For the purpose of ensuring uniformity in the Patriarchal order within the jurisdiction, the Grand Encampment of British Columbia, the supreme tribunal of all Encampments, within its limits, without whose sanction and control no Encampment can exist, ordains the following articles as the Constitution for the government of the Subordinate Encampments of Patriarchs.

F., of British Columbia, and shall possess the full powers of a Subordinate Encampment, holding a legal unreclaimed charter duly granted and formally presented by the Grand Encampment of British Columbia.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. No person shall be admitted into this Encampment by initiation who is not a Scarlet Degree member in good standing of a subordinate lodge in good standing, and a resident of the Province of British Columbia, nor for a less sum than six dollars, which shall include all the degrees.

SEC. 2. Applications for membership by initiation shall be made in writing, setting forth age, occupation and residence of applicant, signed by him and containing the names of two Patriarchs as references, and said application shall be accompanied by a certificate from the subordinate lodge of which he is a member as to his standing in said lodge. The application shall be entered upon the records and a committee of three Patriarchs appointed for investigation, and to report at the next regular meeting of the Encampment, when the applicant shall be balloted for with ball ballots; if more than two black balls appear, the applicant shall be declared rejected, but if less than three black balls appear, he shall be declared elected. (unless the balloting shall be postponed by vote of the Encampment). No re-consideration of an adverse ballot can be had unless all the members who put in black balls shall move for a re-consideration, when, if two-thirds of the members present vote in favor of such re-consideration, the motion shall be declared carried, and the said applicant shall be balloted for at the next regular meeting, when, if more than one black ball appears, he shall be declared rejected, and no further re-consideration shall for any reasons be had. An applicant rejected for membership in this Encampment shall not be eligible to membership in any Encampment for the space of six months.

Sec. 3. Applications for membership shall be made to the Subordinate Encampment nearest the place of residence of the applicant, except in a city or town in which there are more than one Encampment, in which case he may apply to either.

Sec. 4. together with his card or dismissal certificate, which shall be referred to a committee and disposed of as by his lodge until one year shall have elapsed from date of card of suspension, but, after expiration of one year from dates of suspension or card, his active and assessments are not paid, or reduced below the amount of one year's dues, the Scribe shall report the Patriarch as liable to suspension, whereupon the Encampment may by formal action suspend the Patriarch for non-payment of dues. Any Patriarch under suspension for non-payment of dues may be reinstated at any regular session by a two-thirds vote of the members present; and any Patriarch, before he can be reinstated, must pay the amount of one year's dues. And any Patriarch refused reinstatement shall, after the expiration of one year, on proper application and the payment of one dollar, receive a dismissal certificate.

Sec. 10. No Encampment shall admit to membership any person living within the jurisdiction of another Encampment without first obtaining the consent of said Encampment under seal, and any Encampment violating this section shall pay to the Encampment in whose jurisdiction the applicant resides all moneys received from such applicant.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. The regular contribution and special assessments to this Encampment fund shall be determined by the By-laws: provided, that should there be insufficient in the Encampment fund to pay assessments made by the Grand Encampment, the Encampment shall have power to assess the sum necessary to pay the same upon its members, and such assessment shall be at once due and payable.

Sec. 2. The amount of sick and funeral benefits shall be determined by the By-laws, and shall be paid to such members as are qualified to receive benefits.

ARTICLE IV.

shall cease to be a member of this Encampment during the term of his suspension by his Lodge.

SEC. 3. When charges have been preferred against a Patriarch in the proper manner, they shall be referred to a special committee of five members, who shall, if possible, be chosen from among the peers of the implicated Patriarch. And they shall, with as little delay as the case will admit, summon the parties and examine and determine the matter in question; and if not involving the suspension or expulsion of a member, or no appeal is taken from their decision to shall be fully competent while such motion is under consideration to vary the penalty from the original motion.

SEC. 5. When the decision of the committee appointed under Section 3 for the adjustment of grievances shall not be satisfactory to all parties, either of those interested shall have the privilege of an appeal to the Encampment, and, at the time appointed for trying the appeal, the committee shall present to the Encampment in writing the grounds on which their decision was based, and the parties shall have the privilege of being heard before the Encampment, and the Encampment shall determine the correctness of the decision of the committee by a majority of votes present.

