A GOOD INVESTMENT.
There is no good reason why the city should pay $30 per lamp per year more for lighting the West End than the North End. Neither is there any good reason why it should pay $35 per year for each arc lamp which illuminates the East Side when the same thing only costs $25 in the North End.
If the city owned the Carleton station it should be able with proper management to make light there as cheaply as it does in the North End.
If it can do so it will save enough in a very short time to pay for the original cost of the plant and will have obtained for nothing the privileges granted under the act of 1891 (exclusive rights in Carleton and competitive rights in Carleton and east St. John) which, in the not far future will be of immense value. Having proved in the North and West End the benefits of public ownership of utilities upon which the majority of the people are dependent, it will only be another step to enter into the same business in the main city where, by such a move, the citizens would not only be saved much money but might reasonably hope for better light.
For its direct present benefit and for its possibilities for greater benefit in the future the proposition to make the Carleton electric light and power plant city property will recommend itself to every intelligent citizen of St. John.
The aldermen, who, in the interests of private capital, may try and balk the scheme will run a great risk.

WHAT SETTLED THE STRIKE.
Whether or not the government was justified in sending troops to Sydney during the strike can only be determined by those fully acquainted with the conditions. Certainly there had not been any such acts of open violence as would warrant what is generally looked upon as a last resort, and those who have no more knowledge of the conditions than was furnished by the newspaper correspondents there are not in a position to judge of the need of the presence of soldiers as a precautionary measure.

Whether the action was right or wrong it has aroused intense and deep resentment among the members of the P. W. A. In view of the possibility of an early election the Liberal press of Nova Scotia is making frantic efforts to ally the resentment. Ignoring the fact that the settlement of the trouble was wholly against the strikers they are taking advantage of the coincidence of the visit of the deputy minister of labor with that settlement to claim for the government the credit of what the steady support. Record of the fact, style "an amicable understanding between the company and the men." With reference to this claim the Gloucester Gazette, a paper independent of any political party, says:
"The ending of the strike was not due to the good offices of Deputy Minister King, but to the P. W. A.'s lack of money to successfully carry on the struggle. If the P. W. A. had had a proper defence fund at the start they would have been able with the levies which came afterwards to continue the fight for many months and would have been almost certain of victory.
But there was no defence fund. The levies took some time to get in operation, and every time a levy was not promptly met, it meant a weakening among the strikers. This is the reason the men lost. This is the reason the strike is ended, this and not the good offices of Deputy Minister King, who, whatever his abilities as a strike settler, had no opportunity to use them.
Sydney for the strike was practically over before he arrived."

Britain doesn't waste much time in diplomatic niceties when dealing with Russia. A recent cartoon aptly describes the present situation. It represents Russia on the banks of the Red Sea fishing for ships. He has already landed two flying the British flag.
Over on the island of Britain is John Bull, red in the face, dancing with rage, shaking a big club at Russia and yelling: "Hi there! Let go my bloomin' ships you blasted thief or I'll knock yer bloody head off." It is to be noticed that Russia let go.

It's not much fun being a government. Here the local rulers had to planned out how they were going to squeeze enough out of the lumbermen to pay the attorney general's London expenses and his bill, and now those money making machines, with hearts as hard as the toughest rock maple log in all their drives, kick just on the eye of an important bye-election. It's enough to drive the aggregation to the asylum — on a trip of inspection at $25 each per trip.

The lumbermen certainly make out a strong case against the increased stampage and mileage rates. But the government has the same excuse for raising the rates as the hotel keeper out west who charged a traveller $2.50 for a sandwich — they need the money.

LUMBERMEN'S PROTEST.

Indignant at the Government's Increase of Rates During a Bad Year.

A meeting of the lumbermen and limit holders of the province of New Brunswick was held in this city yesterday afternoon. The attendance was large, including representatives from each of the counties of the province, and many prominent lumbermen from Bangor and other places.
Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:
Henry Hilyard, president.
Allan Ritchie, vice-president.
R. J. Lawlor, secretary.
The executive committee will consist of representatives from each of the fifteen counties in the province, the president and vice-president.
The association resent the treatment which they have received at the hands of the provincial government, and its action in regard to the lumber industries of this province was condemned yesterday by a unanimous vote.
Some time ago the government raised the stampage from $1 to $1.25 per thousand superficial feet on all kinds of lumber, while previously it only affected spruce.
In regard to mileage, the rates were raised from $4 per mile to $8 per mile.
This the lumbermen say means that the government will take about $40,000 out of them this year for mileage alone, while their stumpage increase will amount to about $43,000.
The lumbermen contend that the lumber market is flat and that this increase in the government's rates practically hurled the statements of the committee back into their faces and repudiated the idea of a depression in the lumber market.
They also discussed the advisability of curtailing the coming winter's operations, and the opinion now is that each operator will curtail his output from 25 to 40 per cent. It is better, they think, to do one-half the amount of work and get some profit out of it.

