TWENTY-SECOND YEAR

INCREASED INDEMNITY PARTY LEADERS AGREED UPON IT

Sir Wilfrid Moved It Himself—Some Members Talked Against It, But There Was No Strenuous Opposition in the Voting

—Party Lines Cut No Figure.

Ottawa, May 20.—(Special.)—The House, without much ado, to-day voted its resolution to increase the indemnity of Senators and members from $100 to $150, beginning with the present session. Sir Wilfrid justified the increase by the example of the Australian Commonwealth, which granted $200 a session, and the increasing length of sessions at Ottawa, which kept members from their vocations for from four to five months in the year, instead of two or three months, as in 1873.

Mr. R. L. Borden supported the resolution, on the same grounds.

Various Opinions Expressed.

Mrs. Blain (Con. Fed.) and J. B. Robinson (Ind.) argued that the question of an increase should have been submitted to the people.

Mr. Johnston (Cardwell) said that, having pledged himself during the campaign as opposed to the raising of the indemnity, he proposed to oppose it now.

Mr. McGowan (C. Wellington) said his constituents were opposed to the increase, nor was it a party question, because The Globe Mercury (Liberal) strongly opposed it.

BUFFALO'S GREAT SHOW OPENED WITH ELABORATE CEREMONIES

Vice-President Roosevelt Was the Principal Personage of the Day—Grand Parade to the Grounds—Over 100,000 People.

Paid Admission—Congratulatory Messages.

Buffalo, N.Y., May 20.—In the presence of a vast concourse of people, with ceremonial both conventional and novel, the Pan-American Exposition was to-day formally dedicated. The day was fair and bright, and the dedicatory ceremonies were planned this great enterprise to a flattering success. The day began with a parade, in which there were men from nearly every country in the world, and ended with an aerial bombardment from firing boats and a brilliant electrical illumination. Between the two were the formal exercises of the dedication, with oratory that took its theme from the lesson of the day, prayer for right, music, song and poetry. The city was bright in a dress of flags and bunting, the Exposition group is brilliant in color, the moving crowds were in holiday garb, and the whole effect was highly pleasing. The record of attendance for to-day was fully up to the expectations of the most enthusiastic. There was no complaint over delayed exhibits for there were spectacular things enough to weary the most ardent sight-seer by the coming of night.

The parade that formed at the City Hall and marched by way of the main thoroughfare to the Exposition grounds was an interesting spectacle, and thousands of persons lined the route.

Vice-President Roosevelt was the guest of honor, and when he reached the hall the parade was started with a volley of aerial bombs. Two thousand troops, who got their time from four bands, led the way, and after them were a hundred carriages with officials and guests. Behind them came the concessionaires from the Midway, Western Indians mingled with the children of the tropics, the Orient and the Mediterranean, and gave the procession its truest touch of color. They were in native dress and had a score of artistic floats, and 15 bands furnished them music.

At the Grounds.

The entry of the procession to the Exposition grounds at noon was a magnificent spectacle. The crowd in the grounds at that time numbered 75,000, and the greater part of it was massed in the esplanade. Dozens of great war kites carrying flags and streamers floated in the air. The troops were halted in the fore court and then formed in double columns across the bridge of triumph.

The officials and guests left their carriages, marched through the lines of troops, and then continued on in a rapid, close course to the esplanade beyond. President Milburn of the Exposition and Vice-President Roosevelt led the way, and the crowd cheered them as they advanced. A hundred yards from the Temple of Music they halted, and at the other end of the esplanade several thousand carrier pigeons were suddenly released. Confined at first by their own numbers, they circled low in wild flight, and then gradually soared upward on graceful wing. High up, where they got their bearings, they parted and took flight to every quarter of the compass.

The Dedication Exercises.

The exercises began at 12:45 o'clock with the reading of the Declaration of Independence by the 71st Regiment Band. The venerable bishop, Charles H. Fowler, led in prayer before the Lincoln Park entrance with the President Milburn read a series of congratulatory telegrams from Central and South America and Canada, and their reading provoked cheer upon cheer.

