Ottawa, Ont., June 19.—Col. David Watson, of the second battalion, proprietor of the Quebec Chronicle, Captain Willis O'Connor, of Ottawa, and Lieut. F. W. Campbell of Mount Forest, each of them reported wounded, are all that the overnight casualty lists contain about the latest fight at Labassee. The casualties given among the men are undoubtedly from earlier engagements and the lists from the battles of this week have not yet come through. The losses, it is understood, are comparatively small. Fourteen were reported killed, nineteen wounded, and eighteen missing in yesterday's fight.

WHISTLING LOUDLY TO KEEP UP THEIR COURAGE

Winnipeg, June 19.—Representatives of Conservative organizations in eighteen provincial constituencies, at a meeting here, decided that a provincial Conservative convention should be called, and urged that if a provincial election were held every seat should be contested. The opinion was expressed that the parliament buildings investigation must go on, and must be thorough and the meeting expressed its "repudiation of any knowledge of irregularities that are being investigated, and with one accord these charges sifted to the bitter end. The Conservative party has been guilty of no crime."

AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

The death of Mrs. Catherine Christina, widow of James Marshall, occurred this morning at her home, 145 Millidge avenue, and came as a shock to her family after only a brief illness. She was forty-five years of age, and before her marriage was Miss Marshall of Moss Glen. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Walter Vincent of this city, and Miss Winona, at home; four sons, Oakley, William, Walter and George, and two brothers, George and James Marshall of this city. The funeral service will take place tomorrow evening at her late residence, probably at the conclusion of the evening church services; the body will be taken on Monday morning to the steamer at Indiantown and the interment will be made at Williams' wharf.

NEWS OF LOCAL SOLDIERS AT THE FRONT

Mr. and Mrs. Fidele Sawyer, of Moncton, have received a letter from their son, Pte. Gale Sawyer, of the 10th Battalion, who was reported missing, but the letter is dated May 28, which was before he disappeared. In his brief communication Pte. Sawyer tells of heavy fighting, through which he had come unscathed. Patrick Gallagher of Moncton, has not yet received any information as to the whereabouts of his son, Walter, who was reported missing some time ago.

A letter to his brother says that Gordon C. Emmerson, son of the late Judge Emmerson, was shot in the shoulder and in the hands, but that his wounds are not of a very serious nature. William L. Lockhart, of Moncton, has received from Bombardier George Patterson, I. C. R. brakeman, with the 10th Battalion, a cheerful letter which states that up to the time of writing he had come through the fighting "O. K." He mentions Wellington Nicholson and some other railroaders, who are with the battery.

Madrid, June 19.—Raisuli, a brigand and pretender to Morocco's throne, had another narrow escape from death, according to the Herald, when ten members of his suite were killed by the fire of Spanish troops near Arzila, a Moroccan seaport. Desiring to visit the region he formerly controlled, Raisuli asked General Marina, military governor of the Spanish zone, for a safe conduct, and his request was granted. Accompanied by forty native notables, he was on his way toward Arzila, when a brisk fusillade was opened by a detachment of troops. Only the swiftness of his horse saved Raisuli.

GERMAN ARMORED AUTOS BEHIND BRITISH LINES

Have Been Shelling Hospital and the Trenches

Sensation at Boulogne in Capture of Party of Enemy Left Hidden When British Drove Germans Back — Had Stores For Fifteen Months

Boulogne, June 19.—A sensation has been caused here by the report of the discovery of a party of Germans with two armored automobiles, hidden behind the British lines. The mysterious shelling of the British hospital, which was moved several times without escaping the bombardment, and shells falling into the British trenches from behind, led to a search by an expedition, which finally located the party of eight Germans and two automobiles, each of the latter armed with aero guns. They were ensconced in a cave with stores and provisions for fifteen months. The cars and the stores had been left behind, carefully hidden, when the German line was pushed back by the British, while the small party remained behind, hoping to put the material to some use. After a time the Germans ventured out and shelled the British positions as described. They are now prisoners.

AGAIN, THE KAISER

Paris, June 19.—Extracts from a letter said to have been sent by Emperor William to a personage connected with the Bavarian court, and published in Spain, are reproduced by the Matin. He is quoted as saying in part:— "Our only object is a peace profitable for the German states. This peace may be concluded sooner than thought. If it gave for the time being, only an incomplete result, it would at least serve as a preparation for the future. It could be signed tomorrow, if I wished. When my august grandfather placed the empire on its present basis he did not pretend to have realized a complete work. The empire always is susceptible of growth. What cannot be achieved today, will be achieved later."

DOCTOR KILLED IN NO MAN'S LAND

Paris, June 19.—Dr. Auguste Chailion, a young physician connected with the Pasteur Institute, was killed while carrying out the dangerous task of disinfesting bodies lying between the French and German lines. A glittering cyanide disinfectant which he carried, caught the eye of a German sentry and he was opened with a machine gun. One of the shells struck Dr. Chailion killing him instantly.

At 11 o'clock this morning the body of a man found on Jones' Island in the St. John river opposite Millwood had not been identified. Coroner W. L. Belyea, of Brown's Place, went to the island this morning, accompanied by H. D. Belyea, an undertaker. Captain Firewelling, of the steamer Oconee, who arrived at Indiantown this morning, said that it was believed that the body had been on the shore for about two weeks. It was found well up on the shore by Hendrick Jones. The man appeared to be of middle age, and from the fact that he had winter clothing and a pair of skates on, it was apparent that he had been in the water since in the winter.

Petrograd, June 19.—In an official statement, issued last night at the War Office, it is admitted that the Russians have retired beyond the line of lakes at Grodek, less than sixteen miles west of Lemberg, their last line of defense in front of the Galician capital. Near Comoline the enemy spread a cloud of asphyxiating gas on a front of four miles. "On the right bank of the San our troops retired fighting beyond the River Tanell, and the line of lakes at Grodek. "Between the Fourth and the Dniester, where the enemy crossed the frontier on the previous days, he has been driven back to Austrian territory."

THE WAR NEWS

The end of another week finds little change in the active fighting, although British, French and Italians all report some ground gained, and Russia reports a successful counter move against the Austrians in one quarter while being pressed back in others.

Last night's cables convey the impression that Bulgaria is expected soon to join the Allies. With regard to the United States, the German under secretary of foreign affairs is quoted as saying he is satisfied with the prospect of an amicable settlement, but a powerful section of the German press is opposed to any compromise in the matter of submarine warfare.

