Decisive Battle of War In Progress On West Front

BRITISH, FRENCH AND AMERICANS DRIVE THROUGH SHATTERED FOE LINES IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM

British Drive Threatens Vast Pocket From Holland To Metz; French And Americans Strive To Pinch Out Entire Meuse Salient

By Courier Leased Wire.
PARIS, Nov. 5.—A battle which is believed here to be decisive is now going on. It is being waged in two sections. In the north the blow delivered by the British armies of Generals Horne, Byng and Rawlinson, and by the French, under General De Beny, is a threat levelled at one of the flanks of the vast pocket formed by the German lines from Holland to Metz.

The object of this offensive is to drive dangerous wedges either north of the Sambre in the direction of Mons or south of the river in the direction of Caveshes and Maubeuge. The result may be a compromise retreat of the German armies in Belgium, or those still between the Oise and the Aisne. Excellent results have been realized so far. The Sambre river and canal have been crossed. This was the last line of resistance west of the frontier, which may be soon reached in that region. According to latest information, the Allied advance continues notwithstanding desperate resistance by the enemy.

The second section of the attack is being conducted by Generalis Goret and Liggett, on the Meuse. This is the great strategic offensive which the Germans have always feared, and which they sought to make impossible by storming Verdun in 1916.

The aim of the Franco-American offensive is to pinch out the whole pocket. Allied troops are at Beaumont. That is less than eight miles from La Mouilly station, north-west of Montmedy on the great shuttle railroad running between Thionville, Sedan and Metz. Even better the opening of a fresh attack by the Americans on the east bank of the Meuse may bring them into the Montmedy-Lougyon region. That may mean not only the cutting of the railroad, but making it impossible for the enemy to form upon the Meuse line, because that front could no longer be joined up with that of Thionville.

New York, Nov. 5.—The Associated Press this morning issued the following:

With the German retreat eastward through Lorraine virtually cut off by the American advance on the west side of the Meuse, British, French, Belgian and American troops are striking hard at the enemy's lines in northern France and Belgium. Field Marshal Haig's men launched a terrific attack south of Valenciennes yesterday and have made progress which seems to threaten the German hold on Mons and Maubeuge.

Ghent is now virtually isolated by the French, Belgians and Americans. At last accounts the lines of the Allies were close to the city on the west, north and northeast and it is said that the Allied cavalry has been operating in the outskirts of the city.

General Pershing's men are now within ten miles of Sedan and within easy range of the railroad south of that city. In fact, it is said that the fire of the American guns has cut this great artery of German communications and that it is useless to the enemy or transporting troops or supplies eastward from the Aisne and Oise fronts, where large forces of Germans are still holding their lines against the French.

It appears that the familiar "pin-

VICTORY LOAN TOTAL TO-DAY IS $775,700

Canvassers Had Good Day Yesterday, Raising Over $116,700.

Complete Victory Loan returns for the last week brought the county's total subscriptions up to $659,000. An additional $116,700, collected yesterday, was reported up to noon to-day and gave the workers encouragement and inspiration to create a new record to-day.

The city last week subscribed $342,150; the town of Paris, $58,450; the Township of Brantford, $23,550; Burlington, $19,150; South Dumfries, $21,900; Onondaga, $23,950; Oakland, $700. The Dominion preferred list yielded $166,000. Last year in the five week of the campaign a total of $1,314,700 was raised, but this included $700,000 subscribed by the Canadian Order of Foresters, which was applied here. Excluding this, the figures for this year will be seen to be slightly ahead of last year's.

Yesterday's collections were as follows: Ward 1, $12,350; Ward 2, $4,250; Ward 3, $5,850; Ward 4, $4,950; Ward 5, $7,700; Township of Brantford, $2,000; Onondaga, $2,800; Dominion preferred list, $35,900; bank direct sales, $37,700.

CITIES FIGHT INCREASE IN PHONE RATES

Municipalities Protest to the Railroad Board Against the Proposed Charges HEARING OPENS TODAY

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—The first round in the fight of the Canadian municipalities against the application of the Bell Telephone Company for a general increase in all rates opened shortly before noon to-day before the Board of Railway Commissioners. The hearing to-day was based upon the application of the city of Toronto for an order giving Messrs. Clarkson, Gordon and Dilworth, chartered accountants, access to the books of the company to ascertain whether the requested increase in rates is warranted.

Representatives of the municipalities in conference here this morning, however, decided to shift the ground of attack on the score that the proposed investigation by accountants might prove to be too cumbersome, and suggested instead that the Bell Telephone Company should be requested to furnish the municipalities with the facts upon which they base their application for increased tolls.

Hon. A. T. Atwater, counsel for the municipalities, who opened the argument to-day, said that examination of the company's books might be a long and expensive operation. The municipalities therefore, he decided to make the request that the company should be requested to submit statements in justification of their demand.

L. MacFarlane, counsel for the company, was disposed to favor the suggestion that accountants should inquire into the position of the company and supply the information sought by the municipalities.

Sir Henry Drayton, chairman of the board, threw out the suggestion that if the demand for the audited statements as to increased cost of labor, taxes, cost of material, financing (Continued on Page 2.)

Town of Le Quesnoy Captured By The British FRESH GAINS

French Force Foe To Retire At Many Points

By Courier Leased Wire.
London, Nov. 5.—British troops in their offensive south-east of Valenciennes have captured the fortified town of Le Quesnoy, after having completely surrounded it, Field Marshal Haig announced today. The entire garrison of more than 1,000 men was taken with the citadel.

New Foe Withdrawals

Paris, Nov. 5.—French successes have compelled the Germans to make new withdrawals at several points along the front according to the war office statement today. Between the Oise and the Aisne the French have advanced about one mile on a five-mile front.

The French first army resumed the attack this morning and are making progress.

Between Sissonne and Otheau Porcelain, a front of more than 15 miles, the French have penetrated the Hindenburg line of the Germans. The French are making a great advance east of St. Quentin le Petit to the outskirts of Hirpy.

British Progress.
The text of the statement reads: "The walled town of Le Quesnoy being completely surrounded, fell into our hands yesterday afternoon with the entire garrison of over 1,000 men.

LIKELY TO LIFT BAN THIS WEEK

That the Board of Health's ban on theatres, schools and public meetings is likely to be lifted entirely by the end of the week, at the latest, was the impression gathered by a Courier reporter in a brief interview with Mr. T. J. Minnes, chairman of the board. It was not what Mr. Minnes said, so much as what he did not say, that conveyed the impression.

"There is a lot of guff going round," declared Mr. Minnes when asked concerning rumors to the effect that the board would lift its ban to-night. He pointed out that since the outbreak of the epidemic the city has been full of rumors. He admitted that the board might take action to-night in its own hands, but it was not likely that the regulations would be dropped entirely. Friday night might possibly see the final decision.

Encouraging reports from all sections of the city indicate a steady improvement in the situation and confirm the general confidence that the epidemic is at last on the wane.

DRIVING THE GERMANS BACK.
On the map appearing above, the shaded areas represent the Allied advances during Saturday and Sunday. The railway shown is one of the most important on the western front, and the one that is most menaced by the allied attacks west of the Meuse river.

POLICE STATION WAS NEARLY SCENE OF RIOT

Trouble Threatened Following Arrest of Boy on the Market Square Last Night—Crowd Blocked the Street in Front of Police Station

An inchoate riot which for a time threatened serious consequences, was staged in front of the police station last night by a crowd of over five hundred men and boys, following the arrest of a lad named George Rogers by Constable Wilfred Gillen. The melee started about 5:15, on the market square, where Rogers and a party of companions were watching the Victory Loan motion pictures. The crowd commenced to grow noisy, and Constable Gillen is understood to have admonished them to observe better order. Some one raised a derisive hoot, and the constable accused Rogers.

A few more words followed, after which Rogers took to his heels and ran round the market, being finally overtaken by the constable. The latter, with his prisoner, set off for the police station, and in a twinkling more than half the crowd assembled on the market was at his heels, booing and hissing. They followed close and once pressed so close that the officer wielded his baton with a force that could not have failed to break any skulls which interposed themselves in its path.

When the constable still gripping young Rogers firmly by the arm, turned in at the door of the police station, the hooded mob swelled to a louder chorus than ever before. The crowd surged about the doors of the station, covering the sidewalk and almost blocking the road for the whole length of the block. The majority of the gathering was made up of boys, but there was a goodly sprinkling of older heads, including at the treatment accorded the youthful prisoner.

