COMMISSION IS ASKED TO HEAR BRIDGE MATTER

Wire is Sent to Hon. Mr. Carvell By Council.

Chief Engineer Says Proposed Plan Would Cost $270,000—Letters from Mr. Woodman and the Commission Chairman.

A letter from J. M. Woodman, general superintendent of the New Brunswick street, C. P. R., and two communications from Hon. F. B. Carvell, chairman of the board of railway commissioners of Canada, all pertaining to the matter of greater height of the new railway bridge across the reversing falls, were received at a committee meeting of the council this morning.

Mr. Woodman, in reply to a letter from the mayor, wrote that he had forwarded the mayor's communication to the general manager in Montreal and had received word that the matter was being given consideration.

In the first letter from Hon. Mr. Carvell, the chairman of the railway commission stated that he was afraid that a suggestion to have the bridge raised to the height of the bridge was not a having the engineer go over the us and make a report. The second letter accompanied a copy of one from the chief engineer of the commission in which he outlined the grades on the railway track between the station and the falls, all of which, he said, were except at two points. He stated that the cost of the plan, as suggested, would be in the vicinity of $270,000.

The mayor said that the railway commissioners would be in the city on Friday and he would be able to get touch with them on that matter. His wish said that in conversation with boat captain he had ascertained that matter which had to be considered in relation to the height of the bridge was depth of water available at Cushing's. He understood there was only nine feet there and ships which were to go under the bridge might also be too much water to cross the bar.

In reply to Commissioner Frink, the mayor expressed the opinion that the should not be expected to pay for as had been approved by the Dominion public works department and the way commissioners. Thornton and other Commissioners have not been mentioned to the city for approval.

Commissioner Frink asked if the common was not coming to St. John for a purpose and therefore might not a delegation on the bridge matter. His motion it was decided that a be sent to Mr. Carvell in Montreal permission to bring the matter to the commission. The telegram sent by the common clerk at noon.

VENIZELOS WILL BE KING MAKER

That is Effect of Greek Elections—He Opposes Return of Constantine.

Athens, Nov. 15.—In the Greek elections yesterday in which Venizelos claims victory, the issue was the return of former King Constantine to his throne, from which he has deposed during the war.

Following the death of King Alexander, three weeks ago, the throne was offered his younger brother, Prince Paul, who virtually demanded that the Greek people pass on the question whether or not King Constantine should come back from exile. Only if the people decided against Constantine and would not accept Prince George, eldest son of Constantine, he said, would he consider the offer.

Premier Venizelos led the forces opposing the return of Constantine, and it has succeeded in the elections, and it is conceded he will have a deciding vote in the selection of the next sovereign.

Opposition journals printed a despatch which they alleged had been sent by King George of Great Britain to Queen Sophia, wife of former King Constantine. This purported telegram read: "Dearest Cousin: 'I am glad you will soon return to Greece.'"

General Townshend Asked to Succeed Wrangel
British Leader at Kut May Accept—British Navy to Observe Strict Neutrality in Black Sea.

Paris, Nov. 15.—Sebastopol has fallen, the Russian Bolshevik having occupied the city last night, according to unofficial information received by the French foreign office.

The Bolsheviks are reported to be masters of the whole Crimean peninsula. Gen. Wrangel, members of his staff, and M. Martel, French high commissioner at Sebastopol, were taken on board the French warship Waldeck Rousseau, and are expected to arrive in Constantinople late tonight or tomorrow.

Constantinople, Nov. 15.—Thirteen thousand refugees have arrived here from Sebastopol, but because of the lack of accommodations in the city, they are still aboard ships moored in the Bosphorus.

Several thousand more are due here, and it is understood 80,000 have been permitted to take passage from the Crimean city. It was found impossible to provide ships for the entire population of 80,000. Two thousand wounded men also have arrived, and have been distributed between the French and Russian hospitals.

London, Nov. 15.—As Great Britain has never recognized the Wrangel government, in South Russia, and is now proceeding with negotiations aiming at the opening of trade relations with Soviet Russia, the British navy will continue to observe strict neutrality in the Black Sea, so it was said today. Reports from Constantinople that the British navy would assist in the blockade of Black Sea ports were denied by the admiralty. British ships have not yet been called to transport refugees from the Crimea, and the admiralty said today it had not been decided whether they would assist in getting the refugees away.

Paris, Nov. 15.—A Havas agency despatch from Constantinople, dated Thursday says the nationalist assembly at Angora has adopted sovietism and proclaimed Mustafa Kemal, nationalist leader, as the people's commissariat. A Havas despatch and are making special arrangements for the care of the military missions and the French colony. GENEVA PRAYS FOR WORK OF LEAGUE

Canadian Representatives Are There for Assembly Business

Some Conferences by Delegations of the Nations on Sunday - Britain Represented by 100 - Question of Admission of Germany.

Geneva, Nov. 15.—The league of nations assembly will begin work here supported by the prayers of all Geneva. Special services were held in all churches yesterday. The British delegation numbers one hundred. Canada is represented by Sir Geo. E. Foster, Hon. N. W. Rowell and Hon. C. J. Doherty. The representatives of Britain and her dominions went to Holy Trinity church, where George Nicoll Barnes read the first part of the service and Lord Robert Cecil the second. The Geneva assembly for the purpose delivered a sermon on Christ as the originator of the ideas of good-international fellowship.

The principal delegations held conferences during the day. The British, with the dominion representatives, continued talks begun in London on the policy to be followed on the floor of the assembly and it is hoped that these preliminary conferences will diminish the chances of friction which it is desired to avoid in this first meeting.

Geo. Nicoll Barnes, one of the British delegates, informed the Associated Press yesterday that a declaration made by him recently in connection with the Earl of Selborne and Viscount Grey in favor of the immediate admission of Germany to the league was entirely a personal expression and the British delegation was not committed on the question. Mr. Barnes could not say whether or not any member of the British delegation would bring the matter up before the assembly.

It is learned from British sources that there is a strong probability of Premier Lloyd George coming to Geneva during the sittings. It is also expected that if he comes either President Millerand of France or Premier Lyautey will be here at the same time.

A DANGER SIGNAL - TENDER AND BLEEDING GUMS

Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pycorrhoea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pycorrhoea germs seep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills. Pycorrhoea begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them. Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not have it. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection. And keep Pycorrhoea away by using Forhan's For The Gums.

Forhan's For The Gums will prevent Pycorrhoea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentists cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean. If you have tender or bleeding gums, start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

A furnace flue became clogged with paper and there was a dense smoke, some of which found its way into the theatre and caused some one to raise a cry of fire. The proprietors of the theatre were held at police headquarters pending investigation of the cause that one of the exits of the theatre was locked.

