PRICE THREE CENTS

LOST THEIR LIVES TO SAVE CHARGES

Priests at College Fire in Granby, Quebec, Showed Great Bravery—One Perished in the Flames and Another was Fatally Injured.

Granby, Que., Jan. 6.—The town is in mourning for brothers Daniels, superior, and Louciet, assistant superior, who met their fate in the fire at St. Joseph's College Wednesday night. The institution was completely destroyed. Thirty-three students, and twenty-nine brothers were in the building at the time of the outbreak. It was while leading charges to safety that the heroic priests lost their lives. Brother Louciet was seen standing in an upper window framed in smoke and flames after all the other occupants had left the building, but almost instantly toppled back into the seething furnace to his doom. Father Daniels jumped from a second story window landing with a crash on the frozen ground. He had remained behind to ascertain if all the boys were out of the building and had his escape by the stairway cut off by the flames. There was no way for him to escape being burned to death but to jump. He was picked up unconscious and carried to the home of a physician, where it was said there was no hope for his recovery. The loss is estimated at $75,000 with insurance of $30,000. The flames swept the building with such rapidity that most of the occupants had no time to dress, and escaped in their thin night clothes. The night was bitterly cold, so that younger pupils and older instructors more particularly suffered greatly until help arrived and they were given shelter with neighbors. Inside of two hours from the time the outbreak was discovered, nothing remained of the building but a heap of smoking bricks and timbers.

CHATHAM LIBERALS ANNUAL MEETING

Addresses by W. S. Loggie M. P., and W. B. Snowball.

The annual meeting of the Chatham Liberal Association took place Wednesday night and was well attended. A resolution was unanimously passed placing on record the great loss the association had sustained by the death of the late Warren C. Winslow. W. S. Loggie, M. P., referred briefly to politics. Referring to local matters, he said the new railway in Chatham would soon be an accomplished fact, and was found to have a very beneficial effect on the trade of the town and district. The residents in the Miramichi country had a great heritage and the coming of the Transcontinental railway would help in its development. Much was being done at St. John, which would have sufficient influence on the North Shore, and while traffic from the west was being drawn to that port, he saw no reason why Chatham should not have a share in some of it. W. B. Snowball spoke of the advantage of the new line of railway which was already attracting prospects in the way of new industries. He referred to the good work Mr. Loggie had accomplished for the new steamers and suggested that a subsidy should be asked for for a line of steamers to run twice a week from Chatham to Charlottetown, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia and back. He also referred to the proposed closing of the Blackville-Chatham Junction section of the Canada Eastern, and moved a resolution condemning the proposal to close it, which was carried. A resolution was passed expressing great regret at the loss of the late secretary, Mr. Warren C. Winslow, K. C., and sympathy with the family of deceased.

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE TOWN COUNCIL

Indebtedness of the Town Must be Increased—Ald. Butler Introduces Motion Providing for Much Needed Changes in Town's Incorporation Act.

Town Council met Tuesday night, January 3rd, in special session. Aldermen present—Clark, Butler, Falconer, Morrison and Russell. Ald. Clark was chosen chairman, Mayor McMurdo being absent. The chief business was to provide ways and means of meeting the town's overdraft of nearly $20,000 for the payment of which the Royal Bank is urgently pressing.

Ald. Morrison pointed out that the town had never made any special provision for expenditures on Capital Account—extension of light and water system, buying of land, etc. Capital expenditures for last two years had totalled about $3000. The town should always have some $5000 ahead. He proposed to borrow about $30,000 to wipe out floating debt and leave a margin to work upon. Extension of water system did not pay for itself inside of five years. Assessment, if all collected, would meet all ordinary expenses, but not capital expenditures. The Town Clerk said that up to date this year between $21,000 and $22,000 had been collected. Ald. Butler said that all default taxes on real estate should be at once collected by legal means. It was moved by Ald. Morrison and Butler that the Mayor and Treasurer be authorized to borrow not more than $6,000 at five per cent. interest and payable not later than July 1st next, to meet current expenses, loan to be from Royal Bank. Passed unanimously. It was moved by Ald. Butler and Russell:

Resolved that the Finance Committee be authorized to take steps to obtain legislation to enable the town to issue bonds for $30,000 to pay outstanding loans incurred by shrinkage of bonds and for expenditure on capital account. Passed unanimously. Ald. Butler in accordance with previous promise, moved that a committee be appointed to apply for legislation:

- 1.—To so amend the incorporation act as regards the town of Newcastle that candidates for Aldermen shall subscribe their nomination paper and a declaration before the town clerk that they are ratepayers in the town for the preceding year and are not indebted to the town for taxes or otherwise.
- 2.—That no property qualification be required of candidates for Aldermen.
- 3.—To exempt from taxation income of householders (that is, heads of families, whether owners of houses or not) up to $300 per year.
- 4.—To exempt from taxation money lent upon real estate or for industries in the town or invested in town debentures by persons other than corporations.

