NEW ALLAN LINER ALSATIAN

Safety of Passengers Paramount in the Construction of the Ship—Special Features of Equipment.

Additional particulars to those already published are now to hand concerning the recently launched Allan liner Alsatian. Safety is stated to have been the paramount design in the construction of the ship, and everything possible has been done to attain this object. The precautions taken include special strengthening forward as a protection against ice, while the other structural appliances adopted to secure safety are such that the ship would be safe with any four adjacent compartments open to the sea. There is a cellular double bottom which reduces the risk of grounding to a minimum, bilge keels of Admiralty type to minimize rolling, and a cruiser stern which imparts a warlike aspect to the ship, which is the first Atlantic liner to adopt this method of reducing vibration, as well as contributing greatly to the safety of navigation. As already reported, the fittings are in the Jacobean style, of which the dining saloon is the best illustration, a handsome apartment sixty feet long and extending the full width of the ship.

The smoking room, library, lounge and card room are each unique as regards some details of furnishing and arrangement. There is a gymnasium and verandah cafe, the latter furnished with small tables and chairs in the orthodox Continental style. A telephone system is installed throughout for the efficient navigation of the vessel and for the convenience of passengers, every first-class stateroom and all en suite apartments being so fitted. The second and third class accommodation and kitchens are also of superior type, while the utmost attention has been paid to sanitation, lighting, heating and ventilation. That there is wireless telegraphy, fog signalling apparatus and life-boat accommodation for all on board almost goes without saying. The propelling machinery consists of compound steam turbines arranged in series of four shafts. One great advantage among many of turbine machinery is the absence of objectionable engine room odors and noise. The Calgarian, which will shortly be launched from the Fairfield yards, is being constructed on similar lines.

New Settlers Continue to Flow In

Nearly Two Thousand Arrived April 7th and More Are Coming.

With a total of 2,607 passengers aboard, 1,812 of whom were landed at Halifax, the Allan Liner Scandinavian from Liverpool, and the Uranium Liner Campanello, from Rotterdam, arrived at Halifax on Sunday, both docking at the Terminal at 8 a.m., and docking about noon. She had 1,227 passengers made up of second and third, of whom 102 only remained on board to proceed to Portland. She also had a large amount of cargo to be discharged here, and it will likely be this evening before she gets away. Her passage across was the average for this time of year.

The Campanello drew up to the Terminal about five o'clock and immediately commenced disembarking a part of her large number of passengers, the total being 1,380, of whom 687 will be landed at Halifax, the remainder proceeding to New York. Her passengers were mostly all Russians, with a few Hungarians. Capt. Nelson, who is this trip in charge of the Campanello, reported heavy winds, but other than that the ship was not delayed. She left Rotterdam on March 25th, making the average time across. Captain Agassiz, formerly in charge of the Campanello, is reported to have been in command of the Uranium, which is now on her way across the Atlantic to this side. The Campanello will discharge about 857 tons of cargo here, among which are 600 tons of fertilizer.

A busy day is anticipated at the Terminal today. Approaching Halifax are three big liners, with a total of almost 2,000 passengers. The largest ship to bring passengers to this side is the White Star Line, the largest ship to bring passengers to Halifax. She has 800 to disembark here. It is probable, however, that the Rijndam, of the Holland American Line, for which Furness, Witky Company are the agents, will dock first, and get away for New York with as little delay as possible. She has five hundred passengers for Halifax.

The Florida, of the Compagnie Generale Trans Atlantique, from Havre, is the third ship due today. She will land several hundred here and then proceed to New York. The next ship to arrive in the course of the week during the week will be the C. N. R. Liner Royal Edward, from Bristol, with 1,168 passengers, all of whom will be for Halifax.

CORRESPONDENCE

To the Editor of Monitor-Sentinel:—Last week I perused in your paper the letters of Mr. Hervey and Mr. Adams with much interest and not a little amusement. I have known Mr. Hervey since he came to this country, a boy, to learn farming, and can well imagine how much he enjoyed trying to be funny. I have no desire to injure the United Fruit Company or the farmers of the Valley. On the contrary, I am more than anxious that the system which will give the best results should be adopted.

Argument is of no avail when a man of Mr. Adams' intelligence can see no difference between No. 1 Gravestones and spotted No. 3's. His style of reasoning may be ingenious and calculated to deceive, but certainly it is not logical. I think my friend will have more difficulty in explaining the difference between the prices received by the Annapolis Valley Fruit & Produce Company and the United Fruit Company for Ribstons, as the former Company had a fair share of No. 1's in this variety. The Annapolis Valley Fruit & Produce Company sold their No. 1 Ribstons, carrying twenty-five per cent No. 2 at $2.05, excess of No. 2 at $1.55, and No. 3 at $1.05. If I am correctly informed, the United Fruit Company received for theirs $1.51 for No. 1, $1.33 for No. 2, and 73c for No. 3, being at the rate of $540.00 less per 1000 barrels for No. 1 Ribstons, $720.00 less for twenty-five per cent of No. 2, $220.00 less for excess of No. 2 and $220.00 less for No. 3. There was not the least difficulty in selling Ribstons for the above price. In fact, I had orders in hand that would have taken every Ribston in Annapolis County.

The Central were more fortunate in disposing of their Kings. They are 20c ahead of us on their No. 1's, 5c behind on No. 2, 43c behind on No. 3, large, and 7c ahead on No. 3, small. On 1800 barrels of Kings the Annapolis Valley Fruit & Produce Company received $192.00 more than they would have obtained had the United Fruit Company handled them.

We disposed of our Blenheims at the following prices:—No. 1 and No. 2, $2.05; No. 3, $1.05 being 25c. more for No. 1, 55c. more for No. 2 and 20c. more for No. 3 than the United Fruit Company received for theirs. We believe the United Fruit Company of Whistamton, and the Lawrenceton Fruit Co. sold their apples at the same rate that we did.

These apples were sold to speculators who shipped them to London, Liverpool, and Glasgow and sold them at a fair profit in competition with apples of the same varieties sent by the United Fruit Company, the only difference being that the speculators consigned their fruit to the reliable firms that they had been shipping to for the last forty years, while the United Fruit Company sent theirs to their agent.

In view of the above facts, is it any wonder that the merchants of Lawrenceton are prosperous, and the farmers for miles around happy and contented?

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your space, I remain, Yours truly,
S. E. BANCROFT.

UNITY IN EUROPE MAY BE RESULT OF BALKAN WAR.

London, March 27.—The point raised by Mr. Churchill as to the possibility of the European nations taking a holiday for a year in respect to the construction of Dreadnoughts is regarded with favor by all who are working for peace and good will among the nations.

There is no doubt that if Great Britain and Germany were to make up their minds upon this point the other countries would gladly follow suit.

Released from the foolish rivalry of battleship building, these countries would then be able to turn to social and economic development, which would be heartily welcomed by the people.

Are the Citizens of Bridgetown Satisfied With Conditions?

Dear Editor:—In response to a notice given through the Monitor, of a meeting of the Board of Trade, for the purpose of electing officers for the year, only four citizens, besides the president and secretary found their way to the Council chamber.

Why so? Why the cause of this seeming lack of interest in an organization that is recognized as one of the strongest mediums in any town or city, to progressiveness and prosperity.

Is it that the citizens of Bridgetown, the business men particularly, are fully satisfied with their present conditions? I do not think so, but am inclined to attribute it to an indifferent attitude on the part of a great many.

I know some are ready to assail the Board of Trade with adverse criticism and with questions. "What have you done?" "What is the Board doing?" Perhaps it has not done much but are you a helping factor?

No organization is conducive of any marked success unless there is unanimity of purpose, and alive interest on the part of its members. And here I would like to state in a spirit that I trust will not give offence, that I believe Bridgetown has been hampered in the past, by the pulling apart of its citizens, and by political feelings.

Political leanings and opinions are justly proper, and we have small regard for the man who is without them, but like all other things, they have their time and place.

Let us respect every honest opinion even though it may not coincide with yours or mine and let us forget every difference, and join in promoting the general welfare of Bridgetown.

Let us get out of the rut of indifference or whatever else it may be, and let us be willing to make some personal sacrifice. Let us band ourselves together, with one common aim, to make Bridgetown bigger, brighter, better.

