

CRUSHING TRENCH DEFEAT

ENTIRE GERMAN ARMY SOUTH OF MARNE RETREATS ACROSS RIVER

Important Centre of Chateau-Thierry and Nearby Towns Now in Hands of Allies Who Are Steadily Pressing Back Enemy Between Marne and Aisne Rivers Despite Desperate Resistance.

British Enter General Fighting in Section Named and Make Good Progress—Americans, Italians and French Fighting Gallantly—British and Italians Take St. Euphrase and Bouilly.

(Undated war lead by The Associated Press.) Victories for the allied arms in France continue to multiply. Over the entire sixty-mile front, running from Soissons to Rheims, the allied troops are fighting with a determination that brooks no denial of their efforts. The Germans steadily are giving ground, though stubborn resistance is being offered on some sectors.

Further goodly-sized indentations have been made in the German line between Soissons and Chateau Thierry by the American and French troops, and almost all the gains made by the Germans in their recent drive south of the Marne and toward the vicinity of Rheims have been blotted out under the counter-attacks of the Americans, French, British and Italians.

Chateau Thierry, which represents the point in the battle line where the Germans had driven their wedge nearest to Paris, has been recaptured by the French troops, and almost simultaneously the village of Brasles, two miles eastward, and the heights to the north of the village fell into their hands.

Another Hard Blow.

Acting in harmony with the movement on Chateau Thierry, American and French troops northwest of the city struck the Germans another hard blow, broke through the German lines and drove through at some points more than three miles. Large numbers of prisoners were taken and the machine guns of the Germans were literally mowed down by the Allies.

To the north along the Ourcq valley the French are making good progress toward the important junction town of Nanteuil-Notre Dame, which the operations south and southeast of Soissons are keeping time with those along the other parts of the front.

British in Action.

The entire southern bank of the Marne having been cleared of enemy forces, French, British and Italian troops are now harassing those south-west of Rheims, and they have been forced to fall back in the Courton Wood, the Ardre Valley and near St. Euphrase, notwithstanding their desperate resistance. The number of British operating with the allied forces in this region is not known. The first announcement that they were in the action was made Saturday night and doubtless they represent a portion of the great reserves that every where are being brought up along the battle line in an endeavor to make secure the victories already won and enlarge them.

With the capture of Chateau Thierry and the fast progress of the French and Americans eastward from the northern sectors, the plight of the Germans in the southwestern portion of the Soissons-Rheims salient becomes increasingly hazardous, and it is not improbable that when stock is finally taken large numbers of prisoners and quantities of guns and war horses will be found to have been taken by the allied troops.

Aviators Assist.

Aviators continue to lend assistance to the troops of General Foch, scouting the back areas and harassing the retreating Germans with their machine guns. Notable work has been done by American Indians for General Pershing's men, the Aborigines taking a prominent part in characteristic western fashion, in scouting in the Marne region.

Chateau-Thierry Now In Hands of Entente And Germans Routed

Army of the Crown Prince in Disorderly Retreat, Teutons Suffering Greatest Reverse Since Days of Russian Steam-Roller in Early Part of War.

Special cable to New York Tribune and St. John Standard. (By Wilbur Forrest).

With the French Armies, July 21—Chateau Thierry has fallen into allied hands. Its recapture was the natural result of the great successes of General Mangin's drive to the north, by which the road from Soissons to Chateau Thierry had been cut.

The Germans holding the big town on the Marne under a tornado of allied shell fire were thus confronted with the danger of envelopment and fell back, but not without losses in the process. This movement may be but the beginning of a further retreat.

Rains Shot and Shell.

The Germans throughout the big salient are now suffering the greatest long range fire which incessantly rains upon them from three sides. On their own part, they have little room to manoeuvre. The roads are heavily congested with traffic and air men report evidences of undoubted confusion existing. The great general staff may figure out the proper way to make but to execute them in this confined space is a different matter. However, the enemy today was still showing heavy resistance along the line north of Chateau Thierry, according to advices received here.

Terrific Struggle

The enemy is still fighting very hard, bringing up fresh troops and delivering local attacks, but does not seem able to hold up the French advance along the line north of Chateau Thierry, according to advices from the front.

German traffic at Fere-en-Tardenois is being vigorously and continuously combed by French armies. The situation is considered as being distinctly promising, the Germans, apparently have to do one of two things... clear the French off the railway west of Fere-en-Tardenois or bring back their troops from north of the Marne to flatten out the salient.

Shelling Enemy

Further north, the French have reached the high road from Soissons to Chateau Thierry, near the village of Harcourt-les-Taux. The high road and the railway from Soissons to Chateau Thierry is well within range of the French guns along its whole length and is being subjected to artillery fire.

The same applied to the junction of this road with the only possible alternative line, which comes from Fismes and joins it at Nanteuil-Notre Dame. The latter place is also within gun range. The supply situation of the enemy on the Marne is thus becoming more difficult each hour.

The latest gain in this region brings the depth of the French advance over the 27 mile front between the two rivers up to between six and eight, and one half miles.

Field Marshal Haig in a statement, made in the British front in France says there is nothing of special interest to report.

On the front southwest of Rheims, where British forces are engaged, there was much fluctuating fighting yesterday. One time the British took Marfaux, Cullion and Courton Wood. Some of these gains, however, were lost when the Germans made counter-attacks.

In the Ardre Valley the British are still holding some of their gains, including the wood line running along the western edge of the stream.

Further to the southwest the Germans hold the line along the Marne from Reully to just east of Chateau Thierry.

High Hun Casualties

For food and munitions, he says, the Germans were dependent upon the transport service across the Marne bridges, which were not only constantly shelled but frequently bombarded by French and British armies. They were unable to bring any artillery across with the exception of mountain guns and light mine throwers. The casualties of some units amounted to 50 per cent, according to the correspondent. The British participated in the battle for the first time yesterday. They entered the lines between Rheims and the Marne in the region of the Ardre River where Italian troops had been fighting heavily for some days. The British took their positions during the night and attacked immediately and won complete success, advancing over a mile.

U-BOAT SINKS THREE BARGES OFF CAPE COD

Four Shells Dropped on Mainland, But No Person Ashore Hurt—Fourth Barge and a Tow Boat Set on Fire and Several Persons on Board Injured.

Action Lasts an Hour Three Miles South of Orleans Live Saving Station—Thousand of Spectators Watch Scene—Thirty or More Killed on San Diego.

Orleans, Mass., July 21—An enemy submarine attacked a tow off the easternmost point of Cape Cod today, sank three barges, set a fourth and their tug on fire and dropped four shells on the mainland. The action lasted an hour and was unchallenged except for two hydroplanes from the Chatham aviation station, which circled over the U-boat causing her to submerge for a short time, only to reappear and resume firing.

The crews of the tow numbering forty-one and including three women and five children, escaped amid the shell-fire in lifeboats. Several were wounded, but only one seriously. This happened to be John Botovich, an Austrian of the crew of the tug. His right arm near the shoulder was torn away by a fragment of shell. The minor injuries of the others were from shell splinters.

The one-sided fight took place three miles south of the Orleans coastguard station, which is located midway between Chatham, at the elbow, and Highland Light at the extreme tip of the cape. The firing was heard for miles and brought thousands to the beach from which the flashes of the guns and the outline of the U-boat were plainly visible.

Bombards U. S. Soil.

