BIG SCHOOL POPULATION
INDICATES CITY'S GROWTH

Pessimists Who Argue of "Boom" Times Cannot Overcome Evidence of Great Increase in Public School Pupils and Consequent Additional Accommodation.

The pessimists who argue that the present great strides that are being made in London, commercially, industrially and otherwise, constitute only a temporary "boom," have not taken cognizance of the actual condition of affairs. The indication of the growth of the city, and figures given out by School Inspector C. B. Edwards this morning, give indisputable evidence of the advancement of London.

Big Jump in Attendance.
In 1913, the public school and kindergarten enrollment in London was about 9,000, with a separate school attendance of about nine hundred. In 1908, five years ago, the enrollment was 7,867, and the separate schools then had about eight hundred pupils.

In 1908 there were 160 persons on the public school staff; in 1913, the pay roll showed 187 teachers. This, of course, includes several manual training and domestic science instructors, these subjects not having been on the curriculum five years ago.

Great Additions to Schools.
Great additions have been made to the public school accommodation since 1908. There are the new Alexandra and Aberdeen schools, accommodating 400 and 600 pupils, respectively, and the addition to Chesley avenue school, which provides room for 200 extra scholars. The four additional rooms in the Wortley road school look after 180 pupils, and at Talbot street school, extensive additions have been made to the kindergarten department. St. Nicholas school, on Cheapside street, with two rooms; Riverview school, with one room, and a building on Quebec street, have also been secured to meet the pressing demands of the increasing school population, besides two rooms in a cottage near Victoria school. Only yesterday, the building committee of the board of education, decided to rent the Sunday school room of St. Matthew's Church on Dundas street to accommodate the overflow in that section.

Additional Through Annexation.
The annexation of Ealing, Pottersburg and Chelsea Green, with their three schools, giving accommodation to approximately 400 pupils, has made this much additional work for the city inspector. These schools, unfortunately, are all on the outside edges of the annexed districts, and therefore are not of the same service to the city that they would be if located nearer the city proper.

Two Schools This Year.
The board of education will proceed this summer with the erection of new eight-room schools, one on Charlotte street, in East London, and the other on Tecumseh avenue and Laingley street, South London, giving accommodation for about 400 pupils each. The building of these two schools will materially relieve the crowded conditions at present existing in these sections.

GETTING READY FOR LAUNCHING OF BIG RADIAL DELEGATION

Ticket Agents Spend Busy Time Arranging for Reservations.

MANY SPECIAL TRAINS

Both C. P. R. and G. T. R. Will Run Extra Delegation Trains—Those Who Will Go.

Local railroad ticket offices spent a busy day today arranging to handle the large number of delegates from this district, who are going to Ottawa Wednesday night to press upon the Government the need of subsidies for hydro-radial lines, the development of canal power and the improvement of the ocean waterways route. The delegates from this city have been arranged for, and will leave both Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific depots simultaneously at 7:30 Wednesday evening.

The G. T. R. train will contain a special Pullman from Sarnia and also one from Petrolia, while the C. P. R. will have three extra cars from Guelph, which will be attached to the train at Guelph Junction. Another car, bearing the Woodstock delegation, will be picked up at that point.

Beside the special C. P. R. train leaving this city at 7:30, there will be another leaving Windsor at 1:30. It will bear a large delegation from Windsor and will pick up other deputations at Chatham and Galt, at which point the delegates from Berlin, Hespeler and Preston will congregate.

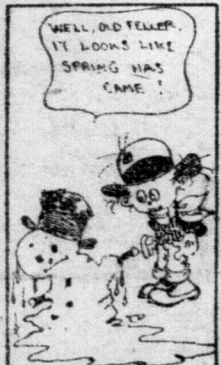

The following delegates have already made reservations at the local railroad offices:

VILLA QUITE CONFIDENT

Torreón Reported Closely Invested, and Besiegers Anticipate Its Early Fall.

Gomez Palacio In Hands of Rebels

[Canadian Press.]
Juarez, March 24.—Gomez Palacio was in the hands of the rebels today, according to information given out at the office of Gen. Chao Here and Gen. Benavides at the head of the Zaragoza brigade was moving against Torreón. No statement of casualties in the desperate strong fighting in Gomez Palacio last night was available.

[Canadian Press.]
Juarez, Mexico, March 24.—Although desperate fighting was still in progress at Gomez Palacio, at the gateway of Torreón, at 11 o'clock last night, when the rebels came through, Gen. Villa felt so confident of victory that he returned to the main base at Bermejillo to telegraph to Chihuahua and other points about the handling of supplies and the movement of troops.

The rebels are reported to have Torreón closely invested, and last reports were that the whole army was confident of the early fall of the federal stronghold. The occupation of Leyda, almost without resistance, and the expected victory at Gomez Palacio, would leave only Torreón to be taken to complete the first stage of the march to Mexico City. The conquest of Mazatlan, Saltillo and Monterrey is taken for granted by the rebels, once the main federal force under Gen. Velasco at Torreón is conquered.

In official circles here, although dispatches ceased, it was felt that Villa would triumph at Gomez Palacio, which is only three miles from Torreón, before the day was over.

Defence a Surprise.
The defence of the city came as a surprise to the rebels, who assumed that only a nominal resistance would be made by the Huerta forces. The reinforcements reported to have been rushed into the city by Gen. Velasco were unexpected, and when the last reports were received last night it was not known definitely on what banner victory would perch.

The rebel confidence, in the opinion of local military men, was justified by the capture of the federal fortifications on Cerro de la Pila, a mountain 2,000 feet high, surmounted by a great water tank.

COLQUITT'S OFFER OF REWARD LIKELY TO CAUSE TROUBLE

It Is Feared Texans May Kidnap Mexican Murderers of Vergara.

WASHINGTON IS WORRIED

Governor's Right Unquestioned, But International Complications Are Probable.

[Canadian Press.]
Washington, D. C., March 24.—Governor Colquitt's offer of a reward of $1,000 for the delivery upon Texas soil of five Mexicans, suspected as murderers of Clemente Vergara, has caused state and war department officials serious concern for international complications.

The five Mexicans sought for are Capt. Apolinario Rodriguez, Nito Ceara, Juan Castillon, Andreas Rodriguez and Dinomiso Martiniz. In his report today, Brig-Gen. Bliss said:

"The men named are charged in the newspapers with complicity in the death of Clemente Vergara."

Had the right of the governor to offer a reward for the apprehension of a fugitive from justice is not denied by the officials. But in this case it is feared that the offer may lead to an attempt to kidnap the Mexicans and bring them into Texas, which would be in violation of the extradition treaty between Mexico and the United States, and afford the Mexican Government ground for a demand for the punishment of the kidnappers with all sorts of legal entanglements.

Over 500 Shots Fired.
Further reports on the incident near Rio Texas, where Mexican federal soldiers fired across the River Rio Grande at American troops, say more than 500 shots were directed at the soldiers, to whom the fleeing constitutionalists surrendered. The refugees were sent to Fort Bliss.

FORD MAGNATES TO COME HERE

Will Look Over Bonded Sites for New Assembling Plant.

TO BE DISTRIBUTION DEPOT

Warehouse Will Serve Western Ontario Trade—Several Sites Located.

General Manager McGregor, of the Ford City branch of the Ford Motor Company, and a number of shareholders of the company are expected in London this week to look over a site that has been bonded for them by a local real estate dealer as the location of the company's new assembling plant. The property, in question, is on the line of the C. P. R.

The capacity of the Ford City factory, The Advertiser learns, has practically been reached, and the company plans to erect in London the largest assembling plant in Canada, giving work to several hundred men. The parts will be made in Ford City and then shipped here to be assembled. In addition, the building that is to be erected, will be used as a distribution centre for Western Ontario. The company's business out of London at the present time is very extensive, and a very great increase of sales in the future is anticipated.

Industrial Commissioner Gordon Phillip has been in touch with the Ford people for some time, and has a couple of excellent properties picked out for the assembling plant. Both properties have railway accommodation.

The Advertiser made the exclusive announcement on Saturday that the Ford Company was to build a plant here, and interested parties who telephoned to the Ford City factory for confirmation of the story were advised that it was authentic.

NEW SCHEDULE NOT EFFECTIVE APRIL 1

Bylaw Says so, But Company Says Time Is Too Short—Outcome To Be Legal Fight.

The new street railway bylaw recently passed by the city council will not go into effect on April 1, although a clause in the measure names that day for the commencement of the new schedule.

Manager C. B. King, of the London Street Railway Company, has announced that the company will refuse, unless compelled by law, to give the service demanded in the bylaw, the schedule, as prepared by City Engineer W. N. Ashplant, calling for the operation of four cars at the present time, and the reconstruction of the west half of the "Y" at the corner of Adelaide and Dundas streets, to accommodate the proposed new northern belt.

A copy of the bylaw is now in the hands of Charles H. Ivey, street railway counsel, and although Mr. Ivey has not yet given any decision as to the intentions of the company, it is certain that the street railway magnates will vigorously resist any effort that may be made by the city to enforce the bylaw.

"In the first place," said Manager King to The Advertiser today, "we could not possibly have the demanded improvements made by April 1."

NO DISSOLUTION UNTIL BILL
FOR HOME RULE HAS PASSED

John Redmond Publicly Asserts This—Second Reading March 30—Col. Seely Promises to Explain Trouble With Officers—Aldershot Officers Affected.

[Canadian Press.]
London, March 24.—"There certainly will be no dissolution of Parliament until the home rule bill for Ireland has passed." This statement was made to the Associated Press today by John E. Redmond, the leader of the Irish Nationalist party. Mr. Redmond added that the second reading of the bill would be taken by the House of Commons on March 30, and that the bill would be proceeded with until it became law.

London, March 24.—Col. John Seely, secretary of state for war, today promised in the House of Commons that he would tomorrow lay on the table all the material and written documents which he said would clear up the whole mystery of the recent crisis among the officers of the army in Ireland. He gave this promise when he was asked by a member to confirm or deny the statement that a written assurance had been given to Brig-Gen. Hubert Gough that the troops would not be used to force home rule upon Ulster.

[Canadian Press.]

London, March 24.—The dissolution of the British Parliament has been hastened by the events of the last few days and by the surrender of the Government to the officers of the army who declined to serve against the Ulstermen, according to the opinion generally expressed today in political circles.

The Irish Nationalists, it is pointed out, will not accept home rule until the Government has found it impossible to compel Ulster to come under a Dublin parliament.

It is argued that the only way out of the difficulty is to hold a general election, and none would be surprised if the Government during the second reading of the home rule bill next week should offer to dissolve Parliament on condition that the home rule, the Welsh disestablishment and the plural voting bill be passed.

The dissatisfaction of the rank and file of the Liberals with the Government's treatment of the army is another factor which is likely to hasten a general election. Many radicals would like to join forces with the Labor members and make an appeal to the country on the refusal of officers to act against the Ulstermen, compared with their readiness to act against striking workmen.

The provincial Liberal papers, as is usual, are even more outspoken on the subject of the Government's surrender to the officers than are their London contemporaries. The Manchester Guardian says it is with the deepest regret and some shame it has heard of Premier Asquith's even partial acceptance of the doctrine that officers have the right to lay down for themselves the conditions under which they will continue to serve the King. It continues: "They are so treated because they are rich men, and because they had the prejudices of their class. Not only then is there one law for the rich man in the army and one for the poor, but there is one standard for the Tory officer's ways to his oath and another standard for the private soldier with sympathies for the laboring man."

Similar comments appear in the Liverpool Post, also a strong Liberal paper.

Aldershot Officers, Too.

[Canadian Press.]
Montreal, March 24.—A London cable to the Gazette says: "The Government cannot rely upon the officers at Aldershot in the present crisis any more than on those at the Curragh in Ireland, declares the Pall Mall Gazette's correspondent, who is investigating conditions at Aldershot. He asserts, in answer to the question of what will happen if the regiments are ordered to Ulster, that he was told that 75 per cent of the officers will follow the example of the Curragh officers in resigning."

Will Not Do.

The Westminster Gazette, a Ministerial paper, says that "there could in the long run be no parliamentary or democratic system, if the armed forces of the crown were at the disposal of the Unionist Opposition against the Liberal Government. If the strike of officers against the Government could be successfully carried through in any issue, it could be tried in all, and there would be nothing but to dedicate our lives to getting a constitution with a different kind of army."

EARLY ELECTION IN PROVINCE EXPECTED

Members and Manufacturers Believe It—Opposition to Compensation Bill.

[Canadian Press.]
Toronto, March 24.—Local members are convinced a provincial election is not far off. Manufacturers are under the impression that the workmen's compensation bill is to be passed, then a redistribution bill and election brought on immediately. The compensation bill, they say, will either be the manufacturers' or the workmen's in its present form, despite the fact that since the bill left the hands of the commissioner, Sir William Meredith, there have been 89 changes made in it.

He is to be accompanied by the Marquis di San Giuliano, Italian minister of foreign affairs.

COSTLY SALT CELLAR

ANNUAL MEETING

Women's Diocesan Missionary Society Has Its 27th Gathering at Cronyn Hall—Christianity, the Only Religion, Says Bishop of Huron

The twenty-seventh annual convention of the Women's Auxiliary to the Anglican Diocese of Huron, opened this morning by a communion service in St. Paul's Cathedral. A large number of delegates from many points were present, and his Lordship Bishop Williams was the preacher.

His lordship chose his text from St. John, xiv, 6: "No man cometh unto the Father, but by me." "Some people today will tell us that it is the divine plan that there be a religion for every race—Confucianism for the Chinese, Buddhism for the Indian, and so on," said the Bishop, "but if this contention be true, then our Lord himself and his apostles and the whole Christian church

SEND A CONTINGENT
TO DEFEND THRONE

Canada May Show Example to Imperial Officers, If Necessary.

COULD START IN 2 WEEKS

Ottawa, March 24.—Canada may send a contingent to Ulster. The attempt which is evidently being made to destroy the British army by putting such pressure on officers that they feel compelled to resign has created much uneasiness in well-informed circles at Ottawa. Some members of the Government are considerably concerned and there has been inquiries as to the length of time it would take to enlist, mobilize, arm and forward a contingent of loyal Canadians for the defence of the throne.

Inquiries show that such a force could be started for the motherland within a fortnight.

In Parliament it is recognized that when England is at war Canada is at war. There is much resentment here with the reported defections from His Majesty's service by officers of the motherland. Should the trouble in Ulster come to the point of actual hostilities it is not unlikely that the Borden Government will follow the example set by the South African trouble and offer to send a contingent to fight for the king and the throne.

As Canadians are thoroughly loyal, it is expected that enough volunteers for the contingent could be secured within a day. As they would have to be taken from all parts of Canada, it would take about a week to assemble them at Halifax and put them on shipboard.