Congratulatory Telegrams.

Director-General Buchanan of the American Exposition Company received telegrams of congratulation from the Governor-General of Canada, President McKinley, the Presidents of Haiti, Colombia, Peru, Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay, Argentina, the Dominions Republic and the Governments of Jamaica and Martinique.

The following was received from Ottawa:

(Sgd.) Harry Graham,

Alde-Camp to Governor-General.

To-day's total admissions from 8 a.m. until 11 p.m. were 101,875. This does not include several thousand persons who came in on the Lincoln Park entrance with the parade.

50,000 MACHINISTS OUT ON STRIKE MANY FIRMS YIELDING TO DEMANDS

Up to Five O'clock Yesterday Reports Showed That 904 Firms Employing 30,000 Men Had Signed the Agreements for the Nine-Hour Day or Made Satisfactory Arrangements With Local Organizations.

Here is a table of the principal cities and localities affected by the machinists' strike, as given out by President O'Connell, of the International Machinists' Association, at Washington:

City	No. of Firms	No. of Men
New York, Brooklyn and immediate vicinity	300	1000
San Francisco, Cal.	250	800
Philadelphia, Pa.	200	700
Chicago, Ill.	150	500
St. Louis, Mo.	100	400
Pittsburgh, Pa.	100	400
Cleveland, Ohio	100	400
Buffalo, N.Y.	100	400
Wilmington, Del.	100	400
San Francisco, Cal.	250	800
Philadelphia, Pa.	200	700
Chicago, Ill.	150	500
St. Louis, Mo.	100	400
Pittsburgh, Pa.	100	400
Cleveland, Ohio	100	400
Buffalo, N.Y.	100	400
Wilmington, Del.	100	400
San Francisco, Cal.	250	800
Philadelphia, Pa.	200	700
Chicago, Ill.	150	500
St. Louis, Mo.	100	400
Pittsburgh, Pa.	100	400
Cleveland, Ohio	100	400
Buffalo, N.Y.	100	400
Wilmington, Del.	100	400

There are establishments in many smaller places scattered all over the country where the terms of the associations have not been agreed to and where the strike will go into effect. Places where less than 500 men are affected are not given in the above table.

Valley Railroad machinists at Buffalo, Sayre, Wilkes-Barre and Elmira are out, aggregating about 500 all told. The Delaware, Lackawanna & Western men at Sayre, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and intermediate points are out. The Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe men are also out. The strike order, however, does not apply to the railroads generally. It is explained at headquarters that there is no competition between the railroads and the private work, and that work among the private establishments is to be adjusted first.

Many Firms Yield.

Word from other large cities is tardy in reaching here. Telegraphic reports to Mr. O'Connell show the following as the number of firms which signed the agreements to-day: Kenosha, Wis., all; Milwaukee, Wis., all; St. Paul, Minn., all; Toledo, Ohio, all.

Ohio, 1; Auburn, N. Y., all firms; Ancon, Mont., all; Denver, Col., all; St. Louis, all; New Orleans, all; Danbury, Conn., all; Pittsburgh, Pa., 90 per cent; Franklin, Pa., all; Youngstown, Ohio, all; Cleveland, Ohio, 15; Rochester, N. Y., 10 per cent; Buffalo, 50 per cent; Niagara Falls, all; Tonawanda, all; Trenton, N.J., 75 per cent; Baltimore, 11; Philadelphia, 25; New Haven, 8. These establishments have conceded the demands, their men are at work as usual.

30,000 Men Appeared.

Mr. O'Connell said to-night that, up to 5 o'clock, reports show that 904 firms, employing approximately 30,000 men, had signed the agreements for the nine-hour day, or made satisfactory arrangements with the local organizations.

JOINT HIGH COMMISSION MILITARY DISPLAY BARRED INHIBITION OF PROF. STEEN

Has Not Been Dissolved, and May Meet Again This Year, According to Sir Wilfrid.

