COL. HOWELL AWAY TO GET IMMIGRANTS

Salvation Army to Bring 1,500 Picked Settlers—Quebec Women's Canadian Club—Kemp Against Naval Policy

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 4.—(Special)—Lt. Col. T. Howell, secretary for immigration for the Salvation Army, will sail from Montreal for London on the steamer Laurentic on Saturday in company with nine others to choose 1,500 immigrants who will be brought to Canada next spring. These immigrants will be skilled artisans and domestic servants and will be distributed in Ontario and the West. A. E. Kemp, ex-M.P., for East Toronto, speaking on naval defence at the annual meeting of the Conservative Association last night, declared the Conservative party generally should not be held responsible for a compromise resolution adopted in parliament last session. Parliament, he said, should have voted money enough to build two or three Dreadnoughts and presented them to Britain. He hoped a more definite stand would be taken next session.

HORN BROOK INQUIRY WAS ENDED TODAY

Evidence Before Hon. J. D. Hazen and Argument of Counsel Heard

The investigation into the charges preferred against Magistrate Hornbrook, of Sussex, was concluded here today. The inquiry has been conducted by Premier Hazen and George W. Fowler, K. C., conducted the prosecution on behalf of the advisory board of the Kings county court, which made the charges and Amon A. Wilson, K. C., appeared on behalf of Mr. Hornbrook. The magistrate was charged with not maintaining secrecy with regard to proceedings, with retaining possession of accounts and general inefficiency. This morning in the local government rooms, J. M. McIntyre, barrister, of Sussex, was examined regarding cases against Seymour Cole for liquor act violations. He said he knew of only two cases and could not account for the magistrate and Inspector Weyman having three cases entered. He said the magistrate had never divulged anything to him about the officers of his office. Mr. Hornbrook was recalled by Mr. Wilson and explained that the entry of three cases against Seymour Cole was an error. He had entered three cases as they had been reported to him by the magistrate but he was convinced that it was an error as he could recall only two.

County Owes Him

Mr. Fowler said the county owes him $50 which he paid in through error and which has not been returned to him. He did not owe the county anything. Mr. Hazen said Mr. Freese, of Sussex, had asked to be heard in explanation but he would not delay the hearing, but if Mr. Freese wanted to make an explanation he could hear him later on. It was then agreed that the argument of counsel should be heard.

A. A. Wilson

Mr. Wilson, in opening his argument, claimed the prosecution had failed utterly to make out a case. They had failed to show in any way that there had been any wrong doing or willful negligence on the part of the magistrate to perform his duties satisfactorily. He said the magistrate had never divulged anything to him about the officers of his office. Mr. Hornbrook was recalled by Mr. Wilson and explained that the entry of three cases against Seymour Cole was an error. He had entered three cases as they had been reported to him by the magistrate but he was convinced that it was an error as he could recall only two.

NAME ONTARIO TOWN OFFICIAL NOW IN THE KINRADE CASE

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 4.—(Special)—A despatch from Norfolk (Va.), says that Pinkerton detectives have learned from Jimmy Baum, the name of the man whose name was attached to a bouquet handed over the footlights to Florence Kinrade at Portsmouth, when she was singing there, causing her great agitation. Baum told the police here that if they found this man, they would have the murderer of Ethel Kinrade. The name given is that of a government official in a western Ontario town.

MANY ESCORT BODY OF DR. MACRAE TO GRAVE

Fraternal Societies, Business and Professional Men in Long Line of Sorrowing Friends—Service in House and Church; Orange Ritual in Cemetery

The funeral of Dr. Alexander W. MacRae, held from his late residence, Coburg street, this afternoon was a most impressive one, and the tribute paid to his memory not only by fraternal societies, but by professional men, merchants and citizens in all walks of life, was substantial evidence of the respect and esteem in which his fellowmen held him, and also of the loss which they recognize the city has sustained by his removal. The funeral was one of the largest seen in St. John. The arrangements for the burial were in charge of Court Master J. King Kelley and other members of the Orange order, and Col. Gardner of Moncton, Grand Director of the Orangemen of New Brunswick, marshalled the cortege, assisted by Capt. F. H. Elliott. At the late residence of Dr. MacRae, services of a simple nature were conducted by Rev. Gordon Dickie and Rev. A. A. Rideout of Fredericton. The body was then taken to St. Stephen's church, where public services were carried out. By request, there was no sermon preached. As the body was being conveyed into the church, the organist, Miss Wilson, played "The Dead March in Saul." Services were conducted by Rev. A. A. Rideout and Rev. Gordon Dickie. The choir sang "The Sands of Time are Sinking" and "Nearer My God to Thee." The Artillery Band gave a beautiful rendering of a funeral march, as the body was brought out of the church and placed in the hearse. The pallbearers were Messrs. A. P. Barnhill, G. W. Fleming, John Russell, Jr., F. E. Williams, J. B. M. Baxter and J. King Kelley.

THE SOCIETIES

The societies met at the church and received their places in the line. The procession, as it filed from the church, was made up as follows: Artillery Band, Independent Order of Foresters, Members of the Grand Orange Lodge, with the Black Knights and the banner of lodge 27, furled and draped. The St. John Law Society. Knights of Pythias. Rev. Gordon Dickie and Rev. A. A. Rideout. The hearse containing the casket. St. Andrew Society. Board of Trade and citizens in general.

Service of Orange Order at Grave

The funeral procession wended its way to Fernhill where services were conducted according to the ritual of the Orange order by Rev. A. A. Rideout, the provincial grand chaplain. The services were: (Continued on page 3 second column)

EXAMINE NEW YORK'S FAMOUS PRISON IN FEAR OF COLLAPSE

Tombs Building Inspected Today and Fissure in Outer Wall Found—Fears for the $2,000,000 Criminal Courts Building Aggravated

New York, Nov. 4.—Fears as to the stability of the $2,000,000 criminal courts building, which the building department ordered vacated yesterday as unsafe, are aggravated by the discovery that preparations are being made for construction of a heavy timber shield to be laid over the surface of Lafayette street, one of the streets upon which it passes at this point from being caved in should the building collapse. According to Deputy Sheriff Williams, the three negroes late on Tuesday night went to the home of George Lockhold, and after tying the farmer to a tree and whipping him on his bare back with willow switches, attempted to assault Mrs. Lockhold. Persons who happened to be passing heard the screams of the woman and the negroes fled. A posse of farmers was organized and after a 24-hour hunt, Lewis was caught after being ordered to throw up his hands. He was shot and killed.