Interesting Experience of Two Women—Their Statements Worth Reading.

White Oak, Ont.—"At Change of Life when doctors could do no more and I was given up by my friends, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to the front and did wonders for me. I had been having female troubles for years, my head troubled me severely at times, I had bearing down pains and backache and I was very anemic from excessive flowing. I recommend your Compound highly and do all I can to advertise it as a genuine woman's medicine."—Mrs. SYLVESTER MANNING, White Oak, Ontario.

The Case of Mrs. Kirlin.
Circleville, Ohio—"I can truthfully say that I never had anything so much good during Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I had taken one half a bottle of it I began to feel better, and I have continued taking it. My health is better than it has been for several years. If all women would take it they would escape untold pain and misery at this time of life."—Mrs. ALICE KIRLIN, 358 W. Mill St., Circleville, Ohio.

The Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. At such times women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

PERTH TO START A CAMPAIGN FOR TEMPERANCE ACT

Municipalities in Convention at Stratford Decide on Action.

DELEGATES ARE CONFIDENT

Hope to Have the Bars of the County Closed by May of Next Year.

Stratford, March 23.—The Temperance Alliance of Perth County has lined up for a campaign to carry the Canada Temperance Act, probably to submit it next fall so that by May, 1915, all the bars in the county may be closed.

Associations in thirteen municipalities had their delegates in convention at the Y. M. C. A. here today to report on conditions in their districts, as well as the prospects for success in the event of a campaign. President T. L. Hamilton, of Listowel, was in the chair.

Pass Strong Resolution.
The main upshot of the convention was this resolution, which was moved by Dr. McCullough and seconded by A. Davidson: "That this convention, representing the temperance forces of the County of Perth, realizing the great evil of the liquor traffic in our midst, and being of a firm conviction that some forward step should be taken to suppress it in the interests of the county as a whole, agrees to submit the Canada Temperance Act to the vote of the people; and we hereby instruct our officers to take the necessary steps to have the same act submitted to a vote."

"This resolution came in the afternoon session. In the morning sitting the Rev. E. C. Powell, of Exeter, threw an interesting sidelight on the "Work in Huron County." Out of 26 municipalities, fourteen are now dry.

What Huron Accomplished.
After having striven for many years for local option without any real progress, the county association decided to go into the Canada Temperance Act. "Not because we prefer it to local option," said Mr. Powell, "but because we felt that under local option a dry county would not be possible for some years yet." The speaker did not believe there was any possibility of sweeping Perth with local option at the present time. In regard to the three-fifths clause, Mr. Powell said it is not what it was two or three years ago, and if amendments along certain lines were not obtained it will in reality be a four-fifths instead of three-fifths. He pointed out that under local option the penalty for bribery is only a $20 fine. An amendment in regard to this he deemed very necessary. "But your trust in the temperance law," was the counsel he gave the delegates. It provided for the provincial enforcement of the temperance law. The real reason for their success in Huron, he considered, was the fact that their opponents saw fit to hold public meetings. "It was that which gave us the majority," he concluded.

St. Marys Will Aid.
Mr. McBeth, for St. Marys, reviewed the situation. They had tried local option campaigns and failed. He was confident, though, that his town would work in conjunction with the wishes of the convention.

Listowel, through the voice of Mr. Dowd, reported itself in excellent condition for a fight. He was confident that a bylaw could be carried there. Rev. Mr. McLaren spoke for both North and South Easthope, reporting them as prepared. The nominating committee was then appointed to report at the afternoon session. It was J. C. Hay (chairman), Hugh Richmond, R. B. Hamilton, Mr. McBeth, Dr. Moore, Mr. Merryfield and Rev. Dr. Cooper, Milverton. The resolutions committee was appointed as follows: Dr. Barber, Listowel (chairman); Messrs. Turnbull, McCullough, Davidson, Millson, Griffith and Dowd.

Reports From Delegates.
The afternoon's session was well taken up with the reports of the delegates from the various districts.

Rev. Dr. Manning, for Stratford, thought that now is the time for a fight. "If a campaign is made in the county it will also be taken in Stratford," he said.

Wallace would stand shoulder to shoulder with the others, said Mr. Griffith, its delegate. Rev. Mr. Reese thought that, Ellice was better prepared than ever it was.

Local Option Hopeless.
Milverton, through Rev. Mr. Cooper, said that a local option campaign was hopeless, but that the Canada temperance act would likely carry.

Mr. Munro, Mornington, spoke favorably on a chance for the carrying of the Canada act.

Mitchell, through Rev. Mr. Baird; Hibbert, through George Smale; Ellice, through Mr. Amosa; Downing, through Mr. Armstrong; Fullerton, through Mr. Pritchard; and Logan, through Mr. McNaughton, sent similar messages. The spirit of temperance ran high with enthusiasm as the last delegate finished his report.

The Difference.
The difference between the Canada temperance act and local option was explained by John Muir, field secretary for the Dominion Alliance. "The former," he explained, "needs but a bare majority, the other, a three-fifths majority." There would be difficulty, he thought, in submitting the act to the citizens of Stratford, but this might be overcome. The chief difficulty would be to prove the petition which contained the twenty-fifth part of the voters of the city. Local option was better from many points of view, but it was a slower process, and quite often this slow way has resulted in much harm.

He had assurance from the Provincial Government that if carried, the Canada temperance act would be rigidly enforced.

Disapprove Three-Fifths Clause.
On motion of J. A. Turnbull, J. H. Griffith seconded, this resolution was made by the resolution committee: "That this convention, representing the various temperance forces of the County of Perth, of various religious denominations and both political parties, expressed its disapproval of the three-fifths clause in the local option bylaw, and much as it has been proven beyond a doubt that it is not necessary toward the permanence of the law. Further, several of the municipalities within this county have given a majority against the license system, but on account of the three-fifths clause, have been forced to be ruled by the minority. Believing that the time has come when the Government should immediately take steps to amend the local option bylaw by making it necessary for only a majority of those voting to carry it in any municipality, we ask the Government to use all haste to bring this about; and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Hon. W. J. Hanna." This was carried unanimously.

A County Organizer.
"That we recommend that this convention appoint a county organizer to complete the work of the organization of the various municipalities, and further, that the necessary steps be taken to finance the same undertaking," was moved by the Rev. W. E. Millson and W. J. Dowd.

The election of officers resulted thus: President, T. L. Hamilton, Listowel; first vice-president, D. G. McBeth, St. Marys; second vice-president, Hugh Richmond, Ellice; secretary, C. V. Blachford, Listowel; treasurer, R. B. Hamilton, Milbank. President T. L. Hamilton closed the meeting with a fitting address in which he urged the absolute need for co-operation. "The fight must be strenuous," he said, "because, fighting against the liquor interests is fighting the devil. The churches will have to work as they pray. We should realize that hotels are meant only for accommodation. Every municipality must organize and agitate by means of literature and public meetings."

GOVERNMENT OPPOSED TO TAXATION REFORM

Hon. W. J. Hanna Crushes McCormick Bill Giving Local Option.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, March 23.—Steadfast opposition to any proposal of assessment reform was again evidenced by the Whitney Government this afternoon when Hon. W. J. Hanna declared that a bill by R. J. McCormick (East Lambton), giving municipalities local option in assessing improvements lower than land should not be given a second reading. Although the debate was not concluded at the time of adjournment, the failure of the second reading is established. However, in supporting Mr. McCormick's bill, made one of the best-reasoned speeches of his parliamentary career, and showed that the Government in assuming that there was no demand for tax reform in the province, was out of touch with popular sentiment and too slow to discern the movement of the times. The debate will be resumed later by Thomas Marshall (Monck).

CHOSEN BY ACCLAMATION

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Blyth, March 23.—At the nomination meeting held in industry today to fill the vacancy on the school board caused by the resignation of Dr. Charles Worth on account of his leaving town, Mr. S. A. Popplestone was the only nominee, so was elected by acclamation.

The town started its incandescent street lights tonight, and they are greatly appreciated after the several weeks of darkness.

OXFORD COUNTY COUNCIL IS GOING TO OTTAWA

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Woodstock, March 23.—At this evening's session of the county council it was decided that all the members should go to Ottawa on Thursday next with the hydro-radial delegation. The clerk was instructed to prepare a bylaw to raise by debenture $50,000 for the construction of county roads during 1914.

WANTED TO KNOW.
The Truth About Grape-Nuts Food.

It doesn't matter so much what you hear about a thing, it's what you know that counts. And correct knowledge is most likely to come from personal experience.

"About a year ago," writes an eastern man, "I was bothered by indigestion, especially during the forenoon. I tried several remedies without any permanent improvement."

"My breakfast usually consisted of oatmeal, steak or chops, bread, coffee and some fruit."

"Hearing so much about Grape-Nuts, I concluded to give it a trial and find out if all I had heard of it was true."

"So I began with Grape-Nuts and cream, soft-boiled eggs, toast, a cup of postum and some fruit. Before the end of the first week I was rid of the acidity of the stomach and felt much relieved."

"By the end of the second week all traces of indigestion had disappeared and I was in first-rate health once more. Before beginning this course of diet, I never had any appetite for lunch, but now I can enjoy the meal at noon time."

Commons Gives Fighting Member Ovation—Cheers From Both Sides—He Proceeds to Study Report.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, March 23.—The budget is due in a week. This afternoon Finance Minister White confided to the House that if nothing unexpected intervened he would deliver his financial message to the country on Monday, March 30. It is expected that then the Government will announce the state of its negotiations with Mackenzie & Mann, as well as proposals for changes in duties on implements and for steel.

The spectacular feature of the day came just after the House opened when, quietly and modestly, Hon. William Pugsley walked into the chamber when Mr. Lemieux was speaking. For five minutes the business of Parliament was suspended. Cheers from the Liberal and then from the Conservative side were the first greeting accorded to the man who was recognized as the fighter of last session. Then, before business was resumed, there was a fine display of human feelings. Law-making was forgotten while members crowded about Dr. Pugsley to shake hands and welcome a real man back from health-seeking to the turmoil of parliamentary arena. Hon. Mr. Doherty, the minister of justice, and Finance Minister White were among those who crossed the floor to accord and receive the hand-clasp. This was one of the few occasions where the professional observer has seen the man rise above the member on the floor of the Commons.

An hour later Hon. Dr. Pugsley was in his room looking over the Stantoun-Ontario report, which is to be debated tomorrow.

LOBO GOING TO OTTAWA

Enthusiastic Meeting Held to Discuss Hydro-Radial Scheme.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

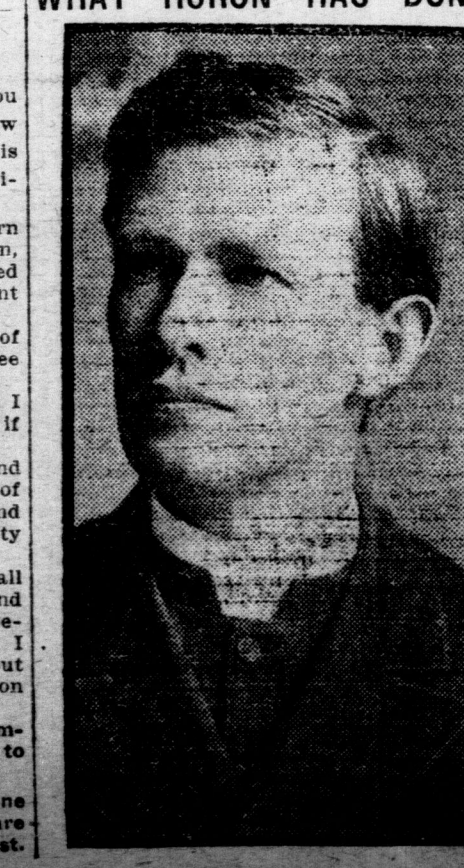

Lobo, March 24.—Lobo's Town Hall was filled with an enthusiastic crowd, eager to hear the hydro-radial movement discussed by Mayor Graham, of London; Prof. C. A. Zavitz, T. G. Turnbull and others.

Reeve John McGugan occupied the chair, and at 1:30 o'clock called the meeting to order and introduced the first speaker, Mayor Graham, of London, who spoke for two hours, fully explaining the work of the Deep Waterways Union, the radial railways and hydro power scheme for Western Ontario.

On rising to speak, Mayor Graham was greeted with hearty cheering, and received a most attentive hearing, as he dealt with the several matters of interest and importance. At the completion of his address, Mayor Graham was tendered a hearty ovation.

Reeve John McGugan then called upon Prof. C. A. Zavitz, of the O. A. C., one of Lobo's most honored sons. Prof. Zavitz explained the benefit of hydro power on the farm, in the home, and the benefit to others.

Panama and the Canal
In Picture and Prose

An illustration cannot portray the beauties of this big $4.00 book, bound in tropical red vellum cloth. It measures 9x12 in. in size.

The picture of the hand shows the comparative size of the book.

This book first takes you in through the front door of Panama—through the islands along the way, describing the natives in picture and prose; thence you are taken to the isthmus and are shown the wonders of that unknown country—the people, their strange customs and more strange costumes, their religions and politics, their peculiar characteristics; how they live—how certain natives eat lizards and hugely enjoy them—how they fish and hunt; their sports and pastimes; marketing bananas, shooting alligators, burning charcoal; ALL there is to know about these queer people, and MORE than has ever been told of the great waterway —from the "whys and wherefores" of its inception to the "ins and outs" of its construction—and on through to its completion—in all a beautiful human interest story that will charm the reader to the very last page.

The Large Volume

is printed from new type, large and clear, splendidly bound, with inlaid panel showing the famous Culebra Cut in natural colors, and filled with magnificent illustrations, many of which are from water-color studies in artistic colorings.

The Small Volume

contains practically the same reading matter; is bound in blue vellum cloth, but contains only 100 photographic reproductions, and the color plates are omitted. Willis J. Abbot, America's most versatile writer, is the author of both books.

A futurist poem on spring is a good score-crow to drive off the perennial conventionalists.

From Central Brazil come reports of turmoil and tumult. Of course, isn't Mr.

Roosevelt still charging through the jungle?

Cheer up! In the midst of war alarms from the four corners of the globe, we learn that Ty Cobb is knocking the ball of the four corners of the lot.

Militant suffragettes are learning to judo-jitsu in order to hamper the police when making arrests. Wonder if they have ever tried sitting on the sidewalk?

By the time Great Britain manages to locate the man who stabbed Benton, he and his fellows will themselves have fattened the buzzards.

Women seem to be doing a lot of shooting in gay Paris. It is not for women's rights, of which perhaps there are plenty in Paris, but just by way of impressing their opinions upon men.

