LIBERALS OF CHARLOTTE NAME TODD AT ROUSING CONVENTION County Solid for Popular Candidate and Reciprocity—A Tremendous Crowd at Greatest Political Demonstration Ever Held There—Ovation for Hon. Mr. Pugsley

St. Stephen, N. B., Aug. 14.—Prosperous Charlotte county progressed another step today by coming out strongly in favor of Laurier and large markets in the greatest political demonstration ever held in the county.

In open convention in the St. Stephen riding rink this afternoon 300 Liberal delegates, from every parish in the county, unanimously nominated William F. Todd, member for Charlotte since 1908, to again contest the county in the government's interest.

The candidate was given a hearty reception both at the convention and at the public meeting held in the rink in the evening, and his election by a greatly increased majority is conceded on all sides.

A Crowded Convention. The convention in the afternoon was held in the St. Stephen Curling Ring and every seat was taken in the large hall. When the band arrived, on motion of John W. Scoville, who called the meeting to order, Senator Gilmore was chosen chairman and he ascended the platform amid the cheers of the gathering.

The senator made a fighting speech, in which he said the large attendance in the "busiest session of the year could only be accounted for by the fact that there was something more at stake than the mere division of parties. The people of Charlotte were taking up in their independence against the domination of a rich and aristocratic clique who, fattened with the seat of the land, had now set themselves against the people bestowing the product of their labor in the most profitable market.

The name of R. E. Armstrong, editor of the St. Andrews Beacon, was enthusiastically received when a secretary was proposed and Mr. Armstrong took his place on the platform.

N. Marks Mills then moved a resolution for the formation of a Liberal Association for the county which was carried and a nominating committee was chosen to name officers of the association. W. W. Clarke, E. Gleason, J. McGowan, George Dalzell and G. D. Gimmier formed the nominating committee and the officers chosen and endorsed were as follows: President, R. E. Armstrong; St. Andrews, vice-presidents, Percy Anderson, Leonard Simpson, E. L. Connolly, John Russell, Wm. Babcock, Herbert Anderson, Calvin Ingalls and Harrison McAllister.

The committee retired and returned in a few minutes with the report that they were agreed on the name of William F. Todd. This announcement was received with great cheers and the committee was dispatched to notify Mr. Todd at his residence.

Byron's Ringing Speech. Geo. M. Byron of Westpool, Campbell made a ringing speech in favor of reciprocity. Referring to the fishermen he said: "Any way," said Mr. Byron, "they told me they were not going to be any of the advantages of reciprocity, that they knew it only too well. When we take our oil over to Eastport in boats," he said, "and pay out of our pocket eight cents per gallon or 44 per bushel duty, don't you suppose we know what reciprocity means. We pay ninety cents per quart for the American boats to come over to buy our herring instead of going over ourselves to the market. You people up here who are so sure about reciprocity but do not need any information on the subject, you are just an optimist," continued Mr. Byron. "I came back to this country as other young men are doing, because I have come in, for I believe it has a future and I cannot see how any man would want to spoil chances by reviving Toryism."

The right of selling the product of the farm and the sea was a divine privilege conferred upon the toiler by nature herself, and should not be interfered with by the fiscal policy of man. Farmers and fishermen had been trading for years with the United States and traffic would continue to follow the natural channel. The United States found that the cost of living had gone up 90 per cent, while wages had advanced but 20 per cent.

The evening meeting was also largely attended with a number of ladies greeting the occasion by their presence. The band again furnished music, and with the hall (well) decorated a brilliant scene was presented. "Laurier and Reciprocity," "Pugsley and Todd" were the banners which set off the entrance of the Hon. Mr. Pugsley and Hon. Mr. Todd.

Dr. J. Walker Moore acted as chairman, and on the platform were Hon. Mr. Pugsley, W. F. Todd, R. E. Armstrong, Frank Todd, Henry E. Hill, James Stevens, A. Mungall, George M. Byron, H. McAllister.

From the first, the audience was enthusiastic and when the candidate was announced he was received with an outburst of applause. Having taken up so much time at the afternoon meeting, he said he would show reciprocity by allowing the honored guest an opportunity to speak.