The first part of Section 1e explained, was designed to prevent anyone being nominated without his consent. Section 2 was to remove a glaring injustice to which many good citizens were subjected. Section 3 would tend to more nearly equalize the burdens of taxation and aimed to exempt from taxation that income absolutely necessary to sustain life. Section 4 was calculated to induce people now having money tied up in the Banks to bring it into circulation for the benefit of the town. Ald. Morrison condemned the motion as too radical. Chairman Clark was also against it, and Ald. Russell would have nothing to do with it. To get it before the Council, however, Ald. Falconer consented to second it. Then on motion of Ald. Morrison and Falconer, the motion of Ald. Butler was laid on the table till next regular meeting. Edward Hickey's bill of $114 03 for collecting $1140.37 default taxes was passed. Also stationary bill of $6.48. On recommendation of Light and Water Committee, Can. Elec. Co.'s bill of $3.13 was ordered paid. Also P. Hennessy's bill of $18.43. On recommendation of Police Committee bill for policeman's appliances of $5.75, was passed. Campbellton's request for use of Stone Crusher for the winter was referred to Public Works Committee to rent the Crusher at $50 a month. Ald. Morrison wished to have dog tax collected from all dog owners. The Town Marshall said that it was as hard to collect dog taxes as any other taxes. Some people said they had never paid dog taxes. He did not know bye-law on subject. Ald. Sargeant took his seat in Council. Ald. Falconer said that a default-er had told him that his taxes were so high that the town was welcome to sell the property. It was moved by Ald. Butler and Morrison, that Town Treasurer be directed to make a list of real estate default taxes and employ a solicitor to advertise and sell them all. Ald. Falconer and Russell said that they wanted to see the taxes collected, but they were not in favor of collecting them by force during the cold weather. Ald. Russell said it was not Christian to use poor people so. Ald. Butler and Morrison pointed out all defaulters had been billed last spring and had had ample time. Next spring another assessment would be added. Ald. Morrison said that the default list was now $15,000, and that it was dishonest for some to refuse to pay while others paid their own taxes and also the interest on money that had to be borrowed to make good such default. Ald. Sargeant said that wholesale collection would be too hard on some. Ald. Morrison said that the Council had been so lax that the people were laughing at them. Ald. Russell and Sargeant moved in amendment that motion lay over till next regular meeting. Amendment carried. Adjourned.

FAITHFUL PASTOR
REMEMBERED
On the evening of Friday, Dec. 23rd, while Rev. R. H. Stavert of Harcourt was visiting among his people in Coal Branch section of the congregation, he met with a pleasant surprise. A number of the young ladies had been at work and had ready for presentation quite a snug purse of money. Although Mr. Stavert was taken wholly by surprise he made a fitting reply and thanked the kind friends for their thoughtfulness. Ever since Mr. Stavert has come to this congregation the various sections have from time to time in some such tangible way shown their appreciation of his worth. Each year the bonds of fellowship between pastor and people have grown stronger and stronger and by the giving of the purse the Coal Branch people have again given splendid expression to the way in which they appreciate Mr. Stavert and his labors among them. Although other congregations have again and again made tempting proposals yet because of the many expressions of good will and the progress being made on the work, Mr. Stavert has never felt justified in accepting any of them.

HAVELOCK AN SHOT DOWN IN THE WOODS

A Havelock Man in a Critical State, and Believed to be Victim of Boy Who Thought Him a Deer—Bullet Pierced Right Lung.

Sussex, N. B., Jan. 8.—Hanford Price, a resident of Havelock, was accidentally shot while cruising on his lumber property about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon and now lies at his home in a critical condition. Mr. Price, accompanied by his men, were in the woods cruising. Mr. Price left the men to go in another direction and after he had gone about 150 yards he was shot by some unknown party. The ball entered the body just below the collarbone, coming out under the shoulder blade and piercing the top of the lung. He called to his men that he was shot and started to where they were. Price walked with their assistance out of the woods, where a team was procured and he was driven home. It is not definitely known who fired the shot, but it is rumored that it was a boy and that he supposed he was firing at a deer but when he heard the cries of Mr. Price he took to his heels and has not been seen or heard of since. The men wanted to go after the hunter but Mr. Price told them to never mind, that it was only an accident. The place where the accident happened is about three miles from Price's home. A telephone message from Havelock tonight says that he put in a bad night and the chances for his recovery are not good. There was little external bleeding from the wound but the doctors think there was considerable internal bleeding from the lung. Drs. Lamb and Price of the village are in attendance. Mr. Price is a strong, robust man about forty-eight years of age and is a councillor for the parish of Havelock. He is married and has a large family.

BOY DROWNED CROSSING LAKE

Sad Fatality at Halifax; Two Boys, Taking Short Cut Across Lake Broke Through.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 8.—Two brothers, Ainslie and Miles Mariatt, aged twelve and ten years, respectively, were crossing Chocolate Lake on the outskirts of Halifax this afternoon, on their way from Sunday school, to their home. It was a short cut. The lake was clear of ice at the beginning of last week and had frozen over again in the last cold snap, but it was weak and the two boys went through. The elder clung to the edge of the ice and was pulled out, but Miles went out of sight almost at once and was drowned.

SANTA CLAUS MADE VISIT TO CAMPBELLTON

And Children of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Fared Well; Great Praise for Mrs. A. E. Smith and Other St. John Ladies.

