RUSSIAN SITUATION REMAINS OBSCURE

Some Reports Claim Kerensky is Victorious, While Others Report Successes for the Bolshevik Faction.

London, Nov. 15.—Varied reports are still coming thru concerning the situation in Russia, but out of the maze it has been impossible to disentangle one statement that may be considered trustworthy. One report has Petrograd in flames, and another has 2000 persons killed in the streets of Moscow during the fighting between the Kerensky and Bolshevik factions. Still another is to the effect that a coalition government has been formed in Moscow with members of the Bolshevik holding portfolios in it. Other unconfirmed reports are to the effect that anarchy reigns in Kiev and other Russian cities and that excesses against the Jews are being committed. Net Yet in Petrograd. Stockholm, Nov. 15.—A Russian who arrived at Haparanda from Petrograd Wednesday says that Kerensky's troops had not entered Petrograd Monday, and he did not believe they would enter, as the garrison, numbering 30,000, remained faithful to the Maximalists. The cause of Kerensky's unpopularity, according to this Russian, is his opposition to peace, and he further declared that if the Maximalists could have made peace they would be masters everywhere. All his proposals he proposed coalition cabinet, and he added: "If such a government cannot be formed we will have civil war." Telegraphic communication with Petrograd is still completely suspended. The only news of the events there has been brought by travellers thru Finland or transmitted by telephone, and these reports add to the confusion by their failure to give dates of the varied alleged happenings. According to what is apparently the latest telephone report from Finland, Kerensky's troops have not yet entered Petrograd. Kerensky's mixed detachments are concentrated close to Petrograd. Copenhagen, Nov. 15.—A Helmsing's despatch to The Politiken says that the military committee last night received the following telegram: "When the revolutionary troops re-conquered Gatchina, Kerensky with 2000 to 3000 men retired to the south. An order was given to cut off his retreat and part of the northern army was despatched to attack him in the rear. The people seem to have lost confidence in Kerensky. It is intended to form a social revolutionary coalition government with representatives of all parties except the well-to-do. The first task of the new government will be to make peace with the enemy." Anarchy Prevails. London, Nov. 15.—According to reports brought by travellers arriving at the Russo-Swedish frontier, as far as the press despatches from Stockholm, at Kiev and various other towns anarchy prevails to an astonishing degree, accompanied by mob violence against Jews. An agreement is said to have been reached at Moscow among the socialist parties to form a coalition government, including some Bolsheviks. Two Thousand Killed. London, Nov. 15.—Two thousand persons had been killed in street fighting in Moscow Tuesday night, according to reports brought by travellers arriving at the Russo-Swedish frontier, as far as the press despatches from Stockholm, at Kiev and various other towns anarchy prevails to an astonishing degree, accompanied by mob violence against Jews. Kerensky Gains Control. New York, Nov. 15.—The Associated Press news of the events there has been brought by travellers thru Finland or transmitted by telephone, and these reports add to the confusion by their failure to give dates of the varied alleged happenings. According to what is apparently the latest telephone report from Finland, Kerensky's troops have not yet entered Petrograd. Kerensky's mixed detachments are concentrated close to Petrograd. HEAVY ENEMY ATTACK BEATEN BY HAIG'S MEN

Second German Assault in Three Days is Repulsed by British in Flanders.

ALL POSITIONS ARE HELD Belgians Raid Lines of Enemy and Blow Up Number of Concrete Shelters.

London, Nov. 15.—The second heavy German counter-attack in three days against newly-won British positions north of Passchendaele was completely repulsed yesterday afternoon, Field Marshal Haig reported this afternoon. The German attack came after greatly increased enemy artillery fire.

Enemy Drive Back. London, Nov. 15.—Field Marshal Haig's report came yesterday early today reads: "Twenty-seven divisions possible reconnoitering British defences to an extent which would have allowed them to reach our lines in the neighborhood of Polderhoek Wood, north of the Menin road, but were driven off with loss of prisoners and killed."

On the night of November 13-14 Belgian troops entered the German lines north of Dixmude and blew up a number of the enemy's concrete shelters. A hostile raid attempted last night south of Dixmude was repulsed by artillery and machine gun fire.

TAKE THIRTY THOUSAND TURKS WAR PRISONERS Many Moslem Troops Swept in by British Net Since First of July, 1916. 100,000 TEUTONS TAKEN Big Hauls of Germans in Same Period—128,000 Square Miles Are Conquered.

London, Nov. 15.—In the house of commons today during a speech Henry William Foster, financial secretary of war, said that since July 1, 1916, the British had captured from the Turks 30,197 prisoners and 186 guns and from the Germans on the western front 191,884 prisoners and 619 guns. The approximate square mileage in territory conquered or reconquered by the British in the same time, said Mr. Foster, was 128,000. The total number of prisoners captured on all fronts since the beginning of the war was 185,000, while the captured guns numbered 389.

An official statement issued by the British war office on August 24 said that the number of prisoners captured by the British since the beginning of the war, exclusive of African natives, at that time aggregated 131,776.

DENMARK WILL CHECK OPERATIONS OF SPIES Government Submits Bill to Parliament to Secure Restrictive Powers.

Copenhagen, Nov. 15.—The government has submitted a bill to the Danish Parliament authorizing the expulsion from Denmark of any undesirable foreigner, even those residing in the country for more than two years. The law is aimed at spies and other objectionable persons, but may also be invoked, following the Norwegian precedent, to reduce alien consumers of Denmark's food supplies.

LUXBURG AGAIN DETAINED. Buenos Aires, Nov. 15.—Count von Luxburg, the former German minister to Argentina, has been taken back to the detention camp on the Island of Martin Garcia. The former minister was brought to Buenos Aires yesterday, and it was presumed that he was to sail on a Dutch liner on his way to Germany.

PIAVE FRONT HOLDS UNDER HEAVY BLOWS

Italian Forces Maintain New Positions, Though Strongly Assailed By Teutons—Anglo-French Troops Reach Front.

London, Nov. 15.—Everywhere along the battlefield from Lake Garda eastward, and thence southward along the Piave River to the Adriatic Sea, the Italians are holding the enemy in check, except in the hilly region in the vicinity of the Asiago Plateau, where additional gains have been made by the invaders. The new advances by the Teutonic allies, as observed on the war maps, do not indicate the points of extremely great strategic value have been won, but rather that the Italians on various sectors have given ground before superior numbers and at the same time have straightened out and lessened the length of their front.

In the hills north of the Venetian Plain General Diaz, the new commander-in-chief of the Italians, has withdrawn his advanced posts south of Monte Tomasco. On the Asiago Plateau and thence eastward to where the battlefield meets the upper reaches of the Piave River the German and Austro-Hungarian forces are adding strength to their attack. General Foa, the chief of the French staff, is only temporarily in command of the French to-day. From Nice comes a report that train loads of French and British troops are rolling constantly thru Italy and are being sent from France into Italy and are greeted with great popular enthusiasm.

Anglo-French Reinforcements. Washington, Nov. 15.—General Fayolle will be sent to Italy, according to an announcement made here today. General Foa, the chief of the French staff, is only temporarily in command of the French to-day. From Nice comes a report that train loads of French and British troops are rolling constantly thru Italy and are being sent from France into Italy and are greeted with great popular enthusiasm.

