THE BRITISH GIVE GERMANS NO CHANCE TO DIG TRENCHES

Defence Now By Machine Gun and Shell Crater Warfare

ARTILLERY WORK TERRIFIC

Trench Work Shattered and Diggers Killed Almost as Soon as Started—Enemy Chains Men to Guns to Prevent Them From Fleeing

With the British Army in France, Aug. 17 (via London, 18)—The torrential rain today and yesterday made it an inconceivably miserable night for the German gunners, with their posts in shell craters filled with water up to their necks. The Germans seem to have definitely given up trying to dig any trenches along the front where the British hold the high ground, and on the other hand the British have been digging in every trench that is started, and kills the diggers.

German Blow Heavy But Haig Stood It

Not Only That But Gained Ground—Wedge Threatens Pocketing of Both Thiepval and Martinpuich

New York, Aug. 18.—Cabling last night, the Tribune's London correspondent says: "The German counter-blow at the British line today, but it was beaten back with severe losses. Haig's troops stood their ground despite six rushes in a storm of shell fire, and turned the assault so thoroughly that they were able to advance their line on a narrow front."

Then the British assailed the German line northwest of Bazentin, lying east of Pozieres, and succeeded in capturing 100 yards of trenches. The German counter-attack, but were repulsed again.

In an effort to dislodge this wedge, the Kaiser's troops attacked on a broad front and with strong forces last night and this morning. Haig's guns set up six successive curtains of fire, through which the enemy could not penetrate.

The relief of the French at Verdun has perhaps been achieved to a certain degree, although our determined attacking activities have not been diminished by the Somme battle.

TURKEY AND BULGARIA NOT ADVERSE TO SEPARATE PEACE

Sounding the Allies but Negotiations Long Way Off—Pope Said to Believe Now That Peace Will Come Only Through Victory of Allies

Rome, Aug. 18.—(New York Times cable)—Reports are coming from east, west and south, concerning efforts by Turkey and Bulgaria to make separate peace with the allies. However, the papers warn the public not to put too much faith in such rumors, as, while there is a grain of truth in them, the governments of those countries have taken no steps to that end.

Said Dr. Davies, health officer of Bristol port, to a correspondent today: "The three cases have been traced to rats which, it is supposed, were inoculated purposely with bubonic plague. There is no evidence that the disease was brought here on a ship, nor that the infection came from America. The method by which the disease was introduced is obscure, but is being investigated carefully."

SEE CAPTURED SUBMARINE IN TOW; NOT SURE IT WAS THE BREMEN

Passengers To New York Bring Report From Vicinity of Deal

WARSHIPS AND ESCORTS

Cunarder's Officers Say Cruisers Had in Tow Boat Resembling Submarine and Were Steaming in Direction of Sheerness, Where is a Naval Yard

New York, Aug. 17.—The passengers who arrived from London on the Cunarder Albatross were confident that they had seen the new German commercial submarine Bremen in tow of two British warships off Deal on Sunday night, August 6, when their vessel was at anchor in the Downs. The officers and crew of the Albatross admitted they had seen what they believed to be a captured submarine passing through the Downs, but could not say that it was the Bremen.

The Albatross was due to leave Tilbury Docks, London, on August 8, but on account of a shortage in her crew she had to wait two days in the River Thames and arrived in the Downs on Sunday, about noon, when she was ordered to anchor. The Cunarder had no guns to protect her from German submarines and she had to wait there forty-eight hours, while several armed merchantmen went to sea.

Just after dark on Sunday night, two cruisers approached the Albatross, coming from the channel, and towing a long covered boat, resembling a submarine, that was along on chains made fast on board the two warships. There were three destroyers astern and two ahead, and all seven vessels were standing about ten knots through the Downs, toward Sheerness, where there is a naval dockyard.

SALLIE FISHER TONIGHT AT IMPERIAL
It's hard to describe the good points of a picture-play in advance. Seeing is always the best test and if tonight's patrons at Imperial do not enjoy Sallie Fisher in Howard McKents Barnes' delightful story, 'The Little Shepherd of Bargain Row,' it will be because pictures have lost their value as entertainers.

HARD TO BEAT GEMS END-THE-WEEK BILL
Tonight and tomorrow the Gem will present Mac Marsh and Robert Harrow in a big story of the Paris underworld and the notorious Apaches, 'A Child of the Paris Streets.' Joe Jackson is looking after the comedy in 'The Lion and the Girl.' It is out of the ordinary and fully up to the Gem's reputation for the best.

CHARACTER OF THE AUSTRALIAN SOLDIER
Critics say there is no discipline in an Australian army. From the continental standpoint there is not. Australians they order promptly and intelligently, but retain their individuality. General Birdwood delights in relating experiences characteristic of the men of Anzac.