"Bring him out."
"The police force is rotten."
"Pack on one your own size!"
"We'll get you, Gillen."
These and countless other invectives, were hurled from scores of throats already hoarse from hooting. The Victory Loan float, manned by a party of returned soldiers, at this juncture turned the corner of Dalhousie street, and forced a passage through the crowd. Directly in front of the police station it stopped, and two speakers strove to pacify the angry throng.

"What's the matter?" demanded one.
"The police force," came a shout in reply.
"You can't win the war by doing this," remonstrated the speaker. "You should be out buying Victory Bonds. If you were in Germany or in Austria to-night, you'd be liable to be shot."
"The police are as bad as the Germans," howled some one from the crowd.

The float moved on a few moments later, but the majority of the insurgents crowded the street until Constable Gillen made his escape from the station once more. Returning to his beat at the corner of Colborne and Market, the officer had once more to run the gauntlet of hooting.

FOE MUST SEE HANDWRITING ON THE WALL

Austrian Armistice Forecasts the Ultimate Fate of Germany Also

AMERICAN OPINION

The Terms Set Germany for Armistice Meet With Approval

By Courier Leased Wire.
New York, Nov. 5.—The New York Herald to-day editorially says that the Austrian armistice is the "handwriting on the wall for the German people" and continues: "As Bulgaria, Turkey and Austria-Hungary have, each in turn, begged for a beginning toward peace on the basis of their unconditional surrender, so Germany must accept an armistice. If she is to have one—dictated in every line and every word by her conquerors.

"Signs are not wanting that the Kaiser and other devotees of Kaiserism are still hoping to squirm themselves into peace negotiations. The Kaiser is out in solemn approval of a revamped constitution, which is a combination of arant aban and not very clever camouflage. Ostensibly he surrenders his 'divine right' but he immediately steps to the front of the stage in the role he himself has described as hereditary president. He is fooling nobody outside of Germany unless it be of some persons who want to be fooled."

Case Dismissed.
After being haled out over night, Rogers appeared in court this morning to answer a charge of disorderly conduct. He was allowed to go on applying to Constable Gillen.

During the evidence it transpired that the constable had once ordered the boys to be quiet, and had turned to go away, whereupon someone hooted him. He accused Rogers, but the latter produced several witnesses who swore that he (Rogers) had not done the shouting. Constable Gillen charged that one of the witnesses was among the crowd who followed him to the station, hurling abuse at him.

Chief Stemin stated that he wished the best possible understanding to exist between the police force and the boys of the city. It was desired to allow all possible latitude during present conditions, but he declared that the consequences of the disturbance last night might have been much more serious than the original (Continued on Page 4.)

ALL SET FOR CELEBRATION

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Victory Loan Publicity Committee, held last evening at Campaign headquarters, final plans were discussed for the Victory Loan and victory celebration to be held to-morrow night. Elaborate preparations are being made for the parade, which precedes the big meeting in the Armories. Three bands are expected to march, the Veterans will parade, especially decorated automobiles with characters representing the eight Allied countries will be in line, while callioophanes and many other features will form a part of a most interesting program. The co-operation of the Mayor and Council has been of much assistance to the Campaign Committee, and through their kindness fireworks will be provided for the parade. The fire brigade will take part, Chief Lewis and Chief Stemin will lend their assistance. The ladies of the patriotic societies have been instructed this with startling and momentary significance of warning.

Monster Rally For Victory Loan and Victory Tomorrow Night

The Times says: "The iron ring has once again closed about Germany. She starts along against an increasing host of foes; there is no help for her from any quarter and the territory and transportation service of countries which were lately fighting by her side are open to the use of the Allies for attacking her upon fronts hitherto secure. She must surrender and soon. The terms imposed upon Austria enable her to judge the severity of those she must accept for herself."

The Sun says: "The end is in full sight now, and continues."

"The one great principle, which Great Britain, France, Italy, the United States and all democratic nations interested in safeguarding their future and the future peace of the world must keep in mind when victory has been completely achieved is the preservation of enemy lands, if for no other reason than for the sake of the preservation of our own orderly democracies against world Bolshevism, against the red curse of disintegration, anarchy and chaos for which mob passions are always preparing the field when strong governments cease. The experience of Russia has already illustrated this with startling and momentary significance of warning."

NORFOLK NEWS

SIMCOE TO APPOINT PERMANENT AUDITOR

Board of Health Recommends Scavenger System to Town Council

INSPECT ALL HOMES

Simcoe, Nov. 5.—From Our Own Correspondent.—At a meeting of the Municipal Council held last night a by-law introduced by Reeve Carter and providing for a permanent auditor as cited in Sec. 240 of the Municipal Act, was passed. The appointment will possibly be made tonight at an adjourned meeting. There was a considerable docket and an adjournment was made before the slate was cleared.

The Long Vexed Question.
His Worship informed council that the Board of Health had by resolution recommended the establishment of a scavenger system. He informed council that a formidable by-law had been prepared some years ago and was still available, but that it would require hours to consider it. The matter was removed to the foot of the list.

Alderman Crabb speaking for himself and for others of the relief brigade that has been battling the "flu" said that Simcoe's greatest trouble was not poverty but filth. "It should not obtain," he continued, "a report may be brought before council later but it is well that we think about it. Systematic church effort to educate along lines of cleanliness and the appointment of a competent visiting nurse with authority to enforce some show of cleanliness is required." The general impression the remarks left was that a visitation by the fire brigade with a few handles under high pressure might serve as a first persuader and make a start. A soap and water agitation has been in the air for a fortnight. Incompetent buying of food, and lack of domestic cleanliness is said to be too prevalent in many quarters. There must surely be some report coming.

The Hospital.
Chairman Crabb followed with a verbal report on the hospital service. Five patients now under care; hopes for the recovery of all of them; total received, 53; discharged, 41; died, 7. From the financial aspect everything progresses splendidly, splendid donations of chickens, eggs and broths for the patients and friends for the nurses have been given liberally from citizens of town and country. Though only town patients were as a rule received, a few suburban sufferers had been taken in. Against this liberal donations in cash and kind, from outside were balanced, and Miss Knowles of Delhi and Miss Marslan of Lynedoch were mentioned as volunteer workers on the staff of attendants.

A splendid donation of four bags of apples from Colborne citizen had been distributed among many families about town and were much appreciated. He hoped that the hospital could be closed in a few days.

The expenses incident upon the care of members of the Medal family and the three funerals would not be a burden upon the town, provision having been made for this. Mrs. Medal had made her will at the hospital and the family had means.

Patients Appreciated Care.
With a single exception all the patients were grateful for the services rendered. One man left vowing that he would take legal action at once because he was refused beef steak and onions, especially the onions. It was a very encouraging report.

A Permanent Hospital.
Alderman Crabb voiced the opinion of an ever increasing and more concerned number of citizens when he concluded his report with a hope that the permanent hospital problem would be worked out in the near future, as it would be the same life-saving and economical method of caring for the ordinary sick, as the emergency has been for the 'flu patients.

Industrial Committee on Garden Plots.
Chairman Calder gave his final report on the Council's war garden effort. The committee had received a grant of $50. They had drawn on this to the extent of only $22.50. A rental of $1.50 each had been charged for the lots. The crop was in general good. On a plot 60 x 150 feet one man got 60 bushels of potatoes and three bushels of beans.

Must Hide Their Time.
The barbers' petition for exemption from early closing was placed on the shelf. The tobacco side line is in the way. Besides the barbers signed the by-law, and once tampered with Council might be called upon to put through an amending by-law at every meeting. These cost time and money.

Reeve Carter thought that very probably early in the new year a general move for a 6 or 7 o'clock closing would come from the merchants. The hour 6 to 7 was of little avail for business. There was considerable opposition to the suggestion of shutting the stores to the ten-hour worker by a 6 o'clock enforced closing. The topic was passed with little debate.

The Holden Damage Case.
Reeve Carter reported on the matter of Mr. James Holden's claim for damages through freshets. He thought that if Mr. Holden had any claim it was through the fact that the sidewalk had been raised. His committee had asked Mr. Holden to set matters to right and Council would deal fairly with him. Nothing definite was arranged.

Council will resume sitting at 8 o'clock this evening.

Victory Loan Force Drumming Ahead.

The thirty-one good men and true who are travelling the side lines of the county, walking encyclopedias of the country's finance, are still receiving encouragement and were last night ahead of last year's total at the close of the corresponding day. There was reported yesterday $89,750. This brings the total up to $430,250 from $21 investors. Many want to invest in the postoffice savings bank at 4 per cent. A Victory Bond at 5 1/2 with the end of war in sight begins to look like a much more inviting investment than it would have a few months ago; and then there is the absolute necessity of the money to keep the wheels of prosperity spinning. Britain will need credit to buy even wool to feed the looms that are soon to replace the shell mills and give us a supply of clothing, and to buy the cotton to continue the manufacture of light fabric.