A very pleasant evening was spent by the children of St. Andrew's church and their parents in the Opera House December 30. The entertainment took the form of a Christmas tree, and as there has been only one similar entertainment within the last twenty years, it was a decided novelty. The spacious building was packed with expectant children and happy parents. All the presents, and they were numerous and beautiful, were supplied by friends outside of Campbellton. The largest donors were the children of the American Presbyterian Sunday school, Montreal, and a committee of ladies formed from the St. John Presbyterian churches. The moving spirit in this latter committee was Mrs. E. A. Smith, a lady well known in this district for her interest in every good work. The Campbellton Presbyterians will not soon forget the thoughtfulness of their St. John and Montreal friends. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus arrived at about 8.30 and were received enthusiastically. Three telegrams were received from the kindly old gentleman, one from Etah, one from Lake St. John and the last from Causapsacal. He explained that he had been detained through meeting two fellows at the North Pole. They were talking and quarrelling. He ascertained that one thought he had found the Pole—his name was Cook. The other fellow was very much incensed at this and declared with violence that he had certainly found the pole. Santa Claus intimated that neither of them was right as he had found the pole and had brought it along with him. The pole was produced amid much laughter and cheering. The good old man and cheery old lady had something to say to each child and the distribution of the gifts went on most expeditiously to the satisfaction of all. The children themselves provided the programme, which consisted of songs, rhymes and recitations. Mention must be made of the beautiful violin duet rendered by Mrs. Sharpe and Miss Redden. This selection concluded the programme. The superintendent of the school D. C. Firth, presided and spoke a few words of encouragement and welcome. Rev. T. P. Drumm, the minister, also gave a brief address. John G. MacColl, the organist, made a most amusing Santa Claus and Miss L. Jourly, as Mrs. Santa, was very matronly in her racoon coat with trimming of wool. Mr. Blyth gave valuable assistance also Charles McLean in helping Mr. and Mrs. Claus. The arrangements were in charge of the following Committee who deserve great praise for their hard work which was so well rewarded by the happiness displayed on the faces of the children.

Mrs. A. Andrew, Miss L. Duncan, Mrs. D. J. Bruce, Miss S. Fawcett, John McLean, Mrs. P. Gerrard.

The children of the Methodist Sunday School enjoyed a Christmas tree in the church hall, Friday afternoon. The numerous presents, confectionery and fruit were kindly contributed by St. John ladies and gentlemen.

On account of the storm Santa Claus was delayed and Mr. Henry Currie was commissioned to act in his stead. The little ones and parents enjoyed the proceedings very much. Messrs. J. Devereaux and W. J. Appleton who were done from St. Flavie addressed the little ones.

Altogether the occasion was a very happy one and Campbellton friends wish to thank the St. John people for making it possible to hold such a demonstration at the festive season.

CAMPBELLTON QUITE READY FOR HOCKEY

A. E. G. McKenzie, of Campbellton was in the city yesterday. Speaking of conditions in the new town, he said everybody had houses of some kind to shelter them from the weather, and faced the winter with a light heart.

"The young men did not feel like joining the provincial hockey league," he added, "because they did not want to spend money travelling around, but if the St. John hockey team will wander up that way, we'll show them the sporting spirit of the town is up to the mark. —Standard.

LUMBER CUT WILL BE LARGE

Conditions for Lumbering Restigouche Have Been Very Favorable.

The Lumber cut in the Restigouche and its tributaries this season will be as large as last season, if not slightly larger. This was the information given the Graphic by a well known lumberman.

At the beginning of the season it was expected there would be some curtailment in the quantity but conditions for chopping and yarding have been so favorable on the North Shore that many jobbers had their contracts filled early in the season. The weather here has been good. Snow fell early in sufficient quantities to make good hauling and staid, dispute the two soft spots which removed the snow in other parts of the province.

Recently one of the largest operators on the Restigouche instructed its foreman and jobbers to cut larger additional quantities than at first ordered. It is said this firm's extra cut will be about ten millions which added to their first estimate will make an exceedingly heavy cut. It is understood that other Restigouche firms are over cutting their first estimates.

In cedar the cut will be smaller than usual as the price of shingles continues to be low.

Astels, Clara Gale, Mabel Sutherland, Gladys Kempfer, Lena Kempfer, Olive McWhirter, Rosalie Hamilton, Janet Beck, Bessie Hall, Ethel Acteson C. Are Your Children Properly Fed?

LET us talk about the right feeding of children. Of course, you want your children to grow up strong and healthy; you want to equip them for the battle of life with rugged constitutions and good red blood. Now, the first step is to see that they are properly fed. And these words "properly fed" mean much in the diet of children. For it isn't quantity that counts, but quality.

There is no better food under Heaven for growing children than plenty of first class bread and butter. They thrive on it, grow strong and fat and rugged. Their systems crave it because it is a complete, well-balanced food.

But the bread must be good—the very best, and the best is made from ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR which contains the full nutriment of Manitoba Red Fife wheat—for only wheat of this character contains enough of the right quality gluten to balance the starch. Gluten makes bone and muscle, starch makes fat. It takes the right combination of both to make properly balanced bread.

Bread made from OGILVIE'S ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR is richest in blood building, muscle building, health building gluten. Children like it better and thrive better on it.

With "Royal Household" you need never have anything but the very best results for it is always the same, absolutely uniform, year in and year out and is just as good for Pastry as it is for Bread.

If parents knew this important difference between ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR and other flours they would never use any but "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD".

Send in your name and address also the name of your child to The Ogilvie Flour Mills Co. Limited, and get that splendid book of tried recipes called "Ogilvie's Book for a Cook".

THE MAN FROM BRODNEY'S

go away and leave me here," he began hoarsely. "No, no!" she cried, turning upon him suddenly. "You could not stay here. You shall not!"

"But, dearest love, I am bound to stay. I cannot go. And, God help me, I want to stay. If I could go into your world and take you unto myself for ever—if you will tell me now that some day you may forget your world and come to live in mine—then, ah, then, I would be different. But without you I have no choice of abiding places here as well as anywhere."

She put her hands over her eyes. "I cannot bear the thought of leaving you behind—of leaving you here to die at the hands of those beasts down there. Hollingsworth, I implore you—come! If the opportunity comes—and it will, I know—you will leave the island with the rest of us!"

"Not unless I am commanded to do so by the man who sent me here to serve these beasts, as you call them." He leaned over and took her hand in his. "You do love me?"

