ROME, June 28, via Paris, 3:5 An interview published in the Corriere d'Italia this morning with Cardinal Pietro Gasparri, the papal secretary of state, arouses great interest in Rome, as it is entirely taken up with the interview obtained last week by Louis Lataple, a member of the staff of the Paris La Liberte, with Pope Benedict.

The secretary says:
"M. Lataple invented entirely many grave assertions. You must remember that a phrase isolated from the context cannot reproduce faithfully a thought, or what is worse, it gives a meaning entirely false.

"For instance, take the quotation regarding hostages in Berlin. What confusion! The Pontiff is made to mix the Jews of Galicia, the Austrian priest of Cremona and the Belgian prelates, all of which, according to M. Latapie, was covered in the allocution of Jan-Protest Not Mentioned.

ARRANGING PLANS

Entertainment of Florist Delegates Will Be Fixed Tonight.

Final arrangements will be made this evening by a committee of local florists for the entertainment of delegates to the 18th annual convention of the Ontario Horticultural Association, which is to be held here on August 3, 4 and 5, and which is expected to bring into the city upwards of a hundred of the best known florists, seedsmen and private gardeners in the province.

The local committee have made arrangements for the use of Hyman Hall for the trade exhibit of bulbs, flowers, seeds, etc., which is to be held in con-nection with the convention, and a number of entertainments for the delegates have also been arranged. These will include a visit to the local estabdisaments, a trip over the London and Port Stanley to the lakeside, a street car ride around the city and a banquet on the last evening.

PERSONAL SYMPATHY

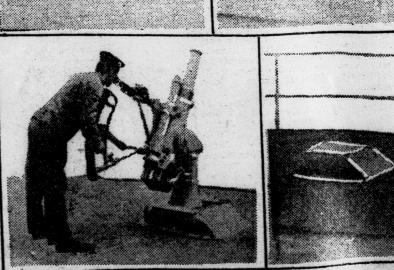

Major-General Hughes Writes to Lon doner Whose Boy Was Killed. Martin Sherlock of 244 Horton street has received the following letter from Major-Gen. Sam Hughes: Dear Mr. Sherlock,-

Will you kindly accept my sincere sympathy and condolence in the decease of that worthy sitizen and heroic soldier, Pte. Thomas Sher-While one cannot too deeply mourn the loss of such a brave comrade, there is consolation in knowing that he did his duty fearlessly and well, and gave his life for the cause of liberty and the upbuilding of the Empire. Again extending to you my heartfelt sympathy, faithfully, SAM HUGHES.

London, Ont., Tuesday, June 29. GERMAN ETHICS ON WAR.

DURING the last few centuries should recognize certain rules and conand of justice There has been developed for this purpose a code of international law, partly made up of opinions laid down by eminent jurists, and partly the result of treaties and agreements among different nations. Of course, this kind of law is not the same as that of local civil and criminal courts. This latter can be enforced by a policeman; but the former has no material force behind it, and depends upon the moral sense of the peoples interested.

But if a nation, whether nominally civilized or not has no moral sense, then it is not going to be bound by any law which it is strong the praise which newspapers are beenough to disregard. that the women of any part of Canada are privileged to petition on any subject their hearts desire, except it be the assassination of the King or some other un-British crime. As to whether the women of the country are keeping their sons from the battlefront, there is much more evidence in their favor than against sight hig enough and with clean hands them. The Minister of Militia was quoted as saying that he could get a feet. It seems to be up to President million men in Canada, members of the Wilson to scatter the chaos and set British Cabinet have been quoted as Mexico once more on the road to hapsaying that, in proportion to population, Canada had contributed more men than the United Kingdom. The casualty lists tell a tale themselves.

"Old Countryman" also must not forget that a large part of the increase in population in Canada during the past few years has been through immigration, that a large proportion of the young men of the country are not native-born. The census of 1911 showed that for every two males, 21 years or over, born in Canada there was more than one born outside of Canada. Naturally, the proportion of old among the native-born was much greater than among those who came to this country to try their fortune, so that after all Canada has not so many "home-grown" men of fighting age as might appear at first.

The Advertiser believes, however, that if necessary every man in the country who is a British subject and who is physically able to do so would be found rallying around the flag with a rifle or his shoulder, and what is said here is not in defence of any young man who may be shirking his duty to his country. There are many men who can serve at see to it that she (Canada) is not the front and who are not doing so; it surpassed by the sister of the south must be remembered, however, that has been promptly met and that every future call will be as promptly met; that many Canadian-born still at home will the corresponding period last year. be found in Europe before the war ends And this slight difference is due to struments of a triumphant aristocracy. and will go zealously.

Batting Order Shift.

Manager Reisling made another shift
In his batting order yesterday, but the change did not work any wonders. The change did not work any wonders. The boys were just as helpless against Schroeder's southpaw slants in that order as in any other order. Eddie Lamy, the only man on the team who hatted left-handed, was the only player to make more than one hit. He had a couple of safeties in four times up. The other two times he sent the outfielders back to the fence for his long flies. Cy Reidy's double was the only extra-base clout that London secured.