SEC. 6. Any Patriarch feeling aggrieved by the decision of the Encampment against him is entitled to an appeal to the Grand Encampment for a new trial, provided notice of an appeal and the grounds thereof are served upon the Encampment within sixty days after receiving notice of the decision of the Encampment. When notice of an appeal is given within the time limited, the Encampment shall, when requested, furnish the appellant with copies of all records and papers connected with the case. If informality or want of fairness be shown on the formal trial, on the command of the Grand Encampment the Patriarch may be tried anew for the same offence.

SEC. 7. Any Patriarch having been suspended or expelled, notice thereof shall be sent to all the Encampments in the jurisdiction; and a Patriarch who has been legally expelled shall not again be admitted to membership without the consent of the Grand Encampment.

Any Patriarch in good standing in this Encampment shall be eligible to any other office in this Encampment. Provided, that in case when all qualified Patriarchs refuse to act as C. P. or S. W., this Encampment, after first getting a dispensation from the G. P., may elect a R. P. degree member for such office who has not rendered the requisite previous service.

All officers shall be eligible for re-election.

All elections for officers shall be by ballot, and a majority of all the valid votes given shall be necessary for election. Provided, that if there be but one candidate in nomination, he shall be declared elected by acclamation.

SECTION 1. All investments of any moneys of the Encampment which the Encampment may not deem it necessary to keep in the immediate charge of the Treasurer to meet its ordinary disbursements shall be made in the stock either of some chartered bank or banks of this Province, or in some public stock of the Province, or other stock fully guaranteed by Act of the Parliament thereof, or in land or buildings.

SEC. 2. All such investments and all transfers and sales thereof, or any part thereof, shall be made in the name of the Encampment, from time to time, as the Encampment may direct by the C.P. and Scribe, for the time being, and under the seal of the Encampment; all evidences or certificates thereof shall be placed and kept by them on deposit in such chartered bank agency in this city as they may select and arrange with to that effect, subject only to their joint order, given under the seal of the Encampment, and all dividends or other income accruing therefrom shall be by them duly demanded and received, and the amount forthwith paid over to the Financial Scribe for delivery to the Treasurer.

SEC. 3. All moneys of the Encampment not invested as aforesaid shall be placed by the Treasurer forthwith after he shall have received the same, on deposit, in the name of the Encampment, with one of the bank agencies of this city, to bear such rate of interest as he may be able to obtain thereon from the said bank agency; and his responsibility and that of his securities shall extend, so far as the said moneys are concerned, only to their punctual deposit and to the correctness of his cheques drawn thereon.

SEC. 4. No motion in any way relating to the investment of the funds of the Encampment, as by this section provided for, shall be put to the vote at any meeting, whether regular or special, unless two weeks notice of such motion shall have been given by the mover.

SEC. 5. All motions for the appropriation of moneys belonging to this Encampment other than for the general purposes of the Encampment, and for the relief of members of distant Encampments, shall only be put at a regular meeting of this Encampment, and then only after one month's notice of such motion shall have been given by the mover, and written or printed notices of such motion have been sent to each member of the Encampment.

RULES OF ORDER

Rule 1. As soon as the Chief Patriarch shall have taken the chair, the officers and Patriarchs present shall take their respective stations, and the Encampment shall then be opened in ancient form.

Rule 2. The order of procedure, after opening, shall be as follows :

1. The calling of the roll of officers.
2. The consideration of any excuses which may be offered by absentees from previous meetings.
3. The reading by the Scribe of the minutes of last Encampment night ; the consideration of any objections which may be made to any part thereof, and their approval, with or without amendment, as the case may require.
4. The receiving and consideration of any reports from the Visiting Committees or from other Patriarchs who may have to report the fact of any Patriarch being sick or in distress.
5. The nomination or the election of officers, on the evenings designated for such nomination or election.
6. The receiving and consideration of reports of Committees on Character, and balloting thereon.
7. The initiation of candidates for membership.
8. The receiving of propositions for membership, and their reference to the Committee on Character.
9. The receiving and consideration of any reports of officers or standing committees which may require to be made in pursuance of the By-laws.
10. The receiving and consideration of any reports of special committees in the order of their seniority.