"You know I do—yes, yes!" she cried from her heart, keeping her face resolutely turned away from him. "I am sick with love for you. Why should I deny the thing that speaks so loudly for itself—my heart! Listen! Can you not hear it beating? It is hurting me—yes, it is hurting me!"

He trembled at this exhibition of released, unchecked passion, and yet he did not clasp her in his arms. "Will you come into my world, Geneva?" he whispered. "All my life would be spent in guarding the love you would give to me—all my life given to making you love me more and more until there will be no other world for you to think of."

"I wish that I had not been born," she sobbed. "I cannot, dearest—I cannot change the laws of fate. I am fated—I am doomed to live forever in the dreary world of my fathers. But how can I give you up? How can I give up your love? How can I cast you out of my life?"

"You do not love Prince Karl?" "How can you ask?" she cried fiercely. "Am I not loving you with all my heart and soul?"

"And you would leave me behind if the ship should come?" he persisted, with cruel insistence. "You will go back and marry that—him? Loving me, you will marry him?" Her head dropped upon her arm. He turned cold as death. "God help and God pity you, my love. I never knew before what your little world means to you. I give you up to it. I crawl back into the one you look down upon with scorn. I shall not again risk you to descend to the world where love is."

Her hand lay limp in his. They stared bleakly out into the night, and no word was spoken. The minutes became an hour, and yet they sat there with set faces, bursting hearts, unseeing eyes.

Below them in the shadows Bobby Browne was pacing the embankment, his wife drawn close to his side. Three men, Britt, Saunders and Bowles, were smoking their pipes on the edge of the terrace. Their words came up to the two in the gallery.

"If I have to die tomorrow," Saunders, the bridegroom, was saying, with real feeling in his voice, "I should say with all my heart that my life has been less than a week long. The rest of it was nothing. I never was happy before, and happiness is everything."

CHAPTER XXXI. THE SHIP THAT PASSES.

THE next morning was rainy. A quick, violent storm had rushed up from the sea during the night.

Chase, after a sleepless night, came down and, without waiting for his breakfast, hurried out upon the gallery overlooking the harbor. Geneva was there before him, pale, wistful, heavy eyed, standing in the shelter of a huge pillar.

"Hollingsworth," she said drearily, "do you believe he will come today?" "He?" he asked, puzzled. "My uncle. The yacht was to call for me not later than today."

"I remember," he said slowly. "It may come, Geneva. The day is young."

She clasped his hand convulsively, a desperate revolt in her soul. "I almost hope that it may not come for me!" she said, her voice shaking with suppressed emotion. "It will not come. I feel it in my heart. We shall lie here together, Hollingsworth. Ah, in that way I may escape the other life. No, no! What am I saying? Of course I want to leave this dreadful island—this dreadful, beautiful, hateful, happy island. Am I not too silly?"

She was speaking rapidly, almost hysterically, a nervous, flickering smile on her face.

"Dear one," he said gently, "the yacht will come. If it should not come today my cruises will forest all its mission. As sure as there is a sea those cruises will come." She looked into his eyes intently, as if afraid of something there. "Oh, I'm not mad!" she laughed. "You brought a cruiser to me one day. I'll bring one to you in return. We'll be quits."

"Quite?" she murmured, hurt by the word.

"Forgive me," he said, humbled. "Hollingsworth," she said after a long, tense scrutiny of the sea, "how long will you remain on this island?" "Perhaps until I die—if death should come soon. If not, then God knows."

"For my sake you will not stay long. You will come away before they kill you. You will promise me. You will come—to Paris? Some day, dear heart? Promise?"

"To Paris?" he said, shaking his head sadly. "No, dearest one. Not now. Listen: I have in my bar upstairs an offer from a great American corporation. My headquarters would be in Paris. My duties would begin as soon as my contract with Sir John Rodney expires. The position is a lucrative one; it presents unlimited opportunities. I am a comparatively poor man. The letter was forwarded to me by Sir John. I have a year in which to decide."

"And you—you will decline?" she asked.

"Yes. I shall go back to America, where there are no princesses of royal blood. Paris is no place for the disappointed, castoff lover. I can't go there. I love you too madly. I'd go on loving you, and you, good as you are, would go on loving me. There is no telling what would come of it. It will be hard for me to stay away from Paris—desperately hard. Sometimes I feel that I will not be strong enough to do it, Geneva."

"But Paris is huge, Hollingsworth," she argued insistently, an eager, impelling light in her eyes. "We would be as far apart as if the ocean were between us."

"Ah, but would we?" he demanded. "It is almost unheard of for an American to gain entree to our set in which—well, you understand," she said, blushing painfully in the consciousness that she was touching his pride. He smiled sadly.

"My dear, you will do me the honor to remember that I am not trying to get into your set. I am trying to induce you to come into mine. You won't be tempted, so that's the end of it. Beasty day, isn't it?" He uttered the trite commonplace as if no other thought than that of the weather had been in his mind. "By the way," he resumed, with a most genial smile, "for some queer, unmasculine reason I took it into my head last night to worry about the bride's trousseau. How are you going to manage it if you are unable to leave the island until—well, say June?"

She returned his smile with one as sweetly detached as his had been, catching his spirit. "So good of you to worry," she said, with a defiant red in her cheeks. "You forget that I have a postponed trousseau at home. A few stitches here and there, an alteration or two, some smart summer gowns and hats—Oh, it will be so simple! What is it? What do you see?"

He was looking eagerly, intently toward the long, low headland beyond the town of Ararat. "The smoke! See? Close inshore too! By heaven, Geneva, there's a steamer off there. She's a small one or she wouldn't run in so close. It—it may be the yacht! Wait! We'll soon see. She'll pass the point in a few minutes."