Defeat Enemy Attacks. Rome, Nov. 15.—The Italians have defeated renewed efforts of the Germans to cross the Piave River. Those of the enemy who forced a crossing at the mouth of the river were driven back and the remainder of the force was defeated.

London, Nov. 15.—The official statement from British headquarters in France and Belgium issued tonight reads: "Early this morning the enemy bombarded heavily our positions north of the Menin road and shortly afterwards his infantry attempted to advance. The attack was successfully repulsed by our fire. Another part of the enemy which endeavored to approach our lines northeast of Passchendaele also was driven off."

The hostile artillery again has shown great activity in the neighborhood of Passchendaele and also north and south of it."

Artillery Fire Checks German Advance—Another Attempt Near Passchendaele Broken Up.

Canadians Associated Press Cable. London, Nov. 15.—In the house of commons tonight Richard Outwater asked whether the activities of Lord Northcliffe in Canada having led Bourassa to describe him as a brigand, the prime minister will state on what grounds the practice of non-intervention in the affairs of the self-government of the dominions has been departed from.

Donald McMaster said: "Before the question is answered may I ask whether there is the slightest basis for the suggestion that Lord Northcliffe interfered in any way in the fullest rights and privileges of Canada, and whether this house proposes to assume the responsibility of epithets used in the Canadian election?" Bonar Law, in replying, said: "I do not know what number means by intervention. Lord Northcliffe visited the Canadian premier, I know that the vice was most useful and appreciated by the Dominion Government."

Mr. Outwater asked: "Does not the fact of Lord Northcliffe's activities there leading the Dominion Government to depart from its non-intervention policy?" (Concluded on Page 2, Column 7).

WOLF BUREAU REPORTS FIERCE FIGHTING IN STREETS OF PETROGRAD

London, Nov. 15.—The Wolf Bureau, the official German news bureau, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Geneva, admits that the Kerensky government has mastered the revolt in Moscow. It says that Lenin still controls Petrograd, where fighting was severe yesterday afternoon.

Telegraph on Again. London, Nov. 15.—A Stockholm despatch to Reuters, Limited, says that telegraphic communication with Petrograd has been restored.

VICTORY LOAN BACKED BY BIG ORGANIZATION

Arrangements Rest on Nation-Wide Basis—Special Workers Will Receive Small Remuneration.

Ottawa, Nov. 15.—An official explanation of the organization of the Victory Loan and the basis on which subscriptions are being solicited was given out tonight as follows: "The organization of Canada's Victory Loan is a nation-wide. There are special committees with chairmen at the head, charged with duty of promoting the success of the loan in each province, city, and county of the Dominion. Honorary committees have also been formed in the larger centres. All the professional bond and stock exchange houses were commanded by the finance minister some weeks ago in order that their entire organization might be devoted to the loan. They will not be paid upon a commission basis as in the past, but their remuneration will be fixed later having regard to the work actually performed. The special workers who will be engaged for about a month in canvassing for the smaller subscriptions in cities, towns and rural districts, will be paid for their work on a basis. Many local chairmen report that the remuneration for these workers will be less than their actual expenses. Reports have come in that many canvassers will devote any commissions to the patriotic or Red Cross work. All the larger subscriptions are in charge of special committees, and upon these no commission is paid. The percentage of donation charges in connection with this issue will be much less than in the case of the previous war loans. The finance minister decided that it was not necessary to have the banks underwrite any part of the Victory Loan and this will result in a substantial saving."

SEVERELY CRITICIZES BRITISH WAR POLICY

Lord Northcliffe in Letter to Premier Compares Slackness of Britain With Energy of U. S. and Canada.

London, Nov. 15.—Lord Northcliffe has declined a proffer of the administration of the new air ministry made to him by Premier Lloyd George.

In a long letter to the premier, Lord Northcliffe explains that his refusal of the portfolio is due to dissatisfaction with some of the methods of Mr. Lloyd George's administration, especially with regard to relations with the United States, and says that Lord Northcliffe's desire therefore is to maintain an independent attitude.

Lord Northcliffe's letter to Premier Lloyd George, dated today, from the London office of the British mission to the United States, was as follows: "Dear Prime Minister: I have given anxious consideration to your repeated invitations that I should take charge of the new air ministry. The reason which impelled me to decline that great honor and responsibility are in no way concerned with the office which is rightly to be set up by them. They are roughly as follows: "Returning after five months spent in the virile atmosphere of the United States and Canada, I find that while these two countries are proceeding with their war preparations with a fervor and enthusiasm little understood on this side of the Atlantic, while the United States instantly put me to work on conscription or which we labored for two years, and a making good work of sedition mongers; while Canada already has given such proofs of thoroughness as the alienation of conscientious objectors and the denaturalization of all twenty aliens naturalized within the last 15 years; while we, for our part, are asking immense sacrifices from these peoples there will be in office here those who daily with such urgent questions as that of unity of war control, creation of a national militia, the power of the country and the introduction of compulsory food rationing."

Obstruction and Delay. "I had personal experience while in America of the obstruction and delay in certain departments in London, which, for example, postponed Lord Raabing's vital and most successful mission. I find the conscription bill being mismanaged, and that men in various positions of authority who should have been punished have been rewarded and in some cases elevated. The spirit of the men and women of Great Britain is clearly as eager and as splendid as ever. We have, in my belief, the most efficient army in the world, led by one of the greatest generals, and I am well aware of the fine achievements of many others of our soldiers, sailors and statesmen, but I feel in the present circumstances I can do better work if I may keep my independence and am not gagged by a loyalty that I do not feel towards the whole of your administration."

I take this opportunity of thanking you and your cabinet for the frank and honest message of 500 officials of the British war mission to the United States, many of them volunteers and some of their 10,000 assis a deserve to be better known by their countrymen. The fact that their work is not known is due to the absurd secrecy about the war which still is prevalent. Everything these officials are doing is known to our American friends and, of course, to the Germans."

"I trust I make no breach of confidence in saying that some of the (Concluded on Page 2, Column 2).

USURY IS SUSPECTED.
Earlscourt Woman Thought She Was Mortgagee Her Property.
The legal department of the city hall is of the opinion that it has discovered a breach of the Usury Act in connection with a claim for soldiers' insurance. Three years ago an Earlscourt woman borrowed $180 and gave, what she thought, was a mortgage as security. It turned out that she had given a straight deed of her property for a consideration of $201, of which she received $180 in cash. She received an agreement from the lender that he would sell her property back to her for a price of $250, making the interest on the loan 12 per cent, and a bonus of $70. The act limits the interest on loans up to $600 to 12 per cent.

SCOUT MACHINE DONATED.
Col. Wm. Hamilton Merritt Contributes to Canadian Aviation Fund.
A "scout machine" for the fighting line, a gift from Col. Wm. Hamilton Merritt, was announced yesterday by Capt. D. A. Cameron, honorary treasurer of the Canadian aviation fund. The airplane will carry the name "Cameron Scout No. 182." The gift is made in accordance with instructions just received from the air board office of the war office, that the manufacture of service airplanes in Canada, and the purchase of such airplanes, should be encouraged. The machine is a Curtiss model, and is valued at $1,000. It is a four-engine airplane, and is capable of carrying a pilot and a passenger. It is a very fast machine, and is well adapted for scouting purposes. The machine will be used by the Canadian aviation fund, and will be used for the purpose of training pilots and for the purpose of scouting.