Hamilton got the jump on the locals in the first frame. With two men out, Zeimer singled, and got to second when there was nobody covering the bag, after Hammond had caught him flatfooted off first base. A wild pitch put Zeimer on third, Tiffany drew a pass, and then McGroarty came up and lingled to centre, Zeimer scoring.

A Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure.

A famous physician whose successful A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure of stomach and intestinal diseases have earned for him an international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all intestinal troubles, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a demanged condition of the stomach which anged condition of the stomach which in turn was due nine times out of ten ranged condition of the times out of ten to excessive acidity, commonly termed sour stomach, or heartburn, which not only irritated and inflamed the delicate lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and stomach but also set up gastritis and stomach ulcers. It is interesting to note that he condemns the use of patent medicines as well as of medical treatment for the stomach, stating that he and his colleagues have secured remarkable results by the use of ordinary bisurated magnesia, which, by neutralizing the acidity of the food, removes the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it would be for a man who stepped on a tack to rub liniment on the foot without first removing the on the foot without first removing the on the foot without first removing the tack. Remove the tack and the foot will heal itself—neutralize the acid and the stomach troubles will disappear. Doctor Tells How to Shed Bad Complexion.

We cannot restore degenerated facial tissue any more than we can restore a lost limb. It is useless to attempt to convert a worn-out complexion into a new one. The rational procedure is to remove the complexion instead—remove the devitalized cuticle. Not by surgical means, however, as the underlying cutis is too thin, too tender, to withstand immediate exposure. Applying ordinary mercolized wax will gradually absorb the offending cuticle. By degrees a new, youthful skin appears, soft and delicately tinted as a rose notal ately tinted as a rose petal. No lady need hesitate to try this. Pro-cure an ounce of mercolized wax of the druggist. Spread on a thin layer before retiring, removing this in the morning with soap and water. In from one to two weeks the complexion is completely transformed.

An approved treatment for wrinkles is provided by dissolving an onnee of witch hazel. Eathing the face in the solution brings prompt and remarkable results.—Dr. R. Mackenzie, in Popular Medicine.

[Canadian Press.] New York, June 29 .- Final steps call to the 7,000,000 women workers in the financial readjustment of the Missouri Pacific Railway were to be taken at a meeting of the road's directors, set for this afternoon. The plan involved the formation of a securities company and the issue of new common and pre ferred shares in place of those now outstanding. Other proposed changes in the financial reorganization of the company, which once formed the backbone of the Gould system, included a drastic cutting down of various underlying securities, which will materially reduce the fixed charges of the company. This, it is hoped, would be accomplished by friendly reorganization without recourse to proceedings in the federal Floods Wash Away Shacks -Gravel Trains Hold Bridge Steady.

[Canadian Press.] Edmonton, Alta., June 29.-Flood conditions on the Saskatchewan River here at midnight were practically unchanged. The river rose gradually all day, and at 11 o'clock was 38 feet above lowwater mark. All the low land on the flats surrounding the city are covered with water, and it is estimated that 800 families, mostly of the poorer classes, who live in shacks along the river banks, are temporarily homeless. Worked All Night.

The police and fire departments worked heroically all day and were aided by hundreds of citizens in removing their children and household goods to the higher ground. The water is level with the top of the low level bridge used as a railway and passenger bridge and also by the Canadian North-Trains Held Bridge.

In order to keep it from being carried away, two trains loaded with gravel were left standing on it with engines at each ready to haul them away if their weight proved insufficient to keep the superstructure in its place. Shortly before midnight the river showed signs of lowering slightly, and it is now hoped the worst is past.

INGERSOLL, June 28. — Many local anglers are daily in quest of black bass. Some years ago a local pond, fed by a stream of clear water, was stocked with the bass, and their numbers have increased to a marked extent. Many of them are now very large, weighing several pounds, and there is a keen rivalry on the part of local anglers. Several beauties have already been landed, and the small boy is upholding all the traditions of his generation.

In the case of Alice Burnham, one of Smith's three brides, who was drowned in her bathtub at Blackpool, Dr. Spilsbury declared, it would have been impossible for a person of her size to have been in such a condition, submerged in either a sitting or a lying position, in the bathtub that had been produced in court.

TO GUARD HURON

County Redivided by Provincial License Board-County Pays the Bill.

TORONTO, June 28 .- Huron county will try out the Canada Temperance Act under the most strict and efficient administration which can be procured by the provincial board of license commissioners. Some time ago a Huron deputation waited upon the board. It represented that the law, as brought into force by the franchise of the people, was not being enforced. The board listened, considered and acted.

The board has divided the county into two districts instead of three as forand South Huron. Under a Government appointed inspectors for the north and outh districts, respectively. These officials will also be sworn in as peacefficers with the full authority stables. The former inspectoral salaries be paid by the county, and it is understood that the inspectors will devote their whole time to the work of pre-