Boost the Loan up. It will help the present marketing of produce and will press down the price of clothing.

Her Life for Her Friends.
Miss Janet Reid, teacher in S. S. No. 15 North Walsingham, died of pneumonia following influenza. Miss Reid dismissed school just before the teachers' convention was held to nurse her father and mother, who were then ill, and was one of those referred to in our notice of the convention as absent through illness. When the school was closed by the Board of Health Miss Reid responded to the S.O.S. call and did much good work in the neighborhood before being herself stricken.

Miss Reid was in her 23rd year, and the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Reid, a well known North Walsingham farmer, who moved recently from his home on the 10th to the Robert Pick farm on the 14th, east of Glen Meyer.

An excellent teacher with a heart of sympathy and a soul for service is lost to Norfolk, and her worth was being recognized by an unusually large salary. Inspector Cook regrets the loss to his profession, while the parent and school community are bowed in grief.

They were "sick"—and she visited them.
The same chances which the late Miss Reid took have been taken by many Simcoe ladies who have taxed their powers of physical endurance to the limit in and out of the hospital caring for the sick. In some cases those who were worn by vigils in their own homes have later fallen to the disease. Up to the present not one of all those who have gone cut on S.O.S. work has been called away.

The Children Query.
This is a time for rejoicing. Children whose fathers have been years overseas are on the streets asking adults about the war and wondering if "daddy" will really get home soon. Surely this is good reason to believe that the same will soon be up and that married men will be the first to be relieved from further duties and returned to their families.

Stop It.
The Police Committee at the request of Council will instruct the police to enforce the by-law prohibiting spitting on the sidewalks, and crates over windows are considered part of the sidewalk.

AUSTRIA IN DANGER
By Courier Leased Wire.

Amsterdam, Monday, Nov. 5.—The state council at Vienna has issued an appeal to the German people of Austria, it is declared the country is in danger, and the army breaking up in disorder. The appeal exhorts the soldiers voluntarily to join the German-Austrian army corps.

ELECTION IN BRITAIN
By Courier Leased Wire.

London, Nov. 5.—(Canadian Press Dispatch from Reuters Limited.)—General election will take place in Great Britain on December 7, it is expected. Information was given out at a meeting of whips to settle plans for the campaign.

ing and general overhead expenses this might be sufficient. Later on he suggested that in addition to the foregoing the company should supply a statement of its revenues account for the past year or two, coupled with an estimate of what its profits would be during the next year if the increases were granted and what they would be if there were no increase in tolls.

There was some discussion as to the ability of the company to furnish statements applicable to the various municipalities.

City Solicitor Fairly of Toronto asserted that details should be given relative to the cost of operation and the revenue earned in that city.

Mr. MacFarlane argued that this would be quite impossible. The application, he said, was for a general increase in all telephone rates and it would not be fair to expect the company to submit figures other than those showing to the general increase in cost of operation.

Justice directly bearing on conditions in that city as distinguished from other municipalities.

The chief commissioner suggested that Messrs. Clarkson, Gordon and Dillworth of Toronto, be appointed by the municipalities to examine the books of the Bell Telephone Company. Mr. Atwater said that without making the slightest reflection on this company, he would like to suggest that Messrs. Price, Waterhouse and Company of Montreal, be appointed.

Sir Henry Drayton then said that he would have an order issued instructing the company to produce necessary papers and statements and appointing auditors to examine the books of the company. This work could be done, he said by the two firms suggested, who could work in conjunction.

Mr. MacFarlane asked that the examination of the company's books be limited to a period not exceeding ten days, but the chief commissioner made no ruling on this point.

Sir Henry Drayton, chief commissioner, in giving judgment, granted both applications proffered by the municipalities. He stated that he would have an order issued without delay, instructing the Bell Telephone Company to furnish the municipalities with facts and statistics upon which they base their claim for increased tolls and appointing auditors who will be authorized to examine the books of the company. It is probable that this work will be done by Clarkson, Gordon and Dillworth of Toronto, and Price, Waterhouse and Company of Montreal.

What is the True Meaning of THE VICTORY LOAN?

We are within sight of Victory, and now, less than ever, can we afford to rest in a false atmosphere of security.

Now is the moment for a grand rally, an irresistible push forward with men and money.

The men are there—and always fresh ones go. They must continually be fed, clothed, and supplied with ammunition. The work of supporting them, the EASY PART, is ours. Shall any one of us fail them at this end?

NO, A HUNDRED TIMES, NO!

And what are we asked to do? What is it that Canada asks of us?

Simply to LEND to our own country, more money, that the great fight may be finished for us, and that the sacrifices made for us in four years of war shall not be in vain. No thinking man or woman who realizes this can fail to respond to the limit of his or her ability.

And Canada makes it very easy for us to do this through

Brian Apologizes and They Spend a Happy Evening.

CHAPTER LXVI. "I telephoned you, but you weren't at home," Brian said, smiling faintly. "I felt depressed, not a bit like working, so called you up to ask you to go to the matinee or somewhere. When I found you out, I started to go alone. Then I met Mollie, so took her."

Ruth listened to her husband's elaborate explanation in silence. She couldn't help feeling glad that he had called her up, that he had thought of her, yet she felt terribly embarrassed to have him feel it necessary to explain what he did before Mrs. Roberts. What would she tell her husband? Would she think Brian did not care for her, that he was in love with Mollie, or what would they think?

Never had Ruth been so glad to get home. "Now say what you have to say, and have it over!" Brian said when they were alone. "If you would stay at home where you belong, instead of gabbling about, working so that you can do things I can't afford to let you do, we would have been together instead of you and Mrs. Roberts going by yourselves."

"It seems you can always afford to take Mollie King," Ruth was goaded into the reply. "But that isn't the point, Brian. I was not objecting to the money, but don't you think it looks strange to our friends for you to spend so much time with her?" She tried to speak calmly.

"It's no one's business." "You're well if you are going to take that attitude there is no more to be said. I am sorry I was not at home when you called me up. I thought of calling you, in fact we spoke of calling both you and Mr. Roberts, but Clara said he hated to lose a half day for pleasure. So as long as she didn't phone him, I thought I'd better not either. But I am very sorry now that I didn't call you."

Brian made no reply, and their dinner was eaten almost in silence. Afterward he put on his hat, saying he would be back shortly. "Don't sit up for me. I may play cards, while with some friends," he said, standing in the open door.

Ruth looked blankly at the closed door. Her first impulse was to run after him. He never had a deliberately left her sitting home alone before. "Oh, dear! how she wished she had kept the fact that her salary had again been raised from him. She had been so impossible ever since. "Never mind, honey, you of mammy is wif yo."

Throwing her arms around Rachel's neck, Ruth, for the first time since she had been married, gave way to the discouragement she felt. She sobbed unrestrainedly for an hour, the old nurse crooning over her. Finally she dried her eyes, and sent Rachel to bed. She sat by the window until after midnight, when she too undressed and crept into bed.

She wondered who these friends Brian had spoken of so casually could be, and why he had never mentioned them before. Perhaps he was with that Mr. Clark, of whom he had borrowed money. Once she thought, "I wonder if he is with that Mollie King?" but dismissed the idea as unreasonable. He wouldn't leave her alone to spend the evening with Mollie, even if he had taken her to the matinee. He had only done that out of pique because she wasn't at home when he called. Of course he had taken Mollie out when she was away, but that was so different. To do it when she was at home, anxious and willing to be with him, either at home or wherever he cared to go, would be too much like intentional neglect.

Finally she fell asleep, only to be awakened when Brian stumbled over a chair in the darkness. "Do switch on the light, dear, you'll hurt yourself," she said, sitting up in bed, rubbing her eyes. "What time is it?" as he followed her advice.

"About two, I guess." "Did you have a good time?" "Yes—pretty fair." Brian did not volunteer any information as to where he had been or who with. Ruth longed to ask, but restrained her curiosity. Brian had not been made to feel that she didn't trust him.

In this Ruth was wise. His was a nature that could brook no restraint. He had shown this in many ways. So she, realizing it, had tried to keep herself from saying or doing anything that looked like espionage. Yet she dreadfully wanted to know where he had been.