Gamble's son, who was with them, escaped by jumping down the embankment. Geddes was unmarried and Gamble leaves a wife and four children. They were both C. N. R. employees. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death with no blame attached to the train crew. A man named Berry was killed by a train near the same spot less than a week ago.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The bodies of two women were found yesterday in Grant Park. They were identified as Miss Marie Ramey, 27 years of age and Miss Lillian Thompson, 28, both actresses.

The bodies showed bruises, but the coroner's physician announced that death had been due to wood alcohol poisoning and exposure.

IF WEAK, THIN OR NERVOUS DON'T WORRY

Try the Bi-ro-Phosphate Health System

New York. If you are feeling run-down, weak, nervous, tired-in-the-morning, and generally ailing, these are the symptoms that should warn you to take care of your health.

Four persons in every ten are needing more phosphorus in their bodies. When you see thin and fretful people; or those who are anaemic, pale, frail, oft despondent or lacking in energy, you may look for the need of certain elements that make for a strong constitution.

Some people, after relying upon preparations composed chiefly of salts, quinine, drastic drugs, iron, colomel, cod-liver oil, etc., wonder why they find no benefit. That is easily explained by the fact that such persons need the phosphoric element, which is a most potent essential to health, and contained on Bi-ro-Phosphate, the famous health preparation. Now obtainable everywhere.

The right thing for you to do is make a trial of Bi-ro-Phosphate beginning at once. It is not a patent medicine; the formula is prescribed by many physicians for the ailments and weaknesses mentioned above.

Buy a box of Bi-ro-Phosphate. It is sold and recommended by all good druggists everywhere.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB.

The Commercial Club has finished its first year. This organization came on the crest of a wave of enthusiasm. There was a quick response to its appeal for membership. Young men felt that here was an opportunity to unite and do much for the benefit of the city.

THE BRITISH FLAG.

The British flag which was trampled under foot in Broadway, New York, on Armistice Day, and is insulted so frequently in the United States, is the flag that floats over Canada. It is the flag of the greatest free Empire the world has ever seen. It is the flag that has kept the freedom of the seas, and encouraged the growth of democracy over the world over.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Domestic Happenings of Other Days

A HORRIBLE ADVENTURE.

A love of adventure got two English officers a fearful experience when the army advanced against Ticonderoga in the early days of 1781. They were Captain Pringle and Lieut. Roche, who joined the force of General Rogers at that time for the love of the fight against the French.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Heard It All Right. Eernly the prosecuting counsel cross-examined the witness for the defence. "Yes," was the latter's only reply, but instead of replying audibly to one question, he nodded his head.

Lady Astor told in London a story about an anti-suffragist. "Anti-suffragists are all alike," she said. "I was canvassed for signatures to a petition about Lord Milner's vicerey to India at that time. When I called on Mr. Bogs the greasy, he read the petition carefully and then said:

"Who is this here Milner, ma'am?" "Our Indian vicerey," said Mr. Bogs. "Who's that vicerey?" said Mr. Bogs. "A pro-consul you know." And explained Lord Milner's position in detail.

Change of Base. Mrs. Knag—When we were first married you used to say you loved the ground I walked on.

After being conducted through an old English church by the vicar, a visitor was so pleased with the official's courtesy that he insisted on giving him half a crown. The man shook his head sadly.

The artist beamed. A visitor—a wealthy-looking visitor, too—had paid a visit to his studio. As he showed the great man around, he fingered lovingly the products of his brain.

A small boy who didn't like doing his "home work" was being warned against the evils that are apt to ensue from habits of procrastination, by his mother when he asked to explain quite definitely what she meant. She replied by quoting the proverb: "Never put off till tomorrow what can be done today."

On getting the moral reduced to this simple form, he said: "Well, then, mother, let's go down to the strawberries and cream; there were heaps left over."

RED CAVALRY DRAWING NEAR TO SEBASTOPOL

Wrangle's Army Thoroughly Beaten; Being Pursued

Evacuation of Sebastopol Under Way—Bolsheviki Suffered Heavy Losses as Price of Victory.

Constantinople, Nov. 15.—The Bolsheviki have taken both Yalta and Eupatoria and their cavalry is approaching Sebastopol, according to the latest advice received here.

Eupatoria is about midway down the western coast of the Crimean peninsula, while Yalta is situated only a short distance from the southwestern point of the peninsula.

Paris, Nov. 14.—General Wrangle's army, thoroughly beaten, is continuing to retreat southward, according to information received by a well-commanded Bolshevik army of twenty-seven divisions. General Wrangle has suffered great losses and many of his officers have been killed.

The evacuation of Sebastopol by civilians and foreigners is under way, according to foreign office advice. From his private headquarters, which did not storm the Perceps line, but by an enveloping movement of their left wing invaded the Crimea.

Constantinople, Nov. 14.—The Reds broke through the defense of Wrangle on the Isthmus of Perceps, according to the best report obtainable here, by concentrating twenty divisions against three divisions of the white army. The success of the Bolsheviki is attributed largely to the excellence of his high command, which is said to be directed by a foreigner.

The evacuation of the Crimea is continuing under great difficulties. The fighting at Perceps was of the most desperate character. The Bolsheviki admitted they had 80,000 men killed. They claim to have taken 40,000 prisoners. They owe their success largely to the use of poison gas.

London, Nov. 14.—A blockade of the Russian Black sea coast has been declared, according to the Constantinople correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company. British destroyers were seen patrolling the sea to prevent the Bolsheviki from communicating with the Turkish coast.

WHITNEY TAKEN; FORGERY CHARGE

He Was Married Only on Last Tuesday

Richmond, Maine, Nov. 15.—William B. Whitney, for the body of whose wife the authorities have been searching on his farm at Langdon, N. H., was arrested here last night on a charge of forging a check on the town of Langdon.

Whitney had bought a farm here and since his arrival had been married under the name of Wm. B. Clark, to Mrs. Agnes Clark, a widow of Charlestown, N. H.

Whitney admitted his identity and late last night left for Boston in custody of Sheriff Hewitt, accompanied by his wife and her 13-year-old son, Gordon Clark.

He refused to make any statement as to the forgery charge, but expressed his willingness to go back to Langdon. Whitney denied that he had killed his former wife, and insisted that at the time of her disappearance she had started for the west to visit relatives.

He came to Richmond about two weeks ago and bought from Charles (later a farm about five miles from the center of the town. His marriage to Mrs. Clark took place on last Tuesday. His movements had been traced by a private detective who accompanied the sheriff to the farm last night. When they confronted Whitney with the charges against him he admitted that he was the man wanted in Langdon.

The Biggest News for Women Since the Sewing Machine Was Invented

A new kind of pattern. With full directions PRINTED on every piece!