There is reason to anticipate long casualty lists as a result of the heavy fighting for some days past along the British and French fronts, although it is certain that the German losses, both along the British and French fronts, continue to be large.

The British government has decided there will be no general elections for at least a year, and no municipal elections will be held this year. The fact illustrates in the strongest manner the determination in the Mother Country to concentrate upon the one great task of bringing the war to a satisfactory conclusion.

There is here a lesson for the government of Canada. With regard to munitions of war, the Russian government is reported to have taken over all the factories capable of turning out munitions, and will speed up the production of that for which they have the greatest need. There should be continued agitation till every factory in Canada is also doing all possible in the same line of work.

There is nothing actually discouraging in the general war situation, while the cheery optimism of months ago has disappeared, and it is realized that the task is far more formidable than most people anticipated, the fact remains that the Allies have an immense supply of available men, that they are certain to get more help ere long, and that when they have become so industrially organized as to be able to provide all the ammunition required they will gradually break down the force of German resistance.

WAKE THEM UP.

A delegation of British workmen has returned from the war zone convinced that the great need is munitions of war. This should interest Sir Robert Borden and Major General Hughes. They are sending thousands of Canadian soldiers to the front, and they have a right to insist that the lives of these men be not thrown away in fighting without sufficient support by the artillery arm of the service. The production of shells in Canada can be enormously increased. The government cannot shift its responsibility for the safety of Canadian lives upon a shell committee or the British government. If Sir Robert and Major General Hughes cannot measure up to the requirements they should give place to men of greater force and determination. The plea of the soldiers in the trenches is for more shells. Why in Canada are not supplying more of them? It is idle to boast that she is now making large numbers when she ought to be and could be making very much larger numbers. When will this country be industrially organized for war as it should be, and to whom are the people to look but the government?

ENDED IN SMOKE.

The resolution condemning the encouragement of smoking among soldiers at the front created a stormy scene at the Methodist Conference in Toronto. It was passed at one session, but was brought up again at the next by Rev. Dr. German, who moved that it be rescinded. He referred to the man who sat in his study smoking and reading the war news, and yet did not want the soldiers in the trenches, fighting our battles, to smoke. Rev. Dr. Chambers said: "I think it a great pity that this resolution was brought before the meeting, and I am among the ministers who deeply regret that it was accepted. I also wish to express my regret that Conference went out of its way to throw slurs upon our soldiers." Several members defended the resolutions and the debate waxed warm with many interruptions, but Dr. German's motion to rescind was finally ruled out on a technicality and the matter dropped. The Conference, we are told, then listened to an address on "The Divine Love." The change may have been somewhat abrupt, but presumably the brethren were able to adapt themselves, even if some had to soothe their nerves later with a pipe or cigar.

HE JUST LAUGHED

"A man in New Brunswick had asked him if Mr. Rowell's politics were practical. He thinks of what God wants done," he had replied. The man just laughed. Mr. Rowell is the Liberal leader in Ontario. The man who made the remark quoted concerning him was Rev. W. J. Smith of Montreal, Field Secretary of the Social Service Department of the Toronto Methodist Conference. The New Brunswick man who laughed was evidently a supporter of the Clarke and Borden governments, and until recently an admirer of the Roblin government in Manitoba. He laughed at the notion of uprightness in politics. Of course he did. He knew better—at least so far as his party was concerned.

Rev. Mr. Smith related the incident in the course of an address in one of the Toronto churches last Sunday. He denounced party politics, and wondered when men would become sensible and vote for cleanliness instead of party. Of course we are a long way from the abolition of parties in politics, but there is nothing to prevent the defeat of a party which has grown openly brazen and reckless in its plunderings, and which laughs at the mere suggestion of honesty and good faith in public life.

A GREAT GREEK.

When the King of Greece refused to sanction the entry of that country into the war on the side of the Allies, Premier Venizelos resigned. In the elections just held he and his policy have been overwhelmingly endorsed by the people. In view of this fact the following sketch of his career will be read with general interest.

"Venizelos ranks among the greatest statesmen of Europe today in the view of Mr. A. G. Gardiner, editor of the London Daily News. Others have compared him with Cavour, Gambetta and Bismarck, and the comparison is significant of the impression yielded by his personality. He is, by birth, a Cretan of Athenian origin, his grandfather having fled from Greece a century or so ago in order to escape from the tyranny of the Turk. During the troubled events that led to the liberation of Crete from Turkish rule Venizelos, then a young barrister, became the leader of the Cretan people, and later the president of the first Cretan assembly. When Prince George, brother of the present king of Greece, attempted to rule Crete as a despot, Venizelos led the revolt that resulted in the flight of the prince to Paris. His record in Crete made Venizelos the idol of the Greek people, and the work he has done since he became prime minister brought with it the regeneration of the Hellenic idea. But his real greatness has been shown, not by what he accomplished in Greece, but by the scope of his possession of a wider outlook. Venizelos has been ready to recognize the rights of other peoples, and the disruption of the Balkan League, his own creation, was not attributable to him, but to the intrigues of Austria, with whose ambitious plans the league threatened the independence of the Balkan states. The inspired press of Greece has already given hints that the cure is prepared to revise its whole attitude towards the European conflict."

This war hits great and small. Prime Minister Asquith's two sons were wounded in the fighting at the Dardanelles.

The Standard, discussing the Chandler enquiry this morning, omitted any reference to the case of Col. Sheridan, M. P., and his son who was a bridge foreman at fourteen.

Purifying politics by padding the pay lists is a device which ought to fall into disfavor. A change of government would help. Meantime let us have all the information available on the subject.

New Brunswick is to have another battalion, under command of Col. H. M. Montgomery Campbell. Recruiting will begin at once. Meantime more men are yet needed for the 53th.

The press in Norway and Sweden angrily protests against Germany's methods of submarine warfare. There is not a neutral nation now that has any sympathy with the German cause.

When the older people of St. John or Fairville or any other place deprive themselves of the pleasure of attending places of entertainment and otherwise enjoying themselves at considerable daily expense it will be time enough to talk of asking the children to sacrifice their playgrounds on account of the war. Let us be fair to the kiddies.

