Agents Of Mexican Government Discover Supply Of Arms For Rebels And Arrests Follow.

Cananea, Mex., June 20.—The premature discovery of smuggled arms and ammunition followed by the arrest of leaders of the disaffected faction and the proclamation of martial law in Cananea and other border towns, probably has checked and discouraged a serious outbreak against the Mexican government, scheduled to take place on June 26, election day.

LONDON WAS INTERESTED IN HOMECOMING

Thunderer's Opinion That Roosevelt Will Never Remain In Public Life—Passed a Busy Day At Desk.

London, Monday, June 20.—All the London daily newspapers this morning devoted much space to cabled stories of Mr. Roosevelt's homecoming, while The Times took an opportunity to print another editorial concerning the ex-President's future.

After describing Saturday's reception as being without a parallel in the history of the United States, The Times took the opportunity to print another editorial concerning the ex-President's future.

"The people of the United States," says The Times, "owe it to themselves and their country not to suffer so great a force in the public life of the Republic to rust unused, and Mr. Roosevelt is not the man to flinch from any call to public duty."

"Politics were brushed aside on Saturday, but before the day was out he made an announcement of deep political importance. 'I am ready and eager,' he said in answer to the Mayor 'to do my part so far as I am able in helping to solve the problems which must be solved if we of this, the greatest democratic Republic on which the sun ever shines, are to see its destinies rise to the high level of our hopes and of its opportunities.'"

Call to Action. "Those are not the words of a man who means to retire from the fray, and the fact we need hardly say, has been immediately recognized in America. They have the true Roosevelt ring about them, they are a summons to action, and a pledge that the speaker will be with his troops. It is universally perceived that the ex-president may become a decisive factor in the present situation. So general and so clear indeed, is this perception that we are assured that the centre of political expectancy is now shifted from Washington to Mr. Roosevelt's summer home at Oyster Bay.

Hard At Work. Theodore Roosevelt being followed by the life he has chosen for himself as a private citizen. He has his own ideas of what the country shall do with its ex-president, and after a single day of rest at Sagamore Hill, took up his work today as contributing editor of the "Outlook."

The dispatch boat Dolphin, on which Mr. Roosevelt left Oyster Bay late last night, with Secretary Meyer of the Navy Department as his host, brought him into New York early this morning. He went directly to his office and immediately plunged into the mountain of correspondence which has been accumulating for him. Two hours later he appeared on the street and was immediately recognized by the crowds. Before he had walked half a block westward toward Fifth Avenue he was followed by a throng that blocked the sidewalk.

The sun was beating down with an intensity that made a top hat unendurable. The colonel plunged for haters at a speed that made the crowd behind him to keep up. As he passed the offices of the publishing house that will bring out his forthcoming book on his hunting trip, he spied a tall portrait of himself, framed in red, white and blue.

"That's dandy, isn't it?" was his comment. A batter was close by. It took the colonel just two minutes to put a wide brimmed straw hat with a black band. Then he footed it at the same amazing speed to his new offices again.

PUBLIC DOUBT FRITTERED AWAY BY LAURIER'S FRIENDS

Hon. R. L. Borden in Vigorous Speech at Niagara Falls Gives Specific Instances of How First Principles of National Conservation Have Been Violated by Liberal Government.

Opposition Leader is Strongly Supported by Sir James Whitney and Mr. Doherty—Pugsley's Bismarcked Record Receives Attention from Montreal ex-Judge—Steal of Indian Lands.

Special to The Standard. Niagara Falls, Ont., June 20.—The climax of the Borden tour of Ontario came today when upwards of 3,000 people gathered in Victoria Park with the mist of the mighty cataract spraying them to welcome the leader of the Opposition, Mr. C. J. Doherty and Sir James Whitney. And it was a hearty welcome, notwithstanding the fact that the county of Welland is a strong Liberal riding. Hundreds came from Brdgeport, Fort Erie, Niagara-on-the-lake, St. Catharines, and other points to hear the distinguished speaker, and it was easily the best gathering of the tour.

Mr. Borden and his party reached Niagara Falls at noon from Toronto, where the week-end was spent, and was welcomed by a delegation of prominent Conservatives, including Mr. Hanna, the Opposition candidate against W. M. Germaln at the last election. It was real Borden weather which has been such a feature of the present tour, and under ideal surroundings, the shortcomings of the Laurier administration was shown up by Mr. Borden, Mr. Doherty and Mr. Crechets, while the provincial premier told of the rejuvenation of Ontario since the Ross Government was swept by the Whitney fall.

Sir James was particularly vigorous in his power policy. He paid a warm tribute to the sterling work of Judge Doherty and the leadership of Mr. Borden, and concluded a whirlwind speech by recounting in a characteristically modest way all the great and glorious things accomplished by his government since 1905. It was a real Whitney.

Mr. Doherty. Mr. Doherty opened the proceedings with one of the speeches which have attracted the attention of Ontario during the past few days. He dealt with the failure of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to clean the Augean stables after the last election, in spite of plain statements of the Montreal Herald and the Toronto Globe, that such scavenger work should be inaugurated. As an example of utter and disgracefully wasteful expenditure, Mr. Doherty mentioned the Newmarket canal and raised loud laughter by his description of the ditch. He also dwelt upon the record of Mr. Pugsley and the cloud which hung over that gentleman as a result of the finding of the royal commission in the Central Railway of New Brunswick scandal.

Sir James Whitney also paid a high tribute to Mr. Borden. "We follow him," he said, "because we respect and love him for his admirable qualities of heart and head. He has proved himself to be a man, second to none in the political history of our country and the earnest, indefatigable work he has accomplished during the past ten or twelve years, has made us all earnest, loving, faithful and respectful followers of his."

Sir James dealt with the things which Mr. Borden would not do when returned to power. He would not go to Boston and proclaim his love for the Yankee dollar in preference to the English shilling, Mr. Borden would not oppose the sending of troops to any war, such as that in South Africa. He would not scare Quebec with cries of militarism. Neither would Mr. Borden describe King George as "Our Buzsarin." Kruger and Laurier were the only two men on earth who had so taken it upon themselves.

The conservation of our natural resources for the advantage and benefit of the nation as a whole, is a subject of transcendent importance to Canada. It is not wise or desirable to prevent their development or use, but it is the part of good statesmanship to guide that development as to make it pure so far as possible, to the advantage and profit of the people as a whole and not to the advantage of a few individuals. This can be accomplished without discouraging private enterprise and without depriving men of foresight, research and enterprise of the legitimate advantage to which they are entitled by the employment of capital. One watchword of the Liberal party in opposition is still remembered, "Land for the settler, and not for the speculator." It is within the memory of all that this principle has been most outrageously disregarded since 1896.

The public resources of this country belong to the people of Canada, and not to the Government. They have been exploited in hundreds of instances for the benefit of partisans without regard for the advantage of the people as a whole. The Conservative party has fought strenuously against this policy. It has attacked the action of the Government in many instances where that policy has been disregarded. Our motions have been voted down. Our investigations have been balked, but our efforts have not all been in vain.