SCOUR COUNTRY FOR NEGROS FOR ASSULT ON WHITE WOMAN

Tied Husband to Tree and Whipped Him—One Negro Shot Dead

Sutton, Va., Nov. 4.—Two organized parties of men are scouring the hills of this county for two negroes, believed to have aided Chas. Lewis, also a negro, in a dastardly assault upon Mrs. Mary Lockhold, wife of a prosperous farmer, near the small settlement of Exchange. Lewis is dead, having been shot and killed by a posse of men, while endeavoring to escape. According to Deputy Sheriff Williams, the three negroes late on Tuesday night went to the home of George Lockhold, and after tying the farmer to a tree and whipping him on his bare back with willow switches, attempted to assault Mrs. Lockhold. Persons who happened to be passing heard the screams of the woman and the negroes fled. A posse of farmers was organized and after a 24-hour hunt, Lewis was caught after being ordered to throw up his hands. He was shot and killed.

TO DO AWAY WITH SPIKES IN SHOES OF BALL PLAYERS

American League Will Take up Matter at Annual Meeting—Gotch to Help Train Jeffries

Chicago, Nov. 4.—The American League at its annual meeting next month, the exact date of which has not been decided, will take up seriously the matter of abolishing spikes from the paraphernalia of the diamond. President Johnson said it was now in use on the shoes of players would be discussed and agreed upon for the purpose of eliminating at least a portion of the accidents which have marred the sport during the last season. Death is of frequent and oftentimes sudden occurrence, and yet we find that our thoughts are seldom given to it; forgetting that the Lord greets and the Lord takes away; that He hath appointed a time for man to die and that in a moment death may come upon us even as a thief in the night. My brethren, let us remember that we look upon the grave of a friend and brother; that instead of his body, we behold the narrow habitation, in which we have delivered, earth to earth, ashes to ashes and dust to dust, all that was mortal of him; let us who are here as members of a religious brotherhood, follow the Christian teachings of our association, and show them forth in our lives and actions; our trust for salvation be solely in the death of Christ, so that in the last day we may stand in our lot accepted in the sight of our Maker, Redeemer, and Sanctifier, and hear Him say: "Well done, good and faithful servant." Master—It is meet and proper, my brethren, that we should mourn for our brother who is dead. Brethren—He is dead to us. Master—We shall know him no more on earth. Brethren—We will inscribe his name in our memories. Master—Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Brethren—As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end—Amen. In the solemn silence ensuing the master dropped his orange ribbon into the grave upon the coffin and the members of the order each moved in single file depositing his ribbon. The following prayer was then read by the chaplain. "O Lord, God of Righteousness, depending on Thy mercy on Thy power, and on Thy goodness declared unto man, we humbly beseech thee to send down Thy spirit upon the soul of the departed, that he may rest in peace, and that he may be admitted into the Kingdom of Thy eternal kingdom; save this brotherhood from the pains of eternal death, and bring them to everlasting life. Direct us in our last hours, and bring us safely to Thy glory, there to reunite for the sake of our Lord and Saviour." Brethren—Amen.

FIRST YORK LOAN CHECKS ARE CASHED

Canadian Bank of Commerce Paid Out First Money This Morning

After some years of waiting, the first cheques for the preliminary payments of the St. John shareholders of the York County Savings & Loan Company have arrived here and at the Canadian Bank of Commerce, the first were cashed this morning. The payments are to be made from the bank for the reason, as explained by Manager Francis, that it has acted for the liquidators of the company. On account of the appreciation of land values of the company, discharges indicate that shareholders will get in the vicinity of 50 per cent. The first payment is 25 per cent. less certain charges allowed by the court.

BIG MOOSE SHOT AT BALL'S LAKE

Arthur Evans Gets One With 55 Inches Spread of Antlers—Sees Eleven

It was thought to be the largest moose to reach this city this season was brought in by Arthur Evans of Ball's Lake, near that place on Monday morning. Evans saw eleven moose in the vicinity so that there is no need to go far from St. John for game. O'Neill Bros. also have today the carcass of a moose shot by Joseph Hagarty in Charlotte county. The antlers spread forty-four inches.

NORTHCLIFFE INTERVIEW

Looks Like Part of the Campaign

Montreal, Nov. 4.—(Special)—Hon. G. P. Graham, minister of railways, today expressed serious doubt of the genuineness of the interview sent from Halifax, in which Lord Northcliffe is reported as saying that Intercolonial trains are slower than those of Spain, and otherwise severe by commenting on the I. C. R. operation. "I do not wish to reply to Lord Northcliffe," said Mr. Graham, "until I am assured that he has really made the statements attributed to him. The interview looks to me like a carefully edited despatch manufactured and sent out as part of a campaign whose objects are well understood."

DISTURBED OVER CHINESE REY. LOANS

Shanghai, Nov. 4.—The suggestion that the loan for the construction of the Canton-Hankow and Hankow-Sze Chan railways will probably not be completed has provoked much discussion. It has also been suggested that China should make no further loans for specific objects but a general government loan to be expended as necessity arises and to be safeguarded by the appointment of foreign advisers on the board of posts and communications. The German group is especially disturbed over the present situation.

ORAM INQUEST THIS AFTERNOON

Sussex, N. B., Nov. 4.—(Special)—There were no developments in the Oram case this morning. The inquest was to have been held this morning but was postponed until this afternoon.