Mr. Todd referred to reciprocity as the paramount issue of the campaign and spoke at some length on the subject, bringing out many new points not touched upon in his afternoon address. He concluded amid hearty applause.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley was given a fine reception. He spoke of the good record of Mr. Todd, who worked the county representative had done of the increase of trade and prosperity under Liberal rule and enlarged upon the reciprocity agreement.

He quoted from Sir John Macdonald, Sir John Thompson and Hon. J. D. Hazen showing that they had favored reciprocity.

Gangos Asked for Duty Free Materials. Mr. Pugsley roused much enthusiasm by reading a letter from the St. Croix Soap Company, in which the Gangos are requested to ask for the placing of crude glycerine on the United States free list, which was done.

Mr. Pugsley thought that reciprocity was going to sap the loyalty of those interested, should he not have called attention to it. If Mr. Gangos had thought there was danger of his loyalty, had he not better have paid one cent a pound on the duty free list.

They looked northward to the land full of energy to Canada with her wheat fields filling up with settlers from the old land, with her farmers crying out for larger markets. If the farmer the encouragement of farming sixty acres of ground instead of twenty or thirty acres of ground, farmers along the border raised more than was needed in the home market, for there was no chance to increase his output.

Only the farmer and fisherman and lumberman were affected by the agreement as the manufacturer was not injured. The factory owner must realize that the happiness and welfare of his employees depends on the success of his plant, and that reciprocity will make his workmen more prosperous and contented.

The American percentage of agricultural population has decreased from 60 per cent to 33 per cent. They are satisfied to buy their wheat and other farm products at England, which under free trade has become the greatest producing nation in the world. Her dealing with other nations had not weakened the allegiance to the national ideals. (Cheers.)

"If it is a reasonable argument that because we are sending out some of our products that some of our loyalty is slipping out of the ends of our fingers, we are a nation, born of the British constitution, proud members of the Anglo-Saxon race which has fought out the greatest path of civilization and solved the deepest intercourses of trade."

The Benefits of Reciprocity. Mr. Todd went on to speak in detail of the benefits which would accrue to the farmer and fisherman under reciprocity. The acreage growing up in bushes all over the country would be reclaimed and planted in productive crops.

As for the fishermen, the smoke houses, long in ruins, would be raised up again and every man become his own manufacturer. Boston regulated the price and the removal of the duty added just as much to the current price, and if the London or Paris market was better the fishermen would have a perfect right to send their fish there. Porto Rico market, one of the best in the world, would be open under reciprocity.

No person was harmed by the agreement, but it brought a market which helped the country to be where she truly belonged, among the greatest of the earth. Canada could learn from the experience of the United States, hampered by the high tariff. By giving free paper to the States the result, he could safely predict, would be the establishment of a dozen or more big paper mills in Canada.

Charlotte county was just beginning to receive its just dues. The eastern farmer was waking up to his opportunity and good farm in the east was worth as much as a rich ranch in the west.

In closing, Mr. Todd reiterated his pledge to work in the interests of the county, and said that he was going to give the constituency the heartiest support that he has ever received in parliament. The noblest vote that the electors could cast was that they should vote for reciprocity. (Cheers.)

The Evening Chit-Chat By RUTH CAMERON

"Two men looked out from prison bars; One saw mud, another stars." Robt Louis Stevenson.

ISN'T it an interesting thought to realize how much the subjective element enters into our vision? In other words, what a different world each and every one of us sees.

And I don't refer only to the difference between the man who sees mud and the man who sees stars, the man who sees clouds and the man who sees sunshine, but to the fact that no two people ever see the same world in any sense. For instance, three people—two men and a woman—walk down the street together.

One man is interested in architecture. He is thinking of building a house. So he sees all the houses on the street. He notes the French roof of one, the comfortable bay windows of another, places a third in the popular Queen Anne period, and approves the long French windows of a fourth.

The other man is interested in automobiles. He notices the makes of all that pass, calculates their horsepower, mentally criticizes the wind shield of one and admires the color scheme of another.

The woman sees the people they pass, gets an idea for her spring hat from the first woman, thinks the man who comes next is a Gibson type and looks rather like her beloved Mr. Gillette, wonders why on earth the next woman wears her hair so unbecomingly, is so glad she doesn't have to live with that cross-looking man, and screws her head way round for a last look at that duck of a baby in the white kitty cap.