GEN. WOLFE'S KENTISH HOME
Canadian Government's Position—Purchaser of Property Died Before He Carried Out Intention of Conveying Property to Dominions
In May, 1913, the historic mansion 'Quebec House,' at Westerham, Kent, England, dating from the sixteenth century, and known as the early dwelling of the illustrious General Wolfe, came into the market. A patriotic citizen of Montreal, J. B. Learmont, feeling that the property might fall into improper hands, came forward and purchased it for the sum of £20,000. A few weeks later he wrote to the governor-general, the Duke of Connaught, announcing his intention of presenting the house to the Canadian people, to be used as a museum of relics and records commemorative of both Wolfe and Montcalm, victor and vanquished in the great struggle which resulted in the addition of Canada to the British Empire, and begging the government's acceptance of the gift. Considerable delay, however, occurred, and when at length the government announced its formal acceptance, the donor, Mr. Learmont, had died.

Her father has returned from New York, where he went last week to say good-bye to his daughter.

EASILY CAUGHT
An attractive young lady and her mother, in search of adventure, took shelter for a time in a fashionable hotel. The young lady placed herself well in the light of day by her gay apparel and her carefree manner. Her mother kept wisely in the seclusion of her suite of rooms. In time a young man of considerable wealth and negligible wisdom espied the bewitching maiden and resolved to make her acquaintance that he might pass the time more gayly. She accepted his advances gracefully and said: 'Kind sir, I should like to have you meet my mother, so that our delightful flirtation may bear the outward marks of propriety.' The young man unwittingly consented and was soon hopelessly married and taking orders from a terminant mother-in-law. 'Those who are after a good time are usually in for a tough one—Judge.'

Those to whom nature has given extra good vision are apt to be rather proud of it and nearly always abuse it.
The commonest complaints we hear are regrets for impaired sight, which was once above the average.
Good vision is precious. Health, happiness and prosperity depend upon it, yet our eyes are being persistently ill-treated and little attention is given to preserve their usefulness.
The symptoms of eye-strain should be heeded.

Canadian Government's Position—Purchaser of Property Died Before He Carried Out Intention of Conveying Property to Dominions
In May, 1913, the historic mansion 'Quebec House,' at Westerham, Kent, England, dating from the sixteenth century, and known as the early dwelling of the illustrious General Wolfe, came into the market. A patriotic citizen of Montreal, J. B. Learmont, feeling that the property might fall into improper hands, came forward and purchased it for the sum of £20,000. Considerable delay, however, occurred, and when at length the government announced its formal acceptance, the donor, Mr. Learmont, had died.

It was found that no mention was made of the bequest in his will; consequently the property became included in the general estate. A legal difficulty arose, it being contended that the executor could not now dispose of the house, as it was, together with the rest of the Learmont estate, held in trust for the heirs, with a special act of legislation. Mr. Learmont's widow declared that she was ready to carry out her husband's wishes.

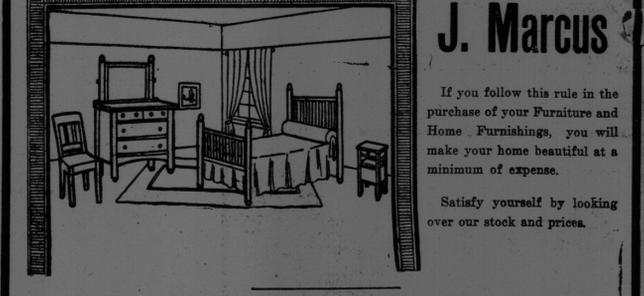

Meanwhile the cost of maintenance (£100 per annum) has been defrayed by the Learmont estate. At the beginning of the war both Mrs. Learmont and the Canadian government, acting as prospective owners, authorized the use of Quebec House for patriotic purposes, and at one time forty soldiers were quartered there. Since then it has been used as a War Hospital Supply Depot by a local committee of ladies, now working exclusively for the Canadian Military Hospital at Orpington, Kent.

Quebec House is frequently visited by Canadians and others, amongst them being the Prime Minister, Sir Robert Borden, in August, 1915, who declared that he and his colleagues only waited for a perfect title in order to take charge of this historic mansion. It is now felt that unless definite steps are at once taken to legalize the transfer, in spite of the goodwill of both parties, the Wolfe house will be lost to the public. It remains to be added that offers have lately been received by the Learmont trustees from Americans and others to acquire the property. The vicar of Westerham feels that if only the facts were known to the Canadian people some means might be found of carrying Mr. Learmont's intentions into effect and making Quebec House a shrine in England for Canadian visitors and objects of Canadian interest.

An exhibition of enemy products which has just been opened at Birmingham, includes razors priced by Germans at fifteen pence a dozen, knives at 25s. a thousand, 'antiseptic' umbrellas, which open fully on the pressure of a spring, at 25c. a dozen, and trousers at 2s. 2d. a pair.