PROPOSE CHANGE IN KINGDON MEMORIAL

Chapel to Rothersey College Alternative Plan—Synod Stirred Today By Opposition To Stand On Liquor Question—Bishop's Charge Reviewed

Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 4.—(Special)—At this morning's session of the Anglican synod, H. B. Schofield submitted reports from the board of finance and widows' and orphan's fund. They were taken up section by section and adopted after some discussion. A calculation in the latter report on the chances of widowers' remarrying provoked considerable amusement when read. The balance of the session was taken up in discussing a report of the standing committee on the temperance question. The report was read by Rev. Canon Hanington and adopted section by section without amendment. It approved of the system of graded stipends and endorsed the envelope system of collections. Hope was expressed that every parish in the diocese would avail itself of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. The work of Canon Smithers was cordially endorsed and it was recommended that he be granted $200 increase of salary. The committee approved the suggestion that the constitution of rural chapters be modified so that lay members can be admitted. The Kingdon Memorial In regard to the Kingdon memorial, the committee suggested that the bishop-proposition that a chapel be erected in connection with Rothersey Collegiate School. This matter will come before the synod at a later stage. By resolution it was recommended that a committee on religion in the public schools be considered and a scheme of instruction in Protestant schools of Quebec be endorsed. In regard to Kings College it was recommended that the governors appointed by the synod submit a report at this meeting. The committee heartily approved of the bishop's pronouncement on the temperance question and his suggestions for restriction of the liquor traffic were incorporated in the report. Rev. C. F. Wiggins took strong ground against the church taking a stand on this question, and his remarks created quite a hubbub. He thought it would be casting a reflection on their faith if they sought aid of parliamentary law, instead of teaching men where true strength was to be found. He pointed out that wine was provided for man's use, and it would be conflicting with God's will if they undertook to say it was wrong to use wine. He held that it would be inconsistent for the synod to put forward the policy proposed by the committee. G. O. D. Oddy and Lewis H. Ellis, replied vigorously to the Mr. Wiggins' remarks and the section was adopted. The final paragraph of the report, concerning divorce and marriage within the prohibited degree was endorsed.

HOOK WORM DISEASE HAS HOLD IN 'FRISCO

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—The hook-worm disease has been brought to San Francisco from Hawaii and the Orient, and hundreds of cases of hitherto explained dejection, laziness and supposed lack of moral initiative have been attributed to the insects of the little parasite. Dr. Herbert Gunn, who is directing a campaign of physicians against the disease said yesterday: "I have treated more than 100 cases of hook-worm in this city. I recall at least one death due to it, a boy who died in the Lane Hospital two years ago. The disease had not been known to exist in California except in very rare instances and very few years ago." Many soldiers of the Philippines and travellers and business men from the Orient have returned afflicted with the small parasites. The parasites in the country districts are usually acquired through the skin of the bare feet. Infected manure and uncooked vegetables also spread the disease.

FRANK MULLEN OF BATHURST SEEKS TO END LIFE IN OLDTOWN

Policeman's Twisters Save Him After He Has Severed An Artery in His Wrist—He Had Been Drinking

Oldtown, Me., Nov. 4.—(Special)—Application of a policeman's twisters saved a life of Frank Mullen of Bathurst (N. B.), after he had attempted suicide by severing an artery in his wrist. Mullen, who is employed in the pulp mill here, had been drinking for several days. He borrowed a jackknife from a fellow workman and, going to a barn, slashed himself in the throat and both wrists. When his condition was discovered, and a policeman tried to arrest him, Mullen went into a frenzy. The handcuffs played a double purpose, subduing him, and stopped the flow of blood which would have been fatal in a short time. Mullen was taken to the city hospital, and will soon recover.

HELD UP CHAFFEUR AT PISTOL POINT

Horses Frightened and He Makes Auto Driver Step Down and Lead Them

Cobham, Va., Nov. 4.—John Armstrong Chaloner, the divorced husband of Amelia Chaloner, the authoress, now Princess Trobetzky, and brother of Lewis Stuyvesant Chaloner, former Lieut. Governor of New York, who a year or more ago was concentered by a jury for the death of John Gilliland, shot and killed in a scuffle with Chaloner in the Merrick Mills, Chaloner's home in Albemarle County, yesterday held up an automobile loaded with passengers on a public road at the point of a revolver. He forced the chauffeur to descend and lead his horse, which had become frightened, around the machine and out of the way of danger. This is the first time that the Virginia law requiring the chauffeur to render aid in such contingencies has been enforced in such a dramatic measure, and by a private citizen. Chaloner maintains that the revolver, which he says he is in the habit of carrying, was not concealed.

Stroke of Partial Paralysis—Hon. E. J. Flynn Wins Slander Case—Devlin Speaks For Robillard

Quebec, Nov. 4.—(Special)—Bishop Blois, of Rimouski, was stricken with partial paralysis on Tuesday, and is now at the Hotel Dieu hospital here. His condition is reported a little better this morning, but he is not yet out of danger. In practice Court yesterday Justice Simon rendered judgment in the case of Hon. E. J. Flynn against Nero Poirer for slander. Poirer produced a retraxion, and was condemned to pay plaintiff $100 and costs of action. Montreal, Nov. 4.—(Special)—Hon. C. H. Devlin, speaking in St. James driveway last night in the interests of Ald. Robillard, government candidate, strongly denounced the Gouin government, strongly declared had always worked in the interests of the province.

MISS KING LEFT ESTATE UNDER $12,500

Private Instructions to Mother About Disposition of it—Probate Court Today

In the probate court today the will of Miss Gertrude King, formerly of St. John, but lately of Boston, was proved. She had personal property in the city and county of St. John. She gives her jewelry and personal effects to her mother, Mrs. Eleanor L. King, and all the rest of her estate also to her mother, to be held in trust to dispose of in accordance with private instructions given to her mother. Mrs. King was sworn in as executrix. There is no realty, personal estate under $12,500; Dr. L. A. Curry, K. C., proctor, sworn in administrator of the estate of Robert Wallace, farmer, of Gardiner's Creek, who died intestate, leaving a sister, Mary W. Bradshaw, two nephews and two nieces. The sister renounced in his favor. One of the nephews is a resident outside of the province. The nieces, both married women, are children of the late William Wallace. Real estate is $1,500, subject to a mortgage of $100; personal estate $310; A. W. Bess, proctor.

