RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

L. I. D. Convention Pass Several Important Resolutions—Next Meeting at Saskatoon—Officers for the Ensuing Year.

Among the resolutions adopted at the L.I.D. convention held in the city last week were the following:

That the law relating to the boundary line roads be amended to mean, that if one district requires the road the other district must do half the work.

That the government grants for making roads should be expended by and at the discretion of the councilors of the district in which such grants are to be expended.

That this association request the government to continue giving a refund for cash spent in poisoning gophers, to a limit of $30 per township.

That secretary treasurers shall be paid by the government for work done for the government by the secretary treasurers at the request of the several departments, and the rate of pay or compensation shall be stated by the department when requesting work done, but in no case shall it be less than $5 per day and expenses.

That this association is strictly opposed to any exemption from taxation to any railway and that copies of this resolution be sent to both Dominion and provincial governments.

Whereas the banks of the province as a rule charge too high a rate of interest for the accommodation required by councils, the rate being 8 and 9 per cent. per annum, and usually one to three months notes; and whereas the security is exceptionally good. It is hereby resolved that the government be asked to provide for the purpose and advance money to councils at a lower rate.

That whereas, throughout the province of Saskatchewan, a great many small bridges of from 12 to 30 feet in length will be required to be built in the next few years;

And whereas the department of public works have proper equipment and experienced foremen to carry on this work;

And whereas the said department is in a position to purchase all material for such structures to better advantage than local improvement districts or municipalities;

Therefore be it resolved that this convention is of the opinion that the government should continue this work as heretofore, but on a more extensive scale.

Whereas the railroads are being properly enclosed and considering the fact that stock is being maimed or killed, from time to time, for which the owner of said stock received a very small, if any compensation, and whereas, a person owning stock accidentally maimed or killed and such person being of small means and unable to carry a lawsuit to a higher court of justice, the railway companies are the better prepared to carry such a claim and invariably win such a suit, therefore be it resolved, That the government pass legislation that any person having any stock maimed or killed on a railroad by a locomotive, valuation of said stock being $400 or less, that said law suit must be settled at the local district courts of justice.

That this association respectfully call upon the government of the province to increase the remuneration of secretary treasurers for collecting the supplementary revenue tax from the present rate of 2 1/2 per cent. to at least 5 per cent. and such increase to date from January, 1908.

A resolution was passed recommending that the government be asked to give a small grant to each district towards paying the expenses of noxious weed inspectors, as the government had done away with direct government inspection.

Several resolutions were passed to amend the constitution of the association. One amending section 4 was that the fee shall not be less than $5 nor more than $10 for each L. I. D. or municipality, the executive to decide the amount.

Section 7 was amended so that the secretary treasurer will in future be elected by the executive and not at the convention.

It was also decided by the convention that all resolutions asking for legislation will require a two-thirds vote before they can be carried.

The financial statement presented by George S. Reid showed that the expenses of the association to be $714.41, leaving a balance on hand of

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

Provincial Rights Party Pledged to Public Ownership of Elevators—Mr. Haultain Makes Statement at Banquet at Nokomis.

Nokomis, Sask., March 25.—At a splendid banquet, tendered him here tonight Hon. F. W. G. Haultain, leader of the opposition, made an important statement in which he pledged his party to government ownership and control of internal elevators.

Five other members of the legislature were present, all of whom endorsed the pledge of their leader, as follows: T. A. Anderson, A. E. Whitmore, A. B. Gillis, P. P. Willway and A. Riddell. The banquet lasted until 3.15 a.m., and the Earl Grey brass band furnished music.

Mr. Haultain was in good form and spoke for over two hours, his speech being convincing and statesmanlike. It was punctuated with applause and held the attention of the audience till the close.

He pointed out that up to the end of last session of the legislative assembly, he and his friends in the House had not thought it advisable to do more than force the question on the consideration of the government. Their motion requiring the government of Saskatchewan to enquire into the question of government elevators and report to the House was voted down by the government on the plea that negotiations were then pending with the Grain Growers Association.

Speaking on the subject during the debate on that occasion he had expressed himself as strongly in sympathy with the demands of the Grain Growers, and more than ready to be convinced of the feasibility of their proposed plan. The negotiations had for some reason been delayed, and it was not until after the close of the late session that the answers of the premiers of the three provinces were made public. That answer was, in his opinion, entirely unsatisfactory, and altogether eroded the real question. He was now free to take definite ground without the fear of interfering with any negotiations.

The declared policy of the Provincial Rights party had from the beginning been in favor of government ownership and control of public utilities. There might be some question as to how far the elevator business came within the general term "public utilities," but the conditions existing in the western provinces would warrant the intervention of the government. "There was no doubt that owing to causes which he need not elaborate upon, the storage facilities in this province were practically in the hands of a monopoly. The effect of this monopoly was to prevent competition and thereby reduce prices. It had the further effect of depriving the farmer of proper means of storing and shipping his grain and also forced the small producer to sell his wagon load for a small price, on a low grading, with a large dockage. Light weights, low grades, excessive dockage and loss of identity of his product were the evils universally complained of, and there must be some foundation for so generally expressed complaints. It was further stated on good authority that by the culling process the millers were enabled to make large profits out of what intrinsically valuable but graded low, and that a portion at least of these profits would be obtained by the producer if he were enabled to make proper storage and shipping facilities to sell his own wheat by sample.

Another effect attributed to this culling process was the lowering of the quality of export wheat, and thus reducing the price of wheat while still in the hands of the farmer. The monopoly of the elevators also was said to enable the elevator owners to practically control street buyers and commission men.

It might be urged that all these evils would be removed by competition and that they should be left to be remedied by the ordinary processes of trade. That undoubtedly would be a sound position in the case of any ordinary business. But this was a business which affected the whole province, and upon the success of which the general welfare of the province depended.

What was the remedy? Competition? How could that be provided? Apparently not by ordinary means. That being the case, did the circumstances justify the intervention of the has just reached here from Liverpool that H. S. Percival, formerly here, swindled an Englishman out of over $1,000 by selling him a farm which turned out to be a myth which he arrived in western Canada with his family. Percival escaped from England for the States. A few years ago Percival who carried on a business here, mysteriously disappeared leaving behind him several hundreds in debts. Warrants were then sworn out for his arrest but were never served, though he was seen in the west two years ago.

MYTHICAL FARM

Rosthern, Sask., March 26.—Word

THE WORLD'S MONEY LENDER

Canada Indebted to Britain for Money for Financing Her Great Undertakings, Both Provincial and Dominion.

Toronto, March 27.—A Toronto paper says: British ships keep inviolate the world's money centre, which last year loaned Canada $200,000,000, and which has supplied the funds where-with for railways across the continent and developed mineral and other resources. Canada's financial dependence upon London is indicated by a sum in mental arithmetic recently done by Mr. E. R. Wood. Canada's obligations to the imperial capital are thus set down:

Borrowed in England	250,000,000
Provincial governments	50,000,000
Can. railways on bonds	500,000,000
Can. other purposes	200,000,000
Total	$1,000,000,000

In short, Canada owes the mother country no less than a billion dollars. This is a sum equal to the combined assets of all the Canadian chartered banks gathered up through all their eighteen hundred agencies. The loan of such a vast amount, rendered our remarkable material development possible.

In the next few years we shall require another $1,000,000,000 in addition to the one we already have. Where should we obtain this credit were Great Britain's position as the world's carrier, the world's marine insurer, and the world's banker, seriously disturbed? What would happen to the Dominion were England to be so crippled as to cease to be the world's financial centre?

