Ever since the close of Sir Hugh Allan's testimony—when he unreservedly told what Tilley Knows about Railway Loans.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.

There is one thing in connection with this Pacific Railway Scandal, which does not seem to have been brought as yet before Maritime minds. It is something which reflects somewhat upon our men in the Cabinet, and shows that they are not over-watchful of the fluancial affairs of our Provinces.

secretaries and servants to betray their masters' trust, unscrupulous appeals to popular passion, tapping telegrams, and robbing the mails, but. of course, all "in the public interest."

The feeling of confidence in the Cabinet is strengthened by the promptitude with which they have summoned Parliament, as they said they would "as soon as possible" after the decease of the Commission. Confidence will be increased by the news which has just come to us by cable, of Tilley's success in the English market. The triumphant statement of the Grits, that the English press and people had lost confidence in Canada and the Canadian Government, has received an unanswerable Messrs. Tupper, Tilley and Mitchell ernment, has received an unanswerable denial to-day in the announcement that the Government Intercolonial Railway loan has been eagerly TAKEN UP AT A PREMIUM. Hurrah for Tilley!

TO FORM AN ENTIRELY NEW COMPANY, composed of men from both rival companies, and of men who were never in either company, but who would secure to each section of the Dominion, a representation upon the Board of Directors.

John Hayden, and another whose name we could not learn, were rowing across to the Dartmouth side, in Halifax harbor, a squall came and upset the boat, and the three men were precipitated into the water. Capt. Peter Judge, of the steam water boat Dreadnaught who witnessed the disaster immediately came to the rescue of the drowning men, and landed them at the Commercial wharf more dead them at the Commercial wharf more dead than alive.

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, and all impurities of the blood, bursting through the skin or otherwise, cured readily by following the directions on the bottle. Nervous Difficulties, Neuralgia, &coolily relieved.

Rheumatism, Swelled Joints and all Screening Afflictions removed or greatly relieved by this invaluable medicine. Bronchitis, Catarrh, Convulsions, and Hy-terics cured or much relieved. Difficult Breathing, Pain in the Lungs, Side and Chest almost invariably cured by taking a few bottles of the Quaker Bitters. All Difficult Female Derangements, (almost invariably caused by a violation of the organic laws,) so prevalent to the American ladies yield readily to this invaluable medicine—the Quaker Bitters.

All Impurities of the Blood and diseases incident to the same always cured by the Ounker Bitters, if taken according to the directions. The Aged find in the Quaker Bitters just the article they stand in need of in their declining years. It quickens the blood and cheers the mind, and paves the passage down the plane inclined.

HALIFAX SHOCKED.

The race was called on at 3.05 p. m.

Brown appearing on the water first, followed at once by Biglin. The referee gave the word "go," and Biglin took the LIKELY. water first, and gained a lead in the first hundred yards of half a boat length. Half way to the four mile house he had increased his lead to a full length rowing thirty-eight strokes a minute. Brown seemed unconcerned, and rowing smooth2 ly at thirty-six. Some money was put up even at this time. Near the starting Photograph Rooms cheered Brown and called on him to take the lead. He quickened his stroke to forty without losing form in the least and put his boat a full length ahead in remarkably quick time, and widened the distance every stroke from that time until the boats were lost in the fog. Biglin did some desperate pulling without success. He got too far out and then so far in as to be directly in rear of Brown. He was four or five lengths behind at the turn. Brown gradually increased his Beautiful New Goods, lead on the way home, rowing prettily, and Biglin gamely pulled his best, coming in thirty seconds behind—time 38.45. A purse was made up for Biglin. He says the man who can beat Brown doesn't own a shell. There is little rejoicing, the town hav ing got disgusted at the postponements. Brown will issue a challenge to the world as he is considered to be the best single sculler living. The drinking, fighting and gambling at the scene has shocked the pastoral |Humors of the Panic. An id all the excitement in New York the papers give notes on the humorous side of the affair. Here is one! "At Fisk & Hatch's bank on Friday, an excited individual offered a boy fifty dollars for his place in the line, and afterwards increased the bid to one hundred lollars. The boy, loyal to his employers, would not sell his place for the tempting offer. A man ahead of him, however, responded and said he would sell his place for two hundred. The money was paid him immediately, and the place was given up.

drink; I had only one hundred in that concern, and I think I have come out a ittle ahead."

The wanderings of a Tribune reporter The wanderings of a Tribune reporter also describes some ludicrous incidents: He was roused by a vision of the well nourished form of the Hon. S. L. M. Barlow, who was entering his office in William street. Mr. Barlow is one of the most "interviewable" of living men. A half hour's talk with him always gives a reporter material for half a stickfull of copy. The present interview was no exception to this rule. Mr. Barlow said with he cool intrepidity of a man who ception to this rule. Br. Barn who with he cool intrepidity of a man who had never heard of Annanias, that these had never heard of property and effect upon Erie; matters would have no effect upon Erie; that he had not heard how things were going in London,—and checked himself just in time to keep from saying he had never heard of a party of the name of

"How is Western Union?" asked the reporter, "Sixty-seven, at last accounts, calmly replied the undaunted administrator, apparently undismayed by the wreck of stocks and the crush of securities. "How is this to end?"
"I might tell you better at three o'. "Perhaps you can tell me now how it begun."

The Treasury Department is actuated by the best intentions toward the public. It saw the public annoyed by a small but nimble Gold-Bug, and tried to smash him. You see the result! The public is feeling for what is left of its face, and the Gold-Bug is said to be unusually happy to-day.