THANE M. JONES WEDS MISS FRASER

At the residence of Dr. H. G. Addy, Union street, this afternoon at four o'clock a pretty event will take place when he will give his daughter, Mrs. F. A. Fraser, in marriage to Thane M. Jones, of Woodstock. The marriage ceremony will be performed by Rev. Dr. Flinders in the presence of only a few close friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride will be gowned in a pretty traveling suit of wisteria and will wear a hat to match. The couple will be unattended. After the marriage ceremony a wedding luncheon will be served at the bride's home and soon after, Mr. and Mrs. Jones will leave for their future home in Woodstock. Many beautiful presents were received, and the groom is a prominent barrister of Woodstock.

BUFFALOS, WILD AFTER SULPHUR AND LIME BATH, STAMPEDE

Belvidere, Kans., Nov. 4.—Made ferocious at being dipped in a lime and sulphur bath to kill the ticks on them, a herd of thirty-six buffalo stampeded on Frank Rockefeller's ranch near here yesterday and were scattered over Kiowa county. When, in accordance with orders from the government inspectors, the herd was driven into the dipping vault it went wild and broke through three barbed wire fences as if they had been made of twine. Five horses were used in pursuing one bull, whose value is $1,500, but he is still at large.

HOW QUEBEC HAS PROSPERED UNDER WISE LIBERAL RULE

Hon. Mr. Weir Issues Statement on Matters at Issue in the Elections This Month—Education, Forest Wealth and Other Topics

The Hon. W. A. Weir, provincial treasurer in Montreal on Saturday gave out a statement of the issues upon which the electors of St. James division of Montreal, Chambly county and St. Seveur division of Quebec city would be asked to poll their votes on Nov. 12.

The opposition under the tripartite leadership of men of such diverse characteristics as Messrs. Tellier, Bourassa and Prevost, had naturally a serious difficulty in coming to an agreement upon questions of public policy, and as a consequence their programme was largely one of negation and criticism.

When the Liberal party, under the Hon. Mr. Marchand, resumed the reins of office in 1897, proceeded Mr. Weir, the financial reputation of the province was hopelessly bad to all appearances.

As regards our finances, the policy of the opposition is very simple. On the one hand they urge us to spend more money on the needs of the province, and on the other they accuse us of collecting too much taxation and challenge us to reduce it.

The educational outlook. Public instruction must necessarily occupy a foremost position in the programme of every Liberal government.

The calibre of the opposition can be well judged by its attitude on this question. In the matter of technical schools, for example, it has raised the sectional cry that we are spending the money in the cities, to the detriment of rural education.

But come back to the question of technical schools for further illustration of the policy of the opposition.

Because we put the management of these schools under specially constituted school corporations, the merchants, manufacturers and others, the opposition raised the old cry, so often used by them, that the Liberals were ignoring the church.

Mr. Fowler—There is just as much liquor in this as there ever was.

Mr. Wilson contended that this was not so, and told Mr. Fowler he knew that whenever appeals from Magistrate Hornbrook's office had been made to the supreme court, his decisions had been upheld.

Touching the matter of betraying secrets of his office to put the violators of the law on their guard, he said there was nothing to substantiate the charge.

As to the charge that he had held back money that should have been paid to the county, there was nothing to show that this had been done, except that a mistake had been made by Mr. Weyman.

There was not one bit of evidence to show that there was any truth in the charges that the magistrate had received any pecuniary assistance from notorious violators of the law.

The money received from Mr. Farmer, $3, was for services the magistrate had rendered. He had written letters and made out bills, etc. for Mr. Farmer, and had been paid for doing so, as was his right.

Mr. Fowler on behalf of the petitioners, said that for a time after Mr. Hornbrook's appointment there was a much better enforcement of the liquor laws, but latterly a change came over the spirit of the magistrate's dreams, and he had gone to the county. It was only natural and according to general usage that money should not be laid away in an envelope but that he should use them until the time came when he would be paid for it.

CANADA HAS SURPLUS OF MORE THAN MILLION

Ottawa, Nov. 3.—The annual blue book of the minister of Canada, has made its appearance, and like many other blue books, it is out long before the traditional date.

The early appearance of this and other government publications redounds to the credit of the new king's printer, Charles Farnham, who has, since assuming office, galvanized the printing bureau into increased activity, to the great joy of the various departments which are completely supplied with their stationery.

The public accounts show that during the year ended March 31 receipts on account of consolidated fund amounted to $85,063,404, and the expenditure on the same account was $84,764,233, giving a surplus of $299,171.

At the close of the year, Canada's net debt was $25,800,770. Of this $24,822,331 was due to the building of the National Transcontinental.

The average rate of interest on the gross debt was reduced from 2.11 to 1.65. During the year $1,050,000 was advanced to the Montreal Harbor Commission.

The funded debt of Canada, payable in sterling, was $27,026,917, which is an increase of $10,332,000 or $30,238,800 since 1903, a date at which a number of loans began to mature and be redeemed.

OLD DUTCH TEA GARDENS ON CANALS

Through Use of Bicycle and Motor, Again Becoming Popular—Very Picturesque Installations

On the old canal from Delft to London is a tea garden that has existed there time out of mind. More than 250 years ago it is mentioned in local chronicles, and it is on record that all the windows of the houses in the neighborhood were the highways of traffic, and all the finest houses and most beautiful country seats were situated on the banks of the canal.

Of course the amusement resorts had to conform to this preference for the water, so it is not so wonderful that the tea gardens were placed near some busy canal. These tea gardens were a great institution, where the English and Dutch families would come on summer evenings to drink tea or eat their meals with rusk and sugar.

LIFE INTO DEAD LIMBS

Curing Spinal Curvature of Two Children in New York

Two children who had lost the use of their legs through a tubercular disease of the spine, which had also made hunch backs of them, have regained the use of their limbs and are in a fair way to have normal backs again, as the result of having been encased in a new form of calot jacket, originated recently by physicians of the Hospital for the Crippled and Ruptured, which is now being adopted.

