CERTAIN IMPERIAL ENACTMENTS,

CONCERNING THE

BOUNDARIES AND CONSTITUTION OF CANADA,

AND THE POLITICAL RIGHTS OF

HER MAJESTY'S CANADIAN SUBJECTS.

IMPERIAL ACT, 14 GEO. 3, c. 83—1774.

An Act for making more effectual provision for the government of the province of Quebec in North America.

WHEREAS his Majesty, by his royal proclamation bearing Preamble.
date the seventh day of October, in the third year of his reign, thought fit to declare the provisions which have been made in respect to certain countries, territories and islands in America, ceded to his Majesty by the definitive treaty of peace concluded at Paris on the tenth day of February, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-three : And whereas by the arrangements made by the said royal proclamation, a very large extent of country, within which there were several colonies and settlements of the subjects of France, who claimed to remain therein under the faith of the said treaty, was left without any provision being made for the administration of civil government therein ; and certain parts of the territory of Canada, where sedentary fisheries had been established and carried on by the subjects of France, inhabitants of the said province of Canada, under grants and concessions from the government thereof, were annexed to the government of Newfoundland, and thereby subjected to regulations inconsistent with the nature of such fisheries : May it therefore please your Most Excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the lords spiritual and temporal and commons, in this present parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same :

1. That all the territories, islands, and countries in North America, belonging to the crown of Great Britain, bounded on the south by a line from the bay of Chaleurs, along the high lands which divide the rivers that empty themselves into the river Saint Lawrence from those which fall into the sea, to a point in forty-five degrees of northern latitude, on the eastern bank of the river Connecticut, keeping the same latitude directly west, Certain Territories belonging to Great Britain, annexed to the Province of Quebec.

west, through the lake Champlain, until, in the same latitude, it meets the river Saint Lawrence ; from thence up the eastern bank of the said river to the lake Ontario ; thence through the lake Ontario, and the river commonly called Niagara ; and thence along by the eastern and south-eastern bank of lake Erie, following the said bank, until the same shall be intersected by the northern boundary, granted by the charter of the province of Pennsylvania, in case the same shall be so intersected ; and from thence along the said northern and western boundaries of the said province, until the said western boundary strike the Ohio ; but in case the said bank of the said lake shall not be found to be so intersected, then following the said bank until it shall arrive at that point of the said bank which shall be nearest to the north-western angle of the said province of Pennsylvania ; and thence, by a right line, to the said north-western angle of the said province ; and thence along the western boundary of the said province, until it strike the river Ohio ; and along the bank of the said river, westward, to the banks of the Mississippi, and northward to the southern boundary of the territory granted to the merchants adventurers of England, trading to Hudson's Bay ; and also all such territories, islands, and countries, which have, since the tenth of February, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-three, been made part of the government of Newfoundland, be, and they are hereby, during his Majesty's pleasure, annexed to, and made part and parcel of the province of Quebec, as created and established by the said royal proclamation of the seventh of October, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

Boundaries of any other Colony not to be affected.

2. Provided always, that nothing herein contained, relative to the boundary of the province of Quebec, shall in any wise affect the boundaries of any other colony.

Not to make void other rights formerly granted.

3. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to make void, or to vary or alter any right, title, or possession, derived under any grant, conveyance, or otherwise howsoever, of or to any lands within the said province, or the provinces thereto adjoining ; but that the same shall remain and be in force, and have effect, as if this Act had never been made.

Former provisions for the Government of the Province to be null and void, after 1st May, 1775.

4. And whereas the provisions, made by the said proclamation, in respect to the civil government of the said province of Quebec, and the powers and authorities given to the governor and other civil officers of the said province, by the grants and commissions issued in consequence thereof, have been found, upon experience, to be inapplicable to the state and circumstances of the said province, the inhabitants whereof amounted, at the conquest, to above sixty-five thousand persons professing the religion of the church of Rome, and enjoying an established form of constitution and system of laws, by which their persons and property had been protected, governed, and and ordered, for a long series of years, from the first establishment of the said province of Canada; be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said proclamation, so far as the same relates to the said province of Quebec, and the commission under the authority whereof the government of the said province is at present administered, and all and every the ordinance and ordinances made by the governor and council of Quebec for the time being, relative to the civil government and administration of justice in the said province, and all commissions to judges and other officers thereof, be, and the same are hereby revoked, annulled, and made void, from and after the first day of May, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

5. And, for the more perfect security and ease of the minds of the inhabitants of the said province, it is hereby declared, That his Majesty's subjects, professing the religion of the church of Rome of and in the said province of Quebec, may have, hold, and enjoy, the free exercise of the religion of the church of Rome, subject to the King's supremacy, declared and established by an act, made in the first year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, over all the dominions and countries which then did, or thereafter should belong, to the imperial crown of this realm; and that the clergy of the said church may hold, receive, and enjoy, their accustomed dues and rights, with respect to such persons only as shall profess the said religion.

Inhabitants of Quebec may profess the Roman Catholic Religion, as declared subject to the King's supremacy as declared by the Act 1st Elizabeth.

6. Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to make such provision out of the rest of the said accustomed dues and rights, for the encouragement and support of a protestant religion, and for the maintenance and support of a protestant clergy within the said province, as he or they shall, from time to time, think necessary and expedient.

Provision may be made for the support of a Protestant Clergy within said Province.

(This does not appear to have been expressly repealed, but is not acted upon, and is perhaps inconsistent with later enactments.)

7. Provided always, that no person, professing the religion of the church of Rome, and residing in the said province, shall be obliged to take the oath required by the said statute passed in the first year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, or any other oaths substituted by any other Act in the place thereof; but that every such person who, by the said statute is required to take the oath therein mentioned, shall be obliged, and is hereby required, to take and subscribe the following oath before the governor, or such other person in such court of record as His Majesty shall appoint, who are hereby authorized to administer the same; videlicet:

No person professing the Roman Catholic Religion obliged to take the oath 1st Elizabeth, but to take the following oath.

"I, A. B., do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful, and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King George, and him will defend to the utmost of my power, against all traitorous Oath.

“traitorous conspiracies, and attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against his person, crown and dignity; and I will do my utmost endeavor to disclose and make known to his Majesty, his heirs and successors, all treasons, and traitorous conspiracies, and attempts, which I shall know to be against him, or any of them; and all this I do swear without any equivocation, mental evasion, or secret reservation, and renouncing all pardons and dispensations from any power or person whomsoever to the contrary. So help me God.”

Persons refusing the oath to be subject to the penalties under 1st Elizabeth.

And every such person, who shall neglect or refuse to take the said oath before mentioned, shall incur and be liable to the same penalties, forfeitures, disabilities, and incapacities, as he would have incurred and been liable to for neglecting or refusing to take the oath required by the said statute passed in the first year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

His Majesty's Canadian subjects (religious orders excepted) may hold all their property. &c.

8. His Majesty's Canadian subjects, within the province of Quebec, the religious orders and communities only excepted, may also hold and enjoy their property and possessions, together with all customs and usages relative thereto, and all other their civil rights, in as large, ample, and beneficial a manner, as if the said proclamation, commissions, ordinances, and other Acts and instruments had not been made, and as may consist with their allegiance to his Majesty, and subjection to the crown and parliament of Great Britain; and in all matters of controversy, relative to property and civil rights, resort shall be had to the laws of Canada, as the rule for the decision of the same; and all causes that shall hereafter be instituted in any of the courts of justice, to be appointed within and for the said province, by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall, with respect to such property and rights, be determined agreeably to the said laws and customs of Canada, until they shall be varied or altered by any ordinances that shall, from time to time, be passed in the said province by the governor, lieutenant governor, or commander in chief, for the time being, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, to be appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned.

In civil matters resort to be had to the laws of Canada.

Exception as to lands in free and common soccage.

9. Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any lands that have been granted by His Majesty, or shall hereafter be granted by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to be holden in free and common soccage. (But see now the Provincial Statutes in force in Lower Canada on this subject.)

Owners of lands &c., may alienate the same by will.

10. Provided also that it shall and may be lawful for every person that is owner of any lands, goods, or credits, in the said province, and that has a right to alienate the said lands, goods, or credits, in his or her life-time, by deed of sale, gift, or otherwise, to devise or bequeath the same at his or her death, by his or her last will and testament, any law, usage, or custom, heretofore or now prevailing in the province, to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding; such will being executed, either according to the laws of Canada, or according to the forms prescribed by the laws of England. (But see now, the Provincial Statutes in force in Upper and Lower Canada on this subject.)

11. And whereas the certainty and lenity of the criminal law of England, and the benefits and advantages resulting from the use of it, have been sensibly felt by the inhabitants, from an experience of more than nine years, during which it has been uniformly administered; be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the same shall continue to be administered, and shall be observed as law in the province of Quebec, as well in the description and quality of the offence as in the method of prosecution and trial, and the punishments and forfeitures thereby inflicted, to the exclusion of every other rule of criminal law, or mode of proceeding thereon, which did or might prevail in the said province before the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any respect notwithstanding; subject nevertheless to such alterations and amendments as the governor, lieutenant governor, or commander in chief for the time being, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the said province, hereafter to be appointed, shall, from time to time, cause to be made therein, in manner hereinafter directed.

Criminal Law of England to be continued in the Province.

(See, as to Upper Canada, the Act of that Province, 40 G. 3, c. 1, s. 1, adopting the Criminal Law of England as it stood on 7th Sept. 1792, subject to any alteration to be made by the Provincial Legislature. This section still applies to Lower Canada, subject to the alterations made in the English Criminal Law, by subsequent provincial enactments.)

Sections 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16, related to the constitution and powers of the Legislative Council for the Province, and were repealed by 31 G. 3, c. 31, s. 1.

17. Nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent or hinder His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by his or their letters patent under the great seal of Great Britain, from erecting, constituting, and appointing, such courts of criminal, civil, and ecclesiastical jurisdiction within and for the said province of Quebec, and appointing, from time to time, the judges and officers thereof, as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall think necessary and proper for the circumstances of the said province.

Nothing herein to prevent His Majesty from appointing Courts, &c., and their Officers, under the Great Seal.

18. Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or make void, within the said province of Quebec, any Act or Acts of the Parliament of Great Britain heretofore made, for prohibiting, restraining, or regulating the trade or commerce of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America; but that all and every the said Acts, and also all Acts of Parliament heretofore made concerning or respecting the said colonies and plantations, shall be, and are hereby declared to be in force within the said province of Quebec, and every part thereof. (It seems unlikely that there are any Acts to which this Section can apply.)

IMP. ACT, 18 GEO. 3, c. 12—1778.

An Act for removing all doubts and apprehensions concerning taxation by the parliament of Great Britain in any of the colonies, provinces, and plantations in North America and the West Indies; and for repealing so much of an Act made in the seventh year of the reign of his present Majesty, as imposes a duty on tea imported from Great Britain into any colony or plantation in America, or relates thereto.

Preamble.

WHEREAS taxation by the parliament of Great Britain, for the purpose of raising a revenue in his Majesty's colonies, provinces, and plantations in North America, has been found by experience to occasion great uneasinesses and disorders among His Majesty's faithful subjects, who may nevertheless be disposed to acknowledge the justice of contributing to the common defence of the empire, provided such contribution should be raised under the authority of the general court, or general assembly of each respective colony, province, or plantation: And whereas, in order as well to remove the said uneasinesses, and to quiet the minds of his Majesty's subjects who may be disposed to return to their allegiance, as to restore the peace and welfare of all His Majesty's dominions, it is expedient to declare that the King and parliament of Great Britain will not impose any duty, tax, or assessment, for the purpose of raising a revenue in any of the colonies, provinces, or plantations: May it please your Majesty that it may be declared and enacted, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the lords spiritual and temporal and commons, in this present parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same:

lation of trade to be applied for the use of the Colony.

2. That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of an Act made in the seventh year of his present Majesty's reign, intituled, An Act for granting certain duties in the British colonies and plantations in America ; for allowing a drawback of the duties of customs upon the exportation from this Kingdom of coffee and cocoa-nuts of the produce of the said colonies or plantations ; for discontinuing the drawbacks payable on China earthenware exported to America ; and for more effectually preventing the clandestine running of goods in the said colonies and plantations, as imposes a duty on tea imported from Great Britain into any colony or plantation in America, or has relation to the said duty, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

IMP. ACT, 31 GEO. 3, c. 31—1791.

An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual provision for the government of the province of Quebec, in North America ;" and to make further provision for the government of the said province.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for making more effectual provision for the government of the province of Quebec, in North America : and whereas the said Act is in many respects inapplicable to the present condition and circumstances of the said province : and whereas it is expedient and necessary that further provision should now be made for the good government and prosperity thereof : May it therefore please your Most Excellent Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the lords spiritual and temporal and commons, in this present parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same :

(Sections 2 to 32, both inclusive, related to the constitution of a Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly in Upper and Lower Canada respectively, and are repealed by the Union Act (3, 4 V. c. 35, s. 2.)—Sect. 33 merely continues laws then in force until otherwise ordered by the Legislature of either Province respectively.)

35. And whereas, by the above mentioned Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of his present Majesty, it was declared, That the clergy of the church of Rome, in the province of Quebec, might hold, receive, and enjoy, their accustomed dues and rights, with respect to such persons only as should profess the said religion; provided nevertheless, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to make such provision out of the rest of the said accustomed dues and rights, for the encouragement of the protestant religion, and for the maintenance and support of a protestant clergy within the said province, as he or they should from time to time think necessary and expedient; and whereas by His Majesty's royal instructions, given under His Majesty's royal sign manual on the third day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, to Guy Carleton, esquire, now lord Dorchester, at that time His Majesty's captain general and governor in chief in and over His Majesty's province of Quebec, His Majesty was pleased, amongst other things, to direct, "That no incumbent professing the religion of the church of Rome, appointed to any parish in the said province, should be entitled to receive any tythes for lands or possessions occupied by a protestant, but that such tythes should be received by such persons as the said Guy Carleton, esquire, His Majesty's captain general and governor in chief in and over His Majesty's said province of Quebec, should appoint, and should be reserved in the hands of His Majesty's receiver general of the said province, for the support of a protestant clergy in His Majesty's said province, to be actually resident within the same, and not otherwise, according to such directions as the said Guy Carleton, esquire, His Majesty's captain general and governor in chief in and over His Majesty's said province, should receive from His Majesty in that behalf; and that in like manner all growing rents and profits of a vacant benefice should, during such vacancy, be reserved for and applied to the like uses;" and whereas His Majesty's pleasure has likewise been signified to the same effect in His Majesty's royal instructions, given in like manner to sir Frederick Haldimand, knight of the most honorable order of the Bath, late His Majesty's captain general and governor in chief in and over His Majesty's said province of Quebec; and also in His Majesty's royal instructions, given in like manner to the said right honorable Guy, lord Dorchester, now His Majesty's captain general and governor in chief in and over His Majesty's said province of Quebec,—be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said declaration and provision contained in the said above mentioned act, and also the said provision so made by His Majesty in consequence thereof, by his instructions above recited, shall remain and continue to be of full force and effect in each of the said two provinces of Upper Canada and Lower Canada respectively, except in so far as the said declaration or provisions respectively, or any part thereof, shall be expressly varied or repealed by any Act or Acts which may be passed by the legislative council and assembly of the said provinces respectively, and assented to by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, under the restriction hereinafter provided.

Sir Guy Carleton—

And the declaration and provision therein respecting the clergy of the church of Rome to continue in force.

(But tythes were abolished in U. C. by 2 G. 4, c. 32, and are not paid in L. C. by protestants, so that the section seems unlikely to have any effect except as maintaining the Roman Catholic Clergy in L. C. in their right to tythes from Roman Catholics.)

(Sections 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, related to the reservation of lands for the support of a protestant clergy, and the endowment of rectories. The Imp. Act 3, 4 V. c. 78, s. 11, repeals so much of this Act as relates to any such reservation thereafter to be made;—and the Prov. Act 14, 15 V. c. 175, repeals ss. 38, 39 and 40 of this Act relating to the establishment of rectories, saving past rights if found valid, and directing how the presentation to any rectory which is found to have been legally established, shall thereafter be made. The said Provincial Act was passed under the authority given by s. 41 of the Act now under consideration.)

41. The several provisions hereinbefore contained, respecting the allotment and appropriation of lands for the support of a protestant clergy within the said provinces, and also respecting the constituting, erecting, and endowing parsonages or rectories within the said provinces, and also respecting the presentation of incumbents or ministers to the same, and also respecting the manner in which such incumbents or ministers shall hold and enjoy the same, shall be subject to be varied or repealed by any express provisions for that purpose, contained in any Act or Acts which may be passed by the legislative council and assembly of the said provinces respectively, and assented to by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, under the restriction hereinafter provided.

Provisions respecting the allotment of lands for the support of a protestant clergy, &c., may be varied or repealed by the Legislative Council and Assembly.

(Section 42, requiring that certain Bills respecting ecclesiastical rights and waste lands of the Crown, should be reserved and laid before Parliament before being assented to, applied only to Bills of the Parliament of U. C. or of L. C., and the section of the Union Act (42,) making like provision as to Bills of the Legislature of Canada, is repealed by the Imp. Act 17, 18 V. c. 118, s. 6, which enables Her Majesty to assent to any Bill of the Canadian Legislature, without its being laid before the Imp. Parliament, and the Governor to assent to any Bill without reserving it for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure.)

Lands in Upper Canada to be granted in free and common soccage, and also in Lower Canada, if desired.

43. All lands which shall be hereafter granted within the said province of Upper Canada, shall be granted in free and common soccage, in like manner as lands are now holden in free and common soccage, in that part of Great Britain called England; and in every case where lands shall be hereafter granted within the said province of Lower Canada, and where the grantee thereof shall desire the same to be granted in free and common soccage, the same shall be so granted; but subject nevertheless to such alterations, with respect to the nature and consequences of such tenure of free and common soccage, as may be established by any law or laws which may be made by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council and assembly of the province.

Persons holding lands in Upper Canada may have fresh grants thereof.

44. If any person or persons holding any lands in the said province of Upper Canada, by virtue of any certificate of occupation derived under the authority of the governor and council of the province of Quebec, and having power and authority to alienate the same, shall, at any time, from and after the commencement of this Act, surrender the same into the hands of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, by petition to the governor or lieutenant governor, or person administering the government of the said province, setting forth that he, she, or they, is or are desirous of holding the same in free and common soccage, such governor, lieutenant governor, or person administering the government, shall thereupon cause a fresh grant to be made to such person or persons of such lands, to be holden in free and common soccage.

Such fresh grants not to avoid or bar any title to the said lands.

45. Provided nevertheless, that such surrender and grant shall not avoid or bar any right or title to any such lands so surrendered, or any interest in the same, to which any person or persons, other than the person or persons surrendering the same, shall have been entitled, either in possession, remainder, or reversion, or otherwise, at the time of such surrender; but that every such surrender and grant shall be made subject to every such right, title and interest, and that every such right, title or interest, shall be as valid and effectual as if such surrender and grant had never been made.

(It is improbable that any cases now remain to which the two next preceding clauses can apply.)

(Sections 46 and 47 referred to the Imp. Act 18 Geo. 3, c. 12, and were to the same effect and in the same terms as section 43 of the Union Act (3, 4 V. c. 35) which applies to the now Province of Canada.)

(Section 48, 49 and 50 were mere temporary provisions relating to the coming into force of the Act and matters preliminary thereto.)

IMP. ACT, 3, 4 V. c. 35—1840.

An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada.

WHEREAS it is necessary that provision be made for the good Government of the Provinces of Upper Canada and Lower Canada, in such manner as may secure the rights and liberties and promote the interests of all classes of Her Majesty's subjects within the same : And whereas to this end it is expedient that the said Provinces be re-united and form one Province for the purposes of Executive Government and Legislation : Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament Assembled, and by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, or to authorize the Governor General of the said Two Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada to declare, by Proclamation, that the said Provinces, upon, from, and after a certain day in such Proclamation to be appointed, which Day shall be within fifteen calendar months next after the passing of this Act, shall form and be One Province, under the name of the Province of Canada, and thenceforth the said Provinces shall constitute and be One Province, under the name aforesaid, upon, from, and after the day so appointed as aforesaid.

(Section 44, relating to the Provincial Court of Appeals and the place of sitting of certain Courts, &c., in U. C. until it should be otherwise provided by the Prov. Legislature, is superseded by the Prov. Act 12 V. c. 63, and other Acts making other provision for the same matters.)

