Note and Comment.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle will meet at the residence of Mrs. Z. L. Fash, 31 Compton Avenue, Tuesday Evening at 7.30. A large number should attend.

Our Aged Ministers—The Lord bless them and sustain them, is our prayer. Let us make an offering to-day as unto the Lord; those who have labored and toiled so faithfully are deserving our help. Special Envelopes are in the pews. Scripture Reading—Matt 26: 41.

Thanksgiving Social.—Have you heard about it? The Church voted to hold a Social on Thanksgiving Night, November 24th, in the Basement. Several special features are outlined on the programme, each affording delight; hence the Church and Congregation are invited to be present. The idea of presenting a "Clean Balance Sheet, December 31st," is a good one, and the suggestion to make an old-time "Thank-offering" on this occasion will appeal to old and young alike. Let it be an "old-timer," when all the tithes shall be brought into the storehouse. See Mal. 3: 10 as a result.

Personals.—BROTHER W. J. CATES is able to be out again. We were glad to see him in the Prayer-meeting, and hear his voice.

BRO. R. W. McDONAND AND WIFE, recently returned home from the United States; they intend remaining. Thirty-six Maynard St. will find them—we extend cordial welcome.

Our Sisters CURRY, CARD and MILLIR who have been ill in the Hospital are recovering, and will appreciate a visit from the Ladies of the Church.

BRO. A. CLEMENTS is reported ill.

Hallowe'en Social was a splendid success. The ladies are congratulated, heartily—and the Organ Fund increased greatly. $100.00 The Entertainment was choice, and fruit delicious. Ladies, will you please try again. The Misses Hayes and Phoebe Isnor deserve special mention and thanks.

The Christian Culture Class starts encouragingly. Twenty-seven have signed the cards, and more will join. The lessons on "The Doctrines of Our Faith" are well calculated to strengthen Christian character. The Class meets each Friday Evening at the close of the B. Y. P. U. service. Try to be present at every meeting. Try to study an hour each week. Try to take the Examination at close.

The Wednesday Prayer-meeting and Conference last night were well attended, and a spirit of revival seems manifest. Pray for it.

This church is supported by voluntary contributions. Subscriptions may be made to the Treasurer or Nelson Smith, Chairman of Finance Com. Applications for sittings should be made to Dea. James McPherson, Chairman of Pew Committee. The seats are assigned—not rented.

STRANGERS CORDIALLY WELCOMED.