There will be a meeting of the Board next Monday evening, April 14th at 7.30 in the Council chamber. Every business man is particularly wanted in this Board of Trade. I thank you, Mr. Editor, for giving me of your valuable space, and will be pleased if these few observations awaken a further degree of interest in the advancement of the interest of our town.

HENRY B. HICKS.

For the past fiscal year the revenue for the port of Yarmouth was $86,676, an increase of $24,089 over the previous year.

Doubtless the investing public will be interested to learn something about the progress made in the erection of the plant of the Eastern Car Company, the bonds and preferred stock of which we offered for subscription last August.

The plant is being erected on seventy-seven acres of land immediately adjoining the Trenton Works of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Company. Up to the present time the power house building has been finished and the installation of boilers and power equipment is well under way.

The steel frame-work of the main building has been completed and the roof is now being put on. Some idea of the magnitude of the plant may be had from the dimensions of the main building, which is 1100 feet long, 360 feet wide, and covers nine acres of ground.

All of the necessary equipment which has not already reached the plant, is now either on the way, or will be shipped within the next thirty days. In short, it is confidently anticipated that the plant will be fabricating car material within the next three months.

Rural Deanery of Annapolis.

The annual spring meeting of this Deanery convened at Digby on Monday afternoon of this week. There were present—the Rev. H. How, Rural Dean, in the chair, Revs. M. Taylor, Weymouth; W. Driffield, Digby; J. Lockward, Clementsport; J. Reeks, Round Hill; E. Underwood, Bridgetown; W. S. H. Morris, Middleton; and Messrs T. E. G. Lynch, H. L. Dennison, K. C. Digby, H. L. Jones, Weymouth. The first business was the hearing of the annual report of the Governor of King's College, Mr. H. L. Jones. This, as usual, was replete with information of the past year's work at the college and the outlook for the future. Mr. Jones clearly showed that everything about the College is most cheering. During the year a new wing was added, and another is in contemplation of immediate erection to accommodate the number of students applying for admission, King's being essentially a residential college. After a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Jones for his report and continued interest in the College and all concerning it, he was unanimously re-elected to represent the Deanery on the Board of Governors for the ensuing year.

The Clergy then assembled "in chapter." After the usual routine of opening the Rev. W. S. H. Morris read a paper showing much thought on "The Name of the Spirit," this having arisen out of the discussion on the portion of Greek Testament read at the last meeting.

In the evening a service was held in Holy Trinity church at which an address on "Organization" was given by the Rev. M. Taylor.

Tuesday's proceedings commenced with the usual Deanery service at 8 a.m. consisting of Holy Communion and sermon "ad clerum."

The preacher was the Rev. M. How, who preached a well thought out and able sermon from the text "Who also hath made us able ministers of the New Testament," 2 Cor., 3, 6.

At 10.30 the Clergy assembled for the second session, which was devoted to translation and exegesis of a portion of Greek Testament. Mr. Morris contributing his customary illuminative paper on the passage chosen.

At the afternoon session the Rev. J. Lockward read a paper on "Millennial Dawnism," which provoked a good discussion, as Mr. Lockward's papers always do.

During the transaction of miscellaneous which followed, a fitting resolution was passed relative to the tragic death of the late Archdeacon Kaalback.

The next meeting will be held at Annapolis Royal the first week in September.

Immediately after the adjournment the Clergy dined at the Rectory and later in the evening a reception was tendered them by the Young Peoples' Friendly Society in the Parish Hall. This afforded a splendid opportunity of social intercourse with the good people of Holy Trinity parish, Digby and was a pleasant conclusion to a profitable and pleasurable meeting.

CHINESE PIRATES MADE BIG HAUL.

Hong Kong, April 4.—Pirates yesterday held up the British River steamer Taion in the estuary of the Canton River. They killed two and wounded four Chinese passengers. They tied up the European officers and took everything of value, even to the ship's lights, arms and ammunition. The pirates, to the number of thirty, boarded the steamer at Hong Kong as passengers, when outside British waters they rose and killed the steersman, bound the officers and ransacked the officers and passengers' cabins. They obtained about fifteen hundred dollars and a quantity of valuables, and made off in the steamer's boats.

The entertainment billed for the Primrose Theatre next Monday evening under the direction of Sergeant Major Gill, promises to be quite the best of its kind seen in Bridgetown for many years. Tickets are on sale at A. R. Bishop's and the prices being popular, a full house is assured. See posters.

The petition of E. L. Fisher and a number of other rate-payers of the Town was read before the Council by the mayor, asking that the street light recently moved from the corner at the intersection of Court and Water Streets be replaced. Moved that the prayer of the petition be granted, and that the extra light placed at the corner at the intersection of Water and Middle streets be taken down. Moved in amendment that the new light at the corner at the intersection of Water and Middle Streets be removed to corner of Water and Court Streets. The amendment being put it was carried.

A letter was read by the Clerk from the Canada Iron Corporation offering to supply crushed rock for the streets, referred to the street committee.

And it was further resolved that any person firm, company, association or corporation paying to the town treasurer the amount of his, her or its taxes on or before such date shall be entitled to a reduction of five per cent therefrom.

And it was further resolved that interest at the rate of five per cent per annum shall be paid on any rates and taxes or balance thereof that are unpaid after the said first day of June, 1913, and such interest shall be added to the unpaid rates and taxes or balances thereof due from any person, firm, company, corporation or association and shall be collected as chargeable in the same manner as rates and taxes are collected and chargeable under the provisions of the town's incorporation act and amendments thereto and as though the said interest was a part of the said rates.

Moved by Councillor Salter and seconded by Councillor Craigs that pursuant to chapter 24 of the acts of the legislature of Nova Scotia for the year 1913 entitled "An act to enable the Town of Bridgetown to borrow money for the making of permanent streets in the town," the town of Bridgetown borrow the sum of three thousand dollars and issue its debentures therefor, such debentures to be for the sum of five hundred dollars each and to be numbered from one to six inclusive, to be dated the first day of May, A. And further resolved that the clerk prepare the necessary debentures as directed in this resolution, and have the same printed, and that he offer the same for sale, and sell them upon the most favorable terms offered.

Mr. Robt. H. Chipman, of the "Masonic Home," Windsor, was a visitor in town the past week. He is very enthusiastic over the Home, its surroundings, and very appreciative of the benefits and kindness received. There are forty acres of tillage, dyke land and considerable orchard, thus preventing monotony to the residents.

Mr. D. J. Morse, who has been ill the past few weeks, we are glad to learn is greatly improved.

Miss Ruby Wood, of Annapolis Royal, was a guest of Miss Olga Sponagle the past few days.

Miss Gracie Thomas left on Wednesday for Boston, intending to enter a hospital for professional training.

The remains of Mrs. Brown, daughter of the late Newton Brown, were brought from Hantsport on Saturday for interment at Pine Grove Cemetery.

Mr. Watson Bishop, Superintendent of Streets in Dartmouth, gave a very instructive address on street construction on Tuesday evening. Just at present it is one of the great problems we have to deal with and every effort is being made to secure good permanent streets.

LAWRENCETOWN

Miss Lizzie Feltus, the popular clerk at Shaffner's Limited, is spending a few weeks in Boston.

C. R. McLeod's two daughters from Bridgewater, are spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. Dent.

Mrs. W. C. MacPherson spent a few days at Caledonia, Queens County, last week.

E. H. Freeman, recently returned from Cobalt, Ont., is employed with his brother, Karl Freeman, hardware merchant at Bridgetown.

Sam Bishop is at home, after having spent the winter in Halifax as assistant in the department of fruit inspection. He has bought a fine horse since returning.

Miss Maria Durling has gone to Newton Hospital to train for a nurse. We wish her success. Miss Lola Layte is visiting in South Framingham, Mass., for a time. We miss our young folks.

A representative of the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Company, Limited, was in town last week to look into the matter of removing the business of the Lawrencetown circuit from Bridgetown, and establishing a Central here in Lawrencetown. In the event of this taking place the call office will be at the hotel.

Lawrencetown's Business Men and Business Houses

Last week we referred to Mr. Phinney, who has been longer in business than any other man in Lawrencetown. Today we wish to give you a glimpse of two others.

