Government vs Opposition!

Waste not Precious Time.

BE quick. You can use a minute but once--make the most of it. Specially in time when suffering from dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, bad blood or any disease of the stomach, liver or bowels. You can't take Barlock Blood Bitters too soon, every moment wasted delays the longed-for cure.

The Dominion Labor Congress meets at Ottawa on September 2nd.

Distracted People. Make an exception in favor of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Its known virtues as a cure for diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera morbus and all bowel complaints cause all who use it to regard it as the most reliable and effectual remedy obtainable.

Dr. Peters has telegraphed to Zanzibar that he has arrived in England.

Little Quarrels Breed Big. You just bring a couple of little quarrels into your family and they'll breed like sparrows, and you just bring a bottle of Barlock Blood Bitters into your house and see how quickly health and strength follow its use. Nothing exceeds it for strengthening, regulating and purifying power.

A company of Toronto capitalists will probably construct an electric street railway in Ottawa.

A Canadian Favorite. I drink a glass of green fruits and summer forms of cholera morbus, diarrhoea, and dysentery, cholera infantum, etc. As a safeguard Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept in the house. For 25 years it has been the most reliable remedy.

THESE MIRACLES ARE REPORTED TO HAVE TAKEN PLACE AT THE RECENT PILGRIMAGE TO STE. ANNE DE BEAUPRE.

The Beginning of Death. Disease is the beginning of death, its approach should be met at once by appropriate remedies. No better means exists than the use of Barlock Blood Bitters whenever symptoms of any disease of the stomach, liver, bowels or blood appear. B. B. is the best life preserver.

Germany is about establishing a Colonial Council to consider all questions relating to Colonial possessions.

What Say They? In popularity increasing. In reliability the standard in merit the first. In fact, the best remedy for all summer complaints, diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera, cholera infantum, etc. is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. All medicine dealers sell it.

The staff of the London-Central Telegraph office, numbering 400 persons, refused to cheer for the Queen but groined instead.

"When your heart is bad, and your head is hot, and you are had clean through, what is needed?" asked a Sunday school teacher of her class. "I know--Ayer's Sarsaparilla," answered a little girl, whose sick mother had recently been restored to health by that medicine.

Reports say that President Menendez, of San Salvador, did not die a natural death, but was assassinated.

Cold, cough, croup is what philosophers term "a logical sequence." One is very liable to follow the other; but by curing the cold with a dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, the cough will be stopped and the croup not needed--just at present.

A crowd of 200 clockmakers had to be dispersed by the police in New York last Thursday morning when they set upon some working operatives.

A Wonderful Fish Product. The Fish of the North Sea's Essence of Cod Liver Oil by many thousands who have taken it. It not only gives health and strength, but creates an appetite for food. Use it, and try our cod liver oil. Scott's Emulsion is perfectly palatable. Sold by all Druggists, at 20c. and 50c.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. WILSON'S SARSAPARILLA. SANDHAM'S SARSAPARILLA. BURDOCK'S BLOOD BITTERS. HOP BITTERS. HERINE BITTERS. ATWOOD BITTERS. ESTY'S IRON AND QUININE TONIC, FOWLER'S PILLO AND HUMOR CURE, BEEF IRON AND WINE, QUININE WINE. DELANCEY'S FOREMAN.

When the second son of the Right Honourable the Earl of Marleybone, commonly known as the Honourable John Westworth Richelieu Delancey, threw up his commission in Her Majesty's Life Guards Blue, and vacated his apartments in the Albany, he proposed making an entirely fresh start in life. To accomplish this he not only left his home land, literally to stich his tent 6,000 miles to the westward of the British metropolis, but also repudiated so much of his name as was not absolutely necessary for his own identification, and the exigencies of business and society in the far West.