Park School Building Not Likely To Be Used By Military.
Owing to the parks committee having granted the request of General Legie for the use of the park for military purposes, it is not now thought likely that Park school will be needed also by the military. The agreement between the parks department and the board of parks is that the school will be used by the military only if it is not needed for other purposes. The school will be used for other purposes, and it is therefore expected that this total will be largely increased.

TEN TONS GOVERNMENT FISH.
Ten tons of government fish from George Bay, arrived in the city last night. Half of the shipment was sent to other towns and cities in the province, and the remaining five tons, composed largely of white fish, was consigned this morning at the local markets.

ROSE AVENUE SCHOOL AGAIN IN LIMELIGHT
Deputation Complains to Board About Unsanitary Conditions and Lack of Heating System.
Rose Avenue School was again in the limelight at the board of education meeting last night. A large deputation of men and women, whose children are still suffering from the unsanitary and ill-ventilated school before complained of to the board, waited on the meeting and presented their grievances. George F. Payne was the first spokesman. He reminded the board that it was not the first time they had pleaded with them to do something to remedy the conditions in their school. He said that the property committee had said it was useless to fix it, that a new school was needed. This proposition was turned down by the board of control. He appealed for some relief from the conditions caused by bad sanitation, poor ventilation and improper heating system.
"It's a dollar bill or Kaiser Bill on the Victory bond issue question," said W. W. Seldon, "but I tell you with dollar bills or doctors' bills." He said the school nurse sat at the end of a cold corridor for lack of room, and several people attributed the illness of their children to the same cause. He suggested the porch of the entrance being built up another storey, thus making a room for the nurse, or putting in a mezzanine floor.
Trustees C. A. B. Brown and Edmunds said the members of the board were unanimous that something should be done, but it was the fault of the board of control, who refused the money for it. Mr. Brown suggested that they get after the aldermen in their district to push the issue thru.
Mrs. Courtice gave notice of motion to the effect that a proper hearing be given to the matter of the school, and doing their work should receive additional salary.
Mr. Hamby gave notice of a motion to the effect that a proper hearing be put in for Rose Avenue School and the cost put in the estimates for next year.
Mrs. Rochat has held her husband's place on the staff of the Harvard Collegiate Institute while he has been overseas. She is asking for three months' leave, her salary to continue.
Teacher Will Enlist.
M. R. Shier, assistant master of the Earlscourt school, is asking for leave from his position in order to enlist for overseas service.

CANADA ACT PREVAILS
Takes Precedence Over Ontario Temperance Measure Where They Conflict.
According to a judgment delivered by Justice Maclennan at Osgoode Hall, yesterday, the Canada Temperance Act must prevail over the Ontario Temperance Act when the two conflict. His judgment was given in an appeal against the conviction of Mungo Thomson on the charge that he "did have and give" liquor at the "Star Hotel." This is an offence under one measure but not under the other, and the conviction was quashed.

CITY WILL PAY DAMAGES.

CENTRAL CONTROL OF ALL HOSPITALS
Commissioner and Health Officer Make Drastic Suggestions to Controllers.
WOULD AVOID WASTE
Uniformity, Economy and Efficiency Are Urged in Support of Scheme.
Finance Commissioner Thomas Bradshaw and Dr. Hastings, M.O.H., made drastic suggestions to the board of control yesterday morning in regard to the hospital situation. It was recommended that the hospitals be co-ordinated under one management under a business administration that would avoid duplication of certain expenditures while one central body would buy for all the different institutions.
"We are contributing $900,000 a year to Toronto hospitals and it is not fair that we are not in a position to see how the money is being expended," said the finance commissioner.
It was suggested that a central board of trustees be formed by representatives from the trustees of the different hospitals. All units should be run under one general manager with good business capacity. At present no two hospitals have the same system of records and accounts. Each buys its own supplies and has its own rules of management. With no uniformity, no purchasing control, no cost account records, there was inevitable waste of money and energy as well as a lack of effectiveness.
Under the proposed system supplies of provisions, coal, drugs and other necessities could be bought in such quantities that substantial reductions would be obtained. It would enable a uniform system of accounts and make possible the obtaining of month to month statements of all the hospitals. The combined skill of all the hospital boards would be brought to bear to remedy weaknesses and secure needed improvements in any unit.
The matter was left over until each of the controllers had considered the report.

ALLEGED TRICKSTERS SENT UP FOR TRIAL
Trusting Citizen Hands Over Money and Jewelry to Two Italian Strangers, and Loses All.
The prevalence of fraud in Toronto, and the ease with which clever confidence men can obtain money was demonstrated in the police court yesterday afternoon. A case related how he had been done out of $74 in cash and all of his wife's jewelry, valued at several thousand dollars. Two Italians, Stefano Roselli and Giuseppe Datona, were committed for trial on a charge of conspiring to defraud Spiegel.
According to the story told by Spiegel, he was on his way to work one day when he ran into the two men, who told him of a fortune of $10,000 that had been left to Datona. Eight thousand of the fortune, it was stated, was in bills, and the other two thousand was in Spanish gold in a valise at the Italian's hotel. They wanted to take the gold into Canada and sell it for $10,000. Spiegel then went home and raised all the money he could and turned it over to the two men, but he didn't get the gold.
SOLICITOR SUGGESTS MORE LEGISLATION

To give power to prevent the driving of cattle, sheep, pigs, and other animals during the hours of the day or night in certain highways and public places.
To authorize stands on highways for vehicles kept for hire and the erection of covered shelters for the use of the drivers.
To require persons conducting a "bake shop" to do so only under license and in compliance with the municipality.
To validate the effect of three aeroplanes to the Royal Flying Corps.
To validate certain local improvement debenture bylaws.

Mayor Church States He Will Not Run in Dominion Election.
Mayor Church stated yesterday morning that he would not run for the federal house at present. Several days ago he was offered the nomination in South York as a win-the-war candidate, but he has decided not to accept.
He said he felt that his work for the present was so long as the war lasts in Toronto. "Also he would not say so, it is understood that he will run for the majority office on Jan. 1."

two points on previous days are being held in check, the war office announced today.

"The enemy has intensified his activity at Zenson are being more closely invested, and those across the river in the marshy sector near the coast are being checked and shelled. Other enemy attacks were repulsed. In the north the Italian army has made a further withdrawal. The advanced posts at Monte Tomatico, south of Peira, were drawn back to positions previously determined.

"The announcement follows: "The enemy has intensified his activity on our mountain outposts from the Aslago zone to the Piave valley. On Tuesday night he attacked the Monte Siesmol-Moletta d'Avanti sector and was repulsed. Many new troops were reported to be making their way to the front. The enemy was repulsed. The Piave valley was again repulsed.

"Columns which were advancing in the fanlike formation towards the front between Frazzetta and the confluence of the Brenta and Cismon rivers were caught under the fire of our artillery and were stopped. Large forces engaged our advanced line between Cismon and Piave Rivers, at Monte Roncone the enemy was repulsed. At Monte Tomatico our advanced posts withdrew, after offering effective resistance, to positions previously decided upon. In the direction of the Quero Pass an enemy attack was paralyzed.

"On the plain the struggle continued. Fresh attempts on the part of the enemy to cross the Piave River have been frustrated. The units which had previously passed the river are being shut in more closely at the Zenson loop and withheld in the fanlike sector between the Piave and Vecchia-Piava, where they have been counter-attacked and are being shelled by our batteries with the aid of the artillery.