First, we will notice the oldest business house and its proprietor, Mr. H. H. Whitman. This business was established by Mr. Whitman's father, the late J. W. Whitman, over half a century ago, and is thus the oldest continuous business in the town, probably one of the oldest in the country. In the building which Mr. Whitman now occupies a general store has been conducted by father and son for over forty years. Mr. H. H. Whitman, when a young man, went to Woodstock, N. B., where he engaged in the grocery business for six or seven years. On his return to his native town in 1893 he purchased his father's business. Benefitting by the experience gained in the sister province, and with a natural aptitude for business, through courteous attention to customers, and straight, fair dealing, Mr. Whitman has built up a large and prosperous business. The neatness of his store is a great attraction. On the first floor will be found a full stock of groceries, staple dry goods, ready-made clothing, boots and shoes, a fine assortment of fancy china, dinner and tea sets, and all lines found in a first-class general store. In fact Mr. Whitman will be sure to supply you with anything not to be found elsewhere. On the second floor he has a fine display of furniture.

The Lawrencetown Hotel, under the name of the Carlisle, was kept by Mr. and Mrs. Whitman for three years, and much well-deserved praise was given them by the travelling public.

For eleven years Mr. Whitman has filled most acceptably the office of Town Clerk.

Mr. S. T. Jefferson has a fine business stand in the west end of the town. Mr. Jefferson came to us from Moschelle about eighteen years ago. He was born at Round Hill, and when a young man moved with his father to Moschelle, where he kept a store for a Co-operative Company. After some years he bought out the company and continued the business in his own name. From the first he exhibited that business ability which has made him a successful merchant.

Mr. Jefferson began business in Lawrencetown in the Stevens store. From there he removed to the store next the Post Office, formerly kept by the late Rupert Elliott. Again he sought more commodious quarters in the store he now occupies, owned by H. W. Phinney.

FRAUDULENT EMPLOYEES.

A case of deep interest to railway men was before the Courts last week, when two employees of the C. P. R., Conductor A. Collins and J. A. Bartley, ticket clerk at Three Rivers, were each sentenced to nine months imprisonment for conspiracy to defraud the company. The way the game was worked was that after selling tickets to passengers the ticket clerks would board the train and after conductor Collins had taken up the tickets they were returned to the ticket clerk unpunched, and he caught the first homeward bound train and resold the tickets the same day. The fraud was soon discovered and detection was followed by arrest.

The Westinghouse Brake

Great things are achieved through persistence and hard work, but at the critical moment there is often a bit of something that comes near being "good luck." A railroad accident, says a contributor to the New York Sun, that wrecked the train on which rode George Westinghouse, then an alert fellow with the inventor's brain and large powers of observation, set him to thinking how such accidents could be averted.

As he watched the train-crews struggling with the inefficient hand-brakes, the idea flashed into his mind: "If there were only some way by which the engineer could brake the train!"

For months he thought of little else except this question, but the solution seemed as far away as ever. One hot day, as he was sitting at his desk, a little girl timidly approached him with a request that he subscribe to a magazine. Young Westinghouse, busy and absorbed but incapable of speaking roughly to a child, purchased a copy, and turned back to his work.

But the end of the task was at hand, for in the magazine at his elbow lay the phrase that was to solve the problem of the air-brake. His model for the brake had been completed, but the operating power was unsatisfactory. In idly turning over the pages of the magazine, Westinghouse saw an account of tunnel-building, in which the work was done by compressed air. In a flash he had found the solution of his problem.

CANADA'S MINISTER OF MILITIA

Colonel Sam Hughes has done what no former Minister of Militia in Canada ever dared to do. He has just put his foot down so hard on the proposal to make the militia camps "wet" that it is probable we shall hear no more of it so long as "Colonel Sam" is in authority.

What the soldiers thought about the dry camps we do not know, but some of the officers spoke very plainly and with considerable heat about the matter, and urged the re-introduction of the sale of "mild" liquors in camp. But the Colonel spoke clearly and strongly. He said: "So long as I am Minister of Militia there will never be allowed in the militia camps any wet messes, 'mild' or 'light' beer canteens. You will kindly not waste any time discussing this question further. It is settled." The Colonel has studied the matter thoroughly and he has the "facts." This is one of them: "We allowed the permanent force in one camp to have its canteen because it had canteens at its barracks and these men wanted to be able to drink 'be-ah' (beer) like gentlemen. On one night there were fourteen of these men drunk. I have all the facts about that case and am watching these men. There will be no more beer for them." But the Colonel went further than that, and did a thing so awful it almost sends the cold shivers down one's spine. He gave a banquet to the military magnates of the Dominion, when his Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught was present—and the banquet was "dry." And he has even dared to call women, even members of the W. C. T. U., to his militia conference. Surely the Colonel is "doing things!" We do not find ourselves in agreement with all the plans of the Minister of Militia, but we certainly cannot help but commend him for his stand in these matters.—C. Guardian.

FANNY CROSBY, HYMN WRITER, NOW NINETY-THREE.

Bridgetown, Conn., March 24.—Fanny Crosby, the blind hymn writer celebrated her ninety-third birthday anniversary today. She is in good health and continues to take an active interest in her work. During the past year she has made several trips to points in New York and New England to speak at public gatherings.

Miss Crosby is the author of more than six thousand hymns, many of which are known throughout the English-speaking world. The writer has been blind almost from her birth. In her youth she was a pupil in the New York Institute for the Blind, one of her teachers being Grover Cleveland. She was afterward a teacher in the institution. Miss Crosby was married in 1858 to Alexander Van Alstyne, who died in 1902. Of late years she has made her home with a niece in this city.

An Outing in Cape Breton

Feeling the need of a complete rest and change from the strenuousness of a large city I suggested to my wife that we take a trip to the Maritime Provinces and spend four weeks' vacation there, becoming acquainted with the fishing pools of the famous Margaree River on Cape Breton Island.

We left New York on September second by S.S. Florizel, Red Cross Line, and arrived at Halifax on September fourth which we quitted the same evening at 5 p.m. by Intercolonial. At 5 a.m. on the following morning we detrained at a desolate station, Grand Narrows, and in the chill morning air made our way to the hotel. After repeated ringings of the bell a drowsy porter in pyjamas answered our call. We were nearly frozen and when we learned that there was no prospect of a hot cup of coffee before the usual breakfast hour at 7.30, rather than risk a wait inside we took a brisk walk outside to keep up our circulation, meantime consoling ourselves with the reflection that the next time we took this trip we would continue on the train until Sydney had been reached. It is possible to have a comfortable breakfast at Sydney and still have some time in which to return to Grand Narrows and catch the S.S. Blue Hill for Baddeck.

We crossed the beautiful Bras d'Or Lake on this steamship and registered at the Telegraph House, an hotel which has been made famous in "Baddeck and That Sort of Thing" written by Charles Dudley Warner thirty years ago. After a few days' rest in this charming little village which nestles down on the shore of the lovely lake, we decided to take a team and guide and start out for Margaree. The road is a fairly good one and we arrived at Middle River, twelve miles distant from Baddeck, in time for dinner at the Riverside Inn. While waiting I fished a pool on the Middle River for trout with a four-ounce rod. I tried "Dart," "Montreal," and then Parmachenee Bell and after casting about ten minutes I hooked a salmon! He jumped clear of the water six times. I had no gaff or net so worked him down to the lower end of the pool where the bank slopes into the water and tried to drag him out onto the shore. As he touched the stony beach the hook came out and he lay for a moment in two inches of water. I jumped over him into the shallow water and threw him on the shore. This was said to be the first time that a salmon was ever landed in the Middle River with a hook and line.

We left for Margaree after dinner, the drive there being a very beautiful one. When nearing our destination we passed a chain of three lakes called Lakes O'Law. The mountains rising up beyond these hills are precipitous and grand, clothed for the most part with spruce and fir balsam. When coming in to the north-east of Margaree the view is well worthy of a trip to the locality. The river runs through a level valley which spreads out fan-like to the hills which in circular form shelter it on every side. This is considered to be one of the most romantic spots to be found in Nova Scotia.

Arrived at Margaree we stayed at "Widow Ross" where we were made very comfortable.

The day following our arrival the clouds hung low but only a few drops of rain fell. I did a little fishing but only caught a dozen or so small trout.

That night after supper a heavy thunder and lightning storm set in and soon the rain was coming down in torrents. The next day the Margaree was away up. My wife and I with guide Dunlop fished the Forks Pool, the Long Pool and the Bridge Pool, also the Ethridge Pool, where I distinguished myself by falling in.