When evidence of graft is produced as in the Kent county case before Commissioner Chandler, and when a government newspaper fails to give a fair report of the evidence, and tries to deceive the public as to its nature, and it is evident that the course of the newspaper is directed by the government, it is quite useless to expect an end of grafting operations as long as that government remains in power.

The Jitney has come to Toronto, where a Jitney Association has been formed. The managers hope to see a hundred cars in service by the end of the month. A proposition to establish thirteen routes, practically gridironing the city, has been made to the board of control, but it declines to give certain exclusive rights asked for. The company says it is ready to spend $200,000 to $250,000 if it can get what it asks for. Vancouver is another Canadian city with a jitney service. No doubt the number will increase.

SHARP ATTACK REPULSED

Dangerous Condition Relieved Just in Time by "Fruit-a-lives"

MR. F. J. CAVERN. 682 Gerrard St. East, Toronto. For two years I was a victim of Acute Indigestion and Gas in The Stomach. It afterwards attacked my Heart, and I had pains all over the body, so I could hardly move around. I tried all kinds of medicines but none of them did me any good. At last, acting on the advice of a friend, I decided to try "Fruit-a-lives". I bought the first box last June, and now I am well, after using only three boxes. I recommend "Fruit-a-lives" to anyone suffering from Indigestion, no matter how acute.

FRED J. CAVERN. Simple Indigestion often leads to Heart Attacks, Catarrh of the Stomach and constant distress of mind and body. If you are bothered with any Stomach Trouble, and especially if Constipation troubles you, take "Fruit-a-lives". 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. LIGHTER VEIN. Good Night! He—"Then you are not interested in my welfare?" She—"No"; but if the two syllables were transposed I'd not only be interested but enthusiastic."

The minister was delivering his farewell sermon. He had been having tough luck in collecting his salary and concluded to quit. Here is what he said: "Now, brethren, I have been appointed chaplain of the penitentiary of the state, and this will be my last Sunday among you. I will preach from the text, 'I go to prepare a place for you.' I shall sing the choir will sing 'Meet Me There.'"

Going Fishing to-morrow? ENGLAND OCCUPIES GARDEN OF EDEN Made a Wilderness by the Turks, It May Again Be Made a Garden in Reality. (Boston Globe.)

Probably few persons who read Lord Kitchener's statement in the House of Lords in January that "in Mesopotamia the Indian expeditionary force has continued its northward advance, defeating the Turks and inflicting on them heavy losses," realized the significance of this announcement. It means that England has captured the Garden of Eden!

The literal truth of the account of the Creation in the Book of Genesis has, of course, been attacked for thousands of years, but there has never been much doubt in the minds of scholars that the author of Genesis in describing the happy home of Adam and Eve had in mind a real country, one that this country, or garden, was located in Mesopotamia, for the author states that it was between the Tigris and the Euphrates Rivers, the Gihon and the Pishon. The Euphrates and the Tigris bound Mesopotamia today.

Five thousand years before Christ it was the seat of a wonderful civilization with arts and sciences, some of which are not known to the advanced civilization of today.

Mesopotamia was early Christianized, and in the 4th century A. D. the single city of Edessa contained 300 monasteries. When the Roman Empire began to wane Mesopotamia was taken by the Arabs, but was partly retaken in 1097 by Godfrey of Bouillon, and Edessa was again a Christian city for forty-seven years. After the Turks had subverted the Arabian Empire, and finally the Empire of Byzantium, they overran Mesopotamia, and in 1688 made it a Turkish province, since which time it has become a wilderness.

Three years ago, under the stimulus of the Young Turk movement, the Turkish government undertook new irrigation works in Mesopotamia, intrusting the construction to Sir John Johnson, the eminent engineer. The work was continued by Sir William Willcocks, builder of the Aswan Dam, and on Dec. 12, 1913, the Euphrates barrage was opened. The great barrage, or dam, has a head of sixteen feet and has already made possible the irrigation of an extensive tract of rich land. The valley upstream toward Babylon had been cleared for fifty miles before the present war broke out, and had the Turks not been carried away by their ancestral hostility the great Mesopotamia Lake might now be well on toward completion.

Now that Lord Kitchener's forces have successfully invaded the region it is probable that the British government will take over the administration and do for Mesopotamia what it has already done for Egypt, restore the prosperity it enjoyed before the coming of the Turk.

Cures Biliousness Prevents Bright's Disease

The Certified Statement of One Who Has Proven the Efficiency of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Mr. Collin M. Kiel, Craighurst, Simcoe county, Ontario, writes: "My mother and I have both used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills with great satisfaction. We find that there is nothing to equal them as a prompt cure for torpid liver, biliousness and indigestion. Some years ago my mother came near to her death from kidney trouble and has to be careful in preventing Bright's Disease. By using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills occasionally she keeps the kidneys healthy and active. Another point favorable to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills is that they do not gripe and yet accomplish good results. You are at liberty to use my letter."

This statement is endorsed by Mr. Marmaduke Canton, Justice of the Peace, who writes: "This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with Mr. Collin M. Kiel and believe his statement regarding Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to be true and correct."

The work was continued by Sir William Willcocks, builder of the Aswan Dam, and on Dec. 12, 1913, the Euphrates barrage was opened.

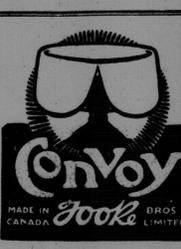

The great barrage, or dam, has a head of sixteen feet and has already made possible the irrigation of an extensive tract of rich land. The valley upstream toward Babylon had been cleared for fifty miles before the present war broke out, and had the Turks not been carried away by their ancestral hostility the great Mesopotamia Lake might now be well on toward completion.

Now that Lord Kitchener's forces have successfully invaded the region it is probable that the British government will take over the administration and do for Mesopotamia what it has already done for Egypt, restore the prosperity it enjoyed before the coming of the Turk.

Mr. Collin M. Kiel, Craighurst, Simcoe county, Ontario, writes: "My mother and I have both used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills with great satisfaction. We find that there is nothing to equal them as a prompt cure for torpid liver, biliousness and indigestion. Some years ago my mother came near to her death from kidney trouble and has to be careful in preventing Bright's Disease. By using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills occasionally she keeps the kidneys healthy and active. Another point favorable to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills is that they do not gripe and yet accomplish good results. You are at liberty to use my letter."

