ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 18.—The factory occupied jointly by the International Button Company and the M. B. Shanta Button Company here was damaged by fire last night. The loss is estimated at about $175,000. The M. B. Shanta Company is the 'heaviest loser,' as water drenched a large stock of vegetable ivory. The fire started apparently in a room devoted to polishing buttons from friction of machinery. That part of the plant has been working day and night and it was in this room that the fire started. The two concerns carry $500,000 insurance.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 18.—The second session of the fifth Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick was opened by Lieutenant Governor Tweedie this afternoon with imposing ceremony. Notwithstanding the cloudy and threatening weather there was an enormous crowd in attendance. All seating space on the floor of the house was taken up, the wives of the Lieutenant Governor and members of the government having post of honor to the right of the speaker's desk.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 18.—A number of nearby houses were threatened when the Centennial House at Old Hurley three miles south of Kingston, one of the oldest hotels in New York state was totally destroyed by fire today. Active work by the fire brigade kept the flames from spreading. The burnt building was erected in 1718 and had been used continuously as a hotel since before the Revolutionary war.

HAYANA, March 18.—Former Captain Lavastide, of the rebel army, who is believed to have been the principal instigator of the uprising in the province of Santa Clara who was arrested Tuesday night, was shot and killed while making an alleged effort to escape. Heretofore this has been the favorite method in Cuba in dealing with the prisoners. Lavastide was recently dismissed from the rural guard. He served with distinction in the Cuban War of Independence and has many friends in Santa Clara province by whom the summary killing doubtless will be bitterly resented.

HAYANA, March 18.—The men of the Rural Guard have not yet succeeded in surrounding the insurrectionists headed by Seguí. General Montaguá has telegraphed that a detachment of his men were hot on the trail the rebels all day but lost it at nightfall. The fugitives were then making for the south coast.

NEW YORK, March 18.—The life of the late Grover Cleveland and his influence upon American municipal government and welfare will be the theme of speeches by President Taft, Chief Justice Fuller and other distinguished men in the exercises in honor of the late President Cleveland in Carnegie Hall this afternoon. Tonight exercises will be held at the City College at which Governor Hughes, Senator Root and several others will speak. The meeting at Carnegie Hall today will be presided over by Mayor McClellan and the exercises will be held under the auspices of the Cleveland memorial committee of which Francis Lynde Stetson is chairman. The musical features of the programme will be provided by the Danmarch Orchestra supplemented by 120 voices of the Liederteeners Society.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 18.—Yusuf Nabout, the Turkish wrestler, last night won his handicap match with Jim McDonough, of Wilmung. Nabout undertook to throw his opponent three times within the hour, catch-ascatch style, and he took the three falls in 18, 21, 22, and 24.

NEW YORK, March 18.—The final game of the three cushion billiard match between the amateurs of the west and the amateurs of the east, played here last night, resulted in a victory for the west. T. J. Beckus, of Kansas City, defeating E. A. Lublin, of New York, by a score of 99 to 41. The westers go today to Boston, where the next three games are to be played.

ST. JOHN, N. B., March 18.—The United States and of representatives of the French Republic and the British possessions, meeting together at a notable one and served to emphasize the friendly feeling which exists between Great Britain and the other nations represented as well as between the different provinces of Canada and the two great races from which most of her population are descended. During the summer New Brunswick was visited by a delegation of Scotch farmers and while it is to be regretted that their visit was a brief one it is pleasing to note that they expressed themselves as being greatly impressed by the agricultural possibilities of the Province and the advantages and attractions it possesses for settlers from the Motherland.

ST. JOHN, N. B., March 18.—The nomination was made by Mr. Hasse, of Charlotte, speaker, in succession to Mr. Morrison, resigned. Immediately afterwards, George W. Upham, the new member for Carleton, was introduced by Messrs. Robinson and McKeown, and took his seat.

ST. JOHN, N. B., March 18.—The House met shortly before three o'clock and unanimously elected George J. Clarke, of Charlotte, speaker, in succession to Mr. Morrison, resigned. The nomination was made by Mr. Hasse, of Charlotte, speaker, in succession to Mr. Morrison, resigned. Immediately afterwards, George W. Upham, the new member for Carleton, was introduced by Messrs. Robinson and McKeown, and took his seat.

ST. JOHN, N. B., March 18.—On Saturday evening a lecture will be delivered before the students of Mount Allison University by Rev. Dr. W. C. Kierstead, of Fredericton. Dr. Kierstead will have as his subject "The Personal and Social Factors in Civilization."

ST. JOHN, N. B., March 18.—An unusual game of hockey took place yesterday when a team chosen from the lady students of Mount Allison University met and defeated a team picked from the Ladies' College students. The score was 4 to 1. The teams were: Varsity—Goal Miss Bates of St. John; point Miss Cass; cover, Miss Bartlett; forwards, Misses Hughes, Fish, Chesley, Buffett. LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 18.—"Physicians have warned me that I must step out; they say I have done enough. I am 61 years old and I have led a very active life. Recently they told me that they had noticed a change for the worse in my condition." These words were uttered by E. H. Harriman to newspaper men in announcing his determination to relinquish gradually the active supervision of his far-flung railroad holdings.

