Auction Sales!

A benevolent lady has presented the Women's Patriotic Association with a Piano which will be sold by Public Auction, at the British Hall, on Thursday next, 16th inst., at 11 a.m. This is indeed a most commendable act and the first of its kind in St. John's. The Auctioneer is giving his services free, and will be very pleased if some other wealthy citizens will send along similar donations, such as Motor Cars, Motor Boats, Motor Cycles or Submarines, etc., but no trucky stuff will be received. Our own orchestra will be in attendance and a small entrance fee of ten cents will be charged at the door. Come along, ladies and bring your husbands, sons and daughters, sweethearts, uncles and aunts, mother-in-laws, father-in-laws and grandchildren: lots of room for all.

P. C. O'DRISCOLL, Auctioneer.

HORSE FOR SALE.

Xmas Poultry!

We are now booking orders for CHOICE TURKEYS, GEESE, DUCKS, CHICKEN, to arrive about December 20th. M. A. BASTOW.

Mrs. Housekeeper, YOUR ATTENTION, PLEASE!

"Baked Pork and Beans" is a dish which the housewife is able to prepare only by a long and tedious process. The Pork and Beans must be selected with care, while long periods of soaking and baking are necessary to produce a thoroughly wholesome and tasty dish. In Clark's Pork and Beans all this work has been done for the housewife and, because of special equipment impossible in the home kitchen, it has been done more thoroughly and uniformly. Only choice Canadian Pork combined with the highest grade Beans are used and the whole thoroughly baked by a special process which keeps the beans whole and retains in their entirety the full rich flavor and nutritive power.

Miss Evelina M. Bissler, Dublin Shore, Lunenburg, N.S., writes:—"I suffered from severe headaches for two years. In fact, I had headaches day and night. My appetite was very poor and I frequently had pains in the back. After using a few boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the headaches disappeared, appetite improved and I gained in health and strength. I am very thankful for the benefit obtained from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, for I am well again after two years of misery."

The object of pain seems to be to give warning that something is wrong in the human system. For this reason, when you have a headache, for instance, you should honestly seek for the cause.

Headache is not a disease in itself, but rather a symptom. If you find other indications that the nervous system is exhausted—if you are restless, nervous, sleepless and irritable—you may rightly suppose that to be the cause of the headache.

The headache warns you that with neglect of the nervous system you later expect nervous prostration, locomotor ataxia, or some form of paralysis. Wisdom suggests the use of such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to build up the system, and thereby remove the cause of the headache, as well as prevent more serious troubles.

The use of headache powders is not only a dangerous practice, but the shock to the system of drugs which are so powerful and poisonous as to immediately stop pain is most harmful. The relief is merely temporary, and with this danger signal removed the disease which caused the headache continues to develop until results are serious. The moral is, when you have headaches or pain of any kind look for the cause and remove it.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is not intended as a mere relief for headache. It cures by supplying the ingredients from which nature rebuilds and revitalizes the wasted nerve cells. Some patience is required for this reconstructive process, but the results are wonderfully satisfying, because they are both thorough and lasting.

If you would be freed from headaches, as was the writer of the letter quoted above, put Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to the test. Working, as it does, hand in hand with Nature, it can no more fail than can other of Nature's laws.

CHAPTER XVIII.

"I do not know. It was too far off for me to tell; and it kept in the shadows. I saw it as I was coming across the island. At first I thought it was yours, for the rowlocks were muffled; but I caught a glimpse of it for a moment, and I knew it was not yours."

"Some fisherman?" he suggested; but she shook her head.

"No; he would be farther out in the bay."

"It may be one of our men—the mate, the captain, from the yacht," he said, after a moment's thought. "It is a fine night, and some of them may be taking a row."

"It was not a ship's boat," she said; "it was a Sicilian. I could tell by the shape."

"And hanging about the island—where you are alone, or as good as alone!" said Ronald. "That makes me anxious."

"There is no need to be," she said, not disputing his right, he noticed with a thrill, to be anxious on her account. "There is nothing for him to steal; and no man who knows my father would dare to steal it, if there were. I have brought the books. I have not read them all; there was not time; but you will take them back, and not bring any more, or come again."

She still spoke in a low voice, and there was a note of sadness in it which made his heart leap.

"If you say so, of course," he said; "but I think you are very cruel, Miss Cara."

"Cruel?" She raised her eyes to his with surprise; then the lids swept over her own, and the colour rose to her face.

"Yes," he said. "You know how much I want to come. But, of course, you don't; how should you? You don't know that ever since that night on the moor I have thought of you, that since I found you on the island here I've never had you out of my mind."

She raised her eyes again and looked at him with a faint wonder, doubt, and something else in them hard to describe; it may have been fear, if one could associate fear with her.

"Oh, don't you know; can't you guess, Cara?" he whispered, leaning towards her and taking the hand that lay on her lap; and his voice was thick and shook a little, for his heart was throbbing with love—and the dread lest she should rise and leave him. "I didn't mean to tell you; I meant to keep it back until I saw your father; but—I can't keep silent. This man prowling about the island—and you alone here—Oh, Cara! don't you see I love you, dear?"

She did not move, did not withdraw her hand; but he gathered no encouragement from the fact that she did not do so; for he knew that she was so overwhelmed by his avowal as to be unconscious of his grasp.

"I love you!" he told her, and the first words of passion that had ever fallen on her ears struck to her heart. "I love you with all my heart and soul and body. Don't—don't you understand, Cara?" he asked her, in a whisper; for, indeed, she looked as if she were striving to realize the meaning of his avowal—as if she were trying to connect it with herself. "Dear, are you so surprised?" he asked her. "Do you never look in the glass, Cara; don't you know that you are the loveliest—?"

He stopped short, for the blood had rushed to her face, and she turned a startled look on him. In very truth she had never given a thought to the matter. In some of the novels she had read, there had been much about beautiful women; but it had never occurred to her to think of herself as one.

"You angel!" he said fervently. "Cara, there is not another girl like you, I swear it! Love you! Why, there's not a man with eyes in his head and a heart in his bosom who could help loving you. But it isn't because you are the loveliest creature on God's earth—poor Ronald's eloquence never a strong point of his, broke down, and he flung up his head with a gesture of despair of ever being able to make her understand—"It isn't that only; it's—it's—oh, well, I can't tell you why I love you; but I do!"

She was still silent. It seemed as if the suddenness of the attack had deprived her of the power of speech. She drew her hand from his, which let it go reluctantly, and looked away from him across the moonlit sea.

