sharpshooter.

BRITAIN'S CHANGE OF RULERS

The electoral battle in Britain has 1 ow proceeded so far that a very su.stantial victory for the Conservative-Unionist party is certain. In 1892 the English boroughs went against the Liberals, who were enabled to score a success by the unexpected support they received from the counties. This time the beroughs have gone still more solidly to the Conservatives and Uniorists, and the county vote could not begin to save able to them as in 1892. The counties. however, have the same tale of Liberal loss to tell as the cities and boroughs. Frebably the Tory-Unionist majority in the new House will exceed 159, and the Tories by themselves will a good deal cutnumber all the other parties and groups. This later fact may not be &!together comforting to the section led by Mr. Chamberlain. It is hard to see why the reaction against the Liberals should be so extensive. A reaction was to be expected, and for a year or two there were plain signs of a coming Liberal reverse, but few would have been so rash as to predict a change so radical. Objection to home rule is put forward as the great reason for the change, but we should hesitate to accept the theory that the British people have become mercurial enough to make a complete somersault on this one question in the the dividing question in 1892, and was made even more prominent than in the present contest. Probably the retire- latter point, but how best to accomplish factory leadership of Lord Rosebery have done more than anything else to cause the Liberal discomfiture. A period of discipline will probably do the party good and put it in better condition for the next struggle. It is not at all likely that the Conservatives and their a'lies will be able to hold on to power for more than one parliament.

They are like men who have locked themselves in a cell and thrown the key out by a grated window, to Mr. Greenway of Manitoba. who is taking directions from Mr. La trier of Ottawa. It is not likely that they will unlock the door, but it is on their generosity and on it alone that they hope to avoid a conflict with their followers from Ontario and the Maritime provinces. Oatsrio will never consent to a law that will coerce Manitoba Neither will the Maritime provinces consent to such a law, for if it is ever passed there will be a demand at the very next session for a law coercive of New Brunswick, and then right through these provinces which now see fit to get along without separate schools. PRESIDENT KER'S ADVICE.

President Ker, of the board of trade, in effect told the business men of Vicleading commercial position they had to work unitedly. All roads, Mr. Ker seemed to think, lead to Victoria, and it remains for our commercial men to cause a large share of the new commerce to pass over them. It was implied rather than expressed that the policy of "every man for himself" had prevailed too long for the good of the city, and that concerted action was necessary to bring the distant proposal savoring of protection is most markets nearer. Mr. Ker referred to the necessity for a telephone line to Vancouver, which is now in connection with many of the principal cities of the course of three years. #### PREFERENTIAL TARIFF QUIETUS.

Lord Ripon's dispatch officially conveying the views of the Imperial government in regard to the preferential trade resolution of the intercolonial conference at Ottawa is of some interest, though it can hardly be said that the subject matter is one of practical importance. In order to help to a clear understanding of the British government's statement it may be well to recall the conference resolution on the question of preferential trade. It reads as follows, having been moved by Minister of Finance Foster and seconded by Sir Henry Wrixon, the delegate from Victoria col-

"Whereas, the stability and progress of the British empire can be best assured by drawing continually closer the mother country, and by the continual welfare; and "Whereas, this co-operation and unity can in no way be more effectually pro moted than by the cultivation and extension of the mutual and profitable interchange of their products; therefore, "Resolved, (1), That this conference records its belief in the advisability of a customs arrangement between Great teria that if they wanted to retain their Britain and her colonies by which trade within the empire may be placed on more favorable footing than that which is carried on with foreign countries.

"(2), That until the mother country can see her way to enter into a customs bably more enterprising or certainly arrangement with her colonies, it is denore eager to secure customers. The sirable that, when empowered to do so, the colonies of Great Britain, or such of them as may be disposed to accede to boo is being rapidly developed, and as a this view, take steps to place each other's cor sequence new and profitable markets products, in whole or in part, on a more ploited most persistently and success- to the like products of foreign countries. "(3), That for the purposes of this resolution the South African customs union teria merchants to compete with those be considered as part of the territory of Winnipeg, Spokane or other cities capable of being brought within the scope of the contemplated trade arrange-

It will be noticed in Lord Ripon's dis patch, embodying the view of the British government, both proposals advanced in the resolution are condemned without hesitation. The decision of the Rosebery government in this matter may be regarded as final, for their successors are well known as men of like views. The new colonial secretary, in particular, is among the most determined of free traders, to whom any obnoxious. He would no doubt strenuously second Lord Ripon's assertion The audience became impatient at this that the Imperial government "feel compelled to express grave doubts as to whether the fiscal policy which has been adopted by the majority of the conferreally calculated to promote it." That is a point to which Canadians may well give attention. They are likely to see of encouraging inter-imperial or intercolonial trade is a general lowering of duties, without any regard for preferential customs arrangements. It is the as a whole, as Lord Ripon suggests.

PENITENTIARY MATTERS.

The minister of justice is reported as making in the house yesterday the statement that Deputy Warden Fitzsimmons has been granted two months' leave of absence, "to prosecute with celerity the libel suit against the Columbian." The eign legations on June 29th, and regovernment has done some extraordinary things in connection with the Westminster penitentiary, but we shall be charitable enough to assume that either Si: Hibbert Tupper was misreported in this case, or that he did not quite correctly state the purpose of the government in erica and England at Peking are degranting the leave of absence. He prob- manding reparation for ill-treatment of ably said, or meant to say, that the two months' leave was decided upon to with a vigor which startles the Chinese when the government would know from its issue whether Fitzsimmons should be given employment in another penitenarticle in Harper's Weekly has some tiary. This interpretation coincides with comments to make on Harvard's refusal the statement of Premier Bowell in reto ally itself with Yale in an athletic ply to Senator McInnes the other day. After confirming the reports that Mr. Moresby had been appointed warden rulers will find hereafter that the delays and Mr. Harvey accountant, the prem- and evasions of past years must be disier said: "I will add to these answers something which might be asked later on, that Deputy Burke has been transferred from the Stony Mountain penitenbelieve there will be such an uprisung for the sake of the lessons in sportsman- tiary to take the place of Mr. Fitzsimmons. Fitzsimmons is now on leave of absence, but it is possible, on further investigation, that he may be sent to the Manitoba penitentiary; as to that I am not positive." Sir Mackenzie further on made reference to the libel suit against the Columbian and the renewed investigation it would afford, concluding with the remark: "If it is then proved he is a man of the character represented, tue government will deal with him." All of which we take to mean that if Mr. Fitzsimmons is beaten in his libel suit the government will regard him as unfit for further employment in the penitentiary service, but if he is successful he will be transferred to the Manitoba penitentiary. If that is not the meaning to be attached to the premier's and Sir Hibbert's words, then it must be concluded that they are giving a new exhibition of their propensity to fly in the face of the public. But granted the intention of the government to be honestly guided by the result of the libel suit. those familiar with the history of the case will notice how their attitude bears upon the investigation held by the Hon. Justice Drake. They say in effect by their present actions that that inquiry was a farce and that no attention whatever should be paid to the evidence then adduced or the commissioner's finding

The determination of the authorities to prevent public criticism of every description is causing deep anxiety among the moderate and law abiding classes of the community. Since the adoption of a conbest policy for each, and for the empire stitutional form of government, no administration has ever before gone to such extremities in fettering the speech and thoughts of the people. Count Ito undoubtedly believes that his arbitrary course will be approved by the majority of his countrymen, but there are ominous signs that he is gradually losing the confidence of those whose support is indispensable to his tenure of office.