Aviator Had an Exciting Time Afloat in a Daring Flight

BADDECK, N. S., Mar. 18.—The aerial experiment association retained experiments this week with Boone No. 8, Dr. Bell's tetrapedal Cygnet, with Douglas McCurdy as aviator. When due to the head resistance of the engine to develop the power required the Cygnet failed to rise. The engine was immediately transferred to the Silver Dart for a flight and the Dart in turn failed to rise on the first attempt. After a thorough overhauling and speeding of the engine another flight was attempted which proved successful and one of the most sensational flights Mr. McCurdy has yet accomplished, as a puff wind varying from eight to fourteen miles an hour was blowing at the time to give the aviator an experience to test the stability of the machine as well as his capabilities to control it which were both accomplished without a hitch and a flight of three miles made against the wind. Mr. McCurdy made the several flights today over the measured course on the ice but in each flight the engine was working very unsatisfactorily and Mr. McCurdy made a landing on the ice in each flight before he covered the triangular course covering a distance of 15 miles in the flight.

CHAMBERLAIN'S HEALTH GOOD

British Statesman Leads a Quiet and Uneventful Life at Cannes

CANNES, March 18.—Mr. Chamberlain is living a quiet and uneventful life at Cannes and deriving great benefit from his stay at the Riviera. His general health is excellent.

Except on rare occasions when the weather is bad, he takes a morning walk of about a mile along the marine drive in front of his residence, the Villa Mauboussin, and appears thoroughly to enjoy the life. He is surrounded by his wife and all female visitors have been living in terror of invasion by the suffragettes and all female visitors have been prohibited various cozy luncheons, teas and dinners of the members and their friends have been abandoned and the whole time of parliamentary life has been chiefly devoted to the members' private life.

Where members formerly chattered for the night, they now dine alone or in groups, eating frugal meals at small restaurants. The restaurant used to be one of the best and smartest in London. It was not run for profit, hence the best food was served at the lowest price. Now it does not pay expenses. Once sixty waiters were necessary; now seven meet all the requirements.

The fiscal estimates contain a provision for $4,000,000 for an extension of the National Gallery. Buildings are to be torn down around it to give the necessary space for the enlargement.

ON WITH THE DANCE.

The London dancing teachers continue agitating for the introduction of various dances at State balls. They are urging against programmes of dances which contain only two-step and waltzes and are petitioning the King to give his attention to the matter because of the example of an elaborate programme of dances all London hostesses are sure to follow.

Never have the services of trained nurses in London been in demand than at the present time. It is practically impossible just now to get a nurse. On the other hand, at ordinary times the number of women in a profession out of employment in London is so great that even the most skillful find it difficult to get work for several months out of the year. To show the difference, now sixty applications for nurses were refused this week at the London Hospital. The entire staff of 241 nurses was all engaged. In the

GOVT. SHOULD GRANT PERPETUAL LEASES

The following dispatch from British Columbia appeared in a New York paper a few days ago: "The new timber policy of British Columbia, which will have a great bearing upon the provincial industry in which American capitalists are largely interested, was made in the legislature yesterday by Premier McBride."

"The terms of the timber leases will be made perpetual by legislation to be decided next session. The terms and conditions will be settled soon following the report of the proposed forestry commission."

A prominent St. John lumberman, discussing the matter with The Star yesterday said: "The action of the B. C. legislature is a proper one. We have been proposing the same measure for years and have met with nothing but opposition. The lumbermen in British Columbia had a hard struggle before they finally accomplished their object. The timber leases in force in New Brunswick are a serious drawback to lumbermen. A man holding a lease or owning a mill property finds it almost impossible to raise money when he desires to do it. He is, in short, greatly handicapped financially."

Asked regarding the conditions of the English market the lumberman said that it is "should. The American market was fairly active."

WAVE OF SLANDER IN LONDON.

Lloyd-George Not the Only Political Victim of Gossip—Suffragettes Chill House of Commons Dinner Parties Grip and Socialbility.

LONDON, March 17.—It is impossible to ignore altogether the series of gross personal slanders connected with the names of certain members of the British Cabinet which have filled both the political and social world for weeks past. The Right Hon. David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has sought vindication twice in the courts when reckless newspapers published ill-disputed slanders to him. The newspapers made abject apologies and paid considerable sums to defray the Chancellor's expenses. Those developments instead of checking gossip serve to increase it and make it more rampant than ever. One reason for this is the feature of the English libel law which makes the truth of the slanders no defence for their publication. Mr. Lloyd-George must realize that this stringent provision works to the disadvantage of a man seeking vindication, because any trader whom he prosecutes has no resource but to throw up his hands. Other scandals which are not likely to get into print poison the air, and altogether the life of the present government is not a happy one.

MARIE DRESSLER'S MISFORTUNE

It is a great pity for the sake of the reputation of the American theatrical world that Marie Dressler should have embarked on her ill-fated venture in London. She undertook an elaborate and expensive production of the play "The Sign of the Cross" at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane. It must be assumed that this was the case, for it would be cruel to suggest that she would turn loose sixty members of her cast with one week's pay after they had rehearsed several weeks without remuneration. If she had the money to pay them it is most probable that she would have abandoned the whole thing and returned to America should even unwillingly play such a role.

SUFFRAGETTE CALAMITY.