Any person who enters into any such Recognizance shall testify upon oath in writing, to be sworn at the time of entering into the said Recognizance, and before the same person by whom his Recognizance is taken, that he is seized or possessed of real or personal estate (or both) above what will satisfy all his just debts, of double the clear value of the sum for which he is bound by his said Recognizance;—and every such affidavit shall be endorsed upon or annexed to the Recognizance, and such Affidavit may be in the form or to the like effect as is set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked A (4), with such alterations as are necessary to adapt such form to the circumstances of the case. 14, 15 V. c. 1, s. 12.

How the omission shall be dealt with, if declared not to affect the substance of the question.

159. The non-observance by either House of the Provincial Parliament, or the Speaker, Clerk, or other Officer thereof,—or by the Select Committee appointed for the trial of any such Election Petition, or the Chairman, Clerk, or other Officer thereof,—or by any Commissioner appointed to take evidence upon any such trial, or acting under this Act,—or any Clerk, Bailiff, or other Officer acting under such Commissioner,—of any of the directions contained in this Act respecting any proceeding or course of proceeding to be had or taken by them respectively, in the disposal of such Election Petition, or the trial thereof,—except only where, by the use of negative as well as affirmative terms, the intention of the Legislature has been manifested, that only such proceeding or course of proceeding, and no other, as to time, place and circumstance, or any of them respectively, should be had or taken in such case,—shall not render such proceeding or course of proceeding, or the subsequent proceedings of such Select Committee in the trial and disposal of such Election Petition, necessarily void

Provision if the party omitting to comply with the directions of the Act, be the House, the Speaker, the Clerk, Committee, Chairman, &c.

or of none effect, provided that such Select Committee thereupon come to a resolution, to be reported to the House with the reasons of such Committee for coming to the same,—that such neglect or omission hath not so affected the position of the parties to such Election Petition, or any of them, or the proceedings before them in relation to the same, as to interfere with or prevent the disposal by such Committee of any substantial question raised upon such Election Petition upon the true merits thereof :

Supplying the omission.

2. But in every such case where necessary, such non-observance shall be supplied, in the case of non-observance by the said House, or the Speaker, Clerk, or other Officer thereof, under the direction of the House itself,—and in the case of such non-observance by the said Select Committee, or the Chairman, Clerk, or other Officer thereof, or by any such Commissioner as aforesaid, or any Clerk, Bailiff or other Officer acting under him as aforesaid, then under the direction of such Select Committee,—so as to occasion to the parties prosecuting and defending such Election Petition as little inconvenience, delay or expense as may be. 14, 15 V. c. 1, s. 158.

In cases of non-observance by Speaker, &c.

160. In all such cases of non-observance as are referred to in the next preceding section, where such non-observance has taken place on the part of the Speaker, Clerk or other Officer of either House of the Provincial Parliament, or on that of the Select Committee appointed for the trial of any such Election Petition, or the Chairman, Clerk, or other Officer thereof, or on that of any Commissioner appointed to take evidence upon any such trial, or acting under this Act, or any Clerk, Bailiff or other Officer acting under such Commissioner,—the persons guilty of such non-observance, may, by order of the said House in its discretion, be taken into the custody of the Sergeant at Arms attending such House, or his Deputy, for such non-observance, and be otherwise dealt with, at the like discretion of the said House, by censure or imprisonment, or by requiring them to make such satisfaction to the parties so interested or concerned in such Election Petition, or any of them, as to the said House may seem just, and by commitment of such persons, or any of them, in execution, for such period as the said House deems proper, or until such satisfaction is made to such parties or any of them, according to the judgment come to by the said House in that behalf, or by all or any of such means as in the discretion of the said House seem just :

Proviso.

2. Provided nevertheless, that every such proceeding by the said House shall, in all cases, except in that of the Speaker of the said House, or in that of the said Select Committee or the Chairman or other Member thereof, be had and taken by the said House only upon a special report of such non-observance made by such Select Committee to the said House, and not otherwise. 14, 15 V. c. 1, s. 159.

11.—CASES FOR WHICH NO SPECIAL PROVISION IS MADE.

161. If with regard to any Election Petition, any case arises as to which no express provision is made by this Act, and in which, if it were treated as a case wholly without the purview of this Act, there would be a manifest failure of justice, without any error, fault or neglect of any of the parties interested,—then such case shall not be held to be omitted, but it shall be lawful for the House, Speaker, General Election Committee, Chairmen's Panel, Select Committee, or Commissioner, as the case may be, to adopt such proceeding as they or he deem most consonant to the express provisions, spirit and intent of this Act, and when such proceeding is not taken by the House, to report the same to the House, for the information thereof only,—and such proceeding shall not be held illegal, unless it be inconsistent with some express provision of this Act, or some other existing provision of law. 14, 15 V. c. 1, s. 160.

As to cases where no express provision is made by this Act.

162. The expression "Electoral Division," in this Act, means any County or other place or portion of this Province, entitled to return a Member to either House of the Provincial Parliament, unless the context shews that it applies only to an Electoral Division for the Legislative Council.

Meaning of the term "Electoral Division."

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows :

COMMISSIONS.

No new Commissions need be issued at the commencement of a new Reign, but a Proclamation continuing all Public Officers, &c., in their respective offices, shall issue and be sufficient.

1. Upon the demise of the Crown, it shall not be necessary to renew any commission, by virtue whereof any Public Officer or Functionary in this Province held his office or profession, during the previous Reign,—but a proclamation shall be issued by the Governor, authorizing all persons in office who held commissions under the late Sovereign, and all Functionaries who exercised any profession by virtue of any such commissions to continue in the due exercise of their respective duties, functions and professions, and such proclamation shall suffice, and the incumbents shall, as soon thereafter as may be, take the usual and customary oath of allegiance before the proper officer or officers thereunto appointed ;

Oath of Allegiance to the Sovereign to be taken.

2. And such Proclamation being issued, and oath taken, each and every such Public Officer and Functionary shall continue in the lawful exercise of the duties and functions of his office or profession, as fully, as if appointed de novo by Commission derived from the Sovereign for the time being ; and all acts and things bonâ fide done and performed by such incumbents in their respective offices, and in the due and faithful performance of their duties and functions, between the time of such demise and the proclamation so to be issued, (such oath of allegiance being always duly taken) shall be deemed to be legally done, and valid accordingly. 7 V. c. 8, s. 1.

OATHS OF ALLEGIANCE AND OFFICE, &c.

No other oath but those hereinafter described to be required of certain Officers.

3. It shall not be necessary for any person appointed to any office in this Province, civil or military, or any Mayor or other officer or member of any corporation therein, or for any person admitted, called or received as a Barrister, Advocate, Notary Public, Attorney, Solicitor or Proctor, to make any declaration or subscription, or to take or subscribe any other oath than the oath following, that is to say :

“ I,

"I, A. B., do sincerely promise and swear, that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, (or the reigning Sovereign for the time being,) as lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of this Province dependent on and belonging to the said Kingdom, and that I will defend Her to the utmost of my power against all traitorous conspiracies or attempts whatever which shall be made against Her Person, Crown and Dignity, and that I will do my utmost endeavour to disclose and make known to Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, all treasons or traitorous conspiracies and attempts which I shall know to be against Her or any of them ;—And all this I do swear without any equivocation, mental evasion or secret reservation, and renouncing all pardons and dispensations from any person or power whatever to the contrary ; So help me God."

6. All persons allowed by law to affirm instead of swearing in civil cases in any part of this Province, shall be received to take an affirmation of allegiance in the like terms, mutatis mutandis, as the said Oath of Allegiance, and such affirmation of allegiance taken before the proper officer, shall in all cases be accepted from such persons in lieu of such oath ; and shall as to such affirmants have the like effect as the said oath of allegiance ;—And all Magistrates and other officers lawfully authorized, either by virtue of their office or by special commission from the Crown for that purpose, may administer the affirmation of allegiance in any part of this Province. 13, 14 V. c. 18, s. 5.

ENTRY INWARDS—VALUATION FOR DUTY.

23. And inasmuch as it is expedient to make such provisions for the valuation of goods subject to ad valorem duties as may protect the revenue and the fair trader against fraud by the undervaluation of any such goods—Therefore, the Governor may from time to time, and when he deems it expedient, appoint fit and proper persons to be Appraisers of goods, and to act as such respectively, at such Ports of entry and places as may be designated by the Governor;—And each such Appraiser shall, before acting as such, take and subscribe the following oath of office before some Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction where the oath is taken, and shall deliver the same to the Collector at the Port or place, or at one of the Ports or places where he is appointed to act :

during any time, which such Appraiser shall accordingly do without taking any new oath of office; and every Appraiser shall be deemed an Officer of the Customs. 12 V. c. 1, s. 5.

As to mode of calculating value for ad valorem duties.

24. In all cases where any duty is imposed on any goods imported into this Province ad valorem, or according to the value of such goods, such value shall be understood to be the fair market value thereof in the principal markets of the country whence the same were exported directly to this Province; And every Appraiser and every Collector when acting as such, shall, by all reasonable ways and means in his power, ascertain the fair market value as aforesaid of any goods to be appraised by him, and estimate and appraise the value for duty of such goods, at the fair market value as aforesaid:

2. Nevertheless, by any departmental order authorized by the Governor, it may be provided that in the cases and on the conditions to be mentioned in such order, and while the same is in force, goods bonâ fide exported to this Province from any Country, but passing in transitu through another Country, shall be valued for duty as if they were imported directly from such first mentioned Country. 16 V. c. 85, s. 3—part.

Entries inwards by Bill of Sight—how and in what cases made.

25. If the importer of any goods whereon a duty ad valorem is imposed, or the person authorized to make the declaration required with regard to such goods, makes and subscribes a declaration before the Collector or other proper officer, that he cannot, for want of full information, make perfect entry thereof, and takes the oath or affirmation in such cases provided in the Schedule to this Act, and gives bond jointly and severally with one or more sureties to the satisfaction of the Collector or proper officer aforesaid, to produce a sufficient invoice of such goods attested in the manner required by this Act within a time to be appointed by the Collector,—then the Collector or officer may cause such goods to be landed on a Bill of Sight for the packages and parcels thereof, by the best description that can be given, and to be seen and examined by such person, and at his expense, in the presence of the Collector or principal officer, or of such other officer of the Customs as shall be appointed by the said Collector or other proper officer, and to be delivered to such person on his depositing in the hands of the Collector or officer, a sum of money fully sufficient in the judgment of the Collector or officer to pay the duties thereon;—And if the importer does not complete a perfect entry within the time so appointed, the money so deposited shall be taken and held to be the duty accruing on such goods, and shall be dealt with and accounted for accordingly;

Deposit of money for duty.

