Montreal Men Were Drinking And Boastful ONE NOW IN HOSPITAL

Catch up Carvers and Fight Desperately For More Than Hour to Show Superiority as Feacers—Investigating a Quebec Election Day Fatality

(Canadian Press) Montreal, May 20—To decide their superiority at fencing, William Lennie and Richard Levis yesterday fought for two hours with carving knives. Levis is in the hospital with a gaping wound in his side and may die and Lennie is held in jail to await developments.

The men were intoxicated. They had a long argument over their respective abilities with foils. Grabbing carving knives from a table in their boarding house they commenced to fight.

They had been at it more than an hour when Lennie got inside Levis's guard and drove his knife into his right side, dropping him to the floor. Levis was unable to rise from the floor and blood was flowing from the wound in his side. Just then the police arrived.

Quebec, May 19—Doctors will report on the results of an examination of a man named Bernard in Levis who died on the night of Wednesday last, election day.

According to reports in circulation he was kept in a committee room with another man named Benson and kept under the influence of liquor so as to prevent them going to the polls.

EAGER TO HEAR DUFF-GORDONS TESTIFYING

Society Thronging to Titanic Inquiry Being Held in London WOMEN APPLAUDING

Remark by Lord Mersey on Lord Duff-Gordon's Position Brings Hand-clapping, His Lady Anxious to Take The Stand, Says Counsel

(Canadian Press) London, May 20—The board of trade inquiry into the Titanic disaster has taken on more of the character of a society function than that of an investigation into the circumstances of a great catastrophe.

The drill hall of the London Scottish Rifles, a small armory in Buckingham Gate, in the central district of Westminster, was well filled long before the boat fixed by Lord Mersey for the opening of the inquiry today, and handsome motor cars left fashionably governed women at the entrance, whence they were ushered to reserved seats on the floor and in the galleries.

Those who did not possess special tickets, stood on chairs at the back of the hall, craning their necks to obtain a view of the chief witness, connected with the incident of the partly filled lifeboat which saved Sir Compton and Lady Duff-Gordon and Lady Duff-Gordon's secretary and occupants of which, according to the evidence of two of the crew, proved that they were not reserved seats on the floor and in the galleries.

NOVA SCOTIA WOMAN LIKELY MURDERED

Word of Death of Mrs. J. D. McEwen in Brazil Received by Husband, Who Was on Vacation in Canada

New York, May 20—Killed probably by hostile natives, Mrs. J. D. McEwen, a missionary belonging to Nova Scotia, is dead in Brazil, and her husband, Rev. J. D. McEwen, of Miramichi, Ont., a Congregational missionary, who returned to Canada on a six months' vacation a few days ago, took passage back this morning on the steamer Vaucluse.

Her death is the first which has occurred in ten years in the little colony of the Canadian missionaries and traders which the Rev. Mr. McEwen founded in the inland mountain country of Brazil. The cablegrams announcing her death gave no indication of the cause and her husband fears that the explanation will be found in some violence or possibly an attack on the colony by hostile natives.

Mrs. McEwen, who was a native of Brookfield, N. S., and thirty-eight years old, was in charge of the educational work of the mission. She was president of a bilingual society speaking fluently the dialects of several of the uncivilized tribes of interior Brazil.

She aimed to reach the natives through lessons in farming and the manual arts. The last few days were well through his last Sunday on earth.

He even was cheerful as he sang some favorite hymns with Chaplain Stabins until a late hour last night. Then he would read from the Psalms, and his explanations of the lessons were referred to by the chaplain as wonderfully eloquent and learned.

It was not until daylight this morning that Richeson fell into a fitful sleep. Brief visit, and he added, "Do not worry, I shall not break down."

CONAN DOYLE REPLIES TO BERNARD SHAW

Lashes Letter for "Looseness and Levity" in His Criticism of Those Concerned in Titanic Tragedy

New York, May 20—A London cable says—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, in the Daily News this morning, administers a stinging rebuke to George Bernard Shaw, for writing with "looseness and levity" about the loss of the Titanic.