A Large Sum to Encourage Physical and Military Training Among the Younger Generation in Canada—Offer Accepted.

Ottawa, March 24.—Shortly after the house met today, Sir Frederick Borden announced that he had received a letter from Lord Strathcona in which the Canadian commissioner in London offered to devote the sum of $100,000 per annum for the encouragement of physical and military training in the schools.

$104.35. The report on the motion of J. F. Bernard, seconded by E. Wiltse was adopted. It had been resolved that the late of the delegates to the convention be pooled and at the Wednesday meeting it was announced that a uniform fund of $5.25 would be charged.

NEXT MEETING.

It was decided to hold the next annual meeting at Saskatoon, the date to be decided on by the executive. The officers elected were as follows: President, J. Smith, Yellow Grass.

WAKE IT YOURSELF

Says Many Persons Here Can Be Made Happy Again by Using It.

There is so much rheumatism here in our neighborhood now that the following advice will be highly appreciated by those who suffer:

Get from any good pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces of Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Shake these well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime; also drink plenty of good water.

It is claimed that there are few victims of this dread and torturous disease who will fail to find ready relief in this simple home-made mixture, and in most cases a permanent cure is the result.

This simple recipe is said to strengthen and cleanse the eliminative tissues of the kidneys so that they can filter and strain from the blood and system the poisonous acids and waste matter, which cause, not only rheumatism, but numerous other diseases. Every man or woman here who feels that their kidneys are not healthy and active, or who suffers from any urinary troubles whatever, should not hesitate to make up this mixture, as it is certain to do much good, and may save you from much misery and suffering after while.

Our home druggists say they will either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription ready to take if our readers ask them.

STREET RAILWAY FOR MOOSE JAW.

GENERAL NEWS

CANADA'S RESOURCES

Toronto, Ont., March 26.—Addressing the Empire Club yesterday on Canadian resources, R. W. Brock, director of the Geological Survey, said Canada was destined to become one of the greatest mineral countries in the world.

POLICEMEN BARRED

Ottawa, March 26.—No policeman may hereafter join the active militia. It is announced in the militia orders today that they are exempt from military service, and therefore cannot be counted upon in the event of a necessity arising for calling out the troops. It is therefore not considered advisable that they should be carried upon the rolls of the active militia.

NAVY OF OUR OWN

Hamilton, March 26.—Judge Barron, of Stratford, Ont., delivered an address before the Canadian club last evening on the subject of a Canadian navy. He did not advocate the annual grant towards maintenance for British navy but thought Canada should have a small navy of her own, manned by Canadians.

Macleod, Alta., March 29.—There is much activity in railway circles here. Work is being rushed on the cut-off between Macleod and Lethbridge. Twenty car loads of bridge material left today for a railway bridge over the Old Man river, ten miles east of here and a force of 100 men is expected by the middle of the week to halve the new road between Macleod and the river.

Chicago, March 29.—"Fortune tellers and necromancers are a disgrace to our modern civilization and there should be some law passed to prevent them from preying on the ignorant and uneducated." This was the attack municipal judge Ulrik made Saturday on all palmists, card readers and others, who claim ability to tell fortunes.

Buchanan, Sask., March 25.—A meeting of the farmers of this district was held Saturday afternoon, pursuant to a call by Overseer F. F. Moore, for the purpose of discussing a creamery project. The farmers present were all anxious for the establishment of such a project, and the following organization was perfected: L. A. Tompe, president; F. F. Moore, sec.-treasurer.

USED RAZOR

Brandon, Man., March 29.—Savagely attacking William Stevens from behind with a razor, Edward McLaren inflicted a couple of severe and dangerous wounds. The two men had been drinking heavily during the day and had previously engaged in a fight. Shortly before 10 o'clock tonight Stevens walked into the bar of the Beulah Hotel, where he saw McLaren. He approached him and threatened to get even. As he turned away McLaren drew a razor and hurled himself at Stevens, slashing at his head and causing two deep gashes, one on each side of the neck. The spectators closed on McLaren and disarmed him. The police were called in and he was arrested. Stevens is now in the hospital and hopes are entertained for his recovery.

GALICIAN MISSING

Much excitement has been caused at Leslie over the disappearance of a Galician settler whom the mounted police are now trying to locate. Details are hard to secure but from the information available it appears that P. Rodzba, who reached Leslie on March 11, and has a homestead on 16-30-1, west of the second meridian, where his wife and family have lived all winter, while he was working at Strathclair, Man., has vanished under peculiar circumstances. When he returned from Manitoba he bought a load of stock and effects. He spent the day in Leslie with several companions, and was last seen in the vicinity of the old Boyle ranch about midnight, driving his cattle home. Traces in the snow showed where the cattle strayed from the road, but there were no footmarks. Rodzba's brother, who has been in his company, said nothing of his disappearance, and it was only through the wife of the missing man making inquiries that the matter was reported last Saturday to the R.N.W.M.P., who are at work on the case.—Enterprise.

OPENING NAVIGATION

Montreal, March 30.—It was stated at the Marine department here this evening that the government ice breaker, Montcalm, succeeded this afternoon in smashing her way clear through the big ice bridge at Cape Rouge, and ran into clear water above. The bridge was further broken on her way down, and the immediate accumulation of ice went out on the ebb tide. This is almost a record for getting rid of the big bridge, which has always been a menace to navigation, the ice jamming in the narrows for several miles, and frequently delaying navigation when the rest of the river was clear. The Montcalm has been running the bridge since February 28th, trying to keep it from freezing, as far as possible, with a view to getting it out early, and in this she has completely succeeded. It is expected that navigation will open up to Montreal earlier than usual as a result of the Montcalm's good work. The channel is already clear of ice, as far as Cape Santa, thirty miles above Quebec, and the ice is rapidly breaking away between here and Lake St. Peter.

BREWERY TRUST

Montreal, March 26.—After several days and many abortive attempts the provincial beer trust has been practically consummated. Every important brewery will be included in the Holding Company, financed by Chas. R. Hosmer and other local capitalists. The Royal Trust Company will underwrite the financing and the Bank of Montreal will do the banking. The trust is capitalized at $12,000,000, each concern receiving 65 per cent of valuation within sixty days in six per cent. bonds of the Holding Company and the other 35 per cent. in seven per cent. preferred stock. Good will will be paid in common stock on the output of 1906. Any preferred stock which the parties wish to dispose of will be bought in at 85, while the common stock is to be pooled for three years. No liabilities are being assumed by the Holding Company, which thus starts with a clean balance sheet. It is stated that there will be no alteration in the price of beer and ale at present, the idea being to prevent competition which at present is demoralizing trade, and which is placing many unfit men in the retail trade.

FLAYS FORTUNE TELLER

Chicago, March 29.—"Fortune tellers and necromancers are a disgrace to our modern civilization and there should be some law passed to prevent them from preying on the ignorant and uneducated." This was the attack municipal judge Ulrik made Saturday on all palmists, card readers and others, who claim ability to tell fortunes.