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY

Report of the Governor and Committee to the Annual Meeting.

Following is the annual report of the governor and committee presented to the annual meeting of the snareholders of the stant:-The governor and committee have now to submit to the proprietors the annual accounts, which show a profit of £60,275 14s. 7d., to which must be added £25,023 5s. 9d. brought forward from last year, making a total of £85,305 Os. 4d. Oat of this sum they recommend a dividend which will absorb £60,000, leaving the sum of £25,305 Os. 4d. to be carried for The quantity of furs sold by the company in January and March last was about the same as that sold in 1894. The improvement in prices, indicated in the last report as probable, was realized this spring, and although the value of some furs declined, the majority of the changes showed an improvement upon the low prices of last year, the principal advances being in marten, mink, lynx and white fox. The information so far received fromthe company's trading posts encourages the hope that the quantity of furs to be imported before next year's sales may not fall short of the average. It is satisfactory to know that most of the furs traded by the company continue in fair demand, and should the general improvement in business continue and extend, satisfactory prices may be looked for at he next sales. The land account gives the cash receipts and disbursements of the land department for the year ended March 31st, 1895, and it will be seen that receipts from instalments, interest on sales, rents, etc., amount to £18,479 6s. 9d.; this compares with £28,849 7s. 9d. received in the preceding year. The sales have been-farm lands, 4431 acres for $23,209 (averaging $5.24 per acre); town lots, 126 lots for $37,324, total $60,533, as compared with last yearfarm lands, 7526 acres for $48,225 (averaging $6.40 per acre); town lots, 79 lots for $38,585, total $86,810. The low price of wheat and the general depression affecting all agricultural interests alluded to in the last report, prevailed in even a greater degree during the past year, and together with the decrease of immigration operated most forcibly in reducing the sales of land and the collection of instalments. It is, how ever, satisfactory to be able to state that the collection of interest on unpaid instalments has, in spite of the drawbacks above enumerated, been fairly good, and does not show a large falling off in comparison with the preceding year,

The general trade of the company has also been adversely affected by the great commercial depression which has existed in Canada and the United States, but present advices point to the prospects of a good harvest and to a general revival of trade throughout the country.

It will be noticed that the number of accounts has been reduced from six to three. This simplification has been made possible by the arrangement lately carried out between the company and the officers, which obviates any further necessity for keeping the fur trade accounts separate from the general accounts of the company.

Owing to this alteration the charge of interest hitherto made against the fur trade for capital advanced can no longer be made. The result is that this year's accounts suffer to the extent of £10,026 19s. 4d., this being the amount which would have been credited in the regular course for interest on capital advanced to the fur trade. Having in view the exceptional circumstances of the case, the board have not thought it right that the whole of this sum should be charged against the profit of the year, and they have therefore taken £10,000 from the nsurance and reserve fund, thereby reducing the sum chargeable against profit and loss to £6026 19s. 4d.

The insurance and reserve fund above lluded to has been created by the amalgamation of the fur trade fire insurance fund and the marine insurance fund, and now stands at £60,000.

The Earl of Lichfield, deputy governo:, and Mr. Alderman Vaughan Morgan, are the members of the board retiring on this occasion, and being eligible, offer themelves for re-election. Mr. Thomas A. Welton also offers him self for re-election as auditor.

Sir Richard Cartwright sympathized with British Columbia and said that if Prior had kicked a little sooner he might have received a controllership instead of cabinet minister. The matter dropped. Lavergne moved a resolution protesting against the leasing of a new building for a postoffice in Laurentides, a smali town in Quebec, which was, as he said, done with a view of taking away from the brother of the leader of the opposition the postmastership of that place, which he had held for many years. Ouimet said he did not know that the post master was a brother of Laurier's. Mills made a strong protest against this hidden class of political warfare. Lavergne's motion was lost on division.

MOTION, to a party always signal for its broad views of tolerance and justice, and when the time comes for the Liberal party to deal with the question, I can pledge every member of the party that we will endeavor to solve that problem on lines fair and equitable. Animated by those sentiments, I arraign the policy of the government and beg to move in amendment: "That this house regrets the failure of the government to deal with the Manitoba school question as demanded by the best interests of the country, and is of opinion that the ministerial declar-

As to the charge that this order was mandatory and irritating he said that it simply ask ed the Manitoba government to remedy couched necessarily in a judicial tone and cited what in the opinion of the government was necessary to remedy the grievances complained of. After the answer of the Manitoba legislature was received, the government adopted the view that it was possible to come to a satisfactory arrangement and the local government should be given every opportunity of settling the question before remedial legislation was introduced into this parliament. It was best that this important legislation should not be undertaken before the last limit is given to Manitoba to settle the question within itself. The only objection to this is that something may occur between now and next session to prevent the accomplishment of the government's pledge of remedial legislation. Every policy was modulated by these conditions. No men or government could state what circumstances, untoward or fatal, may occur to prevent the carrying out of that policy, word for word, line for line, letter for letter. In contrast, Mr. Laurier, he charged, had no policy. He admitted that it was not Mr. Laurier's duty to find a policy for the government, but it was his duty to find a policy for his party. Mr. Foster argued at some length to show that M:. Laurier had lacked courage on this question. If it were true that our national life was threatened by this question, why then did Mr. Lauriar not do something? (Opposition laughter). Mr. Foster then criticized Mr. Laurier's motion and demanded to know which was the dangerous course, a six months' delay or a pledge to introduce remedial legislation. He asked his followers to vote against this as a eatch motion.

> Mr. Tarte followed, and first house to recall anything in Mr. Foster's speech beyond calling on the oppositioa for a policy. Mr. Tarte asked if the government, after having passed a remedial law, would they attempt to enforce it against an unwilling province, to the extent, perhaps, of bloodshed. Mr. Tarte denounced what he termed "the hateful mode of coercion." He protested against the interference of the clergy, both Roman Catholic and Protestant. He had the conviction that this government would not heed the question. Mr. Laurier would, but he, like Sir Robt. Peel, was not prepared to prescribe until called in.

Mr. Dalton McCarthy held it to be useless to expect that anything would come out of negotiations with Manitoba, whose answer was clear. From the beginning to the end of this remedial order fhere was not a suggestion of a compromise. The prime minister ridiculed the idea of a royal commission, so that even an investigation did not meet with official approval. He believed the statement of the government committed them to a definite policy, and he would like to catch Mr. Speaker's eye before prorogation, so that he could give a clear chailenge to the policy of the government. He did not care to vote for Mr. Laurier's amendment, and he would certainly not vote against it, so that when the division took place he would withdraw from the chamber, Mr. Dupont, Conservative, followed, speaking in French. He reminded Mr. Foster that while the Conservative party had in the past accomplished great things, it was then led by great men, like Macdonald, Cartier and Tupper. He denied to men like Mr. Foster any share in the past glory of the party. After Girouard, of Jacques Cartier, and Belley had spoken, the decision was taken at 1:30 a.m. The following Conservatives voted against the government: Jeannotte, Lepine, Dugas, Dupont, Turcotte and Belley. The amendment was rejected by 70 yeas to 114 nays, a gov-

The seven o'clock meeting as well as the 10 o'clock Bible reading was conducted by Mrs. parrett. the evangelist. The latter was on "Linen and Woolen ,or Linsey Woolsey's Religion." At 11 o'clock, Rev. T. W. Glover preached a powerful sermon on "Reconciliation with God." At 2 o'clock Mrs. Barrett conducted the children's service, at which about 40 knelt and gave themselves to the Lord. Rev. Lamont preached at 3 o'clock to the largest audience of the day, a number arriving on the three o'clock train and returning at five. At the close of this service a real Methodist handshaking took place, and a "spiritual Chinook," as Mrs. Barrett expressed it, was experienced. The last sound that greeted the ears of the departing friends on the train was, "When the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there." a camp meeting hymn that has been very popular on the grounds, In the evening an interested and thoughtful audience listened with rapt attention to Mrs. Barrett, who preached on "Confessing Christ." Many eyes were moistened as at the close of the sermon she and Mrs. Betts sang, "They Cruci-A meeting of the Victoria Wheelmen's fied Him." The special trains will run Club will be held at the club rooms to- to-day, and it is quite likely a large number will go out from the city to be present at the closing services to-night. The people are unanimous in the desire that another camp meeting shall be held on these grounds next year.

