CLOSING OF NAVIGATION.

Some Information Likely to Prove In-teresting Just Now.

(Fredericton Herald.)

Now that the time is approaching when we will be looking for the closing of navigation on the St. John river, it is interesting to recall some facts in connection with this event of former years. The latest day for open water in the river was in 1829 when lee first formed on the night of Dec. 18th. Other late dates for navigation closing are Dec. 12th, in 1862, Dec. 10th in 1854 and Dec. 3th in 1875.

The earliest date on record for the closing of navigation is Nov. 5th, 1834. In 1837 the river froze over on Nov. 9. in 1863 on Nov. 6, in 1858 and 1873 on Nov. 11. Two years ago we awakened on the morning of Nov. 13 to behold a sheet of ice, that was safe for skating for the contractions of the contractions of the contractions of the same for the contraction of the contractions of the contracti

Reciprocity With Canada.

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—The Globe's Ot. awa despatch says it is understood when Hon, William Mulock returns to the capital negotiations will be opened with the government of the Australian commonwealth with a view to effecting, if possible, a treaty for reciprocal rade. When the postmaster general was in Australia at the opening of the commonwealth parliament he enjoyed the privilege of a preliminary chat with he premier of the newly federated colmies, and from what can be learned, fr. Barton is not indisposed to discuss the question of reciprocal trade relations with Canada. The subject has aln in abeyance since then, owing to the severe attack of rheumatism which or a time rendered Mr. Mulock almost an invalid, but now that the postmaster general is on the high-road to recovery it will not be long before the uestion of improved trade relations that the Australian commonwealth will gain be taken up and earnestly dealt with.

FRANCE TRIUMPHS.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—France has scored a complete triumph in the Turkish dispute. The foreign office this morning received advices announcing that the suitan had yielded to the entire domained formulated by the French government and only the question of form regarding the execution of the engagements remains to be settled. This may be done within the next 24 hours, or at the latest in two or three days. Then Admired Callard will retinquish the occupation of the Island of Mitylene. An official note was issued at 1 p. m., today to the effect that the porte has decided to yield to all the demands of France, and that as soon as the sultan had issued an irade ratifying the decision the French squadron will leave Mitylene.

RUSSIA'S AMBITION.

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 8.—Dr. C. N. James, M. A., has been appointed provost of the Western University here, succeeding R. W. Watkins, resigned. TORONTO, Nov. 8.—The provincial government has signified its willingness to co-operate with the City of Toronto in appealing the recent decision upholding the "scrap iron" assessment of the Street Railway Telephone and Electine Light company's plant. The coroner's jury in the case of Margaret Toner of Belleville, who died here as a result of a bicycle accident, found her death accidental, and that no blame could be attached to the bicyclist, Robert Pinkney.

THAT AWFUL FOG.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—According to the Paris correspondent of the Herald, on account of the fog it requires no stretch of imagination on the part of Parislans nowadays to mistake the French capital for London. The whole of France is practically in the same position. From all parts of the provinces come news of the fog and its inevitable drawbacks. Rallway traffic, suburban and provincial, is very seriously disorganized. No steamboots dare to venture forth on the scene. The tramways and on nibus lines maintain their service with the utmost difficulty. The ordinary routine of Paris offices and workshops is completely upset, as thousands of business men, clerks and employee are unable to report themselves for duty lift long after the appointed hour. The weather expert at the central meteorological bureau says that the fog is caused by sudden lowering of the moisture-lader atmosphere, when the soil is warmer than the layers of air above.

A RED HOT TIME.

SALEM, Mass., Nov. 8.—The council chamber and its approaches in the city hall here today presents a victure of defacement and destruction, seldom seen even after a disastrous fire or other serious experience. It is the result of the work of a mob that last night attended a special meeting of the board of aldermen to hear charges of violation of rules brought by Mayor John F. Hurley against City Marshal John W. Hart. The session began at 7 o'clock last evening and was not adjourned until after 4 o'clock this morning. During the sitting of the board some of the most discriberly scenes ever experienced in a city government meeting took place, ending with a destructive rush which practically wrecked the council chamber and its furnishings. The damage done will reach several thousand dollars. The defence will present its case next Monday

CONVICTS AT LARGE.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Nov. 8.—
Forty mounted guards are beating the country for a radius of five miles around the federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth today in search of the 26 convicts who succeeded in escaping from the guards late yesterday. The country is wild and rough and affords ample opportunity for escape, and as all of the convicts are desperate men and armed, conflicts will doubtless result before they are captured.