If Canadian steel and iron companies cannot compete with United States companies without a bounty it would be interesting to know why the United States steel corporation decided to build a plant in Canada.

Mexican rumors say that John Lind,

President Wilson's special agent, has reopened negotiations with Huerta. Perhaps Washington at last realizes what the rest of the world did long ago, that more can be accomplished through

Huerta than Villa and Carranza.

What is Carson's game in Belfast?

Does he intend to start the rebellion before home rule passes, in order to make it more difficult for the King to sign the measure? It will also make it more difficult for the King not to sign, if that were possible. Three-fourths of Ireland will not be bullied by a small minority, calling in the Kaiser. Or does King Edward now seek to quiet the followers who have taken him too literally.

At a political meeting last Saturday,

the Premier of New Zealand took decided objection to Mr. Churchill's latest naval policy. He said his Government would take the earliest opportunity to ask the Parliament of New Zealand for authority to spend $2,000,000 for the building of a cruiser. He believed his dominion should prepare its own ships and run its own navy. Which shows what a disloyal separatist is the Premier of New Zealand, according to Mr. Borden and his friends.

Conservative papers are virtuously indignant over certain disclosures made by Mr. Ferguson in his report on the Trent Canal, which, they seem to think, prove what wicked creatures the Liberals

are. One of the transactions condemned was that a certain party contracted to supply dynamite at 27 cents a pound, that he bought it from a Kingston firm

at 22 cents, and that all he had to do for his five-cents profit was to pass the invoices through his hands, the Kingston firm shipping the goods. But the critics all forget to say that this occurred since the Liberal Government went out of power, and that if there was any take-off for any political party it must have been for the Conservatives themselves.

A MILITARY MUDDLE.

THE present disturbed situation in the British army is something unprecedented in modern times. Not since the days of the last civil war have military officers taken the ground that they have a right to decide whether they shall obey orders or not. They were told to go into Ulster Province to protect the military stores. That these stores were in danger of being looted by the discontented anti-home rulers was certain, if

Sir Edward Carson and his followers were in earnest. Any government that failed to take precautionary measures under the circumstances would have been negligent of its duty. There was no reason to suppose that the regiments ordered to Ulster were sent there to make war on the inhabitants. That would have been a proceeding not only criminal, but silly. But it was a simple duty of the Government to protect its own stores, and to preserve order.

There was never any probability of the army being required to make war on

Ulster. If Ulster would be quiet, it would not be disturbed. If Ulster created a riot, peace should be maintained.

But a number of officers, rather than obey orders, have resigned. They have no more power to resign than have the privates—and if it is permissible for officers to resign the same right belongs to the rank and file. There is no longer any discipline: the solidarity of the army as a servant of the people disappears. If the soldiers can take a passive part in a political faction fight, the next step will be for them to take an active part.

The government of a country like Britain represents the people. If the army is free to obey or disobey, it is no longer

the servant of the people. It is assuming to be the master, not the servant.

In old Rome, it was no unusual thing for the army to overturn the government, kill the emperor, and elect another to his place. In Latin America, there have been cases not a few where the man who could control the army could overturn the government. Is this going to be the condition of affairs in Britain? Were the new theories of military service adopted, that would be the logical conclusion. It would mean military instead of civil rule.

The entire tendency of the Ulster agitation has been in this direction. The Carsonites have preached treason. They have enlisted and armed men with the avowed object of resisting by force the will of the people. In this they have been encouraged by the Unionist party, and the aristocratic element of society,

who are willing to use any means available to damage a government which has shown itself the friend of the masses.

The next step is the passive mutiny of officers of the same political and social stripe. Then we may easily expect active resistance to authority on the part of the military forces, who both in law and in honor are the servants of the people. And the final result might easily be military rule.

Not that we expect the movement to go that far. England is a democratic country. The people will rule, and those in high life as well as those in low will have to submit. But, in the meantime,

there is a feeling of unrest, and of lawlessness, which those who have caused it may be unable to control. All except those who hope to profit by disorder will trust to the patience of the Government, and the underlying common sense of the vast majority of the people, for the safety and for the future of the nation. The explanations of the Premier yesterday make it apparent that some at least of the resignations were due to a misunderstanding of the orders received, and that they had thought they were being sent out for the purpose of conquering

Ulster. They might have had sense enough to know that nothing of that sort was intended. It would be better if they had more confidence in the judgment of the civil powers, and not allow their own political prejudices to control their actions.

MR. HANNA AND OIL.

THE following is from a statement made by Hon. W. J. Hanna in the Ontario Legislature on March 10, 1914:

"Ten years ago this month, if my memory serves me right, I made in this House a statement similar to the one that I today find it my duty to repeat. And that is this: That never at any time did I or my firm or any one connected with me receive directly or indirectly one dollar or one cent from the Standard Oil Company of anywhere.

"Now, then, having said this, let me repeat what I said ten years ago. There is in the town of Sarnia the Imperial Oil Company, a company incorporated in the late seventies or early eighties, a company the shareholders of which are a majority of them Canadian citizens, citizens of this Province; a company the majority of whose directors are Canadian citizens, citizens of this Province, men in the business life of this Province and on both sides of politics; that company has gone on doing business in this Province of Ontario and the whole Dominion of Canada. This business is confined to the Dominion of Canada. It is essentially a Canadian company.

"My firm in the town of Sarnia has transacted, as solicitors, the business for that company since 1897."

And the following is from a press dispatch sent out yesterday from Columbus,

Ohio:

"In a suit filed in common pleas court here today, George H. Phelps, an attorney, of Findlay, Ohio, seeks to have the courts compel Attorney-General Hogan to institute proceedings to oust the Standard Oil Company and several of its subsidiaries from doing business in Ohio.

The Standard Oil Company, the Ohio

Oil Company, the Solar Refining Company, the Buckeye Pipe Line Company and the Imperial Oil Company of Canada are the corporations named in Phelps' petition. He avers that the Standard Oil Company and its subsidiaries named have continuously violated the Sherman anti-trust law and the Valentine antitrust statute of this state."

THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

CAN a more lugubrious set than the British Tories at the present time be imagined? We hear of meetings at which wheezing old men like Lord Bessborough proclaim the decadence of England. And yet her prosperity has risen in the last few years to heights beyond all calculation.

There are practically no unemployed in Great Britain outside a minimum margin of the unemployable. The trouble is that domestic questions gain attention at the expense of war and militarism, the people are taking government into their own hands, and have shown themselves too intelligent to be fooled with tariff lies.

The Lloyd George budget was the beginning of grief, in that the rich began to be taxed. But the impending abolition of the plural voting is the immediate calamity. If only the Government of Asquith could be jockeyed out of office over the home rule issue or any issue, the Plural Voting Act might be staved off indefinitely.

A wall goes up from the even more moderate Conservatives, like Lord Esher, that Parliament is no longer what it was, that is does not represent the people, and that some sort of referendum is needed. The Tory idea is that the House of Lords should be at liberty to refer all Liberal measures to the people on the chance of choking them off

one by one. That is a one-sided deal.

In an article recently quoted in The Advertiser, Lord Esher laments that the Asquith ministry consists not of hereditary politicians, but mainly of upstart vulgarians. "The House of Commons,"

he says, "is no longer composed of free and independent representatives elected to redress grievances, and to legislate for the people, but of paid delegates."

When was the British parliamentarian freer than today? Not before 1832, when men and constituencies were openly for sale. Lord Esher means that the members of Parliament are bound today by the party caucus and platform, and it may be true that before the more thorough organization of party machinery

there was in the 40's and 50's of last century a sort of turbulent freedom among some members of Parliament, not always enjoyed by their constituents. But Lord

Esher suggests that the present rigidity of party lines is due to the payment of members! Party rigidity had come in long before parliamentary salaries. Payment of members, to admit poor men, there's the rub to the upholder of caste!

And the Government forces cannot be

MUSIC PUPILS GIVE AN EXCELLENT PROGRAM

Recital of Vocal, Piano, and Violin Selections at Mrs. Jordan's.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent on Saturday last at "The Grange," the home of Mrs. A. D. Jordan, when her pupils and some who are studying under Mr.
Jordan, rendered a fine program of piano,
vocal and violin numbers.

Mrs. Jordan's pupils are making excellent progress under her tuition, and the recital was a most enjoyable one.
Miss Fern Zavitz, who possesses a very beautiful soprano voice, was heard to good advantage in her vocal solo. The selections on the violin by Misses Flanders and Mitchell, were also much appreciated. Following is the program complete: 2nd valse (Godard), Marie Hornby; Trauerlied (Schumann), Minnet (Beethoven), (violin), Miss Dorothy Mitchell; halled, idyl (Perrier), Doris Bolton; "Angels Ever Bright and Fair" (Handel), Miss Fern Zavitz; Little Waltz, Miss Hilda Benson; Consolation (Mendelssohn), Polish Dance (Scharwenka), Miss Isobel
Ivey; Gohlin's Frolic (Holler), Valsette (Borowski), Miss Luta Laymon; "The

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Cure

Easily and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This recipe makes 16 ounces of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much or as good cough syrup for $2.50.

Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually stops the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, sore throats, asthma, the cold, etc.

Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 3/4 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 16-ounce bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly.
Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

Fine is one of the oldest and best-known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gualcol and all the other natural healing elements.
Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The prompt results from this recipe have endeared it to thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

About Hairdressers.

Dear Miss Grey—I am here again to trouble you with a few more questions.
1. Is soap good for the face? I hear it promotes the growth of hair if used as a shampoo, and if so, don't you think it would make the hair grow on the face?

2. What is it a good hairdresser charges just for dressing the hair? Yours truly, BROWN EYES.

Ans.—1. I consider the soap you mention to be of excellent quality. It is an excellent cleanser for the scalp, but would not, I feel certain, cause hair to grow on the face.

2. I believe they usually charge fifty cents. Names of local business houses I cannot print here.

A January Costume.

Dear Miss Grey—I have been invited out to spend an evening, and am supposed to wear something to represent my birth month. It is January. Can you advise me what to wear? Thanking you for your answer, I am, dear Miss Grey, yours truly, VANCE.

Ans.—An idea that suggests itself is to wear a robe made of white cotton wading, and sprinkled thickly with mica dust to represent frost. Wear a chaplet of cedar or fir on the head, and carry in your hand a bunch of holly leaves and bearing the words, "Happy New Year."

Blonde or Brunette?

Dear Miss Grey—Please be pleased to have you answer some questions for me in your column. I am very much interested in the woman's page.

1. Which do you think is more attractive—a blonde or brunette? I mean in appearance.

2. What would you call a sensible age for a girl to marry?

3. When a young man is leaving after calling on his friend, should he always ask when he may call again, or is he privileged to ask him to call?

4. What are the meanings of these names: Mary, Clara, Violet, Francis, Nellie, Eleanor, Joseph, Harry?

Ans.—1. I have not taken too much of your valuable time in answering these questions, I think you, BRIGHT EYES, I have answered. I have answered. I have answered. I have answered. I have answered.

2. Between 23 and 30 seems to me to be the best age.

3. She may ask him to call.

4. Mary, bitter; Clara, bright; Violet,

REAL ART NOT REALISTIC
BUT MUST BE FANTASTIC

John Cowper Powys Speaks on French
Art to Members of Art Club.

That a study of French art revealed in it characteristics borne by no other art in the world, was a statement of Mr.
John Cowper Powys, M. A., in an address on "French Art," delivered yesterday afternoon before members of the London Art Club, in their studio, Dundas street.

Two Elements.
Mr. Powys, who is a student of the French art represented among the nations of the world the old art of Athens and Rome, but that while it reflected the classical in art, other atmospheres might be discerned as well. French art revealed the Celtic element and the Latin.

In it one found the suggestion of the south, of warm sunny skies, of white dust, of fruit tree and grape-vine. But also there was the atmosphere of the north, and the two combined to give to the world a different art from that produced anywhere else.

Watteau, Mr. Powys regarded, as being the most characteristic of all the French painters. He was the most artificial, the most impossible, the most fantastic. "He painted the land of hearts' desire," the country of "if only," and "might have been," said Mr. Powys.

"In picture after picture you have this mood, and it is good for our commonplace, Anglo-Saxon souls to go to Versailles, and see the wonders which Wat-teau created, and how our heads before that art."

One school of French art, Mr. Powys condemned. The disciples of the Brabazon School, he said portrayed the most banal, the most insipid, the most sentimental work of all the schools of art.
They depicted things as they were, a sort of photograph, without imagination or beauty.

For, according to Mr. Powys, the realistic art is not art at all. To see a landscape painted, and to recognize the caricature as a familiar scene, was to decry not only one's appreciation of art, but of the artist's talent as well. In this respect, Mr. Powys took exception to John Ruskin's views as expressed in his "Lectures on Art." He recalled the criticism made by Ruskin on Claude's trees and sunshine; how Ruskin pointed out the impossibility of Claude's scenes.
"What does it matter," asked Mr.
Powys, "whether one can tell if the trees are oaks or elms, so long as they are trees and clothed so beautifully? Claude was an artist of the great style."

Nicholas Poussin was also another exponent of the best type of French art.
His figures were so beautifully colored that it was as if "melted rubies were in their veins." They were delicate creations of his own. "Corot, too, with his wonderful landscapes and magic touch in depicting silvery, diaphanous clothing and trees, had discovered what art really meant. Like Watteau and Poussin, his scenes were imaginary, fantastic and peopled with characters of his own creating."

Modern French Art.
In modern French art, Mr. Powys believed Matisse to be the most representative figure. Matisse had learnt the old traditions from the great masters, and then proceeded to express his own dream and theories. Futurist art, Mr. Powys said, was a descendant of the art of China, Persia and Assyria. It savored of the thing of Bagdad and of Babylon. In it the artist got away from the commonplace and modern sentimentality.

Precepts and maxims are of great weight, and a few useful ones at hand do more toward a wise and happy life than whole volumes of cautious that we know not where to find.—C. Simmons.

Sympathy wanting, all is wanting. Personal magnetism is the conductor of the sacred spark that puts us in human communion, and gives us to company, communion and ourselves.—A. B. Alcott.

The Transparent Bodiced Dance Frock.

Bodices must be transparent according to the present fashions, and are usually made of material different from the skirt, chiffon, shadow lace, silk net and sheer machine embroidery. In this dainty and simple modelled dance dress the chiffon skirt has been arranged in long drapery lines, made still longer by the high charming girle. Dainty tango slippers and a simple coiffure, to say nothing of the train that hangs at the side, make the costume perfect for dancing.

SERVE SUBSTITUTES FOR MEAT DAINILY

BY PROF. EDNA NOBLE
WHITE.

Domestic Science College, Ohio
State University.

