All local real estate records were surpassed again by sales in the past month.

paid for them being considerably more than a million dollars.

April held the record previously with

This immense increase is providing an enormous amount of work for the assessment department, which has to record the details of each sale. There has been no increase in the staff dealing with this part of the work, and as a result it has been impossible to keep the returns up-to-date. Records of the onth of April have not been completed, that it is not yet definitely known by k the broperty changed hands in at month.

WILHELM EXPECTS TO REGAIN THRONE.
LONDON, May 31.—Rumors of an impending revolt are steadily growing in Berlin, and there are indications the headquarters of the new revolutionary movement are at Potsdam, where Prince August William, son of former Emperor Wilhelm is staying. He is regarded as the leader of the military party, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. Advices from Doorn, where the former emperor is now living, declare William Hohenzollern is in high hopes of a successful coup, and believes he will once more become ruler of the German Empire, the dispatch says. WHAT PARLIAMENT HAS DONE DURING THE PAST MONTH

Ottawa, June 1 .- (By the Canadian Press) .- Parliament has completed its third month of session, and there is still much important business to be done. The last four weeks, however, have seen important developments. The Grand Trunk bill, keenly rought in its passage through the House, has received the royal assent and the temporary board of management has been ap-pointed. The franchise bill, after a total of seventeen days' considera-tion in committee, has not yet been reported, although it is not expected that the bill will now occupy the days or so. But of chief interest during the last month has been the during the last month has been the return of the prime minister after a five months' holiday, and the presentation of the budget.

Chief criticism of the budget has centred on the "luxury" taxes, a new tax, ranging from 10 to 50 percent of the purchase price levied on certain articles when sold over a specified figure. Since the budget proposals were laid before the House a fortnight ago, communications and delegations have invaded the finance department like a flood:

tions and delegations have invaded the finance department like a flood; and the budget debate, with its al-ternating criticism and praise, still wanders along in the House. The wanders along in the House. The alm of the luxury taxes, as Sir Henry Drayton has explained, is to achieve one of two objects—either to bring down the cost of living or to produce revenue. The luxury taxes are already in force, but how far they have reduced prices, if at all its part yet annarent. all, is not yet apparent.

In his speech also Sir Henry announced a "thorough revision of the tariff," and laid down the general lines which the revision would follow. The Opposition wished to go further. Hon. W. S. Fielding submitted an amendment, still under consideration by the House, that pending a wider revision of the tariff substantial reductions should be made in the customs taxation. be made in the customs taxation, with a view to reduction in the high cost of living, and, secondly, to reduce the cost of the instruments of production. No doubt is felt that the amendment will be defeated.

Close Divisions.

The month was marked by a remarkably close division on an Important question of Government policy. Announcement had been made of an agreement with the governments of the United Kingdom and of the United States for the appointment of a Canadian minister plenipotentiary at Washington. Mr. Fielding had raised the whole question on an amendment to a motion to go into supply, an amendment requiring production of all correspondence before arrangements for the appointment of a Canadian representative were consummated. Debate came on a Monday. Many members were away. The day. Many members were away. The Government carried its motion on a mere majority of five. It was a "snap" vote, but the Opposition were jubilant, and there has been heart-burning on the Government side since.

Practically no supply was voted during the month. The great bulk of the estimates still remain to be passed. Third reading was given to the bill extending the time limit for manufacture and sale of oleomargarine and a bill to amend the industrial disputes in investigation act. Both bills aroused considerable debate. Among legislation still to be considered is a bill introduced by the minister of justice on Friday last. It seeks to amend the criminal last. It seeks to amend the criminal code, and among other things deals with racetrack betting.

Taken altogether, there is every indication that the session will last until the end of June.

SUPREME COURT JUDGES EQUALLY DIVIDED IN OPINIONS CONCERNING BOARD OF COMMERCE

Three Uphold Jurisdiction of Board, While the Remaining Three Maintain Specially Appointed Government Body Did Not Have Power It Claimed—Fate of the Board Depends On Whether or Not New Legislation Defining Its Status Is Brought Down—In Meantime the Reconstruction Planned Must Be Deferred.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, June 1.—The findings of the Supreme Court of Canada in the reference regarding the jurisdiction of the board of commerce leave the whole vexed question unsettled. The court has divided equally on the matter at issue, Chief Justice Sir Louis Davies and Messrs. Justices Anglin and Migneault upholding the jurisdiction and authority of the board, while Messrs. Justices Iddington. Duff and Bordeur are on the other side.

