SABBATH SCHOOL REPORT

"Suffer the little children to come unto me." These words of our blessed Saviour are undying words. Addressed to the representatives of his future Church, down through the ages they come to us, full freighted with instruction, inspiration, encouragement, and hope, in view of the world's salvation. We estimate a nation or a country not so much by its wealth or industries as by its schools of learning and the character of its youth. The world's destiny in embryo vastness lies wrapped up in the heart of childhood. Here germs good and evil, potent with possibilities and developments, spreading out into the great, the infinite, the unknown, are the stern realities we must meet. To eradicate and destroy the one, and to nourish, preserve and cultivate for growth in endless beauty the other, is our great work. While all education should tend to virtue, it is imperative that the Home and the Sabbath School should "lend the youth a sacred clew to find the crucified." Happy is the man that findeth wisdom to teach Christianity and to make Christians. "My class for Jesus" is a motto sufficiently little for all who feed the flock of God which he hath purchased with his own blood. With the Bible our constant study, our divine, our incomparable text book; with a great increase of health giving literature, with a more liberal use of our catechisms, and of invaluable systematic helps; with youthful hearts becoming impregnated with temperance principles, with thousands upon thousands of "Pleasant Hours" beguiling the children to a most healthful recreation, with innumerable "Sunbeams" inviting youthful feet to safe, and bright and happy paths assuredly leading to the home of the childrens Friend; above all, with the Masters smile, and with hearts working in the strength and love of God—we believe the work being done cannot fail of ultimate and glorious success. We are happy to report 138 schools, 1045 teachers, 9316 scholars, 4435 volumes in libraries, 420 converted to God this year and about $1,200 00 collected by the children for the great Mission work.

Conscious of our own great inefficiency and of the incompleteness, yet magnitude of the work, we would here and now, consecrate our highest study and endeavour for its perfection.

F. G. WILLEY,
Secretary.

QUESTION XXV—What are the reports of the several Committees?

ANSWER.

I—CONTINGENT FUND.

In view of the many and urgent claims upon this Fund from various causes, the Committee respectfully represent to Conference, the need of making special reference to it on all the Circuits and Missions of the Conference in order that it may be largely increased during the coming year, and they believe that an explanation to our people of the special cases relieved from the fund will lead to this result—

TEMPERANCE REPORT.

Resolved 1—That we rejoice in the success which has crowned the efforts put forth in several localities in this colony during the past year to secure the benefits of the Permissive and Local Option Acts, and would urge upon the friends of Temperance renewed efforts towards securing Prohibition throughout the Island.

2.—The committee believing that much good has resulted from the Special Temperance Sermons preached during the past year would earnestly recommend the practice, and name the third Sabbath in December for this purpose.

3.—That we would urge upon all our ministers the wisdom of increasing the circulation of Temperance literature and tracts amongst our people as far as practical.

4.—That whilst regretting the failure of the recent powerful agitation in St. John's to secure the Permissive Act for the capital—this Committee believes the public has become better educated on the Temperance question as the result of that agitation and confidently hopes that we are really nearer ultimate victory.

5.—That this Committee requests each District Superintendent to see that complete Temperance Statistics are obtained at the Annual District Meetings, from every Circuit and Mission.

6.—That we recommend the Conference to form a "Methodist Total Abstinence Society" having special reference to the bringing about of a law Prohibiting the importation, manufacture and sale of spirituous liquors. Such Society to be directly under the control of the church to be supported voluntarily and to be utilized for the mutual improvement of our people. The Society to have branches on all our Circuits or Missions (as far as practicable).

We also recommend the use of a single and double pledge—the one pledging to total abstinence from strong drink and tobacco, the other pledging to total abstinence from strong drink alone—members having the option of taking either pledge.

7.—That the Superintendent of the Circuit shall be ex-officio Chairman of the Committee of management, but may, if he shall see fit, delegate his authority for this purpose to one of his colleagues. The Committee shall be elected at an annual meeting of the members from amongst members of the Methodist Church, or regular attendants on the Methodist ministry, who shall become members of the Temperance Organization. The Committee shall at its first meeting elect a Deputy Chairman (who shall preside in the absence of the circuit minister) a Treasurer and a Secretary, and shall meet as frequently as circumstances may require.

JESSE HEYFIELD, Secretary and Convener.

COLPORTAGE COMMITTEE.