> THE BISMARCK MEMOIRS American Publishers Eager to Buy the

Serial Rights. There is quite a lively scramble going on among the editors and representa tives of the American magazines in Europe as to who will secure the rights The Iron Chancellor has finished the work, it is said by those who are in a position to know-in fact, he has sold the entire manuscript to a Berlin publisher who now has it locked away in his safe. The American serial rights. that is, simply the rights to publish the material in magazine form, are held at $20,000, and this sum has already been offered by two magazines. As the matine and The Century with a advantage in favor of the latter, since Mr. Gilder is in Europe and Mr. Walker is at Irvington. But whoever obtains the material must salfil the unpleasant condition of any purchase, namely, that the memoirs shall not be published until ten years after Bismarck's death, and even at the end of the period the runtter will be handed over to the Emperor and the German government for reading and revision. This means that the German authorities will take out of the manuscript whatever they see fit; probably the very points about Rismarck which would be most interesting. We had arranged that she should take Howard east, so one afternoon I sent the boy to her in Detroit, and she took Howard cast and stopped at Buffalo. I went east with the two girls and finally wound up at Toronte. We had been there a short time when my wife arrived. She knew nothing of the existence of the Pietzel children. Mrs. Pietzel, Dessa and the baby came to Toronto shortly after. Neither Mrs. Pietzel, my wife, or Alice and Nellie Pietzel knew of each other's presence in that city. I had good reawith Minnie Williams and the three children to England, but her delicate health precluded that idea. The man Hatch was in Toronto at the time. I finally decided to send Alice and Nellie Pietzel on to Niagara Falls, where Minnie Williams and Howard were. Everything was gotten in readiness. I had quite a hard time keeping the children's presence hidden from Mrs. Pietzel. I succeeded, however. I escorted them to the railway station, where Hatch had gone by pre-arrangment, the four of us got on the train and I rode probably a mile out of the city with the children. When I was about to get off the train Hatch suggested he accompany the girls a few stations further so there would not be any mistake about their tickets. Nellie and Alice were traveling on half fares and I wanted to be sure that they got along on one whole ticket which the conductor had not taken up when I left the train, so he went with the children and he can tell where they can be found if anybody can. I came back to Toronto about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and four hours later Mrs. Pietzel and the two children had boarded the train for Burlington, as it was thought better that she should rest in some quiet, healthy place. It was at first used, he said, in glass blending experiments and later in experiments in making illuminating gas. Phillips acquaintance with Holmes cost him $1,400 and his wife. Indianapolis, July 22.-Mrs. Holmes, wife of the accused murderer and in surance swindler, left here for Philadelphia yesterday at the instance of the prosecuting attorney of that city. Mr.: Holmes herself would not talk, but her most intimate friends to whom she confided her purposes say she has forsaken her husband. It was also stated by Mrs. Holmes that the assertion of Holmes that he was not in Toronto, but absent with his wife when the Pietzel children disappeared, is not true and that whereever Holmes was at the time he was not with Mrs. Holmes. Moreover, Mrs. Holmes says she was with Holmes in Chicage at the time Miss Williams dis appeared.

This intimate friend of Mrs. Holmes believes she will tell all she knows about her husband and will be a strong witness in prosecuting him.

That whether it be box, tub or pail, should price it seems to me will pay the Manitoba producer handsomely and if care and intelligence is exercised in putting up and turning out the butter it will apt to take the flavor of the wood or bring that price every time. I often have rust from tin pails. This paper is not the question asked me, is there not some danger of injuring the dairy industry by overproduction? I answer, for linest quality, no. The time has yet to come when the markets of the world will be glutted with really prime butter and Two gold quartz claims have been duce enough of really fine butter and the much of an inferior quality. I know of Owl, Plater Prince and Silver Tip that sold its whole winter output last claims are showing up well. The veins winter to a firm in Montreal at 27c. per pound f. o b., at the starting point. That butter was retailed in Montreal at 35c. per pound. It was of the finest quality and so suited the consumers' taste that they were willing to pay that handsome price for it. The difference between prime and good butter is something like from $50 to $75 per ton, and the difference between prime and really poor butter is from $100 to $500 per From these figures you can readily see the great necessity of putting forth every ies, that day's make should be kept at home and sold locally at the best price band of about 150 steers. Mr. E. would be sure to create a bad impression and would depreciate the value of the whole consignment.

I had the opportunity of inspecting without grading and was being offered at 8c. per pound, but could not find a buyer, whereas had it been creamery butter it would have brought 20c. per pound readily. Creamery is the only butter that will find a market in Victoria and Vancouver and all the other British Columbia markets in future and it must be of strictly finest quality only.

I consider the very finest quality of Manitoba creamery competes favorably with any butter that reaches the coast. To retain that market now we have it we must study the taste of the coast consumers and give them what they require in every detail.

I saw some butter that cost 21c. in Victoria, last year's make; that butter is still there and is not worth 3c, per pound. It would have been better had at the Bank of British Columbia, were landed, instead of holding it over; he Bate, J. P., by Miss Frost, whom he 90 per cent. of Manitoba dairy butter is not uniform in quality; 2nd, Manitoba does not produce enough butter at the right time of year to supply the demand for the winter trade.

Victoria alone consumes about 15 000 pounds of butter per month, and in September, October and winter months t takes about 20,000 pounds per month. Why more butter is consumed in winter than in summer is not easy to explain, nevertheless such is the case, the state ments of the dealers and the receipts proving that to my satisfaction. Nanaimo requires about 10,000 pounds per month in summer and about 15,000 pounds per month in winter. Vancouver consumes only 6,000 pounds per month in summer and about 15,000 pounds per month in winter. Here again is a large increase of the demand for the winter months. so Manitoba farmers must be winter producers as well as summer producers, so that we can keep foreign products out of our coast markets. We must not let out American cousins get a foohold we intend to supply the trade.

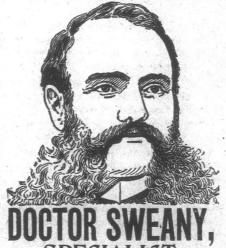

The coast dcalers all fully recognize that the best Manitoba creamery cannot be bettered. Proper supervision is most essential to a uniformity of quality all through.