Ronald moved a little nearer to her. "Well, Cara?" he said, in an agony of suspense. "You are not angry?" "No," she said, speaking at last, not coldly, but with a trouble in her voice. "No; I am not angry. Should

I be? No; do not speak to me. I—I want to think—and I cannot. Oh, if you would go, and leave me alone—!" "I can't do that," he said earnestly. "I can't go until you tell me whether—"

"Cara, don't you care for me—a little?"

She looked at him, with her brows drawn; then went away from him. "I was glad when you came," she said. "It was lonely—no, I did not feel lonely till yesterday, when—you had gone—I must go—"

She rose; and he sprang to his feet and caught her arm.

"No; you must not go till you tell me!" he said, his voice steady enough now, firm and compelling. "Do you think I can let you leave me without knowing whether you care enough for me to marry me, Cara?"

"To marry you?" she said, as if this was another startling problem.

"To be my wife," he said as gently as he could. "Listen, Cara! You have said I must go; dearest, I may be going away for some time—"

She did not start, but he felt her quiver, and into her eyes flashed something which rendered his attempt at calmness futile. Suddenly he took her in his arms and drew her to him; his lips bent down to hers; but, as suddenly as he had caught her in his embrace, he checked the approach of his lips.

"No!" he said. "I won't till—till you tell me I may. Cara, look up at me, tell me that there's no hope for me, that you don't and can't love me, and I'll—I'll let you go; I'll leave you—"

She raised her eyes slowly, her lips moved; then suddenly all the strength of will and body seemed to desert her, her resistance to his grasp released, her eyes closed, and, with a deep sigh she surrendered herself; her head sank and her face hid itself on his breast. Her arms hung loosely, powerless, at her side.

He gathered her to him tightly; then he raised her head slowly, looked into the eyes upturned to him, and glowing with the passion that went out to meet his. Slowly, almost reverently, his lips met hers and clung in a long kiss. No word was spoken; they were still silent when, some moments later, he drew her down beside him, her head resting against him, her hand clasped in his.

In truth they neither of them were able to realize what had happened. could not yet fully grasp the infinite joy of their mutual love. There were no more doubts, no more wonder, to torture and oppress her. Nature had spoken, and with a whisper had dispelled her innocent ignorance of the great secret. And for Ronald there was at that moment no past and no future; the present was sufficient for him.

"You are happy, Cara?" he said at last.

MRS. LYON'S ACHEs AND PAINs

Have All Gone Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

OFFICIAL.

LONDON, Dec. 14. The Governor, Newfoundland: The India Office reports enemy bombardments and desultory attacks on Kotel Amara, on the 8th, 9th and 10th of December. On the 11th two attacks on the northern front were repulsed with heavy enemy loss. Since then there has been less activity. Reinforcements are being pushed forward. General French reports a mine blown up before Givenchy. The crater was occupied. There is considerable artillery activity elsewhere in France. The only German bridge left standing by the Meuse floods is seriously damaged by French artillery. The Russians have captured the village of Voiniouny. Italy reports progress, near Gorizia.

BONAR LAW.

PRISON CAMP IMPROVEMENTS.

LONDON, Dec. 14. Since the system of inspection of British prisoners' camps in Germany was instituted, the staff of the States Embassy at Berlin have paid 155 visits to the camps, said Lord Robert Cecil in the Commons to-day. By their untiring efforts they have secured improvements, though even now conditions in some camps are far from satisfactory.

GENERAL SMITH-DORRIEN TO COMMAND IN EAST AFRICA.

LONDON, Dec. 14. General Sir Horace Smith-Dorrien has been appointed to the supreme command of the forces operating in East Africa. General Smith-Dorrien was in service on the Franco-Belgian front in the earlier months of the war. He commanded the Second British Army for a time in May, and was placed in control of one of Britain's six new armies. He returned to London in June. No official mention was made of his return from the front, for which various reasons were given. A vigorous campaign has been instituted recently by the French

UNIONIST MEMBERS HOLD PRIVATE MEETING.

LONDON, Dec. 14. Sixty Unionist members of Parliament, Henry Chaplin, member for Wimbledon Division of Surrey, presiding, met privately last night and decided to discuss and criticize the Bill extending the duration of Parliament for a year, when it comes to its second reading. Many speeches were made including one by Carson. The majority declared that the Government had forfeited much of Parliament's confidence by mistakes, and that it ought not to ask for an extension of power as long as a year. The speeches were of the frankest nature, and arraigned the government on many points. The tone of the meeting may be reflected in Parliament to-day, when it is likely that there will take place a general discussion regarding the conduct of the war, and amendments will be submitted, limiting the extension to three or six months. The meeting proposed to elevate Carson to the leadership, but many speakers affirmed loyalty to Bonar Law, the present leader of the Unionists.

ALIEN ENEMIES INTERNED IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, Dec. 14. It was announced in the Commons to-day that the number of Alien enemies interned in England is: Civilians, 32,274; Naval and Military, 13,475. Besides these prisoners, there are now in England a total of 21,205.

FROM BERLIN.

LONDON, Dec. 14. The Daily Mail's Copenhagen correspondent telegraphs the following basing it on information received from Berlin: More than 10,000 machine guns have been completed to strengthen the German eastern front. The Bulgarian and Turkish armies have recently been plentifully supplied with machine guns from Germany. All trains from Germany to Constantinople since the railway has been repaired have been used in transporting ammunition and machine guns as well as great quantities of rails for Palestine.

GREECE AND THE ALLIES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14. The London correspondent of the Herald cables that the Daily Telegraph this morning publishes a despatch from Salonika, which reports that the Commanders of the Greek forces there, in addition to despatching troops to other vital points, are assisting in every way to transform the port into a formidable base for the Allies. Moreover nearly all the despatches agree that the Greeks may permit the Allied forces to settle scores with Austro-German troops; if the Bulgarians, who continue to boast that they will hold Monastir permanently, invade Greek territory, nothing can stop the Hellenic army from attacking their hereditary foe. I learn from excellent sources that the feeling among the Greek troops and Allies is increasingly friendly, and that the soldiers of King Constantine are eagerly awaiting the word which will give to them chances of fight the Bulgarian army. Confident belief is expressed here that the next contact of importance between the armies of the Central Powers and the Allies in the Balkan theatre will occur in the outskirts of Salonika. Anglo-French forces have successfully ended their retirement from Serbia and are falling back to the sea without opposition, due to the thoroughness with which the work of destroying roads and railway was done. The handicap thus placed on a pursuit, combined with the delicate situation in Greece, which may act to prevent the Bulgarians from crossing the frontier have enabled the Allies to get clear away.