REMARK DROPPED BY PREMIER

In Explaining Necessity for Second Inspector of Penitentiaries, Gave the Intimation.

Ottawa, May 20.—(Special.)—In moving a resolution to-day for the appointment of a second inspector of Penitentiaries, at a salary of $2000 a year, the Premier incidentally made the interesting announcement that the Anglo-American Joint High Commission would meet again this year.

Sir Wilfrid explained that the necessity for a second inspector arose from the fact that, in addition to the five regular penitentiaries in Canada, it was found necessary to maintain a penitentiary or long-term prison in Dawson City.

"We cannot," he said, "at the present time bring a convict from Dawson to the penitentiaries in Canada, and the five regular penitentiaries that are in the hands of the United States authorities, and claimed as American territory. The moment we brought a prisoner to Skagway, for instance, that he would be released from our custody. As soon as the labor of the Joint High Commission are resumed, which, I think, will be this year, we are in hopes of getting the treaty extended so as to cover the release of prisoners of the same country from the territory of another under the proper surveillance."

EVIL BOOTH REPORTED DEAD.

Announcement to That Effect Made in Eglinton Church, But He Is Recovering.

A rumor was current that North Toronto yesterday that Eva Booth, field commissioner of the Salvation Army, had died at her residence, Eglinton, on Sunday, and in fact the announcement was made at the evening service of the Eglinton Methodist Church. Enquiry at the residence, however, did not confirm the report, but it was stated that Miss Booth had been seriously ill for about two months past. She had returned from the city about a week ago, and is now making rapid progress towards recovery.

CROW'S NEST BILL WITHDRAWN BUT THE PROJECT IS NOT DEAD

The Finance Minister's Insistence on a Certain Clause Caused the Withdrawal, and Now a Charter is to be Got From the British Columbia Legislature.

Ottawa, May 20.—(Special.)—This was probably the last private members' day of the session, and private bills were taken up immediately upon the Commons getting down to business to-morrow.

The first order was for the third reading of the bill, an act to incorporate the Crow's Nest Southern Railway Company, but when it was called by the Clerk the Premier got up and said: "I understand that this bill is withdrawn. It may remain on the paper, but I believe it is withdrawn."

It was a brief valedictory for a measure that set the whole Commons by the ears and occupied more attention on the part of the public while this struggle was going on between the C.P.R. and the Cox-Jaffray-Crow's Nest interest than any bill that has been before Parliament since the Yukon Railway deal was killed by the Senate two years ago. The contest before the Railway Committee on the Crow's Nest Southern bill was only brought to a termination by Government interference. An agreement was drawn up and passed by the Commons, by which the Crow's Nest Coal

Company and the Crow's Nest Southern Railway Company were to consent not to discriminate against consumers of coal and coke in Canada, on penalty of $3 per ton on every ton sold or carried at discount railway rates. The Finance Minister announced at the time that there was "a full understanding that unless that agreement was signed, as agreed, the bill to incorporate the Crow's Nest Southern Railway will not pass its third reading in this House."

The Premier's announcement in the House this morning would indicate that the company declined to be bound by the proposed arrangement, and accordingly forfeited their bill.

A prominent member of the company, however, said to-day: "The bill has been withdrawn, as the promoters have decided, with the assent of the Dominion Government, to build the contemplated railway under the provisions of an act obtained from the Provincial Legislature of British Columbia. That act also secures full protection to the smelting industry of the province."

MANITOBA SCHOOL QUESTION IS YET RANKLING IN QUEBEC

Bishop Cloutier of Three Rivers Declares That in Rome, Whence He Has Just Returned, It Is Still Expected That Redress Will Be Given to the Catholics.

Montreal, May 20.—(Special.)—In the course of his sermon yesterday, Bishop Cloutier of Three Rivers, referring to education, said it was threatened by three great perils, the neutral school, the common school and the free school.