A new pattern that makes cutting and sewing so simple—so easy—so sure—that every woman now has the golden opportunity to make her own clothes!

With the NEW McCALL PATTERN your home dressmaking becomes not only an economy, but a real joy. You read as you go—every step printed in plain English, right on the pattern itself.

No worrying over that important item, the straight of the goods. The new McCALL Pattern shows you, in black and white.

For putting the parts together you just have to follow a simple method of matching numbers.

Additional safety in this—every piece of the new McCALL Pattern has printed on it the number of the pattern, and the size.

There is a new kind of envelope, too, a separate envelope for each size, telling you the amount of material required for just that size; diagram on the back for that particular size, showing how to place the pattern on the material, and how to put the goods together.

This pattern will make home dressmaking easier for you, if you now use patterns, and will enable you to work faster.

If you have never made clothes for yourself or your children, because you thought patterns were difficult to use—come in and see for yourself how easy it is to use the new McCALL Pattern!

Thirty of the December styles are shown in the new McCALL printed pattern. Additional styles will be offered each month in the printed pattern, until eventually the entire McCALL line is issued in printed patterns.

The Commercial Club should invite discussion, so long as it is well directed and intelligent, but not otherwise. It is not to be a mere echo of what the executive will hardly come from any member who is doing his own part in committee work—for every committee has a real task, and its reports from time to time are the measure of progress. There is room in St. John for a Commercial Club of large membership, with a bold and progressive policy. Since its purpose is to make St. John a better city to live in, there is no limit to its endeavors, other than that imposed by ability to perform.

When the next meeting is held every member should be present, to encourage the executive and assure its members that they have at their back a working force, ready and eager to labor for the good of the city. The winter months are the months for active work, and they are just beginning. The first annual reports of the Club told of much good work. The second year's record depends in part upon every member. If any rises at the end of the year in the role of critic the question may fairly be put to him—"Well, what have you done?"

Gen. Wrangle has fought a losing fight. The Bolsheviki are masters of the Crimean peninsula. Wrangle's army was greatly outnumbered in the campaign now closing with his defeat. We are told that the Bolsheviki were reckless of life, and as fast as one attacking force was destroyed another took its place until the White Army was overwhelmed by force of numbers. The victory will of course add to the prestige of Lenin and Trotsky, and prolong their rule of power. "Holy Russia" is still a name to conjure with, and the duped inhabitants are still willing by that slogan to be led to the slaughter. It is said they were led in this campaign by a foreign commander. It would be interesting to learn his identity.

The latest bulletin of the employment service of Canada, department of labor, referring to New Brunswick says:—"For the week ending October 23 employment reports were tabulated from 412 firms in the maritime provinces with a combined pay-roll of 68,610 employees, showing that as compared with their returns for the preceding week, they had reduced their staffs by 1,514 persons, or two and two-tenths per cent." For the same week the net decrease so far as tabulated for all Canada was 7,251, and it was added that further declines, though not as great, were anticipated for the next week in half a dozen great industries.

Premier Meighen's western tour has not been without a measure of excitement. He has been subjected to many interruptions, showing that the west is far from being welded to a high protection policy. On the other hand Hon. MacKenzie King was given a most cordial reception.

Six little children perished in a theatre panic in New York yesterday, and a dozen others were seriously injured. No doubt there will be a full investigation. Such a tragedy should not be possible in any city.

The attention of the whole world will now be turned to Geneva, where the League of Nations is today assembled. The British delegation numbers one hundred. Canada is represented by Sir George Foster, Hon. N. W. Rowell and Hon. C. J. Doherty. Matters of grave importance relating to world-peace will be considered. There will doubtless be some friction, caused by conflicting views, but a realization of what the continuance of the League in harmonious action means to all nations will make every member desirous of arriving at a working agreement on all questions considered.

There is great need of a thorough-going safety-first campaign in this province. The number of easily preventable accidents, too many of them fatal, grows far too rapidly. The latest was that which caused the death yesterday of two men on the railway near Moncton.

Apparently Venizelos has won in the Grecian elections, and Constantine will not return as king. He was pro-German and out of sympathy with the people during the war. That they should now reject him is not at all surprising. Venizelos is the greatest Greek of his time.

Tucked away in a busy New York shopping thoroughfare, a modest little white store, with gray juvenile figures dancing on the window panes—you'll find the Jack and Jill shop exclusively for babies. It's in upper Broadway and 16th street, to be exact, and being in a popular Washington Heights residential district—peculiarly populated by young brides and more established families, the Jack and Jill shop has its place in the general scheme of infant lives.

The Jack and Jill shop is unique from its name and general store appearance, to the exclusive type of mother-and-baby service it renders. The shop is white, inside and out, and its quaint sign Jack and Jill lettering on the window proclaims its individuality. One window display represents a seashore scene, with real sand and water in the window and cute babies in bathinggowns, realistically playing there.

Jack and Jill know mothers and babies, and understanding their psychological needs, have worked out several successful service ideas. To begin with, they have an accurate-baby scale at one side of the store, and they extend a general invitation to all mothers: "Come in and weigh baby on our specially designed scale and receive a cleverly arranged card on which to note the weight from month to month. These cards they distribute free. It is a simple and inexpensive affair, a tabulation of different sizes of baby, from birth to twelve months, with an ideal "tabulation" that is an established schedule of baby's weight and height during these periods, if the infant were perfectly normal. This mothers' abacus for judgment and comparison. Then, alongside this, are blank spaces on which mothers may enter their own baby's measurements. This card is free and inexpensive, but it is a great drawing card for mothers who stop in to the Jack and Jill shop frequently to get their babies weighed. The scale is a roomy, safe, pink and white affair and it is seldom empty.

Parents of Weak, Ailing Children Will Be Interested in This Letter

A mother writes: "My little girl was weak, puny and tired all the time, did not want to do anything. Vinol was recommended—it built up her strength and made her healthy, so now she romps and plays like other children and is robust and racy." The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the very elements needed to create red corpuscles in the blood, quicken the circulation, increase the appetite and soon strength and vitality is imparted to every part of the body. Your druggist sells Vinol, therefore do not accept any substitute.

A milkman in a country town was brought before the local court to answer a charge of adulteration. "You are charged," said the magistrate, "with selling adulterated milk. Have you anything to say in answer to the charge?"

"Well, your honor," replied the milkman, "the night before it was raining very hard and the only cause I can give is the cow must have got wet through."

COURSE FOR MERCHANTS

Short courses for farmers have been held for years with excellent results. In recent times courses have been added in practical housekeeping, designed especially for the benefit of the women folk on the farms. The University of Kansas, has gone a step further and regularly offers a short course for merchants, with classes in stenography, advertising, window and store display, and store management. The course is given early in February, this is the "between seasons" period when merchants are best able to attend.