The net known result of the mutny and the following fight with the guards was one convict killed and four guards shot or otherwise hurt, but it is believed that many of the flesing convicts received wounds from the bullets sent after them by pursuing guards.

The dead: Quinn Fort, a desperate criminal from the Indian Territory, who is believed to have been the ringleader in the outbreak.

Wounded: Joseph Waldrupe, prison guard, shot in forehead and breast, condition critical; Arthur Treiford, captain of the guard, shot in leg; G. E. Burrows, guard, shot in neck, not serious, and Andrew Leonard, guard, leg broken.

It develops that the mutlny was Burrows, guard, shot in neck, not serious, and Andrew Leonard, guard, leg broken.

It develops that the mutiny was planned several months ago, but that the men had never found a favorable opportunity to carry it into effect until yesterday. The general plan was not new, but it proved effective because of the limited number of guards. As the better behaved prisoners are used in the outside work, the conspiracy was hatched among the men in the inside gangs. The convicts chose the most favorable moment of the day, while many of the guards acting as foremen of construction of the new works were unarmed. Since last night the old proof has presented an air of activity that it has not known for, years. As soon as the alarm was given guards were od plainsmen. The escaped convicts were counted the most desperate criminals in the southwest and the guards were old plainsmen. The escaped convicts were started out from the penifentiary. It is believed that all the convicts ultimately will be captured if not overtaken by the guards and shot. Each prisoner has undergone an examination under the Bertillon system, and today these descriptions were mailed to every chief of police in the country. Warden McClaughey was in Kansas City when the mutiny broke out, arranging for the annual convention of the National Prison Reform Association, which is to convene there tomorrow. He arrived home at the prison about three hours later, and immediately set to work to recapture the cenvicts.

SWITCHMEN ON STRIKE.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 8.—Advices received by Grand Master F. E. Hawley of the Switchmen's Union of America, who is in charge of the strike on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, called into effect late yesterday, indicate that the strike order has been obeyed by every switchman employed on the Rio Grande system, numbering 235 men. General Manager Herbert of the Denver and Rio Grande, stated that the strike of the switchmen would not interfere with the company's business and that no man involved in this strike would be re-employed.

ST. JOHN STAR.

JOHN, N. B. NOVEMBER 8, 190

John people, who declare that the pressis making too much of the epidemic So far as the Star is concerned, it is felt that the truth should be told—and felt that the truth should be told—and no more. The name of every small-pox patient has been published in the Star as soon as the case was declared by the physicians. All the facts in possession of the hospital authorities and board of health officials have been given freely to the newspapers, in order that the public might know from day to day exactly what progress the disease had made. Each case, as soon as determined, has been removed to the epidemic hospital. The two or three houses where, cases developed, from which and the hospital all the cases have come, are under strict quarantine. A general vaccination was ordered have come, are under strict quarantine. A general vaccination was ordered some days ago, and is now in progress. The vigilance of the officials and the intelligent co-operation of the citizens have allayed all fears of a general have allayed all fears of a general epidemic. Doubtless further cases will develop in the hospital, and possibly in the quarantined houses. It may be that some will develop where there are none now, but there is no occasion for ticle of ground for the statement made in Fredericton that the whole truth had not been told. Today's Star states the case in full, and shows that the disease is not scattered about the city but confined to a very limited area utside the hospital.

THE WINTER OUTLOOK.

is now on the way here from Liverpool The freight for her is on the way from he west. In a few weeks we will have winter export trade. There has been no dead lock to prevent the making of contracts, and the Canadian Pacific company has taken great pains to company has taken great pains to make the western shippers acquainted with the extent of the improvements being made at Sand Point, and the facility with which grain, live stock and general merchandize can be shipped from St. John. The loading and discharging of steamers, if expectations are fulfilled, will give more employment to laborers than in any previous ment to laborers than in any previous winter. If this be so, and the cotton is are set in operation, St. John will enjoy a more prosperous winter than that of a year ago, and the Associated Charities and kindred organizations, though always needed, will be less formidable than under less favorable industrial conditions.