Some amelioration of conditions has been made during the recent years, although from time to time instances still occur where the benefit of a few private friends outweighs in the estimation of the Government, the public advantage and interest. The recent attempts to grant to a private company the right to dam the River St. Lawrence for the development of power is a notorious instance of this kind. Members of the Government fought strenuously to vest in a private corporation that which should be preserved for the benefit of the people as a whole. All night sitting took place in the end, such safeguards were introduced into the proposed measure, as will prevent the consummation of the scheme as originally proposed. Parliament must again be consulted before the attempt can be renewed.

Lands Frittered Away. The alienation of some 48,000 acres of Indian lands at Selkirk affords an example of the exploitation of public property for the benefit of a few speculators. The subject was discussed very thoroughly in Parliament during the recent session by Mr. Bradbury, member for Selkirk, Manitoba, and by other gentlemen. The Government of this country is trustee for the Indians and it is its duty to safeguard their interests in every respect. They are naturally improvident and incapable of managing their own affairs and any disposal of their lands must be regarded for these conditions. I will not discuss the means by which the surrender of these lands was obtained, although that afforded ground for much well merited criticism in Parliament.

Twenty-one thousand acres of these lands were conveyed to the Indians, although there does not seem to be any provision upon the statute book for granting lands to Indians who have not been enfranchised. The lands are held in trust for the Indians because they are esteemed incapable of holding them or dealing with them until after they have become enfranchised. The natural result was that the Indian people were strikingly manifested in many cases they were the victims of imposition and the money which they received in numerous instances was spent in dissipation and in paying fines against the police for unlawful acts committed while under the influence of liquor.

Pretext At Sale. A considerable portion of the balance of the lands was put up at public auction in the middle of December upon very insufficient advertisement, and without upset price. As a result they sold for between $5 and $6 per acre. They were easily worth $20 to $30 per acre and passed into the hands of four or five speculators. These gentlemen have since disposed of portions of the same land at from $40 to $50 per acre. The singular inability of the government to recognize its responsibility as the guardians of these lands is a strikingly manifest not only in the transaction itself but in the debate. A private trustee equally regardless of his duty would have held liable by the courts of this country to make good every dollar of the loss arising from such disregard of his plain duty. The government of the country cannot be held so liable in the courts, but it is amenable to the dictum of public opinion and to the verdict of the people when an opportunity shall be given to pronounce upon this and other equally flagrant breaches of that trust which the government of any country owes to the people whom it should serve.

STRANDED ON SABLE ISLAND

Norwegian Steamer, Bound To Campbellton, Ran Aground In Fog—Wreckers Going To Her Aid.

Halifax, June 20.—Sable Island sandy bars threaten to add another victim to the long list of wrecked vessels which have laid their bones there. The Norwegian steamer Heimdal bound in ballast from Santos to Dalhousie, N. B. and Campbellton, N. E. was discovered yesterday by life savers, stranded on the south bar, where she remains fast tonight. Capt. Riis and his crew remain by their vessel. The Heimdal ran ashore during a dense fog last night. She stranded almost without warning 50 yards from shore. Efforts to extricate her from the gripping sands by reversing her engines were futile. Wrecking steamers are now on their way from Halifax and Sydney. Heimdal's position is near the bones of the steamer Skiddy, the last vessel to be wrecked on the island. This was six years ago.

TWO KILLED IN MINE EXPLOSION

IAN HAMILTON WILL SUCCEED KITCHENER

Adjutant To British Forces Appointed Inspector-General Of The Mediterranean—Served In South Africa.

London, June 20.—Gen. Sir Ian Hamilton, adjutant to the forces, has been appointed to the post of inspector-general of the Mediterranean forces, to succeed Field Marshal Lord Kitchener, whose resignation was communicated officially to the House of Commons by War Secretary Haldane on June 13. Lord Kitchener was appointed to the Mediterranean command last August to succeed the Duke of Connaught. There was strong agitation to have Kitchener appointed to a more weighty place and many protests regarding the best organizer in the British army to such a post. Lord Kitchener's resignation, therefore, occasioned no surprise. General Hamilton is second military member of the army council. He was chief of staff to Lord Kitchener in 1901-2 in the Boer war and was one of the defenders of Ladysmith. He served as military representative of India, with the Japanese army in Manchuria in 1904-5.

NOT ALL PLAIN SAILING YET

News Reaches Johnson's Camp That Governor Dickerson, Of Nevada May Prove Recalcitrant—Question Of Tickets

San Francisco, Cal., June 20.—News that Governor Dickerson, of Nevada, may declare himself against the holding of the Jeffries-Johnson fight in the sage brush state, were received at the Johnson camp today. Johnson himself was the recipient, but he refused to divulge whence the information came. It cast a noticeable gloom over the training quarters. Jack said that he intended to leave the beach Thursday evening for Reno, but that he would wait till he received word from Tex Rickard or Manager Flanagan that Gov. Dickerson was in favor of the bout. As to the disposition of tickets purchased already under guarantee of the Metropolitan Trust and Savings Bank, the following statement was issued today by President Alfred Meyerstein: "People who have purchased tickets to our guarantee will receive their money back in case they do not care to go to Nevada. As soon as the promoters officially give up, we will return the money. That however, may not be until July 5th."

Jack Gleason—"There is no disposition to make people buy tickets they took with the understanding that the fight would be held in California. Those who desire can have the same seats in the Nevada arena."

Johnson did not training except a nine mile bike in the morning.

Bodies of Wm. Stevens and Wood Boy Recovered in Chignecto Mine.

Explosion Due to Unforeseen Causes—One Body Buried Under Fall of Coal.

Special to The Standard. Amherst, June 20.—Two lives were lost in a terrific explosion in the Chignecto mine today. Battered, bruised and disfigured by the force of the explosion, the body of Wm. Stevens, the examiner of the mines, was found about nine o'clock this evening in the east section of the nineteen hundred foot level. The deceased accompanied by a young lad named Wood, went into the mine about two o'clock this morning to test the different levels and balconies before the first shift went to work. Shortly after they went down into the mine the muffled roar of an explosion was distinctly heard at the mouth of the pit and the alarm was at once sounded which brought the men in force to the bank head buildings. It was not known in what part of the mine the explosion occurred and the presence of the gas followed the explosion made the work of rescue a slow process. Men and management labored together to clear the slope and levels of the deadly gas, and as fast as the gas receded the searching parties advanced. Late in the afternoon the body of Tom Wood was found in the east section of the nineteen hundred foot level. His remains were but slightly marked. Beyond the place where the body was found there was a heavy fall of coal and it was not until this evening that the remains of Stevens were reached. Stevens was thirty-five years of age. No blame can be attached to anyone as the explosion was due to unforeseen causes.

MOVING CAPITAL STENOGRAPHIC WORK

Gov. Haskell and the Rest in Oklahoma are Having an Interesting Time—Sheriff Slow With Shooting-Irons.

GUTHRIE CITY HALL, WHERE OKLAHOMA STATE OFFICES WERE LOCATED BEFORE MOVING DAY, AND NEW PHOTOGRAPH OF GOV. HASKELL.

Oklahoma, Ok., June 20.—On the door of the sleeping apartment of Charles N. Haskell in the Lee Hotel is a sign "Guthrie City Office."

In the meantime, however, an injunction had been granted against the governor, at the instance of citizens of Guthrie, the one-year-trial capital, restraining him from removing the capital to Oklahoma City.

"Why!" said he, "I don't know what you are talking about. I have a vocabulary that would put Capt. Kidd in the primer class."