"The neutral school," said His Grace, "was formerly condemned by the church, and on many occasions by the last two Popes, Pius IX. and Leo XIII. Yet it is this hateful school which was sought to be imposed upon the Catholic parents of the Province in 1890, by a law which injured at the same time positive law by the blow it aims at the constitution of the country."

GENEROSITY TO A CHURCH

Mr. James I. Buchanan of Pittsburgh, Pa., Presents Building to Mc-Nab St. Church.

JOCKEY CLUB PROPERTY SOLD.

Mrs. Filman Only Went to Visit Her Brother on the Farm—Police and Other News.

Hamilton, Ont., May 20.—(Special)—The members of the congregation of the Mac-Nab Street Presbyterian Church, were this evening made the recipients of a gift so generous in financial proportions, and so kindly in thought, combined with great practicality, that they are the envy of the other city congregations. The occasion was the church's 47th anniversary, and the 25th anniversary of Rev. Dr. Fletcher's pastorate. Since the last anniversary, and quite recently, there has been erected to the south of the church a handsome and commodious building, comprising a vestry and a choir room, the gift of the Buchanan family, headed by James Isaac Buchanan of Pittsburgh, son of the late Hon. Isaac Buchanan. To-night the transfer of the gift took place, and it was that made the congregation happy. After tea had been served James Buchanan was appointed chairman. He called on Angus Buchanan, who presented the regrets of Mr. Buchanan for not being able to be present, and read a telegram from him, in which he, on behalf of the Buchanan family, presented the building and contents to the church, adding his best wishes to the congregation. On motion of Messrs. A. Turner and A. Lott, an appropriate resolution of thanks was passed.

William Turner then tendered the building to the Board of Management, and Donald McPhie, on its behalf, accepted the generous gift and spoke at some length on the goodness and generosity of Mr. Buchanan and his relatives. Rev. Dr. Fletcher also spoke, adding his thanks, as the gift was made out of personal regard for him. The building is of stone, is beautifully furnished and complete in every detail. The building and furniture cost $48,000. A concert in the church followed, the performers being Mrs. McArthur, Miss Clara Carey, Miss Edith Carey, Fred Jenkins of Cleveland, Edwin Skedden and J. E. Aldou. It was a success in every way.

Lost Teeth Restored.

Nature's teeth are cleverly counterfeited by modern dental art through Crown and Bridge Work. If you have a prominent front tooth that is broken or decayed the root will be anchored of a new porcelain or gold crown that will restore the lost usefulness and add beauty to the mouth. If several teeth are missing a light, tiny bridge takes the place of the old-time plate in the mouth and gives a serviceable, durable denture.

The cost (Five Dollars per tooth) is little when figured by years of service and comfort. Let's talk it over.

"The Merchant of Venice."

The Valentine Stock Company has had a run in Toronto of 30 consecutive weeks and has given 30 performances. The good this organization has accomplished in creating a dramatic taste among its patrons cannot be estimated. The various members of the company have made many friends here who will regret that this week is their farewell week.

A play requiring much studying and intelligence; appreciation of the greatest of all dramatists has been chosen as the vehicle with which to say farewell. The popularity of the Valentine Co. was amply evidenced last night by the tremendous crowd that attended the initial performance of "The Merchant of Venice." The finish of an evening production was not the feature of the performance, but the presentation of the play in its entirety was given with sufficient force and make it worth seeing by the audience.

The play was on a splendid scale, and altogether the actors lived their roles and spoke their lines with conviction. Mr. Glazier as Shylock, appreciated by the actors to whom these parts fell.

The Portia of Miss Meta Maynard was a clever bit of acting, proving her undoubted ability to throw much dignity into her manner, and to play the part of a minor born, the cloak of the "Daniel come to judgment."

She was especially effective in her appeal to Shylock, and held the house as she uttered the judgment that turned the tables on her money lender.

Miss Anne Blanche as Nerissa had but a minor part in the version of the play presented, but she was warmly greeted by the enthusiastic audience.