GERMANY AND GREECE.

LONDON, Dec. 14. Germany, apparently, has no intention of permitting Greece to grant any further concessions to the Allies without vehement protest. Reuter's correspondent at Athens says that German diplomats already have taken steps which are likely to add considerably to the difficulties of the situation. It is announced unofficially at Athens, the correspondent continues, that Germany has asked Greece whether the new facilities afforded to the Allies comprising Greek neutrality in any way. No official communication has been issued thus far at Athens regarding the exchange of views between German and Greek diplomats, but Greek officials admit that the situation is becoming more delicate.

GERMANS FEEL RESULT OF THEIR LOSSES.

ATHENS, Dec. 14. The Nabellas prints a telegram from Berlin stating that it is becoming known there that, in view of their heavy losses, the Germanic powers will find it impossible, in case pressure is brought to bear against Greece by the Allies, to reply by military action. The correspondent affirms that, according to plans before the German Government, any permanent blockade of Greece with consequent exhaustion of Greek food supplies will be met by reduction of the rations of all prisoners in German hands; furthermore, if Greek towns should be bombarded by the Allies' warships, the Germans are prepared to raze every French and Serbian town in their hands.

TAKING PRECAUTIONS.

LONDON, Dec. 14. The Greek Government, it is learned here to-day, has commended all Greek shipping in British and American ports, in an effort to supply the deficiency in food and coal, which exists in Greece as a result of the Entente Allies restrictions. The Greek vessels will be loaded with cargoes purchased by the Athens Government, which does not anticipate any further trouble.

NOTE PRESENTED.

ZURICH, Dec. 14. A Vienna despatch says that American Ambassador Penfield presented the United States Government Ancona note to the Austrian Foreign Office on Saturday, and that Austrian political circles consider the note as going much too far, but that the press is refraining from comments on it until a hint is received from official circles.

SOCIALISTS DISSATISFIED.

LONDON, Dec. 14. The Leipzig Volks Zeitung publishes the names of thirty-four Socialists, who following the lead of Hugo Haase (Socialist leader in the Reichstag), have signed a declaration expressing dissatisfaction with results of the peace discussion in the Reichstag, says the Amsterdam correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Co. According to the Volks Zeitung coming deliberations in the Reichstag will give the minority, bent on peace, the ne-

THEY REFUSE TO EAT

At periods in most children's lives they fail to relish their meals and refuse to eat even the delicacies prepared to tempt their appetites. They lack ambition, and growth seems impeded, which causes anxiety and worry. To compel them to eat is a grave mistake, because nutrition is impaired. Healthful exercise in fresh air and sunshine is important, but equally important is a spoonful of Scott's Emulsion three times a day to feed the tissues and furnish food-energy to improve their blood, aid nutrition and sharpen their appetites. The highly concentrated medicinal food in Scott's Emulsion supplies the very elements children need to build up their strength. They relish Scott's--it is free from drugs. Avoid substitutes. ON THE GREEK FRONTIER.

LONDON, Dec. 14. A despatch filed at Salonika on Monday by Reuter's correspondent, says that the Bulgarians have occupied positions, formerly held by the Serbians along the Graeco-Serbian frontier. The last report was that all was quiet there.

ADJOURNS UNTIL MARCH.

ROME, Dec. 14. The Chamber of Deputies has adjourned until March 1st. Adjournment was taken after an imposing demonstration in tribute to the King and army. Greetings from the deputies were sent to "The victorious army at the front."

PRUSSIAN CASUALTIES.

ROTTERDAM, Dec. 14. The last ten lists of Prussian casualties contain 65,340 names. The lists cover a period from Nov. 15 to 25. Total Prussian losses to date are given as 2,224,248.

CHINESE PROTEST TO WILSON.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14. An appeal to President Wilson not to recognize the Chinese monarchy, was mailed to Washington to-day by Tong King Chong, President of the Kung Tong, known as the Chinese Republican Association, which is said to have a membership of about 6,000 in the States, and 300,000 in North, Central and South America.

GUARDING THE FOUNDRIES.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 14. Pickets to-day watched the sixty-seven foundries where fifteen hundred founders and core makers struck to enforce their demands for an eight-hour day for the four dollars rate which they now receive for nine hours. No effort was made by the master founders to break the strike.

RESTRICTION OF COURIERS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14. The State Department announced to-day that Germany would no longer permit American diplomatic couriers travelling between Berlin and London to carry merchandise, but that couriers would be allowed passage as heretofore for the conveyance of diplomatic exchanges only. The restrictions imposed by Germany, the department officials said, would not prevent or delay communication by courier between American Embassies at London and Berlin.

PILING UP RECRUITS.

LONDON, Dec. 14. The vote for another million men for the army, which Premier Asquith intended to move on Thursday of this week, has been postponed until next week. The Premier promised to give the Commons the results of Earl Derby's recruiting campaign also on Thursday, but it has been found impossible to tabulate the figures in time. This announcement likewise is postponed till next week. According to the Evening News, last week's rush for enrollment brought more than five hundred thousand recruits.

LAST WEEK'S OPERATIONS NOT SERIOUS TO ALLIED ARMIES.

LONDON, Dec. 14. Reviewing the past week's operations, Reuter's correspondent at Salonika says that fighting during the week did no serious harm to the Allied forces. The Bulgarians have shown no desire to come to close quarters since Monday of last week. The British casualties on that day, says the correspondent, although severe, totalled less than a thousand, but during the rest of the week a few dozen would sum up the total casualties along the whole Franco-British front. During the week the Allies retired about fourteen miles by gradual stages, removing all their own stores and absolutely denuding the country of everything valuable to the enemy. An unusual sight that was witnessed was herds of cattle and sheep being driven ahead by the Allied soldiers, who greatly enjoyed this novel fatigue duty. On Saturday the rear-guard of the Allies was only two miles from the Greek frontier, and the town of Doiran had been completely stripped. The British recognized numerous German uniforms among the Bulgarian troops. Meanwhile reinforcements continue to pour into Salonika, including several Scotch regiments, and on a semi-circle of hills surrounding the town, fortifications are rapidly nearing completion. The soldiers are confident and many of them express the hope that they will soon be able to test the strength of these works against the enemy.

SNOWSTORM.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14. The centre of one of the heaviest snowstorms which this section of the country has experienced in several years, passed northeast of New York to-day, leaving in its wake a tangle of broken telegraph poles and wires.

BRITISH STEAMER SUNK.