Possible danger to the onlookers was not thought of until a shell whizzed over their heads and splashed in a pond a mile inland. Three other shells buried themselves in the sands of the beach.

The survivors of the tow, with the exception of two injured, were taken to the Orleans coast guard station, communication with which by telephone under navy regulations, was not permitted. No information could be obtained from official sources on the cape.

When the firing began, the crews lost no time in abandoning the tow. Each of the four barges had one small boat intended to carry only five persons and all the craft were greatly overloaded. In addition the occupants were exposed to constant danger from shell fire. Several merchant craft were in the vicinity and regardless of the menace to themselves went to the rescue of the crews and towed the small boats to shore.

Washington Version.

Washington, July 21.—An enemy submarine is operating off the Massachusetts coast, the navy department was advised today. The Orleans naval station on Cape Cod near Chatham reported sighting a tug and three barges on fire, having been shelled by a submarine which was seen.

American warships from the first naval districts are out after the submarine. The committee on public in Watson Settlement, Belleville, Lind, ay, etc., were unharmed.

Hit the Nashwan

Frederick, July 21.—A heavy storm passed over the Nashwan Valley yesterday afternoon. Thunder and lightning was accompanied by a heavy down-pour of rain and at the covered bridge halibones as big as pens fell and were picked up in the grass ten minutes after the storm had ceased.

Down river a hail storm did considerable damage to standing crops.

FIFTEEN KILLED

Jackson, Mich., July 21.—Fifteen persons were killed and thirty others

Information later gave out this statement: The navy department at noon received the despatch from the first naval district stating that coast guard station No. 40 at Orleans, Mass., on the coast between Cape Cod and Chatham, Mass., reports sighting a tug on fire and three barges being shelled by a submarine.

Thirty Lose Lives.

New York, July 20.—Between thirty and forty men lost their lives when the United States cruiser San Diego was sunk ten miles off Fire Island yesterday, according to semi-official estimates made here last night.

Washington, July 20.—Bellet that the cruiser San Diego was sunk by a torpedo is expressed in a despatch today from the chief of staff of cruiser forces to the navy department.

The despatch follows: "The captain of the San Diego reports that he is inclined to the belief that the ship was sunk by torpedo. There is no conclusive factors, however, on which to base a definite opinion at present, however, in view of following circumstances:

- 1. No torpedo wake was seen. 2. No convincing evidence that periscope was seen. 3. No submarine appeared, in spite of the fact that three unarmored rescue ships were in the vicinity for about two hours. 4. Ship was struck on port side shaft beam, which discourages "mine theory."

Injured, many seriously, when a Detroit-bound limited passenger car and a westbound freight car collided head-on one mile west of Chelsea at 8.30 o'clock last night. Six of the dead were Detroit soldiers en route to Detroit from Camp Center.

A misunderstanding of orders on the part of the crew of the freight car is said to have been responsible for the accident.

London, July 20.—British casualties reported in the week ending today total 16,981, compared with the aggregate of 14,911 reported in the previous week. These are divided as follows: Killed or died of wounds: Officers, 81; men, 1,411; Wounded or missing: Officers, 291; men, 15,185.

MILITIA ORDERED OUT AT JOLIETTE

Joliette, Que., July 21.—A detachment of the 4th battalion, Canadian Garrison regiment, was despatched here on Saturday under Major P. C. Austin, following a near riot when the dominion police a week before arrested a farmer named J. A. Joly of this town.

A crowd collected and by the time the police and their captive reached the lockup there were many hundreds of shouting men and the outlook was very threatening.

A number of deserters are trying to get the terrible days spent south of the stream. The ground they held was overlooked everywhere by the French and American artillery observers. Enclosed in a narrow space between the river and the hills, they offered a sure target for the Allied artillery.

MAN KILLED AND BOY HURT AT EXHIBITION

Quebec, July 21.—A young man named Bernier was killed at Stouffville, while the circumstances surrounding the tragedy are not yet clear, it is thought the victim got into a altercation with a man named Simard, whom he provoked and struck.

The latter, it is said in retaliating struck Bernier who, in falling, came in contact with the stump of a tree, lying instantly.

FORMER TSAR NICHOLAS IS LIKELY DEAD

Movement of the Czecho-Slovak, or Royalist Troops in Russia.

Paris, July 21.—News of the death of the former Russian Emperor is accepted as more than probable here, especially as it appears to be corroborated in Germany. The Temps says: "The former emperor's death must produce unforeseen consequences in Russia. Hence, it is more than ever necessary that the Allies have a coherent, clear and far-reaching policy in Russia, the principles of which should certainly be in conformity to those formulated in Washington.

A cable was received on Saturday giving currency to a report that Nicholas had been shot. It was inferred that he had been executed after a hearing of charges against him.

Vladivostok, via Shanghai, Tuesday, July 16.—The immediate aim of the Czecho-Slovaks is the occupation of Khabarovsk, seat of the general government of the Amur, in order to secure their right flank, after which they will proceed along the Chinese eastern railway until a junction is effected with the Czecho-Slovaks from Irkutsk.

The enemy forces between Nikolok and Irkutsk are 12,000 German-Magyar and 25,000 Bolsheviks are probably concentrated in the region of Lake Balkal and Chitra.

Tokio, Tuesday, July 16.—The whereabouts of G. O. Wallenberg, recently Swedish minister to Japan, who left for home by way of Siberia two months ago with a party of fellow Swedes, is not known, and friends here are mystified.

Advices received from Sweden say that he has not arrived there.

THRILLING SCENES ON BATTLEFIELDS OF MARNE WHEN ALLIES OVERWHELM INVADERS

Situation Can Be Summed Up By the Statement That Germans Have Met Their Briefest, Bloodiest Defeat--Before Germans Retreated Across Marne They Denuded the Territory--Enormous Amount of Booty and Many Prisoners Captured.

English Heroine Who Was Ambulance Driver Wounded--Refused Treatment Until Wounded Men Cared For--Graphic Story of Dramatic Scene When Enemy Began His Historic Retreat From the Marne a Second Time.

By Wilbur Forrest.
Special Cable to the New York Tribune and St. John Standard.
With the French Armies, July 20--Up to Saturday morning the Franco-Americans had recaptured roughly twenty square miles of territory between the Aisne and the Marne, over thirty villages, and according to reports not yet official about 400 cannon and 20,000 prisoners are being thrown a constant stream of fire on the enemy miles away.

It is one of the first results of the Aisne-Marne advance. From present indications the enemy's entire advance gained in his offensive launched last Monday has dwindled, leaving the situation to be summed up as the briefest, bloodiest German defeat. One type of the present battle is the new baby model, about the size of a small elephant, but having far more speed and agility. Credit for the speedy advance of prisoners is due to them in many cases.

The heaviest enemy reactions may be expected in the next two days on the plateau dominating Soissons on the southwest. The Crown Prince will presumably also throw his weight into the Aisne where Allied troops are approaching Soissons from the west.

Over eighty thousand enemy shock troops have thus been thrown into the line between the Aisne and the Marne. A majority of them have been stationed above the Ourcq where the resistance to the allied advance grows constantly stiffer.

When the Allied advance between the Ourcq and the Aisne placed Paris outside of the enemy's considerations temporarily probably and perhaps permanently, the success is also near a point which will allow the big French naval guns to fire again with good chances of success at the "Big Bertha's."