"Yesterday our aeroplanes effectively bombarded bridges on the Livizna and Montebelluna Rivers. Flying at a height of a few hundred metres they attacked with machine gunfire troops and columns on the march along roads in this plain.

"Terrible Artillery Fire.
Italian Army Headquarters in Northern Italy, Nov. 14.—(Delayed).—Under the escort of a staff of officers from headquarters the Associated Press correspondent today made a tour along thirty miles of the Piave battlefield while a terrible artillery fire was in progress on both banks of the river and the valley was transformed into a blazing inferno.

"The Italian lines were holding well at certain points, and everything indicated the thoroughness of the concentration that had been effected by the army along the new lines.

"In the new trenches along the river bank and among the columns advancing along the roads the men displayed the best of spirits, and evidenced their determination in the desperate struggle for the holding of the Piave line, which is now reaching its climax.

Strike the Unity Note.
Rome, Nov. 14 (Wednesday).—Great patriotic feeling marked the afternoon's sitting of the Italian Chamber of Deputies. Professor Orlando, in his first speech as premier, struck the keynote of his policy, namely, that the situation called for a rather than for words. He spoke feelingly of the assistance being rendered by the entente allies and expressed the cordial gratitude of Italy to the American Republics for their determination to support the Italian cause. He spoke feelingly of the assistance being rendered by the entente allies and expressed the cordial gratitude of Italy to the American Republics for their determination to support the Italian cause.

Referring to the creation of an inter-allied supreme council and military council, Orlando announced that they would include representatives of the United States.

Giulio, who made his first public appearance since Italy entered the war, said the whole nation would follow the government's lead, but there must be no hesitation or half measures. Ex-Premier Luzzatto declared that the people of Venetia were ready to suffer martyrdom so that Italy should retain her faith in the great principles of independence and liberty.

A vote of confidence in the government calling for national concord was moved by ex-Premier Boselli and was carried without division.

Roma: A Multitude of Refugees.
Rome, Nov. 15.—Four hundred thousand refugees from the zone of the present military operations have reached the central and southern provinces. For economic and political reasons the government has decided that the refugees will be received elsewhere than at Rome.

WHAT HE NOTICED.
A prominent churchman in the United States, who is very fond of a joke, tells of an amusing incident in connection with an ordination ceremony in Virginia. As is usual on such occasions, the bishop wore a red University hood at the back of his surplice. Among the most interested of the congregation was an old dandy. After the ceremony he was asked by someone how he liked the proceedings.

"It was clean taken by de preacin' of de bishop," answered the negro. "An' at de same time I felt kind of sorry for him. He ain't got no wimmin to look after him, has he?"

"Why, what makes you think that, Sam?"

I noticed, ah, whenever de bishop turned around de back of his coat was bowed, 'st' de red undershirt was a-shinin' thru!"

No Victory Without Unity.

Sharp differences of opinion have naturally arisen respecting the propriety of Mr. Lloyd George's Paris speech. It was indeed, as he described it, "brutally frank." Less epigrammatic, perhaps less alarming than his famous "too late" speech, it cannot be carried, as he feared it would, temporary comfort to the enemy. Yet if the Germans find comfort from it that comfort will come through misinterpretation. The British premier only admits what the Germans already know, what our own people know, and his admission is singular only because it is not the custom to admit mistakes in the past or the possibility of set-backs in the future.

The "Serbian tragedy of 1915," the "Rumanian tragedy of 1916," and no doubt to some extent the Italian disaster of 1917 are due, Mr. Lloyd George tells us, to lack of solidarity and unified action among the allies at the front. They have been working in harmony, but not as one nation. The armies have been in alliance, but they have not been merged into one army. To achieve victory, he tells us, the allied nations must achieve entire unity. The allies may be like the waves of the ocean, many, but in their assault upon Germany they must be one, like the sea.

The lesson for Canadians is simple and impressive. It was drawn not long ago by Mr. W. F. Maclean, M.P. for South York, in an address delivered to a number of his constituents shortly after the prorogation of parliament. He pointed out that if the allied nations, speaking different tongues, widely separated by diverse interests and traditions, could forget all else and unite for the winning of the war, surely it was not too much to ask the people of Canada to forget for the moment their party traditions and petty disputes and unite in one solid phalanx to bring about a decisive victory and a permanent peace.

Already party rancor is rearing its head and our people are beginning to quarrel among themselves over politics. In some quarters there is an unmistakable effort to discredit not only the union government now in office, but to discredit the idea of union itself. So able a man as Sir Alan Aylesworth seriously argues that in union lies not strength, but weakness. The only way to give the union government the strength it needs and to put an end to all efforts to divide and disaffect our people is to return union government candidates everywhere by large majorities. The premier and the friends of union government should sweep the country. They will do so unless their supporters yield to apathy and over-confidence.

Clemenceau.

France's tender of the premiership to Georges Clemenceau is a striking illustration of the greater freedom of democracy over there than anything that we have on this side or even in Great Britain. Under the war cabinet in Great Britain there has been something of an approximation to the French conditions, but without the fluidity, which would indeed be regarded by many as a vital defect, but which is characteristic of the French method.

It would be impossible to have such absolute freedom of action in the French Government without a different system behind the government than we possess here. It is their double ballot system which enables the chamber of deputies to be so much more representative of the people than anything that is possible under the party nomination and single vote election. Democracy in the true sense cannot get expression under the party system, owing to the lack of freedom in nomination and the other difficulties which hedge it about.

It frequently happens that with three candidates in the field a minority of votes gives the seat to one who cannot be said in any sense to represent the people. No real independence of thought or action is encouraged by such a system. This is why proportional representation has been recognized by the leading statesmen of the world as a necessary measure if democracy is to survive. As it is democracy may be in a majority, but by splitting the vote on party lines it too frequently happens that the autocratic party gets the third best chance and so misrepresents the people. In France the double voting system has something of the effect of proportional representation, and the elected members consequently do represent public feeling to a greater extent than is possible here.

In France there are many more sections of public opinion than we have here represented in parliament. We are apparently going to have Conservatives, Liberals, Unionists and Labor men. In France there are many other classes and phases of opinion. Governments consequently have to be more careful to suit their policies to the popular demand, which is accurately reflected in the chamber. New combinations are quickly made in a fluid and democratic assembly.

Clemenceau had as much chance, apparently, a few months ago, of being premier as of becoming czar of Russia, but the wheel has turned and he is to be trusted now as he was formerly despised. For a number of years he has been devoting himself to his paper, "The Man in Chains." The intrigue and corruption of German agents he set himself to overtake and nullify, and the Bolo revelations were largely the result of his insistent pen. While regarded as more destructive than constructive in his methods, he has been exceptionally useful in this war. He is 76 years of age, and takes up his task with all the energy of the "tiger," from which he has been nicknamed.

He has been particularly prominent in France for some time past in attacking the German intrigues, who almost threatened to get France demoralized and out of the war as they have Russia, and as they are trying to do in Canada. Clemenceau sees very clearly, as any reasoning person must, that efforts to weaken our armies, or delay action, or undermine confidence in the government must originate in German influence and be directed by those who sympathize with the German point of view. They may talk as they please and make loud professions of loyalty. That is the German way. If they set so as to weaken our cause instead of supporting it, all their professions are vain. Clemenceau believes in action, not in talk. He thinks if a man really wishes to win the war he will vote with all his might in that direction, talk for it, vote for it, fight for it. Those who do otherwise are helping Germany.