IMPRESSED BY ROLE OF WOMEN IN WAR

Englishmen Now Raise Their Hats as a Mark of Respect

Back after a visit to England, J. M. Gibbon, general publicity agent of the C. P. R., says that nothing impressed him so much as the part now being played by women as wage earners. Before the war, he said, Englishmen took their hats to women out of courtesy; to-day they do it out of respect, for these women are moving themselves able to do work faithfully and well, which had hitherto been considered beyond their province and capacity. On the railways, they are now being employed as locomotive and car cleaners, track greasers, station agents, porters for hand baggage and express packages, ticket examiners and booking clerks, while on the Underground Railway in London they are elevator attendants. For the rougher work they wear pants and overalls. In the railway restaurants the man waiter, who as often as not used to be a German, is now an Englishwoman.

The incursion of these women into positions hitherto filled by men has created no ill-feeling in England, as it has from the first been recognized that they have taken employment so as to relieve men for the front.

Girls of good family have volunteered for all kinds of work, as well as those to whom a wage is a necessity. Owing to the shortage of farm labor they are working in the fields just as hard as any continental peasant woman. Mr. Gibbon found one lady of his acquaintance, member of a well-known family in the north of England, hoing turnips at threepence an hour, handing over her earnings to the Red Cross. Such women are insisting on receiving a fair wage, so that they cannot be accused of doing anyone out of a job, but those who are able to afford it are devoting their wages to patriotic purposes. Now that conscription up to the age of 41 has come into effect, women will step still further into men's shoes, but the prospect causes no misgivings as those who are already at work have shown that they can "deliver the goods."

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. W. F. Roberts has decided that an inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death of Geo. B. Hall, whose body was found in the harbor is not necessary. The body was taken this morning to Apohaqui where a brother lives.

A picnic was to be held by the Rotary Club at Digby or at Rockwood Park on the Saturday immediately preceding the big Labor Day patriotic celebration, is indefinitely postponed.

William Cogswell, a member of the chain gang, made an attempt to get away yesterday by boarding a passing train on the I. C. R. track at Courtenay Bay. Guard Evans followed and captured him. It meant a jump from the train for both.

H. R. McLELLAN HEADS MUNICIPALITIES UNION

At the Union of N. B. Municipalities meeting yesterday afternoon in St. Stephen, a paper on the utilities commission and its power, prepared by G. O. Dickson City, was read by J. King Kelley, K. C., and was well received. It is to be printed.

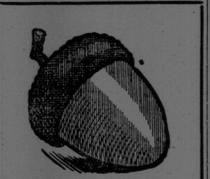

J. W. McCready, of Fredericton, secretary, was made a life member. Mr. McCready's absence on account of illness was much regretted.

A resolution was passed to the effect that St. Croix harbor is a valuable asset in the transportation problems of Canada, and to recommend to the minister of public works of Canada its early equipment as a port for transatlantic trade. The following resolution was also passed:—

"That if connection be made between the government railways of the maritime provinces and the railway system of the New England States it seems to us desirable that the connection be made at St. Stephen."

The following officers were elected: President, H. McLeelan, St. John; vice-president, Mayor Mitchell, Fredericton; secretary, J. King Kelley, St. John; additional executive members are: John T. O'Brien, Fairville; J. M. Lemont, Fredericton; Parker Grimmer, St. Stephen; A. T. LeBlanc, Shediac; C. A. Alexander, Campbellton; Elwood Allen, Marysville; R. W. Wignome, St. John; F. E. Sharp, Norton; Geo. F. Esterbrook, Sackville; Frank Taylor, Hoyt; Harry A. Smith, Fredericton; Arthur Ridgwell, Plaster Rock.

The place of meeting on invitation of President McLeelan was fixed at St. John and time August 22.

MORE N. B. MEN IN CASUALTY LIST

The names of six maritime province men appear in the midnight casualty list:—Killed in action, Pioneer Alex Cyr, Shipagan; Perley Graham, Bel River. Wounded, Gunner Tennyson A. McDonald, Boiestown; George W. Manship, Cape Tormentine; Frank Walker, St. John; Claude Young, St. Andrews.

Private Frank Walker mentioned in the casualty list is a son of Mrs. Charles Walker, 92 Kennedy street. He is suffering from shell shock and has been admitted to No. 30 General Hospital, Calais.

Returns to Trenches

Word has been received by Mrs. Douglas J. Howe, 205 Metcalf street, to the effect that her brother, William A. Davis of the 26th Battalion has returned to the trenches after being wounded.

Capt. Percy McAvity

Sir Frederick Williams Taylor, general manager of the Bank of Montreal, passed through the city last evening, after a visit to the western front. Sir Frederick's only son is now fighting in the British army.

When asked if he saw any St. John men while at the front, he said: "I did, indeed. By coincidence I ran into the 26th Battalion, who were holding an outstanding position at Ypres. I had the pleasure of a walk with my friend, Captain Percy McAvity of that battalion and of your city, a soldierly and capable officer of whom St. John may be proud."