An English Heroine.
Among the heroines of the present battle is Miss Dufour, an English girl ambulance driver, who was gravely wounded by a shell while transporting two patients. The ambulance was demolished. She crawled a considerable distance to the hospital to notify the doctors and refused treatment until the patients were cared for. She has been proposed for the Legion of Honor and the War Cross.

I entered tonight the observation post where General Mangin, leader of the Franco-American forces north of the Ourcq, has been directing the battle all day long. Immersed in the most delicate, most trying work, the famous leader took time to announce to the Tribune correspondent that all was doing well.

can troops and compared them with his own. I saw the victorious Allied advance.

A dozen villages, many hills and wooded valleys and a powerful telescope I was able to see a majority of these villages, which the big staff map at the general's side showed to be all-American hands.

Magnificent Panorama.
A magnificent panorama, dotted here and there with green patches of trees, red roofs, villages and yellow wheat fields was the battlefield of the morning, but now the battlefield was beyond vision and those smoke snuggles on the horizon and the rumbly of the forest's traffic which had been the brilliant Franco-American drive south of the river Ourcq.

Victorious Advance.
Telephone linked with headquarters of the French army fighting northward toward the river Aisne also brought occasional bits about its victorious advance paralleling the success of the American troops.

Immense Booty.
We learned through the telephone that eighteen guns had been captured in the vicinity of Courchamps and were being sent to the rear.

Deafening Fire.
It would be impossible to adequately and accurately describe the deafening fire from the big battle without treading on the toes of the censor, but nowhere in the immense melange of fighters, methodically coming away from the firing lines or going to them was there the slightest sign of discontent or grouching.

Brain Fag.
You are mentally tired. The strain has been continuous. The supply of nerve force is running low.

Brain Fag.
You cannot leave for a long rest in the country, and it is therefore necessary that you have assistance where you are. Help awaits you in the form of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Brain Fag.
This great restorative feeds the nerves back to health and vigor. It restores the energy and vitality that is necessary to success and the healthful enjoyment of life.

Storm Aids Allies.
The violent storm allowed the French tanks to take their places without discovery, and at daybreak, behind barages all along the battle lines, taking up the noise which the storm had so effectively covered.

Captured Villages.
We moved forward again. Immediately before us was the village of Hautvillers. On the right lay Bellefontaine, Torcy and Lisy Farm, all of which had been captured by the Americans at 9 a. m. beyond Hautvillers.

Along the Marne front, especially on Monday, the Allied aeroplanes hovered and circled aloft, reporting back to the command the progress of the operations. The artillery work was intense, and strongly massed French guns south of the river were firing constantly while the enemy's guns were silent in great numbers and added to the din, which, I am informed, could be heard fifty miles away.

Steam Roller Failed.
The "steam roller" had failed to roll and on a 35 kilometre front to the north at that moment the piles of enemy dead loomed another story.

Signalled Movements.
Observers were ordered to watch the enemy and flap back his movements. At eleven o'clock the troops and the German artillery commenced firing our artillery opened on troops concentrating behind the German line, and this fire continued right throughout the early phase of the battle.

Y. M. C. I. TEAM WON THE GAME

Defeated 7th C. G. R. on Barracks Square Saturday—Score Ten To Six.

Y. M. C. I. clinched another game of the Patriotic Series, Saturday afternoon on Barracks Square, when they defeated a team of the 7th C. G. R. West side, to the tune of 10-6.

The game was a fast one and Dalton, who is lately seen behind the bat on Queen Square diamond, west side, performed for the 7th C. G. R. boys, Saturday showing up well again.

Nixon and Doherty, the batteries for the Y. M. C. I., were a barrier hard to break down, and had the 7th C. G. R. boys always guessing at "what was coming next?"

The game opened up when Y. M. C. I. sent the two gooses-ers in the first inning, and the fans sat up and noticed.

When the third inning loomed up the west side boys chafed up and down, but the never ending scroll permitted the longer reach of the Y. M. C. I. to chalk one above this number and made it three.

The 7th boys were wide awake from that out, and gave a good run for the money.

Following is the line-up: Y. M. C. I. Pitcher: Dalton; Catcher: Dalton; Short Stop: Kearns; Centre Field: Mosher; Right Field: Bestway; Left Field: Baker; First Base: Fitzgerald; Second Base: Ramsay; Third Base: Flowers.

AMERICAN LEAGUE BALL PARKS CLOSE FOR DURATION OF WAR

President Ban Johnson Says No Effort Planned To Finish the Season—Parks Will Close Gates Tomorrow Unless Unexpected Developments Occur—Work or Fight Is Ruling Applied To Ball Players.

Chicago, July 21.—The American Association season will close today, and the club disbanded for the duration of the war. This decision was reached at a meeting of the league here, following Secretary of War Baker's ruling that baseball was not an essential industry.

Chicago, July 20.—American League baseball parks will close their gates for the duration of the war after tomorrow's games unless unexpected developments occur, it was announced tonight by Byron Durock Johnson, president of the organization.

Johnson said that the "work or fight" ruling as applied to ball players will be made, and no effort planned to finish the season with teams recruited from veterans above the draft age and amateurs below the draft age.

Such a strategy, baseball officials say, not only would be an imposition on the fans, but also would be more or less of a subterfuge in view of the administration's edict.

American league club owners will meet in Cleveland Monday at the call of President Johnson to wind up the season's business and discuss the many financial tangles which will result from the sudden interruption of the national pastime.

MINISTER'S DAUGHTER AND MINISTER'S SON UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Miss Blanche McLeod and Harrison Flint Lewis Married By Their Fathers—Each Has Brother in France.

Wolville, July 20.—A simple but pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. H. McLeod, Wolville, on July 19th, when their oldest daughter, Blanche, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Mr. Harrison Flint Lewis. The bride, who was daintily attired in white silk crepe de chene, was attended by her sister, Myra, who wore pink silk. The house had been decorated with daisies and ferns by friends. All of the immediate families were present except a brother of each at the front.

The ceremony was performed by the father of the bride, assisted by Rev. G. T. Lewis, of Yarmouth, father of the groom, "O Love Divine and Golden," was beautifully rendered by Miss Frances DeWolfe. After a light luncheon was served the bride and groom took the train on route for Quebec, their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have the good wishes of all their friends for a happy wedded life.

Others in the play were—The Misses Elizabeth and Rachel Armstrong; Misses Mary and Kathleen Peters; Miss Pace, Miss Peggy Jones, Miss Frances Gilbert and Miss Kathleen Blanchett.

Miss Tontin, Toronto, read the prologue, and Mrs. Edward Barker did a splendid part—entertaining the children who took part.

During the intermission Miss Meryl Mullen danced very gracefully the "Fire Fly Dance." Miss Phyllis Barker impersonating "Snow White" made a decided hit and executed her part splendidly.

The others deserve all worthy commendation, as the play was a genuine success in every particular, even the scenery being very effective.

The proceeds amounted to $25.60, which will be donated to Red Cross work.

Each junior branch member has pledged herself to forward $10 per month, and 10 pairs of socks to the Red Cross Society.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

THE WAR SITUATION.