MEDALS COMING.

The South Atlantic medals for the 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles are being received by the members of that corps who have applied for them as matriculated by a recent militia order, and there is much rejoicing in consequence. The medals are the same as presented to the 1st Canadian Mounted Rifles, and "Transvaal" and "South Africa, 1902," bars attached. The medals received by the members of the 2nd M.R. have been awarded by the report that they were numbered by J. E. Earle, of Albert street, had received a medal. It turns out that this medal was intended for J. I. Earle, of St. Patrick street, a member of the 2nd C. M. R.

WILL OPPOSE DEPORTATION.

PORT ARTHUR, July 27.—The United States government has become interested in the deportation of American engineers from the works of the Grand Trunk Pacific, and it is understood, is going to back a fight to be put up in a test case, in order to settle the constitutionality of the whole proceedings, and if possible to stop the deportation of American engineers from Canada.

NO DETENTION HOSPITAL THIS YEAR.

The supplementary estimates contain an item of $22,000 for the erection of a detention hospital at west St. John, but as yet no steps have been taken to ward work other than that last spring an option was secured on "vernal site." The general impression is that the building could not be completed in time for this winter.

CAPTURED BY RUSSIANS

New Brunswick people will be interested to know that the captain of the British steamer Ardo, recently seized by the Russian ship Smolensk in the Red Sea is William L. Smith, a St.
Martins man who is well known in this city.

Capt. Smith has been in the employ of Roberts, of Liverpool, for some ten or twelve years, and has for several years been in command of the Ar-do, one of the fleet owned by the Roberts concern. He was in New York in June and there took on a large cargo of dynamite, gunpowder, paints, etc., for the American government stores at Manila. He protested against taking such a cargo to the Far East, but was told that if he refused he would be supplanted by another man and so he went.

Capt. Smith is a son of the late Rev.
James Austin Smith, of St. Martins.
His mother, Mrs. M. A. Smith, still resides at the home and there are besides three sisters living in St. Martins. Mrs. Mary Cochran, wife of Councillor Cochran, Mrs. James Whit-art and Mrs. Charles Brown.

Capt. Smith is between thirty-five and forty years of age.

BASE BALL.

Clippers, 4; Portlands, 6.

Thick fog and slippery grounds spoiled the game last night between the Portlands and Clippers. Most of the errors were due to the ball being wet. The outfielders could scarcely be seen from the grand stand owing to the dense fog, so it was no wonder they could not locate everything that came their way.

The game was uninteresting, with the exception of the first of the fourth inning, when it seemed possible for the Clippers to tie the score. Treacartin was getting pumped, and the slippery ball enabled the Clippers to get three men across the plate, but Mahoney and Piers cut them off.

CHAMPLAIN MONUMENT.
Public May be Asked to Provide the Foundation.

Nothing definite has been decided yet about the monument to Champlain. The Historical Society are waiting to be sure of the government money before making any more definite move. As soon as this point has been settled and other business details such as who is to receive the money, are disposed of, the society will call for plans and work will be started as soon as possible.

No site has been decided on as yet. Queen square was mentioned at the last meeting, but no resolution was passed. About the city there has been some talk on the matter, and opinion seems to be divided between Queen and King squares.

It is expected although no decision has been arrived at yet, that the public will be called upon to help towards building a foundation for the monument.

LICENSES HAVE BEEN EXTENDED

Liquor License Commissioners Again Break Their Promise

Four Saloons, Given Three Months to Close, Have Been Granted Further Extensions.

The liquor license commissioners for the city met last night and among other things decided to renew the extensions of the following barroom keepers: Mary Burns, 112 Britannia street; Edgar Graham, 85 Sheriff street; W. J. Savage, 311 Main street and J. Travis, 25 Mill street. This will make the number of open saloons in the city for the next three months seventy-nine, of which seventy-five are the regular licensed ones.

It was recalled that the chairman of the old liquor license commissioners' board, long before its meeting on April 16th last, when the licensees were re-issued publicly announced that the board had determined to keep the saloons this year within the legal limit, viz., seventy-five, and to refuse extensions to those who were not granted renewal licenses.

This attitude of the board was taken in consequence of strong representations made by citizens in different parts of the city. The board at its meeting on April 16th, accordingly issued only seventy-five licenses and stated that those saloon keepers from whom licenses had been taken would have to go out of the business.

Some weeks afterwards there was a reversion of feeling on the part of the members of the board, for they reconsidered their previous action and decided to grant extensions for three months. This meeting was held just a few days before Chairman Smith retired. The action of the board in granting the extensions raised quite a storm of protest.