The cheese market in British Columbia is a limited one. About six carloads per year, will about supply the demand, and above that quantity we must look to England for an outlet for our surplus. We have the advantages over other provinces in the dairy industry, from the fact that we can produce butter and cheese very much cheaper than they. The natural facilities of Manitoba for producing are unlimite l, therefore the cost of production is very low, as compared with other provinces of Canada. The requirements of the British Columbia markets, as I have learned them, demand. This kind of choose are most suitable for retailing, as there is not so much surface to become dried out when it is cut. The twin cheese are as easily made as any other style, and two cheese can be put in one box so the cost of freight and space is not greater than for large cheese; small cheese will find a limited market for awhile and the de-C. #### ROSSLAND. Rossland Miner.

The first session of a civil court of justice ever called in Rossland was held last Tuesday by Judge Spinks. The dining room of the Howard hotel was used as a courtroom. As no human being except a lawyer is tough enough to stand the atmosphere of the court room during its whole session, a letailed report of the proceedings is not obtainable. There were no important points in mining law brought up and not a single decision was given. In each case judgment was either reserved or after proceedings had reached a certain stage the cases were settled out of court. On Monday last Tom Burke was overecme by the effects of foul air while ascending the manway of the War Eagle shaft, and fell down 70 feet into the shuft. The doctor was sent for and le found no bones broken and no symptoms or serious internal injury. In three days Brike was walking around the streets of Rossland. He was probably saved through being unconscious when he fell. The shaft is an incline, which helps to explain this extraordinary escape. The Gem, Uncle Sam and the Tiger have joined the majority of the great group of claims in the south belt and have been sold, it is said, for $125,000. The deal was closed yesterday by I'. Genelle, acting on telegraphic instructicus from A. E. Humphreys. It is said that Finch and Campbell stil! retain their one-quarter interest. These mines were located in April by Cromie and Coffee, who were prospecting for Finch and Campbell and Brig Atkinson respectively. There is a good showing of ore on the Gem, on which the most development work has been done. For the first half of July the shipments have been 1410 tons, valued at $66,615. The Le Roi has put out 771 tons, the War Eagle 615 tons. 'me miners' union in Trail Creek has made a successful start. Over two hundred names of working miners were given in at the meeting for membership. There is more activity in building in Rossland at the present time than since the town started to grow.

A school, a government office and a cherch are three buildings of which Rossland, although the largest, wealthiest and most populous town in Kooten-ay is still deficient. Rossland's growth has outstripped the enterprise of the government, which is not remarkable; it has also outstripped the machinery for providing education for some fifty children, which is disgraceful, and it has cutstripped the religious zeal of the sects, which is a most wonderful thing. After mentioning the two first resolutions, it gives the third in full, of which it says: "With the preamble to the resolution the feeling not only of the government. but of the entire population of the country, is in hearty sympathy. The unanimity of the sentiment which prevailed throughout the conference on this point has been noted with pleasure by the government, and with regret, therefore, they feel compelled to express grave doubts as to whether the fiscal policy which has been adopted by the majority of the conference as a means of securing its objects is really calculated to promote nen employed on the work (including tie it. It was generally recognized at the conference that this policy involved a complete reversal of the fiscal and commercial system which was deliberately adopted by Great Britain half a century ago and which has been maintained and extended ever since. A differential pointed governor of the jail in place of duty is open to all the objections from the customers' point of view which can be urged against a general duty; while it renders necessary the same restrictions of trade it has the additional distion of the Dominion government in re- advantage of dislocating trade by its tendency to divert it from its regular natural channel. These general objections are sufficiently serious and there are others no less serious which flow larding in charge of the constable, and from the existing conditions under which the trade of the empire is distributed. jumped into the river and tried to The dispatch then proceeds to show the disadvantage of the proposed policy, out and Presley was saved which would not only necessitate an inthe present. It is believed creased taxation, but would involve a se rious net loss to trade, the burden of which would fall with the greatest severity upon those parts of the empire having the largest proportion of foreign committed for trial yesterday on the trade, and the loss to those parts would far outweigh the gain to the other parts. and was brought to this city and lodged | The imposition of duties upon articles in the provincial jail. One-fourth of Great Britain's export trade, the minister urges, consists feared Foster would betray him and of the re-export of foreign and colonial produce, and any duty upon this would mean the loss of this trade and the position of Great Britain as the great market of the world, already threatened, would be destroyed. These changes, the dispatch continues, "could not fail the place been burned he would have to seriously injure our important carrying trade, and react injuriously upon every industry of the other hand, the gain to the colonies, even surate with the loss to the mother counwould be permanent, for, apart from the general loss of purchasing power due to the fall of wages and of profits resulting from the imposition of duties, it is obvious that the reduction of our imports from foreign countries would be followed by a reduction of our exports to them, no inconsiderable part of which is produce imported in a crude state and more or less manufactured here. The demand. therefore, for colonial produce, even with preferential advantages, would not be likely to increase, and the prices obtained therefor would be ultimately en-

If the differentiation were confined to some specific articles the difficulties of arriving at an equitable arrangement would be in no wise diminished. No practical standard is suggested by which the value of the concessions made on each side could be tried or adjusted. A satisfactory agreement would be almost impossible. Regarding the opinion expressed by the conference that the colonial trade of Great Britain is increasing so much faster than the foreign trade that their proportions would be early reversed and that the arguments now urged against | the policy of the resolution would be no longer regarded as valid, Lord Ripon points out that the proportion of the colonial to the foreign trade is very nearly even if the proportions were reversed the sults of the preferential policy would be mitigated only slightly, although it might fall with less severity upon this country and with greater severity upon with the second part of the resolution urging the colonies to take steps to place each other's products on a more favored customs basis than is accorded to those of foreign countries, the dispatch says it would be difficult for one colony to give a preference in trade with another solely suspicious strangers. at the expense of the foreigners without diverting trade from the mother country or from sister colonies which are not parties to the arrangement. Serious injury might thus be inflicted upon the commerce of the reighboring colonies, and an unfriendly feeling generally, which might provoke retaliation. In any case it would estrange the colonies concerned in a manner not conducive to the great aim which the conference had in view.

The Yukon a Good Gold Country, But and 2nd of This Year. Seattle, July 19 .- The first authentic Under the auspices of the Fruit Growword from the placer camps on the upper 'ers' and Dairymen's Association and the Yukon was brought to the city yester. day by the steamship Excelsior from St. tion will be held at Agassiz on Thursday Michael's. There the steamer P. W. Weare, from Fort Cudahy, 1,600 miles mencing at 4 o'clock p.m. It is expected up the river, had arrived a week before with several passengers from the south Among those who came down the river this spring is Dr. E. O. Crewe, of San Francisco, who has been in the mines about a year and a half. He wintered last year at St. Michael's, and went up the river to Sixty Mile camp this spring. As an evidence that there is gold in the country Dr. Crewe has several large nuggets for exhibition, the largest of which is worth $52. Notwithstanding this, Dr. Crewe says the Youkon is a good country to stay away from now. It is simply over-run with men. Wages are $10 a day, as they have been in the past, but there are fifteen men for every such job. The rush this summer has been unprecedented. The large body of miners-400 to 500 who went in by way of Juneau and Chilkat pass, arrived at the camps before the steamer got up the river, and all left at once for the various placers. When the steamer arrived all had gone. A new placer camp named Glacier creek was struck last fall, and prospects well. The prospects for all the camps are good, though it was too early to get at the actual figures. If the summer's prospecting turns out well Dr. Crewo thinks that from 1,000 to 1,500 men will winter on the river this year, but if they do not strike it the majority will try to get out of the country. There are already a lot of men getting out. Unless they get money they will have to get out point to Agassiz on payment of the or starve. Not another dollar of credit can be got in the Yukon country. Glacier creek is even a better camp than Miller creek, which had been the banner strike up to last year. Glacier creek is a branch of 60-Mile creek and the camp of that name is but four or five miles from Miller creek camp. To reach both camps from Fort Cudahy there is a tow up 40-Mile creek by canoe and a portage of several miles across country. The Amities beat the Vancouvers at Caledonia Park yesterday afternoon by and again the Vancouver players went completely to pieces and could not stop and Institutes' 39. too, forgot how to play at times and managed to pile up nine errors, some of which were very costly. However, there was some good free hitting and streaks of brilliant playing here and there on both sides. The much-talked-of Donovan was wild and erratic and only lasted six innings. He was hit very hard. Turner, who took his place, was batted out of the box, and Myers came in from second and finished the game. For Victoria Schultz pitched a masterly game for five innings. He struck out nine men and kept the runs down. In the sixth, however, he was hit, and that combined with fielding and throwing erors gave Vancouver six runs. Lenfesty was substituted and was wild and unsteady. Nine runs were made off him in the last two innings.