The War in Europe.

Once more the U-boat campaign has been shown to be ineffective. Only six vessels suffered last week from the ravages of the kaiser's pirates. It is impossible to say to what this remarkable reduction is due. It may be the result of more strength on our part, or more weakness or less opportunity on the part of the enemy. At any rate it is a more staggering blow to German morale than anything that has happened in the military field could be to ours. And morale is as important as men.

Last February the Germans set out to finish the war in three months with the submarine campaign. Three months have only sharpened our wits and settled our determination not to be conquered more firmly than ever. Germany places much reliance on the "will-to-power." Our "will-to-power," once awakened, is something for Germany to meditate upon.

We have need of such encouragement, however, as the submarine figures give us. Russia was a heavy swing on the left, and Italy almost a solar plexus knockout, but we are sparring for wind, and our strength is gathering; and we may show the central powers that their supreme effort thru the Alps, with all the underhand trickery by which the strategic thrust was accompanied, is of no avail. It is just possible that with the stand which Italy is now making, with the British and French troops that are streaming to Italy's assistance, Germany may find that her supreme effort, as we believe it was, has landed her in an impossible situation.

If we can break the German lines in Italy and roll up her forces there the war will be over, for all her spare eggs are in the Italian basket. Germany has no reserves but those she can abstract from the Russian front. She is facing defeat in the west. Her allies are at their last gasp in Mesopotamia and Palestine. A defeat in Italy would leave the kaiser without resource.

All this is well understood by the military authorities. Our success depends on the co-ordination of all our forces. Hence Lloyd George's declaration of policy. Just why the nervous British press should have broken out so hysterically is not very clear, but the premier's reply to Mr. Asquith's questions, were evidently prepared for the premier's purpose, demonstrate that what is being done is what is necessary and inevitable. The next four weeks may settle the fate of Germany.

An Active Service List.

Forty-six pages of names of former pupils of Upper Canada College are included in the provisional active service list, 1914-1917, just issued. The splendid record of the "old boys," so many of them old only by comparison with the junior school, speaks well for the traditions of Canada's big public school; and the issue of the list coincides felicitously with the assumption of the principalship by Major Grant, himself an old boy, and called from active service to take over the command of the old school.

It is early in the day yet to begin to compare U. C. C. with the hoary foundations of the British public schools, whose very name means something different to our Canadian ears, but we have the beginning of great things in Upper Canada College, and after this war it will be difficult indeed for the traditions of the school to fall away from the glorious standards that are now being set.

It is but a short time since we commented upon the national influence such a school exerts. It is not merely educational standards that are affected. All the intangibles are also in question, and it is upon these must finally rest the honor, truth, justice, liberty, for the establishment of which the whole world is fighting. When the old school is solid for these intangibles the scholars go out into the world with high heads and humble hearts, real leaders of the nation.

Other People's Opinions

Exemption Criticism.

Editor World: May I be allowed to protest thru the medium of your paper at the way in which the exemption tribunals are conducted? It appears to me to be very undesirable for reasons that a man's private domestic and business details are published in all the newspapers with such funny (?) remarks as may occur in the newspaper world that these are a breach of the law, and their most private affairs exposed in the press for the gratification of the idle curiosity of all and sundry.

It was publicly stated by Sir Robert Borden that exemption would be granted to those single men having dependants, yet the decisions of the various tribunals do appear to think that an aged widowed mother is not worthy to be considered, and no sympathy is extended to her, which is directly reversing the interpretation of the act, according to the premier's own words, measure, to which no one objects if wisely and intelligently administered.

Can anyone tell me why a young man with a young, strong, healthy wife and no children, or one living apart from his wife (and that is apparently a state very popular in Toronto) should be exempt automatically, whilst one who has an aged and infirm person whom he is in duty bound to look after, as almost without exception how many of the young married men without children, and many with them, have a wife capable of earning more than themselves at munition work, and consequently are really profiteers on a small scale, giving nothing for the country, but holding down a well-paid job, and in short, if an old lady is condemned by the tribunal to shift for herself, why should a young one receive more consideration?

A word more about the aliens: Many belong to countries in the war, such as Italians, etc., and they certainly must regard us as No. 1 suckers. I know several who will benefit infinitely when our boys are called up, and several Canadians not supporting wives. Don't think I am knocking the principle of the draft system, but why, oh, why, must our laws always be framed in such a careless, haphazard manner that allow so much injustice to such a large portion of the people? I recognize we must have conscription—should have had it long ago—but let's do it in a fair and equitable manner. Fair Play.

Notwithstanding present high prices of platinum, production in the Ural during 1916 showed a further decrease. The total output amounted to 85,308 ounces, as compared with 118,709 ounces in 1915; the production in 1913 and 1914 was 158,084 and 156,755 ounces respectively, while in 1909 the output amounted to 214,043 ounces.

THE MEN WHO WON'T FIGHT.

By John S. Steele.

A war problem which has received an importance in England altogether out of its true proportion is that of the conscientious objector to military service, and the solution arrived at has been far from satisfactory. No other among the warring nations has had a similar problem, and the great French democracy has been frankly unable to understand the English method of dealing with it. That there should be cowards and shirkers in any nation, the French understand, but that the authorities should recognize the right of any able-bodied man to refuse to do his duty to his country is a thing that does not appeal to the logical French mind.

It is as well to state at the outset that the problem of the conscientious objector is a very small one. All told there are now only some six thousand men in the hands of the military authorities for refusing military service. Perhaps as many more made a preliminary protest, but did not find their scruples against soldiering strong enough to induce them to undergo imprisonment. A few hundreds managed to get out of the country, and most of them are now in the United States, where some of them were discovered to be assisting in the pro-German pacifist propaganda in the days before America came into the war.

There can be no doubt that a sensible proportion of the conscientious objectors are shirkers pure and simple. They do not want to fight because they are afraid, and they are willing to suffer any obloquy and undergo any discomfort, rather than to risk their precious skins. The true objectors for conscience's sake in Great Britain have divided themselves into two classes. First, members of religious bodies like the Quakers who honestly objected to killing of all kinds, and, second, young "high brow" socialists, so full of the heresy of internationalism that many of them declared themselves before the recruiting tribunals that they would not take up arms to save their own mothers and sisters from outrage or murder by a "brother" German. How unrepresentative of real socialist sentiment their attitude was, is shown by the position taken up by veteran Socialists like Hyndman in England, Herve, in France, and Kerensky, in Russia.

Still another class of "conscientious objectors," however, gave probably more trouble than all the rest put together. This was the group of lawless boys and girls bred in and of the women's suffrage movement, who were in the days of British militancy. For three or four years their highest aim in life had been to harass and annoy the authorities, and their favorite amusement, fighting the police and breaking up public meetings. When they brought the suffrage truce they found themselves without occupation, and they turned to "anti-militarism" as something that promised a continuance of their anti-governmental sport, and might enable them to continue posing as "heroes" and "heroines." The girls, as in the suffrage movement, were the ringleaders, for the only boys who would join their ranks were a weedy lot of young intellectualists, well content to play second fiddle to their petticoated leaders.