The situation is now quite uncertain, and it will be for the Government to decide what is next to be done. It had been anticipated that the court would clear the matter up once and for all, and that the Government would be in a position to act accordingly. The board at the present time lacks a head, and reconstruction has been postponed pending the bringing down of the court's ruling. Now confusion once more reigns supreme.

Chicago, June 1.—Belief that the Chicago River, which runs through the heart of Chicago, lately has become a sinister element in crime, was expressed today by P. W. Garrity, chief of police, to devise means for either ending an epidemic of suicide drownings, or a departure in the method of disposal of murder victims.

During the last few weeks an unusual number of bodies have been taken from the river, Mr. Hoffman said. In several instances the bodies bore evidences of foul play, while in others the action of the water had rendered definite conclusions impossible.

At Parls, the meeting place of the east and the west, are enacted tense scenes in the lives of dwellers of both hemispheres. His watchful care saves her from the keenest sorrow that could come to a woman, but he pays the price for his watchfulness with his life.

Another late migrant, the alder fly-catcher, was seen or rather heard, on May 25. One of the most accessible places to find this bird is the head of Maitland street. Lovers of the unusual in the presentation of various phases of the "eternal feminine" will doubtless find more or less pleasure in the novel unfolding of a somewhat sordid story in "The Woman in the Suitcase," the feature film at Loew's for the first part of this week. The story centres around Mary Moreland, the daughter of a prominent businessman, who has allowed himself to become interested in a woman whose picture Mary finds in his suitcase.

Winsome Enid Bennett. as Mary Moreland, has an exacting role to fill but carries it through with a cleverness and vim which have placed pictures in which she figures amongst the foremost successes in filmdom.

How Mary decides to save her father from the clutches of the designing vamp and how she carries out her self-set task provides a number of intensely interesting situations. The general staging and production of the picture are good.

Distinctly pleasing features of the bill are the scenic and news films. "Uneasy Feet," a comedy film, by courtesy, is a decided case of flat feet.

The other turns are a shooting novelty by Anna Vivian & Co., Lee and Bennett in harmony and mirth, and Piquo and Fellowes, in artistic novelties.

The play opens in a typical French estaminet, with the inevitable little French coquette in action, and the nearby billets add to the realistic war features. The boys vie with each other in winning the young maid's favor, and the amusing situations involved kept the house in an uproar. From the estaminet the scene changes to the front line, and the scenery here has been pronounced by local veterans of the trenches as accurate in every detail. The action provided thrills, the audience, and does credit to the producer. The effect is noticeable at once. You feel happier, brighter, more contented. There is little plot revealed in this offering except that the German spy and his machinations are seen at work, with the final unmasking, and romance is lightly thrown in for good measure. The real object of the play is to reveal to the home folks, an inkling of the lighter side of trench life, when the silver-lined clouds were passing. The trench ditties were exceptionally well rendered, and were received with enthusiasm by returned soldiers preswrites: "I have used on towards the second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and find they have done me good. I had those fainting, dizzy spells once in a while, and also weakness and shortness of breath, and would become so choked up at times I could hardly sleep without sitting up in bed. Architects, Engineers, Contractors and Builders know that while a good concrete can be made with Portland cement, there is room for marked improvement.

Portland Cement

It is common knowledge that con-crete made from Portland cement has tiny "woids"-the result of the imperfect combination of ordinary cement with water, and large "voids"-the result of imperfect mixing.

These "voids" make the concrete porous. They allow water to percolate through. They detract from its strength. It was to eliminate these weak-nesses that the inventor and some

English engineers and chemists set out to discover a process for making a waterproof cement without adding any deteriorating substances. After nine years of ceaseless investigation they discovered the process of making the new Super Cement.

Super Cement was discovered just previous to the war. Its valuable qualities were recognized by the British Government. It was used by the British Admiralty, War Office, Royal Air Force, Board of Works, Home Office, and by Public Works Contractors. It was subject to extreme tests for waterproofness, density and strength. It proved its efficiency.

A Catalytic Colloid

Super Cement secures its efficiency from a patented ingredient (a Catalytic Colloid) which is combined with Portland cement and ground up with it during the process of manufacture. The result is a cement of remarkable hydrative activity. When water is mixed with it the chemical action is very much greater and prolonged than with ordinary cement. A very much larger percent. of Super Cement combines with the water and the combination is more complete.