The next day we left my wife at home and started at the Forks Pool. After about ten minutes Dunlop hooked an eight pound salmon and let me play him. A few minutes later I hooked and landed one a little under twelve pounds. Then we tried the Long Pool but without results, so returned to the Forks.

In the afternoon Dunlop caught an eight pound salmon from the Chisholm side of the Forks Pool which I was fishing from the upper side. I went over to the Chisholm side with Dunlop's gaff and then fished there, landing a four pound and then a twelve pound salmon.

The next day we again fished the Forks Pool, then the Long and Seal Pools and later on the other side of the Long Pool. Just as we were about to give up Dunlop caught an eight pounder. We tried the Forks again but caught nothing.

That afternoon my wife joined us again and we fished the Forks, my wife fishing from the upper side while I crossed over to the lower side of the pool. My better half had not been casting ten minutes when she hooked a salmon between eleven and twelve pounds in weight, which she landed in due course. Dunlop, who has been a guide on the Margaree River for twenty-five years, was delighted and averred that she was the first woman he had ever seen land a salmon. He had seen them hook themselves but afterwards prove themselves unable to land their prize. We tried that pool for a while and then came back to the Forks where, after casting only a few times, I caught a twelve pounder.

The following day we returned to Baddeck remaining some days at the Telegraph House.

Anyone who wishes a rest and a change of scene should visit Cape Breton where the deliciously balmy air provides one with an excellent appetite and is sure to bring restful sleep after the joys of the out-of-doors.—By Micmac, in Rod and Gun in Canada.

THE TEAPOT.

(Verses by C. W. Fuller.)
I've travelled far and wide to many a place in the U. S. A.,
And many a beautiful sight I've seen and many a happy day,
But in travelling through sweet Canada, that land of spacious room,
I always saw where'er I went, the teapot in full bloom.

The ladies sweet as new-mown hay,
they all appeared to be,
Could not keep house or run their home
without their Red Rose Tea
I got aboard a train one day,
The car was very hot,
And in one corner was a stove,
on that an old teapot.

I asked, "Why waiting here so long?"
A blue coat answered me,
"I could not run my train a day without my Red Rose Tea."
And when that teapot sings its song
(and then he gave a cough)
"I'll take my little cup of tea, and then we will be off."

The more I see of Canada, the more it pleases me,
For Nova Scotia folk are great for hospitality,
New Brunswick, too, is very kind,
they always do their part,
For in each cup of tea, they pour a warm and friendly heart.

I never cared for tea o'ermuch, it may seem strange to say,
Until I met across the line, those people day by day,
When they as strangers took me in,
invited me to sup,
Thus I learned to love the Red Rose Tea
from those behind the cup.

FRANCE TO HONOR MEMORY OF J. P. MORGAN.

Paris, April 3.—Military honors are to be rendered to the memory of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, when his body arrives at Havre. In consequence of an order of the French Government troops will be drawn up at that port, during the transfer of the coffin from the train to the steamer and will render the salute accorded to members of the Legion of Honor, of which order Mr. Morgan was commander.
The funeral party is due to arrive at Paris at eleven o'clock tonight and will leave for Havre at midnight.

Rural Mail Delivery

A great advance has been made in the postal service of the Dominion under the Hon. Mr. Pelletier, by the establishment at Ottawa of a departmental branch to deal specially with rural delivery. At the head of this branch has been placed a Bolduc, formerly inspector at Quebec and later at Ottawa. A staff of special clerks have been added whose duty it is to make direct and immediate personal enquiry into all applications for rural mail services, thus relieving the ordinary clerical staffs of the inspectors, besides greatly facilitating the establishment of new routes. In addition to the new and effective machinery thus provided for the introduction of rural mail delivery, the scope of delivery has been greatly extended and its usefulness increased. For example, by a recent regulation of the department the carriers on rural mail delivery routes are required to carry a supply of postage stamps for sale to the box-holders. They are also supplied with blank forms of application for money orders and postal notes, which, when requested by box-holders, they are required to convey, after giving the remitter a receipt for the money, to the distributing office of the routes and there purchase the money order or postal note, as the case may be. It is to be delivered to the patron on the next trip, or if preferred by him, the open letter in which the money order or postal note is to be enclosed is given to the carrier, who mails the letter at the distributing office. Under this regulation a fully equipped post office is practically brought to the door of every resident on an established rural mail route.

A Wonderful Discovery

An eminent scientist, the other day gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or a sore, such injury is insured against blood poison! Not one species of microbe has been found that Zam-Buk does not kill!

Then again. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a sore, or a cut, or to skin disease, it stops the smarting. That is why children are such friends of Zam-Buk. They care nothing for the science of the thing. All they know is that Zam-Buk stops their pain. Mothers should never forget this.

Again. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is quickly formed. This forming of fresh healthy tissue from below is Zam-Buk's secret of healing. The tissue thus formed is worked up to the surface and literally casts off the diseased tissue above it. This is why Zam-Buk cures what is permanent. Only the other day Mr. Marsh, of 101 Delorimier Ave., Montreal, called upon the Zam-Buk Co. and told them that for over twenty-five years he had been a martyr to eczema. His hands were at one time so covered with sores that he had to sleep in gloves. Four years ago Zam-Buk was introduced to him, and in a few months it cured him. Today—over three years after his cure of a disease he had for twenty-five years—he is still cured, and has had no trace of any return of the eczema!

All druggists sell Zam-Buk at 50c. box, or we will send free trial box if you send this advertisement and a 1c. stamp (to pay return postage). Address Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 1913.

—It is much to be desired in the interests of Canada that the Hudson Bay route may be found commercially practical and profitable. The wheat production of the Western Provinces is increasing at a greater ratio than the railroad facilities for removing it to market. The railroads of the United States have been called upon for assistance, and yet large quantities of grain must be held long after it should be marketed.

The Deputy Minister of Railways says that the grain-growing district of which Winnipeg may roughly be regarded as the centre, is equal in area to the States of North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska and Iowa, and that the fertility of the North West is, in his opinion, fully equal to that of the States mentioned.
These States have a population of about ten millions of people, and a railway mileage of about fifty thousand.
And, and at the rate in which the population of the North West is growing, it may reasonably be expected in the not distant future to number millions. The distance from Winnipeg to Fort Churchill on Hudson Bay differs but a few miles from the distance between Montreal and Liverpool. But, the distance from Winnipeg to Montreal is about one thousand miles less than that from Winnipeg to Fort Churchill, which would be saved by the Hudson Bay Route. To cut off this one thousand miles, for needed imports as well as exports, would be a great advantage.
So far as Hudson Bay is itself concerned, the difficulty is not altogether with ice and snow. Moose Factory has a summer and winter temperature the same as Winnipeg, and the average snowfall is less than half of that of Montreal and Quebec. But, in this great sea, the third largest in the world, the uncertainties of the currents, and the fluctuations of the compass make navigation extremely difficult. There are times, indeed, when ships' compasses are practically useless. Unless the cause of these uncertainties and fluctuations is discovered, and some remedy provided, a very large number of light houses and steam whistles, and Marconi towers and hydrographic charts, entailing a great expense, must be constructed, all of which for the greater part of the year would be out of commission, since navigation is here only possible at most for about three months, from the middle of July to the middle of October.
Besides, the principal difficulty is with Hudson Strait which is blocked by Arctic ice, and would require specially constructed steamers, able to stand the impact of large packs of ice. There is also the danger sometimes experienced by the sealing vessels, of the breaking of their propellers in endeavoring to force a passage. Add to these difficulties the "frozen fog," as it is called, "a form of fog" vapor that is common as winter approaches, and practically denies all attempt to navigate through it."

But, science, with patience and perseverance, have overcome many great difficulties, and may be able to overcome these. At any rate the railroad now under construction will not be useless.
It will open up a country which will furnish a vast amount of valuable timber and bring to market fur and peltries, and also fish, with which Hudson Bay abounds.

—It will be remembered that in the Olympic Games, at Stockholm, in July last, a young American Indian, James Thorpe, a student in the Carlisle Indian School, was the envied winner.

The King of Sweden pronounced him to be the greatest amateur athlete in the world, and certainly his successes in various lines of sport were remarkable.
Among his prizes were a Viking Ship given by the Czar of Russia, and a bronze bust of the King of Sweden presented by the King in person. It was natural that the people of the United States, especially those of the sporting element, should have been greatly excited and delighted over this great success.