Interesting Services In Churches on Sunday

Memorial Tablets Dedicated at St. Luke's and Stone Churches—Scout Colors Consecrated—Exchange of Pulpits.

A memorial service of great solemnity and impressiveness was held in St. Luke's church yesterday morning when a tablet was unveiled by the church wardens, James E. Secord and George L. Warwick commemorating all the men and women of the church who served in the great war. The service was conducted by Rev. Canon G. A. Kuhring and the tablet was dedicated by His Lordship Bishop Richardson who also presided at the ceremony. After the flag had been drawn from the tablet the Bishop read the names of the sixteen who died on service. The Bishop read the dedication service and the collect of All Saints Day after which he read from the text "His Memorial is as Cedar Forever." D. Arnold Fox was the organist and played some beautiful voluntaries while the full choir led the singing. DeWitt Carling sang Kipling's "Recessional" during the offertory and the closing hymn was "O King of Kings Whose Reign is Old."

*Died on service. "We Bless Thy Holy Name for These Thy Servants Who Gave Their Lives for a Great Cause."

At St. Luke's church yesterday morning a tablet commemorating the twenty-five men of the congregation who laid down their lives in the great war was unveiled by Lieut. Colonel W. H. Harrison. The service was conducted by Rev. R. P. McKim, assisted by Rev. E. P. Wright. After Colonel Harrison had paid a tribute to the men who had fallen, Rev. Mr. McKim gave a short address. On behalf of the church wardens and vestrymen W. F. Cronk asked Colonel Harrison to unveil the tablet and H. G. Harrison asked Rev. Mr. McKim to dedicate it. Drawing the cord which dropped the flag from the tablet Colonel Harrison said, "I unveil this tablet" and quoted the opening lines from the tablet, the inscription of which is as follows: "In grateful memory of the men of St. Luke's church who fought and won in the great war and counted not their lives dear to them unto the death: Roy William Anderson, Edward Bradley, Gerard Russell Craigie, Charles Dameroy, William Davis, Frank Haws Elliott, Walter Henry Glass, Stephen Howes, Joseph Arthur Howes, William Hudson, Edward James, James James, Robin Louis Johnston, King Kerr, Charles Eugene McLaughlin, Thomas Armstrong MacMurray, Douglas Tudor Mowry, Alfred Nichols, Hubert William Pescock, Berton Frederic Stewart Ramsey, David William Ramsey, Herbert William Robinson, William James Seymour, James Woodford Waters. "Quit you like men, be strong." The tablet is of dull bronze with raised and burnished lettering. After singing the National Anthem Mr. McKim read the dedicatory prayer which was followed by the "Dead March" and the bugler sounded "The Last Post."

The Second Coming. The second coming of Christ was the subject of a discourse delivered by Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson in the Mac street Baptist church and he took for his text "I go and prepare a place for you and if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you unto me that where I am there ye may be also." Dr. Hutchinson's interpretation of the scripture is that the coming will be soon and the indications of the time point to his coming at a not far distant date. The post-millennialists believe that he will not come until the whole world has been Christianized while the pre-millennialists believe that Christ may come at any time. The gospel has been preached in nearly every nation of the world and that is one of the signs of an early coming and the prevalence of false teaching is also another sign.

Pulpit Exchanges.

Pulpit exchanges were made by many of the city clergymen yesterday morning. It was the regular Sunday for the Baptist ministers to exchange. Rev. L. B. Gray of the Waterloo street church was in the Fairville church, where the evening service was taken by Rev. H. L. Eisenor, in the absence of the minister. Rev. A. S. Bishop. An organ recital preceded the evening service and special music was a feature of it. In the Waterloo street church, where there was also a special programme of music, Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson of Main Street Baptist church was the preacher in the morning and Rev. Isaac Brindley of the Tabernacle church was the preacher at the evening service. Rev. J. H. Jenner of Charlotte Street Baptist church conducted the morning service in the Tabernacle church and Rev. Dr. Purdy of B. Gray of the Waterloo street church was heard in Charlotte street church.

Scout's Colors Consecrated.

A very pretty and imposing service took place at the Mission Church of St. John Baptist, Paradise Row, at 11 o'clock yesterday just before the beginning of the high celebration of the Holy Eucharist, when the colors of the Boy Scouts troop of the church and the Union Jack were solemnly consecrated at the high altar by the priest in charge, Rev. Fr. John V. Young, the celebrant. Following the procession of crucifers, choristers and preacher up the centre aisle of the church were the Boy Scouts in uniform. During the short service of consecration the scouts took up a position within the choir. The colors were solemnly placed on the altar by Father Young and the ceremony was concluded by the elevation of the colors beneath the rood screen, the scouts passing between them to seats in the body of the church. An able sermon on the significance of the consecration ceremony and on the great value of the Boy Scouts organization to the church, to the empire, particularly during the Great war and to boys everywhere was preached by Rev. Herbert E. Bennett, assistant priest. There was a large number of young people in the congregation.

Pastor's Anniversary.

In the Charlotte street Baptist church last night a quarter of an hour song service preceded the regular service and the church was filled with a congregation that greatly appreciated the opportunity to join in singing the familiar hymns and to listen to the solos by Miss Frances Lanyon and Miss Nichols, as well as the trio given by Mrs. Leslie Hayes, Myles Traft and Mrs. Captain Weldon. The song service was conducted by the organist, Stanley Stout. The day celebrated the fifth anniversary of the appointment of Rev. J. H. Jenner to the charge and in his sermon Mr. Jenner reviewed the progress of the church during those years. He told of the sixty-five additional members and of the improvements made in church property. During the five years just closed the vestry had been renovated, three new rooms built of concrete had been added to the Sunday school accommodation, a central new heating system had been installed and a new pipe organ and new blower had been purchased and placed in position.

An Hour of Song.

The singing in the school room of St. David's church after the evening service was the gathering place for a big and friendly assemblage last night. Robert Reid was the chairman and Mrs. J. Milton Barnes presided at the piano. Besides the general singing in which all entered heartily, F. J. Punter and his son sang a pleasing duet, Miss Phyllis McGowan and Miss Jessie Jamieson rendered a duet with much feeling and Mr. Punter sang a solo most acceptably. Social intercourse and friendly greeting followed the singing and prolonged the enjoyment.