Soldiers Entertained

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. White were hosts for twenty returned soldiers of the Parks' Convalescent Home and the military hospital in St. James street at their summer home in Robbsey yesterday. Through the generosity of Dr. and Mrs. White, E. L. Rising, John E. Moore, James D. Taylor, S. H. Mayes, Frederick Schofield and R. B. Emerson, six cars were placed at the disposal of the soldiers. The men were given a very pleasant outing.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 18, 1916

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co. Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint-Stock Companies Act.

THE PRIMARIES.

The opposition primaries last evening were marked by an air of business and of confidence. There was a large attendance, which included some who were former supporters of the provincial government, but who are now strong in their desire for its defeat.

Smith was not first choice, but seems to have been quite willing to play second fiddle to Mr. Mahoney. It is to be regretted that the government refused to have the charges in relation to the patriotic potatoes investigated, but to bring out all the facts a sworn inquiry was necessary, and this was refused.

SOUTH WEST TORONTO

The provincial by-election in South West Toronto is much more than usually exciting. There are four candidates, as follows: James Abbott Norris, government candidate, insurance agent.

CARLETON COUNTY

Mr. F. B. Carvell, M.P., is mentioned by the Standard as the chief issue in the coming provincial by-election in Carleton county. There is a reason for this. The political record of the provincial government and of the Hon. B. Frank Smith is not a pleasing topic of discussion, and every effort will be made to divert public attention to something else.

The people of the province will not believe, unless it is shown at the polls, that any of the electors of Carleton county would value more highly an opportunity to vent personal feeling against Mr. Carvell, who is not a candidate, than to vindicate the good name of the constituency by voting against a government which has disgraced the province.

The Standard intimates that the election will be held on Sept. 21. If there is a month for preparation and discussion, and although this is the busiest season among the farmers they will find time to strike a blow for better government. It will not be denied that Mr. Smith is a resourceful politician. He will not be over-scrupulous in his methods of getting votes.

So far as the opposition is concerned, it will be a clean election. The government candidates are already challenged to agree to a joint committee to see that money and liquor are not used in the campaign.

THE NEW MINISTER

The man described by a stalwart supporter of the provincial government as one who has given the party trouble enough is now a member of the government. The hero of the patriotic potato affair has been placed in a position where he will have a still freer hand. The government has given another proof of its utter disregard for public sentiment.

HAVE YOU HEARD

that eczema cases, which have defied all other treatment, yield to Zam-Buk? An illustration of this is found in the case of Mr. J. L. Frenette, of Nigadoo, N.B. He writes: "My head was entirely covered with eczema, and although I tried numerous remedies and received medical treatment, I got no benefit. Then I heard of Zam-Buk and tried it. The first few applications stopped the burning. Gradually the inflammation was drawn out, and before long the sores began to heal. Persistence with Zam-Buk resulted in a complete and permanent cure."

ZAM-BUK

LIGHTER VEIN

They Needed It Most. A regiment was drawn up for church parade in the barrack square, but the church was being repaired, and it was found that it could only hold half of them.

Just Outmeal

A Scottish farmer was being questioned by a lawyer in a local court. "You affirm that when this happened you were going home a man?" said the lawyer. "Let us be quite certain on this point, because it is a very important one. Be good enough to tell me what meal it was you were going home to."

A Wife's Wit

"I've got a new, witty wife," boasts Solomon Beach. "I get most of my good stuff from her, to tell you the truth. Sometimes, though, her wit is a bit too sharp for comfort. Now, the other evening I came home feeling sort of mean. I had a corn that was raising blisters with me and I wasn't in the best of humor. Well, I came limping up the walk, and my wife stood at the door, eyeing me suspiciously."

St. John Opposition Rallies in the Wards - Delegates Chosen - The List

That there is a widespread desire upon the part of the citizens of St. John for a general house-cleaning in provincial politics, was quite obvious from the attendance and enthusiasm last night at the ward primaries preparatory to the general convention in the city.

What is the "Violiform?"

THE "Violiform" is to piano-construction what the genius of Stradivari was to the making of his marvellous violins. It means beautiful tone which improves with age. The "Violiform" method of designing and making the tone-developing parts is exclusive to the

Martin-Orme Piano

Like that of a violin the Martin-Orme's soundboard is rounded with a scientific nicety which reflects musical sound perfectly, producing that full, rich, mellow tone for which the Martin-Orme is famous. The Martin-Orme soundboard is carefully moulded into shape, and is held by improved braces which strain cannot warp.

Reliable Grocers

GROCEARY MARKET.

The following comment on the market situation as regards food stuffs appeared in Canadian Grocer last week:—
Office of Publication, Aoronto, Aug. 10.—One of the features of the market during the last week has been a further jump in the price of flour. With the continued soaring of wheat prices flour moved upward. Reports from Winnipeg state that damage is not nearly as serious in Manitoba, as some elements would like the market to believe. Rumors have also been afloat that certain parts of Saskatchewan and Alberta have been visited by east. Mill men in Winnipeg assert their belief that the increased price of wheat is due largely to a bull element in the wheat market. They are of the opinion the market will decline as soon as the real facts respecting conditions become known. If, however, the bulls are successful in keeping these reports afloat there is no doubt that both wheat and flour will continue to advance further. It is significant, however, that the reports issued by the Manitoba Department of Agriculture on August 2 state that out of twelve districts in various sections of the province on which returns were made, seven report rust, while the remaining five have no signs of rust. Those districts having rust grade from much rust to very little.