The next morning, at breakfast, rather as they finished and Brian was about to leave, he said shamefacedly: "I was rotten to ask Mollie to go to the matinee when you were in town. But I was sore when I met her."

That was all. "But all day Ruth was happy because of the half-hearted apology. She knew he meant what he had said, and more. That it was his way of saying he was sorry. That night they spent the happiest evening they had had since Ruth told him she had been given more money because of her good work. And as she had so many times before, she said to herself: "Only we could be like this all the time, how happy I should be!" (To be continued to-morrow.)

VIENNA WILD WITH JOY WHEN ARMISTICE DECLARED

Geneva, Nov. 4.—Vienna was delirious with joy when it was learned that an armistice had been declared. The streets were soon crowded with men and women and children, crying and embracing each other.

The general opinion is that food will follow peace. The report that Emperor Charles has abdicated roused little interest. The Austrian press is attempting to claim the population, emphasizing the fact that the armistice terms are of a most severe nature and involve great sacrifices to the Empire and the people.

ITALIANS TAKE 300,000 CAPTIVES

5,000 Guns Also Captured—Austrian Army Destroyed Before Armistice

Rome, Nov. 4.—Three hundred thousand Austrian soldiers and not less than 5,000 guns had been captured by the victorious Italian armies before the armistice went into effect at 3 o'clock this afternoon, it is officially announced. This included all captures since the offensive began on October 24.

The soldiers of the once powerful Austrian army submitted to the Italian occupation of Trieste without a fight. Since the offensive started 63 Austro-Hungarian divisions were put out of combat by 54 Italian divisions, three British and two French divisions, with Czechoslovak units and American regiments.

"The war against Austria-Hungary which was conducted under the high command of his Majesty the King of Italy with an army inferior in numbers and still inferior in arms since May 24, 1918, has come to an end," said the communique. "With unshakable faith and indomitable valor, the Italian army waged a continuous and hard war for a period of 41 months and won the stupendous battle begun October 24 and in which were engaged in their entirety all the resources of the enemy."

"So far the enemy has left in our hands 300,000 prisoners and not less than 5,000 guns. The soldiers of what used to be one of the most powerful armies in the world are now fleeing in disorder and without hope from the valleys which they had invaded with triumphant confidence. On October 31, after having overcome on strongly fortified positions the resistance of powerful enemy rear-guards, our troops consisting of 52 Italian divisions, three British and two French divisions, with Czechoslovak units and an American regiment, put out of combat 63 Austro-Hungarian divisions."

The rapid and most daring advance of the 24th army corps to the city of Trento, precluding the retreat of the defeated enemy troops, pressed from the west by the 7th army corps and from the east by the 1st, 6th and 4th army corps, determined yesterday the complete crumbling of the Austrian front.

From the River Brenta to the sea, the irresistible impetus of the 12th, 10th and 8th army corps pressed inexorably the enemy, retreating across the plains. The bridge of Aosta is advancing rapidly at the head of his invincible 3rd army, anxious to return to the old positions which he had once heroically conquered.

The Austro-Hungarian army is destroyed. It had suffered heavy losses during the first days of the offensive and in the pursuit it lost an enormous quantity of material and artillery.

The landing at Trieste. The Italian troops who occupied Trieste were taken there on transports escorted by destroyers and gunboats according to the Italian National. The Italian flag was hoisted on the tower of the cathedral of San Giusto and on public buildings. Private dwellings also were decorated with the Italian colors. The population acclaimed the Italian Despatcher enthusiastically.

The warships entered the harbor the Tibuna says, with their yards lined with flags. A naval landing party was first ordered to be followed by three battalions of Bersaglieri.

More than 20,000 prisoners and several hundred guns were taken by the 48th British Division, operating on the Anzico plateau towards the Trentino, it is announced in an official statement.

Bombing is resumed to-night on all the hills throughout Italy. Churches, hotels are riddled and guns are being fired.

By a strange coincidence, the Italians entered Trieste on the feast day of San Juste, the patron saint of the redeemed city which all the population, including the Jews, used to celebrate under Austrian rule as a patriotic demonstration of their Italian nationality. The occupation of Trieste by allied naval contingents was in response to an invitation from the Committee on Public Welfare, which was sent from Trieste to Venice by torpedo boat, according to Vienna telegrams received here. A difficult situation has arisen in the town because of the Austro-Hungarian streaming back from the front. The governor, the chief of police and other Austrian authorities left on Thursday after the Public Welfare Committee, consisting of representatives of the Italian Sloven parties had assumed the administration of the city, a Vienna despatch states.

Congratulated by Wilson. Washington, Nov. 4.—President Wilson to-day sent the following message by cable to the King of Italy: "May I not say how deeply and sincerely the people of the United States rejoice that the soil of Italy is delivered from her enemies. In their name I send you Majesty and the great Italian people the most enthusiastic congratulations."

THE SITUATION
 The Allies have jointly forwarded terms of an armistice to Germany. The proposals have not yet been made public, but it may be safely assumed that they are as drastic as those forced down the throats of Turkey and Austria, with indemnity and other clauses in addition. Their acceptance, or otherwise, will largely depend upon the temper of the people. That the war lords are still fully prepared to continue the bloodshed, is quite evident. The Berlin papers publish a message from Field Marshal von Hindenburg, in which he says, "Our honor, freedom and future are now at stake. We are invulnerable if united." Then he adds that if the German army is strongly supported, the Fatherland will still be able to "Brave all onslaught." Another despatch states that symptoms of unrest are still few in Germany, that the Kaiser shows no inclination to abdicate and that the crown prince is against renunciation. In these things, it is asserted, they are heartily backed by the army officers, a very natural thing in view of the fact that they and their military dominance are also involved in the fate of their royal masters. If, despite the defection of Bulgaria, Turkey and Austro-Hungary, they can still carry the decision to "fight on," then there would without much question be many more months of struggle. In this regard it should be remembered that even little Belgium was never entirely occupied, and that any struggle on German soil, if invasion should be resisted at the last possible moment, would be a very bitter affair indeed. However, it may well be that the populace and the monarch and industrial interests of the Fatherland thoroughly weary, and realizing the inevitable outcome, will refuse to be exploited any longer on behalf of vain hopes and ambitions which have now been not only shattered but thoroughly pulverized.
 Meanwhile, Foch is not abating his sledge hammer blows on the western front one iota. Yesterday, British and French troops launched a big attack between the Oise canal and Valenciennes. Many strong positions were taken, together with over fourteen thousand prisoners and 250 guns.
 In the Meuse area, American troops are meeting with exceptionally severe resistance, but are making some progress.

THE DEVILISH HUN.
 A Toronto officer writes a most vivid description to his daughter with regard to the fiendish destruction and desolation wrought in France by the Hun. Telling of his visit to ruined Cambrai, he says:
 "The contents of the houses were badly broken and destroyed by the Huns. Looting was general. Furniture broken, clothes torn, ornaments smashed, feather pillows dumped out on the floor, mirrors cracked, pictures punctured, and so on. No language of mine can possibly convey to you the terrible havoc that has been wrought by the enemy. If you could see it you would know that even a town which we tried to spare is so badly broken and smashed that the people will always remember that 'war is hell.'
 In the case of a small village the absolute destruction of it does not seem so bad. But to see a city like London, Ont., or Guelph or Brantford torn to pieces with shot and shell, then looted and burned, is heartrending. No wonder the French are bitter, and refuse to discuss peace."
 On Tuesday I drove from here, or near here, to Arras and back. There is not a habitable house in any village in this stretch of country, 25 miles in width and 150 miles long. Can your mind grasp that?
 In one village where no wall six feet high is standing and where the sites of many of the houses is obscured by trenches and general debris, where all the lanes have vanished and the gardens disappeared, a Canadian traffic officer put up the sign: "This was Reincourt."
 Every building in the place will have to be rebuilt from the ground up and every lot resurveyed. I have seen a hundred villages, formerly containing 500 to 1,500 people which are almost as bad. I should say that the portion of France destroyed in this way would quite equal all that southern portion of Ontario from Windsor to Montreal, and from Lake Ontario to Collingwood. That was destroyed, every city, every town, every village, every farmhouse, and every barn, it wouldn't excel the destruction which has been done to this portion of France. Can you grasp what that means?
 Every bed, carpet, curtains, pianos, sewing machines, stoves or linen, pictures, mementos of all kinds—all gone—either burned or chopped up or shipped to Germany. The total value of the destroyed furniture and clothing must be hunreds of millions of dollars—to say nothing of the buildings.

