The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Metropolitan Toronto Library
Languages Centre

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Metropolitan Toronto Library
Languages Centre

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par le dernier page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

NOTICE.

The reader must not expect to find all the words of the English language in this first Part of the Otchipwe Dictionary, but, of course, only such as can be given in Otchipwe. There are thousands of technical expressions and scientific words in English (and in every other civilized language), for which the uncultivated and unlearned Indian languages have no terms.

Many English words are abbreviated in the different articles in this Part, which, however, will be easily understood by the first word of the article. For instance, in the article "Abolish", you will find, "I ab. it"; which means, I abolish it.—And so on respectively.

REMARKS

ON THE NEW EDITION OF THE ENGLISH OTCHIPWE DICTIONARY.

1° Wherever there is a circumflex accent on â or a y other vowel, this letter is pronounced very long and with a certain emphasis ; v. g. osâgiân, he loves him ; âmô, a bee. When the vowels are not accompanied by this sign, they are regarded as short ; v. g. sagaiân, a nail.

2° The Indian words placed between parenthesis () are the Cree words corresponding to the Otchipwe expressions. The Cree verbs are always indicated by the 3rd. person singular of the Indicative mood, while in the Otchipwe they are known by the 1st. person singular ; v. g , Otch., nind ina, I tell him ; Cree : itew, he tells him. This last idiom does not use the sign of the pronoun o, in the 3rd person ; it is included in the verb or rather in its termination.

3° The idea of putting a certain number of Cree words to correspond with Otchipwe sayings, is 1st. to familiarize the people of Manitoba and of the North-West with some expressions which, although Cree by themselves, are employed, nevertheless, by those talking the Otchipwe in this country ; in the second place, to show to philologists some of the comparative differences existing between the roots of those two sister languages.

In fact, there are no Indian dialects which present more similitude than the Otchipwe or Sauteux and the Cree which are spoken by the Indians and the Half-breeds of the Province of Manitoba. The Otchipwe language, which is nothing else, (with but few variations,) than the Algonquin, forms one of the daughters of the great Algie family, whose harangues were heard, in older times, on the borders of the St. Lawrence and Mississippi rivers, on the shores of lake Superior, and even as far as the immense plains of the Red River. The names of rivers, of lakes and of diverse places in Otchipwe or Cree, are still in use to attest, in future times, the existence of these languages and reclaim the rights to first possession. Obligated to disappear before the white man, the haughty savage will compel his invader to preserve these first denominations, at the risk, however, of seeing them disfigured. The Dominion of Canada in adjoining to her possessions the new territories, is anxious to give them Indian names, wishing undoubtedly, by this attention, to spare the sensitive feelings of her brother.

As regards the relations existing between the Otchipwe and Cree, we know beforehand that we shall please indianalogists, by placing under their notice, the different resemblances and disparities which characterize the two idioms. It is difficult to demonstrate the precise time in which one has been derived from the other and has had its proper autonomy; for, all the ancient Missionaries and the travellers in the North-West speak, in their writings, of the Otchipwe or Sautaux, and of the Crees or Kinistineaux.

NEGATION.— In Otchipwe, the negation is indicated by kawin, before the verb with the ending ssi; while in Cree we simply place namawiya or nama, as the negative sign before the verb, without changing the latter; v. g. Oteh. nin ságia, I love him; neg. kawin nin ságiássi, I don't love him; Cree: ni sákihaw, neg. namawiya ni sákihaw. For the participle, we say: Oteh. wiyá-bamád, neg. wiyábamássik, he, not seeing him; Cree, wiyábamát, neg. eka wiyábamát.

In these two dialects the roots are almost always the same.

1° In Oteh.: Whenever (with very few exceptions) two consonants follow each other; usually, the first is changed into s, for the Cree word, and vice versa.

OTCHIPWE.		CREE.
(*) akki	earth	askiŷ
akkik	kettle	askik
ikkwe	woman	iskwew
sakka-ou	cane-stick	saskahun
wiskwi	bladder	wikkwëŷ
nappâtch	the wrong way	naspâsh

2° When the Otchipwe word begins by O, this letter is sometimes changed into Wa in Cree; v. g. Onishka, he rises up; in Cree, Waniskaw; Ottawa, Watawa.

3° Na, ŷo, in Otchipwe, is sometimes changed into ya, yo, in Cree; v. g. notin, wind, yotin; onâgan, plate, oydgan; onagima, he is judged so much, oyakimaw.

4° For the orthography of the Cree-words, we have thought proper to follow the Cree dictionaries; v. g. U, as the french ou or the Italian u; y, when two syllables follow each other, as in the sounds of ya, ye, yi, yo.

(*) Although there is, usually, only one consonant in the Otchipwe Dictionary, we here employ two because the sound of the double consonant undoubtedly exists in the pronunciation.

of a few Indian names by which are designated certain tribes and localities, but whose true pronunciation and orthography have been disfigured by the Whites who did not understand these words.

We here put the word as it is written and incorrectly pronounced in the country, and afterwards, its true orthography with the etymology given by many persons competent in this matter. It should be kept in mind that all these names, which, at the present time, designate towns, rivers, lakes, etc., have been thus disfigured by voyageurs, who pronounced them according to the best of their knowledge, without giving a thought that thereby they were destroying words and rendering them incomprehensible, in spite of the reclamations of Indianologists who were anxious to preserve the true pronunciation; but usage has prevailed, as is still the case in our days.

ABÉNAKIS, (Ojibwa), means, "land of the East." It must come from wāban, it is day-break, and, aki, or, better, akki, earth, whence, wābanakiyak, the people from where the sun rises.

ABITIBI, (Cree), means, intermediate water, from the root, abit, middle, half, and nipi, water, which makes ipi, in composition, whence abitipi, water at half distance. The name of this lake comes from its position at the level of the land, between Hudson's bay and the St. Lawrence.

ASAWÁBIMOSWĀN, (Cree), where hunters watch for the Elk.

ASSINIBOINES, or, ASSINIBOĀNES, (Ojibwa), means probably: Sioux of the Stones, from: Assin, and bwān, Sioux; or perhaps better, Assinibwān, means: people who roast something on stones, because it appears that those Indians used to cook their meat on red-hot stones.

ACHIGAN, (Cree), from Manashigan, fish of this species, that the Whites have named from the word achigan, or rather ajigan, socks or wrappings for the feet.
