

PREMIER BRIAND RESIGNS TODAY

RECEIVED A BARE MAJORITY OF SIXTEEN IN VOTE OF CONFIDENCE.

Paris, Feb. 26.—Premier Briand and the members of his cabinet will resign on Monday. They reached this decision yesterday afternoon at a conference in the Premier's office when the political situation was thoroughly canvassed.

The bare majority of sixteen which the government received last night in a vote of confidence in the chamber of deputies following the Premier's statement by the radical Socialists, Louis Malvey and Paul Meunier, was a sore blow to the Premier and his associates, who had been sustained in times of previous crisis by much larger votes.

The only reason for waiting until Monday to present their resignations to the President is that the Ministers wish to show their respect for the memory of the late colleague, Gen. Brun, whose funeral will take place Monday.

Successor to Premier. The political situation had practically no new developments today. Nothing has been done towards the solution of the difficult problem of selecting a successor to Premier Briand, and there were no meetings of the various parties.

The duration of the ministry crisis which begins officially at 1.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon may be long drawn out as it is understood President Fallieres would probably desire prolonged consultations with the President of the Senate.

Want a Radical. The power of the radical group of Republicans which voted against the Government on Friday has decided not to accept a ministry presided over by a member of the Radical or Socialist-Radical group.

It is alleged that Mr. Woolley is the agent for the Mormon church lands in Magrath and has transacted many land deals in that capacity. This will likely be the principal point upon which the real estate men will base their case.

ATHABASCA LANDING, THE GATEWAY TO THE NORTH.

Athabasca Landing is just twenty-five miles north of the centre of Alberta, and on the Athabasca river. It has been in existence since 1854, established their distributing post for their northern trading points. Previous to 1884 the company had used several other points as distributing points, but none proved satisfactory, all being too hazardous and dangerous, and they presented many difficulties. All the northern fur trading companies use this town as their distributing centre. The bulk of the goods are shipped in here during the winter and Headquarters For Boatmen.

During the season of navigation the river from this point. The freighting of supplies north by means of flat boats, gives employment to hundreds. The Northern Transportation company, with their fleet of three steamers have their head office and head quarters here and employ about fifty men during the summer. Owing to the rapid increase in this company's business, both freight and passenger, they are compelled to construct another steamer this spring to be ready to handle this traffic. This sent indications the increase this year will be even greater than that. Wheat averaged 26 bushels to the acre in this district last year, oats 81, and barley 28. These figures speak well for the district. A great deal of this grain was grown on new breaking. The surrounding country is well adapted for mixed farming, as well as grain growing. It is rolling and well watered. A great portion of it is covered more or less with small poplar, and scrub which, however, is easily cleared. Amongst this small growth wild grasses, and especially peavine, grow very luxuriantly, pe-cal saw mills meet the demands of the district. At present there are large gangs in the bush, cutting logs for both these mills, and this year's output of logs will exceed, by far, any previous year's cut. The building trade will be very active as soon as spring opens, and it is expected that the two mills will be working to their capacity the entire summer. The timber is secured along the Athabasca river, and the creeks flowing into it, and is mainly spruce, although there is considerable tamarac, pine, and poplar. The supply of timber above the town is practically unlimited, and lumbering will long be an important industry here.

The fishing industry in this locality promises to be an important one in the near future. In the numerous small lakes north of here, white fish are found in great quantities. During the winter months fishing operations are carried on extensively in these lakes, and the fish are shipped south, but owing to the lack of rail transportation from this point the industry cannot be carried on during the summer, but with the completion of the railway this year, fish will be exported by steamer and rail, at a minimum cost.

Coal Mining Industry. Coal mining is also proving a great industry. This winter is the second that local coal has been consumed, and as the quality is improving, with development, we are assured of a good supply of fuel. Natural gas is also found in this locality, a good supply was struck some years ago, when the Dominion government was boring for gas here. This furnishes a good field for investment, and will undoubtedly be taken advantage of, in the near future.

A fine kiln and a brick yard would prove paying investments. Some of the local clay has been tested and found to make a first-class brick. Brick building as active as it will be next summer, a brick yard will pay from the start, and will be completed in a few months. There is also a good opening offered here for a flour mill. The northern trade is supplied by the southern mills, and a mill extending as far north as the Arctic. Last year's yield of wheat proved conclusively, that No. 1 hard can be raised here.