Already the citizens of the town were rushing to the pier. Even before the vessel turned the point the watchers at the chateau witnessed a most amazing performance on the dock. Half a hundred natives dropped down as if stricken, scattering themselves along the narrow pier.

The people were simulating death! They were posing as the victims of the plague that infested the land! As he was explaining the ruse to his mystified companion the nose of the vessel came out from behind the tree covered point.

An instant later they were sending wild cries of joy through the chateau, and people were rushing toward them from all quarters. The trim white thing that glided across the harbor, graceful as a bird, was the marquis' yacht!

It is needless to describe the joyous gale that swept the chateau into a maelstrom of emotions. They saw the tug put out to meet the small boat; they witnessed the same old maneuvers; they sustained a chill of surprise and despair when the bright white and blue boat from the yacht came to a stop at the command from the tug.

There was an hour of parleying. The beleaguered ones signaled with despairing energy. The flag, limp in the damp air above the chateau, shot up and down in pitiful eagerness. But the small boat edged away from close proximity to the tug and the nearby dock. They spoke each other at long and ever widening range. At last the yacht's boat turned and fled toward the trim white hull.

Almost before the startled, dazed people on the balcony could grasp the full and horrible truth the yacht had lifted anchor and was slowly headed out to sea.

Chase looked grimly about him into the questioning, stricken faces of his companions. He drew his hand across his moist forehead. "Ladies and gentlemen," he said solemnly and without the faintest intent to jest, "we are supposed to be dead!"

There was a single shriek from the bride of Thomas Saunders. No sound left the dry lips of the other watchers, who stood as if petrified and kept their eyes glued upon the disappearing yacht.

"They have left me here to die!" came from the stiffened lips of the Princess Geneva. "They have deserted me! God in heaven!" "Look!" cried Chase, pointing to the dock. Half a dozen glasses were turned in that direction.

The dying and the dead were leaping about in the wildest exhibition of glacial triumph.

The yacht slipped into the unreachably horizon, the feathery cloud from its stack lying over against the leaden sky, shaped like a finger that pointed mockingly the way to safety.

White faced and despairing, the watchers turned away and dragged themselves into the splendid halls of the building they had now come to regard as their tomb.

All day long the islanders rejoiced. Their shouts could be plainly heard by the besieged. Their rifles cracked sarcastic greetings from the forest. Bullets whistled gay accompaniments to the ceaseless song: "Allah is great! Allah is good!"

No man in the despoiled house of Taswell Skazars slept that night. The guard was doubled at all points open to attack. At 2 in the morning Deppingham, Browne and Chase came up from the walls for coffee and an hour's rest. They were wet and cold. They had heard Rasula's minions shouting derisively all night long: "Where is the warship? Where is the warship?"

"It will come. I am positive," said Chase, insistent in spite of his dejection. They drank their coffee in silence. He knew that the others, including the native who served them, were regarding him with the pity that one extends to the vainglorious braggart who goes down with flying colors.

He went out upon the west gallery and, utterly fagged, threw himself into an unexposed chair and stared through tired eyes into the inscrutable night that hid the sea from view—the faithless, moaning, jeering sea!

When he aroused himself with a start the gray, drizzly dawn was upon him. He had slept.

The next instant he was on his feet, clutching the stone balustrade with a grip of iron, his eyes starting from his head. A shout arose to his lips, but he lacked the power to give it voice. A quaint smile grew in his face. His eyes were bright and full of triumph. After a full minute of preparation he made his way toward the breakfast room outwardly as calm as a May morning.

Browne and Deppingham were asleep in the chairs. He shook them vigorously. As they awoke he said in the coolest, most matter of fact way: "There's an American cruiser outside the harbor. Get up!"

CHAPTER XXXII. IN THE SAME GRAVE WITH SEAGOS.

DOWN in the village of Ararat there were signs of a vast commotion. Early risers and the guards were flying from house to house, shouting the news.

Outside the harbor lay the low, savage looking ship. Its guns were pointed directly at the helpless town. Its decks were swarming with white clothed men.

The plague was forgotten. The strategy that had driven off the ships of peace was lost in the face of this ugly creature of war. Rasula's reign of strategy was ended.

"They will not fire! They dare not!" he was shrieking as he dashed back and forth along the dock. "It is chance! They do not come for Chase! Believe in me! The tug! The tug! They must not land!"

The crash of the long unused six pounder at the chateau, followed almost immediately by a great roar from one of the cruiser's guns, brought the panic to a crisis.

The islanders scattered like chaff before the wind, looking wild eyed over their shoulders in dread of the pursuing cannon ball, dodging in and out among the houses and off into the foothills.

PRESENTATION TO B. P. STEEVES

Late Principal of Harkins
Academy Departs With Best Wishes of all
Fellow-Citizens.

B. P. Steeves, B. A., for the last six years Principal of Harkins Academy, but, who lately resigned that position, left with his three children for Calgary, Alberta, Saturday night. Early in the evening a number of friends called upon him at the Methodist Parsonage, whither he had been invited for the occasion, and surprised him by the presentation of a well-filled purse and the following address read by Rev. W. J. Dean, on behalf of the many contributors:

Mr. B. P. Steeves, B. A.,
Dear Sir,

On this, the eve of your departure to take up your residence in a new and distant section of the country, we, as representatives of the citizens of Newcastle, desire to make a formal expression of the keen regret with which we view your change of abode and of the great loss we feel Newcastle sustains thereby. We have known you as a good husband and father and a thorough gentleman in private life; a conscientious, painstaking and successful teacher; and as one whose public influence made for good citizenship. In your recent and most unfortunate bereavement you have our deepest sympathy; and, knowing that no words of ours can adequately salve the wounds, we point you confidently to that Higher Power who alone is able to heal the broken heart. You will be accompanied to your new home with our best wishes for your future happiness and success. We are glad to know that, while you are leaving this province, yet your services will not be lost to our Dominion, which is so much in need of such strong, clean, vigorous lives as yours has been among us.