That he was tolerably successful in his endeavors to construct his own fortune may be inferred from the fact that some four years after the Honourable John's sudden disappearance from sunny Belgraveian ball rooms and Pall Mall tub houses, plain Jack Delancey found himself the owner of a thriving master of 30,000 acres of rich grazing lands, over which roamed the finest and largest herd of short-horns in Wyoming Territory. Above and beyond all this, Jack Delancey was the most popular young man in the eastern part of the territory, both among his neighbors, who were not very numerous--and with the "cow-boys," who were decidedly numerous. To them, all after the Western style, he was Jack Delancey--no more and no less. But although this energetic scion of the house of St. Marleybone had discarded the "Honorable" and the "Westworth" and the "Richelieu," and had transformed "John" into "Jack," he was still a Delancey. He might have called himself Moses Smith--he might even have adopted a Yankee drawl and assumed the same with powerful Western twang, but he would still have remained a Delancey.

For, notwithstanding that the young man affected big untanned boots, buckskin breeches, a red shirt and a sun-burnt hat; though he dined at 12 o'clock with "the boys," and excused himself a numerous time, he was as capable, as able, as any man in the territory, who were not very numerous; though he slept in a hammock, rolled up in rather coarse blankets, and took his morning plunge in the little creek which furnished bathing facilities for all his men--he was still Jack Delancey.

It was at the first "round up," after Jack's arrival in the West, and the boys were dining after a hard morning's work branding the young cattle.

"That 'ere Delancey 'o' yours is blooded!" said a gaunt Kentuckian from a neighboring ranch. "He's got the genuine liquid in his veins, you kin bet. He's 'apt, he is, an' he's fair, so he is."

"He me 'apt, he is, that's same!" responded a son of Erin. "He's a lad siled to none--arrab, thin, he jabsers, I mean he's second to none!"

"I 'ur told up to the station, when I 'ur over a month, as he 'ur a cook or a herd-mayor or sumthin', when we 'ur on the old sord. I'm a trifle shy of sech-like pranks as palm-in' of incoigner. Looks kinder slippery, as if a feller 'ur 'shamed of his own name and previos 'records."

The last speaker was Calvin Larned, a ranchman of small means and smaller endeavor, who made a practice of "throwing mud" at his neighbors, and who was really only tolerated for the sake of his daughter Metta.

"That's right, Cal! Wouldn't be if you didn't got your dirty mud," retorted one of the men. "Jack Delancey's got a grit and sand, anyhow, which is more than he said of you."

"And I tell you one thing, boys," said a strapping young fellow, as the men mounted their ponies to resume their work, "Jack Delancey has got something besides pluck--he's got a great kind heart and clean hands. I don't make any difference whether he was a Lord-Mayor or a Lord Chancellor over yonder--he was a gentleman, and he's that yet. Now, boys, whoop 'em up! Stir up those critters lively!"

This last champion of the individual discussion was Jack Delancey's foreman. Just who he was or where he hailed from not even his employer knew. He had introduced himself as Spencer Knight, and claimed--although his years were less than 20--to be an "old Westerner." He told Jack that he was originally from "the East," but he had settled in Wyoming when he was very young, with the intention of "growing up with the country."

How Delancey became acquainted with Spencer Knight matters little. The Englishman stumbled across him in Kansas City, where Knight--after the manner of Wyoming stockmen--was during the dull season--was indulging in a "hoot." Delancey rendered the young fellow, who was a man after his own heart and about his own age, a valuable service, which saved Knight from the disgrace of arrest and possible imprisonment; thereby saving the Western man forever in his debt. This was before Jack had located as a ranchman. Being a fairly good judge of human nature, and rightly estimating that Spencer Knight would not speedily forget a kindness, Delancey invited that young man to enter his service.

The company which they then made had never been regretted by either, for after four years of hard work and con-

Shows signs of falling again in the hair of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation strengthens the scalp, and the growth of new hair, even in the most advanced cases of baldness, and restores the hair to its natural color and texture.

We have no hesitation in recommending Ayer's Hair Vigor for restoring the hair, and we have seen many cases in which it has done so. It is a valuable preparation, and one that should be used by all who are afflicted with itching scalp, dandruff, and falling hair.

Ayer's Hair Vigor is sold by all druggists and is a valuable preparation for restoring the hair, and we have seen many cases in which it has done so.

A Rich Brown. It will not only restore the hair, but it will also give it a rich brown color, and it will also give it a soft and silky texture.