The cast was well selected, and a truly enjoyable series of dramatics. The play runs the whole week with matinees to-day, Thursday and Saturday. There will be a special matinee on Wednesday of "Young Mrs. Winthrop," as a testimonial to Miss Anne Blanche.

The Professors Love Story.

It is E. R. Willard did not implicate the leading lady in the professor's love story, that innocuous play by Mr. J. M. Barry, which is now being presented at the Jockey Club. The play is a comedy, and the main part of the action, namely, a middle-aged bachelor professor who falls in love with a young woman, is played with a certain amount of success. Joseph Harwood, this city, had stolen on April 29 a coat, several shirts and some children's clothes, and it is alleged against Baron that he bought these articles, knowing them to be stolen.

Application Made at Osgoode Hall to Have J. D. Lewin Released From Prison.

MR. GOODERHAM AND SMITH ESTATE

Mr. Burgess' Claim to a Clear Title Will Be Decided at Whitty Assize Court.

At Osgoode Hall yesterday afternoon, an application was made by Mr. D. O. Cameron, on behalf of his client, J. D. Lewin, a son of the late Senator Lewin of New Brunswick, for his release from the Toronto Jail, where he is at present confined. It seems that Lewin owed F. J. Andrews the sum of $2250, and the latter, hearing that Lewin was preparing to leave the country, procured an order, under which Lewin was arrested and placed in jail. Mr. Cameron claims that his client never had the least intention of leaving the country, and also that the amount claimed is incorrect. The motion will come up again in a week.

TO HELP SCOTCH STUDENTS

No English, Irish, Colonial or Foreigners Need Apply For a Share in This.

ANDREW CARNEGIE'S PRINCIPLE GIFT.

Two Million Pounds to Make Education Free in Four Universities of His Auld Country.

Mr. Carnegie had for some years been considering the plan for helping Scotch students to obtain a university education. He consulted with representative educators, and the result was that he presented the fund referred to, which will produce an income of $50,000. Mr. Carnegie's inquiries show that the total fees paid to the four universities amount to $200,000 annually. He considers that the $50,000 he has donated will give an income sufficient to provide free university education for every boy and girl in Scotland capable of passing the entrance examination.

SURGICAL TREATMENT OF HORSES

Anesthetics Being Rarely Administered—Operations Are Generally Very Painful.

Even the knowing it is for the animal's good, a surgical operation on a dumb animal is one of those things the ordinary horse man would prefer not to look at.

However, veterinary surgery has made great progress in its methods, the same as human surgery has done. The horse man who knows the poor creature must suffer intense pain, seeing that anesthetics are rarely used in cases of animal treatment, owing to the peculiar sensitiveness of its mechanism.

Casting is the almost universal method of dealing with a horse who is making a surgeon's knife, and an English invasion is claimed to do away with this by placing the animal in a vice instrument, after which the surgeon can manipulate the creature at will by simply moving of a lever. Local anesthetics do not produce great faith in the device, because of the expressed belief that the horse would be apt to injure himself in the vice.

The stocks, as they are used in this city by veterinary surgeons, are made of strong wooden beams, and even these have been known to break under the strain of a horse confined within them, and a strong desperate effort to extricate itself.

A horse, confined in the stocks, and strong they may be, is so irresistible in its strength that the matter is a very serious one. We have to provide what we can, and the horse man who is not a surgeon, and so I cannot see what would prevent a horse, raised from the ground and fastened in a vice, from inflicting injury in that iron straitjacket, for that is just what it amounts to.

The best way, even though it has been used by the horse man, is to use the method of roping the animal there is absolutely no chance for it to move, as can be seen by the photographs, which have been taken of horses in this recent position.

If the tail, the head or the breast is to be operated upon, the stocks are universal, used by the horse man in the United States and Canada. The horse is backed into a sort of stall, heavy beams forming it on either side, and the animal being placed crosswise at the rear and in front of the animal, in this way it is impossible for the horse to move forward or backward. Then a huge cloth strap is fastened underneath the horse, and the horse is held in the stocks as an anchor.