This statement is endorsed by Mr. Marmaduke Canton, Justice of the Peace, who writes: "This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with Mr. Collin M. Kiel and believe his statement regarding Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to be true and correct."

"THE SPOILERS" MONDAY AT IMPERIAL THEATRE

It must have cost W. N. Selig a small fortune to visualize Rex Beach's famous story "The Spoilers," which is presented in nine parts, especially when every foot contains a powerful punch, for in order to secure action of this character it required no end of costly scenes for its production. In providing for a perfect framework for this wonderful story, Mr. Selig stopped at nothing in order to secure the desired results.

Thin Folks Who Would Be Fat

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More A Physician's Advice "I'd certainly give most anything to be able to put up a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such result is not impossible, despite past failures. Thin people are victims of mal-nutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are when the powers of nutrition are normal.

J. P. CLAYTON'S SON DROWNED

Falling from Travis' bridge into the Marsh Creek last evening, little Donald Clayton, eight-year-old son of J. P. Clayton, superintendent of Fernald Cemetery, lost his life by drowning. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton were at a theatre in the city when notified of the fatality. Kenneth Hunter, another lad living nearby, had seen little Donald fishing from the bridge, but a few minutes later, on approaching saw only his cap and fishing rod on the water. He at once gave the alarm, and soon many were searching for the body. It was recovered by John O'Leary and F. McCabe, using the city grappling irons. Besides his parents, the drowned boy is survived by five brothers, James R. of this city; Joshua S. and Ernest R. with the 6th Mounted Rifles at Valcartier; Roy and Andrew at home, and three sisters, Mrs. George Pope, Mrs. John Day, and Miss Myrtle, at home.

ST. VITUS DANCE IN YOUNG CHILDREN

Can Only Be Cured by Enriching the Blood and Toning Up the Blood
One of the commonest forms of nervous trouble that afflicts young children is St. Vitus dance. This is because of the great demand made on the body by growth and development, together with the added strain caused by study. It is when these demands become so great that they impoverish the blood, and the nerves fail to receive their full supply of nourishment that St. Vitus dance develops.

A LESSON FROM THE FRENCH HOUSEWIFE

Live Under Your Income and be Happy and Wealthy

Mabel Potter Daggett tells many interesting and important facts about the French housewife. The following extract is from her article in Pictorial Review for July 1913.

Is it not simple, so even as Asalle Vinet says? If you wish to accumulate a fortune, it is only to spend less than your income. She is doing it even now as the mistress of her beautiful villa. Twice a week she drives into Cannes along the Boulevard Dimitri that skirts the flashing blue Mediterranean waters of the Bay of La Napoule. At the Market Pavillon that is beneath the oleander trees in front of the old church of the Misericorde she makes her purchases while Nanon, her maid, carries the basket. Madame Vinet will take with her all of the trimmings from that piece of meat. The butcher will not with a stroke of his hand sweep the bone and the fat into a box beneath the counter, to be sold back to the beef trust after Madame in France has paid for it. Madame Manhattan quite willingly enough permits this to her butcher, because she does not care. What would one do with the bones and the fat anyway? In New York, they are but a bother. But in France, I assure you, the bone is for the pot-au-feu, and the trimmings will be fried out and put in a little jar to save the expense of lard and butter. All of these things Madame Vinet is doing as methodically today as she ever did.

For in her household, no economy is overlooked. When she and her maid come driving back home, she will go directly into the kitchen with Nanon, herself to supervise the cooking. This is a French kitchen, anyhow, which is to say that it is not the deserted annex to the rest of the domestic establishment that it would be in America. And when Asalle Vinet has entered it, somehow the cook stove itself is dignified into an instrument of the culinary art. Her little heels click mutably across the red hexagonal tiles with which the floor is inlaid, and all the shining brass saucepans in a row on the wall reflect her approach. She goes not dumbly driven and rebellious to her task, as an American woman whose cook has suddenly departed.

From the many French utensils, the cocottes, the casseroles, the marmalades, the terrines, and the gratins in her cupboard, she will select the one best suited for her purpose. There on the hooded chimney's shelf where it hangs above the stove, are set conveniently to her

Winnipeg, June 18.—Hon. G. R. Coldwell blamed V. W. Horwood, former provincial architect, for wrong-doing in connection with the Kelly contracts at this afternoon's session of the Royal Commission. He swore that one day after the close of the last session of the legislature, Horwood confessed to him that he had deceived the government and expected to go to jail for it.

Mr. Coldwell said he wanted to be fair to Horwood. It was only right that the commission should know Horwood said he had accepted the Kelly tender with the object of protecting the government. Horwood was quoted by the witness as saying "I did not know what figure I could keep those contracts with."

On Wednesday and Thursday next, the first showing being "The Clutching Hand." It is in two parts, and will be accompanied with a comedy, and the Pathe War Gazette.

On Friday and Saturday next will be shown another serial by Emmett Campbell Hall, entitled "Road of Strife," a mystery drama, with a cast including Crane Wilbur, Mary Charleston, John Ince, Rosetta Brice, and other favorites. The first installment is "A House of Secrets." Both these serials will prove immensely popular.

SIX ROUND LIVELY DRAW

The Maine State Baseball Team and the Nationals—Sports on the Cricket and Athletic Club Grounds

A sporting exhibition in the Victoria rink on Monday, May 14, 1888, drew a large crowd of ring followers, and sporting men in general. The first event on the program was a preliminary between two Portland boys, Bryson and Buckley. The latter, though much smaller than his opponent, received the major portion of applause because of his plucky showing against his rival.

The baseball season of the year 1888 was opened May 24, under ideal weather conditions. A double header attracted close to 3,000 fans and the success attained augured well for a most successful season. The Nationals and the Maine State College team were the day's attraction and although the home team lost both games, their playing was good, considering that it was their first appearance.

In the morning the visitors won by a score of 12 to 8, and in the afternoon they nearly blanked the St. John boys, 10 to 1. The morning session was a good exhibition, despite several slips; but the afternoon game was a little one-sided for the liking of the fans. The following is the box score of the morning game:

Table with 2 columns: Player Name and Score. Includes names like Rogers, Keith, Small, Elwell, Bird, Babb, Philbrook, Hagget, Andrews, Blackington.

Summary—Two base hit, Rogers. Left on bases, M. S. C., 5; Nationals, 5. First base on balls, M. S. C., 2; Nationals, 8. Time of game two hours and five minutes. Umpire, M. L. Harrison.