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

WARNING—See Mrs. Trer's adv. in reference to lot No. 5, Nelson.

POKEMON—Hon. D. McLellan, George W. A. F. Stetson and a number of other anglers are enjoying a fishing trip on the Pokemonee.

A bald headed woman is unusual before she is 40, but gray hair is common with them earlier. Baldness and grayness may be prevented by using Hall's Hair Restorer.

A PRESENTATION of $50 in gold, collected among Rev. Mr. Crisp's friends in Chatham, was made to that gentleman at the Methodist parsonage on the eve of his departure from Chatham. He also received a gold chain from the W. C. T. U.

SALMON—While there is a dearth of salmon in St. John waters, there is a great catch on those of Miramichi, about four thousand of these fish were shipped from Chatham station this week.

DON'T FORGET next Tuesday's sale and refreshment bazaar at upper Chatham, by the ladies of St. Paul's Guild.

THE WOODS DART—A party of gentlemen who went down river on the steamer "St. Nicholas" on Tuesday evening to indulge in fishing, were prevented by the prevailing high wind of yesterday from fully carrying out their intention.

ANOTHER REAL STORY—The Black Cape correspondent of the Campbellton Press is responsible for the statement that John B. Henderson, of that place, caught a big black bear in his salmon net. It was caught by the claws while trying to get a salmon out of the net.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING—During the thunder storm which took place on Saturday afternoon last at Petit Rocher a young man named J. R. Allan aged sixteen years, while securing his horse in an open field, was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

THE HOTEL DES BARRIERS will open on Tuesday, 29th inst., in the Skating Rink, Chatham. From the preparations being made for it, there is every reason to believe it will be one of the most attractive ever held on the North Shore, and as it will be for the benefit of a very meritorious institution it ought to receive the liberal patronage of all classes.

PROMENADE CONCERT & REFRESHMENTS—The ladies of St. John Church will hold their Annual Social and Promenade Concert in the Rink on Thursday 17th inst., opening at 7 o'clock. Strawberries and cream, Ice Cream, Lemonade, with other refreshments.

THE 73rd BATTALION—The 73rd Battalion is in attendance; admission—25 cts, children—10 cts.

PERSONAL—Messrs. W. M. and Willard Sinclair are spending their summer holiday time at their home in Bridgetown. The former is eldest son of Edward Sinclair, Esq., and has been in California for five years. He will return to Chatham in September next. Willard is a graduate of the University of New York and is now taking a course in medicine at McGill College, Montreal. He has already had two terms at the latter institution and is to return to it in September. He was a student with Dr. Smith, of Newcastle, and, therefore, had, in his preceptor, one of the most able and extensive scientific physicians.

SERIOUS ILLNESS OF OVERSEER HOGAN—On Friday last, Mr. John Hogan, fishery Overseer, was discovered lying in his barn in an insensible condition. He was carried to his home and medical attendance summoned. It was at first thought that he had been kicked by his horse, but examination showed it to be paralysis.

CAMP MONCTON—The Military Camp at Moncton is about at its best today, although it started under discouraging auspices. Many of the men arrived on Monday of last week in the midst of a pouring rain, which soaked them to the skin and rendered the ground anything but hard and dry. It was under these discouraging circumstances that the new recruits and old soldiers pitched their tents and performed the usual duties of the first day of encampment; and it was only to find out on all sides that they were not such as were expected for instance, from members of the regular army; but it will be surprising what a vast improvement in this respect is observable as each day passes.

THE BRIGADE STAFF is as follows:—Lieut. Colonel Mansell, D. A. G., commandant; Major Gordon, I. S. C., brigade major; Lieut. Colonel Bains, Chief Quartermaster; Major Lippin, 71st Battalion, Quartermaster; Major Viner, Brighton Engineers, supply officer; J. J. Woodward, Adj., Capt. Surgeon Bishop, 73rd Batt., principal medical officer; Lieut. H. Tilley, N. B. Garrison Artillery, orderly officer.