This little group deliberately set itself to organize an underground railway by means of which they could be smuggled out of the country. Ships' passports were secured, men were shipped abroad on cattle boats, or were hidden in remote parts of the country, and in general every trick was tried that their effort to escape the nation in its effort to secure military supplies, and to break trade was done in Spanish, Dutch and other neutral passports, and one was not surprised at meeting young Spaniards in England who could not speak a word of Spanish, or Dutchmen who did not know their own country's capital.

The most amazing feature of the agitation in England was the amount of sympathy which it obtained from people who were not in any sense rebels, but who refused to pay their taxes or perform any other civic duty. There is, or rather has been, an exaggerated individualism in England which resents state interference of any kind. It sympathizes with resistance to authority, even when it does not agree with it, and displays itself in all sorts of ways. For instance, the crowd often will help a petty criminal to escape, although he himself knows of him that he is trying to escape, and anyone who is himself in any way against authority on any specific issue always can obtain a following. Also, universal military service was a new thing, and a good deal of play was made by the agitators with the argument that it was part of the Prussian system which England was fighting to destroy. The reply that it was also the system in every democratic country in Europe was ignored.

It was in defence to this feeling and to the demands of its noisy advocates in parliament that the British Government recognized the existence of the conscientious objector and made special provision for dealing with him. Many such men managed to escape all the tribunals set up for the purpose, and they came before them not because they were managed to convince the authorities that they really had religious scruples, and still others simply tried the tribunals out with volatile argument. In some cases the local police, knowing the reputation of the men and desiring that they would only be serving time in trying to compel them to serve, quietly ignored them and in spite of the protest of the military authorities, they have been called at all simply because of their local reputation for truculent argument.

Another method of escaping service was widely adopted by young shirkers, was to take employment in the munition industry in the production of food, and in the post-office and other government departments, and in commercial houses, and scattered one one farm and a few days away from the local authorities, they were after by their organization in London, and the large towns, and advised where employment was to be obtained. The farmers were glad enough to have them because of the scarcity of labor and employed them in spite of the fact that they heartily despised them.

All this does not of course apply to the few genuinely religious people like the Quakers, whose principles really forbid the taking of human life. They have been found willing to do national service, which does not involve the taking of life, and there are thousands of young Quakers in the army. The general body of the Quakers refused to fall into the anti-militarist trap in the early days of the war, and passed a resolution leaving the question of military service to the individual conscience of the young men. ## TREACHERY

CARRANZA BEGINS DRIVE IN OIL AREA

Allied Legations at Washington Fear Interruption in Supply.

SEE GERMAN MOVE

Experts Fear That Fighting May Cause Destruction of Wells.

Washington, Nov. 15.—International apprehension has been aroused by the apparent determination of President Carranza of Mexico to drive the long-unmolested Manuel Palaes and his little rebel army from the oil fields near Tampico. There was evident concern in allied legations and embassies here a feeling that Carranza had played a part in starting this move which may prove embarrassing to the kaiser's enemies. Official reports reaching Washington indicate the effectiveness of his work. Already he has defeated one body of rebel troops and killed Magdalena Cedillo, one of the two Cedillo brothers, who long have been the leaders of the agrarian movement in that part of Mexico. Carranza's order by the war department to change his plans it is expected will be followed after he has moved to the coast and attack Palaes. Representatives of foreign governments display more concern over the news of the campaign against Palaes than they have over any recent development in Mexican affairs. News of minor revolts in different parts of Mexico, even the activities of the Yucatan along the border, have failed to arouse great interest, but the Tampico situation is of vital concern because of the huge volume of oil shipped from that port to the allies.

May Destroy Properties. Carranza has directed campaigns against various rebel chiefs, but never before has made a serious effort to dispossess M. Palaes, who has exacted taxes from the foreigners owning the oil wells, who also were paying heavy taxes to the established government. The Carranza government has not regarded the payment of money by the foreigners to Palaes as a friendly act, but the allies justified their course on the grounds of necessity. In return for the money paid they received immunity. The Carranza government expressed its determination to occupy the grounds of a determined action just now by the Carranza government may result in the long feared attempt to destroy the oil properties. In some quarters here, however, it is believed that Carranza will hesitate to drive the rebels to that point in view of the political and economic dangers involved.

A report from Mexico City indicates some improvement in revolutionary conditions south of the appearance of Zapata in Morelos, and of rebels whose leader is said to be Felix Diaz, in Chiapas, are of sufficient importance to occupy the attention of a large part of the government army.

SCHOOL AT COBourg A PREY TO FLAMES

Town Suffers a Heavy Loss From an Early Morning Blaze.

Special to The Toronto World. Cobourg, Nov. 15.—Cobourg met with a heavy loss from a financial and educational standpoint in the destruction by an early morning fire of its fine public school building on George street, which was erected only a few years ago. It is not known how the fire originated. It was noticed by citizens coming from an early morning train, who gave the alarm. The fire brigade had a difficult task in preventing the fire from spreading to adjoining residences. The second and third floors of the school were undamaged, and the first floor was damaged by smoke and water. The roof is gone, but the walls are standing. There is insurance on the building and contents for $10,000. The loss, however, is a heavy one.

TO BUILD HYDRO RAILWAY

Project Discussed at Meeting Held in Cobourg—Prominent Citizens Present.

Special to The Toronto World. Minden, Nov. 15.—A meeting was held in the town hall here with reference to the building of a hydro-electric railway from Kilmont Junction to Minden. Reeve Holden acted as chairman and H. Sworn as secretary. There was a good attendance. After some discussion it was decided that a committee be appointed to take any steps they think advisable towards urging the hydro people to carry out the project. The committee is composed of prominent citizens and the trustees of the various townships.

VICTORY BOND LETTERS

THE Toronto World wants to know from its readers why people should buy Victory bonds. If you have bought a bond, The World wants to know why you bought it.

WHY I AM BUYING VICTORY LOAN BONDS FOR MY CHILDREN

Editor World: Because I deem it my duty and consider it a great privilege and a blessing to be able to do so, I may not be able to take up a gun to do my bit, but I hope my money serves the same purpose, and why I am buying Victory bonds for my children is because I want to endow them with that patriotic and loyal spirit which in years to come will remind them of the awful lesson that the Hun tried to rob our civilization, but that our Victory loan bonds helped save the day. Fathers, don't hesitate.

TWO GOOD REASONS

Editor World: Heartily commending your request that readers of The World state their reasons for purchasing Victory bonds, I will endeavor to tell you why I have bought Victory bonds for my children. In the first place it gives expression to that inward longing to identify oneself with the forces of democracy.

WHY I BOUGHT A VICTORY BOND

Editor World: I bought a Victory Bond because my country needs my money worse than I do. It needed my family more than I did and I think more of my money than my family.

THE BEST INVESTMENT

Editor World: Why should one hesitate to buy a Victory bond? If he has money in the bank drawing five per cent he can exchange it for a Victory bond drawing five and one-half per cent. Some people have the idea that their money will be used for a purchase of war bonds, but as a matter of fact there could be no more liquid asset—it can be turned into money at any time.

SAFEGUARD THE FUTURE

Editor World: Leaving patriotism to the King Edward Hotel. The tenants of this building unanimously consented to have all the front light shut off back later on without interest. The end of the loan campaign, Mr. Williams himself occupies the ground floor and another floor and has given these offices up entirely to the use of the committee as district headquarters.

DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL

Evidence to the effect that the train had been stopped and that death was accidental was the result of an inquest held at the morgue last night into the death of Charles James, a laborer, who was killed on November 9 when he fell from a train in High Park used to transport sand from the lake front to Catfish Pond.

A PARAMOUNT DUTY

Editor World: It is hard to imagine anybody so completely dead to passing events as not to know why the buying of a Victory Bond is a paramount duty at this time. If there are any such here, goes the way of the nation, democracy, all the good things the ages have given us to make life worth living are in peril of being lost back later on without interest. The government asks no such sacrifice, it is offering to pay five and one-half per cent. for the money, and that is a high interest to win the war, but the United States is paying. Why then should anyone hesitate to buy a Victory bond?

Stylish Business Suits, Dressy Looking Overcoats, $16.50

Measured by today's standard of values, the prices should read $25.00. There's so wide a difference between $16.50 and $25.00 that the news of this spectacular offering from our Men's Clothing Section will bring comfort and peace of mind to many a man who has been wondering where the new outfit was to come from if he had to 'dig up'—to use the vernacular—$25.00 for the suit and another $25.00 for the overcoat. $33.00, you see, covers both under the selling plan that we've arranged for today and Saturday.

A combination of circumstances have contributed to this sale. To tell the story in full would take too much space, but the situation, summed up briefly, is that one of Canada's foremost manufacturers, after giving his best efforts to the production of the finest tailored suits and overcoats he could make, overestimated the outlet possibilities, and in order to get 'from under' made us a price for all his best goods, which enables us to offer these finely-tailored suits and overcoats at the ridiculously low price of $16.50 for the choice.

- Overcoats $16.50: Young Men's Overcoats, in fancy mixed fleeces... Overcoats $16.50: Men's Slip-on and Single-breasted... Ulsters $16.50: Men's Ulsters, in a variety of mixed effects... Suits $16.50: Men's Suits, in a three-button sack...

OFFICIALS APPOINTED FOR SATURDAY'S GAME

The meeting of the Capitals and Tigers at Hamilton on Saturday in the crucial game of the O.R.F.U. is causing more than usual interest. The Caps and Tigers are perhaps two of the best known Rugby clubs, that is from a developing point, in these parts. It is seldom they have met on the gridiron. In the past the Tigers have played in the Big Four, and the Caps in the O.R.F.U., and for that reason their meetings were few and far between. The locals have not forgotten the last time they clashed with the Bengals, and it will be remembered that they will go into Saturday's fray with a record of 10 to 1 in the Canadian championship that the Caps won in Hamilton. The Tigers have been in the O.R.F.U. for some time, and their defeat is a stain on the Caps' record.

KAISER IS CONFIDENT U-BOATS WILL PREVAIL

Tells German Sailors Subs Are Playing a Decisive Part in the War. Amsterdam, Nov. 15.—The German Emperor, according to a Berlin despatch, addressing the crews of the U-boat crews in the Adriatic, and referring to the development of the U-boats, said that a voyage of three or four weeks was now an every-day occurrence, and declared that development of the U-boats had not reached its highest point. He expressed gratification at the amount of tonnage sunk in the Mediterranean, which, he said, showed that the U-boats had fulfilled what had been expected of them. Submarine warfare would have a decisive part in the final outcome of the war, and would not be stopped until the enemy was vanquished.

BEACHES ARE VICTORS OVER VARSITY TEAM

The first match of the season was played at Varsity last night when Beaches defeated Varsity, 4 to 2. Through the kind offices of Prof. Kerr, the match was held in the comfortable quarters of the Faculty Union. The play was somewhat closer than the score indicates, and the match really puts a feather in the caps of our own Beaches men, who are the champions of Toronto and the champion of Canada. Mr. Lane and Mr. Morrison. The score: Beaches: S. J. Morrison, 0; *Paul Morrison, 1; H. J. Lane, 1; B. E. Fernow, 0; Wm. Cawell, 0; G. H. Neeldler, 1; E. B. Merrill, 1; Maurice Hutton, 0; T. TIPPITY WITCHET TO RACE AT BOWIE

Horsemen Have Left Pimlico for Closing Meet of Maryland Racing.

Baltimore, Nov. 15.—Horsemen are now pretty well shipped from Pimlico to Bowie, the final stop of Maryland racing in 1917. Next Monday, the curtain will be lifted on the thoroughbred struggle on Maryland's newest race course.

With the exception of Campfire and Straightforward, all of the horses, the property of the present Maryland racing association, which were imported here, were taken to Bowie by Tom Healey, who is a smart field of sprinters who will go to the post, and in which the most prominent stables will be represented.

The continuation of clear weather will enable Dick Fending, the track in general, to have the opening of the season for several weeks, and it will be faster for this month's meeting than in any other year.

General Manager James F. O'Hara did not let money stand in the way of improvements, and everything has been done for the comfort and convenience of the patrons of the sport at Prince George Park, and, despite the earliness of the spring event and the lateness of the fall season, the sport at Prince George Park was a successful one.

Christian Temperance Union at Beaches is Taking Active Part in Municipal Politics.

Ward One civic candidates' public records and personal qualities will be discussed with independence at a meeting of the Beaches W.C.T.U. at Kew Beach Presbyterian Church Monday afternoon. Mrs. Toye, president of the Beaches branch of the W.C.T.U. said yesterday that the qualifications of municipal candidates throughout the city would be reported upon at a special meeting of the Toronto district W.C.T.U. on the 23rd. While the advice of the district electoral committee of the candidates would be carefully considered, the representatives of the local branches, Mrs. Toye said, would have the deciding voice respecting the candidates to be endorsed in their respective wards.

When the Beaches W.C.T.U. hospital visitors were paying a visit to the military base hospital on Gerrard street, which is in their district, Mrs. Toye found four young soldiers, two from outside points in Ontario, and two from the United States, who were total strangers to Toronto and had no acquaintances here. POLITICAL NEWS

Mr Robert Borden is on his way back to Ottawa. As soon as the official nominations are made on Monday...

The form of ballot also permits the voter to vote for an independent candidate, but such a vote will be counted as a vote for the recognized leader of the independent party.

Sec. 15, Part 5, provides: A vote for a party shall be counted as a vote for the candidate or candidates who have been recognized as the candidates for the party in the electoral district to which the vote has been cast.

While the government will pick up some seats in Quebec, it seems to be generally conceded that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will have a majority of from 40 to 45 in that province.

The best the Liberals can hope for is an even break east of Manitoba, and the government feels absolutely certain of carrying 46 of the 57 seats west of Lake Superior.

It must also be remembered that a number of the opposition candidates are pledged up to the hilt to support the government on the conscription issue and other issues respecting the conduct of the war.

The Toronto Star says: John B. Holden, well-known member of the law firm of Holden & Grover, is to be Liberal-Unionist in the next election.

Dr. Corby, Harrison P.O., Ont., says: "Our little girl was weak from birth, and though we tried doctors' medicine and other things, she got no better."

Dr. Cassell's Tablets are the supreme remedy for Dyspepsia, Kidney Troubles, Weakness, Anemia, Nervous Ailments, and all the ailments of the system.

Greater Love Hath No Man Than This

Half hidden in the files of the London Gazette, where it is set forth with all the pomp and circumstance of official language, is a story of self-sacrifice that stands out pre-eminently, even in this age of deeds of superlative courage and heroism.