In the dull, dead hour of the night, when virtue sleeps and vice walks abroad in the land, and all that sort of stuff, someone, the governor's secretary, some say, went to Guthrie and swiped the great seal of the state, and brought it to Oklahoma City.

"Some men follow the flag, I follow the seal." Gov. Haskell is an informal man and therefore, he wasn't particular about getting "formal" returns.

"The boys say Oklahoma City has won. Me for Oklahoma City," said Haskell. And he came.

Sheriff Was Slow.

Sheriff Mahoney meandered in a slow time later. Mahoney is a Logan county official; Guthrie is the county seat of Logan county.

"I have some papers for you, governor," said Mahoney, "and he handed Haskell the injunction papers.

Haskell snatched them, threw them from the balcony to the lobby and turned upon Mahoney.

"Get out of here," said the governor. Mahoney didn't.

"Get out of here," said the governor. "If you are in sight in 15 minutes from now I will have you thrown into the guardhouse."

Mahoney got. Maybe it wasn't a red-faced and boiling sheriff who beat it! There had been a very choice assortment of words passed and the governor's horse sheriff lets pass without drawing his shooting irons.

BECKON RACING RACES TODAY

Proposition Submitted by Scott Ives To Gentlemen's Driving Club Favorably Received—Expect Word From Montreal.

Whether or not Moosepath will be leased for running races from July 9th to 16th and for two full weeks during exhibition time, is a matter that will be finally decided by the executive of the Montreal Driving Club who met in Montreal last night.

Accompanied by Messrs. Ross and Fleming, of the local club, Mr. Ives visited Moosepath yesterday. In the afternoon after a lengthy consultation a proposition was made by the local association.

The offer was satisfactory to Mr. Ives although nothing definite could be closed until the executive of the Montreal association were consulted.

According to the proposition submitted by Mr. Ives, the track will be leased for two periods from July 9th to 16th and again during exhibition week. They will control all privileges connected with the track and grounds during the racing dates and propose bringing a string of about 125 horses.

The majority of these racers are now at Sherbrooke, Que., getting in shape for the month which will be held here from June 30th to July 5th. Extra stabling arrangements for stabling horses will be had from other stables in the vicinity of the track and extra accommodations will also be provided for those in attendance.

The races, if finally arranged for, should prove a great boom to St. John as visitors would undoubtedly be brought here from all parts of the lower provinces.

C. R. MITCHELL MAN OF DEIGHT

How Young Man from New-castle Forged Ahead in the Growing West—Second to Premier.

Among Premier Sifton's colleagues says the Toronto Globe, is ex-Judge C. R. Mitchell, a young man, originally from the Maritime Provinces—the nursery apparently of college presidents and political leaders.

An entirely new figure in western politics, considerable curiosity is felt about this young man, whose position in the cabinet ranks next in importance to that of the Premier.

People will speedily learn that Premier Sifton's discerning choice has fallen upon a man of exceptionally strong personality and decided legal acumen.

In bearing the Hon. Charles R. Mitchell is quietly capable and refined, with an air of gravity unusual perhaps in a man of only thirty-eight years.

PRAIRIE BOYS WHO RODE 2,500 MILES

Abernathy Lads are Heroes of New York—Prominent in the Roosevelt Parade—Draw the Line at Kisses.

BUD AND TEMP ABERNATHY IN NEW YORK.

New York, June 20.—Bud and Temp Abernathy are the heroes of New York. To ride in the Roosevelt parade they galloped into Gotham after a 2,500-mile ride from Oklahoma on their horses Wiley Hains and Sam.

Bud's real name is Louis and he is 10. Temp is short for Temple, six years old. Since they arrived in New York they have kept their father, "Catch-em-Alive" Jack Abernathy, in a whirl.

The United States marshal of the State of Oklahoma is used to strenuous life, but these kids of his have pretty nearly fagged him out in their pursuit of metropolitan excitement.

It was Jack Abernathy, who took Col. Roosevelt out on the prairies and taught him to catch wild animals in his bare hands.

Thus he became famous in a way, but it was the exploit of his offspring in covering half the breadth of the United States on horseback, unaccompanied, has caused a reflected glory to shine upon the marshal which far exceeds any past effulgence.

The man they wanted to see more than any other in New York was John D. Rockefeller, but they only got to sit in his pew in Fifth avenue Baptist church. "Look's just like any other kid," said Temp. They talked with Mayor Gaynor and went to Cooney island.

"Get out of here, you fellows," Temp told the reporters. "Me and my brother are private."

Once or twice during the cross-country trip, Louis had to spank Temple; many times they had races when the country was bare or time was hanging heavily.

Once when Temple's horse was taken sick, they traded it off, giving their father's name as security for boot, for a good horse. No one accompanied them.

Most of the women who saw Temp wanted to kiss him. He dreaded them far more than he feared Indians and wild animals on the plains.

Harvey Station, June 20.—About sixty farmers, and a dozen farmers' wives attended the agricultural meeting conducted by Andrew Elliott, of Galt, Ontario, under the auspices of the provincial government on Thursday.

The morning was wet and unpromising, and though it cleared a little in the afternoon the farmers were not able to have their programme carried out fully, as the ladies had prepared for a picnic in connection with the meeting, but the unfavorable weather prevented this.

However, this did not prevent a good attendance at Mr. Elliott's lecture delivered in the agricultural hall. He discussed in an easy and clear style soil cultivation, clover raising, rotation of crops and sheep raising.

He spoke of the good work accomplished by the agricultural colleges and encouraged farmers to send their sons for a term, either to Truro, St. Ann's or Guelph. The government will help to pay travelling expenses for any young man wishing to take advantage of this offer.

Mr. Elliott had some draft horses brought to the hall and gave an interesting talk on the points of excellence in a draft horse, illustrating by the animals before him.

Mr. Elliott encouraged the asking of questions and many farmers asked themselves of this opportunity. A vote of thanks was moved for the lecturer by Rev. M. J. Macpherson, who also spoke on the subjects before the meeting, and was seconded by Mr. A. Burrell.

Robert Thompson, chairman, presented the same and the farmers were delighted with Mr. Elliott. Mr. Hubbard intended to be present but was called to Fredericton. The farmers here are pleased that their grant has recently been increased by $25. They now receive $140. The government is evidently the farmer's best friend.

Mrs. Saunders is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Norman Smith. Rev. F. W. Barker and three children are visiting at Mrs. W. E. Smith's. They came on Friday from Amherst, Mass. Mr. Barker gave a fine address on Sunday evening in the church where special meetings are being held.

The funeral of Mrs. Alex. Little (nee Georgina Nesbitt) of York Mills, took place yesterday. Mrs. Little's death was unexpected and much lamented. She was, previous to her marriage, a most competent nurse. There was a large gathering at her funeral.

Dr. and Mrs. Dougan were visiting Dr. Dougan's former home near Hampstead. Miss E. Macpherson has been visiting her brother here at the manse for the past week.

Harry T. Swan and Lottie Briggs are visiting friends here.

Premier Asquith Muzzles Extremists While Hoping for Solution—Inclusion of Birrell Placates Irish.

London, June 20.—The conference of the British political party leaders is at last under way. The comparative secrecy with which the initial arrangements were made and the conference was started is taken as significant of the manner in which it will be carried on.