LONDON, Dec. 14. The report that the British steamer Orteric has been sunk, was confirmed to-day by Lloyds. The members of the crew were saved, with the exception of two Chinese, who were killed and three others were wounded. The Orteric was 6,536 tons gross.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 15th, 1915.

Greek Situation Clearing.

There are several new indications which point to a better understanding between the Entente and the Greek Government. Germany is assuming a threatening attitude to Greece, on account of facilities afforded by the Greeks for the retreat of the British and French towards Saloniki. Greek officials admit the situation is delicate. We take that to mean between Germany and Greece as regards the questions raised by Germany. Greek forces are moving to points threatened by the Bulgars, notably Seres. Against Greek wishes, the civil administration of Monastir has been handed over to the Bulgars, who have closed the Greek frontiers to travellers from Greece. The continued arrival of reinforcements at Salonika and the shortening of the lines of communication daily adds to the strength and security of the Entente forces, and fortifies their hold on Salonika and the Greek portion of the Vardar Valley. There is also a growing camaraderie between the Greek fighting men and our own. This is a healthy sign. Then again, there is the statement that the Greek Government has commended Greek shipping in British and American ports to carry cargoes, purchased by the Greek Government. This is a good sign that the Greek Government does not consider hostility with the Entente Powers imminent, as such ships and cargoes could not reach Greek ports for a considerable time and they would be seized as prizes by the British and French warships, if war should break out within the next week, and there is every appearance that the attitude of Greece will be determined within that time.

News was received in the city last evening which points at least to some modification of the strict exclusion of Newfoundland fish from Greece. The news was curious, in view of the official declaration that the Imperial authorities in view of the needs of general policy were unable to raise the embargo against the entry of our fish into Greece. One of our merchants informed us that he had received a cable that his vessel, loaded with fish for Greece, which had been detained at Gibraltar, had been allowed to proceed to Patras. This place is a port of Greece in the Gulf of Corinth. It has been suggested to us that this does not mean that the embargo has been raised, but that the fish has been allowed to be sent to a British consignee, who will be under bonds to prevent it reaching the enemy. It however suggests that the authorities are not tightening the restrictions under the embargo. Enquiry we set on foot among our fish exporters, failed to show that any other merchant was in possession of advices of a similar character. In itself, however, it is a sign of a distinctly hopeful character.

Casualty List.

99-Private John Myrick, 12 Nunnery Hill. Died of diphtheria, Dec. 10.
473-Private John St. John, South Wales. Dangerously ill, Gibraltar; gunshot.
Private John Joseph Myrick is the son of Mr. Patrick Myrick, Carpenter, 12 Nunnery Hill, St. John's, and a nephew of Mr. M. W. Myrick, Undertaker. Before enlisting he was engaged at the baking business and was a drummer with the C. C. C. He was one of the youngest members of the First Nfld. Contingent, was a member of A Company, and, as his number indicates, was one of the first to answer his country's call. The young soldier has made the supreme sacrifice in defence of his Country and Empire as he had been shot down on the battlefield. To his grief-stricken parents and other relatives and friends in St. John's—and they were many—deep sympathy will go out and in which the Telegram unites.
Additional Information.
Private Selby Clarke, previously reported sick, slight; admitted to Second Western General Hospital, Manchester, dysentery.

Daring Burglaries.

POLICE INVESTIGATING.
Two of the most daring thefts heard of for some time have just been brought under the notice of the authorities and the police detectives are hard at work endeavouring to run down the perpetrator.
The higher levels is the locality selected by the marauder to carry on his operations. On Sunday night last a house on Spencer Street was burglarized and a gold watch and several other valuable articles, including a woman's hand bag, which contained cash, disappeared. An entry to the house was forced during the absence of the occupants, who were at church. About a stone's throw from that thoroughfare a residence was entered some time previously and a large sum of money stolen. It is hoped that the culprit, whoever he is, will not be long at large, and in the meantime it should serve as a caution to others for not to leave their home unguarded.

Enquiry Continued.

The preliminary enquiry into the charge of casting away the schooner Henry M. Stanley, preferred against Job Roberts, Nathan Roberts and Earl Burgess, was continued to-day before Mr. Frank Morris, J.P. One witness, Mr. C. J. Jerritt, was examined. At 1 p.m. an adjournment was taken until Saturday next.

Bridge Blown to Bits.

Captain's Account of Last Scene.
A thrilling account of the last scenes in the hospital ship Anglia, mined and sunk in the Channel on Wednesday, was told by Captain Lionel John Manning at an inquest on one of the victims held at Dover, yesterday.
There were nearly 400 wounded in the ship, said the captain, 166 of (badly wounded) cases and 200 "walking" cases. At 12.30 p.m., when they were about three miles from shore, there was a very loud explosion apparently forward of the bridge. It blew the bridge to "amtherens," and he was blown on to the lower deck.
"He ran up to the wireless room to order the "S.O.S." call to be sent out, but found the operator, with blood on his face coming out. The operator stated that the instruments had been broken to pieces. The witness then went with Chief Officer Horner to help to get out the boats on the port side, the only one side available as the vessel had a heavy list and was down by the head.
The Coroner: A great many of the cot cases were unable to help themselves?
Captain Manning: Yes. There were men without legs, feet, and arms, quite unable to help themselves.
The jury returned a verdict of Death from Drowning owing to an External Explosion.—Daily Mail, Nov. 20th.

McMurdo's Store News

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 15th, 1915.
We are getting our store into shape for Christmas just now, and in a day or two will have, we think, a really excellent display of goods suitable for the Season. The Perfume, Chocolates, and the many other things we sell that are classed as more useful things, will be particularly apposite this season when expensive gifts are out of fashion. At any rate we should like you, at any time during the next eight or ten days—but the earlier the better of course, for such things go rapidly just now—to look in and see our line of French, British and other perfumes, Willard's Chocolates, Dressing Cases, Hot Water Bottles, Fancy Soaps, etc., etc. And we are certain you will be able to choose something at once reasonable and suitable to make your friends happy.

Canada Is Now Making Twenty Million Shells.

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—Some idea of the stupendous proportions to which the munitions industry in Canada has grown was given to the members of the Ottawa branch of the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers at their monthly luncheon here to-day by General Alexander Bertram, of the Imperial Munitions Board.
At present nearly 100,000 persons are employed on orders amounting in all to 20,000,000 shells. The steel required for the industry from now till the end of next year is eight hundred million pounds, which will tax the capacity of the Dominion steel plants to the utmost.
Nearly forty-five million pounds of copper and brass are used and 102,000,000 pounds of lead. This is more than Canada can produce of these metals and the surplus must be imported.
Fifteen hundred thousand pounds of tin and ten million pounds of rosin are also required.
The value of the shell orders up to now has been $20,000,000, with additional orders of about $180,000,000, making $375,000,000 in all.
The number of shells shipped to England so far has been 3,500,000.