And yet, what different things those three people saw—and didn't see—and they passed down the street. One and the same street. And yet, what different things those three people saw—and didn't see—and they passed down the street.

As a matter of fact, we see what is within us as much as what is without, and our eyes are far more like the artist who picks and chooses and concentrates the light on one object and shades it from another, than the camera, which must represent everything before it impartially.

La MARQUISE de FONTENOY Act of Parliament to Settle Nationality of Lord Acton—Family History of Interest—Great Gift of Books, But Costly

(Copyright, 1911, by the Brentwood Company.) What is known as a "private act of parliament," has just been passed in England under the title "an act to remove doubts as to the nationality of Richard Maximilian Baron Acton, and his issue."

The peer concerned is the present Lord Acton, who was born in the present town of Rome, and is a lord in waiting to King George, as he is to Edward VII., and first secretary of the British legation at the Hague. That such an act of parliament should have become necessary is due to the fact that Lord Acton's father, the late Sir John Acton, was born in the present town of Rome, and is a lord in waiting to King George, as he is to Edward VII., and first secretary of the British legation at the Hague.

One of these ancestors, namely, Sir John Acton, sixth baronet of the line, was prime minister of the Kingdom of Naples at the beginning of the nineteenth century, and was a member of the Neapolitan army and navy; so that his English citizenship was a matter of some doubt.

The present Lord Acton has been voting in the upper chamber of the House of Lords, which he has done since he was elected to the peerage, and he has cast his vote in the House of Lords, which he has done since he was elected to the peerage, and he has cast his vote in the House of Lords, which he has done since he was elected to the peerage.

Lord Acton's father was one of the closest and most valued friends of Andrew Carnegie, and at the time of his death had just completed the by no means easy task of forming the private library of the multi-millionaire at Sictho Castle. There were 10,000 volumes to be selected and the money which Carnegie advanced for the purpose amounted to $100,000.

The Laird of Sictho could certainly not have found anyone better qualified to undertake the task for the late Lord Acton was one of the most learned and in every sense of the word intellectual members of the nineteenth century, and who served in parliament. He was regius professor of history at the University of Cambridge and the late Mr. Gladstone, who was no mean judge, was wont to declare that of all the persons he had ever met, Lord Acton was the one whose learning covered the widest range and whose sources of knowledge were the most extraordinarily extensive.

The Actons are one of the oldest Shropshire families, figured prominently in the reign of Edward III., and received their baronetcy from Charles I. They have always had foreign affiliations. John Acton was admiral in chief of the imperial German navy in the Adriatic in the eighteenth century. Joseph was lieutenant general of the Neapolitan army. Charles was commander of the Neapolitan navy. William, Ferdinand and Emery were all vice admirals of the Italian navy, and their younger brother, Gustave, a commodore in the Neapolitan navy, was killed at Sictho in the same service, two of them serving, in turn, as Italian ministers of marine.

Their only sister is now Donna Laura Minghetti who, after joining the late Earl Granville, married the late Sicilian Prince Camporeale and at the time of the Italian premier, the late Marquis Minghetti, she had two children by her first marriage. One of them is Princess Bowdler, wife of the former chancellor of the German empire. The other is Senator Prince Camporeale, married to the daughter of John Binney of Boston, and divorced wife of Thomas Kingsland, of New York.

With regard to the late Lord Acton who was sixth baronet of the line, and whom I describe as having played so important a role in the nineteenth century, and who figured so prominently in connection with Admiral Lord Nelson, Queen Victoria, and the English and the English ambassador, Emma, Lady Hamilton, he was succeeded in his baronetcy by his eldest son, Ferdinand, his second son, Charles, becoming a cardinal, and in his turn, prime minister of the kingdom of Naples. Sir Ferdinand married the only daughter and heir of the last Duke of Dalberg, and died five

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional means. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it swells and accumulates fluid in the ear, and when it is entirely blocked, deafness is the result. It is a curable condition, and can be taken out of the ear by the use of our special treatment, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