"As a parting gift, we beg you to accept this Purse as a small token of the affection and esteem with which you will ever be regarded by those you are leaving behind.

Newcastle, N. B., Jan. 7, 1911.

Rev. W. J. Dean,
H. H. Stuart,
F. J. Desmond,
T. H. Whalen,
F. S. Henderson,
Rev. S. J. Macarthur,
W. H. Belyea."

Mr. Steeves, overcome by the many evidences of good will, made a brief but very appropriate reply. At the close of the term Mr. Steeves received an appreciative address and a beautiful fountain pen from his pupils.

In the departure of Mr. Steeves, Newcastle has lost a very useful citizen, whose memory will long be cherished.

We wish to thank the public heartily for the most prosperous year in our history. We will begin our 44th year Tuesday, January 3rd.

LIQUIDATORS FOR MIRAMICHI PULP CO.

Employees to get Their Wages. Newcastle Men are Interested.

Judge Barry in Chambers at Fredericton, Friday, issued an order appointing W. B. Snowball of Chatham, and A. H. Hanington, K. C. of St. John, as permanent liquidators in the winding up of the Miramichi Pulp Co., of Chatham.

The liquidators were ordered to give bonds for $10,000 each and also sureties for an additional $10,000.

The provisional liquidator, W. B. Snowball, presented a report which showed the company with liabilities amounting to $296,463.24 and assets of $334,661.09, this leaving a balance of $38,197.85, but not including the claim of the Nashua River Paper Company of $374,794. Mr. Geo. T. Koyes, who owned a large amount of stock in the Miramichi Pulp Company, also is interested in the Nashua River Paper Company for which company the Miramichi mill provided the pulp.

The largest creditors, other than the Nashua River Paper Co., are the Bank of Montreal, with $112,800 in bonds as well as another claim amounting to $101,088.93. Mr. J. J. F. Winslow, Fredericton, appeared on behalf of the Bank of Montreal.

A. A. Davidson represented local creditors. The claim of the company's employees for wages amounting to $8100. Mr. Robert Murray, ex-M. P., appearing as the representative of about all of the men's claims.

Mr. R. A. Lawlor, K. C. appeared on behalf of the petitioners, the J. B. Snowball Company, of Chatham whose claim amounts to about $5,000. Mr. W. A. Ewing, of St. John, appeared for the Miramichi Foundry and Machinery Company, and the James Robertson Co., Ltd., of Montreal, creditors, while Mr. W. B. Chandler, of Moncton, represented other creditors, and Mr. A. H. Hanington of St. John was present for some stockholders.

Judge Barry issued an order for the payment of the employees by the liquidators.

It is understood that there are sufficient assets immediately available to provide for the payment of the overdue rates and taxes owing by the company, which are the first charge on the property, and also the unpaid wages due the employees which are the second charge.

AN OPINION LETTER

From a Baptist Clergyman Telling of Cures Wrought by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Gentlemen.—It has been my intention to write to you for some time, but being busy I have neglected to do so until now.

I am a Baptist minister. Was ordained June 14th, 1887, in Cranmahe Baptist Church, Northumberland Co., Ont. I want to tell you in as few words as possible what I know about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was pastor of the Dalesville, Que., Baptist Church in 1891 and again in 1894-5. While pastor in 1891, the Rev. John King, a former pastor, aged 74, was stricken with paralysis so that he could not help himself. He had to, or did, take a tablespoonful of rhubarb every day to keep his bowels regular. I thought of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He began taking them and it was not long before he could walk again and his bowels were regular. The paralysis never returned and his bowels remained active. He died a few years ago practically from old age.

I went from Dalesville, Que., to Groton, Vermont, as pastor of the Baptist Church in that place. There lived a man about two and one-half miles from Groton by the name of Neil McCrea, a Canadian.

I heard he was ill, and being a Canadian, I went to see him. I found him lying in bed. He said he had no pain, but was too weak to sit up. His lips were bloodless, in fact he was as white as chalk. I recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and gave him some. He began taking them and in a short time could see blood in the veins of his hands and in the course of a few weeks he was out watching men building a new barn for him, and shortly after that he came to Groton to church. Now, I ought to tell you that the doctor of Groton had given him up. The Rye-gate doctor (a doctor in an adjoining village) could not help him and said so. The best doctor in the hospital of Burlington, Vt., came and saw Mr. McCrea, but said he could not help him. He did not get any help till Dr. Williams' Pink Pills put him on his feet again.

Later I returned to Dalesville, Que., as pastor. A young lady who lived about six miles west of Dalesville at a place called Edina, sent for me to come to see her, as she had been a member of my congregation in my former pastorate. I went to see her and found a similar case to that of Mr. McCrea, of Groton, Vt. This girl was so weak she could not sit up. She appeared to be bloodless. I said to her: "It will cost you $6.00 to get a doctor to come out from Lachute to see you, whereas you can get six boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for $2.50." She followed my advice, took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and when some time later I saw her in Lachute, she was as well as ever, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did it all.