 And we have another 25 miles to go in France—and almost as many villages and towns to be looted, before French soil is free. The whole affair is appalling. It staggers my imagination even after all I have seen."
 This is the kind of thing to which the brave French people have been subjected and which should serve to nerve Canadians to renewed efforts on behalf of doing their share amid peaceful and prosperous surroundings by subscribing to the Victory Bonds.

THE CHANCE OF A LIFE TIME
 Government bonds paying 5 1/2 per cent. with all of the country back of them as a guarantee, is an offer which is not likely to be again duplicated during the life time of any one of us.
 Think of it. Think of the personal and assured benefit to be thus secured, and on top of that the direct help in keeping the wheels of Canadian prosperity moving and in promoting the final triumph over the unspeakable Hun.
 Hereabouts some people seem to have got it into their heads that with victory apparently within close distance, the need for the loan is not so urgent. There was never upon any subject a more mistaken idea. If the war should end within a few days that incident would not lessen for one instant the absolute need for the money now asked. In reality such a prospect should not lessen eagerness to buy but intensify it, for, as before related, another such gift-edged opportunity for investment is not likely to again occur.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.
 If there was anything left out in the demands upon Turkey and Austria-Hungary it hadn't been noticed up to the time of going to press.
 "Meinself and Gott" must be realizing these days the name of his true partner.
 In the election contest which closes to-day in the States there have been some plain truths spoken with regard to the fact that under its present form of Government the United States is not nearly so much of a Republic as either Great Britain or Canada. As a matter of fact, the President is a veritable autocrat and not even his ministers—secretaries of state—are responsible to the people for not one of them occupies a seat in either house.
 Those who fall to obtain Victory Bonds while the opportunity offers will in the not distant future bitterly regret their shortsightedness.
 A few short months ago three Emperors had a great deal to say with regard to the world's affairs. Now one has been assassinated, another to all intents deposed, and the third is hovering on the brink of an abyssal oblivion as far as autocracy is concerned.
 The Russian Bolsheviks are now talking of a campaign to spread their propaganda in the United States and Canada. They actually seem to imagine that the people of the two countries named would welcome a reign of murder, rapine and terrorism such as now exists in the realms of the late Czar.

Notice to Soldiers on Harvest Leave
 Attention is directed to a recent announcement published in the Press by the Military Service Branch, Department of Justice, regarding extensions to be granted to men EXEMPTED AS FARMERS.
 It is pointed out that this DOES NOT IN ANY WAY AFFECT MEN WHO HAVE BEEN ORDERED BY THE REGISTRAR TO REPORT TO Depot Battalions and who have thereafter received leave of absence from the Military Authorities.
 Once a man has been ordered to report for duty by the Registrar, he leaves the jurisdiction of the Registrar and comes under that of the Department of Militia and Defence, and is to be considered a soldier. This applies to men of the 20 to 22 Class who have been ordered to report by the Registrar in virtue of the cancellation of exemptions by Order-in-Council of the 20th April last, as well as to those ordered to report in the usual way on refusal of claim for exemption, or on expiration of exemption granted.
 All men, accordingly, who have been ordered to report, and are therefore SOLDIERS, and who have subsequently been granted harvest leave by the military authorities, MUST, NOTWITHSTANDING THE NOTICE ABOVE REFERRED TO, REPORT ON THE EXPIRATION OF THAT LEAVE, unless they are notified to the contrary by their Commanding Officers or by general notice published by the Department of Militia and Defence.

Your Problems Solved??

 Dr. Linscott in this column will help you solve your heart problems, religious, marital, social, financial and every other. Write to him care that perplexes you. THE MARRIAGE PARTNERSHIP
 "Bachelor" wants to know "whether it is a married man's duty to equally divide all financial profits with his wife?" The married relationship is a partnership, what ever may be the legal status of the property of husband and wife, morally, what one owns is also the property of the other. In every real marriage the two become one; the interests of one are the interests of both. When the husband makes profit the wife also makes it; it is his; it is hers. They belong to each other, body, soul and earthly possessions. This, in fact, is practically the marriage covenant. Marital love fused in the wonderful love of God needs no rule or law to govern property while the parties are living, and it is the duty of both husband and wife to arrange by will, or otherwise, for the proper disposal of their property after death.
BUSINESS SUCCESS—I am asked by Mr. M. to state the main thing in advertising. Perseverance I think is the main thing. To hold on and out to the end is the chief matter. If the race could be won with a spirit the majority would wear the blue ribbon, but they are short-winded and pull up after the first gallop. They begin with flying and end in crawling backwards. Those who bear the cross of patient persistence in advertising will surely wear the crown of business success. You must put your conscience, your mind and soul into your business announcements made in The Courier, and you must keep on doing it.

HAPPY LIVING.—"A Bachelor Woman" sends me the problem "How may I always be happy?" By trying to make others happy. If you seek happiness direct you will never find it. If you want the peace of mind which is always abiding you can have it only as long as you are anxious to help others. What is called in these modern days "social service" is the best way to attain to a life of blessedness. This means that you will frequently have to deny yourself; you will often have to disregard the craving of your own nature in leading this life of self-denial.
REMOCING IN ITALY.
 By Courier Leased Wire.
 Rome, Sunday, Nov. 3.—Bon fires are burning to-night on all the hills throughout Italy, spreading far and wide the news of the occupation of Trieste. Church bells are ringing and guns are being fired. All the windows in Rome were illuminated to-night regardless of the police orders, concerning restricted lighting. The crowds in the streets cheerily bought newspapers fresh from the presses.
 By a strange coincidence the Italian entered Trieste on Feast Day of St. John, the patron saint of the renowned city, which all the population, including the Jews, used to celebrate under Austrian rule as a patriotic demonstration of their Italian nationality.

 incident. For a time a serious riot appeared imminent.
 Magistrate Livingston believed that the boys had merely lost their heads and carried their fooling too far. He did not believe that any of them were hoodlums, but pointed out the necessity of respecting an officer in the discharge of his duties.
 "It is too common a tendency to 'get after a policeman,'" he observed. He suggested that Rogers apologize to Constable Gilben, which the lad did, declaring that he had had no intention of making fun of the officer.
 "You go straight in future, and I'll use you straight," replied the constable, expressing himself as satisfied. "I wasn't on the market to be made fun of," he added.
 The case was then dismissed.

 The speakers, Hon. T. W. McGarry, Provincial Secretary, and Mr. Hugh McF. Howie, of Buffalo, will take part in the parade, which will leave the Grand Trunk station immediately on the arrival of the 7:32 p.m. train from Toronto. The bands and other features will join from intersecting streets, the whole marching down Market to Dalhousie, Dalhousie to George, George to Colborne, and Colborne to the Armouries.
 Arrangements are being made to have the bands cause playing at the corner of Brant avenue and Colborne streets, so that no noise may reach the Emergency Hospital. The rockets, star shells and Roman candles will be set off on the Market Square preceding the parade. It was decided to invite automobile owners to decorate their automobiles and take part in the parade and only cars so decorated will be allowed to take part. Special money prizes are offered for the three best decorated autos, the judges being Col. H. Cookshuff, Col. Cutcliffe and Chief Slemis.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA
 By Courier Leased Wire.
 London, Nov. 5.—Rapid progress has been made by British divisions east of LeQueanoy, where an advance of between three and four miles has been scored. The villages of Jolmetz, Lerondquesne, Frasnoy and Le Petit Marais have been captured. Further ground has been gained in the Morinal Forest. The village of Etih, five miles southeast of Valenciennes, has been taken.

SHORT SHRIFT FOR ANONYMOUS LETTER

Mayor MacBride Speaks Plainly Concerning an Unsigned Letter

Anonymous letters get short shrift at the City Hall these days. Mayor MacBride received one this morning, with a request that it be read at the next council meeting. It went on to express appreciation of the Mayor's efforts to re-organize the Engineer's Department, and took a few general slams at the aldermen and officials who have failed to support a "re-organization." "It is all right for citizens to complain, but complaining around the streets will not get any results," said Mayor MacBride in this connection. "The council chamber is open to the public and any citizen will get a courteous hearing, so long as they obey the rules of debate. There is a lot of discussion around the city in regard to last year's floods. Goodness knows they were bad enough, and I intend to insist that a duly qualified engineer be placed in charge of our sewers, in order that something may be done to prevent a recurrence in future years. I recommended this in May last and have stood out for it a dozen times since. If those who suffered from floods want to get action let them come up to the council chamber on Monday night next. I'll see that they get a fair hearing, and perhaps we can now get some definite action."