Both patients were thought to be incurable. The success of the new device leads its inventors to expect great things in the future. While the calot jacket is not new, being only a plaster of paris cast placed around the trunk, a new form of calot jacket, it has been adopted.

The physicians used a plinth—a piece of wood padded with felt and fastened against the spine so tightly as to make it immovable. The greatest possible pressure is brought to bear on the curvature compatible with comfort for the patient. In the old form of calot jacket, it was explained by one of the physicians last night, perfect immobility for the plinth could not be obtained and that is the thing required to cure the disease that causes the curvature and paralysis.

Augustus David Peck, of Stepey, Ct., is one of the little patients who has benefited by the new device. He is seven years old. His legs were paralyzed and his spine had a pronounced curve. It became worse and the curvature of his spine was reduced one inch. Then he was sent home, still encased in the jacket. It became worse and the curvature of his spine was reduced one inch. Then he was sent home, still encased in the jacket.

His arms and legs were free, but his torso was encased like a mummy. The plinth was fixed in the back and held in place by straps passing over his shoulders. When the gauge dried it made a sheath in which his deformed spine could not bulge. He probably will have to wear it two years, but that is a little thing for a child.

The other case is that of a little girl who was brought to the hospital for a short time. She was affected just as was the boy. Both her legs were paralyzed. She, too, was encased in a calot jacket, and is now able to walk. The physicians think his back will be straightened by the time she is in the hospital.

MEDICAL INSPECTION

A case of diphtheria has been reported in one of the city schools. The season has arrived when outbreaks of this and other diseases may be expected, and the spread of which through the medium of the schools may also be expected.

This matter should be taken up by the school board and civic authorities. There is no doubt about public sentiment. The people desire that the homes be protected by every reasonable and proper means. An epidemic costs much more than the salary of an inspector. The publicity that has recently been given to discussions, and the views expressed upon the subject should be sufficient warrant for the authorities to set themselves seriously to the task of improving the conditions.

QUEBEC POLITICS

A very interesting political campaign is being waged in Quebec, in the by-elections for the provincial legislature, which are to take place on November 12 in the St. James division of Montreal, in Chambly and in St. Sauveur. They are chiefly interesting because the leading figure, though not a candidate, is Mr. Henri Bourassa, who is described as the stormy petrel of Quebec politics.

The Montreal witness says, "Bids fair to be a memorable one, almost equal in interest to that which brought on the present by-election, when Mr. Bourassa wrested the same constituency from Sir Lomer Gouin."

RACE TO SOUTH AMERICA

Boston, Nov. 3.—In tow of the tug Orin, the Norwegian bark Gudrun, Capt. Skarr, left her anchorage in the harbor yesterday morning and started on her 6000 mile passage to Rosario. British ship Timandra, Capt. Blom, started out from quarantine three hours later, in tow of tug Neponset.

NOVA SCOTIA POLITICS

Amherst, N. S., Nov. 3.—(Special)—A convention of the Liberal-Conservatives of the county here today nominated T. S. Rogers, K. C., of Amherst, as the candidate for the approaching election.

Their success has not been great, but they are vigorous campaigners. It is charged by their opponents that they have no policy, and deal only in destructive criticism and racial appeals. Such a policy cannot win permanent success in any province. Nevertheless there is a hot fight in St. James, Chambly and St. Sauveur.

For so jolly a man Lord Charles Bessborough is very lugubrious when he talks about the imperial navy. But he finds Canada vastly to his liking.

Lord Northcliffe has made a very foolish and unfriendly criticism of the Intercolonial Railway. The more he talks the more he discredits himself as a discerning observer. His German war scare is another case in point.

Mr. Kemp, M. P., of Toronto appears to be in revolt against Mr. Borden. The trouble in the Conservative party grows more serious. One in British Columbia Sir Herbert Tupper has declared open opposition to Premier McBride's railway deal.

Today's news appears to indicate that Tammany's victory in New York was of the barren sort, because of its failure to secure control of the board of estimates. The anti-Tammany Democrats, with Republican aid, have secured a strong position.

There is a three-sided fight in the by-election in Cumberland. It was thought that the Conservatives would throw their influence in favor of the labor candidate, Mr. Landry, but they have nominated T. S. Rogers, K. C. Mr. Livingston should win in this contest.

The St. Andrews Beacon observes: "Speedy as the Kentucky horses are supposed to be, it is reported that those imported by the N. B. government have been unable to catch up to the notes that were given in exchange for them when they were first brought here."

Three women have been appointed to the New York board of education. There is no reason why they should not be appointed, but many reasons why they should be permitted to serve in that capacity. There are very clever women in New York as elsewhere, animated by high ideals of social service.

The Conservatives of Lunenburg, N. S., have nominated J. W. Margeson to oppose Attorney General A. K. McLean in the by-election in that county, and the enterprising correspondent of the St. John Standard already has him elected. Some thing may happen on polling day, but that is some way off. There is nothing like getting a good start. As the opposition in Nova Scotia has no leader and no policy, it may be that Mr. Margeson has these concealed about his person.

PEACE PREFERRED. "I'm glad I'm not a candidate." "What's that?" "I don't know exactly, but I would be in perfect order and condition. Under present conditions of the voting act, there are too many complications and intricate details of detail to carry out an election even as it is. Add to the present bad system, which has proved so illustrative of bad feeling among men, another similar to it, as it would no doubt be a division, as a woman against man vote, by separate committees of scheduling of home in all its details of affection and love for a cosy and comfortable home, for the father of the family and breadwinner for all by his sweat and toil, should be the proper sphere for a true loving and really devoted wife of a kind and hard-working husband. To break up these comforts and separate women from their families and husbands even for short periods, and enter upon election fights with their own sex in the future, is a very grave question, and one that will require the best thought of the wisest of both sexes. As far as I see, until the elective franchise is made compulsory by vote of those only who can read and write with out abstraction of the mind of the voter through the agencies of committee rooms for solving plans to corral the voter, there should be no further catastrophe happen to us to afford women to enter the arena of contention and strife. To enter upon it as at present would, as Cardinal Gibbons most wisely says, destroy the home and domestic life, and which would be the greatest factor and entail more suicidal tendencies to get out of this world than all the other troubles that create this tendency to depart from the present life. With the vast amount of editorial work in newspapers and magazines and their best thought for the good of all by hard and painstaking effort there should be no necessity for private committee schemes in elections, and women on this plan would have the opportunity of advising and concluding with their husbands in privacy as to what is best for a nation's welfare.