During the past year the Conference Colporteur travelled for six months on the northeast coast. He started from St. John's on the 20th of May, and visited Greenspond, Fogo, Twillingate, Moreton's Harbor, Tizzard's Harbor, Exploits, Little Bay Island, Little Bay, Bett's Cove, Tilt Cove, Nipper's Harbor and several other settlements in Notre Dame and Bonavista Bays, finishing his tour on the 7th of November. Despite the depression of trade and the lack of money consequent upon the failure of last season's fishery we succeeded in disposing of books to the amount of $872 15 a showing which proves the faithfulness, efficiency and zeal with which he discharged his difficult and onerous duties.

Public Meetings in aid of this work have been held this year at Carbonear and Bonavista District Meetings and also at St. John's during the Conference Session, and the following amounts raised in support of the Committee's operations.

The Conference commends this undertaking to the favorable attention and support of our people, and as this work has been made a great blessing to our outlying circuits and missions, it has many claims on the sympathy and generosity of all who love pure literature and sound doctrine.

QUESTION XXVI—What further measures can be adopted for the promotion of the work of God within or beyond the bounds of Conference and what are the recommendations of the District Meetings on this important subject?

ANSWER.

That having heard the reports by the various brethren, we would magnify the Grace of our God that has brought salvation.

But while rejoicing in what has been done, we feel humbled at the remembrance of how much more might have been done, and here and now we give ourselves afresh to God and his service, seeking the fresh anointing of the Holy Spirit and that he may be in us a spirit of wisdom, love and sanctifying power, fitting us for every duty to which we may be called.

QUESTION XXVII—When and where shall our next Conference be held?

ANSWER.

At Harbor Grace on the fourth Wednesday in June 1886.

QUESTION XXVIII.—What shall be the order of business for the Conference of 1886?

ANSWER.

TUESDAY, June 22nd.—Preparatory Day.

4 p. m., Stationing Committee.

4 p. m., Temperance Committee.

7 p. m., Colportage Committee.

7 p. m., Nominating Committee.

WEDNESDAY, June 23rd.—Opening of Conference 9.30 a.m.

It is recommended from 2.30 to 5.30 p.m., be set apart for meeting of Committees, and that at 7.30 p.m. a Public Meeting for the consideration of the work of God be held.

PASTORAL ADDRESS.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE METHODIST CHURCH WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE NEWFOUNDLAND CONFERENCE.

DEAR BRETHREN :

We gladly avail ourselves of the opportunity of presenting to you our Annual Address. Separated from you for a season in body but not in heart, we desire that our care for you may be made manifest. All our deliberations during our Conferential gatherings, are we trust, chiefly for your sake, and we have confidence in you, dear brethren, that you will co-operate with us in giving practical effect to the decisions at which we have arrived for the welfare of our Zion. We claim not for ourselves infallibility of judgment, but we believe that the Divine Spirit whose guidance we have daily sought and which you too have prayed that we might receive has been given to us. Nor can we doubt that the carrying out of our suggestions and resolutions will add to the strength of your piety and to the general welfare of our loved cause.

We record with gratitude to Him who kindly preserves our lives that our ministerial ranks have not been broken by death since our last Conference.

Some of the brethren have, however, been laid aside from their hallowed toil by ill-health.

Our Church too has sustained a great loss in the death of its Senior General Superintendent, the Rev. Doctor Rice. He after a lifetime of eminent and consecrated service has been removed to the Reigning Church above.

We thank God that another gifted, and we believe in every sense well qualified minister, the Rev. Dr. Williams, has been appointed to the responsible position of General Superintendent, as the associate of Dr. Carman. Pray, dear brethren, that both these honored ministers of our church may be blessed with strength and wisdom for the fulfilment of their numerous and onerous duties.

To many of you the past year has been one of unprecedented sorrow and trial. You have passed through deep waters of affliction and bereavement. Hard has been the struggle in many cases with poverty and privation. Often you have been ready to adopt the words of the Apostle, "We are troubled on every side;" but we are persuaded, dear brethren, that as ye have been partakers of much suffering so ye have been of much consolation. Need we assure you of our deep sympathy; yea, our tender love for you in the bowels of Christ Jesus our Lord. God our heavenly Father has also permitted trials to come upon us. We have been called to mourn: The shadows of affliction and death have fallen upon our homes. We bow un murmuringly to His will, for we know that love alone prompts Him to afflict His children. In common with us you will have noticed the gratify ing numerical increase of more than 13,000 Methodist people within the limits of our Conference during the past ten years. Not in a Spirit of vain glorious boasting, but in one of gratitude we record this fact. We are still more thankful for the blessed ingathering of precious souls which we have been permitted to witness year by year, as the reward of our labor and the seals of our ministry. Hundreds in different parts of our Island have been brought to decision for God, and into communion with His church, during the past year. We would give him all the praise. Not unto us O Lord, not unto us, but unto Thy name give glory for Thy mercy and for Thy truth's sake. The total membership in our societies is now 8721. with 1518 on trial, an increase for the year of 700. We hope however to see still larger accessions and results more nearly commensurate with the efforts that are being put forth.

