

LIFE SENTENCE FOR MONACELLI

Jury Declare Slayer of Nicholas Lagamy To Be Guilty of Manslaughter at Woodstock. Sufficient Evidence For a Verdict of Manslaughter Declares Judge in Passing Sentence.

Special to The Standard. Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 21.—After about an hour and twenty minutes deliberation this afternoon, the jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter against Monacelli, the Italian, charged with the shooting of Nicholas Lagamy. The prisoner was sentenced to life imprisonment in the penitentiary.

When the court reopened this afternoon the jury after a short address from His Honor, retired to the jury room. There they elected Edward London foreman, and after one hour and twenty-two minutes' consultation, brought in a verdict of manslaughter. Mr. Ketchum, counsel for the prisoner, Sheriff Thompkins, Deputy Sheriff Armstrong and other officials seemed pleased with the verdict. Demerchaut, strong will likely take the prisoner to Dorchester tomorrow.

His Honor on hearing the verdict said: Thank you, gentlemen for your attendance. You are now dismissed until the first Tuesday in December when this court will finish the business on the docket.

Solicitor General McLeod—I move for sentence at once, as I wish to leave town today. I would also ask that a bench warrant be issued against Albert Demerchaut, for failure to obey a subpoena issued for this trial.

His Honor ordered that a bench warrant be issued for Demerchaut at the next court.

After having been informed that Monacelli could understand English if spoken slowly, his honor said: "Well, Sandy, you have been charged with a very serious offence. You have had fair trials before the magistrates and now in this court. We have spent some time over your case. Twelve men have found you guilty of manslaughter. Evidence has been brought forward which shows that you did it. It is right that you should be severely punished. Why did you want a revolver in your pocket with five chambers loaded? Why should you have that revolver out of your pocket at the slightest provocation and kill a fellow man? If you felt that you were in danger you should have tried to escape from the place where you did it. You committed the deed. I do not like to see you punished.

No man would like better to see you a free man than I. Mr. Gault calls upon me to pronounce the sentence that you are to be imprisoned in the Dorchester Penitentiary for life. If you are a good boy and behave well and your friends can convince the government that your sentence should be shortened I will do nothing to oppose the shortening of the sentence. It will be a lesson to you and other foreigners that you must not take life.

Royal Edward Institute At Montreal Opened By His Majesty Three Thousand Miles Away. Special to The Standard. Montreal, Oct. 21.—A slight click of the whir of an electric motor, the spectacle of door opening of their own accord, and of the Royal standard slowly unfurling itself from a flag staff surmounting a triangular openwork iron structure, and the sound of short sharp words of command as the guard of honor of the first regiment Prince of Wales Fusiliers presented arms and their regimental band played the National Anthem, were the immediate and obvious features signaling that His Majesty King Edward the VII, three thousand miles away in the library of West Dean Park, Chichester had pushed into position the switch which sent across the rolling Atlantic an electric current officially opening the new Royal Edward Institute this morning.

POLICE CLAIM NOW TO HAVE IDENTIFIED BODY

Unofficially Reported That Dis-membered Body Found Recently Near Tiverton Can Be Identified Without Head. Fall River, Mass., Oct. 21.—A second autopsy upon the mangled body minus the head which was picked up in portions of Tiverton, R. I., last week, was held in a local undertaking shop by Massachusetts authorities today. At its conclusion, after four and one-half hours of examination, the participating physicians would give out no statement. The result of the autopsy, it was said, will be turned over to District Attorney James T. Swift. The autopsy was in charge of Medical Examiner Thomas F. Gunnung of this city, assisted by Medical Examiner George B. McGrath, of Boston, Dr. John W. Coughlan, of Fall River, and Medical Examiner E. P. Stinson, of Tiverton. Medical Examiner Stinson, president of the first inquest which was held in his garage at Tiverton, last week. It was admittedly hasty and the Massachusetts officers since the case was decided to be within their jurisdiction, sought a more thorough understanding of the condition of the body. Unofficially, it was rumored that the physicians believed identification of the body as that of Amelia St. Jean probable, even without the head. This is more than the police have dared to hope for and will give them their definite basis to work on. Otherwise they could not have pushed their case against "Prof. Frank Hill, as they are without proof of the identity of the missing girl aside from the clothes discovered at a considerable distance away from the place the body was found and which have been positively identified as those of Miss St. Jean.