Judge Ulrik awarded Miss Mary Shmag, 594 Milwaukee avenue, $67 judgment against Mrs. Signum Wysocki, dealer in love potions, who was charged with fleeing the young woman out of that amount by pretending that she could cause Miss Shmag's lover to return to her. The girl paid the money but the lover never came. The fortune teller is said to have held "black mass" in a grave yard, clothed herself in black robes sprinkled with the blood of black cats, and otherwise attempted to placate evil spirits which were supposed to be keeping said lover at a distance. "I am sorry that you can not be held on a criminal charge," said the judge to Mrs. Wysocki. "You have deliberately fleeced this young girl out of her money, because she was poor and ignorant. It is too bad that the statutes do not deal with your case."

At the same time a certain blonde young woman of the city also disappeared, but nothing strange was thought of this until it was found impossible to get any word from the young man who was supposed to be in Highgate, Ont., with his parents. Inquiry revealed the fact that he had never been near Highgate, and immediately the books were examined and the shortage found.

FIGHT FOR JUSTICE

Manitoba Opposition Members in the Dominion Will Continue to Fight for the Demands of Their Province.

Ottawa, Ont., March 28.—The Manitoba opposition members intend to keep up the fight for justice for their province and will endeavor to still force Sir Wilfrid to extend the boundaries of the province on terms of equality with Saskatchewan and Alberta to the west of Ontario and Quebec to the east.

Dr. Roche today gave notice that he will ask Sir Wilfrid Laurier whether he purposes, in view of the recent conference with the western ministers, to bring down a bill this session. And if he does not, what the policy of the government is on the subject.

"The offer of Sir Wilfrid Laurier of $10,000 a year additional subsidy for administrative purposes is not only a joke but an insult," said an Ontario member today, and that is the general feeling in the corridors. The Toronto Globe, in an editorial evidently inspired, today claims that Manitoba should be satisfied with the new territory without additional subsidy. It says:

"The position is just this: If the federal government had held Kewatin as a territory, Manitoba would not have a ghost of a claim for additional subsidies, but the people of the province cherished a natural desire to possess more territory. That desire is gratified, and now there is a demand in addition for a large amount in annual subsidies."

Absconder Arrested.

F. A. Lee, the absconder teller of the Northern Crown Bank branch at Saskatoon, who fled with $7,000 of the bank's funds and a woman, some weeks ago, has been arrested in Los Angeles, Cal., after long chase.

Extradition papers are being made out at Regina and the fugitive will be brought back at once. Lee had been shadowed by detectives for several days previous to his apprehension, and when taken was in company with the young woman with whom he left Saskatoon.

Lee's shortage with the bank at Saskatoon is alleged to be about $7,000.

The money had been taken at different times and always in large sums. Holding the position of teller and accountant in the bank, the young man had, by careful manipulation of the books covered up his peculations until he recognized that more rigid means were necessary.

The idea of absconding appeared best to him, and getting leave of absence from his employers on the plea of a sick mother in Ontario, he left Saskatoon, February 7.

BABY LEFT.

Do you want to adopt a baby? If so, communicate with the R. N. W. M. P., or with a bachelor in North Battleford, whose name can be obtained from the former. To explain how a young bachelor became the happy (?) possessor of a real live baby, it is necessary to go back to last fall, when a certain woman desirous of travelling without the handicap of an infant-in-arms hired another North Battleford woman at $10 per month to take care of her child. Woman No. 2 later transferred her charge to another lady of that berg, who already was the possessor of a baby of her own.

Now it transpires that woman No. 3 was also seized with a passion for travel, and accordingly sought means of ridding herself of her infantile charges. She accordingly requested a neighboring woman to look after her child for half an hour while she went out shopping, and the adopted baby she disposed of by making a like arrangement with a bachelor who lived nearby. Several half hours have passed since that and our bachelor friend now finds himself the undisputed owner of a healthy infant, his, by law, to have and to hold, in accordance with the statutes in such cases made and provided. He, of course, communicated with the police, but the only suggestions they had to offer were connected with the proper method of feeding, etc.

As might be surmised, getting rid of a baby under such circumstances is about as easy as detaching oneself from the proverbial porous plaster.

There is the serious side to the matter of an innocent babe being left without the attention which only a woman knows how to administer, and it is to be hoped that some woman will be found to take charge of the little one. As a suggestion, we understand the mounted police allow $8 per month for care of infants under such circumstances.—Battleford Press.

NEGLECTED SCALD CAUSED MONTHS OF AGONY.

Spent Dollars in vain but Zam-Buk Cured Her.

Following we give the testimony of a lady who has known Zam-Buk for some time. She writes: "I scalded my foot while preparing supper. Next day the skin came off and my foot was in a serious condition. I could not wear my shoe and had to lay up for nine weeks. During this time I used dozens of salves but none did any good, in fact the wound developed into a running sore. I got no rest at night from the pain. At this point a supply of Zam-Buk was obtained and a few applications had immediate effect in soothing the pain and irritation. A small supply proved sufficient to heal the scald, although I had spent dollars on other remedies. New skin has now formed nicely over the open sores and I advise others to use it. Zam-Buk is equally effective in curing eczema, M. Geo. Gilmore, caretaker of the E. Clements Block, Winnipeg, testifies as follows: "I sustained a series of bad burns while attending to the large furnace which heats the buildings. One burn on my wrist was particularly bad and gave me great pain. I applied some Zam-Buk and in forty-eight hours all that remained of the burn was a slight scar. Zam-Buk seemed to take the pain away like magic. It is a splendid balm to keep handy, its healing powers being simply marvelous. There is nothing to equal Zam-Buk as a family balm. Its uses are so wide. It has succeeded where other remedies, such as salves, ointments, ointments, cuts, bruises, chapped hands, cracked heels, all skin injuries and diseases. Rubbed well into the part affected it cures rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, etc. All druggists and stores sell at 50c per box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, on receipt of price.

His Reply.

I was travelling from Inverness to London, and my only companion in the third-class compartment was an elderly Englishman. He sat in the corner with his placid wrapped round him and an expression of supreme content on his countenance, only stirring occasionally for the purpose of taking a swig at his whiskey flask. Not a word was passed for some two hours, and then, tiring of the monotony, I ventured to suggest: "This is a very fatiguing journey, is it not so?" "Yes, and so it ought to be," was the reply. "Two poods of tea shillin's and saxepee."

Comfort for the Dyspeptic.—There is no ailment so harassing and exhausting as dyspepsia, which arises from defective action of the stomach and liver, and the victim of it is to be pitied. Yet he can find ready relief in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, a preparation that has established itself by pills that are widely advertised as the greatest ever compounded, but not one of them can rank in value with Parmelee's.

ABOUT TABLE LINEN.

How to Select the Most Economical Lengths.

In selecting tablecloths it is more satisfactory to get the seventy-two inch width, which gives a generous allowance of six inches or so at the sides, which dresses a table better than the narrower widths. Two and one-half yards is a very good measure for general use, a very convenient size for a small company requiring an extra leaf. Three and one-half yards are required for an extended table, to drape over the ends and correspond with the sides.

In hemming tablecloths a double hemstitch above an inch and a half wide hem makes a very fine finish. The ends must be cut by the thread to make the hem true. With napkins to correspond and finished in the same way this makes a very fine table set if the linen is fine and heavy, with a pretty pattern. If the hemstitch is thought to be too elaborate, the so-called French hem at the ends does very nicely. Turning a half-inch hem neatly and folding back, sew a fine over and over stitch.

The care of table linen is of great importance if one would have the table arranged to his best. There must be a pure white cloth without blemish or wrinkle, with satiny finish and with as few folds as possible. A very good way to wash napkins and tablecloths for this effect is to first put them in a pencil bucket in hot water over stoves and then let them soak in a good suds made with white laundry soap for an hour, then lightly rub out and just scold in clear soft water, rinse in a light blueing water and during the whole process wring by hand instead of wringer to avoid the wrinkles that are so hard to press out. Do not starch; stretch evenly and hang straight on the line to dry.