A GRAVE PROBLEM.

on the "underfed world" are quoted in today's Star, made a speech in Boston on a recent Sunday in which he said:—"The American family is undergoing dissolution owing to the industrial conditions. The workingman cannot afford to own a home, occause he is, not sure of steady work, or because the mill or factory may shut down, sending him to look for work elsewhere."

For the last two years Mr. McNutt, foress and Carriages on Hire; Fine Fit-outs t short notice.

A large back-board wagon, seats fitteen to working people, to let, with or without horses.

For the last two years Mr. McNutt, in order to get at the facts, has lived as, a workingman, with workingmen. as a workingman, with workingmen, in Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvan-la, Maryland and New York. He tells a pathetic story of the conditions that exist, and declares that the workingmen are denied their rights. What he says concerning the relation between the home of the mechanic and the current industrial conditions is doubtless in a measure true, yet it would be unfair to lay all the blams at the door of the manufacturers. The shutting down of factories is more frequently due to strikes than any other cause, and unless the ground be taken that the employers are always wrong and the men always right, the blame would not all cest on the former. It would be more fair to assume that there is fault on both sides, and that while present industrial conditions are unsatisfactory the problem to be solved camnot be overcome by either party without the problem to be solved camnot be overcome by either party without the tasking of the other. Nevertheless, the work of Mr. McNutt in directing attention to specific cases of bardship said injustice should bear good fruit.

br. Joshiah Strong had told the speaker that he had picked out a dozen of the worst youngsters in Elmira reformatory to experiment with in the same fashion. First he parbolled them every day for weeks in a Turkish beth to get out the dirt and original depravity of which their systems were full; then he began treating them to a systematic feeding, which supplied them with abundant nourishment for growth. At the same time he provided a good environment.

At the same time he provided a good environment.

"In less than a year, Dr. Strong told me," the speaker went on, "eight of these incorrigible lads occupied good positions in Elmira."

Mr. McNutt also traces a connection between underfed and divorce.
"Between the years 1876 and 1889," he said, "covering two periods of financial depression, the increase in divorces in Philadelphia was 56 per cent. and in Pittsburg 202 per cent. Now, Pittsburg is the world's workshop, a camp of industrial concentration. When hard times come the Pittsburg worksman was thrown out of employment and left his family that he might loo's elsewhere for work. Day after day he walked the streets searching for employment, and day after day he met with nothing but disappointment. He hadn't the money to buy proper food and pretty soon he began to have a craving that he couldn't satisfy except by drink. So he began to drink and soon, discouraged and lacking proper nourishment, he was in the gutter. Then his wife in Pittsburg got a divorce.

"You see the direct connection?" If "You see the direct connection? If the man had had proper food he probably would have kept straight until he got a job, and the divorce would never have resulted.

"It is possible for a man to be stuffed full of food and yet be starving to death all the white. The white breaf, which we insist shall be like a white shirt front, taking out of the nour all the nourishment the Almighty put into it, is not food. If a man tries to live on it he will be conscious ston of an abnormal craving which he can't satisfy. If he tries it long he would starve,

"There is a mighty close connection between the American kitchen and the American saloon. Food is what makes the man, yet we put the most ignorant woman we can find into the kitchen to prepare the food that keeps us going. I hope to see the day when we shall devote more money to cookling lessons than to plano lessons."

Later French Period Discussed Rev. W. O. Raymond.

The second of his lectures on the early French period in the history of New Branswick was given in Stone church school house by Rev. W. O. Raymond last night before a large attendance. In the beginning he spoke of the condition of the French settlers in Acadie under Henri IV. and Louis XIII., who fostered immigration by grants of land. Other grants were at the same time given by the Bardish

The establishment of the French seigneuries between 1858 and 1857 was then spoken of and their effects discussed, followed by a description of the subsequent bloody Indian wars. The expulsion of the Acadians was referred to as a harsh and lamentable measure. Considering the spirit of the times, the action of the English was no doubt necessary, but the manner in which it was carried out was unnecessarily severe, although John Winslow, who conducted the expulsion, apparently suffered no compunctions regarding the harshness of his measures. In closing an account was given of the prolonged fighting that waged about Fort Beausejour before its final capture.