The terrible conflict waging in France and Flanders may now be said to have entered upon a new sphere. Up to a few days ago the Allies could do against German offensives was to defend their positions as long as possible and retire to other points when it was a choice between giving ground or losing men. The Germans had the advantage in numerical strength and no other course was open to General Foch except the one he adopted. Last week there came a change. Foch was strong enough to strike back and the counter-offensive, which has already had such gratifying results, will stand out as one of the greatest operations of the war.

After three days of the heaviest fighting the Germans have been forced by French and American troops to retire across the Marne river with our divisions in pursuit. The French have recaptured Chateau Thierry, called the cornerstone of the furthest German advance line, and proceeding from that point have driven the enemy out of the town of Brasles, one mile east of Chateau Thierry, and on the northern bank of the Marne river. The action which won this success is reported to have been one of the most successful of the entire war. German divisions which had previously crossed the river were caught in a narrow space between the river and the hills while French and American batteries from hill positions poured a hail of death upon them until terrible casualties, said, in the case of some units, to have been sixty per cent. of the number of men engaged, forced the enemy to withdraw the remnants of his forces across the river with the Allied troops in pursuit.

Southwest of Rheims and in the valley of the Ardre River, where Italian troops have been fighting, the British joined in the general attack and were as successful as the French and Americans, driving the enemy back to a distance of from five to seven miles and punishing him most severely. In all cases have the gains been well maintained.

This glorious news from the west cannot but have a heartening effect. It was always felt that Foch's strategy was to permit the enemy to come on until he felt justified in undertaking a mighty counterstroke. That this has been undertaken and successfully carried out is particularly satisfactory as it evidences indubitably that the months of weary waiting are at last drawing to a close. The Allied forces are now sufficiently powerful to carry the fighting to the enemy and give him a taste of his own medicine. The events of the past few days must not only confound the calculations of Berlin; the Allies now hold the whip handle and if a possibility of German success ever existed it has passed forever.

It is reported that when the good news was received in some Canadian cities on Saturday and yesterday, joy bells rung in celebration of the victory. St. John did not celebrate but at the present rate of progress we are likely to have another and a greater opportunity in a very few days. The news from the war front this morning is better than it has been for many months. And the best is yet to come.

THE SUPREME COURT AND HABEAS CORPUS.

Not since the outbreak of war has the Dominion of Canada faced a more difficult two weeks than the period from July 6th to Saturday last, and that the troubles have been successfully surmounted is a fact upon which the Canadian Government and the Canadian people may well congratulate themselves.

The greatest and most satisfactory event of the time under review was the action of the Canadian Supreme Court when four of the six judges in that exalted position declared that the order-in-council abolishing the exemptions to unmarried men from twenty to twenty-three years of age was valid, and thus demolished the fabric of technicalities with which an effort was made to impede the dispatch of military reinforcements to the Canadian armies.

Second only in importance to this was the problem created by the threatened strike of telegraphers and transportation employees which, a fortnight ago, looked as if it might paralyze these important industries but which is now on the verge of settlement. Many believed that the Supreme Court might have sustained the decision of the Alberta court, and if this had happened the Government's hands, so far as the enforcement of conscription is concerned, would have been tied. If, to this, had been added a strike of railway and telegraphic em-

York Democrats, whose eyes have been opened to the meaning and purposes of Hearst by the war. In scores of towns his newspapers are being burned in public. Many others have passed ordinances forbidding their sale. The Toronto Mail and Empire observes that Hearst's loyalty is under suspicion, and for a political party to pin its fortunes to any candidate who assays slightly less than 100 per cent. loyal Americanism is to court and deserve disaster.

COL. ROOSEVELT BEREAVED.
Dolphores last night again stated that Quentin Roosevelt, son of Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president of the United States, had been killed and that another son, Theodore, Jr., had been wounded in action. Four sons of Ex-President Roosevelt answered the call of their country and went overseas to do their bit in the battle against German militarism. One of those gallant young men has made the supreme sacrifice while another has suffered injury.

Bitterness has come to thousands of Canadian homes since this war commenced and those who have experienced the pain occasioned by bad news from the war fronts will be especially sympathetic to the ex-president of the United States into whose heart the arrow has entered. Col. Roosevelt was over a man of indomitable will. He will continue to hold his head high and proud and look behind a closed door the great sorrow of his life. That will be the Roosevelt way, as it is the way of every man of strength.

A BIT OF VERSE

THE BALLADE OF THE COLORS.
(From the New York Sun).
Red is the color of courage rare,
White is the symbol of purity,
And blue is the breath of the higher air.
Where men may meet their dream and be
The valorous knights of chivalry.
As they dart and wheel through the
But—whether in trench or sky or sea—
Only the Hun flies flag of black.
When in response to the trumpet's blare,
The French leap forth, with that
Which knows no thought but to do and dare.
To set their soil forever free,
Above their heads, triumphantly
The tricolor is floating back,
Blue white and red its panoply.
Only the Hun flaunts flag of black.
And when the sons of Britain fare
Across the fields of Picardy,
The same proud colors mingle there
O'er faces set for victory,
While wave the line, blood brothers,
Go rushing forward to attack
Beneath those magic colors three—
Only the Hun flaunts flag of black.
Princes, who fight for liberty
And seek the helpless lands to sack,
Ye wear the badge of unity.
Only the Hun flaunts the flag of black.
—Reginald McIntosh Cleveland.

A BIT OF FUN

TAKING NO CHANCES.
A colored soldier hurried into one of the "Y" buildings the other day with the light of a great idea illuminating his face. Sighting a secretary, he asked:
"Are you all Mister Y. M. C. A.?"
"That's my name."
"Can you loan me a pair of boxin' gloves?"
"I expect we can fix you up all right."
The colored boy leaned over the desk and in a low, confidential tone, whispered:
"Mr. Y. M. C. A.: I wants you-all to do me very most important favor. I wants you to sew a chunk of lead or slip a horseshoe into one of them gloves. There's a nigger up here what brags he can fight on the street, and I wants you to fix it up so his heel head break off."
TYPICAL.
Employer—I suppose you have no objection to early hours?
Youth—You can't close too early for me.
A NEEDED TONIC
"My wife looks poorly, you think, doctor?"
"Yes, I do."
"What do you think she needs?"
"A new hat and a new dress."
THE MILITARY VIEWPOINT
Mrs. Willis—Kit married him but she can't control him.
Mr. Willis—I see. She attained her objective but was unable to consolidate her position.
"We utilize everything but the squeal," remarked the manager of the abattoir.
"Couldn't we photograph that," inquired the foreman, "and let the ultimate consumer use it when he kicks about the price?"

COMPLAINTS AS TO ROAD CONDITIONS

Complaints as to the condition of the roads continue to come from all parts of the province. The heavy rains of the past week or so have of course not improved matters, but on every side, excepting at one time in the trunk roads, can be found absolute evidence of government neglect.
In York County the situation is said to be particularly bad. The road from Fredericton to Woodstock is practically impassable in places, while a condition almost as serious exists on the road from Fredericton to Chipman. At Kelly's Creek, above Fredericton, washouts have made the road impassable. In Queens County the roads are very bad. A party journeying from St. John to Fairfield on 8-day evening found a fair road from the city to the Ben Lomond House, but beyond that, the road to St. Martins was worse than ever previously known. About five miles from the Ben Lomond House the road was so bad that an automobile could not get through until its occupants had disembarked and for half a mile the party was obliged to walk. A party driving to Hampton yesterday reported the roads as being vile in many places, fair in some and good in none! Similar conditions are said to prevail practically all over the province.