It has been well said that it was not a study of what the family wanted to eat that was needed, but a study of what the family ought to eat and how to get them to eat it. The latter part of the problem might be easily solved if the food were more attractively seasoned and served. To say to people that they were eating too much meat and then to serve in its place an unsavory concoction, even though it be equal to the meat in nutritive value, would be convincing. It is unreasonable for the housewife to ask the family to accept as a substitute for a favorite dish one which is not especially palatable, and it might be added that the less the substitution is discussed the less likely are there to be objections. Europeans are much more familiar with cheeses and their uses than we are, and many travellers find their prejudices against cheese disappearing as they taste the dishes prepared by foreign cooks.

A French rarebit is a simple but most acceptable substitute for a meat dish.
Cut three large slices of bread. Measure three tablespoons butter, five tablespoons cheese, one and one-half cups milk and one and one-half eggs.

Butter the slices of bread and cut into inch squares. Fill a buttered baking dish with alternate layers of the bread and grated cheese. Moisten thoroughly with a mixture made of the milk and eggs, seasoned with salt, pepper and mustard.
Bake in a moderate oven until the mixture sets, like custard, and brown it on top.

"A much larger profit is made by the grocer on every other tea he sells than on "SALADA." Hence the others are often substituted when "SALADA" is asked for.

Queen Mary recently saw a roughly clad man painting the portrait of a laborer's child, and liked it so much that she sent him a fee of $5 and a commission to paint Princess Mary's picture.
She then discovered that he is a portrait painter of reputation, and has had to pay his regular fee of $525.

Mrs. John Smith, who died recently in Brighton, England, must have had more masculine, and it is essential that evening costumes become more and more the apotheosis of the eternal feminine and of all that is opposite in line and color to the masculine silhouette. He deems colism.

Songs We Used to Whistle and Sing

We met—'twas in a crowd.
And I thought he would shun me
When he came I could not speak
For his eyes were upon me.

He spoke, his words were cold,
But his smile was unaltered.
I knew what he felt,
For his deep-toned voice faltered.

And once again we met.
A fair girl was near him;
He smiled and whispered low,
As I once used to hear him.

I sighed, my heart was sad,
But my feelings I smothered.
For you have been the cause
Of this anguish, my mother.

PERRIN HOCKEY TEAM
BANQUETED BY FIRMTeam Presented With Trophies
Before Large Gathering.

KEEP THE LANCASTER CUP

Evening Was Concluded With Speeches
From Members of Firm and Invited Guests.

The Perrin hockey team champions of the Manufacturers' League, was banqueted at the City Hotel last evening by the firm. The members of the hockey team and nearly fifty invited guests sat down to the tables. Following the luncheon, Mr. T. W. McFarlane, manager of the Perrin company, acted as toastmaster, and introduced Controller Percy Moore, who in the absence of Mayor Graham, who was in Toronto, presented the champions with the City Hotel trophy, emblematic of the league championship. In the four years the league has been organized, the cup has been won three times by the Perrin team.

The Lancaster trophy, emblematic of the city championship, was presented to the team by the donor, Whit Lancaster, of the Westminster Rink. Mr. Lancaster stated that the cup was now the sole property of the Perrin club, as they had won it twice. He suggested that it be used as a challenge cup, and be played for at the beginning or end of each season.

Norman B. Graham, manager of the Perrin Hockey Club, accepted the trophies on behalf of the team and the firm and thanked the donors and the firm for their kind interest and support of the league and the Perrin club. The Perrin team would be back again next year eager for further laurels.

T. W. McFarlane gave a brief address in response to the toast to "The Firm," and the names of Colin Currie and Harry Lewis were connected with the toast to "Our Travellers." Mr. Currie gave an interesting sketch of the trip from Halifax to Vancouver, citing some interesting experiences of his own in making it.

The toast to "Our Guests" was responded to by Messrs. Tom L. Haygarth, Ernest Gill, secretary of the Manufacturers' League, and late Captain Frank Knott, who was a former member of the Perrin champions. W. Evans also spoke on behalf of the Perrin tug-o-war team winners of the city championship and The Advertiser cup.

The last toast of the evening was that of "The Ladies," which was ably handled by Charles G. Moorehead. During the evening the Perrin quartette, composed of Messrs. Moorehead, Lindsay, Nash and Plumb, rendered a couple of songs. Messrs. Moorehead and Lindsay also gave a duet and Mr. Art Smith sang a solo and Mr. Sid Rankin, the popular referee, recited one of Service's poems, all of which were loudly enjoyed, and much enjoyed by those present. Some local hits, introduced in a song ably rendered by another member of the Perrin firm, were well received.

The spaulding trophy was also presented to the Perrin team by the William Gurd Company, William J. Clarke making the presentation.

Those Present.

Those present at banquet were: Mr. Nicholls, E. Gill, T. W. McFarlane, C. Currie, A. Robertson, J. Galpin, F. Lindsay, C. G. Moorehead, J. T. Nash, F. K. Rigby, C. Taylor, J. C. Plumb, C. W. TOM L. HAYGARTH SAYS:

"Foreign fabrics of novel design and beautiful coloring are shown in the new Semi-ready Soft Roll Models."

"In my shop British styles rub elbows with many charming New York ideas."

"I have a mode for every man. Choose what you will. Nor yet need it be expensive, for the waisty narrow-shouldered effects are shown in Suits at $15, $18 and $20, as well as in the more costly wool fabrics."

DETROIT, REBUILT FROM BOTTOM UP, IS A BASEBALL TEAM IN THE MAKING, SAYS FULLERTON, AFTER VISIT TO TIGERS' CAMP

Comstock, in action, is the George Muller of the 1914 Tigers

By Hugh S. Fullerton.

Gulfport, Miss., March 24.—Detroit is a baseball team in the making, a team full of great latent possibilities, and today it looks the most dangerous team in the American League to the chances of the Athletics.

The Detroit team in the American League and the Boston team in the National, are much alike in one respect, and that is that they are at last starting at the bottom to rebuild a real club. These two teams have the mere framework of championship clubs and they seem to have cornered the market in the search for new talent.

The thing that impresses me most in watching the Tigers working here at Gulfport is the fact that they are the best-handled team of youngsters I ever have seen. The training methods employed by Jennings are superior to those of any other manager I have ever seen, not barring those of McGraw, Jennings, to my way of thinking, is one of the greatest of managers, weak only in that he has in the past played favorites. He has allowed Cobb to get away with a lot of things that he would not have endured from any other man, and this has hurt the team greatly. Cobb seems to have come to a sense of realization of this fact. He is older, more settled, and he does a lot more thinking.

Detroit always has been a team that plays hard. This spring that spirit of driving, hard running, hard sliding, is more noticeable than it ever has been. The Tiger team will sound strange to their old followers this year. Cobb and the rescued Crawford will be there—the same old run-getting combination that has made the team so strong. Stange will do most of the catching, of course. McKee, a husky, Delmar and Baker from Seattle, are the others. McKee, the red-headed comet, will be the second catcher, and he seems improved.

Boehler from St. Joe; Toots Shultz, the old Penny pitcher, once with the Phillies; Main, a big tall fellow from the International; Reynolds, Comstock, J. Williams, Shepherd, Hall, Daus and Dubuc are the right-handers. J. Williams is the Hawaiian wonder, who has more smoke than Kilauea in eruption. Daus and Dubuc are steady.

Shepherd is a big busher from a semi-pro team in Sacramento, with a pair of shoulders eight feet or so across. I have more hope for Comstock and Main than for any of the other new ones. Main is another Virgin Garvin, but with an easier

WALKERTON ORGANIZES

FOOTBALL CLUB FOR YEAR

F. Walker Elected President and F. Edits Secretary—Team Will Enter Intermediate Ranks.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Walkerton, March 23.—A large and very enthusiastic meeting which filled the large council chamber was held in Town Hall tonight to organize the football club for the year. The following officers were elected:

Hon. President—Mayor Lippert.
First Hon. Vice-President—A. E. McNab.
Second Hon. Vice-President—James Whitehead.

President—F. Walker.
First Vice-President—L. Huether.
Second Vice-President—A. McCartney.
Secretary—F. Edits.
Treasurer—C. Oberle.

Managing Committee—N. A. Waterford, R. Player and H. Huse.

It was decided to enter the intermediate league. It was also decided to organize a semi-professional team to play the town and form a town league among the juveniles to develop young players. Walkerton has ample material for a strong team.

movement, and a whale of an overhand swing. Comstock, who is the George Muller of the team, sams the curve, pitches spitters. He was a great pitcher at Minneapolis and he ought to improve and cure his awkwardness under the training of McGraw, Covesky, who tamed the Giants, and won a pennant for Chicago, while with Philadelphia; Cavet, a giant from the South, and C. Williams, are the left-handers.

Heilman, from Portland, is the chief aspirant for Gainer's job at first, with Burns and Pipp the others. Personally I think George Moriarty is the class of the first basemen.

There are a swarm seeking the other open job at third, Billy Purcell, who was a whirlwind as a kid with the White Sox, is coming back.

The best of the new infield candidates are Kavanaugh and Fitzsimmons. Here are two fellows of major league class right off the reel. Kavanaugh can hit and he can run the bases. Fitzsimmons handles a ground ball as rapidly and as easily as George McBride. They say he cannot hit much—about .240 in the minors. Veach, High and Demmitt are candidates for the outfield.

St. Augustine, Fla., March 23.—The St. Louis National League Club held the Philadelphia Americans' second club, made up chiefly of recruits to no runs in favor of St. Louis.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 23.—The St. Louis American League team today shut out the Jacksonville (S. A. L.) club here 3 to 0.

Mobile, Ala., March 23.—With all regulars in the lineup, the New York Americans League team defeated the local Southern League today by a score of 5 to 2. Keating, from New York, struck out eleven men in five innings. Walsh and Gilheoley hit home runs.

QUEBEC WON GAME
BUT LOST THE ROUNDWanderers Carry Off Purse in New York Series.

WON BY THREE TALLIES

Prodgers' Team Won Final Game of Series After Brilliant Exhibition, by 8 to 6.

New York, March 23.—In the most brilliantly played game of hockey seen at the St. Nicholas skating rink in years, the Quebec six defeated the Wanderers of Montreal by 8 goals to 6. However, the Quebec aggregation did not score enough goals to win the series, and the $5,000 purse offered as a prize went to the Wanderers. The total score of the two games counted on the prize. As the Wanderers defeated the Quebecs by nine goals to four on Saturday night, the Montreal six took the series and the prize by the grand score of 15 goals to 12.

Although the contest was of the whirlwind variety, it was clean as a whistle until the third period. The Quebec team was the aggressor throughout, and as it continued to cut down the lead of the Montreal six, the latter players resorted to rough-house work to hold their lead. The climax arrived when Art Rose and Munnery got into a fight and rolled around on the ice locked in each other's arms. They were quickly separated and both sent to the sidelines to cool off.

Large Crowd Present.
One of the largest crowds that ever packed its way into the St. Nicholas rink witnessed the game. The metropolitan followers of the sport were beginning to have their favorites among the players, and the good work of each man was applauded loudly. The Quebec team was the favorite, principally because it entered the game so far behind on the score sheet and also because the men from the Plains of Abraham put up a wonderful uphill fight.

In only the first period did the winners outplay the Quebec men. In the first session Wanderers scored two against one goal registered by the Quebecs. The second session was all in favor of the latter team, and as they continued to roll up scores the house was stirred into an uproar. At the second resting period the score stood 13 to 3 in favor of the Wanderers. In the third period Quebec rushed the score up to 12 to 13 before they blew up.

"MY KIDNEYS HURT ME ALL THE TIME"

Gin Pills Cured Them. Free Sample Box Leads to Cure

Only those who have been tortured with kidney troubles can appreciate how Mr. Trumper suffered. Being a railroad man he was called upon to do all kinds of heavy work. The constant strain of lifting weakened the kidneys.

I received the sample box of Gin Pills and was greatly benefitted by them. My kidneys were in such bad condition I could not lift or stoop without pain. In fact they pained me nearly all the time. I have taken three boxes of Gin Pills, working all the time at heavy work on the railroad and did not lose a day.

Wanted Two Nicknames

The Federal League still lacks one requisite of big leaguedom. Not all its teams have been nicknamed.

St. Louis and Buffalo are the unchristened teams. The fans refer to them as the "St. Louis Federals" and the "Buffalo Federals." It's different elsewhere in the circuit. The other pennant chasers in Gilmore's organization sport the following pet titles: Baltimore—Terrapins. Kansas City—Packers. Chicago—Chiefs. Indianapolis—Hoosiers. Brooklyn—Tiptops. Pittsburgh—Buildogs.

NO SUNDAY GAMES FOR BROOKLYN CLUB

President Ward Says His Players Need Rest Same as Others.

[Canadian Press.]

Baltimore, Md., March 24.—When the directors of the Federal League met this morning to go over the playing dates arranged by the schedule committee it was expected that the spirit of co-operation that prevailed at yesterday's sessions would result in speedy action upon the schedule and early adjournment today.

President R. B. Ward, of the Brooklyn club, came out emphatically against the team playing Sunday baseball, and the schedule makers arranged the dates in the west accordingly.

"The ball players must work the same as the banker to maintain their standard and to improve efficiency," said Mr. Ward. "If they fall behind they are dropped. That's why they should have their rest as anyone else. I'm not straight-laced, but I do believe in proper observance of Sunday, and because of my belief my players will have the same relief from duty."

A Fine Treatment for Catarrh

Easy to Make and Costs Little.
If you suffer from catarrh, head noises, sore throat, asthma, or hay fever, here is a fine recipe that invariably effects a permanent cure after all other treatments have failed.

Its effect in the worst cases is most striking and positive.
The catarrhal poison is quickly driven from the system, and its tonic action immediately increases the vitality, which is always lowered by this insidious disease. From your druggist obtain one ounce of Parment (Double Strength), about 75¢ worth, take this home and add to it a quarter pint of hot water, two table-spoonsful of brandy, and four ounces of moist or granulated sugar. Take one table-spoonful four times a day.

The first dose promptly ends the most miserable headache, dullness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, catarrhal discharges, head noises and other loathsome symptoms that always accompany this disgusting disease.
Loss of smell, defective hearing, and mucus dropping in the back of the throat, and other symptoms that show the presence of catarrh, and which are quickly overcome by the use of this simple treatment.

Every person who has catarrh in any form should give this prescription a trial. There is nothing better.
Important: In ordering Parment always specify that you want Double Strength; your druggist has it or he can get it for you; if not, send it to the International Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine street, Montreal, P. Q., who make a specialty of it.—Adv't. M.L.10.17.24.31.

FEDERAL LEAGUE DRAWS UP PLAYING SCHEDULE

Injunction to Prevent Pitcher Bland- ing Playing With Cleveland Has Also Been Taken Out.