Cement Block Manufacturing. A cement block manufacturer contemplates locating here in the near future. He has located over several towns in the west this winter, and is so well pleased with the prospects of Athabasca Landing that he left after but a few days' stay, to move his plant in, and will commence operations as soon as spring opens.

The town has well-graded streets and good sidewalks and a first-class school. The School Board are now negotiating for the purchase of a new and large site, upon which they expect to erect a large modern school building this summer. Three churches are established here. Fire protection is given the town by two chemical engines. A water system is to be inaugurated this year.

The town offers openings for a furniture store, flour and feed merchant and lawyer. Carpenters will find lots of work this summer, as soon as the snow commences to disappear.

Any investments made in Athabasca Landing property or buildings will pay well. The town is a growing one, and is a safe investment.

How About The Lake Ports? Toronto Sun.—A good deal is heard of the disastrous effects which is alleged reciprocity will have on our seaports.

But I do not think there is much cause for the outcry. We are paying $50,000 a year in the form of subsidy to a steamship company in order to stimulate trade from our Atlantic seaports with Mexico. We are paying $133,000 to another company to run ships from the same seaboard to the West Indies and South America. We are spending $146,000 on a line to South Africa. What are the prospects between the Maritime Provinces and New England enough trade will be developed to keep all these ships busy transporting goods backwards and forwards between these points and the subsidies now paid to maintain communication in order to secure markets will no longer be necessary.

But how about our lake ports? Farmers in South Ontario still remember the old barley days when a double row of teams extended for a mile back from the port of Whitby waiting to unload grain at the elevators from which it was discharged into a fleet of schooners for Oswego. Today there are no wagons there, the sails of no schooners whiten the lake front; the harbor is in decay. The story of Whitby is the story of a score of other lake ports. With a renewal of the trade conditions of the old days there will be a renewal of the old-time activity.

Our seaports instead of being injured by what is proposed will be benefited, and lake ports which are now dead will be galvanised into fresh life.

MADMAN BEATEN BY A GIRL. Young Chicago Woman Saves Lives of Four Children After Struggle.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—In a struggle with Robert Braun, in which a girl braved a pistol and was beaten about the face until she was all but unconscious, the victim last night worsted her opponent, and by a remarkable display of courage, probably saved the lives of four children. The unequal fight took place in the parlor of the home of George Elchner, and Miss Emma Elchner, 18 years old, was the heroine. It began the instant that Braun, who was nursing fancied wrongs against Elchner, knocked at the door early in the evening and asked to be admitted.

No one had better come around tomorrow," said the girl. "I'm here now and I'm here to stay," exclaimed Braun, pulling the pistol from his pocket and forcing his way into the hallway.

Miss Elchner seized his arms and with all her strength tried to push the intruder back. Together they struggled until they reached the parlor door, and Braun noticed the four children. Then he leveled the pistol at the children, who huddled under a davenport in a corner, but the girl struck the muzzle of the weapon upward as Braun fired.

Unable to bring the pistol into play Braun beat the girl until blood flowed from half a dozen wounds in her face. But she clung to him, again and again he fired, but to no purpose. Finally the gun clicked, and while he was examining it the girl pushed him out of the front door and closed and locked it.

Braun then rushed to the tailor shop of an acquaintance, Jos. Stumpf, shot him in the shoulder and in the hand, and was about to take a third shot when the door opened and the girl, who had been hiding under the davenport, came in, and while examining it he shot one of his own fingers off.

He then abandoned his attack, visited a doctor's office and was arrested while his injuries were being treated. Braun will be held in jail pending an examination into his mental condition.

U.S. SENATE FEARS THE EXTRA SESSION. Toronto, Feb. 27.—A Washington special to the Telegram this morning says: "The Senate will not come to a vote on the reciprocity bill if the opponents of the agreement think they are strong enough to beat it. That's the outlook this morning at the beginning of the last week of this Congress. They are doing a lot of canvassing in the hope that at one stroke reciprocity will be defeated and an extra session averted."

THE WAY OUT.

The matter before the court in relation to the civic situation is not, of course, proper subject of comment. However, for the purpose of allaying public apprehensions that the strained relations at the city hall may continue indefinitely and may result in the paralysis of the whole civic machine, it may be pointed out that the interpretation which Judge Beck placed upon some provisions of the city charter appear to show the way by which the present complicated condition of things may be straightened out and future difficulties of the kind avoided.

THE "REASONS."