A further decline in the price of sugar is recorded for all sections of the Dominion. Corn meal has advanced in price in conformity with the high price of corn. Corn is now selling at the highest mark for several years past. Hot weather in the western United States corn belt is reported to have largely damaged the crop. Lemons continue firm at a high price, owing to the big demand and shortage of supplies. Fruit is somewhat scarce owing to the continued dry weather. Ontario peaches are beginning to reach the market and are of medium size and quality. Cooked meats continue in big demand and live hogs have had a big advance during the week. Packers in certain sections of the Dominion have accordingly advanced the price of the main lines of pork products.

The wedding of Miss Mary Cann and Thomas G. Perry, of Havelock, Kings county, was solemnized on August 16 in South Ohio, N. S. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Jenkins. Some Midway at South Bay Fair Saturday.

Bank Ends Long Search for Kin of Cullen, Drowned in 1867. A tragedy of the sea of half a century ago was resurrected in the New York Surrogate's court recently, when letters of administration were applied for to the estate of James Cullen, who went down with the ship Monarch when she sank in mid-ocean in 1867 with all on board. Cullen lived in New York before he went aboard on the ill-fated trip, and while there made a deposit in the Seaman's Bank for Savings, which now amounts to $461.

FIFTY YEARS OF PRUSSIANISM

Germany has had just fifty years of Prussian domination. It was on Aug. 18, 1866, that the sceptre passed from Hapsburg to Hohenzollern. Thirtieth great dynasties had successively been at the head of the Germanic world, since Carthagenian times. The Saxons, the Franks, the Hohenstauffs and the Hapsburgs; and of these the last named had held the longest and most splendid sway. None of these, however, had attempted to exert absolute domination over the Teutonic states, or to impress them all with his own particular policies or doctrines. Even Austria, under all the absolutism of the Metternich regime, was content to be a prima inter pares. The imperial dignity was nominal, and when it altogether lapsed and the Germanic Confederation was created that Holy Roman Empire which was neither Holy nor Roman, nor yet an Empire, was inaugurated with acceptance at Augsburg on Aug. 4, when, at Prussia's dictation, the Diet of the Germanic Confederation voted that confederation's dissolution. A little later, on Aug. 18, Prussia and fifteen lesser states formed the North German Confederation, from which of course Austria was excluded and of which Prussia exercised absolute leadership. Finally, on Aug. 24, the old Diet met once more, for the last time, for the purpose, decency and in order, of adjourning with delay. The natural sequence came a few years later in the transformation of the North German Confederation into the German Empire. But all these things were inevitably implied in that act of Aug. 4, when the Germanic Confederation was dissolved by the Diet at Augsburg. It was as the political and diplomatic changes thus effected and spectacular as was the substitution of Hohenzollern for Hapsburg primacy in the Teutonic world, something immeasurable of Prussia's, or the Prussian, or the Germanic, or the European, or the world, at large was therein involved. This was the act of Prussia's, or the Prussian, or the Germanic, or the European, or the world, at large was therein involved. This was the act of Prussia's, or the Prussian, or the Germanic, or the European, or the world, at large was therein involved.

AFRAID TO SIGN NAMES

(Hartland Observer) The St. John Standard and other Conservative newspapers of the province are these days distinguishing themselves by the publication of anonymous diatribes of abuse of well known men. The chief object of their vindictiveness is Frank B. Carvell. These articles to date do not, and would not if boiled down into good newspaper English, bring a solitary charge that in even remote degree can damage the character or reputation of Mr. Carvell, or of any one else.

ITALY'S STRENGTH

Vivid Description by a French Observer on Italian Front. M. Pichon, who recently returned to Paris after a trip to the Italian front has been giving his impressions to the French press. He insists that out of the 8,000,000 men that Italy was enabled to call up immediately to call up 2,400,000 have been enrolled, and there is no reason to fear that if the need arises, the figure of 8,000,000 will not easily be surpassed. Italy, he estimates, is faced by some 700,000 Austrians.

SALMON RIVER MILL

M. H. Tufts of the Pilepoint Pulp and Paper Company, Great Salmon River, says that after the new mill which the company is erecting in place of that destroyed by fire is rapidly nearing completion. It is expected that the machinery will be in position in September and that the plant will be ready for next year's cut. The new mill will be the last word in the way of a modern saw mill, and will have a capacity equal to any demand which the company may be called to make.

THE BYE-ELECTIONS

The Standard says it is reported that the date for the bye-election in Carleton county will be September 21, with nominations on September 14. Both Carleton vacancies will be filled by the same election.