Sir Arthur says that, in order to support his perverse thesis that there was heroism shown and that women were not allowed the first chance to escape, Mr. Shaw picks out a single boat, the very next boat six-hirty-five out of seventy were women.

The novelist then lashes the playwright for his reflection on the behavior of the captain, who he says— "Though he may have made a terrible mistake, doubtless he gave his life in reparation." He also resents the attempt of Mr. Shaw to delude the beautiful incident of the band playing "Nearer My God to Thee," on the ground that it was the result of orders to avert a panic, holding that if that is a fact, it does not detract from the band's wonderful bravery in going to death while inspiring others with courage to meet their fate.

LOYALIST CELEBRATION

Saturday Night's Gathering in Keith's Service in Trinity

That the Loyalist sentiments of the early citizens of St. John have not been forgotten was again demonstrated Saturday evening, when representatives from the patriotic societies met in Keith's assembly rooms for the celebration of the 129th anniversary of the landing of the United Empire Loyalists at the mouth of the St. John river.

The guests were received near the entrance by a committee consisting of the following: Mrs. J. H. Frink, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Miss Winifred Raymond, Rev. G. A. Kühring, Ven. Archdeacon Raymond, and Dr. G. U. Hay. Harrison's orchestra rendered a musical programme during the reception. At the close of the evening's programme, light refreshments were served. Arrangements for the refreshments were under the direction of the Women's Canadian Club, with Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilly, Mrs. Frink and Mrs. D. McLellan supervising.

The first number on the programme was the singing of God Save the King, by the audience with the orchestra leading. D. J. Seely, president of the Loyalist Society, was in the chair and he tendered greetings from that society to the members of other organizations present. Greetings from other societies were presented as follows: Rev. G. A. Kühring, from the Canadian Club; Mrs. E. A. Smith, from the Women's Canadian Club; Dr. George U. Hay, from the Historical Society; Miss Winifred Raymond, from the St. John Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire.

Rev. Mr. Kühring spoke of the great set back which the big fire had been to St. John, but the effects of this were no longer felt and there was no doubt that this city would greatly increase in size and importance.

Dr. G. U. Hay suggested a more permanent celebration of Loyalist day and also the establishment of a museum for historical relics.

Ven. Archdeacon Raymond dwelt with pride on the history of the city's foundation. Referring to the enlargement of the scope of the battlefields commission to include the maritime provinces, he urged that many historical spots in New Brunswick should be suitably marked.

Hon. H. F. MacLean was heard in an historical address. He advocated the teaching of history in a more comprehensive manner as the best means of cultivating intelligence and enthusiastic loyalty. A communication from the secretary of state announcing the addition of a representative of the maritime provinces to the archives department was received and acknowledged with a vote of thanks. Letters and telegrams of regret were received from H. R. H. the Duke of Devonshire, Governor General, Lieutenant Governor Wood, the Bishop of Fredericton, Chief Justice Barker, Rev. Dr. J. A. McDonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, Hon. Geo. E. Foster, H. A. Powell, K. C., and Mayor Frink.

The musical part of the programme included songs by Robert Seely, Mrs. C. S. E. Robertson and Major A. E. Massey and a trio by the Misses Knight, James S. Ford and D. Arnold Fox were accompanied. Harrison's orchestra also added much to the pleasure of the evening. Loyalist day services were held yesterday in many of the city churches, there being appropriate references to the sacrifice and devotion of the sturdy people who founded the foundations of St. John and of the province more than 100 years ago.

PROSECUTING THE COFFEE TRUST

New York, May 19.—Attorney-General Wickham today moved against the so-called coffee trust, or Brazilian valorization scheme. In a petition in equity filed here in the United States court he declared that the Sherman anti-trust law.

The court is asked to decree the scheme unlawful, to enjoin the valorization committee from withholding the coffee from the market and to appoint a receiver to sell the 200,000 bags, valued at $10,000,000, now alleged to be stored in the various warehouses of the New York Dock Company.

The government also applied for a temporary injunction restraining the valorization committee from removing or disposing of the coffee held in America pending the termination of the issue.