The extensions, if allowed to run out would terminate on the first of August, but since they have been renewed they will continue till September.

Colonel Blaine, the new chairman of the liquor license commissioners said this morning that the renewal was regarded as the best course to follow under the circumstances. The commission taking into consideration the fact that those whose extensions were renewed have leased their premises for the year and have on their hands a large stock of liquors, thought it the best and fairest thing to do to give them another three months within which to close out their places.

Col. Blaine could not say that these would be the last extensions granted. At last night's meeting the following transfers of licenses were agreed to: Charles D. Murphy, of Church street, to F. Mullin; and Power & Lane, Union street, to James Lane.

PAPAL DELEGATE WELCOMED.

Splendid Greeting to Monsignor Sbarretti—His Excellency Will Hold a Reception Friday.

The Most Reverend Donatus Sbarretti, papal delegate to Canada, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon on the 6.15 train and is the guest of His Lordship Bishop Casey.

At the train the distinguished prelate was met by the city clergy and the officers of the various Catholic societies. Banners were then taken to the cathedral. At the palace Mgr. Sbarretti passed between rows of Siberian Knights with awards presented and was welcomed by Bishop Casey. In a short time Mgr. Sbarretti, accompanied by the clergy, entered the cathedral, where in the meantime had become filled with interested spectators.

Vicar General Chapman then read an address of welcome to the visiting prelate, which the latter replied to in feeling terms. At the conclusion of Mgr. Sbarretti's reply by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was performed.

At the bishop's palace at noon today Mgr. Sbarretti was entertained at lunch by His Lordship Bishop Casey, the clergy of the diocese and visiting clergymen being present.

This afternoon in company with His Lordship Bishop Casey the papal delegate and his secretary will drive to the main door of the Industrial School where they will have dinner and return in the evening. Very Rev. W. F. Chapman, V. G., and Very Rev. F. Herbert, V. G., and Rev. A. B. Mesahan, parish priest will accompany his lordship and his guest.

Friday evening a reception will be held in the palace from seven till nine o'clock. The guests will enter by the main door of the palace and leave by the side door leading to the church grounds. Nothing else of a definite nature has been arranged, as it not known how long Mgr. Sbarretti will remain in the city.

BERMUDA CHILDREN HERE.

Interesting Army Troupe Just From London—They Were Barred From the States.

The Bermuda children, who have been touring the province since their return from the big Salvation Army conference in London, arrived in the city today in charge of Capt. Riley, of the provincial headquarters staff. Capt. Riley told the Star that everywhere they had visited they had met with the greatest kindness and the trip had been very successful. The only regrettable feature was the refusal of the United States immigration officials to allow them to go to Houston unless they paid two dollars a head. The general feeling is that this was a pretty small price of business and that the regulation was never intended to cover children as this. As a result of this the children are here a day or two earlier than expected.

They will make their first appearance here in the West Side hall on Saturday evening, where a splendid programme, including drills, will be carried out.

WALKER FAMILY REUNION.

Interesting Gathering at Hampton Town.

The old Walker homestead near Hampton is today witnessing a happy reunion of the immediate descendants of the Walker family.

During the 83 years of Rev. Canon Wm. Walker's ministry at Hampton many changes took place in the country. His family of seven children one after another passed out into the great world to make homes for themselves. Three of the sons entered the sacred profession and the fourth became a medical practitioner.

In 1833 Rev. William Walker died at an advanced age, and through force of circumstances the old homestead was allowed to pass into the hands of strangers. Rev. Millidge Walker this summer bought back the home of his childhood and it was thought fitting that a reunion of the members of the family should be held.

At 7.30 this morning a memorial service was held in the parish church, Rev. Wm. Walker being the celebrant, assisted by his brothers, Revs. George and Millidge Walker. A sister, Miss Elizabeth Walker, was organist. Dinner was served at two o'clock and a programme of sports is being carried out this afternoon.

Ten people will see a placard of "To Let" on your house to about every ten hundred who will read your "To Let" ad, in these columns. Which way is the wisest—the "Placard" way or the "Want ad" way?

POLICE COURT.

A Few Drunks and Another Assault Case—Juvenile Thieves Let Go.

In the police court this morning three drunks were fined the usual amount. Joseph Woods is under arrest charged with begging money, and Frank Marney was locked up charged with assaulting Woods in view of the police.

It seems that Woods met Marney on Elm street and asked him for some money. Marney declined and Woods insisted, demanding twenty-five cents. Marney says that he then shoved Woods away, but did not strike him. As it was city court day and there were several witnesses to be examined the case went over till this afternoon.