One disastrous result of the suffragette invasion of the House of Commons is the falling off in the restaurant receipts of the Commons restaurant. It has always been a paying concern, but since the members have been living in terror of invasion by the suffragettes and all female visitors have been prohibited various cozy luncheons, teas and dinners of the members and their friends have been abandoned and the whole time of parliamentary life has been chiefly devoted to the members' private life.

Where members formerly chattered for the night, they now dine alone or in groups, eating frugal meals at small restaurants. The restaurant used to be one of the best and smartest in London. WILBUR WRIGHT FLIES WHILE KING APPLAUDS

PAU, Mar. 17.—King Edward witnessed two flights by Wilbur Wright this afternoon and showed an equal amount of enthusiasm with the other spectators in the remarkable accomplishment of the American aviator.

The King motored to the aviation ground and watched the flights. The weather conditions were highly favorable; the sky was unclouded and there was very little breeze. Wilbur and Orville Wright and their sister, Miss Wilbur Wright, were present in his majesty's motor. The introduction of the latter minutely examined the mechanism of the machine, which was decorated with the American flag. The King and his party and a group for a photograph.

Mr. Wright made the first ascension seven minutes, performing marvelous evolutions with the utmost precision around the King and his party and coming to the ground without difficulty.

BIG DAY ENDS WITH DINNER

The Hibernians Hosts Last Night A JOLLY AFFAIR Many Interesting Speeches Are Made—A Musical Programme

As a climax to the celebration of St. Patrick's Day the dinner given last night by the Ancient Order of Hibernians for their friends and the Ladies' Auxiliary was a pronounced success. Elaborate decorations save the quarters of the order a natty appearance. The Shields adorned the walls, white stage and bunting were also displayed. A portrait of St. Patrick occupied a prominent position. About 150 persons were in attendance. After a splendid dinner had been justice to those present listened to some stirring addresses. On account of the day being a fast day the order had most fittingly observed. On the cover of the menu a fast was shown. After the toast to the King "The Day We Celebrate" was proposed. Major Kichman in response made a splendid address. He declared that the order had most fittingly observed the great day. In the morning, Major Kichman stated that it was absolutely necessary to keep alive the Irish spirit and the Hibernians should strive with this end in view. The claims of Ireland had been made known by her great statesman, County President William L. Williams paid a fitting response to the toast, the "Ancient Order of Hibernians" in which he lauded the members for their fine parade. "Ireland: the Land of the Shamrock," brought forth an eloquent address from Major Kichman. The remaining toasts on the programme were also responded to in an excellent manner. The toasts were: "Canada, Our Home"—J. J. Donovan. "The Parliament of Canada," James McCarthy. "The City of St. John"—Ed. A. T. Lanthorn. "The Ladies' Auxiliary"—County President Mrs. M. J. Cavanaugh and Mrs. J. T. Sheehan, president of the local auxiliary. "The Ladies"—Captain E. J. McLaughlin. A short musical programme helped to make the evening enjoyable. Mrs. R. C. Campbell and Miss Agnes Campbell rendered a pleasing duet entitled "Beautiful Isle of the Bree." They were forced to respond to an encore. Miss Walsh was loudly applauded in her Irish solo. Mrs. M. J. Cavanaugh entertained with a delightful song. Solos were also rendered by J. P. Doody, Mrs. Verlinder and J. George McDermott, which were well received. Mr. J. Kelly acted as accompanist throughout the evening.

AN ELECTRICAL SNOW MELTER.

A Berlin scientist advocates the use of electricity for clearing away snow. He claims that the method is cheaper than the one now in vogue. The apparatus consists of a platform, on to which the snow swept off the roadway is shoveled, and beneath which are a series of pockets formed of thin metal netting by electrical radiators. The snow falls from the platform into the pockets and is discharged as water from the hoppers. The radiators may be mounted on wheels for transport to various parts of the town, and just be stationed near the street crossings so that the water can be run off, or the electrical heaters may be erected at special depots to which the snow is conveyed. The radiators current may be taken from the town mains.

STREET CARS FOR MONCTON

MONCTON, Mar. 17.—The committee representing the city council and representatives of the Moncton Street Railway Company tonight practically agreed on all important points of difference in reference to the charter to be asked for by the company at the coming session of legislature. The company is to complete the road three years from the day of charter. The question of the city taking over the road, at the expiration of forty years was not considered.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MARCH 18, 1909.

DON'T BE NERVOUS.

In spite of the general indifference which, notwithstanding the near approach of civic elections, is still apparent among rate payers, there is a decidedly strong feeling that something in the way of reform is greatly to be wished. While there may be some few able citizens, who under certain conditions would offer themselves as candidates for the council, there are many qualified to sit as aldermen who are backward about entering civic politics because of an impression that the demand for reform is not sufficiently strong to guarantee them even reasonable support. Certainly this attitude is a mistaken one. For some years past the present members of the council have been regularly elected for the simple reason that no better men are offered. Ratepayers of St. John are not so foolish as to support men whom they know to be incapable. If others who are better qualified are in the field, and thus it is that those who were defeated last year, lost because of the fact that in public opinion they were not even as good as all round men as those whom they opposed. The trouble all along has been a scarcity of qualified candidates and the result of elections depends on no particular strength or popularity enjoyed by those who continue to be members of the council. The demand for reform is very deep rooted and beyond doubt any citizen who in private business have shown themselves to be men of some ability, and by their character command the respect of their fellows, would undoubtedly stand excellent chances of success in the coming contest. It is here that there have at times been half-hearted efforts in the way of reform but for some unknown reason a majority of those citizens who might become members of the council, have declined to offer as candidates unless complete tickets were formed. There is no necessity for a complete ticket, for even a small number of active workers could in a short time bring about a great change in the city's method of doing business. Half a dozen such citizens if nominated for next month in almost any of the wards in the city could win against the present representatives. The prospect of failure should not hinder those who believe themselves capable of doing better work than is now being done, for certainly any man at all prominent in St. John's commercial or professional circles would receive the hearty support of the electors on a reform movement. It is to be hoped that before many days the list of new candidates for the council will be largely increased.