ASTOR'S FIANCEE TO BE EASY ON THE BANK BOOK

No $20,000 Trousseau For Her; $1,000, She Says, is the Limit of Expenditure

New York, Aug. 15.—(Canadian Press)—From the opinion of some Fifth Avenue modistes today Miss Madeline Force, the young fiancée of Col. John Jacob Astor, is to be very economical in the arrangements for her wedding trousseau. It was learned that she and Col. Astor drove in a taxicab to five shops yesterday afternoon, where the young woman made it plain that $1,000 would be the limit of expenditure for her wedding finery. In contrast to the $20,000 which her trousseau is said to have spent on her trousseau, including $2,200 for a single gown. It was said that Miss Force objected to a $2,200 creation, which one modiste showed her, and found one at a shop further on, which pleased her just as well for $100.

PURSUe MURDERER ACROSS SPUR OF THE MOUNT BLANC RANGE

Exciting Chase and Final Capture at the Height of 7,700 Feet

Geneva, Aug. 15.—An exciting chase after a murderer, across a spur of the Mount Blanc range, took place the other day, and the fugitive was finally arrested and handcuffed at a height of 7,700 feet by gendarmes and Alpines.

Three young Italian workmen were repairing an Alpine hut at Rosaz, near the summit of the Tourmaire, a mountain near Geneva, when two of them, named Delcambre and Goupis, quarrelled. The former drew a knife and stabbed his companion, who died almost immediately.

Delcambre then fled across the mountains in the direction of the Swiss frontier, with the object of reaching Geneva. Two Alpines who had witnessed the murder followed his track, and after a long and arduous chase, he was finally captured at a height of 7,700 feet by gendarmes and Alpines.

Meanwhile, Delcambre had descended the Tourmaire and after crossing the Col de Montromont. Owing to the great heat, the pursuers were at a disadvantage, for the fugitive proved an expert climber. Moreover, he hid the ordinary path and showed his life in a most surprising manner. He was finally captured at a height of 7,700 feet by gendarmes and Alpines.

Finally the murderer showed signs of exhaustion, and he set down on a rock to rest. The gendarmes drew their revolvers when they came within range, and threatened to shoot him unless he surrendered. He gave up and allowed himself to be handcuffed and led to Thones.

"Let well enough alone," says Mr. Borden. But does the census show that it is well enough with the maritime provinces?

GREAT SHOOTING AT THE ONTARIO MEET

Marked Made Wonderful Scores at 500, 600 and 800 Yard Ranges

(Canadian Press)

Toronto, Aug. 15.—Sensational shooting marked the opening day of the Ontario Rifle Association's annual meeting at Long Branch range, Sergeant Major Hughson of the 19th regiment, Hamilton, put thirteen successive bulls at 500 yards in the extra series, and Lieut. F. Morse, of Bowmanville, also made a possible at 500 yards with seven shots and added three more bulls eyes to his score for "his" 500.

An unfortunate circumstance prevented Sergeant Phillips of the 10th Royal Grenadier being credited with the same performance. He scored his possible, and put on three bulls' eyes, but his last shot hit on the wrong target.

The greatest achievement of the day is to be credited to Corporal A. Ward, of the 7th Field Artillery and Private J. W. Smith, of the 24th regiment, who made perfect scores on both the 500 and 600 yard ranges, with seven rounds at each in the first stage of the "City of Toronto" match. Captain Salter, of the 64th D. C. O. R., Vancouver, missed the bull's eye only one shot all through the day, and his record stands at 138 points.

TROOPS FIRE OVER HEADS STRIKERS

London, Aug. 15.—(Canadian Press)—Parliament had arranged to adjourn next Friday, but it is being called upon to abandon all idea of a holiday until some permanent settlement of the almost universal dispute has been reached.

Today Premier Asquith held a conference at his office with the other ministers and the labor leaders when the whole question was discussed.

Manchester, Aug. 15.—The railway strike spread today but there was little disturbance of public order. The flour merchants say the city is within three days of starvation.