We now desire to address to one and all words of loving counsel and of warning. Some of you are but babes in Christ needing to be fed with the "sincere milk of the word that ye may grow thereby." Rejoice, little children, that your sins are forgiven for His name's sake. Be followers of God, and followers of those who through faith and patience now inherit the promises. Remember for your encouragement that the "good shepherd" loves most dearly the lambs of His flock, gathers them with His arms and carries them in His bosom. Some are young men, strong physically and strong in the Lord; and others are fathers in Israel, who have watched with thankful hearts the growth of our Church, and in the days of her weakness contended for and manfully maintained her rights. We still prize the counsels of your matured minds, and your matured piety, and shall hold your memory in grateful recollection when you have crossed over the border land, and are reunited with the many friends of your youth and manhood who have crossed before you.

Dear brethren, we would beseech you to guard against a stationary religion. Our religious life may be, and is, when healthy, and the proper means are used for its increase, one of constant growth and development. The blade, the ear, the full corn in the ear; the grain of mustard seed, the smallest of all seeds but when it is grown the greatest of herbs; these and other metaphors of similar import are used by Christ the Great Teacher as descriptive of it.

Add to your faith, virtue; and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance," etc., is an apostolic injunction. "For if these things are in you and abound they make you that ye shall be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ." These things are we believe already in you and they may abound also. A life thus gloriously complete is your undoubted privilege. Such dear brethren is the second blessing, "the second grace," and from thence, from the living root of a new and purified life. "Grow in grace and in knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." No place is so safe or so happy for the soul to dwell in, the secret place of the Most High, under the shadow of the Almighty. Well there and your souls will be watered with the river of life flowing from the throne of God. You will feed on the hidden manna, the bread endureth unto life everlasting.

Neglect no outward means of grace. Punctually enter your closet and shut the door that you may pray to your Father in secret. Prize the class-meeting, that highly honored means of grace which aided so largely in the establishment of early Methodism, and which, when rightly conducted retains all its power as a means of comforting and quickening the soul. In the Prayer-meeting, at the Table of the Lord, under the preaching of the Word, in every means of grace available to you seek to obtain strength from God and you will assuredly go from strength to strength. Guard also dear brethren against a religion of mere emotion. Religion is for the entire being, and for the entire life. In it there is nothing onesided or incomplete. It is as a gem or precious stone clearly cut and perfectly rounded. It is not as a clay cold statue without life or feeling. "Her ways are ways of pleasantness." Feelings too deep and too tender for utterance or expression by any outward sign or action may be possessed and cherished. But emotions that expend themselves in outward forms of excitement, and produce no permanent fruits of goodness are valueless. We would urge you to cultivate intelligent piety; for the soul to be without knowledge is not good. Especially would we urge this upon the young, whose minds are receptive and retentive, much more so than is the case with those advanced in life. Seek to be so well grounded in the knowledge of the Lord that you may be always ready to give to every one that asketh you a reason for the hope that is in you with meekness and fear. With all our mind as well as with all our heart and strength we are commanded to "Love the Lord our God." Let your religion be eminently practical, "Be ye doers of the Word." Your position and circumstances in life are very varied. God has blessed some of you with wealth and placed you where your conduct is the subject of constant scrutiny and criticism by the men of the world. You are called to the performance of public duties. Make it felt in the world that no men of business are more worthy to be trusted than the members of our beloved Church. Every pledge which you give, faithfully redeem, every promise faithfully fulfil. Let the law of truth be in your hearts, and words of truth always on your lips. Hasten not to be rich, for they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare. Whether you are tradesmen or legislators, be faithful to your conscience and faithful to your God. And brethren you who are called to serve others, render faithful service, never let the fear of poverty lead you to do what is wrong. But remember God's promise "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee." Take the Word of God in all the affairs of this life for your guidance. Ponder its precepts and warnings, and copy the conduct of those whose lives it records as men who served God and served their generation according to His will. Do your duty in every station of life. Maintain a fearless and uncompromising opposition against sin and wrong of every kind. Seek to be actuated in your doings by a sincere desire to please God. Have a "single eye" and your "whole body will be full of light." "Your light will so shine before men that they will see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven." The mine of inspiration is very deep and full of precious truths. Careful, prayerful study and the aid of God's Holy Spirit are essential to a right understanding and due appreciation of God's own word. In our hymn-book you have a manual of devotion. Often in the sanctuary and in the household is the soul borne heavenward on the wave of holy song. In the closet too these marvellous songs of praise will be found to be healthful. From our Methodist Publishing Houses many valuable books are issued, which you will do well to purchase and peruse as you have means and opportunity.