"Will you read that letter?" His Worship was asked. "No sir, I will not read any letter that is not properly signed. I may lose patience at times and speak too harshly, but you will never find me sponsoring a letter that has a fictitious name to it." "These people who were flooded out have a real grievance, as to whether the city is liable or not there is a difference of opinion, but in any event we should certainly get busy and do our best to prevent it occurring again."

"Tell them to come up. Citizens should take a closer interest in their city's affairs. Then they would know the real facts, and would not be so easily led by the 'rumor monger' and 'political heeler,'" concluded the Mayor.

SITUATION

By Courier Leased Wire.
Paris, Nov. 5.—The official statement reads:

"The repeated success of the French troops has compelled the enemy to carry out new withdrawals at several points along the front. Pursuing without respite the rear-guards left behind to protect the retreat of the enemy and to delay our advance, the French troops, with unflinching ardor, maintain close contact. "In the region northeast of Guise the French have captured Bergues-sur-Samvre, where 200 civilians were liberated. On the whole front of the first army the French resumed the attack this morning and are advancing. Between the Peron and Serre Rivers, the French have taken Bois les Bergues, in the region north of Sissonne the French have reached a line passing through the sugar refinery of Froimont, west of Autremencourt, Culieux, Gondelancourt and Macheourt. Our advance open to the public and any citizen will get a courteous hearing, so long as they obey the rules of debate. There is a lot of discussion around the city in regard to last year's floods. Goodness knows they were bad enough, and I intend to insist that a duly qualified engineer be placed in charge of our sewers, in order that something may be done to prevent a recurrence in future years. SEPARATE BAVARIAN PEACE? By Courier Leased Wire.
London, Nov. 5.—Dispatches from The Hague say the German press has published a leaflet distributed throughout Bavaria, advocating that she make a separate peace offer. The leaflet says that Bavaria, perhaps together with the South German states almost ten years ago, will send the Emperor a separate peace offer. In short, if the present royal Bavarian government decline to do so, the leaflet adds, its retention in office is impossible and a new people's government would be necessary as it would be unpardonable to have Bavaria devastated and its women and children dishonored by an invasion. The leaflet says: "This represents a very widely spread feeling in Bavaria, where alarm over the back door being forced to Germany is very great."

HOCKEY SITUATION UNCHANGED

By Courier Leased Wire.
Ottawa, Nov. 5.—As far as we could be learned in the capital last night and to-day there was no great change in the pro hockey situation. Everything seems to be in abeyance, pending the annual meeting of the National Hockey League, which takes place at Montreal the latter part of this week. Not until then will the fog lift, but it is certain that the week-end gathering will witness a general showdown, and the placing of the league's operations for the coming season on a solid basis. E. P. Dey and other officers of the Ottawa club returned yesterday to divulge any of the developments if there were any. President Bate maintained a discreet silence and the players said they had not been approached in any way.

ARREST BROTHERS FOR TORONTO THEFT

Jack and Walter Lett Held For Robbery of the Express Train

By Courier Leased Wire.
Toronto, Nov. 5.—Dressed in the uniform of a Canadian infantry captain, Jack Lett was taken into custody at 7.30 this morning by Superintendent Campbell of the Thiel Detective Service, Provincial Inspector Miller and Detectives Mitchell, McConnell and Nichols, and charged with holding up the express messengers on the Buffalo express on October 23rd last.

As a result of this daring crime, it is stated that Lett got away with $20,000. His brother, Walter, the owner of the military uniform, was arrested by the same officers at three o'clock this morning at the same hotel in Toronto, charged with being an accessory with his brother. With these two men in custody, the police claim to have recovered about $4,000 more of the stolen money and of this sum $100 was found over the boiler in a west end Methodist church.

The police say that Walter Lett has been in Toronto since the day of the robbery, but that his brother, Jack, only returned to the city last night.

The Letts came originally from Barrie and Walter had been conducting a small farm at Jordan, near St. Catharines. The police say that when Jack was placed under arrest he had a loaded revolver in his pocket but he offered no resistance to the officers.

Nine thousand dollars is still to be recovered.

Both men are slightly over six feet in height and are of fine appearance. Jack Lett is 32 years of age and his brother 30.

The police are optimistic regarding the chance of recovering the balance of the money stolen.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman half the time, feeling nervous, dependent, worried, some days headache, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of being carried out, half-sick, anemic-looking souls with pasty, muddied complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments, and forms promaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bathing. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but it is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.

To Subscribers in Arrears

Paper Controller Orders Cutting Off of Unpaid Subscriptions!

Mr. R. A. Pringle, K. C., the Paper Controller of Canada, has issued an order, effective January 1, 1919, which says: "Discontinue sending paper within three months after date of expiration of subscription, unless the subscription is renewed and paid for."

There are many other restrictions imposed, but this one is the most important. Therefore, between now and the end of the year The Courier's subscription list must be overhauled and put on a paid-in-advance basis, in order to comply with a governmental order.

Accounts have already been sent out to those in arrears, but subscribers do not need to wait for a "gun" to spur them to action. The date on the label affixed to the paper sent to mail subscribers tells the story. City subscribers can learn how their subscription stands by referring to their last receipt.

The reason for this regulation of the Paper Controller is that it is the practice of some publishers to send their newspapers until ordered stopped, and this practice frequently means a failure to collect anything for subscriptions in arrears, in which case there is a virtual waste of paper. It is to prevent paper waste that the new regulation has been decided on.

The manufacture of paper consumes labor, wood, coal, chemicals and transportation facilities, and every ton of paper saved means just so much labor, raw materials, chemicals, fuel and transportation available for urgent war needs. For these reasons the Government insists that paper shall be saved, and proposes that only those who pay for their publications shall receive them.

Under these regulations The Courier will have no choice in the matter of dealing with subscriptions in arrears for over three months.

Send in your subscription at once. Do not delay, the collectors call regularly on city subscribers. Keep your account up-to-date.

Congressional And Local Elections In U. S. To-day

Millions of Americans Are Casting Votes to Decide the Control of Congress —Both Sides Confident of Success

Washington, Nov. 5.—Millions of Americans to-day are casting their ballots in elections which will decide whether the Democratic party is to retain control of Congress; in many states they are electing governors, and in practically all states are electing local officers.

To-day's election, the first since the United States went into the war, comes at a climax of a campaign which has been attended by many unusual elements.

The allied successes in France, the German peace offensive, the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign and the influenza epidemic all have divided the attention of the public at the same time.

Leaders of Democrats and Republicans—have declared they are confident of success in to-day's battle of ballots. Those of the lesser organizations also are hopeful of gains.

Being elected to-day, in the contest for control of the next Congress are all 431 members of the House of Representatives from all states of the Union except Maine, whose elections were held last September, as well as 399 United States Senators in thirty-three states.

The outcome generally is regarded as close. Representatives in the lower body, delegates from the four territories—Alaska, Hawaii, the Philippines and Porto Rico—also are to be chosen, although they have no votes.

How close is the contest for control of Congress is apparent from the present line-up in the House and Senate. The membership of the House now is: Democrats 215; Republicans 209; Progressives 2; Prohibitionists, 1; Socialists, 1; five seats vacant.

There are 62 Democrats and 44 Republicans now in the Senate. The principal Democratic argument of the campaign had been that President Wilson should have a Congress of his own political faith to insure co-operation.

This the Republican spokesmen have opposed with the argument that Republicans in Congress have loyally supported administration measures needful for the war, and that Republicans should be elected to deal with important after-the-war reconstruction problems.

In to-day's balloting, particularly in the Southern States where Democratic nomination is equivalent to election, the elections really are formal ratifications of nominations already made. About 100 Democratic and thirty Republican candidates for the House and a dozen Democratic candidates for the Senate already are virtually elected. The latter include: Senators Bankhead, of Alabama; Robinson, of Arkansas; Ransdell, of Louisiana; Simmons, of North Carolina; Sheppard, of Texas; and Martin of Virginia. Also in the same status are W. J. Harris, nominated to succeed Senator Harwick, of Georgia; Representative Pat Harrison, nominated to succeed Senator Yardman of Mississippi; Edward J. Gay, of Louisiana, for the unexpired term of the late Senator Broussard, and N. C. Harris, of Louisiana.

Participation of women, both as candidates and electors is a unique and more extensive feature of the campaign. Two women, Representative Jeanette Rankin of Montana and Miss Martin of Nevada are aspirants for the Senate as independent candidates, while Sadie Kest and Clara B. Mann, are republican and democratic candidates for the House in New York. Women's votes are expected to play a large part to-day in results in the western suffrage states and also in Illinois and New York.