Pulpit Exchanges. Pulpit exchanges were made by many of the city clergymen yesterday morning. It was the regular Sunday for the Baptist ministers to exchange. Rev. L. B. Gray of the Waterloo street church was in the Fairville church, where the evening service was taken by Rev. H. L. Eisenor, in the absence of the minister. Rev. A. S. Bishop. An organ recital preceded the evening service and special music was a feature of it. In the Waterloo street church, where there was also a special programme of music, Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson of Main Street Baptist church was the preacher in the morning and Rev. Isaac Brindley of the Tabernacle church was the preacher at the evening service. Rev. J. H. Jenner of Charlotte Street Baptist church conducted the morning service in the Tabernacle church and Rev. Dr. Purdy of B. Gray of the Waterloo street church was heard in Charlotte street church.

Scout's Colors Consecrated. A very pretty and imposing service took place at the Mission Church of St. John Baptist, Paradise Row, at 11 o'clock yesterday just before the beginning of the high celebration of the Holy Eucharist, when the colors of the Boy Scouts troop of the church and the Union Jack were solemnly consecrated at the high altar by the priest in charge, Rev. Fr. John V. Young, the celebrant. Following the procession of crucifers, choristers and preacher up the centre aisle of the church were the Boy Scouts in uniform. During the short service of consecration the scouts took up a position within the choir. The colors were solemnly placed on the altar by Father Young and the ceremony was concluded by the elevation of the colors beneath the rood screen, the scouts passing between them to seats in the body of the church. An able sermon on the significance of the consecration ceremony and on the great value of the Boy Scouts organization to the church, to the empire, particularly during the Great war and to boys everywhere was preached by Rev. Herbert E. Bennett, assistant priest. There was a large number of young people in the congregation.

Pastor's Anniversary. In the Charlotte street Baptist church last night a quarter of an hour song service preceded the regular service and the church was filled with a congregation that greatly appreciated the opportunity to join in singing the familiar hymns and to listen to the solos by Miss Frances Lanyon and Miss Nichols, as well as the trio given by Mrs. Leslie Hayes, Myles Traft and Mrs. Captain Weldon. The song service was conducted by the organist, Stanley Stout. The day celebrated the fifth anniversary of the appointment of Rev. J. H. Jenner to the charge and in his sermon Mr. Jenner reviewed the progress of the church during those years. He told of the sixty-five additional members and of the improvements made in church property. During the five years just closed the vestry had been renovated, three new rooms built of concrete had been added to the Sunday school accommodation, a central new heating system had been installed and a new pipe organ and new blower had been purchased and placed in position.

An Hour of Song. The singing in the school room of St. David's church after the evening service was the gathering place for a big and friendly assemblage last night. Robert Reid was the chairman and Mrs. J. Milton Barnes presided at the piano. Besides the general singing in which all entered heartily, F. J. Punter and his son sang a pleasing duet, Miss Phyllis McGowan and Miss Jessie Jamieson rendered a duet with much feeling and Mr. Punter sang a solo most acceptably. Social intercourse and friendly greeting followed the singing and prolonged the enjoyment.

NUXATED IRON for Red Blood, Strength and Endurance

Your nerve power depends on plenty of good, rich, red blood of the kind that organic iron—Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on iron filings. Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth nor upset the stomach; it is an entirely different thing from ordinary metallic iron. It keeps you well, helps make rich, red blood, revitalizes worn-out, exhausted nerves and give you new strength and energy. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using it. Beware of substitutes! Always insist upon having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

At St. Luke's church yesterday morning a tablet commemorating the twenty-five men of the congregation who laid down their lives in the great war was unveiled by Lieut. Colonel W. H. Harrison. The service was conducted by Rev. R. P. McKim, assisted by Rev. E. P. Wright. After Colonel Harrison had paid a tribute to the men who had fallen, Rev. Mr. McKim gave a short address. On behalf of the church wardens and vestrymen W. F. Cronk asked Colonel Harrison to unveil the tablet and H. G. Harrison asked Rev. Mr. McKim to dedicate it. Drawing the cord which dropped the flag from the tablet Colonel Harrison said, "I unveil this tablet" and quoted the opening lines from the tablet, the inscription of which is as follows: "In grateful memory of the men of St. Luke's church who fought and won in the great war and counted not their lives dear to them unto the death: Roy William Anderson, Edward Bradley, Gerard Russell Craigie, Charles Dameroy, William Davis, Frank Haws Elliott, Walter Henry Glass, Stephen Howes, Joseph Arthur Howes, William Hudson, Edward James, James James, Robin Louis Johnston, King Kerr, Charles Eugene McLaughlin, Thomas Armstrong MacMurray, Douglas Tudor Mowry, Alfred Nichols, Hubert William Pescock, Berton Frederic Stewart Ramsey, David William Ramsey, Herbert William Robinson, William James Seymour, James Woodford Waters. "Quit you like men, be strong." The tablet is of dull bronze with raised and burnished lettering. After singing the National Anthem Mr. McKim read the dedicatory prayer which was followed by the "Dead March" and the bugler sounded "The Last Post."

IN HONOR OF BIRTHDAY
A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McInerney, 75 St. Patrick street, on Friday, Nov. 12, when about fifty young friends assembled in honor of the eighteenth birthday of their son, Murray. A ST. JOHN MAN
Dr. Oscar Watson's Picture Has Place in Service Bulletin of Associated Press.

The November service bulletin of the Associated Press, issued in New York, includes a page of photographs of outstanding men of the service who have been in the A. P. employ for a quarter of a century or more. Among them is Dr. Oscar Watson of St. John. In brief summaries of the careers of the men, the bulletin says of Doctor Watson: "For fourteen years, night cable editor in the New York office, entered the service in 1893, served as reporter and night city editor for several years, also as news editor, assistant night manager and night manager."
This is, of course, putting into a very few words a record of service that is known to have been outstanding and to have gained for Doctor Watson recognition as one of the most valued men on the lengthy roster of the A. P. He is a son of the late Alexander A. Watson, so well remembered as proprietor of a book and stationery business at the corner of Charlotte and Union streets, where the Wilcox firm now is located. The doctor himself is held in kindly memory here by many friends and those entering middle age recall with pleasure his sterling sportsmanship in athletics here. Doctor Watson has never allowed to weaken the link that connects him with St. John, and he makes an annual visit here to the mutual pleasure of himself and friends of other days.