HEARST AGAIN IN THE LIMELIGHT

Judging from the expressions of New York newspapers the Democrats of that state are now extremely agitated over the fear that William Randolph Hearst will be the party candidate for Governor. Such a candidature would not only place a reproach upon the party in New York State but would greatly impair its chances in the elections to be held this autumn and also in the presidential fight of 1920. Undoubtedly there will be a serious split in the party if Hearst secures the nomination.
The New York World, perhaps the leading Democratic organ in the country, flatly announces that it will not support Hearst, and that his nomination would be a disgrace and a calamity. The New York Times, also Democratic, if not so close to the Washington Administration, will have none of Hearst. Should the publisher be nominated the only support in the New York press upon which he can rely will be that of his own papers. The up-State Democrats have no use for him. He can only be forced on the party by the influence of Tammany Hall, and, knowing that his defeat would be sure, Tammany might prefer Hearst to any other.

If Tammany supports Hearst the reason will be that Hearst, who controls Mayor Hylan of New York, will induce Hylan to hand over to Tammany Hall the vast patronage at his disposal. Tammany has always regarded the City of New York as the kernel of the political nut, and the state the shell. As regards the effect of a Hearst nomination upon the national prospects of the party Tammany cares little. It is this aspect of the case that is disturbing loyal New

WORK PERFORMED BY GRAND FAIR BY SALVATION ARMY UNION JACK CLUB

Young Ladies Made Money Saturday For Soldiers' Field Comforts.

The Soldiers' Field Comforts has been enriched considerably as the result of a fair successfully carried on by the Union Jack Club, whose members are young girls residing in the North End.

The fair was held on the grounds of John A. Brooks, 35 High street, Saturday afternoon. The grounds were gaily decorated with flags of the allies, while at the entrance to the drive way were a large Union Jack and the United States Stars and Stripes.

The young ladies composing the club have on a couple of previous occasions held fairs when nest sums have been made, but Saturday's receipts amounting to $60.11 was the best yet and much in advance of what was expected. During the many months past the members of the club have been meeting weekly at their different homes and are busily engaged in sewing for the Red Cross, and as a result of their labors a large amount has been sent overseas.

On Saturday different articles were sold and Lulu Robinson, 522 Main street with ticket number three won a crocheted yoke. There was the guessing of how many beans in a jar and the prize was won by Mrs. T. Hunter, of Portland street, who guessed 550, just five beans less than the total number of 555—the prize was a pair of silverware.

The young ladies in charge of the fair were Amy Chesley, May Brooks, Vera Brooks, Gladys Little, Margaret Hunter, Irene Hunter and Margaret Keln.

The club wishes to thank the merchants who made donations for the fair and all others who assisted in making it such a grand success.

Brigadier Miller leaves today for Halifax, and told the Standard that for over 25 years he has labored in the Salvation Army, being at one time in France, previous to the war, when he was engaged in architectural work.

He paid a tribute to the Y. M. C. A. work in France, and urged all to banish any skepticism regarding the proceeds of any branches, working for the soldiers or sailors.

Hon. Edwin T. McKnight, Formerly of Havelock, in Province on Vacation — Is Leading Attorney.

Hon. Edwin T. McKnight, Massachusetts State Senator, is in the province on route to his old home in Havelock, Kings county, where he will spend a week's vacation.

Senator McKnight is a New Brunswick, a graduate of U. N. B., and a former principal of the Charlotte street school, Fredericton. He enjoys the distinction of being the youngest graduate ever turned out by the Provincial Normal School, having graduated when he was only 16 years old.

From U. N. B. Mr. McKnight went to Harvard and was graduated in law there in 1897. He took up law practice in Boston, and his success has been wonderful. His firm in addition to large general practice, has been for some time making a specialty of banking, and is now one of the largest banking attorney concerns in the United States.

Speaking on War. Senator McKnight said: "I am proud to be a United States citizen. While Canada is the land of my birth, I believe that the United States is the most wonderful country in the world."

"I am a Republican, but I am a great admirer of President Wilson, and I believe that he is doing everything that can be done. I felt at first that he was slow in engaging in the conflict, but I believe now that he was right in waiting, as he could see further than the majority of the people. The United States have never yet been defeated and there is no chance of being defeated now, and the people recognize this. Our country has the greatest wealth of any nation in the world, and the people are determined as never before, to see victory for liberty of the world and are whole-hearted in the cause."

There was some little opposition at first from Germans and pro-German sympathizers in the country, but it was quickly set back. President Wilson handled the whole situation in a much better way than a more hot-headed man might have done.

International League Meeting. Auburn, N. Y., July 21—International baseball league club owners were tonight called by President Farrell to meet in New York on Thursday for the purpose of determining the future of the league under Secretary Baker's construction of the "work or fight" order.

One of Original Fighting 26th Has Had Over Three Years Fighting—Promotion a Popular One.

Lieut. Roy Edwards, who before the war was attached to the 62nd Regiment and who was one of the first to enlist with the famous Fighting 26th is now a machine gun officer.

To get into the game at the commencement of the war Lieut. Edwards signed up as a private with the 26th under Col. J. L. McAvity. It was not long before he was given the rank of sergeant owing to his thorough knowledge of the game, and he was then advanced to a sergeant-major, and then to Regimental Sergeant Major, and during the old days while the originals were training in this city the sturdy young soldier will be remembered as always leading the bat-

TWO FISHING VESSELS ARE A TOTAL LOSS

Steamer Inca Ashore on New England Coast — Schooner Evelyn M. Thompson Lost on Nantucket.

Halifax, July 20—The mackerel sailing steamer Inca, which put into Halifax twice this summer, once for coal and the second time to escape a storm, is ashore on the New England coast and probably a total loss. She went ashore in a thick fog and as a heavy southeast sea was running there was little hope of saving her.

Another sailing craft which sought the shelter of Halifax harbor once this season because of a storm raging outside, is a total loss on the south side of Nantucket. She is the schooner Evelyn M. Thompson of Boston, where she was owned by T. A. Crowwell and Son.

Another sailing craft which sought the shelter of Halifax harbor once this season because of a storm raging outside, is a total loss on the south side of Nantucket. She is the schooner Evelyn M. Thompson of Boston, where she was owned by T. A. Crowwell and Son.

For many months he fought hard on the battle fields of France and Belgium only to come home for the purpose of receiving a commission which was a popular appointment. He was a scout officer with a Nova Scotia Highland Regiment since last September with which unit he returned to the firing line.

He qualified for machine gun officer and has been transferred from the infantry to the C. M. G. R. D., and his many friends in St. John will be pleased to learn that in his last letter home he is still carrying on and although having been in the thick of the fight for over three years has escaped injury. Lieut. Roy Edwards comes of a fighting family and his youngest brother Hedley has to his credit three years of fighting with the 2nd divisional train.

SUMMER COMPLAINT CAUSES MANY DEATHS AMONG INFANTS.

If every mother would keep on hand during the hot season, a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, she would be saved a great deal of pain.

Hundreds of infants are carried off annually through neglect of this simple precaution. There is no remedy so safe and effective for the cramps and pains in the stomach, cholera infantum, the diarrhoea of teething children and none which has saved so many babies' lives during the past seventy-two years it has been on the market.