I have given you the faces of these three cases which came to my personal notice and I think only just to other sufferers that these cures should be given the widest publicity. If you wish me to go before a magistrate and take oath to the truthfulness of the things mentioned above, I am prepared to do so. I am at present engaged in evangelistic work, and have therefore not at the present time a permanent address. I can, however, refer you to the editor of the Canadian Baptist.

(Signed) T. C. SOWTER.

CHILD LOST

Robert, the seven-year-old son of Robert Allen, of Chatham strayed from his home Thursday and it is feared that he has been drowned off the Post Office wharf. The little fellow was not missed until early in the evening and then Mr. Allen telephoned around to various places in an effort to find him, but to no purpose. Finally the distracted father learned that the boy was last seen on the wharf near a spot open by the flood tide. Men are now engaged in grappling at the spot, which is close to the wharf. The current is swift there and if the worst has befallen the little fellow, the chances are against recovering the body.

WHITNEYVILLE

The few people of the Baptist church and others visited the parsonage and surprised the pastor and family. Rev. Mr. Worden and family were taken on all sides and had to make room for the in coming cheerful visitors who presented the pastor with a sum of money and many other useful things, the money to go towards purchasing a coat. The people of Whitneyville did real well. For these tokens of their grand good will both are very thankful for, and wish these friends a very Happy New Year. (Leader please copy)

NOTICE

To the friends who contributed to the subscription paper of the late Hugh MacDonald, I beg to say that all the money raised by him and placed in my hands is now in the Bank of Nova Scotia in his name. Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald desire me to say that they do not want to have anything to do with the money which was collected unknown to them, but suggest it to be given to some public sanitarium. I am now in communication with one in Muskoka and with one in St. John and as soon as definite arrangements can be made the money will be sent to one of the above places. Yours truly, Rev. W. J. Dean.

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body has its link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, therefore, no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Disease and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

Given Away.—Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, new revised Edition, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

MOTHER AND TWO CHILDREN AT MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL.

Are Now Under Treatment—Husband, Too, Had Been a Patient—A Tragedy in Real Life—Heavy Debt on Institution.

A story from the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives tells of a mother who, with her two children, is now under treatment in that institution. The husband had been a patient, but the case was an advanced one when the patient entered, and he has since passed away. There is little doubt but that the wife was infected as a result of caring for her husband, and now she is in the Muskoka Hospital. Her little girl, about five years of age, and a boy of ten are with her, both being afflicted with this dread disease.

The words of the mother are pathetic. She writes: "I went to a doctor and got him to examine my lungs to see whether there was anything wrong with them, and he said that the right lung was affected. A little rest, he hoped, would build me up. I have a little girl, about five years old, and the doctor says that if I could take her up with me it would do her ever so much good, as she is not very strong. I have three more children, and one of these, a boy of ten, seems also to be afflicted, and it is advisable that he should enter the hospital."

These three are of the 104 patients who are residents in this deserving institution and being cared for without money and without price. The sorry part of it is that the trustees are carrying a debt of something like $40,000, incurred largely through the additions that have been made within the past year, and that have more than doubled the accommodation of the institution, together with the heavy cost of maintaining so large a number of free patients.

Readers who desire to help this great charity may send their contributions to Mr. W. J. Gage, Chairman Executive Committee, 84 Spadina avenue, or to the Secretary-Treasurer, 347 King street west, Toronto.

The Muskoka Free Hospital has refused up to its claims of never having refused a single patient because of his or her poverty.

CAMPBELLTON TOWN COUNCIL MEETING

A meeting of the Town Council was held on Tuesday evening, 3rd inst. Mayor Murray presiding over a good attendance, Coun. Richards alone being an absentee.

Minutes of previous meeting read and passed. Town Clerk read a communication from the Deputy Receiver General, requesting payment of $785.92 as a refund from the Liquor License Fund. Referred to Finance Committee.

Letters from W. H. Gray, Dr. Lamm, Chas. Aulet and Robert O'Connell appealing against assessments, were referred to that Committee.

The Police and License Committee recommended that a license for a dry goods store be granted to "Les Quatre Saisons de St. Flavie" on payment of $500, also recommended that Wm. White's application for a Dance Hall license be not granted.

Recommendations carried.

Committee appointed to effect settlement of Patrick Smith's claim against Messrs. Harriman, contractors, in respect of fire at Waterworks last year.

Councillor McDonald moved his motion of which he had given notice as follows: "That that part or portion of Sugarloaf Strait within the town of Campbellton north of the southern boundary line, Intercolonial Railway Reservation and between the said southern boundary line of the said Intercolonial Railway Reservation, and the bank or shore of the Restigouche River, be closed up."

Moved as an amendment by Councillor Alexander, seconded by Councillor Moores, that the consideration of closing Sugarloaf Street, be postponed until the Intercolonial Railway Board of Management had been interviewed with regard to matter. The amendment was carried. The vote was as follows: For the amendment, Councillors Moores, Miller, Mowat and against Councillor McLennan, White and McDonald.

In the discussion which preceded the question it transpired that the I. C. R. had changed their plans and had not taken up all the property they had originally intended to hence the desire to meet the Board and ascertain their views.

The Fire Committee were authorized to purchase necessary ladders for the department, and instructed to have the telephone placed in the Police Station.

Hot discussion on the County taxes question resulted in Councillor White moving the following motion—"That the Bye Laws and Legislative Committee take up the question of separation from the Municipality of Restigouche in all matters which do not directly concern the town of Campbellton.—Seconded by Coun. Alexander and carried.

Accounts of several departments were passed for payment amounting to $2127.90.

Council Adjourned.

WHAT A C.P.R. FIREMAN OWES TO ZAM-BUK.