Whilst you naturally desire to acquire general knowledge and to become acquainted with the current literature of the day, or such of it as is healthy and instructive, we would ask you not to neglect the Standard Works of our Church, nor our weekly or monthly publications. In all these you will find much valuable information calculated both to inform your minds and strengthen your spiritual life. Our Sabbath School papers cannot fail both to interest and instruct your children. We trust that the time is not far distant when some or all of these will find their way into every Methodist home in the land. We would again commend to your sympathy the various interests and institutions of our Church and bespeak your heartiest co-operation in their behalf. We praise God for the readiness with which many of you have given of your substance for the maintenance of God's cause. Ours is a growing Church and as you are aware dependent entirely for material support on the voluntary free-will offerings of our people. The churches, schools and parsonages which have been erected testify to the fact of your willingness and liberality. You must however, bear with us, dear brethren, when we say that in many cases, and on many circuits there is ample room for improvement, and the most pressing need if our work is to be sustained and extended, for greater liberality. Remember the words of Jesus, "The labourer is worthy of his hire." For ourselves we court not riches, but we are anxious for your sake and for the honor of our Divine Lord that the ministry amongst us should be respectably maintained and kept free from worldly embarrassment. Our day and Sabbath schools still need your fostering care. Marked and gratifying improvement has been made during the past decade, but there is still need of putting forth strenuous efforts to increase the efficiency of all our schools.

We are anxious that the sons and daughters of Methodist parents may be qualified for the very highest position both in the Church, and Commercial and Professional life. We trust that the proposed erection of a new Methodist College and Ministers' Childrens' Home at Saint John's, will commend itself to your judgment and receive your liberal support.

As Methodists let us seek to maintain our prestige by being in the van of Christian workers. Aid the great Temperance movement. Past progress and victory, as well as partial defeat should but teach wisdom, and add strength to our efforts. Do not rest until the flag of Prohibition floats over every part of our land. And brethren whilst we think of the wants of our own land and do all we can to supply them, let us not forget that many millions of those for whom Christ died are perishing for lack of knowledge. The Church through straitened means cannot impart the word of life to these. More fervent prayers and more liberal contributions are needed that the world may be won for Christ. Aid the great work of Christian Missions to the utmost of your power.

Our Conference has been favored with the presence of the Rev. Dr. Carman, the Senior Superintendent of our Church. To us it has been a great source of pleasure to enjoy the benefits of his counsel and aid in despatching the business of the Conference, and in listening to his addresses on our Connexional interests, and his able setting forth of Divine truth from the pulpits of our churches. We believe that the visit of this honored servant of God and the Church to our Island, will result in much permanent good to us as ministers, and to you as members of the Church of Christ. We are led to praise God for the unity of our beloved Methodism in the Dominion of Canada and Newfoundland, and believe that there is a glorious future before the united Church.

Now, in conclusion, whilst addressing words of exhortation to you we do not forget our own great need of possessing every grace in our souls, and of exemplifying every virtue in our lives. Our high and holy calling entails tremendous responsibilities for whose fulfilment we feel ourselves to be of ourselves altogether insufficient. Pray for us that we may be more fully endued with power from on high, that we may both feed and be examples to the flock of Christ. Soon both ministers and those ministered unto will be called to give up their stewardship to God. Let us therefore be diligent that we may be found of Him in peace, without spot and blameless. Then in the song of the glorified our voices will blend in praise "Unto him that loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and His Father, to Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved :—

1.—That all Circuit Returns be made up in future to the 31st of May in each year.

2.—That the Conference has great pleasure in expressing its unabated confidence in the self-denying and laborious service rendered the Church and the Country by the Rev. G. S. Milligan, LL.D.,— and would assure him of its continued co-operation and hearty support, in effecting the education of our people.

3.—The Conference desires to express its satisfaction on hearing from a Joint Committee respecting new College Buildings and the erection of a Children's Home especially for ministers' children, and while offering its deep conviction of the necessity of such erections, hereby resolves to pledge its united earnest and hearty support to carry out the enterprise with speedy and complete success.

4.—That a Conference Collection be taken up on each Circuit to help defray the expenses of Brethren travelling to and from Conference and District Meeting, to meet all claims above $5.00 and that a Treasurer be appointed to disburse the same when the Conference meets.