A GREAT RECRUITING SONG AT ROSSLEYS.

The musical comedy act was loudly applauded at Rossleys. It is considered the finest yet given by the talented Ballard Brown and Madge Locke. Miss Locke also sang a great recruiting song, composed by a young brother, who is only fifteen years old, which brought round after round of applause. On Friday night the big fun contest and special act. The pantomime "Beauty and the Beast" will open on Christmas Day, and the costumes are beautiful. Jack Rossley, Ballard Brown, Marie Rossley, Bonnie Rossley and Mrs. Rossley's pupils will as usual delight and surprise all. Don't forget the big dance at "Ours" Dec. 27th.

Venizelos Issues a Manifesto.

Greek Premier Sets Forth His Views at Length.

Paris, Dec. 6.—Elliphtherios Venizelos, ex-premier of Greece, has issued a manifesto addressed in the name of the liberal party to the people of his country advising abstention from voting in the forthcoming general elections. The manifesto was issued on November 21, but its transmission by telegraph was prevented by the Greek government and it reached Paris by mail to-day.

The manifesto calls attention to the fact that the internal crisis was brought about solely by the wresting of power from those to whom the people had confided it at the last elections.

"Day by day," says M. Venizelos, "the constitution is deformed into a simple scrap of paper, and we find ourselves at present in a deviation from our policies amounting to suppression of the constitutional regime."

Ex-Premier Venizelos points out what he calls the entire absence of necessity or excuse for an appeal to the people for the second time in a few months amid the confusion of war. He declares the chamber of deputies overturned the Greek cabinet not for the mere pleasure of exercising its opposition, and that it would have accepted the new cabinet with the sole exclusive of the minister who had instituted the chamber, and says:

"In spite of the affront intentionally inflicted upon the national representatives by the promotion of that minister to the highest grade at the royal court and in spite of his maintenance in the reconstructed ministry, the opposition contented itself with declaring that it would abstain from the sessions.

"The chamber had in view only the defence of its own dignity and had no intention of interfering with the passions were insufficient to turn the government from its direction to dissolve the chamber and to proceed with the elections while all the men in the kingdom who could be mobilized were under arms.

The ancient regime that was thought to have been abolished by the revolution of 1909 came again to life with the ministry of the month of February. Beaten in the elections this regime concentrates all its forces to-day in a supreme effort to suppress the liberties of the people because it cannot live otherwise."

"After calling attention to what he terms the difficulties that make fair elections impossible, M. Venizelos declares that the government is secretly mobilizing men which it can count on to vote for the government's candidate while all the adversaries of the government are being refused leaves of absence.

"The deputy of the liberal party," says the ex-premier, "is not to participate in the political comedy whose object is to prevent a manifestation of the national will and to give an appearance which would be also that the elections were an approval by the people of the non-execution of the treaty of alliance, thanks to which Greece has extended her frontiers as far as Nestos.

The Liberal party has no intention to abandon the struggle and it would be a mistake to thus interpret its decision," says M. Venizelos, who adds that the party's object now is to prevent internecine strife and to leave the questions at issue to be settled after the exterior crisis has passed.

"If the disasters now being prepared by the government do not take on such proportions that the faith in a future Hellenism be not entirely shaken."

German Plotter Doublecrossed.

New York, Dec. 7.—United States Attorney Snowden Marshall declared to-day that Franz Von Rintelen, the German agent who is accused of coming to this country to incite strikes in munition factories, armed with a large corruption fund, was "double-crossed" by the labour men he tried to corrupt and, despite the expenditure of several hundred thousand dollars, failed to accomplish his mission in any effective manner.

Mr. Marshall gave the major credit for Rintelen's failure to the stand taken by high officials in the labour organizations.

"Rintelen only succeeded in corrupting some subordinates," Mr. Marshall said, "and he was beautifully double-crossed. The real labour leaders took prompt steps to check his activities. Save for a few small strikes, none of his efforts were successful, and all the strikes he did instigate were quickly killed by the good men at the head of the unions.

I am not prepared to state just how much money Rintelen expended, but it ran into hundreds of thousands of dollars. He had $500,000 to his credit in one bank."

Mr. Marshall refused to comment on David Lamar's activities in the scheme, beyond saying emphatically that he would not be called as a witness before the grand jury, a proceeding which might give him immunity from prosecution.

If sufficient evidence is obtained it is expected that indictments will be sought against the labor men who accepted Rintelen's money. Mr. Marshall stated that these men could be prosecuted under the Sherman law, on the ground that they had conspired to restrain the trade of the United States in munitions.

Rintelen is at present held a prisoner by the British authorities in the Tower of London. No attempt will be made to extradite him, as Mr. Marshall says his offence is not extraditable.

Samuel Gompers, the labor leader, who has made repeated statements in public that he knew strikes were being organized by the agents of a foreign power, may appear before the Grand jury here. Mr. Gompers is said to be on his way to Washington from the west. He is expected to come here shortly.

The arraignment of Robert Fay, Walter Scholz, Baz Breitung, Dr. Herbert Kienzle, and Paul Bronkhorst, who were indicted yesterday on a charge in connection with plots to blow up munition ships, was to-day put over to Monday.

Paul Daech, who was also indicted on the murder charge, is in Jersey City. He was ordered to return to this jurisdiction, but has decided to fight extradition and will take an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Hundreds of thousands of the civilian population in the Warsaw district of Poland are suffering for the want of food. The greater percentage of this number are still homeless, living in huts, caves and abandoned trenches. The situation is more serious because of the immense number thrown out of work by the almost complete paralysis of Polish industries.

No Particulars as to Destruction of Senlac.

Concerning the S. S. Senlac, which was burnt to the water's edge in Sydney Harbour, as referred to in yesterday's Telegram, there is still no particulars of the occurrence received as yet.

All that is known is that the steamer and her entire cargo were completely destroyed. The Senlac was on her way here from Charlottetown with a produce cargo, as previously mentioned, and called at Sydney to bunker.

Germany Tried to Embroid U.S.A. in Mexican War.