On entering the grounds from the main road the first series of tents are occupied by the members of the 8th Regiment of Cavalry, who arrived in camp on Monday afternoon, 30th ult., under command of Major R. W. Ostry. Col. Downie arrived Tuesday morning and assumed command. The officers of this regiment are as follows: Col. Downie, in command; Majors A. Mackham and R. Ostry; Paymaster, J. J. Woodward; Adj., Capt. F. V. Wedderburn; Quartermaster, Capt. J. O. Fowler; Surgeon, R. McLean, M. D.; The Veterinary Surgeon is Lieut. W. S. best known to his old army associates, Mr. Simonds, attends to the bodily infirmities of the horses during camp. This regiment has in camp work of the contractors, Messrs. William & Taylor. The River Bridge was found to be in bad condition, requiring immediate attention. The preparation of plans and specification for thorough repairs was ordered by the Chief.

Soundings for a steamboat what at Bay du Vin, near Taylor's, were made and an order block 80x30 feet was decided upon, the Engineer being directed to prepare plans and specification therefor.

Victoria bridge was next visited and found to require immediate and extensive repairs which will require a large amount of work and material, tenders for which will be called for as soon as plans and specification can be prepared.

At Taylor Creek bridge slight repairs were found necessary and they were ordered to be made at once.

On Saturday, the much talked-of Johnston bridge, Northwest river, was revisited and new measurements were made. As the contractor had not yet made the work, and satisfactory arrangements for the reconstruction of the bridge could not be reached with him, it was decided to begin work with amended plans and specification and call for new tenders, so that the bridge will be restored during the present season. This bridge is a difficult one to build and the Chief Commissioner as well as our county representatives are fully alive to the importance, occasioned to the people by the delay that has attended the dispute with the contractor.

On Monday, Engineer Beckwith examined the highway bridge over the Southwest and mouth of Dangarons rivers, in Blackville, with a view of having necessary repairs made.

Some time will be required in which to prepare all the plans and specifications involved in the works to which we have referred, but the Chief Commissioner has instructed Mr. Beckwith to go on with all possible speed, so that this bridge may be undertaken as soon as possible. We need hardly remark that in respect to these important matters, the people will feel that their interests are being well looked after by their present representatives, while the government itself manifests every disposition to treat us fairly.

The Late Daniel Wood. From the Boston "Oracle." Wood, in Brewer, Mass., May 25, 1890. Bro. Daniel Wood, aged thirty-three years, nine months, and eighteen days.

To chronicle the death of this dearly beloved brother our hearts are filled with sadness. Apparently a life of usefulness for the Master was before him. Rarely do we see one ripen as he did in spiritual things. Only six years have elapsed since he was converted to God, and yet he developed so wonderfully in knowledge and grace that he became a strong worker for Christ, far outstripping many who had been longer on the way. Little did we think when disease came upon him that he would so soon be laid to rest. A lonely wife and five small children are left to mourn and feel the dreadful loss. A fond father and mother and kindred dear besought the loss of a faithful son and friend. The church in Bangor, where he was an honored member and which he served as second deacon, has met with an almost irreparable loss. But, thank God, he sleeps in Jesus, and we expect to greet him on the eternal shore. May the Almighty mercifully receive his dear companion upon whom this terrible loss falls with such crushing weight, and may the veins of pity and love bind up the broken and bleeding heart.

His remains were held at the church in Bangor after which he was taken to Chatham, N. B., to rest until the tramp shall sound.

J. F. CLOTHY, Tabernacle.

Messrs. S. Hayward and Amos Godwin of St. John and T. A. Peters, Esq., Stipendiary Magistrate of Hampton, were in town yesterday and left in the afternoon for the Tabernacle, where the sitting is now excellent.

A fortnight since Messrs. Charles A. Macdonald, Douglas Hazen, and Dr. Murray McLaren of St. John and John Black of Fredericton returned from the Tabernacle after enduring the disappointment of three days' incessant rain, which raised the water "bank high" and made fishing impossible.

Base Ball. On Saturday afternoon the Cornkillers went to Chatham to play a club there and beat them by a score of 6 to 2. Six innings played when the game was stopped and the umpire decided in favor of the Cornkillers.

It is said that the treatment received by the Cornkillers was such that they vowed never to play in Chatham again.