Baltimore, Md., March 21.—The playing schedule of the Federal League was adopted here tonight at a meeting of officials of the league. The schedule was drafted in its entirety after two sessions were held. It was announced that some minor changes may be made that would entail an extra session tomorrow and that the schedule probably would be given out the latter part of this week. The most important business at the meeting other than the drafting of the schedule was the determination to apply for an injunction to restrain Pitcher Bland from playing with the Cleveland American League club.

President Gilmore telegraphed E. E. Gass, of Indianapolis, counsel for the league, instructing him to apply for the injunction at Grand Rapids, Mich., Bland being a resident of Michigan. Bland, who played with the Cleveland Americans last year, signed with the Kansas City Federals, but later rejoined Cleveland.

Vice-President Mullen, of the Buffalo club, said today that Pitcher Kahler, of last year's Cleveland team, who returned to Cleveland after having signed a contract with the Buffalo Federals, either would play in Buffalo or not at all.

President Gilmore announced that the pennant-winners of the Federals will issue a challenge to the winners of the American and National Leagues to play for the championship of the world.

If either of the successful clubs in those two leagues refuse to meet our leaders," he added, "we will claim the championship by default."
A dinner in honor of the visiting baseball men was given tonight by the Baltimore Federals.

The Star Third Baseman of Former World's Champions Is Considering the Offer.
Boston, March 23.—Jimmy Collins, a star third baseman for many years and manager of the world's champion Boston Americans of 1903, said today that he would go to Buffalo on Sunday to confer with the owners of the Federal League franchise regarding his acceptance of the management of that team. Collins said he would be a candidate for third base position if he became manager.

MET STEIGER IN DETROIT

London Club Expects a Great Deal From Detroit Southpaw This Coming Season.

Manager Reisling, of the London club, left for his home in Caldwell, Ohio, at 8 o'clock last evening, fully satisfied with his two-day stay he made in this city. He took with him a large hamper containing the London club uniforms and a lot of baseball paraphernalia owned by the local club. These were checked through to Marietta, Ohio, where the club's training season opens on April 15th.

Dr. Reisling stopped off in Detroit for a short time last evening in order to have an interview with Helme Steiger. The new London manager is anxious to make the acquaintance of this season's year players of the club before the season opens, and he wired to Steiger to meet his train. Great things are expected from the Detroit southpaw this season after his closing performances last year. He will not be worked very hard at first of the season, however, as it takes him some time to get his arm into shape.

It is not likely Manager Reisling will appear in London again until he brings the London team here on May 4. He will be busy with his own business affairs until the time for the players to report.

SENIOR CHAMPIONS BEAT THE MONARCHS

T. R. and A. A. Club Won by Score of 6 to 5.

GAME WAS A FAST ONE

Monarchs Had Great Speed But Not Enough Team Play—Big Crowd Present.

Toronto, March 23.—Monarchs, the champions of the Winnipeg League, and ex-Allan cup-holders, made their first eastern appearance at the arena tonight. Toronto R. and A. A., the O. H. A. senior champions, was the team to match strength against the Monarchs, and the satisfaction of a crowd of 500 spectators, the home team won, six to five was the score, with both teams holding the lead on several occasions. The game, while not as good as some of the senior amateur fixtures witnessed here this season, was nevertheless at times featured by some clever work.

There was little to choose between the teams, although perhaps the locals did have more shots than the visitors, especially in the first half. Gordon Meeking, the hero of the O. H. A. senior final games, and the most brilliant performer on the R. and A. A. forward line, was again the chief scorer for his team.

Monarchs easily outskated the locals but were not at home on the artificial ice. This was especially noticeable in the first half, when they had much trouble in standing on their skates. Maxwell, at rover, was perhaps the fastest of the visitors.

Dick Irvine, at centre, the player who was barred from the Allan cup fixtures with Regina by the trustees, was on the visitors' line-up. Marples and Hay, on the forward line, were also good, although inclined to individual play.
Stevenson, playing steady hockey for the locals, and was of assistance to both the defence and the attack of his team. Gordon Meeking looked a good deal of the time, but to good advantage. His back checking, as usual, was weak. Heffernan and Gooch, especially the former, were good on the defensive.

The teams:
T. R. and A. A.—Goal, Smith; defence, Heffernan, rover, Stevenson; centre, G. Meeking; left wing, H. Meeking; right wing, Brown.
Referee—Harvey Purford, Ottawa.

PITTSBURG CLUB TAKES ACTION AGAINST FEDS

Hot Springs, Ark., March 23.—S. H. Camnitz and 'John Joe,' representatives of the Pittsburgh Federal League Baseball Club, were enjoined temporarily by the Circuit Court here today from interfering with, in any manner, speaking, writing or communicating with members of the Pittsburgh National League team, now training in this city.

The injunction was asked by the Pittsburgh National League Club and was sought under an Arkansas statute which prohibits any club or association whose members have been pledged by contract, no date has been designated for the hearing of the injunction which was made temporary, pending an answer by the defendants.

Neither Camnitz nor the unidentified persons designated by the name of 'John Joe,' would make a statement tonight.

CAMBRIDGE CREW LOOKS GOOD THIS YEAR

Light Blues Have Better Bunch Than Last Year.

OXFORD NOT SO GOOD

Both Crews Enter Upon Last Week of Training Before Big English Rowing Event.

London, March 23.—The Oxford and Cambridge crews entered today the last week of training for the annual eight-oared race over the famous 4½-mile course from Putney to Mortlake on the Thames. Thus far everything has gone in favor of the Cambridge crew for the big event on March 28, the crew being the best which has come from that university for years. The reverse has been the case with Oxford, who were for a long time unable to decide on the composition of the crew or the order of rowing. Oxford is even more backward than was Cambridge last year. The only advantage the dark blues have is that they have more men of experience in their boat and if Cambridge goes stale may get up enough steam to snatch victory from the light blues. The crews are as follows:

Cambridge—D. I. Day, Lady Margaret; bow, J. E. Swan, Trinity Hall; 2, 3, D. C. Livingston, Jesus; 4, J. A. Ritson, First Trinity; 5, K. C. Garnett, First Trinity; 6, G. C. Clark, Pembroke; 7, C. E. V. Buxton, Third Trinity; 8, G. E. Tower, Third Trinity; stroke, L. E. Ridley, Jesus, cox.

Oxford—R. W. Fletcher, Balliol, bow; 2, B. Burdick, New College; 3, H. K. Ward, New College; 4, E. D. Horsfall, Magdalen; 5, J. B. Kinderley, Exeter; 6, F. Wiggins, New College; 7, G. W. Titherington, Queens; 8, F. A. H. Pittman, New College; stroke, H. B. Wells, Magdalen, cox.

Could Not Persuade Saints to Trade Him to Syracuse Club of New York State League.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
St. Thomas, March 23.—The deal Ray Clements endeavored to put through with the local ball club was the exchange of himself for a fast third baseman belonging to the Syracuse club in the New York State League, Freddie Payne, formerly a catcher with the Detroit Tigers, and now manager of the Syracuse team, desires the services of the spitball artist, and sent him here to try and arrange the trade. It is hardly likely Manager Craven will break up his pitching staff. Clements left for home tonight without anything definite being done.

"IS ABSOLUTELY MARVELLOUS AS A PAIN KILLER."

Mrs. Beatrice Cassady, of Swaledale, England, knows what it is to be bed-ridden with pain. She also knows how easily the tortures of Rheumatism and Lumbago may be overcome. She says: "My experience with KEPHALDOL as a pain-killer is absolutely marvellous. I had a fearful attack last year of Neuritis, Sciatica and Lumbago, and suffered in bed for many days. Finally, I heard of KEPHALDOL, which did wonders for me. I shall always feel most grateful for what it has done, and I am most happy to let others know of its wonderful effects as a pain destroyer."

KEPHALDOL is the only pain reliever that does not affect the heart. It acts directly on the nerve centres, easing and quieting the pain. KEPHALDOL is the favored combination of nerve stimulants and tonics prescribed by the famous Doctor Stohr, of Vienna, the great nerve specialist.

KEPHALDOL is now sold in Canada by druggists in 50¢ tubes or may be had by sending 50¢ direct to Kephaldol, Limited, 31 Latour street, Montreal.

Your kidneys, having the hardest work to perform, need the greatest care. Young and old alike should give them the greatest care. Sanol, the great German remedy, removes all uric acid poison. It is that dizzy feeling, pain in the back, puffing swelling under the eyes, tired feeling, swollen feet and ankles, darting rheumatic pains, and general debility, renewing your youth. Try Sanol. HE INTERVENED ON BEHALF OF CAILLAUX

Ex-Premier Barthou Got Figaro Editor to Keep Letters Out of Paper.

[Canadian Press.] Paris, France, March 24.—Louis Barthou, former premier, in testifying today before the committee of the Chamber of Deputies investigating the allegation that state ministers had influenced the postponement of the trial of the swindler, Henri Rochette, gave his word of honor that he had not supplied any documents to the Figaro. He had been asked to intervene on behalf of M. Caillaux by Premier Doumergue on January 14, not as a personal matter, but in the public interest. Premier Doumergue, according to M. Barthou, had heard that Gaston Calmette, late editor of the Figaro, intended to publish papers which would have been injurious to the public welfare. M. Barthou said he had pleaded with M. Calmette not to publish them and had received a promise from him that he would not do so. For this he had been thanked by both M. Doumergue and M. Caillaux.

GRAFTING PIG'S EYE ONTO BLIND CHILD

A Remarkable Operation Performed in Baltimore Hospital.

[Canadian Press.] Baltimore, Md., March 24.—What is believed to be the first operation of its kind in this country was performed yesterday at a local hospital, when the cornea of a pig's eye was taken off and grafted on the sightless eye of a three-months-old boy. It was said that previous operations in which rabbits' eyes had been used were successful, but that experiments with pigs' eyes had led scientists to believe that they were more adaptable.

Parker's DYE WORKS

LONDON BRANCH, 211 DUNDAS ST.

Did You Read This Yesterday?

We described these six conveniences that have made 700,000 women use the

HOOSIER

1. The Housekeeper's Food Guide.
2. The Cook Book Holder.
3. The Metal 50-lb. Flour Bin.
4. The Wonderful Shaker Sifter.
5. The Metal Linen Drawer.
6. The Emergency Shelf.

There are forty special conveniences in the new Hoosier—many of them labeled. Note the following:

- (7) The new bill file is a complete book-keeping system for most house-keeping. Most women dislike book-keeping, but this simple book file for meat and grocery bills on the upper middle door shows exactly which bills have been paid and which have not. With it you can keep a complete, simple record of all your money transactions.
- (8) The "Money tray" on the upper right door is divided into three compartments. One is labeled "change," one "milk tickets," one "miscellaneous." You can keep all your milk or bread checks here and the small change you need for daily bills. This will save you many trips for your pocketbook.
- Have you heard about the Experimental Room in the Hoosier factory where every Modern Kitchen Improvement is tested? Do you know that every one that passes the test is built into the Hoosier?
- (9) Eight crystal glass spice jars with air-tight screw lids are a part of the regular Hoosier equipment. Notice their wide mouths, especially made to admit a spoon. Four have patented sifter tops that are air-tight except when in use. Notice particularly that they are located at the very finger tips of your right hand.
- (10) A new condiment cupboard, specially fitted in above the flour bin, holds twelve bottles of ketchup, vinegar, salad dressing, etc., which can be so placed that you need not move one to get the other.
- (11) The table top of an improved sanitary metal slides out 16 inches beyond the base, so you can sit down at work. It locks automatically so you cannot drop it on your toes. There is not a corner anywhere that is not easy to keep clean. Most important of all, we guarantee this table will never warp.
- (12) The big pocket for the lids and pans on the lower cupboard door is ready whenever you need it. You can get the pan or lid you need without stooping.

NOW DON'T WAIT TOO LONG. Remember, the chances are you need this new Hoosier in your kitchen. Its tested conveniences are a remarkable help in almost every kitchen. To decide fairly whether or not you do need it, you should examine it personally tomorrow. For tomorrow may be your last chance to have one of these New Hoosiers delivered on the Hoosier plan.

THE HOLLOW OF HER HAND

By GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON

Author of "Graustark," "Truxton King," Etc.

He dropped suddenly upon the trunk that stood behind him, and buried his face in his hands. For a long time she stood over him, her interest divided between him and the hall, wherein lay their present peril.

"Come," she said at last. "Pull yourself together. We must leave this place. If you are not careful, they will suspect something downstairs."

He looked up with haggard eyes, studying her face with curious intensity.

"What manner of woman are you, Sara?" he questioned slowly, wonderingly.

"I have just discovered that I am very much like other women, after all," she said. "For a while I thought I was different, that I was stronger than my sex. But I am just as weak, just as much to be pitied, just as much to be scorned as any one of my sisters. I have spoiled a great act by stooping to do a mean one. God will bear witness that my thoughts were noble at the outset; my heart was pure. But come! There is much more to tell that cannot be told here. You shall know everything."

They went downstairs and out into the crisp autumn air. She gave directions for their chauffeur. They were to traverse for some distance the same road she had taken on that ill-fated night a year and a half before. In course of time the motor approached a well-remembered railway crossing.

"Slow down, Cole," she said. "This is a mean place—a very mean place." Turning to Brandon, who had been sitting grim and silent beside her for miles, she said, lowering her voice: "I remember that crossing yonder. There is a sharp curve beyond. This is the place—midway between the two crossings. I should say, Brandon, when I come to the telling of that night's ride to town. Try to picture this spot—this smooth, straight road as it might be on a dark, freezing night in the very thick of a screaming blizzard, with all the world about you drawing the picture and to place the two women in the centre of it, without knowing the circumstances. There was something gruesome and full of sinister possibilities for the hand of a virile painter. He wondered how near his imagination was to placing the central figures in the picture as they actually appeared on that secret night.

At sunset they went together to the little pavilion at the end of the pier which extended far out into the Sound. Here they were safe from the eyes of the droppers. The boats had been stowed away for the winter. The wind that blew through the open pavilion, now shorn of all its comforts and luxuries, was cold, raw and repelling. No one would disturb them here.

Her face set toward the sinking east, she leaned against one of the thick posts, and in a dull, emotionless voice, laid bare the whole story of that dreadful night and the days that followed. She spared no details, she spared not herself in the narration.