It is unlikely that anything reliable will be known from the proceedings until the government discloses them officially. The present opinion in all quarters is that the deliberations are likely to be protracted.

Many think there will be no agreement for several months, if then. The composition of the conference committee is generally regarded as being as favorable as circumstances will allow.

The inclusion of the Chief Secretary for Ireland, Mr. Birrell, greatly pleases the Radicals. They think his presence will go a long way to reassure the Irish, who it is well known are not enamored of the conference.

Moreover, they feared the inclusion of Lord Londonderry, whose liberal mind does not appear to the ardor of enthusiastic partisans.

Spooling For a Fight. The absence of all limitations and conditions to govern the conference is greeted with satisfaction everywhere.

At the same time the attitude of the various political factions remains unaltered. The extreme Tories and extreme Radicals alike expect a tie and hope less from the deliberations.

They are spooling for a fight and desire nothing else. Josiah Wedgwood, M. P., has given notice of a resolution which if it gained the substantial support of the Liberal party would kill all hope of a compromise.

Premier Asquith, however, who is honestly seeking a solution of the constitutional problem, refuses to give facilities for a discussion of the Wedgwood resolution. It is as yet too early to say that this will stave off the opposition of his intransigent followers.

The Laborites and the Irish still do not declare themselves officially. T. P. O'Connor again expresses hisgivings concerning the negotiations because he is unable to see how the Ministers can abandon the irreducible minimum already expressed in their veto resolutions in the House of Commons.

Mr. O'Connor thinks anyway the negotiations are perilous to both parties and perilous to the leaders who have entered on them. Each of them, he says, takes his political life in his hands.

O'Brien on Redmond. The attitude of the insurgent Irish toward the conference is summed up in a slashing interjection by William O'Brien. He said: "The conference marks the collapse of Redmond's last excuse for the recent action of his party.

His only defence for inflicting £3,500,000 additional taxation annually on Ireland by the vote of his own representatives on the budget and on Birrell's act for the suspension of land purchase was that Ireland would in return see the veto of the House of Lords abolished within a few months and an Irish parliament sitting in Dublin.

"That promise is blown sky high by the conference. Ireland is to pay an additional £3,500,000 a year, but home rule and the abolition of the Lords' veto are no longer practical politics.

Having squeezed from Redmond all that could be had in the way of plunder of Ireland Mr. Asquith has now set Redmond at defiance. Far from obliging Redmond by killing another King for him, Mr. Asquith has invited Mr. Balfour to settle the whole dispute by an amicable conference between the two English parties, and those who a few weeks ago were posturing as dictators have not dared utter a word of protest.

"O'Connor's attempts to bulldoze the Cabinet Mr. Asquith virtually repudiated by calling a policeman to order O'Connor off the premises. The conference may or may not reach an agreement, but it is certain that the party which wrecks any chance of agreement will wreck its own general election. Under no conceivable circumstance will the conference agree to smuggle home rule through Parliament without England's consent.

"Redmond's ultimatum of 500 new peers or revolution has come to an ignominious collapse like his previous ultimatum, 'no vote or no budget.'"

Y. M. C. A. Harriers. Owing to the meagre attendance at the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Harriers last evening a small amount of business was done.

Mr. Babson's resignation as captain of the baseball team was accepted and Robert Melrose elected in his place. As Babson is moving out to the country for the summer he was forced to hand in his resignation. Rapid progress was reported in the Gypsy hike to Fredericton. A wagon has been hired and halls in Welsford and Westfield rented. It is the determination of the "hikers" to give entertainments in a large number of the towns and villages on the way up. A concert will be given by the boys in the Y. M. C. A. before starting. Fifteen out of the twenty boys expected have already signed.

POST CARD MOVEMENT. Columbus, Ohio, June 20.—The chairman of the "Stop that fight" post card movement, which claimed a share of the credit for removing the Jeffries-Johnson fight from California, announced tomorrow a similar movement of protest to Gov. Dickerson of Nevada—would be started against the holding of the contest in Nevada.

are to be married here on Wednesday. Lorne Little and Miss Little were married on the 18th.

Mr. Glendinning, a native of Kent county, but more recently living in Winnipeg, is visiting his brother at the Glen House.

CHAMPLAIN MONUMENT AT CROWN POINT

New York And Vermont Agree To Erect Memorial To Discoverer On Dividing Line Between States.

Plattsburg, June 20.—The site for the monument to be erected to the memory of Samuel de Champlain, the intrepid discoverer of the lake which bears his name, has been decided by the joint action of the New York State and Vermont Tercentenary Commission after some months of spirited wrangling.

The site is at Crown Point, at the narrowest part of Lake Champlain and practically on the dividing line between the two states.

School or the W. M. S. ought to be included in this report and that provision is made in the young people's scheduler for the reporting of young men's societies.

The report for the year is more encouraging in reference to junior leagues, there being an increase of four in number of leagues and 142 in membership.

The committee desires to express appreciation of the energetic efforts of Miss Bessie H. Fairweather of Moncton, who has given particular attention with marked success to the Junior Epworth League work.

There is an increase of three leagues and 42 active members and a decrease of 55 associate members, and 13 in the total membership. Rev. Wm. Penna moved that Zion circuit, St. John, be made a mission. Motion rejected.

Sabbath Observance. "Rev. E. S. Weeks reported for the Sabbath observance committee. We rejoice to learn that our government railways have respectfully observed the law, and have not hesitated to punish certain employes who have been found guilty. It is cause for regret that hunting and fishing have been reported upon the increase in New Brunswick. Those actually employed as guides have been notified of their breach of law and have agreed to govern themselves accordingly.

"We desire to record our sincere appreciation of the untiring devotion of the Rev. Dr. Albert Moore and Dr. Hanna, to the great cause of God in connection with the Lord's Day Alliance and his wise and judicious enforcement of the Lord's Day Act."

HOTEL AT MACGAN DESTROYED BY FIRE

Proprietor Of Belmont House Loses $1,000 In Bills Besides Building And Furnishings—Origin a Mystery.

Macgan, June 20.—About 1 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the Belmont House here, and despite the efforts made to save it, the building was totally destroyed.

With it went all the furnishings, save the piano and some dining room pieces, and more than that $1000 in bills, which had been placed in a trunk for safe keeping. It is not known how the fire started.

The house was formerly kept by Mr. Archie Madden, but the present proprietor is Mr. James A. Legere.

IMMIGRANTS MET BY LEGION OF SCAMPS

Boston, June 20.—Problems confronting immigrants are discussed at length in the annual report of the North American Civic League for Immigrants, made public here tonight.

The object of the league is to protect the immigrants on and immediately after their arrival.