In ironing the linen must be evenly and very well ironed. Fold the cloth from side to side just once and press dry from end to end on both sides. This will give the satin finish. Fold together sidewise once more and press both sides carefully, then fold lengthwise as little as possible to the ironing board. Press the ironing board, such as are used for dress goods, and wind their long tablecloths smoothly over them, giving them the appearance of new linen, says the Housekeeper.

Homemade Lamp Shades. Charmingly dainty lamp shades may be made at small expense if a girl has any knowledge of working with water colors. Even with tracing paper and pencil decidedly pretty Japanese effects may be secured. For a foundation wire frames of various shapes can be purchased, but if stiff paper is to be used as a covering the simple, strong either frame, at the top should be tacked a piece of asbestos that is at least two inches deep. This will entirely prevent the paper from burning.

If the paper is to be painted the easiest method will be to cut a size of paper that is rough white water color paper. When the exact size has been determined the stiff paper should be neatly pasted at the two edges and held in place over the frame until it has "set." White cotton thread and a few stitches are the easiest and most set way of attaching it to the frame at top and bottom.

This done, the background is ready for decoration. What this shall be depends upon the individual taste of the decorator. Medallions, beads set into little backgrounds of color and framed with the lines of gilt and silver, are always charming. The frame effect may be obtained by tying bowknots together at the top, so that little medallions seem to be suspended by ribbons of gold or a color. Large birds, such as storks, are most decorative and when done in a flight are not difficult. Flowers and floral scenes of various kinds may be used.

It is sometimes possible to find beautiful photographs, and with these, unmounted, novel effects can be made. They may be placed on the paper in a line or irregularly, cutting out the background. This renders the pictures transparent when the light is shining. They should be neatly pasted on, first trimming the paper edge in scallops or points to make a finished frame. If one does not wish to do this, a design may be done with a paint brush in the same manner as to simulate a frame. One who cannot use brushes will find that gilt and silver beadings in the fancy paper departments are very pretty and not hard to put on. These "frame effects" may become most elaborate by pasting on different decorations.

ETIQUETTE. An Old Fashioned Man Press His Mind About His Absurdities. "Whether to eat fish with a fish knife and fork or a fork and a bit of bread, whether to serve champagne in a tumbler or a goblet—it is quite absurd to regard one of these courses as right and the other as wrong and to admire or despise a person accordingly. The average rule of etiquette has something to do with courtesy, with good breeding, and it is no criterion of courtesy or of good breeding."

The speaker, an old fashioned gentleman from the country, knotted the ends of his napkin more firmly about his neck. "Smile at me, nephews and nieces," he resumed, "because I tuck my napkin under my chin. Yet why should I spoil my black broadcloth coat with turkey stains or smears of cranberry sauce? It is a rule of etiquette, you say, that the napkin may only be placed across the knee—an absurd, ephemeral rule!"

"It was a rule of etiquette in France during the reign of Le Roi Soleil," the great Louis XIV., when the king visited a sick subject the king, too, must lie down in a bed, on the ground that it would never do for a subject to maintain a more informal attitude than his master during the audience. Louis XIV., visiting the Marshal de Villars at Malplaquet, lay in a bed beside the suffering soldier in that way.

"Behold the absurdities of etiquette and let me do with my napkin what I please."

Public Ownership.

The farmers of this province can have no difficulty in deciding which party they should support in provincial politics. Which of the two leaders of the two parties in the province has in season and out of season advocated their cause. Who was it that advocated the handing of the provincial lands, forests, fisheries and minerals over to the people of Saskatchewan? Who was it that advocated the system of government hail insurance? Who was it that opposed the bill which will enable loan companies in a month or so's time to sell out the farmer who is so unfortunate as to be a little behind in his payments on a loan? Who is it that favors the breaking of the elevator monopoly by government interference? Who favors doing away with the intolerable evils in the grain trade so that the farmers may get the full benefits from the products they raise? Is it Walter Scott, the present premier of this province? Not by a long shot. Premier Scott has on every occasion shown that his government has thrown its lot with the grafters and the corporations who prey on the farmers.

Western Progress.

The Poultry Show and the Winter Fair which were held in the city last week are indications of the progress that is being made in this western country. Eighteen years ago, who could have predicted that such stock and such fowls could and would be bred here, on these bleak looking prairies? Yes, those who had faith did predict it and many who believed in the possibilities of the west and have worked to make their predictions come true must have reviewed the exhibits of stock last week with considerable satisfaction.

The west has passed the experimental stage. Life here now is no speculation; it is the same as elsewhere, what one make it. It is a land where as pleasant and profitable homes may be made as any other place on the American continent. It is no longer a land of wheat fields, but a land of herd, flock and yard as well. May the progress continue.

How Shall Canada Help.

At the present time in Canada, there is great general discussion on how we shall show our loyalty to the motherland in the matter of defense. Some advocate the building of a Dreadnaught to be presented to the British navy. Others advocate the laying of the foundation for a Canadian navy.

Whatever may be done, it is now evident that the time has arrived when Canada should take her stand as the older brother in the family of colonies of the British empire. We are dependent upon Great Britain for protection in time of war and for money in time of peace to help us finance our large undertakings. And just here we may say that anything which imperils the supremacy of Great Britain, a supremacy which she uses in a most reasonable and merciful way, would imperil the prospects of this Dominion.

Whether we decide to contribute to the up-keep of the British navy, or organize and maintain a fleet of our own to relieve her of some responsibility, does not matter so very much. The question is, can we rightfully expect the full protection of the British navy without in some way attempting to earn it. We believe that the motherland would prefer that Canada should make an attempt at a navy of her own, and thus in a measure relieve her of some responsibility. The time is ripe now to do something.

Editorial Notes

EX-President Roosevelt has left on his hunting trip to Africa. No doubt the newspaper reporters of the United States will watch his every movement and we may look for reports of his grappling with and overcoming the largest and fiercest animals to be found on the Dark Continent.

Press Comment

(Winnipeg Tribune)
Do the electors of Canada think that the majority of public men of Canada are making heroic sacrifices by serving the people in public office? Almost every citizen has a personal knowledge of at least a few men who have been in parliament. Look over the list and pick out the men who have been powers and who have supported the powers-that-be, and who are worse off financially than when they entered public life? Then pick out the men who have made fortunes, and who have kingdoms of timber limits, concessions, fine houses, fine horses; in fact are well off and in the millionaire class. It is a good thing to make money—honestly. But how have so many members of parliament, cabinet ministers and senators made their money? Give the subject a little thought. If you have a satisfactory answer, all the better for the politicians. But think the matter over without prejudice.

(Toronto Saturday Night.)