Of the lesser political parties, the prohibitionists have a candidate for the House in Representative Randall of California, also running as a democrat. The socialists, represented in the present Congress only by Representative Meyer London of New York have three other candidates in New York in Algeon Lea, Scott Neagard and Morris Hillquit.

New York, Nov. 4.—The closing of the election campaign in the middle Atlantic and New England states to-day was marked by a general quietening of interest, in contrast to the apathy that characterized the early days of the contests. There also was apparent, as an aftermath of the heated political discussions over the President's appeal for support, a greater interest in the contests for congressional seats. In many States, however, gubernatorial and purely local issues overshadowed all others.

In New York the contests for 43 seats in Congress attracted, but little interest in comparison with the bitter campaign between Governor Charles Whitman, Republican, and Alfred Smith, Democrat, for the Governorship.

Pennsylvania's voters seemed to be chiefly interested in the liquor question, the Republican nominee for governor, William C. Sprull, running on a "dry" platform against Eugene Bonniwell, Democrat, who has been charged with being supported by the liquor dealers.

REHABILITATION IS BIG PROBLEM U. S. War Secretary Appeals For Contributions to United War Funds

By Courier Leased Wire Washington, Nov. 4.—Addressing a vast audience of Protestants, Catholics and Jews assembled in Madison Square Garden to prepare for the opening on November 11th of the United War Work Campaign for $170,500,000, Secretary of War Baker to-day appealed to the nation to provide funds to insure the return of America's army with "a high and trained capacity for citizenship."

"I do not know when the war against the German Empire will come to an end," Secretary Baker declared, "but I know this: That the war for the salvation of young American manhood has just begun and it is going to keep up."

"It is true that if the war should come to an early end, it will take a long time to get these boys home, and they will have to be put in camps in the United States and gradually filtered back into the industrial life of America."

Among those on the platform were Cardinal Gibbons, the rabbi, Stephen Wise, Bishop Davis H. Greer, of the Episcopal Church, Miss Evangeline Booth, leader of the Salvation Army, and W. Bourke Cockran, representing all the Catholic activities in the campaign.

CHEST PASSED IN WINNIPEG By Courier Leased Wire Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 4.—There is every reason to believe that the crest of the Spanish influenza epidemic here has been passed. Following the development of 512 cases on Friday, only 312 new cases were reported to the health officials on Saturday, with four deaths.

Sunday's returns are considered by medical men to be remarkable, only 112 cases and nine deaths among civilians being reported.

ALLIED TERMS ARE SENT TO GERMANY

Berlin Knows Conditions on Which Armistice Will Be Granted

TO WITHDRAW FORCES All Teuton Troops Must Be Removed 25 Miles Behind Rhine

Paris, Nov. 4.—At six o'clock to-night the final signature was attached to the armistice terms framed by the associated Government, which must be accepted by the German Government if they wish hostilities to cease.

Half an hour later the terms were on the wire en route to Berlin. A prompt answer is confidently expected. One of the terms is understood to require Germany to evacuate the banks of the Rhine and withdraw her troops everywhere twenty-five miles behind and passed out of the swiss frontier to that of Netherlands included. The Allies to occupy the Rhine front throughout its length on the left bank in German territory and all the bridges and bridgeheads, and to remain in occupation until the terms of peace are completely executed.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Terms upon which Germany may obtain an immediate armistice and end the war were completed and signed to-day in Paris. Secretary Lansing announced the fact to-day in a brief statement, adding only that complete diplomatic harmony had been achieved by the allied and American conferees at Versailles.

It may be stated authoritatively that the terms not yet given out for publication, follow closely those under which Austria-Hungary surrendered yesterday and passed out of the war, leaving Germany to stand alone against the world.

The presumption in official circles here to-day was that the stipulations would be in the hands of the German government in less than 24 hours. If they are accepted, a reply settling the issue of peace or further fighting may also be received within that time. The uncertainty caused President Wilson to cancel last night his proposed trip to New Jersey to-day to cast his vote in the Congressional election.

Although the complete text of the historic Versailles document probably is only now on the cables for Washington, its substance had been reported upon fully and approved by the President before the final draft. Final adjustments, territorial or otherwise, are all deferred to a peace conference for which the cessation of hostilities paves the way.

The German appeal for acceptance of the peace terms already outlined by President Wilson and when the discussion starts, the allies and the United States will be in a position to dictate its results. In fact, the real peace conference has been sitting at Versailles.

The judgment of army officers as to the situation on the western front in a military sense is that Germany must accept the armistice conditions or face a debacle of her armies. Signs of disintegration of the German forces facing the Franco-American lines have been evident for two days. The German official statement yesterday admitted an American break through.

If the breach is widened the German armies will be cut in half as effectively as were the Austrian armies in Italy. They then may be crushed separately.

So strong is the impression here that Germany will accept, that when word came that a statement was to be issued by the State Department last night, a Washington newspaper put out an extra saying the war was over and Germany had surrendered.

WINDSOR FIREMEN GIVEN INCREASED PAY

Windsor, Nov. 4.—Meeting all demands of the city firemen, Windsor City Council at a special session to-day granted a salary increase of $10 a month to every member of the department, in addition to free uniforms, including rubber coats and boots. The increase will date from October 1, and will remain in effect until next year's estimates are prepared. The firemen had threatened to resign in a body at midnight to-night if their demands were not met.

CANADA'S HONOR FLAG

Much interest will centre during the Victory Loan Campaign on the Honor Flag. This emblem, which has been designed after much deliberation, will be the central symbol of the present campaign and will, it is expected, be even more familiar to the people of Canada than the service flag now to be seen in so many windows. The Honor Flag will be flown from the flag poles of communities which reach their quota, and the attendant ceremony is expected to do much to add zest and competition to the campaign. The flag is of beautiful design, embracing the national colors, red, white and blue. Across the upper left-hand corner there are five bars, each representing a Canadian war loan. At the lower left-hand corner is the Dominion coat of arms.

every Canadian city, town and village—no matter how many go beyond their objective—and in my opinion there will be few places in Canada that will not fly one from the town flag pole. Test of a Community It is in the number of Honor Flags presented that the world will know to what extent Canada believes in her fighting men. Every flag pole that is minus this trophy is a flag pole representing a people who fell down. Every flag pole from the top of which is unfurled the glorious symbol of financial strength demonstrates the undying faith those at home have in their comrades at arms. It is in the hearts of the Canadians overseas, so is the will to help them strong in the hearts of the people at home. There is another honor emblem. The Honor Roll will be seen in all the large stores, offices and factories, providing 75 per cent. of the employees become subscribers. If 85 per cent buy bonds a sticker will be attached showing that to be the case, and so on up to 100 per cent. To those who purchase bonds an Honor Button will be given. It is about the same size as the buttons given with each purchase during the first Victory Loan a year ago, and bears the inscription, "Subscriber, 1918 Victory Loan." In the center is the Honor Flag with its five bars and coat of arms. Similar in design, but much larger, about like a silver dollar, is the button to be worn by the canvassers and the word "Canvasser" is substituted for "Subscriber."

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back its Color and Lustre With Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss. While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we are all desirous to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

CONGRATULATES ITALY. Washington, Nov. 4.—President Wilson to-day sent the following message by cable to the King of Italy: "May I not say how deeply and sincerely the people of the United States rejoice that the soil of Italy is delivered from her enemies. In their name I send your Majesty and the great Italian people the most enthusiastic congratulations. (Signed) Woodrow Wilson."

WHEAT FIELD DRAINAGE

Surface Drainage of Value in Growing Winter Wheat.

Black Knot Responsible for Great Losses Among Plum and Cherry Growers—How It Can Be Controlled With Least Expense.

Good surface drains will lessen considerably the amount of winter wheat "drowned out" or "winter killed." These injurious effects are largely caused through water standing on frozen wheat ground in the spring. Were this water removed by surface drains, the reason for heaving so often seen in wheat fields in the early spring would be largely removed. The drains are a benefit, too, in that the removal of surface water enables the land to warm up more quickly, and the plants to start growth earlier in the spring.

Surface drains should follow the natural low levels in the wheat field and be made before the season closes in the fall. They are easily run out with the ordinary long or the swivel plough, and generally do not require to be more than one furrow wide and one furrow deep. Where there is considerable slope in the field, consequently greater danger of land being gullied out, care should be taken that drains are not made too narrow. The rounding of the sides at the top and of the bottom of surface drains will facilitate the flow of water by removing danger of blocking from loose pieces of earth. Intersections should be well made to avoid stoppages in drainage system. Heavy clay soils are usually more benefited by the use of surface drains than are lighter soils.