But, these honors and all others won by this young man as an amateur have been taken away from him. The fact is he was not an amateur but a professional, and the rules of the Olympic Games exclude the latter from any of the contests. The young man acknowledges the justice of the decision. He confesses that while regarded as an amateur in his own college, he played games for money during vacation, though he was not in need of the money for college bills. As an Indian lad, he says, he was not very wise in the ways of the world, and as he knew young men who earned money during vacation by acting as professionals, while called amateurs at home, he felt justified in the course he pursued.

The "Outlook" congratulates the Amateur Athletic Union for its prompt announcement of the wrong as soon as it was discovered, and hopes the withdrawal of the honors and their bestow-ment upon the real winners will prove a lesson to all, and a warning especially to college sporting fraternities.

It must be admitted that under the management of professionals, many of whom receive enormous salaries, so-called sport, in these days, is, in many instances, not sport at all.

College boys need lots of exercise to keep the cobwebs out of their brains.
But, it is a marvel to us how those of them who spend so much time in intercollegiate games can do any very effective work in study. The Columbia University prohibits its students from leaving its own grounds for games during term time, and it has the approval in this matter of the parents and many others.

We remember in our college days a fellow student who was leaving during his first term as a freshman. When we asked him the reason, he replied that the doctor said he had "too much brains." If the diagnosis was correct, this young man's case is the only one which we have met. We willingly acquit any youth who reads these lines of any danger from the disease of "too much brains."

Aid to Drainage

There is an Act in the Nova Scotia Statutes that our farmers should be taking advantage of.

This enables any farmer by making application to the Clerk of the Municipality or the County Council to borrow money for such purpose at a low rate of interest. The farmer must furnish the Council with a plan, not necessarily a professional survey, of the proposed drainage with the estimated cost. The Council furnishes the money and the farmer for every $100 received pays every year on his taxes the sum of seven dollars and thirty-six cents for twenty years, at which time the debt is wiped out, both interest and principal.

This is equivalent to paying about four per cent for the money.

Since in the experience of those who have under-drained their lands, the increase in crops alone has paid from twenty to fifty per cent on the money invested in draining the land, not to mention the great satisfaction of working drained soil, it seems that our farmers should take advantage of this privilege of getting cheap money for such an important purpose. Since also it is probable that the government ditcher will be in Annapolis County this summer, any who want help should make application before the spring session of the Council, which meets at Bridgetown in a week or so.

R. J. MESSENGER.

YARMOUTH "BOOSTER CLUB" GROWING IN NUMBER.

The total membership of the Booster Club is now up to one hundred and ten and growing rapidly.
The meeting last week was enthusiastic and optimistic. A number of enterprises are in touch with, with two practically assured. A representative is now in St. John consulting with one of the factories in that city, and a representative will be sent to Toronto. Booklets will soon be issued to interest manufacturers, and the tourist and will be looked after to induce outsiders to locate in Yarmouth County.

Seeding throughout Saskatchewan will commence April 15th, according to a report issued by the Provincial Department of Agriculture. The supply of seed grain is exceptionally good.

Valley Interested in Tram Problem

"All through the Annapolis Valley there is great anxiety over the fate of the Halifax Tramways and Power Bill now before the Legislature," said Mr. P. Innes, of Coldbrook, to a representative of the Echo while in Halifax recently, "for if the hydro-electric development at Gaspereaux is hindered in any way, it will be a tremendous blow to the aspirations of this entire district."

Mr. Innes says that the people of the Valley are intensely interested in securing cheap electricity, and that the only possible chance of them getting this is through developing the powers of the Gaspereaux.

"We feel that the only chance of securing cheap power is through the development of this power in connection with the Halifax Tramway system, for there is not enough market at present throughout the Valley to warrant the development of this great power. That being so, Annapolis Valley people want to see the two undertakings as closely together as possible.

"I do not know that there is any sentiment on the abstract question of municipal ownership. All that we are concerned with is the immediate development of this power that will enable us to light our houses and barns with electricity, operate our farm machinery by the same power, relieve many of the present burdens of farm life, and give to the farmer and his family some more of the comforts of the city. The problem is vital to us. If the Tram system is taken away from their present owners we fear that there is grave danger of this water power not being developed, for if Halifax can acquire the Tramway the Province might just as well take over this water power, and there is not much induc-ment for its development in that event."

A project is on foot to institute a Freshwater College School for boys at Truro and a committee has been making investigations of the suitability of Truro for a school of the kind. The Truro Board of Trade has been communicated with in respect of the matter, and will be asked to promote a plan to establish the school in that town on a site of some prominence with plenty space for buildings and playgrounds.

Just as Montenegro has scored her hold at Tarahosch, the key of Scu-tari, warships of the Powers, are gathering along the coast to compel her to give up the most precious fruits of five months' fighting. Should the demonstration prove ineffective, it is understood that the Montenegrin ports of Antivari and Duleigno will be occupied.

President Wilson, when the special Congress opens in Washington this week will not send a message to this august body as all Presidents have done for one hundred years, but will appear in person on the floor of the House and deliver his views on the tariff, which is the sole question that has called this special Congress.

No matter what comes in the meantime, don't forget next Monday evening's unique entertainment in the Primrose Theatre.

THE HOME

IS THE BUSINESS WOMAN THE BETTER HOMEMAKER

Are the young girls who go into business and professional life thereby unfitting themselves as wives? A neighbor of mine told me the other day that they were.

"I cannot be too thankful," she pruned herself, "that my daughters are none of them business women. How much better a wife Beth makes John than if she had been working in an office these last few years instead of staying at home with me and learning to be a good housekeeper."

Now, many of the women I know are business women, and most of them plan to marry some time. Are all their husbands going to get bad bargains?

Personally, I don't think so. If you do, please listen to this little experience.

An old friend of mine recently married a girl who had been a business woman ever since she graduated from high school eight years ago, and had almost no training in house-keeping.

I wondered what his home life would be like and was much interested when, as an old-time confidant, I received from him the most enthusiastic praises of his wife, her disposition and her management of the home.

He is quick-tempered and nervous and not the easiest person in the world to make a home for, so when I met the girl I repeated the praises and begged for the secret.

"I know we are very happy," she said, "but I don't know as there is any secret. I guess the praise is mostly due to my business experience and the valuable lesson it taught me.

"When my husband comes home so irritated with the day's trials that he can hardly speak pleasantly, I remember the nights I used to go home just that way and how much refreshed I felt after dinner.

"So I don't decide right away that he has ceased to love me, but I wait until dinner is over and he is sitting in his favorite chair with his favorite brand of cigar between his teeth and then I go in and say, 'Well, it was a hard day, wasn't it? But never mind, it's over and who knows how much pleasanter tomorrow will turn out to be?'"

"Then I sit down and commence where we left off the evening before in a most interesting article we were reading aloud and discussing, and before long in the interest aroused, business cares are forgotten and before we go to bed he says, 'I feel so much rested, dear. I guess I was pretty cross before dinner, but I was so awfully hungry and tired.'"

The business woman may lack training in household details, but she has a trained mind, quick to grasp new things, and can acquire that knowledge far more easily than the home-trained wife can learn some of the things every business woman knows.

She has the sympathy for her husband that comes from having been there herself. She has the tact in dealing with him that comes from her experience with all kinds of men. She may not be quite so good a housekeeper, but isn't it possible that she makes it up being a good homekeeper?—Ruth Cameron.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR IS THE RESULT OF CARE.

A scalp is diseased when there is much dandruff upon it, so that dandruff is a forerunner of baldness, and it is important that this disease, mild though it be, should not be allowed to remain.

If the hair is in good condition once a month is often enough to shampoo it if one lives in a clean place, but in a large city, where the air is full of flying dirt, once in two weeks is not too often to cleanse it.

A good shampoo is composed of eggs, castile soap and a little salt of tartar. One or two eggs may be well beaten and rubbed into the scalp, then rub in a liquid soap made by dissolving imported white castile soap in boiling water until it is as thick as cream. Wash off with warm water, into which has been put just enough salts of tartar to soften the water (about a large teaspoonful to two quarts of water), then rinse thoroughly with clear water until all the egg and soap are removed. If rain water be used, no salts of tartar will be required.

In applying a preparation to make the hair grow, it should be well rubbed into the scalp with the finger tips once a day.