CANADA'S NATIONAL PARKS.

Canada has an asset of immense value in her national parks situated in the western provinces. Although these institutions are being patronized in increasing numbers every year, they are still comparatively unknown to most of our people. There are now six national parks or reserves in the west, having a total area of 15,550 square miles. They are: Rocky Mountain Park, 450 square miles; Yoho Park, 315; Glacier Park, 2,304; Buffalo Park, 600; Elk Island Park, 64, and Jasper Park, 5,460. In addition to the park areas there are a large number of forest reservations which, while accessible, still retain their natural grandeur. Two years ago only 7,300 persons visited the parks, but last year 32,299 were attracted by the growing fame of these beauty spots. Situated in some of the most picturesque sections of the west it would be hard to find anywhere that that which has been reserved for a national playground for the benefit of Canada. Safeguarded from the axe and from fire, the forests are flourishing, and each year add to the value of the reservations. The shrubs and plants also grow abundantly and help to make the parks a botanical paradise. Birds and animals, some of which were almost extinct a few years ago, are now under strict protection, and are increasing rapidly. In order to give opportunities for study of some of the denser of the country at close range, an animal park and museum have been established. Among the creatures confined there are black, brown, and cinnamon bears, mountain lions, timber wolves, coyotes, kit and red foxes, lynx, raccoons, badgers, marmots, porcupines, moose, elk, mule deer, Persian sheep, Amorgs goats, Virginia deer and antelope. An extremely important addition to the four footed inhabitants of the parks was made last year when the government purchased the last surviving herd of pure bred buffalo known to exist in America. The herd numbered about 700 and the animals are thriving well in their new quarters and have increased considerably.

The Alpine Club of Canada have found in the park ample opportunity to gratify their desire for mountain climbing and now meet every year for this purpose. While the parks are not run to make money the business end is not overlooked. Coal mining privileges are leased, and a considerable income is derived from the largest cement works in Canada which is within the park limits. From rents, licenses and all other sources a revenue of $25,000 was last year derived which was largely in excess of the cost of maintenance. The parks benefit by Dominion grants but these are small compared with the value which the country derives from the expenditure. In addition to preserving in their natural conditions the vegetable and animal life of an important section of the west, and providing Canadians with a national recreation ground, the parks are a great advertisement. Visitors from all parts of the world registered at the parks last year, every continent and almost every country being represented. These visitors have in the past influenced investment in Canadian enterprises and have also stimulated immigration to this country. A park planned and conducted on similar lines would be highly appreciated in this province. It cannot be said that there is not ample room and sufficient beautiful and picturesque locations available, and New Brunswick can offer much to make a park of this kind attractive.

NO CHILDREN BELOW.

Once there was a bachelor who moved from flat to flat. Every house had children, and he wouldn't stand for that. Found one where they weren't allowed—then with rage was torn. For in the rooms above one day, there was a baby born! Moved into another place—then refused to stay. When he noticed children in the house across the way. Finally he died, and as is everybody's fate. Found himself knocking at St. Peter's golden gate. "Can't come in? Why not?" he asked. Said the Saint, "Oh, dear! I'm afraid you couldn't stand the way we run things here; Children all about—no, it isn't fair; You go to the other place—you'll find no children there."

NOT TOO FEARLESS.

"What we want," said the afraid of a trust. "is a man who is not afraid of a trust." "Yes," answered Senator Sorghum, "and at the same time we don't want one who is so fearless that he will cut out of his hand."

TO MOSES MENDELSSOHN.

The Moses Mendelssohn memorial by Marcuse, which was unveiled in Berlin a few days ago, is, according to a description published in that city, "as severely plain and simple as the great philosopher could have desired. It still is in its simplicity as his greatest admirers could have wished it to be. The shaft on which the bust of the philosopher rests is unadorned and bears no inscription, save the name and the dates of the birth and death of the wonderful man, the son of poor parents, who gave the world a new translation of the Bible, and through whose influence the people of his race entered upon a new era."

They had been trotting in double harness for seven long, weary months and the honeymoon had bumped the bumps for fair.

"John," she said, as she dished out the breakfast food, "I need a little pin money this morning."

"What did you do with the $1 I gave you last week?" ask the man who had promised to love, honor and pay the freight.

"Oh, I don't remember," she replied. "It's so easy to spend $5 and have nothing to show for it."

"Right you are," sighed the minister for marrying us."

Mrs. C.—Good morning, Bridget. I hope your master and mistress have not forgotten that they're coming to dine with me tonight.