PROTEST AGAINST KING SQUARE SITE
Members of Engineering Institute Bring West Side School Matter Before Common Council.
A delegation from the local branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada appeared before the mayor and commissioners in committee this morning to protest against the erection of a school on the proposed site in King square, West St. John. The council decided to take their protest into consideration when the matter was brought before them for decision. The delegation consisted of George Waring, H. C. Gingsburg, Guy Tapley and Charles Archibald.
Mr. Waring asked on behalf of the institute that the site for a school in West St. John be changed so that the public square would not be built upon. He said that there was a place on the west side better adapted for a school.
Mr. Cushing said a public square should not be used for that purpose. The property adjoining the Albert school property could be purchased for $15,000 and the lot mentioned by Mr. Waring, he thought, would cost less. He was of the opinion that the square could not be used under the city charter. He understood that the square site was suggested by the common council.
The mayor said the council had no authority to do this.
Com. Frank said that under the charter the city could not use the square to build upon except by obtaining legislation for the purpose.
Mr. Archibald said that the site referred to by Mr. Waring was at the head of Rodney street and was 720 x 200; he thought it belonged to the Fen-ton property.
Commissioner Thornton said that the Victoria square in the North End was only a dump until a school was built there. Since that it was greatly improved.
Mr. Tapley said that on the site suggested by the delegation the fire risk was practically eliminated.
Commissioner Jones asked if it were possible to remodel the public building in Market place and if the area would afford sufficient room for playgrounds etc.
Mr. Cushing said the location was not suitable and it would cost much to remodel it.
Mr. Waring said that one of the school trustees had informed him that, had the council not suggested the King square site, the board might have had one of the other sites purchased.
The delegation withdrew after being assured that their statement of the case would be considered.

WATER SHUT OFF IN SOME HOUSES
Action in West End as Owners do Not Make Plumbing Repairs.
Commissioner J. B. Jones of the Water and Sewerage department said today:—"The water supply in several homes on the West side of the harbor has been shut off during the last few days because of refusal of owners of the properties to make the necessary repairs to the plumbing fixtures. Why should landlords permit their tenants to be inconvenienced in this way when by the expenditure of a small sum of money this trouble could readily be overcome? The officials of the water department have their duties to perform and are obliged to see that the regulations relative to leaking fixtures are respected and obeyed even though in the carrying out of these regulations some persons may have to suffer the deprivation of their water supply."
"Last winter, it will be recalled, was a severe one, and the resultant experience was that many homes, through freezing of service pipes, were without water for days and weeks at a time. To provide against similar experiences during the approaching winter season is the aim and desire of the inspectors who are visiting all places where water is being used. In a matter of so vital importance to the public as this is everyone should co-operate with the inspectors in the performance of their irksome and at times unpleasant duties."

SHE WILL NEVER BE WITHOUT IT

'I'll Always Keep Tanlac in My House,' Says Mrs. Champagne - Restored Health.

'Honestly, for the first time in three years I am able to eat without suffering afterwards,' said Mrs. Agnes Champagne, 1727 Notre Dame street, East Montreal (P.Q.), in relating her experience with Tanlac recently.

'My stomach got in such a bad condition I could hardly eat enough to keep me alive, and everything I ate seemed to turn to gas, which bloated me until I could scarcely breathe, and the pains in my stomach were simply terrible.'

'But even before finishing my first bottle of Tanlac I felt better, and by the time I took three bottles I felt like an entirely different person. My appetite is so good now I can hardly wait for meal time, and although I am eating just anything I want, nothing gives me the least trouble. I sleep like a child night after night, and have gained fully ten pounds in weight. In fact, I am feeling just fine, and you may be sure I'll always keep a bottle of Tanlac in my house.'

Tanlac is sold in St. John by the Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro; by G. W. McKay, Beaver Harbor; Willard J. Colwell, Evans; C. V. Parsons, Highland; John F. Meagher, DeLorge; O. D. Hanson, Lepreau; E. L. Conley, Leonardville; N. H. Johnson, Clarendon Station, and by the leading druggists in every town.-(Advt.)

UNIONS DISCUSS WINTER SCHEDULE

A meeting of the Steamship Clerks' Lodge, No. 1287, was held yesterday afternoon in the Temperance Hall, West St. John, when matters in connection with the winter schedule were thoroughly considered. W. H. Johnson, business agent of the organization, presided and addressed the members regarding the conditions that prevailed in Quebec, Montreal and other ports.

The wage schedule and working conditions in connection with winter port activities were discussed at a special meeting of the Coal Handlers' and Trimmers' Union, held yesterday afternoon in Longshoremen's hall, Water street. There was a large attendance of members with Wallace Johnson, the president, in the chair.

It was announced in St. John's (Stone) church yesterday that the sum of $176 necessary to furnish a bedroom in the new nurses' home had been fully subscribed by the members of the congregation collectively and that, besides this, five individual members had each undertaken to furnish a separate bedroom, making six bedrooms to be furnished by the members of Stone church. The other Anglican churches have undertaken to provide the furniture for one of the suites in the nurses' home, which will cost $400.

At the evening service T. N. Curry, of Halifax, rendered the tenor solo "Comfort Ye My People" with much sympathy and expression.

STOMACH ON A STRIKE

"Pape's Diapepsin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs in order at once!

Wonder what ailed your stomach—what portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just eat has fermented and turned sour; head dizziness and aches; belch gasses and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless acid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.

Beautiful Women of Society, during the past seventy years have relied upon it for their distinguished appearance. The soft, refined, pearly white complexion it renders instantly, is always the source of flattering comment.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys, then Back hurts and Bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clear, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless; it flushes out kidney and stimulates them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

THIS MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

Both Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Steele, Ala.—"During the Change of Life I had hot flashes, was nervous, run down, and had sick headaches for two or three days at a time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am much stronger and better in every way than I was. My daughter's health broke down last June from teaching school without rest, and she has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Blood Medicine with good results. She is much better and teaching now and I give your medicine the praise. You are welcome to use this letter for the benefit of other suffering women."—Mrs. F. A. GAINES, R.R. No. 1, Steele, Ala.

Women who suffer as Mrs. Gaines did should not hesitate to give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial, as the evidence that it constantly brings published proves beyond question that this grand old remedy has relieved much suffering among women.

Our Portrait is of Mr. WALTER E. WHITE, of 41, Bala-lane, Obiwolek, London, England, who writes—

"Some three years ago I had a swelling in the knee cap. One night I knocked my knee which caused a little ulcer which in time, no matter what I did, developed across the whole knee. I had one large gaping wound, and with all the care and attention that was open for 15 months. Being an all-round athlete, holder of many cups and prizes, I began to give up all hope of ever taking my place again among the athletes. One day one of my fellow workmen inquired how my leg was, and told me it was 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' I wanted. That day I bought a bottle, and when I had finished it I was not only surprised myself, but all my workmates could see improvement. I could bend my knee a little and that gave me encouragement, so I persevered with it and am glad to say seven bottles completely cured me. I am now as well as ever, and am still holding my own as an athlete."

Sufferers from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Eczema, Blisters, Scalds, Pimples, Ringworm, Itchiness, etc., should realize that lotions and ointments can but give temporary relief—to be sure of complete and lasting benefit, the blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impure waste matter, by the use of such troubles, overcomes, and expels the impurities, that is why so many remarkable recoveries stand to its credit. Pleasant to take, and free from injurious ingredients.