Mrs. C. W. Cooper, Collingwood, Ont., writes: "When my little boy was four months old he had a very bad attack of summer complaint. Nothing seemed to do him any good that was prescribed by the doctor. He got steadily worse until we thought we would lose him. One day a friend, with children of his own, asked me if I had ever used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I at once got a bottle, but with no hopes of it doing any good, as so much else had failed, but to my surprise and wonder, I soon saw a change in baby, much to my great relief, and we soon had him well again."

I now keep it in the house all the time, and when the children show any signs of diarrhoea it never fails to check the attack."

There are many substitutes for "Dr. Fowler's" on the market. Don't accept any of them. Get the genuine put up by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price 35c.

More Lumber Mill Testimony
"Extra Power" in Splendid Shape After Three Years of Use

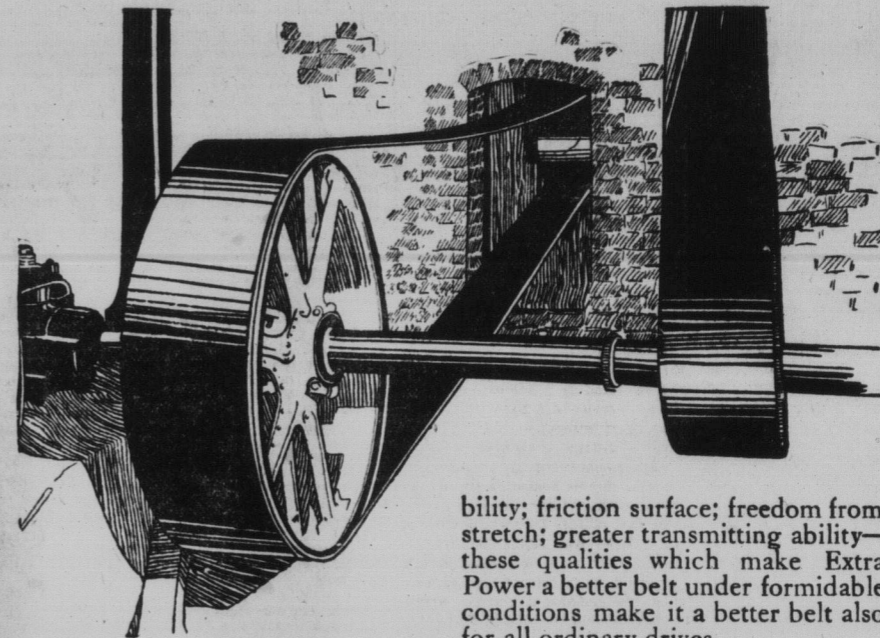

In practically every line of industrial endeavor belt buyers are learning the merit of Extra Power Belting by testing it on the hard and troublesome drives.

Almost daily we receive testimony that Extra Power is saving money, is yielding longer service, is increasing production, has solved a difficult problem in power transmission.

Now comes a verdict from the far west. Mr. S. Thorpe of the Forrest Mills of British Columbia tested an Extra Power Belt on a difficult drive.

This belt runs on the edger engine—under conditions as severe as can be found anywhere. The load is jerky and heavy. The belt speed is high—6050 feet per minute. A heavy tightener, set close to the drive pulley holds the belt down. An idler pulley also holds the belt down on the driven pulley.

Under these conditions, this Extra Power belt has given such splendid service that Mr. Thorpe will not use any other type of belt.

"Your Extra Power Belt," he says, "which is 10-inch, 7-ply, has run on the edger for three years and has not given one minute's trouble, and at the present time doesn't look ten per cent worse than when it was put on."

Such service and such conditions may be exceptional. But to buy belts wisely, even for ordinary service, you must judge a belt by what it has done under exceptional conditions.

Long life; pulley-gripping flexibility; friction surface; freedom from stretch; greater transmitting ability—these qualities which make Extra Power a better belt under formidable conditions make it a better belt also for all ordinary drives.

In selecting belting for your plant, remember that it does not pay to be sceptical. Get in touch with the nearest Goodyear belting man. Let him relate to you how the steam and water in pulp and paper mills; the slow, heavy pulls and the shifting pulleys in shell factories and machine shops; the high speed machines and heavy tighteners in lumber mills; the multiple pulley drives in textile mills; the exposed work of quarries, mines, cement plants and brick plants—all have been belted economically and well by Goodyear Extra Power.

Goodyear Belting men are industrially trained. Their knowledge and wide experience has proved helpful to many buyers of belting. They may be of real service to you. No obligation is involved in getting their advice. Write or telephone the nearest Goodyear branch.

WALL STREET DULL PLACE ON SATURDAY

Sumatra Tobacco and Industrial Alcohol Lifted Three To Four Points. U. S. STEEL MADE NO DEFINITE PROGRESS. Pacific Mail Rises 1 1/2—Coppers, Motors and Oils Dull.

New York, July 20.—Trading in stocks today scarcely warranted extended description transactions just about totalling 140,000 shares. Of this meagre turnover specialties under professional direction contributed more than their usual proportion.

Such speculative issues as Sumatra Tobacco, and Industrial Alcohol were lifted 3 to 4 points. Tobacco Products and Distillers, 1 1/2, and the local traction about a point each.

Other steels were equally irregular and coppers and motors and oils were only occasionally quoted. Rails were again ignored, except for the moderate strength and activity of such widely divergent issues as New Haven and Atlantic Coast Line, and Pacific Mail was the only member of the shipping group to display animation at an advance of 1 1/2 points.

The day's news was of the customary week-end character, including the more conservative reviews of the mercantile agencies which stressed the dominance of "war business."

Noteworthy changes in the bank statement included a decrease of $173,000,000 in actual loans and discounts, which offset by almost three fold the preceding week's increase, and a further expansion of about $18,000,000 in actual reserves.

Bonds were steady on a minimum of operations, total sales, (par value), aggregated $1,735,000. United States Bonds, (old issues) were unchanged on call for the week.

CANADIAN TRADE NOW GENERALLY SATISFACTORY

Price Advances Have Been Few During Week in General Lines. PLATING CHEMICALS MOVE UP HIGHER. Prices on Second-Hand Copper and Brass Are Stronger.

Toronto, July 20.—In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets for the week, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News makes the following observations: War time has been a time of new grooves, and it is surprising to find the way in which Canadian business firms fit their lines to these channels.

For instance, several bridge and fabricating plants are now, to all intents and purposes, in the warehousing business. They send out stock (mostly regularly to the trade, and the trade is glad of a chance to buy at prices which have many lines on hand that are not being rolled at the mills either in Canada or the United States at present.

Steel jobbers have numerous searchings in their efforts to fill orders sent to them. In many cases the parts for which their searches are being conducted are standard lines, and in normal times there would be no more trouble in securing them than in buying tea at a grocery store. An order for beams, for instance, is likely to be filled in a matter of days.

ALLIED POSITION SECURE BELIEF OF WALL STREET

Pressure of Price Level Is Evidently Upwards, Says Bache. MONEY SITUATION DRAG ON PRICES. Impendency of Heavier Taxation Is Another Deterrent Factor.

New York, July 20.—The level of prices is never motionless, but rises and falls endlessly as the underlying effect of great happenings makes for rise or for worst future developments. The level of prices is an expression of the aggregated judgment from all sources on present security values; it is the concentrated, hot-down, result of the opinions, as to what securities are worth, of all thinking people who give such matters attention, including the most astute and far-seeing minds of the existing generation all over the world.