CANALS IN THE WAR

The historian will tell the next generation about the enormous value of canals in this European war. Over exactly the caravan route traveled by the Crusaders 800 years ago the Germans have a canal from the Rhine to the Danube. It is therefore possible to send a submarine from Cologne to the Black Sea with as much freedom from a hostile shot as to navigate a canoe on an American river.

WEST SIDE S. C. A. SALE

The West End Soldiers' Comfort Association intend to hold a sale and tea in the 'Prentice Boys' Hall, Guilford street. A five o'clock tea at the low price of fifteen cents will be served, and the sale will consist of children's dresses, ladies' aprons, fancy work, etc. Many other attractions are promised. This affair will be held on Thursday, August 24, and the proceeds will be used in providing Christmas boxes for the boys at the front. Owing to the immense number that must be remembered by the association the packing and shipping must be done early so the boxes will be distributed by Christmas. Mrs. A. W. Fraser, president.

ANSACS HAD NO ORDERS TO ADVANCE BUT THOUGHT THEY'D JOIN OTHERS AND GO ALONG

(Philip Gibbs in Montreal Gazette.)
With the British armies in the field, Aug. 18—There have been no sensational advances since the great day of July 14, when the British broke through the second German line, but hardly a day passes since then without some progress being made to get a stronger grip on the high ridge which rolls down on the German side from Postiers and the Basentine and High Wood. This fighting has been very hard and grim, and the Germans have done their utmost to check every yard of the British advance by a continual curtain of fire, so that to take a trench or two or rush over a few dozen yards of No Man's Land has been a perilous adventure.

Last night the British were out to make a further advance, as they call it, of nearly 400 yards in depth on a front of about a mile. This was to the north-west of Postiers, and at the same time ground was gained on the northwest of Basentine-le-Petit, closer to the German switching between the British and Mar-tin-pitch. The men who have been fighting this uphill battle, for that is what it is, literally and morally, have been showing remarkable qualities. It is an alliance between Australians and old English, with new men in them, including some of the Derby recruits. Although the Australians had the greater share of the fighting round Postiers, being in greater numbers, they were the first to pay tribute to the spirit of the English lads, and their admiration is reciprocal.

An episode which happened a week ago shows the way in which they are shunting in the struggle. I already have written how the men of Kent went forward on August 4, and they scrambled the line. On the right of them were Sussex men. Their trenches were in touch with the Australians, and as they scrambled over the parapets at the time of these attacks their comrades on the right shouted out to them: "Hullo, boys, what's up? Where are you going?" "Oh, just up along," said the Sussex lads, pointing to a "hot shop" they call it, where a lot of shells were bursting.

"Is that so? You don't say. Gosh, we'll come with you."
It wasn't discipline, for the men had no orders to go, as far as I can make out, but some of them certainly did go in a friendly way and joined in the scum up there. It was no joke.

The advance last night when the Australian troops took an important line of rising ground is further proof that the adversary has not by any means become discouraged against the British as those that had to be forced in the first attack. In spite of all his industry in digging he has not been able to make any system of trenches and dugouts to withstand the British shell fire. As soon as he gets on with a trench the British gun registers upon it, and lay it flat. His only protection is in artillery retaliation, and however great his obstructive power it cannot give cover to the German infantry crouching in shallow ditches and having to come up through communication trenches ploughed by high explosives.

The stories I have told about prisoners are characteristic of the morale of the German troops fighting over this appalling battlefield. It is not a question of courage with them. When they are isolated in shell craters no amount of courage can save them, and it is no wonder they are glad to surrender. They belong to battalions hurriedly gathered

Was Well Within Range Of German Guns
IN TURMOIL OF WAR

His Majesty Fearless, Writes Philip Gibbs; An Interesting Bit About Monarch's Recent Visit to His Gallant Troops

(By Philip Gibbs in Montreal Gazette.)
With the British armies in the field, August 18—During the last week King George has been with his armies in the field. Without any kind of formal programme, he traveled among the troops and went into the battle fields over which, during recent days, his troops advanced victoriously after desperate fighting.

All the traffic and turmoil of the war has surged about him day after day, and manhood now in fighting ranks passed him on the roads, not in review order, but as the men went up to the trenches to do their work of war.

The king has taken certain risks—he would have been glad to have taken more—and he has gone to places well within the range of the German guns.

He has seen the devastation of war, not done in ancient days, but a few weeks or less ago, and has stood amidst its wreckage and ruin, where the ground is the graveyard of gallant men and where all the evil spirit of the war broods over the litter and rubbish heaped in old German trenches.

The King is quite fearless. I have seen him standing on the edge of a great shell crater, underneath the ghastly ruins of a fine old building, which had been shelled by long range guns only four days before his visit, and might at any moment be shelled again. The people about him were a little nervous for his safety, but he lingered there as though there was no danger in the blue sky above him. He wandered about on the battlefield for several hours and was eager to go right forward.