What Culture Means

By RUTH CAMERON

THE other night I heard a young woman decline an invitation to a very noteworthy musical event. "I don't really enjoy music," was her explanation. "You know my tastes are rather artistic than musical. If it were a good picture exhibition, I'd go a hundred miles to see it, but I simply don't care very much for music."

The young woman made this explanation with no air of shame or regret; on the contrary, she seemed rather proud of her misfortune.

That's what culture means—all-sided development. It's not just a matter of having a good literary taste and a good artistic sense, but absolutely no ear for music. And what do you think this girl bought with the first money she earned? No, she went to the opera house to hear the orchestra play. "I want to have music in my home and see if I can't cultivate that part of me."

If you do not appreciate music, listen to it all the more. If you do not care for beautiful pictures, study them all the more thoroughly. If you do not care to read good books, read them.

No kingdom is really made as we will be wise and strong enough to forge the keys, instead of being foolishly content with the kingdoms whose keys are already ours.

La MARQUISE de FONTENOY Brother of Earl of Lichfield May Wed Rich New York Widow—The Moroccan Question (Copyright, 1912, by the Brentwood Com.)

Another so-called "international marriage" is announced as about to take place soon. One of the principals is Mrs. Emery of New York, widow of John J. Emery who died in 1908, leaving a fortune in real estate estimated to be of the value of some $40,000,000, and three children, a boy and two girls. The happy man is the Hon. Alfred Anson, a younger brother of the Earl of Lichfield—a much younger brother, indeed, for he is twenty years his junior.

The name Anson is quite well known on this side of the Atlantic. It is the name of the late Lord Anson, who in the early part of last year took part in the international marriage of the Duke of Devonshire and the Duke of Leinster, who is married to a Texas girl, a daughter of General Cleveland and Anita.

The Ansons are connected by marriage with a large number of the most famous houses of the British aristocracy; for instance, with the Earl of Leicester, of Mansfield, of Wemyss, (pronounced "Wemyss") the Marquess of Blandford, the Duke of Abercorn, etc. As these years are connected in their turn with other titled families of Great Britain, there can be but little doubt that Mrs. Emery will by this marriage be received within the ranks of the British aristocracy.

The Ansons are an ancient family of the county of Stafford, where the earl's principal seat, Shugborough Hall, is situated. Its most famous member was Admiral Anson, the circumnavigator of the globe and the reformer of the British admiralty. As post-captain he served twice on the North American station, from 1743 to 1749, and from 1733 to 1735, as captain of the "Scarborough" and of the "Squirrel" respectively.

It was this George Adams-Anson who became the father of Admiral Anson I have just mentioned. The admiral's barony became extinct at his death, but his vast fortune devolved upon his nephew, George Adams, who subsequently inherited the estates of his older uncle, Thomas, and assumed, by royal permission, in 1773, the surname and arms of Anson. He married, in 1763, the daughter of George Venables Vernon, first Lord Vernon, and became blessed with a large family, the eldest of whom was Thomas, the first Viscount Anson.

The eldest son of the first viscount, also named Thomas, was first Earl of Lichfield, in 1811. His eldest son, Thomas George, had a large number of children, among whom were Thomas Francis Anson, the third and present earl, born in 1856, and Alfred (the fiancé of Mrs. Emery), born in 1876.

In the foregoing outline, I have merely shown the pedigree of Alfred Anson from the time of the Elizabethan jubilee. The family is so numerous that it would be more than tedious to attempt to pursue a complete account of its various ramifications, so I will merely cite, as examples, that the second earl married the eldest daughter of the first Duke of Abercorn, and that one of Alfred Anson's brothers, Claud, wedded Lady Clodagh Boreford, youngest daughter of the fifth Marquis of Waterford.

The Moroccan question, which has lately been such a disturbing factor in old world politics, has its origin in the marriage of a new and more satisfactory phase, with the appointment of General Lyantey as resident governor-general, and his orders to remain in France's new protectorate until the work of pacification, organization and administration has been definitely accomplished. He enters upon his new duties with peremptory and iron-

Daily Hints For the Cook

RHUBARB SHORTCAKE.