He did not once interrupt her. All the time she was speaking he was studying the profile of her face as it fascinated him. He was studying the matter of a full half-hour he sat on the rail, his back against a post, his arms folded across his knees, his eyes fixed on the stars, staring at her, drinking in every word of the story she told. A look of surprise crept into his face as he listened to the point where the thought of marrying Hetty to the brother of her victim first began to manifest itself in her signs. For a time the incredulity remained, to be succeeded by utter scorn as she went on with the recital. Her reasons, her excuses, her explanations, when this master-stroke in the way of compensation for all that she had endured at the hands of the sound and the stars, when she told him that she had, without exception, stirred him deeply. He began to understand the forces that compelled her to resort to this Machiavellian plan for revenge on him. She admitted everything—her readiness to blight Hetty's life for ever; her utter callousness in laying down these ugly plans; her surpassing vindictiveness; her reflections on the triumph she was to enjoy when her aims were fully attained. She confessed to a genuine pity for Hetty Castleton from the beginning, but it was outweighed by that thing she could only describe as an obsession! How she hated the Wrاندalls! Then, when she read the revelation from God, Hetty, had not been to blame. The girl was innocent of the one sin that called for vengeance so far as she was concerned. The playing of Chellis Wrاندall was justified. All these months she had been harboring a woman she believed to have been his mistress as well as his murderer. It was not so much the murderer that she would have foisted upon the Wrاندalls as a daughter, but the mistress. She loved the girl, she had loved her from that first night. Back to find that she had even built upon the evil spot. Almost word for word she repeated Hetty's own story of her meeting with Chellis Wrاندall, and how she went, step by step, and blindly, to the last scene in the tragedy, when his villainess, his true nature was revealed to her. The girl had told her everything. She had thought herself to be in love with Wrاندall. She was carried away by his protestations. She was infatuated. (Sara smiled to herself as she spoke of this. She knew Chellis Wrاندall's charm!) The girl believed in him implicitly. When he took her to Burton's Inn it was to make her his wife, as she supposed. We had arranged everything. Then came the truth. She defended herself.

"I came upon her in the road on that wild night. Brandon, at the place I pointed out. Can you picture her as I have described her? Can you picture her despair, her hopelessness, her misery? I have told you everything, from beginning to end. You know how she came to me, how I prepared her for the sacrifice she left me. I have not written to her. I cannot. She must hate me with all her soul, just as I have hated the Wrاندalls, but with greater reason, I confess. She would have given herself up to the law long ago, if it had not been for exposing me to the world as her defender, her protector. She knew she was not morally guilty of the crime of murder. In the beginning she was afraid, she did not know our land, our laws. In time she came to understand that she was in no real peril, but then it was too late. A confession would have placed me in an impossible position. You see, she thought of me all this time. She loved me as no woman ever loved another. Was not I the wife of the man she had killed, and was not I the noblest of all women in her eyes? And to think of what I had planned for her!"

This was the end of the story.

The words died away in a sort of whispering wail, falling in with the wind to be lost to his straining ears. Her head drooped, her arms hung limply at her side.

For a long time he sat there in silence, looking out over the darkening water, unwilling, unable indeed, to speak. His heart was full of compassion for her, mingling strangely with what was left of scorn and horror. What could he say to her?

At last she turned to him. "Now you know all that I can tell you, Hetty Castleton—of Hetty Glyn. You could not have forced this from me, Brandon. She would not have told you. It was left for me to do my own good time. Well, I have spoken. What have you to say?"

"I can only say, Sara, that I thank God for everything," he said slowly.

"For everything?"

"I thank God, you see, for her and for everything. I thank God that she found him out in time, that she killed him, that you shielded her, that you failed to carry out your devilish scheme, and that your heart is very sore today."

"You do not despise me?"

"No, I am sorry for you."

Her eyes narrowed. "I don't want you to feel sorry for me."

"You don't understand. I am sorry for you because you have found yourself out and must be despising yourself."

"You have guessed the truth. I despise myself. But what could be expected of me?" she asked ironically. "As the Wrاندalls would say, 'Blood will tell.'"

"Nonsense! That! It is quite unworthy of you. In spite of everything, Sara, you are wonderful. The very thing you tried to do, the very thing you were so sure you would succeed in, you have done with it and succeeded, that fact alone would have made you a great, strong, virile woman of history."

"With the Mediceis, the Borgias, and—"

"Yes, with them. But they were great women, just the same. You are a great woman, more than they possessed—a conscience. I wish I could tell you just what I feel. I haven't the words."

How To Look Years Less Than Your Age

The most aged face will look years younger after the use of ordinary mercurized wax for from ten days to two weeks. This remarkable appearance, because of its peculiar absorptive power, actually removes the thin veil of faded or withered outer cuticle, little by little. Gradually the more youthful skin underneath is revealed. This absorption process being a purely hygienic one, an entirely natural complexion is acquired—quite different from the artificial complexion, which appears anything but girlish, though often being painted on. An ounce of mercurized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is sufficient to rejuvenate any complexion. It is put on like cold cream at bedtime, and removed mornings with warm water.

To eradicate such age marks as wrinkles and furrows, make a soft wash lotion by dissolving 1 ounce powdered sassafras in one pint water. This has wonderful astringent and tonic properties. It quickly effaces all kinds of wrinkles, no matter how caused, making the skin firm, smooth and young-looking.—Adv.

ACCIDENT VICTIM BURIED.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Lucknow, March 23.—The funeral of Duncan McKinnon, who was killed a few days ago on the railway near Moose Jaw, was held this afternoon from his mother's residence on the second concession of Culross to the South Culross Cemetery.

DEATH OF MRS. MCGUIRE.

Allan Craig, March 23.—Mrs. George McGuire, formerly of Watford, died at her home here today after an illness extending over some time. Besides her husband, she leaves a family of small children. She was 40 years old. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

SHE HAS THE VERY BEST OF REASONS

WHY THIS MANITOBA LADY RECOMMENDS DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Mrs. Bournonierre Had Many Troubles. All of Which Were Caused by Sick Kidneys, and She Found a Simple and Complete Cure.

St. Rose du Lac, Man., March 23.—(Special.)—Mrs. D. J. Bournonierre, an estimable lady of this place, is losing no opportunity to praise Dodd's Kidney Pills to her friends. And she has a reason. Here it is in her own words:

"I suffered very much from my kidneys," Mrs. Bournonierre says. "I was tired and nervous, my appetite was uncertain and my memory was failing. I had heart fluttering, my back was sore and I was troubled with headaches. Rheumatism was finally added to my sufferings and I was in a bad way indeed."

"I tried one medicine, but it did me no good, and then I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I am very glad that I did, for now after taking four boxes I am a well woman again."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Mrs. Bournonierre because all her troubles came from sick kidneys. Sick kidneys cannot do their work of straining the impurities out of the blood, and the result is sickness, depression and lassitude all over the body. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured the kidneys; the purified blood did the rest."

WINGHAM PASTOR IS GOING TO PT. BURWELL

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Wingham, March 23.—Rev. E. H. Croly, of St. Paul's Church here, has announced that after Easter he will take up a new pastorate in Port Burwell. Mr. Croly has been here for several years, and during that time he has made a host of friends. He has also taken great interest in the affairs of the A. F. and A. M. I. O. O. F. and L. O. L. He has helped to increase the congregation, Sunday school attendance, and the A. Y. P. M. His successor has not yet been named.

Sap tapping has been already started. J. E. Swartz tapped over 500 trees, and a good run is looked for.

CATTLE AND HORSES BRING GOOD PRICES

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Forest, March 24.—The best auction sale of live stock held in this section for some time took place at John Emerson's, Bosanquet, on the 19th inst., with Thos. E. Small, of Forest, acting as the hammer.

The entire lot of cows averaged $116 each. Yearlings sold for $80 each; one steer coming 2 years, brought $101; one calf, 3 months old, sold for $60, and another, only three weeks old, brought $22. These cattle were all good grade.

Horses sold equally well: one 8-year-old colt brought $275, and one yearling colt $180.

Miss Charlotte J. Mallory, a former resident of Forest, died at St. Thomas on Saturday. The funeral took place in Forest today at Beechwood Cemetery.

TWO INJURED IN MOTOR ACCIDENT.

Vancouver, B. C., March 23.—R. W. Gray, of Winnipeg, sustained one broken ankle, and Joseph Smith, of Montreal, was badly scratched about the face and head in an automobile accident in the Malahant Drive, south of Cobble Hill, Vancouver Island. A. C. Parker, of Winnipeg, who was also in the car, escaped injury, though the automobile rolled down a twenty-foot embankment and fell on its side.

YES
A few minutes after Zam-Buk is applied to a cut, a burn, a scratch, or any sore place, the pain is stopped. Mothers should never forget this, because it is one reason why Zam-Buk is the best thing for children's injuries. It stops their crying and gives them ease. Right from the instant of application healing begins, and Zam-Buk heals quickly. Note these statements from reliable persons, some of whom you may know.

Baby's Sore Healed—

"My baby girl had a bad sore on her chin, which was very painful, and caused her to be very restless. We put on some Zam-Buk, and in a wonderfully short time it gave her ease. In a few days the sore was completely healed."

Mrs. E. Crocker, Yorkton, Sask.

Rusty Nail Pierced Finger—

"I ran a rusty nail under my thumb nail while at work. The pain was terrible and I feared blood-poisoning from the dirty, rusty nail! I mailed some Zam-Buk and ran it into the wound, and it stopped the pain almost instantly. It kept away inflammation and in a few days the wound was quite healed."

Mr. A. H. Owen, Shipley, Ont.

A Bad Burn—

"In moving some wood in the store, I burned my thumb very badly. In a few minutes it was covered with a big white blister, and the pain was very bad. Zam-Buk was applied, and in quick time it gave me ease!"

H. E. JENNER, Organist, Carman, Man.

Take this Advice!

If you have some sore place, some skin disease, some cut, or burn or ulcer, why continue to suffer pain? Every hour you suffer is an hour wasted. You cannot do your best work in pain; you cannot enjoy your leisure. Zam-Buk saves far more than it costs, by saving you time in this way.

Zam-Buk is a "short cut" to skin healing. There is nothing which acts so quickly and so surely. Use it for all skin injuries and diseases, Eczema, Ulcers, Blood Poison, etc., and for Piles. All druggists and stores, 50 cents a box, or post free from ZAM-BUK CO., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful imitations.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL OATS CONTINUE TO BRING HIGH PRICES

Lots of Hay on Market, With Demand Slack—Syrup Remains Dear.

Because there has been a large supply of hay on the market for several days, the demand was slow Tuesday. There were about thirty loads weighed, and sold around $13.50, with $14 per ton the highest price paid. Some loads were of good quality. Straw was scarce, but the demand is never great, and it sold at $7 and $8 per ton.

Oats were plentiful, and sold at high prices, the prevailing price being between $1.25 and $1.24 per hundredweight. Most loads offered were of rather poor quality.

The market was small, and except for a small showing of vegetables there was little on the square. Apples sold at quoted prices, and a few bags of potatoes sold for $1 each.

There was a good deal of lettuce on sale, but slight demand. Vegetable prices were unchanged.

No eggs or butter was offered, but the lowered price of eggs will likely prevail unless the weather changes suddenly. But prices remained about the same as Saturday's, selling around $12.50.

Hides were steady, and prices are unchanged. No maple syrup was on the square, but the last sold for $1.80 and $1.40 per gallon.

Winnipeg, March 23.—Wheat prices were steady, the greater part of the day on the Winnipeg market, and trading quiet, a light volume of business being transacted.

Prices opened 1/2c lower to 1/2c higher, and closed 1/2c to 1/2c higher.

The inquiry for cash wheat was good, but few offerings were on the market, and export inquiry was dull.

Cash wheat closed 1/2c to 1/2c advance on contract grades; other grades 1/2c to 1/2c higher. Cash oats were steady, while flax was strongly closed 1/2c to 1/2c higher. Cash flax closed 1/2c higher for all grades. Cash barley closed unchanged.

Inspection Saturday totalled 238 cars, against 281 for the corresponding day last year, and in sight were 756 cars.

LONDON FIREMEN SAVE THE LIVES

Or at Least Rescue a Cat From Starvation, Which Amounts to the Same Thing.

FIDO FRIGHTENS FELINE

Result: Many Hours High Up in Tree Until Fireman Tom Tozer Makes Rescue.

Half-starved and nearly dead from exposure, a valuable cat, belonging to Mrs. Rose, of John street, was rescued yesterday afternoon from a perilous position on one of the topmost branches of a 70-foot John street tree, by John Alken and Fireman Tom Tozer, of the central station, after a sojourn on its airy perch, since Friday.

The tale of its seclusion from society is an old story—and a painful one. Early Friday morning, as a pussy was taking a constitutional, a naughty dog saw her and gave chase. Now, the tabby was of the unwavering opinion that one live cat was worth more to its mistress than one cat in the passive state. Accordingly, with the agility born of the knowledge that the bow-bow was a scant foot behind and just puffed itself into his second wind, and hence was good to "stick it out," the second cousin of the tiger sprang—not for the carnivorous canine, but for a friendly tree.

Up she climbed, clinging tenaciously to the rough tree trunk, and squirming from limb to limb to evade the near proximity of the puppy, who, left at the bottom of the tree, scratched and growled and gazed in perplexity at the unattainable object of his uncertain affections.

That concluded the incident so far as the dog was concerned. Not so with Miss Pussy. Having climbed into the tree, blind with fright, she was afraid to climb down. Not having seen Broadway, her knowledge of a Brodie or, better still, the more sensational Annette Kellerman dive was nil. So she stayed in the tree.

There the animal crouched. Night came and passed and morning dawned, and still in the same position, unmindful of persuasion, coaxing, threats and a miscellany of kind words, bricksbats and more bricksbats, were hurled with indifferent aim at the animal, who, in that representative of the coming generation of the neighborhood.

It was not until yesterday that determined efforts were made to prevent what would certainly have terminated in a cat suicide, probably resulting in the loss of all nine lives. Stalwarts of the police force were appealed to, but the frame of a Hercules defied them. At last, with the gentle art of tree climbing, as a last resort a call was sent in for the fire department, and when the chief and his assistant arrived, Fireman Tozer made a grandstand climb to the high branches and rescued "Tabby."

THE BRUCE PENINSULA RY. BILL REPORTED

In Spite of Protest From Provincial Authority—Other Bills Dealt With.

[Special to The Advertiser.]—Ottawa, March 24.—When the bill of the South Ontario Pacific Railway Company was before the committee today Hon. Sam Barker said he had a protest to make on behalf of Hamilton. This road was chartered 27 years ago, and Mr. Barker pointed out that in that period the charter of the district through which it would pass in Hamilton had entirely changed and today it would pass the cathedral and five streets which were passed after being amended to require beginning of construction within one year and completion within three years. This was satisfactory to the member for Hamilton.

The bill of the Bruce Peninsula Railway, chartering a line from Warton to Tobermory, was protested against by R. G. Code on behalf of the attorney-general of Ontario. Mr. Code said this railway was a man line entering within one county, and should be chartered by the province.