His soldiers were astonished and glad to see him in such places. All of them have used the same phrase about him: "It was very sporting of him." And the loyalty of all the men, the patriotism of the British soldiers which makes them fight and suffer with astounding courage, though they hide the ideal in the British way, ashamed of sentiment, has been stirred by the presence among them of their king, who symbolizes for them the old traditions of the race.

On Saturday there was a historic rendezvous when King George with Sir Douglas Haig, who is commanding the British armies in the field, had a meeting in a chateau in France with the president of the French Republic, General Joffre, and General Foch. On Sunday the king attended a religious service among his troops and on the following day he motored to La Fenne where he visited the King and Queen of the Belgians.

The essential character of the king's visit has been its informality, the absence of all ceremony, and it has been most interesting to see him chatting with the officers and men in roads and in the field, and walking into the men's billets and going about lines without an escort.

On Thursday last the king had his most memorable experience. He went farther than the edge of the battlefield,

BRITISH DRIVE THEM BACK SIX TIMES

For the first time in weeks no change of importance was reported in any theatre of the war Thursday. The most violent fighting took place on the western end of the British salient on the Somme. Six times the Germans advanced in force in a desperate effort to bend back the British lines northwest of Postiers. London reports that all of the assaults were repulsed with heavy losses and that the British in turn captured about 100 yards of trenches northwest of Basentine.

An interesting feature of the situation on the western front is that the Germans, contrary to their usual practice, have so far made no attempt to deliver a counter-attack in the region where the French and British claim to have captured nearly three miles of trenches on Wednesday. The French are busily consolidating their gains and report no action of importance on any section of their front, including the Verdun region.

Something of a mystery exists as to the situation on the eastern front. Plans have confined themselves to brief statements that nothing of importance had occurred. The Australian and German war offices have been almost equally uncommunicative. The only fighting mentioned by Vienna was the repulse of Russian attacks on the lines of General Von Boehm-Ermolli, who is in command of the Teutonic forces retiring from the Tarnopol front. Berlin reports the repulse of Russian attacks south of Budy.

The lull in the Italian operations against Trieste is unofficially explained from Rome as due to General Cadorna's desire to straighten his lines before proceeding with a general offensive against the great Austrian seaport. Austrian sea planes have again raided Venice but Rome says that they caused only slight damage.

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION
Baltimore, Aug. 17—The International Typographical Union, in annual convention here today, rejected a proposition from the Montreal union that there be created the office of fourth vice-president for Canada, elected from the Canadian membership.

A supporter of the proposition pointed out that a foreigner can exercise no authority in labor disputes in Canada, and may be deported. Arguments against electing officers by sections prevailed, however.

A proposition to increase the death benefit from $400 to $500 also was voted down. In the debate it was brought out that 700 Canadian members are in the trenches, and may never get out.

Two hundred union printers were said to be on the Mexican border.

You Men Who Pay the Advertising Bills

A large organization, nationwide, has been working for two years to promote better advertising conditions and to protect the man who pays the advertising bills. It employs a large staff of experts and has gone to great expense in order to protect your interests.

This organization is financed by advertisers, advertising agencies and newspaper, magazine, farm journal and trade paper publishers all over America—with the sole object in view of putting the buying of advertising space on a sound, clean, businesslike basis—so that you, when you buy advertising, can know what you get. It is not organized for profit—but for service only.

This organization is known as the "A. B. C."—Audit Bureau of Circulations—and is entitled to the support of every business man who ever pays a dollar for advertising space.

When you buy space from any publisher who is a member of the "A. B. C.," you buy CERTIFIED CIRCULATION—circulation that is as bona fide and square and honest as a certified check—circulation that has been verified, in every smallest detail, by the trained and unbiased auditors of the "A. B. C."

When you buy advertising space, buy it from those publications who have nothing to conceal, whose circulations are certified circulations.

There are only two newspapers in New Brunswick holding membership in the A. B. C.—only two that have submitted to the exacting, incisive acid-testing investigation of this independent organization of circulation auditors—and therefore only two whose net circulations can be accurately known by any business house—local or national—and those two newspapers are—The Daily Telegraph and The Evening Times-Star.

SYMPATHY OF THE KING AND QUEEN TO FAIRVILLE MOTHER

Mrs. J. E. Kirch Also Learns How Son Died

Was in Terrific Fighting of Early June—Word Comes From Commander of Platoon of Which he Was a Member

Expression of the sympathy of Their Majesties King George and Queen Mary has come to Mrs. John E. Kirch of Prospect street, Fairville, because of the death of her son, Pte. Leonard Craig in battle. The royal sympathy was conveyed in the following terms by Premier Asquith:

"The King commands me to assure you of the true sympathy of His Majesty and the queen in your sorrow."

Mrs. Kirch also has received the following letter from Pte. Percy Armstrong, telling how her son died. He writes:

France, July 21, 1916.