If the ends of the hair are split it should be trimmed or singed frequently until the splitting stops. Every head of hair has some dandruff on it, but much is a sign of disease.

Use a good brush and comb. The brush bristles should be moderately stiff and long enough and far enough apart to reach through the hair. By brushing the scalp circulation is awakened, but judgment should be used that the brushing be not so vigorous as to irritate unduly.

Rubbing the scalp daily for ten minutes with the tips of the fingers is still better for the hair than brushing it. The scalp should be lifted and moved about by exerting a gentle pressure with the fingers.

The comb should have smoothly polished, even teeth, that will not irritate the scalp, and a fine comb should be rarely if ever used.

THE HOUSEFLY.

The following are questions and answers of health, and have been widely copied; the School Board of Ashville, N. C., caused them to be pasted in the spelling-books used in the graded schools of the city—

1. Where is the fly born?—In manure and filth.
2. Where does the fly live?—In every kind of filth.
3. Is anything too filthy for the fly to eat?—No.
4. (a) Where does he go when he leaves the surface closet and the manure pile and the spittoon?— Into the kitchen and dining room.
- (b) What does he do there?— He walks on the bread, fruit and vegetables. He wipes his feet on the butter and bathes in the milk.
5. Does the fly visit the patient sick with typhoid fever, consumption and cholera infantum?— He does—and he may call on you next.
6. Is the fly dangerous?— He is man's worst pest, and more dangerous than wild beasts or rattlesnakes.
7. What diseases does the fly carry?—He carries typhoid fever, consumption, and summer complaint. How?—On his wings and hairy feet. What is his correct name?—Typhoid fly.
8. Did he ever kill anyone?— He killed more American soldiers during the Spanish-American war than did the bullets of the Spaniards.
9. Where are the greatest number of cases of typhoid fever, consumption, and summer complaint?— Where there are most flies.
10. Where are the most flies?— Where there is the most filth.
11. Why should we kill the fly?— Because he may kill us.
12. When shall we kill the fly?— Kill him before he gets wings— kill him when he is a magot in the manure pile—kill him while he is in the egg state.
13. How?—Keep the stables dry and clean, and don't allow any manure to stay on the premises longer than one week. Have all other filth and trash accumulating on your premises removed or burned at least once a week.
14. If your neighbor fails to comply with these rules and allows flies to breed on his premises to visit your screen your doors and windows and keep them out.

RAISE CHILDREN LIKE CABBAGE.

Luther Burbank, the great naturalist of California, has given out some advice as to the proper rearing of children. In this he says:

"Let the child live in the open air and go barefooted. It is better for the child in every way that it should not go to school until it is ten years of age. Up to that age it should live outdoors. The greatest evil ever laid upon our children today is over-education. They are taught too much that is impractical, and too little that is natural and practical. No child can be taken through a true education without love. True love makes a child fearless and teaches it how to give love. A child's education should begin outdoors, and the greater part of all human life should be spent in the fresh air. The child needs to know more of truth, self-reliance, purity and love than it does of books."

LOTION FOR ROUGH HANDS.

When the spring winds commence to cut the hands, especially when there is yet considerable outside work to be done, they are liable to become rough and chapped and cause no small amount of unpleasantness, let alone appearing badly.

An excellent lotion can be made at home, and keeps indefinitely without spoiling. Use eight tablespoonsof rose water, one tablespoon of glycerine and one drachm of benzoine. Bottle and shake together. Rub this well into the hands directly after washing them. Besides being soothing to the skin, it is excellent to wipe dust from the face when travelling. A tiny medicine flask filled with it can be carried in the pocket or bag.

THE SQUIRRELS' GAME OF TAG.

If the red squirrels do not have an actual game of tag, they have some thing so near it that I cannot tell the difference. Just now I see one in hot pursuit of another on the stone wall; both are apparently going at the top of their speed. They make a red streak over the dark-gray stones. When the pursuer seems to overtake the pursued and becomes "It," the race is reversed, and away they go on the back track with the same fleetness of the hunter and the hunted. Bill things are reversed again. I have seen them engaged in the same game in tree-tops, each one having his innings by turn.

The grey squirrel comes and goes, but the red squirrel we have always with us. He will live where the grey will starve. He is a true American; he has nearly all the national traits—nervous energy, quickness, resourcefulness, pettiness, not to say impudence and conceit. He is not altogether lovely or blameless. He makes war on the chipmunk, he is a robber of birds' nests, and is desecrating of the orchard fruits. Nearly every man's hand is against him, yet he thrives, and long may he continue to do so!—John Burroughs, in Harper's Magazine.

WHY HE WAS LATE.

"What made you so late?"
"I met Smithson."
"Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."

"Sure, that is what he needs."

AN INCENDIARY BULLET.

Tests have been made in Germany with a special projectile which is intended to repel dirigibles and which is designed not only to pierce a gas envelope but also to set fire to the gas. This projectile, fired from the old German rifle known as "model 71," which has a caliber of eleven millimeters, is provided with little wings that open in flight under the influence of a spring, compressed while the projectile is still in the rifle barrel but expended as soon as the muzzle is passed. An ordinary bullet leaves such a small hole in an envelope that the gas escapes through it but slowly. The wings on the improved bullet tear a hole of appreciable size in the fabric. What is more, they retard the bullet sufficiently to cause a friction device to ignite fulminate contained in the bullet. It is said that experiments conducted at Neumanswald gave encouraging results.

THE BOY PROBLEM.

We boys are beginning to realize our importance. We have become part of one of the many modern social problems. It is scarcely possible to pick up a newspaper without seeing ourselves referred to under the heading "The Boy Problem." Verily we are living in the lime-light and basking in a blaze of publicity. We have been the means of calling forth a new literature—a literature which rejoices in such a title as the "Psycho-genetic and pedagogical literature." This sounds dreadful and we are beginning to wonder what on earth society means to do with us. We have so long been looked upon as "general nuisances," and so everlastingly rebuked, repelled and repressed that not only is it startling but positively refreshing to find ourselves everywhere written about and discussed by press, platform and pulpit and now finally treated in "Psycho-genetic literature." The churches are professedly anxious to gather us within their folds. Pastors desire to see us attend their Bible classes. The town and city authorities, together with the residents in general, wish to see us off their streets marching about in gangs and congregating at various corners making the evening air hideous with our yells of roguish mirth. Social reformers and leaders of society see in us the "men of tomorrow" and are concerned about our education and equipment for life's great future, and utility as citizens of the country and true sons of the Empire.

We are evidently causing them much grave anxiety and troubled searchings of heart.

We boys are undoubtedly a problem but there is really no reason for it. We believe that you are actuated by the best intentions concerning our true welfare. But to be quite candid—and we fellows cannot help being candid—some of your suggested solutions actually make us smile. We think that many of your methods are too arbitrary whilst others are altogether too childish. Most likely this is due to the fact that you do not really understand us. Far too many would-be boy reformers regard us as hands of civilized rascals only to be subdued by means of imperious measures. We resent that kind of treatment, it is abhorrent to our very natures. We refuse either to be driven or dragged, we are always ready to be drawn.

I am quite prepared to admit that we are somewhat difficult to handle. We are none too docile and tractable. For the most part we roam about in bunches and a bunch of boys is quite a proposition for a pastor or leader of a Bible class. We are possessed of all the high spirits that rightly belong to youth. Fond of dash and bravado, full of fun and frolic—it is tremendously hard for us to remain serious for any length of time. It is no wonder that we are misunderstood for we are undoubtedly a quaint mixture of contradictions. We are boisterous and yet reserved, bold and yet shy. That is, I admit, one of the most puzzling things about our general make-up, the fact that sometimes we are bold, almost blatant, and yet all of us suffer more or less from what one writer terms "the bashfulness of adolescence."

Some good people consider us "wooden," and stubborn and obstinate. They say they can do nothing with us or make nothing of us. But really this is not our fault, we hardly know just what is expected of us. So many sermons are preached to us, so many lectures administered, so many rules and regulations, and such long catalogues of classified warnings that we walk amid a bewildering maze of wonderment and never know when we are doing right. We are for all the world like the poor unfortunate dog of the ill-tempered man-kicked on Thursday for barking, and thrashed on Friday for not barking.

For us to understand you, it is necessary that you first should understand us. There must be a mutual understanding. We are not to be won without effort, or kept without care.—The Wesleyan.