The increased bonding action of Super Cement enables it to adhere with greater tenacity to the particles of sand and stone and to bind them together in a stronger, denser mass The result is a concrete free from porous "voids"-a completely waterproof, non-absorbent concrete.

Mr. Ernest A. Dancaster, B.Sc. (London, England), a well-known Consulting Chemist, in his book "Limes, Cements and Plasters," states as fol-

"The increase in strength of a concrete made of Super Cement, ninety days after mixing, was 50% greater than concrete made of ordinary ce-ment. After six months the Super Cement concrete was at least double the strength of ordinary concrete."

England Tests have also been made in England by other well-known experts, reports of which will be furnished on request. These tests have all shown the remarkable efficiency of Super Cement. Architects, Engineers, Contractors and Builders would be well advised to recommend Super Cement for all concrete construction.

Remember, Super Cement is NOT merely an ordinary cement with a water-repellant or pore filler added. That way of waterproofing is merely a makeshift and has never been suc-

Super Cement is a real waterproof cement. The only true, scientific method of waterproofing is to make a cement which will do all the work required-and Super Cement does it. Super Cement makes a concrete so dense that gasoline cannot penetrate it. Super Cement is 100 per cent effi-

DECEIVING THEMSELVES.

The claim that "The United States won the war," which has been so persistently advanced by that portion of the republic's population noted for its ability to "make the eagle scream" and "twisting the lion's tail" has been refuted more evidence has been brought against the assertion from an unexpected source.

Maria Moravsky, a Russian woman, writing in the New York Nation, says:

Don't deceive yourself; it was not Americans who won the war. America was only the last weight thrown on the scales of European After four years of battles, after so many heroic efforts made by the other nation to defeat Germany, you came with your fresh army and bundles of money and dealt out the last stroke to the enemy. PURCHASABLE HEROES.

[Wall Street Journal.] When businessmen, especially those of the financial centre of the United States, look skeptical about bonuses for "heroes," and doubt the patriotism both of the politician and his protege, there is a reason. Too many of us served on the draft boards to have any illusions. Those of us who made out questionnaires at the rate of twelve or a little better through the long day between the early forenoon and 11 p.m., will remember how rare the 100 per cent American willing to serve without qualification was. He never averaged one an hour stomach. There are two classes of heroes bred of the war: those who are dead in France and elsewhere, and those who do not regard their patriotism as a thing for barter. The applicants for a handout are not heroes. They bluff their way into court, or their politician-counsel do, with a raw cash demand backed by a threat. But they have no

Victoria Lodge is the oldest Rebekah Lodge in Ontario, being instituted on December 3, 1869. Intimate and unforgettable way the little things we like to know about our favorite authors. It is entirely American woman writers, but we will hope to see some such book about Canadian women novelists some of these days. I am fond of Kathleen Norris' books, too SHOWER FROM CITIZENS always upnotes the ideal in every situa-tion, and proves that good is worth while. As many as nineteen small children in one day have been cared for by the Day Nursery, which is proving itself a boon to the city. Yesterday, there were fourteen of them present, there being fewer in attendance on Monday as a general rule. Volunteer helpers, recruited by Miss McCrimmon, have greatly assisted the nursery staff in making conditions there as ideal as possible.

The nursery cook has now an eye open to the future. And she suggests that there may be many rhubarb beds in the city, not being overtaxed by their owners, which might yield a generous supply to the nursery for canning purposes. Any donations of rhubarb would be gratefully received and put to excellent use here.

President Maines seems to be on hand for most of these affairs. He saw Shuster do some banishing earlier in the week at Hamilton and repeat at Flint. Shuster is perhaps hard to get along with. He showed signs of that here during the opening games, but apparently he or his assistant weren't as bad or as fast on the traffic control stuff as the Hamilton pair.

Rubber Krapp is having some trouble with his camp followers, too. His suspension of Boyle for indifferent playing was fair enough by Hamilton accounts, but his fallure to yank himself out of the game, when he was being pounded, is considered almost justification for the rest of the fear making indifferent the rest of the team playing indifferent-

The boys will leave the city in autos at 4:30 o'clock from the Y. on the afternoon of the race, and will be dropped at half-mile intervals along the route. A general call has been sent out for cars to convey the boys and drop them along the route, and it is expected that no difficulty will be exerienced on this point.