Mrs. John E. Kirch—
Fairville, St. John, N. B.
My Dear Mrs. Kirch—
I am taking the liberty to write on behalf of your son, Leonard, since this heavy action in June, which caused large casualties in our ranks. This letter has been on my mind a great deal and, owing to the close friendship and fine regard which we in our little section had for Len, it made the responsibilities of writing a lot more severe.

I will relate to you in just a few words the facts of this action. On June 1 we took over certain important trenches, but everything was about the same as usual except for a tense quietness which experience had taught us to regard as a fore-runner for trouble. It came on the following morning. At eight o'clock we received the first shock of a bombardment which lasted for four days. One o'clock of the same day brought us our orders to support one of our other companies, No. 2. So No. 18 platoon, along with the rest of No. 4 company were forced to break through two heavy artillery barges to enforce this support. We did this, but it was while we were holding our line, which had to be held at all costs, that we lost so heavily. Len, among more of the best, was killed while doing everything which a human could do.

On account of our being able to beat back all German infantry attacks, they retaliated with heavy shovels of artillery fire which gave us a lot of trouble. This lasted for four days and five nights, we being relieved on June 3.

I must add my own and everybody's admiration and respect of the highest for such a noble, whole-hearted and brave man in close touch with one another in dozens of different ways. He was one of the best and trusted comrades.

I don't think I could say any more, Mrs. Kirch, but simply write me for anything which you might wish to know.

Accept that of No. 18 platoon and No. 1 section; also my deepest and kindest respects.

Very sincerely,
PERCY ARMSTRONG,
From Corporal E. Armstrong, M. G. S. 18th Platoon No. 4, Comp. P. C. L. I. B. E. F. France.

P. S.—Dear Mrs. Kirch: My home is in Ottawa, Ont. My mother is Mrs. Edith F. Armstrong, 488 Lives street, Ottawa.

SEQUEL TO KING STREET EPISODE

Wm. J. Dellechanty and Girl Arrested in Hampton—Likely Peaceful Settlement

The sensational scene that had its beginning in King street yesterday at noon had a sequel in the police court this morning as a result of all night activities of the police department. Late yesterday afternoon a well-dressed woman called at police headquarters and asked for a warrant against her husband, William J. Dellechanty, charging him with a serious offence. It was reported to the police that Dellechanty was in the company of a young woman, other than his wife, and was attempting to evade his wife and go away with the other woman.

Chief Simpson was given a warrant for the man's arrest, and the police detective department were instructed to be on the lookout. As it was thought that Dellechanty and the girl were endeavoring to get out of town, the chief had all the outside points notified. Detectives Barrett and Briggs found out where the two had supper and further that they had left in the direction of Moncton in a touring car. The number of the car was ascertained, and its return to the city was awaited. Late last evening the auto returned, and the chauffeur was summoned to the police station. It was found out from him that the two were left in Hampton. The detectives, armed with the warrant, left for Hampton, and the man and girl found in the Wayside Inn, under the name of W. A. Spear and wife of Boston. They were arrested and brought to the city about four o'clock this morning by Detectives Barrett and Briggs.

In the police court this morning, E. S. Ritchie appeared in the interests of the wife. It was decided by the three interested that an amicable settlement was the best way. The matter will be placed in the hands of the attorney-general and it is likely that the husband and wife will go back to the States. Dellechanty is said to be a prosperous lawyer in East Boston, and has been married thirteen years. The other woman in the case is Mary Workman. She has also been living in Boston. There is reason to believe that she is a New Brunswick girl, for after the scene in King street yesterday, where she came face to face with the wife, she went to the station and asked to send a telegram to people in Boundary Creek.

THE FERRY-BOAT LUDLOW ON BAR AT NAVY ISLAND

The ferry steamer Ludlow met with a mishap this morning while proceeding to West St. John. The tide was low, fog was dense and a strong eddy was setting up the harbor and the ferry, while endeavoring to make the West Side float, ran on Navy Island bar. The engines were reversed but the ferry remained firm and a signal was given for assistance. The tug, the R. R. responded and succeeded in towing her off the bar. Owing to the mishap the ferry lost one of the steering gears and this afternoon the Governor Carleton. The extent of the damage sustained was not known, but the steering gear on one end was put out of commission and it was found necessary to turn the boat around and back into the harbor.

POLICEMAN WARD RETIRES

Chief of Police Simpson said to the Times this morning that Policeman W. O. Ward, who had been a member of the local force for several years, has been dismissed. Asked as to the reason, the chief said, that recently County Policeman Saunders had visited a disorderly house in the vicinity of Thorne avenue and had placed the inmates under arrest. Not being able to handle the case all himself he sent for Policeman Ward to assist him and upon arrival of the Policeman Ward on the scene, instead of assisting the policeman he ejected all the occupants to the house and as a result Policeman Ward was dismissed. It is still the contention of some of the friends of Policeman Ward that the whole thing was the outcome of a misunderstanding.