As a guide to the history of that interesting period Mr. Raymond recommended Dr. Hannay's History of Acadia, Murdoch's History of Nova Scotia and two books of Prof. Ganong, who is better acquainted with this province than anyone else, would yet write its complete history.

The next lecture in this course will deal with the English settlements in New Brunswick before the landing of the Loyalists.

LI HUNG CHANG

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 .- The personal ity of Li Hung Chang, says the Berlin correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, had long ceased o excite any interest in Germany. The public and the official world had disovered that they had been his dupes at the time of his visit in 1896. Beat the time of his visit in 1896. Because of his title of viceroy, Earl Li was treated with almost royal honors in Germany, which probably astonished the witty old mandarin himself. His hosts hoped that on his return to China he would secure large crders for ambitious German manufacturers.

The Nuuanu is the first of a fleet of sugar-laden sailing vessels bound from the Hawailan islands to Philadelphia and New York, which it is said are to replace steamers which have found the trade unprofitable owing to the long run.

THE FIRE RECORD.

BRADFORD, Pa., Nov. 8.—One of the worst fires in the history of this city occurred this morning. It originated in the livery stable of F. P. Beamer and consumed a dosen buildings including the $35,000 city hall. Thirty-seven horses in one livery stable persished in the flames, and the $10,000 library of Brown and Schoonmaker, city attorneys, was totally destroyed, together with valuable maps. The fire burned buildings on Kennedy and Boyleston street and Patent avenue. The issue is estimated at $150,000.

CALIFORNIA FRUIT SYNDICATE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.-Acc ng to the Chronicle a deal is about to be consummated by which all the leading fruit canning establishments outside of the California Fruit Canners' Association will pass into the hands of an eastern syndicate. The combined espacity of the plants to be included in the proposed deal, it is sald, will equal that of the existing combine. The annual output will be not less than 1,500,000 cases or 35,000 cans. It is understood from reliable authority that nearly all of the twenty and odd outside canners have siven options to a firm of attorneys and that the new company will soon be incorporated under the laws of New Jersey with a capital of 35,000,000. The names of the capitals are not given.

M. Santos-Dumont made a trial of his first steerable balloon in September. 1898, when he proved the possibility of steering an airship. Further tests and trials have been intermittent during the last 18 months at Nice and in Paris. For the Deutsch prize eight aeronauts were announced to be in competition with M. Santos-Dumont, namely, M.M. Tatin, Roze, Ader, Captain Remard, Baron Bradsky, Don Sarliate, Marquis de Dion and M. Deutsch himself. Of these only M. Rose has so far attempted the course, but without success. On three occasions, in his attempts for the prize, July 13, Aug. 8 and Sept. 19, M. Santos-Dumont narrowly escaped disaster from his balloon oning driven against trees or high buildings. M. Santos-Dumont is 28 years old. He was born at Rio de "coffee king" of San Paulo. He is of French descent on his father's estate railways and became a clever mechanician. It is indeastood now that if the prize te awarded Santos-Dumont he will try to cross the Mediterranean.

How pairry assen the 5,000 killed and wounded in the war of 1812, or the war in Mexico, or the war with Spain, compared with the 14,000 at Shilon, 15,000 at the Chickahominy, 13,000 at Antietom, the same at Fredericksburg, 15,000 at Chancellorsville, 23,000 at Gets tysburg, 16,00 at Chickamauga, 37,000 in the Wilderness, and 25,000 at Spottsylvania! The grand aggregate of destruction fairly staggers the imagination, accustomed as we have been for more than a generation to the figures—83,000 killed by bullets, 185,000 killed by disease, 25,000 dead from other causes—a grand total of 304,006, about one in nine of every man who were the uniforms.