ONE IS NOT!

I fondly look the circle over,
As with me at the table sit,
My bonnie boys and winsome girls,
With laughing eyes and flowing curls,
But in my joys there is a blot—
For one is not.

I miss a pound and happy face,
With cheeks of red and eyes of brown,
A baby's voice so sweetly low.
Its precious tones still haunt me so,
That voice did once my bosom thrill—
Now it is still.

The vacant place is with me yet;
Though many years have passed away,
And other faces bless my sight,
And all my home is filled with light
And small feet patter on the floor,
One is no more.

No more with me, but this I know
My treasure is not lost to love;
And in the father's mansion fair
There shall not be one vacant chair,
There shall not be through His dear
grace,
One missing face.

But after I had taken them for three days, my Headaches were easier and in a week they left me. After I had taken a box of these tablets, my Headaches were quite cured. ### Britain's Aerial Fleet Complete

London, March 20.—Colonel Seely's reply to the panic-mongers who have been telling the country that the land defences of Great Britain have been allowed to go to the dogs, has created quite a sensation in England. The wail of the conscriptionists, and it must be admitted of the Conservative party generally, has been that while we have been paying great attention to the maintenance of our sea power, the land defences have been allowed to become woefully inefficient. Much political capital has been made out of the oft repeated assertions that while Germany is forging rapidly in creating battalions of aerial-war craft, the British Government has almost entirely neglected this important modern development as applied to military purposes.

It now appears that while the War Office has been saying nothing, it has, at the instigation of the Government, been busy at work upon the aerial problem. Not only has it got what is claimed to be by far the most efficient type of aeroplane in the world, but by next May it will have one hundred and forty-eight of them in actual readiness for active service.

Then again, the War Office has a new type of quick-firing sky gun, which, it is claimed, will make the approach of a hostile airship impossible.

It is true that Great Britain has no airships of the Zeppelin type, but Colonel Seely says these have been deliberately rejected as useless for the country's purposes. A curious confirmation of his point of view comes in the news of the wreck yesterday of the great new German military dirigible, only two months after her trial flight. This is but one of a number of such disastrous wrecks in connection with the German military airships.

What Great Britain has in place of these is portable airships, much more suited to the needs of the country.

The Royal Flying Corps is now seven hundred strong, and it will be increased by another six hundred within the next twelve months.

All this information has come as a complete surprise to the people of Great Britain. It has effectively cornered the Opposition, and has created profound satisfaction.

THE MOST WONDERFUL RAILWAY IN THE WORLD.
And then there is the Oroya Railway.

What city in the world can boast such an attraction at its very doors? Where else can you in the short space of a few hours, ascend from the coast, from palms and mango groves, bananas and tropical gardens, to the snow and ice of eternal winter, to heights above the utmost summit of Mont Blanc?

All this is possible through the pluck, ingenuity, and indomitable perseverance of a certain American promoter, a picturesque figure of the sixties, Henry Meiggs. He it was who conceived this gigantic scheme to scale the dizzy steepes of the Andes and he it was who carries to execution this first railroad, and the only one that crosses these icy summits at such an elevation, to this day the "highest railway in the world."

No matter what else you may see in this mandarin sphere of ours, you will never forget the day you climbed the Oroya Railway.

We made the trip under exceptionally favorable auspices. A private car, most comfortable in all its appointments, was put at our disposal, and in it we lived, with two excellent servants to care for us.

Instead of leaving Lima by the early morning train, as is usually done, our car was attached to the afternoon passenger and left at Chosica for the night, a station about twenty-five miles distant and a little less than three thousand feet above the sea, used as a resort, of cure d'air, by the Peruvians. After dinner we walked about its streets, and, in the semi-darkness of the tropic night, enjoyed its villas set in palm gardens, their windows and doors wide open and the occupants sitting upon verandas or chatting in the brightly lighted drawing rooms.

As I awoke in the early morning I could hear our engine breathlessly climbing from height to height, puffing like a winded horse, and could see in the gray, dim dawn, the long fingers of banana-trees swaying in the breeze and the clustered palms rustling their dry leaves. Dark-blue slaty hills shut us in, and at the bottom of the gorge the Rimac stormed along, a roaring torrent. From "Down the West Coast to Lima," by Ernest Peixotto, in the April Scribner.

THE BREWER'S LAMENT.

The passage of the Webb Bill by both Houses of Congress over President Taft's veto has carried consternation into the liquor camp, and even the possibility of the Supreme Court declaring it to be unconstitutional does not afford any adequate relief. The bill, as our readers probably know, declares it unlawful to ship liquor into dry states. The liquor traffic realizes that a very serious blow has been dealt the trade, and the Breweries' Review voices its feelings in the following fashion. It says: "The challenge has been sounded. The death grapple has begun. Is the brewing trade going to allow itself to be strangled to death? That is the question before the trade. Serious situations have confronted the brewery trade before, in complaint reliance upon the justice of its cause and upon the victorious qualities of the truth, the warnings of its friends have not been heeded, until now its very existence is at stake. That is the situation today. The passage of the Webb bill by Congress has demonstrated that the last great stage of the fight of one-half century has been entered upon. The greatest blow has been struck and struck successfully. It has been demonstrated that the enemy is in possession of the citadel of the nation. Prohibition is no longer a local issue. The last stage has been reached. Prohibition is a national danger. The enemy has shown that he is the controlling power in Washington." Evidently the brewers are somewhat excited. They have been so long accustomed to Congress killing or shelving a bill which they opposed that the passage of the Webb bill by 240 to 60 has thrown them into a veritable panic. And just at this juncture there is in the President's chair a man whose character and record alike give small comfort to the men who are fighting John Barleycorn's battles. For all of which let the anti-saloon forces rejoice.—C. Guardian.

Wouldst learn to know one little flower,
Its perfume, perfect form and hue?
Yea, wouldst thou have one perfect hour
Of all the years that come to you?
Then grow as God hath planted,
As a lovely oak or a daisy low,
As He hath set His garden; be Just what thou art, or grass or tree
Thy treasures up in Heaven laid Await thy sure ascending soul,
Life after life be not afraid.
—Jouquin Miller's last poem.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle was finished he was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silks, 29 Dowling Street, Sydney, Australia. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

"What's the missus kicking about?" inquired the housemaid from next door.
"This is her night out, but I told her I had an engagement meself."

For Hair Health

If Rexall "93" Hair Tonic does not improve the health of your scalp and hair, we will pay for what you use during the trial.

We could not so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it to the same people if it did not do all we claim. It is not only a proven, entirely satisfactory, our customers would lose faith in us, we would lose their patronage, and our business would suffer.

If your hair is falling out or you suffer any scalp trouble, we believe Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do more to eradicate the dandruff, give health to the scalp, stimulate new hair growth and prevent premature baldness than any other human agency.

We want you to make us prove this. We ask you to risk no money whatever. Buy a bottle Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, use it according to directions for thirty days; then if you are not entirely satisfied, come and tell us and we will promptly hand back the money you paid us for it.

We won't ask you to sign anything, nor even to bring the bottle back. We won't obligate you in any way. We will take your mere word. Could anything be more fair? Could we do anything more to prove our belief in Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, and our honesty of purpose in recommending it to you?

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is a pleasant to use as spring water and has but a faint, pleasing odor. It comes in two sizes of bottles, 50c and $1.00. You can buy Rexall "93" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store:
ROYAL PHARMACY,

TOMATO CULTURE.
Almost anyone with a garden or farm in a temperate climate can grow tomatoes with greater or less success but there is a great difference between the extent and quality of the crops grown by different persons in the same locality. These differences are due to several causes among which the varieties grown and methods of cultivation practised are perhaps the chief.

According to experiments carried on for years at the Experimental Farm at Ottawa, Earlana, of which there are several strains, is the best early sort but Bonny Best, Chalks, Early Jewel are also good early kinds. Of later varieties Matchless Trophy, Lipington's Globe and Plentiful rank high.

It is the early fruit that makes the profit. In growing plants what should be aimed at is the production of a starchy, sturdy plant which will have some fruit set upon it when set in the fields. After planting the chief work is cultivation which should be done both ways in the plantation.