New York, Aug. 15.—Local offices of the Trans-Atlantic steamship companies and forwarding agents, have been advised to cut down the receipt of consignments to the barest limits, on account of the labor disturbances in England. For this reason the companies sailing tomorrow, and the Cedric on Thursday, will have light loads. No new orders are to be taken here except on the shippers' risk with the chance that the goods will be brought back to this city. The only local shipping circles in that the strike comes at an unfortunate time, and is likely to injure the business of the year.

Give the farmers, the lumbermen and fishermen their turn. Their prosperity means prosperity for the province.

THE TRUE LOYALISTS

The appeal of the Conservatives in this campaign is to ignorance and prejudice. If the people of Canada were ignorant instead of intelligent; and if they were easily influenced by prejudice, instead of being fair-minded and endowed with hard common sense, they might listen to the inflammatory appeals made to them by the Conservative press and speakers.

But the people are far too well informed to be hoodwinked in this matter of reciprocity. They will treat with the contempt it deserves the insinuation that their loyalty is measured by the extent to which they keep up the tariff walls.

They know that the trade agreement is not a treaty, such as the Conservatives were so eager for years to secure, but an agreement that can be terminated at any time.

By what right do the Conservatives claim to be the only loyal citizens of Canada? Is it because they have allied themselves with Mr. Henri Bourassa? Is it because they opposed a preference for England unless England gave a preference in return?

The facts are all against these gentlemen. The true loyalists are those who seek to strengthen the Empire by bringing prosperity and building up the Dominion of Canada.

THE TORY CANDIDATES Now that Dr. Daniel has been re-nominated, the electors of St. John city and county will ask themselves what he has done as their representative to assist the minister of public works in advancing the interests of this constituency, and especially of St. John as a national port.

There were the usual loud boasts last night of a great Conservative victory. There was even a telegram telling that Hon. Mr. Bower, just back from England, predicts a clean sweep in British Columbia. This is one way of proving that reciprocity is not desirable, but not perhaps the most effective.

Of course there was flag-waving. That is the piece-de-resistance at every tory feast. But if the mother country should ask Canada to conclude a trade arrangement with some country solely for the benefit of the mother country, what would these light-souled patriots say about it? They even opposed the British preference because Canada did not get a preference in return.

The electors of St. John are not afraid of themselves, or of their ability to remain loyal to the British flag, even if the steamers between this port and Boston should take out full cargoes. To say, as was said last night at the Conservative convention that a trade agreement which can be terminated at will endangers the integrity of the British Empire is a gross insult to the people of Canada.

A RECORD OF WORK One of the very foolish methods adopted by Conservatives in St. John is to try to persuade the voters that the proposed harbor works on the west side and in Courtney Bay will never be carried out, and that promises are being made merely for election purposes.

Have three great British contracting firms been induced to send their engineers to St. John to figure on a bogus contract? Would the engineers of the public works department at Ottawa be compelled to waste months of valuable time preparing plans and specifications for very extensive works which the government had no intention of carrying out? Such a contention is too silly and absurd to be considered for one moment, and yet Conservative leaders think it is a good enough argument to present to the intelligent electors of St. John.

What has the minister of public works done for St. John? The harbor channel has been dredged to a depth of thirty-two feet at the lowest tide. This work has been going on month after month and is now almost completed. Dredges have also been at work preparing the site for an extensive series of wharves at West St. John. One new wharf with warehouses has been built since the government, at the solicitation of Dr. Pugsley, took over the work of building wharves in this harbor. Tenders will be called for at once, as stated in the Times yesterday, for some sixteen hundred feet of wharf, which will also serve as a sea wall to protect the filling which the C. P. R. will use to level up the flats, and make them ready for laying railway yards. This very extensive work will be followed by further wharf building, as part of a comprehensive plan prepared by the engineers of the public works department.

As to Courtney Bay, three tenders have been received for the dry dock and other great works there, and are now being examined by the government's engineers. The contract for this work will doubtless be awarded very soon. Then there is the question of a great ship building plant. There is an excellent prospect that this great plant for the construction of vessels for the Canadian navy will be located at St. John. The prospect is so good that the provincial as well as the civic authorities are considering what inducements may fairly be offered to the successful tenderers to erect their plant on the shore of Courtney Bay.