Provision if perfect entry be not made as stipulated.

If the Importer swears that no invoice has been or can be received.

2. Such Sight Entry may be made as aforesaid and the goods may be delivered, if such importer or person as aforesaid makes oath or affirms that such invoice has not been, and cannot be produced, and pays to the Collector or proper officer aforesaid a sum of money sufficient in the judgment of such Collector or officer to pay the duties on such goods, and such sum shall then be held to be the amount of the said duties; 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 13, and 12 V. c. 1, s. 7.

3. But, except only in cases where it is otherwise provided herein or by regulation of the Governor in Council, no entry shall be deemed perfect unless a sufficient invoice of the goods to be entered, attested as hereinafter required, has been produced to the Collector. 12 V. c. 1, s. 7—remaining part.

In other cases entry not perfect without invoice.

26. With the Bill of Entry of any goods, there shall be produced and delivered to and left with the Collector, if required by him, an Invoice of the goods, attested by the oath of the owner, and if the owner be not the person entering such goods, then verified also by the oath of the importer or consignee, or (subject to the provision hereinafter made) other person who may lawfully make such Entry and verify such Invoice, in the form or to the effect of the oath or oaths provided for the case in the Schedule B hereunto annexed, which oath or oaths shall be written or printed, or partly written and partly printed on such Invoice, or on the Bill of Entry, (as the case may be), or shall be annexed thereto, and shall in either case distinctly refer to such Invoice so that there can be no doubt as to its being the Invoice to which such oath is intended to apply, and shall be subscribed by the party making it and certified by the signature of the person before whom it is made;—And the Bill of Entry shall also contain a statement of the value for duty of the goods therein mentioned, and shall be signed by the person making the entry, and shall be verified in the form or to the effect of the oath provided for the case in the said Schedule B. 12, V. c. 1, s. 8.

Invoice to be attested on both by the owner of the goods.

Form of oath.

Bill of Entry to mention the value for duty and to be attested.

27. If there be more than one owner, importer or consignee of any goods, any one of them cognizant of the facts may take the oath required by this Act, and such oath shall be sufficient, unless the goods have not been obtained by purchase in the ordinary way, and some owner resident out of this Province is the manufacturer or producer of the goods, or concerned in the manufacture or production thereof, in which case the oath of such non-resident owner (or of one of them, if there be more than one) cognizant of the facts, shall be requisite to the due attestation of the invoice. 12 V. c. 1, s. 11.

As to any case where there may be more than one owner of goods.

28. The Invoice of any goods produced and delivered to the Collector with the Bill of Entry thereof, under the next preceding section but one, must in every case, if required by the Collector, be attested by the oath of the owner or one of the owners of such goods, and must be verified also by the oath of the Importer or Consignee or other person who may under this Act lawfully make entry of such goods and verify such Invoice, if the owner or one of the owners is not the person entering entering such goods,—and must be attested by the oath of the non-resident owner being the manufacturer or producer of such goods, in the case mentioned in the next preceding section, although one of the owners be the person entering the goods and verifying the Invoice on oath. 16 V. c. 85, s. 5.

And also by the oath of the non-resident owner, &c.

Provision for the death, &c., of the owner, importer or consignee.

29. If the owner, importer or consignee of any goods be dead, or a bankrupt or insolvent, or if for any cause his personal estate be administered by another person, then his executor, curator, administrator or assignee, or person administering as aforesaid, may, if cognizant of the facts, take any oath and make any entry which such owner, importer or consignee might otherwise have taken or made. 12 V. c. 1, s. 10.

Party entering may add to the value by the invoice so as to give the true value for the duty.

Evidence of the value of goods, &c.

30. In any such Bill of Entry as aforesaid, the person making the same, may add such sum to the value stated in the Invoice, as will be sufficient to make the value for duty such as it ought to be, and such value shall then, for the purposes of this Act, stand instead of the value as it would appear by the Invoice;—And no evidence of the value of any goods imported into this Province, or taken out of warehouse for consumption therein, at the place whence and the time when they are to be deemed to have been exported to this Province, contradictory to or at variance with the value stated in the Invoice produced to the Collector, with the additions (if any) made to such value by the Bill of Entry, shall be received in any Court in this Province, on the part of any party except the Crown. 12 V. c. 1, s. 9.

Before whom the attestation of invoice or bills of entry may be made.

31. The oath required under the foregoing sections may be made in this Province before the Collector at the Port where the goods are entered, or if the person making such oath is not resident there, then before the Collector of some other Port;—And when such oath is required to be made out of the limits of this Province, it may be made at any place within the Dominions of Her Majesty before the Collector or before the Mayor or other Chief Municipal Officer of the place where the goods are shipped, and at any place out of the Dominions of Her Majesty, before the British Consul at such place, or if there is no such Consul, then before some one of the principal merchants at such place, not interested in the goods in question;

Governor in Council may appoint other persons before whom attestation may be made.

2. And the Governor in Council may, from time to time, by Regulation, appoint or designate such other and additional persons, officers or functionaries as he sees fit, by name or by their name of office, and in this Province or out of it, and within or beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, as those before whom such oath may be validly taken, and may by any Order in Council relax or dispense with the provisions of this Act touching such oath, in or with regard to goods imported by land or inland navigation, or to any other class of cases to be designated in such Regulation; 12 V. c. 1, s. 12.

3. No person other than the owner, consignee or importer of the goods of which entry is to be made, shall be allowed to take any oath under the said foregoing sections, unless there be attached to the Bill of Entry therein referred to, a declaration by the owner, consignee or importer of the said goods, (or his legal representative under section twenty-nine of this Act,) to the same effect as the oath or affirmation, (adapting the form and words to the case,) distinctly referring to the Invoice presented with such Bill of Entry, and signed by such owner, importer or consignee, (or his legal representative,) either in presence of the agent making the entry, who shall attest the signature, or of some Justice of the Peace or Notary Public, who shall attest the same; And such declaration shall be kept by the Collector, who may detach the same from the Invoice, if the latter be annexed thereto and be not left with him; And for any wilfully false statement in such declaration, the person making the same shall incur the same penalty as if it were made in the oath or affirmation;—But such written declaration may be dispensed with under the order of the Governor in Council, where it may be deemed advisable in the interests of Commerce, to dispense therewith;

No person but the owner, &c., to take oath, except in certain cases.

Proviso.

4. The Governor in Council may, by Regulation, authorize the alteration of any of the forms of oaths or affirmations in the said Schedule B, by abbreviating the same or omitting any of the allegations therein contained which may appear to him unnecessary;—And any amended form prescribed by any such Regulation, shall be of the same effect as the form in the said Schedule for which it is substituted, and shall thereafter be held to be the form referred to in this Act; And any such Regulation may from time to time be repealed or amended as other Regulations in matters relating to the Customs. 22 V. c. 76, s. 5.

Governor in Council may alter oaths in Schedule B.

32. Any Appraiser, or any Collector acting as such, (or the merchants to be selected as hereinafter mentioned, to examine and appraise any goods, if the importer, owner, consignee or agent is dissatisfied with the first appraisement) may call before him or them and examine upon oath any owner, importer, consignee or other person, touching any matter or thing which such Appraiser or Collector deems material in ascertaining the true value of any goods imported, and may require the production on oath of any letters, accounts, invoices or other papers in his possession relating to the same:

And if any person so called neglects or refuses to attend, or declines to answer, or refuses to answer in writing (if required) to any interrogatories, or to subscribe his name to his deposition or answer, or to produce any such papers as aforesaid when required so to do, he shall thereby incur a penalty of fifty dollars, and if such person is the owner, importer or consignee of the goods in question, the appraisement which the Appraiser

If importer is dissatisfied with appraisement, may appeal in certain cases.

Two merchants to be appointed to appraise the goods.

Their appraisement to be final.

33. If the importer, owner, consignee or agent, having complied with the requirements of this Act, is dissatisfied with the appraisement made as aforesaid of any such goods,—he may forthwith give notice in writing to the Collector of such dissatisfaction, on the receipt of which notice the Collector shall select two discreet and experienced merchants, subjects of Her Majesty, and familiar with the character and value of the goods in question, to examine and appraise the same, agreeably to the foregoing provisions, and if they disagree, the Collector shall decide between them ; and the appraisement thus made shall be final and conclusive, and the duty shall be levied accordingly :

The Collector may always, when the value of the goods is in dispute, and when he deems it advisable in order to protect the revenue and the fair trader from fraud by undervaluation, and where the same is practicable, and subject always to such Regulations as may be made by the Governor in Council,—take the amount of the duty chargeable on any article on which an ad valorem duty is payable (after deducting one eleventh of the duty) in the article itself, taking any specific duty at the rate at which the article is valued for duty by the owner, importer, agent or consignee, that is to say:—if the duty after such deduction is ten per cent ad valorem, he may take one tenth of such goods, and if there be any specific duty thereon, he may also take such quantity of the said goods as at the value last aforesaid will be equivalent to the amount of such specific duty after deducting one eleventh as aforesaid;—And out of any number of packages or quantities in the same Invoice or Bill of Entry, the Collector may take his choice at the rates therein assigned to such articles respectively;—And such goods so taken shall be sold or dealt with in such manner as may be provided by regulation of the Governor in Council. 12 V. c. 1, s. 16.

73. All penalties and forfeitures, incurred under this Act, or any other law relating to the Customs or to trade or navigation, may be prosecuted, sued for and recovered in the Superior Courts of Law, or Court of Vice Admiralty having jurisdiction in that section of this Province where the cause of prosecution arises, or wherein the Defendant is served with process;—And if the amount or value of any such penalty or forfeiture does not exceed two hundred dollars, the same may also be prosecuted, sued for and recovered in any County Court or Circuit Court having jurisdiction in the place where the cause of prosecution arises or where the defendant is served with process. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 51.