5.—That the Conference has very great pleasure in expressing its high appreciation of the Canadian Methodist Magazine as supplying a cheap popular, instructive, and most valuable literary publication, that has already won its way into many families, and begs to place on record its esteem for the Rev. W. H. Withrow, D.D., its Editor, and its assurance of a fixed purpose to extend if possible its circulation.

This Conference desires also to assure Dr. Withrow that our various Sunday School Papers edited by him are greatly prized by Sunday scholars and S. S. teachers and workers, and by all interested in the intelligent piety of our youth, and will do its best to secure their introduction and use in all our Sunday Schools and in general by our people.

6.—That the best and heartiest thanks of the Conference are hereby tendered to the friends in St. John's for their kindness in entertaining the Ministers during their stay in this city. And that this resolution be read from the various pulpits on the Sabbath.

7.—Resolved that this Conference desires to place on record its deep regret at the loss which the Methodist Church has sustained by the death of Rev. S. D. Rice one of the General Superintendents who by lengthened experience and eminent administrative ability was specially qualified for the office to which he was chosen, and while bowing in submission to the Divine Will would tender to Mrs Rice, the widow of our departed brother, its sincerest sympathy praying earnestly that Divine consolation may be richly vouchsafed.

8.—This Conference would desire to express its cordial acquiescence and satisfaction in the appointment of Rev. J. A. Williams, D.D., to the office of General Superintendent made vacant by the death of the Senior Superintendent Rev. S. D. Rice, D.D.

9.—That the Conference has great pleasure in expressing its thanks to Joseph Laurence, Esq., of East Keswick, Yorkshire, England, for the deep interest he has taken and still manifests in the work of God in this Conference.

10.—That on any Circuit inviting a minister through the Quarterly Board, said invitation being accepted by the minister invited, the removal expenses to be paid by the circuit inviting.

11.—That this Conference, desires to express its grateful acknowledgment to Almighty God for His gracious providence in bringing to us our highly esteemed Senior General Superintendent, Rev. Albert Carman, D.D., to aid in presiding over our Sessions and to render in many ways very important service to our Connexional interests. His presence in the chair has done much to secure despatch, and his weighty words of counsel have greatly helped to promote efficiency. His public addresses, have been most practical, and have afforded much valuable information respecting our doctrines and economy, and his public ministrations in the pulpit thoughtful and heart-searching as they have been, have been also felt by many to be refreshing, edifying, and stimulating, towards a better and higher life. We believe that his visit to Newfoundland, (especially as he hopes before leaving to see as many Circuits and Missions as possible) will prove an invaluable and permanent advantage to our work. While gratefully recognizing these facts, we beg to assure Dr. Carman, that we cherish for him affectionate regard and that our prayers will often arise for him and for his worthy associate in the General Superintendency of our Church that they may be preserved in their extensive journeyings, upheld in their manifold duties, and rendered every where an abundant blessing.

12.—That this Conference while refusing to identify itself with any party politics (so called) rejoices in the success of the Temperance movement in this land, and from a long-abiding and deepseated conviction that Prohibition is the grand remedy for the Intemperance of the country, pledges itself to use all appropriate means to secure a Prohibitory Law for this land.

13.—Any brother not expecting to be at the next Conference shall inform the minister where the said Conference is to be held that he will not require a home, at least one month before Conference.

14.—That in the judgment of the Conference, it is hereby ruled that an application from a Probationer to visit England, in course of his probation shall not be entertained in ordinary, and that permission shall only be granted to a brother to do so after the Conference or Conference Committee shall have decided that circumstances have arisen of sufficient importance to warrant its possibility.

15.—That the best thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to the Rev. G. S. Milligan, LL.D., for the efficient and faithful discharge of his official duties as President of the Newfoundland Conference for the past year.

16.—That the cordial and hearty thanks of this Conference are due and are hereby presented to the Rev. George J. Bond, B.A., for the faithful and efficient discharge of his duty as Secretary of this Conference.

17.—That the thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to the Sub-Secretaries for the faithful discharge of their duties during the year.

18.—That the Superintendent of a Circuit or Mission be responsible for the supply of his pulpit two Sabbaths after the close of the Conference.

19.—That the respectful thanks of this Conference be presented to Brother Peach for the interest he has taken in the Financial work of this Conference.

20.—We are gratified to learn that the affairs of the Book Room are in as satisfactory a condition as reported, and feel called upon to express our continued confidence in our Book Steward and Editor, and pledge ourselves to do all in our power to aid in the circulation of our Church Organ and literature.