"MY BACK IS KILLING ME"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" WILL CURE

Backache means Congestion of the Kidneys. Dull ache in the back—sharp, shooting pains—headache and nervousness—mean that the Kidneys are overworked. The bowels are constipated and the skin is inactive, so that the Kidneys are compelled to do the work of both bowels and skin in throwing off the waste of the body. The Kidneys thus become irritated and inflamed and backache results. The only possible way to relieve this congestion and cure the pain is to loosen the bowels and skin to do their share of the work.

SPEAK TO ME, LORD

Speak to me, Lord, in the calm early morning, As, fresh from my slumbers, Thy presence I seek. Teach me to walk 'mid life's cares and temptations, And pure and unspotted my spirit to keep.

Speak to me, Lord, in the glare of the noonday, When, weary and fainting, I stumble and fall. Oh, speak to me then, lest in stress of temptation The world and its baubles my soul shall enthrall.

Speak to me, Lord, in the hush of the evening, When the hills echo back the sweet Angelus chime; And up from the vale in the paths homeward wending The sheep and the shepherd in quietness climb.

Speak to me, Lord, when the night shades have fallen, And far overhead the stars twinkle and shine, Speak "Patience" and "Peace" ere I sink into slumber, And light up my couch with Thy radiance divine. —Gertrude M. Watson

Troubles in Spain
Paris, Aug. 14—Vague rumors of political troubles in Spain are afloat here. They cannot be confirmed and appear to be based chiefly on the absence of definite news to the contrary from Madrid where the censorship of press despatches has been particularly strict since the mutiny on board the Spanish battleship Niencia.

Mrs. Hen, having performed her conjugal function, took a constitutional around the yard. Returning to her nest she found it empty and checked angrily.
"What's the trouble, ma'am?" asked the rooster.
"It's mighty funny," she grumbled, "that I can never find things where I lay them."

LUIGI, THE BARBER'S ASSISTANT, HIS LOVE AND THE STERN FATHER

Elopement Not Followed by The Expected Pardon, and There Are High Jinks for a While

Naples, Aug. 15.—The matrimonial adventures of Luigi Meirino, a young barber's assistant, would provide material for a new version of the "Nouze di Figaro." For the last couple of years he had been in the employ of one Nicola d'Antonio, who was known to his numerous patrons as Don Antonio.

One of Luigi's duties was to repair every morning to his master's private residence to obtain the keys of the shop, which were handed to him by the youngest and prettiest of Don Antonio's daughters, now bore the name of Giovanna. Luigi was as susceptible to female attractions as any young man might be at the age of 19, and he quickly succumbed to Giovanna's beauty, and soon Giovanna also burned with an equally ardent passion for her father's handsome assistant. Mutual vows were exchanged, but when permission for their realization was requested, Don Antonio opposed a stern negative.

However, love laughs at barbers no less than at locksmiths, and one night Giovanna left the parental abode and fled with her dear Luigi far from Naples. They remained away four days, then, thinking that the wrath of Don Antonio had had time to subside, they returned to ask his blessing. The barber was by no means appeased, but the honor of the family demanded reparation, so a marriage was arranged, and took place so far as the civil ceremony was concerned.

But the bridegroom's punishment had yet to come. The ceremony was over, and the bride, taking leave of her parents, was about to ascend a carriage with her husband, when the stern Don Antonio seized his daughter by the arm and ordered her to follow her mother home. Turning next to the bridegroom, Don Antonio commanded him to resume his labors in the shop. Luigi protested, his father-in-law insisted, the members of the two families joined in the dispute, and at last sticks and umbrellas were whirling in the air. The battle was proceeding merrily, when a group of policemen appeared on the scene, divided the combatants, and escorted them to the police station. After much wrangling, a compromise was arranged and the bride was to remain with her parents until the religious ceremony was performed, after which she would pass under the control of her husband. The disputants were then permitted to leave the station, which they did in small groups, but they had to run the gauntlet of the caustic comments of the crowd, which had assembled outside.