JOHN SALVATOR, COUNT, IS DEAD Denver, Colo., Nov. 3.—Count Louis von Vetsera, of Austria, known familiarly as Johan Salvator, died yesterday at Washington.

Under what name he lived and died is as much a mystery as were the deaths of Crown Prince Rudolph of Austria and Countess Marie Victoria, sister of the emperor, killed in the same manner. The count's death is the death of the supposed nobleman.

Although von Vetsera had been absent from Austria since a few years after the death of the crown prince and the Countess Vetsera, the Austrian government kept track of him. A cable from the Austrian foreign office, a telegram from the Austrian ambassador at Washington and notification from the Austria-Hungarian consul at San Francisco conveyed the intelligence of the count's death to the Austrian consulate in Denver and gave instructions that the body be found and properly identified.

E. Mitchell, president of the Mitchell Molasses Company, of Barbados, is in the city, and makes the announcement that he will open a branch of their business here. SHE WOULDN'T GET 'EM. Teacher—"I gave you four apples and your little sister asked you for two of them. How many would you have?" "Tommy—Four."

Women Cannot be Strong and Healthy Unless the Kidneys are Well. Weak, lame or aching backs are the first sign of Kidney Trouble. Under ordinary conditions they ought to be strong and ready to bear the burdens of life. It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back. Backaches come from sick kidneys, and when a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause.

But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they are able to do, they will be worn out and they get out of order. Weak back is simply a warning from the kidneys, and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you in the same way as they have cured thousands of others. Miss Alberta B. Clarke, Stony Creek, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with kidney trouble for several years; my back was weak, I had such terrible headaches, and was so restless I could not sleep at night and tried everything without any benefit. Meantime a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got four boxes and they completely cured me. I now feel as well as I ever did and would advise everyone suffering from Kidney Disease to try them." Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. In ordering specify "Doan's."

CERTAINLY ENDS KIDNEY TROUBLE Backache, Kidney Disorder and All Misery from the Bladder. Hundreds of folks here are needlessly miserable and worried because of out-of-order kidneys, backache or bladder trouble. If you will take several doses of Doan's Kidney Pills, you will be cured. Doan's Kidney Pills are a safe, reliable, and effective remedy for all kidney and bladder troubles. They are a household name, and are sold everywhere.

WOOD When you want a big load of Dry Wood, Hardwood, Soft Wood or Kindling, Try CITY FUEL CO. Telephone 668. Feel Well? Fall is the Time to Get Yourself in Shape. Our Quinine, Wine and Iron is the tonic, 50 cents. F. E. PORTER DRUGGIST, 303 UNION ST. WOMAN SUFFRAGE To the Editor of the Times: Sir—Some notes in the Globe on the above subject are worthy of attention generally, as the consensus of opinion by the editor is in favor of the right of women to vote where intelligence and education go hand in hand. Evidently the British mind is opposed to this, and the strong anti-female in the United States by the Boston female sex is also noted, followed up by the last expression on the theme by Cardinal Gibbons, a highly learned man, that it will lead to the destruction of a perfect home and happiness. This last though should be weighed most seriously, as if this should come about (and many cases to support the cardinal's view have already occurred), it will not be long, if given the power to vote, before chaos would reign, children would be neglected and forgotten by the absence of their mothers from home, husbands would have the double burden of cooking and over-seeing the proper household duties of a wife who, if she is a good wife, would have all it is possible for her to perform and keep her health and affections for her offspring and the education of their young minds in perfect order and condition. Under present conditions of the voting act, there are too many complications and intricate details of detail to carry out an election even as it is. Add to the present bad system, which has proved so illustrative of bad feeling among men, another similar to it, as it would no doubt be a division, as a woman against man vote, by separate committees of scheduling of home in all its details of affection and love for a cosy and comfortable home, for the father of the family and breadwinner for all by his sweat and toil, should be the proper sphere for a true loving and really devoted wife of a kind and hard-working husband. To break up these comforts and separate women from their families and husbands even for short periods, and enter upon election fights with their own sex in the future, is a very grave question, and one that will require the best thought of the wisest of both sexes. As far as I see, until the elective franchise is made compulsory by vote of those only who can read and write with out abstraction of the mind of the voter through the agencies of committee rooms for solving plans to corral the voter, there should be no further catastrophe happen to us to afford women to enter the arena of contention and strife. To enter upon it as at present would, as Cardinal Gibbons most wisely says, destroy the home and domestic life, and which would be the greatest factor and entail more suicidal tendencies to get out of this world than all the other troubles that create this tendency to depart from the present life. With the vast amount of editorial work in newspapers and magazines and their best thought for the good of all by hard and painstaking effort there should be no necessity for private committee schemes in elections, and women on this plan would have the opportunity of advising and concluding with their husbands in privacy as to what is best for a nation's welfare.

WEDDINGS Graham-Bourgeois. Moncton, Nov. 3.—St. Bernard's Roman Catholic church was the scene of an interesting wedding at 8.30 this evening when Joseph Graham, installation foreman at the new I. C. R. shops, was married to Miss Jennie Bourgeois, daughter of the late Philip Bourgeois. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, C. H. Boudreau, while the groom was attended by Geo. O'Neill. The church was crowded to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Father Savigne. Mr. and Mrs. Graham left on the maritime express on a bridal trip to Quebec and Ontario cities.