George H. Duffus of Robertson St., Fort William, a C. P. R. fireman, says: "The water gauge of my locomotive burst and scalded the whole left side of my face terribly. I had a box of Zam-Buk in my pocket, which I was using for a sore on my lip, and when I had recovered from the first shock of the accident, I produced the balm and had it applied freely to the scalded parts. I was suffering acute agony, but within a wonderfully short time Zam-Buk gave me ease. I was able to continue my journey and upon reaching home, I obtained more Zam-Buk and continued the treatment. Zam-Buk acted wonderfully well, and in a few days had the wound nicely healing. I don't know anything so fine as Zam-Buk as a healer of burns, scalds, cuts, and similar injuries, which workers are so liable to, and, in my opinion, a box of Zam-Buk should be kept handy in every worker's home."

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, frost-bite, ulcers, blood-poison, various sores, piles, scalp sores, ringworm, indented patches, babies' eruptions and chapped places, cuts, burns, bruises, and skin injuries generally. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price.

NEW YEAR SERMON

Rev. T. P. Drumm on New Year evening preached to a crowded congregation from Ezekiel 36-11. "The Best is Yet to be." In a dramatic discourse on Optimism he struck a glorious keynote for the New Year and in his message to the town of Campbellton he said:—"This is the New Year message of trust I bring to you men and women of Campbellton—God will do better for you than you ever dreamed of. He alone knows us perfectly. He alone knows the end from the beginning. As pictures taken by the camera require the dark developing chamber to bring forth the perfect image, so our character which God is shaping for Eternity, require the developing chamber of Affliction Discipline and Bereavement. God knows what we have suffered better than any friend and believe me He did not afflict us out of mere caprice. Some day we shall understand. Now we see through a glass darkly, some day face to face yea even as we are known. I bid you hope. I bid you rally together, strong in belief in God knowing the best is yet to be." Graphic

PROMINENT MEN AND WELL KNOWN WOMEN

Gladly Testify for "Fruit-a-tives"

One reason why "Fruit-a-tives" is winning a welcome in the hearts and homes of thousands from coast to coast, is because so many of the leading citizens of Canada have spoken so strongly in favor of this wonderful fruit medicine. In every province—in every city—in every hamlet—throughout the three millions, seven hundred square miles of the Dominion, there are many who owe their health and some who owe their lives, to the marvellous virtues of "Fruit-a-tives."

PAUL J. JONES, Esq., retired merchant of Sarina, Ont., testified "I suffered for 25 years with Constipation, Indigestion and Catarrh of the Stomach. I gave "Fruit-a-tives" a trial and find it the only remedy that does me good and I cannot praise it too highly!"

MISFORTUNES OF EVANS FAMILY

Bost on, Jan. 4.—Through four generations a strange series of misfortunes has relentlessly pursued that branch of the Evan family which became extinct with the death of Robt. D. Evans, the wealthy rubber and copper magnate. That a wrong done by a brother long ago will now be righted is the avowed belief of the claimants to the Evan millions. A century ago four brothers, John, Walter, Robert and Richard Evans were forced to leave England. Walter secretly slipped back, turned the family property into cash, bought a sailing vessel and became a sea captain. The vessel was lost with all on board. His eldest son, Robert, met with some accident. He died a bachelor. John and William, two other sons met violent deaths. Richard, the second oldest, also became a sea captain. Then fate overtook him and he died at Black River, New Brunswick. His son, while on a voyage, met with a serious accident, which caused his death soon after he had returned to New Brunswick. He was Capt. John Evans, father of Robert D. Evans, whose millions are now sought by other branches of the family.

The death of Miss Minnie Niven occurred on Jan. 6th at the home of H. C. Niven after a lingering illness of 18 months, interment took place on Jan. 9th in the Presbyterian Cemetery, the deceased leaves one brother Arthur of Campbellton who was here to attend the funeral. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. S. J. McArthur.—Com.

MRS. ALEXIS A. CROCKER

The death of Mrs. Alexis Ann Crocker, nee Saunders, widow of late Wm. T. Crocker, occurred at Millerton Sunday morning. Deceased was a native of Nelson and was 66 years old. She had been ill some time. Previous to being compelled to retire on account of ill health, Mrs. Crocker was one of the most active workers of the Episcopal church. She was well known as a lady of earnest christian life and of great activity in all good work. Her surviving children are:—Mrs. Mollie Stanford, Upton, P. Q.; Mrs. Wm. Cumming, Harcourt; Mrs. Allan Main, Havelock; Miss Ursula, teaching in Kent Co.; and Miss Nellie at home. Her only son, Walter H., died 8 years ago, and she never fully recovered from the blow. The following are the surviving sisters and brothers—Mrs. Thomas Ambrose, Nelson; Mrs. Wm. Cliff, Upper Derby; Miss Kate Saunders and Allan A. M. Saunders, Nelson. The funeral takes place at 2 p. m. today from St. Peter's church, Derby, Rev. Mr. Cooper to officiate.

BABY'S SPLENDID HEALTH

Mrs. R. Yates, Montreal, Que., writes:—"Baby's splendid health was obtained through the use of Baby's Own Tablets. They are a grand medicine for constipation, as their action is easy and does not give baby pain. I would recommend them to all mothers; no one should be without them who have young children in the house." This testimony is similar to thousands of others sent us by grateful mothers. Every mother who has ever used the Tablets for her little ones will tell you they are the very best medicine in the world. They not only cure the ills of the little ones, but they make them grow happy and strong. The Tablets can be given to even the youngest babe with absolute safety as they are sold under a guarantee of a government analyst to contain no opiate or other harmful drug. They cannot possibly do harm—they always do good. Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