Rub into one heaping cupful of pastry flour that has been sifted with a teaspoonful of baking powder, a pinch each of salt and sugar, one teaspoonful of lard and a small butter ball. Moisten this to the consistency of biscuit dough with sweet milk and arrange in two flat cakes, spreading well with butter and after placing one on top of the other bake for 20 minutes in a quick oven. When the cake is done, break it apart and again butter it, spreading it thickly with a rhubarb sauce and sweetened whipped cream between and on top, dusted with finely chopped nut meats.

CREAM CAKES.

Put one cup of boiling water over half cup of butter in a saucpan. Put on fire and when it boils stir in one cup of pastry flour (sifted). Stir continually over fire until it is smooth and cleaves from the dish. Set aside to cool a little. If you have nothing else to do make your cream filling by this time it will be cool. Then stir in three tablespoon eggs (one at a time), after adding the last one put in a pinch of soda about the size of a pea. Drop on a greased tin about two inches apart. Wet your fingers in cold water and pat cakes into a good shape gently. This makes twelve large cakes or fifteen small-sized ones. Put the pan in a hot oven and don't open the door for ten to twelve minutes, then if you find them browning too fast reduce the heat. A half hour is usually sufficient for baking them.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN N. B., MONDAY, MAY 20, 1912

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., MAY 20, 1912.

THE GROWTH OF THE CITY

Will the conditions of life for the average individual be any better in St. John when the city has a population of 100,000? We are making a great effort to get more people—but is that really desirable? These questions were submitted to the Times last week by a business man who is steadily enlarging his own business, and who admits that an increased population would enlarge the opportunity of many citizens to improve their financial position.

It was not thinking of a group, however, but of the mass of the people. Are the conditions of life for them improved by rapid growth of population—by the mere bigness of the city? We want more factories, more work-people, more taxpayers, more activity, more money in circulation, more evidences of material growth—but will the mass of the people be better off when this is accomplished?

The answer to the question must depend upon the motives of the citizens in their striving for a greater city. If the aim is purely selfish and materialistic, the condition of the mass of the people will not improve. But if along with the desire for enlargement there is a desire for betterment, for improvement of the conditions under which all the people live—for better housing, better sanitation, greater organized social service, better care of the children, and a general striving to approach the standard of a model city, the growth of population and of wealth is not a hindrance but a help.

There is, of course, danger that in a period of rapid growth the general eagerness to share in the material profits of that growth will make people indifferent to the higher aims; and it is therefore needful that those having the larger vision make their voices heard in warning. The real greatness of a city is in the character of its people, and their character as generations pass will largely depend upon the nature of their surroundings, the conditions under which they live, and the ideals they are taught to cherish.

NEW BRUNSWICK'S OPPORTUNITY

There is more involved in the coming provincial elections than a mere possible change of rulers. The province of New Brunswick has entered upon a forward movement, and much will depend upon the attitude of the provincial government. This is a time for able and progressive men, who can do something more than merely play the game of politics. This province is entering upon a new relationship with the rest of Canada and with the mother country. Developments which were practically impossible a few years ago are upon us. New transportation lines are traversing New Brunswick, broadening the local opportunities of the people and strengthening the position of the province in connection with the trade of the mother country as well as that of all Canada. The period of stagnation has passed, and the rapidity with which the country will advance along the lines of progress and prosperity will depend in no small measure upon the breadth of view, the business ability and the courage and initiative of the government at Fredericton.

The present government has been in office four years, and the people have had a good opportunity to judge its quality. Mr. Fleming and his colleagues can play the game of politics fairly well, but they have not impressed the public either with their intelligent grasp of public affairs or the breadth of their policy. As this paper has already pointed out, they have had a fine opportunity during the past few months to show their capacity. The great immigration congress held at Fredericton set out clearly some broad principles of public policy which should mark the administration of affairs at this time. The government has failed to respond. Mr. Fleming's ready-made farm scheme is a mere makeshift. It does not go far enough nor is it broad enough in its application. It is obviously the policy of this government to pretend to meet the wishes of the people while it goes on rewarding its friends and spending money in more reckless fashion than did any of its predecessors. The time is opportune for a change, and to place the administration of affairs in the hands of new men, who would have a broader conception of their duties and the opportunities now offered to the province.