Passing news, consequently, has only negligible effect on prices, unless, in it, is involved events deep and far-reaching in their bearing upon underlying conditions. Nevertheless, the minds that concentrate upon material conditions everywhere in the world, are alert and keen for news from every quarter, and analyze and digest it quickly—sometimes instantaneously.

That the market having deliberately retired a few points, is now conservatively, but apparently confidently, holding, or even advancing, indicates the general judgment of traders' minds intensely interested in the outcome, to be that of assurance that the Allied position is secure.

Another obstacle to an impressive bull market is the impendency of heavier taxation, the details of which have not yet been worked out. In the meantime, really momentous war news, indicating that the vital organs of enemy power had been pierced, would undoubtedly release the upward pressure toward higher levels.

Waters in Lower St. Lawrence Teeming With Millions of Sons of Fish. Quebec, July 20.—The Gulf of St. Lawrence Steamship and Trading Company, Ltd., steamer "Globe," arrived in port from Natashquan and intermediate ports along the north shore of the Lower St. Lawrence.

Capt. J. A. Bernier, manager of the Company, reports enormous fishing for cod in the Gulf, there are enough to feed the whole population of Canada for a long time and some to spare, but unfortunately they have to be left at one, on account of there being no fleet or means to make a big catch. The Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, July 21.—The news of the great French victory was received in the city shortly after the morning services in the different churches. It was announced to the public by the ringing of the church bells and the chiming of the French National Anthem. The bells in Devon and Marysville also pealed out and many flags were hung to the breeze.

A service for the returned soldiers was held in the Methodist church at Devon this evening by Reverend A. D. McLeod, the pastor, about forty men from the Military Convalescent Home were conveyed to Devon by citizens in their cars.

Fishermen are jubilant but at the same time disappointed because they have not the vessels or nets to make a big catch.

A FOURTEEN YEAR OLD GIRL HEROINE

Freda Ebbett in Absence of Parents Extinguishes Fire Started in Home By Lightning Bolt—Debris Falls on Sleeping Children, But None Injured.

Special to The Standard.
Gagetown, July 20.—While Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ebbett were motoring home from the Plenum's picnic at Gagetown on Wednesday evening, lightning struck their house at Lower Gagetown, shattering parts of it very badly and setting fire to one of the rooms. The storm, although not lengthy, was very severe, and as they drove through it Mr. and Mrs. Ebbett commented on the severity of the bolt which later proved to have struck their house. On arriving home they found traces of the lightning in almost every room. The bolt struck the north chimney and in running down, had scattered plaster on the children asleep in bed, without harming them in the slightest.

With great presence of mind, Freda Ebbett, the fourteen year old daughter of the house, extinguished the blaze before it could gain any headway.
Tearing the partition to bits, the lightning shattered the refrigerator which stood on the other side of the wall, and went down the drain pipe into the cellar. Part of the bolt also ran along the edge of the entire roof, out to the end of the eel, tearing off the shingles and clapboards as it went.

The house was filled with fumes and smoke from attic to cellar.
Fortunately no one was injured. In the house at the time were Mr. and
Mrs. Ebbett's five children and Mrs.
Ebbett's mother, Mrs. William Bulaya.
The house, which is a large one, is situated in a somewhat exposed position near the river.

Again His Honor was compelled to send the police sheet down-stairs for the signature of the Chief, on return of the sheet it had remained unsigned and the two drunks were remanded.

FIRE DEPARTMENT WAS KEPT BUSY DURING SATURDAY

Four Fires Between One O'clock and Eleven—Considerable Damage To C. H. Peters Sons' Premises.

Saturday was the city firemen's busy day, they being called upon to respond to no less than four alarms between one o'clock in the afternoon and midnight. The damage done in three instances was slight but in the fourth, was considerable.

The first call was to Charlotte street, about one o'clock, where the burning in front of Thomas Haley's beer saloon was on fire; the second call was from No. 8, for a blaze in the wood pile of J. S. Gibbon and Co., at the front of Union street; the third which was the most serious came from box 9, for a fire in the warehouse of C. H. Peters Sons, Peters Wharf; the fourth came in about eleven o'clock at night and called the fire fighters to Mill street, where they found a slight fire in the building occupied by Michael Marcus. For the last three no cause can be assigned and the first is supposed to have been caused from a cigarette thrown on the awning.

Hayley Fire

Shortly after one o'clock an alarm rung in from box 73 called the department to the store of Thomas Haley on Charlotte street, where the awning was on fire. The chemical was first on the scene and immediately turned a stream on the blaze which was quickly extinguished. It is supposed this fire was caused by some person throwing a cigarette out of the window over the store and this falling on the awning caused it to take fire. The loss will not be heavy.

J. S. Gibbon and Co.

Shortly after seven o'clock Saturday evening an alarm was rung in from box eight. On responding it was found that one end of the woodpile of J. S. Gibbon and Co., was on fire and a stream was quickly turned on. The blaze was soon out. Fortunately this fire was discovered and the alarm rung in before much headway had been gained or a lot of valuable fuel would have been destroyed. This fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

C. H. Peters Sons

The firemen had hardly gotten back from the blaze at Gibbons when an alarm was rung in from box nine for a fire in the warehouse of C. H. Peters Sons. This was the biggest fire of the day and required about an hour and a half's hard work before the all out sounded.

The blaze seemed to be in the north-western corner of the building among the hay and owing to the dense smoke was very hard to fight. The salvage corps got to work immediately and spread covers over the office furniture and bags of oats and feed and in this manner saved a large portion of the stock which would otherwise have been destroyed by water.

The fire worked up to the second floor of the warehouse and through the roof and the corner where it started is badly damaged but the principal damage to the stock will be from smoke and water.

F. L. Peters when seen last night by the Standard said he was at a loss to account for the blaze as there was no fire in the building nor had there been one in the place since two o'clock in the afternoon. He was unable to state what the damage would be until an examination of the stock had been made, but he said he did not think it would be heavy. He did not know how much insurance was carried but said the loss would be fully covered.

128 Mill Street

Shortly after eleven o'clock another alarm was rung in from box 128, for a fire in the building at 128 Mill street, occupied by Michael Marcus as a fruit store and dwelling. The blaze was between the walls at the head of the stairs leading up to the third floor. The firemen cut a hole in the wall and quickly located the blaze and in a short time it was put out. The damage was slight.

NEW INDUSTRY FOR THIS CITY

Messrs. H. V. Hayes and Edward A. Mason Have Patented a New Show Case.

In the near future St. John will in all probability have a new industry in operation and if those in the movement meet with the success they expect it will require quite a number of hands to keep things running.

These citizens, H. V. Hayes, principal of Victoria School, and Edward A. Mason, manager of the local branch of the Christie, Brown Co., have patented a new show case for the display of candy and fine groceries and hope soon to place this on the market. They have taken out Canadian and United States patents. They expect to dispose of the United States rights, but intend to manufacture for the Canadian market themselves and to locate the factory here.

The case which is designed to hold candy, cereals or other goods is made up of two parts, a double glass cylinder top and a wooden base. In the base is a drawer into which the goods drop and the customer is always sure of getting goods which have not been contaminated by exposure to the air. The cylinder forms a show case and contains at the same time and prevents the waste caused by dipping into the top of a tin or box when weighing out candy or nuts and in the case of cereals keeps the dust and flies away from them.