Last week some anecdotes were told of appeals to religious affiliation at election times. Here is another one about the late Nicholas Flood Davin, the brilliant orator and journalist, who came to such a tragic end. No one in this country ever knew exactly what the religious faith of "N.F.D." was. Years ago he wrote for the Week a series of religious dialogues in the Platonic style on the subject of religion, in which it would be impossible to discover that he had any religious convictions at all. This, however, was after he entered politics and it was with this entry that this anecdote is concerned. It was the custom of Sir John A. Macdonald, as it is still that of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, where his own province of Quebec is concerned, to seek out and find constituents for men of oratorical or journalistic talent. And shortly after Davin's arrival in Canada from England, where he had been war correspondent of the London Standard during the Franco-Prussian catastrophe, Sir John secured for him a nomination in one of the Hamilton districts. In the riding, as then constituted there were many Roman Catholics, and as a complement

"I have taken Scott's Emulsion for six weeks and have found it a wonderful remedy. Before I took it I was weak; had lost nearly fifty pounds of flesh, and now I eat well and am gaining every day. I find Scott's Emulsion to be very easily digested and a good food for all weak people."—FLORENCE BLEEKER, No. 1 Myrtle Avenue, Bridgeton, N. J.

This is only one of thousands of cases which has given an appetite. It's so easily digested that it doesn't tax the digestive organs and they rest; yet the body is wonderfully nourished and built up. The digestion is improved—then ordinary food is sufficient.

Growing boys and girls, who need so much food to keep them well and strong, and also growing, should be given a bottle of Scott's Emulsion every few weeks. It does wonders for them. It prevents their getting run down and spinily. Nothing does them so much good.

thereto an equally ardent Protestant community. Davin did not declare his faith if he had any, but the handling of the Roman Catholic vote was in the hands of an expert named Madigan. The latter took the candidate on a house to house canvass among those of his faith.

Mr. Davin, a man of exquisite courtesy, would arrive with Madigan at a farm house and engage the family in conversation, and at the proper moment Madigan would produce a portrait of a saintly nun and whisper it to the lady of the household that it was Mr. Davin's sister.

"Why, Mr. Davin, we did not know you were a Catholic," was the usual exclamation.
"My dear madame," he would respond. "I fear I am not a good Catholic, but she,"—and he would look at the portrait which he had never seen until Madigan took it on the campaign—"she was as saintly a woman as I have ever seen."

(Mail and Empire.)

The fact that we have a business administration at Ottawa is borne in upon us in many ways. But the evidences are now accumulating with greater rapidity than ever. What better proof of business capacity could be furnished than that which comes from old Quebec? Here we wanted to dredge the harbor. So we gave the contract to a dred-gate operator to do the work at 75 cents a yard. Then we did it ourselves and charged the contractor 20 cents a yard for the work we did. Having collected the 20 cents a yard from the contractor we received his bill for the same work at 75 cents a yard and paid it without a murmur.

It is not every business firm that could put through a deal like that. Even if the chance were presented the possibility is that the average company would fail to take advantage of it. But we have something even more businesslike in the proposed Grand Trunk Pacific loan. The Grand Trunk Pacific has been trying to sell its bonds at 90, but it is unable to do so, owing to the burden that has been thrust upon the company by the government in the shape of the eastern annex of the road. So we are going to buy the bonds at par and we shall get $9,000,000 worth of bonds for $10,000,000. This is a snap to be sure. But it is not half so clever a financial manoeuvre as that we are engaged in for the construction of the eastern end of the line. We are borrowing money at 3 1/2 per cent. to put into that magnificent enterprise, and are lending it again at 3 per cent. Any company engaged in such an operation would lose money; but we are told that the thing is all right for the country. A country with taxpayers to fall back on can do many things that an ordinary business corporation could not afford to attempt.

When we come to consider the nature of the enterprise to which we are lending the 3 1/2 per cent. money at 3 per cent., the cleverness of the investment is all the more noticeable. The money is being sunk in a railway which is to parallel our own intercolonial, to take away a good share of the business, and to make it a source of greater loss than ever. So that we are actually paying to help run our own property. While "business" operations of this kind are being carried on, is there any wonder that we incur a deficit of thirty millions in a year, although our rate of taxation is burdensome beyond precedent?

Naval supremacy has been the Shield of Liberty since the Hollanders and Francis Drake began the great work that ended in the wreck and ruin of the Armada. Is Germany to be permitted to make naval supremacy the sword of military power? Germany's own growth, under the overshadowing naval power of Britain, is proof that maritime supremacy in the hands of a CIVILIAN NATION is no menace to the growth and freedom of other countries.

What will it mean to human liberty if Germany is to supplant Britain as the overshadowing maritime power and the sword of naval supremacy is grasped by a SOLDIER NATION for the first time in history since the defeat of the Armada?

It is a danger to humanity, to liberty, to everything that makes life precious in free nations that military powers should carry their armed

The enemy would know this and would doubtless detach ships from its fleet to strike at Britain elsewhere, partly with a view to breaking up the empire, and partly with a view to drawing off some of the fleet from home waters. What would happen in such a case if an enemy's ship should sail for example, up the St. Lawrence? A few days rapid steaming would enable a light cruiser to reach Montreal, and the result need not be suggested, for anyone can imagine it for himself. What would we do about it? There is only one thing we could do under existing circumstances and that is to invoke the Monroe Doctrine. The United States would come to our protection, but what would be the conditions? If Britain would not protect us and we would not protect ourselves, the United States would very properly say that we should contribute our share to the protection of North America from European invasion, and that we could have our choice between doing that in the form of a tribute to the government of that country for the purpose of naval defence, which we are not now willing to bear as a part of the British empire. We confess to being not able to understand the passivity of the Dominion government in this matter. The United Kingdom is at fever heat over naval defence, but we are absolutely indifferent in Canada, and yet the circumstances which render it necessary to the safety of Great Britain to have a powerful fleet, would be the very circumstances which would render it necessary for Canada to be prepared to protect herself or else be ready to forfeit her existence as a part of the Empire.

Joke on Carrie Nation.

New York, March 25.—According to Mrs. Carrie Nation, who came back to the United States from Europe on board the Baltic the other day, she never saw such a saturnalia of drunkenness as confronted her on that voyage. And, according to the still chuckling under officers of the Baltic, Mrs. Nation saw just what she never saw such a saturnalia of drunkenness as confronted her on that voyage. And, according to the still chuckling under officers of the Baltic, Mrs. Nation saw just what she never saw such a saturnalia of drunkenness as confronted her on that voyage. And, according to the still chuckling under officers of the Baltic, Mrs. Nation saw just what she never saw such a saturnalia of drunkenness as confronted her on that voyage.

On the night of Monday last she got out of the grounds by means of a door near the stables. She was quite unacquainted with the surrounding district, but managed to find her way to Manningtree station on the great eastern railway. When she arrived there her conventional garb was wet through and through, and was splashed with mud, she was in a state of extreme exhaustion and is described as looking "the picture of abject misery."
She reached the town of Manningtree about 8 o'clock at night, and had in pursuit came a small body of nuns in a wagonette. They also were wet through after their long search for the fugitive over the countryside. The pursuers caught up with Miss Moulit just as she was ascending a private pathway, the property of the Great Eastern railway company, leading from the main road to the station. The party were then conducted to

NUN MAKES HER ESCAPE

Young Lady of Twenty-four Years Runs Away From Her Convent to Return to Her Mother—Couldn't be Induced to Return.

London, March 20.—A story that reads like a page from a melodramatic novel comes from East Bergholt Suffolk, where the Roman Catholic convent of St. Mary's abbey, a young nun has escaped under remarkable circumstances, and made her way, in spite of the efforts of the other nuns to capture her and bring her back again, to her relatives in north London.

The nun in question, Madge Moulit, is about 24 years of age, and is described as very beautiful. She is stated to have been in the convent since she was sixteen, and says the Star, to have been planning her escape for the past two years. The nuns were allowed to roam about the beautiful grounds of the abbey.

