MEETING OF THE HOUSES OF BISHOPS.

Wednesday 16th January, 1907, is a notable date in the history of the Church in Canada, and to the Dean and Chapter and Congregation of St. Alban's it is much more than a mere milestone in the path of events. It will be remembered by many that the first assemblage of the Bishops of All Canada, meeting for the purpose of a comprehensive organization of the Canadian Church, took place in St. Alban's in the official service preliminary to the meeting held to carry that organization into effect. On that occasion Bishop Machray, then a visitor at the Toronto See House, became the first Archbishop and Primate. Again the Church, as represented by the two Houses of Bishops, has met here, and, in his own Cathedral, has chosen Bishop Sweatman to be, firstly, Metropolitan of the Ecclesiastical Province of Canada, consisting of Ontario and the Eastern Provinces, and secondly, Primate of all Canada. On his elevation to the first of those dignities, Bishop Sweatman became ipso facto, Archbishop. To His Grace's many friends, and to the Cathedral Congregation in particular, his accession to the head of the Church is most gratifying, and it is with the greatest pleasure that we offer to him the congratulations of all those whom this paper may claim to represent.

St. Alban's, incomplete as it is, besides being firstly, the Cathedral of the Diocese of Toronto, is now also secondly, the Metropolitan Cathedral of the Ecclesiastical Province of Canada, and thirdly, the Primatial Cathedral of all Canada.

Surely the time has come when a forward movement towards extension of the building should be made, and that in a manner consistent with its now threefold dignity.

The designs for the whole building which have been in hand for several months past, are approaching completion. When the architects have finished their work, it will be for the financiers to take the next step.

The Ven. Archdeacon Sweeny has been appointed Secretary to the House of Bishops of the Ecclesiastical Province of Canada.

The Dean has appointed Mr. Francis Henry Coombs, Choral Scholar Magdalen College, Oxford, and late of Worcester Cathedral, England, to be Choir Master of the Cathedral, in the place of Mr. David Kemp, who has resigned that office.

The changes necessary in consequence of Mr. Kemp's resignation, have rendered us unable to continue to have the services of Mr. Holley, whom we part with with much regret, and with the hope that he will quickly find a position in which his abilities will have better opportunities and advantages than have been possible in the arrangements in the Cathedral Choir.

Our acknowledgements and thanks are again due to Mr. Howard for a gift of wine for the Holy Communion.

THE INTER-DIOCESAN SUNDAY SCHOOL EXAMINATION.

St. Alban's Cathedral Sunday School had the largest class of candidates for the Inter-Diocesan Examination for 1906 of any previous year. The Examination Class in charge of Canon Macnab was held in the School House on Saturday evening, Dec. 1st. Our readers will be gratified to learn that nine of the candidates were successful in passing the examination—three winning valuable prizes of books and the others gaining certificates. This is far the largest record of any Sunday School on the prize list, and speaks well for the thorough teaching and efficient organization of the Cathedral Sunday School.

The winners of the prizes were :

Miss Marjory Evans, Miss Annie Russell, Miss Beatrice M. Lean.

Those who passed the examination and secured certificates were :

The Misses Harriet S. Sarge, Jessie Holt, Mary Glaze, Mary L. Kersteman, Henrietta Houghton, Emily Alice Farthing.

All of St. Alban's Cathedral Sunday School.

To Miss McCollum and Miss Canavan our thanks are due for procuring and making the handsome cloth which was provided for the Library table in the preparations made for the meeting of the House of Bishops.

A large topaz has been given for the Archbishop's Crozier by Miss Winifred Sproule Nesbitt.

An announcement in the daily papers recently of an appointment of two Honorary Canons was premature. We believe however, that His Grace the Archbishop has had the filling of certain vacancies in the Cathedral establishment under consideration.

A "Silver Kettle-drum" will be held at 120 Wells St., by Mrs. Macnab, in aid of the Woman's Cathedral League—Tuesday, February 5th, from 4—7 p.m.

Adult members of the congregation, as well as friends of the Cathedral, are cordially invited to be present. A charming programme and tea will be provided.