Features of the game were the sky balls batted before the contest by Geo. Russell and the playing of Duck. The latter got a triple and two doubles at bat and shut two men out at the plate from deep left. It was a great day for, Duck. Donovan fielded his position well. and Catcher Craig, of the Vancouvers, is an earnest, hard-working player. Franklin caught and hit well, and Jackson got in a couple of his wonderful throws across the diamond. A very unfortunate accident occurred in the sixth, when Widdowson was struck on the head by a ball thrown from the field by George Gowen. It struck him with terrific force, knocking him senseless. He was carried from the field after being restored, and remained all night in charge of Bob Foster. The Prisoner Will Most Likely be Extradited and Tried in Toronto.

Toronto, July 24.—The adjourned inquest on the body of Alice Pietzel was concluded to-night. But little evidence was submitted, and there was nothing of taken to Canada to answer there for the a new or startling character. The authorities were to-day put into possession of a number of letters and documents which show that early in December last the authorities of Philadelphia were cognizant of the fact that Holmes had made away with the three Pietzel children.

Philadelphia, July 25.-H. H. Holmes was visited in his cell to-day by his counsel, Wm. A. Shoemaker. For two hours or more Holmes spoke freely of the bones and other fragments of human anatomy found in his "castle" in Chicago. After the interview Mr. Shoemaker told the Associated Press reporter the substance of his client's statements. Mr. Shoemaker said: "Holmes declared that the tuft of human hair found in the chimney could not have belonged to Minnie Williams, for the reason that the chimney was a new one put in after the girl's disappearance. As to the bones, he said they were not those of Gertrude Connor, Minnie Williams or any of the other persons whom he was charged with having murdered. "The police simply do not know what they are talking about," Holmes continued, "when they say I murdered so many persons and buried their bodies indiscriminately in every nook and corner I could find throughout the country. Quite while ago I made a statement to the Philadelphia authorities that they were jable to find human bones in many different places all over the continent. I then frankly admitted that I had been engaged in servance swind a which did not pan out. One principles which a $40,000 policy, and had to be abandoned while in an embryonic state because of suspicions. The idea was to have the bodies of a woman and a boy found in their home and afterwards the corpse of a man with a bullet in his head, to make it appear a case of murder and suicide. I got the bodies from a graveyard to represent the wife and son, but the alleged husband's body had not yet been secured, when the insurance agents learned of the scheme and the bodies had to be disposed of the best way I could. I had them embalmed and put in trunks, which were sent to a cold storage warehouse. Before my preparations could be completed, however, the manager of the storage house notified me to take the trunks away or he would sell the contents. I did so and the bodies were buried in separate places. Where they are the police must find Holmes ridiculed the theory that the subterranean tank found in the Chicago establishment had been used for the secretion of victims' corpses, and said that it had served as nothing more harmful than a vat for illuminating oil used on the premises. The dumb waiter was accounted for by the fact that during the World's Fair there had been a restaurant on one of the upper floors of this building. In the transfers of property between him and Minnie Williams. nes added, in which he had secured the Fort Worth property, a note in the shape of a mortgage was given by Minnie Williams and endorsed "Horace Williams," who was supposed to be her brother. Holmes is a self-confessed conspirator and is only waiting sentence, so it remains practi-cally for Mr. Graham to say whether he shall be taken across the border or remain in this city, where he has long been suspected of killing Pietzel. The district attorney is much pleased with the turn affairs have taken at Toronto. Now it is almost certain Holmes will be bloody deeds which it is confidently belodged some time ago. But the opinion here is that he will be sent to Canada first, where a conviction seems more certain than in Chicago or Philadelphia because of the direct nature of the evidence. #### Highly Satisfactory Condition of Affairs in the Northwest.

Ottawa, July 25.-The following report has been furnished the department here by Professor McEachren, who has just returned from the Northwest:

"You will be pleased to hear that, following on the mildest winter we have ever experienced since ranching, the cattle business in Alberta is in a most flourishing condition. Perhaps next to the mild winter as a factor in producing the large crop which all the ranchers have this year Walrond having branded 2000, the Octorane 1500, the Oxley 1506, and others proportionately large is the killing of 1600 wolves during the past fourteen months, for which the Northwest territorial government has paid $8000. Never was government money spent to better advantage, as had this not been done the wolves would have driven the stock raisers out of the business and the country within a few amounting to close on 10,000 head. During June and July rain the abundance and grass and water are plentiful. Horse breeders are much more hopeful: large numbers of horses have been shipped east for exportation to Belgium and France as well as England, and better prices are being paid. The Walrond ranch company will ship two car loads of nearly pure bred Clyde and Shire geldings to Montreal in a few weeks. The sheep industry is progressing very satisfactorily. The entire wool crop has been sold to Toronto firms for satisfactory prices. Sheep throughout the Territories are in excellent health and condition. The scab is now almost completely exterminated. The crops in Manitoba are most promising. But of simply gained six months' delay. ccurse the Colonist's own readers are pretty well aware by this time that able injury to the Dominion by making, when it resorts to this characteristic game it tacitly confesses that no other line of argument is open to it. Other vative party into believing that the orpapers having as little conscience and der-in-council is the just and reasonable sense of honor might be determed from measure of remedial legislation, and has use of the trick for fear of detection and exposure, but our neighbor has too ing else than to make political capital in thick a cuticle, apparently, for any such this province for its party and in order deterrent. At all events it seems to think the possible advantage worth the right. Taction of a similar character are risk. Tactics of a similar character are of this province and of the Orangemen pursued by the Colonist in respect of of Ontario and the Dominion by its Mr. Laurier himself. It quotes the false and impossible policy. Mr. Clarke opinions of "Tom, Dick and Harry" to the effect that Mr. Laurier said nothing convinced that the government will not in his speech to indicate his position, yet carry out its policy; Mr. Angers supports it carefully refrains from reproducing its policy, but leaves the government beof the report of his speech. The extract we gave yesterday was evidently too much for its nerves, since it defeated were it put to a vote in a cauimmediately took up its favorite weapon of misrepresentation. Here is ano her extract to which our neighbor will pro-

"He recalled the fact that the request of Manitoba for delay at the outset to prepare their case was peremptorily refused, so great was the government in haste to follow out their policy. But after months and months, the government now again proposed to ask Manitoba for further negotiation. It might be said that conciliation was a grand pelicy. Yes, it would have been a grand policy at the beginning, but the government began with coercion. Even at the end, conciliation would be welcome, but the dissenting colleagues and followers of the government do not believe in the good faith of the government; which, instead of adopting moderate language, and firm action, were bullying in language, and weak in action. Mr. Laurier charged the government with never having dealt honestly with the question They were now reaping the result of the long game, the government had played to reconcile the orange and green.