Cook—Indeed, and they've not—they've ordered a god hearty meal at home at 6 o'clock.

"No," snapped the sharp-faced woman at the door. "I ain't got no ciders for you, and I ain't got no ciders for you."

"Lady," replied Harvard Hasbenn, "could repay you well. Give me a square meal and I'll give you a few lessons in grammar."

An old Irishman named Casey made a lot of money as a contractor and built a fine house for his child.

The sons and daughters were much ashamed of the plebeian father, and Casey was always kept in the rear of the house when they had a party or a reception. One day Casey died, and there was a great to-do about it. The children had a fine coffin with plenty of flowers, and Casey was laid in state in the parlor.

That evening an old Irish woman, who had known Casey when he was a laborer, came and asked to see the face of her dead friend. They conducted her to the parlor.

She walked up to the coffin, took a long look, and said:

"Faith, Casey, an' they've let ye into the parlor at last!"

IMPULSIVE KAISER AGAIN IN TROUBLE

Sends Telegram to German Ambassador in France

Which Newspapers Condemn—Wilhelm Gives to Prince Radolin Credit Which Belongs to Von Buelow.

BERLIN, Mar. 17.—The Kaiser is being charged with another indiscretion, and, incidentally, Prince Radolin, the German ambassador in Paris, is coming in for severe criticism. It has arisen over the publication by the Matin of the Kaiser's telegram to Prince Radolin congratulating the prince on his successful efforts to bring about the extradition of the murderer of Prince Radolin in Morocco. At the same time the Matin published a brief communication which was alleged to have been dictated by the German ambassador. The telegram was utilized by the Matin and other French journals to prove that the Kaiser always had friendly inclinations toward France, but that he had been thwarted by Prince Buelow. This is also the gist of the article on the part of many German newspapers which support Prince Buelow. It is stated that the Kaiser sent the telegram to Prince Radolin without consulting the imperial chancellor, so that his action in this case amounted to a revival of those absolutist conditions which existed before the crisis of last November. It is also complained that the Kaiser attributed the credit for the Franco-German agreement in Morocco to Prince Radolin, whereas it was really due to Prince Buelow.

BUELOW CLAIMS CREDIT.

The imperial chancellor, speaking at the banquet of the Agrarian League, publicly declared that he and M. Cambon, the French ambassador in Berlin, settled the terms of the agreement. This passage in Prince Buelow's speech is generally interpreted as a reply to a criticism of the emperor's telegram, in which Prince Radolin is accused of having betrayed the imperial message to a French newspaper. Prince Radolin himself now denies this charge in an official telegram addressed to the German foreign office, in which he declares he had nothing whatever to do with the publication of the Kaiser's telegram himself.

WILHELM CRITICIZED.

Amid all this perplexing confusion the Times in London has written a severe criticism of the Kaiser for sending such a telegram to Prince Radolin without consulting the imperial chancellor. The conservative Hamburger Nachrichten declares that a telegram of this nature ought to have been submitted to Prince Buelow in order that he might accept responsibility for it or prevent its dispatch.

The Rheinisch-Westphalischer Anzeiger criticizes the emperor and states that the personal relations between the monarch and his chancellor are purely official, the friendly tone which existed between the two is now entirely disappeared. The Neuste Nachrichten complains that there has been a revival of the intrigues which were characteristic of the former absolutist regime.

ROSEBERRY HAS JOINED

THE ANXIOUS SQUAD

LONDON, Mar. 18.—Lord Roseberry in a letter to the Times raises another alarm over the situation in view of Germany's naval growth Great Britain's territorial defense is adequate, but this is an urgent matter needing strict inquiry.

IT IS UP TO THE POWERS

LONDON, Mar. 18.—A despatch to the Times from Belgrade says that Great Britain, Russia and France are prepared to notify Serbia that they consider the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina a closed affair and no longer a concern of Europe. Serbia is ready to concur in this view. Under such circumstances she would consent to dismiss the 7,000 reservists she has called up for training already provided that Europe guarantees her against attack.

TOO HASTY.

Harper was in a fierce humor the other morning when the front door opened and in walked a stranger unannounced.

"What?" began the stranger taking off his coat and rolling up his sleeves. "What?" thundered Harper. "You didn't come in here to start anything with me?"

"I did," replied the stranger coolly. "I did."

But he got no further. With a savage whoop Harper grabbed the intruder around the waist and deposited him on the sidewalk before he had time to make a move.

"William," she said, "was there any one here during my absence?"

"Yes," replied Harper. "There was some lunatic here who said he came to start something, but I just bundled him out on the sidewalk before he had time to make a move."

"William," she said, "was there any one here during my absence?"

"Why," the man came to stare the clock at the sidewalk—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

LIFE OF AMERICAN CONSUL THREATENED

For Activity Against Italian Criminals

The Murder of Petrosino Described by Witnesses—Many Arrests Have Been Made.

PALESTRA, March 17.—American Consul W. H. Bishop has received letters threatening his life and declaring that the Mafia will punish him even if he did Petrosino if he continues to persecute Sicilian criminals. Bishop, notwithstanding the threats, handed the letters to the police who took immediate measures to protect his person and the American consulate.