Speaking of conditions as the league officials found them at the docks when they began their work, the report says:—"Little was being done to frustrate the legion of scamps who received the incoming tide of strangers as soon as they passed the federal gates and everywhere there was lack of co-operation. Results already are notable though far from being sufficient.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Weds Miss Eleanor Butler Alexander

New York, June 20.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Miss Eleanor Butler Alexander, were married at four o'clock this afternoon, in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church. Bride and bridegroom knelt on white satin cushions for their responses. The bride's voice was inaudible but young Roosevelt said "I do" with an emphasis that brought many smiles among the guests.
 Long before the hour set for the wedding, the neighborhood of the church was packed with crowds of the curious. A special detail of 100 police held them at a distance, to prevent their fingering the texture of the dresses of guests. Over the shoulders of the officers peeped milliners and dressmakers note book in hand.
 Miss Alexander was escorted to the church by the same mounted officer, an old cavalryman of Spanish war days, who rode at the elbow of Theodore Roosevelt last Saturday in the land parade from the battery to Central Park; and when she came out at Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., he saw her safely to the reception given after the ceremony at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, an aunt of the bride.
 Conspicuous among the guests were 42 royal riders in full uniform who responded to an eleventh hour hurry call by Col. Roosevelt. The troopers sat in the gallery. When the colonel had taken his place with dignity, he turned to look for them and, when they waved at him, waved back again with boyish freedom.
 More beautiful floral decorations than those of the church today are not remembered at any of the brilliant weddings to which a sophisticated city has grown used. The bride walked to the altar down a lane walled with white roses and lilies of the valley.
 Each pew was outlined with roses on a background of feathery ferns. Pink rambler roses almost hid the organ. The pulpit was carpeted in roses. The pillars were wreathed in roses.
 Col. Roosevelt sat with his wife and their children, Quentin and Archie. Behind them sat Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mrs. Longworth wore a white chiffon gown, trimmed with black and pale yellow, with a big black and yellow hat and a profusion of jewelry.
 The bride wore a high-necked gown of soft white satin and tulle, richly trimmed with duchess lace worn by the bride's mother and grandmother at their weddings. Her train was three yards and her veil fell to her waist.
 Mrs. Alexander wore a pale yellow chiffon gown, with Louis XV. train of blue and gold brocade and a large hat trimmed with a single, very large ostrich plume.
 The matron of honor was Mrs. Snowden A. Paine-Stock, who was Miss Elizabeth Bertrou until a few weeks ago, when Miss Alexander was maid of honor at her wedding. She wore a bodice of dull pink taffeta and carried forget-me-nots.
 The bridesmaids were Miss Ethel Roosevelt, the bridegroom's sister; the Misses Harriet and Janetta Alexander, cousins of the bride; Miss Jean W. Delano and Miss Jessie Millington-Drake. They wore leghorn hats trimmed with pink roses, white chiffon gowns with point d'esprit accents, caught up with blue ribbons. Bouquets of pink rambler roses were in their arms.
 The ushers were George Emlen Roosevelt and Monroe Douglas Robinson, cousins of the bridegroom; Geo. F. B. Roche, Hamilton Fish, Jr., Fulton Cutting, John W. Cutler, Grafton Chapman, Elliot Cutler and E. Morgan Gilbert.
 The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry M. Sanders, great uncle of the bride.
 While the guests were assembled there was an hour of music by an orchestra of 50 pieces, all the selections for which were chosen by the bride, herself an accomplished musician.
 Some of the Guests.
 Among the guests were Mrs. Russell Sage, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Alexander John Burroughs, the naturalist; Rear Admiral and Mrs. Cowles (Mrs. Cowles is a sister of Theodore Roosevelt) Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alsop, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hartwell, Miss Jennie Crocker, of San Francisco; Dr. Samuel Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. E. Erton, Mr. and Mrs. B. Roosevelt, Secretary Meyer of the navy department, and Mrs. Meyer, Brayton Ives, Miss Martha McCook, Mayor Gaynor and Mrs. Gaynor.
 Governor Hughes sent his regrets. There were six hundred presents to the bride, but her husband would not permit a list of them to be given out. Those acknowledged by the donors were a diamond medalion from Mrs. Russell Sage, a diamond tiara from Mrs. C. B. Alexander, a dozen silver plates from Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, an imposing silver water pitcher from President Taft and a gold vanity mirror from Mrs. George Goff.
 After the honeymoon is over the bride couple will take up their residence at San Francisco, where young Roosevelt is due to assume the sales management for the carpet company by which he has been employed since his graduation from Harvard University.

PERSONALITY IN RULERSHIP

Opposite Types Afforded in Lives of Late King Edward and Theodore Roosevelt Refutation of Modern Theories

(London Nation.)
 Modern theorists have been wont to pour scorn upon the interpretation of history as the biography of great men. They insist, instead, on an ordered process of events, the issue of impersonal forces under the guidance of social evolution. But the ordinary citizen is under no such illusion. He is well aware that history is the biography of the men who occupy high places, whether by hereditary tenure or election, with singular efficacy. Perils and temptations attend the limelight which the modern press throws on the lives of rulers; there is the danger of a lack of heroism which are in the full tide of democraticness in character and works under a garish show of external pride. But, in the main, this wide, loose, promiscuous publicity tends to righteousness of popular judgment.

So far as the personal power of the modern head of a great state is concerned, there is a double and contrary movement. In those old-established states where hereditary chiefdom survives, there is a slow orderly progress to a new personal status for the monarch. His person seems to gather an ever larger and more potent hold upon the private affections of his subjects than seemed compatible with the aloofness and absoluteness of the earlier conception of kingship. In illustration of our meaning, it is needless to look further than the striking testimony afforded by the present sorrow of the nation, in which the formal or ceremonial feeling is far out-weighed by a more intimate sense of personal bereavement—the grief felt for a beloved relative rather than for a great public loss. Nothing has been more remarkable through the professional scenes of our mourning, it is the personal, affectionate interest of the masses of the people.
 Victoria a Tradition.
 This interest was more developed, more delicate, than that displayed during the funeral of Queen Victoria. In the course of her long reign, Queen Victoria had become rather a traditional than a personal figure in the eyes of the nation. A certain aspect of motherhood adhered to her but she was not attached to the community, nor did she partake of its daily life. In the sense in which King Edward belonged to it. From him radiated something warm, intimate and friendly, which came down to the people, magnified, not debased, and consecrated by the almost unending eulogies of the press. The people thought of him for what in sober truth he was—a man of truly remarkable gift for giving pleasure to others. He was the ideal master host, companion, the model of what every man in power should wish to be in his relations to those who served him and whom he served.
 Those who have seen King Edward walk through a great company of guests, and salute each one of them, leaving him charmed, gratified, lightened of his little load of egotism but very human passion for notice and preference, can realize how well carried was the general tribute to his power to charm. He was the average man raised to a high degree, rich in saving common-sense, and able, by virtue of his position to make this quality so far-reaching that it was the whole secret of King Edward's attraction. What he did with the utmost zest. He had no touch of the faux bonhomme.
 Both wedded couples received congratulations and were remembered by their relatives and friends by many beautiful souvenirs.
 All expressed themselves as having spent a pleasant evening.

 Phone 275. P. O. Box 238.
 But we need not go back a generation to illustrate our meaning. The States are not now under any critical pressure. Yet we have seen Mr. Roosevelt achieve a position which may almost be described as one of quasi-royalty. Not a man of first-rate eminence in any of the many departments of activity in which he has engaged—soldier, statesman, orator, historian, preacher, sportsman—but not a thinker at all, it is difficult to explain upon any "rational" grounds the place he seems to be acquiring in the hearts and expectations of his countrymen.
 Without Parallel.
 Even in Europe the semi-regal procession which he—a private American citizen—is enjoying is without a parallel. No man without a badge of office has ever passed a month of such ceremonial elevation as that accorded to this happy family. It is easy to explain, to quote the immense and multifarious vitality of the man, his incomparable self-confidence, his ever-pushing will, and to regard him, as a man of destiny. But it is difficult to account for the status which he appears to have attained, during an absence of a year, in his own country. Absence seems to have ripened a fame already grown very large. Though grave issues are rising in the public life of America, it does not seem obvious that the gravity is so immediate and so overwhelming as to require a reversal of all the past traditions, such as is involved in the demand that Mr. Roosevelt should thrice enter the presidential field. Nor, indeed, does a fair view of his statecraft indicate him as an instrument of Providence for the solution of the political and industrial problems which loom big on the American horizon.