W. S. Middleboro (North Grey), said the line was being built by Bruce people and would ultimately be joined up with the G. T. R. at Warton. It was getting a free right of way, and he thought that in view of other similar railways getting Dominion charter views of the bill runs is now entirely without railway connection.

A section relating to electric power department was struck out at the suggestion of Mr. G. T. R. at Warton, who pointed out that there were no water powers on its right of way. Mr. Middleboro agreed. The bill was then reported.

CONVENTION BOOSTING

Industrial Commissioner Pegs London as "Canada's Convenient Convention City."

Industrial Commissioner Gordon Philip has issued a neat four-page folder setting forth the advantages of London as "Canada's Convenient Convention City." The folder depicts the scenery in Victoria and Springbank parks birdseye views of the downtown streets, places of amusement, and gives a list of the city's leading hotels together with their rates.

Copies of the folder are being sent to members of the Master Housekeepers Association, who will meet in the Masonic Hall, London, on Easter Monday and the following Tuesday. Several hundred delegates are expected to be present.

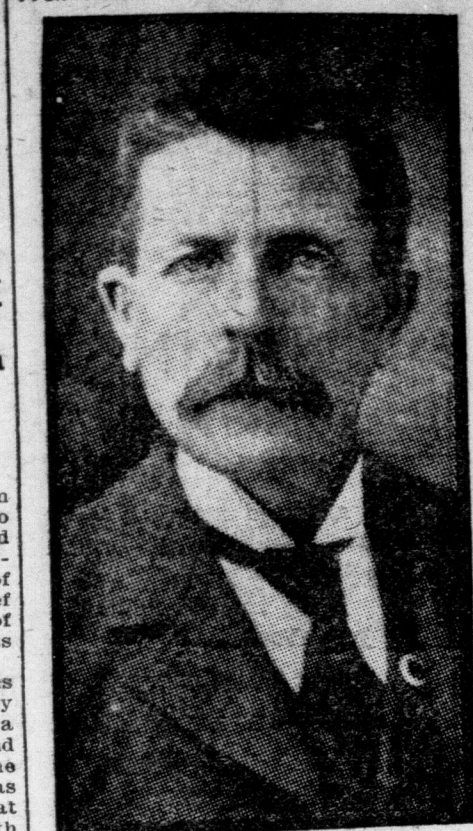

NEWFOUNDLAND LECTURE

Rev. John Bowen Illustrates Work of Bible Society in Island.

Last night, under the auspices of the B. Y. P. U. of the Street Baptist Church, Rev. John Bowen, of the Western Ontario Bible Society, gave an illustrated lecture on "Newfoundland." He told of the work of the cooperator in taking the Bible into the inner parts of the island. A number of interesting slides showed the mining districts, the fishing industry, railroad construction work, and towns and cities. A few slides were also exhibited, showing Dr. Grenfell's work in Labrador. The address was highly appreciated by a large audience.

At the close, the executive of the various B. Y. P. U.'s of the city met to complete arrangements for the Ontario and Quebec convention to be held here on April 9 and 10. Between three and four hundred delegates are expected and complete arrangements have been made for their entertainment.

GEORGE W. CADY, GASFIELD, WHO IS LEADING FIGHT AGAINST THE TOBACCO MEN

HURON WOMEN

he believed that without Christ the world was lost, that apart from him there was no remedy for sin. One of the distinct advantages of living in the twentieth century is that we know more today of the heathen religious systems of the world and their effect upon the people that cherish them than in any preceding age of the world. Ask any man who has lived a lifetime among the great non-Christian peoples of the world, soldier, consul, ambassador, or what you like, and he will tell you that these systems do not incite lofty morals among the people, do not make for progress, but rather for retrogression and decay.

The Only Gospel.

"As long as this is the answer, we see that the one gospel for mankind is the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. There is no other name under heaven whereby men can be saved except the name of Jesus."

"We must have the two-fold conviction that Christ alone is the savior of man, and that all other systems lead away from the Father, not to Him. If it were not for this conviction, our missionary effort would be wasted, and impotent to the heathen nations. Wherever there has been a slackening of missionary activity, there has been always a loss of that great conviction that Christ is the centre of religion."

Social Work Aspect.

In regard to missionary activity, his lordship referred to the matter of "social work" to be discussed by the delegates during the annual meeting. This work amongst the needy, the indigent, and the afflicted, was missionary labor. The bishop believed it best for the members of the Women's Auxiliary to take an interest not only in the work of the foreign field and the home mission field, but also in parish work of this kind.

"If the Women's Auxiliary throughout the diocese should become an active agent for spiritual work, assisting the clergyman in his work throughout the parish, it would be a day of new beginnings, perhaps of a revelation throughout our parishes, and through Canada, said the bishop, expressing the hope that the ladies would undertake this important as that was."

"It is necessary to bring the gospel to the indifferent and unbelieving in our own midst, and this is only one power that can uplift and bring to the Father, and that is Christ."

Assisting in the service, besides the bishop, were Rev. Canon Tucker, M. A., rector of St. Paul's Cathedral, Rev. Canon Deacon, Rector of St. John's, and Rev. Canon Craig and Rev. W. H. Hawkins.

Practical Thankoffering.

At the close of the service the triennial thankoffering was presented, and it was anticipated that a large amount will be realized.

The afternoon the board of management met in Crown Hall at 2 o'clock. Mrs. G. B. Sage, president of the diocesan auxiliary, presided. At 4 o'clock a meeting of the junior branches of the Women's Auxiliary was addressed by Rev. J. R. Shields Boyd, a returned missionary from China. There are seven branches of the Junior Women's Auxiliary in the diocese.

Tonight a reception will be tendered the delegates, their hosts, and the Bishop.

ACCIDENT VICTIM IS SINKING

Little change is noticeable in the condition of Mrs. King, the woman who was falling from a car at the corner of Clarence and Horton streets, late Friday night, and little hope is expressed for her recovery.

Since recovering sufficiently to gasp at her name to the authorities at St. Joseph's Hospital, she has grown weaker, and relapsed into unconsciousness. At a late hour this afternoon The Advertiser was informed that her chances for recovery were small.

Identity was only established after sixteen hours, in an unconscious stupor. She had been in the employ of Mrs. A. Cave, 233 Horton street. Nothing is known of her relatives, while her talk has been so incoherent that it has been impossible to gather any sense from her speech, when momentarily realizing her surroundings.

PASSED EXPERIMENTS

Parcel Post an Entire Success, Says Postmaster.

The parcels post system has passed the experimental stage and has been found an entire success in London, according to Postmaster Dr. P. Macdonald. Merchants, manufacturers, other businessmen and citizens generally are using it freely.

But as Dr. Macdonald points out, the parcels post system has been inaugurated. If they have parcels to send, and the parcels post is cheaper and more convenient than the express companies they use the parcels post. While the local post office has not in any sense been swamped with the parcels post business, yet it is steadily increasing and from the start has demonstrated its entire success.

TO START SHORTLY ON PRISON FARM

County Councillors Will Get Busy on Plans for Corrective Institution.

UP TO CITY FATHERS

Effort Will Be Made to Find Out Just How London Will Co-operate.

Reeve C. W. Hawkeshaw, of Lucan, stated today that an effort will shortly be made to get plans under way for the establishment of a prison farm in Middlesex. The committee appointed at the last session of the county council to deal with the question will endeavor to get touch with members of the city council to see what part the city would take in promulgating the scheme. It is unlikely that any action will be taken, however, before the next session of the county council in June.

"We would have to get at least a thousand acres of land," Mr. Hawkeshaw said. "It may prove very difficult to secure that much in one tract near the city. It would have to be within a reasonable distance of the city, so that produce could be marketed easily."

"The Guelph farm is only a mile from that city, and has proved successful. Much of the land is rocky in character, but this is put to good use in providing material for building roads, etc."

Interest in the Ulster situation runs high among the Orangemen of the city, and a special meeting of the lodges will be held in the Orange Hall on Thursday evening, when it is expected that a definite plan of action will be decided upon. It is rumored that sealed orders recently received from the Grand Lodge will be opened at this meeting, and the contents made known.

Plans are under consideration for the holding of a public service of prayer in one of the city churches either next Sunday or the Sunday following. Prayers will be offered as in the time of a great public calamity.

Others Will Follow.

It was stated today that other city lodges would follow the example of the Orange Lodge, and hold similar meetings, and expressions of sympathy. Nassau Lodge is the largest Orange lodge in the city.

Many Changes Practically Amount to Reorganization of Commissioned Officers.

Monday night sees the beginning of spring drill for the Seventh Regiment, and the indications are that the season will be one of the best ever enjoyed by the regiment. An increased establishment, new uniforms of the latest pattern, and practical reorganization of the staff of officers, are all factors which it is hoped will contribute towards giving new impetus to the regiment. While it has not yet been officially gazetted, it is generally understood that Maj. H. C. Becher will succeed to the command of the regiment on the retirement of Lieut.-Col. Campbell. He took over the stores from Col. Campbell Monday night and will be in command of the regiment temporarily the present commanding officer having applied for leave of absence.

Among the new officers who will identify themselves with the regiment are City Engineer Asplund who goes to "E" company; Alexander Calder, who becomes provisional lieutenant in charge of B company, and Color Sergeant W. C. Butler, who is transferred to "D" company.

Capt. W. R. Brown, who has been in command of "D" company for a number of years, has been appointed transport officer, and George Hale has been posted to the army medical corps and will be assigned to the regiment as medical officer.

The new uniforms are being issued this week and are the subject of most favorable comment among the men.

GUINNESS MORE USE HIASYMPATHY

Consequently Local Orangemen Save Money by Sending Only Brief Cablegram.

"PRAYERS ARE WITH YOU."

This Is Message to Sir Edward Carson From Nassau Lodge To Hold Service.

"Our prayers and assistance are with you," the brief cablegram signed by other officers of Nassau Lodge, Orange Lodge, No. 2170, was sent today to Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulster anti-home rulers. A strong resolution of sympathy at the meeting of the lodge last night, but only the foregoing brief cable was wired. It costs money to send cablegrams, and one of the lodge members, last night, when he said, "Cut down the cablegram; it is better to send them the money to buy gunpowder."

The meeting was held in the Orange Hall, Market Lane and Dundas street. A picture of Sir Edward Carson, donated by two of the brothers, was unveiled, and hung in the lodge-room.

Before proceeding with the business of the evening, the members, about ninety in number, knelt in prayer, led by Rev. W. S. Riddford, who prayed that the present difficulty in Ireland might be amicably solved.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR EDITOR BECK

Criminal Libel Charged by Montreal Alderman Because of Article.

ACTION WAS EXPECTED

Bail at Once Allowed—Revelations of Municipal Conditions Now Anticipated.

[Canadian Press.]—Montreal, March 24.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Edward Beck, the Montreal newspaperman who directed the plans of the Burns' detectives who caught Quebec legislators in a bribery trap, and who in a journal of his own, called Beck's Weekly, printed the disclosures. The paper credited Crepeau with mentioning the name of Alderman Tom O'Connell, the well-known Irish lacrosse and hockey enthusiast, and contended that the assistant city clerk, who was also alleged to be on the payroll of the detectives, asserted that the alderman would support him in certain things he proposed to do. It was O'Connell who swore out the warrant against Mr. Beck this morning, charging him with criminal libel.

When the warrant was issued Mr. Beck's counsel, J. J. Creelman, who had been expecting it, and had waited at the police court until it was signed by Judge Lee, telephoned to his client, who immediately visited the court, where the warrant was served on him. Mr. Beck was admitted at once to bail in bonds of $1,500, but counsel for Mr. O'Connell intimated that security need not be deposited.

The case was then adjourned until Thursday morning.

Will Let in Light.

The case has caused immense excitement, as it is expected that daylight will now be let in on municipal conditions which have been denounced for years and which were not revealed at the graft inquiry in Quebec because the Government committee decided that only matters specially affecting the House could be probed.

This afternoon Mr. Crepeau issued an affidavit in which he swore that he had never mentioned the name of Ald. O'Connell in connection with the alleged investigation of detectives.

IS THERE LUMBER COMBINE HERE?

LATHS SELL AT $12.50

Builder Says He Can Buy Them Out of London for $4.75.

Is there a lumber combine in London? Local contractors say that such an organization exists and that they can buy various grades of lumber at a much lower price from outside dealers.

One contractor told The Advertiser this morning that the lumber dealers of the city worked in harmony and succeeded in keeping prices up to the limit.

"I can go right down to St. Thomas, for instance," said this contractor, "and buy lumber much cheaper than I can get it in London. I while ago asked a well-known local dealer for a price on the best quality of lath. He asked $12.50, and on investigation I found that I could buy the same quality in another town for $4.75, including freight. The only additional expense I would have would be to make up the difference between the two prices."

SURRENDERS TO POLICE

ON CHARGE OF RAPE

Man for Whom Warrant Was Out on Serious Charge, Walks Into Police Headquarters.

With a warrant out for his arrest on a charge of rape against the wife of a prominent Dundas street businessman, John Sturney walked into police headquarters late this afternoon and gave himself up. Edmund Meredith, barrister, was called to the police station and asked that bail be allowed.

"The evidence is so strong and the case of such a serious nature, that Sturney will have to remain in jail," said Crown Attorney J. B. McKillop.

Sturney will appear before Magistrate J. C. Judd tomorrow. The police would say practically nothing of the case. The accused resides on Simcoe street.

HYDE PARK P. O. CHANGE AROUSES WHOLE DISTRICT

High-Handed Government Act Brings Out Petition to Restore Office.

SIGNED BY 231 PATRONS

Users of R. R. No. 1 Want Post-office Back at Its Old Stand.

Patrons of the Hyde Park postoffice and of rural route No. 1 are exercised over the transfer of the postoffice from the store of the late Cravell Smith to that of P. E. Morris. It is estimated to be a mere political move on the part of Frank Glass, the newly-elected member for East Middlesex, and more than 200 residents of route No. 1 have signed a petition asking for the restoration of the postoffice to Mrs. Smith.

The following letter, received by The Advertiser from one of the residents of the Hyde Park district, is self-explanatory:

General Disapproval.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Dear Sir,—The changing of the postoffice at Hyde Park has met with the disapproval of about a third of the patrons of route No. 1 and the unpopularity of the change is shown by a petition now in the hands of the Postmaster-General's department at Ottawa. It contains 231 names. The change is brought about in an unaccountable way, and the patrons are very indignant about it. The member for East Middlesex will very likely meet with a deputation upon his return from Ottawa, and be asked to give an explanation for the high-handed act.

The late postmaster, Mr. Crowell W. Smith, was killed at London last June, leaving a widow and five children. The daughter has been conducting the office and living strictly up to the inspector's instructions, and the change is more than a surprise to the patrons. The postoffice connection with the store was a comfortable assistance to the family, and this enhances the harshness of the act.