ROME, March 17.—The Italian Government has sent a telegraphic communication to the authorities of a large number of cities in the North of Italy, requesting that they take the most energetic measures to prevent the murderers of Lieutenant Petrosino and his accomplices: Special vigilance should be observed in Constantinople, Tunis, Marseilles, Malta and parts of Egypt, while detectives have been sent to places where the Mafia is known to have many adherents.

According to a man, now in the hands of the police at Palermo, who claims to be the only witness of the murder, the crime was committed by two men, who came upon him when a few feet distant. The assassins immediately fled and the witness, terrified at the tragedy, also ran away. Later he visited police headquarters and gave a brief account of the affair, but he was unable to describe the murderers, except to say that they were both short and fat.

PALESTRA, March 17.—Numerous arrests are being made both here and in the provinces, especially at Trapani and Caltanissetta.

Dr. Vico, professor of the University of Naples, arrived here today, having been commissioned by the government to investigate the case of the body of Petrosino. It has not yet been decided upon what steamer it will be sent to New York.

All the Italian authorities here have been ordered to participate in the funeral which will take place in the city of Palermo.

The Matin, however, retorts by saying that Prince Radolin dictated the communications published in the Matin, and adherents of Prince Buelow are now inviting Prince Radolin to explain whether the Matin's statement is correct, and if so, how could it be that he had nothing whatever to do with the publication of the Kaiser's telegram himself.

WAVE OF CRIME

SWEEPS OVER FRANCE

Seven or Eight Murders Committed Within the Space of 48 Hours.

PARIS, March 17.—An extraordinary wave of crime has swept over France, and within the past forty-eight hours at least seventeen murders have been committed.

In nearly every case the murder was one of passion. There are murders by men, by boys and by women, and their savagery is only equalled by the casual way in which they are regarded. For there have been so many murders of all kinds in recent years in France that unless a murder be more than usually brutal, or mysterious, or attracts little or no attention, here is part of the murder budget for the past forty-eight hours.

A young apprentice of 18 murdered his employer's wife with an awl. He is believed to have been in love with her.

A music hall singer was murdered by her lover, a rich young man of 26.

At a ball in Paris a young washerwoman, seeing her fiance dancing with another girl, stabbed him twice with a knife.

A workman named Bhes, whose wife had left him and returned to her parents, stabbed her to death this morning and killed himself with the same knife.

A robber left his wife some time ago for a pretty dressmaker. The deserted wife, who is only 25, went to her rival's door, rang the bell and when the door was opened, threw pepper into the face of her rival, who opened it, killed her with a dagger and gave himself up to the police.

At Vigan a peasant shot his brother-in-law dead with a rifle over a discussion on a matter of 14 cents.

A girl stabbed her father to death with seven dagger thrusts at Linoges because he had quarreled with her mother.

At Belport a stoker, after being refused assistance by two sisters, shot them both with a revolver and killed his own life.

A soldier at Brest, who was called by some civilians a "wall crasher," because he was one of the sentries at the forts, killed one of them with his bayonet.

A masquer was stabbed to death at the Nice carnival.

Within 500 yards of the scene of the celebrated crime of the Lyons Mail a wagoner was murdered and robbed and his money and five horses were stolen.

At Lyons a man killed his wife with a kitchen knife because they had a dispute about the dinner.

TWO KILLED WHEN FAST EXPRESS JUMPED TRACK

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Mar. 18.—A fast passenger train on the Atlantic Coast Line jumped the track at Fifeville, a flag station between Goldsboro and Wilmington shortly after midnight, killing the engineer and fireman and seriously injuring several passengers.

FOSTER FORGED TO TAKE BACK WATER

Drops Several of MacDonald's Charges

Statements Regarding His Connection With Trust Funds Substantiated

TORONTO, Ont., March 15.—Hon. George E. Foster has delivered an amended statement of claim in the action brought against J. A. MacDonald which appeared in his original statement of claim and which read as follows: "I have been away from home for the past week, but from Toronto newspapers I learn that Foster has again been trying to escape under cover of evasion and violent language and bad names. But it will not do. He cannot cuttle fish out of sight. Calling me 'Peter Hermit' will not excite him from most damaging accusations lodged against any party seeking election anywhere and Canada. In this campaign I am not a candidate. I ask no favors from electors in North or South. I should be prepared to undergo the scrutiny alike as a private citizen and a trusted official. Foster is a candidate. He is Hon. MacDonald's first lieutenant. Borden accepts him, certifies to his 'public' record, but does not allow him on his platform. He would have found a warmer and heartier welcome at the foot of the throne. He proposed the following resolutions: 'The fact is of importance not only to me and to my fellow electors in North Ontario, but to you and to all electors in Canada. It will not do to have a man guide the policy of Canada or administer its finances against whom stand allegations of mismanagement of trust funds and of infidelity to most sacred commercial moral obligations.'"

Foster also leaves out that part of his pleading where in he complains that what was said by MacDonald meant that he, Foster, "willfully managed and entrusted to him as general manager of Union Trust Company, and further that he wrongfully converted to his own use certain trust funds over which he as such general manager, had control."

MacDonald's statement of defence, filed by him, justifies the above paragraph now advanced by Foster, and sets out the facts upon which he based such justification.