MUCH LOSS OF LIFE IN PENNSYLVANIA
 Full Toll Exact by Saturday's Cloudburst Not Known as Yet—Railways Out of Commission.
 Pittsburg, June 20.—Reports received today from the districts cut off from communication by storms of Saturday, indicate that the damage done in the stricken sections will amount to a much larger sum than was at first reported. Julius Desroche, aged 62 years, was drowned in the Ohio River as he attempted to reach the North shore of the stream near Brunots Island, Pittsburg today. The current and high waters overturned his skiff.
 At Point Marion, Pa., millions of feet of lumber and hundreds of logs are being carried out of the Cheat river which is nearing flood stage. The river was still rising with a stage of 30 feet at ten o'clock this morning. If the water rises an additional five feet, Point Marion, a town of 600 persons, will be inundated.
 Another storm of the proportions of a cloudburst visited the district early today followed by fire. Several residences burned to the ground. At Brownsville, county authorities total the damage to property in that district at $100,000. The Monongahela river there now stages thirty five feet and rising. The Monongahela Railway is entirely out of commission, the valley through which it runs being a roaring torrent.
 At Smiths Ferry, Ralph and Merrill Walker, brothers aged 15 and 12 respectively, were drowned, while trying to ford the middle fork of the Beaver river. The current swept them from their feet and carried them beyond their depth. The stream is running bank full. Their bodies were recovered.

SULTAN OF SULU COMING TO AMERICA
 Manila, June 20.—Sultan of Sulu, who once offered his hand in marriage to Miss Alice Roosevelt, is to visit America. He announces that the chief object of his trip is to dispose of a collection of pearls valued at something like $250,000, the proceeds from which will be devoted to improving the condition of his people. He will be accompanied by 14 prominent Moros. He has already sailed for India and will make stops at several European cities.

SIMPLE HOT DAY DESSERTS
 Custards rank first in this list and they are most inexpensive—which is no small item in this day of high prices. They are easy to prepare and they agree with and appeal to the entire household from baby to grandmother. The secret of making good custards lies in mixing the ingredients thoroughly together and cooking them slowly, else they will not be delicate and smooth.
 The rule for a plain custard is: Four eggs to a quart of milk and a tablespoon of sugar to each egg. Add a pinch of salt and a teaspoon of flavoring. A little chocolate grated over the top just before it is set in the oven is good. Orange custard needs the grated rind and a little of the juice of the orange—one of the pulp. Custards are delicious, too, if served with fresh fruits or preserves.
 Junket desserts are palatable served ice cold in hot weather. A package of the tablets will last a long time and can be bought for a dime. Plain junket is made according to directions on the package. Caramel junket is a little more elaborate, but is worth the effort to make it. Heat two cups of milk until lukewarm. Caramelize one-third cup sugar and one-third cup boiling water and cook until syrup is reduced to one-half the quantity. Cool, add milk slowly to syrup. Powder one junket tablet, add to mixture with pinch of salt and vanilla. Turn into moulding molds or sherbet glasses. Let stand in warm place until set, then chill. Serve with plain or whipped cream and sprinkle with chopped nuts.
 Tapioca cream is easily made and is delicious served alone or with fruit preserves as a sauce. Soak one-quarter cup pearl tapioca for one hour in cold water. Drain and cook with two cups milk in double boiler. Add when tapioca is done, one-third cup of sugar and one egg yoke beaten together. Remove from fire when thick. Cool, add beaten white of egg and flavor.
 Blanc Mange—Put one-half pint milk in double boiler and when it reaches the scalding point add 3 teaspoons cornstarch which has been mixed smooth with cold milk. Stir until thick and smooth. Remove from fire, flavor with vanilla and pour into bowl which has been lined with sliced bananas. Cool, turn out in dish and serve with boiled custard sauce or cream.

TWO ANNIVERSARIES CELEBRATED TOGETHER
 Mr. and Mrs. J. Fleming of Woodstock Observe 25th Anniversary on Same Day Her Parents Reach 50th.
 Woodstock, June 18.—Mr. and Mrs. John Fleming entertained a few of their friends on Saturday evening, it being the 25th anniversary of their marriage.
 Among those present were Mrs. Fleming's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Jones, of Houlton, whose 50th anniversary was the same day.
 During the evening music was provided and refreshments were served. Little Miss Hope and Lee Jones delighted the guests with singing and recitations.
 Both wedded couples received congratulations and were remembered by their relatives and friends by many beautiful souvenirs.
 All expressed themselves as having spent a pleasant evening.

NEW BRIDGE PLEASES PEOPLE OF GOSHEN
 Substantial Structure Built by Mr. A. D. Murray in Short Space of Two Weeks—Was Much Needed.
 Goshen, K. Co., June 19.—The people of this village are greatly pleased by the erection of a splendid bridge built by the well known bridge builder, R. N. Appleby, of Hampton. Contractor A. D. Murray, of Penobscot, has the bridge open for the public to cross over, in the short time of two weeks, which speaks well for the builder who proved a hustler and a thorough mechanic. The bridge was much needed and prompt attention by the local Government is much appreciated by the people. Crandall Burnett was the inspector.

INTERESTING CASE IN FAIRVILLE COURT Stipendiary Allingham Delivered Judgment in a Peculiar Suit Yesterday Afternoon--An Appeal Will be Taken.

An interesting civil case was tried before W. H. Allingham, stipendiary magistrate of the parish of Lancaster civil court, yesterday afternoon, at Fairville. The plaintiff is Alfred Burley, of this city, and the defendant is James Russell, a linotype operator.

SPORTS AND MOTORING

Sensational Ball in Inter-Society

St. Peter's New Twirler Imported from Boston Pitches the Green and White to Victory by 1-0 Score--Howe for St. Josephs Allows Only Two Hits--Other Games.

"And the little revenge ran on, clear into the heart of the foe." St. Peter's 1; St. Josephs 0. So the poet's eye, in fine frenzy rolling, foresaw the issue of last evening's game in which St. Peter's got even with their rival saints for last Thursday's inglorious defeat.

Not only did the game recover for the North Enders some of the prestige lost on Thursday, but it also placed them on even terms with the erstwhile leaders of the league. 'Twas a great game—and how the fans did root. That it was the best seen on the Shamrock ball yard in years was the unanimous verdict of the 1600 electors and suffrages that witnessed the event.

Fourteen Strikeouts. He dismissed 14 of McCarthy's men by the air route, and did not issue a single pass. Mac's men negotiated him for two singles and a double, Howe taking two pillows on a lucky one to right guard. The St. Joseph's box artist, pitched one of the best games in his career. Although the greater hunk of the applause went to the Boston man, the keener students of baseball who watched Howe's heady work were not slow to realize that his performance, while perhaps, not as spectacular, or brilliant, was nevertheless equally as good as that of his opponent.