THE ORGAN'S POSITION.

"If we had made a mistake and were disposed to apologize we would be deferred by the incivility and false accusations of oru contemporary."

This is the Colonist's euphemistic way of referring to its dirty trick of yesterday and the rebuke we felt called upon to administer therefor. Our worthy neighbor can hardly crawl out of the trouble in that fashion, for the fact that it committed no "mistake," but was guilty of deliberate misrepresentation, is rather too apparent. The reference of the Times to the speech of Mr. Laurier was so distinct and plain that no man could be dense enough to suppose we were speaking of his motion. The Colonist was simply pursuing its favorite line of tactics when it sought to twist the Times' words from their plain meaning and then with characteristic impudence endeavored to create the impression that we had "very prudently forgotten to quote the motion." There was no "mistake" involved: it was a case of wilful "bearing of false witness." And as we have already pointed out, the Colonist pursues the same nasty method in respect of Mr. Laurier. It originates and reproduces all sorts of false statements in regard to his speech and his position, but it has not the moral courage to give a report of his speech, or any part of it, and let that define his position. To say that line of tactics is cowardly and sneaking is to use milder terms than the act deserves. Then with somewhat silly persistence our neighbor calls upon us to say whether "non-interference is the policy of the Liberal party." It would be a rare exhibition of guilty none meaner and pettier than this presumption on our part, as the Colonist | 21 pears. well knows, to fix a policy for the Liberal party. Non-interference is our own policy, but we cannot be impertinent enough to endeavor to impose that or any other policy on the Liberals as a body. The government's policy would be cus of its own supporters in parliament without an opponent present, or if it were referred to the people in a general election. It is probable that a bill embodying the order-in-council would be voted down inside of the very cabinet itself. It must, therefore, be plain to everyone that the government has only a nominal policy embodied in an orderin-council which was intended merely as an election dodge and never intended to be carried out. What is demanded in the present crisis is that the government itself agree upon a real policy that it is prepared to carry out. It should rescind the order-in-council which stands in the way of any other policy. Mr. Laurier's policy would then be accepted by all, and would probably be practicable and successful."

As Mr. Laurier is leader of the Liberals it is natural for the Hamilton Spectator to abuse and find fault with him. Nothing he can do would be likely to find favor in the Spectator's eyes. But it is a different matter when that paper turns upon and rends the leaders of its own party and predicts their defeat because of the course they have chosen. That is a circumstance significant enough to attract attention.

The "blundering" in connection with the electric light system commenced when an outragous proportion of the funds available was devoted to the site, leaving too little for plant and construction. There was a further mistake made when, in order to remedy the shortage, too much cheapening of the work was attempted. It would have been better to have asked for more money and endeavor to secure efficiency throughout, though it must be supposed that this proposal would have met with severe opposition. But neither device would have been necessary if the initial blunder of the site had not been committed; it was the first step that cost.

The brother of the Hon. W. Laurier Lin, where the Liberal leader was born. Though the whole revenue of the postoffice is only $787 a year, out of which the postmaster gets a small percentage, the Conservative managers seem to have thought it worth while to scheme to oust Mr. Laurier from this valuable post and put some good party friend in his place. They therefore devised a plan whereby $300 a year was to be paid for a building which has hitherto rented for not more than $60 a year. The removal of the postoffice from Mr. Laurier's store would of course mean his removal as postmaster and giving the great prize to some good Conservative. #### HOLMES' SLAUGHTER HOUSE Constructed for the Purpose of Deliberate Murder-More Ghastly Finds.

More Disappearances in Which He is Implicated-Arrested for Murder.

Chicago, July 23.-H. H. Holmes was charged with murder in the city of Chicago to-day, a warrant for his arrest on that charge being sworn out by A. Miner, nephew of Julia L. Connor. of Muscatine, Iowa. Holmes will be charged with having murdered Mrs. Connor some rant will be placed in the hands of Inspector Fitzpatrick by Mr. Miner and a policy for $10,000 in the company. will be acted upon in this state in case Holmes should be freed from the charges pending against him in Philadelphia. That Mrs. J. L. Connor is dead is certain. Holmes yesterday admitted the woman was no more, but as usual tried most equally certain is it that Mrs. land of the living. Holmes says he does not know what has become of her. The death is not known to the authorities in yesterday to a man, who with District Attorney Graham, was closeted with him in Moyamensing penitentiary. This is his statement: "Mrs. Connor got into trouble and a Chicago doctor performed an operation. The job was a bungling one and the woman died." This is the first light shed on the case since Mrs.

Connor disappeared in 1893. Toronto, July 23 .- Detective Cuday is quietly working up details in the evidence in the Pietzel case, and has gathered a number of minor facts which, when put together, will enable the au thorities to account for the whole move ments of the prisoner Holmes while in Toronto. The prisoner's friends are not idle, and it is certain that a vigorous defence will be made should the trial take place here, unless in the meantime Holmes should make a confession, which is not at all unlikely. Should Holmes not be indicted for murder at an early date in Philadelphia the crown will apply for extradition and endeavor to have him brought to Toronto in time to stand trial at the autumn assizes. Philadelphia, Pa., July 23.-At his own request H. H. Holmes, insurance swinder and alleged murderer, was brought into the office of District Attorney Graham and allowed to make a statement. It consisted substantially of a repetition of the Hatch story and, despite rigid cross questions, he persisted in his previous statements.

Chicago, July 23.-Mrs. B. F. Pietze! is back in Chicago after her trip to Toronto for the identification of the bodies of her tchildren whe is now ready to tell all that she knows regarding the operations of Holmes as an insurance swindler. She made important statements regarding the swindles and the measures to carry them out, but says that she was kept in ignorance of any mur-

Bones and articles of clothing were turned up in the basement of Holmes' house to-day. Some of them were from the butcher's shop but others of the bones resembled those of the human foot, in a chest holding several belongings to Holmes upon which were dark stains resembling blood. In a box were found a linen shirt and other articles of underwear. The shirts had the initials C. B. D. worked in red letters. The box was found under the floor and was covered with a layer of fire brick. In the cellar near 40 bones were found and a woman's shoe turned up with evidence of fire on the bottom of the sole. In laying the foundations of the house, where the articles were found, no reason for their burial can be assigned except to hide murder. Close by is the bottom of the shaft, which made a quick connection between the top of the house and the basement, while just over the spot is the blind stairway which leads into the third floor by a trap door placed under a stationary bath tub.

A meeting of the detectives engaged in the examination of the house was held to-night and they announced that in their opinion the house had been constructed for the purpose of deliberate slaughter. More care than ever will now be exe. cised in searching the premises.

C. E. RACE. ON THE ENGLISH TURF.

Messrs. Croker and Dwyer Lose Both Money and Horses.