Kellogg-McConnell. A wedding which will be heard of with interest by people in St. John, took place in Seattle (Wash.), on Oct. 18, when Miss Florence E. McConnell became the wife of Robert B. Kellogg. Rev. J. M. Wilson performed the ceremony. Mrs. Charles B. Dodge, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Mary Quigley and Miss Alice Quigley were bridesmaids. Florence Dodge and Margaret McConnell were ribbon bearers and Carroll W. McCullough was groomsmen. The bride has many friends in St. John.

Belding-Russell. (Bridalboro, Vt. Reformer.) A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Russell on Maple street, Northfield, Wednesday, Oct. 27th, at 2 o'clock, when the youngest daughter, Carrie Belding, was married to John Benjamin Belding, of Siscoan, British Columbia. Rev. Daniel M. Wilson officiated, using the double ring service. The bride was attended and wore a white tulle gown, her only ornament being a diamond brooch, the gift of her betrothed. She carried chrysanthemums. Refreshments were served. The decorations were of cut flowers and autumn leaves. Relatives only were invited. The bride was unusually mention. There was a great variety of both useful and beautiful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Belding were taken in Mr. Evans's auto to South Vernon, where they took the train. Their wedding tour includes Springfield, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington. On their return they will spend about a week in Northfield before leaving for their future home in British Columbia. The route there will be by way of New Brunswick. Mr. Belding having a sister in St. John, where she is a school teacher, her future home, Siscoan, is about 100 miles from Seattle. Mr. Belding is station agent and telegraph operator, having three men under him. It is a new town, there being only 12 houses and a schoolhouse in the place.

Mrs. Belding will leave many friends in Northfield who will take a deep interest in her future. She has been a teacher in the public schools of Northfield and Mills Falls for 13 years with excellent success. She has always been a faithful and earnest worker in the Unitarian church and Sunday school, of which she was a member, and she will be greatly missed there. It is the universal regret that her future home is to be so far away.

The tortures of Eczema can scarcely be described. And words fail to express the gratitude which very many people feel toward Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment because it has cured them of this annoying ailment. The itching, stinging, burning, and smarting which brings discomfort by day and makes sleep impossible by night, soon disappears when Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is applied. With patient treatment it is only a matter of time until the sores are healed and new, smooth, natural skin forms. Success in the cure of this worst form of itching skin disease has made Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment known and recognized throughout the world as the standard ointment. It is wonderfully soothing and healing and you can depend on it absolutely to bring relief quickly from itching and irritation and to thoroughly heal the skin. Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment, 50 cents a box, at all dealers or Robinson, Eaton & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.

WOOD When you want a big load of Dry Wood, Hardwood, Soft Wood or Kindling, Try CITY FUEL CO. Telephone 668. Feel Well? Fall is the Time to Get Yourself in Shape. Our Quinine, Wine and Iron is the tonic, 50 cents. F. E. PORTER DRUGGIST, 303 UNION ST. WOMAN SUFFRAGE To the Editor of the Times: Sir—Some notes in the Globe on the above subject are worthy of attention generally, as the consensus of opinion by the editor is in favor of the right of women to vote where intelligence and education go hand in hand. Evidently the British mind is opposed to this, and the strong anti-female in the United States by the Boston female sex is also noted, followed up by the last expression on the theme by Cardinal Gibbons, a highly learned man, that it will lead to the destruction of a perfect home and happiness. This last though should be weighed most seriously, as if this should come about (and many cases to support the cardinal's view have already occurred), it will not be long, if given the power to vote, before chaos would reign, children would be neglected and forgotten by the absence of their mothers from home, husbands would have the double burden of cooking and over-seeing the proper household duties of a wife who, if she is a good wife, would have all it is possible for her to perform and keep her health and affections for her offspring and the education of their young minds in perfect order and condition. THE FINANCIAL SITUATION
(From the Toronto Globe of October 30.)
From quite within the bounds of probability that in the next half-dozen years we will hear of many applications to paralyse the common stock of which is now being profitably disposed.

With refreshing frankness the promoter of an Alberta oil company advertises that buying shares in his company is a pure speculation. The shares will be valuable if oil in sufficient quantities is found on the property near Edmonton upon which the oil is being sought. While we are not inclined to question the propriety of this statement, it is an interesting feature of the present oil situation that one of the first requisites of a prosperous oil company is to find an oil field.

WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB HEARS ADDRESS BY REV. DR. PRINGLE
Mrs. E. A. Smith presided at a largely attended meeting of the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon in Keith's assembly rooms, when Rev. Dr. Pringle, a member of the Ontario Western Heritage. The speaker first gave a vividly interesting sketch of the magnitude of the problem of the world's population, which he estimated at one billion. It will take many years, he said, for us to know anything about the resources of our land, because of the extent of the time consumed when the Hudson Bay would be opened up and the change of the trend of the whole commerce of the world. He referred to the early history of the Red River settlement, and told some stories of the inhabitants of Klondike. The original settlers went to the Yukon in 1897. The great gold strike in 1897. GANNET ROCK

Facts Which Will Effect Opinion in Recent Hestia Disaster—A Fearsome Place (St. Andrews Beacon)

Those people who are inclined to criticize the keeper of Gannet Rock light because more success was not extended from that quarter, know very little about the conditions. Gannet Rock is no winter resort, with bathing beach, casino, and life-saving station attached. It is just what its name implies—a lonely rock far out at sea, surrounded by a maelstrom of whirling eddies—bold, black, bleak, ugly—a place where in pre-light-house days gannets, and stormy petrels and other wild sea-fowl made their home. There is not an ounce of natural soil on it. Even in a calm it is a place to be avoided—when the tempest rages, and the breakers dash and roar and smash themselves against its steep sides, sending oceans of spray to the very dome of the light, it is a fearsome place.

One such night spent by one of these arm-chair critics within the walls of this light would make him a raving maniac. When a keeper is sent there his instructions are to remain on the rock, attending the light and signalling apparatus, and under no pretext to leave unless he is relieved. This is his duty, and when he attends to it faithfully, little more is required of him. Where he leaves the steamer, and for a few hours on a fine day, a sudden storm might arise and he would not be able to get back to his station.