His feet can be readily tied so that he cannot move them, and the animal is ready for the operation.

If the feet or legs are to be operated upon, or a serious operation is to be performed on the animal's body, the horse is cast on a bed of sawdust in as comfortable a position as possible, and the horse is held in the stocks as an anchor.

Minor operations are sometimes undertaken without the use of stocks, the horse being held in the stocks as an anchor.

THE WATERWORKS DEFICIT.

There was a shortage of $88,000 in the Waterworks Department last year. This sum had to be taken from the taxes that were collected for other purposes. The loss will probably be about the same this year. In addition to this annual recurring deficit, ratepayers are now asked to vote $78,242 for additional plant for the system. The chances are that the bylaw will be defeated. There is an injustice in asking the people who own property to pay for the water consumed by householders. In most cases, perhaps, the householders are the property owners who pay the taxes, but in a large number of cases they are not. The landlord naturally objects to paying the water rates, and the tenant, who is the consumer, is forced to pay a share of the water used by him and the landlord pays the balance. We should either make the department entirely self-sustaining or the department should be maintained by the city. If the water rates had been left as they were there would have been no shortage to charge to the general rate, nor would it be necessary to resort to the costly and doubtful process of raising money by vote of the people. We ought to have the additional pumping plant and conduits asked for, but we think ratepayers will take the view that the department should be paid on a self-sustaining basis, and that all the money required for the system should be raised from water consumers. There is no reason why the city should manage its waterworks differently than if they were owned by a private company. All that the people expect under municipal control is that the water should be supplied at a price, nothing more, nothing less. In the case of the last reduction in water rates there was no clamor or even request on the part of the consumers for reduced rates. As the time will be over when the water rates are reduced, the originator of the idea thought cheap water would place him at the head of the polls. The defeat of the bylaw would not be a misfortune if it forced the council to raise the water rates sufficiently to place the department on a self-sustaining basis. The tax rate is high enough without adding unnecessarily to it. The $88,000 shortage last year means the addition of one-half of one per cent to the tax rate for this year. The addition of this extra load to the tax rate not only does an injustice to one section of the community, but it places Toronto in a false position. It makes our tax rate appear larger than it really is, and thereby injures us in the eyes of outsiders.

THE DOUKHOBORS DEFENDED

"Lally Bernard," Otherwise Miss C. V. Fitzgibbon of Toronto, Declares They Are Good People.

SPENT SOME MONTHS AMONG THEM

And Told the National Council of Women They Were Among the Best Ever Brought to America.

London, Ont., May 20.—The question of marriage customs and the habits of the Doukhobors in Canada was the most striking topic before the National Council of Women at today's session. A most interesting paper was read by Miss C. V. Fitzgibbon of Toronto, whose writings in the press are well-known under the pseudonym of Lally Bernard. Miss Fitzgibbon has taken a great interest in these settlers, and she has spent several months among them during the past two years. In submitting her report on the sale of the work done by the Doukhobors, she took occasion to characterize as painfully exaggerated the statements which have appeared in some of the newspapers in regard to the Doukhobors. From a close personal knowledge of these people she was of the opinion that no more desirable, upright, moral, God-fearing body of settlers had ever been brought to the shores of America.

The charges brought against them were laid by sensational paragraphs, or by people ignorant of the true facts; or, if not ignorant, they were totally incapable of comprehending the very height of good conduct and morality which existed among the Doukhobors. In referring to the charges that the Doukhobors believed in divorce, Miss Fitzgibbon pointed out that among 40,000 of these communities in Russia, not one divorce had been known within the last 10 years. It was true the Doukhobors did not understand our registration laws, and their marriages customs involved other ceremonies than those prescribed by law, but as soon as the new settlers understood the Canadian code they felt sure that even the literal observance of all our laws would be fulfilled, just as every code of morality and good conduct had already been observed by them.

Peace Resolution Enacted.

At the Women's Council, after the reading of the minutes this morning, the Peace Convention of Toronto arose and questioned the propriety of endorsing the Peace Convention resolution, in which they refused to send greetings to a number of the Peace Convention, and asked that the resolutions be expunged from the minutes.