Immediately after its close the secretary of was was directed by congress "to secure suitable burial places, and to have these grounds inclosed, so that resting places of the honored dead may be kept sacred forever." In 79 separate and distinct national cemeteries, the bodies of nearly 360,000 soldiers who died during the civil war are intered, and the decoration of their staves with flowers on a fixed day has become a national custom. Shout of a Monsier Cetacean.

GLOUCESTER, Nov. 6.— Charles Decker, one of the crew of the schooner Maxine Elliott of this port, had a novel experience while on the fishing banks the last voyage.

He was at anchor fishing when to his surprise his dory began to move through the water at an alarming rate of speed. He was somewhat surprised at his unexpected ride and at a loss to account for ft. His doubts were dispelled after several minutes of fast dory racing when a huge whale came to the surface and blowed. In the since of the whale was the anchor to which the dory cable was attached.

A despatch from Slocan City, British Columbia, announces the death there on Wednesday, 6th inst., of Legh R. Harrison, formerly a well-known resident and leading barrister of St. John. Mr. Harrison was admitted a member of the New Brunswick bar in 1869, and was sworn in a barrister the year following. Mr. Harrison was a man of marked ability and of kindly, genial disposition, who numbered his St. John friends by hundreds. His widow, a sister of W. H. Thorne, and three children, one daughter and two sons, reside here. The body will be brought to St. John for interment.

MARSHALL AUSTIN INJURED. Between ten and eleven o'clock this Between ten and eleven o'clock this forenoon Marshall Austin, of Indiantown, had his hand severely injured. He was engaged in putting up the ortside windows on his house when a carpenter, whom he had employed and who was working upon a ladder, accidentally let fall the window which he was handling. Mr. Austin endeavored to catch the window as it fell, but was struck on the hand. His left thumb was very badly cut at the base and other parts of the hand bruised. Dr. Roberts removed some of the torn flesh and put a number of stitches in the wound.

THE TURKISH BATHS.

Valuable Institution Now in Full Op-eration in St. John. As good a Turkish bath can now be not in St. John as in Montreal or New York. A. H. Bell has done all that he cromised to do, and the baths on Haen avenue are being largely patronzed. In all the essentials of facilities and attendance there is nothing lacking.

A Star man went up early last evening, and took the course, which included dry heat, steam bath, massage and shampoo, shower bath, plunge bath and swim, and an hour of rare comfort and rest after the bath, on a cot in a small furnished room. Two well known business who were there at the same time, and one of them said the baths and attendance were quite as good as he had ever got in the larger Turkish baths in New York. Medical men are among the patrons of the baths, and express themselves highly pleased with the equipment. In the hot room the thermometer registered 152 when the Star man went in last evening. The shower bath is one of the very best. The plunge bath is are enough and deep enough for the bather to disport himself at will. The attendants are men of skill and experience. The Star has great pleasure in commending these baths to citizens of St. John and to visitors to the city. When the royal party were here some gentlemen in the duke's suite took the baths are open all night. It is Mr. Bell's intention to secure the services of a skilled woman, so that the baths may be made available during part of the day for ladies. the day for ladies.

A CHURCH AT HOME.

A CHURCH AT HOME.

A very successful at home was held in the lecture room of St. David's church last evening under the direction of the trustees board, James Seaton, chairman of the trustees, presided. During the evening a very interesting programme was carried out. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Seaton and Rev. Dr. J. A. Morison; songs were sung by A. C. Ritchie, Miss Munroe and S. J. McGowan. Miss Baillie a reading. Refreshments were served at the close and the meeting closed with the benediction by the pastor. The at home was held for the purpose of raising funds to pay for the cleaning of the church a short time ago. The contributions were voluntary by envelope and a very considerable amount was realized.

GOING ABROAD FOR POTATOES.

(New York Commercial.) The potato crop of this country is almost a complete failure this year, and our produce dealers will have to look abroad for their stocks. The importation of potatoes has already beportation of potatoes has already be-gun, large cargoes having reached here from Helland and Germany. Experts believe that large importations will have to come from Europe before win-ter closes. Precisely how bad the Am-erican crop will be, cannot be abso-lutely known for several weeks, but the last government crop report esti-mated it at 58 per cent. of the ordin-ary crop. It is not only poor in quan-tity, but it is poor in quality.