REMOVING THE RUINS

Workmen are engaged in removing the ruins of the St. David's church, destroyed by fire last December. It is the intention to have the new walls and the roof on before next snow comes.

B., but was held at the United States soil Saturday by U. S. immigration officials. The United States immigration people declined to permit Mr. Bourque to proceed and detained him in Vancouver, B. C. He was given free lodging and plenty to eat, and was also given the privilege of paying his way back to this city, where today he will endeavor to arrange matters with Post Office Inspector Woods and the American immigration officials.

A Chatham family of three, consisting of man, wife and daughter, were also held up at the boundary line Saturday.

TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF CADET E. T. LEE

Touching Remarks By Rev. H. E. Bennett At Mission Church Yesterday—Able Sermon Preached.

In his sermon yesterday at the high celebration of the Holy Eucharist at the Mission Church of St. John the Baptist, Rev. H. E. Bennett paid a tribute to the memory of Edward Lee, who was drowned at Goudola Point last week. The young man was an active member of the church. He had served at the critical age between boyhood and manhood, said Father Bennett, but he had remained true to Christian ideals and there was no doubt his splendid character was due to religion. He had lived true to the faith and his character was good in every way. Father Bennett preached ably from St. Matthew vii, 21: "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven but he that doeth the will of my father which is in heaven."

The preacher spoke of the danger of a purely formal religion, as exemplified in the time of our Lord. Outward acts and gifts, he said, had no force unless there was individual consecration. True religion must be of the heart and not of the lips only. A rich man might endow churches and give away money, but unless he was sincere and inwardly consecrated to the service of God they availed him nothing. Rev. Father John V. Young, priest in charge of the Mission Church, is spending part of a well-earned vacation at Shediac Cape. Mrs. Young is with him.

VISITING FATHERS AT THE CATHEDRAL

Rev. R. B. Fraser Celebrated Mass—Rev. Fr. McGovern of Jersey City Delivered Powerful Sermon.

Rev. Robert Burgess Fraser, formerly of Rexton, a B. A. of St. Joseph's University, and lately ordained in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, celebrated high mass in the Cathedral yesterday morning. Rev. Fr. McGovern, S. J., of Jersey City, delivered an excellent sermon at the mass. Father McGovern spoke at three masses yesterday—the children's mass at 8 o'clock, at 9 o'clock and at 11:30 o'clock. The speaker preached a strong and pleasing voice which reached, without effort on his part, the farthest parts of the large building. His words were well chosen, and delivery perfect. During the sermon he exhorted all to lead good holy lives, and ever be as a radiator of good for others. When doing the congregation longed to hear more of the reverend orator man had such a store of that rich and open language which bids all "A welcome" and his words regarding that best friend of all of us—"a mother"—still linger with us.

The reverend gentleman is spending a few days in the city, which is his former home town, and then returns to Jersey City, where he is stationed at St. Peter's College.

BODY OF YOUNG ARTHUR BANVILLE FOUND SATURDAY

Located By Dennis Capcen Floating Near the Long Wharf—Unfortunate Boy Had Been Missing Since June 5.

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Arthur Banville, son of Frank Banville, 5 Long Wharf, was solved last Saturday evening, when a body was seen floating near Long Wharf and upon later inspection proved to be that of the missing boy. Many weird stories were circulated at the time of his disappearance, some to the effect that the young boy was seen in Sussex, another that he had boarded a troop train passing through the city on June 6th, loaded with American soldiers, en route overseas. The parents of the unfortunate had inaugurated a vigilant search in the hope of finding his whereabouts, the waters in vicinity of the wharf were dragged and upon later inspection proved to be that of the missing boy. Many weird stories were circulated at the time of his disappearance, some to the effect that the young boy was seen in Sussex, another that he had boarded a troop train passing through the city on June 6th, loaded with American soldiers, en route overseas. The parents of the unfortunate had inaugurated a vigilant search in the hope of finding his whereabouts, the waters in vicinity of the wharf were dragged and upon later inspection proved to be that of the missing boy.

Yesterday afternoon the father of the drowned youth, when speaking to The Standard, told a pathetic tale in describing his part.

About 8 o'clock Saturday evening he was in company with a few other men, were sitting near the wharf, enjoying the smoke. They noticed a motorboat leaving the shore nearby, and approaching them. The gentleman in the boat, Dennis Capcen, called to Mr. Banville, asking him to come down the shore, as he believed he had found the body of little Banville. The father went immediately to the scene, and all too true, there lay the body of the young son, for whose loss he had searched in vain since June 5th, the night of his disappearance. The police were at once notified of the sad event, likewise Coroner Kenney.

The remains were gently conveyed to O'Neill undertaking rooms, 669 Main street. Coroner Kenney on viewing the body stated an inquest was unnecessary. The mother of the boy had told The Standard that the boy was never known to be out late at night, and had worked in a shoe shop on Mill street in order to help himself along at school, being in grade IV, at St. Peter's. Miss Margaret McMillan on the staff of that school being the boy's teacher.

The day of his disappearance, his mother continued, he had just returned from school, and had gone out soon afterwards. Mrs. Catherine Harding, 154 Long Wharf, saw the lad a few minutes afterwards, and was somewhat surprised at his non-appearance at home that evening, but like the parents, received a sharp blow on hearing the sad news Saturday. The mother says the little chap was of a pleasant nature and lovable by all who knew him.

The funeral was held yesterday morning from O'Neill's undertaking rooms, Main street, interment in the new Catholic cemetery, the little lad being a member of Holy Trinity church of which Rev. V. G. Walsh, V. G., is pastor. Relatives surviving are two brothers, Albert, aged 17, and Alphonse, aged 7; two sisters, Margaret, aged 14; and Evelyn, 9 yrs. old, besides the sorrowing parents.

SOLDIERS ROUNDED UP NEAR McADAM

Reported Absentees With Fake Passes Turned Back By Group of Sergeants.

A number of soldiers, who were reported absentees for some time were rounded up near McAdam Junction. The group of sergeants boarded the train at that place, and upon asking for the pass of each soldier on the train were handed a few, which upon inspection were fake passes. The speaker pointed out the danger, which was not the real thing. Thereupon the men were ordered back to their units, and will be dealt with accordingly.

The military police at all stations, as well as at railway stations are on the job, and certainly deserve much credit for the good work they are doing, making it quite impossible for any eligible to evade the army; and intelligible are kindly treated; in fact the public commend the efficient manner of the military authorities on all lines, and in details.

MINISTER OF PUBLIC WORKS

Hon. F. B. Carvell Held Conference Saturday and Discussed Matter of Erecting Soldiers' Hospital.

Hon. F. B. Carvell, minister of public works, spent Saturday in the city and went to his home at Woodstock that evening. While here he had a conference with General MacDonnell regarding the repairs necessary to fit the exhibition buildings for winter occupancy.

The conference was also held at the office of Mayor Hayes at which the Minister, Senator Daniel and the Mayor were present, at which the matter of erecting a soldiers' hospital in this city was under discussion. It was suggested to Hon. Mr. Carvell that if it were decided to build a hospital here some arrangement might be made with the municipality by which a wing and nurses home could be added to the General Hospital instead of a new building, under somewhat the same agreement as obtains in the case of the tuberculosis hospital at East St. John, where the military authorities