Score in Sixth. The North Enders long run came in the 6th on an error and a base on balls. Otherwise the game should have been tagged by the St. Josephs, McCarthy's men hitting, runnits, fielding and otherwise baseballing all around the green and white.

When Harrigan, the St. Peter's dem shortstop, went to bat in the sixth, the rooters called on him to knock the cover off the sphere. Howe evidently wished to save the leaver and generously issued a pass. It meant a run and the winning of the game. Totally unmindful of Harley's generosity, "Mickey" purloined the second cushion. C. McCormick, who has lately become very "scientific," advanced his brother pathmen, and things looked misty for McCarthy's athletes.

J. Dever, the St. Peter's lady-like centre gardener, introduced a red hot grounder to Daly at short, who failed to take the "srip" and the sphere got clear through to the outfield. Needless to mention Mickey stroled home.

All Over Then. Dever was the reigning second and Britt ended casualties by raising one to centre garden that reclined in Riley's glove. The macmen had the only chance of circumventing the cushion in the third. Mills was hit by a weird inshoot, and third base by stealing both second and third. He, apparently started in to celebrate the occasion by taking a short nap, and was nailed off the bag by McGowan. Donnelly fouled out at skyscraper to F. Mahoney and Riley took the popular route of the evening.

Official Score. The score by innings: St. Peter's0000010-1 St. Josephs0000000-0

The Victorias last evening and only scored 10 runs to the latter's one. The battle took place on the I. C. R. grounds on the Ballast wharf under the youthful eye of Umpire P. Buckley.

The feature inning was the second, when the victors walked over the home plate five times, while the Lower Cove team piled up a score of one. Mr. L. Totten, champion twirler for the younger St. Josephs, began the scoring by putting a home run out to center field, allowing the catcher who had reached third base to come in with him.

The Victorias stung by their defeat and the younger St. Johns inflamed by their victory, have arranged to have a series of seven games played during the month on the same grounds. The games prove of great interest to Lower Covites who flock in some numbers to witness Victorias defeats. The line-up last evening was as follows:

Ty Cobb Says It Pays to be a Great Baseball Player

TY COBB, HIS WIFE, AND TY, JR., IN THE COBB AUTOMOBILE.

Ty Cobb says it pays to play baseball. In proof of his assertion the Georgia Peach has his picture taken with his wife and Ty, Jr. in their automobile. The machine cost $4,000. As Ty only gets about $2,000 more than this for his season's work, he didn't have the family coat of arms outlined in diamonds on the tonneau.

Before Ty became the sensation of the American league he played ball on a country town team in the south and automobiles were not numbered as among his possessions when the tail auto made his annual visits. Hence it does not require an understanding of higher mathematics to dope it out that Ty is right when he says it does pay to play baseball.

Sullivan Has Worthy Opponent in Battle at Boston Armory Tonight--Cyclone is the Favorite.

Boston, June 20.—There's some class to the battle at the Armory A. A. tomorrow night when Bill Papke, the Illinois thunderbolt, meets the old reliable Jack Twin Sullivan, in a twelve-round bout. It took Stanley Ketchel twenty rounds to defeat the Twin and he could never get the Assassin to meet him in the ring again, so Jack appears to have something of a chance to defeat Ketchel's chief rival for middleweight honors. Of course Papke will be the favorite, but there will be plenty of Sullivan money around to cover all of the Papke takers which should tend to keep the odds near the even mark.

RENFORTH O.A. MAKES PLANS FOR SEASON

At a meeting of the Renforth-Outing Club held at Renforth last evening, it was decided that work should be taken up as soon as possible in the erection of a large new boat house and pavilion. FIGHTERS ARE PACKED FOR JOURNEY

San Francisco, June 20.—With the departure of Tex Rickard today for Reno, the question of a stage for the heavyweight championship fight on July 4, was shifted definitely from California to Nevada. After the interview that Mayor McCarthy held yesterday with Governor Gillett failed to produce any positive results the promoters admitted that the last change of holding the fight in California had gone glimmering, and the command went forth from Rickard to the training camps to pack up for a journey to Nevada.

FIGHTERS ARE PACKED FOR JOURNEY

Both camps obeyed orders, and are now awaiting final instructions from the promoters.

FERGUSON STOLE MARCH ON GOVERNOR. Los Angeles, Cal., June 20.—Sandy Ferguson, the former Moncton, N. B. lad, won a newspaper decision over Jim Barry of Chicago in a ten-round boxing contest Friday night at the Naud Junction pavilion of the Pacific Athletic Club. It was a slow affair. An officer of police at the ring side during the six short preliminaries watched closely to see that the milling did not become so unfriendly as to be classed as real prize fighting. Two of the bouts were stopped as soon as a little blood was shed. This did not please the crowd but the police were hooted at intervals throughout the evening.

ENGLAND NOW KEEN TO LIFT POLO TROPHY. London, June 20.—That England is keen to lift the polo cup held by America is proved by the fact that practically every important competition between London clubs nowadays is being played according to the American rules. The Old Etonians, the challengers for the cup, are consequently playing without outside three times a week and are steadily improving as opportunists. This is particularly noticeable in the fast play of the Grenfell brothers, who at one, two play as well as the Waterbury brothers. The Etonians have promised to use all the Duke of Roxburgh's ponies. The Duke will not be able to go to New York, but he is lending his string. When the Etonians sail in July they will have twenty-five of the best English ponies.

AUTO CARS GALORE FOR FREDERICTON. Fredericton, June 20.—Messrs. Chas Edgcombe, Thomas S. Wilkinson and W. A. VanWart expect to go to New York in Mr. Edgcombe's car this summer. Mr. Donald Fraser and a party of friends have gone to Cabano, P.Q., in Mr. Fraser's auto, the car being in charge of Mr. City White of the White garage. On the first day of the trip a run of 125 miles was made. Another handsome McLaughlin-Buick automobile arrived on Saturday by C.P.R. for Mr. Parlano, Thompson & Anderson, proprietors of the Fredericton garage, King street. The car had been ordered some time ago for Mrs. James H. Crockett and is a five passenger car, developing 35 horse power. It is one of the most handsome cars seen in this city and was generally admitted on Saturday afternoon when it made its first appearance on the streets in charge of Mr. W. E. Vaughn, the efficient demonstrator of the Fredericton garage.

AROUND THE CITY

Meeting Tonight. A meeting of the executive of the Intersociety League will be held this evening after the St. Joseph-A. O. H. game in St. Peter's Y. M. A. rooms.

A Sad Case. About 11 o'clock last night a girl of about 17 or 18 years was arrested by the police for being intoxicated on the north wharf. She was unable to give her name, but it was learned that she came here from Moncton.

Y. M. C. A. Boys Camp. Mr. W. H. Moore, Boy's Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., expects to leave for Yarmouth, N. S., this week to make arrangements for the Y. M. C. A. maritime boys' camp to be held this summer.

Head of Foresters Coming. The high court of New Brunswick I. O. F., will probably meet in Chatham, in August, although the exact date will not be known until about the first of July. The supreme ranger, Dr. Stevenson, will be in attendance, and it is probable he will visit St. John before returning to his home.