On the night of Monday last she got out of the grounds by means of a door near the stables. She was quite unacquainted with the surrounding district, but managed to find her way to Manningtree station on the great eastern railway. When she arrived there her conventional garb was wet through and through, and was splashed with mud, she was in a state of extreme exhaustion and is described as looking "the picture of abject misery."

She reached the town of Manningtree about 8 o'clock at night, and had in pursuit came a small body of nuns in a wagonette. They also were wet through after their long search for the fugitive over the countryside. The pursuers caught up with Miss Moulit just as she was ascending a private pathway, the property of the Great Eastern railway company, leading from the main road to the station. The party were then conducted to a waiting room in the station where an interview with the station master followed. Despite all the persuasive powers of the nuns, Miss Moulit absolutely declined to go back to the nunnery.

The station master lent her ten shillings with which to obtain a ticket to London, where, she stated, she wished to visit her friends. She was also given something to eat, and was allowed to remain in the waiting room by herself until the arrival of the mail train at midnight from Liverpool.

The mother of the young lady has returned to the Manningtree station master the half-sovereign, he advanced, and has explained in a covering letter that Miss Moulit entered the sisterhood with high religious ideals. The young woman arrived among her friends in St. Paul town, Camden Town, at 5 o'clock in the morning. Her mother, sister and brother had lived at one time in a house in that road; and curiously enough her brother had spent the night in the house, and was there when his sister arrived. Later Miss Moulit went to the effects of her recent exciting adventure. She has a sister in a convent at Paris, while another is well known on the provincial stage as Miss "Vivien Storm."

St. John's, Nfld., March 25.—What was several months ago a tract of virgin wilderness in the central section of Newfoundland, today, because of the scarcity of pulp wood in the United States, is the town of Grand Falls with nearly 2,000 inhabitants. Within fifty square miles of territory there has been laid out a dam 1,000 feet wide, capable of storing 100,000,000 feet of logs, two separate railroad lines, a power station of 45,000 horse power capacity, a private telephone system and nearly four hundred houses. It is expected to place several steamboats in commission as soon as active manufacturing is begun early next fall. It is understood that the expenditure of $6,000,000 will be necessary to the fulfillment of the plans. An English newspaper owner is at the head of the project.

THE FOREST RESERVES

List of Reserves in the Four Western Provinces—Their Value and How They Are Preserved—Timber Permits.

"The Dominion Forest Reserves are intended to preserve and produce a perpetual supply of timber for the people of the prairie, the homesteaders' needs being considered of first importance. They are also intended to furnish wood for the lumber trade. Hence the policy of the department is favorable to small mills rather than to large ones which need large tracts of forest and manufacture lumber beyond the needs of the settlers." In these words Mr. Knechtel, inspector of Dominion Forest Reserves, defines the objects for which the Dominion forest reserves are being managed in Bulletin No. 3 of the forestry branch of the Department of the Interior.

Mr. Knechtel gives a list of the reserves, with the dates when they were set aside. The aggregate area of all the Dominion forest reserves is 16,312 square miles, divided as follows:

Manitoba, 8 reserves, 9,576 sq. miles.
Saskatchewan, 4 reserves, 740 sq. miles.
Alberta, 6 reserves, 5,702 sq. miles.
British Columbia, 10 reserves, 2,285 sq. miles.

Forest fires furnish perhaps the most serious problems met with in the administration of the reserves. This problem is greater in Eastern timberlands. Mr. Knechtel is convinced. The amount of rainfall and the number of rainy days is much less in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba than in the east. This, Mr. Knechtel proves by figures from the "weather man's" report, giving these facts for Calgary, Qu'Appelle and Toronto. Figures prove too, that the wind, on the average, blows at twice the rate in Winnipeg than it does in Toronto.

The reserves are under constant patrol, summer and winter.

In 1908 only two serious fires occurred on the reserves. Of these one on "The Pines" reserve, near Prince Albert, Sask., burned over 23 square miles, but destroyed no valuable timber. The other, in the Turtle Mountain reserve, burned over 28 square miles, mostly covered with grass. In both fires, however, considerable damage was done to young growth.

Various other methods of protection from fire, such as the burning of fire lines and the ploughing of fire guards are also mentioned. Roads across the reserves and along their boundaries are also being constructed, largely with this end in view. One hundred and fifty miles of such roads were made last year.

Grazing on the reserves is another problem that has been considered. This will be allowed under certain restrictions. Why should grain be imported to go to waste? The inspector asks. The cattle, too, the cattle, too, will eat up the dense growth of grass and pea-vine that is found in many places on the reserves. This, if dried, would furnish the best kind of fuel for forest fires. Moreover, in going to water, make for themselves narrow paths, which will act both as a check to the flames, and a point from which to backfire.

On many of the reserves large areas have been destroyed by fire. Experiments are being carried on with a view to the reforestation of these. Sowing the seed of trees, rather than the far more expensive planting, is favored.

During 1906 a number of squatters were removed from the Riding Mountain and Turtle Mountain reserves, 126 from the former and 26 from the latter. Despite the delicate nature of the work, those who were removed were so well pleased with the change that all have made a bid to return to the effect that they have been well treated and are well pleased with the change.

The boundaries of the reserves have been marked and timber surveys conducted on them with the object of ascertaining the present amount of timber and the annual growth.

How much timber is there on the reserves? Inspector Knechtel, gives an approximate estimate as follows: On the Manitoba reserves 602,933,000 bd. ft. of saw-timber, and 6,260,000 cords of fuel wood.

On the Saskatchewan reserves 55,000,000 bd. ft. of saw-timber, and 690,000 cords of fuel wood.

On the Alberta reserves, 8,402,000,000 bd. ft. of saw-timber and 54,230,000 cords of fuel wood.

On the British Columbia reserves, 60,000,000 bd. ft. of saw-timber, and 8,900,000 cords of fuel wood.

CHAPTER XII

Lois, when she came down to breakfast next morning, was quite as usual, and to the joking questions of Captain Jerry and Captain Perez, who were curious concerning her "errand" of the previous evening and who pretended to believe that she had gone to a dance or "time" with some "feller" unknown, she gave evasive but good humored replies.

"Well, I don't know. I did do a little electioneerin' for one or two fellers, and maybe they ought to be willin' to do somethin' for me. Still, you can't vote for a feller, can you? You can't vote for a feller, can you? You can't vote for a feller, can you?"

"No, I shan't change my mind. I'm ever mind ever so much obliged to you, though."

All that evening Captain Eri worked at the model of the clipper, and the expression on his face as he whittled showed that he was puzzled and not a little troubled.

He came back from his fishing next day a little earlier than usual, changed his working clothes for his second best suit, harnessed Daniel into the buggy and then came into the house and announced that he was going over to the Neck on an errand, and Elsie wanted to go with him, he should be glad of her company. As this was but part of a prearranged scheme, the young lady declared that a ride was just what she needed.

Captain Eri said but little as they drove up to the "main road". He seemed to be thinking. Elsie, too, was very quiet. When they reached the fruit and candy shop just around the corner the captain stopped the horse, got down and went in. When he came out he had a bundle of cigars.

"Why, Captain Eri," said Elsie, "I didn't know that you smoked cigars. I thought a pipe was your favorite."

"Well, g'n'rally speakin', that's the answer, 'but I'm electioneerin' now, and politics without cigars would be like a chorwerd without any clams. Run goes with some kind of politics, but backer-kind of chums in with all kinds. 'Tain't always safe to judge a candidate by the kind of cigars he gives out neither. I've found that out."