Under pressure of public opinion the members of the council who are bent on dismissing Commissioner Bouillon yesterday afternoon made public a list of thirty-three "reasons" why they want to get rid of him. Of these it is to be observed that they were not disclosed until it was found impossible to discharge the commissioner without giving cause of some kind; that they were not made public until the Supreme Court refused to prevent the holding of the public meeting that they were published when it was impossible that an examination of them should be made before the meeting; and that the public is thus made aware of the reasons in a plain way no one wanted to become responsible for putting them in black and white.

WERE THE FARMERS INSINCERE?

The Winnipeg Telegram says:—Western Canada hates this reciprocity agreement as fiercely as England. Laurier hates the West, only the West does not adopt the device of concealing his hatred under homely words. Here we talk as we think, and we act as we talk. We howl to the line of Canadian nationality, integral, uncoerced and fraught with the destiny of the British Empire.

required under the new tariff conditions." This resolution was signed by D. McCaughey, president of the council, and chairman of the Manitoba Elevator Commission. It was endorsed by the United Farmers of Alberta, the Grain Growers of Saskatchewan, and those of Manitoba, as well as by the representatives from the farmers' organizations of the eastern provinces.

SEED GRAIN ADVANCE.

Explaining the amount of $50,000 asked from Parliament for the advance of seed grain to western farmers, the Minister of the Interior spoke as follows on February 15th (Hansard):—Mr. Oliver: This amount is asked for to meet requirements which have arisen by reason of the unfavorable nature of last season in the southern and western parts of the prairie provinces. The season was very dry, and the crops short, and so far as our information goes there are about 4,000 homesteaders who are short of seed grain.

THE ABANDONMENT OF PROTECTION.

The Toronto News has found a new champion for the Canadian farmer, to wit, Mr. H. B. Ames, M.P., of Montreal. It characterizes his speech as the "most notable yet delivered from the standpoint of the farmer." As Mr. Ames is a farmer, and does not represent a farming constituency it is not quite surprising that he should view the reciprocity agreement from the farmer's viewpoint. Nor does the perusal of his speech as reported in the News show that he saw much from that viewpoint save that some of the loss in the community who are not farmers.

WHY THEY DENOUNCE IT.

The British tariff advocates are frantic in condemnation of the reciprocity agreement between Canada and the United States. No wonder. Their great objection is that it would mean the abandonment of the protective tariff, and the consequent loss of the industrial and commercial life of the country. They say that the tariff is the lifeblood of the industry, and that its removal would mean the death of the manufacturing and commercial life of the country.

fore, but never such an one as this. On previous occasions there has been opportunity afforded for those who were struck to make their case known in some hope of redress of their grievance. Upon this latest resolution, more wide reaching than any of its predecessors since 1878, not a delegation has received one word of hope.

A JUDICIAL INVESTIGATION.

Mr. G. S. Montgomery, in an open letter, invites Mayor Armstrong to make good his pre-election promise of a judicial inquiry into the course of civic affairs, undertaken to pay the costs of the inquiry if it does not result in justifying the city commissioners for administrative acts which have been called into question by a large number of the people.

RELEASED THE PUSSEY.

Mr. W. F. Maclean, M.P., in Wednesday's debate on the reciprocity agreement, voiced an objection which seems to be giving the protectionists much concern. If the agreement passed, he said, Canada could not hereafter enact tariff legislation without consulting Washington. That, of course, is not true. There is nothing in the agreement which in any way or degree prevents either country passing what tariff legislation it may please, regardless of what the other nation may think about it.

RAVAGES OF CONSUMPTION.

In the year 1890, 18 years ago, Mrs. G. Conner, of Bellefleur, N.S., was a well-to-do woman. All her relatives had died of consumption, and there was every indication that she was going to be the next. Her husband suggested that she should take a trip to the West. She went, and in a letter bearing date August 14, 1908, Mrs. Conner says: "I am better than I have been for years. My lungs have been cured by PSYCHINE, and I intend to do all I can to see that my children are not suffering from Lung Trouble and General Debility."

farm produce is shipped abroad annually—much of it to the markets of Great Britain. There remain large areas of land in the Republic which have not hitherto been productive but which are being reclaimed from the desert and the swamp and turned into grain fields. The Republic must continue to produce more and more for many years to export farm products of certain kinds in large quantities.

THE ASSASSINATION COMMITTEE.