No Reason Given.

At the London postoffice it is claimed that the change was made on orders from Ottawa. Ignorance of the reason of taking the postoffice away from the Smith store is expressed by the local inspectors.

SAW KRAFCHENKO GO IN PLUM COULEE BANK

This and Other Evidence Given Against Alleged Murderer of Manager.

[Canadian Press.]—Morden, Man., March 24.—In the trial of John Krafchenko, Fred Monti, testified that on his way home from work about 12:30 o'clock, noon, at Plum Coulee, the day of the murder he saw a man in a black overcoat walking along near the corner of the lane at the rear of the bank premises.

"Do you know who this man was?" asked the crown prosecutor.

"I thought it was Jack Krafchenko," was the reply.

A few moments later he saw the man enter the bank.

On a Lee, employed by the Midland Railway as station agent at Plum Coulee on December 3, said he heard Krafchenko and Wagner, one of the bank clerks, talking in the hotel on one occasion, and Krafchenko, he said, remarked that "if I ever held up the bank in Plum Coulee it would be in the middle of the day and I would seek a hiding place in Winnipeg."

entertainment. Over one hundred children took part and performed the different dances in a most graceful manner. A very large audience was present to enjoy the afternoon program. Considerable interest is being shown by citizens in the announcement of the lecture to be given by Commander Evans in London on Wednesday, April 1st. His first lecture in America was given in New York on Wednesday night last in the Carnegie Hall. From the enthusiasm shown at this opening lecture, Commander Evans will undoubtedly be welcomed in the cities he has selected for his lecture tour. The New York Times says that Carnegie Hall was never packed with a larger audience, and that a hearty welcome was shown to the lecturer while on the platform by repeated ovations. Admiral Perry introduced Commander Evans. The lecture is very impressive from beginning to end, and wonder and admiration is shown of the pictures that depict the scenes and incidents in the Antarctic. This is the first opportunity that London has had to hear a lecturer on either Antarctic or Arctic explorations, and there is no doubt but that a very large house will greet Commander Evans, when he comes to this city.

COMMITTEE SELECTS SCHOOL ARCHITECT

Awards Plan Competition to Watt & Blackwell and Recommends That Firm.

$2,000 RETAINER FEE
Firm Will in Addition Secure 3 Per Cent on All Work Over $50,000.

Watt & Blackwell won the competition for plans for the new eight-room school to be erected, the one south of Grand avenue and the other on Charlotte street, and incidentally secured the position of architect for the Toronto Board of Education. This will be the advice of the building committee at a special meeting of the board this afternoon, and no opposition to the plan is expected.

Yesterday afternoon the committee discussed the appointment of a permanent architect or firm of architects to look after the board's work, and before the result of the school plan competition, as judged by the Ontario Association of Architects, was divulged it was moved that the judgment of the association be accepted on the plans, providing the successful applicant would accept the terms proposed by Trustee A. E. Silverwood, viz.: a retainer of $2,000 per annum and 3 per cent commission on all construction work over $50,000.

Curiously enough, prior to the opening of the plans, Trustee Silverwood read a letter from Watt & Blackwell, announcing that they would accept such a proposition as he had put forward, and so when the result was made it practically clinched the appointment of this firm.

Five architects or firms of architects submitted plans. A. E. Nutter, former city architect, has three plans; Watt & Blackwell, four; John M. Moore, one; Munro & Ferguson, four; and W. G. Murray, three. The judges, C. H. Acton Bond, president of the Ontario Association of Architects, and Franklin E. Perry, architect for the Toronto Board of Education and registrar of the association, wrote that the "D" plan of Watt & Blackwell was unhesitatingly given first place. They appended a number of minor changes which they believed would be desirable. All the plans were initiated, only the "key" being retained by the secretary of the board, so that the Toronto judges were not in a position to know whose plans they were looking at, and to give the winning plan to the architect.

The winning plan will be used for both of the new schools, and was considered by the committee to be highly satisfactory. A long contract from end to end, giving perfect ventilation, is one of its features.

What Board Will Save.
As the board figures on public school improvement and addition work this year, totalling in the neighborhood of $115,000, Trustee Silverwood, who favored the permanent architect idea, estimates that not less than $2,000 will be saved the city in the way of architects' commissions, 5 per cent being the regular rate. On the two new schools, figured at $55,000 each, the board will be $1,300 to the good as the result of the appointment.

No Collegiate Plans.
The new officials of the board will not handle the Collegiate Institute improvement plans, as plans for these have been in the hands of McBride & Gilbert for some time.

Tenders will be asked at once for the wrecking of the old Aberdeen school. The trick is to be taken to the Princess Avenue School for use on the improvements there. The outside lavatory at Aberdeen will be moved to the Empress Avenue School.

It was reported that there were complaints as to the sanitary conditions of lavatories at St. Nicholas and North Richmond street schools, and also that workmen were using the playground apparatus at the Alexandra School. These complaints will be investigated.

To Rent Temporary Premises.
The inspector was empowered to make arrangements for renting the Sunday school room of St. Matthew's Church, on Dundas street east, for primary school purposes. This will be only a temporary arrangement pending the completion of the new Charlotte street school.

As soon as the board passes on the recommendation of the committee plans and permanent architect Chairman L. H. Martyn and his colleagues will call for tenders so that the work may be proceeded with at once.

"THE DIFFERENT" PLAYER-PIANO.

All lovers of music will be interested in the special features of the new model Player-Piano made by Ye Olde Firm Heintzman & Co., Ltd., 242 Dundas street, London. There is something very distinctive about this instrument, and readers are invited to examine it and witness demonstration of its excellence in every way.

OLD BOYS' REUNION NOW SEEMS SURE

Majority of Executive Appear Willing to Stage the Celebration.

SOME CRITICISMS OFFERED
Several Officers Speak Against Project as Result of Small Civic Grant.

For more than two hours, Monday night, a portion of the executive of the London Old Boys' Association fought out the reunion proposal, and then decided to call a meeting of the association April 3, to give the final decision. The executive did not put itself on record as being either for or against the reunion plan, but a majority of those present were inclined to the affirmative. It is practically certain that London will have an Old Boys' reunion next August.

The whole question, including the refusal of the city council to grant the use of Covent Garden Market for the carnival shows, and the second refusal to grant more than $1,000 was considered. The summing up was a general feeling of willingness to go on with plans for the reunion, though two or three members declared that they were through with the proposition.

Ex-Ald. R. A. Carrothers wanted to know why the ministers, who in opposing the market idea had said that they were willing to help on the reunion, had not shown up.

President For Reunion.
President Lieutenant-Colonel Dr. Harry R. Abbott was for going on with the home-coming. He pointed out the reunion association had $3,500 in sight, and he thought that prospects were altogether rosy for a big success.

Victor D. Levitt, general agent for the amusement company that has a tentative contract with the association, in the course of an explanatory letter to the board, said that the animals would be put on their best behavior while here. J. Harry Fowler, chairman of the sports committee, was disgusted with the use of the market, and announced that he was through. He pressed the executive to accept his resignation, but his colleagues decided that the resignation would have to be sent to the general association.

Judge W. H. Chittick intimated, with no uncertain sound, that the last bell had been tolled as far as his connection with the 1914 reunion was concerned.

Ex-Ald. J. H. Saunders thought that with $3,500 already in sight, there should be no difficulty in collecting $2,500 from citizens.

Will Need $10,000.
"You'll need $10,000 to put on this reunion, and put it on right," said H. Fowler. "We cannot bring all the Old Boys home and then offer nothing for their amusement. It would be like inviting a man to a banquet and then passing him out a ham sandwich."

Secretary Smith and the president outlined the program of the board of trade to postpone the reunion to next year and then to incorporate it with the diamond jubilee, opening of the Federal Square, peace celebration, celebration of the new Grand Trunk station, and elevated tracks and commencement of operation of the electrified London and Port Stanley.

Someone ventured that if the association was to wait for all these things, they would be held in about the year 3,000.

To Call General Meeting.
It was finally decided to call the general meeting, and in the meantime the water commission will be asked for the use of Queen's and Victoria Parks, as well as free electric power and water. The present plan is to place all the shows on Queen's Park and to have certain exercises in Victoria, including children's drills, etc.

MUSIC AND DRAMA
Schumann-Heink Tonight.

Mme. Schumann-Heink, the famous contralto, who is to appear at the Grand tonight, gave the program which is to be presented in this city at Boston one week ago, and Philip Hale, the eminent critic, said that never had this great artist been heard to greater advantage. It is often said that Schumann-Heink has a song for every mood. She is equally attractive in her recitation of poetry, in expression of grandeur and sublimity; the humorous and the pathetic and the wondrous are at her command in every slight variation of color and shading. Her versatility in interpretation of the mirrored reflection of the arduous and downy of which the premier contralto's life has consisted. Her success has been won only after the very greatest difficulties have been overcome, and her success has been the greatest triumph of her career.

WOULD COUGH SO HARD WOULD TURN BLACK In The Face.

A cough cold is one of the most dangerous kind. It leaves the throat or lungs, and sometimes both, affected if not taken care of immediately.

Obstinate coughs and colds yield to the grateful soothing action of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, containing as it does the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree.

Mrs. C. J. Seig, Dartmouth, N.S., writes: "My little boy, six years old, had a dreadful, hard cough. At night time he would cough so hard he would turn black in the face, and at times he would cough nearly an hour before he would stop. I tried different cough syrups, but they did him no good. The little fellow was wasting away, as he could not eat or sleep, the cough troubled him so. I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and it did him so much good I got another. Now I am only too glad to be able to write this to tell how thankful I am, and to tell every mother to use nothing else."

Price, 25 and 50 cents.
Be sure you get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. See the Trade Mark; the three pine trees.

RUSSIA WILL BE DOMINANT RACE
Slavs Greatest World Power of Future, Says Prof. Powys.

CONTRAST IN PHILOSOPHY
Lecturer Expounds Strange Beliefs and Traits of Great Thinkers.

Russia is the nation of the future, the world's future belongs to the Slavic race, and Feodor Dostoevski and Friedrich Nietzsche are the handwriting on the wall that points to this; they are the signs and tokens of what is going to happen spiritually and otherwise, declared John Cowper Powys in his lecture on "Dostoevski and Nietzsche; a Contrast in Philosophy," in the Masonic Hall last night.

A Contrast.
Nietzsche, the apostle of hardness, of self-assertion and the will to power, and Dostoevski, the apostle of suffering, abandonment and submission, different as they are the one to the other, are both opposed to the democratic views and principles cherished by the Anglo-Saxons.

Prof. Powys referred to the influence of Nietzsche and Dostoevski on John Galsworthy, Joseph Conrad, Bernard Shaw and other young English writers of their group, and even on Gilbert Chesterton by way of reaction.

Future Belongs to Russia.
The future belongs to Russia, the Slavs, he pointed out, because they are so far unknown and occult in their power and possibility, and the Russian soul has a passionate faith that degenerates, worn-out races do not possess. The Russian soul does not cling to theosophy, which is simply an esoteric Buddhism and another phase of which is New Thought.

It clings to the white Christ who is to come out of Russia. Russians die, submit to torture, kill, murder and torture others, all for the sake of the Russia that is to be, for the nation that is yet in the making. Fate and destiny mean the future of Russia for Russia is placed between the east and the west and will dominate both and the thought of both.

The New Revolt.
"The new revolt," said Prof. Powys, "disbelieves in progress, disbelieves in liberty, and doubts morality. To us who take these for granted, the view that democracy may after all be doomed, that the church and others in our much talked of broad-mindedness, will trust to our god-forsaken private judgment."

Here Prof. Powys discarded the idea of an inflexible voice, a precious moral sense within the individual.

"Nietzsche and Dostoevski deny our innate personal, individual morality. Dostoevski leaves on the church, Nietzsche would create a new morality. All thinking people, said Prof. Powys, must choose between Dostoevski and Nietzsche."

Beat the Death for Future.
Dostoevski deals with abandonment not only to religion, but to drink, drugs, sex, literary and artistic abandonment, and the strange wave of abandonment to Dostoevski, said Prof. Powys, are actually being slowly beaten to death for the future, actually killing others, murdering, hurling bombs, all for the future, said Prof. Powys.

Nietzsche taught that the world needed two sets of morality, one for the masters, and one for the herd or slaves. Anglo-Saxons believe in only one morality and that their own.

Higher Code Than Golden Rule.
For the herd the golden rule is alright, but the masters must govern themselves by a higher code, the will to power, the will to dominate, to rule, to tyrannize, to be cruel, to deal with others as they themselves would not condescend to be dealt with. Nietzsche exalts an aristocracy of the weak, not of birth, but of brains, men like Julius Caesar, Leonard di Vinci, Goethe, Napoleon Bonaparte. He would have an inner circle of great intellects, men who would pull the strings and make the puppets dance.

According to Nietzsche all that tends to pity, to sympathy, to weakness, to death is wrong. All that tends to life, to beauty, to hardness, to exultant triumph, to successful war, is right. War is good in itself because it makes people hard.

Race of Super-Men.
"Nietzsche foresaw a race of super-men on earth, when perhaps even the strong might deem it right to kill the weak, and the weak deem it the best thing to take themselves off to die. The Nietzschean cult teaches distinction or nothing, Nietzsche vivisection himself and tortures himself, the saint and Christian, into a pagan.

Prof. Powys warned against crediting Nietzsche as a philosopher because he went mad. "Our Oxford and Cambridge philosophers do not go mad because they do not think so hard, so deep, so near the edge as Nietzsche thought. To go mad is not a sign of stupidity. It is a sign of a wisdom that breaks down," said Prof. Powys.

He recommended reading "Thus Spake Zarathustra," "Beyond Good and Evil," "Joyful Wisdom," "The Birth of Tragedy," "Nietzsche Contra Wagner," and "The Anti-Christ," as the best work of Nietzsche, and among books on Nietzsche, Henri Lichtenberger's "Gospel of Super-Man."

Mugge had Teutonized Nietzsche, and Menckel, the American Nietzschean, was inferior to Lichtenberger, the French expositor.

Nietzsche's Final Doctrine.
He explained Nietzsche's final doctrine of eternal recurrence, and hinted that it was under the horror of accepting that that Nietzsche's mind broke down. According to this doctrine everything will happen again and may even have happened before. Time and space are infinite, and the material universe is finite, so in the endless shuffling and reshuffling of the cards all will live again and all will happen again, the suffering, the torture, the woe, over and over again.

Prof. Powys recommended the reading of Dostoevski's "The Idiot," "The Possessed," "The Karamzov Brothers," "Crime and Punishment" and "The House of the Dead."