"Who? John?" he asked. "Yes, John?" he asked. "Yes, John?" he asked. "Yes, John?" he asked.

"Who? John?" he asked. "Yes, John?" he asked. "Yes, John?" he asked. "Yes, John?" he asked.

you was tryin' to get that harness teacher to come down here and take Carrie Nixon's place when she got married?"

"Well, I thought of her. She's all right, isn't she?"

"Yes, I s'pose she is. 'Twould be better if she lived in Orham, maybe, and folks couldn't say you went out of town for a teacher when you could have had one right from home. Then, she's some relation of your cousin, ain't she? Course, that's all right, but well, you can't pay attention to everythin' that's said."

"Could have got one right from home! Who'd we get? Dave Bledges's girl, I s'pose. I heard she was after it."

The conversation that followed was in a lower tone, and Elsie heard but little of it. She heard enough, however, to later that Captain Eri was still the disinterested friend, and that Solomon was very anxious to retain that friendship. After awhile the striking of matches indicated that the fresh cigars were being lighted, and then the pair rose from their chairs and entered the outer office. Mr. Bangs was very gracious, exceedingly so.

"Miss Preston," he said, "Cap'n Hedge tells me that it—er—might be possible for us—er—for the town to be secure—er—to our teacher in the upstairs room. It ain't necessary for me to say that—er—a teacher from Radcliffe don't come over way very often, and that's the way it is. Of course, 'tisn't a would—er—feel—s'ry—lucky if you'd be willing to come."

"Of course, I told him, Elsie," said Captain Eri, "that you wouldn't think of anything like that. Of course, 'tisn't a would—er—feel—s'ry—lucky if you'd be willing to come."

"I understand, I understand," said the pompous committee man. "I think that can be arranged. I really think—er—Miss Preston, ain't there ain't any reason why you can't consider it settled. A-hem!"

Elsie thanked him, trying her best not to smile, and they were bowed out by the great man, who, however, called her aside and told her that he had a favor to ask of her for a moment or two. The word "Seth" was mentioned at least once.

"Why, Captain Eri," exclaimed Elsie, "I've heard you say that you don't smoke cigars. You said you didn't smoke cigars. You said you didn't smoke cigars. You said you didn't smoke cigars."

ACUTE INDIGESTION Cured Through the Timely Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

There is no medicine can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for stomach troubles. These Pills are not an artificial appetizer nor a stimulant. They act in nature's own way by making rich, red blood. This new blood gives vigor to all the organs. When it flows through the tiny veins in the stomach, it stimulates them and crosses that craving which people call "appetite."

Then when the appetite is satisfied with food the blood gives the stomach strength to digest it. The nourishment is absorbed by the blood, and carried to every organ in the body. That is how Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure stomach troubles and all blood diseases. That is how they give blood and strength to weak, worn-out people.

Mr. H. Thomas Curry, Port Maitland, N.S., says: "About three years ago I was attacked with what the doctors termed acute indigestion. The first indication was a bad taste in my mouth in the morning and a salivary flow from the mouth. My stomach developed my tongue was heavily coated, especially in the morning, and I felt particularly dull. My appetite began to fail. I could not eat. I felt as if I was eating a piece of wood. I was always tired, with my head aching, and my eyes were sore. The medicines given me by my doctor, as well as many others, failed to restore me, or even relieve me. It was in this very un- happy state for almost a year when I read in a newspaper one day of the cure of a case similar to mine through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This decided me to give these Pills a trial. It was not long before I felt some relief from the distress after taking the first dose. I continued to take the Pills all languor and drowsiness and headaches left me and I began to enjoy increased energy and new vigor. Today I am well, and enjoying the best of health, with never a twinge of the old trouble, and I attribute my cure entirely to the fair cures of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or you can get them by mail for 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

STRUGGLING SINGERS. A Great Army of Vocalists Eager For Engagements.

At present there are not as many Americans as usual in Milano—possibly the late crisis may have something to do with the state of affairs—but the city is flooded with vocalists eager to obtain a chance to appear on the boards and willing to pay well for an engagement lasting of on for six months, a year or even two for the sake of experience.

Milano, the commercial center of music, all engagements are made through agents, of whom there are from seventy-five to a hundred. Most of these publish a long list of their clients, and it is seldom that the same name appears in two different lists. The one now before me—one of the best—gives the names of 933 artists. These may be divided into three classes: (a) Those who do not desire an engagement, having a long contract already made with the names of Caruso, Tetratini, Alda, and others (and others equally well known); (b) those having short engagements, ending in a month or two, and (c) those who have nothing to do.

Remember, this is only one list, that mentions only tried artists and that behind these is an army of singers who have studied from two to three years and are eager for an engagement; that foreigners do not have a special chance with natives, and one has to be a native-born Italian, or a foreigner has to encounter.

Caruso with his beautiful voice was floating about Italy for eight years, glad to get a chance to sing how glad he was to sing in New York, and almost starved in Milan. Time after time he tempted fate in little towns, only to be "protested," until outside of Italy a queen admired his voice and his fortune was made.

Duchess Verus Lord Chancellor. The English House of Lords has never been particularly kind to its fair visitors. Long ago, in the days when duchesses sold their kisses for votes, the House of Lords forbade them to enter, and a battle royal ensued between the ladies and the peers. The Lord Chancellor had sworn that he would not let them in, and the Duchess of Queensberry had sworn that ladies should come in. This being reported, we read in an old diary, "the peers resolved to starve them out. An order was made that the doors should not be opened till they had raised their siege."

These amasons now showed themselves qualified for the duty even of foot soldiers. They stood there till five in the afternoon without either succor or intermission, every now and then playing volleys of thumps, kicks and raps against the door with so much violence that the speakers in the House were scarcely able to hear the voices of their brethren.

According to the Deuter Post, a marble-like material, declared to be a great advance over other artificial stone, is now made from the waste slag of blast furnaces mixed with a little lime. The slag is crushed and powdered, one-seventh part of quicklime is added, and the mass, made into a paste with water, is pressed into molds of metal. The blocks so formed on drying have the consistency of chalk. They are placed in iron cylinders from which the air is pumped out and then re-placed with carbonic acid, and after a few days in this gas the hydrate of lime becomes carbonated, binding the mass into a rock of great hardness. The finished stone takes a high polish.

Blighins is always talking now. "Which kind?" asked Miss Cayenne. "Is there more than one kind?" "Yes. Some men talk the kind of nonsense that makes you laugh, and others talk the kind that makes you feel sorry for them."—Washington Star.

THE PRIZE WINNERS AT THE WINTER FAIR

About a Hundred Horses on Exhibition—Better Show of Horses Than Before—Cattle, Sheep and Swine Also Well Represented—Four Associations Formed—Winter Fair Board.

Though the weather was not the most desirable the annual winter fair and fat stock sale held in the city last week turned out very successfully. There was a good attendance of spectators on Wednesday and Thursday particularly.

The show of horses beats anything previously exhibited in western Canada. It even surpassed the exhibits in Chicago and that is saying a good deal for numerous splendid animals are on exhibition at the stock shows there. There were about one hundred entries.

While the cattle show was good, and there were a very large number of first class animals shown, yet there is some room for improvement and exhibitors might take a lesson from the horsemen in fitting their animals up for the prize ring.