Series of Sports. Sports held under the auspices of the C. & A. club took place at their grounds Marsh road, on Saturday, June 16, 1888. Owing to unfavorable weather conditions only a small crowd was in attendance. The City Cornet Band furnished an excellent programme.

The first event on the programme was the ball-throwing contest, which was won by Frank White, distance 89 yards. The next contest—100 yards dash—was won by White; time 108-4e. Warlock was second. J. M. Barnes won the final in the bicycle race, time 4:50. The one mile race was won by Walter McMonagle, time 5:19-4.

Real Wonder-Worker For Wrinkled Faces. Those who have tried all sorts of so-called "wrinkle-removers" only find words to lose them. Unwelcome traces of age, illness or worry, which they would fain eradicate, are not removed by the use of any of these formulas, once they have given a trial. The secret of the method is due not alone to the marvelous active base—upon the deepest line and groove of the face, as well as upon the very fine lines and its deeper recesses are other commendable features, for one needs only dip a sponge in the liquid, and rub it in half pint with hand, and bathe the face in this solution. At once a remarkable transformation is effected.

THOSE GERMAN PRISONERS. The Amherst Guardian protests against permitting the German prisoners to hold masquerade balls on Sunday evening, and says the country which expects its own people to keep the Sabbath should not permit its desecration by enemies who are prisoners.

Major Douglas has been authorized to make application and any necessary arrangements for the use of German prison labor in the town. The Iron Moulders' Union approves the use of the German prisoners on town undertakings provided there is no interference with town labor.

Another step taken by the council in reference to the German prisoners was to order that in case of escapes from the Internment Camp one long blast be sounded on the fire whistle. Such a blast will not only be a notice that there has been an escape but it will also be a summons or request to the men of the town to turn out and help in capturing the wandering ones.

Summer need not be a Hard Time for Baby

It is not the heat of summer that is hard on babies. It is their food that is responsible for most summer troubles. Milk is difficult to modify at home, and in the summer particularly, it is liable to contamination, infection and becoming sour. It is this that is mostly responsible for the epidemic diarrhoea and other complaints usually blamed on the summer weather.

Allenburg's Foods

The value of an absolutely dependable food is clearly proven at this season. The "Allenburgs" Milk Foods, Nos. 1 and 2 present advantages that are impossible with milk delivered to your door. THE CHOCOLATE SOLDIER

Poor Support Was Given For Such Good Production — James McElders Heard From — Charles Chaplin Hard at Work

If St. John has ever had much consideration as a show-town its reputation has lost something during the present week. There was apparent a keen lack of appreciation as regards "The Chocolate Soldier" at the Opera House, which was a failure to far as returns are concerned, though from a musical and theatrical standpoint it was one of the best successes on the local stage for some time.

By failing to patronize the play St. John may be stricken at least temporarily from the map of stage attractions of the bigger class and there will also be a loss this season in that the talented company making the presentation of the piece had intended doubling back over their territory presenting other operatic productions, such as "The Arcadians," "The Merry Widow," "The Prince of Pilsen," and others equally well known. This plan will now be abandoned as the loss involved, taking the lack of encouragement given the present engagement as a criterion, would be too great. There are, of course, various good reasons for the comparatively small attendance, but generally speaking, there was a lack of interest and appreciation considering the worth of the engagement, which is to be keenly regretted.

The Keiths ruling against the use of offensive language in vaudeville acts is being vigorously enforced. The comedian who has to rely upon profanity and suggestiveness to get laughs is in a bad way, and the best way to work a cure is to give the offender a vacation. If the public ever attended a few Monday morning releases and heard what some performers propose to do and say in their acts, theatre patrons would appreciate the vigilance of managers who personally pass upon everything in every act that plays his theater. It is the prospect with R. F. Albee that Keith vaudeville be kept clean vaudeville and all artists will be well advised to remember this.

Walter Kingsley in "The New York Mirror" says:—Mr. E. F. Albee is receiving editorial praise all over the country for his campaign against vulgarity in vaudeville and against the booking of criminals and notorious people. He is in deadly earnest and the bars are up hard and fast. Mr. Albee loves vaudeville with the love of a parent for a child, and he protects it might and main from the influences that might lower it. He sees in vaudeville a union of all the arts, an entertainment that draws upon every branch of human endeavor, and represents in its programme everything that is worth while in entertaining man. Fortunately, he makes his business come true.

James McElders, "Donquixote" in "The Pink Lady" when it played St. John's Opera Company, is playing in one of the companies alternating between Washington and Baltimore.

The Orphean Players who created so favorable an impression here a fortnight or so ago with "The Lottery of Love," are returning to the city with another excellent production, "The Mills of the Gods," one of the recent New York successes. There should be a better reception for these players as they are capable and give a pleasing, standard production. It is their intention also to present "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," a well known comedy, and "The Lottery of Love," in which they have won success.

Chaplin Speaks. Rumors had been started and have spread to St. John that Charles Chaplin had been injured and was in hospital. There were other unfounded stories telling of other ailments. Mr. Chaplin has not missed a day from his work and indignantly denies that he has been sick or injured.

"I have produced several comedies in the last few weeks, which would seem to indicate that I am not injured or otherwise incapacitated," he declared. "I don't know who started these silly stories, but there is not a word of truth in any one of them."

Charlotte Ives, whose work in the Famous Players production of "Clotel" will be remembered, will have the principal role in support of John Barrymore in that company's screen version of "The Dictator."

William Desmond, now playing leads with the Morocco-Bosworth forces, was the leading man Oliver Morosco chose for his first production in New York, "Judge and Jury." His honor was fairly won as the star had been a Morocco stalwart at the Burbank Theater, in Los Angeles, for years.

Hazel Dawn, who has already participated in some big films for the Famous Players Company, is now busy on a new feature, "Clarisia," in which Hazel Dawn is the star.

Much to the satisfaction of his many friends and admirers it can now be said that Arthur V. Johnson, Lubin's star, is now well on his way to recovery after his recent nervous breakdown. Recently Mr. Johnson celebrated his thirty-ninth birthday by a merry meeting of old friends, including Billie Revas, Johnny Doyle, and Billy Potter, of the Lubin Company; Herbert Brenon, of the Fox Corporation; and Siegfried Lubin, who made a special trip from Philadelphia for the occasion.