If the keeper on the night of the wreck of the Hestia had felt it to be his duty to proceed to the succor of the shipwrecked crew he would certainly have perished before he got his boat launched. No power on earth could save him. He could scarcely put his nose outside the station door, when a storm is in progress, and with the spray dashing against the windows there is little he could see of either rocket or torch, or bonfire, if such were shown from the steamer. All that he can do is to keep his light burning clearly, and attend to his signalling apparatus, leaving the rest to Providence and to the vigilant mariner.

WEEPS FOR JOY AND SIGHT IS RESTORED

St. John, N. B., Nov. 21.—The sight of William Holloway was suddenly restored to him this week, following a brief spell of weeping. When Thomas Holloway, a son, who had not been home in a long time, came here to visit, the father turned his face on the son's shoulder and wept. Wiping away the tears, Mr. Holloway suddenly exclaimed: "I can see you, Tom." The light had returned to the eyes.

LORD'S DAY ALLIANCE

Rev. T. Albert Moore, general secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, delivered an interesting address last evening in the tenary church schoolroom, at the annual meeting of the provincial branch of the alliance. He pointed out the efficiency of the act and urged the members to work for its enforcement. A. H. Hanington presided.

STANDARD UNFAIR AND UNTRUTHFUL

Attempt to Drag Politics Into Premier Sale—The Facts of the Case Make Different Story

The Standard this morning published a ridiculous tissue of falsehoods in regard to the sale of the steamer "Premier," which has done ferry and passenger service upon the Kennebecasis between Rothesay and Reed's Point since September 1907.

In an attempt to strike a blow at Hon. William Pugsley the launching of the "Premier" was recalled by the Standard when Dr. Pugsley made a speech congratulating the people upon the prospect of better accommodation. In that speech Dr. Pugsley did not tell the people, as he might have, that he was the first stock subscriber and that he had in this way contributed $500 directly to the construction of the boat. Later, when the company was unable to sell all of its stock, Dr. Pugsley again came to its aid and lent the company $2500 which is still unpaid. Had the Standard's informant been anxious to state the facts, it might have had a different heading for its article and shown how Dr. Pugsley "was bitten."

In spite of this timely and generous assistance there was a floating debt upon the boat of about $1,000 which was increased by small deficits in 1907 and 1908. This year the subsidy was increased to $1,000 and while the receipts were not equal to the amount of 1908 in those of the Standard's statement that they exceeded both 1907 and 1908) the short season of four months and the fact that neither captain nor engineer possessed a certificate and the wages bill was cut in half, the steamer was able to pay its expenses with a very fair margin for A. R. Wetmore, the manager.

The present owner of the Premier states that there is no intention to take the steamer from the Kennebecasis service provided the people want it and the subsidy is continued. That, he said, is sufficient answer to the ridiculous statement that the Premier would be used as a tow boat for a dredge.

The statement originated, it is understood, among the disappointed group in Clifton who bid $1075 at the auction and then allowed Mr. Gilbert's bid of $1100 to close the sale. Up to this time there has never been any politics in the business of the Clifton S. S. Company. Both Liberals and Conservatives united to improve the transportation problem which made living on the banks of the Kennebecasis sometimes expensive and always inconvenient. They contributed their money and looked hopefully for some assistance from the provincial government, which will spend thousands to construct a steel bridge across a narrow stream and yet refuses even to assist in the initial expenses of constructing a steamer, which really bridges a river from one to three miles in width. Where a bridge is an impossibility.

PLANS READY FOR NEW HOTEL

Lumber Now Being Secured For Building at Beulah—A Great Transformation—Little City in the Country

Beulah Camp next summer will be the most attractive spot along the beautiful St. John river. It will have a new hotel with dining room accommodation for 200 guests, water and sewerage supply, fine avenues, an artificial lake and fountains, and everything to make life pleasant for the summer dwellers, apart altogether from the camp meetings which draw people thither in such large numbers.

The Reformed Baptist Alliance which has transformed this lovely place on the shore of the noble river, has now some ten or twelve acres of land, having made an additional purchase last summer. Improvements are being made to the grounds at a cost of about $2,000, under the direction of J. F. Bullock, who is constructing avenues, laying out an artificial lake that will be perhaps 150x500 feet, fed from living springs, with dam and driveway, rustic bridge and fountain, and in other ways beautifying the property.

From under the hillside half a mile away the water of a great boiling spring is brought to the house, which thus have not only the very best sanitary arrangement, but an abundant supply of the purest water. From this supply some five or six fountains on the grounds are fed, and there is force enough to give an excellent fire protection service. The public highway runs behind the camp-grounds, and the old road is now the private property of the alliance, which built the new one and now owns all the land from the highway to the shore.

Rev. S. A. Baker, of Woodstock, president, Rev. W. B. Wiggins, secretary, and Rev. H. C. Archer, of Calais, and Rev. G. B. Trafton of Mayville, members of the executive, met in St. John on Tuesday to discuss the new hotel, and yesterday Rev. Mr. Baker left with log and saws for the Narrows on Grand Lake, to bring the lumber, more than 100,000 feet, to Beulah. The foundation will be laid this fall and the hotel erected in the spring, to be ready for occupation on June 1.

The hotel will cost about $5,000. It will be 35,000 feet, with an ell 30x250 feet, and two stories high. There will be about thirty rooms for guests, and the dining room will seat 200 persons. The present hotel will be converted into dormitories, making thirty more rooms. Thus the accommodation for guests will be greatly increased. There will be a large refrigerator in the new hotel to preserve perishable food. The sanitary arrangements will equal those of a city hotel.

Mr. Bullock is bringing a very artistic piece of work of the lake. The soil from some low ground traversed by a brook is being removed to level up another portion. A dam will be built with a driveway on it, and a lake formed with a rustic bridge across it, and a fountain.

The avenues at Beulah are pretty well shaded, and are well lighted at night by lamps at corners. It is a city in miniature, with all the exclusion of the beautiful country.