New York, Dec. 8.—The United States Government is in possession of evidence tending to show that Germany, through its secret agent, Franz von Rintelen, spent a huge sum of money in order to embroil the United States and Mexico, so as to divert the flowing of munition manufactures from the Allies, the idea being that in such an event the United States would need all the munitions manufactured in America for the use of its own armed forces.

Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, has officially denied several times that there was any truth in the story that an effort was made by Germany to start a revolution that would make imperative the armed intervention of the United States.

Despite the denials, information has come to the Government that the bringing about of this clash was one of the purposes that brought von Rintelen, reputed friend of the Kaiser and Prince Henry of Prussia, to this country last spring.

The failure of von Rintelen is ascribed in part to the fact that he was unable to get together in this country a staff of secret service experts such as would have been possible in almost any country in Europe. Instead, he had to depend upon men who were amateurs in secret service activities, and these men "let the cat out of the bag."

Funds Were Unlimited.

The money that von Rintelen had at his command is declared to have been practically unlimited, the figure has been placed as high as $30,000,000 for the Mexican venture alone.

Great sums were expended by the German agent. The Government has traced much of the money and knows how it was expended. There was one item of $500,000 deposited with the Trans-Atlantic Trust Company, the disposition of practically every cent of which is known to the Federal authorities. Practically all of this half million was used in the effort to bring about trouble in Mexico.

During the three months that von Rintelen was in the United States there was only one German official here who outranked him, and that was Count von Bernstorff, the Ambassador; Capt. Boy-Ed, the German naval attaché, and Capt. von Papan, the military attaché, both consulted with von Rintelen as subordinates.

Immediately upon his arrival in New York von Rintelen set about establishing the Mexican connections that he considered necessary to carry into effect his orders. He was introduced to two men familiar with conditions south of the Rio Grande, men who had lived many years in Mexico. One was a banker, the other a contractor. One was a German subject, the other an American, and they had offices in the same building in the downtown section.

Huerta Chosen Leader.

Both Huerta and Felix Diaz were considered for the leadership of the new revolution. Huerta was selected. One of the German gifts to Huerta, as stated by a high Carranzista official, was ten thousand rifles, with a promise of thousands more as fast as they were needed.

Another link in the chain of evidence forged by the Government showed that von Rintelen, under an assumed name, was introduced to one of Huerta's agents. The man who engineered this introduction is the treasurer of a banking institution through which von Rintelen transferred much of the financial part of his various schemes.

It is alleged that Huerta conferred with Capt. von Papan, the German military attaché. Both von Papan and Capt. Boy-Ed, according to one Mexican version of the story, were sent west several months ago to look into the border details of the conspiracy.

At the same time that he was trying to bring to a successful conclusion the German scheme to embroil this country and Mexico, von Rintelen was busy directing another plot, the purpose of which was to "purchase strikers," as United States District Attorney Marshall has described it.

One of the first men he met in connection with that part of the conspiracy was David Lamar, known as "The Wolf of Wall Street." It is alleged by the Federal authorities that von Rintelen turned over to Lamar a fund destined for certain labor leaders that totalled between $250,000 and $300,000.

The organization known as Labor's National Peace Council, of which Congressman Frank Buchanan was at one time president, was financed by von Rintelen, acting through Lamar, according to the statement issued by District Attorney Marshall.

TO-DAY'S Messages.

11.00 A.M.

MEETING OF BULGARIAN PARLIAMENT.

SOFIA, To-day. It is announced here that the Sobranje will meet on Dec. 23. The government will be supported by all parties except Socialists. At a meeting of the ministry at which it was decided to convene the Sobranje, it was announced Bulgaria had enlarged her territory over thirty-one thousand miles.

WILL NOT TOUCH FORD.

LONDON, To-day. The steamer Oscar II, which has on board Henry Ford and his peace advocates, has not yet been reported. It is learned from official sources, however, it is hardly likely that the ship which is destined for Christiania will be taken into Kirkwall. It is believed the Oscar II has no cargo aboard. Following the policy outlined recently in the Commons that the government will hardly take any steps which will bring passengers any nearer the England coast than necessary the government views the enterprise of Ford with indifference, a policy which official circles believe can be followed with the greatest advantage by keeping the Ford party from English shores.

LONDON, To-day. A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from its correspondent at Zurich, says: I am assured local pacifists have asked Germany to permit the Ford peace party to reach Switzerland by way of Germany without passports or any formality, in order that they may co-operate with the peace colony here.

THE TURKISH FORCES.

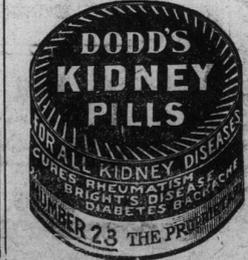

LONDON, To-day. Replying to a question in the Commons yesterday, Harold T. Tennant, Parliamentary Under Secretary of War, said it was calculated Turkey had 650,000 men in the field, and that this force under certain circumstances, might be increased to a million.

NEW BATTLE EXPECTED ON THE GREEK TERRITORY.

LONDON, To-day. The next big battle will be the probability of being fought in Greece, despite the efforts of the Hellenic King and Government to save the country from the horrors of war. The British and French forces have made good their retirement down the Vardar Valley and are now approaching Salonika where reinforcements are being landed. While reports in Paris and Rome say the Bulgarians have crossed the Greek frontier in pursuit, the reports of such action by the Bulgarians come somewhat as a surprise, as it had been thought such a move by them would provoke the Greeks and that consequently if the Entente Allies are followed at all, the task would be allotted to the Austrians and Germans.

The Greek situation has diplomatically been complicated by the request of Germany to know whether the Athens Cabinet does not look upon the retreat into Greek territory by the Entente Allies as a breach of her neutrality. The inquiry is considered to foreshadow German participation in the pursuit. However, it is not believed here that the Germans have many troops in that part of the Balkans, their main forces having been diverted to Rostohuk, when the Russian threat of an invasion of Bulgaria seemed likely of fulfillment, and that therefore the Entente troops for the present only have to fear the Bulgarians, as the Austrians are still being occupied in Montenegro and Albania, where Montenegrins and Serbs are keeping up a stubborn resistance. It has again been reported that the Italians have landed an army on the Albanian coast to go to the assistance of the Serbs and Montenegrins. The Turks claim to have repulsed an attack again on their left wing at Sedul Bahr. The Turkish official accounts say nothing new has occurred at Kutelamara, where the Turks are operating against the British, who retired from Bagdad region. This is taken in military circles here as an admission on the part of the Turks, that their attacks on the British position on the Tigris River have failed. Previous reports of the losses the Turks inflicted on the British, when the British retired down the river, are declared in private information now reaching London, to have been exaggerated. For example, three vessels which they captured turned out to be a tug boat and two barges. The Italians are still hammering away at the Austrian positions around Gorizia. The town of Gorizia itself has been again bombarded. Austrian officers who have been through many big battles on the eastern front, describe the Italian artillery fire as more terrific and continuous than any they have experienced.