11. The reading and consideration of accounts and other communications in the hands of the Scribe.

12. Good and welfare ; being first, unfinished business, in order of priority at former meetings ; and secondly, new business.

13. The closing of the Encampment.

Rule 3. Any member offering a motion must do so in writing, if a request to that effect be made by the Scribe, the presiding officer, or the Encampment.

Rule 4. No questions shall be put by the presiding officer unless regularly moved and seconded, nor be open for consideration until so put ; and when so put, no other motion shall be receivable, unless it be a motion

1. To adjourn,
2. To lay on the table,
3. To put the previous question,
4. To postpone,
5. To refer, or
6. To amend.

These several motions, if made, shall have precedence in the order above stated, and the first, second and third thereof shall be decided without debate.

Rule 5. The previous question shall be put from the chair only after it shall have been ascertained that the call therefor is sustained by a majority of the members of the Encampment present, and then shall always be put in the words following: Shall the question be now put ? which words shall be understood to have reference to whatever question may be pending immediately before such call for the previous question may have been so made.

Rule 6. If the vote of the Encampment taken pursuant to such call for the previous question be in the affirmative, the presiding officer shall thereupon forthwith put to vote the question so pending immediately before such call, and shall allow no amendment or further debate thereon ; and if, on the other hand, the vote of the Encampment be in the negative, the presiding officer shall be thereby precluded from putting to vote, during the remainder of the current term, the question so pending as aforesaid.

Rule 7. Any member may require the division of a question when the sense will admit of it.

Rule 8. When a blank is to be filled, the question shall first be taken on the highest sum or number, and longest or latest time proposed.

Rule 9. The yeas and nays shall be taken and recorded, on the call of any member, duly seconded.

Rule 10. After any question, except that of indefinite postponement or the previous question, may have been decided, any two members having voted in the majority may, at the same or next regular meeting, move for a re-consideration thereof, but no discussion on the main question shall be allowed upon such motion.

Rule 11. Any question decided by the Encampment shall not again be brought before it, otherwise than by re-consideration, as provided in the foregoing rule, unless notice thereof shall have been given at the meeting immediately preceding; and such notice shall not be received during the term in which the question has been decided.

Rule 12. Every member shall have the privilege of speaking twice on any question, but not oftener, unless by permission of the presiding officer.

Rule 13. Any Patriarch intending to speak on a question shall rise in his place and respectfully address the presiding officer, confining himself to the question, and avoiding personalities; and should more than one brother rise to speak at the same time, the presiding officer shall determine which is entitled to the floor.

Rule 14. The presiding officer or any member may call a Patriarch to order while speaking; and, in such case, the debate shall be forthwith suspended, and the Patriarch so called to order shall not proceed until the point of order thus raised be determined, nor speak upon such point of order unless it be to make necessary explanation or appeal from the decision of the chair.

Rule 15. In all cases where a member may appeal from any decision of the chair, he shall use the words following, and none other, unless it be to make necessary explanation:—"I respectfully appeal from the decision of the chair to the Encampment;" and the Encampment shall, after such explanation from the presiding officer as he may deem necessary, proceed forthwith to consider and vote upon the question:—"Will the Encampment sustain the decision of the chair?"

Rule 16. Any Patriarch who may have been called to order for manifestation of temper or improper feeling, must apologize to the Encampment or to any aggrieved party, if required so to do by the presiding officer; and shall not speak again on the pending question, except to explain or apologize, unless specially permitted so to do by the presiding officer.

Rule 17. The presiding officer, or the Encampment, may, at any time, require all members present to vote upon any pending question, or may excuse any member or members from so doing.

Rule 18. Patriarchs, not members of this Encampment, may address the Encampment on receiving permission to that effect from the presiding officer.

Rule 19. No Patriarch shall retire while the Encampment is open without permission of the presiding officer.

Rule 20. A motion to suspend or alter the order of procedure, as contained in Rule 2, for the remainder of a meeting, may, at any time, be carried by a unanimous vote, or, if as many as seven members call upon the Encampment to sustain it, by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting thereon ; but no motion to suspend or alter such order of procedure for a longer term shall at any time be put to vote.

Rule 21. These Rules, or any part thereof, shall only be altered, amended, suspended or annulled, except in the case provided for by Rule 20.