MR. CARNEGIE AND UNIVERSITY

EDUCATION.

Mr. Carnegie's princely donation to the Scotch universities—unparalleled as it is in history—shows that the millionaire steel magnate has high ideas of the value of a university education. The donations made by Mr. Carnegie for public libraries, scientific colleges and technical schools have been most liberal indeed, but they are all dwarfed by his magnificent gift to the universities of his native land. Altho a self-made and self-taught man, with an intensely practical turn of mind, Mr. Carnegie has reserved his most substantial gift for institutions that deal with knowledge in the abstract, that have in view the training of the intellect, the cultivation of the reasoning and thinking faculties. For the Scotch universities have earned an enviable reputation in the departments of logic, philosophy, metaphysics and in the classics. They aim to produce thinkers rather than practical specialists. Mr. Carnegie's gift of ten million dollars to advance the cause of abstract, as against practical, knowledge, will come as a surprise to many, but Mr. Carnegie realizes the fact that the thinker precedes the man of action, that the dreamer prepares the way for the inventor. The phenomena underlying the science of electricity were mostly thought out and discovered by English, Scotch and French scientists. The practical Yankees took up the truths as revealed, but it was the English, Scotch and French scientists, and gave the world the trolley car, the electric light, the electric motor, while one of our own countrymen produced the telephone. No man appreciates better than Mr. Carnegie the value of practical, scientific discovery, but at the same time he recognizes the fact that metaphysics, philosophy and pure reasoning play an even more important part in human affairs.

ONE HUNDRED MILES AN HOUR.

Before long the hundred mile railway train will be with us. Arrangements are under way to construct one from Berlin to Hamilton, in Germany, and another from Liverpool to Manchester in England. The latter is to be a single-track road. The train will run on a track shaped like an inverted V, with the single rail at its apex. It will consist of two long cars, which will straddle the track, so to speak, one half of it hanging on each side, just as a pack-saddle hangs on the back of a mule. Every car will carry its own motor.

THE DOUKHOBORS DEFENDED

On account of the low condition of the funds, it was resolved that the National Council of Women regret that they cannot at the present time take any financial responsibility in international work. The resolution was made by Mrs. Larmer and seconded by Mrs. McIntosh. The following resolution, moved by Mrs. Cummings and seconded by Mrs. Gibbs, was also adopted: "That the matter of providing funds for the convening of the Press Committee of the Council of Women be referred to the National Council of Women."

Representatives to National Council.

The following representatives of the Canadian National Council of Women were appointed to the National Council: Financial—Mrs. Sanford of Hamilton. Arbitration—Miss Cartwright of Toronto. From Mrs. Willoughby Cummings of Toronto.

Miss Phillips read a paper prepared by Miss Grace Farley of Montreal on a "Plan for Simpler Living."

The paper was discussed by Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. J. Hughes, Mrs. Boomer and Lady Taylor taking part.

Miss Laidlaw read a paper on "Traveling Libraries," prepared by Mrs. McLeish.

THE ARREST OF MR. JOHNSTON.

The case of Mr. Samuel Johnston, who was arrested a week ago last Sunday night on Yonge-street, for obstructing the sidewalk, was investigated before Chief of Police Gessert yesterday, a charge having been made by Mr. Johnston against P.C. Baynes for improper arrest. Having heard the facts of the case, the Chief said that, while he thought Constable Baynes had exceeded his duty in making the arrest, he was disposed to overlook the matter, as this was the first complaint made against Johnston, and he was more the result of over-zealousness and inexperience than otherwise. Mr. Johnston has been subjected to much annoyance thru the arrest, for which there was no justification.

Free and easy expectoration immediately relieved him, and a medicine that promotes this is the best medicine for the lungs and all affections of the throat and chest. This is precisely what Scott's Anti-Consumptive Syrup is a specific for, and it is pleasant to take because it relieves and cures the disease.