While this province is not a sheep raising one, yet there were many fine specimens to be seen in this class. In the swine classes while there were a good number of exhibits, yet where so much pork may be raised, it strikes one as strange that there should not be about five times as many entries as there were at the past show.

The addresses given during the carrying out of the program of the fair were full of food for thought and no doubt those who attended them will reap a good deal of benefit therefrom. The meeting in the city hall on Wednesday evening was addressed by, among others, Thos. McMillan, a well known agriculturalist and stock raiser of Ontario. His address was listened to with close attention by the large crowd present. He pointed out how the farmer could be made produce more and how the farmer should not depend upon his wheat alone. He pointed out the demand of permanent system of agriculture.

The awards in the different classes were as follows:
Horses.

Rod and Gun.
The first sight of the fine cover de-sign of the excellent spring (April) Fishing Number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Woodstock, Ont., will stir the blood of the thousands of fishermen through-out Canada and start them on the congenial work of preparing for the coming fray. The long and varied na-ture of the contents of the number in which fish and fishing topics pre-dominate, will still further stimulate them, and the opening of the fishing season will probably see an in-crease in the anglers' ranks as one of the results of the interest aroused through the wide dissemination of these stories. Three articles stand out as of value to the country: "Pre-serving the Nation's Fish," by Cyrus McMillan, an illustrated descriptive account of the work of the Prince Edward Island hatchery; "The Un-solved Mystery of the Salmon," by Bonnycastle Dale, who has spent two years on the Pacific coast studying the ways of the salmon, and with the exception of one point, leaving the mystery unsolved; and "Conservation of Non-Nest Building Fishes of the Great Lakes," by W. E. Meahan, chief fish commissioner for Pennsylv-ania, in which a plea is put for-ward on behalf of a policy on which there will be great differences of opinion but which closely concerns the future of the Great Lakes fishes-ries. Then fishing trips in four sepa-rate provinces are told in a manner irresistibly reminding fishermen of in-stant in their own experiences. "A New Brunswick Lost Lake Found," is particularly good, though each story has an interest all its own. A similar variety of fare will be found for those interested in other forms of sport. "A Lady's Moose Hunt in New Brunswick," by Miss Ennoch being an excellent number the sportsman will be able to find material which cannot fail to prove of the deepest possible interest to him.

Lower Grain Rates.
Port Arthur, Ont., March 25.—Lo-cal vessel interests are concerned in the prospects of a rate war in the carrying of grain between Port Ar-thur, Port William and the Atlantic seaboard. It looks as if there would be a drop of from fifteen to twenty per cent in the grain rates from Port Arthur to Montreal at the opening of navigation occasioned by the cutting of rates by United States carriers in an effort to keep the trade in United States channels from which it has been slipping very fast. During the past couple of years the shipping trade at Montreal has made great advances and it has been giving shipments of goods to the west. The promise of becoming the premier grain shipping point on the Atlantic seaboard. Naturally this prospect does not please the United States transportation companies and the announcement has been made that they intend making a cut in rates between Buffalo and New York and other eastern points.

This cut is calculated to divert trade from Montreal back to the United States routes. To offset this Canadian vessel owners will likely cut their rates from Port Arthur and Port William to Montreal. The carrying rates of last year averaged about six cents per bushel between the head of the lakes and Montreal. It is expected that in the early part of the coming summer the rates will drop down to five cents and possibly four and a half.
At the present time no very great rush of grain to the east at the opening of navigation is looked for, or if there is it may not be for long. There is about two millions less bushels of grain at the head of the lakes now than at this time last year. The possibility of a light grain traffic is, however, offset for the Canadian boats in the outlook for large ships of goods to the west. The shipments of goods in this direction will be much heavier than last year and this is also looked upon to help the Canadian vessels' interests in the prospective rate war with the United States transportation companies.

JAP CRUISERS VISIT
Ottawa, March 26.—Official infor-mation has been received here by T. Sugimura, acting counsel general for Japan, that the Japanese training squadron consisting of two cruisers, the Asa and Soya, under Rear Ad-miral Hiji, with a number of naval cadets on board will, early in May, be in Canadian waters on their annual cruise in the Pacific ocean. The squadron will arrive at Esquimaut, May 12, leave May 15, will arrive at Vancouver on May 15 and leave on May 23.

THE oven does the baking, the fire-box controls the oven heat, and the grates hold the coal or wood that produces the heat, so THE GRATES are important.

Sask-alta Range Double Duplex Grates

"Sask-alta" Double Duplex Grates are made in four pieces, each grate shaken separately. Ashes over one grate can be shaken without wasting good fuel over other grate. No poking necessary, thereby saving fuel. Dampers at both ends of fire-box secure perfect drafts. When grates are inverted for wood a patent clamp retains them in position. The easiest-working way is the surest-serving way—and that's "Sask-alta" way.

Shillinglaw, city engineer of Brandon, will act for Regina, and the two have selected R. J. Wilson, assistant city engineer of Winnipeg.

While here they made a large number of friends who also regret to see their departure but wish them every success in their new surroundings. The editor of the Yorkton Enterprise has the following to say of this city after his recent visit: "But speaking of Regina. In the capital of this province have a city to which they can point with pride. Its magnificent city hall, its postoffice, its hotels, its well paved sidewalks and streets would do credit to any city, and its other buildings, especially those recently erected, are modern and handsome and bespeak the commercial importance of the capital, and the faith of its citizens in its future. The board of trade and the city council royally entertained the newspapermen who last week met in Regina, and as a result the scribes of the west carried away an impression of Saskatchewan's fair capital that cannot but result beneficially for the city of the province. To many of them the city's growth and prosperity was a marvel, and to all was demonstrated that where once stood "Pile of Bones," now stands a city that will always rank among the foremost in the west."

The development of the Last West would be greatly retarded, as was the settlement of the American west, if, with all the modern uses of power the country did not have the means to produce it. Because, after all is said it is the application of steam and electricity to the machinery of production and transportation and public utilities that has made possible the transportation and sale of 100,000,000 bushels of wheat grown in one year from the occupation of 5,000,000 acres of land in a new country. The former ignorance of men as to how to use the forces of nature and turn them into power for their own use contributed as much to the delay in the opening up of the last west as the uninhabitableness and barrenness of the country sent out by the agents of the Hudson's Bay Company—Clayton M. Jones, writing on "Power: Wizard of Settlement," in the Canadian Magazine for April.

FIRE AT ARDEN.

Arden, Man., March 25.—Fire which broke out at midnight in the office of W. H. Park, hardware merchant, destroyed that building and the entire stock valued at $4,000, on which $2,000 insurance was carried. A large quantity of machinery in the Frost and Wood warehouse adjoining, was also destroyed. Only the efforts of a voluntary fire brigade kept the blaze from spreading.

GRAFT IN LONDON.

London, March 25.—Mayor Stevely and Ald. Ferguson and Gerry, may soon be called upon to face proceedings to unseat them on the ground that the interests they represent secured civic contracts for work on the new isolation hospital. The real estate association intend to press for their unseating. It has also developed that Mayor Stevely is connected with a company which supplied furnaces for the city fire halls. Ald. Ferguson, chairman of the finance committee, and Ald. Gerry, chairman of the board of works, make no secret of the fact that they have dealt directly with the contractor on the isolation hospital. Ald. Ferguson supplied all the lumber, selling to the contractor the roofing material, and also selling to Ald. Gerry the lumber necessary for dressing. Ald. Gerry supplied all the finished work such as window frames, doors, casings and baseboards.