Mr. Johnson states that the Atlantic City atmosphere has put him in such good shape that he expects soon to be "back in the harness."

"How soon we are forgotten," was the lament of Benjamin S. Wise, auctioneer, when the low bidding last week at 17 West Seventy-sixth street for the effects of the late Mrs. Melbourne MacDowell (Fanny Davenport), was most marked. His sad cry at times would bring forth a bid of at least twenty-five cents more from some one of the two thousand persons who had gathered for the sale.

Evidently most of those present were there out of curiosity, as almost every article sold far below its face value. For instance, a Sterling clock, with faces on it which cost $1,000, was bought by a retired actress for $20; a French

"The Boots that stood the Test" A Business Built On Two Words

THIS great business—the largest of its kind in Canada—has been built on two words Quality First.

The first shoes that bore the name "Ames Holden" and the first made by "McCready," were good shoes. The first dealers, who sold "Ames Holden" or "McCready" Shoes, found them to be good shoes.

Through all the sixty years of their business life Quality First has been the guiding force which has brought increased prestige to these famous firms.

Many of the grandfathers and grandmothers of today took their first walks in "Ames Holden" or "McCready" Shoes, just as their grandchildren are doing today.

The builders of railroads; the founders of cities; the directors of national life; the substantial men and women in every section of Canada; the defenders of the Empire; have worn and are wearing either an "Ames Holden" or a "McCready" shoe.

And the reason is simple—they are most satisfactory in every point, style, fit, comfort, and practical economy. In other words—Quality First.

traveling clock, which cost $25 in Paris, brought twenty-five cents, and a trunkful of hats, velvet, fur and Panama, was sold for $1. Miss Davenport's piano brought $140, and $20 prompt books, illustrated with Augustin Daly's stage illustrations, were bought by a dealer for $42.

A peculiar phase of the transactions stood out prominently when the vaudeville were offered for sale; comments in The Telegraph. The stage jewelry, which the actress wore behind the footlights, brought all sorts of fancy prices, while the legitimate trinkets, ten times as valuable, went for a song.

Ruth Stonehouse has finished her work for the Zeasney production of "The Dignified Family" and has returned to Chicago from Memphis, Tenn., where most of the picture was taken. She has again resumed her work in leading parts at the Chicago studio.

Beware of Ointments for Cataracts That Contain Mercury. A necessary will surely destroy the sense of sight and completely deprive the whole system, while passing it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on the most reasonable grounds, as the use of them will do as much to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Cataract Cure, manufactured by F. J. THE TRUE FRENCH SPIRIT.

The revealing light of this world-changing conflict has discovered a new France, a strong, quiet, serious France, earnest and elevated in character. There has been a new birth of idealism; certainly this is true among the intellectual classes, and in the higher social circles. The French man and woman, from these sections of the French people, declare that this moral and spiritual phenomenon, so conspicuous and undeniable even to the casual observer, is nothing new nor strange; they assert on the contrary, that this French attitude of mind and soul, its eyes fixed upon the stars instead of upon the gutter, is the old, the real, and the true French spirit which has been here all the time though unnoticed by an idle world bent on gaiety.

stucco. The passer-by saw only this grotesque exterior, and judged the house accordingly. We ourselves were almost deceived; we had almost forgotten the materials and outlines of the real structure. But, at the shock of war, this stucco has fallen away, and there stands the real Paris and the real France, solid, simple, beautiful, and enduring."—From "As Witnessed in France," by Albert J. Beveridge, in the American Review of Reviews for June.

How Studebaker cars are built—motor

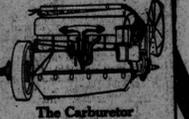

ECONOMICAL Power—and all that you need

This matter of POWER is a thing that we'd like to talk over with you before you buy a car—and talk over it, too, with the hood of a Studebaker open before us. For power is perhaps the most important thing in your car. And this Studebaker Motor is one of the engineering triumphs of Studebaker.

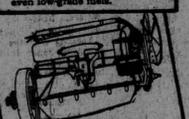

Simple—you'll see that at a glance. But the BIG thing is the POWER that it's designed to deliver. Long-stroke design—for the longer the stroke, the more leverage on the crankshaft. Has the reliable Studebaker oiling and cooling systems that insure conservation of POWER.

But study the little refinements of design and see how this motor has been made to give MORE power without using more gasoline. You'll find, for one thing, that the crankshaft, the connecting rods and all the moving parts are lighter and better balanced than you find in the average motor. The valve passages are much larger and better planned.

The intake is hot-jacketed to insure better vaporization of the fuel and NO waste of gas. The exhaust manifold, wide and tapering, runs back in a STRAIGHT line, with no sudden angles to set up back-pressure. And so you'll find a score of improvements over the average motor, too.

The Carburetor is placed high on the motor, thus shortening the distance the gas travels to the cylinders. Increases power and gives QUIETER response to throttle. Is hot-jacketed and supplied with WARM air, insuring COMPLETE vaporization of even low-grade fuels.

The Starter is simple in design, easily accessible and starts motor through silent chain. No gears in mesh with fly-wheel. Noiseless and at rest except when cranking the motor.

Because it's a Studebaker

Caldwell a Great Player
New York, June 16.—"Ray" Caldwell, star pitcher and regular pitcher of the Yankees, is the most useful man to his team in baseball when he gives his best attention to the game in the field except that of backstop. As a first baseman he plays well, and he can cover a world of territory in the outfield.

There isn't a pitcher in the "big show" today who can twist a better curve than Caldwell when the elongated career is "right" and during his baseball career he has played every position in the field except that of backstop. As a first baseman he plays well, and he can cover a world of territory in the outfield.

It is understood that each time that he hit out a homer two strikes had been called on him. He waited till he got the ball he wanted and then put all he had behind his swing. If "Ray" is properly backed this season he should win more games than any twirler in the American league.

Exhibition Game Today.
This afternoon the Commercial and Alerts of the East End League, will play an exhibition game at Glen Falls. Each team will have a strong line-up and a fast game is anticipated.

Chappelle Showing Form.
According to a Milwaukee sport writer, Larry Chappelle, known as the $18,000 beauty, who was purchased last year by the White Sox and who failed to live up to expectations, is beginning to show real form again. He is batting at .308 and is holding a 5 of 10.

Last Night's Boats.
In New York Freddie Welsh, lightweight champion, "outboxed" Johnny Luntz in a ten round bout.