74. All penalties and forfeitures imposed by this Act or by any other Act relating to the Customs or to trade or navigation, shall, unless other provision be made for the recovery thereof, be sued for, prosecuted and recovered with costs by Her Majesty's Attorney General, or Solicitor General, or in the name or names of some officer or officers of the Customs, or other person or persons thereunto authorized by the Governor in Council, either expressly or by general regulation or order, and by no other party; and if the prosecution be brought before any County Court or Circuit Court, it shall be heard and determined in a summary manner upon information filed in such Court. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 52,—part.

75. All penalties and forfeitures imposed by this Act or by any other Law relating to the Customs or to Trade or Navigation, may, in Lower Canada, be sued for, prosecuted and recovered with costs by the same form of proceeding as any other other moneys due to the Crown, and all suits or prosecutions for the recovery thereof, shall, in Lower Canada, be heard and determined in like manner as other suits or prosecutions in the same Court for moneys due to the Crown, except that in the Circuit Court the same shall be heard and determined in a summary manner as provided in this Act :

2. But nothing in this Section shall affect any provisions of this Act, except such only as relate to the form of proceeding and of trial in such suits or prosecutions as aforesaid. 12 V. c. 1, s. 26.

76. If the prosecution to recover any penalty or forfeiture imposed by this Act, or by any other law relating to the Customs or to Trade or Navigation, is brought in any Superior Court of law in Upper Canada, it shall be heard and determined as prosecutions for penalties and forfeitures are heard and determined in Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England, except only in so far as may be otherwise provided by any law of this Province relating to the procedure in Upper Canada, in suits instituted on behalf of the Crown in matters relating to the Revenue ; and any such law shall apply to prosecutions for the recovery of forfeitures and penalties under this Act, in whatever Court they are instituted, so far as it can be applied thereto consistently with this Act. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 52, and 20 V. c. 2.

In Upper Canada how penalties and forfeitures shall be recoverable.

77. Upon the exhibiting or filing of any information or other proceeding for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture under the provisions of this Act, any Judge of the Court in which the prosecution is brought, may, upon affidavit filed by the officer or person bringing such prosecution, showing that there is reason to believe that the defendant will leave this Province without satisfying such penalty,--issue a warrant under his hand and seal for the arrest and detention of the defendant in the Common Jail of the District, until he has given security, (before and to the satisfaction of such Judge or some other Judge of the same Court) for the payment of such penalty with costs, in case he be convicted ;

Defendant may be required to give security for the penalty and costs, or imprisoned until he does so.

2. And in every suit or proceeding brought under this Act for any penalty or forfeiture, or upon any bond given under it, or in any matter relating to the Customs, Her Majesty, or those who sue for such penalty or forfeiture, or upon such bond, shall, if they recover the same, be entitled also to recover full costs of suit ;--And all such penalties and costs, if not paid, may be levied on the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the Defendant, in the same manner as sums recovered by judgment of the Court in which the prosecution is brought may be levied by execution, or payment thereof may be enforced by capias ad satisfaciendum against the person of the defendant

2. But the net proceeds of such penalty or forfeiture, or any portion thereof, may be divided between and paid to the Collector or chief officer of the Customs at the port or place where the seizure was made or the information given on which the prosecution was founded, and any person having given information or otherwise aiding in effecting the condemnation of the goods, vessel or thing seized, or the recovery of the penalty, in such proportions as the Governor in Council may in any case or class of cases direct and appoint ; But nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit or affect any power vested in the Governor in Council with regard to the remission of penalties or forfeitures by this Act or any other law. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 52—the latter part.

Power to remit penalty.

Notices to be posted in the Custom House and in the office of the Clerk of the Court.

79. So soon as an information has been exhibited in any Court for the condemnation of any vessel, goods or thing so seized, notice thereof shall be put up in the office of the Clerk or Prothonotary of the Court, and also in the office of the Collector or chief officer of the Customs, at the port at which the vessel, goods or thing has been secured as aforesaid :

When the case shall be heard if claim be made, and security given.

2. If the owner or person having charge of the vessel, goods or thing, exhibits a claim to the same or to any part thereof, and gives security, and complies with all the requirements of this Act in that behalf, then the said Court at its sitting next after the said notice has been so posted during one month, may proceed to hear and determine any claim which has been validly made and filed in the meantime, and to the release or condemnation of such vessel, goods or thing as the case requires—otherwise the same shall, after the expiration of such month, be deemed to be condemned as aforesaid, and may be sold without any formal condemnation thereof ;

Claims not to be admitted unless made within a certain time ;

Nor without notice.

3. No claim on the behalf of any party who has given notice of his intention to claim before the posting of such notice as aforesaid, shall be admitted, unless validly made within one week after the posting thereof ;—nor shall any claim be admitted, unless notice thereof has been given to the Collector within one month from the seizure as aforesaid. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 58.

Things seized to be deemed condemned, if not claimed within a certain time.

80. All vessels, vehicles, goods and other things seized as forfeited under this Act or any other Act relating to Customs, or to trade or navigation, shall be deemed and taken to be condemned, and may be dealt with accordingly, unless the person from whom they were seized, or the owner thereof, do, within one month from the day of seizure, give notice in writing to the seizing officer or other chief officer of Customs at the nearest port, that he claims or intends to claim the same ;

2. But any Judge having competent jurisdiction to try and determine the seizure, may, with the consent of the Collector at the place where the seized articles are secured, order the delivery thereof to the owner, on receiving security by bond with two sufficient sureties, to be first approved by such Collector, to pay double the value in case of condemnation,—which bond shall be taken to Her Majesty's use in the Collector's name, and shall be delivered to and kept by such Collector ;—And in case such seized articles are condemned, the value thereof shall be forthwith paid to the Collector and the bond cancelled, otherwise the penalty of such bond shall be enforced and recovered. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 48.

They may be delivered to the owner on due security being given.

Conditions of the bonds.

81. In case of the seizure of any cattle, horse or other animal, or of any perishable article, the Collector of the port at which the same has been secured as aforesaid, may sell the same within such delay as to prevent its becoming deteriorated in value, or a part of the value consumed, by reason of the expense of keeping or the decay of the same, as if it had been condemned,—and may keep in his hands the proceeds of such sale until the same has been condemned, or deemed to be condemned, or ordered to be restored to any claimant, in which last mentioned case, the Court before which the claim is heard shall order the Collector to pay over to the claimant the proceeds of such sale, in lieu of awarding restitution ;

Cattle and perishable articles seized may be sold as if condemned.

Proceeds restored, if the seizure be declared null.

2. Nevertheless, the Collector or principal officer of Customs shall deliver up to any claimant, any horse, cattle, animal, or perishable article seized as aforesaid, upon such claimant depositing in the hands of the Collector or principal officer such sum of money as will represent the full value thereof, or giving security to the satisfaction of such Collector or principal officer, that the value of such seizure and all costs shall be paid to the use of Her Majesty, if such article be condemned. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 55.

Such cattle or article may be delivered to the owner on security being given.

82. No claim to any thing seized under this Act, and returned into any of Her Majesty's Courts for adjudication, shall be admitted as valid, unless such claim is entered in the name of the owner, with his residence and occupation, nor unless oath to the property in such thing is made by the owner, or by his agent knowing the fact, by whom such claim is entered, to the best of his knowledge and belief. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 56.

Proof that goods have paid duty to lie on the owner.

84. If any goods are seized for non-payment of duties or any other cause of forfeiture, or any prosecution is brought for any penalty or forfeiture under this Act or any other law relating to the Customs, and any question arises whether the duties have been paid on such goods, or the same have been lawfully imported, or lawfully laden or exported, or whether any other thing hath been done by which such forfeiture would be prevented or such penalty avoided,—the burden of proof shall lie on the owner or claimant of the goods, and not on the officer who has seized and stopped the same, or the party bringing such prosecution. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 53.

Averment as to the doing of any thing within the limits of any port.

85. In any prosecution or other proceeding, for an offence against this Act or any other law relating to the Customs, or to trade and navigation, the averment that such offence was committed within the limits of any port, shall be sufficient without proof of such limits, unless the contrary is proved. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 54.

Sales to be by public auction.

86. All sales of goods forfeited or otherwise liable to be sold by any Officer of the Customs under this Act shall be by public auction, and after a reasonable public notice, and subject to such further regulations as may be made by the Governor in Council. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 59.

Appeals from convictions before Justice of the Peace.

88. An appeal shall lie from the conviction by any Justices of the Peace under this Act to the Quarter Sessions, to be tried by a Jury in the same manner as from convictions in any case of summary punishment allowed by Law, on furnishing security by bond or recognizance with two sureties to the satisfaction of such convicting Justices, to abide the event of such appeal;

2. And an appeal shall also lie from the said County Courts and Circuit Court, and from decisions or judgments of the Superior Courts of Law respectively, in cases where the amount of the penalty or forfeiture is such that if a judgment for a like amount were given in any civil case, an appeal would lie; and such appeal shall be allowed and prosecuted on like conditions, and subject to like provisions as other appeals from the same Court, in matters of like amount;

And from County and Circuit Courts.

3. But if the appeal be brought by Her Majesty's Attorney General, or Solicitor General, it shall not be necessary for him to give any security on such appeal. 10, 11 V. c. 31, s. 66.

2. But before any claims either under this section or under any other section of this Act, shall be arbitrated upon, the claimant thereof shall give security to the satisfaction of the Arbitrators (or of any two of them,) for the payment of the costs and expenses incurred by the arbitration, in the event of the award of the Arbitrators being against such claimant, or of its not exceeding the sum so tendered as aforesaid. Ibid. s. 46.

47. It shall be competent for the Commissioner to refer any of the claims aforesaid either to one or to any greater number of Arbitrators as he may see fit ; and the award of the sole Arbitrator shall be binding if there be only one ; and the award of a majority of the said Arbitrators if there be more than one acting in the case, or of a majority of the Arbitrators acting in any case pending when this Act comes into force, shall in all cases be binding as if made by all the Arbitrators. Ibid. s. 47.

3. The Patent so re-issued, together with the corrected description and specification thereof, shall have the same effect and operation in law on the trial of all actions thereafter commenced for causes subsequently accruing, as if the same had been originally filed in such corrected form before the issuing of the original Patent. 12 V. c. 24, s. 7.

Disclaiming part of an Invention.