F. M. FRENCH'S REPORT.

LONDON, To-day. (Official.) Field Marshal French reports to-day that our artillery bombarded Domme Court of the enemy trenches east of Givenchy and the village of Le Mesnil. Hostile artillery showed considerable activity east and north-east of Ypres, to which our artillery replied with vigor. Last night we bombed one of the enemy's trenches at Le Tougniet, just west of the River Lys, with hand grenades causing great confusion in the trench which appeared to be strongly held. Weather continues bright and cold.

BULGARS INTEND TO KEEP MONASTIR.

LONDON, To-day. Telegraphing from Salonika, the Times correspondent says the reported concentration of large enemy forces south of Monastir to-day is authoritatively denied. Therefore, the Doiran-Ghevghel section is the only quarter from which an enemy advance may be anticipated at present. The exclusion of Bulgarians from the civil administration of Monastir is now clearly seen to have been a pretense intended to allay Greek suspicions, until Serbian resistance was completely broken and the line of Greek policy definitely known. It now must be discarded. Monastir has been officially declared by German misinters at Sofia to be in irrevocable possession of the Bulgarians, while a purely Bulgarian administration is being installed in that coveted town. One of the first acts of this administration has been to close frontier to travellers from Greece.

ANOTHER NOTE OF PROTEST.

WASHINGTON, To-day. The Government to-day cabled Ambassador Sharpe, at Paris, for presentation to the French Foreign Office of a note vigorously protesting against the removal by the French cruiser Descartes of six Germans and Austrians from the American steamships Carolina, Coama and San Juan. The immediate release is asked on the ground that the seizure of citizens of any nation from an American vessel on the high seas is without legal justification and constitutes a violation of American rights. The note was dispatched by Secretary of State Lansing with the full approval of President Wilson. It is also understood to have been discussed by the President with his Cabinet at yesterday's meeting.

A FIGHT IN THE AIR, GERMAN PLANE DESTROYED.

LONDON, To-day. Official. — Flight Sub-Lieutenant Grahme in an aeroplane with Flight Sub-Lieut. Ince as observer, while on patrol off Belgian coast on Tuesday afternoon, sighted a large German sea plane and gave chase. After a severe engagement the German machine was hit and fell. Before reaching the water it burst into flame and at the moment of striking exploded. No trace of pilot, passenger or machine was found. Sub-Lieut. Grahme's machine was severely damaged by machine gun fire and fell into the sea. Both officers were picked up and safely landed.

St. Bon's L. A. and W. P. A.

The ladies of St. Bonaventure's Association began work in connection with the W.P.A. on the 13th October, in the Episcopal Library kindly lent by His Grace, the Archbishop. Since the date mentioned above, they have returned to the Central Committee at Government House, made up from flannel and wool drawn from them, the following—300 pairs socks, 310 pairs mittens, 19 rifle covers, 100 mufflers, 57 night shirts, 20 gray flannel shirts.

In addition to the above, the sum of seventy dollars and twenty cents ($70.20) has been forwarded to the Hon. Treasurer of the W. P. A., this sum being made up from the following sources:—

Proceeds of afternoon teas served by Mrs. (Dr.) Scully at Sewing Circle, $38.00. From Mrs. Kennedy, proceeds of party held at her home, "Hawthorne Cottage," $20; proceeds of sale of home made candy from Miss M. Cooke, $10.20; sale of scraps, $1; sale $4.40. Total $74.60.

BONAR LAW HITS CARSON CLIQUE HEAVILY.

LONDON, To-Day. Andrew Bonar Law, Secretary of the Colonies, told Sir Edward Carson and the few Unionist dissenters in an outspoken warning in the Commons last evening, that further signs of revolt would lead to his retirement from the Government. Bonar Law was opposing a motion, backed by the dissenting Unionists for the rejection of the Parliamentary Bill introduced on Thursday last by Sir John Simon, Secretary for Home Affairs, providing for a continuation of the present Parliament beyond the five years period and the postponement of the General Election during the war. This would keep the plural voting bill alive. The motion took exception to the prolongation of the life of the Plural Voting Bill and urged the desirability of a general election. Bonar Law after stating the present compromise bill was his own proposal, dealt with the Unionists' criticisms of the Government. I would say to my Unionist friends, said the Secretary, if the time comes, and I think it has not yet, that they honestly think the war is not going to be won by this country without a change of Government it would be better for them to go openly into opposition and move a vote of no confidence. We Unionists are members of the Government as representatives of our Party. I would feel that I was of no further use to the Government if my Party lost confidence in me, I would not dream of continuing in the Government. Premier Asquith also participated in the debate. He declared, regarding the criticism of the Government's secrecy, that it was no gratification for the Government to sit silent day after day under the imputations and suggestions which could be easily refuted and blown into the air, if it were not their bounden duty as trustees of the nation to maintain reticence. Dealing with the Bill, the Premier declared a general election at the present time would be a national calamity, but, he added, the Government was not inflexibly wedded to the precise period of the postponement named in the Bill and would be prepared to consider reasonable suggestions for an alteration of term suggested. After a short debate the Bill was given a second reading.

ABOUT 2,500,000 HAVE ENLISTED.

LONDON, To-Day. Between two million and two million five hundred thousand men have enlisted under the plan of Earl Derby, according to the Daily Sketch. This paper says this figure may be reduced under analysis and that it is quite possible that the figures relative to single men may prove to be below the required standard.

ENTRANCE BULGARIAN FORCES DENIED.

ATHENS, To-Day. The Greek Government denies the reports of the entrance of Bulgarian forces into Greek territory.

GERMAN DESIGNS ON EGYPT.

LONDON, To-Day. The announcement that the Dutch East Indies liners and mail boats will abandon for the present their usual course through the Suez Canal and will follow the Cape route, in conjunction with the Cologne Gazette's report of British trench digging and general defensive preparations on both sides of the Canal, is taken by the Rotterdam correspondent of the Daily News as confirmation of rapidly maturing German designs on Egypt.

While presiding at the meeting of a British shipping company, Sir Owen Phillips said of the 5,459,296 tons of which the German merchant marine consisted at the beginning of the war, 230,000 tons have been captured by the British navy, and 38,000 by other allies, while 117,000 tons have been sunk, and 397,000 interned in ports of the British Empire. The remainder, except the few ships at large in the Baltic, are interned in German and neutral harbors.