In Brooklyn, Johnny Dundee bested Leach Cross, securing the decision in eight of the ten rounds.

Welsh Acquiring Wealth.
Freddie Welsh bids fair to become the wealthiest fighter in the ring. Since he acquired the title the British has won he is to receive a nice purse for a battle with Charley White at Denver in September. If he wins he will receive $18,000; if he loses his end will be $15,000. In addition he will receive fifty-one percent of the movie picture privileges. Welsh has already beaten White.

Harvard and Yale Crews.
Coach Guy Nickalls of the Yale crew in an article in Thursday's issue of the Yale Alumni weekly says he believes the Harvard and Yale crews are on a level this year but that Yale has more room for improvement. He regards the Harvard "varsity" as the "best crew which the Crimson have had in a decade."

Of Yale, Nickalls says the attack of plomaine poisoning the oarsmen suffered recently has weakened the boat. "Just how far this will throw us back," he says, "is just now impossible to say."

A Great Swimmer.
Frank Beaupre, former English and Australian champion swimmer, saw Duke Kahanamoku in competition during the Hawaiian tour of Australia and comments interestingly on Duke's style of slow arm action and quick leg work.

He says—
"The sensational speed of the Hawaiian clearly demonstrates that too quick an arm stroke is neither necessary nor advisable. His arm move slowly but they take full power from each thrust, and lift the body many more inches forward than if a short, quick thrust were made. At the same time the legs operate with a propeller-like motion of the feet and ankles, alternately, rapidly and without coming out of the water. Not only does this keep up the legs and give the body the most advantageous angle but it affords continuous propulsion."

"In watching Kahanamoku perform leisurely over the distance and his opportunity to define the rhythm of his stroke, and it is distinctly six leg acts, or two arm acts, or more plainly, three downward beats of each leg to the full double arm stroke."

Won Open Championship.
Short Hills, N. J., June 16.—Jerome D. Travers today won the national open golf championship of the United States. His score was 97. Tom McManus was second with 99, and Robert MacDonald, Buffalo, third, with 100.

Travers has won four national amateur and five metropolitan, as well as several other important golf championships.

Francis Ouimet, amateur champion, could not control his clubs and finished with 117.
Chick Evans, a young Chicagoan, who holds the western amateur title, also played disappointingly.

Fairville League.
The game last evening in the Fairville League resulted in victory for the Portlanders over the Courtenays, 5-3. The contest went five innings. The North End men had a few new ones in their lineup and presented perhaps the strongest team they have yet put up. The Carletons played gamely but did not possess the hitting power of their opponents, who wielded the hit stick in the right time to run in scores.

Sharkey assumed the mound for the victors with McNulty receiving and in the first inning the three Carleton men appearing were struck out. In the next two seasons, twirling was hardly suited and Sharkey retired behind the bat. McNulty covered first and Tom Tracey relieved the pitcher. He did good work in the fourth inning, at a critical period with the bases full, he put two strikes on his man, who on the third ball singled to short was put out and the hopes of the Carleton men for several runs were dashed to the ground. Fitzgerald and Joyce were the opening battery for Carleton. In the third Fitzgerald retired in favor of Beatty.

There were some features which drew applause, as usual. A running catch by Tom Tracey from first was a nice exhibition and McNulty when behind the bat, ran after a foul right among the

in Invictus Shoes costs as much as the retail price of some shoes that claim to be "just as good."

Empty words and idle boasts don't give shoe service—that requires honest leather, skilled workmanship and attention to details. And these cost money.

Just how much money they do cost is what controls the price of Invictus Shoes.

Invictus Shoes are not made to sell at a price—but to give the maximum of service, comfort, style and wear.

Their economy lies in the fact that they give far more of each than the difference in their price would indicate.

TELLS OF SEARCH FOR STEVANSON

"The only thing that would seem to explain the theory that Stefansson still lives," he said, "was the fact that he was on the ice from Herschell Island to Prince Patrick Island, was so daring that he generally assumed that he had some other destination in mind and had reason to know that he had a fair chance of reaching it. He set out with but one sled with six dogs and was accompanied by two expert ice men from Nome. The northwest land is known to be barren in the matter of bear, seal and birds, and in view of this, being very familiar with conditions I cannot see what advantage Stefansson's ability with a rifle would do him over the partying course he is supposed to have taken. Sought the Bloods Requisite.
"The explorer's determination to locate the lost bits of the blood equipage may have resulted in this great trip to get across the strip of water which intervened."

"Anderson, Barber, Brady and King were left to guard the supplies, and Mackay, Beuchat, Morris and Murray returned back to the Kaituk. All of the men were lost.

"It was then that Captain Bartlett made his wonderful trip overland to the coast and then to the straits, where he managed to get passage to St. Michael's and hastened from there to Seattle. When he returned with the revenue cutter Bear he was met of Wrangell Island by the returning rescue expeditions, and the survivors were brought back to Nome on the revenue cutter.

"I have worked many a year in the North country, but after observing the plight of the men who survived the loss of the Kaituk I have no great interest in again going far out of the range of general exploration."

Mr. Phillips, who has sent hundreds of motion picture reels east in the few years since motion pictures became a feature of the life of America, went to Nome eight years ago from England after having spent some time in South Africa

The Man In The Street

The picnic season's with us again, and ushered in a fine day.

But some people have been having a picnic for some time past—street railway and public works officials, for instance.

To say nothing of the censors.

Contrasting conditions at the time of Waterloo and today gives reason to believe that the old-time newspapermen were not worried with telephone calls on "What's the war news today?"

Still, even that wouldn't be a bore, if the party at the other end would be polite enough at the end to say "thanks."

Now that the open cars are again on the route, the end-seat hop once more occupies his favorite station.

Tramp on his toes when you're clamoring past, and he may be tempted next time to move.

J. K. Flemming might use his new car to take a run out to Manitoba and have a real good time skipping experiences with another ex-premier.

Every time Commissioner Potts looks twice at a section of street railway nowadays, the company gets ready to get out an injunction.

Every one who drives a vehicle over the scene of the recent street railway war, is glad that the work was accomplished, even if it did cost a bit of trouble.

Maritime provinces gave one-third of Canada's entire contribution for the Belgians, so far, does not look like hard times in this busy section of the country.