Prices of Bridal Suits in New York to Be Cut.

New York, Nov. 13.—Here's good news for bridegrooms. The hotel managers of New York city are about to lower the price of bridal suites, thus cutting the high cost of matrimony, at least until the honeymoon is over.

Whether this will cause a rush to the marriage license bureau or not is a question, but it at least gives the happy man a chance to save enough for cigarettes while showing his newly acquired better half the sights.

Edward M. Tierney, of the Hotel Ansonia, and chairman of the show committee of the Fifth National Hotel Men's exposition, which opened in Grand Central Palace, to continue throughout the week, made the suggestion at the luncheon given by George C. Brown to visiting hotel men at the Park Avenue Hotel. The event marked the first big happening of show week.

Mr. Tierney said that the price of practically everything he could think of had been reduced as far as possible, and the only thing left was to cut the cost of honeymoon trips. There appeared to be a general assent to his proposition, and it is quite likely New York city will become a mecca for newlyweds.

INVESTIGATION BY AGENT OF THE S. P. C.

In connection with the case of alleged cruelty to an aged demented man reported from Summer street, West St. John, to the police, S. M. Wetmore, agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty, said last night that he had visited the house in question on Friday night following the publication of the report in the daily papers, and that he had been refused admittance by the tenants. On Saturday night he received a telephone communication from the people he said, who apologized for their action on Friday night and said that he could visit the house then, if he so desired.

Accompanied by Dr. William Warwick, district medical health officer, Mr. Wetmore visited the house on Saturday night and there found conditions very much different from the account that had been given to the police. The demented man was not handcuffed to a bedpost, as the original story ran, but was allowed his liberty of the whole house. He was comfortably dressed and did not seem to be under any repression, though he was very quiet and reticent when spoken to. Dr. Warwick examined the man and said last night that beyond the fact that the man was demented, everything seemed to be all right. The man is about fifty years of age.

Mr. Wetmore said last night that some people have the idea that they can put off an investigation by the agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty, if they so desire. In correction of this impression Mr. Wetmore said he wished to remind the public that the provincial statutes covering the establishment of the society provide a penalty of $100 in fines or an imprisonment of three months, to all persons convicted of impeding the action of the agent or officer of the society in his work.

TELL OF SHIP REFUSING THEM ASSISTANCE

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Boston, Nov. 14.—Six hardy Newfoundlanders came to the office of the British consul-general Saturday and told the story of the crippling of the British schooner Ella C. The shipwrecked crew was landed at Bermuda and thence shipped to Boston.

TO KEEP 'EM ON THE FARM

The thousands of farm laborers who migrated to industrial centres under the inducement of war-time wages are likely to yearn for the old farm when they find themselves facing a jobless winter, in the opinion of one American student of current industrial conditions. "Periods of industrial depression always cause much hardship in farming communities," he says, "but the farmer can always get enough to eat, and does not have to worry about the month's rent or gas bill, as does the idle factory employee. Still, I do not look for any noticeable 'back-to-the-farm' movement. That sort of talk will be heard again, but it never materializes. The depression, however, will certainly serve to check the city-ward migration, which the recent census showed to be attaining an appalling volume."

How Color Should Be Used in Window Displays. Window display may be described as the art of showing merchandise through the show window in a way that will exploit its uses and enhance its value, says a display manager who has decorated many prize-winning windows.

It is the direct means of bringing to the passing public—as well as the avowed patrons—and the store. Window display creates the desire of possession, educates for adornment, and for comfort and refinement in the home. It interests people in the merchandise when they are in front of the store, and the invitation and opportunity is presented to buy.

A window display should appeal first to the eye and then to the latent desire in the customer's mind for something which represents that desire. A display should express one or more ideas drawn from the uses and meanings of the goods, rather than their price and appearance.

To advertise, a display must get attention, and the more people are impressed with its appeal the greater is the publicity gained. It is chiefly design that first attracts attention—or the design is the means of bringing out the beauty and usefulness of the merchandise. It is the formation and arrangement of units which make the essentials of good design.

Color in window display is a big subject which cannot be treated in a few words. Many display men seem to use color and express their ideas by means of contrasts and harmonies. In general it can be said that contrasting colors make a display stand out against a darker ground, and dark merchandise against a light ground.

White is desirable as an associate with luminous colors. Black is desirable as an associate with luminous colors. Orange and Yellow are desirable as associates with white. Red is desirable as an associate with white and yellow.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

THE PROBABLY THE MOST EFFECTIVE REMEDY FOR BRIGHT'S DISEASE, GRAVEL, NEURALGIA, RHEUMATISM, GOUT, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE URINARY TRACT.

It all figured out. In the next two days' issues of the Newburgh News he carried a quarter-page advertisement reading: 'We'll give you real money for your old hat. Cash in on your discarded hat. Here's how you do it: Clip this coupon; send your wife, son or daughter, or better, come yourself to this store on Friday or Saturday. We will allow you 10 per cent on your old hat, no matter how old or battered it may be.'

Did Du Mond stimulate his hat trade? If he may be allowed to drop into the verbiage of the vicar, he will say he did. He had old lids piled behind his counter, he had 'em piled in his store, and when he closed shop on Saturday night he had them piled in front of his counters.

Two thousand silk shirts sold on the opening day of a week's sale with returns for the day on single item aggregating more than $12,000. This was the feat in retail merchandizing recently accomplished by MacDougal & Southwick, Inc., of Seattle, Wash., in the city of New York.

Intensive specialization was the plan first conceived by the best man in the hat business. It was to gain the men's trade. Hopkins devoted considerable study to men's wear. He studied himself and he studied the man he was to sell to.

A pound instead of 80 cents; sugar is below half of 30 cents a pound; wheat has brought on $3 a bushel; automobiles have been substantially cut in price, and so have many other things.

What cost $5 can now be bought for $4, the authoritative "averages" record. In other words, the dollars which couldn't buy even 50 cent's worth of merchandise a few months ago, can now buy considerably more than 50 cent's worth.

Yet what do we find? Widespread alarm over the way things are going. Panic talk is indulged in. Business men who ought to know better talk as if the downward movement will never end—just as they talked so confidently not long ago to the effect that rising prices would go on and on.

There is a limit to every trend, every industrial, every financial, every price swing. Extremes rarely last long. Normal conditions, so to speak, are the usual, the most common, the normal thing. What has been happening is the return towards the normal. Some prices no doubt will collapse too far, in fact, some of them appear already to have dropped to unreasonably low levels.