The record is contained in the announcement of the award of the Albert Medal of the First Class to Lance-Corporal Charles Henry Anderson, late of the 1-14th Battalion of the London Regiment, who lost his life in France in November last.

The official narrative is as follows:—On November 28, 1916, Lance-Corporal Anderson was in a hut in France, with eleven other men, when, accidentally, the safety-pin was withdrawn from a bomb.

Falling to do this, when he judged that the five seconds during which the fuse was timed to burn had elapsed, he held the bomb as close to his body as possible with both hands in order to screen the other men in the hut.

Anderson sacrificed his life to save his comrades.

When history opens the purple testament of bleeding war . . . .

every man and woman who has played a part will bear a record.

Your name may not be writ among those of the immortals—

But for honour's sake—for the sake of men like Anderson—see to it that it is writ on the Scroll with those who at least placed their money at the service of their country.

Shall it be said that Canada spares not her sons from the sacrifice of death, yet withholds her dollars needed to give them victory?

DIDN'T HAVE WELL DURHAM UNIONISTS DAY IN TWO YEARS NOMINATE ROWELL

Mrs. Spickett Has New Life Former Provincial Liberal and Energy Since Leader is Enthusiastically Taking Tanlac. Received.

"Honestly, it's the first time in two years I have been free from suffering, and I can't praise Tanlac too highly for what it has done for me," said Mrs. Jane Spickett, of 481 Durie street, recently.

"My troubles," Mrs. Spickett continued, "were indigestion, nervousness and a general run-down condition, and I was never able to get anything to relieve me until I got Tanlac. My appetite was very poor. I didn't rollish any kind of food and the little I did eat always hurt me. I would sleep up something awful after eating, and was constantly belching up sour gas and undigested food. I had weak, trembling spells, was very nervous, and had an unusual chill would completely be on me. My nerves just seemed to be on edge all the time. I couldn't sleep well and would get up in the middle of the night and all work out. I simply felt dead all the time, had no life or energy, and would drag around like some one half dead."

"After reading the Tanlac testimonials I decided if it was helping others it would help me, too, and it certainly has done me a world of good. When I finished my first bottle I could tell I was improving. I felt stronger and my appetite was much better. I am on my feet, and I feel tired and worn out most of the time. They simply need something to build them up and throw off the symptoms of this weakened debilitated condition.

The system, besides being purified by Tanlac, is toned up and invigorated, as the medicine acts from assisting the blood, reinvigorates the constitution, overcomes, as it seems to quickly, nervousness, indigestion, non-assimilation of food, headaches, backache, kidney derangements, general debility and many other ailments that are so common to the thousands of half-sick, depressed men and women.

Tanlac is sold in Toronto by Tamplin's Drug Stores. A special Tanlac representative is at the 232 Yonge street store meeting the public and explaining the merits of the medicine. (Advertisement.)

Centre Toronto Upholds Union. Edmund Bristol to Be Candidate There in Coming Election.

A. DRAIMIN OBJECTS. Sir Edward Kemp and Hon. R. Blain Among Speakers.

Edmund Bristol, who received the unanimous nomination as union candidate in Centre Toronto.

Laurier Government had passed in 1904. Under the old law boys of 16 and old men of 60 could be taken for military service and every able-bodied man in Canada, between 16 and 60, could be called upon to go to the war.

Archibald Draymin occupied a seat in the front row and was the first to speak. He objected to about everything that was proposed and interrupted the speaker for and in time to time until Chairman R. Starr threatened to have him ejected from the hall.

When the nominations were called for Dr. Norman Allen, in an eloquent speech, proposed the name of E. W. Owens, M.L.A. Mr. Bristol was nominated by Dr. Charles R. Sheard. No ballot, however, was taken. Mr. Owens was not present, and Dr. Sheard explained that he had no authority from Mr. Owens to present his name, moved that the nomination of Mr. Bristol be made unanimous.

A resolution expressing confidence in the union government was carried with enthusiastic applause.

Mr. Bristol, in accordance with the resolution, said there were only two parties in this country, viz. the Unionist party and the Laurierites. Every man who voted for Sir Robert, whether he would vote for Sir Robert or not, was voting for the Laurierites.

Senator Blain eulogized the national policy of protection and said that it would not be interfered with by the federal government. He pointed out that the Laurierites were the only party in the country who were in favor of the Laurierites.

While its status was several times questioned by staunch adherents of the Liberal party a meeting of the East Toronto Liberals, held last night, selected Frank Regan as the Laurier candidate to oppose Sir Edward Kemp in the coming election. There was no doubt as to the popularity of Regan, who had made good his promise of a "happy family" in the east end of the city. The announcement that names would be received in nomination was met by a hurried choice of Mr. Regan not only surprised a large number of the audience, but led to suggest a "convention" meeting to select a candidate and to discuss the merits of the candidates. They questioned the authority of the Laurierites to select a candidate and to discuss the merits of the candidates. They pointed out that the Laurierites had no authority to select a candidate and to discuss the merits of the candidates. Always Had Headaches. Liver Was Torpid and Bilious Spells Brought Sick Headaches—Lost Much Time, But is Now Completely Cured.

Newtown, N.B., Nov. 15.—Here is convincing evidence that how-torpid your liver may suffer from liver trouble and biliousness. Here is evidence in the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the most common cause of biliousness. Biliousness usually accompanied by headache, dizziness, and vomiting. The bowels become irregular, constipation and looseness alternating, digestion is upset and you get irritable and downhearted.

No treatment so quickly awakens the action of the liver and bowels as this reason this medicine is wonderful. It is popular and has enormous sales.

Mr. Charles R. Tait, Newtown, N.B., writes: "I was nearly always troubled with headaches and would often have many a night's sleep every month with bilious sick headaches, and although I purchased many other medicines, it was without success. When I had these headaches I would vomit and could keep nothing on my stomach."

I purchased a box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills from G. M. Fairweather, druggist, of Sussex, N.B., and after taking one box I was so much relieved that I continued to take them until I am now completely cured. My headache is gone, my bowels are regular, and I am now able to do my work as usual.

Mr. A. S. Mace, J.P., endorses the above statement and says: "This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with Charles R. Tait, and believe his statement in every way to be true and correct."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers. Toronto, Substitutes will only dealers. Insist on getting what you ask for.

Live Stock Market
The Union Stock Yards Market closed fairly strong for the week yesterday from anything from the week's quotations. Good butcher steers and heifers, and butcher cows, and good quality stockers and feeders were all strong. The packing houses have been 'fed-up' on the poorer class of cattle, and it is no wonder the market closed weak and draggy for this class of stuff.

Butchers and springers are holding fairly steady, but backward springers are not wanted and hard to sell.

Choice sheep, lambs and calves, yesterday at from $16 to $16.50; light sheep, $11.50 to $12.50; heavy fat sheep and ducks, $9 to $12.50; and ewes for breeding purposes, $12.50 to $14.

There was a light run of calves; choice calves, $15.50; medium calves, $11 to $13.50; grazers and common calves, $7 to $8.50; and heavy fat calves, $7.50 to $11.

The hog market was strong at the advance of 25c over yesterday's price, at $13.75 and watered, $12.25 to $13.75 and $13.75 f.o.b. Just what the outlook is it is hard to determine, and the hog market is a good deal of a mystery to next week's prices.

Total receipts 71 cars, choice, 105 calves, also hogs, and 1202 sheep and lambs.