London, July 24.—Truth, commenting upon the visit of Messrs. Croker and Dwyer to England, says that the only interesting feature of the recent Newmarket meeting was the vagaries of the American horse owners. Continuing, Truth says: "Anything more muddy minded and leather-headed is inconceivable. The English expedition must have proved a veritable Moscow, for they not only did not win in the betting, but they lost on their best horses and proved such benefactors to the Newmarket fund that the Jockey Club ought to present them with a piece of plate when they return to the United States. But Banquet was recklessly plunged on for many thousands in the selling race, and the Americans lost both money and horse, which Archer got for about one-sixth of its real value, as we will discover before the season is over. Disconcerted, but not defeated, they ran Harry Reed, which cost them 1323 guineas to buy in. This is a system of racing which would break any bank, and it is a good thing that such a hugger-mugger way of going on over and over again proved ruinous to its votaries, for its sole object was gamb. ling on the most huckstering style. This did not end it, for the next day they entered Don Alonzo and backed him with such grievous results that, beaten at that, Captain Machell claimed and obtained a very cheap horse."

of nations can close the high seas to the pected. rosecution of a merely commercial pursuit when no national emergency justi-

ready been done, so that the authorities could not now consistently agree to close the Pacific ocean. In the interest of those Japanese who invested capital in sealing vessels, the government should do all in its power to protect the seals in their rookeries so that they may remain undisturbed during the breeding time, and permit pelagic sealing only. The rookeries in the possession of Japan have almost been destroyed through the exterminating raids made upon them by foreign hunters in years gone by, but not entirely so, in fact if properly protected, in a very few years the recuperative power of these animals to restock the once swarming rookeries belonging to Japan would become apparent, and a valuable article of commerce be preserved for the benefit of those Japanese engaged in the pursuit of the fur seal, for there is no reason why, with a little experience, the schooners under the Rising Sun flag should not do as well as the best of the British and American craft. The course the government of Japan has thought proper to adopt in the matter has been in the interest of its people, and has not been influenced by the action of other countries.

Thomas Storey wrote offering to furnish the pipe necessary to connect his on Pandora street with the sewer if the city would dig the trenches. Ald. Cameron moved that Mr. Storey be told that the law required him to connect with the sewer himself. Ald. Macmillan said that he had already informed Mr. Storey of the fact. Mr. Storey understood that in the former work connections were made by the city free of charge and did not know the property owners would have to pay for

Ald. Bragg said he did not wonder people misunderstood matters. One part of the loan was used on connections and now the committee had changed the method.

Ald. Macmillan said that the money used by the commissioners on connections was improperly spent. The money was borrowed for sewerage construction and not to be loaned out. In not following the plan used at the time the Mc-Bean contract was completed the commission last year had departed from a good precedent.

Ald. Cameron's motion was seconded by Ald. Macmillan and carried The William Hamilton Manufacturing Co. wrote saving the test of the plant would have to be delayed for several days. Received and filed. The Victoria-Phoenix Brewing Co. wrote again asking for cheaper water rates. Referred to the water commissioner.

Ald. Bragg presented the following report signed by himself as chairman of the electric light committee:

Gentlemen:-As chairman of the electric light committee I feel that I owe a duty to myself and the citizens to put myself on record in pointing out what I consider very serious defects in our new plant, which defects the present electric light committee have been powerless to remedy for the reason that the work was so far advancd when we took office as in certain ways to be practically completed. The first thing I wish to point out is the fact that the engine and dynamo room is totally unsuitable: besides being too small the floor is of light wood with no proper foundation for the being directly over the condenser pit, thus causing that excessive vibration when the engine is running full speed which has already resulted in one of the dynamos being damaged on the night of the full speed trial. By the present arrangement the shaft turns the wrong way round for the proper conveyance of the engine power by the dynamo belts, which will cause slips and consequently flickering of the lights. The remedy for this state of affairs is to extend the engine room another thirty feet along the water front and placing the dynamos at the same distance on the other side of the shaft as they the Rock Bay bridge and also that the are now. This can be done at a cost of $2,400, and as the rock blasted out would be utilized to fill up in front, the Received and filed. wharf extension along that distance could be easily and cheaply made. Besides this no more rock need be removed than would be necessary to enable a smooth concrete floor to be spread, conpossibility of any of that excessive would fail. vibration which is at present so detrimental to the dynamos. The space at present taken up by the dynamos and The alderman also brought up the Beabelting can be used for storage, testing and repair of lamps and dynamos, and the engineer and dynamo tender would be able to get about the shafting and present arrangement). It is to be regretted that after the expenditure of such a sum of money to improve our lighting department that it is so far from what it ought to be and what the ratepayers had a right to expect. But it is a fact that has to be faced and I should be wanting in my duty to the ratepayers and council if I were not to point out these defects at this time so that they may be publicly known and properly discussed. Another class of defects and which will gradually have to be remedied is the replacing of the present defective lamp arms of the "frame" pattern, which are gradually collapsing daring each gale of wind, by others of a more substantial character. The lamps that were contracted for by the council of 1894 also are of a cheap kind, rough-type, that will not burn through a long winter night. These will give constant trouble and be a source of endless complaint from the inhabitants of the district in which they are placed; although they may be carefully looked after they be liable to stick and leave the streets in darkness when least expected. These will, I am sure, have to be replaced by others of a more reliable pat-The Aldermen Have But Little tern in the near future. Grand Master Budlong, of the A. O. J. W., accompanied by Grand Recorder McIlmoyl, G. F., J. E. Church and P. G. M. Captain Warren, paid an official vsit to Western Star lodge, Victoria West. The grand officers were given a reception with which they were highly pleased. Grand Master Workman Budlong gave the members some sound advice, pointing out that although insurance was an important factor in the A. O. U. W., the most important was the fraternal feature, and everything should be done to encourage this. The lodges should pay fraternal visits and Work-become better acquainted.

This evening the grand master workman will visit Hope lodge, Degree of Honor, tomorrow evening Victoria lodge No. 1, and on Thursday evening the various city lodges will join in giving bim a reception. On Friday evening he will visit Vancouver and Sullivan lodges of Victoria, which hold a joint meeting. He has already visited the mainland lodges and will early in August visit the Nanaimo lodges. In conversation with a Times represen-

PRISON tative to-day, Grand Master Budlong said the order was progressing very satisfactory to British Columbia. Victoria is the banner city, having nearly haif the membership in the jurisdiction. The new lodges formed in New Westminster district and other places last year are doing splendidly, with one exception. The membership of the one excepted has fallen off, on account of the damage done to farms by the floods, the sufferers being unable to devote either the time or funds to the order. He hoped, however, now that the trouble was pass

The Second Discussion on the Manitoba School Question in the House.

Several Conservative Members Opposed to the Government's Programme.