The wise policy to pursue is to keep one's head and refuse to be stampeded by seamy predictions that everything is bumping along towards predition. The time to be ultra-conservative is at the height of a boom. The time to exercise confidence and courage is when prices become illogically low. Certain long-headed, far-sighted financiers and executives are now placing large orders for certain materials on the theory that a recovery in them will be witnessed during 1921. It is proverbial that the best time to buy is when everybody wants to sell.

BILL SHARON TO BE SOLD FOR $25,000

T. W. Murphy of Poughkeepsie Decides to Pay That Sum for New Brunswick Horse.

St. Stephen, N. B., Nov. 15.—Frank C. Murchie of Milltown, N. B., manager of the racing interests of Archie Alcorn of Blackville, received a telegram on Saturday evening stating that T. W. Murphy of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., had finally decided to pay $25,000 in American funds for Bill Sharon, 2:11 1/2.

Bill Sharon was bred by Samuel J. Boyle of Fredericton, who sold him last spring to Mr. Alcorn for $8,500. He was a chestnut stallion, five years old in last September. He was sired by Captain Aubrey, 2:07 1/2, a son of the famous Peter the Great, which was purchased by the Nova Scotia government some years ago. His dam was Norway W., 2:18 1/2, by Lockaway. He goes to the Grand Circuit with an unbeaten record after nineteen races of the half mile tracks.

FOKKER SEES 1-DAY FLIGHTS TO EUROPE

Noted War Airplane Inventor Arrives on Business Visit to America—Tells of Allied Blunders.

(New York Times.)
Anthony H. G. Fokker, inventor of the Fokker monoplane, which was acknowledged by the Allies to have been the fastest pursuit plane used in the war, arrived yesterday from Rotterdam on the Holland-America liner Noordam, accompanied by his wife and secretary, Robert B. C. Noordyn, who was formerly the Chief Engineer of the Armstrong Whitworth Works at Barry, England.
The aeroplane inventor, who is a Hollander, about thirty years old, said he had a big factory in Amsterdam and had come in his first visit to the United States to look over our aeroplane factories and aviation fields.
In an interview with the reporters on the pier, Mr. Fokker said:
"I am out to get business and naturally have come to the United States. Although I had my business in Germany during the war, I never lost my Dutch nationality. I offered my machines to England and America in 1912 but they did not take me seriously, and as I had to sell my goods somewhere, I found a customer in Germany. I was in the German army or in the service of the German government. The fuselage of the Fokker pursuit plane, which had a speed of 120 miles an hour, was made of steel and the wings of wood, without any struts or braces.

Just before the armistice was signed I had invented a new machine gun to fire 4,800 shots a minute. The Allies had five times the number of planes and it was necessary for us to have a gun to shoot six times as fast as theirs.
"Within the next five or ten years," said Mr. Fokker, "people will be able to cross the Atlantic from New York in less than twenty-four hours, and in much more comfort than traveling by steamship.

"Wind and bad weather do not now trouble flyers. Flying by night and in fog can be made certain by the development of directional wireless just as steamships reach port today guided by submarine signals."
The Dutch inventor said that his new commercial airplane was carrying the mail daily between London, Brussels, Berlin, Hamburg and Copenhagen. He said that the war type of machine was not practical for commercial purposes because it was too expensive to operate. In his opinion, an all-metal airplane will be developed but he does not think the right one exists at present. The transatlantic plane will be of that type, Mr. Fokker added. The airplane, he said, will be used in the future only among islands or in remote parts of the world where there are no landing places.

Mr. Fokker said he learned to fly at the age of 10 in a machine that he had built himself. Mrs. Fokker is an enthusiastic flier and frequently accompanies her husband in his flights.

TRAGEDY DID NOT PHASE PARIS FLAT SEEKERS

Applied for Apartments While Bodies of Husband and Wife Still Lay There.

Paris, Oct. 27.—(Associated Press Correspondent)—One thousand francs only remaining of her former wealth, Madeleine Moreno who was a renowned singer in gay Paris theatres before she married Joseph O'Brien, a coachman for one of the wealthiest residents of the Champs Elysees, invited her husband out to dinner a short time ago.

To one of the most expensive restaurants in Paris, the scene of Mademoiselle Moreno's former splendor, they went. They returned home about two o'clock in the morning, minus the 1,000 francs. An hour later Mrs. O'Brien cut her husband's throat with a razor, then committed suicide.

The concierge of the apartment, where the couple occupied a handsomely furnished flat in a street leading from the Champs Elysees, reported the matter to the police and in a few minutes a distinguished looking man called.

He made many inquiries concerning the affair, while the concierge answered: "Mr. Police Commissioner," she added, "please hurry and have the bodies removed from the flat."

"I am not the police commissioner," replied the visitor, "but you admit the flat is vacant; that the price is so much; then I will rent the apartment. I have been looking for one for over a year."

IN SWEDEN SOME ARE NOT CHEERFUL ABOUT OUTLOOK

Many Workmen Out of Employment—The Government Said to be Anxious to Retire.

Stockholm, Oct. 26.—(Associated Press Correspondent)—Prospects for the coming winter are regarded by many Swedish business men as anything but bright at present. After the war blockade was lifted, the country became flooded with American and English produce, chiefly textiles, foodstuffs, and automobiles. As a result, the dollar rate soared from $20 known to nearly 6. The importation of foreign foodstuffs soon ceased, but textiles and automobiles are still pouring into the country at such a rate that an embargo upon their importation is being seriously considered.

The overflow has thrown thousands of Swedish workers out of employment. The great mills at Norrköping and Borås have been working only four days weekly since August and they are now preparing a general dismissal of their employees.

High wages, and the operation of the eight-hour day which has been in force here for a year, are blamed in some quarters for this state of affairs.

its limits abound. A strike in the building trade has lasted for nearly a year and the housing problem has become so acute that to rent a flat in Stockholm or in any of the big Swedish centres is well nigh impossible.

With all this, the workers continue agitating for still higher wages and shorter hours. The elections last September resulted in disapproval of the socialist regime and the present socialist government is said to be anxious to relinquish office.

Discolored Teeth mean Decay—Decay often means Pyorrhea

Examine your teeth in the morning. See that brownish cast? THAT'S COATING. Neglect allows that coating to form into tartar—the first stage of decay. The decay germs attack and destroy the enamel, and finally undermine the entire tooth structure. The gums become inflamed and recede—the teeth loosen and drop out—THAT'S PYORRHEA.

Minty's Tooth Paste
the active preventive

There can be no coating where Minty's is used, for it keeps the teeth free from all foreign matter. It keeps the teeth white and clean—the gums firm and healthy, and the breath pure and sweet.

You will appreciate its delightful taste and the wonderfully refreshing after-effect, and you will be pleased with its economy, for Minty's means:

"Tooth Health Insurance for less than $1 a year"

Insist on Minty's—there's NO "just as good"