The chairman of the investigating committee announced on Wednesday that the committee was dead. That, of course, was when he supposed Commissioner Bouillon was no longer in office. Whether an attempt will be made to galvanize the committee into life again, since the City Solicitor has decided that the commissioner is still commissioner, remains to be seen.

and claims to have secured evidence which warrants him in making the offer. It is only a week since Commissioner Bouillon also demanded a judicial inquiry. The commissioner's request was not complied with. If by the request of Mr. Montgomery the same fate there will be dissatisfaction and ground for it. If the aldermen do not know it, it is only kindness to tell them that some of their number are being subjected to a measure of suspicion. Be this suspicion deserved or not, it could only be increased by a refusal at this time to grant a judicial investigation demanded by two responsible men who claim to know, and should know, what they are talking about.

SUPREME COURT SAID BULLION MUST BE GIVEN FAIR TRIAL

Judge Declares City Charter Protects Commissioner From Summary Dismissal

INJUNCTION IS EXTENDED UNTIL FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Secretary that the authorized capital of the Standard Heating and Plumbing Company was $50,000; that 200 shares of capital stock had been sold and that J. W. Mould was vice-president and director of the company.

That Contemned Building. Mr. Biggar stated Mr. Bouillon was present, ready to give evidence, having been subpoenaed as a witness, and that he intended to call on Alderman McKinley and also on Building Inspector Drabble. The latter, he said, would give some evidence which would be interesting in view of the change last night on short notice, of the place of a public meeting, because the building first advertised had been condemned.

City Solicitor Bown, speaking on behalf of the municipality, stated that the dispute appeared to be really between the legislative and administrative branches of the city. His first objection to the granting of an injunction was that the action should be taken by the Attorney-General. It was argued that a private party should be permitted to come in and hold up the city.

Mr. Bown referred to the case of Mount Carmel vs. Shaw, a case in which the city was building a sidewalk and found it necessary to cut down two fine shade trees. Application for injunction was made, but refused. The principle was that where a body exercised a public power, no private citizen had a right to interfere.

Must Show Good Cause.
On hearing the argument, Mr. Justice Beck declared that he had not a doubt but that the injunction had been properly constituted. The counsel for the defendant had said that an attempt was being made to interfere with the discretion of the city council. But they had failed to observe the position of the commissioners under the charter. There was a special provision of the charter that a commissioner should not be dismissed without satisfactory cause being shown. This clause made it imperative upon the council to make a judicial or quasi-judicial investigation into the conduct of a commissioner.

On the application for a new and permanent injunction. Mr. Justice Beck ordered that Mr. O'Connor present his affidavits by Thursday noon, and Mr. Biggar his by Friday at two o'clock, when the motion would be heard and any parties to be cross-examined called to the stand.

Mayor and Aldermen Present.
When the motion for an injunction to restrain the members of the city council from proceeding to dismiss Commissioner Bouillon was brought up in the court at eleven o'clock yesterday, the disposition of some minor applications the room was crowded to the doors. The mayor and all the aldermen are present, and Commissioner Bouillon, who had been subpoenaed as a witness for the plaintiff.

On the request of Mr. O'Connor the affidavits of C. Gallagher and man James H. McKinley, and Robert Parquharson, setting forth the reasons for applying for the injunction were read, and affidavits of J. D. Hyndman, H. J. Dawson and others were submitted to the court.

Further affidavits submitted were those of W. A. Bimble, one admitting that he has seen, informed by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies that the firm of Gorman, Chaney & Grifley was capitalized at $150,000, with $50,000 paid up, and that W. A. Bimble was the holder of 100 shares of $100 each in the company. The other affidavits of Mr. Bimble was that he had been informed by a communication from the office of the Deputy Provincial

REDUCED TO A SKELETON

DOCTOR SAID SHE WOULD DIE "Fruit-a-lives" Saved Her Life. RIVERDALE, QUE., May 28, 1910. "I look upon my recovery as nothing short of a miracle. I was for eleven years constantly suffering from Chronic Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Constipation. The last two years of my illness, I was confined to my bed nearly all the time. I was so thin I weighed only 90 pounds, and I vomited everything I ate. Even water would not stay on my stomach. The doctors gave me up to die as the stomach trouble produced heart weakness and I was frequently unconscious. At this time, a lady friend strongly advised me to try "Fruit-a-lives" and how thankful I am that I did so. When I had taken one box, I was much better and after three boxes, I was practically well again and had gained 20 pounds. I have taken thirteen boxes in all and now weigh 130 pounds and am absolutely well—no pain—no indigestion—no constipation—my heart is sound and complete clear."