ALCOHOL HAS NO THERAPEUTIC USES

Judging From Discussion of Medical Men—Its Use as a Drug Being Abandoned.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 17.—Alcohol practically has no therapeutic uses, judging from the discussions at the semi-annual meeting today of the American Society for the Study of Alcohol and Other Drug Narcotics. Some of the medical experts contended that on the whole it has few such uses while one declared that alcohol is gradually being relegated as a drug.

Papers were read by Dr. Henry O. Marcy, of Boston, honorary president of the society, and by Dr. A. Medical Study of the Temperance Movement in the South; Howard A. Kelly, of Baltimore; T. D. Crothers, of Hartford, Conn.; and W. B. Parks, of Atlantic, Ga.

BOUQUET FOR KING EDWARD

Irish Happy Under His Rule

A SENATE RESOLUTION Attempt to Congratulate Irish Party Ruled Out of Order

OTTAWA, Ont., March 17.—St. Patrick's Day was marked in the senate by an unsuccessful attempt of Senator Cloran to induce the upper house to send a resolution of congratulations and good-will to their fellow-citizens of the Empire, the Irish. But owing to the fact that due notice of his resolution was not given, as required by the rules of procedure, the Speaker ruled it out of order.

Senator Cloran drew the attention of the senate to the fact that this was the anniversary day of the Irish people, and he thought it proper to call public attention to the fact that no sovereign had given more satisfaction to the people of Ireland than His Majesty Edward VII. The Irish people had for many years and with good reason been discontented with the treatment they received. He was glad to say that during the reign of Victoria, particularly the latter part, and during the reign of Edward VII. the Irish people had found a warmer and heartier welcome at the foot of the throne. He proposed the following resolutions: "The fact is of importance not only to me and to my fellow electors in North Ontario, but to you and to all electors in Canada. It will not do to have a man guide the policy of Canada or administer its finances against whom stand allegations of mismanagement of trust funds and of infidelity to most sacred commercial moral obligations."

MacDonald's statement of defence, filed by him, justifies the above paragraph now advanced by Foster, and sets out the facts upon which he based such justification.

He gave notice that he would bring the resolution up again on Friday with the intention that the Speaker send it to the British Prime Minister instead of to Hon. John Rodmond.

PICTURE-PAINTER CONVICTS.

A picture gallery in a prison that is a novelty, but it actually exists—and at Woodwood Scrubs!

High up in the chancel of the Protestant chapel are eight large Scrip-tural oil-paintings, the work of a French prison-artist; while twelve New Testament figures, each four feet in height, the work of a German painter, who was serving a sentence of eighteen months, are hung in the same chapel.

Another painting, that of "Our Lord," is also to be found in Woodwood Scrubs. It is in the new Roman Catholic chapel, and was executed by an English painter-convict.

As a collection of pictures painted by prisoners, these are, perhaps, unique. They were all painted within recent years.

WAS IN BED FOR THREE MONTHS. PEOPLE SAID SHE HAD CONSUMPTION.

Read how Mrs. T. G. Buck, Brasbridge, Ont., was cured (and also her little boy) by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

She writes: "I thought I would write and let you know the benefit I have received through the use of your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. A few years ago I was so badly troubled with my lungs that I had Consumption and that I would not live through the Fall. I had two doctors attending me and they were very much alarmed about me. I was in bed three months and when I got up I could not walk, so had to go on my hands and knees for three weeks, and my limbs seemed of no use to me. I gave up all hopes of ever getting better when I happened to see in B.B.E. Almanac that Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup was good for weak lungs. I thought I would try a bottle and by the time I had used it I was a lot better, so got more and it made a complete cure. My little boy was also troubled with weak lungs and it cured him. I keep it in the house all the time and would not be without it for anything."

Price 25 cents as all dealers. Beware of imitations of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Ask for it and insist on getting the original. Put up in a yellow wrapper and three pins in the trade mark.

MANY REPORTS

Condemn French Text Books

—Vote for Celebration

FREDERICTON, March 17.—The whole morning was taken up by the Orange Grand Lodge in discussing the proposed orphanage. The committee's report was finally received and read, and the committee dismissed.

At the afternoon session a resolution of condolence was passed to Bro. Charles Blackmore on the loss of his son William, who died suddenly yesterday.

The new set of by-laws for the government of the Grand Lodge were taken up and occupied a great deal of time. They were finally adopted after a number of amendments had carried.

The finance committee recommended the following appropriations: Grand Treasurer's salary, $60; Grand Secretary's salary, $50; Grand Steward's salary, $45; Dep. Grand Officers (each $5), $25; fees for Imperial Council, $2.50; Orange Sentinel, $10; propagation work, $10; printing reports (estimated), $100; Loyal True Blue Orphanage, $100; Protestant Orphanage, St. John, $50; cost of July demonstration, St. John, $500.

It was recommended that all expenses of the Grand Lodge be considered in the appropriation of the fund for propagation work was left to the judgment of the executive committee.

Adjourned till 7:30 this evening.

EVENING SESSION.

In the evening a resolution was introduced to the effect that the Grand Lodge open a propagation fund account, that any balance remaining on hand at the end of the year be kept in that account and that each account remain a separate and distinct fund to be used for the purpose intended after year. Carried.

That fifteen dollars be granted to the Imperial Protestant Federation. Carried.

The committee on suspensions and expulsions requested the endorsement for the suspension by the Grand Lodge in the jurisdiction, and congratulated the order on the small number of expulsions, but all but one of such expulsions were sustained.