In order to protect tomato plants from diseases, of which there are several, they should be repeatedly sprayed, even when quite young, with Bordeaux mixture. These and many other points, which cover practically the whole field of tomato culture in the green house as well as in the garden and field, are fully treated in pamphlet No. 10 of the Central Experimental Farm prepared by the Dominion Horticulturist, Mr. W. T. Macoun. This work is for free distribution to all who apply for it to the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

SUCCESS MAY COME OUT OF FAILURE.
Do you blame your failures on other people and on circumstances, or do you sit down humbly before your failures and learn what they have to teach you?
If you are a shop girl and you just failed to sell the piece of goods or the hat do you say to yourself, "Dix I say too much or too little, or what," and apply your decision?
If you are a teacher and your class makes a most miserable flunk the day the fustiest member of the school board comes a visiting, do you say, "How did I fail to arouse enough interest to make them study that lesson?" or do you say, "Isn't that just the luck?"
To fall in anything is very unpleasant of course. But never to fail is dangerous.
It is the successes built on failures that are the most safe and secure.
Have you failed recently in anything, and have you allowed yourself to get discouraged over it?
Then remember that in every failure is a germ of success and get so busy germ hunting that you won't have time to be discouraged.—Ruth Cameron.

You will look a good while before you find a better medicine for coughs and colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only gives relief—it cures. Try it when you have a cough or cold, and you are certain to be pleased with the prompt cure which it will effect. For sale by all dealers.

Dissolve one handful of salt in a pint of vinegar and wash the stove with the solution. Wipe dry with a flannel cloth and put a few drops of turpentine in the blacking with which you finish it off. This will put a rusty stove in good condition.

Joker's Corner.

NOTHING LEFT.
Care and system are the half-way houses to happiness, and if Mrs. McQuill was anything she was careful and systematic. A little while ago she had occasion to go out and leave the house to take care of itself. But the grocer was expected, and, unless he was warned, he would leave his commodities on the doorstep, and thus advertise the fact that the house was unprotected. Therefore Mrs. McQuill wrote this note—"All out; don't leave anything," and pinned it on the front door.

When she returned her note was no longer on the front door, and there was a nasty, empty sort of sensation about the greater part of the house. Everything of value had disappeared. She found her note on the dining table; but a line had been added to it.

"Many thanks," it ran. "We have not left much."

WHERE HE SCORED.
Mrs. Timothy Talker was an ardent upholder of lost causes, and a consequent ardent neglecter of home and Mr. Timothy Talker.

Now she was reading a treatise on electricity, and after perusing it through, she removed her glasses and remarked:
"Wonderful, Timothy!"—glancing at her better half, immersed in his evening paper. "Do you hear? Soon we shall be able to get anything by merely touching a button."
"Umph!" grunted her husband. "Wouldn't do here!"

"Why not, I should like to know?" Mrs. Timothy wanted to crush her spouse with the sledge-hammer of an incontrovertible argument.
"Because," murmured Timothy, as he sidled to the door, "nothing would ever induce you to touch a button! Look at my shirt!"

THE BITER BIT.
The workhouse inmates were just about to sit down, when two men came along one of the corridors carrying a steaming cauldron between them.

"Aha!" cried the official, who had been laying in wait for them. "Put that kettle down, and fetch me a spoon!"
One of the men brought a spoon at the same time tried to say something, but was peremptorily told to hold his tongue.

"Dyer, cill that soup?" at length spluttered the official, as he swallowed a heaped-up spoonful of the steaming mess. "It's more like dirty water!"
"But that's just what it is, sir," answered the second man timidly. "We've a-been scrubbin' down the tables!"

JUST A LITTLE SLIP.
"Miss Sweet," the young man began, with a quaver in his voice, "may I presume so far upon our short acquaintance to ask you—"

"Please say no more, Mr. Matthews," faltered the maiden. "I deeply regret to give you pain; and, if I have unconsciously encouraged you to entertain hopes that never can be realized, I cannot forgive myself. Believe me, I am—"

"Pardon me, Miss Sweet," interrupted the astonished youth, "but I was only going to ask you for the loan of far-fare home! I was stupid enough to come away without my money in my pocket this evening. Ah, thanks very much! I will return it without fail. Good night!"

HIS MONEY'S WORTH.
A grouchy butcher, who had watched the price of porterhouse steak climb the ladder of fame, was deep in the throes of an unusually bad grouch when a would-be customer, eight years old, approached him and handed him a copper.

"Please, mister, I want a cent's worth of sausage."
Turning to the youngster with a growl, he let forth this burst of good salesmanship:
"Go smell o' the hook!"

MORE OF THE SAME.
A young wife recently went into a grocer's shop and addressed the grocer thus:
"I bought three or four hams here a month or so ago and they were fine. Have you any more of them?"
"Yes, ma'am," replied the grocer. "There are ten of those hams hanging up there now."
"Well, if you're sure they're off the same pig, I'll take three of them," replied the young wife meekly.

"Does she sing?"
"Yes."
"With or without?"
"With or without what? Her music?"
"No, with or without coaxing."

COUNTERFEIT MONEY

Toronto, March 28.—A counterfeit $10 note of the Bank of Toronto is in circulation at Toronto, four of them having turned up during the past two days.

The numbers are larger and heavier. The imprint of "American Bank Note Co., Ottawa," is missing from both sides of the note. The back of the note is very crude, being simply a red-daub, easily distinguished.

Amherst Has a Twelve-Year-Old Burglar

Amherst Has a Twelve-Year-Old Burglar

Amherst, N. S., March 27.—During the past two or three months several burglaries of stores in this town have been reported to the police.

Early in February, the Hub Clothing store was entered by a rear window, the till rifled and some miscellaneous goods stolen.

Joseph Aaron was the next victim, entry to this store being made in the same manner and the cash register robbed of its change. The Hub Clothing store then had one of its front window panes smashed and a gold watch was stolen from a hole made in the glass.

A few weeks ago Hallis Crocker's store was entered by a side window and a considerable quantity of goods taken. Other merchants, such as Mr. Butler, of the five, ten and fifteen cent store, reported instances of missing goods and it almost looked as if there was an organized gang of burglars and thieves operating in the town.

The police, however, placed little Michael Perry, better known as "Mickey," under arrest today and it is reported that he has made a complete confession, not only of the robberies mentioned, but also of numerous thefts. "Mickey" figured in the courts last summer, but on account of his age, was allowed to go on suspended sentence. He is a bright faced little urchin about twelve years of age. His case will come before the court tomorrow at ten o'clock.

Amherst, N. S., March 28.—It was hoped that the arrest of young Michael Perry yesterday would put an end to burglaries from which Amherst has been suffering, but evidently not.

Last night two of Amherst's stores in Victoria street were entered by thieves who made a haul of about thirty dollars and probably goods as well. B. G. Carter's meat market was first burglarized. The office was ransacked and eleven or twelve dollars taken. Mr. Carter was unable to tell whether or not any goods had been taken.

At the Amherst Foundry Company's several checks were left untouched. The amount of money taken is about twenty dollars.

Michael Perry, a twelve-year-old lad, charged with burglarizing Amherst stores, had his preliminary hearing this morning before Stipendiary McKenzie. He confessed and was sentenced to three years in the reformatory. He accepted his sentence with a smile. Perry was before the police court previously charged with stealing, and was let off on suspended sentence. It is said he had an organized gang of lads who robbed Amherst merchants right and left. He is a smart, bright faced boy.

The Jewish Rabbi, a Russian named Abraham Levitt, was brought before a stipendiary magistrate in Halifax last week on a summons taken out at the instance of the S. P. C., for unnecessarily ill-treating a heifer and causing it unnecessary suffering and pain while being slaughtered. This is stated to be the first time in American history that a Rabbi has been haled before the courts in a case of this kind.

GIVES TWENTY THOUSAND FOR A SANATORIUM.

Hon. Charles Dalton, of Prince Edward Island Makes Handsome Gift.

Charlottetown, April 4.—In the Provincial Legislature today Hon. Charles Dalton, a member of the Government, and father of the Island's black fox industry, out of which he has made over a million, announced that he would give twenty thousand dollars towards the construction of a sanatorium on the Island for the treatment of tuberculosis, and one thousand dollars a year for ten years for maintenance.

It is to be open to all religious denominations and rich and poor alike. The matter is to be left to the doctors and the Anti-Tuberculosis Society. Mr. Dalton was thanked tonight by the Board of Trade for his magnificent gift. The Government will supplement it with a vote. This will be the first sanatorium on the Island.