Patentee may disclaim part of the invention claimed by mistake.

18. Whenever, by mistake, accident or inadvertence, and without any wilful default or intent to defraud or mislead the public, any Patentee has made his specification of claim too broad, claiming more than that of which he was the original or first inventor,—some material and substantial part of the thing patented being truly and justly his own,—or has in his specification claimed to be the original and first inventor or discoverer, of any material or substantial part of the thing patented, of which he was not the first and original inventor, and which he has no legal or just right to claim,—in every such case the said Patentee, his executor, administrator, legal representative, or assignee, whether of the whole or of a fractional interest thereof, may make disclaimer of such parts as he does not claim to hold by virtue of the Patent or assignment thereof, stating in the said disclaimer the extent of his interest in such Patent :

Disclaimer to be in writing.

2. Such disclaimer shall be in writing, attested by one witness and recorded in the Office of the Minister of Agriculture, and shall be thereafter taken and considered as part of the original specification, to the extent of the interest possessed in the Patent or right secured thereby by the disclaimant or by those claiming by or under him subsequent to the entry thereof ;

Not to affect pending cases.

3. Such disclaimer shall not affect any action pending at the time of its entry, except so far as relates to the question of unreasonable neglect or delay in filing the same ;

For what parts the patents shall be good.

4. The Patent shall be deemed good and valid for so much of the invention or discovery as is truly and bonâ fide the disclaimant's own, or is not disclaimed, provided it is a material and substantial part of the thing patented, and is definitely distinguished from other parts so claimed without right as aforesaid ;

Patentee may maintain a suit for infringement of such part.

5. The Patentee, his executor, administrator or legal representative or assignee, whether of the whole or a fractional interest therein as aforesaid, may maintain a suit at law or in equity on such Patent for any infringement of so much of the invention or discovery as is bonâ fide his own as aforesaid, notwithstanding such disclaimer or larger specification as aforesaid ;—But in case of judgment on verdict in his favour, he shall not be entitled to recover costs against the defendant, unless he has entered entered as aforesaid in the Office of the Minister of Agriculture, the said disclaimer of all that part of the thing patented so claimed without right; And no person bringing such suit shall be entitled to the benefit of this section who has unreasonably neglected or delayed to enter in the said Office the disclaimer as aforesaid. 12 V. c. 24, s. 8.

Amending Specification, Drawings, &c., to be amended, or filing new ones.

19. Whenever any application is made to the Governor for any addition of a newly discovered improvement to be made to an existing Patent,—or whenever a Patent is returned for correction and re-issue,—the specification of claim annexed to such Patent shall be subject to revision and restriction in the same manner as original applications for Patents;—And such improvement shall not be granted in the one case, nor the re-issue allowed in the other case, until the applicant has entered a disclaimer or altered his specification of claim in accordance with the revision or restriction thereon: 12 V. c. 24 s. 9.

Specification of claims annexed to patents to be also revised.

2. Whenever a Patent is returned for correction and re-issued, and the Patentee claims several Patents to be issued for distinct and separate parts of the thing patented, the same shall be granted in the same manner as original Patents;

Several patents may issue in place of one, &c.

3. But no addition of an improvement shall be made to any Patent theretofore granted, nor shall any new Patent be issued for an improvement made in any machine, manufacture or process, to the original inventor, assignee or possessor of a Patent therefor, nor shall any disclaimer be admitted to entry—until a duplicate model and drawing of the thing originally intended, verified as aforesaid, has been deposited in the proper Office therefor;

No alteration to be made in any patent, until duplicate drawing, &c., is filed.

4. Nor shall any Patent be granted for an invention, improvement or discovery, the model or drawing of which has been lost, until another model and drawing has been in like manner deposited. 12 V. c. 24, s. 10.

In case model, &c., is lost, another to be deposited.

REPEAL OF PATENTS ON SCIRE FACIAS.

20. Any person desiring to impeach any Patent, (whether issued under this Act or under any Act of this Province) as having been fraudulently or surreptitiously obtained, or issued imprudently or upon false suggestion, may obtain an exemplification under the Great Seal of this Province, of such Patent, and of the petition or application therefor, and of the drawings and specifications thereunto relating,—and may have the same filed in the office of the Prothonotary or Clerk of the Superior Court for Lower Canada, or of the Court of Queen's Bench or Common Pleas for Upper Canada, according to the section of the Province in which such repeal is sought;

4. And when any of the lands purchased by the said Commissioners are released from a part only of any rent, payment or incumbrance affecting the same jointly with other lands, such last mentioned lands shall be charged only with the remainder of such rent, payment or incumbrance, and such apportionment shall not prejudice the title to the remaining part of such rent, payment or incumbrance, or the remedies for such remainder, but the same shall at all times thereafter remain as effectual as if the lands not so purchased had been originally charged with that amount only ;

When part of the lands are released.

5. 34. In all cases in which a part only of any lands comprised in any agreement for a lease, or any lease, and subject to any rent, are required for the purposes of this Act, the rent payable in respect of any such lands shall, (if the said Commissioners think fit) be apportioned between so much of the same lands as shall be acquired for the purposes of this Act, and the residue of such lands, and such apportionment shall, in case the same is not settled by agreement between the parties, be ascertained and settled by the verdict of a jury, if required, in like manner as the price of any lands to be taken in pursuance of this Act is directed to be settled in case of dispute as to the value thereof ;

Where a part only of leased lands are taken, rent may be apportioned.

2. And in case such apportionment is settled by agreement between the parties, such agreement shall be made with, and shall not be valid without the consent and approbation

In all cases in which any lands lying within Upper Canada, subject to any mortgage, are required for the purposes of this Act, and in which such lands are of less value than the principal moneys, interest and costs secured thereon, or in which a part only of the lands subject to any mortgage is required for the purposes of this Act, and such part is of less value than the principal money, interest and costs secured on such lands by mortgage, and the mortgagee thereof does not consider the remaining part of such lands to be a sufficient security for the money charged thereon, or is not willing to release the part required for the purposes of this Act from the principal or mortgage money, and all interest due or to become due thereon, and all costs ;—the value of such lands, or, as the case may be, of such part of the said lands as is required for the purposes aforesaid, and also the compensation (if any) for any damages done in respect of the parts so required, shall be settled and agreed upon by and between the mortgagee and the trustee or other person entitled to the equity of redemption of such lands, whether absolutely or for such estate as might capacitate him, to convey for the purposes of this Act, on the one part, and the said Commissioners on behalf of Her Majesty on the other part ; and in case of any difference between them, then such value and compensation shall be determined by the verdict of a jury, in the same manner as in other cases of difference under this Act ;

2. And the amount of such value and compensation to be so agreed or determined as aforesaid, shall be paid to such mortgagee or mortgagees in satisfaction of his claim, so far as the same will extend ; and such mortgagee shall thereupon convey, assign, and transfer all his interest in such mortgaged lands, the value whereof or compensation for which has been so agreed upon or determined

3. Nevertheless, all mortgagees shall have the same powers and remedies for recovering or compelling payment of their mortgage money, or the residue thereof, (as the case may be,) or the interest thereof respectively, upon and out of the residue of the mortgaged lands not required for the purposes aforesaid, as they would have had or been entitled to for the recovering or compelling payment thereof upon or out of the whole of the lands originally comprised in such mortgage ;

And when a part only of the lands subject to any mortgage are required or have been taken for the purposes of this Act as aforesaid, and the value of the lands so taken has, on the assignment or conveyance thereof to the said Commissioners, been paid to the mortgagee thereof, in part satisfaction of his mortgage debt, a memorandum of what has been so paid shall be endorsed on the deed creating such mortgage at the time of executing such assignment or conveyance to the said Commissioners, and shall be signed by such mortgagee, and a copy of such memorandum shall at the same time, if required, be furnished by the said Commissioners to the person so entitled as aforesaid to the equity of redemption of the lands comprised in such mortgage deed. 14, 15 V. c. 67, s. 35.

Certificates of ownership to be granted to vessels to the ports at which they belong.

3. Every vessel shall be deemed to belong to some Port, at or near to which some or one of the owners, who make and subscribe the declaration required by this Act before register of ownership is made, reside; and no such certificate of ownership shall be granted by any Collector of Customs in any port or place other than the port or place to which such ship or vessel properly belongs; and every certificate granted in any port or place to which any such ship or vessel does not properly belong, shall be null and void. Ibid, s. 4.

Books of registry of ownership to be kept by the Collector.

4. At every port where registry of ownership is made in pursuance of this Act, a book shall be kept by the Collector, in which all the particulars contained in the form of the certificate of ownership hereinbefore directed to be used, shall be duly entered; and every registry of such ownership shall be numbered in progression, beginning such progressive numeration at the commencement of every year; and such Collector shall forthwith transmit to the Minister of Finance, or such other officer

2.—EXAMINATION AND MEASUREMENT OF THE VESSEL.

Vessels to be surveyed previous to certificate of ownership being granted.

7. And, in order to enable the proper Collector of Customs to grant a certificate of ownership, truly and accurately describing every vessel to which a certificate is so granted, and also to enable all other Officers of the Customs, on due examination, to discover whether any such vessel is the same with that for which a certificate of ownership is alleged to have been granted:—Before the granting of any certificate of ownership, some one or more person or persons appointed by the Governor, taking to his or their assistance, if he or they judge it necessary, one or more person or persons skilled in the building and admeasurement of vessels, shall go on board of every vessel to which such certificate of ownership is to be granted, and shall strictly and accurately examine and admeasure such vessel, as to all and every particular contained in the form of the certificate of ownership hereinbefore directed, in the presence of the master, or of any other person who shall be appointed for that purpose on the part of the owner or owners, or, in his or their absence, by the said master,—and shall deliver a true account, in writing, of all such particulars of the build, description, and admeasurement of such vessel, as are specified in the form of the certificate of ownership above recited, to the Collector who may grant such certificate of ownership;—And the said master or other person attending on the part of the owner or owners, shall sign his name also to the certificate of such survey, in testimony of the truth thereof, if such master or other person agrees to the several particulars set forth therein. 8 V. c. 5, s. 7.

Rule of admeasurement.