The Feril of the World. France's Peace Terms Stated By M. Thomas.

Robert Herrick, Professor in the University in Chicago, and a writer of eminence, in an article in the Chicago Tribune suggested by reflections on a homeward trip from battle-torn Europe, puts the danger to the world and to the United States in a German victory, whole or partial, in passages which arrest the attention and compel consideration. He writes: "The German peril did not lie, I thought, in her big guns, her ships, her Kaiser and his 'Prussianized machine.' It lay in herself, her ideals. If she could win a victory with that monstrous creed of materialism illuminated by countless crimes, with its defiance of contract; its law of 'indispensable severities,' its 'military reasons'—why, that must then become the law of the world, the savages' law. Germany would make the public morality of the world. And all of us Christian people would fall in behind the band wagon. Even proud Americans cannot resist the fascination of success. German methods of government, German methods of suppressing the individual, German methods of morality—one for you and me as lone individuals and another lawless one when we get together as a State—would be imitated more than German methods of civil and military organization. We should all become strong armed supermen under the hypnotism of German success. Perish the thought! And America would be the very first to run after these new old gods, the religion of that queer old German god who apparently encouraged rape, murder, arson and tyranny. For in mighty America, with every blood and every social tradition on earth in its seething blood, there is already an insidious tendency to worship at his shrine. American big business can understand the Kaiser's philosophy, can reverence his 'old German god' more than anybody other than a real German. For it, too, believes in 'putting things over.' "When the old fourteen knot steamship finally rounded Sandy Hook and dropped anchor off quarantine, and the reporters came aboard with the dust of America on their shoes, the roar of America in their ears, I was surer than ever that this greatest of world wars means a vast deal more to us than trade or charity or politics, which is what we are making of it. It means the form which our national character is to take. The German peril is already in our midst, not so much at work blowing up our ammunition plants as insidiously at work in our hearts. 'Well,' a great many Americans seem to be saying, 'if the Germans put it over, what of it? It can't hurt us much! Perhaps it shows that they have the real goods, are the Lord's chosen people for this little world of ours after all. As for broken treaties, atrocities, submarines, Edith Cavell, rough work over, and all that—well, it's all war, and the man who does things is usually criticized by the other fellow who can't do them. The public will forget the German crimes all right, once Germany has put herself on top. Nothing succeeds like success. Which shows that already that we are well Germanized. "But do we Americans want a Germanized world? Not in art and language and customs—heaven preserve us from that fate, too!—but Germanized in soul? Are we strong enough to resist a 'peaceful penetration' by successful Germany into our minds and hearts? I am afraid not. No amount of big guns and super-dreadnoughts and submarines and continental guards—or peace talk—can keep the German peril out of America if we surrender to the temptation now when Germany seems to be putting it over in Europe. The dirty little pollus in the front trenches are indeed fighting our battle for us, though we do not know it."

Items of Interest

In reply to a question in the House of Commons it was stated that thirteen men and one woman have been convicted in Great Britain of espionage since the war began—nine tried by court martial, the others by judges and juries. Ten of the men were condemned to death, and had been executed, the other three and the woman being sentenced to terms of penal servitude. No woman spy has met the death penalty.
The letters contain several descriptions of dug-outs, and in one of them I find the following anecdote:—"Talking of dug-outs, a curious thing happened the other day. There were seven men in a dug-out and so tightly packed that when they go to sleep and the N. C. O. in charge wants to turn over on his other side he gives the word 'Dug-out, on the other side, turn!' Into this dug-out came a 60-pounder shell during tea; for some whim of its own it did not explode, but crushed one man into unrecognizability and the others began guessing that they had split half their tea: this is true."

Household Notes.

Save all celery tops; they will give a delicious flavor to soup.
Overdone meat means waste, both in bulk and nourishment.
Bananas always absorb the flavor of anything they are mixed with.
Use all the good parts of a worn linen table cloth for carving cloths.
To keep suet fresh, chop roughly and sprinkle with a little granulated sugar.
Nuts, raisins and milk make a nourishing light lunch in the middle of the day.
Put a thimble on the curtain rod when slipping it through the hem of the curtain.
Chamois mittens, worn while doing housework, are a great saving to the hands.
To pad the edges of dollies before embroidering them, work them in a coarse chainstitch.
A hot mustard footbath will often relieve a headache by drawing blood away from the head.
To prevent black stockings from changing color, add a tablespoonful of vinegar to the rinsing water.
A glass of hot water with lemon juice is excellent for the complexion if taken just before going to bed.
Add a few bread crumbs to the scrambled eggs; they will improve the dish and make the eggs go further.
Hot milk and cocoa are both nourishing, and make a very wholesome part of a business girl's lunch.
When sweeping day comes remember that the hair of the woman who sweeps should always be covered.
Don't forget that the water the rice is boiled in makes a most nourishing and palatable foundation for the soup.
To keep suet put it through the meat grinder, then flour it well, put it in a glass jar and keep it where it is cool.
When a child drinks milk from a cup, one should be just as particular about the milk as when the child is on the bottle.

LIGHT, HEAT, COMFORT!

The proprietor of one of the best known multiple shopping systems is credited with saying, "Give me any old shop, in any old street, and I'll guarantee to make it in twelve months the most widely known and best frequented shop in the district." He was asked to explain. Holding up three fingers he said, "I believe in the trinity of LIGHT, WARMTH, COMFORT. I should dazzle the moths until the candle drew them, I should bring them into a warm, comfortable shop, filled with a soft, pleasing radiance, and the rest is—well, mere child's play."

Mixed metaphors, perhaps, but expressive. Now we can more than imagine the kind of shop this well-known individual would open, for we pass it in almost every town—always a landmark to the street. No one fails to notice it. There is an indefinable air of welcome and invitation as one stands for a moment on the pathway and lets one's gaze travel inside it. The subdued, restful lighting effect that so charms because of its very unobtrusiveness, the absence of dark corners, the intangible feeling that if one would step inside one would be sure of experiencing a delicious sense of warmth and comfort and cheerfulness—all these are part of its appeal. Truly a shop with an individuality.

We cordially invite all progressive business men to visit our showroom and see our latest Lighting and Heating Appliances, by the adoption of which the ideal outline in the above extract from a London paper may be easily secured. Our new RADIO X-Lamp and GASTHEAM Radiators fill all light and heat requirements.