There is need, first, of economy in administration and such control of the various departments as will ensure that the money expended improves the public service instead of being used as a reward for political support. There is, second, the need of a much more aggressive policy in relation to agriculture and immigration. The time has also come to check the tendency to exploit public franchises without regard for the public interest. This is not the time to saddle upon the province another legislative term a government which has showed itself deficient in the higher qualities of statesmanship.

THE LOYALISTS

The joint meeting of patriotic societies on Saturday evening in honor of the Loyalists was a very successful affair, with interesting addresses, good music and pleasant social intercourse. Hon. H. F. McLeod, who was the orator of the evening, spoke on broad lines, and paid fitting tribute to the genius of the British race, whose flag carries with it that freedom which commands devotion, even unto hardship and death. Mrs. E. A. Smith's suggestion of a Loyalist memorial might well be coupled with that of Dr. Hay in regard to a museum for relics and records.

It is worthy of note that there has just come to hand from Ottawa a circular bearing the signatures of nine distinguished Canadians which says in part:— "You may be aware that, last year, a national committee was formed in New York, looking towards a joint celebration of a century of peace among English speaking peoples, and that, recently, a similar movement has taken place in the United Kingdom, and an association has been organized under the able and zealous chairmanship of our late governor general, Lord Grey. This century of peace will have been completed on the one hundredth anniversary of the Treaty of Ghent, which was concluded on Christmas Eve, 1814, and ratified on the 17th February 1815. It naturally possesses a special interest for Canadians, inasmuch as Canada is immediately adjacent to the United States, and is the portion of the British Empire that witnessed the actual conflicts of the War of 1812-14. The bitterness engendered by those feuds has happily long since passed away, and it seems fitting that we should participate in celebrating the blessings of peace which for a period of one hundred years will have existed between us and our neighbors. It is not quite apparent to what extent this movement has taken concrete form in the United States, but the favorable manner in which the proposal has been received there, as evidenced by the representative character of the national committee, and the enthusiasm with which the idea has been taken up by our friends in Great Britain, indicates that the time has arrived when some tentative step may with propriety be taken by Canada."

At Ottawa on June 4 a meeting of representative Canadians will be held, and it is probable a Canadian national committee will be formed to co-operate with those in Great Britain and the United States. If the effect of Loyalist celebrations were merely to keep alive ancient prejudices their usefulness might well be doubted, but there will be none more heartily in accord with the spirit of the peace centenary than descendants of the Loyalists of St. John.

Sixteen American states have passed laws relating to play grounds and Massachusetts requires every town and city of 10,000 or over to equip and maintain supervised play grounds.

The visitor who leaves St. John does not shake its dust from his feet, but carries large quantities of it away in his lungs. The watering carts must really be made to do better work.

The anthracite miners will return to work. They have enjoyed seven weeks' holidays and also the consciousness of having somewhat worried the general public with the fear that they might prolong the period of idleness.

Premier Fleming still regards the St. John Valley Railway as a political road. The toy convention is to be held in Woodstock on the day the first seed is sown. That is one way of getting a crowd. The people between Centreville and Grand Falls, however, have not yet learned why there is nothing doing on their section of the line.

Asia is a land of superlatives. It is the oldest country in the world, so far as the history of man can be traced. It is the largest continent in the world. It has the four highest mountain peaks. The longest single line of railroad crosses this continent. And in that country is the world's largest inland sea.

REASON FOR IT.
The traveler in the smoker was boasting of his unerring ability to tell from a man's looks exactly what city he came from.

"You, for example," he said to the man next to him, "you are from Buffalo."

"You, my friend," turning to the man from the Forest City, "I should say you are from Ottawa."

"And you are from London?" he asked the third man.