The special committee on the grand master's report on the state of the Grand Lodge could not agree with that official in reference to the discourtesy of the attorney general when he occupied the position of the lawyer representing the French text book, while they condemned the introduction of such text books into an English speaking community.

The letter of the premier of the province in his reference to the Grand Lodge is so full of compliments and so full of praise that it is a far longer report even than that of "Hansard."

Happily, the framers of the new regime have put in a clause permitting the Superintendent (Mr. Dods Shaw) and his eleven officials to be elected by the Grand Lodge. This in the course of the session will lighten the surplusage of speeches by many of the official stenographers, printed during the night, and lumped duty, a dead weight of chilled mortar, on the table of each M. P. the next morning.

For the first time in six hundred years the British Parliament is now being reported by its own official reporters. This is not all. The speech of each M. P. whether a member of the Labor benches or a member from the ranks of the Liberal host, a cry from a back-bench "No, Sir," or a "statement" from some head of the Government, like Mr. Churchill, is taken down shorthand by the staff of official stenographers, printed during the night, and lumped duty, a dead weight of chilled mortar, on the table of each M. P. the next morning.

TO EXAMINE TRUBO GIRL

Outrageous Assault, Says Judge

WHIPPING EPISODE

Girl Allowed to Go on Suspended Sentence, Pending Examination

BOSTON, Mass., March 17.—Characterizing her performance with the horse whip as "an outrageous assault," Judge Michael J. Murray, in the police court today, suspended sentence in the case of Miss Jessie McClellan, 27, Truro, N. S., until she could be examined as to her mental condition. Miss McClellan on March 8 horsewhipped George A. Sweetser, an attorney, because of his connection as a counsel for a person whom the young woman had sued for breach of promise. Previous to her attack on Sweetser, Miss McClellan had used the horsewhip on Lowellly Pulister, in the belief that Mr. Pulister was Mr. Sweetser.

In court today, Miss McClellan professed for her attack on Pulister, but said that her attack on Attorney Sweetser was justified by his treatment of her.

In suspending sentence Judge Murray said that he found the young woman guilty of the assault, and suggested that she submit to a mental examination. Miss McClellan accepted the suggestion.

Speed Twelve Long Hours in Vehement Denunciation of Managers.

BERLIN, March 17.—A meeting of German actors and actresses which began shortly before midnight Thursday did not terminate until noon yesterday, after proceedings of an exciting character.

The meeting was convened to protest against new rules and regulations introduced by the Association of Theatrical Managers for the guidance and control of actors and actresses engaged at their theaters. These regulations have given rise to great resentment among the members of the profession, who consider their interests are seriously injured.

Many angry speeches were delivered in which theatrical managers were vigorously denounced as tyrants, slave drivers, bloodsuckers and thieves.

Herr Reichelt, a prominent Berlin actor, who is the leader of the movement, declared that many agreements are concluded between theatrical managers and members of the theatrical profession which are absolutely immoral, owing to the extent to which the actors and actresses are exploited. Speeches were also delivered by six members of the Reichelt, who assured the members of the profession that their aims and ambitions found sympathy in parliamentary circles.

The Association of Theatrical Managers and members of the profession repudiating the attacks made on them by the actors and actresses.

DOES THE MIND RULE THE BODY?

Does the Mind Rule the Body? asks and answers Dr. Woods Hutchinson in the Saturday evening Post.

"One of the deepest delusions of man through all the ages has been that his body is under the control of his mind," he writes. "Even if he didn't quite believe it in his heart of hearts, he has always wanted to. The reason is obvious. The one thing that he felt absolutely sure he could control was his own mind. If he couldn't control that, what could he? Ergo, if man could control his mind, and his mind control his body, man is master of his fate."

THE SICK IN MIND.

"For centuries we punished the sick in mind, by locking them up in prisons, shutting them in in cells, starving, even by flogging them," he explained the delusion, "we argued with them, without the record of a single cure. Now we treat their sick and ailing bodies, just as we would any other class of chronic patients with rest, comfortable surroundings, good food, baths and fresh air, correction of bad habits, gentleness and kindness, leaving their minds and souls practically untouched by treatment."

A UNIVERSITY IN THE DESERT.

The art of empire building has seldom achieved anything more splendid than the establishment of the college at Khartoum in memory of General Gordon; and it will always be remembered to Lord Kitchener's honor that he seized the opportunity of converting the enthusiasm which greeted his receipt of Khartoum into the 100,000 golden sovereigns which laid the foundation stones of this magic university in the desert ten years ago.

LOCUSTS' ENEMY OF FARMERS.

South Africa seems to be a paradise to the farmer until the locusts come. The farmer has been planting wheat for five months, beginning with March, and he looks for an enormously profitable harvest in the mid-summer month of December. After ploughing and dragging for six days he has put in a day or two sowing the wheat by hand, and has kept repeating the process until hundreds of acres have been planted. There are fields of wheat in all stages, from the young green stalks to the yellowing heads of grain. It will be convenient to reap the crop as it is convenient to plant it. In instalments. The farmer congratulates himself on a climate that makes this method possible. He figures that an investment of twenty-five bags of seed worth $150 will return him $750 bags of grain worth $3,750.