CONSERVATIVES ARE UNEASY; DANIEL GOES TO THE COUNTY

Powell is The City Candidate—Restigouche and Kent Tories Nominate—Liberal Campaign in Northumberland Goes With Swing

At the Conservative convention in Keith's Assembly rooms last night H. A. Powell, K. C., was chosen as the party candidate for the city and county of St. John. There was a large attendance. In the absence of W. H. Thorne for the city, Recorder Baxter occupied the chair and later Hon. Robert Maxwell presided. It was decided to have a committee of the chairman or vice-chairmen of the wards and parishes select candidates. While the committee presented two names, Powell for the city and Daniel for the county. The chairman was for having the candidates be accepted but there were protests from delegates who insisted that they have some say. Efforts to have the motion voted upon met with continued protests and Recorder Baxter smoothed matters off by suggesting that the candidates be accepted but that the balloting for the constituencies. This was done with the result as told. A resolution of loyalty to H. H. Jordan was moved by Ald. Wigmore and one against the reciprocity pact by Recorder Baxter. Calls for candidates brought them to the platform and each spoke.

From Northumberland come reports of fine meetings in the interests of the Liberal cause. W. S. Loggie's campaign is going with a swing. The Conservatives yesterday nominated W. S. Montgomery, mayor of Dalhousie, at a meeting held in Campbellton.

In Restigouche, Kent county, Conservatives nominated Ferdinand J. Robitoux as candidate.

INVITE REPRESENTATIVE OF WARSHIP BUILDERS TO BE HERE TOMORROW

At a meeting of the general committee of the common council yesterday afternoon Mayor Frink read a letter from the Montreal representative of the Canadian Laid Company, reported to be the lowest tenderers for the construction of the naval vessel. It was decided that Mr. Reid representing the company be asked to be at a meeting here tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is expected that Premier Hazen will be present, also the Minister of Public Works. The feeling of the meeting was that as liberal an offer as possible should be made to the company to build the vessels here.

At a special meeting of the board of works yesterday afternoon the matter of widening Mill street was discussed. It was decided to recommend that the sidewalk on the west side of the street running along the face of the C. P. R. property be widened and pavement laid. The width of the street will thus be increased nine feet and if the city secures the right of way to the C. P. R.'s twenty-five feet it is thought traffic will be accommodated.

At a private meeting of the board of works yesterday afternoon the complaint of W. H. Thorne against the harbor master was taken up. HOME FROM STATES, SAYS RECIPROcity MEANS GREAT BOON.

Former Baie Verte Man Urges Canadians to Vote for the Trade Agreement—Sir Wilfrid Should Have Record Majority.

(Sackville Tribune).

I. N. Chappell, formerly of Baie Verte, but some thirty years a resident of Boston, was in Sackville Friday. Speaking to the Tribune Mr. Chappell said he was very much in favor of reciprocity, both from the American and Canadian standpoint. The people in the United States who want reciprocity are the wage-earners, the great mass of consumers, who have been hit by the trusts and monopolies. The idea is that under reciprocity it will be much harder for the trusts to get control of the food stuffs and thus the cost of living will be reduced. The farmers of New England, said Mr. Chappell, are greatly opposed to reciprocity. They are afraid that the Canadian farmer will come in and glut their market. President Taft made himself very unpopular with these New England farmers because of the strenuous efforts he has put forth in order to secure the passage of the reciprocity agreement.

Reciprocity, said Mr. Chappell, will be a great boon to Canada, especially to the Maritime Provinces. Here you are with in twenty-four hours' ride of Boston, a city which would afford a splendid market for your hay, lumber, potatoes, lumber, etc. With reciprocity between the two countries the farmers will know that they can raise any amount of produce, for which they can always find a ready market.

Your local market is very limited, said Mr. Chappell, everyone knows that and that is one reason why the farmers do not put forth greater efforts to produce more. There is no use to raise farm products unless they can be converted into money. Under reciprocity more money would go into the farmer's pocket, and since the farmer is the backbone of the country, the only man who really produces his prosperity, would mean the prosperity of the whole country.

Does the United States want to annex Canada? asked the Tribune. Assuredly not, said Mr. Chappell, the cry is absolutely identical in both countries. It is not by anyone. It is just a case of doing business with people who have the goods that the United States want. Our population has grown so rapidly that we really are not producing enough for ourselves. Every year the population of Canada is very near to the states and that she has the things to sell which are wanted and wanted badly in the United States. There is always a chance to sell a good article, said Mr. Chappell. It is the poor stuff that is a drag on the market. Maritime province lamb will bring more by two or three cents a pound, than other lamb. The reason it is choice and people want the best.