To Cure Black Knot Disease. No other cause, not even winter-killing, has destroyed and is destroying so many cherry and plum trees in this province as the Black Knot disease. This statement, while true of the province as a whole, is not true of the Niagara District nor of any other district where plum and cherry trees are carefully pruned and sprayed each year.

The disease is not caused by grub, although they are often found in the knots, but it is caused by a fungus which attacks the branches and even the trunks of the trees and causes black, knot-like swellings, usually about three inches long and about half an inch in thickness, though often the swellings are much shorter and often again very much longer; the longest ones usually being found on the larger branches. New knots at first are brownish instead of black, the blackness coming with age.

The disease will in some orchards confine itself to cherry trees and not attack the plums. In other cases it will attack plums and not the cherries, but more commonly both are attacked. Control Measures.—In order to control Black Knot thoroughly it is helpful to know that it is spread by means of tiny spores which act as seeds, and are blown by the wind from tree to tree. These spores are formed on the knots themselves. There are two main crops of them each year, the first during the early spring, usually in March and April, and the second in late spring, usually the latter part of May and all of June. Therefore, to control the disease the first step to take is to cut down all dead and dying trees and remove all knots on other trees, cutting in each case about four inches below the knot so as to be sure the infected area is removed. If knots occur on the very large branches on the trunk, they may be removed by means of a chainsaw or very long knife and chisel. An inch at least of the bark on each side should, if possible, be taken with the knots. All prunings, whether in decay or living wood, should be burned, or, if otherwise the spores will form on them and spread from them. It is very important to do this cutting out and pruning before Christmas time.

Warm days after the leaves are off are excellent for the purpose. Under no conditions must the knots be left on the trees until the end of February. In cutting do not overlook any wild cherries that may be infested around or near the orchard. The next step is to spray the trees with either lime-sulphur wash or Bordeaux mixture, so that the spores that come from a distance in early or late spring may not get a chance to germinate. Three sprayings should be given, the first a few days before the buds burst, the second about a week after blossoms fall and the third about two weeks later or just before the earliest cherries begin to ripen. Arsenate of lead should be added to each of the last two applications to kill the Plum Curculio and to keep the cherries free from maggots. The lime-sulphur for the first spray should be in strength about one gallon to fifteen or twenty gallons of water, and for the second and third, one gallon to about forty gallons of water. Bordeaux for any application should be composed of four pounds of bluestone and four pounds of fresh slaked lime or six pounds of hydrated lime to forty gallons of water. The arsenate of lead should be at the strength of two and a half pounds of the paste form to forty gallons of liquid or half this amount if the powder form is used.

If requires several years to free an orchard completely of Black Knot.—L. Cassatt, B.S.A., Provincial Entomologist.

U. S. TO TAKE PART.

By Courier Leased Wire. Boston, Mass., Nov. 4.—Rev. James L. Barton, foreign secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, in a statement made public here late last night, declared that the State Department in Washington and Lord Bryce, former ambassador from Great Britain and chairman of the European Allies committee on Near Eastern Affairs, favor the United States taking a major part in reorganizing and re-shaping the government of Turkey, Bulgaria and the Balkan peninsula. Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey, stated that America must take a large part in rebuilding Turkey. He declared that the American missions had been the one bright spot in Turkey before the war. The Patriot's Plan—Buy Victory Bonds.

STOP PAIN! RUB OUT NEURALGIA TORTURE

Instant relief! Rub neuralgia pain from your face, head or body with "St. Jacobs Liniment." You are to be pitied—but remember that neuralgia torture and pain is the easiest thing in the world to stop. Please don't continue to suffer; it's so needless. Get from your druggist the small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Liniment"; pour a little in your hand and gently rub the "tender nerve" or sore spot, and instantly—yes, immediately—all pain, ache and soreness is gone. "St. Jacobs Liniment" conquers pain—it is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin. Nothing else gives relief so quickly. It never fails to stop neuralgia pain instantly, whether in the face, head or any part of the body. Don't suffer!

RUSSIA REFUSES INDEMNITY. By Courier Leased Wire. Copenhagen, Nov. 4.—The indications are that Russia will refuse to make any further indemnity payments to Germany, according to The Frankfurt Gazette. The newspaper says that Russia, which had paid two instalments of the war indemnity, has stopped the transport of gold and bank notes to Germany. "Evidently," adds The Gazette, "she refuses to pay the last part of the indemnity."

TISZA ATTACKED IN DRAWING-ROOM

Berlin Paper Gives Account of the Assassination of Hungarian Count

SHOT BY THE SOLDIERS

Charged With Having Started the War With Its Horrors

Amsterdam, Nov. 4.—The Berlin Vossische Zeitung contains a dramatic description of the assassination of Count Stephen Tisza, former premier of Hungary, last week.

At 6 o'clock in the evening three soldiers invaded Count Tisza's residence and presented themselves in the drawing-room.

Count Tisza, with his wife and the Countess Almásy, advanced to meet the intruders, asking what they wanted.

"What have you in your hand?" a soldier demanded of Tisza. Tisza replied that he held a revolver.

"I shall not, because you have not laid aside your rifles," the soldiers then requested the women to leave the room.

"The hour of reckoning has come," the soldiers fired three shots and Tisza fell.

The smoke from Canada's factories signals to the world that Canada's army of workers is "carrying on."

These fires must be kept burning

As long as Canada is busy at home she can continue her glorious part in the war.

Canada's factories are a source of great national strength to-day.

They send across the sea a steady stream of vitally needed war supplies.

They employ our people at home at good wages.

They enable Canadians to earn the money to carry on the war.

To let those factories slow down now would be a crime against the boys in France—a disaster to the great army of workers at home.

The fires under the boilers must be kept burning.

That is one of the great purposes of the Victory Loan 1918.

When you buy Victory Bonds, when you lend your money to Canada, you are supplying the capital on which our industries depend.

You are contributing directly to our prosperity at home, and lending your personal weight to our mighty war effort in France.

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.

Rippling Rhymes
 By Walt Mason.
 When Wilhelm's hosts ambushed have ceased their course of crime, no sabres shall be rattled, I hope, till end of time; no helmets will be gleaming, no tyrants will be scheming, no futile prizes remaining, of victories sublime. For all the world is weary of war and all its works; of Prussians red and beery, of Austrians and Turks; of war lords grim and haughty, of fatious men and naughty, of windmills pink and doty—their presence pains and gets. And all the world is yearning to get to work once more; to do the weekly churning, and every useful chore; to paint the northwest gable, repair the kitchen table, to renovate the stable, and fix the cellar door. And if, when we are toiling at useful tasks like these, we find some piousing spouting for swords and mikers, before he's on his shoulder, and eak him with a boulder, until some stars he sees. This long war must be ended by rules laid down by Hoyte; a triumph over an splendid; must finish the turmoil; and then we'll bust the bezer of any accepted reaser, or any tin horn Casar who'd interrupt our toil. We all are sick with sorrow, with mourning for our dead; yet there is a to-morrow when this sad day is fled, when was lords would be kinging, and workers will be singing, while doves of peace are winging in gladness overhead.

"SO FRITZY THOUGHT THAT THIS WOULD STOP THE TANKS."
 Two British officers seem rather amused at the latest invention of the Hun. The invention in question is a German anti-tank rifle which the British have taken in a German trench, where they are standing. As to whether the rifle is considered an effective weapon for use against the tanks can better be seen by the expressions on the faces of the Tommys in this British official photo.

ONE MILLION SCHOLARS!

ONE MILLION DOLLARS!
 A million Sunday School scholars and members of Young People's Associations of the Anglican, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist and Congregational Churches are co-operating on a plan which has the three-fold purpose of helping to boost the Victory Loan Over the Top; assisting the churches to extend their mission work, and commemorating the heroism of church members who have fallen at the front.

"Every school at least one bond" is the cry that will help to carry the 1918 Victory Loan to the Sunday Schools' million dollar objective. Above is a reproduction of the shield to be presented to each Sunday school subscribing a bond.

DIED OF INFLUENZA.
 Hoodstock, Nov. 3.—The death from influenza is reported from Medicine Hat, Alta., of Jessie Forbes, eldest daughter of Road Supt. Wm. Forbes of Oxford County, and wife of the late Harold Cook. Just one week ago the husband, who was a son of ex-Warden Cook of West Oxford, died from influenza and his body was brought here for burial. The wife and two children were ill at the time.