"That's right, too," replied the man from the Forest City. "And you are from Montreal, I should say."

No, sir," answered that individual with considerable warmth. "I've been ill for the last three months, that's what makes me look like that."

Maud—"Would you marry a widow?" Ethel—"No, I would not. The man I marry I am going to tame myself."

Local Politician—"Of course trade is bad. What we want is more real live men to make things up a bit." Monumental Mason—"Don't round here, sir. What we want is more dead men."

Little Girl—"I've got a father, and a mother, and granddaddy." Old Gentleman—"And how old is your granddaddy?" Little Girl—"I don't know; but we've had him a long time."

Flossie—"You have a wonderful memory, mamma. Mamma—"Why so, my child?" "Because you're always reminding me of things I forgot."

"How do you know that your daughter's memory is improving?" "The neighbors are getting more friendly."

Will be given warm welcome to Montreal.

Planning of Reception of British Manufacturers Who Will Tour Canada Next Month.

(Montreal Gazette) Preparations are on the way for the reception of the representative party of manufacturers and business men from Great Britain, who will arrive in Canada at the beginning of next month and make a tour of the Dominion in order to gain an idea of its resources and the opportunities that exist for commercial expansion and the establishment of branch industries. The tour which was organized by the Financial News of London has the approval and support of the Dominion government.

Mayor Lavallee yesterday morning received John Boyd, special Canadian representative of the Financial News, who the forthcoming arrival of the party in Montreal was discussed, and the mayor promised that the visitors would receive a most cordial welcome to the commercial metropolis. The matter was officially brought before the city council at its meeting yesterday afternoon, when a letter was submitted from Hon. George E. Foster, minister of trade and commerce, addressed to mayor, notifying him of the forthcoming visit of the party. Mr. Foster in his letter said in part: "I am writing you this to say that my department is interested in and mainly responsible for the visit, and I would like to bespeak your earnest co-operation in the matter. The object is to bring these gentlemen face to face with the most compact and pertinent information possible, with reference to the resources of Canada and the possibilities for development along the line of industries of which they are captains and in which they are experts. I would like to give you make such arrangements as would give them during their stay with you the very best information and enable them to become acquainted with your representative interests and resources."

"I have thought it better to write the mayor of each city and ask him to co-operate with the board of trade so as to be able to carry out the purpose of the visit. If we can show these gentlemen favorably disposed towards us, it will be a great help to the cause of British trade and the location of British industries in Canada. The tour will occupy 42 days, and arrangements have been so perfected that the visitors will be able to see all of Canada that is worth seeing without wasting a minute."

Wealthy German Nobleman Kills Himself in Room in a Chicago Hotel
Chicago, May 20.—Henry S. Pruck Von Armenthal, a member of the German nobility, and a large land owner in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, shot and killed himself in a hotel here yesterday. Hotel attaches, who found the body in his room, discovered a revolver in one hand, and a photograph of Mrs. Frances Roseblatt, niece of the late Nelson Morris, millionaire packer, in the other.
Von Armenthal left a note in which he said his despondency was due to drink and the fact that he had lost "the finest woman in the world," because of his drinking.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; HOME AND ABROAD

Baseball Another League. There is some talk of an inter-provincial baseball league, consisting of teams from Amherst, Moncton, Springhill and Joggins, being formed this season.

Frederick Boy Hurt. Edward Colvel, son of John Colwell, of Frederickton, was struck by a ball in Scully's Grove on Saturday and seriously injured. He was watching the Fredericton baseball team practice.

A Scrub Team. Philadelphia, May 18—Without a regular Detroit player on the team, a club representing that city in the American League was defeated by Philadelphia this afternoon by a score of 24 to 2.

Manager Jennings' players went to the park, put on their uniforms, practiced a few minutes, and then changed uniforms with a bunch of players gathered up by the former. Nearly all the men put on the field by Jennings were amateurs, many being members of the St. Joseph College team.

Umpire from Boston. D. B. Donald, secretary of the N. B. and Maine league has received word from Umpire Thomas Murray, of Boston, accepting his offer made to him for the season in his league. Athletic Canadian Won English Marathon.