8. For the purpose of ascertaining the tonnage of ships or vessels, the rule for admeasurement shall be the same as that contained on the 17th day of March, 1845, in the Acts of the Imperial Parliament, that is to say:

1. The tonnage of every vessel shall be measured and ascertained while her hold is clear, and according to the following rules, that is to say: Divide the length of the upper deck between the afterpart of the stem and the forepart of the sternpost into six equal parts. Depths:—at the foremost, the middle and the aftermost of those points of division, measure in feet and decimal parts of a foot the depths from the under side of the upper deck deck to the ceiling at the limber strake : in the case of a break in the upper deck, the depths are to be measured from a line stretched in a continuation of the deck. Breadths :—divide each of those three depths into five equal parts, and measure the inside breadths at the following points,—videlicet, at one-fifth and at four-fifths from the upper deck of the foremost and aftermost depths, and at two-fifths and four-fifths from the upper deck of the midship depth. Length :—at half the midship depth, measure the length of the vessel from the afterpart of the stem to the forepart of the sternpost ; Then to twice the midship depth add the foremost and the aftermost depths for the sum of the depths : add together the upper and lower breadths at the foremost division, three-times the upper breadth and the lower breadth at the midship division, and the upper and twice the lower breadth at the after division for the sum of the breadths, then multiply the sum of the depths by the sum of the breadths and this product by the length, and divide the final product by three thousand five hundred, which will give the number of tons for register ; If the vessel have a poop or half deck, or a break in the upper deck, measure the inside mean length, breadth, and height of such part thereof as may be included within the bulk-head : multiply these three measurements together, and dividing the product by 92.4, the quotient will be the number of tons to be added to the result as above found :—In order to ascertain the tonnage of open vessels, the depths are to be measured from the upper edge of the upper strake ; And for the purpose of ascertaining the tonnage of vessels which there shall be occasion to measure while their cargoes are on board, the following rule shall be observed, that is to say : Measure first the length on the upper deck between the after part of the stem and the forepart of the sternpost ; secondly, the inside breadth on the under side of the upper deck, at the middle point of the length ; and thirdly, the depth from the under side of the upper deck down the pumpwell to the skin ; multiply these three dimensions together, and divide the product by one hundred and thirty, and the quotient will be the amount of the register tonnage of such ship or vessel ;—If the vessel have a poop or half deck or a break in the upper deck, measure the inside mean length, breadth, and height of such part thereof as may be included within the bulk-head, multiply these three measurements together, and dividing the product by ninety-two and four-tenths, the quotient will be the number of tons to be added to the result above found :

2. Provided always, that in each of the several rules hereinbefore prescribed, when applied for the purpose of ascertaining the tonnage of any ship or vessel propelled by steam, the tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room shall be deducted from the total tonnage of the vessel as determined by either of the rules aforesaid, and the remainder shall be deemed the true register tonnage of the said ship or vessel ; and the tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room shall be determined

in the following manner, that is to say: Measure the inside length of the engine room in feet and decimal parts of a foot from the foremost to the aftermost bulk-head, then multiply the said length by the depth of the ship or vessel at the midship division as aforesaid, and the product by the inside breadth at the same division at two-fifths of the depth from the deck taken as aforesaid, and divide the last product by 92.4, and the quotient shall be deemed the tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room; Provided also, that the tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room, and also the length of the engine room shall be set forth in the certificate of ownership as part of the description of the ship or vessel, and that any alteration of such tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room, or of such length of the engine room after the granting of such certificate, shall be deemed to be an alteration requiring a certificate de novo within the meaning of this Act;

3. And provided also, that the true tonnage of every vessel to be ascertained under this Act, shall be deeply carved or cut in figures of at least three inches in length on the mainbeam of every such vessel, prior to the issue of the certificate of ownership. 8 V. c. 5, s. 8.

3.—CHANGE OF MASTER.—NAME OF VESSEL NOT TO BE CHANGED.

When Master is changed, his name to be indorsed on certificate of ownership.

9. When and so often as the master of any vessel, to which a certificate of ownership has been granted, is changed, the master shall deliver the certificate of ownership of such vessel to the person authorized to grant such certificate at the port where such change is to take place, who shall thereupon indorse and subscribe a memorandum of such change, and shall forthwith give notice of the same to the proper officer of the port or place where such vessel received its certificate of ownership, who shall likewise make a memorandum of the same in the book of registry of ownerships, hereby required to be kept. Ibid, s. 9.

Name of vessel for which certificate of ownership has been granted, never after to be changed, and to be painted on the stern.

10. The owner of any vessel shall not give any name to such vessel other than that by which she was called when first granted a certificate of ownership; And the owner of every vessel to which a certificate of ownership has been granted, shall, before such vessel, after having received certificate of ownership, begins to take in any cargo, cause to be painted in white or yellow letters not less than four inches in length upon a black ground, on some conspicuous part of the stern, the name by which such vessel has been granted certificate of ownership, and the port to which she belongs, in a distinct and legible manner, and shall keep the same so painted; And if the owner or master of such vessel permits her to take in any cargo before her name has been so painted as aforesaid, or wilfully alters, alters, erases, obliterates, or in any wise conceals such name, or causes, or permits the same to be done, or, in any paper or document, describes such vessel by any name other than that by which she was first named in her certificate of ownership, or verbally describes, or causes, or permits, such vessel to be described by any other name, to any officer of the revenue, in the execution of his duty, then, and in every such case, such owner or master of such vessel shall incur a penalty of eighty dollars. S V. c. 5, s. 10.

4.—BUILDER'S CERTIFICATE, &c.

11. Every person who applies for a certificate of ownership for any vessel, shall produce to the person authorized to grant the same a true and full account, under the hand of the builder of such vessel, of the proper denomination, and of the time when, and the place where such vessel was built, and also an exact account of the tonnage of such vessel, with the name of the first purchaser thereof, (which account such builder is hereby required to give under his hand, on the same being demanded by the person so applying for a certificate of ownership,) and shall also make and subscribe a declaration before the person hereinbefore authorized to grant such certificate, that the vessel for which such certificate is required, is the same with that so described by the builder; Provided always, that if by reason of the death or absence of the builder of any vessel, or other cause, it is not possible for the owner thereof to procure a builder's certificate, it shall be competent for the Governor, on application to him, and on being satisfied of its justice, to cause the Collector at any port to grant a certificate of ownership, notwithstanding the builder's certificate be not produced to him. Ibid, s. 11.

Builder's certificate of particulars of ship or vessel.

Declaration to be made therein.

Proviso.

12. If any vessel, after receiving certificate of ownership, is in any manner altered so as not to correspond with all the particulars contained in such certificate, the owner of such vessel shall return the said certificate to the Collector of the port where it was granted, and the Collector shall grant a certificate of ownership de novo, and for any neglect in contravention of this section, the owner of such vessel shall incur a penalty of eighty dollars. Ibid, s. 12.

When vessels are altered to a certain extent, certificates of ownership to be granted de novo.

5.—SHARES AND TRANSFER OF SHARES.

13. When and so often as the property in any vessel or any part thereof, belonging to any of Her Majesty's subjects is, after being granted certificate of ownership, sold to any other of Her Majesty's subjects, the same shall be transferred by bill of sale or other instrument in writing, containing a recital of the certificate of ownership of such vessel, or the principal contents thereof, otherwise such transfer shall not be valid for any purpose either in law or equity; But no bill of sale shall be

Property in vessels to be divided in 64 parts or shares.

14. The property in every vessel belonging to more than one owner, shall be considered to be divided into sixty-four equal shares, and the proportion held by each owner shall be described in the certificate of ownership as being a certain number of sixty-fourth shares ; and no person shall be entitled to be registered as an owner of any vessel, in respect of any shares in such vessel which shall not be an integral sixty-fourth share of the same ; and upon the first application for a certificate of ownership of any vessel, the owner or owners who shall take and subscribe the declaration required before a certificate of ownership is granted, shall also declare the number of such shares then held by each owner, and the same shall be registered accordingly :

2. But if at any time the property of any owner of any vessel cannot be reduced by division into any number of integral sixty-fourth shares, the right of such owner to any such fractional parts shall not be affected by reason of their not having been registered ;

Proviso.

3. And any number of owners named and described in the certificate of ownership, being partners in any house or co-partnership carrying on trade in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions, may hold any vessel or any shares in any vessel, in the name of such house or co-partnership as joint owners thereof, without distinguishing the proportionate interest of each of such owners ; and such vessel or every share thereof so held in co-partnership, shall be deemed to be partnership property, to all intents, and shall be governed by the same rules, both in law and equity, as other partnership property in any other chattels. Ibid, s. 14.

Not more than 32 persons to be owner of any ship or vessel at one time.

15. No greater number than thirty-two persons shall be legal owners at the same time of any vessel, as tenants in common, or be registered as such ; But nothing herein contained shall affect the equitable title of minors, heirs, legatees, creditors or others, exceeding the said number, duly represented by or holding from any of the persons within the said number, registered as legal owners of shares in such ship or vessel. Ibid, s. 15.

Proviso.

Bill of sale not to be effectual until produced to the Collector.

16. No bill of sale shall pass the property in any vessel, or in any share thereof, after a certificate of ownership has been granted to such vessel, or have any other effect, until it has been produced to the Collector of the port at which such vessel received a certificate of ownership, or to the Collector of the port at which she is about to receive certificate of ownership de novo, nor until such Collector has entered in the book of registry of ownership, in the one case, or in the book of registry of ownership de novo, after all the requisites of law for such Register de novo shall have been duly complied with, in the other case, (and which such Collector is hereby required to do upon the production of the bill of sale for that purpose), the name, residence and description of the vendor or mortgagor, or of each vendor or mortgagor, if more than one, the number of shares transferred, the name, residence and description of the purchaser or mortgagee, or of each purchaser or mortgagee, if more than one, and the date of the bill of sale, and of the production of it; and further, if such ship or vessel is not about to receive a certificate of ownership de novo, the Collector of the port where such ship is registered shall indorse the said particulars of such bill of sale on the certificate of ownership of the vessel, when the same shall be produced to him for that purpose, in the manner or to the effect following:

And entered in the book of registry of ownership.

Custom House (port and date; name, residence and description of vendor or mortgagor,) has transferred by (bill of sale or other instrument,) dated (date,) number of shares to (name, residence and description of purchaser or mortgagor.)

Form of indorsement.