Altogether the proposed agreement would undoubtedly prove the greatest blessing to both countries that has ever come to them. All that is required, said the speaker, is for the people to be thoroughly informed on the question and the result will be that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will get back power with the greatest majority he has ever had.

The presentation of Lord Tennison's beautiful romance, Enoch Arden, at the Nickel yesterday was a huge success from an intellectual and artistic standpoint and brought to this popular theatre some of the largest crowds of the summer and all were unanimous in praise of the production by the Biograph company, which will be shown again today.

THE MODERN HAIR DRESS

Causes Baldness—We Cannot Change The Head Dress, But We Can Prevent Baldness. Up to the time we began to civilize him a half-headed Indian was a thing unknown. Wearing nothing on his head except the covering furnished by nature and being a stranger to the use of a hair brush especially the public one, the scalp and hair had plenty of ventilation, much sunlight and, hence, a condition favorable to a luxuriant growth of hair existed at all times.

The work of erecting a cairn on Caton's Island is to be started today by F. X. McElroy, and the work of preparing a table for the island is to be done by J. S. Conroy. Facts You Can't Rub Out

If rents were lower, and light, advertising and other modern business necessities were cheaper in the city stores they would not have to add more profit to the cost of their goods than we do. If they did enough business to control the production of all the makers of good goods in this broad land they would have a monopoly on style and quality. But, fortunately for us, it costs them a whole lot more to do business than it does us, and the makers who supply them are just as anxious to supply us, hence

HIT BY STREET CAR; IS KNOCKED OFF HIS LOAD OF WOOD

Boy's Effort to Cross Track in Front of Car Proves Disastrous, But He Escapes Injury

Excitement was caused about 11:45 in Main street today when a street car proceeding towards Indian town collided with a wood team driven by a boy, Walter Britain. The lad apparently took a sudden notion to cross the tracks in front of the oncoming car, and in doing so a number of passengers aboard, but he had evidently misjudged the distance, for the car struck the wagon, knocking him into the roadway, damaging the wagon badly, and the fender of the car also suffering damage.

INDUCTED INTO THE PASTORATE OF THE MITCHELL, ONT., CHURCH

Rev. Dr. D. N. MacRae Begins Work There Under Most Favorable Auspices—His Success at Glace Bay

The Mitchell, Ont., Recorder of August 4 contains an account of the induction of Rev. D. N. MacRae, son of the late Rev. D. MacRae, D. D., and brother of K. J. MacRae of St. John, into the pastorate of Knox Presbyterian church of that town.

Dr. MacRae was inducted by the Presbytery of Stratford and five ministers took part in the services. The Recorder says that Dr. MacRae begins his pastorate under most favorable auspices. From a clipping from the Presbyterian, it is learned that at his last service in Knox Church, Glace Bay, N. S., before going to Mitchell, Dr. MacRae received nineteen persons into church membership. He had a half year's pastorate in Mitchell, Ont., and had added 208 members to the church. The church revenues for the past year exceeded $25,000 and the church is now one of the strongest of the synod. Three years ago the congregation built a manse costing $6,000, of which less than $1,000 remains unpaid. When Dr. and Mrs. MacRae left for Ontario they received a purse of gold and other tokens of regard.

The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence.

ELLEN HAYES' CASE DEMANDS ATTENTION

Jail Thought to Be no Place For Her, and Action by Authorities Should be Taken

Picture a little maid, not fully strong mentally, about to give birth to a child and occupying the dark hole in the county jail and did not seem to realize the position she was in. After being taken into jail she began to act strangely and efforts were made to have her taken to the Provincial Hospital but so far nothing definite has been done. The girl would not consent herself to a cell and, it is said, acted so badly that she had to be removed to what is called the black hole. She is still there and is being fed on the regular jail food.

It seems to be a case which would warrant the attention of the authorities, and the sooner the girl is removed from the jail, either to the Alms House or the Provincial Hospital, the better it is felt it will be for all concerned. The girl, it is said, has no relatives in the city.