London, May 18—The English Marathon, from Windsor to Stamford Bridge, London, was run this afternoon and won by Jim Corkery, the Canadian. Fifty-two started and for the first fifteen miles Corkery was content to let others make the pace. At the twentieth he was second and running strong, and easily passed the leader, J. W. Gutham, of South Africa, winning by 400 yards in 2 hours, 37 minutes, 16 seconds. Gutham was second, and Green, an Englishman, who won last year, third. Corkery will probably represent Canada at Stockholm.

Bonhag For Tryouts. George V. Bonhag, of the Irish-American A. C. New York, one of the greatest long distance runners, has forwarded his entry to the Eastern Olympic tryout committee. He is entered in the 5,000 meter race. It was thought that owing to the death of Bonhag's father, he would not enter the tryouts. These will be held at the Howard stadium on June 8.

Every one of the boys has a rifle. It is rather amusing, say those who have just arrived here from the field of battle, to see such a little fellow carrying in a most warlike spirit his rifle, which is longer by far than himself.

With regard to the "Amariyeh" or Menders, these are young Arab boys, girls between sixteen and eighteen years of age. They derive their name from their office. Their duty is to "mend" the courage of the falling, to rebuke the wavering and to inspire the brave. This seems to be an old Arab custom much in vogue in North Africa.

SAW MILL MEN OUT ON STRIKE

Reports Say About Five Hundred Men Have Knocked Off

MANY MILLS AFFECTED

They Are Asking an Increase in Wages—Raise of Five Per Cent by One of The Firms Refused

Demanding a general increase of ten and fifteen per cent in their wages the employees in several sections about the city today went out on strike. Some of the mills closed operations at noon, others at quartering, and in others the men were out before the tooting of the morning whistle because their request had not been granted. They had thought that on Saturday night in one or two of the plants the employees would have shown the rate called for, but in the morning they were disappointed and they said then that the would not go back today unless the increase was forthcoming. The talk of strike soon spread to other mills and at noon the going out was general with one or two exceptions.

In all there more than 500 affected. The plant of Stetson & Cutler Co., at Indian town did not start at all today although the men were on hand at seven a. m. ready to begin work if the full per cent increase were given, but the advance was not made so they returned to their homes. They refused to accept a five per cent increase offered. There are about 100 men out in this mill, while in the company's other mill at Pleasant Point nearly the same number went out a short time later. The men in the J. R. Warner & Co. plant in Strait Shore went out earlier in the morning and then struck for the increase. They number about sixty. About the same number were out in Charles Miller's mill at Pokok and in Miller Bros' mill in Hilyard street, while in Hilyard Bros. in Hilyard street the men went out this afternoon. They number about 125.

In the mill owned by Hilyard Bros. the men worked during the morning and went back at one o'clock, going on strike at that time. The hundred and twenty old men employed by Murray & Greying worked until quarter time and then they walked out, causing the mill to close down. The men with F. E. Sayer, Long Wharf, numbering about thirty, also ceased work today but it was said made no request as to the increase they wanted. The employees say they can get work elsewhere at the rate asked and the operators of the mills say that they cannot afford to accede to the request for the increase.

WILCOX SENT UP

Today's Police Court Proceedings—Fighting Case is Disposed of

The preliminary hearing in the case of James A. Wilcox, was concluded in the police court this morning and he was committed to the county jail on a charge of fighting, which is to be on May 22. E. S. Ritchie appeared for the prisoner and when asked if he had anything to say, Wilcox replied "I have nothing to say."

Thomas Andrews, charged with drunkenness, resisting the police, breaking glass, and using abusive language, pleaded guilty to the charges. He was fined $8 or thirty days in jail for drunkenness and $8 or two months in jail for resisting the police. Mr. Lane said that he did not wish to press the charge of abusive language, and also that the prisoner's wife had paid for the damage to the glass. His Honor cautioned the prisoner and he was allowed to go on suspended sentence, on condition that he take the pledge.