The idea is a novel one, and will have a lot of attention focussed on it be-cause of its novelty aside from the splendid competition it will induce. The half-mile distance should make the race fairly fast, too, even though longer by a good distance than the usual relay race distance. The distance is esti-mated at nearly 30 miles, meaning that at least 114 boys will be used in the race, each to take a half-mile for their

A recent order makes soccer compulsory throughout the army of France, meaning that thousands of young Frenchmen will be taking up the game each year as they are called to the colors.

JUNE SESSIONS OPEN

Two Cases To Come Before Grand Jury.

The June session of the Middlesex county court opened in the county buildings this afternoon shortly after 1 o'clock, with Judge Talbot Macbeth presiding. Upon the grand jury being sworn in, Judge Macbeth delivered an address to them, congratulating the members on the fact that there are but two criminal cases for their attention. The first case, that of Alex. Judge, charged with stealing liquor from the C. P. R., his honor stated, according to the facts, some empty cases stolen from c. P. He stated that Judge may have a reason-able explanation for the presence of these cases, but until such explanation was forthcoming, a true bill against him from the grand turk was warranted was forthcoming, a true bill against him from the grand jury was warranted. The other case, one of indecent assault, in which a 9-year-old girl was the victim, and William Forbes, aged about 16 years was accused, according to Judge Macbeth, is "a very sad case." "As it is a case of a child under 14 years being assaulted." he said, "there is no such thing as consent for any indecent act. If the girl were handled indecently, even though consent were shown, there is nothing to bring in but a true bill."

Concluding, he ordered the jury to Concluding, he ordered the jury to visit the jail and asylum. 'In so far as any other institutions are concerned.' he said, 'it is in your own discretion to visit them, and not necessary.''

By request of counsel the case of sophia Stonefish, suing Allan McQueen for $500 and costs, stands over until an affidavit from one of the witnesses, who is ill, is obtained. This is a jury case. WILD MAN LIVED IN WOOD DURING ZERO

Often Ran With Ice-Crusted Head After Winter Bath.

Stamford, Del., June 1.—Thomas Stanley, who came to this section about two years ago, and had lived the life of a recluse ever since, was taken to Georgetown jail, yesterday, by Magistrate James K. Phillips and Constable Frank P. Dawson, When the officials questioned him he said his name was Thomas Stanley and that his home was in Philadelphia.

Since coming here Stanley has lived in Philadelphia.

Since coming here Stanley has lived alone in the woods, and looked like a wild man when captured. He had whiskers all over his face and his hair hung down his back. He slept in the open all

He was seen on numerous occasions during the winter cutting holes in the ice and taking a bath. He has appeared at farmhouses with his hair a solid cake of ice after taking a bath in the icy waters. He subsisted on what he could get out of the fields and woods. During the cold weather of the winter he would build a fire in the woods. He went scantily clad, and how the man survived the winters is a mystery. Although only about 40 years old, he looked like a man of 80.

Of late some of the farmers have become alarmed at his roaming in the woods, and officials here were appealed to. As a result Magistrate Phillips and Constable Dawson went to his haunts yesterday and lanced him in jail. He was seen on numerous occasions

Real Fruit Desserts The new kind with Flavors in Vials

The New Fruit Dessert

Which millions have adopted

Jiffy-Jell is the new fruit dessert which millions have adopted.

You know the old-style quick gelatine desserts. The fruit flavors came in dry form in the mixture.

Learn what this new type means, flavored with condensed fruit essence sealed in glass. It is supplanting the old style in millions of homes which have tried it.

Fruits are crushed

liffy-Iell has no artificial flavors. We crush the fruit, condense the juice and seal it in a vial.

Each dessert brings you - sealed in a glass -a wealth of fruit-juice essence.

The flavor is abundant. For instance, we crush half a pineapple to make the flavor for one Jiffy-Jell dessert. This is done in Hawaii, from fruits too ripe to ship.

Thus the whole dessert, rich in fruit, costs you no more than the fruit we use would cost you separately.

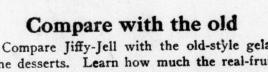

Six big servings

One package of Jiffy-Jell makes six servings in mold form, or twelve if you whip the jell.

It supplies real-fruit dainties at a fraction of the cost of jams and marmalades.

It comes ready-sweetened, and with sugarnot with saccharine. It comes acidulated with lemon or grape acid.

You simply add boiling water, then the fruitful and delightful.

Compare Jiffy-Jell with the old-style gelatine desserts. Learn how much the real-fruit flavor adds. Fruit is essential. Everybody needs it daily, and a mere flavor does not suffice.