A. B. Collector.

And shall forthwith give notice thereof to the Minister of Finance or other officer to whom the copies of certificates are to be transmitted; and if the Collector is desired so to do, and the bill of sale is produced to him for that purpose, he shall certify by indorsement thereon that the particulars before mentioned have been so entered in the book of registry of certificates of ownership, and indorsed upon the certificate of ownership as aforesaid. 8 V. c. 5, s. 16.

Notice to Minister of Finance.

17. When the particulars of any bill of sale, by which any vessel or any share thereof is transferred, has been so entered in the book of registry of certificates of ownership, such bill of sale shall pass the property thereby intended to be transferred, as against every person, and to all intents, except as against subsequent purchasers and mortgagees who first procure the indorsement to be made upon the certificate of ownership of such vessel as hereinafter mentioned. Ibid, s. 17.

Entry of bill of sale to be valid.

Except in certain cases.

18. When the particulars of any bill of sale, by which any vessel, or any share thereof is transferred, has been so entered in the book of registry of certificates of ownership, the Collector shall not enter in the said book the particulars of any other bill of sale, purporting to be a transfer by the same vendor or mortgagor, of the same vessel or share thereof, to any other person, unless thirty days have elapsed from the day on which the particulars of the former bill of sale were entered in the said book of registry, or, if the vessel was absent from the port

When a bill of sale has been entered for any share, 30 days shall be allowed for indorsing the certificate of ownership, before any other bill of sale for the same shall be entered.

port to which she belonged, at the time when the particulars of such former bill of sale were entered in the said book, then, unless thirty days have elapsed from the day on which the vessel arrived at the port to which she belongs; And in case the particulars of two or more such bills of sale have been entered in the book of registry, with respect to the same vessel, the Collector shall not enter in the book of registry the particulars of any other bill of sale, unless thirty days have elapsed from the day on which the particulars of the last of such bills of sale were entered in the book of registry, or from the day on which the vessel arrived at the port to which she belongs, in case of her absence as aforesaid:

2. And in every case where there are at any time two or more transfers by the same owner of the same property in any vessel so entered in the book of registry, the Collector shall indorse upon the certificate of ownership of such vessel, the particulars of that bill of sale, under which the person claims property, who produces the said certificate for that purpose, within the thirty days next after the entry of his bill of sale in the book of registry, or within thirty days next after the return of the vessel to the port to which she belongs, in case of her absence at the time of such entry, and if no person produces the certificate of ownership within either of the said spaces of thirty days, then the Collector shall indorse upon such certificate the particulars of the bill of sale to the person who has first produced the certificate for that purpose; it being the intent of this Act, that the several purchasers and mortgagees of any vessel or of any share thereof, when more than one appears to claim the same property, or to claim security on the same property, in the same rank and degree, shall have priority one over the other, not according to the respective times when the particulars of the bill of sale by which such property was transferred to them, were entered in the book of registry, but according to the time when the endorsement is made upon the certificate of ownership;

Nature of the
ed by this Act.

If the certificate
be mislaid.

3. But if the certificate of ownership is lost, or detained by any person, so that the indorsement cannot in due time be made thereon, and if proof thereof is made by the purchaser or mortgagee, or his known agent, to the satisfaction of the Minister of Finance or other officer to whom the copies of certificates of ownership are to be transmitted, the Minister of Finance or such other officer, may grant such further time as to him appears necessary for the recovery of the certificate of ownership, or for the registry of ownership de novo, of the vessel under the provisions of this Act; and thereupon the Collector shall make a memorandum in the book of registry of certificates of ownership of the further time so granted, and during such time no other bill of sale shall be entered for the transfer of the same vessel, or the same share thereof, or for giving the same security thereon. 8 V. c. 5, s. 18.

19. If the certificate of ownership of such vessel is produced to the Collector of any port where she is, then after any such bill of sale has been recorded at the port to which she belongs, together with such bill of sale having upon it a notification of such record, signed by the Collector of such port as before directed, the Collector of such other port may endorse on such certificate of ownership, (being required so to do,) the transfer mentioned in such bill of sale; and such Collector shall give notice thereof to the Collector of the port to which such vessel belongs, who shall record the same as if he had made such indorsement himself, but inserting the name of the port at which such indorsement was made :

Bill of sale may be produced after entry at other ports than those to which vessels belong, and transfer indorsed on certificate of ownership.

2. Provided always, that the Collector of such other port shall first give notice to the Collector of the port to which such vessel belongs, of such requisition made to him to indorse the certificate of ownership, and the Collector of the port to which such vessel belongs shall thereupon send information to the Collector of such other port, whether any and what other bill or bills of sale have been recorded in the book of the registry with respect to such vessel, and the Collector of such other port, having such information, shall proceed as directed by this Act in all respects, to the indorsing of the certificate of ownership, as he would do if such port were the port to which such vessel belonged. 8 V. c. 5, s. 19.

Notice to collection at the Port to which the Vessel belongs.

6.—CERTIFICATE OF OWNERSHIP DE NOVO.

20. 5. The Inspector who inspects any Steamboat in the manner required by this Act, shall, after thorough examination of the Hull, Boilers and Machinery, make a certificate in which shall be stated—the age of such Steamboat,—when and where originally built,—the length of time she has been running,—whether each Boiler is sound and fit for use,—its age and the heaviest pressure of steam to which it may be safely subjected, as well when the Vessel is stationary as when running, thereby establishing a maximum rate of pressure in each of those cases, the period during which such inspection is to apply,—whether the machinery is sound and fit for use—and whether such steamboat is sound and in all respects seaworthy and fit for the transport of freight and passengers,—and he shall not make such certificate unless such steamboat be provided with such steam-gauge as is hereinafter required; And duplicates of such certificates shall be delivered to the Owner or Master of the Steamboat, one of which such Master or Owner shall deliver to the Collector as aforesaid, and the other he shall keep and cause to be posted up in some conspicuous part of the Steamboat for the information of the public. Ibid, s. 18.

Certificate to be posted up in the Steamboat.

6. Any Inspector may, whenever he deems it necessary so to do, and some one of them shall at least once in every year, subject the boiler of every steamboat to a test by hydrostatic pressure, the limit of which shall in no case exceed one hundred and fifty pounds to the square inch, and shall satisfy himself by examination and experimental trials, that such boiler is well made of good and suitable material; and the owner of the steamboat shall provide the necessary pump and apparatus for such test, to be worked by the crew of the vessel; and no Inspector shall make or deliver to the owner or master of any steamboat, any such duplicate certificate as is mentioned in the next foregoing section of this Act, without having first subjected the boiler of such vessel to such test by hydrostatic pressure. Ibid, s. 19.

Boiler to be tested by hydrostatic pressure, &c.

Certificate not to be given without such test.

7. In subjecting boilers to the hydrostatic test aforesaid, the Inspectors shall assume one hundred pounds to the square inch as the maximum pressure allowable as a working power for a new boiler forty-two inches in diameter, made of the best refined iron, at least one quarter of an inch thick, in the best manner and of the quality herein required,—and shall rate the working pressure of all boilers, whether of greater or less diameter, according to this standard; and in all cases

Rule to be observed in such test.

the test applied shall exceed the working pressure allowed, in the ratio of one hundred and fifty pounds to one hundred, using the water in such tests at a temperature not exceeding sixty degrees, Fahrenheit ;

In what cases only exceptions may be allowed.

2. But if any such Inspector is of opinion that any boiler, by reason of its construction or material, will not safely allow so high a working pressure, he may, for reasons to be stated specifically in his certificate, fix the working pressure of such boiler at less than two thirds of the test pressure ;

Further exception.

3. And these rules shall be observed in all cases, unless the proportion between such boilers and the cylinders, or some other cause, renders it manifest that their application would be unjust, in which case the Inspector may depart from these rules, if it can be done with safety ; but in no case shall the working pressure allowed exceed the proportion hereinbefore mentioned, as compared with the hydrostatic test ;

Valves not to be loaded beyond certified pressure, &c.

4. And no valve under any circumstances shall at any time be so loaded or so managed in any way as to subject a boiler to a greater pressure than that allowed by the Inspector at the then last inspection thereof ; and no boiler or pipe shall be approved which is made in whole or in part of bad material, or is unsafe in its form, or dangerous from defective workmanship, age, use or any other cause ;

Boilers to be made of plate bearing maker's name.

5. And no boiler made after the fourth day of May, 1859, shall be made of boiler plate which has not been stamped or marked with the name of the maker thereof, nor shall a certificate be granted with respect to any boiler made wholly or in part of plate not so marked. 22 V. (1859) c. 19, s. 20.

8. Any Inspector may at all times, when inspecting, visiting or examining the hull or the boiler and machinery of any steamboat, ask of any or all of the owners, officers or engineers of such vessel, or other person on board thereof and in charge, or appearing to be in charge of the same or of the boiler or machinery thereof, such pertinent questions concerning the same, or concerning any accident that may have happened thereto, as he may think fit ; and every such person shall fully and truly answer every such question so put to him respectively, to the best of his knowledge and ability ; And every person refusing to answer, or falsely answering any such question, or preventing any such inspection or obstructing any Inspector in the same, shall, by so acting, incur a penalty of forty dollars. Ibid, s. 21.

10. The Master or Owner of every Steamboat, or of the person in charge thereof, shall, within forty-eight hours after the occurrence of any event whereby the same, or the boiler, or machinery thereof, or any part of the same is in any material degree injured, strained or weakened, report such occurrence to one of the said Inspectors; and in case of omission to give such notice, the Owner of the Vessel shall forfeit to Her Majesty two hundred dollars for every day during which such omission continues. Ibid, s. 23.

2. And whenever such steamboat is stopped for any purpose, the master or person in charge of such steamboat shall open the safety valve, so as to keep the steam in the said boiler down to ten pounds below the pressure limited by the Inspector's certificate in high pressure engines, and five pounds below the pressure limited as aforesaid in low pressure engines, under the penalty of two hundred dollars for every contravention of this provision;

Pressure to be reduced when Boat stops.

3. And if any master or engineer of any steamboat at any time allows the pressure of steam to which the boiler of such steamboat is subjected, to exceed that limited as aforesaid, or alters or conceals or otherwise deals with the said steam gauge, so as to prevent the real pressure of steam from being seen and ascertained by any passenger, he shall thereby incur a like penalty of two hundred dollars for every such offence. Ibid, s. 24.