Looks Good For Amherst. N. Curry, president of the Rhodes Curry Company, of Amherst, passed through the city last evening on his way to Montreal, on a business trip. Speaking to a Standard man he pronounced business at Amherst as booming, and said that no town in Canada had a better future. The company with which he is connected report a very successful year.

To Try Liquor Cases. Evidently they still sell liquor along the line of the G. T. P. in this province despite the vigilance of Commissioner L. P. Farris and his staff. Commissioner Farris was in the city yesterday and left last evening for Edmundston where he will hear evidence in no less than seven liquor cases on Wednesday. He will return to the city the last of this week.

Successful "Moonlight." The moonlight excursion held on the river last evening under the auspices of Camp Rothesay, Sons of Scotland was very successful. The steamer Victoria was engaged for the occasion and the attendance was so large that it was found necessary to stop the sale of tickets. The steamer went as far as Public Landing and returned about 11.30 p. m. The artillery band was in attendance and rendered a choice programme of dance music.

A Sunday Mail. St. John is to have a Sunday mail to and from all points on the C. P. R., and it will probably go into effect on Sunday next. Since the Sunday trains were accepted on the C. P. R., there has been no Sunday mail service, but this is to be changed and commencing next Sunday, mail will be brought in on all C. P. R. trains on that day and carried out on all outgoing trains. The change will be a great convenience especially to commercial men.

Examinations in Medicine. The professional examinations for registration in medicine will open in the Odd Fellows' Hall on Wednesday and continue till Saturday. The following have been appointed examiners by the Council of Physicians and Surgeons of New Brunswick: Drs. T. D. Walker, J. W. Daniel, W. W. White, A. F. Emery, W. Warwick and S. Skinner. It is expected that there will be about 12 candidates, mostly graduates of McGill, though there will be a number of graduates from American colleges.

Pontoon to Be Ready July 1. Owing to the illness of Foreman Macculay, and the wet weather of the past few weeks, the work of providing extra wharf accommodation for the Eastern Steamship Company at Reed's Point has been delayed, but the city engineer expects to have it finished by July 1, the date upon which the city agreed to have it completed. The pontoon has been constructed, and a force of men are now rushing the work of preparing the structure for fitting it into the jog of the wharf.

Getting Ready for Paving. The Hassam Paving Company will start work today, repairing the retaining wall on Main street. In company with the city engineer, Mr. Low, the representative of the company, went over the streets which are to be paved yesterday, and decided to start at once fixing up the retaining walls and curbs. The work of paving the streets will be proceeded with as soon as the householders who have been notified to have their sewer connections looked after have done their work. The Hassam Company will employ local men as far as possible.

John P. Hipwell Dying. The many friends of John P. Hipwell, one of the oldest officials in the railway mail service will learn with sincere regret that his condition is such that at midnight his death was hourly expected. Mr. Hipwell has been ill at his home Exmouth street for five weeks, but it was not supposed that he was in a serious condition until recently. He was suffering from an abscess in his ear but from a slight pain at first he paid little attention to it until the pain became acute. It was stated at his home last evening that the abscess had broken and was likely to cause death. Mr. Hipwell is a son of the veteran sergeant, John Hipwell of the police force and is in the 49th year of his age. He has been many years in the railway mail service and was very well known all over the Maritime Provinces. David Hipwell of Woodstock is a brother.

Rev. Thos. Deinstadt, Rev. Dr. Robt. Wilson and A. C. Powers returned from attending the meetings of the Methodist conference at Sackville on the Halifax train last evening.

NEVADA MEN REPORT RICH COPPER FIND NEAR NORTON

Thad. and Edward Dick, in the City Yesterday, Claim They Have Found What Will Prove a Bonanza in Kings County--They Have Experts at Work and Will Develop it Later.

Thad and Edward Dick, former residents of St. George, who left New Brunswick in the early 80s, and since then have engaged in mining in Colorado, Cobalt and Nevada, where they own several rich claims, recently paid a visit to their old homes, and were in the city yesterday. Besides coming on a pleasure trip the Dick brothers have also another motive in visiting the province. They are of the belief that in Kings county, but 11 miles from Norton, they have discovered two veins of copper ore that, if properly developed, will in time, become one of the richest and most productive copper mines in Canada. That there is copper there in plentiful quantities they say, there cannot be the least doubt, and their opinion is backed up by 25 years of practical mining experience. They have already experienced men engaged to thoroughly investigate and ascertain the real value of the mine. In the meantime they will return to Nevada and should the experts whom they have employed, report favorably, a company will be organized to work and develop the mine. Speaking with a Standard reporter yesterday Mr. Edward Dick, said that before engaging in mining in Colorado in 1885, while prospecting about 11 miles from Norton, he had first discovered copper ore. He then endeavored to induce several wealthy persons to assist in working the mine, but could not then convince them of the wealth of his discovery. While prospecting in Colorado and Nevada he often thought of the hidden wealth near his old home, and three years ago while returning to Nevada from Cobalt, he visited New Brunswick and thoroughly investigated the place where he had first discovered the copper ore. His investigations strengthened his belief that the copper vein, if developed, would prove to be one of the richest in Canada. We are convinced that we have struck one of the wealthiest veins of copper in Canada, and will back up our claims when we return from Nevada," was the way the Dick brothers summed up the situation. The two brothers while owning several wealthy claims in Colorado, have also organized a company, and are carrying on extensive mining operations in Goldfield.

STAVES BLOWN OUT OF THE SPRUCE LAKE MAIN

Accident Near South Bay Made Fairville Dry for a Couple of Hours Yesterday Afternoon. As the result of an accident in the 24-inch main from Spruce Lake to the city, there was a shortage of water in Fairville for a few hours yesterday afternoon, and the C. P. R. and the Cushing pulp mill were unable to secure their usual supply. The accident occurred on the Carpenter farm near South Bay where the water is conveyed in a stave pipe. Two of the staves on the under side of the pipe were blown out by the pressure and several others loosened. As soon as the accident was reported the Carleton service was drawn from the reservoir through the 12-inch pipe and repairs made to the larger one. The work of repair occupied about two hours, but during that time the pulp mill was unable to secure water and the C. P. R. engines had to be taken to the I. C. R. water tank at the east side. The service was normal at 3.30 and the damage repaired.

WILL SOME ONE TELL "WHERE WE ARE AT?"

Grave Uncertainty as to Fate of City After Saturday's Sham Fight--Were We Captured or Not? Although a big battle was fought for the possession of the city Saturday afternoon, nobody seems to know whether the old loyalist town was captured by the enemy or remained in the hands of its brave defenders. Certain it is that the time honored colors that decorate the office window of the mayor have not yet been seized by the enemy, and Chief Clark reports everything all quiet along the streets except a stry picket missing from delapidated fences. Col. McAvity, the umpire-in-chief of Saturday's struggle is out of town, and until he returns the citizens will not know their fate.

INSPECTED LOCAL RIFLE RANGE.

Lt-Col. Weatherbee of Halifax, inspecting officer of engineering corps and military works was in the city yesterday on his way to inspect the engineering corps at Farnham, Que., and at Petewawa. While here he visited the rifle range and expressed himself as well satisfied with what he saw. He was accompanied by Capt. Thacker of Quebec.