Now you can get it - eight kinds of fruit in this delicious form for a little. Try it once. It will change your whole conception of these quick fruity dainties.

Also for salads

Jiffy-Jell in lime-fruit flavor makes a tart, green salad jell. Serve with your salads or mix the salad in before cooling. Then you have a zestful salad loaf. Or mix in meat scraps and make an appetizing meat loaf.

Jiffy-Jell in mint flavor makes a green mint jell. Serve with your meats, hot or cold. Or serve as a side dish.

Try Loganberry or Pineapple for desserts. They are two of our finest flavors. But Jiffy-Jell in any fruit flavor tastes like a fresh-fruit

The Canada Life Man comes into close touch with the people.

He is known to be honest and sincere, with a true appreciation of his mission,—which is to relieve distress and point the way to thrift and prudence in the affairs of men generally.

The Confidential Man

He knows when the average man is prosperous and also when he is not, because he tells the Canada Life Man the story of his progress. The Canada Life representative in fact becomes the confidential man of the community.

To the Canada Life Man everything speaks of the need for insurance.

Finding this need all around him he tries to fit the plan of insurance to the individual need; just as the experienced lawyer is expected to give the best advice to his client or the physician the best course of treatment to his patient.

His sympathy and advice are indeed very important factors in his success.

Trained for Special Service

He is trained for this service through the "Canada Life Course of Life Insurance."

He visits factories, offices and homes, pressing forward his mission, arranging interviews for his clients with the medical examiner, discussing questions of health and finance, pointing the way of satisfaction and progress to everyone

The day ends before he is ready to give up his interesting work, but he has caused many a man to stop and think,he has helped widows in need, and impressed upon all those he has met the importance of economy in their affairs and the need of protection for those under their care.

Will you, in the spirit of the above, discuss with the Canada Life Man, or correspond with the head office of the Company, freely and fully as to your need for protection, vour desire to save?

Thrift, always a virtue, is now a patriotic duty. Take stock of your affairs; adopt the best method of caring for your obligations; find out how to plan your estate.

In other words, consult an old, tried Company, with abundant evidence of success; experienced in life insurance, paying large dividends to policyholders, and safely and sanely managing its business.

Advertising Department Brought Up On the Carpet

Advertising man receives "raking over the coals" for not being alive to position; told to wake up and tell people of what is in the store, and not to let any department go untouched.

A Lively Come-Back!

"Let's give the people a run for their money for the rest of the week by giving a discount of 10 per cent on "It means quite a bit, of course — a $70 Cabinet Range will go for $63, and so on. This will be appreciated more than anything.

"In addition, how about setting the stove right up in their kitchens (pipes thrown in) and put a spitfire lighter on all those stoves that are made to receive them, free gratis, for nothing?"

"All right-go to it!" assented the boss.

A Real Nice Purchasing Plan

It's a great help, Thomas' Club Plan is. Just make a payment of one-third, the balance being taken care of over a term of months.

Yes, anything may be purchased on this plan. No collectors; all payments made YOU KNOW HOW IT FEELS...

You've been there, no doubt. Then you know how it feels to be brought up on the carpet.

"What's the matter with gas stoves, anyway?" the manager asked. "Why aren't they selling as fast as they should? Here's a whole basement full of them-just the season they should sell."

Well, sir, we just stood. spluttered something about 'backward season,' 'scarcity of houses," and so on, got red-faced and felt still more ill at ease when told "to do something about it."

"Don't you know we're closed on Wednesday afternoons, and we'd like to see a little more business in the morning?" concluded the 'main squeeze."

Right here we woke up and came back with a couple of bright ideas, which were accepted right on the spot.

Howsomever---It's An Ill Wind That Blows Nobody Good

> So, there it is, folks. You receive the benefit of 10 per cent on your new stovethat is, if you purchase it

And you receive the extra service gratis. Yes, Moffatt's, all of them. Set right up in your kitchen.

It's scarcely possible you'll dispute the genuineness of the reduction. The papers will supply editions of March 19, showing the regular prices. Thank

It is known today that most tooth troubles are due to a slimy film. You can feel it with your tongue. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The tooth brush doesn't end it. The ordi-

General-Manager E. V. Buchanan of he public utilities department has had installed at the foot of all drinking Anthracite Briquettes | fountains, troughs supplied by the Humane Society for the comfort of dogs and cats in the hot weather.