First thing we know someone will be starting the old argument about the relative value of home and foreign missions, and will want to take up a collection here for those Canadians not so fortunate as to reside in the maritime provinces.

But even the "boom" districts are getting on their feet again, as the country begins to realize that it takes more than a war of this size to produce hard times in Canada.

All Modern Conveniences

A St. John man was stranded in one of the towns along the line and, as he had to reach the city early the next morning, he determined to leave on the Halifax express which passed through in the middle of the night. He announced this intention to the proprietors, expecting to be put down for an early call.

"How will you manage to get up that early?" the hotel man asked.

"Thinking that the question was intended as a bit of humor, the guest answered with what he intended for some light sarcasm: "Oh, I can manage it all right if you lend me an alarm clock."

"Sorry, but I can't do it; I just lent the alarm clock to another man," was the answer that left the city man gasping.

NEARLY SIX WEEKS BEFORE WATERLOO VICTORY KNOWN HERE

In One of T. McAvity & Sons' King Street Windows is Copy of Royal Gazette Containing Announcement

With the modern methods in vogue today it is possible to learn the news of victory or defeat before the last gun has been fired, but evidence that our forefathers were not so privileged is furnished in the display in one of these parts. The Royal Gazette Extraordinary, in the windows of T. McAvity & Sons, King street, is the property of Harry Lugin of the cutlery department and has been cherished as a family treasure from the time it was being printed by George K. Lugin, King's Printer, in Fredericton.

The document speaks for itself and needs no explanation, other than to draw attention to the manner in which the news of a victory which meant so much to the world, was received in this country, and the length of time it finally simmered through that Waterloo had been fought and won. More than six weeks elapsed before printed word brought the news of victory to many in these parts. It is dated at Fredericton July 27, 1815, and was sent with a Halifax date-line of July 23, 1815.

Must have taken five days for the interval of sending, arranging, and other detail. In bold type across the top appears the heading "Reported Defeat of Bonaparte, with the loss of 40,000 men and 100 pieces of ordnance."

Arrived last evening, ship Trial, Capt. Deblois, 36 days from London, and 25 days from Land's End. We have not any papers brought by her, a gentleman favored us with the following minutes taken by a passenger in the ship.

"June 26, off Plymouth, spoke one of His Majesty's ships, who informed us that war was declared against France 28d. June. Also spoke a pilot boat off the Isle of Wight, and gave us much the same news; 26th of June, spoke a Plymouth pilot, who informed us that Napoleon Bonaparte was signally defeated near Brunwick by the Allied Army under the command of the Duke of Wellington and Prince Blucher, that the battle lasted three days, and three nights, that the French lost 40,000 men and 100 pieces of ordnance. Jerome Bonaparte and several generals were killed. Napoleon made his escape from his carriage, on horseback, toward Paris. It was also mentioned that the French retreated precipitately for some leagues. It was reported that the Duke of Brunswick was killed in the battle.

The British loss is estimated at 1,000 men—40 field officers were among the slain.

The Duke of Brunswick's son was taken prisoner, and retained three times, and escaped at last.

George K. Lugin, King's Printer.

FLOWERS STOLEN FROM HIS WINDOW BOXES

While the window box idea for the beautening of the streets has been gaining ground in St. John, those urging it feel that it has not done so as rapidly as it would if florists would undertake to handle it in a business like way and make it easy for those who would be anxious to use the boxes to secure them without too much trouble.

There is another side to the problem, however, as it was illustrated by the experience of W. G. J. Watson of Coburg street. Window boxes with blooming flowers were placed in his window on Thursday evening. By Friday morning the blooms in the boxes on the ground floor had all been plucked by passers-by and this morning even the plants had been up-rooted.

MERCHANTS' PICNIC TO BE LATER IN MONTH

Can Not Get All Ready by July 1—Red Cross to Benefit

The big picnic planned by the Retail Merchants' Association for July 1 has been postponed until later in the month, as it was found impossible to complete the elaborate arrangements within the time set. One of the problems, which has yet to be solved is the provision of adequate transportation for the association, and the entire gross proceeds will be turned over to the Red Cross Society.

A big programme of sports and competitions will be given, and the competitors will include some interesting features new to this part of the country.

The public spirit which has marked all the efforts of the retail merchants is again illustrated in their decision to make the outing a Red Cross fund day, as well. It is expected that all the refreshments on sale on the grounds will be donated by members of the association, and the entire gross proceeds will be turned over to the Red Cross Society.

NEW SYSTEM INSTALLED

The new derolling system installed at the C. P. R. crossing at the foot of Main street, Fairville, has been completed and is in operation today for the first time. It will now be unnecessary for the street car conductor to get out and see if the train is coming and this means a saving of about four minutes on a return trip of the car. This has always been recognized as a dangerous place and the new system is calculated to eliminate greatly the possibility of accident such as occurred about a year and a half ago.

ST. JOHN WARD AT LE TOUQUET

In a letter received by Mrs. E. Atherton Smith yesterday from Lieut. Col. A. T. Shillington, O. C. No. 2 Canadian Station Hospital, Le Touquet, France, he gives sincere thanks to those of this city and New Brunswick who have sent contributions to his hospital. He says many comforts will be provided for the wounded Canadians through the extra money sent by the Royal Standard Chapter, I. O. D. E. The receipt of $50 from the St. John Public Hospital Nurses' Alumnae is acknowledged for a bed in New Brunswick ward. "We now have a St. John ward" the officer wrote, "with thirty beds and good military furnishings."

WAS MARKED SUCCESS.

A smoker tendered on last Thursday evening by their associate sergeants in the ranks of the 88th, at Sussex, to those going overseas with the draft selected now for foreign service, was a pronounced success. There was a general good time, with an excellent programme and a round of speeches in which best wishes for the men soon to leave for training at Valcartier preliminary to going overseas, were expressed.

Refreshments were served. Many happy speeches were made in the proposing and responding to toasts. The programme was as follows:

"The King," proposed by Sergt. Major Ford; song, "The Maple Leaf," Sergt. Parent; toast Commanding Officer, proposed by Q. M. S. Richardson, and responded to by Lieut. Col. J. R. Kirkpatrick and Major H. S. Jones; solo, "The Stowaway," Sergt. Plaster; toast, "Our Guests," proposed by Sergt. Major Ford and responded to by Col. S. M. McCurdy, Q. M. S. Deserrie and W.