Our Bridges. Hon. P. G. Ryan, Chief Commissioner of Public Works, and Chief Engineer Beckwith of his department were in Northumberland last week and, together with representatives of the County, visited a number of localities for the purpose of obtaining measurements and other information respecting proposed new bridges, bridge repairs, etc.

On Thursday they examined the highway bridge over the Northwest Miramichi at Sinclair's and ordered the following work on it and other repairs, the cost of which will be $120. This work is now being done.

The approaches to Newcastle Ferry were also examined, and Inspector George Stohart, of Newcastle, was directed to have the large amount of work that was found to be necessary done at once. Mr. Stohart has since awarded a contract amounting to some $500 and the repairs are to be made forthwith.

The bridge on the highway between Newcastle and Douglastown near Kerr's Mill was thoroughly examined and it was decided to have all the stone work taken out and the structure rebuilt, as soon as the Chief Engineer can prepare plans and specifications.

An examination of the upper Douglas river bridge showed that it is yet in light condition. It is, however, proposed to replace it with a new iron bridge as soon as the present wooden span requires removal.

The new work on the lower bridge at Douglastown was found to be progressing very satisfactorily.

The approaches of the Chatham Ferry on both sides of the river were found to require repairs, which were ordered—The work to be done at once.

The party proceeded down-river on Friday, by way of the Richibucto road and Black River. A new bridge was found to be necessary on the Richibucto road at Ulock's, and the Engineer was directed to prepare plans and specification therefor. The new structure will be a composite one, having an iron span.

the Chatham boys expressed their dissatisfaction and they were doubtless justified in doing so, but it doesn't follow that they are never to meet their Newcastle opponents again and have a fair game.

School Examination. The half-year examination was held in the Branch school, near Cook's No. 9 dist., on Friday 27th June.

The advanced class was examined in Reading, Writing, Spelling, Arithmetic, Geography, Grammar, Canadian History, Agriculture, Temperance, teaching on sedition, and Blakey's sound books; as well as recitations and dialogues; and the less advanced class in the different branches suited to their grades, or lessons in Geography and Grammar, taking the lead.

The pupils showed remarkable cleverness in all the exercises. The dialogues were amusing, especially one called "boys' talk" by four boys. The girls also did their parts remarkably well.

GENERAL BUSINESS.

ATTENTION! The Sweeping Reductions made in all classes of DRY GOODS are appreciated by the buyer. Beautiful and useful Dress Goods, Choice Prints, Gingham, Shirtings, and all classes of—

STAPLE GOODS at Prices never before touched in the county. READY-MADE CLOTHING, HATS, SHIRTS, TIES, &c. Strictly east. See small Bills. Don't delay. Take your benefit.

WILLIAM MURRAY, Argyle House, - - - Chatham.

CAUTION! While we recognise the fact that "imitation is sincerest flattery" we wish our friends and customers intending buyers of Mowers and Rakes to realize that not all imitations, in fact hardly any, ever succeed in making as good an article as the one they copy from. Especially we wish to impress buyers to be suspicious of the quality of an imitation which is pressed for sale on the score of cheapness. With price below the average, one is sure to get quality below the average.

Imitations of the celebrated Horse Hay Rakes and new improved Buckeye Mowing Machines made by G. M. Cassidy & Co., and sold in this province for the past seven years, are being offered to buyers.

Some manufacturers having bought the Cassidy Buckeye for years with many other styles of Mowers, and been completely bent, now hope to secure trade away from us by making a cheap Buckeye.

BEWARE OF SUCH! Buy the genuine and be safe.

Some dealers have bought cheap imitations of Cassidy's celebrated Rakes which are not branded with the name of any manufacturer, and are trying to sell them as Cassidy Rakes.

What is likely to be the quality of a Rake which has no maker's name on it?

Fair minded reader? do you think of the character of the maker who will try to secure business by such means?

When ready to buy a Mower or Rake look for the maker's name and select a Cassidy and you will get good value for your dollars.

Our Branches are handy and our agents are in every county. All sell at the same price and on similar terms. Buy old established favourites from an old established House and be safe.

Repairs of over description always in stock.