Ottawa, July 16.-Mr. McCarthy on the motion to go into supply rose to make his motion on the Manitoba school question. Since the refusal of the govenment to veto the act, every step they had taken since he described as an unwise one. An effort had been made to make the public believe that the remedial order had been passed by the government, acting in a judicial capacity, but this was disposed of by Premier Bowell's admission when hearing the appeal, that the government accepted the full responsibility. An effort had also been made in the Haldimand election to induce the electors to believe that Her Majesty the Queen had made an order and that the governor-general had simply passed it over to Manitoba. Mr. M: Carthy dwelt on the haste shown by the government in hearing the appeal and making the remedial order. Manitoba was given ten days to appear. The reason given for refusing the adjournment Manitoba asked for in order to present her case properly was that a decision was necessary before the Manitoba legislature prorogued. Now the argument was that a delay should take place. (Hear, hear). Mr. McCarthy stated the three views put forward by the government in different places and on different occasions. That in making the remedial order the government was at first simply passing on the order of Her Majesty, the second was simply opening the door of parliament so that the aggrieved minority might get in, and third, that the merits of the case were considered. He did not care which of these views the government adopted, but he would like them to tie themselves down to one. (Laughter). Mr. McCarthy proceeded to discuss the question whether in the negotiations for the entrance of Manitoba and in the bill of rights drawn up and brought to Ottawa in 1869 or 1870, there was any condition of separate schools. Mr. McCarthy spent some time in proving that the last decision of the judicial committee of the Imperial privy council was not a mandate to the Canadian government. He quoted both the Lord Chancellor and sumed the debate on Mr. McCarthy's Hon. Edward Blake in the argument to amendment to supply, declaring against show that after the appeal of the min- remedial legislation on the lines of the the government would be political and they might grant the appeal in whole, they might grant the appeal in whole, they might grant the appeal in whole, it at all that was the law and to call in the members to herents, all the foreign diplomats have a called for the procession resumed that we must be guided by their utter-ances, when they have not the force of ances, could not be bound by the opinion of in 1877 as saying in Manitoba that the any court. Mr. McCarthy went on to charge on into the fire? the authority of Mr. Sifton, the head of the department of education in Manitoba, that public money was given to seaarate schools which were kept open only garded Mr. McCarthy as his political money went to the support of the Roman Catholic church. This assertion created a stir and the following members either rose or made an interjection: Messrs. Bergeron, Lariviere, Tisdale and Mantague. The accuracy of the assertion was questioned and Mr. McCarthy retorted that if the request of the Manitoba government for a thorough investigation was granted it could be proved. How was it, he asked, separate schools could be dispensed with in British Columbia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, and yet be required in Manitoba, where the Roman Catholic proportion of the province was but 13 per

He defended the remedial order as necessarily peremptory. The main thing aimed at was to its meaning plain. Legislation make should follow, but there was some hope held out in Manitoba's answer that renewed negotiations might yet result in settlement. He described himself as an ardent advocate of remedial legislation. When the time came they would act a time. They wished to sound Manitoba in a friendly spirit. He proceeded to say that he now re one or two days in the week, and the enemy, because Mr. McCarthy had placed a candidate in the field against him. Notwithstanding this, he desired to say that Sir Hibbert Tupper's imputation against Mr. McCarthy, that he was influenced by the fact that he acted as legal counsel for Manitoba and disqualified from discussing this matter in the house, was unfounded. Turning to the question at issue, Mr. McNeill expressed himself as desirous of seeing secular teaching interfused with religious instruction, and he believed that the act of 1890 dealt harshly with the minority, but at the same time he would not admit that there should be one rule for Quebec, as in the Jesuits estates appeal, and another for Manitoba. He held that it was nonsense to put the appellate clause in the Manitoba act It had no meaning. It was a mechanical copy of the B. N. A. act, where it had some meaning. In the B. N. A. act it required the province of Quebec to pass legislation, after confederation, placing the Protestants of Quebec in as good a position in regard to education as the Catholics of Ontario were in. In the Manitoba act it was nonsense. Mr. Weldon dealt at some length with the question. Was there a treaty with the settlers in Manitoba? and after examining the internal evidence came to the conclusion that there was no reference to separate schools in the third and act in 1870 there was not a single reference to separate schools. #### STAMBULOFF'S FUNERAL

Scenes of Disorder and Panic Along the Route-Hostile Demonstrations.

The Body Lowered in Silence-No. Oration Beyond the Hooting of Enemies.

Sofia, July 22.—The funeral of ex-Premier Stambuloff on Saturday was prolific of scenes in the streets. The police were under orders to secure tranquinty along the route. The friends of M. Stambuloff and members of their household assembled at the murdered man's house. About 3 o'clock the cortege started for the cathedral. Representatives of the foreign powers except Belgium followed the funeral train. The attendance was small, owing to the notice placarded last evening, detailing the accusations leveled against the deceased and urging the people not to take part in the obsequies.

Three hundred paces from the house the spot was reached where Stambuloff fell by the daggers of the assassins. Here M. Petroff, who was with the deceased when he was attacked and who was himself wounded, made a speech, His head and arm were wrapped with bandages. In an impassioned harangue he charged the enemies of Bulgaria with murdering a man to whom the country owed her independence and the prince his throne.

He was speaking when a loud cry was raised: "Run for your lives." A terrible panic ensued. The crowd made a rush to escape. Men and women were trampled upon, and children carrying wreaths threw down the flowers and fled screaming. A detachment of gendarmes rode up with drawn swords. Their ap-After Col. #### B. C. REPRESENTATION.

The Necessity for a Cabinet Minister From This Province Again Discussed:

Ottawa, July 15 .- In the senate to-day Hon. Mr. McInnes (B. C.) rose to call attention to the vacancy in the cabinet, and to inquire of the premier if it is the intention to fill up the vacancy by appointing a representative from British Columbia? He said:-It is less than a month ago since we had the subject of representation of British Columbia in the cabinet discussed in this chamber, and it will be remembered that the first minister, in reply to my hon. colleague and myself, gave as his reason for having no such representative in the government, that there was no vacancy in the cabiner and no vacancy could be created unless one of his colleagues was turned out. Doubtless when he made that reply he had no idea that it would be only a very few days until, owing to the policy of drift and shilly-shallying that he has pursued, no less than three vacancies occurred in his cabinet. It is true that two of the seceding members of his cabinet have returned to the fold, but one of the of another session and remedial legislation which even the first minister himself, I believe, must know will result in utter failure and when he must know that those promises and pledges cannot be fulfilled. -The tea ship Mau Kink was given splendid dispatch at Tacoma. When she arrived the captain expressed a desire to discharge her himself, and said that he would take six weeks to unload the 3,300 tons of tea she held. The work, however, went to the local stevedores, and in 24 hours the entire cargo was in the sheds and 20 hours later was on its way east to New York in special trains. The captain has not yet recovered from his surprise.

-Albert Simms was charged in the provincial court this afternoon with stealing a harness belonging to W. Demers, of the Metchosin road. It was Miss Martin and Mrs. Price. explained that Demers requested Simus to take his horse and buggy to the blacksmith shop at Parson's bridge. Simms agreed to do so, and after leaving the buggy at the shop rode the horse to the Gorge, where he fell off and the horse ran away, he having been drink-Hon. Sir Mackenzie Bowell-There are ing. Winter, senior, agreed to carry out the decree of the court to the best of his ability. Beyond that the court directed that

THE MARKETS.

Cutting of Market Prices Leads to Activity in Certain Lines.

Green fruits are having their sway in retail markets at present. Receipts have been very large both from California and the Sound, but sales have been very good. Prices range about as last week. Potatoes Prices range about as last week. Potatoes are coming in well and have declined a quarter of a cent. The receipts of fresh fruits and vegetables from points on the island and in the province have been very large, and it is gratifying to see dealers buying at home.

There is no change in the situation as to eggs, butter and flour. Prices are the seme. some.
Trade is generally very good, and in certain lines an improvement is noted.