Four prisoners charged with drunkenness were also dealt with. One was fined $4 or ten days in jail, two were sentenced to 85 or two months in jail and the other was remanded to jail in order that he may be taken to the Municipal Home. One deposit of $8 was forfeited.

The court deferred judgment in the case of John Chebrom, charged with selling liquor without a license. A case against Charles Lannon, charged with a violation of the liquor law, was also adjourned.

The two men arrested on Friday afternoon for fighting in an alley off King Square were brought into court and after the evidence of William Hunter and John DeAngelis was taken they were allowed to go on condition that they take the pledge. One of them addressed the court some length and said that the "lunatic" who they that sell in St. John was responsible for the whole trouble. His Honor suggested that it might be the "aromatic" whiskey as it was commonly known.

Two prisoners who were in jail on remand, were brought into court and fined $8 or two months in jail each on the charge of drunkenness. The fine were allowed to stand.

Charles Gamble has been reported for going beyond the stand allotted for coachmen at the Union Depot.

IN ST. PETER'S

First Communion of 200 Children

Bishop Casey Administers Sacrament of Confirmation

A solemn and impressive ceremony was witnessed yesterday morning in St. Peter's church, when about 200 little children received for the first time the sacrament of the Blessed Eucharist at high mass celebrated by Rev. M. Maloney, C. S. R., assisted by Rev. F. J. O'Leagan, C. S. R., deacon and Rev. J. H. Borgman, C. S. R., sub-deacon.

The children for several months, have been undergoing instruction directed by Rev. A. J. Duke, C. S. R., rector of the parish. Yesterday they were marshaled in the Chapel of the Holy Childhood by the rector and walked in procession to the main body of the church where floral arches had been constructed along down which they walked.

A special reservation of pews had been made for them in the centre aisle near the altar and a floral arch entwined with evergreen, had been erected, inscribed in white letters with the words of the Saviour: "Suffer little children to come unto Me."

An able and inspiring sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Duke who spoke on the importance of the day in the life of the children. He spoke of the love of God for the children and of how they should return it. They could show their reverence to him and their love for Christ by frequently approaching the communion altar and receiving Him in the banquet of love which he had instituted at His last supper.

In the afternoon at four o'clock His Lordship Bishop Casey administered the sacrament of confirmation to about 100 children and adults and the ceremony was witnessed by a very large congregation. His Lordship preached a brief but eloquent sermon on the sacrament and dealt with particular emphasis on the importance of their following the promises made at all times leading good Catholic lives. Many temptations would beset their course, he said, but if they trusted in God and endeavored to remain in the state of grace there would be no danger of their straying. His Lordship was given close attention throughout his discourse.

In the evening the services consisted of the usual Sunday evening devotions together with renewal of the baptismal vows by the children.

ANXIOUS ABOUT FISHERMEN

Frank Dow and Isaac Abbot Left Misep on Saturday Night and Had Not Returned This Morning

Residents of Misep and vicinity are anxious about Frank Dow and Isaac Abbot, two fishermen, who left Misep in motor boat on Saturday night and who had not been heard of up till this morning. They belong to Chance Harbor, but were camping at Misep during the fishing season. They had several nets out by Saturday night to visit them.

Before going out they had difficulty with their engine, but after working at it for sometime, got it in working order. They set out for their nets, with the intention of returning in a few hours. It is feared that their motor might have become wrong again and that they drifted out to sea. They are missing aged men.

Tailors are Busy in Our Men's Tailor Shop

But not too busy to make you the best suit of clothes you ever wore for $25, $28 or $30, from your own choice of a fine lot of this season's woollens.

Said a man whose measure we took one day last week, "I want to be sure you won't send it to a factory to be made."

Our people told him he need have no fear, because this is a real Custom Tailoring Shop and not a place for taking a man's measure (physically and otherwise) also his money, with factory in the background ready to make the suit.

Here custom-made means made by tailors. Our showing of Spring Woollens—fancy weaves and black and blue serges—is very fine and our prices are the lowest for which they can be made up in the same excellent way.
